

Genesis

1 In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. ² Now the earth was a formless void, and darkness covered the surface of the deep, while the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters. ³ And God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. ⁴ God saw that the light was good, and He distinguished the light from the darkness. ⁵ God named the light “day,” and the darkness He named “night.” And there was evening, and there was morning—the first day. ⁶ Then God said, “Let there be an expanse between the waters to separate water from water.” ⁷ So God made the expanse and separated the waters beneath it from the waters above it. And it was so. ⁸ God called the expanse “sky.” And there was evening, and there was morning—the second day. ⁹ And God said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered to one place, and let dry ground appear.” And it was so.

¹⁰ God named the dry ground “land,” and the gathered waters He named “seas.” And God saw that it was good. ¹¹ Then God said, “Let the land produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and trees on the land that bear fruit with seed in it, each according to its kind.” And it was so. ¹² The land brought forth vegetation: plants bearing seed according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good. ¹³ And so, with evening and morning, there concluded the third day.

¹⁴ And God said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them serve as signs to mark sacred times, and for days and years, ¹⁵ and let them be lights in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth.” And it was so. ¹⁶ God fashioned two great lights—the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night. He also made the stars. ¹⁷ God set them in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth, ¹⁸ to govern the day and the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. ¹⁹ And so, with evening and morning, there concluded the fourth day. ²⁰ And God said, “Let the waters teem with living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the sky.” ²¹ So God created the great sea creatures and every living thing with which the waters teem and that moves about in it, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. ²² God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth.” ²³ And so, with evening and morning, there concluded the fifth day. ²⁴ And God said, “Let the land bring forth living creatures according to their kinds: the livestock, the creatures that move along the ground, and the wild animals, each according to its kind.” And it was so. ²⁵ God made the wild animals according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and the creatures that move along the ground according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good. ²⁶ Then God said, “Let us make mankind in our image, in our likeness, so that they may have dominion over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky, over the livestock and all the wild animals, and over all the creatures that move along the ground.”

²⁷ So God fashioned mankind in His own image, in the image of God He created them; male and female He created them.

²⁸ God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky and over every living creature that moves on the ground.” ²⁹ Then God said, “I provide you with every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food. ³⁰ And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds in the sky and all the creatures that move along the ground—everything that has the breath of life in it—I provide every green plant for food.” And it was so. ³¹ God saw all that He had made, and it was exceedingly good. Thus concluded the sixth day, with evening and morning.

2 Thus the heavens and the earth were completed, along with all their array of lights. ² By the seventh day, God had completed His work which He had been doing; so He rested on the seventh day from all His work. ³ Then God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it He rested from all the work of creation He had accomplished. ⁴ These are the accounts of the heavens and the earth as they were created, at the time when the Lord God made the earth and the heavens. ⁵ Now no shrub of the field had yet appeared on the earth, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the Lord God had not sent rain upon the earth, and there was no one to work the ground. ⁶ But a fog would rise from the earth and water the entire surface of the ground. ⁷ Then the Lord God shaped a man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living soul. ⁸ The Lord God planted a garden in the east, in Eden; and there He placed the man He had formed. ⁹ Out of the ground, the Lord God caused every tree to grow that is pleasing to the eye and good for food. In the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. ¹⁰ A river flowed out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it divided and became four headwaters. ¹¹ The name of the first is Pishon; it winds through the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold. ¹² The gold of that land is good; aromatic resin and onyx are also found there. ¹³ The name of the second river is Gihon; it flows through the whole land of Cush. ¹⁴ The name of the third river is Tigris; it runs east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates. ¹⁵ The Lord God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to cultivate it and keep it. ¹⁶ And the Lord God commanded the man, "You may freely eat from any tree in the garden; ¹⁷ but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat from it you will surely die." ¹⁸ The Lord God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a companion suitable for him." ¹⁹ Now the Lord God had formed out of the ground all the wild animals and all the birds in the sky. He brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. ²⁰ So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds in the sky, and all the wild animals. However, for Adam, no fitting companion was found. ²¹ So the Lord God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, He took one of the man's ribs and closed up the place with flesh. ²² Then the Lord God fashioned a woman from the rib He had taken out of the man, and brought her to the man. ²³ The man said, "Here, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called 'woman,' because she was taken out of man." ²⁴ For this reason, a man shall leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they shall become one flesh. ²⁵ The man and his wife were both naked, but they felt no shame.

Genesis

3 Now the serpent was more cunning than any of the wild animals that the Lord God had made.

He said to the woman, "Did God indeed say, 'You shall not eat from any tree in the garden?'" ² The woman replied to the serpent, "We may eat the fruit from the trees in the garden, ³ but God did say, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the centre of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.'" ⁴ The serpent said to the woman, "You will certainly not die! ⁵ God knows that if you eat from it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, understanding good and evil." ⁶ When the woman saw that the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some of its fruit and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. ⁷ Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realised they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves coverings. ⁸ Then they heard the Lord God moving in the garden during the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. ⁹ The Lord God called out to the man, asking, "Where are you?" ¹⁰ He replied, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid myself." ¹¹ And He said, "Who said to you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree from which I commanded you not to eat?" ¹² The man said, "The woman you placed with me —she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it." ¹³ Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What have you done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate." ¹⁴ So the Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you above all livestock and all wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and eat dust all the days of your life. ¹⁵ And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel." ¹⁶ To the woman He said, "I will greatly increase your pain in childbirth; with painful labour you will give birth to children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you." ¹⁷ To Adam He said, "Because you listened to your wife and ate fruit from the tree about which I commanded you, 'You shall not eat from it,' cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat food from it all the days of your life. ¹⁸ It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you shall eat the plants of the field. ¹⁹ By the sweat of your brow you will eat your food until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken; for you are dust, and to dust you shall return.” ²⁰ The man called his wife Eve, because she was the mother of all the living. ²¹ The Lord God fashioned garments of skin for Adam and his wife and clothed them. ²² And the Lord God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of Us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life, and eat, and live forever.” ²³ Therefore the Lord God sent him out of the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken. ²⁴ So He drove the man out; and at the east of the Garden of Eden He placed cherubim and a flaming sword that turned every direction to guard the way to the tree of life.

Genesis

4 Adam was intimate with his wife Eve, and she conceived and gave birth to Cain. She said, “With the help of the Lord, I have acquired a man.” ² Later, she gave birth to Cain’s brother Abel. Abel was a shepherd, while Cain was a tiller of the soil. ³ In time, Cain brought some of the produce of the land as an offering to the Lord. ⁴ Abel also brought an offering—fat portions from the firstborn of his flock. The Lord looked favourably upon Abel and his offering, ⁵ but He did not regard Cain and his offering. Cain became very angry, and his face fell. ⁶ The Lord asked Cain, “Why are you angry? Why is your face downcast? ⁷ If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at your door; it desires to have you, but you must master it.” ⁸ Cain spoke to his brother Abel. While they were in the field, Cain rose up against Abel and killed him. ⁹ Then the Lord said to Cain, “Where is your brother Abel?” He replied, “I do not know. Am I my brother’s keeper?” ¹⁰ The Lord said, “What have you done? Your brother’s blood cries out to me from the ground. ¹¹ As a result, you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand. ¹² When you work the ground, it will no longer yield its strength to you. You will be a wanderer and a drifter on the earth.” ¹³ Cain said to the Lord, “This punishment is more than I can bear! ¹⁴ Today you have driven me from the land, and I will be hidden from your presence; I will be a wanderer and a drifter on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me.” ¹⁵ But the Lord said to him, “Not so; whoever kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times over.”

And the Lord placed a mark on Cain so that no one who found him would kill him. ¹⁶ Cain departed from the presence of the Lord and settled in the land of Nod, east of Eden. ¹⁷ Cain was intimate with his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to Enoch. Cain was building a city, and he named it after his son Enoch. ¹⁸ Enoch became the father of Irad, and Irad fathered Mehujael, and Mehujael fathered Methushael, and Methushael fathered Lamech. ¹⁹ Lamech took two wives: one named Adah and the other Zillah. ²⁰ Adah gave birth to Jabal; his line became those who live in tents and raise livestock. ²¹ His brother’s name was Jubal; his line became those who play stringed instruments and pipes. ²² Zillah also gave birth to Tubal-Cain, who forged all kinds of tools out of bronze and iron. Tubal-Cain’s sister was Naamah. ²³ Lamech said to his wives, “Adah and Zillah, listen to me; wives of Lamech, hear my words. I have killed a man for wounding me, a young man for striking me. ²⁴ If Cain is avenged seven times, then Lamech will be avenged seventy-seven times.” ²⁵ Adam was intimate with his wife again, and she gave birth to a son and named him Seth, saying, “God has granted me another child in place of Abel, since Cain killed him.” ²⁶ Seth also had a son, and he named him Enosh. At that time, people began to call upon the name of the Lord.

5 This is the record of the generations of Adam. On the day God created mankind, He made them in the likeness of God. ² He created them male and female, and blessed them. He named them “Mankind” on the day they were created. ³ When Adam had lived 130 years, he fathered a son in his own likeness, in his own image, and named him Seth. ⁴ After Seth was born, Adam lived for 800 years and had other sons and daughters. ⁵ So all the days that Adam lived were 930 years, and then he died. ⁶ When Seth reached 105 years, he fathered Enosh. ⁷ Following the birth of Enosh, Seth lived 807 years and had other sons and daughters. ⁸ So all the days of Seth were 912 years, and then he died. ⁹ When Enosh reached 90 years, he fathered Kenan. ¹⁰ Following the birth of Kenan, Enosh lived 815 years and had other sons and daughters. ¹¹ So all the days of Enosh were 905 years, and then he died. ¹² When Kenan reached 70 years, he fathered Mahalalel. ¹³ Following the birth of Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years and had other sons and daughters. ¹⁴ So all the days of Kenan were 910 years, and then he died.

Genesis

¹⁵ When Mahalalel reached 65 years, he fathered Jared. ¹⁶ Following the birth of Jared, Mahalalel lived 830 years and had other sons and daughters. ¹⁷ So all the days of Mahalalel were 895 years, and then he died. ¹⁸ When Jared reached 162 years, he fathered Enoch. ¹⁹ Following the birth of Enoch, Jared lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters. ²⁰ So all the days of Jared were 962 years, and then he died. ²¹ When Enoch reached 65 years, he fathered Methuselah. ²² After he became the father of Methuselah, Enoch walked closely with God for 300 years and had other sons and daughters. ²³ Thus, Enoch's total lifespan was 365 years. ²⁴ Enoch walked with God; and he was no more, for God took him. ²⁵ When Methuselah reached 187 years, he fathered Lamech. ²⁶ Following the birth of Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years and had other sons and daughters. ²⁷ So all the days of Methuselah were 969 years, and then he died. ²⁸ When Lamech reached 182 years, he fathered a son. ²⁹ He named him Noah, saying, "He will comfort us in our work and the toil of our hands caused by the ground the Lord has cursed." ³⁰ Lamech lived 595 years after Noah was born and had other sons and daughters. ³¹ So all the days of Lamech were 777 years, and then he died. ³² After Noah was 500 years old, he fathered Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

6 When mankind began to multiply on the surface of the earth, they had daughters born to them, ² the sons of God saw that the daughters of mankind were beautiful, so they took as wives any they chose. ³ Then the Lord declared, "My Spirit shall not strive with humans indefinitely, for they are flesh; their lifespan shall be 120 years." ⁴ The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterwards, when the sons of God went to the daughters of humans and had children by them. These were the mighty men of old, men of renown. ⁵ The Lord saw that the wickedness of mankind was great on the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of their hearts was only evil continually. ⁶ The Lord regretted that He had made mankind on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. ⁷ So the Lord said, "I will wipe out mankind whom I have created from the face of the earth, along with the animals, the birds, and the creatures that move on the ground, for I regret that I have made them." ⁸ However, Noah was favoured by the Lord. ⁹ This is the account of

Noah and his family. Noah was a righteous man, blameless among his contemporaries, and he walked with God. ¹⁰ Noah was the father of three sons, named Shem, Ham, and Japheth. ¹¹ Now the earth was corrupt in God's sight and filled with violence. ¹² God looked upon the earth and saw that it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth. ¹³ Then God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them; behold, I am about to destroy them along with the earth. ¹⁴ Make yourself an ark of gopher wood; create compartments in the ark and coat it with pitch inside and out. ¹⁵ This is how you are to construct it: the ark is to be three hundred cubits long, fifty cubits wide, and thirty cubits high. ¹⁶ Construct a roof for the ark, finishing it to a cubit from the top; place a door on the side of the ark, and make lower, middle, and upper decks. ¹⁷ Behold, I am bringing floodwaters upon the earth to destroy all flesh in which there is the breath of life under heaven; everything on the earth shall perish. ¹⁸ Yet, I will establish My covenant with you, and you shall enter the ark—you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. ¹⁹ You are to bring into the ark two of every kind of living creature, male and female, to keep them alive with you. ²⁰ Of the birds according to their kinds, of the animals according to their kinds, and of every creature that moves along the ground according to its kind, two of every kind will come to you to be kept alive. ²¹ You are to take every kind of food that is to be eaten and store it away as provisions for you and for them." ²² Noah carried out everything just as God commanded.

7 Then the Lord said to Noah, "Enter the ark, you and your entire household, for you alone have I found righteous in this generation before Me. ² Take with you seven pairs of every kind of clean animal, a male and its female; and one pair of every kind of unclean animal, a male and its female; ³ and also seven pairs of every kind of bird, male and female, to keep their offspring alive across the face of the earth. ⁴ For in seven days, I will send rain upon the earth for forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe from the face of the land every living thing that I have made." ⁵ And Noah did everything instructed by the Lord. ⁶ Noah was six hundred years old when the floodwaters began to cover the earth. ⁷ And Noah and his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives went with him into the ark to escape the waters of the flood.⁸ Pairs of both clean and unclean animals, along with birds and all creatures that move along the ground,⁹ came to Noah and entered the ark, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.¹⁰ And it came to pass after seven days that the waters of the flood came upon the earth.¹¹ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, on the seventeenth day of the second month, on that day all the springs of the great deep burst forth, and the floodgates of the sky were opened.¹² And rain poured down upon the earth for forty days and forty nights.¹³ On that very day, Noah, with his sons Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons, entered the ark.¹⁴ They had with them every wild animal according to its kind, all livestock according to their kinds, every creature that moves along the ground according to its kind, and every bird according to its kind, every winged creature.¹⁵ Pairs of all creatures that possessed the breath of life came to Noah and entered the ark.¹⁶ Those that entered, male and female of all living things, went in as God had commanded him; and the Lord shut him in.¹⁷ For forty days the flood came upon the earth, and as the waters increased, they lifted the ark high above the earth.¹⁸ The waters rose and increased greatly upon the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the waters.¹⁹ The waters prevailed greatly upon the earth, and all the high mountains under the entire heavens were covered.²⁰ The waters rose and submerged the mountains to a depth of more than fifteen cubits.²¹ Every living thing that moved on the earth perished—birds, livestock, wild animals, all the creatures that swarm over the earth, and all mankind.²² All life on dry land that had the breath of life in its nostrils died.²³ Every living thing on the face of the earth was wiped out; people and animals and the creatures that move along the ground and the birds of the sky were wiped from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those with him in the ark.²⁴ The waters prevailed upon the earth for one hundred and fifty days.

Genesis

8 But God remembered Noah and all the animals and livestock that were with him in the ark, and He sent a wind across the earth, causing the waters to subside.² The fountains of the deep and the floodgates of the heavens were closed, and the rain from the sky was restrained.³ The waters receded steadily from the earth, and by the end of one hundred and fifty days, the waters had decreased.⁴ On the seventeenth day of the seventh month, the ark settled on the mountains of Ararat.⁵ The waters continued to decrease until the tenth month, and on the first day of the tenth month, the tops of the mountains became visible.⁶ After forty days, Noah opened the window of the ark he had constructed.⁷ He sent out a raven, and it flew back and forth until the waters had dried up from the earth.⁸ Then he sent out a dove to determine if the waters had receded from the surface of the ground.⁹ But the dove found no place to rest its foot, so it returned to him in the ark, for the waters were still over the surface of the earth. He reached out his hand, took the dove, and brought it back into the ark.¹⁰ He waited another seven days and sent the dove out from the ark once more.¹¹ The dove returned to him in the evening, and there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth.¹² He waited yet another seven days and sent the dove out again, but it did not return to him.¹³ In the six hundred and first year, on the first day of the first month, the waters had dried up from the earth. Noah removed the covering of the ark and saw that the surface of the ground was dry.¹⁴ By the twenty-seventh day of the second month, the earth was thoroughly dry.¹⁵ God then spoke to Noah, saying,¹⁶ "Leave the ark, you and your wife, your sons, and your sons' wives with you.¹⁷ Bring out every living creature that is with you—the birds, the animals, and every creature that moves on the ground—so they may breed abundantly on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply."¹⁸ Thus, Noah departed with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives.¹⁹ Every animal, every crawling creature, and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out of the ark, one kind after another.²⁰ Then Noah built an altar to the Lord and took some of every clean animal and bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.²¹ The Lord smelled the pleasing aroma and said to Himself, "Never again will I curse the ground because of humans, even though every inclination of the human heart is evil from youth. Nor will I ever again destroy every living creature as I have done."²² For while the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will not cease."

9 God blessed Noah and his sons, instructing them, "Be fruitful, multiply, and fill the earth."² The fear and dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth and every bird of the sky, on all that moves on the ground, and on all the fish of the sea; they are given into your hands. ³ Every living thing that moves shall be food for you; just as I gave you the green plants, I now give you everything. ⁴ However, you must not consume meat with its lifeblood still in it. ⁵ And for your lifeblood I will surely require an accounting; from every animal I will require it. And from each human being, I will demand an accounting for the life of another human being. ⁶ Whoever sheds human blood, by humans shall their blood be shed; for in the image of God He made mankind. ⁷ As for you, be fruitful and multiply; increase greatly on the earth and multiply in it." ⁸ God addressed Noah and his sons who were with him, saying, ⁹ "Look, as I establish My covenant with you and your descendants after you, ¹⁰ and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the livestock, and all the wild animals, all those that came out of the ark with you—every living creature on earth. ¹¹ I establish My covenant with you: never again will all life be destroyed by the waters of a flood; nor shall there ever again be a flood to destroy the earth." ¹² And God said, "This is the sign of the covenant I am making between Me and you and every living creature with you, for all future generations: ¹³ I have placed My rainbow in the clouds, and it will be the sign of the covenant between Me and the earth. ¹⁴ When I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow appears in the clouds, ¹⁵ I will remember My covenant between Me and you and all living creatures of every kind. Never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all flesh. ¹⁶ When the rainbow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and all living creatures of every kind on the earth." ¹⁷ Then God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant I have established between Me and all life on the earth." ¹⁸ The sons of Noah who emerged from the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. (Ham was the father of Canaan.) ¹⁹ These were the three sons of Noah, and from them the entire earth was repopulated. ²⁰ Noah, a man of the soil, began to plant a vineyard. ²¹ He drank some of the wine, became drunk, and lay uncovered inside his tent. ²² Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father's nakedness and told his two brothers outside. ²³ But Shem and Japheth took a garment, laid it across their shoulders, and walked backward to cover their father's nakedness. Their faces were turned away so that they would not see their father's nakedness. ²⁴ When Noah awoke from his wine and learned what his youngest son had done to him, ²⁵ he said, "Cursed be Canaan! The lowest of slaves shall he be to his brothers." ²⁶ He also said, "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Shem! May Canaan be the slave of Shem. ²⁷ May God enlarge Japheth's territory, and may he reside in the tents of Shem; and may Canaan be his servant." ²⁸ Noah continued to live for 350 years following the flood. ²⁹ So all the days of Noah were 950 years, and then he died.

Genesis

10 These are the records of the generations of Noah's sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth; and sons were born to them after the flood. ² Japheth's descendants included Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshek, and Tiras. ³ Gomer's descendants included his sons Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah. ⁴ Javan's descendants were Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittites, and the Rodanites. ⁵ From these, the maritime peoples spread into their territories by their clans and languages, each within their nations. ⁶ The descendants of Ham included Cush, Egypt, Put, and Canaan. ⁷ Cush's offspring were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca; and Raamah's sons were Sheba and Dedan. ⁸ Cush became the father of Nimrod, who grew to be a mighty warrior on the earth. ⁹ He was a mighty hunter before the Lord; hence the saying, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the Lord." ¹⁰ The beginning of his kingdom was Babylon, Uruk, Akkad, and Kalneh, in the land of Shinar. ¹¹ From that land, he went to Assyria, where he built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, and Calah, ¹² and Resen, which is between Nineveh and Calah; this is the great city. ¹³ Egypt was the father of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, and Naphtuhites, ¹⁴ Pathrusites, Kasluhites (from whom the Philistines originated), and Caphtorites. ¹⁵ Canaan's firstborn was Sidon, and he was also the ancestor of the Hittites, ¹⁶ the Jebusites, Amorites, and Girgashites, ¹⁷ the Hivites, Arkites, and Sinites, ¹⁸ the Arvadites, Zemarites, and Hamathites. Later, the Canaanite clans were scattered. ¹⁹ The borders of Canaan extended from Sidon toward Gerar as far as Gaza, and then toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboyim, as far as Lasha. ²⁰ These are the sons of Ham, by their clans, languages, lands, and nations. ²¹ Sons were also born to Shem, the ancestor of all the sons of Eber, and the older brother of Japheth. ²²

Genesis

Shem's descendants included Elam, Ashur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram.²³ Aram's descendants included his sons Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.²⁴ Arphaxad became the father of Shelah, and Shelah was the father of Eber.²⁵ Eber had two sons: One was named Peleg, because during his time the earth was divided; his brother was named Joktan.²⁶ Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, and Jerah,²⁷ Hadoram, Uzal, and Diklah,²⁸ Obal, Abimael, and Sheba,²⁹ Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. These were all descendants of Joktan.³⁰ Their region extended from Mesha toward Sephar, in the eastern hill country.³¹ These are the sons of Shem, by their clans, languages, lands, and nations.³² These are the families of Noah's sons, according to their genealogies, within their nations. From these, the nations spread out over the earth after the flood.

11 Now the entire earth had one language and the same words.² As they journeyed eastward, they discovered a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there.³ They said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and fire them thoroughly." They used brick in place of stone, and tar for mortar.⁴ Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches into the heavens, to make a name for ourselves; otherwise we will be scattered over the face of the whole earth."⁵ The Lord came down to see the city and the tower that the people were constructing.⁶ The Lord said, "Behold, they are one people with the same language, and this is what they have begun to do. Now nothing they plan will be impossible for them."⁷ Come, let us go down and confuse their language so that they will not understand each other's speech."⁸ So the Lord scattered them from there over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city.⁹ Therefore it was called Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of the entire earth. From there the Lord scattered them over the face of all the earth.¹⁰ These are the generations of Shem. Shem was 100 years old when he became the father of Arphaxad, two years after the flood.¹¹ Shem lived 500 years after he became the father of Arphaxad, and he had other sons and daughters.¹² Arphaxad reached the age of 35 and fathered Shelah.¹³ After fathering Shelah, Arphaxad lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.¹⁴ Shelah reached the age of 30 and fathered Eber.¹⁵ After fathering Eber, Shelah lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.¹⁶ Eber reached the age of 34 and fathered Peleg.¹⁷ After fathering Peleg, Eber lived 430 years and had other sons and daughters.¹⁸ Peleg reached the age of 30 and fathered Reu.¹⁹ After fathering Reu, Peleg lived 209 years and had other sons and daughters.²⁰ Reu reached the age of 32 and fathered Serug.²¹ After fathering Serug, Reu lived 207 years and had other sons and daughters.²² Serug reached the age of 30 and fathered Nahor.²³ After fathering Nahor, Serug lived 200 years and had other sons and daughters.²⁴ Nahor reached the age of 29 and fathered Terah.²⁵ After fathering Terah, Nahor lived 119 years and had other sons and daughters.²⁶ Terah reached the age of 70 and fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran.²⁷ These are the generations of Terah. Terah fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran, and Haran fathered Lot.²⁸ Haran passed away during his father Terah's lifetime in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans.²⁹ Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. Abram's wife was named Sarai, and Nahor's wife was named Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of both Milcah and Iscah.³⁰ Sarai was unable to have children; she had no child.³¹ Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot, son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, Abram's wife, and they set out from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the land of Canaan. But when they reached Haran, they settled there.³² Terah lived to be 205 years old, and he passed away in Haran.

12 The Lord said to Abram, "Leave your country, your relatives, and your father's household, and go to the land I will show you."² I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you. I will make your name renowned, and you shall be a blessing.³ I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and through you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."⁴ So Abram departed as the Lord had instructed him, and Lot accompanied him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran.⁵ He took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, all their possessions they had gathered, and the people they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for Canaan. When they arrived in Canaan,⁶ Abram journeyed through the land to the site of the great tree of Moreh at Shechem. During that period, the Canaanites inhabited the land.⁷ The Lord appeared to Abram and said, "To your descendants I will give this land." So he built an altar there to the Lord, who had revealed Himself to him.⁸ From there, he moved on to the hill country east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the Lord and called upon the name of the Lord. ⁹ Then Abram set out and continued his journey towards the Negev. ¹⁰ There was a famine in the land, so Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while, because the famine was severe. ¹¹ As he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, "I know you are a beautiful woman. ¹² When the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' Then they will kill me but let you live. ¹³ Please say you are my sister, so that I will be treated well for your sake and my life will be spared because of you." ¹⁴ When Abram entered Egypt, the Egyptians saw that Sarai was very beautiful. ¹⁵ Pharaoh's officials saw her and praised her to Pharaoh, and she was taken into his palace. ¹⁶ He treated Abram well for her sake, and Abram acquired sheep, oxen, male donkeys, male and female servants, female donkeys, and camels. ¹⁷ But the Lord afflicted Pharaoh and his household with serious plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife. ¹⁸ So Pharaoh summoned Abram and said, "What have you done to me? Why did you not tell me she was your wife? ¹⁹ Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her to be my wife? Now, here is your wife. Take her and go!" ²⁰ Pharaoh gave orders concerning Abram to his men, and they sent him away with his wife and all that he had.

Genesis

13 So Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, with his wife and all his possessions, and Lot went with him. ² Abram had great wealth in livestock, silver, and gold. ³ He journeyed from the Negev as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the start, between Bethel and Ai, ⁴ to the site of the altar he had made there before; and there Abram called upon the name of the Lord. ⁵ Lot, who travelled with Abram, also had flocks, herds, and tents. ⁶ But the land could not support them while they stayed together, for their possessions were so numerous that they could not remain together. ⁷ And there was conflict between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and those of Lot. At that time the Canaanites and Perizzites were dwelling in the land. ⁸ So Abram said to Lot, "Let there be no conflict between you and me, or between my herdsmen and yours, for we are kinsmen. ⁹ Is not the whole land before you? Please part from me; if you go to the left, I will go to the right; or if you go to the right, I will go to the left." ¹⁰ Lot looked up and saw that the whole plain of the Jordan was well watered everywhere, like the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as you go to Zoar. (This was before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.) ¹¹ So Lot chose for himself the entire plain of the Jordan, and set out eastward. Thus they parted company. ¹² Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, while Lot dwelt among the cities of the plain and pitched his tents near Sodom. ¹³ Now the people of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinned greatly against the Lord. ¹⁴ The Lord said to Abram, after Lot had parted from him, "Lift up your eyes and look from the place where you are, northward and southward, eastward and westward; ¹⁵ for all the land that you see I will give to you and your descendants forever. ¹⁶ I will make your descendants as numerous as the dust of the earth, so that if anyone could count the dust, then your descendants could also be counted. ¹⁷ Arise, walk through the land in its length and breadth, for I will give it to you." ¹⁸ So Abram moved his tent and came and settled by the great trees of Mamre, which are in Hebron; and there he built an altar to the Lord.

14 In the days when Amraphel was king of Shinar, Arioch was king of Ellasar, Kedorlaomer was king of Elam, and Tidal was king of Goiim, ² they waged war against Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (which is Zoar). ³ All these latter kings allied themselves in the Valley of Siddim (which is the Salt Sea). ⁴ For twelve years they were subject to Kedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they revolted. ⁵ In the fourteenth year, Kedorlaomer and the kings with him went out and defeated the Rephaim in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim, ⁶ and the Horites in their hill country of Seir, as far as El Paran near the wilderness. ⁷ Then they turned back and came to En Mishpat (which is Kadesh), and conquered the whole territory of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who dwell in Hazazon Tamar. ⁸ Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) came out and drew up their battle lines in the Valley of Siddim ⁹ against Kedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of Goiim, Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar—four kings against five. ¹⁰ Now the Valley of Siddim was full of tar pits, and when the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some fell into them, while the rest fled to the hills.¹¹ The four kings seized all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their provisions, and then departed.¹² They also took Lot, Abram's nephew, and his possessions, for he was residing in Sodom.¹³ Then a survivor came and informed Abram the Hebrew. He was living by the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and Aner, who were allies with Abram.¹⁴ When Abram heard that his kinsman had been captured, he mustered the 318 trained men born in his household and pursued as far as Dan.¹⁵ During the night, Abram divided his forces to attack them, and he defeated them, pursuing them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus.¹⁶ He recovered all the goods and brought back his kinsman Lot and his possessions, along with the women and the other people.¹⁷ After Abram returned from defeating Kedorlaomer and the kings allied with him, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (which is the King's Valley).¹⁸ Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High.¹⁹ He blessed Abram, saying, "Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth.²⁰ And praised be God Most High, who has handed your enemies over to you." Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.²¹ The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Return the people to me and keep the goods for yourself."²² But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have sworn an oath to the Lord, God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth,²³ that I will not take anything belonging to you, not even a thread or a sandal strap, so that you may never say, 'I made Abram rich.'²⁴ I will accept nothing but what my men have eaten and the share that belongs to the men who went with me—Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. Let them take their share."

Genesis

15 After these events, the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield; your reward will be exceedingly great."² But Abram said, "Lord God, what can you give me, since I remain childless, and the heir of my household is Eliezer of Damascus?"³ And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring; so a servant born in my house will be my heir."⁴ Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "This man shall not be your heir, but a son who is your own flesh and blood shall be your heir."⁵ He took him outside and said, "Look up at the heavens and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be."⁶ Abram trusted in the Lord, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.⁷ And He said to him, "I am the Lord, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to possess."⁸ But Abram said, "Lord God, how can I know that I will possess it?"⁹ So the Lord said to him, "Bring me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old goat, a three-year-old ram, a dove, and a young pigeon."¹⁰ Abram brought all these to Him, cut them in two, and arranged the halves opposite each other; but he did not cut the birds.¹¹ Then birds of prey descended upon the carcasses, but Abram chased them away.¹² As the sun was setting, Abram fell into a deep sleep, and a dreadful and great darkness came over him.¹³ Then the Lord said to Abram, "Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a land not their own, where they will be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years.¹⁴ But I will judge the nation they serve, and afterward they will come out with great possessions.¹⁵ As for you, you will go to your ancestors in peace and be buried at a good old age.¹⁶ In the fourth generation, your descendants will return here, for the sin of the Amorites has not yet reached its full measure."¹⁷ When the sun had set and it was dark, a smoking firepot with a blazing torch appeared and passed between the pieces.¹⁸ On that day, the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates—¹⁹ the territory of the Kenites, Kenizzites, Kadmonites,²⁰ the Hittites, Perizzites, and Rephaites,²¹ the Amorites, Canaanites, Girgashites, and Jebusites."

16 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had not borne him any children, but she had an Egyptian slave named Hagar.² Sarai said to Abram, "The Lord has prevented me from having children. Please have relations with my slave; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram listened to Sarai.³ After Abram had lived ten years in Canaan, Sarai, Abram's wife, took her Egyptian slave Hagar and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.⁴ He had relations with Hagar, and she conceived. When she realised she was pregnant, she began to look down on her mistress.⁵ Sarai said to Abram, "You are responsible for the wrong I am suffering. I put my slave into your arms, and now that she knows she is pregnant, she despises me. May the Lord judge between you and me.”⁶ Abram replied to Sarai, “Your slave is in your hands; do with her whatever you think best.” Then Sarai treated Hagar harshly, and she fled from her.⁷ The angel of the Lord found Hagar by a spring in the wilderness; it was the spring on the way to Shur.⁸ He said, “Hagar, slave of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?” She replied, “I am fleeing from my mistress Sarai.”⁹ The angel of the Lord instructed her, “Go back to your mistress and accept her guidance.”¹⁰ The angel added, “I will greatly increase your descendants so that they will be too numerous to count.”¹¹ The angel of the Lord said further to her, “You are pregnant and will give birth to a son. You shall name him Ishmael, for the Lord has heard of your misery.”¹² He will be like a wild donkey; his hand will be against everyone, and everyone’s hand against him, and he will live in opposition to all his brothers.”¹³ She called the name of the Lord who spoke to her, “You are the God who sees me,” for she said, “I have now seen the One who sees me.”¹⁴ That is why the well was called Beer-lahai-roi; it is still there, between Kadesh and Bered.¹⁵ Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram named the son she bore Ishmael.¹⁶ Abram was eighty-six years of age when Hagar gave birth to Ishmael.

Genesis

17 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the Lord appeared to him and said, “I am God Almighty; walk before Me and be blameless.

² I will establish My covenant between Me and you, and I will multiply your descendants greatly.”³ Abram fell on his face, and God spoke to him, saying,⁴ “As for Me, this is My covenant with you: You shall be the father of a multitude of nations.⁵ No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham, for I have made you the father of many nations.⁶ I will make you exceedingly fruitful; I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you.⁷ I will establish My covenant as an everlasting covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you throughout their generations, to be your God and the God of your descendants after you.⁸ I will give to you and your descendants after you the land where you are residing as a foreigner, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.”⁹ God said further to Abraham, “As for you, you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations.

¹⁰ This is the covenant you are to keep between Me and you and your descendants after you: every male among you is to be circumcised.¹¹ You shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin, and it shall be the sign of the covenant between Me and you.¹² Every male among you who is eight days old shall be circumcised throughout your generations, including those born in your house or bought with money from any foreigner, who are not your descendants.¹³ A slave born in your house or bought with your money shall be circumcised. Thus My covenant shall be in your flesh as an everlasting covenant.¹⁴ Any uncircumcised male who has not been circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin shall be separated from his people; he has broken My covenant.”¹⁵ Then God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.¹⁶ I will bless her, and indeed I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of peoples shall come from her.”¹⁷ Then Abraham bowed down and laughed, pondering in his heart, “Can a child be born to a man who is a hundred years old? And can Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?”¹⁸ And Abraham said to God, “Oh that Ishmael might live under Your blessing!”¹⁹ But God said, “No, but your wife Sarah shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac; and I will establish My covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.²⁰ As for Ishmael, I have heard you; I will bless him and make him fruitful and multiply him greatly. He shall father twelve princes, and I will make him into a great nation.²¹ However, I will establish My covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this time next year.”²² After finishing His conversation with Abraham, God went up from him.²³ Then Abraham took his son Ishmael and all those born in his house or bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham’s household, and circumcised them on that very day, as God had instructed him.²⁴ At the age of ninety-nine, Abraham was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.²⁵ And his son Ishmael was thirteen years old when he underwent circumcision.²⁶ That same day, Abraham and his son Ishmael underwent circumcision.²⁷ And all the men of his household, those born in the house or bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

18 The Lord appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, while he was sitting at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. ²

Abraham raised his eyes and saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of his tent to meet them and bowed low to the ground. ³ He said, "My Lord, if I have found favour in your sight, please do not pass your servant by. ⁴ Let a little water be brought, and you may wash your feet and rest under the tree. ⁵ Let me bring you a piece of bread, so you can refresh yourselves and then go on your way, now that you have come to your servant." And they said, "Do as you have said." ⁶ So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, "Quickly, prepare three measures of fine flour, knead it, and make some bread." ⁷ Then he ran to the herd, selected a tender and choice calf, and gave it to a servant, who hurried to prepare it. ⁸ He took curds, milk, and the calf that had been prepared, and set them before the men. While they ate, he stood near them under the tree. ⁹ They asked him, "Where is your wife Sarah?" He replied, "There, in the tent." ¹⁰ One of them said, "I will surely return to you at this time next year, and behold, your wife Sarah will have a son." Sarah was listening at the entrance of the tent, which was behind him. ¹¹ Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; Sarah was past the age of childbearing. ¹² So Sarah laughed to herself, thinking, "After I am worn out and my lord is old, shall I have this pleasure?" ¹³ Then the Lord said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?' ¹⁴ Is anything too difficult for the Lord? At the appointed time next year, I will return to you, and Sarah will have a son." ¹⁵ Sarah was afraid, so she denied it, saying, "I did not laugh." But He said, "No, but you did laugh." ¹⁶ When the men rose up to leave, they looked down towards Sodom, and Abraham walked with them to see them on their way. ¹⁷ The Lord considered, "Shall I keep from Abraham what I am going to do?" ¹⁸ Since Abraham will surely become a great and powerful nation, and all nations on earth will be blessed through him. ¹⁹ For I have chosen him, so that he may command his children and his household after him to keep the way of the Lord by doing what is right and just, so that the Lord may bring about for Abraham what He has promised him." ²⁰ Then the Lord said, "The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is indeed great, and their sin is exceedingly grave. ²¹ I will go down now and see if what they have done is as bad as the outcry that has reached me. If not, I will know." ²² The men turned and headed towards Sodom, while Abraham remained in the presence of the Lord. ²³ Abraham approached Him and said, "Will you indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked? ²⁴ Suppose there are fifty righteous people in the city; will you really sweep it away and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous who are in it? ²⁵ Far be it from you to do such a thing—to kill the righteous with the wicked, treating the righteous and the wicked alike. Far be it from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just?" ²⁶ The Lord said, "If I find fifty righteous people in the city of Sodom, I will spare the entire place for their sake." ²⁷ Then Abraham spoke up again: "Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, although I am nothing but dust and ashes, ²⁸ suppose the fifty righteous are lacking five, will you destroy the entire city for lack of five?" He said, "I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there." ²⁹ He spoke to Him again, "Suppose forty are found there?" He said, "For the sake of forty, I will not do it." ³⁰ Then he said, "May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak; suppose thirty are found there?" He answered, "I will not do it if I find thirty there." ³¹ Abraham said, "Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, suppose twenty are found there?" He said, "For the sake of twenty, I will not destroy it." ³² Then he said, "May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak just once more; suppose ten are found there?" He answered, "For the sake of ten, I will not destroy it." ³³ When the Lord had finished speaking with Abraham, He went on His way, and Abraham returned to his place.

19 The two angels arrived at Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting at the gate of the city. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them and bowed with his face to the ground. ² He said, "My lords, please turn aside to your servant's house to spend the night and wash your feet. Then you may rise early and go on your way." They said, "No, we will spend the night in the square." ³ But Lot insisted strongly, so they turned aside to him and entered his house. He prepared a feast for them and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. ⁴ Before they lay down, the men of the city of Sodom, both young and old, surrounded the house, all the people from every quarter. ⁵ They called to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we may have relations with them."⁶ Lot went out to them at the doorway and shut the door behind him,⁷ and said, "I plead with you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly."⁸ Look, I have two daughters who have not known a man. Please, let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them as you please. Only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the protection of my roof."⁹ But they said, "Stand back!" They also said, "This fellow came here as a foreigner, and now he wants to play the judge! We will treat you worse than them." They pressed hard against Lot and came near to break down the door.¹⁰ But the men inside reached out their hands and pulled Lot back into the house, and shut the door.¹¹ Then they struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they became weary trying to find the door.¹² The two men said to Lot, "Do you have anyone else here—sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or anyone else in the city who belongs to you? Get them out of this place,¹³ for we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against its people has become great before the Lord; the Lord has sent us to destroy it."¹⁴ So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were to marry his daughters, and said, "Get up, get out of this place, for the Lord is about to destroy the city." But he appeared to his sons-in-law to be jesting.¹⁵ When morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, "Get up, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away in the punishment of the city."¹⁶ But he hesitated, so the men seized his hand and the hands of his wife and his two daughters, because the Lord was merciful to him, and they brought him out and set him outside the city.¹⁷ When they had brought them outside, one of them said, "Flee for your life! Do not look back or stop anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains or you will be swept away."¹⁸ But Lot said to them, "Please, my lords, not so!¹⁹ Your servant has found favour in your sight, and you have shown great kindness to me by saving my life. But I cannot flee to the mountains, for the disaster will overtake me and I will die.²⁰ Look, here is a town near enough to flee to, and it is small. Please, let me escape there—is it not small?—so that my life may be spared."²¹ He replied to him, "I will also grant this request; I will not destroy the town you speak of."²² But hurry, escape there, for I cannot do anything until you reach it." Therefore the town was called Zoar.²³ Lot reached Zoar just as the sun rose over the land.²⁴ Then the Lord rained down brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah—from the Lord out of the heavens.²⁵ He overthrew those cities and all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.²⁶ However, Lot's wife looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.²⁷ Early in the morning, Abraham returned to the place where he had stood before the Lord.²⁸ He gazed down toward Sodom and Gomorrah, toward all the land of the plain, and he saw dense smoke rising from the land, like smoke from a furnace.²⁹ So it was that when God destroyed the cities of the plain, He remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities where Lot had lived.³⁰ Lot went up from Zoar and stayed in the mountains with his two daughters, for he was afraid to stay in Zoar. He and his two daughters lived in a cave.³¹ The firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man on earth to come to us according to the custom of all the earth."³² Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve our family line through our father."³³ Therefore, they gave their father wine to drink that night, and the firstborn went in and lay with her father; he was unaware of when she lay down or when she arose.³⁴ The next day, the firstborn said to the younger, "Look, I lay with my father last night; let us make him drink wine tonight also, and you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve our family line through our father."³⁵ So they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger arose and lay with him; he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.³⁶ Thus both of Lot's daughters were with child by their father.³⁷ The firstborn bore a son and named him Moab; he is the father of the Moabites to this day.³⁸ The younger also bore a son and named him Ben-ammi; he is the father of the Ammonites to this day.

Genesis

20 Now Abraham travelled from there toward the region of the Negev and settled between Kadesh and Shur; he stayed for a time in Gerar.² And Abraham said of his wife Sarah, "She is my sister." So Abimelech, the king of Gerar, sent for Sarah and took her.³ But God came to Abimelech in a dream during the night and said to him, "Behold, you are as good as dead because of the woman you have taken; she is a married woman.”

Genesis

⁴ Now Abimelech had not approached her, and he said, “Lord, will you destroy a nation, even if it is innocent?”⁵ Did he not himself say to me, ‘She is my sister’? And she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ I have done this with a clear conscience and innocent hands.”⁶ Then God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know that you did this with a clear conscience, and I have kept you from sinning against me. That is why I did not let you touch her.”⁷ Now return the man’s wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not return her, be assured that you and all who belong to you will surely die.”⁸ So Abimelech rose early in the morning and called all his servants, and told them all these things; and the men were greatly afraid.⁹ Then Abimelech summoned Abraham and said to him, “What have you done to us? How have I wronged you that you have brought such a great sin upon me and my kingdom? You have done things to me that should not be done.”¹⁰ And Abimelech asked Abraham, “What prompted you to do this?”¹¹ Abraham replied, “I thought, surely there is no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.”¹² Besides, she truly is my sister, the daughter of my father but not of my mother; and she became my wife.¹³ And when God caused me to wander from my father’s house, I said to her, ‘This is the kindness you can show to me: Everywhere we go, say of me, “He is my brother.”’”¹⁴ Then Abimelech took sheep and cattle and male and female servants, and gave them to Abraham, and returned his wife Sarah to him.¹⁵ And Abimelech said, “Behold, my land is before you; settle wherever you please.”¹⁶ To Sarah he said, “I have given your brother a thousand shekels of silver. This is to cover any offence against you before all who are with you; you are completely vindicated.”¹⁷ Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife, and his female slaves so that they could bear children again,¹⁸ for the Lord had closed all the wombs of the household of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.

21 The Lord was attentive to Sarah as He had spoken, and the Lord fulfilled for Sarah what He had promised.² Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the time God had specified to him.³ Abraham named his son Isaac, the son whom Sarah had borne to him.⁴ Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, following God’s command.⁵ Abraham was a century old when his son Isaac came into the world.⁶ Sarah declared, “God has brought me laughter, and everyone who hears will share in my joy.”⁷ She also said, “Who would have told Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have given him a son in his old age.”⁸ The child grew and was weaned, and Abraham celebrated with a great feast on the day Isaac was weaned.⁹ Sarah observed the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking.¹⁰ She said to Abraham, “Expel this slave woman and her son, for the son of this slave shall not share the inheritance with my son Isaac.”¹¹ This matter troubled Abraham greatly because of his son.¹² But God said to Abraham, “Do not be distressed about the boy and your slave woman. Listen to Sarah, for through Isaac your descendants will be named.”¹³ I will also make the son of the slave woman into a nation, because he is your descendant.”¹⁴ Early the next morning, Abraham took bread and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar, placing them on her shoulder, and sent her away with the boy. She departed and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.¹⁵ When the water in the skin was exhausted, she placed the boy under one of the bushes.¹⁶ She went and sat down opposite him, about a bowshot away, saying, “I cannot watch the boy die.” And she sat there, raising her voice and weeping.¹⁷ God heard the boy’s cries, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, “What troubles you, Hagar? Do not fear, for God has heard the boy’s voice where he is.”¹⁸ Arise, lift up the boy, and hold him by the hand, for I will make him into a great nation.”¹⁹ God enabled her to see a well of water. She went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.²⁰ God was with the boy as he grew up. He lived in the wilderness and became an archer.²¹ He lived in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother found him a wife from Egypt.²² During that period, Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, said to Abraham, “God is with you in all your endeavours.”²³ Now swear to me here before God that you will not deceive me or my descendants. Show the same kindness to me and the land where you reside as I have shown to you.”²⁴ Abraham said, “I do so swear it.”²⁵ Then Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well of water that Abimelech’s servants had seized.²⁶ Abimelech replied, “I do not know who has done this. You did not inform me, and

Genesis

I only heard about it today.”²⁷ So Abraham took sheep and cattle and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men made a covenant.²⁸ Abraham selected seven ewe lambs from the flock.²⁹ Abimelech asked Abraham, “What is the significance of these seven ewe lambs you have set apart?”³⁰ He replied, “Accept these seven lambs from my hand as a testimony that I dug this well.”³¹ Therefore, that place was called Beersheba, because there the two of them swore an oath.³² After making a covenant at Beersheba, Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, returned to the land of the Philistines.³³ Abraham established a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there he invoked the name of the Lord, the Everlasting God.³⁴ And Abraham resided in the land of the Philistines for a long period.

22 After these events, God tested Abraham and said to him, “Abraham!” And he replied, “Here I am.”² God said, “Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. Offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains I will show you.”³ Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, along with his son Isaac; he cut wood for the burnt offering and set out for the place God had told him about.⁴ On the third day, Abraham lifted his eyes and saw the place from afar.⁵ Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey while the boy and I go over there. We will worship and then return to you.”⁶ Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on Isaac, his son, while he himself carried the fire and the knife. The two of them walked on together.⁷ Isaac spoke to Abraham, his father, and said, “Father?” And he replied, “Yes, my son?” Isaac said, “Here are the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?”⁸ Abraham said, “God will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” So the two of them continued on together.⁹ When they arrived at the place God had indicated, Abraham built an altar there, arranged the wood, and bound his son Isaac, laying him on the altar atop the wood.¹⁰ Abraham then reached out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.¹¹ But the angel of the Lord called out to him from heaven, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he replied, “Here I am.”¹² The angel said, “Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.”¹³

Abraham looked up and saw a ram caught by its horns in a thicket. He went and took the ram and offered it as a burnt offering instead of his son.¹⁴ Abraham named that place The Lord Will Provide. To this day it is said, “On the mountain of the Lord it will be provided.”¹⁵ The angel of the Lord called to Abraham from heaven once more¹⁶ and said, “I have sworn by myself, declares the Lord, because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son,¹⁷ I will surely bless you and greatly multiply your descendants like the stars of the heavens and the sand on the seashore. Your descendants will possess the gates of their enemies,¹⁸ and through your offspring all nations of the earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice.”¹⁹ Then Abraham returned to his young men, and they set off together for Beersheba, where Abraham settled.²⁰ After these things, Abraham was informed, “Milcah has also borne children to your brother Nahor:²¹ Uz, the firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel, who is the father of Aram,²² also Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel.”²³ Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. Milcah bore these eight sons to Nahor, Abraham’s brother.²⁴ His concubine, named Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.

23 Sarah lived for one hundred and twenty-seven years; these were the years of Sarah’s life.² Sarah passed away in Kiriath Arba (which is Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.³ Then Abraham got up from beside his dead wife and spoke to the Hittites, saying,⁴ “I am a foreigner and a stranger among you. Sell me a piece of property for a burial site here, so I may bury my dead out of my sight.”⁵ The Hittites answered Abraham, saying to him,⁶ “Hear us, my lord. You are a mighty prince among us; bury your dead in the finest of our tombs. None of us will withhold his tomb from you for burying your dead.”⁷ Abraham then rose and bowed to the people of the land, the Hittites.⁸ He said to them, “If you are willing that I should bury my dead out of my sight, listen to me and intercede for me with Ephron son of Zohar,⁹ that he may sell me the cave of Machpelah, which belongs to him and is at the end of his field. Let him sell it to me for the full price as a burial site among you.”¹⁰ Ephron was sitting among the Hittites, and he replied to Abraham in the hearing of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of his city, saying, ¹¹ “No, my lord, please hear me. I am giving you the field, and also the cave that is in it. In the presence of my people, I grant it to you. Bury your dead.” ¹² Abraham again bowed down before the people of the land. ¹³ He spoke to Ephron in their hearing, saying, “If you will, please listen to me. I will pay the price of the field. Accept it from me so that I may bury my dead there.” ¹⁴ Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, ¹⁵ “My lord, listen to me: the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver. What is that between you and me? Bury your dead.” ¹⁶ Abraham agreed with Ephron and weighed out for him the silver he had named in the hearing of the Hittites: four hundred shekels of silver, according to the weight current among merchants. ¹⁷ Thus, Ephron’s field in Machpelah near Mamre—the field with the cave in it, and all the trees within the borders of the field—was deeded ¹⁸ to Abraham as his possession in the presence of the Hittites, before all who entered the gate of his city. ¹⁹ After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah near Mamre (which is Hebron) in the land of Canaan. ²⁰ Thus the field and the cave in it were deeded to Abraham by the Hittites as a burial site.

Genesis

24 Abraham was now old, well advanced in years, and the Lord had blessed him in every aspect. ² Abraham said to the senior servant of his household, who managed all he owned, “Please place your hand under my thigh, ³ and I will have you swear by the Lord, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not choose a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell; ⁴ but you shall go to my homeland and to my family, and find a wife for my son Isaac.” ⁵ The servant asked him, “What if the woman is not willing to return with me to this land? Should I then take your son back to the land you came from?” ⁶ “Be careful not to take my son back there,” Abraham replied. ⁷ “The Lord, the God of heaven, who brought me from my father’s house and from my native land, and who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, ‘To your descendants I will give this land’—He will send His angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there. ⁸ But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be released from this oath of mine; only do not take my son back there.” ⁹ So the servant placed his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham and swore an oath to him concerning this matter. ¹⁰ Then the servant took ten of his master’s camels and departed, taking with him a variety of good things from his master. He set out and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor. ¹¹ He settled the camels outside the city by the well of water at evening, the time when women typically go out to draw water. ¹² And he prayed, “Lord, God of my master Abraham, please grant me success today, and show kindness to my master Abraham. ¹³ See, I am standing by the spring, and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water. ¹⁴ Let it be that the young woman to whom I say, ‘Please let down your jar that I may drink,’ and who replies, ‘Drink, and I will also water your camels’—let her be the one You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. By this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master.” ¹⁵ Before he had finished praying, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Abraham’s brother Nahor. ¹⁶ The young woman was very beautiful, a virgin; no man had lain with her. She went down to the spring, filled her jar, and came up. ¹⁷ The servant quickly approached her and said, “Please give me a little water from your jar.” ¹⁸ “Drink, my lord,” she said, and quickly lowered her jar to her hands and gave him a drink. ¹⁹ After she had given him a drink, she said, “I will draw water for your camels too, until they have finished drinking.” ²⁰ So she swiftly emptied her jar into the trough, ran back to the well to draw more water, and drew enough for all his camels. ²¹ The man watched her closely in silence to see whether the Lord had made his journey successful or not. ²² When the camels had finished drinking, the man took out a gold nose ring weighing a half-shekel, and two gold bracelets weighing ten shekels. ²³ Then he inquired, “Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room in your father’s house for us to stay the night?” ²⁴ She replied, “I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son Milcah bore to Nahor.” ²⁵ And she added, “We have plenty of straw and feed, as well as room to spend the night.” ²⁶ Then the man knelt down and worshipped the Lord, ²⁷ saying, “Blessed be the Lord, the God of my master Abraham, who has not abandoned His kindness and faithfulness to my master. As for me, the Lord has led me on the journey to the house of my master’s relatives.” ²⁸ The young woman ran and informed her mother’s household about these things. ²⁹ Now Rebekah had a brother named Laban, and he ran out to the man at the spring. ³⁰ As soon as he saw the nose ring, and the bracelets on his sister's arms, and heard Rebekah's account of what the man said to her, he went out to the man and found him standing by the camels near the spring. ³¹ "Come, you who are blessed by the Lord," he said. "Why are you standing out here? I have arranged the house and a place for the camels." ³² So the man went to the house, and the camels were unloaded. Straw and feed were brought for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. ³³ Food was set before him, but he said, "I will not eat until I have told you what I have to say." "Speak on," Laban said. ³⁴ He began, "I am Abraham's servant. ³⁵ The Lord has greatly blessed my master, and he has become wealthy. He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female servants, and camels and donkeys. ³⁶ My master's wife Sarah bore him a son in her old age, and he has given him everything he owns. ³⁷ My master made me swear an oath, saying, 'You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live; ³⁸ but you shall go to my father's family and to my own clan, and find a wife for my son.' ³⁹ Then I asked my master, 'What if the woman does not follow me?' ⁴⁰ He replied, 'The Lord, before whom I have walked, will send His angel with you and make your journey successful, so that you can find a wife for my son from my own clan and from my father's family. ⁴¹ You will be released from my oath if, when you go to my family, they refuse to give her to you—then you will be released from my oath.' ⁴² "When I came to the spring today, I prayed, 'Lord, God of my master Abraham, if You will, please grant success to the journey on which I have come. ⁴³ Behold, I am standing by the spring. If a young woman comes out to draw water and I say to her, 'Please let me drink a little water from your jar,' ⁴⁴ and she replies, 'Drink, and I will draw water for your camels too,' let her be the one the Lord has chosen for my master's son.' ⁴⁵ "Before I had finished praying in my heart, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder. She went down to the spring and drew water, and I said to her, 'Please give me a drink.' ⁴⁶ She quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder and said, 'Drink, and I will water your camels too.' So I drank, and she watered the camels also. ⁴⁷ I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?' She said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him.' Then I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her wrists. ⁴⁸ I bowed down and worshipped the Lord. I praised the Lord, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me on the right path to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son. ⁴⁹ Now if you will show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me; and if not, let me know, so I may know which way to turn." ⁵⁰ Laban and Bethuel answered, "This matter is from the Lord; we cannot speak to you good or bad. ⁵¹ Here is Rebekah; take her and go, and let her become the wife of your master's son, as the Lord has spoken." ⁵² When Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed down to the ground before the Lord. ⁵³ Then the servant brought out silver and gold jewellery and garments and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave precious gifts to her brother and her mother. ⁵⁴ Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night there. When they rose in the morning, he said, "Send me on my way to my master." ⁵⁵ But her brother and her mother said, "Let the young woman stay with us a few days, say ten; then she may go." ⁵⁶ But he said to them, "Do not delay me, now that the Lord has granted success to my journey. Send me on my way so I may go to my master." ⁵⁷ Then they said, "Let us call the young woman and ask her." ⁵⁸ So they called Rebekah and asked her, "Will you go with this man?" She said, "I will go." ⁵⁹ So they sent Rebekah, their sister, on her journey, along with her nurse and Abraham's servant and his men. ⁶⁰ And they blessed Rebekah and said to her, "Our sister, may you become thousands of ten thousands; may your descendants possess the gates of those who hate them." ⁶¹ Then Rebekah and her attendants got ready and mounted the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and departed. ⁶² Now Isaac had come from Beer Lahai Roi, for he was dwelling in the Negev. ⁶³ He went out to the field one evening to reflect, and as he looked up, he saw camels approaching. ⁶⁴ Rebekah also looked up and saw Isaac. She dismounted from her camel ⁶⁵ and asked the servant, "Who is that man in the field coming to meet us?" The servant replied, "He is my master." So she took her veil and covered herself. ⁶⁶ Then the servant recounted to Isaac all he had done. ⁶⁷ Isaac brought her into the tent of his mother Sarah, and he married Rebekah. She became his wife, and he loved her; and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Genesis

Genesis

25 Abraham took another wife, named Keturah.² She gave birth to his offspring Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.³ Jokshan became the father of Sheba and Dedan. The descendants of Dedan were the Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim.⁴ The sons of Midian were Ephah, Ephher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. These were all the descendants of Keturah.⁵ Abraham gave all he possessed to Isaac.⁶ But to the sons of his concubines, Abraham gave gifts while he was still alive, and sent them away from his son Isaac, eastward, to the land of the east.⁷ The total years of Abraham's life were 175 years.⁸ Abraham breathed his last, dying at a ripe old age, an old man and full of years; and he was gathered to his people.⁹ His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron, son of Zohar the Hittite, near Mamre,¹⁰ the field Abraham had purchased from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried with his wife Sarah.¹¹ After Abraham's death, God blessed his son Isaac, and Isaac settled near Beer-lahai-roi.¹² This is the account of the family line of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's maidservant, bore to Abraham.¹³ These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, listed by their names in the order of their birth: Nebaioth, the firstborn of Ishmael, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,¹⁴ and Mishma, Dumah, and Massa,¹⁵ and Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.¹⁶ These were the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names by their villages and encampments; twelve tribal leaders according to their clans.¹⁷ Ishmael lived 137 years. He breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.¹⁸ His descendants settled from Havilah to Shur, which is east of Egypt as you go towards Assyria; and they lived in opposition to all their relatives.¹⁹ This is the account of the family line of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham fathered Isaac,²⁰ and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan-aram, and the sister of Laban the Aramean.²¹ Isaac prayed to the Lord on behalf of his wife, because she was barren. The Lord answered his prayer, and his wife Rebekah conceived.²² The children struggled together within her, and she said, "If it is so, why am I in this condition?" So she went to inquire of the Lord.²³ The Lord said to her, "Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples will be separated from your body; one people will be stronger than the other, and the elder will serve the younger."²⁴ When the time came for her to give birth, she gave birth to twins.²⁵ The first came out red, all over like a hairy garment; and they named him Esau.²⁶ Afterwards, his brother came out, with his hand grasping Esau's heel; so he was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when she gave birth to them.²⁷ The boys grew up, and Esau became a skilful hunter, a man of the open country, while Jacob was a quiet man, dwelling in tents.²⁸ Isaac loved Esau because he enjoyed eating his game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.²⁹ Once, when Jacob was cooking stew, Esau came in from the field, exhausted.³⁰ He said to Jacob, "Please let me have some of that red stew, for I am exhausted." Therefore, he was called Edom.³¹ Jacob replied, "Sell me your birthright first."³² Esau said, "I am at the point of death; what use is the birthright to me?"³³ Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore an oath to him, selling his birthright to Jacob.³⁴ Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew. He ate and drank, then got up and left. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

26 Now there was a famine in the land, apart from the earlier famine that had occurred in the days of Abraham. Isaac went to Abimelech, king of the Philistines, in Gerar.² The Lord appeared to Isaac and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; remain in the land that I shall tell you."³ Reside in this land for a time, and I will be with you and bless you. To you and your descendants, I will give all these lands and will establish the oath I swore to your father Abraham.⁴ I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and will give them all these lands, and through your descendants, all nations on earth will be blessed,⁵ because Abraham obeyed me and kept my commandments, my statutes, and my laws."⁶ Thus, Isaac remained in Gerar.⁷ When the men of the place asked about his wife, he said, "She is my sister," for he feared to say, "She is my wife," thinking, "The men of this place might kill me because of Rebekah, for she is beautiful."⁸ After Isaac had been there for a long time, Abimelech, king of the Philistines, looked out of a window and saw Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah.⁹ So Abimelech summoned Isaac and said, "She is indeed your wife! Why did you say, 'She is my sister?'" Isaac replied, "Because I thought I might be killed on account of her." ¹⁰ Then Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us." ¹¹ So Abimelech commanded all the people, saying, "Anyone who harms this man or his wife shall surely be put to death." ¹² Isaac sowed crops in that land and reaped a hundredfold in the same year, because the Lord blessed him. ¹³ The man became rich, and his wealth continued to increase until he became very wealthy. ¹⁴ He had many flocks, herds, and servants, so much so that the Philistines envied him. ¹⁵ All the wells that his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham, his father, the Philistines stopped up, filling them with earth. ¹⁶ Then Abimelech said to Isaac, "Move away from us, for you have become too powerful for us." ¹⁷ So Isaac departed from there and camped in the Valley of Gerar, where he settled. ¹⁸ Isaac reopened the wells that had been dug in the days of Abraham, his father, which the Philistines had stopped up after Abraham died, and he gave them the same names his father had given them. ¹⁹ Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found a spring of fresh water. ²⁰ But the herders of Gerar quarrelled with those of Isaac, saying, "The water is ours!" So he named the well Esek, because they disputed with him. ²¹ Then they dug another well, and they quarrelled over that one also; so he named it Sitnah. ²² He moved on from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it. He named it Rehoboth, saying, "Now the Lord has given us room, and we will flourish in the land." ²³ From that place, he travelled to Beersheba. ²⁴ That night the Lord appeared to him and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bless you and multiply your descendants for the sake of my servant Abraham." ²⁵ Isaac built an altar there and called upon the name of the Lord. There he pitched his tent, and there his servants dug a well. ²⁶ Meanwhile, Abimelech came to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his adviser and Phicol the commander of his army. ²⁷ Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you were hostile to me and sent me away?" ²⁸ They replied, "We have clearly seen that the Lord has been with you; so we said, 'Let there now be a sworn agreement between us'—between us and you. Let us make a covenant with you ²⁹ that you will do us no harm, just as we have not touched you and have done nothing but good to you, and sent you away in peace. You are now blessed by the Lord." ³⁰ Then Isaac made a feast for them, and they ate and drank. ³¹ Early the next morning, they exchanged oaths. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they departed peacefully. ³² That same day, Isaac's servants came and told him about the well they had dug. They said, "We have found water!" ³³ He named it Shibah, and that is why the city is called Beersheba to this day. ³⁴ When Esau was forty years old, he took Judith, daughter of Beerli the Hittite, and Basemath, daughter of Elon the Hittite, as his wives. ³⁵ They brought sorrow to Isaac and Rebekah.

Genesis

27 When Isaac was old and his eyes were too dim to see, he called for Esau his elder son and said to him, "My son." And he replied, "Here I am." ² Isaac said, "Behold, I am now old and do not know the day of my death. ³ Now then, take your gear, your quiver and bow, and go out to the open country to hunt some game for me. ⁴ Prepare a delicious meal for me, such as I love, and bring it to me to eat, so that I may bless you before I die." ⁵ Now Rebekah was listening as Isaac spoke to his son Esau. So when Esau went to the field to hunt game to bring home, ⁶ Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "Behold, I overheard your father speak to your brother Esau, saying, ⁷ 'Bring me some game and prepare a delightful meal for me, so that I may eat and bless you in the presence of the Lord before my death.' ⁸ Now, my son, listen carefully to what I command you: ⁹ Go to the flock and bring me two choice young goats, so that I may prepare them as a delicious meal for your father, just the way he likes it. ¹⁰ Then take it to your father to eat, so that he may bless you before his death." ¹¹ Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, "But my brother Esau is a hairy man, and I have smooth skin." ¹² Perhaps my father will touch me, and I will seem to him like a deceiver, and I will bring upon myself a curse rather than a blessing." ¹³ His mother said to him, "Your curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice and go, get them for me." ¹⁴ So he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and she prepared a delicious meal, just the way his father loved. ¹⁵ Then Rebekah took some of Esau's finest garments, which she had in the house, and dressed her younger son Jacob in them. ¹⁶ She also covered his hands and the smooth part of his neck with the skins of the goats.¹⁷ Then she handed to her son Jacob the delicious meal and the bread she had made.¹⁸ He went to his father and said, "My father." And he said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"¹⁹ Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat of my game, so that you may bless me."²⁰ Isaac asked his son, "How did you find it so quickly, my son?" And he replied, "Because the Lord your God gave me success."²¹ Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come near, so that I may feel you, my son, to know whether you really are my son Esau or not."²² Jacob went close to his father Isaac, who touched him and said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are those of Esau."²³ He did not recognise him, for his hands were hairy like those of his brother Esau; so he blessed him.²⁴ "Are you truly my son Esau?" he asked. "I am," he replied.²⁵ Then he said, "Bring it to me, and I will eat of my son's game, that I may bless you." And he brought it to him, and he ate; he also brought him wine and he drank.²⁶ Then his father Isaac said to him, "Please come near and give me a kiss, my son."²⁷ So he came close and kissed him; and when Isaac caught the smell of his garments, he blessed him and said, "See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which the Lord has blessed.²⁸ May God give you of the dew of heaven and the richness of the earth—an abundance of grain and new wine.²⁹ May nations serve you and peoples bow down to you. Be master over your brothers, and may your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be those who curse you, and blessed be those who bless you."³⁰ Now it came about, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely left his father's presence, that his brother Esau came in from his hunting.³¹ He too prepared a delicious meal and brought it to his father. Then he said to him, "Let my father arise and eat of his son's game, that you may bless me."³² His father Isaac asked him, "Who are you?" And he said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."³³ Then Isaac trembled violently and said, "Who then was it that hunted game and brought it to me? I ate it all before you came and I blessed him—and indeed he shall be blessed!"³⁴ When Esau heard his father's words, he cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me, me as well, my father!"³⁵ But he said, "Your brother came deceitfully and has taken away your blessing."³⁶ Esau said, "Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has betrayed me these two times: He took away my birthright, and now he has taken away my blessing." Then he asked, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?"³⁷ Isaac replied to Esau, "Behold, I have made him your master, and I have given all his relatives as servants to him; and with grain and new wine I have sustained him. What then can I do for you, my son?"³⁸ Esau said to his father, "Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me, me as well, my father!" Then Esau raised his voice and wept.³⁹ His father Isaac answered him, "Behold, away from the richness of the earth shall be your dwelling, and away from the dew of heaven above.⁴⁰ By your sword you shall live, and you shall serve your brother. But when you grow restless, you will break his yoke from your neck."⁴¹ So Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. Esau said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob."⁴² When the words of her elder son Esau were reported to Rebekah, she sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him, "Behold, your brother Esau is consoling himself by planning to kill you."⁴³ Now then, my son, obey my voice and flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran.⁴⁴ Stay with him for a time until your brother's anger subsides.⁴⁵ When your brother is no longer angry with you and forgets what you did to him, I will send word for you to come back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?"⁴⁶ And Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am tired of living because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife from among the daughters of Heth, like these from the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?"

Genesis

28 So Isaac summoned Jacob and blessed him, instructing him: "You must not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan.² Arise, go to Paddan Aram, to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father. From there, choose a wife from the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother.³ May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply your numbers, so that you become a multitude of peoples.⁴ May He grant you and your descendants the blessing of Abraham, enabling you to take possession of the land where you are residing as a foreigner, the land God gave to Abraham."⁵ Then Isaac sent Jacob away, and he journeyed to Paddan Aram, to Laban, son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau. ⁶ Now Esau observed that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him to Paddan Aram to find a wife there, and that he had instructed him, "Do not marry a Canaanite woman," ⁷ and that Jacob had listened to his father and mother and had gone to Paddan Aram. ⁸ Esau then understood how displeasing the Canaanite women were to his father Isaac; ⁹ so he went to Ishmael and married Mahalath, the sister of Nebaioth and daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, in addition to the wives he already had. ¹⁰ Jacob departed from Beersheba and set out towards Haran. ¹¹ He reached a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. He took one of the stones from that place, put it under his head, and lay down to sleep. ¹² He dreamt of a ladder set upon the earth, with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. ¹³ Above it stood the Lord, who said, "I am the Lord, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which you are lying. ¹⁴ Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, spreading out to the west, east, north, and south. All peoples on earth will be blessed through you and your offspring. ¹⁵ I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have fulfilled what I have promised you." ¹⁶ Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was unaware of it." ¹⁷ He was in awe and said, "How incredible is this place! This is none other than the house of God; this is the gate of heaven." ¹⁸ Early the next morning, Jacob took the stone he had used as a pillow, set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on top of it. ¹⁹ He named that place Bethel, though previously the city was called Luz. ²⁰ Then Jacob made a vow, saying, "If God will be with me and watch over me on this journey I am taking, and provide me with food to eat and clothes to wear, ²¹ so that I return safely to my father's home, then the Lord will be my God. ²² And this stone that I have set up as a pillar will be a house for God, and of all that you give me, I will give you a tenth."

Genesis

29 Jacob continued his journey and arrived in the land of the eastern people. ² He noticed a well in the field, with three flocks of sheep lying nearby, as the flocks were watered from that well. The stone covering the well's mouth was large.

³ When all the flocks were gathered, the shepherds would roll the stone away from the well's mouth and water the sheep, then replace the stone over the well's mouth. ⁴ Jacob asked the shepherds, "My brothers, where do you come from?" They replied, "We are from Haran." ⁵ He asked them, "Do you know Laban, the grandson of Nahor?" They answered, "We know him." ⁶ Jacob inquired further, "Is he well?" They said, "Yes, he is well, and here comes his daughter Rachel with the sheep." ⁷ Jacob said, "Look, it is still broad daylight; it is not yet time to gather the livestock. Water the sheep and take them back to pasture." ⁸ But they replied, "We cannot do so until all the flocks are gathered and the stone is rolled away from the well's mouth; then we will water the sheep." ⁹ While he was still speaking with them, Rachel arrived with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess. ¹⁰ When Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of his uncle Laban, and Laban's sheep, he approached and rolled the stone away from the well's mouth and watered his uncle's sheep. ¹¹ Jacob then greeted Rachel with a kiss and wept openly. ¹² Jacob explained to Rachel that he was a relative of her father and a son of Rebekah. She ran and informed her father. ¹³ When Laban heard the news about Jacob, his sister's son, he hurried to meet him. He embraced him, kissed him, and brought him to his home, where Jacob recounted all these events. ¹⁴ Laban said to him, "Surely you are my own flesh and blood." And Jacob stayed with him for a month. ¹⁵ Then Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my relative, should you work for me for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be." ¹⁶ Laban had two daughters; the elder was named Leah, and the younger was named Rachel. ¹⁷ Leah had weak eyes, while Rachel was lovely in form and appearance. ¹⁸ Jacob was in love with Rachel and said, "I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel." ¹⁹ Laban replied, "It is better that I give her to you than to another man. Stay here with me." ²⁰ Jacob served seven years for Rachel, but they seemed like only a few days to him because of his love for her. ²¹ Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for my time is fulfilled, that I may be with her." ²² So Laban gathered the people of the place and prepared a feast. ²³ But when evening came, he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob, and Jacob was with her. ²⁴ Laban gave his servant Zilpah to his daughter Leah as her maid. ²⁵ When morning came, there was Leah! So Jacob said to Laban, "What have you done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served you? Why have you tricked me?" ²⁶ Laban said, "It is not our custom here to give the younger daughter in marriage before the elder one. ²⁷ Complete this one's bridal week, and we will give you the other also, in return for another seven years of work." ²⁸ Jacob did so. He completed the week with Leah, and then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife. ²⁹ Laban gave his servant Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her maid. ³⁰ Jacob was also with Rachel, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. He worked for Laban another seven years. ³¹ When the Lord saw that Leah was unloved, he enabled her to conceive, but Rachel remained childless. ³² Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Reuben, for she said, "The Lord has seen my misery. Surely my husband will love me now." ³³ She conceived again and gave birth to a son, saying, "Because the Lord heard that I am unloved, he has given me this one too." So she named him Simeon. ³⁴ She conceived again and gave birth to a son, saying, "Now at last my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons." So he was named Levi. ³⁵ She conceived again and gave birth to a son, saying, "This time I will praise the Lord." So she named him Judah. Then she stopped having children.

Genesis

30 When Rachel observed that she was not bearing children for Jacob, she became envious of her sister and said to Jacob, "Give me children, or else I shall die!" ² Jacob was became angry with Rachel and said, "Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the blessing of children?" ³ Then she said, "Here is my maid Bilhah; go in to her, that she may bear children on my behalf, so that I too may have a family through her." ⁴ So she presented her maid Bilhah to Jacob as a wife, and Jacob was with her. ⁵ Bilhah conceived and she bore a son to Jacob. ⁶ Rachel said, "God has judged me, and has indeed heard my voice and given me a son." Therefore she named him Dan. ⁷ Rachel's maid Bilhah conceived once more and bore Jacob another son. ⁸ Rachel said, "With great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed." So she named him Naphtali. ⁹ When Leah saw that she was no longer bearing children, she took her maid Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife. ¹⁰ And Leah's maid Zilpah gave birth to a son for Jacob. ¹¹ Leah said, "What good fortune!" So she named him Gad. ¹² Leah's maid Zilpah gave Jacob another son. ¹³ Leah said, "Happy am I! For the daughters will call me blessed." So she named him Asher. ¹⁴ During the wheat harvest, Reuben went and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes." ¹⁵ But she said to her, "Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband? Would you take my son's mandrakes also?" Rachel replied, "Very well, he shall sleep with you tonight in exchange for your son's mandrakes." ¹⁶ When Jacob came in from the fields in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must come in to me, for I have hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he lay with her that night. ¹⁷ God listened to Leah, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a fifth son for Jacob. ¹⁸ Leah said, "God has rewarded me for giving my maid to my husband." So she named him Issachar. ¹⁹ Leah once more conceived and gave birth to a sixth son for Jacob. ²⁰ Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good gift; now my husband will honour me, because I have borne him six sons." So she named him Zebulun. ²¹ Afterwards she had a daughter and she named her Dinah. ²² God took notice of Rachel, and God listened to her and allowed her to conceive. ²³ She conceived and gave birth to a son, and said, "God has removed my shame." ²⁴ She named him Joseph, saying, "May the Lord add to me another son." ²⁵ After Rachel had given birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Allow me to leave, that I may go to my own place and to my own country. ²⁶ Return my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know the service I have provided." ²⁷ But Laban said to him, "If I have found favour in your eyes, please stay. I have learned through experience that the Lord has blessed me because of you." ²⁸ He said, "Name your wages, and I will pay them." ²⁹ Jacob said to him, "You are aware of how I have served you, and how your livestock have prospered under my care. ³⁰ For you had little before I came, and it has increased greatly, and the Lord has blessed you wherever I turned. But now, when shall I provide for my own household also?" ³¹ "What shall I give you?" he asked. Jacob replied, "You shall not give me anything. If you will do this one thing for me, I will continue to shepherd your flock: ³² Let me pass through all your flock today, removing from it every speckled and spotted sheep, and every dark-coloured lamb, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; these shall be my wages.³³ So my honesty will answer for me later, when you come to check on my wages. Every one that is not speckled or spotted among the goats, or dark-coloured among the lambs, if found with me, will be considered stolen.”³⁴ Laban said, “Agreed, let it be as you have said.”³⁵ That same day he removed the streaked and spotted male goats, and all the speckled and spotted female goats, every one that had white on it, and all the dark-coloured lambs, and put them in the care of his sons.³⁶ He put a distance of three days’ journey between himself and Jacob, while Jacob continued to tend the rest of Laban’s flocks.³⁷ Jacob then took fresh rods of poplar, almond, and plane trees, and peeled white stripes in them, exposing the white of the rods.³⁸ He set the rods he had peeled in front of the flocks in the troughs, the watering places where the flocks came to drink, and they mated when they came to drink.³⁹ The flocks mated by the rods, and the flocks bore young that were streaked, speckled, and spotted.⁴⁰ Jacob separated the lambs, and made the flocks face towards the streaked and all the dark-coloured animals in Laban’s flock; and he put his own herds apart, and did not put them with Laban’s flock.⁴¹ Whenever the stronger females were in heat, Jacob would place the rods in the troughs in front of the animals, so they would mate near the rods;⁴² but when the animals were weak, he would not put them there. So the weak animals went to Laban and the strong ones to Jacob.⁴³ In this way the man became exceedingly prosperous, and had large flocks, and female and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

Genesis

31 Jacob heard the words of Laban’s sons, saying, “Jacob has taken away all that was our father’s, and from what belonged to our father he has gained all this wealth.”² And Jacob noticed that Laban’s attitude toward him was not as it had been before.³ Then the Lord said to Jacob, “Return to the land of your fathers and your relatives, and I will be with you.”⁴ So Jacob sent word and called Rachel and Leah to the field where his flocks were.⁵ He said to them, “I see that your father’s attitude toward me is not as it was before, but the God of my father has been with me.⁶ You saw that I served your father dutifully with all my strength.⁷ Yet your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times, but God did not allow him to harm me.”⁸ Whenever he said, ‘Take the speckled as your wages,’ then all the flock were born speckled; and whenever he said, ‘Take the striped as your wages,’ then all the flock were born striped.⁹ So God has transferred your father’s livestock to me.¹⁰ During breeding season, I had a dream in which I looked up and saw that the male goats mating with the flock were striped, speckled, or spotted.¹¹ The angel of God said to me in the dream, ‘Jacob,’ and I replied, ‘Here I am.’¹² He said, ‘Look up and see that all the male goats mating with the flock are striped, speckled, or spotted, for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you.’¹³ I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar and made a vow to me. Now arise, leave this land, and return to the land of your birth.”¹⁴ Rachel and Leah replied, “Do we still have any share in the inheritance of our father’s house?”¹⁵ Does he not regard us as foreigners? For he has sold us and used up what was paid for us.”¹⁶ Certainly, all the wealth that God has taken from our father belongs to us and our children. So do whatever God has told you.”¹⁷ Then Jacob prepared his children and his wives to journey on camels;¹⁸ and he drove all his livestock and all his possessions that he had acquired in Paddan Aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.¹⁹ While Laban had gone to shear his flock, Rachel took her father’s household gods.²⁰ Moreover, Jacob deceived Laban the Aramean by not telling him that he was fleeing.²¹ So he fled with all he had, crossed the Euphrates River, and set out for the hill country of Gilead.²² On the third day, Laban was informed that Jacob had fled.²³ Taking his kinsmen with him, he pursued Jacob for seven days and caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead.²⁴ But God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night and said, “Be careful not to speak to Jacob either good or bad.”²⁵ Laban caught up with Jacob. Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban and his kinsmen camped there too.²⁶ Then Laban said to Jacob, “What have you done by deceiving me and taking my daughters away like captives?”²⁷ Why did you run off secretly and deceive me? Why didn’t you tell me, so I could have sent you away with joy and songs, with tambourine and lyre?”²⁸ You didn’t even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters goodbye. You have acted unwisely.²⁹ I have the power to harm you; but last night the God of your father said to me, 'Be careful not to speak to Jacob either good or bad.'³⁰ Now you have gone off because you longed to return to your father's house. But why did you take my gods?"³¹ Jacob answered Laban, "I was afraid, because I thought you might take your daughters from me by force."³² But if you find anyone who has your gods, that person shall not live. In the presence of our relatives, see for yourself whether there is anything of yours here with me; and if so, take it." Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had taken the gods.³³ So Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two female servants, but he did not find them. After he came out of Leah's tent, he entered Rachel's tent.³⁴ Now Rachel had taken the household gods and placed them inside her camel's saddle and was sitting on them. Laban searched through everything in the tent but found nothing.³⁵ Rachel said to her father, "Do not be angry, my lord, that I cannot stand up in your presence; I am having my period." So he searched but did not find the household gods.³⁶ Jacob was angry and took Laban to task. "What is my crime?" he asked Laban. "What is my sin that you have hotly pursued me?"³⁷ Now that you have searched through all my goods, what have you found that belongs to your household? Place it here in front of our relatives and let them judge between us."³⁸ "I have been with you for twenty years now. Your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried, nor have I eaten the rams of your flocks."³⁹ I did not bring you animals torn by wild beasts; I bore the loss myself. And you required payment from me for whatever was stolen by day or night."⁴⁰ This was my situation: The heat consumed me in the daytime and the frost at night, and sleep fled from my eyes."⁴¹ For twenty years I was in your household. I laboured for you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flocks, and you altered my wages ten times."⁴² If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the One whom Isaac feared, had not been with me, you would surely have sent me away empty-handed. But God has seen my hardship and the toil of my hands, and last night he rebuked you."⁴³ Laban replied to Jacob, "The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, and the flocks are my flocks. All you see is mine. Yet what can I do today about these daughters of mine, or about the children they have borne?"⁴⁴ Come now, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it serve as a witness between us."⁴⁵ So Jacob took a stone and stood it up as a pillar.⁴⁶ He said to his relatives, "Gather some stones." So they took stones and made a heap, and they ate there by the heap.⁴⁷ Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha, and Jacob called it Galeed.⁴⁸ Laban said, "This heap serves as a witness between you and me today." That is why it was called Galeed.⁴⁹ It was also called Mizpah, because he said, "May the Lord watch over us when we are apart from each other."⁵⁰ If you treat my daughters poorly or take other wives besides them, even though no one is with us, remember that God is a witness between you and me."⁵¹ Laban continued to Jacob, "Here is this heap, and here is this pillar I have set up between you and me."⁵² This heap is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not pass by this heap to your side to harm you and that you will not pass by this heap and pillar to my side to harm me."⁵³ May the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us." So Jacob swore by the One whom his father Isaac feared.⁵⁴ He made an offering there in the hill country and invited his relatives to a meal. After they had eaten, they spent the night there.⁵⁵ At dawn, Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them. Then he departed and returned to his place.

Genesis

32 As Jacob continued on his journey, the angels of God encountered him.² Upon seeing them, Jacob declared, "This is the camp of God!" Thus, he named the place Mahanaim.³ Jacob dispatched messengers ahead to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the region of Edom.⁴ He instructed them, "This is what you are to say to my lord Esau: 'Your servant Jacob reports: I have been residing with Laban and have stayed until now.'⁵ I possess oxen, donkeys, flocks, and male and female servants. I am sending this message to my lord, hoping to find favour in your sight.'" ⁶ The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "We went to your brother Esau, and he is coming to meet you with four hundred men."⁷ Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed, so he divided the people with him, along with the flocks, herds, and camels, into two groups.⁸ He reasoned, "If Esau attacks one group, the other group may escape."⁹ Jacob prayed, "O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, Lord, you who told me, 'Return to your homeland and relatives, and I will make you prosper,' ¹⁰ I am unworthy of all the kindness and faithfulness you have shown your servant. I crossed this Jordan with only my staff, and now I have become two camps. ¹¹ Please deliver me from the hand of my brother Esau, for I am afraid he will attack me, as well as the mothers with their children. ¹² Yet you have promised, 'I will surely make you prosper and make your descendants as numerous as the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted.'" ¹³ He spent the night there and selected a gift for his brother Esau from what he had with him: ¹⁴ two hundred she-goats and twenty he-goats, two hundred sheep and twenty rams, ¹⁵ thirty milking camels with their young, forty cows and ten bulls, and twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys. ¹⁶ He placed them under the care of his servants, each herd by itself, and instructed them, "Go ahead of me and keep some distance between the herds." ¹⁷ He directed the one leading, "When my brother Esau meets you and asks, 'To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and who owns all these animals in front of you?' ¹⁸ you are to reply, 'They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a gift sent to my lord Esau, and he is following us.'" ¹⁹ He instructed the second, the third, and all who followed the herds, "You are to say the same thing to Esau when you meet him. ²⁰ And be sure to say, 'Your servant Jacob is coming behind us.'" For he thought, "I will appease him with these gifts I am sending ahead; afterward, when I see him, perhaps he will accept me." ²¹ So Jacob's gifts went ahead of him, while he stayed in the camp that night. ²² That night Jacob arose, took his two wives, his two female servants, and his eleven sons, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. ²³ Once he had sent them across the stream, he also sent over all his belongings. ²⁴ Jacob found himself alone, and a man engaged in a struggle with him until daybreak. ²⁵ When the man realised he could not prevail against him, he touched the socket of Jacob's hip, causing it to be wrenched as they wrestled. ²⁶ Then the man said, "Let me go, for it is daybreak." But Jacob replied, "I will not release you unless you bless me." ²⁷ The man asked him, "What is your name?" "Jacob," he replied. ²⁸ Then the man said, "Your name will no longer be Jacob, but Israel, because you have struggled with God and with men and have prevailed." ²⁹ Jacob said, "Please tell me your name." But he replied, "Why do you ask my name?" And he blessed him there. ³⁰ So Jacob named the place Peniel, saying, "It is because I saw God face to face, and yet my life was spared." ³¹ The sun rose upon him as he passed Peniel, and he was limping because of his hip. ³² For this reason, to this day, the Israelites refrain from eating the tendon attached to the hip socket, because Jacob's hip was touched near the tendon.

Genesis

33 Jacob lifted his eyes and saw Esau approaching with four hundred men. He divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two maidservants. ² He placed the maidservants and their children in front, Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph at the back. ³ Jacob himself went ahead and bowed to the ground seven times as he drew near to his brother. ⁴ Esau ran to meet Jacob, embraced him, fell on his neck, and kissed him, and they both wept. ⁵ Esau looked up and noticed the women and children, asking, "Who are these with you?" Jacob replied, "These are the children God has graciously given to your servant." ⁶ Then the maidservants and their children came forward and bowed down. ⁷ Leah and her children also came forward and bowed down. Finally, Joseph and Rachel approached and bowed down. ⁸ Esau inquired, "What do you mean by all these droves I met?" Jacob answered, "To find favour in your sight, my lord." ⁹ Esau said, "I have plenty, my brother. Let what you have remain yours." ¹⁰ Jacob insisted, "No, please, if I have found favour in your sight, accept this gift from me, for seeing your face is like seeing the face of God, now that you have received me favourably." ¹¹ "Please accept the present brought to you, for God has been gracious to me and I have all I need." Because Jacob urged him, Esau accepted. ¹² Esau suggested, "Let us set out and go, and I will accompany you." ¹³ Jacob said, "My lord knows the children are frail, and I must care for the nursing flocks and herds. If driven hard for a day, the animals will perish." ¹⁴ "Please let my lord go ahead of his servant. I will move at a gentle pace, according to the livestock and children, until I come to my lord in Seir." ¹⁵ Esau offered, "Let me leave some of my men with you." But Jacob said, "Why do that? Let me find favour in the sight of my lord." ¹⁶ Esau then departed that day, continuing on his journey to Seir. ¹⁷ Jacob, however, travelled to Succoth, where he built a house and shelters for his livestock. Hence, the place is called Succoth. ¹⁸ Jacob arrived safely at the city of Shechem in Canaan, coming from Paddan-aram, and camped before the city.¹⁹ He purchased the plot of land where he had pitched his tent from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, for a hundred pieces of silver.²⁰ There he set up an altar and named it Elohe-Israel.

Genesis

34 Dinah, the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the daughters of the land.² When Shechem, the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her, he took her and lay with her, violating her.³ His heart was drawn to Dinah, the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the young woman and spoke tenderly to her.⁴ So Shechem said to his father Hamor, "Get me this young woman as my wife."⁵ When Jacob heard that his daughter Dinah had been defiled, his sons were with his livestock in the fields, so he held his peace until they returned.⁶ Then Hamor, the father of Shechem, went out to speak with Jacob.⁷ Now Jacob's sons came in from the fields when they heard about it; they were grieved and very angry, because Shechem had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter—a thing that ought not to be done.⁸ But Hamor spoke with them, saying, "The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter. Please give her to him as his wife."⁹ Form alliances in marriage with us; offer your daughters to us and accept ours for yourselves.¹⁰ You can live among us; the land is open to you. Dwell in it, trade in it, and acquire property in it."¹¹ Shechem addressed Dinah's father and brothers, "Grant me favour in your eyes, and I will give you whatever you ask."¹² Set the bridal price and gift as high as you like, and I will pay whatever you ask me. Only give me the young woman as my wife."¹³ Jacob's sons answered Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully, because he had defiled their sister Dinah.¹⁴ They said to them, "We cannot do such a thing—to give our sister to a man who is uncircumcised would be a disgrace to us."¹⁵ We will consent to you only on this condition: that you become like us by circumcising all your males.¹⁶ Then we will give you our daughters and take your daughters for ourselves. We will dwell among you and become one people.¹⁷ But if you will not agree to be circumcised, we will take our sister and go."¹⁸ Hamor and his son Shechem found the proposal agreeable.¹⁹ The young man, who was more respected than all his father's household, did not delay in doing what they said, because he was delighted with Jacob's daughter.²⁰ So Hamor and his son Shechem went to the city gate to speak to the men of their city.²¹ "These men are friendly with us," they said. "Let them dwell in the land and trade in it; the land is large enough for them. We can take their daughters as wives and give our daughters to them."²² But the men will consent to live with us as one people only on the condition that every male among us is circumcised, as they are.²³ Will not their livestock, their property and all their animals become ours? Let us agree to their terms, and they will settle among us."²⁴ All who went out of the city gate agreed with Hamor and his son Shechem, and every male in the city was circumcised.²⁵ Three days later, while they were still in pain, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords and attacked the unsuspecting city, killing every male.²⁶ They killed Hamor and his son Shechem with the sword and took Dinah from Shechem's house and departed.²⁷ Jacob's sons came upon the slain and looted the city, because their sister had been defiled.²⁸ They seized their flocks and herds and donkeys and everything else of theirs in the city and in the fields.²⁹ They carried off all their wealth and all their little ones and their wives, taking as plunder everything in the houses.³⁰ Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me by making me obnoxious to the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites and Perizzites. We are few in number, and if they join forces against me and attack me, I and my household will be destroyed."³¹ But they replied, "Should he have treated our sister with such gross dishonour?"

35 Then God instructed Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel and reside there, and construct an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau."² So Jacob told his household and all who were with him, "Remove the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, and change your garments."³ "Let us arise and go up to Bethel, where I will build an altar to God, who answered me in my time of distress and has been with me wherever I have travelled."⁴ They handed over to Jacob all the foreign gods they possessed and the rings in their ears, and Jacob buried them beneath the oak near Shechem.⁵ As they journeyed, a great terror from God fell upon the towns surrounding them, so no one pursued the sons of Jacob. ⁶ Jacob and all the people with him arrived at Luz (that is, Bethel) in the land of Canaan. ⁷ He built an altar there and named the place El-bethel, because it was there that God had revealed Himself to him when he fled from his brother. ⁸ Now Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, passed away and was buried beneath the oak below Bethel; it was named Allon-bacuth. ⁹ God once more revealed Himself to Jacob after his return from Paddan-aram, and He blessed him. ¹⁰ God said to him, "Your name is Jacob, but you shall no longer be called Jacob; Israel shall be your name." Thus He named him Israel. ¹¹ God also said to him, "I am God Almighty; be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a multitude of nations shall come from you, and kings shall emerge from you." ¹² "The land I gave to Abraham and Isaac I will give to you, and I will grant this land to your descendants after you." ¹³ Then God departed from him at the place where He had spoken with him. ¹⁴ Jacob set up a stone pillar at the place where God had spoken with him, and he poured out a drink offering on it and also poured oil on it. ¹⁵ Jacob called the place where God had spoken with him Bethel. ¹⁶ Then they departed from Bethel. When they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel went into labour and experienced severe difficulties. ¹⁷ During her intense labour, the midwife said to her, "Do not fear, for you have another son." ¹⁸ As she breathed her last—for she was dying—she named her son Ben-oni, but his father called him Benjamin. ¹⁹ Thus Rachel passed away and was laid to rest on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem). ²⁰ Jacob set up a pillar over her grave; it is the pillar of Rachel's grave to this day. ²¹ Israel continued his journey and set up his tent beyond the tower of Eder. ²² While Israel was residing in that land, Reuben went and lay with his father's concubine Bilhah, and Israel heard of it. Now Jacob had twelve sons: ²³ Leah's sons were Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun. ²⁴ Rachel had two sons: Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁵ The sons of Rachel's maidservant Bilhah were Dan and Naphtali. ²⁶ The sons of Leah's maidservant Zilpah were Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob, born to him in Paddan-aram. ²⁷ Jacob came to his father Isaac at Mamre, near Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had stayed. ²⁸ Isaac reached the age of one hundred and eighty years. ²⁹ Then he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people, old and full of years. His sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Genesis

36 These are the records of the lineage of Esau (also known as Edom). ² Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite— ³ and Basemath, the daughter of Ishmael the sister of Nebaioth. ⁴ Adah gave birth to Eliphaz for Esau, while Basemath gave birth to Reuel. ⁵ and Oholibamah gave birth to Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These also are the sons of Esau, who were born to him in the land of Canaan. ⁶ Esau took his wives, sons, daughters, and all members of his household, along with his livestock, cattle, and all his property acquired in Canaan, and moved to a land some distance from his brother Jacob. ⁷ For their possessions were too numerous for them to live together; the land where they resided could not support them because of their livestock. ⁸ Thus, Esau made his home in the hill country of Seir; Esau is Edom. ⁹ These are the records of the lineage of Esau, the father of the Edomites, in the hill country of Seir. ¹⁰ Here are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, born to Esau's wife Adah; and Reuel, born to Esau's wife Basemath. ¹¹ Eliphaz's sons were named Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz. ¹² Timna was a concubine of Esau's son Eliphaz, and she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These were the grandsons of Esau's wife Adah. ¹³ The sons of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath. ¹⁴ The sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon: she bore to Esau Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. ¹⁵ These were the chiefs among the descendants of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn of Esau: chiefs Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, ¹⁶ Korah, Gatam, and Amalek. These were the chiefs descended from Eliphaz in the land of Edom; they were the sons of Adah. ¹⁷ The sons of Reuel, Esau's son: chiefs Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the chiefs descended from Reuel in the land of Edom; they were the sons of Esau's wife Basemath. ¹⁸ The sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah: chiefs Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These were the chiefs descended from Esau's wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah. ¹⁹ These were the descendants of Esau, also known as Edom, and these were their chiefs. ²⁰ These were the descendants of Seir the Horite, who were residing in the region: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,²¹ Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the Horite leaders, the sons of Seir in the land of Edom.²² The sons of Lotan were Hori and Homam; and Timna was Lotan's sister.²³ Shobal's family included Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.²⁴ These were the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. This is the Anah who discovered the hot springs in the wilderness while he was pasturing the donkeys of his father Zibeon.²⁵ These were the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah.²⁶ These were the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran.²⁷ Ezer's family were Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.²⁸ Dishan's family were Uz and Aran.²⁹ These were the Horite leaders: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,³⁰ Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the Horite leaders, according to their divisions, in the land of Seir.³¹ These were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the Israelites.³² Bela, son of Beor, ruled in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.³³ When Bela died, Jobab, the son of Zerah from Bozrah, succeeded him as king.³⁴ When Jobab died, Husham from the territory of the Temanites took over as king.³⁵ When Husham died, Hadad, the son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the country of Moab, succeeded him as king; his city was named Avith.³⁶ When Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah took over as king.³⁷ When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth by the river became king.³⁸ When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan, the son of Akbor, succeeded him as king.³⁹ When Baal-Hanan, the son of Akbor, died, Hadar succeeded him as king. His city was named Pau, and his wife's name was Mehetabel, daughter of Matred, daughter of Mezahab.⁴⁰ These were the names of the chiefs descended from Esau, according to their families and their localities, by their names: chief Timna, chief Alvah, chief Jetheth,⁴¹ chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, and chief Pinon,⁴² chief Kenaz, chief Teman, and chief Mibzar,⁴³ chief Magdiel, and chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their settlements in the land they occupied. This is the lineage of Esau, the father of the Edomites.

Genesis

37 Jacob dwelt in the land where his father had resided as a foreigner, in the land of Canaan.² These are the records of Jacob's family line. Joseph, at the age of seventeen, was shepherding the flock with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives. Joseph brought a bad report about them to their father.³ Israel loved Joseph more than all his other sons, as he was the son of his old age; and he made him a coat of many colours.⁴ When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all of them, they hated him and could not speak to him in friendly terms.⁵ Joseph had a dream, and when he recounted it to his brothers, they hated him even more.⁶ He said to them, "Please listen to this dream I have had:⁷ We were binding sheaves in the field, and suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright, while your sheaves gathered around and bowed down to my sheaf."⁸ His brothers said to him, "Do you really think you will reign over us? Will you indeed rule over us?" So they hated him even more for his dreams and his words.⁹ Then he had another dream and told it to his brothers. "Listen," he said, "I have had another dream, and this time the sun, the moon, and eleven stars were bowing down to me."¹⁰ When he told his father and his brothers, his father rebuked him and said, "What is this dream you have had? Shall your mother and I and your brothers actually come to bow down to the ground before you?"¹¹ His brothers envied him, and his father did not let the matter pass from his mind.¹² His brothers went to graze their father's flock near Shechem.¹³ Israel said to Joseph, "Are your brothers not grazing the flock near Shechem? Come, I will send you to them." Joseph replied, "I will go."¹⁴ He said to him, "Go now and see if it is well with your brothers and with the flock, and bring word back to me." So he sent him from the Valley of Hebron, and he arrived at Shechem.¹⁵ A man found him wandering in the fields and asked him, "What are you looking for?"¹⁶ He replied, "I am looking for my brothers; can you tell me where they are grazing the flock?"¹⁷ The man said, "They have moved on from here; I heard them say, 'Let's go to Dothan.'" So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.¹⁸ When they saw him from a distance, before he reached them, they plotted to kill him.¹⁹ They said to each other, "Here comes this dreamer!²⁰ Come now, let's kill him and throw him into one of these pits; we can say a wild animal devoured him. Then we will see what becomes of his dreams."²¹ But Reuben heard this and tried to save him from their hands. "Let's not take his life," he said.²² "Do not shed blood. Throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but do not lay a hand on him.” Reuben said this to rescue him from them and return him to his father.²³ When Joseph reached his brothers, they stripped him of his coat, the coat of many colours he was wearing.²⁴ They took him and threw him into the pit. The pit was empty, without water.²⁵ As they sat down to eat a meal, they looked up and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels carrying spices, balm, and myrrh, on their way to Egypt.²⁶ Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is there if we kill our brother and cover up his blood?”²⁷ Come, let’s sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands on him; for he is our brother, our own flesh.” His brothers agreed.²⁸ When the Midianite traders passed by, they pulled Joseph out of the pit and sold him for twenty shekels of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took him to Egypt.²⁹ When Reuben returned to the pit and saw that Joseph was not there, he tore his garments.³⁰ He returned to his brothers and said, “The boy is not there! Where can I go now?”³¹ They took Joseph’s coat, slaughtered a goat, and dipped the coat in the blood.³² They brought the coat of many colours to their father and said, “We found this. Examine it to see whether it is your son’s coat.”³³ He recognised it and said, “It is my son’s coat! A wild animal has devoured him. Joseph has surely been torn to pieces.”³⁴ Jacob tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and mourned for his son for many days.³⁵ All his sons and daughters came to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. “No,” he said, “I will go down to the grave mourning for my son.” So his father wept for him.³⁶ In Egypt, the Midianites sold Joseph to Potiphar, a high-ranking official of Pharaoh, who was the captain of the guard.

Genesis

38 At that time, Judah departed from his brothers and went to stay with a certain Adullamite named Hirah.² There, Judah saw the daughter of a Canaanite man named Shua; he took her as his wife and had relations with her.³ She became pregnant by him and gave birth to a son, whom he named Er.⁴ She conceived again and gave birth to a son, whom she named Onan.⁵ She bore yet another son and named him Shelah; it was at Chezib that she gave birth to him.⁶ Judah found a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar.⁷ But Er, Judah’s firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the Lord, so the Lord put him to death.⁸ Then Judah said to Onan, “Go in to your brother’s wife and perform your duty as a brother-in-law to her, to raise up offspring for your brother.”⁹ But Onan knew that the offspring would not be his; so whenever he had relations with his brother’s wife, he spilled his seed on the ground to avoid providing offspring for his brother.¹⁰ What he did was displeasing in the sight of the Lord, so the Lord put him to death as well.¹¹ Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, “Live as a widow in your father’s house until my son Shelah grows up.” For he thought, “He might die too, like his brothers.” So Tamar went to live in her father’s house.¹² After a considerable time, Judah’s wife, the daughter of Shua, died. When Judah had recovered from his grief, he went to Timnah to his sheepshearers, accompanied by his friend Hirah the Adullamite.¹³ Tamar was informed, “Your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.”¹⁴ So she removed her widow’s garments, covered herself with a veil, and sat at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah. She saw that Shelah had grown up, yet she had not been given to him as a wife.¹⁵ When Judah saw her, he assumed she was a prostitute, because she had covered her face.¹⁶ Not realising she was his daughter-in-law, he approached her by the roadside and said, “Come now, let me have relations with you.” She asked, “What will you give me to have relations with me?”¹⁷ He replied, “I will send you a young goat from my flock.” She asked, “Will you give me a pledge until you send it?”¹⁸ He said, “What pledge shall I give you?” She answered, “Your seal and its cord, and the staff in your hand.” So he gave them to her and had relations with her, and she conceived by him.¹⁹ Then she got up and left, removed her veil, and put on her widow’s garments again.²⁰ Judah sent the young goat by his friend the Adullamite to retrieve the pledge from the woman, but he did not find her.²¹ He asked the men of the place, “Where is the temple prostitute who was by the road at Enaim?” They replied, “There has been no temple prostitute here.”²² So he returned to Judah and said, “I did not find her, and the men of the place said, ‘There has been no temple prostitute here.’”²³ Then Judah said, “Let her keep the things, or we will become a laughingstock. After all, I sent this young goat, but you did not find her.”²⁴ About three months later, Judah was informed, “Your daughter-in-law Tamar has prostituted herself, and she is now pregnant.” Judah said, “Bring her out and let her be burned!”²⁵ As she was being brought out, she sent a message to her father-in-law, saying, "I am pregnant by the man who owns these." She added, "Please examine and see whose signet ring, cord, and staff these are."

Genesis

²⁶ Judah recognised them and said, "She is more righteous than I, since I did not give her to my son Shelah." And he did not have relations with her again. ²⁷ When it was time for her to give birth, she was carrying twins. ²⁸ While she was giving birth, one of them put out his hand, and the midwife tied a scarlet thread on his wrist, saying, "This one came out first." ²⁹ But as he drew back his hand, his brother came out, and she said, "What a breach you have made for yourself!" So he was named Perez. ³⁰ Afterwards, his brother, who had the scarlet thread on his wrist, came out, and he was named Zerah.

39 Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt, and Potiphar, an Egyptian officer of Pharaoh and captain of the guard, purchased him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him there. ² The Lord was with Joseph, and he became a prosperous man, living in the house of his Egyptian master. ³ His master observed that the Lord was with him and that the Lord granted success to everything he undertook. ⁴ Joseph gained favour in his master's sight and became his personal attendant. Potiphar appointed him over his household, entrusting him with all he possessed. ⁵ From the time he made him overseer of his house and all he owned, the Lord blessed the Egyptian's household for Joseph's sake. The Lord's blessing was on everything he had, both in the house and in the fields. ⁶ So Potiphar left everything he had in Joseph's care, and with Joseph in charge, he concerned himself only with the food he ate. Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance. ⁷ After some time, his master's wife took notice of Joseph and said, "Lie with me." ⁸ But he refused and said to his master's wife, "With me in charge, my master does not concern himself with anything in the house; he has entrusted everything he owns to my care. ⁹ There is no one greater in this house than I am. My master has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How then could I do such a wicked thing and sin against God?" ¹⁰ Though she spoke to Joseph day after day, he did not heed her request to lie beside her or to be with her. ¹¹ One day he went into the house to perform his duties, and none of the household servants was present. ¹² She caught him by his garment and said, "Lie with me!" But he left his garment in her hand and fled outside. ¹³ Realising that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled outside, ¹⁴ she called to her household servants and said, "Look, this Hebrew has been brought to us to mock us! He came in to lie with me, but I screamed. ¹⁵ When he heard me raise my voice and scream, he left his garment beside me and fled outside." ¹⁶ She kept his garment beside her until his master returned home. ¹⁷ Then she recounted the incident to him, saying, "The Hebrew slave you brought us came to me to mock me. ¹⁸ But as soon as I raised my voice and screamed, he left his garment beside me and fled outside." ¹⁹ When his master heard the story his wife told him, saying, "This is what your slave did to me," he was furious. ²⁰ Joseph's master took him and placed him in the prison where the king's prisoners were confined. And he remained there in the prison. ²¹ But the Lord was with Joseph, showing him steadfast love and granting him favour in the sight of the prison warden. ²² The warden put Joseph in charge of all the prisoners held there, and he was responsible for all that was done in the prison. ²³ The warden paid no attention to anything under Joseph's charge, because the Lord was with him and made whatever he did prosper.

40 Some time later, the cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt offended their lord, the king of Egypt. ² Pharaoh became very angry with his two officials, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker. ³ He put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the same prison where Joseph was confined. ⁴ The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he attended to them; they were in custody for some time. ⁵ The cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, each had a dream the same night, and each dream had its own meaning. ⁶ When Joseph came to them in the morning, he noticed that they were dejected. ⁷ So he asked the officials of Pharaoh who were in custody with him in his master's house, "Why do you appear downcast today?" ⁸ They replied, "We have had dreams, and there is no one to interpret them." Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams, please." ⁹ So the chief cupbearer recounted his dream to Joseph, saying, "In my dream, there was a vine in front of me, ¹⁰ and on the vine were three branches. As it budded, its blossoms opened, and its clusters ripened into grapes. ¹¹ Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup, and placed the cup in his hand." ¹² Joseph said to him, "This is the interpretation: the three branches are three days. ¹³ Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position, and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand, just as you did when you were his cupbearer. ¹⁴ But when it goes well with you, remember me and show me kindness; mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison. ¹⁵ I was forcibly taken from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing to deserve being put in a dungeon." ¹⁶ When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was favourable, he said to Joseph, "I also had a dream: on my head were three baskets of bread. ¹⁷ In the top basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them from the basket on my head." ¹⁸ Joseph answered, "This is the interpretation: the three baskets are three days. ¹⁹ Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head and hang you on a pole, and the birds will eat your flesh." ²⁰ On the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, he held a feast for all his officials. He lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker in the presence of his officials: ²¹ He restored the chief cupbearer to his position, so that he once again placed the cup into Pharaoh's hand; ²² but he executed the chief baker, just as Joseph had interpreted to them. ²³ Yet the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph; he forgot about him.

Genesis

41 After two complete years, Pharaoh dreamed that he was standing by the River Nile. ² And from the river, seven cows came up, well-fed and sleek, and they grazed in the marsh grass. ³ Then seven other cows emerged after them from the Nile, ugly and thin, and they stood by the other cows on the riverbank. ⁴ The thin, ugly cows consumed the seven well-fed, sleek cows. Then Pharaoh awoke. ⁵ He fell asleep again and had a second dream: seven ears of grain, full and good, were growing on a single stalk. ⁶ Then seven other ears, thin and scorched by the east wind, sprouted after them. ⁷ The thin ears swallowed up the seven full ears. Then Pharaoh awoke, and it was a dream. ⁸ In the morning, his spirit was troubled, so he summoned all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh recounted his dreams to them, but none could interpret them for him. ⁹ Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, "Today I remember my faults. ¹⁰ Pharaoh was angry with his servants and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker. ¹¹ We each had a dream the same night, and each dream had its own interpretation. ¹² A young Hebrew was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams, and he interpreted them for us, giving each man the interpretation of his dream. ¹³ And things turned out just as he interpreted: I was restored to my position, and the other man was hanged." ¹⁴ So Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon. After he had shaved and changed his clothes, he came before Pharaoh. ¹⁵ Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have had a dream, and no one can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream to interpret it." ¹⁶ Joseph replied to Pharaoh, "It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace." ¹⁷ Pharaoh recounted to Joseph, "In my dream, I was stood on the bank of the Nile, ¹⁸ when seven cows, fat and sleek, came up out of the river and grazed in the marsh grass. ¹⁹ Then seven other cows came up after them, poor, very ugly and thin, such as I had never seen in all the land of Egypt. ²⁰ The thin, ugly cows consumed the seven fat cows that came up first. ²¹ But when they had eaten them, no one could tell that they had done so; they looked just as ugly as before. Then I awoke. ²² In my dream, I also saw seven ears of grain, full and good, growing on a single stalk. ²³ Then seven ears, withered, thin, and scorched by the east wind, sprouted after them. ²⁴ The thin ears swallowed up the seven good ears. I told this to the magicians, but none could explain it to me." ²⁵ Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "Pharaoh's dreams are one and the same. God has revealed to Pharaoh what He intends to do. ²⁶ The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years; it is one and the same dream. ²⁷ The seven thin and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years, and so are the seven worthless ears scorched by the east wind: they are seven years of famine. ²⁸ It is just as I said to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what He intends to do. ²⁹ Seven years of great abundance are to come, through all the land of Egypt, ³⁰ but seven years of famine will follow them. Then all the abundance in Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will devastate the land. ³¹ The prosperity in the land will fade from memory because the famine that follows it will be extremely severe.³² The reason the dream was given to Pharaoh in two forms is that the matter has been firmly decided by God, and He will carry it out soon.³³ Now let Pharaoh look for a discerning and wise man and put him in charge of the land of Egypt.³⁴ Let Pharaoh appoint overseers over the land and take a fifth of the harvest of Egypt during the seven years of abundance.³⁵ They should collect all the food of these good years that are coming and store up the grain under Pharaoh's authority, to be kept in the cities for food.³⁶ This food should be held in reserve for the country, to be used during the seven years of famine that will come upon Egypt, so that the country may not be devastated by the famine."³⁷ The plan seemed favourable to Pharaoh and to all his officials.³⁸ So Pharaoh asked them, "Can we find anyone like this man, one who possesses the spirit of God?"³⁹ Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has made all this known to you, there is no one as insightful and wise as you.⁴⁰ You shall oversee my palace, and all my people will follow your commands. Only in regard to the throne will I be greater than you."⁴¹ So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I hereby appoint you over the whole land of Egypt."⁴² Then Pharaoh took his signet ring from his finger and placed it on Joseph's finger. He dressed him in robes of fine linen and adorned him with a gold chain around his neck.⁴³ He had him ride in his second chariot, and people shouted before him, "Bow the knee!" Thus he put him in charge of the whole land of Egypt.⁴⁴ Then Pharaoh declared to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, yet without your consent, no one shall do anything in all Egypt."⁴⁵ Pharaoh gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-Paneah and gave him Asenath, daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, to be his wife. And Joseph journeyed throughout the land of Egypt.⁴⁶ Joseph was thirty years old when he began serving Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from Pharaoh's presence and travelled throughout Egypt.⁴⁷ Throughout the seven years of abundance, the land yielded generously.⁴⁸ Joseph gathered all the food produced in those seven years of abundance in Egypt and stored it in the cities. In each city, he placed the food grown in the fields surrounding it.⁴⁹ Joseph stored up huge quantities of grain, like the sand of the sea; it was so much that he stopped measuring it because it was beyond measure.⁵⁰ Before the years of famine arrived, Joseph had two sons with Asenath, daughter of Potiphera, priest of On.⁵¹ Joseph named his firstborn Manasseh and said, "It is because God has made me forget all my hardship and all my father's household."⁵² The second son he named Ephraim and said, "It is because God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."⁵³ The seven years of abundance in Egypt concluded,⁵⁴ and the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had foretold. There was famine in all the other lands, but in the entire land of Egypt, there was food.⁵⁵ When all Egypt began to feel the famine, the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Then Pharaoh instructed all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph and do what he tells you."⁵⁶ As the famine spread across the entire country, Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe throughout Egypt.⁵⁷ And people from all over the world came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe everywhere.

Genesis

42 When Jacob realised there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, "Why are you just looking at each other?"² He added, "I have heard there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us, so that we may live and not die."³ Thus, ten of Joseph's brothers journeyed to Egypt to purchase grain.⁴ However, Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with the others, for he feared harm might come to him.⁵ Thus, the sons of Israel were among those who went to buy grain, for the famine was also in the land of Canaan.⁶ Joseph was the governor of the land, the one who sold grain to all its people. When Joseph's brothers arrived, they bowed down to him with their faces to the ground.⁷ Upon seeing his brothers, Joseph recognised them, but he disguised himself and spoke harshly to them. "Where do you come from?" he asked. "From the land of Canaan," they replied, "to buy food."⁸ Joseph knew his brothers, but they did not recognise him.⁹ Joseph remembered the dreams he had about them and said, "You are spies! You have come to see where our land is unprotected."¹⁰ They responded, "No, my lord. We, your servants, have come to buy food."¹¹ We are all sons of one man. We are honest men, not spies."¹² But he insisted, "No, you have come to see where our land is unprotected."¹³ They replied, "Your servants are twelve brothers, sons of one man in Canaan. The youngest is with our father, and one is no more."¹⁴

Genesis

Joseph said to them, "It is as I warned: you are spies!" ¹⁵ This is how you will be tested: by the life of Pharaoh, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here. ¹⁶ Send one of your number to get your brother; the rest of you will remain confined, so that your words may be tested to see if you are telling the truth. Otherwise, by the life of Pharaoh, you are spies!" ¹⁷ And he had them all held in custody for three days. ¹⁸ On the third day, Joseph addressed them, saying, "Do this and you shall live, for I hold reverence for God: ¹⁹ If you are honest men, let one of your brothers stay here imprisoned, while the rest of you go and take grain back for your hungry households. ²⁰ But you must bring your youngest brother to me, so that your words may be verified and you will not die." And they agreed to do so. ²¹ They said to one another, "Surely we are being punished because of our brother. We saw his distress when he pleaded with us, but we would not listen; that is why this trouble has come upon us." ²² Reuben responded, "Did I not tell you not to sin against the boy? But you would not listen! Now justice for his blood is required." ²³ They were unaware that Joseph could understand them, since he was using an interpreter. ²⁴ Joseph turned away from them and wept, but then returned and spoke to them again. He took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes. ²⁵ Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain, to put each man's silver back in his sack, and to provide them with provisions for their journey. This was done for them. ²⁶ They loaded their grain onto their donkeys and set out. ²⁷ At the place where they stopped for the night, one of them opened his sack to feed his donkey, and he saw his silver in the mouth of his sack. ²⁸ "My silver has been returned," he said to his brothers. "Here it is in my sack." Their hearts sank, and they turned to each other trembling, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?" ²⁹ When they returned to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them, saying, ³⁰ "The man who is lord over the land spoke harshly to us and treated us as though we were spies of the country. ³¹ Yet we assured him, 'We are honest men; we are not spies. ³² We are twelve brothers, sons of one father. One is no more, and the youngest is with our father in Canaan.' ³³ Then the man who is lord over the land said to us, 'This is how I will know whether you are honest men: leave one of your brothers here with me, take grain for your starving households, and go. ³⁴ But bring your youngest brother to me so that I will know you are not spies but honest men. Then I will give your brother back to you, and you may trade in the land.'" ³⁵ As they were emptying their sacks, each man's pouch of silver was in his sack. When they and their father saw the money pouches, they were afraid. ³⁶ Their father Jacob said to them, "You have deprived me of my children. Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and now you want to take Benjamin. Everything is against me!" ³⁷ Reuben said to his father, "You may put my two sons to death if I do not bring him back to you. Entrust him to my care, and I will return him to you." ³⁸ But Jacob said, "My son shall not go down with you; his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm should happen to him on the journey you are taking, you will bring my grey hair down to Sheol in sorrow."

43 The famine continued to be severe in the land. ² When they had consumed all the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, "Return and purchase a little more food for us." ³ Judah replied to him, "The man sternly warned us, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.' ⁴ If you allow our brother to accompany us, we will go down and buy food for you. ⁵ But if you do not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'" ⁶ Israel asked, "Why did you bring this trouble upon me by telling the man you had another brother?" ⁷ They said, "The man questioned us closely about ourselves and our family, asking, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?' We answered his questions. How could we have known he would say, 'Bring your brother down here?'" ⁸ Then Judah said to his father Israel, "Send the boy with me, and we will set out at once, so that we, you, and our children may live and not die. ⁹ I will personally vouch for his safety; you may hold me accountable. If I do not bring him back and present him to you, I will bear the blame forever. ¹⁰ If we had not delayed, we could have gone and returned twice by now." ¹¹ Then their father Israel said, "If it must be so, then do this: take some of the best products of the land in your bags and carry them down to the man as a gift—a little balm, a little honey, some spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts, and almonds. ¹² Take double the money with you, and return the money that was placed back in the mouths of your sacks. Perhaps it was an oversight.¹³ Take your brother as well, and return to the man without delay.¹⁴ And may God Almighty grant you compassion in the sight of the man, so that he will release your other brother and Benjamin to you. As for me, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved.”¹⁵ So the men took the gifts and double the money, and Benjamin also. They hurried down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.¹⁶ When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, “Take these men to my house, slaughter an animal, and prepare a meal; they are to dine with me at noon.”¹⁷ The steward did as Joseph instructed and brought the men to Joseph’s house.¹⁸ The men were afraid when they were brought to Joseph’s house. They thought, “We are brought here because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time. He intends to attack us, overpower us, and seize us as slaves, along with our donkeys.”¹⁹ So they approached Joseph’s steward and spoke to him at the entrance of the house.²⁰ They said, “Pardon us, my lord, we indeed came down here the first time to buy food.”²¹ But when we reached our campsite, we opened our sacks and found each man’s money in the mouth of his sack—our money in full. So we have brought it back with us.²² We have also brought additional money with us to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks.”²³ The steward said, “Peace be with you; do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; I received your money.” Then he brought Simeon out to them.²⁴ The steward brought the men into Joseph’s house, gave them water to wash their feet, and provided fodder for their donkeys.²⁵ They prepared their gifts for Joseph’s arrival at noon, for they had heard they were to dine there.²⁶ When Joseph came home, they presented to him the gifts they had brought into the house, and they bowed down to the ground before him.²⁷ He asked them about their welfare, and said, “Is your elderly father, of whom you spoke, still alive?”²⁸ They replied, “Your servant our father is still alive and well.” And they bowed down in homage.²⁹ As he looked around and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son, he asked, “Is this your youngest brother, the one you told me about?” And he said, “May God be gracious to you, my son.”³⁰ Deeply moved at the sight of his brother, Joseph hurried out and sought a place to weep. He entered his private chamber and wept there.³¹ After washing his face, he came out and, controlling himself, said, “Serve the meal.”³² They served him by himself, the brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because Egyptians could not eat with Hebrews, for that is detestable to them.³³ The men were seated before him in the order of their ages, from the firstborn to the youngest, and they looked at one another in astonishment.³⁴ When portions were served to them from Joseph’s table, Benjamin’s serving was five times larger than anyone else’s. So they feasted and drank freely with him.

Genesis

44 Joseph instructed the steward of his house, “Fill the men’s sacks with as much food as they can carry, and place each man’s money at the top of his sack.² Also, put my silver cup in the top of the youngest one’s sack, along with his money for the grain.” And the steward did as Joseph commanded.³ As morning broke, the men set off with their donkeys.⁴ They had just left the city and were not far off when Joseph said to his steward, “Go after those men immediately, and when you catch up with them, ask, ‘Why have you repaid good with evil?’⁵ Is this not the cup my master drinks from and uses for divination? You have committed a wrong.”⁶ When he caught up with them, he relayed these words to them.⁷ They responded, “Why does my lord speak such words? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing!⁸ We even brought back to you from Canaan the money we found in the mouths of our sacks. Why would we steal silver or gold from your master’s house?”⁹ If any of your servants is found with it, he shall die, and the rest of us will become my lord’s slaves.”¹⁰ He replied, “Let it be as you say. Whoever is found with it will become my slave; the rest will be free from blame.”¹¹ Each man quickly lowered his sack to the ground and opened it.¹² The steward began to search, starting with the oldest and ending with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin’s sack.¹³ At this, they tore their clothes in grief. Each man loaded his donkey, and they returned to the city.¹⁴ When Judah and his brothers arrived at Joseph’s house, he was still there, and they fell to the ground before him.¹⁵ Joseph asked them, “What is this deed you have done? Do you not know that a man like me can indeed practice divination?”¹⁶ Judah replied, “What can we say to my lord? How can we justify ourselves? God has uncovered the guilt of your servants. We are now my lord's slaves, both we and the one found with the cup." ¹⁷ But Joseph said, "Far be it from me to do this. Only the man found with the cup will become my slave. The rest of you, return to your father in peace." ¹⁸ Then Judah approached him and said, "Please, my lord, let your servant speak a word in my lord's ears, and do not be angry with your servant, for you are like Pharaoh himself. ¹⁹ My lord inquired of his servants, 'Do you have a father or a brother?' ²⁰ We answered, 'We have an elderly father and a young son born to him in his old age. His brother is dead, and he is the only one left of his mother's children, and his father loves him.' ²¹ Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me so I may see him.' ²² We told my lord, 'The boy cannot leave his father; if he leaves, his father would die.' ²³ But you said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes with you, you will not see my face again.' ²⁴ When we returned to your servant my father, we relayed what my lord had said. ²⁵ Our father instructed us, 'Go back and buy a little more food.' ²⁶ But we said, 'We cannot go down unless our youngest brother is with us. We cannot see the man's face unless he is with us.' ²⁷ Your servant my father implored us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons. ²⁸ One left me, and I said, 'He must have been torn to pieces.' I have not seen him since. ²⁹ If you take this one from me too and harm befalls him, you will bring my grey head down to the grave in misery.' ³⁰ Now, if the boy is not with us when I return to your servant my father, and if my father, whose life is closely tied to the boy's life, ³¹ sees that the boy is not with us, he will die. Your servants will bring the grey head of our father down to the grave in sorrow. ³² Your servant guaranteed the boy's safety to my father, saying, 'If I do not bring him back, I will bear the blame before my father all my life.' ³³ Now, please let your servant remain as my lord's slave in place of the boy, and let the boy return with his brothers. ³⁴ How can I return to my father if the boy is not with me? I fear to see the misery that would overtake my father."

Genesis

45 Then Joseph could no longer restrain himself before all those standing by him, and he called out, "Have everyone leave me!" So there was no one with Joseph when he revealed himself to his brothers. ² He wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and the news reached Pharaoh's household. ³ Joseph said to his brothers,

"I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?" But his brothers were unable to answer him, for they were terrified in his presence. ⁴ Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come closer to me." When they had approached, he said, "I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. ⁵ Now, do not be distressed or angry with yourselves for selling me here, because God sent me ahead of you to preserve life. ⁶ For the famine has been in the land for two years, and there are still five years in which there will be no ploughing or harvesting. ⁷ God sent me ahead of you to ensure a remnant on earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance. ⁸ So it was not you who sent me here, but God. He has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of all his household, and ruler over all Egypt. ⁹ Hurry back to my father and say to him, 'This is what your son Joseph says: God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me; do not delay. ¹⁰ You shall live in the land of Goshen and be near me—you, your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and all that you have. ¹¹ I will provide for you there, for there are still five years of famine to come, lest you and your household and all you have become destitute.' ¹² Behold, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is I who am speaking to you. ¹³ Tell my father about all my honour in Egypt and about everything you have seen. And bring my father down here quickly." ¹⁴ Then he embraced his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin wept on his shoulder. ¹⁵ He kissed all his brothers and wept over them. Afterwards, his brothers talked with him. ¹⁶ When the news reached Pharaoh's house that Joseph's brothers had come, it pleased Pharaoh and his servants. ¹⁷ Pharaoh instructed Joseph, "Tell your brothers, 'Here is what you should do: Load your animals and return to the land of Canaan, ¹⁸ and bring your father and your households back to me. I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you shall enjoy the fat of the land.' ¹⁹ You are also instructed, 'Do this: Take some wagons from Egypt for your little ones and your wives, and bring your father and come. ²⁰ Do not worry about your belongings, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.'" ²¹ The sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them wagons, as Pharaoh had commanded, and also provided them with provisions for the journey. ²² He gave each of them changes of garments, but to Benjamin, he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of garments. ²³ To his father he sent the following: ten donkeys loaded with the best things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and provisions for the journey.²⁴ He sent his brothers away, and as they departed, he said to them, "Do not quarrel on the way!"²⁵ They went up from Egypt and came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan.²⁶ They told him, "Joseph is still alive, and indeed he is ruler over all Egypt." Jacob was stunned, for he did not believe them.²⁷ But when they recounted to him all the words Joseph had spoken to them, and when he saw the wagons Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived.²⁸ Then Israel declared, "This is enough; my son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

Genesis

46 So Israel set out with all his belongings, and upon arriving at Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.² And God spoke to Israel in a vision during the night, saying, "Jacob, Jacob." And he responded, "Here I am."³ God said, "I am God, the God of your father. Do not fear going down to Egypt, for there I will make you into a great nation.⁴ I will go down to Egypt with you, and I will surely bring you back again. And Joseph himself will close your eyes."⁵ Then Jacob departed from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel transported their father Jacob, their children, and their wives in the carts Pharaoh had sent for him.⁶ They took their livestock and their possessions, which they had acquired in Canaan, and went to Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him.⁷ His sons and grandsons, his daughters and granddaughters—all his descendants he brought with him to Egypt.⁸ These are the names of the sons of Israel who went to Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn.⁹ Reuben had sons named Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.¹⁰ The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, whose mother was a Canaanite.¹¹ Levi's sons were named Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.¹² The sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.¹³ The sons of Issachar: Tola, Puvvah, Iob, and Shimron.¹⁴ Zebulun's sons were named Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.¹⁵ These were the sons Leah bore to Jacob in Paddan-aram, along with his daughter Dinah. All his sons and daughters numbered thirty-three.¹⁶ These were the sons of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.¹⁷ The sons of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah, with their sister Serah. The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.¹⁸ These were the children born to Jacob by Zilpah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Leah—sixteen in total.¹⁹ Rachel, Jacob's wife, bore him Joseph and Benjamin.²⁰ In Egypt, Joseph had two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, with Asenath, daughter of Potiphera, priest of On.²¹ The sons of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.²² These were the children of Rachel who were born to Jacob—fourteen in total.²³ The son of Dan was called Hushim.²⁴ Naphtali's sons were named Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.²⁵ These were the sons born to Jacob by Bilhah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Rachel—seven in total.²⁶ All the people belonging to Jacob who went to Egypt, his direct descendants, not including the wives of Jacob's sons, were sixty-six in total.²⁷ With the two sons born to Joseph in Egypt, all the members of Jacob's household who went to Egypt were seventy in total.²⁸ Jacob sent Judah ahead to Joseph to get directions to Goshen. When they arrived in the region of Goshen,²⁹ Joseph prepared his chariot and went to Goshen to meet his father Israel. As soon as he appeared before him, he embraced him and wept for a long time.³⁰ Israel said to Joseph, "Now I am ready to die, having seen for myself that you are still alive."³¹ Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and speak to Pharaoh, and tell him, 'My brothers and my father's household, who were living in Canaan, have come to me.³² The men are shepherds; they have tended livestock, and they have brought along their flocks, herds, and everything they own.'³³ When Pharaoh summons you and inquires, 'What is your occupation?'³⁴ you should say, 'Your servants have tended livestock from our youth until now, as did our fathers.' This will allow you to settle in the region of Goshen, for all shepherds are detestable to the Egyptians."

47 Joseph went to Pharaoh and said, "My father and brothers, along with their flocks, herds, and all they possess, have come from Canaan and are now in Goshen."² He selected five of his brothers to present before Pharaoh.³ Pharaoh inquired of them, "What is your occupation?" They answered, "Your servants are shepherds, as were our ancestors."⁴ They continued, "We have come to reside here temporarily, for the famine in Canaan is severe and there is no pasture for our flocks. Please allow your servants to dwell in Goshen.”⁵ Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, “Your father and brothers have come to you.”⁶ The land of Egypt is at your disposal; settle your family in the best part of the land. Let them reside in Goshen. If any among them are capable, put them in charge of my livestock.”⁷ Joseph then brought his father Jacob to Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.⁸ Pharaoh asked Jacob, “How many years have you lived?”⁹ Jacob responded, “The years of my sojourning are 130. My years have been few and difficult, not reaching the lifespan of my ancestors during their sojourning.”¹⁰ Jacob blessed Pharaoh again and departed from his presence.¹¹ Joseph settled his father and brothers in Egypt, granting them property in the best part of the land, the region of Rameses, as Pharaoh commanded.¹² Joseph also provided food for his father, brothers, and all his father’s household, according to the number of their dependents.¹³ There was no food in the entire region due to the severity of the famine; Egypt and Canaan languished because of it.¹⁴ Joseph gathered all the money found in Egypt and Canaan in exchange for grain, and he brought it to Pharaoh’s house.¹⁵ When all the money in Egypt and Canaan was exhausted, the Egyptians approached Joseph, saying, “Give us food. Why should we perish before you? Our money is spent.”¹⁶ Joseph replied, “Bring your livestock, and I will provide food in exchange for them, since your money is gone.”¹⁷ They brought their livestock to Joseph, and he supplied them with food in exchange for their horses, sheep, goats, cattle, and donkeys. He sustained them through that year with food for their livestock.¹⁸ When that year concluded, they returned the following year and said, “We cannot hide from our lord that our money is gone and our livestock belongs to you. There is nothing left for our lord but our bodies and our land.”¹⁹ Why should we perish before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we will become Pharaoh’s servants. Provide us with seed so we may live and not die, and so the land does not become desolate.”²⁰ Joseph acquired all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. Every Egyptian sold his field because the famine was severe, and the land became Pharaoh’s.²¹ Joseph relocated the people to the cities from one end of Egypt to the other.²²

Genesis

However, he did not purchase the land of the priests, as they received a regular allotment from Pharaoh and lived off it, so they did not sell their land.²³ Joseph told the people, “Today I have bought you and your land for Pharaoh. Here is seed for you to sow the land.”²⁴ At harvest, you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and the remaining four-fifths will be yours for seed for the fields and for food for yourselves, your households, and your children.”²⁵ They said, “You have saved our lives! May we find favour in the eyes of our lord; we will be Pharaoh’s servants.”²⁶ Joseph established a law concerning the land of Egypt, still in force today, that a fifth of the produce belongs to Pharaoh. Only the land of the priests did not become Pharaoh’s.²⁷ The Israelites settled in Egypt, in the region of Goshen. They acquired property and were fruitful, multiplying greatly.²⁸ Jacob lived in Egypt for seventeen years, and his lifespan was 147 years.²⁹ When the time approached for Israel to die, he summoned his son Joseph and said, “If I have found favour in your sight, place your hand under my thigh and promise to show me kindness and faithfulness. Do not bury me in Egypt,³⁰ but when I rest with my fathers, carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place.” Joseph said, “I will do as you say.”³¹ “Swear to me,” Jacob insisted. So Joseph swore to him, and Israel worshipped as he leaned on the top of his staff.

48 After these events, Joseph was informed, “Your father is unwell.” So he took his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, with him.² When Jacob received the news, “Your son Joseph has come to you,” Israel gathered his strength and sat up in bed.³ Jacob spoke to Joseph, “God Almighty revealed Himself to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and bestowed His blessing upon me,⁴ saying to me, ‘I will make you fruitful and multiply your descendants. I will make you a multitude of peoples, and I will give this land to your descendants as an everlasting possession.’”⁵ “Now your two sons, born to you in Egypt before I arrived here, will be considered as mine; Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are.”⁶ Any offspring born to you after them will be yours; they will be recorded under the names of their brothers in their inheritance.⁷ As I was returning from Paddan, Rachel died in the land of Canaan, to my sorrow, while we were still on the journey, a little distance from Ephrath. So I buried her there on the way to Ephrath" (that is, Bethlehem). ⁸ Upon seeing Joseph's sons, Israel asked, "Who are these?" ⁹ Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me here." Then Israel said, "Bring them to me, please, so that I may bless them." ¹⁰ Now Israel's eyes were failing due to old age, and he could hardly see. So Joseph brought them near, and his father kissed and embraced them. ¹¹ Israel remarked to Joseph, "I never expected to see your face again, and now God has allowed me to see your children as well." ¹² Joseph then moved them from Israel's knees and bowed down with his face to the ground. ¹³ Joseph took both of them, Ephraim with his right hand towards Israel's left hand, and Manasseh with his left hand towards Israel's right hand, and brought them close to him. ¹⁴ But Israel stretched out his right hand and placed it on Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and crossing his arms, he placed his left hand on Manasseh's head, even though Manasseh was the firstborn. ¹⁵ Then he blessed Joseph and said, "The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has been my shepherd throughout my life to this day, ¹⁶ the angel who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the boys. May my name be perpetuated in them, and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and may they grow into a multitude on the earth." ¹⁷ When Joseph saw his father placing his right hand on Ephraim's head, it displeased him; so he took hold of his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. ¹⁸ Joseph said to his father, "Please, my father, this one is the firstborn. Place your right hand on his head." ¹⁹ But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know. He too will become a people, and he too will be great. However, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a multitude of nations." ²⁰ He blessed them that day, saying, "By you Israel will pronounce blessings, saying, 'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.'" Thus he put Ephraim before Manasseh. ²¹ Then Israel said to Joseph, "I am about to die, but God will be with you and will bring you back to the land of your fathers. ²² And I give you one portion more than your brothers, which I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow."

Genesis

"Come together and hear, sons of Jacob; give heed to Israel, your father. ³ "Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might and the beginning of my strength, excelling in dignity and power. ⁴ Unstable as water, you will not excel, for you went up to your father's bed; you defiled it—he went up to my couch. ⁵ "Simeon and Levi are brothers; their swords are instruments of violence. ⁶ Let my soul not enter their council; let my glory not be united with their assembly, for in their anger they killed men, and in their self-will they hamstrung oxen. ⁷ Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce, and their wrath, for it is cruel! I will scatter them in Jacob and disperse them in Israel. ⁸ "Judah, your brothers will honour you; your hand will be on the neck of your enemies; your father's sons will bow down to you. ⁹ Judah is a lion's cub; from the prey, my son, you have gone up. He crouches and lies down like a lion, and like a lioness—who dares to rouse him? ¹⁰ The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until he to whom it belongs shall come, and the obedience of the peoples shall be his. ¹¹ He ties his donkey to the vine, his colt to the choice branch; he washes his garments in wine, and his robes in the blood of grapes. ¹² His eyes are more lustrous than wine, and his teeth are whiter than milk. ¹³ "Zebulun shall dwell by the seashore and be a haven for ships; his border shall extend towards Sidon. ¹⁴ "Issachar is like a robust donkey, resting among the sheepfolds. ¹⁵ When he saw that his resting place was good and that the land was pleasant, he bowed his shoulder to bear burdens and became a servant at forced labour. ¹⁶ "Dan shall govern his people as one of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁷ Dan shall be a serpent by the roadside, a viper along the path, that bites the horse's heels so that its rider falls backward. ¹⁸ "For your deliverance I wait, O Lord. ¹⁹ "Gad shall be raided by a band of raiders, but he shall raid at their heels. ²⁰ "Asher's food will be abundant, and he shall yield delicacies fit for royalty. ²¹ "Naphtali is a free doe; he speaks with grace. ²² "Joseph is a fruitful vine, a fruitful vine by a spring; its branches run over a wall. ²³ The archers attacked him with bitterness; they shot at him and harassed him. ²⁴ But his bow remained firm, and his arms were agile, by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, by the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel, ²⁵ by the God of your father who helps you, and by the Almighty who blesses you with blessings from the heavens above, blessings from the deep below, blessings of the breast and womb. ²⁶ The blessings of your father have exceeded the blessings of the ancient mountains, the bounty of the age-old hills. May they rest on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the prince among his brothers. ²⁷ "Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; in the morning he devours the prey, and in the evening he divides the plunder." ²⁸ All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them when he blessed them, giving each an appropriate blessing. ²⁹ Then he instructed them, saying, "I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite, ³⁰ the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre in Canaan, which Abraham bought along with the field from Ephron the Hittite as a burial site. ³¹ There Abraham and his wife Sarah were laid to rest, there Isaac and his wife Rebekah were laid to rest, and there I laid Leah to rest. ³² The field and the cave in it were purchased from the sons of Heth." ³³ When Jacob had finished giving instructions to his sons, he drew his feet into the bed, breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

Genesis

50 Joseph fell upon his father's face, weeping over him and kissing him. ² Joseph instructed the physicians in his service to embalm his father Israel. So the physicians embalmed him. ³ The embalming took forty days, as that was the customary period required. The Egyptians mourned for him seventy days. ⁴ When the days of mourning were completed, Joseph spoke to Pharaoh's household, saying, "If I have found favour in your eyes, please speak to Pharaoh on my behalf, saying, ⁵ 'My father made me swear an oath, saying, "Behold, I am about to die; in the grave I prepared for myself in the land of Canaan, you shall bury me there." Now let me go up and bury my father; then I will return.'" ⁶ Pharaoh replied, "Go and bury your father, as he made you swear." ⁷ So Joseph went up to bury his father. With him went all of Pharaoh's officials, the elders of his household, and all the elders of Egypt, ⁸ along with all of Joseph's household, his brothers, and his father's household. Only their children, flocks, and herds were left in Goshen. ⁹ Chariots and horsemen also accompanied him. It was a very large company. ¹⁰ When they reached the threshing floor of Atad, beyond the Jordan, they mourned with a very great and sorrowful lamentation; Joseph observed a seven-day mourning period for his father. ¹¹ When the Canaanites who lived there saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a solemn mourning for the Egyptians." Therefore, the place was named Abel Mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan. ¹² So Jacob's sons did for him as he had instructed them: ¹³ They carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah, opposite Mamre, which Abraham had bought along with the field as a burial site from Ephron the Hittite. ¹⁴ After burying his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, along with his brothers and all who had gone up with him to bury his father. ¹⁵ When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "What if Joseph holds a grudge against us and repays us for all the wrongs we did to him?" ¹⁶ Therefore, they sent word to Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this command before he died: ¹⁷ 'This is what you are to say to Joseph: I beg you, forgive the transgressions of your brothers and their sin, for they treated you badly.' Now please forgive the transgressions of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. ¹⁸ Then his brothers also came and bowed down before him, saying, "Behold, we are your servants." ¹⁹ But Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God? ²⁰ You intended to harm me, but God used it for good, to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives. ²¹ So then, do not be afraid. I will provide for you and your little ones." And he comforted them and spoke kindly to them. ²² Joseph remained in Egypt, he and his father's household. He lived to be a hundred and ten years old. ²³ He saw the third generation of Ephraim's children, and also the children of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were born upon Joseph's knees. ²⁴ Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die, but God will surely come to your aid and bring you up from this land to the land He promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob." ²⁵ Then Joseph made the sons of Israel swear an oath, saying, "God will surely come to your aid, and you must carry my bones up from this place." ²⁶ So Joseph passed away at the age of a hundred and ten, and after they embalmed him, he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

1 Here are the names of the sons of Israel who journeyed to Egypt with Jacob, each accompanied by his household: ² Reuben, Simeon, Levi, along with Judah; ³ Issachar, Zebulun, together with Benjamin; ⁴ Dan and Naphtali, along with Gad and Asher. ⁵ The descendants of Jacob were seventy in total, but Joseph was already in Egypt. ⁶ Then Joseph died, along with all his brothers and all that generation. ⁷ The Israelites were fruitful and increased greatly; they multiplied and grew exceedingly strong, and the land was filled with them. ⁸ Now a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know of Joseph. ⁹ He said to his people, "Behold, the Israelites have become too numerous and too powerful for us. ¹⁰ Come, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply further, and in the event of war, they might join our enemies, fight against us, and leave the land." ¹¹ So they appointed taskmasters over them to oppress them with forced labour, and they built storage cities for Pharaoh, Pithom and Rameses. ¹² Yet the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread, so the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites. ¹³ The Egyptians ruthlessly compelled the Israelites to labour, ¹⁴ making their lives bitter with hard service in mortar and bricks and all kinds of labour in the fields; all their service was imposed on them with harshness. ¹⁵ The king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiprah, and the other Puah; ¹⁶ and he said, "When you assist the Hebrew women in childbirth and observe them on the birthstool, if it is a son, you shall kill him; but if it is a daughter, she shall live." ¹⁷ However, the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the boys live. ¹⁸ The king of Egypt called for the midwives and asked them, "Why have you acted in this way and allowed the boys to live?" ¹⁹ The midwives replied to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; they are vigorous and give birth before the midwives arrive." ²⁰ Therefore, God was kind to the midwives, and the people multiplied and grew very strong. ²¹ And because the midwives feared God, He provided them with families of their own. ²² Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, "Every son that is born you shall cast into the Nile, but every daughter you shall let live."

2 Now a man from the tribe of Levi went and married a Levite woman. ² The woman conceived and bore a son; seeing that he was a fine child, she hid him for three months. ³ When she could hide him no longer, she took a papyrus basket, coated it with tar and pitch, placed the child in it, and set it among the reeds by the Nile's bank. ⁴ His sister stood at a distance to watch what would happen to him. ⁵ Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe in the Nile, and her attendants walked along the riverbank. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her slave girl to fetch it. ⁶ Upon opening it, she saw the crying baby and felt compassion for him, saying, "This is one of the Hebrew children." ⁷ Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call a Hebrew woman who is nursing, to nurse the child for you?" ⁸ "Go," Pharaoh's daughter replied. So the girl went and called the child's mother. ⁹ Pharaoh's daughter instructed her, "Take this child and nurse him for me, and I will pay you." So the woman took the child and nursed him. ¹⁰ When the child grew older, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses, saying, "I drew him out of the water." ¹¹ In those days, when Moses had grown up, he went out to his people and observed their hard labour, and he saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of his own people. ¹² He looked around and, seeing no one, he struck down the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. ¹³ The following day, he went out and noticed two Hebrews in conflict. He asked the one in the wrong, "Why are you striking your fellow Hebrew?" ¹⁴ The man retorted, "Who made you a ruler and judge over us? Are you planning to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?" Moses then feared and thought, "Surely the matter is known." ¹⁵ When Pharaoh heard of this, he sought to kill Moses, but Moses fled from Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian, where he sat down by a well. ¹⁶ The priest of Midian had seven daughters, who came to draw water and fill the troughs to water their father's flock. ¹⁷ Some shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses stood up, helped them, and watered their flock. ¹⁸ When the girls returned to their father Reuel, he asked, "Why have you returned so early today?" ¹⁹ They replied, "An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds; he even drew water for us and watered the flock." ²⁰ "Where is he?" Reuel asked his daughters. "Why did you leave him? Invite him to join us for a meal.”²¹ Moses agreed to stay with the man, who gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses as his wife.²² Zipporah gave birth to a son, and Moses named him Gershom, saying, “I have become a wanderer in a foreign land.”²³ During that long period, the king of Egypt died. The Israelites groaned under their bondage and cried out, and their cry for help because of their slavery reached God.²⁴ God heard their groaning and was mindful of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.²⁵ God looked on the Israelites and took notice of them.

Exodus

3 Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro, his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. He led the flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.² There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a blazing fire from within a bush. Moses saw that the bush was on fire but it was not consumed.³ So Moses thought, “I will turn aside and see this remarkable sight—why the bush does not burn up.”⁴ When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to look, God called to him from within the bush, “Moses, Moses!” And Moses replied, “Here I am.”⁵ “Do not come any closer,” God instructed. “Remove your sandals, for the place where you are standing is sacred ground.”⁶ Then He said, “I am the God of your father—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” At this, Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.⁷ The Lord said, “I have surely seen the affliction of My people in Egypt and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters, for I am aware of their sufferings.”⁸ So I have come down to deliver them from the power of the Egyptians and to bring them up from that land to a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey—the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.”⁹ And now, behold, the cry of the Israelites has reached me, and I have seen how the Egyptians are oppressing them.¹⁰ So go now: I am commissioning you to Pharaoh to lead My people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.”¹¹ But Moses asked God, “Who am I to approach Pharaoh and lead the Israelites out of Egypt?”¹² And God said, “Certainly I will be with you. And this will be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain.”¹³ Then Moses said to God, “Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they ask me,

‘What is His name?’ What shall I say to them?”¹⁴ God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM. This is what you are to tell the Israelites: ‘I AM has sent me to you.’”¹⁵ God also said to Moses, “Tell the Israelites, ‘The Lord, the God of your ancestors—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob—has sent me to you.’ This is My name forever, the name by which I am to be remembered from generation to generation.”¹⁶ “Go, gather the elders of Israel and say to them, ‘The Lord, the God of your ancestors—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—appeared to me and said: I have watched over you and have seen what has been done to you in Egypt.’”¹⁷ And I have promised to bring you up out of your affliction in Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites—a land flowing with milk and honey.”¹⁸ “The elders of Israel will heed you. Then you and the elders are to go to the king of Egypt and say to him, ‘The Lord, the God of the Hebrews, has encountered us. Let us take a three-day journey into the wilderness to offer sacrifices to the Lord our God.’”¹⁹ But I am aware that the king of Egypt will not permit you to leave unless compelled by a powerful hand.²⁰ So I will extend My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders which I will perform in their midst. After that, he will let you go.²¹ “And I will cause the Egyptians to look favourably upon this people, so that when you leave you will not go empty-handed.”²² Every woman is to request from her neighbour and any woman living in her house for articles of silver and gold and for clothing, which you will put on your sons and daughters. In this way, you will take the wealth of the Egyptians.”

4 Moses responded, “What if they do not believe me or heed my words, and say, ‘The Lord has not appeared to you?’”² The Lord asked him, “What is that in your hand?” He answered, “A staff.”³ The Lord instructed, “Throw it on the ground.” So Moses threw it, and it became a serpent, causing him to flee from it.⁴ Then the Lord said to Moses, “Reach out your hand and seize it by the tail.” So he reached out, grasped it, and it turned back into a staff in his hand.⁵ “This is so they may believe that the Lord, the God of their ancestors—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—has appeared to you.”⁶ The Lord then said, “Put your hand inside your cloak.” Moses put his hand inside, and when he withdrew it, it was leprous, white as snow.⁷ “Now put your hand back into your cloak," He commanded. Moses did so, and when he took it out, it was restored like the rest of his flesh. ⁸ The Lord continued, "If they do not believe you or pay attention to the first sign, they may believe the second." ⁹ But if they do not believe even these two signs or listen to you, take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground. The water you take will become blood on the ground." ¹⁰ Moses said to the Lord, "Please, my Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor since you have spoken to your servant. I am slow of speech and tongue." ¹¹ The Lord replied, "Who has made the human mouth? Who makes one mute or deaf, seeing or blind? Is it not I, the Lord?" ¹² Now go; I will be with your mouth and will teach you what to say." ¹³ But Moses pleaded, "Please, my Lord, send someone else." ¹⁴ Then the Lord's anger burned against Moses and He said, "What about your brother Aaron the Levite? I know he speaks well. He is already on his way to meet you, and he will be glad to see you." ¹⁵ You shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth; I will be with both of you as you speak and will instruct you in what to do. ¹⁶ He will speak to the people for you, and it will be as if he were your mouth and you were God to him. ¹⁷ But carry this staff in your hand, with it you shall perform the signs." ¹⁸ Moses then returned to Jethro, his father-in-law, and said, "Please let me go back to my people in Egypt to see if they are still alive." Jethro replied, "Go in peace." ¹⁹ Now the Lord had said to Moses in Midian, "Return to Egypt, for all those who sought your life are dead." ²⁰ So Moses took his wife and sons, mounted them on a donkey, and set out for Egypt, carrying the staff of God in his hand. ²¹ The Lord instructed Moses, "When you return to Egypt, perform before Pharaoh all the wonders I have given you the power to do. However, I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go." ²² Then you shall say to Pharaoh, 'This is what the Lord says: Israel is my firstborn son,' ²³ and I have said to you, 'Release my son, so he may worship me.' But you refused to let him go; therefore, I will take the life of your firstborn son." ²⁴ At a lodging place on the journey, the Lord met Moses and sought to kill him. ²⁵ But Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off her son's foreskin, and touched Moses' feet with it, saying, "You are a bridegroom of blood to me." ²⁶ So the Lord let him alone. At that time she said

Exodus

"bridegroom of blood," referring to the circumcision. ²⁷ The Lord instructed Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." So he went and met him at the mountain of God and greeted him warmly. ²⁸ Moses recounted to Aaron all the words of the Lord with which He had sent him, and all the signs He had commanded him to perform. ²⁹ Moses and Aaron then assembled all the elders of the Israelites, ³⁰ and Aaron relayed all the words the Lord had spoken to Moses. He also performed the signs in the sight of the people, ³¹ and the people believed. When they heard that the Lord was concerned about them and had seen their affliction, they bowed down and worshipped.

5 Afterwards, Moses and Aaron approached Pharaoh and said, "Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: 'Release My people so that they may hold a festival to Me in the wilderness.'" ² Pharaoh responded, "Who is the Lord that I should heed His voice and let Israel go? I do not recognise the Lord, and furthermore, I will not release Israel." ³ They replied, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please allow us to journey three days into the wilderness to offer sacrifices to the Lord our God, lest He strike us with plague or the sword." ⁴ But the king of Egypt said to them, "Moses and Aaron, why do you distract the people from their tasks? Return to your labours!" ⁵ Pharaoh continued, "Behold, the people of the land are now many, and you would have them cease from their labours!" ⁶ That same day, Pharaoh issued a command to the taskmasters and foremen in charge of the people: ⁷ "You shall no longer supply the people with straw for making bricks as before; let them gather straw for themselves." ⁸ But you must still require them to produce the same quota of bricks as previously; do not reduce it. They are idle, and that is why they cry out, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God.' ⁹ Make the work more burdensome for the men so that they will continue working and pay no attention to falsehoods." ¹⁰ So the taskmasters and foremen went out and informed the people, "This is what Pharaoh says: 'I will not provide you with straw.' ¹¹ Go and gather straw for yourselves wherever you can find it, but your workload will not be diminished in the slightest." ¹² Thus, the people scattered throughout all of Egypt to collect stubble for straw. ¹³ The taskmasters pressed them, saying, "Complete your daily work quota, just as when you had straw." ¹⁴

Exodus

Pharaoh's taskmasters beat the Israelite foremen they had appointed, demanding, "Why have you not fulfilled your quota of bricks either yesterday or today, as before?" ¹⁵ Then the Israelite foremen went and pleaded with Pharaoh, "Why do you treat your servants this way? ¹⁶ Your servants are given no straw, yet they tell us, 'Make bricks!' And behold, your servants are being beaten, but the fault lies with your own people." ¹⁷ But Pharaoh said, "You are idle, very idle; that is why you say, 'Let us go and sacrifice to the Lord.' ¹⁸ Now go and work; you will not be given any straw, yet you must deliver the full quota of bricks." ¹⁹ The Israelite foremen realised they were in a difficult situation when they were told, "You must not reduce your daily quota of bricks." ²⁰ As they departed from Pharaoh, they encountered Moses and Aaron waiting for them. ²¹ And they said to them, "May the Lord look upon you and judge you, for you have made us detestable in the eyes of Pharaoh and his officials, putting a sword in their hand to kill us." ²² Moses returned to the Lord and said, "Lord, why have You brought trouble upon this people? Why did You send me? ²³ Since I went to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has brought harm upon this people, and You have not delivered Your people at all."

6 Then the Lord said to Moses, "Now you shall witness what I will do to Pharaoh: because of my strong hand he will release them; indeed, because of my strong hand he will drive them out of his land." ² God spoke further to Moses, saying, "I am the Lord. ³ I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name, the Lord, I did not make myself fully known to them. ⁴ I also established my covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, where they lived as strangers. ⁵ Moreover, I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are holding in bondage, and I have remembered my covenant. ⁶ Therefore, say to the Israelites: 'I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rescue you from their slavery. I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgement. ⁷ I will take you as my own people, and I will be your God. Then you shall know that I am the Lord your God, who brought you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. ⁸ And I will bring you to the land I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; I will give it to you as a possession. I am the Lord.'" ⁹ Moses relayed this to the Israelites, but they did not listen to him because of their despondency and harsh labour. ¹⁰ The Lord instructed Moses, and said, ¹¹ "Go, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the Israelites go out of his land." ¹² But Moses said to the Lord, "If the Israelites have not listened to me, why would Pharaoh listen to me, since I am unskilled in speech?" ¹³ The Lord nevertheless spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them a command concerning the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁴ These were the heads of their families: The sons of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These were the clans of Reuben. ¹⁵ The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon. ¹⁶ These were the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. Levi lived 137 years. ¹⁷ Gershon's sons, according to their clans, were Libni and Shimei. ¹⁸ Kohath's descendants included Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. Kohath lived 133 years. ¹⁹ Merari's sons were Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of Levi according to their records. ²⁰ Amram took his father's sister Jochebed as his wife, and she bore him Aaron and Moses. Amram lived 137 years. ²¹ Izhar's descendants were Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri. ²² Uzziel's descendants were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri. ²³ Aaron took Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon, as his wife, and she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ²⁴ Korah's sons were Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These were the Korahite clans. ²⁵ Eleazar, son of Aaron, took one of the daughters of Putiel as his wife, and she bore him Phinehas. These were the heads of the Levite families, clan by clan. ²⁶ It was this Aaron and Moses whom the Lord instructed to bring the Israelites out of Egypt by their divisions. ²⁷ These were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt about bringing the Israelites out of Egypt—this same Moses and Aaron. ²⁸ It came to pass on the day when the Lord spoke to Moses in Egypt, ²⁹ that the Lord instructed Moses, saying, "I am the Lord; convey to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you." ³⁰ But Moses said to the Lord, "I am not eloquent; how then will Pharaoh listen to me?"

Exodus

7 Then the Lord said to Moses, “See, I have made you as God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet. ² You shall speak everything I command you, and your brother Aaron shall tell Pharaoh to let the Israelites depart from his land. ³ But I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, so that I may multiply My signs and wonders in Egypt. ⁴ Pharaoh will not listen to you, so I will lay My hand on Egypt and bring out My armies, My people the Israelites, by great acts of judgment. ⁵ The Egyptians will know that I am the Lord when I stretch out My hand over Egypt and bring the Israelites out from among them.” ⁶ Moses and Aaron carried out the Lord’s instructions exactly as commanded. ⁷ Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron was eighty-three, when they spoke to Pharaoh. ⁸ The Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, ⁹ “When Pharaoh says to you, ‘Perform a miracle,’ you shall say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh, and it will become a serpent.’” ¹⁰ So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did as the Lord commanded. Aaron threw his staff down before Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a serpent. ¹¹ Pharaoh then summoned the wise men and sorcerers, and the Egyptian magicians did the same by their secret arts: ¹² Each one threw down his staff, and they became serpents. But Aaron’s staff swallowed up their staffs. ¹³ However, Pharaoh’s heart remained unyielding, and he did not listen to them, just as the Lord had said. ¹⁴ Then the Lord said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is stubborn and hard; he refuses to let the people go. ¹⁵ Go to Pharaoh in the morning as he goes out to the water. Stand on the bank of the Nile to meet him, and take in your hand the staff that was turned into a serpent. ¹⁶ Say to him, ‘The Lord, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to say to you: Let My people go, so that they may worship Me in the wilderness. But you have not listened until now. ¹⁷ This is what the Lord says: By this you shall know that I am the Lord: I will strike the water of the Nile with the staff in my hand, and it will be turned into blood. ¹⁸ The fish in the Nile will die, the river will stink, and the Egyptians will not be able to drink the water from the Nile.’” ¹⁹ The Lord said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt—over their rivers, streams, ponds, and all their reservoirs—and they will turn to blood. There will be blood throughout all Egypt, even in vessels of wood and stone.’” ²⁰ Moses and Aaron did just as the Lord commanded. He lifted the staff and struck the water of the Nile in the sight of Pharaoh and his officials, and all the water in the Nile was turned into blood. ²¹ The fish in the Nile died, and the river stank so that the Egyptians could not drink the water from the Nile. Blood was everywhere in Egypt. ²² But the Egyptian magicians did the same by their secret arts, and Pharaoh’s heart was hardened; he did not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the Lord had said. ²³ Pharaoh turned and went into his palace, and did not take even this to heart. ²⁴ All the Egyptians dug along the Nile for water to drink, because they could not drink the water of the river. ²⁵ A week passed after the Lord had struck the Nile.

8 Then the Lord spoke to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘This is what the Lord declares: Let my people go, so that they may serve me. ² But if you refuse to let them go, I will bring a plague of frogs upon your entire land. ³ The Nile will teem with frogs, which will come up and enter your palace, your bedroom, and your bed, and into the houses of your officials and your people, and into your ovens and kneading troughs. ⁴ The frogs will invade you, your people, and all your officials.’” ⁵ Then the Lord said to Moses, “Instruct Aaron, ‘Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, streams, and ponds, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.’” ⁶ So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and frogs came up and covered the land. ⁷ Yet the magicians did the same with their secret arts, bringing frogs up on the land of Egypt. ⁸ Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “Entreat the Lord to remove the frogs from me and my people, and I will let your people go to sacrifice to the Lord.” ⁹ Moses said to Pharaoh, “I leave to you the honour of deciding when I should pray for you, your officials, and your people, that the frogs may be removed from you and your houses, leaving only those in the Nile.” ¹⁰ Pharaoh replied, “Tomorrow.” Moses said, “It will be as you say, so that you may know there is no one like the Lord our God. ¹¹ The frogs will depart from you, your houses, your officials, and your people; they will remain only in the Nile.” ¹² After Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh, Moses cried out to the Lord concerning the frogs He had inflicted upon Pharaoh. ¹³ And the Lord did as Moses requested. The frogs died in the houses, courtyards, and fields. ¹⁴ They were gathered into heaps, and the land reeked of them. ¹⁵ But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the Lord had said.

Exodus

¹⁶ Then the Lord said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the ground,' and it will become gnats throughout the land of Egypt." ¹⁷

They did this, and when Aaron stretched out his hand with the staff and struck the dust of the ground, gnats came upon people and animals. All the dust throughout the land of Egypt became gnats.

¹⁸ The magicians tried to produce gnats by their secret arts, but they could not. There were gnats on people and animals everywhere. ¹⁹ The magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the work of God." But Pharaoh's heart was stubborn, and he would not listen, just as the Lord had said. ²⁰ Then the Lord said to Moses, "Rise early in the morning and confront Pharaoh as he goes to the river and say to him, 'This is what the Lord says: Let my people go, so that they may serve me. ²¹ If you refuse to let my people go, I will send swarms of flies on you, your officials, your people, and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians will be full of flies, and even the ground will be covered with them. ²² But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where my people live, so that no swarms of flies will be there, so that you will know that I, the Lord, am in this land.

²³ I will show a difference between my people and your people. This sign will happen tomorrow.'" ²⁴ And the Lord did so. Dense swarms of flies came into Pharaoh's palace and into the houses of his officials; throughout Egypt, the land was ruined by the flies. ²⁵ Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "Go, sacrifice to your God here in this land." ²⁶ But Moses said, "That would not be right. The sacrifices we offer the Lord our God would be detestable to the Egyptians. If we offer sacrifices that are detestable in their eyes, will they not stone us? ²⁷ We must take a three-day journey into the wilderness to offer sacrifices to the Lord our God, as He has directed us." ²⁸ Pharaoh said, "I will permit you to go and offer sacrifices to the Lord your God in the wilderness, but you must not go too far. Now, please pray for me." ²⁹ Moses answered, "As soon as I leave you, I will pray to the Lord, and tomorrow the flies will depart from Pharaoh, his officials, and his people. Only let Pharaoh be sure not to act deceitfully again by not letting the people go to offer sacrifices to the Lord." ³⁰ Moses then departed from Pharaoh and prayed to the Lord. ³¹ and the Lord did as Moses asked. The flies left Pharaoh, his officials, and his people; not a fly remained. ³² Yet Pharaoh hardened his heart once more, and he did not let the people go.

9 Then the Lord said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and tell him, 'This is what the Lord, the God of the Hebrews, declares: "Release my people, so that they may serve me." ² If you refuse to let them go and continue to restrain them, ³ behold, the hand of the Lord will bring a severe plague upon your livestock in the field—upon the horses, donkeys, camels, cattle, sheep, and goats. ⁴ However, the Lord will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and that of Egypt, so that no animal belonging to the Israelites will perish.'" ⁵ The Lord set a specific time, saying, "Tomorrow the Lord will carry out this action in the land." ⁶ And the following day, the Lord did so: all the livestock of the Egyptians perished, but not a single animal belonging to the Israelites died. ⁷ Pharaoh sent men to investigate and discovered that not even one of the livestock of the Israelites had died. Yet Pharaoh's heart remained hardened, and he did not release the people. ⁸ Then the Lord instructed Moses and Aaron, "Take handfuls of soot from a kiln, and let Moses throw it into the air in Pharaoh's presence. ⁹ It will become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, causing boils to break out with sores on people and animals throughout the land." ¹⁰ So they took soot from a kiln and stood before Pharaoh. Moses tossed it into the air, and boils broke out with sores on people and animals. ¹¹ The magicians were unable to stand before Moses due to the boils, which afflicted them as well as all the Egyptians. ¹² But the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the Lord had foretold to Moses. ¹³ Then the Lord said to Moses, "Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, 'This is what the Lord, the God of the Hebrews, declares: "Let my people go, so that they may serve me," ¹⁴ or this time I will send the full force of my plagues against you, your officials, and your people, so that you may know that there is no one like me in all the earth. ¹⁵ For by now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with a plague that would have wiped you from the earth. ¹⁶ But I have allowed you to remain for this purpose: to show you my power and to have my name proclaimed throughout the earth. ¹⁷ You still exalt yourself against my people by not letting them go.¹⁸ Therefore, at this time tomorrow, I will send the worst hailstorm that has ever fallen on Egypt, from the day it was founded until now.¹⁹ Issue a command now to bring your livestock and everything you have in the field to a place of shelter, for the hail will fall on every person and animal that is found in the field and is not brought inside, and they will die.”

Exodus

²⁰ Those among Pharaoh's officials who feared the word of the Lord hurried to bring their servants and their livestock indoors.²¹ But those who disregarded the word of the Lord left their servants and livestock in the field.²² Then the Lord said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward the sky, so that hail will fall across all of Egypt—on people, animals, and every plant in the fields of Egypt.”²³ When Moses stretched out his staff toward the sky, the Lord sent thunder and hail, and fire ran down to the earth. Thus, the Lord rained hail upon the land of Egypt.²⁴ There was hail, and fire flashing continuously amidst the hail, the heaviest storm Egypt had witnessed since it became a nation.²⁵ Throughout Egypt, the hail struck everything in the fields—both people and animals; it beat down every plant and shattered every tree.²⁶ The only place it did not hail was in the land of Goshen, where the Israelites resided.²⁷ Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron. “I have sinned this time,” he said to them. “The Lord is in the right, and I and my people are in the wrong.”²⁸ Plead with the Lord, for there has been enough of God's thunder and hail. I will let you go; you do not have to stay any longer.”²⁹ Moses replied, “As soon as I leave the city, I will spread out my hands to the Lord; the thunder will cease and there will be no more hail, so that you may know that the earth is the Lord's.”³⁰ But I am aware that you and your officials still do not hold the Lord God in reverence.”³¹ (The flax and barley were ruined, since the barley was in ear and the flax was in bloom.³² But the wheat and spelt were not destroyed, because they ripen later.)³³ Then Moses left Pharaoh and went out of the city. He spread out his hands to the Lord; the thunder and hail ceased, and the rain no longer poured down on the earth.³⁴ When Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail, and thunder had stopped, he sinned again: he and his officials hardened their hearts.³⁵ So Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not let the Israelites go, just as the Lord had spoken through Moses.

10 Then the Lord said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his servants, so that I may perform these signs of mine among them,² that you may recount to your sons and grandsons how I made a mockery of the Egyptians and how I performed my signs among them, so that you may know that I am the Lord.”³ So Moses and Aaron approached Pharaoh and conveyed the message: “This is what the Lord, the God of the Hebrews, declares: ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Allow my people to go, so that they may serve me.’⁴ For if you continue to refuse to let my people go, take note, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory.⁵ They will cover the surface of the land so that no one will be able to see it. They will devour what is left to you after the hail, including every tree that grows in your fields.⁶ Your houses will be filled with them, along with the houses of all your servants and all the Egyptians—something neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen from the day they settled in this land until now.” Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh.⁷ Then Pharaoh's servants said to him, “How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the people go, so that they may serve the Lord their God. Do you not yet realise that Egypt is destroyed?”⁸ So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, serve the Lord your God! But tell me who will be going.”⁹ Moses said, “We shall go with our young and our old, with our sons and our daughters, and with our flocks and herds, for we must hold a feast to the Lord.”¹⁰ Then he said to them, “The Lord be with you if I let you go with your little ones! Clearly, you have evil intentions.¹¹ No! Only the men may go and serve the Lord, since that is what you desire.” Then Moses and Aaron were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.¹² Then the Lord said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, so that they may come upon the land and devour every plant of the land, everything left by the hail.”¹³ So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the Lord directed an east wind on the land all that day and all that night. By morning, the wind had brought the locusts.¹⁴ The locusts came up over all the land of Egypt and settled in all the territory of Egypt in great numbers. Never before had there been such a plague of locusts, nor will there ever be again.¹⁵ They covered the surface of the whole land until it was darkened. They devoured every plant of the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. Nothing green remained on tree or plant throughout the land of Egypt. ¹⁶ Then Pharaoh hurriedly called for Moses and Aaron and said, "I have sinned against the Lord your God and against you. ¹⁷ Now forgive my sin, please, only this once, and plead with the Lord your God to take away this death from me." ¹⁸ Then Moses left Pharaoh and pleaded with the Lord. ¹⁹ So the Lord changed the wind to a very strong west wind, which picked up the locusts and drove them into the Red Sea. Not a single locust was left in all the territory of Egypt. ²⁰ Yet the Lord made Pharaoh's heart stubborn, and he did not allow the Israelites to leave. ²¹ Then the Lord said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, so that darkness spreads over the land of Egypt—a darkness that can be felt." ²² So Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and thick darkness covered all the land of Egypt for three days. ²³ No one could see another, nor did anyone rise from his place for three days. Yet all the Israelites had light in their dwellings. ²⁴ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and said, "Go, serve the Lord; even your little ones may go with you, but leave your flocks and herds behind." ²⁵ But Moses said, "You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings to present to the Lord our God. ²⁶ Our livestock too must go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind. We must take some of them to serve the Lord our God, and until we arrive there, we do not know what we shall use to serve the Lord." ²⁷ However, the Lord made Pharaoh's heart stubborn, and he was not willing to let them go. ²⁸ Then Pharaoh said to Moses, "Get away from me! Be sure you do not see my face again, for on the day you see my face, you shall die." ²⁹ Moses replied, "You have spoken truly; I shall never see your face again!"

Exodus

11 Now the Lord spoke to Moses, "I will bring one final plague upon Pharaoh and Egypt. After this, he will release you from here. When he does, he will surely drive you out completely. ² Instruct the people that each man and woman should request articles of silver and gold from their neighbours." ³ The Lord caused the Egyptians to look favourably upon the people, and Moses was highly esteemed in Egypt by Pharaoh's officials and the populace. ⁴ Moses then declared, "This is what the Lord says: 'Around midnight I will go throughout Egypt. ⁵ Every firstborn in the land of Egypt shall perish, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on the throne, to the firstborn of the slave girl behind the millstones, and all the firstborn of the cattle as well. ⁶ There will be a great wailing throughout Egypt—unlike anything that has ever occurred or will ever occur again. ⁷ But among the Israelites, not even a dog will growl at any person or animal, so that you may understand that the Lord makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel.' ⁸ All these officials of yours will come down to me, bowing before me and saying, 'Depart, you and all the people who follow you!' After that, I will depart." Then Moses left Pharaoh in great anger. ⁹ The Lord had told Moses, "Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that my wonders may be multiplied in Egypt." ¹⁰ Moses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh, but the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not permit the Israelites to leave his land.

12 The Lord addressed Moses and Aaron while they were in the land of Egypt, ² "This month shall mark the start of months for you; it is to be the first month of the year for you. ³ Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, 'On the tenth of this month, each one is to take a lamb for themselves, according to their fathers' households, a lamb for each household. ⁴ Now if the household is too small for a lamb, then he and his nearest neighbour are to take one according to the number of people in them; you are to divide the lamb according to what each person will eat. ⁵ Your lamb shall be a flawless male a year old; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats. ⁶ And you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month; then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel is to slaughter it at twilight. ⁷ Furthermore, they shall take some of the blood and apply it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. ⁸ They shall consume the flesh that same night, roasted with fire, and they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. ⁹ Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted with fire—its head and its legs along with its entrails. ¹⁰ And you shall not leave any of it until morning, but whatever remains until morning, you shall burn with fire. ¹¹ Now you shall eat it in this way: with your belt fastened, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. You shall eat it in a hurry—it is the Lord's

Exodus

Passover. ¹² For I will go through the land of Egypt on that night, and will strike down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and animal; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments—I am the Lord. ¹³ The blood shall serve as a sign for you on the houses where you live; and when I see the blood I will pass over you, and no plague will come upon you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt. ¹⁴ This day shall be a memorial to you, and you shall celebrate it as a feast to the Lord; throughout your generations you are to observe it as a lasting ordinance. ¹⁵ For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, but on the first day you shall remove leaven from your houses; for whoever eats anything leavened from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel. ¹⁶ On the first day you shall have a holy assembly, and another holy assembly on the seventh day; no work at all shall be done on them, except what must be eaten by every person—that alone may be prepared by you. ¹⁷ You are also to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I brought your multitudes out of the land of Egypt; therefore you shall celebrate this day throughout your generations as a permanent ordinance. ¹⁸ From the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month, you shall eat unleavened bread until the evening of the twenty-first day of the month. ¹⁹ For seven days there shall be no leaven found in your houses; for whoever eats what is leavened, that person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether they are a stranger or a native of the land. ²⁰ You must avoid eating anything leavened; in all your dwellings, you shall eat unleavened bread. ²¹ Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and instructed them, "Go and select lambs for yourselves according to your families, and sacrifice the Passover lamb. ²² And you shall take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and apply some of the blood that is in the basin to the lintel and the two doorposts; and none of you shall go outside the door of his house until morning. ²³ For the Lord will pass through to strike the Egyptians; but when He sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the Lord will pass over the door and will not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you. ²⁴ And you shall observe this event as a statute for you and your children for all time. ²⁵ When you enter the land which the Lord will give you, as He has promised, you shall maintain this rite. ²⁶ And when your children say to you, 'What does this rite mean to you?' ²⁷ Then you shall say, 'It is a Passover sacrifice to the Lord because He passed over the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt when He struck the Egyptians, but spared our homes.'" And the people bowed low and worshipped. ²⁸ Then the sons of Israel went and did just as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron, they did as they were commanded. ²⁹ And so, around midnight, the Lord struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt. From the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of cattle. ³⁰ Then Pharaoh got up in the night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians, and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was no home where there was not someone dead. ³¹ And he called for Moses and Aaron at night and said, "Get up, go away from my people, both you and the sons of Israel; and go, serve the Lord, as you have said. ³² Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and go, and also bless me." ³³ The Egyptians urged the people, to send them out of the land in haste, for they said, "We shall all perish!" ³⁴ So the people took their dough before it was leavened, carrying their kneading bowls wrapped in their clothing on their shoulders. ³⁵ Now the sons of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, for they had requested from the Egyptians articles of silver and gold, and clothing; ³⁶ and the Lord had given the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have what they requested. So they plundered the Egyptians. ³⁷ The sons of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, aside from children. ³⁸ A mixed multitude also went up with them, along with flocks and herds, a very large number of livestock. ³⁹ And they baked the dough which they had brought out of Egypt into cakes of unleavened bread. For it had not become leavened, since they were driven out of Egypt and could not delay, nor had they prepared any provisions for themselves. ⁴⁰ Now the time that the sons of Israel had lived in Egypt was 430 years. ⁴¹ And at the end of 430 years, on this very same day, all the multitudes of the Lord departed from the land of Egypt. ⁴² It is a night to be observed for the Lord for having brought them out from the land of Egypt; this night is for the Lord, to be observed by all the sons of Israel throughout their generations.⁴³ And the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of the Passover: no foreigner is to eat it;⁴⁴ but as for every slave that someone has purchased with money, after you have circumcised him, then he may eat it."⁴⁵ A visitor or a hired worker shall not partake of it.⁴⁶ It is to be eaten in a single house; you are not to take any of the meat outside of the house, nor are you to break any bone of it.⁴⁷ All the congregation of Israel are to celebrate this.⁴⁸ But if a stranger resides with you and celebrates the Passover to the Lord, all his males are to be circumcised, and then he may come near to celebrate it; and he shall be like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person may eat it.⁴⁹ The same law shall apply to the native as to the stranger who resides among you."⁵⁰ Then all the sons of Israel did as they were commanded; they did just as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron.⁵¹ And on that very same day, the Lord brought the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their multitudes.

Exodus

13 The Lord then spoke to Moses and said,² "Consecrate to Me every firstborn, the first offspring of every womb among the Israelites, whether human or animal; it belongs to Me."³ Moses said to the people, "Remember this day, the day you came out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, for the Lord brought you out with a powerful hand. Do not eat anything containing yeast."⁴ This day marks your departure in the month of Abib.⁵ When the Lord brings you into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites, and Jebusites, the land He swore to your ancestors to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you shall observe this rite in this month:⁶ For seven days eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day hold a feast to the Lord.⁷ Eat unleavened bread during those seven days; nothing with yeast shall be seen among you, nor shall any yeast be seen anywhere within your borders.⁸ On that day tell your son, 'It is because of what the Lord did for me when I came out of Egypt.'⁹ It shall be like a sign on your hand and a reminder on your forehead that the law of the Lord is to be on your lips, for with a powerful hand the Lord brought you out of Egypt.¹⁰ You must keep this ordinance at its appointed time year after year.¹¹ "When the Lord brings you into the land of the Canaanites and gives it to you, as He promised on oath to you and your ancestors,¹² you shall give over to the Lord the first offspring of every womb. All the firstborn males of your livestock belong to the Lord.¹³ For every firstborn donkey, substitute a lamb, but if you do not substitute it, break its neck. Redeem every firstborn among your sons.¹⁴ In days to come, when your son asks you, 'What does this mean?' say to him, 'With a powerful hand the Lord brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.'¹⁵ When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the Lord killed the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human and animal. This is why I sacrifice to the Lord the first male offspring of every womb and redeem each of my firstborn sons.'¹⁶ It will be like a sign on your hand and as phylacteries on your forehead, for with a powerful hand the Lord brought us out of Egypt."¹⁷ When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, though it was nearer, for God said, "If they face war, they might change their minds and return to Egypt."¹⁸ So God led the people around by the way of the wilderness towards the Red Sea, and the Israelites went up out of Egypt ready for battle.¹⁹ Moses took the bones of Joseph with him because Joseph had made the Israelites swear an oath, saying, "God will surely come to your aid, and then you must carry my bones up with you from this place."²⁰ After leaving Succoth, they camped at Etham on the edge of the wilderness.²¹ During the day, the Lord went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud to guide them, and by night in a pillar of fire to provide light, enabling them to travel by day or night.²² Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night left its place from in front of the people.

14 Now the Lord spoke to Moses,² "Tell the Israelites to turn back and camp near Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea; you shall camp opposite Baal-zephon, by the sea."³ For Pharaoh will say of the Israelites, 'They are lost in the land; the wilderness has trapped them.'⁴ And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will pursue them; and I will gain glory for myself through Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the Lord." And they did so.⁵ When the king of Egypt was informed that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his officials had a change of heart about them, and said, "What have we done? We have let the Israelites go and lost their services!"⁶ So he had his chariot prepared and took his people with him.⁷ He took six hundred select chariots, along with all the other chariots of Egypt, with officers over all of them.⁸ The Lord made Pharaoh, king of Egypt, determined, so that he pursued the Israelites, who were marching out boldly.⁹ The Egyptians pursued them with all Pharaoh's horses and chariots, his horsemen and troops, and overtook them as they camped by the sea, near Pi-hahiroth, opposite Baal-zephon.¹⁰ As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and saw the Egyptians marching after them, and they were terrified and cried out to the Lord.¹¹ They said to Moses, "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have brought us to the wilderness to die? What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt?"¹² Did we not say to you in Egypt, 'Leave us alone so that we may serve the Egyptians'? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness!"¹³ But Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand firm and you will see the deliverance the Lord will bring you today; the Egyptians you see today you will never see again.¹⁴ The Lord will fight for you; you need only to be silent."¹⁵ Then the Lord said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to move forward.¹⁶ Lift your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea to part the water, so that the Israelites can pass through the sea on dry ground.¹⁷ I will make the Egyptians determined so that they will follow them. And I will gain glory through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen.¹⁸ The Egyptians will come to understand that I am the Lord when I gain glory through Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen."¹⁹ Then the angel of God, who had been travelling in front of Israel's army, moved and went behind them; the pillar of cloud also moved from in front and stood behind them,²⁰ coming between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. Throughout the night the cloud brought darkness to one side and light to the other; so neither went near the other all night long.²¹ Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night the Lord drove the sea back with a strong east wind and turned it into dry land. The waters were parted,²² and the Israelites passed through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left.²³ The Egyptians pursued them, and all Pharaoh's horses, chariots and horsemen followed them into the sea.²⁴ During the last watch of the night, the Lord looked down from the pillar of fire and cloud at the Egyptian army and caused confusion among them.²⁵ He jammed the wheels of their chariots so that they had difficulty driving. And the Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the Israelites! The Lord is fighting for them against Egypt."²⁶ Then the Lord said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may flow back over the Egyptians, their chariots and horsemen."²⁷ So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the sea returned to its place. The Egyptians were fleeing towards it, and the Lord swept them into the sea.²⁸ The water flowed back and covered the chariots and horsemen—the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed the Israelites into the sea. None of them survived.²⁹ But the Israelites passed through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left.³⁰ That day the Lord delivered Israel from the hands of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the shore.³¹ When the Israelites saw the mighty hand of the Lord displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared the Lord and put their trust in him and in Moses his servant.

Exodus

15 Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the Lord, saying: "I will sing to the Lord, for He is highly exalted; the horse and its rider He has cast into the sea.² The Lord is my strength and my song; He has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will praise Him; my father's God, and I will exalt Him.³ The Lord is mighty in battle; the Lord is His name.⁴ Pharaoh's chariots and his army He has thrown into the sea; the finest of Pharaoh's officers are drowned in the Red Sea.⁵ The deep waters enveloped them; they sank into the depths like a stone.⁶ Your right hand, Lord, is majestic in power; Your right hand, Lord, shatters the enemy.⁷ In the greatness of Your majesty, You overthrow those who rise against You. You unleash Your burning anger; it consumes them like chaff.⁸ At the blast of Your nostrils, the waters piled up. The surging waters stood up like a wall; the depths congealed in the heart of the sea.⁹ The enemy said, 'I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoils; I will gorge myself on them. I will draw my sword, and my hand will destroy them.'¹⁰ But with a breath from You, the sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters.¹¹ Who is like You among the heavenly beings, Lord? Who is like You, majestic in holiness, awe-inspiring in glory, performing wonders?¹² You extended Your strong right hand, and the earth swallowed them.¹³ In Your unfailing love, You have led the people You have redeemed. In Your strength, You have guided them to Your holy dwelling.¹⁴ The nations have heard and tremble; anguish grips the inhabitants of Philistia.¹⁵ The chiefs of Edom are dismayed; the leaders of Moab, trembling grips them; all the inhabitants of Canaan melt away.¹⁶ Terror and dread fall upon them; by the power of Your arm, they are as still as a stone, until Your people pass by, Lord, until the people You have purchased pass by.¹⁷ You will bring them in and establish them on the mountain of Your inheritance, the place, Lord, You made for Your dwelling, the sanctuary, Lord, Your hands have set up.¹⁸ The Lord will reign for all time.”¹⁹ When Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and horsemen went into the sea, the Lord brought the waters of the sea back over them, but the Israelites walked on dry land through the midst of the sea.²⁰ Then Miriam the prophetess, Aaron's sister, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women went out after her with tambourines and dancing.²¹ And Miriam sang to them: “Sing to the Lord, for He is highly exalted; the horse and its rider He has hurled into the sea.”²² Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea, and they went into the wilderness of Shur. For three days they travelled in the wilderness without finding water.²³ When they reached Marah, they could not drink its water because it was bitter. (That is why the place is called Marah.)²⁴ So the people complained to Moses, asking, “What are we to drink?”²⁵ Then Moses cried out to the Lord, and the Lord showed him a piece of wood. He threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There the Lord made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there He tested them.²⁶ He said, “If you listen carefully to the voice of the Lord your God and do what is right in His eyes, if you pay attention to His commands and keep all His decrees, I will not bring on you any of the diseases I brought on the Egyptians, for I am the Lord, who heals you.”²⁷ Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there by the waters.

Exodus

16 The entire assembly of the Israelites departed from Elim and journeyed to the Wilderness of Sin, which lies between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their exodus from Egypt.² In the wilderness, the whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron.³ The Israelites said to them, “If only we had perished by the Lord's hand in Egypt, where we sat by pots of meat and ate bread to our fill! But you have brought us into this wilderness to starve this entire assembly to death.”⁴ Then the Lord said to Moses, “Behold, I will rain down bread from heaven for you. The people are to go out each day and gather enough for that day. In doing so, I will test them to see whether they will follow My instructions.”⁵ On the sixth day, they are to prepare what they bring in, and it will be twice as much as they gather on the other days.”⁶ So Moses and Aaron spoke to all the Israelites saying: “In the evening, you will realise that it was the Lord who brought you out of Egypt,⁷ and in the morning, you will see the glory of the Lord, for He has heard your complaints against Him. Who are we, that you should grumble against us?”⁸ Moses also said, “You will know that it was the Lord when He gives you meat to eat in the evening and bread to your fill in the morning, because He has heard your grumblings against Him. Who are we? You are not grumbling against us, but against the Lord.”⁹ Then Moses instructed Aaron, “Say to the entire assembly of the Israelites, ‘Come before the Lord, for He has heard your grumblings.’”¹⁰ As Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they turned towards the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud.¹¹ The Lord spoke to Moses, saying,¹² “I have heard the grumblings of the Israelites. Speak to them, saying, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am the Lord your God.’”¹³ That evening, quail arrived and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp.¹⁴ When the dew evaporated, behold, on the surface of the wilderness there was a fine, flake-like substance, as fine as frost on the ground.¹⁵ When the Israelites saw it, they asked one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, “It is the bread that the Lord has given you to eat.”¹⁶ This is what the Lord has commanded: ‘Everyone is to gather according to their needs. Take an omer for each person you have in your tent.’”¹⁷ The Israelites did as they were instructed; some gathered much, some little.¹⁸ When they measured it by the omer, the one who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little. Each person gathered as much as they needed.

Exodus

¹⁹ Then Moses said to them, “No one should keep any of it until morning.” ²⁰ However, they did not listen to Moses; some kept part of it until morning, and it bred worms and stank. So Moses was angry with them. ²¹ Each morning, everyone gathered according to their needs, and when the sun grew hot, it melted away. ²² On the sixth day, they gathered twice as much—two omers for each person—and all the leaders of the congregation came and reported this to Moses. ²³ He said to them, “This is what the Lord has commanded: ‘Tomorrow is to be a day of Sabbath rest, a holy Sabbath to the Lord. Bake what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil. Save whatever is left and keep it until morning.’” ²⁴ So they saved it until morning, as Moses instructed, and it did not stink nor was there a maggot in it. ²⁵ Moses said, “Eat it today, because today is a Sabbath to the Lord. You will not find any of it on the ground today. ²⁶ For six days you are to gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will not be any.” ²⁷ Yet, some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather it, but they found nothing. ²⁸ Then the Lord said to Moses, “How long will you delay in keeping My commands and My instructions? ²⁹ See, the Lord has given you the Sabbath; that is why on the sixth day He gives you bread for two days. Everyone is to remain in their place on the seventh day; no one is to go out.” ³⁰ Thus, the people observed rest on the seventh day. ³¹ The Israelites called the bread manna. It was white like coriander seed and tasted like wafers made with honey. ³² Moses said, “This is what the Lord has commanded: ‘Take an omer of manna and keep it for future generations, so they can see the bread I gave you to eat in the wilderness when I brought you out of Egypt.’” ³³ So Moses instructed Aaron, “Take a jar and put an omer of manna in it. Then place it before the Lord to be kept for future generations.” ³⁴ Following the Lord’s command to Moses, Aaron placed it before the Testimony, to be preserved. ³⁵ The Israelites ate manna for forty years, until they reached a land that was settled; they ate manna until they came to the border of Canaan. ³⁶ (An omer is approximately one-tenth of an ephah.)

17 The entire community of the Israelites set out by stages from the wilderness of Sin, following the Lord’s command, and encamped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink. ² The people contended with Moses, demanding, “Give us water to drink.” Moses responded, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?” ³ The people, thirsting for water, grumbled against Moses, saying, “Why did you bring us up from Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?” ⁴ Moses cried out to the Lord, “What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me!” ⁵ The Lord instructed Moses, “Pass before the people, take some of the elders of Israel with you, and take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. ⁶ I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb; strike the rock, and water will flow from it for the people to drink.” Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. ⁷ He named the place Massah and Meribah because of the contention of the Israelites, and because they tested the Lord, asking, “Is the Lord among us or not?” ⁸ The Amalekites came and waged war against Israel at Rephidim. ⁹ Moses instructed Joshua, “Choose men for us and go out to fight against Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand.” ¹⁰ Joshua did as Moses commanded and fought against Amalek, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. ¹¹ Whenever Moses held up his hands, Israel prevailed; but when he lowered his hands, Amalek prevailed. ¹² Moses’ hands grew weary, so they placed a stone under him, and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on each side, so his hands remained steady until sunset. ¹³ Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the sword. ¹⁴ The Lord said to Moses, “Write this as a memorial in a book and recite it to Joshua, for I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven.” ¹⁵ Moses constructed an altar and named it The Lord is My Banner. ¹⁶ He declared, “Because the Lord has sworn, the Lord will have war against Amalek from generation to generation.”

18 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian and Moses’ father-in-law, heard about all that God had done for Moses and for His people Israel, and how the Lord had brought Israel out of Egypt. ² Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, had taken in Moses’ wife Zipporah, after Moses had sent her away, ³ along with her two sons. One was named Gershom, for Moses had said, “I have been a stranger in a foreign land.” ⁴ The other was named Eliezer, for he had said, “The God of my father was my help and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.”⁵ Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, came with Moses’ sons and wife to him in the wilderness, where he was camped at the mountain of God.⁶ And he sent a message to Moses: “I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons.”⁷ Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed down, and kissed him. They asked each other about their welfare and then went into the tent.⁸ Moses recounted to his father-in-law all that the Lord had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel’s sake, all the hardships they had faced on their journey, and how the Lord had delivered them.⁹ Jethro rejoiced over all the good things the Lord had done for Israel in rescuing them from the hand of the Egyptians.¹⁰ Jethro said, “Blessed be the Lord, who has rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and from Pharaoh, and who has delivered the people from the hand of the Egyptians.¹¹ Now I know that the Lord is greater than all other gods, for He has shown this when they acted arrogantly against the people.”¹² Then Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, offered a burnt offering and sacrifices to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat a meal with Moses’ father-in-law in the presence of God.¹³ The following day, Moses sat to judge the people, and they stood around him from morning until evening.¹⁴ When Moses’ father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he asked, “What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit alone as judge while all the people stand around you from morning till evening?”¹⁵ Moses replied to his father-in-law, “Because the people come to me to seek God’s will.¹⁶ When they have a dispute, it is brought to me, and I judge between the parties and make known God’s decrees and laws.”¹⁷ Moses’ father-in-law spoke to him to him, and said, “What you are doing is not good.¹⁸ You and these people who come to you will only wear yourselves out. The task is too heavy for you; you cannot do it alone.¹⁹ Now listen to me: I will give you advice, and may God be with you. You must be the people’s representative before God and bring their disputes to Him.²⁰ Teach them His decrees and instructions, and show them the way they are to live and the work they are to do.²¹ Select capable men from among the people—men who fear God, trustworthy men who hate dishonest gain—and appoint them as leaders over thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens.²² Let them serve as judges for the people at all times, but bring every difficult case to you; they can decide the simple cases themselves. This will lighten your load, as they will share it with you.²³ If you do this and God so commands, you will be able to endure, and all these people will go home satisfied.”²⁴ Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he suggested.²⁵ He selected capable men from all Israel and appointed them as leaders of the people, officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens.²⁶ They judged the people at all times. They brought the difficult cases to Moses, but decided the simple ones themselves.²⁷ Then Moses bade farewell to his father-in-law, and Jethro went back to his own land.

Exodus

19 In the third month after the Israelites had departed from Egypt, on that very day, they arrived in the Desert of Sinai.² After setting out from Rephidim, they came to the Desert of Sinai and camped there in front of the mountain.³ Moses went up to God, and the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, “This is what you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the children of Israel: ⁴ ‘You have witnessed what I did to the Egyptians, and how I carried you as if on eagles’ wings and brought you to Myself.’⁵ Now, if you fully obey My voice and keep My covenant, then out of all nations you will be My treasured possession, for the whole earth is Mine.⁶ You shall be for Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites.”⁷ Moses returned and summoned the elders of the people and set before them all the words the Lord had commanded him.⁸ The people all responded together, “We will do everything the Lord has spoken.” So Moses brought their answer back to the Lord.⁹ The Lord said to Moses, “I will come to you in a thick cloud, so that the people may hear when I speak with you and may always trust in you.” Then Moses relayed the people’s words to the Lord.¹⁰ The Lord said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. Have them wash their garments¹¹ and be ready by the third day, for on that day the Lord will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.¹² Set boundaries for the people all around, warning them, ‘Be careful not to go up the mountain or touch its edge. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.’¹³ No hand shall touch them, but they shall be stoned or shot with arrows; whether animal or human, they shall not live. Only when the ram’s horn sounds a long blast may they approach the mountain.”¹⁴ So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and consecrated them, and they washed their garments.¹⁵ He said to the people, “Prepare yourselves for the third day. Abstain from sexual relations.”¹⁶ On the morning of the third day, there was thunder and lightning, with a thick cloud over the mountain and a very loud trumpet blast, causing everyone in the camp to tremble.¹⁷ Moses led the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.¹⁸ Mount Sinai was covered with smoke because the Lord descended on it in fire. The smoke rose like the smoke from a furnace, and the whole mountain shook violently.¹⁹ As the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him with a voice like thunder.²⁰ The Lord descended to the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.²¹ The Lord said to Moses, “Go down and warn the people not to force their way through to see the Lord, or many of them will perish.²² Even the priests, who come near to the Lord, must purify themselves, or the Lord will act against them.”²³ Moses said to the Lord, “The people cannot come up Mount Sinai, because you yourself warned us, ‘Set boundaries around the mountain and consecrate it.’”²⁴ The Lord replied, “Go down and bring Aaron up with you. But do not let the priests and the people break through to come up to the Lord, or He will act against them.”²⁵ So Moses went down to the people and informed them.

Exodus

20 And God declared all these words:² “I am the Lord your God, who delivered you from the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.”³ “You shall not have any other gods before me.”⁴ “You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above, or on the earth beneath, or in the waters under the earth.”⁵ You shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,⁶ but extending kindness to thousands who love me and follow my commandments.⁷ “You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain, for the Lord will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.”⁸ “Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.”⁹ For six days you are to work and complete all your tasks,¹⁰ but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your

God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your male or female servant, nor your cattle, nor the foreigner residing in your towns.¹¹ For in six days the Lord created the heavens and the earth, the sea, and everything in them, and then rested on the seventh day. Therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.¹² “Honour your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land the Lord your God is giving you.”¹³ “You shall not commit murder.”¹⁴ “You shall not commit adultery.”¹⁵ “You shall not steal.”¹⁶ “You shall not bear false witness against any neighbour.”¹⁷ “You shall not desire your neighbour’s house. You shall not desire your neighbour’s wife, or his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.”¹⁸ When all the people saw the thunder and the lightning flashes, and heard the sound of the trumpet, and saw the mountain in smoke, they trembled and stood at a distance.¹⁹ And they said to Moses, “Speak to us yourself and we will listen; but do not let God speak to us, or we will die.”²⁰ Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid; for God has come to test you, so that the fear of him will be with you to keep you from sinning.”²¹ So the people remained at a distance, while Moses approached the thick darkness where God was.²² The Lord then instructed Moses, “Tell the Israelites this: ‘You have witnessed that I have spoken to you from heaven.’²³ Do not make any gods to be alongside me; gods of silver or gods of gold, you shall not make for yourselves.”²⁴ Make an altar of earth for me, and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen. In every place where I cause my name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you.”²⁵ If you make an altar of stone for me, do not build it with dressed stones, for if you use a tool on it, you will defile it.”²⁶ And do not go up to my altar on steps, so that your nakedness may not be exposed.’

21 “These are the ordinances you shall set before them:² “If you acquire a Hebrew servant, he shall serve for six years; but in the seventh year, he shall be released as a free man, without any payment.”³ If he arrives alone, he shall depart alone; but if he is married, then his wife shall leave with him.”⁴ If his master provides him with a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall belong to her master, and he shall depart alone.”⁵ But if the servant declares, ‘I have affection for my master, my wife, and my children; I will not leave as a free man,' ⁶ then his master shall bring him before God. He shall bring him to the door or the doorpost and pierce his ear with an awl, and he shall serve him permanently. ⁷ "If a man sells his daughter as a maid servant, she shall not go free as male servants do. ⁸ If she does not please her master who has chosen her for himself, he must allow her to be redeemed. He has no authority to sell her to foreign people, due to his unfaithfulness to her. ⁹ If he designates her for his son, he must treat her according to the rights of daughters. ¹⁰ If he marries another woman, he must not diminish her food, clothing, or marital rights. ¹¹ If he does not provide these three things for her, she shall go free without any payment. ¹² "Anyone who strikes a person so that they die shall surely be put to death. ¹³ However, if it is not premeditated, but God allows it to happen, I will appoint a place for him to flee. ¹⁴ But if anyone acts with malice aforethought to kill his neighbour, you shall take him even from My altar to be put to death. ¹⁵ "Anyone who strikes their father or mother shall surely be put to death. ¹⁶ "Anyone who kidnaps a person, whether they have sold them or are still in possession, shall surely be put to death. ¹⁷ "Anyone who curses their father or mother shall surely be put to death. ¹⁸ "If people quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone or with their fist, and the victim does not die but is confined to bed, ¹⁹ if the injured party rises again and walks outside with a staff, then the assailant shall go unpunished; he must only compensate for the loss of time and ensure the victim is fully healed. ²⁰ "If someone beats their male or female slave with a rod and the slave dies at their hand, they must be punished. ²¹ However, if the slave survives for a day or two, no vengeance shall be taken, for the slave is their property. ²² "If men struggle and strike a pregnant woman so that she gives birth prematurely, but there is no serious injury, the offender shall be fined whatever the woman's husband demands and the judges allow. ²³ But if there is serious injury, you shall give life for life, ²⁴ an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot, ²⁵ a burn for a burn, a wound for a wound, a bruise for a bruise. ²⁶ "If an owner strikes the eye of his male or female slave and destroys it, he must let the slave go free to compensate for the eye. ²⁷ And if he knocks out the tooth of his male or female slave, he must let the slave go free to compensate for the tooth. ²⁸ "If an ox gores a man or woman to death, the ox must be stoned, and its meat shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall not be held responsible. ²⁹ If, however, the ox has been known to gore in the past and its owner has been warned but has not kept it confined, and it kills a man or woman, the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death. ³⁰ If a ransom is demanded, he may redeem his life by paying whatever is demanded. ³¹ This law applies if the ox gores a son or daughter. ³² If the ox gores a male or female slave, the owner must pay thirty shekels of silver to the master of the slave, and the ox shall be stoned. ³³ "If someone opens a pit, or digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it, ³⁴ the owner of the pit must make restitution; he shall give money to the owner of the animal, and the dead animal shall become his. ³⁵ "If someone's ox injures another's ox so that it dies, they shall sell the live ox and divide the proceeds equally; they shall also divide the dead ox. ³⁶ However, if it was known that the ox had the habit of goring, and its owner did not keep it confined, he must make restitution, ox for ox, and the dead animal shall become his.

Exodus

22 "If a person steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, they must repay five cattle for the ox and four sheep for the sheep. ² If a thief is caught breaking in and is struck so that they die, there is no guilt of bloodshed on the account of the defender. ³ However, if this occurs after sunrise, there is guilt of bloodshed on the defender's account. A thief must certainly make restitution; if they have nothing, they shall be sold for their theft. ⁴ If the stolen item is found alive in their possession, whether it be an ox, a donkey, or a sheep, they must repay double. ⁵ "If someone allows their livestock to graze in a field or vineyard and they stray into another's field, restitution must be made from the best of the offender's own field or vineyard. ⁶ "If a fire breaks out and spreads to thorn bushes, consuming stacked grain, standing grain, or the field itself, the one who started the fire must make restitution. ⁷ "If someone gives their neighbour money or goods for safekeeping and they are stolen from the neighbour's house, the thief, if caught, must repay double. ⁸ If the thief is not found, the owner of the house must appear before the judges to determine whether they have laid hands on their neighbour's property. ⁹ In every case of illegal possession, whether it concerns an ox, a donkey, a sheep, clothing, or any lost property about which someone says, 'This is mine,' both parties shall present their cases before the judges. The one whom the judges declare guilty must repay double to the other. ¹⁰ "If someone gives their neighbour a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any animal for safekeeping and it dies, is injured, or is taken away while no one is looking, ¹¹ an oath before the Lord shall be made by both parties that the neighbour did not lay hands on the other's property. The owner must accept this and no restitution is required. ¹² However, if the animal was taken by theft from the neighbour, the owner must be compensated. ¹³ If it was torn to pieces by a wild animal, the neighbour must bring the remains as evidence and shall not be required to pay for the torn animal. ¹⁴ "If someone borrows an animal from their neighbour and it is injured or dies while the owner is not present, they must make full restitution. ¹⁵ If the owner is with the animal, the borrower will not be required to pay. If the animal was hired, the hire fee covers the loss. ¹⁶ "If a man seduces a virgin who is not betrothed and sleeps with her, he must pay a dowry for her to become his wife. ¹⁷ If her father refuses to give her to him, he must pay an amount equal to the dowry for virgins. ¹⁸ "Do not permit a sorceress to continue living. ¹⁹ "Anyone who has sexual relations with an animal shall be put to death. ²⁰ "Whoever sacrifices to any god other than the Lord must be utterly destroyed. ²¹ "Do not oppress or mistreat a foreigner, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. ²² "Do not oppress any widow or orphan. ²³ If you do oppress them and they cry out to me, I will certainly hear their cry; ²⁴ My anger will be kindled, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall become widows and your children fatherless. ²⁵ "If you lend money to my people, to the needy among you, do not act as a creditor; charge no interest. ²⁶ If you take your neighbour's cloak as a pledge, ensure it is returned by sunset, ²⁷ for it is their only covering, the cloak for their body. What else can they sleep in? When they cry out to me, I will listen, for I am compassionate. ²⁸ "Do not speak against God or curse the leader of your people. ²⁹ "Do not hold back offerings from your granaries or your wine. You must give me the firstborn of your sons. ³⁰ Do likewise with your cattle and your sheep. Let them stay with their mothers for seven days, but present them to me on the eighth day. ³¹ "You are to be holy people to me. Therefore, do not eat the meat of an animal torn by wild beasts; throw it to the dogs.

Exodus

23 "Do not spread a false report; do not join forces with a wicked person to be a malicious witness. ² "Do not follow the multitude in doing wrong, nor should you testify in a lawsuit to pervert justice by siding with the crowd. ³ Do not show partiality to a poor person in their dispute. ⁴ "If you encounter your enemy's ox or donkey wandering away, you must return it to them. ⁵ If you see the donkey of someone who hates you lying under its burden, do not leave it there; you must help to release it with them. ⁶ "Do not deny justice to your needy people in their lawsuits. ⁷ Avoid any false accusation, and do not harm the innocent or the righteous, for I will not declare the guilty as innocent. ⁸ "Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds the clear-sighted and corrupts the words of the righteous. ⁹ "Do not oppress a foreigner; you know the heart of a foreigner, for you were foreigners in Egypt. ¹⁰ "For six years you are to sow your land and gather its produce, ¹¹ but in the seventh year, let it rest and lie fallow, so that the poor among your people may eat, and what they leave the wild animals may eat. Do the same with your vineyard and your olive grove. ¹² "Six days you shall do your work, but on the seventh day you shall cease from labour, so that your ox and donkey may rest, and the son of your maidservant and the foreigner may be refreshed. ¹³ "Be careful to do everything I have told you. Do not mention the names of other gods; let them not be heard on your lips. ¹⁴ "Three times a year you shall hold a festival to me. ¹⁵ You shall keep the Festival of Unleavened Bread; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month of Aviv, for in that month you came out of Egypt. No one is to appear before me empty-handed. ¹⁶ "Keep the Festival of Harvest with the firstfruits of your labours from what you sow in the field, and the Festival of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in your crops from the field. ¹⁷ "Three times a year all your males shall appear before the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁸ "You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with anything containing yeast, nor shall the fat of my festival offerings be left until morning. ¹⁹ "Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of the Lord your God. "Do not boil a young goat in its mother's milk. ²⁰ "Behold, I am sending an angel ahead of you to guard you on the way and to bring you to the place I have prepared. ²¹ Be attentive to him and listen to his voice; do not be rebellious towards him, for he will not pardon your transgressions, since my Name is in him. ²² If you truly obey his voice and do all that I say, I will be an enemy to your enemies and oppose those who oppose you. ²³ My angel will go before you and bring you into the land of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites, and Jebusites, and I will destroy them completely. ²⁴ You shall not bow down to their gods or serve them or follow their practices. You must demolish them and break their sacred stones to pieces. ²⁵ Serve the Lord your God, and his blessing will be upon your food and water. I will remove sickness from among you, ²⁶ and none will miscarry or be barren in your land. I will give you a full lifespan. ²⁷ "I will send my terror ahead of you and throw into confusion every nation you encounter. I will make all your enemies turn their backs and flee. ²⁸ I will send hornets ahead of you to drive the Hivites, Canaanites, and Hittites out of your way. ²⁹ I will not drive them out before you in a single year, lest the land become desolate and the wild animals too numerous for you. ³⁰ Gradually, I will drive them out before you, until you have increased enough to take possession of the land. ³¹ "I will establish your borders from the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea, and from the desert to the Euphrates River. I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you will drive them out before you. ³² You must not make agreements with them or with their gods. ³³ They must not dwell in your land, or they will cause you to sin against me, for the worship of their gods will surely be a snare to you."

Exodus

24 Then the Lord instructed Moses, "Ascend to the Lord, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, along with seventy of the elders of Israel, and you shall worship from a distance. ² Moses alone is to approach the Lord; the others must not come near, nor shall the people ascend with him." ³ Moses came and conveyed to the people all the words and ordinances of the Lord; and with one voice, they responded, "We will do all the words which the Lord has spoken." ⁴ Moses recorded all the words of the Lord. Rising early the next morning, he built an altar at the base of the mountain and erected twelve stone pillars representing the twelve tribes of Israel. ⁵ He then dispatched young men from among the Israelites, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed bulls as peace offerings to the Lord. ⁶ Moses took half of the blood and placed it in bowls, while the other half he sprinkled on the altar. ⁷ He then read the Book of the Covenant to the people, who responded, "We will do all that the Lord has spoken, and we will obey." ⁸ Moses took the blood, sprinkled it on the people, and declared, "This is the blood of the covenant which the Lord has made with you according to all these words." ⁹ Moses, along with Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israel, ascended. ¹⁰ They beheld the God of Israel, and beneath His feet was something like a pavement of sapphire, as clear as the sky itself. ¹¹ Yet He did not raise His hand against the leaders of the Israelites; they saw God, and they ate and drank. ¹² The Lord said to Moses, "Ascend to Me on the mountain and remain there, and I will give you the stone tablets with the Law and commandments which I have written for their instruction." ¹³ Moses set out with Joshua, his aide, and ascended the mountain of God. ¹⁴ To the elders, he said, "Wait here for us until we return to you. Aaron and Hur are with you; anyone with a legal matter may approach them." ¹⁵ Moses ascended the mountain, and the cloud enveloped it. ¹⁶ The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day, the Lord called to Moses from within the cloud. ¹⁷ To the Israelites, the glory of the Lord appeared like a consuming fire atop the mountain. ¹⁸ Moses entered the cloud as he ascended the mountain, and he remained on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

25 The Lord spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to the Israelites and have them bring me an offering. Accept the offering from everyone whose heart moves them to give. ³ These are the offerings you are to take from them: gold, silver, and bronze; ⁴ yarn in shades of blue, purple, and scarlet; fine linen and goat hair; ⁵ ram skins dyed red, fine leather, and acacia wood; ⁶ oil from olives for the light; aromatic spices for the anointing oil and the fragrant incense; ⁷ onyx stones and other gems to be set in the ephod and breastpiece. ⁸ "Let them construct a sanctuary for me, so that I may reside among them. ⁹ Make the tabernacle and all its furnishings exactly like the pattern I will show you. ¹⁰

Exodus

“They shall make an ark of acacia wood—two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high. ¹¹ Overlay it with pure gold, inside and out, and make a gold moulding around it. ¹² Create four gold rings for it and attach them to its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other. ¹³ Fashion poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. ¹⁴ Place the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to transport it. ¹⁵ The poles are to remain in the rings of the ark; they are not to be removed. ¹⁶ Then place in the ark the tablets of the covenant law, which I will give you. ¹⁷ “Craft a cover of pure gold for atonement—two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide. ¹⁸ Make two cherubim of gold; make them of hammered work at the two ends of the cover. ¹⁹ Make one cherub at one end and the other cherub at the other end; make the cherubim of one piece with the cover, at its two ends. ²⁰ The cherubim are to have their wings extended upwards, casting a shadow over the cover. They are to face one another, with their gaze directed towards the cover. ²¹ Set the cover on top of the ark and place inside the ark the tablets of the covenant law that I will provide to you. ²² In that place, above the cover and between the two cherubim that are positioned over the ark of the covenant law, I will meet with you and impart all my instructions for the Israelites. ²³ “Construct a table of acacia wood—two cubits long, a cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high. ²⁴ Overlay it with pure gold and create a gold border around it. ²⁵ Also make a rim a handbreadth wide around it and put a gold moulding on the rim. ²⁶ Create four gold rings for the table and secure them to the four corners, where the four legs are. ²⁷ The rings are to be close to the rim to hold the poles used for carrying the table. ²⁸ Fashion the poles of acacia wood, overlay them with gold, and use them to carry the table. ²⁹ Make its plates, dishes, pitchers, and bowls for pouring out offerings, all of pure gold. ³⁰ Place the bread of the Presence on this table to be before me at all times. ³¹ “Create a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand, its base and its shaft, are to be made of hammered work; its flowerlike cups, buds, and blossoms shall be of one piece with it. ³² Six branches are to extend from its sides—three on one side and three on the other. ³³ Each branch is to have three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms, and this design is to be consistent for all six branches extending from the lampstand. ³⁴ The lampstand itself is to have four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms. ³⁵ A bud shall be positioned under the first pair of branches extending from the lampstand, another bud under the second pair, and a third bud under the third pair—making six branches in total. ³⁶ The buds and branches shall all be of one piece with the lampstand, crafted from pure gold. ³⁷ Then make its seven lamps and set them up on it so that they illuminate the area in front of it. ³⁸ Its wick trimmers and trays are to be crafted from pure gold. ³⁹ A full talent of pure gold is to be utilised for the lampstand and all these accessories. ⁴⁰ See that you make them according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain.

26 “Construct the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, incorporating cherubim crafted by a skilled artisan. ² Each curtain shall measure twenty-eight cubits in length and four cubits in width; all curtains shall be uniform in size. ³ Join five curtains together, and likewise join the other five curtains together. ⁴ Create loops of blue material along the edge of the outermost curtain in the first set, and do the same on the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set. ⁵ Craft fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain in the second set, ensuring the loops are aligned opposite each other. ⁶ Make fifty clasps of gold and use them to join the curtains together so that the tabernacle forms a single unit. ⁷ “Create curtains of goats’ hair to serve as a tent over the tabernacle, making eleven curtains in total. ⁸ Each of these eleven curtains shall be thirty cubits long and four cubits wide, maintaining uniform measurements. ⁹ Join five of the curtains into one set and the remaining six into another set, folding the sixth curtain double at the front of the tent. ¹⁰ Craft fifty loops on the edge of the outermost curtain in one set and fifty loops on the edge of the outermost curtain in the other set. ¹¹ Create fifty bronze clasps and insert them into the loops to join the tent together as a single unit. ¹² The extra length of the tent curtains, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle. ¹³ The remaining cubit on each side of the tent curtains shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle to cover it. ¹⁴ Make a covering for the tent of rams’ skins dyed red, with an additional covering of durable leather above. ¹⁵ “Construct upright frames for the tabernacle from acacia wood. ¹⁶ Each frame shall be ten cubits in length and a cubit and a half in width. ¹⁷ Each frame shall have two projections parallel to each other; make all the frames of the tabernacle in this manner. ¹⁸ Construct twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle. ¹⁹ Create forty silver bases to go under the frames—two bases for each frame, one under each projection. ²⁰ For the north side of the tabernacle, construct twenty frames ²¹ and forty silver bases—two bases under each frame. ²² For the back of the tabernacle, the west side, make six frames. ²³ Make two frames for the corners at the back of the tabernacle. ²⁴ These corner frames shall be double from the base to the top and fitted into a single ring; both shall be constructed in this manner. ²⁵ There will be eight frames with their silver bases—sixteen bases in total, two under each frame. ²⁶ “Additionally, make crossbars of acacia wood: five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle, ²⁷ five for the frames on the opposite side, and five for the frames at the back of the tabernacle, on the west side. ²⁸ The central crossbar shall extend from end to end in the middle of the frames. ²⁹ Overlay the frames with gold and create gold rings to hold the crossbars; overlay the crossbars with gold as well. ³⁰ Assemble the tabernacle according to the plan shown to you on the mountain. ³¹ “Create a veil of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim woven into it by a skilled craftsman. ³² Hang it with gold hooks on four pillars of acacia wood overlaid with gold, standing on four silver bases. ³³ Hang the veil from the clasps and place the ark of the covenant law behind the veil. The veil shall serve as a partition between the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place. ³⁴ Place the atonement cover on the ark of the covenant law in the Most Holy Place. ³⁵ Set the table outside the veil on the north side of the tabernacle and position the lampstand opposite it on the south side. ³⁶ “For the entrance to the tent, make a curtain of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, crafted by an embroiderer. ³⁷ Create gold hooks for this curtain and five pillars of acacia wood overlaid with gold, casting five bronze bases for them.

Exodus

27 “Construct an altar of acacia wood, five cubits in length and five cubits in width; the altar shall be square, with a height of three cubits. ² Craft horns on its four corners, ensuring that the horns are of one piece with the altar, and overlay it with bronze. ³ Fashion all its utensils of bronze—its pots for removing ashes, its shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks, and firepans. ⁴ Create a grating for it, a bronze network, and make four bronze rings at the four corners of the network. ⁵ Place it under the ledge of the altar so that the network reaches halfway up the altar. ⁶ Prepare poles of acacia wood for the altar and cover them with bronze. ⁷ Insert the poles into the rings so that they are on the two sides of the altar when it is carried. ⁸ Construct it hollow with planks, as it was shown to you on the mountain, so it shall be made. ⁹ “Create the courtyard of the tabernacle. The south side shall have hangings of fine twisted linen, a hundred cubits long for one side, ¹⁰ with twenty pillars and twenty bronze bases, with silver hooks and bands on the pillars. ¹¹ Similarly, the north side shall have hangings a hundred cubits long, with twenty pillars and twenty bronze bases, with silver hooks and bands on the pillars. ¹² For the west side of the courtyard, there shall be hangings fifty cubits wide, with ten pillars and ten bases. ¹³ The east side of the courtyard shall also be fifty cubits wide. ¹⁴ The hangings for one side of the entrance shall be fifteen cubits, with three pillars and three bases. ¹⁵ For the other side, there shall be hangings of fifteen cubits, with three pillars and three bases. ¹⁶ For the entrance to the courtyard, provide a curtain twenty cubits long, made of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine twisted linen, the work of a skilled craftsman, with four pillars and four bases. ¹⁷ All the pillars around the courtyard shall have silver bands and hooks, with bronze bases. ¹⁸ The courtyard shall be a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide, with a height of five cubits of fine twisted linen, and with bronze bases. ¹⁹ All the articles used in the service of the tabernacle, including all its pegs and all the pegs of the courtyard, shall be made of bronze. ²⁰ “Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the light, to keep the lamp burning continually. ²¹ In the tent of meeting, outside the veil that is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall keep the lamps burning from evening until morning before the Lord. This shall be a lasting ordinance for the Israelites throughout their generations.

28 “Bring your brother Aaron to you, along with his sons Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, from among the Israelites, so that they may serve as priests to Me. ² Create sacred garments for your brother Aaron, for glory and beauty. ³ Speak to all the skilled artisans whom I have endowed with wisdom, that they are to make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, so he may serve as priest to Me. ⁴ These are the garments they shall make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a tunic of checkered work, a turban, and a sash. They shall make these holy garments for Aaron and his sons, so they may serve as priests to Me. ⁵ They shall use gold, violet, purple, scarlet yarn, and fine linen. ⁶ "They shall make the ephod of gold, violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely twisted linen, the work of skilled hands. ⁷ It shall have two shoulder pieces attached to its two corners so that it can be fastened. ⁸ The skilfully woven waistband shall be of the same workmanship, of gold, violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely twisted linen. ⁹ "Select two onyx stones and inscribe them with the names of the sons of Israel, ¹⁰ six names on one stone, and the remaining six on the other, according to their birth order. ¹¹ Engrave the names of the sons of Israel on the two stones as a jeweller engraves a seal, and mount them in gold filigree settings. ¹² Attach the stones to the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel. Aaron shall bear their names on his shoulders as a memorial before the Lord. ¹³ Make gold filigree settings to hold the stones ¹⁴ and two braided chains of pure gold, like a rope, and attach these chains to the settings. ¹⁵ "Fashion a breastpiece for making decisions, the work of skilled hands. Make it like the ephod: of gold, violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely twisted linen. ¹⁶ It shall be square, a span long and a span wide, and folded double. ¹⁷ Mount four rows of precious stones on it. The first row shall be ruby, topaz, and emerald; ¹⁸ the second row shall be turquoise, sapphire, and diamond; ¹⁹ the third row shall consist of jacinth, agate, and amethyst; ²⁰ and the fourth row shall be beryl, onyx, and jasper. Set them in gold filigree. ²¹ There shall be twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israel, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes. ²² "For the breastpiece, craft braided chains of pure gold, resembling a rope. ²³ Make two gold rings for it and attach them to the two corners of the breastpiece. ²⁴ Attach the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the breastpiece, ²⁵ and the other ends of the chains to the two settings, fastening them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front. ²⁶ Create two gold rings and attach them to the other two corners of the breastpiece on the inside edge next to the ephod. ²⁷ Make two more gold rings and attach them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces of the ephod, at the front, close to the seam above the waistband of the ephod. ²⁸ The rings of the breastpiece are to be tied to the rings of the ephod with a violet cord, so that it is on the waistband and the breastpiece does not swing out from the ephod. ²⁹ Whenever Aaron enters the Holy Place, he shall bear the names of the sons of Israel on the breastpiece of decision over his heart as a continual memorial before the Lord. ³⁰ Place the Urim and Thummim in the breastpiece of decision, so they may be over Aaron's heart whenever he enters the presence of the Lord. Thus Aaron shall always bear the means of making decisions for the Israelites over his heart before the Lord. ³¹ "Make the robe of the ephod entirely of violet cloth, ³² with an opening for the head in the centre. There shall be a woven edge like a collar around this opening, so that it will not tear. ³³ Make pomegranates of violet, purple, and scarlet yarn around the hem of the robe, with gold bells between them. ³⁴ A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, all around the hem of the robe. ³⁵ Aaron must wear it when he ministers, so that the sound of the bells will be heard when he enters and leaves the Holy Place before the Lord, so that he will not die. ³⁶ "Craft a plate of pure gold and engrave on it, as on a seal: 'Holy to the Lord.' ³⁷ Fasten a violet cord to it to attach it to the turban; it is to be on the front of the turban. ³⁸ It shall be on Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall bear the guilt involved in the sacred gifts the Israelites consecrate, whatever their gifts may be. It shall always be on his forehead, so that they may be acceptable before the Lord. ³⁹ "Weave the tunic of checkered work of fine linen, make a turban of fine linen, and a sash, the work of a weaver. ⁴⁰ Make tunics, sashes, and caps for Aaron's sons, for glory and beauty. ⁴¹ After you put these garments on your brother Aaron and his sons, anoint, ordain, and consecrate them, so they may serve as priests to Me. ⁴² Make linen undergarments to cover their nakedness, reaching from the waist to the thighs. ⁴³ Aaron and his sons must wear them whenever they enter the tent of meeting or approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, so that they do not incur guilt and die. This shall be a lasting ordinance for Aaron and his descendants.

Exodus

Exodus

29 “This is what you shall do to consecrate them to serve as priests to Me: take a young bull and two rams without blemish. ² And from the finest wheat flour make unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil. ³ Place them in a basket and present them in the basket along with the bull and the two rams. ⁴ Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting and wash them with water. ⁵ Take the garments and dress Aaron with the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod itself, and the breastpiece, and fasten the ephod on him with its skilfully woven band. ⁶ Set the turban on his head and attach the holy emblem to the turban. ⁷ Take the anointing oil and apply it on his head to consecrate him. ⁸ Bring his sons and clothe them in tunics. ⁹ Wrap sashes around Aaron and his sons and fit caps on them. The priesthood shall be theirs by a lasting ordinance. Thus you shall ordain Aaron and his sons. ¹⁰ “Lead the bull to the front of the tent of meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall place their hands on its head. ¹¹ Slaughter the bull before the Lord at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ¹² Take some of the bull’s blood and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and pour out the rest at the base of the altar. ¹³ Take all the fat that covers the entrails, the long lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys with the fat on them, and burn them on the altar. ¹⁴ But burn the bull’s flesh, its hide, and its refuse outside the camp. It is a sin offering. ¹⁵ “Select one of the rams, and Aaron and his sons shall place their hands on its head. ¹⁶ Slaughter the ram and take its blood and sprinkle it around on the altar. ¹⁷ Cut the ram into pieces and wash the entrails and legs, putting them with its head and other pieces. ¹⁸ Then burn the whole ram on the altar. It is a burnt offering to the Lord, a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the Lord. ¹⁹ “Take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall place their hands on its head. ²⁰ Slaughter the ram, take some of its blood and put it on the lobes of Aaron’s right ear and on the lobes of his sons’ right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Sprinkle the rest of the blood around on the altar. ²¹ Take some of the blood from the altar and some of the anointing oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments, and on his sons and their garments. Thus he and his garments shall be consecrated, as well as his sons and their garments. ²² “Take from this ram the fat, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the long lobe of the liver, the two kidneys with the fat on them, and the right thigh. (This is the ram of ordination.) ²³ From the basket of unleavened bread, take one loaf, one cake of bread mixed with oil, and one wafer. ²⁴ Put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and wave them as a wave offering before the Lord. ²⁵ Then take them from their hands and burn them on the altar on the burnt offering for a soothing aroma before the Lord, an offering by fire to the Lord. ²⁶ Take the breast of Aaron’s ram of ordination and wave it as a wave offering before the Lord; it shall be your portion. ²⁷ Consecrate the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution which was waved and offered from the ram of ordination, from the one for Aaron and from the one for his sons. ²⁸ It shall be a perpetual share for Aaron and his sons from the Israelites, for it is a contribution; it shall be a contribution from the Israelites from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, their contribution to the Lord. ²⁹ “Aaron’s holy garments shall belong to his descendants after him, so that they may be anointed and ordained in them. ³⁰ The son who succeeds him as priest, and comes to the tent of meeting to minister in the Holy Place, shall wear them for seven days. ³¹ “Take the ram of ordination and boil its flesh in a holy place. ³² At the entrance of the tent of meeting, Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket. ³³ They shall eat those things by which atonement was made at their ordination and consecration, but no outsider shall eat them, because they are holy. ³⁴ If any of the flesh of ordination or any bread remains until morning, you shall burn the remainder with fire; it shall not be eaten, because it is holy. ³⁵ “Carry out for Aaron and his sons everything I have commanded you, taking seven days to ordain them. ³⁶ Each day offer a bull as a sin offering for atonement, and purify the altar when you make atonement for it, and anoint it to consecrate it. ³⁷ For seven days make atonement for the altar and consecrate it; then the altar shall be most holy, and whatever touches the altar shall be holy. ³⁸ “This is what you shall offer on the altar: two one-year-old lambs each day, regularly. ³⁹ Offer one lamb in the morning and the other lamb at twilight. ⁴⁰ With the first lamb offer a tenth of an ephah of the finest flour mixed with a quarter of a hin of beaten oil, and a quarter of a hin of wine as a drink offering. ⁴¹ Offer the other lamb at twilight with the same grain offering and the same drink offering as in the morning, for a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the Lord. ⁴² It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the entrance of the tent of meeting before the Lord, where I will meet with you to speak to you there. ⁴³ I will meet there with the Israelites, and it shall be consecrated by My glory. ⁴⁴ I will sanctify the tent of meeting and the altar; I will also set apart Aaron and his sons to serve as priests to Me. ⁴⁵ I will reside among the Israelites and be their God. ⁴⁶ They shall know that I am the Lord their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt so that I might dwell among them. I am the Lord their God.

Exodus

30 "Construct an altar from acacia wood as a place for burning incense. ² It shall be square, measuring a cubit in length and a cubit in width, and two cubits in height; its horns shall be of one piece with it. ³ Overlay the top, sides, and horns with pure gold, and create a gold border around it. ⁴ Fashion two gold rings beneath the border on opposite sides to hold the poles for carrying it. ⁵ The poles shall be made of acacia wood and overlaid with gold. ⁶ Position the altar in front of the veil that is near the ark of the covenant, before the atonement cover that is over the ark where I will meet with you. ⁷ Aaron shall burn aromatic incense on it every morning when he tends the lamps. ⁸ When Aaron lights the lamps at twilight, he shall burn incense again. This incense shall burn perpetually before the Lord throughout your generations. ⁹ Do not offer any foreign incense, burnt offering, grain offering, or pour a drink offering on this altar. ¹⁰ Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonement. This shall be a lasting ordinance for generations; it is most holy to the Lord." ¹¹ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ¹² "When you take a census of the Israelites, each person must give a ransom for his life to the Lord when counted, so that no plague will come upon them during the census. ¹³ Each person who is counted shall give a half shekel according to the sanctuary shekel, which is twenty gerahs. This half shekel is a contribution to the Lord. ¹⁴ Everyone twenty years old or more who is counted shall give this offering to the Lord. ¹⁵ The wealthy shall not contribute more, nor the poor less, than the half shekel when giving the offering to the Lord to make atonement for your lives. ¹⁶ Collect the atonement money from the Israelites and allocate it for the service of the tent of meeting. It will be a memorial for the Israelites before the Lord, making atonement for your lives." ¹⁷ The Lord then spoke to Moses, ¹⁸ "Create a bronze basin with a bronze stand for washing, and place it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and fill it with water. ¹⁹ Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and feet with water from it. ²⁰ Whenever they enter the tent of meeting or approach the altar to minister by offering a food sacrifice to the Lord, they must wash with water so that they will not die. ²¹ They must wash their hands and feet so that they will not die. This shall be a permanent statute for Aaron and his descendants throughout their generations." ²² Moreover, the Lord spoke to Moses, ²³ "Take the finest spices: 500 shekels of liquid myrrh, 250 shekels of fragrant cinnamon, 250 shekels of fragrant cane, ²⁴ 500 shekels of cassia, according to the sanctuary shekel, and a hin of olive oil. ²⁵ Make these into a sacred anointing oil, a fragrant blend, the work of a perfumer; it shall be a holy anointing oil. ²⁶ Use it to anoint the tent of meeting, the ark of the covenant, ²⁷ the table and all its utensils, the lampstand and its accessories, and the altar of incense, ²⁸ the altar for burnt offerings with all its utensils, and the basin along with its stand. ²⁹ Consecrate them so that they may be most holy; whatever touches them will be holy. ³⁰ Anoint Aaron and his sons, consecrating them to serve as priests to Me. ³¹ Speak to the Israelites, saying, 'This shall be My sacred anointing oil for generations to come. ³² It shall not be poured on anyone else's body, nor shall you make any other oil using the same formula. It is sacred, and you must consider it sacred. ³³ Whoever makes a perfume like it or puts it on anyone other than a priest must be cut off from their people.'" ³⁴ Then the Lord said to Moses, "Take fragrant spices—stacte, onycha, galbanum, and pure frankincense—all in equal parts, ³⁵ and make a fragrant blend of incense, a skilled mixture, the work of a perfumer. It is to be salted, pure, and holy. ³⁶ Grind some of it to powder and place it in front of the ark of the covenant in the tent of meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you. ³⁷ Do not create any incense with this formula for personal use; regard it as holy to the Lord.³⁸ Anyone who makes incense like it to enjoy its fragrance will be separated from their people.”

Exodus

31 The Lord communicated to Moses,² “See, I have chosen Bezalel, son of Uri, the son of Hur, from the tribe of Judah.³ I have filled him with the Spirit of God, granting him wisdom, understanding, knowledge, and all kinds of craftsmanship,⁴ to devise artistic designs for working in gold, silver, and bronze,⁵ and for cutting stones for settings, and for carving wood, to engage in all kinds of crafts.⁶ Moreover, I have appointed Oholiab, son of Ahisamach, from the tribe of Dan, to assist him. I have also endowed all the skilled artisans with ability, so that they may make everything I have instructed you:⁷ the tent of meeting, the ark of the covenant law with its atonement cover, and all the furnishings of the tent,⁸ the table with its articles, the pure gold lampstand with all its accessories, and the altar of incense,⁹ the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, the basin and its stand,¹⁰ and the woven garments, the sacred garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments for his sons to serve as priests,¹¹ as well as the anointing oil and the fragrant incense for the Holy Place. They are to make them according to all that I have commanded you.”¹² The Lord then said to Moses,¹³ “Speak to the Israelites, saying, ‘You must observe my Sabbaths. This is a sign between me and you for all generations, so that you may know that I am the Lord who makes you holy.’¹⁴ Therefore, you must keep the Sabbath, for it is holy to you. Anyone who desecrates it must be put to death; whoever does any work on that day must be cut off from their people.’¹⁵ For six days work may be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of complete rest, holy to the Lord. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day must be put to death.¹⁶ The Israelites shall observe the Sabbath, celebrating it throughout their generations as a lasting covenant.¹⁷ It is a sign between me and the Israelites forever, for in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day he ceased from labour and was refreshed.”¹⁸ When the Lord finished speaking with Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two tablets of the covenant law, tablets of stone inscribed by the finger of God.

32 When the people saw that Moses was delayed in coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said, “Come, make us a god who will go before us. As for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.”² Aaron said to them, “Remove the gold earrings that your wives, your sons, and your daughters are wearing, and bring them to me.”³ So all the people removed their gold earrings and brought them to Aaron.⁴ He took the gold from their hands and fashioned it with a tool into a cast metal calf. Then they said, “This is your god, Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.”⁵ When Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of it and proclaimed, “Tomorrow shall be a festival to the Lord.”⁶ So the next day the people rose early, offered burnt offerings, and presented peace offerings. Afterwards, they sat down to eat and drink and rose up to engage in revelry.⁷ Then the Lord said to Moses, “Go down at once, for your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have become corrupt.⁸ They have quickly turned aside from the way I commanded them. They have made themselves a cast metal calf, have bowed down to it, and have sacrificed to it, saying, ‘This is your god, Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.’”⁹ The Lord said to Moses, “I have seen this people, and they are indeed a stiff-necked people.¹⁰ Now leave Me alone, so that My anger may burn against them and I may destroy them. Then I will make you into a great nation.”¹¹ But Moses sought the favour of the Lord his God, saying, “Lord, why does Your anger burn against Your people, whom You brought out from the land of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand?¹² Why should the Egyptians say, ‘He brought them out with evil intent, to kill them in the mountains and to wipe them off the face of the earth’? Turn from Your fierce anger; relent and do not bring disaster upon Your people.¹³ Remember Your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, to whom You swore by Your own self: ‘I will make your descendants as countless as the stars in the sky, and I will give your descendants all this land I promised them, and it will be their inheritance forever.’”¹⁴ So the Lord relented from the harm He had threatened to do to His people.¹⁵ Moses turned and went down the mountain with the two tablets of the testimony in his hands. They were inscribed on both sides, front and back. ¹⁶ The tablets were crafted by God; the writing was God's own writing, engraved on the tablets. ¹⁷ When Joshua heard the sound of the people shouting, he said to Moses, "There is the sound of war in the camp." ¹⁸ But Moses replied, "It is not the sound of victory, nor is it the sound of defeat; it is the sound of singing that I hear." ¹⁹ As soon as Moses approached the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, his anger burned, and he threw the tablets from his hands, shattering them at the foot of the mountain. ²⁰ He took the calf they had made, burned it with fire, ground it to powder, scattered it on the water, and made the Israelites drink it. ²¹ Moses said to Aaron, "What did these people do to you, that you have brought such a great sin upon them?" ²² Aaron replied, "Do not let the anger of my lord burn; you know the people yourself, that they are prone to evil." ²³ They said to me, 'Make us a god who will go before us; as for this Moses, who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.' ²⁴ So I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold jewellery, let them take it off.' They gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf!" ²⁵ When Moses saw that the people were out of control—for Aaron had let them get out of control to the point of becoming a laughingstock among their enemies—²⁶ Moses stood at the entrance to the camp and said, "Whoever is for the Lord, come to me." And all the sons of Levi gathered to him. ²⁷ He said to them, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'Each man strap a sword to his side. Go back and forth through the camp from one end to the other, each killing his brother, friend, and neighbour.'" ²⁸ The sons of Levi did as Moses commanded, and that day about three thousand of the people fell. ²⁹ Then Moses said, "Dedicate yourselves today to the Lord—for you have been against your own sons and brothers—so that He may bestow a blessing upon you today." ³⁰ The following day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a great sin. But now I will go up to the Lord; perhaps I can make amends for your sin." ³¹ So Moses returned to the Lord and said, "Oh, what a great sin these people have committed! They have made themselves a god of gold. ³² But now, if You will forgive their sin, please do so; but if not, please blot me out from the book You have written." ³³ The Lord replied to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against Me, I will remove from My book. ³⁴ Now go, lead the people to the place I told you about. Behold, My angel shall go before you. Nevertheless, on the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin." ³⁵ Then the Lord struck the people with a plague because of what they did with the calf Aaron had made.

Exodus

33 Then the Lord instructed Moses, "Depart from here, you and the people you have brought up from Egypt, and proceed to the land I vowed to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, 'I will grant it to your descendants.' ² I shall send an angel ahead of you and will expel the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. ³ Ascend to a land flowing with milk and honey; however, I will not accompany you, for you are a stubborn people, and I might annihilate you on the journey." ⁴ Upon hearing these unsettling words, the people mourned, and none adorned themselves with jewellery. ⁵ For the Lord had instructed Moses, "Tell the Israelites, 'You are a stubborn people. If I were to accompany you for even a moment, I might destroy you. Therefore, remove your jewellery so that I may determine what to do with you.'" ⁶ Thus, the Israelites divested themselves of their jewellery from Mount Horeb onwards. ⁷ Moses would take a tent and pitch it outside the camp, at some distance, and he called it the "tent of meeting." Anyone seeking the Lord would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp. ⁸ Whenever Moses proceeded to the tent, all the people would rise and stand at the entrances of their tents, watching Moses until he entered the tent. ⁹ As Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and remain at the entrance, and the Lord would converse with Moses. ¹⁰ When the people observed the pillar of cloud standing at the tent's entrance, they would all stand and worship, each at the entrance of their tent. ¹¹ The Lord would speak to Moses face to face, as one speaks to a friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his young assistant Joshua, son of Nun, would not depart from the tent. ¹² Moses said to the Lord, "You have been instructing me, 'Lead these people,' but You have not revealed whom You will send with me. You have said, 'I know you by name and you have found favour with me.' ¹³ If I have indeed found favour in Your sight, teach me Your ways so that I may know You and continue to find favour with You. Remember that this nation is Your people." ¹⁴ The Lord responded, "My presence will go with you, and I will grant you rest.”¹⁵ Moses replied, “If Your presence does not accompany us, do not make us leave this place.”¹⁶ For how will it be known that I have found favour in Your sight, I and Your people, unless You accompany us? What else will distinguish me and Your people from all other peoples on the earth?”¹⁷ The Lord said to Moses, “I will also do this thing you have requested, for you have found favour in My sight, and I know you by name.”¹⁸ Moses then said, “Please, show Your glory to me.”¹⁹ And the Lord said, “I will cause all My goodness to pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the Lord before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show compassion to whom I will show compassion.”²⁰ But He said, “You are unable to see My face, for no one may see Me and live.”²¹ The Lord continued, “There is a place near Me where you may stand on a rock.”²² When My glory passes by, I will place you in a cleft in the rock and cover you with My hand until I have passed by.²³ Then I will remove My hand and you shall see My back; but My face must not be seen.”

Exodus

34 The Lord instructed Moses, “Carve out two stone tablets like the previous ones, and I will inscribe upon them the words that were on the original tablets, which you shattered.”² Prepare yourself by morning, and ascend Mount Sinai to present yourself to Me on the summit of the mountain.³ Ensure that no one accompanies you or is visible anywhere on the mountain; even the flocks and herds must not graze in front of the mountain.”⁴ Thus Moses carved out two stone tablets like the former ones, and he rose early in the morning and ascended Mount Sinai, as the Lord had instructed him, carrying the two stone tablets in his hands.⁵ The Lord descended in the cloud and stood there with him, and he invoked the name of the Lord.⁶ The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, “The Lord, the Lord God, compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and rich in steadfast love and truth,⁷ maintaining love to thousands, forgiving iniquity, transgression, and sin. Yet He will not leave the guilty unpunished, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children and grandchildren to the third and fourth generations.”⁸ Moses immediately bowed to the ground in reverence.⁹ He said, “If I have found favour in Your sight, Lord, please let the Lord accompany us. Although this is a stubborn people, forgive our iniquity and our sin, and claim us as Your inheritance.”¹⁰ The Lord responded, “I am establishing a covenant. Before all your people, I will perform wonders never before done in any nation in all the world. The people you live among will witness the awe-inspiring deeds that I, the Lord, will accomplish with you.”¹¹ Observe what I command you today. I will drive out the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites from before you.¹² Take care not to form a covenant with the inhabitants of the land you are entering, lest it become a snare among you.¹³ Instead, you shall demolish their altars, shatter their sacred stones, and cut down their Asherah poles.¹⁴ Do not serve any other god, for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a God who desires exclusive devotion.¹⁵ Be cautious not to make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land; for when they engage in idolatry and sacrifice to their gods, they will invite you, and you will partake of their sacrifices.¹⁶ When you take their daughters as wives for your sons, and their daughters prostitute themselves to their gods, they will lead your sons to do the same.¹⁷ Do not create any metal idols.¹⁸ Observe the Festival of Unleavened Bread. For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month of Aviv, for in that month you departed from Egypt.¹⁹ The first offspring of every womb belongs to Me, including all the firstborn males of your livestock, whether cattle or sheep.²⁰ Redeem the firstborn donkey with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck. Redeem all your firstborn sons. No one should come before Me without an offering.²¹ You shall labour for six days, but on the seventh day, you shall rest; even during the ploughing and harvest seasons, you must rest.²² Celebrate the Festival of Weeks with the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the Festival of Ingathering at the year's end.²³ Three times a year, all your males must appear before the Sovereign Lord, the God of Israel.²⁴ I will drive out nations before you and expand your borders, and no one will covet your land when you go up three times a year to appear before the Lord your God.²⁵ Do not offer the blood of My sacrifice with anything leavened, nor should the sacrifice of the Passover Festival be left until morning.²⁶ Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of the Lord your God. Do not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.²⁷ The Lord said to Moses, “Write down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.”²⁸ Moses remained there with the Lord for forty days and forty nights without eating bread or drinking water. He inscribed on the tablets the words of the covenant—the Ten Commandments.²⁹ When Moses descended from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the covenant law in his hands, he was unaware that his face was radiant because he had spoken with the Lord.³⁰ When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, his face was radiant, and they were afraid to approach him.³¹ Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the community returned to him, and he spoke to them.³² Afterwards, all the Israelites came near, and he relayed to them all the commands the Lord had given him on Mount Sinai.³³ After Moses finished speaking with them, he placed a veil over his face.³⁴ Whenever Moses entered the Lord’s presence to speak with Him, he removed the veil until he came out. When he came out and conveyed the commands to the Israelites,³⁵ they observed that his face was radiant. Then Moses would replace the veil over his face until he went in to speak with the Lord.

Exodus

35 Moses gathered together all the assembly of the Israelites and said to them, “These are the instructions the Lord has given you to follow: ² For six days, work shall be done, but the seventh day shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of complete rest to the Lord. Whoever does any work on it shall be put to death. ³ You must not light a fire in any of your homes on the Sabbath day.” ⁴ Moses addressed the entire assembly of the Israelites, saying, “This is what the Lord has commanded: ⁵ Take from what you have a contribution for the Lord. Everyone who is willing is to bring to the Lord a contribution of gold, silver, and bronze; ⁶ violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, and fine linen; goats’ hair; ⁷ ram skins dyed red and another type of fine leather; acacia wood; ⁸ oil for the lamps; spices for the anointing oil and for the aromatic incense; ⁹ and onyx stones and other gems to be set in the ephod and breastpiece. ¹⁰ “All who possess skills among you are invited to come and make everything the Lord has commanded: ¹¹ the tabernacle with its tent and its covering, its hooks, frames, crossbars, posts, and bases; ¹² the ark with its poles, the atonement cover, and the curtain that shields it; ¹³ the table with its poles and all its utensils, along with the bread that is set before the Lord; ¹⁴ the lampstand for the light with its accessories, lamps, and oil for the light; ¹⁵ the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil and the aromatic incense; the curtain for the doorway at the entrance to the tabernacle; ¹⁶ the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles, and all its utensils; the basin with its stand; ¹⁷ the courtyard drapes with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard; ¹⁸ the tent pegs for the tabernacle and for the courtyard, and their cords; ¹⁹ the woven garments worn for ministering in the sanctuary—the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they serve as priests.” ²⁰ Then all the assembly of the Israelites departed from Moses’ presence, ²¹ and everyone whose heart was stirred and whose spirit was willing came and brought the Lord’s contribution for the work on the tent of meeting, for all its service, and for the sacred garments. ²² All who were willing, both men and women, came and brought gold jewellery of all kinds: brooches, earrings, rings, and ornaments. They all presented their gold as a wave offering to the Lord. ²³ Everyone who had violet, purple, or scarlet yarn, or fine linen, or goats’ hair, ram skins dyed red, or fine leather brought them. ²⁴ Everyone who could make a contribution of silver or bronze brought it as an offering to the Lord, and everyone who had acacia wood for any part of the work brought it. ²⁵ Every skilled woman spun with her hands and brought what she had spun—violet, purple, or scarlet yarn, and fine linen. ²⁶ And all the women whose hearts were stirred with skill spun the goats’ hair. ²⁷ The leaders brought onyx stones and other gems to be set in the ephod and breastpiece; ²⁸ and the spices and oil for the lamps, for the anointing oil, and for the aromatic incense. ²⁹ All the Israelite men and women whose hearts were willing brought to the Lord voluntary offerings for all the work the Lord through Moses had commanded them to do. ³⁰ Then Moses said to the Israelites, “See, the Lord has called by name Bezael son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, ³¹ and he has filled him with the Spirit of God, with wisdom, understanding, knowledge, and all kinds of craftsmanship— ³² to create artistic designs for working in gold, silver, and bronze, ³³ to cut and set stones, to work in wood, and to engage in all sorts of artistic crafts. ³⁴ He has also granted both him and Oholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to instruct others.³⁵ He has filled them with skill to perform all kinds of work as engravers, designers, embroiderers in violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, and fine linen, and weavers—all of them skilled workers and designers.

Exodus

36 Bezalel, Oholiab, and every skilled individual to whom the Lord has imparted wisdom and understanding to execute all the work for constructing the sanctuary, shall carry out the work in accordance with all that the Lord has commanded.² Moses then called Bezalel, Oholiab, and every skilled person to whom the Lord had given ability, everyone whose heart was moved to come forward and engage in the work.³ They received from Moses all the contributions the Israelites had brought for the work on the sanctuary. And the people continued to bring freewill offerings every morning.⁴ All the skilled workers engaged in the work of the sanctuary left their tasks⁵ and reported to Moses, “The people are bringing far more than is needed for the work the Lord has commanded us to do.”⁶ So Moses issued a command and sent a proclamation throughout the camp: “No man or woman is to make any further offerings for the sanctuary.” Thus, the people were restrained from bringing more.⁷ For the materials they had were sufficient and even more than enough to complete all the work.⁸ All the skilled artisans among the workers made the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, with cherubim woven into them by a skilled craftsman.⁹ Each curtain was twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide; all the curtains were of the same size.¹⁰ They joined five of the curtains together, and the other five were similarly joined.¹¹ They made loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and the same was done with the end curtain in the other set.¹² Fifty loops were made on one curtain and fifty on the edge of the curtain in the other set, with the loops aligned opposite each other.¹³ They also made fifty gold clasps and used them to join the two sets of curtains so that the tabernacle formed a single unit.¹⁴ They made curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle, eleven in total.¹⁵ Each of the eleven curtains was thirty cubits long and four cubits wide, all of them having the same dimensions.¹⁶ They joined five of the curtains into one set and the remaining six into another set.¹⁷ They made fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set and fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in the other set.¹⁸ Fifty bronze clasps were made to join the tent together as a single unit.¹⁹ They made a covering for the tent of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of another durable leather.²⁰ They constructed upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle.²¹ Each frame measured ten cubits in length and a cubit and a half in width,²² with two tenons parallel to each other. All the frames of the tabernacle were made in this manner.²³ They crafted twenty frames for the southern side of the tabernacle²⁴ and forty silver bases to support them—two bases for each frame, one under each tenon.²⁵ For the northern side of the tabernacle, they crafted twenty frames²⁶ and forty silver bases to support them, with two bases beneath each frame.²⁷ They made six frames for the west end of the tabernacle,²⁸ and two frames were constructed for the corners of the tabernacle at the far end.²⁹ These frames were double from the bottom to the top and fitted into a single ring; both were made alike.³⁰ Thus, there were eight frames and sixteen silver bases—two under each frame.³¹ They also fashioned crossbars of acacia wood: five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle,³² five for those on the other side, and five for the frames at the west end of the tabernacle.³³ The centre crossbar was made to extend from end to end at the middle of the frames.³⁴ They overlaid the frames with gold and made gold rings to hold the crossbars, which were also overlaid with gold.³⁵ They crafted the veil of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim woven into it by a skilled craftsman.³⁶ Four posts of acacia wood were made for it, overlaid with gold, with gold hooks, and four silver bases were cast for them.³⁷ For the entrance to the tent, they made a curtain of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, the work of an embroiderer;³⁸ and they made five posts with hooks for it. The tops of the posts and their bands were overlaid with gold, and their five bases were made of bronze.

37 Bezalel constructed the ark from acacia wood; its length was two and a half cubits, its width one and a half cubits, and its height one and a half cubits.² He overlaid it with pure gold, both inside and outside, and made a gold moulding all around it.³ He cast four gold rings for it and attached them to its four feet; two rings on one side and two rings on the other side.⁴ He fashioned poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.⁵ He inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry it.⁶ He also made the atonement cover of pure gold, measuring two and a half cubits long and one and a half cubits wide.⁷ He crafted two cherubim of hammered gold at the two ends of the atonement cover.⁸ One cherub was positioned at one end and the other cherub at the opposite end; he made the cherubim of one piece with the atonement cover at the two ends.⁹ The cherubim had their wings spread upwards, overshadowing the atonement cover with them. They faced each other, looking towards the cover.¹⁰ He made the table of acacia wood, two cubits long, one cubit wide, and one and a half cubits high.¹¹ He overlaid it with pure gold and fashioned a gold moulding all around it.¹² He also made a rim for it, a handbreadth wide, and put a gold moulding on the rim all around.¹³ He cast four gold rings for the table and fastened them to the four corners where the legs were.¹⁴ The rings were positioned close to the rim to hold the poles for carrying the table.¹⁵ He crafted the poles from acacia wood, overlaying them with gold, for the purpose of carrying the table.¹⁶ He crafted from pure gold the utensils for the table—its plates, dishes, bowls, and pitchers for pouring out drink offerings.¹⁷ He made the lampstand of pure gold, hammering out its base and shaft, with its flowerlike cups, buds, and blossoms all of one piece with it.¹⁸ Six branches extended from its sides—three branches on one side and three on the other.¹⁹ Each branch had three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms, and this pattern was consistent for all six branches extending from the lampstand.²⁰ The lampstand itself featured four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms.²¹ A bud was under the first pair of branches extending from the lampstand, a second bud under the second pair, and a third bud under the third pair—six branches in total.²² The buds and branches were all of one piece with the lampstand, a single hammered work of pure gold.²³ He made its seven lamps, as well as its wick trimmers and trays, of pure gold.²⁴ He made the lampstand and all its accessories from a single talent of pure gold.²⁵ He constructed the altar of incense from acacia wood, a cubit long and a cubit wide, square, and two cubits high; its horns were of one piece with it.²⁶ He overlaid the top, its sides all around, and its horns with pure gold, and made a gold moulding for it all around.²⁷ He made two gold rings below the moulding on opposite sides to hold the poles used for carrying it.²⁸ He fashioned the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.²⁹ He also made the sacred anointing oil and the pure, fragrant incense, the work of a perfumer.

Exodus

38 The altar of burnt offering was constructed from acacia wood, measuring five cubits in length, five cubits in width, and three cubits in height, forming a square.² Horns were crafted on each of its four corners, all of one piece with the altar, and it was overlaid with bronze.³ All the utensils for the altar were made of bronze, including the pots, shovels, basins, meat forks, and firepans.⁴ A grating of bronze network was made for the altar, positioned beneath its ledge, reaching halfway up the altar.⁵ Four rings were cast at the four corners of the bronze grating to hold the poles.⁶ The poles were made of acacia wood and overlaid with bronze.⁷ The poles were inserted into the rings on the sides of the altar for carrying it. The altar was made hollow, constructed with boards.⁸ The bronze basin and its stand were crafted from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting.⁹ The courtyard was then made. The south side featured hangings of finely twisted linen, a hundred cubits in length.¹⁰ This side had twenty pillars with twenty bronze bases, and silver hooks and bands on the pillars.¹¹ The north side was also a hundred cubits long, with twenty pillars and twenty bronze bases, and silver hooks and bands on the pillars.¹² The west side had hangings fifty cubits wide, with ten pillars and ten bases, with silver hooks and bands on the pillars.¹³ The east side, facing the sunrise, was fifty cubits wide.¹⁴ On one side of the entrance, the hangings were fifteen cubits long, with three pillars and three bases.¹⁵ Similarly, on the other side of the entrance, there were hangings fifteen cubits long, with three pillars and three bases.¹⁶ All the hangings around the courtyard were of finely twisted linen.¹⁷ The bases for the pillars were bronze, while the hooks and bands on the pillars were silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver. Thus, all the pillars of the courtyard had silver bands.¹⁸ The curtain for the entrance to the courtyard was crafted by a weaver, using blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen. It measured twenty cubits in length and five cubits in height, matching the hangings of the courtyard.¹⁹ It had four pillars and four bronze bases. Their hooks and bands were silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver.²⁰ All the pegs of the tabernacle and the surrounding courtyard were made of bronze.²¹ These are the quantities of materials used for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, as recorded by the Levites under the command of Moses, directed by Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.²² Bezalel, son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, executed all that the Lord commanded Moses.²³ With him was Oholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, designer, and skilled embroiderer in blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine linen.²⁴ The total amount of gold from the wave offering used for all the work on the sanctuary was twenty-nine talents and 730 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel.²⁵ The silver collected from the community census amounted to one hundred talents and 1,775 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel.²⁶ This was a beka per person, that is, half a shekel, according to the sanctuary shekel, from each man aged twenty years or older, totalling 603,550 men.²⁷ The hundred talents of silver were used to cast the bases for the sanctuary and the curtain—one hundred bases from the hundred talents, one talent per base.²⁸ The 1,775 shekels were used to make hooks for the pillars, to overlay their tops, and to make bands for them.²⁹ The bronze from the wave offering amounted to seventy talents and 2,400 shekels.³⁰ This bronze was used to make the bases for the entrance to the tent of meeting, the bronze altar with its bronze grating, and all its utensils.³¹ It was also used for the bases of the surrounding courtyard and its entrance, and for all the pegs of the tabernacle and the surrounding courtyard.

Exodus

39 From the violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, they crafted finely woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary, along with the sacred garments for Aaron, as the Lord instructed Moses.² The ephod was made of gold, and of violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely twisted linen.³ They hammered out gold sheets and cut them into threads to be woven into the violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, and the fine linen, the work of skilled hands.⁴ They fashioned shoulder pieces for the ephod, which were attached at its two upper corners.⁵ The skilfully woven waistband of the ephod was of the same workmanship and materials: gold, violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely twisted linen, as the Lord commanded Moses.⁶ They set the onyx stones in gold filigree settings, engraving them like a seal with the names of the sons of Israel.⁷ These were placed on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as the Lord commanded Moses.⁸ The breastpiece was crafted by a skilled embroiderer, like the ephod, of gold, and of violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, and finely twisted linen.⁹ It was square and folded double, a span in length and width.¹⁰ They mounted four rows of precious stones on it. The first row was ruby, topaz, and emerald;¹¹ the second row was turquoise, sapphire, and a clear gem;¹² the third row was jacinth, agate, and a purple stone;¹³ the fourth row was beryl, onyx, and jasper. These were set in gold filigree settings.¹⁴ There were twelve stones, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes of Israel.¹⁵ For the breastpiece, they fashioned chains of pure gold, twisted like cords.¹⁶ They crafted two gold filigree settings and two gold rings, and fastened the rings to the two corners of the breastpiece.¹⁷ The two gold chains were attached to the rings at the corners of the breastpiece.¹⁸ The other ends of the chains were fastened to the two settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.¹⁹ They made two gold rings and attached them to the other two corners of the breastpiece, on the inner edge next to the ephod.²⁰ They also made two more gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces of the ephod, at the front, near the seam above the waistband.²¹ The rings of the breastpiece were tied to the rings of the ephod with a violet cord, so that the breastpiece would remain attached to the waistband and not swing out, as the Lord commanded Moses.²² The robe of the ephod was made entirely of violet cloth, the work of a weaver.²³ It had an opening in the centre, like the opening of a coat of mail, with a binding around the opening to prevent tearing.²⁴ They made pomegranates of violet, purple, and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen around the hem of the robe.²⁵ Pure gold bells were made and placed between the pomegranates around the hem.²⁶ The bells and pomegranates alternated around the hem of the robe for ministering, as the Lord commanded Moses.²⁷ Tunics of finely woven linen were made for Aaron and his sons.²⁸ They also made the turban of fine linen, the decorated caps, and the undergarments of finely twisted linen.²⁹ The sash was crafted from finely twisted linen and violet, purple, and scarlet yarn, the work of an embroiderer, as the Lord commanded Moses.³⁰ They made the plate, the sacred emblem, of pure gold and engraved on it, like an inscription on a seal: "Holy to the Lord."³¹ A violet cord was attached to it to fasten it to the turban, as the Lord commanded Moses.³² Thus, all the work on the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, was completed. The Israelites did everything as the Lord commanded Moses.³³ They brought the tabernacle to Moses: the tent and all its furnishings, its clasps, frames, crossbars, posts, and bases;³⁴ the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of fine leather, and the shielding curtain;³⁵ the ark of the covenant with its poles and the atonement cover;³⁶ the table with all its implements and the bread of the Presence;³⁷ the pure gold lampstand with its lamps in a row and all its accessories, and the olive oil for the light;³⁸ the golden altar, the anointing oil, the fragrant incense, and the curtain for the entrance to the tent;³⁹ the bronze altar with its bronze grating, its poles and all its implements; the basin with its stand;⁴⁰ the curtains of the courtyard with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard; the ropes and tent pegs for the courtyard; all the equipment for the service of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting;⁴¹ and the woven garments used for ministering in the sanctuary, both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when serving as priests.⁴² The Israelites completed all the tasks precisely as the Lord had instructed Moses.⁴³ Moses reviewed the work and saw that they had done it just as the Lord had commanded. So Moses blessed them.

Exodus

40 Then the Lord spoke to Moses:² "On the first day of the first month, you shall set up the tabernacle, the tent of meeting.³ You shall place the ark of the covenant within it and shield the ark with the veil.⁴ Bring in the table and arrange its items. Then bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps.⁵ Place the gold altar of incense in front of the ark of the covenant, and hang the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle.⁶ Position the altar of burnt offering before the entrance to the tabernacle, the tent of meeting.⁷ Set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and fill it with water.⁸ Set up the courtyard around it and hang the curtain at the gate of the courtyard.⁹ Take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and everything within it; consecrate it and all its furnishings, and it shall be holy.¹⁰ Anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils; consecrate the altar, and it shall be most holy.¹¹ Anoint the basin and its stand, dedicating them.¹² Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting and cleanse them with water.¹³ Dress Aaron in the sacred garments, anoint him, and consecrate him so that he may serve as a priest to Me.¹⁴ Present his sons and clothe them in tunics.¹⁵ Anoint them as you anointed their father, so they may serve as priests to Me. Their anointing shall be for a perpetual priesthood throughout their generations."¹⁶ Moses carried out all the tasks exactly as the Lord had instructed him.¹⁷ In the first month of the second year, on the first day, the tabernacle was set up.¹⁸ Moses set up the tabernacle, laid its bases, erected its frames, inserted its crossbars, and set up its posts.¹⁹ He spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering over the tent, as the Lord had commanded him.²⁰ He took the tablets of the covenant law and placed them in the ark, attached the poles to the ark, and covered it with the atonement cover.²¹ He brought the ark into the tabernacle, hung the shielding curtain, and screened off the ark of the covenant, as the Lord had commanded him.²² He placed the table in the tent of meeting on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil.²³ He set the bread in order upon it before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded him.²⁴ He positioned the lampstand in the tent of meeting opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle.²⁵ He set up the lamps before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded him.²⁶ He placed the gold altar in the tent of meeting in front of the veil.²⁷ He burned fragrant incense on it, as the Lord had commanded him.²⁸ He hung the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle.²⁹ He set the altar of burnt offering near the entrance to the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, and offered burnt offerings and grain offerings on it, as the Lord had commanded him.³⁰ He placed the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and filled it with water for washing.³¹ Moses, Aaron, and his sons used it to wash their hands and feet.³² They washed whenever they entered the tent of meeting or approached the altar, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ³³ Then Moses set up the courtyard around the tabernacle and altar, and hung the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard. Thus Moses completed the work. ³⁴ Then the cloud enveloped the tent of meeting, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle. ³⁵ Moses was unable to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud had settled upon it, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle. ³⁶ Throughout all their journeys, whenever the cloud lifted from above the tabernacle, the Israelites would set out. ³⁷ But if the cloud did not lift, they did not set out until the day it lifted. ³⁸ For the cloud of the Lord was over the tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel throughout all their journeys.

Exodus

Leviticus

1 The Lord called to Moses and addressed him from the tent of meeting: ² “Speak to the Israelites and say to them, ‘When any of you brings an offering to the Lord, you shall bring your offering from the livestock, either from the herd or the flock. ³ If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he must offer a male without defect. He shall present it at the entrance to the tent of meeting, so that it may be acceptable to the Lord. ⁴ He is to lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it will be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him. ⁵ He shall slaughter the young bull before the Lord, and Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall bring the blood and sprinkle it around on the altar at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ⁶ He shall skin the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces. ⁷ Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall place fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire. ⁸ Then Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall arrange the pieces, including the head and the fat, on the wood that is on the fire on the altar. ⁹ He shall wash the internal organs and the legs with water, and the priest shall burn all of it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, a food offering, a soothing aroma to the Lord. ¹⁰ But if his offering is a burnt offering from the flock, either from the sheep or the goats, he shall offer a male without defect. ¹¹ He shall slaughter it on the north side of the altar before the Lord, and Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar. ¹² He shall cut it into its pieces, and the priest shall arrange them, including the head and the fat, on the wood that is on the fire on the altar. ¹³ He shall wash the internal organs and the legs with water, and the priest shall bring all of it and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, a food offering, a soothing aroma to the Lord. ¹⁴ But if his offering to the Lord is a burnt offering of birds, he shall bring his offering from the doves or young pigeons. ¹⁵ The priest shall take it to the altar, remove its head, and burn it on the altar; its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar. ¹⁶ He shall remove its crop with its feathers and throw it beside the altar on the east side, to the place of the ashes. ¹⁷ He shall tear it open by its wings, without dividing it completely, and the priest shall burn it on the wood that is on the fire on the altar. It is a burnt offering, a food offering, a soothing aroma to the Lord.

2 ‘When anyone presents a grain offering to the Lord, their offering shall be of the finest flour. They are to pour olive oil on it and put frankincense on it. ² They shall bring it to Aaron’s sons the priests. The priest shall take a handful of the flour and oil, with all the frankincense, and burn this as a memorial portion on the altar, a food offering, a soothing aroma to the Lord. ³ The remainder of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings presented to the Lord by fire. ⁴ ‘If you bring a grain offering baked in an oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of the finest flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers spread with oil. ⁵ If your grain offering is prepared on a griddle, it shall be made of the finest flour mixed with oil, and without leaven. ⁶ Divide it into pieces and pour oil on it; this constitutes a grain offering. ⁷ If your grain offering is cooked in a pan, it shall be made of the finest flour with oil. ⁸ Bring the grain offering made of these things to the Lord; present it to the priest, who shall bring it to the altar. ⁹ The priest shall take out the memorial portion from the grain offering and burn it on the altar as a food offering, a soothing aroma to the Lord. ¹⁰ The remainder of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings to the Lord by fire. ¹¹ ‘Every grain offering you bring to the Lord must be made without leaven, for you shall not burn any leaven or honey as an offering by fire to the Lord. ¹² You may bring them to the Lord as an offering of firstfruits, but they shall not be offered on the altar as a soothing aroma. ¹³ Season all your grain offerings with salt. Do not leave the salt of the covenant of your God out of your grain offerings; with all your offerings, you shall offer salt. ¹⁴ ‘If you present a grain offering of firstfruits to the Lord, offer crushed heads of new grain roasted in the fire. ¹⁵ Add oil and incense to it; this is a grain offering. ¹⁶ The priest shall burn the memorial portion of the crushed grain and the oil, together with all the incense, as an offering by fire to the Lord.

3 ‘If your offering is a sacrifice of peace offerings, and it is from the herd, whether male or female, you shall present it without defect before the Lord. ² You shall lay your hand on the head of your offering and slaughter it at the entrance of the tent of meeting. Then Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall sprinkle the blood around the altar. ³ From the peace offering you shall present an offering by fire to the Lord: the fat that covers the internal organs and all the fat that is on them, ⁴ and the two kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which you shall remove with the kidneys. ⁵ Then Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar on top of the burnt offering that is on the wood on the fire; it is an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the Lord. ⁶ If your offering for a peace offering to the Lord is from the flock, you shall offer a male or female without defect. ⁷ If you offer a lamb, you shall present it before the Lord, ⁸ and lay your hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the tent of meeting. Then Aaron's sons shall sprinkle its blood around the altar. ⁹ From the peace offering you shall bring an offering by fire to the Lord: its fat, the entire fat tail removed close to the backbone, the fat covering the internal organs and all the fat on them, ¹⁰ and the two kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which you shall remove with the kidneys. ¹¹ The priest shall burn it on the altar as nourishment, an offering by fire to the Lord. ¹² If your offering is a goat, you shall present it before the Lord, ¹³ and lay your hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the tent of meeting. Then Aaron's sons shall sprinkle its blood around the altar. ¹⁴ From it you shall present your offering as an offering by fire to the Lord: the fat that covers the internal organs and all the fat on them, ¹⁵ and the two kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the lobe of the liver, which you shall remove with the kidneys. ¹⁶ The priest shall burn them on the altar as nourishment, an offering by fire, a pleasing aroma. All the fat is the Lord's. ¹⁷ This is a lasting ordinance for all your generations wherever you live: you shall not eat any fat or any blood.'

Leviticus

4 The Lord addressed Moses with these words, ² "Speak to the Israelites and say: 'If anyone sins unintentionally in any of the things the Lord has commanded not to be done, and commits any of them— ³ if the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt upon the people, he must present to the Lord a young bull without defect as a sin offering for the sin he has committed. ⁴ He shall bring the bull to the entrance of the tent of meeting before the Lord, lay his hand on its head, and slaughter it there before the Lord. ⁵ The anointed priest is to take some of the bull's blood and carry it into the tent of meeting. ⁶ He is to dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the Lord, in front of the veil of the sanctuary. ⁷ The priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense before the Lord in the tent of meeting, and the rest of the bull's blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ⁸ He shall remove all the fat from the bull of the sin offering—the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails, ⁹ the two kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys— ¹⁰ just as it is removed from the ox of the sacrifice of peace offerings. Then the priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering. ¹¹ But the hide of the bull and all its flesh, along with its head, legs, entrails, and refuse— ¹² that is, all the rest of the bull—he must take to a clean place outside the camp where the ashes are poured out, and burn it there on a wood fire; where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned. ¹³ 'If the whole Israelite community sins unintentionally and the matter escapes the notice of the assembly, and they do any of the things the Lord has commanded not to be done, and become guilty; ¹⁴ when the sin they have committed becomes known, the assembly must bring a young bull as a sin offering and present it before the tent of meeting. ¹⁵ The elders of the community shall lay their hands on the bull's head before the Lord, and the bull shall be slaughtered before the Lord. ¹⁶ Then the anointed priest shall bring some of the bull's blood to the tent of meeting. ¹⁷ He shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the Lord, in front of the veil. ¹⁸ He shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar before the Lord in the tent of meeting, and the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ¹⁹ He shall remove all its fat and burn it on the altar, ²⁰ and do with this bull just as he did with the bull of the sin offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for them, and they will be forgiven. ²¹ Then he shall bring the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull. This is the sin offering for the assembly. ²² 'When a leader sins unintentionally and does any of the things the Lord his God has commanded not to be done, and becomes guilty, ²³ if his sin which he has committed becomes known, he shall bring as his offering a male goat without defect. ²⁴ He shall lay his hand on the goat's head and slaughter it at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered before the Lord. It is a sin offering. ²⁵ Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. ²⁶ He shall burn all the fat on the altar as he burned the fat of the peace offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for him regarding his sin, and he will be forgiven. ²⁷ 'If any member of the community sins unintentionally by doing any of the things the Lord has commanded not to be done, and becomes guilty, ²⁸ if the sin which he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a female goat without defect for his sin which he has committed. ²⁹ He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it at the place of the burnt offering. ³⁰ The priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. ³¹ He shall remove all its fat, just as the fat was removed from the peace offerings, and the priest shall burn it on the altar as a pleasing aroma to the Lord. In this way the priest will make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven. ³² 'If he brings a lamb as his offering for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without defect. ³³ He shall lay his hand on its head and slaughter it for a sin offering at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered. ³⁴ Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. ³⁵ He shall remove all its fat, just as the fat of the lamb is removed from the peace offerings, and the priest shall burn it on the altar, on the offerings by fire to the Lord. In this way the priest will make atonement for him for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus

5 "If an individual sins by failing to speak up when they hear a public call to testify about something they have witnessed or know, they will be held accountable. ² Or if a person becomes aware of their guilt after unknowingly touching anything that is ceremonially unclean—be it the carcass of an unclean animal, whether wild or domestic, or any unclean creature that moves along the ground—and they realise their impurity; ³ Or if they touch human uncleanness, whatever form it may take, and it is hidden from them, but later they become aware of it, they will be guilty. ⁴ Or if someone makes a rash oath to do anything, whether good or bad, in any matter people might carelessly swear about, and it is hidden from them, but later they become aware of it and realise their guilt— ⁵ When they become aware of their guilt in any of these matters, they must confess how they have sinned. ⁶ As a penalty for the sin they have committed, they must bring to the Lord a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, as a sin offering; and the priest will make atonement on their behalf for their sin. ⁷ If they cannot afford a lamb, they are to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the Lord as a penalty for their sin—one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. ⁸ They are to present them to the priest, who shall first offer the one for the sin offering. He is to pinch off its head at the front of its neck, but not sever it completely, ⁹ and sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering against the side of the altar; the rest of the blood is to be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering. ¹⁰ The second bird he shall prepare as a burnt offering according to the ordinance. Thus the priest will make atonement on their behalf for the sin they have committed, and they will be forgiven. ¹¹ If, however, their means are insufficient for two turtledoves or two young pigeons, they are to bring as an offering for their sin a tenth of an ephah of the finest flour. They must not put olive oil or incense on it, for it is a sin offering. ¹² They are to bring it to the priest, who shall take a handful of it as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar with the offerings made by fire to the Lord. It is a sin offering. ¹³ In this way, the priest will make atonement for them concerning any of these sins they have committed, and they will be forgiven. The remainder of the offering will belong to the priest, as in the case of the grain offering." ¹⁴ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁵ "If anyone acts unfaithfully and sins unintentionally in regard to any of the Lord's holy things, they must bring to the Lord as a guilt offering a ram without defect from the flock, valued in silver shekels according to the sanctuary shekel. It is a guilt offering. ¹⁶ They must make restitution for what they have failed to do in regard to the holy things, adding a fifth of its value and giving it to the priest. The priest will make atonement for them with the ram as a guilt offering, and they will be forgiven. ¹⁷ If anyone sins and does what is forbidden in any of the Lord's commands, even if they are unaware, they are guilty and will bear the consequences.¹⁶ They are to bring to the priest a ram without defect from the flock, valued according to your assessment, as a guilt offering. In this way, the priest will make atonement for them for the wrong they have committed unintentionally, and they will be forgiven.¹⁷ It is a guilt offering; they have indeed been guilty before the Lord."

Leviticus

6 The Lord addressed Moses, saying:² "When someone sins and acts unfaithfully against the Lord by deceiving a neighbour concerning a deposit or a security entrusted to them, or through theft, or if they have extorted from their neighbour,³ or if they find lost property and lie about it, or swear falsely about any such sin that people may commit—⁴ when they sin in any of these ways and realise their guilt, they must restore what they have taken by theft or extortion, or what was entrusted to them, or the lost property they found,⁵ or whatever it was they swore falsely about. They must make restitution in full, adding a fifth of the value to it, and give it to the rightful owner on the day they present their guilt offering.⁶ As a penalty, they must bring to the priest, their guilt offering to the Lord, a ram without defect from the flock, of the proper value.⁷ In this way, the priest shall make atonement for them before the Lord, and they will be forgiven for any of the things they did that made them guilty."⁸ The Lord then instructed Moses, saying:⁹ "Command Aaron and his sons, saying, 'These are the regulations for the burnt offering: The burnt offering is to remain on the altar hearth throughout the night until morning, and the fire on the altar must be kept burning.¹⁰ The priest shall put on his linen robe, with linen undergarments next to his body, and shall remove the ashes of the burnt offering that the fire has consumed on the altar and place them beside the altar.¹¹ Then he is to take off these garments and put on others, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a ceremonially clean place.¹² The fire on the altar must be kept burning; it must not go out. Every morning the priest is to add firewood, arrange the burnt offering on the fire, and burn the fat of the peace offerings on it.¹³ The altar fire must remain lit continuously; it should never be extinguished.¹⁴ "These are the regulations for the grain offering: Aaron's sons are to present it before the Lord, in front of the altar.¹⁵ The priest shall take a handful of the finest flour of the grain offering, with its oil and all the incense on it, and burn the memorial portion on the altar as a soothing aroma to the Lord.¹⁶ Aaron and his sons shall eat the rest of it. It shall be eaten as unleavened bread in a holy place; they are to eat it in the courtyard of the tent of meeting.¹⁷ It must be prepared without yeast. I have given it as their share of the food offerings presented to me. Like the sin offering and the guilt offering, it is most holy.¹⁸ Every male among Aaron's descendants may eat it. It is a perpetual share of the food offerings presented to the Lord for all generations. Whoever touches them will become holy."¹⁹ The Lord also instructed Moses, saying,²⁰ "This is the offering Aaron and his sons are to present to the Lord on the day he is anointed: a tenth of an ephah of the finest flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening.²¹ It must be prepared with oil on a griddle; bring it well-mixed and present the grain offering broken in pieces as a pleasing aroma to the Lord.²² The son who is to follow him as anointed priest shall prepare it. It is the Lord's perpetual share and is to be entirely burned.²³ Every grain offering of a priest shall be entirely burned; it must not be consumed."²⁴ The Lord then instructed Moses, saying,²⁵ "Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, 'These are the regulations for the sin offering: The sin offering is to be slaughtered before the Lord in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered; it is most holy.²⁶ The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it; it is to be eaten in a holy place, in the courtyard of the tent of meeting.²⁷ Whatever touches any of its flesh will become holy, and if any of its blood is spattered on a garment, you must wash it in a holy place.²⁸ The clay pot in which it is cooked must be broken; but if it is cooked in a bronze pot, the pot must be scoured and rinsed with water.²⁹ Every male among the priests may partake of it; it is most holy.³⁰ But any sin offering whose blood is brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place must not be eaten; it must be burned with fire.

7 "These are the guidelines for the guilt offering; it is most sacred.² The guilt offering is to be slaughtered in the same place as the burnt offering, and its blood shall be sprinkled around the altar.³ He shall offer all its fat: the fat tail and the fat that covers the internal organs,⁴ and the two kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the long lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys. ⁵ The priest shall burn them on the altar as a fire offering to the Lord; it is a guilt offering. ⁶ Every male among the priests may eat it. It must be eaten in a holy place; it is most sacred. ⁷ The same rule applies to both the sin offering and the guilt offering: they belong to the priest who makes atonement with them. ⁸ The priest who presents a burnt offering for anyone shall have the hide of the burnt offering for himself. ⁹ Every grain offering baked in an oven or cooked in a pan or on a griddle is for the priest who offers it. ¹⁰ Every grain offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, belongs equally to all the sons of Aaron. ¹¹ 'These are the guidelines for the sacrifice of peace offerings that one may present to the Lord: ¹² If he offers it as a thanksgiving, then along with the sacrifice of thanksgiving he shall offer unleavened cakes mixed with oil, unleavened wafers spread with oil, and cakes of fine flour well-kneaded and mixed with oil. ¹³ With the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving, he shall present cakes of leavened bread. ¹⁴ He is to bring one of each kind as an offering, a contribution to the Lord; it shall belong to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings. ¹⁵ The flesh of the sacrifice of his thanksgiving peace offerings must be eaten on the day it is offered; none of it shall be left until the morning. ¹⁶ But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten on the day he offers his sacrifice, and what is left over may be eaten on the next day. ¹⁷ Any flesh of the sacrifice left over until the third day must be burned with fire. ¹⁸ If any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted, nor credited to him; it will be an unclean thing, and whoever eats it shall bear his iniquity. ¹⁹ Flesh that touches anything unclean must not be eaten; it shall be burned with fire. As for other flesh, anyone who is clean may eat it. ²⁰ But if anyone eats the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings that belong to the Lord while he is unclean, that person shall be cut off from his people. ²¹ Anyone who touches anything unclean, whether human uncleanness or an unclean animal or any unclean detestable thing, and eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings that belong to the Lord, shall be cut off from his people.'" ²² The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ²³ "Speak to the Israelites, saying, 'You shall not eat any of the fat of an ox, sheep, or goat. ²⁴ The fat of an animal found dead or torn by wild animals may be used for other purposes, but you must not eat it. ²⁵ Anyone who eats the fat of an animal from which an offering by fire may be presented to the Lord must be cut off from his people. ²⁶ And wherever you dwell, you must not eat any blood, whether of bird or animal. ²⁷ Anyone who eats any blood shall be cut off from his people.'" ²⁸ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁹ "Speak to the Israelites, saying, 'Anyone who offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to the Lord shall bring part of it as his offering to the Lord. ³⁰ With his own hands he shall bring the offerings made by fire to the Lord; he shall bring the fat with the breast, that the breast may be waved as a wave offering before the Lord. ³¹ The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall belong to Aaron and his sons. ³² You are to give the right thigh to the priest as a contribution from the sacrifices of your peace offerings. ³³ The son of Aaron who offers the blood and the fat of the peace offerings shall have the right thigh as his portion. ³⁴ For I have taken the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution from the sacrifices of the Israelites' peace offerings and have given them to Aaron the priest and his sons as their perpetual share from the Israelites.'" ³⁵ This is the portion of the offerings made by fire to the Lord that were allotted to Aaron and his sons on the day they were presented to serve the Lord as priests. ³⁶ On the day they were anointed, the Lord instructed that the Israelites give this to them as their perpetual share for the generations to come. ³⁷ These, then, are the guidelines for the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the ordination offering, and the peace offering, ³⁸ which the Lord commanded Moses on Mount Sinai on the day he instructed the Israelites to bring their offerings to the Lord in the wilderness of Sinai.

Leviticus

8 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Bring Aaron and his sons, along with their garments, the anointing oil, the bull for the sin offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread, ³ and assemble the entire congregation at the entrance to the tent of meeting." ⁴ Moses did just as the Lord commanded him, and the congregation gathered at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ⁵ Moses addressed the congregation, saying, "This is the command of the Lord to be fulfilled.”⁶ Moses then brought forth Aaron and his sons and cleansed them with water.⁷ He clothed Aaron with the tunic, tied the sash around him, dressed him in the robe, and placed the ephod on him. He also fastened the ephod with a decorative waistband, securing it around him.⁸ He placed the breastpiece on him and put the Urim and Thummim into the breastpiece.⁹ He set the turban on Aaron’s head and placed the gold plate, the holy emblem, on the front of the turban, as the Lord commanded Moses.¹⁰ Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and everything within it, consecrating them.¹¹ He sprinkled some of the oil on the altar seven times, anointing the altar and all its utensils, as well as the basin with its stand, to consecrate them.¹² He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head, anointing him to consecrate him.¹³ Moses then brought Aaron’s sons forward, dressed them in tunics, tied sashes around them, and bound caps on them, as the Lord commanded Moses.¹⁴ He presented the bull for the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.¹⁵ Moses slaughtered the bull, took some of the blood, and with his finger put it on the horns of the altar to purify it. He poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar, consecrating it to make atonement for it.¹⁶ He took all the fat surrounding the internal organs, the long lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and burned them on the altar.¹⁷ But the bull, with its hide, flesh, and intestines, he burned outside the camp, as the Lord commanded Moses.¹⁸ He then brought forward the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.¹⁹ Moses slaughtered the ram and sprinkled the blood around the altar.²⁰ He divided the ram into parts and burned the head, the pieces, and the fat.²¹ After washing the internal organs and the legs with water, he burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering by fire to the Lord, as the Lord commanded Moses.²² He then presented the second ram, the ram of ordination, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.²³ Moses slaughtered the ram and took some of its blood, putting it on the lobe of Aaron’s right ear, the thumb of his right hand, and the big toe of his right foot.²⁴ He also brought Aaron’s sons forward and put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears, the thumbs of their right hands, and the big toes of their right feet. Moses then sprinkled the rest of the blood around the altar.²⁵ He took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat around the internal organs, the long lobe of the liver, the two kidneys with their fat, and the right thigh.²⁶ From the basket of unleavened bread before the Lord, he took one thick loaf, one loaf with olive oil, and one thin loaf, placing them on the fat portions and the right thigh.²⁷ He placed all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons, and waved them before the Lord as a wave offering.²⁸ Moses then took them from their hands and burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering. They were an ordination offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering by fire to the Lord.²⁹ Moses took the breast and waved it before the Lord as a wave offering; it was his portion of the ordination ram, as the Lord commanded Moses.³⁰ Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood from the altar and sprinkled it on Aaron and his garments, and on his sons and their garments. Thus, he consecrated Aaron and his garments, and his sons and their garments.³¹ Moses then instructed Aaron and his sons, “Boil the meat at the entrance to the tent of meeting and eat it there with the bread from the basket of ordination offerings, as I was commanded: ‘Aaron and his sons shall eat it.’”³² Burn the remainder of the meat and bread.³³ Do not leave the entrance to the tent of meeting for seven days, until the period of your ordination is completed, for your ordination will last seven days.³⁴ What has been done today was directed by the Lord to make atonement for you.³⁵ You must remain at the entrance to the tent of meeting day and night for seven days and perform your duty to the Lord, so that you will not die; for that is what I have been commanded.”³⁶ Thus Aaron and his sons carried out all the instructions that the Lord had given through Moses.

Leviticus

9 On the eighth day, Moses called for Aaron and his sons, as well as the elders of Israel.² He instructed Aaron, “Take a calf, a bull, for your sin offering and a ram for your burnt offering, both without defect, and present them before the Lord.”³ Then speak to the Israelites, saying, ‘Take a male goat for a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both one year old and without defect, for a burnt offering,⁴ and an ox and a ram for peace offerings to sacrifice before the Lord, along with a grain offering mixed with olive oil; for today the Lord will appear to you.”⁵ They brought what Moses had commanded to the front of the tent of meeting, and the whole assembly came near and stood before the Lord.⁶ Moses explained, “This is the command of the Lord, so that His glory may be revealed to you.”⁷ Moses said to Aaron, “Come to the altar and offer your sin offering and your burnt offering to make atonement for yourself and the people; then make the offering for the people to make atonement for them, as the Lord has commanded.”⁸ Aaron approached the altar and slaughtered the calf for the sin offering for himself.⁹ His sons presented the blood to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar, pouring out the rest at the base of the altar.¹⁰ He burned the fat, kidneys, and the long lobe of the liver from the sin offering on the altar, as the Lord commanded Moses.¹¹ He took the flesh and the hide outside the camp and burned it.¹² He then slaughtered the burnt offering, and his sons handed him the blood, which he sprinkled around the altar.¹³ They handed him the burnt offering in pieces, including the head, and he burned them on the altar.¹⁴ He washed the internal organs and the legs and offered them on top of the burnt offering on the altar.¹⁵ Aaron then presented the people’s offering. He took the goat for the people’s sin offering, slaughtered it, and offered it as a sin offering like the first one.¹⁶ He presented the burnt offering and offered it according to the ordinance.¹⁷ He also presented the grain offering, took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning’s burnt offering.¹⁸ He slaughtered the ox and the ram as the peace offerings for the people. His sons handed him the blood, and he sprinkled it around the altar.¹⁹ The fat portions from the ox and the ram—the fat tail, the layer of fat, the kidneys, and the long lobe of the liver—²⁰ these they placed on the breasts, and Aaron burned the fat on the altar.²¹ Aaron waved the breasts and the right thigh as a wave offering before the Lord, as Moses had commanded.²² Aaron lifted his hands towards the people and blessed them. After making the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, he stepped down.²³ Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting. When they came out, they blessed the people, and the glory of the Lord appeared to all the people.²⁴ Fire came out from the presence of the Lord and consumed the burnt offering and the fat portions on the altar. When all the people saw it, they shouted and fell face down.

Leviticus

10 Nadab and Abihu, sons of Aaron, each took their own censers, placed fire in them, and added incense. They offered unauthorised fire before the Lord, which He had not commanded them.² Fire came forth from the presence of the Lord and consumed them, and they died before the Lord.³ Moses said to Aaron, “This is what the Lord spoke of, saying: ‘Among those who draw near to Me, I will be shown to be holy; in the presence of all the people, I will be honoured.’” So Aaron remained silent.⁴ Moses called upon Mishaël and Elzaphan, sons of Aaron’s uncle Uzziel, and instructed them, “Come forward and carry your relatives away from the front of the sanctuary to a place outside the camp.”⁵ They came forward and carried them, still in their tunics, to an area outside the camp, as Moses had directed.⁶ Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, “Do not let your hair become unkempt, nor tear your clothes, lest you die and wrath come upon the whole community. But your kin, the entire house of Israel, may mourn for those the Lord has consumed by fire.⁷ Do not leave the entrance of the tent of meeting, or you will die, for the Lord’s anointing oil is upon you.” So they did according to Moses’ instructions.⁸ The Lord addressed Aaron, saying,⁹ “You and your sons must not drink wine or other fermented drink when you enter the tent of meeting, lest you die. This is a perpetual statute for your generations,¹⁰ to distinguish between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean,¹¹ and so you may teach the Israelites all the decrees the Lord has given through Moses.”¹² Moses spoke to Aaron and his remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, saying, “Take the grain offering left from the Lord’s offerings by fire and eat it as unleavened bread beside the altar, for it is most holy.¹³ You shall eat it in a holy place, for it is your portion and your sons’ portion from the offerings made by fire to the Lord, as I have been commanded.¹⁴ The breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the offering you may eat in a clean place, you, your sons, and your daughters with you; for they have been given as your allotted share and your children’s share from the peace offerings of the Israelites.¹⁵ They shall bring the thigh that is lifted up and the breast that is waved, along with the offerings by fire of the fat portions, to present as a wave offering before the Lord; it shall be a perpetual due for you and your sons with you, as the Lord has commanded.”¹⁶ Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin offering and found it had been burned. He was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's remaining sons, and said,¹⁷ “Why did you not eat the sin offering in the sanctuary area? It is most holy, and it was given to you to take away the guilt of the congregation by making atonement for them before the Lord.”¹⁸ Since its blood was not brought into the sanctuary, you should have eaten it in the sanctuary area, as I commanded.”¹⁹ Aaron replied to Moses, “Today they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the Lord, and such things as these have happened to me. If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been pleasing in the Lord's sight?”²⁰ When Moses heard this, he was content.

Leviticus

11 The Lord then spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,² “Speak to the Israelites and say: ‘Among all the animals that live on land, these are the ones you may eat:’³ You may eat any animal that has a split hoof completely divided and that chews the cud.”⁴ “However, there are some that only chew the cud or only have a split hoof, but you must not eat them. The camel, although it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean for you.⁵ The hyrax, though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean for you.⁶ The rabbit, although it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean for you.⁷ And the pig, though it has a split hoof completely divided, does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you.⁸ You are not to consume their meat or handle their carcasses; they are considered unclean for you.”⁹ “Of all the creatures living in the water, you may eat any that have fins and scales.”¹⁰ But all creatures in the seas or rivers that do not have fins and scales—among all the swarming things or other living creatures in the water—are detestable to you.¹¹ And since they are detestable to you, you must not eat their meat and you must regard their carcasses as detestable.¹² Anything living in the water that does not have fins and scales is to be regarded as detestable by you.¹³ “These are the birds you are to regard as detestable and not eat because they are detestable: the eagle, the vulture, and the buzzard,¹⁴ the red kite, any kind of falcon,¹⁵ all varieties of raven,¹⁶ the ostrich, the owl, the seagull, and any kind of hawk,¹⁷ the small owl, the cormorant, and the large owl,¹⁸ the barn owl, the pelican, and the carrion vulture,¹⁹ the stork, any variety of heron, the hoopoe, and the bat.”²⁰ “All flying insects that walk on all fours are to be regarded as detestable by you.”²¹ However, among the flying insects that walk on all fours you may eat those that have jointed legs for hopping on the ground.²² Of these, you are permitted to eat any kind of locust, katydid, cricket, or grasshopper.²³ But all other flying insects that have four legs are to be regarded as detestable.”²⁴ “You will become unclean by these; whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean until evening.²⁵ Whoever picks up one of their carcasses must wash their clothes, and they will be unclean until evening.”²⁶ “Every animal that does not have a split hoof completely divided or that does not chew the cud is unclean for you; whoever touches the carcass of any of them will be unclean.”²⁷ Of all the animals that walk on all fours, those that walk on their paws are unclean for you; whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean until evening.²⁸ Anyone who picks up their carcasses must wash their clothes, and they will be unclean until evening. These animals are unclean for you.”²⁹ “Of the animals that move along the ground, these are unclean for you: the mole, the mouse, and any kind of great lizard,³⁰ so too the gecko, the monitor lizard, the common lizard, the skink, and the chameleon.”³¹ Of all those that move along the ground, these are unclean for you. Whoever touches them when they are dead will be unclean until evening.³² When one of them dies and falls on something, that article, whatever its use, will be unclean, whether it is made of wood, cloth, hide, or sackcloth. It must be put in water; it will be unclean until evening, and then it will be clean.”³³ If one of them falls into a clay pot, everything in it will be unclean, and the pot must be broken.”³⁴ Any food you are permitted to eat that has come into contact with water from any such pot is impure, and any liquid that is drunk from such a pot is impure.”³⁵ Anything that one of their carcasses falls on becomes impure; an oven or cooking pot must be broken up. They are impure, and you are to regard them as impure.”³⁶ A spring, however, or a cistern for collecting water remains pure, but anyone who touches one of these carcasses is impure.”³⁷ If a carcass falls on any seeds that are to be planted, they remain pure.”³⁸ But if water has been put on the seed and a carcass falls on it, it becomes impure for you.³⁹ “If an animal that you are allowed to eat dies, anyone who touches its carcass will be unclean until evening.⁴⁰ Anyone who eats some of its carcass must wash their clothes, and they will be unclean until evening. Anyone who picks up the carcass must wash their clothes, and they will be unclean until evening.⁴¹ “Every creature that moves along the ground is to be regarded as detestable; it is not to be eaten.⁴² You are not to eat any creature that moves along the ground, whether it moves on its belly or walks on all fours or on many feet; it is detestable.⁴³ Do not make yourselves impure by any of these creatures. Do not make yourselves unclean by means of them or be made unclean by them.⁴⁴ I am the Lord your God; set yourselves apart and be holy, because I am holy. Do not make yourselves unclean by any creature that moves along the ground.⁴⁵ I am the Lord, who brought you out of Egypt to be your God; therefore be holy, because I am holy.⁴⁶ “These are the laws regarding the animals, the birds, every living thing that moves within the water, and every creature that moves along the ground.⁴⁷ You must distinguish between the impure and the pure, between living creatures that may be eaten and those that may not be eaten.”

Leviticus

12 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying,² “Speak to the Israelites: ‘When a woman becomes pregnant and gives birth to a male child, she shall be ceremonially unclean for seven days, as she is during her menstrual period.³ On the eighth day, the boy’s foreskin shall be circumcised.⁴ She must then remain in the state of blood purification for thirty-three days. She shall not touch any sacred thing or enter the sanctuary until the days of her purification are fulfilled.⁵ If she gives birth to a female child, she will be unclean for two weeks, as during her menstrual period. She must then remain in the state of blood purification for sixty-six days.⁶ When the days of her purification for a son or daughter are completed, she shall bring to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting a year-old lamb for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a turtledove for a sin offering.⁷ The priest shall offer them before the Lord to make atonement for her, and she shall be cleansed from the flow of her blood. These are the regulations for the woman who gives birth to a male or female child.⁸ If she cannot afford a lamb, she shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering. In this way, the priest will make atonement for her, and she will be clean.”

13 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying,² “When a person has a swelling, a scab, or a bright spot on the skin of their body, and it becomes a possible infection of leprosy, they must be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons who are priests.³ The priest shall examine the infected area on the skin, and if the hair in the infection has turned white and the infection appears to be deeper than the skin, it is leprosy. When the priest examines them, he shall declare them unclean.⁴ If the bright spot is white on the skin and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and the hair has not turned white, the priest shall isolate the person for seven days.⁵ On the seventh day, the priest shall examine them, and if the infection has not changed and has not spread on the skin, the priest shall isolate them for another seven days.⁶ The priest shall examine them again on the seventh day, and if the infection has faded and has not spread, the priest shall pronounce them clean; it is only a rash. They must wash their clothes and will be clean.⁷ But if the rash spreads on the skin after they have shown themselves to the priest for cleansing, they must appear again before the priest.⁸ The priest shall examine them, and if the rash has spread, he shall pronounce them unclean; it is leprosy.⁹ “When a person has an infection of leprosy, they must be brought to the priest.¹⁰ The priest shall examine them, and if there is a white swelling on the skin that has turned the hair white, and there is raw flesh in the swelling,¹¹ it is a chronic leprosy on the skin, and the priest shall pronounce them unclean. They do not need to be isolated, for they are already unclean.¹² If the leprosy spreads over the skin and covers the entire body from head to foot, as far as the priest can see,¹³ the priest shall examine them, and if the leprosy has covered their whole body, he shall pronounce them clean. Since it has all turned white, they are clean.¹⁴ But whenever raw flesh appears on them, they shall be unclean.¹⁵ When the priest sees the raw flesh, he shall declare them unclean; the raw flesh is unclean, it is leprosy.¹⁶ If the raw flesh changes and becomes white, they must present themselves to the priest.¹⁷ The priest shall examine them, and if the infected area has turned white, the priest shall pronounce them clean; they are clean.¹⁸

Leviticus

"When there is a boil on the skin and it heals,¹⁹ and in the place of the boil there is a white swelling or a reddish-white bright spot, they must present themselves to the priest.²⁰ The priest shall examine it, and if it appears to be deeper than the skin and the hair has turned white, the priest shall declare them unclean; it is leprosy that has broken out in the boil.²¹ But if the priest examines it and there is no white hair and it is not deeper than the skin and is faded, the priest shall isolate them for seven days.²² If it spreads on the skin, the priest shall pronounce them unclean; it is an infection.²³ But if the bright spot remains unchanged and has not spread, it is only the scar of the boil, and the priest shall pronounce them clean.²⁴ "When there is a burn on the skin and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white or white,²⁵ the priest shall examine the spot, and if the hair in the bright spot has turned white and it appears deeper than the skin, it is leprosy that has broken out in the burn. The priest shall declare them unclean; it is an infection of leprosy.²⁶ But if the priest examines it and there is no white hair and it is not deeper than the skin and is dim, the priest shall isolate them for seven days.²⁷ On the seventh day, the priest shall examine them, and if it spreads on the skin, the priest shall declare them unclean; it is an infection of leprosy.²⁸ But if the bright spot remains unchanged and has not spread on the skin and is dim, it is the swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce them clean; it is only the scar of the burn.²⁹ "If a man or woman has an infection on the head or on the beard,³⁰ the priest shall examine the infection, and if it appears deeper than the skin and there is thin yellowish hair, the priest shall declare them unclean; it is a scale, it is leprosy of the head or beard.³¹ But if the priest examines the scaly infection and it does not appear deeper than the skin and there is no black hair, the priest shall isolate them for seven days.³² On the seventh day, the priest shall examine the infection, and if the scale has not spread and no yellowish hair has grown, and it does not appear deeper than the skin,³³ they must shave themselves, except for the affected area, and the priest shall isolate them for another seven days.³⁴ On the seventh day, the priest shall examine the scale, and if it has not spread and appears no deeper than the skin, the priest shall pronounce them clean. They must wash their clothes and will be clean.³⁵ But if the scale spreads on the skin after they are pronounced clean,³⁶ the priest shall examine them, and if the scale has spread, he does not need to look for yellowish hair; they are unclean.³⁷ If the scale remains unchanged and black hair has grown in it, the scale has healed, and they are clean; the priest shall declare them clean.³⁸ "When a man or woman has bright spots on the skin, white bright spots,³⁹ the priest shall examine them, and if the bright spots are faint white, it is eczema that has broken out on the skin; they are clean.⁴⁰ "If a man loses the hair of his head, he is bald but clean.⁴¹ If he loses hair from the front and sides of his scalp, he is bald on the forehead but clean.⁴² But if on the bald head or forehead there is a reddish-white infection, it is leprosy breaking out on his bald head or forehead.⁴³ The priest shall examine him, and if the swelling of the infection is reddish-white on his bald head or forehead, like the appearance of leprosy on the skin,⁴⁴ he is a leprous man and is unclean. The priest must declare him unclean because of the infection on his head.⁴⁵ "A person with such an infection must wear torn clothes, let their hair be unkempt, cover the lower part of their face, and cry out, 'Unclean! Unclean!'"⁴⁶ They must remain unclean as long as they have the infection. They must live alone outside the camp.⁴⁷ "When a garment has a mark of leprosy, whether it is a woollen or linen garment,⁴⁸ whether in warp or woof, of linen or wool, or in leather or any article made of leather,⁴⁹ if the mark is greenish or reddish in the garment or leather, whether in the warp or woof, or in any leather article, it is a leprous mark and must be shown to the priest.⁵⁰ The priest shall examine the mark and isolate the article for seven days.⁵¹ On the seventh day, he shall examine the mark, and if it has spread in the garment, warp or woof, or leather, it is a leprous malignancy and is unclean.⁵² He must burn the garment, whether warp or woof, in wool or linen, or any leather article where the mark occurs; it is a leprous malignancy. It must be burned in the fire.⁵³ But if the priest examines it and the mark has not spread in the garment, warp or woof, or any leather article,⁵⁴ the priest shall order the article to be washed and isolate it for another seven days.⁵⁵ After the article has been washed, the priest shall examine it again, and if the mark has not changed its appearance, even if it has not spread, it is unclean. Burn it, whether the mark is on the back or front.⁵⁶ But if the priest examines it and the mark has faded after washing, he shall tear it out of the garment, leather, warp, or woof. ⁵⁷ If it reappears in the garment, warp or woof, or any leather article, it is a spreading mark; the article must be burned. ⁵⁸ Any garment, warp or woof, or any leather article from which the mark has disappeared after washing must be washed again and will be clean.” ⁵⁹ These are the regulations for the mark of leprosy in a woollen or linen garment, warp or woof, or any leather article, for declaring it clean or unclean.

Leviticus

14 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ² “This is the law for the person with a skin disease on the day of their purification. They shall be brought to the priest; ³ and the priest shall go outside the camp to inspect them. If the person has been healed of the defiling skin disease, ⁴ the priest shall command that two live clean birds, cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop be brought for the one to be cleansed. ⁵ The priest shall order that one of the birds be slaughtered in a clay vessel over running water. ⁶ He shall then take the live bird along with the cedar wood, the scarlet yarn, and the hyssop, and dip them into the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. ⁷ He shall sprinkle the one to be cleansed from the skin disease seven times and pronounce them clean, and release the live bird into the open fields. ⁸ The person to be cleansed must wash their clothes, shave off all their hair, and bathe in water, and they will be clean. Afterwards, they may enter the camp but must remain outside their tent for seven days. ⁹ On the seventh day, they must shave off all their hair: head, beard, eyebrows, and all other hair. They must wash their clothes and bathe themselves in water, and they will be clean. ¹⁰ On the eighth day, they must take two male lambs without defect, a year-old ewe lamb without defect, and three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and one log of oil. ¹¹ The priest who pronounces them clean shall present the person to be cleansed and their offerings before the Lord at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ¹² The priest shall take one male lamb and offer it as a guilt offering, along with the log of oil, and wave them as a wave offering before the Lord. ¹³ He shall slaughter the lamb in the place where the sin offering and burnt offering are slaughtered, in the sanctuary area. The guilt offering, like the sin offering, belongs to the priest; it is most holy. ¹⁴ The priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot. ¹⁵ The priest shall also take some of the log of oil and pour it into the palm of his left hand. ¹⁶ He shall dip his right forefinger into the oil in his palm and sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before the Lord. ¹⁷ Some of the remaining oil in his palm the priest shall put on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt offering. ¹⁸ The remaining oil in his palm the priest shall place on the head of the one to be cleansed, making atonement for them before the Lord. ¹⁹ Then the priest shall offer the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from their uncleanness. After that, he shall slaughter the burnt offering. ²⁰ The priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. In this way, the priest shall make atonement for them, and they will be clean. ²¹ If, however, they are poor and cannot afford these, they must take one male lamb as a guilt offering to be waved to make atonement for them, together with a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and a log of oil, ²² and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, whichever they can afford, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. ²³ On the eighth day, they must bring them for their cleansing to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting, before the Lord. ²⁴ The priest shall take the lamb for the guilt offering, together with the log of oil, and wave them as a wave offering before the Lord. ²⁵ He shall slaughter the lamb for the guilt offering and apply some of its blood to the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot. ²⁶ The priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his left hand. ²⁷ With his right forefinger, the priest shall sprinkle some of the oil from his palm seven times before the Lord. ²⁸ Some of the oil in his palm he shall apply to the same places he put the blood of the guilt offering—on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot. ²⁹ The remaining oil in his palm the priest shall place on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement for them before the Lord. ³⁰ He shall then offer one of the turtledoves or young pigeons, whichever they can afford. ³¹ He shall offer what they can afford, one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, along with the grain offering. Thus the priest shall make atonement before the Lord on behalf of the one to be cleansed. ³² This is the law for anyone who has a defiling skin disease and cannot afford the regular offerings for their cleansing. ³³ The Lord also addressed Moses and Aaron, saying: ³⁴ “When you enter the land of Canaan, which I am giving you as your possession, and I allow a spreading mould in a house in that land, ³⁵ the owner of the house must go and tell the priest, ‘I have noticed something that resembles a defiling mould in my house.’ ³⁶ The priest shall command that the house be emptied before he goes in to examine the mould, so that nothing in the house will be pronounced unclean. After this, the priest shall go in to inspect the house. ³⁷ He shall examine the mould on the walls, and if it has greenish or reddish depressions that appear deeper than the surface of the wall, ³⁸ the priest shall go out of the house and close it up for seven days. ³⁹ On the seventh day, the priest shall return to re-examine the house. If the mould has spread on the walls, ⁴⁰ he shall order that the contaminated stones be torn out and thrown into an unclean place outside the town. ⁴¹ He must have all the inside walls of the house scraped, and the material that is scraped off taken to an unclean place outside the town. ⁴² Then they shall take other stones to replace these and take new clay and plaster the house. ⁴³ If the defiling mould appears again in the house after the stones have been removed and the house scraped and plastered, ⁴⁴ the priest shall go and examine it, and if the mould has spread in the house, it is a persistent defiling mould; the house is unclean. ⁴⁵ The house must be torn down—its stones, timbers, and all the plaster—and taken out of the town to an unclean place. ⁴⁶ Anyone who goes into the house while it is closed up will be unclean until evening. ⁴⁷ Anyone who sleeps or eats in the house must cleanse their garments. ⁴⁸ But if the priest comes to examine it and the mould has not spread after the house has been plastered, he shall declare the house clean, because the defiling mould is gone. ⁴⁹ To purify the house, he shall take two birds, cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop. ⁵⁰ He shall put one of the birds to death over fresh water in a clay pot. ⁵¹ Then he shall take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet yarn, and the live bird, dip them into the blood of the dead bird and the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times. ⁵² He shall purify the house using the bird's blood, the fresh water, the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet yarn. ⁵³ Then he shall release the live bird in the open fields outside the town. In this way, he will make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.” ⁵⁴ This is the law for any defiling skin disease, for a sore, ⁵⁵ for harmful moulds in fabric or in a dwelling, ⁵⁶ and for any other skin condition: a swelling, a rash, or a shiny spot ⁵⁷ to determine when something is clean or unclean. This is the law for defiling skin diseases and defiling moulds.

Leviticus

15 The Lord then spoke to Moses and Aaron saying: ² “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘When any man has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean. ³ This is his uncleanness in his discharge: whether his body allows its discharge to flow or obstructs it, it is his uncleanness. ⁴ Any bed on which the man with the discharge lies becomes unclean, and anything he sits on is also unclean. ⁵ Anyone who touches his bed must wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening. ⁶ Whoever sits on anything that the man with the discharge sat on must wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening. ⁷ Whoever touches the man with the discharge must wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening. ⁸ If the man with the discharge spits on someone who is clean, that person must wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening. ⁹ Every saddle on which the man with the discharge rides shall be unclean. ¹⁰ Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until evening, and whoever carries those items must wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening. ¹¹ Anyone whom the man with the discharge touches without having rinsed his hands in water must wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening. ¹² An earthenware vessel that the man touches must be broken, and any wooden article must be rinsed in water. ¹³ When the man with the discharge is cleansed from his discharge, he must count off seven days for his cleansing; he must wash his clothes and bathe his body in running water, and he will be clean. ¹⁴ On the eighth day he must take two turtledoves or two young pigeons and come before the Lord to the entrance of the tent of meeting and give them to the priest. ¹⁵ The priest shall offer them, one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. In this way, the priest shall make atonement for him before the Lord because of his discharge. ¹⁶ When a man has an emission of semen, he must bathe his whole body in water and be unclean until evening. ¹⁷ Any garment or leather on which there is semen must be washed with water and be unclean until evening. ¹⁸ If a man has sexual relations with a woman and there is an emission of semen, both must bathe in water and be unclean until evening. ¹⁹ When a woman has a discharge, if her discharge is blood, she shall be in her menstrual impurity for seven days, and whoever touches her shall be unclean until evening. ²⁰ Anything she lies on during her menstrual impurity becomes unclean, and anything she sits on is also unclean. ²¹ Anyone who touches her bed must wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening. ²² Whoever touches anything on which she sits must wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening. ²³ Whether it is the bed or anything she was sitting on, when anyone touches it, they shall be unclean until evening. ²⁴ If a man has sexual relations with her and her menstrual impurity is on him, he shall be unclean for seven days, and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean. ²⁵ If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, not at the time of her menstrual impurity, or if she has a discharge beyond her period, she shall be unclean as during her menstrual impurity. ²⁶ Any bed on which she lies during her discharge shall be like her bed at menstruation, and everything on which she sits shall be unclean, like her menstrual impurity. ²⁷ Whoever touches them shall be unclean, and must wash their clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening. ²⁸ When she is cleansed from her discharge, she must count off seven days, and after that she will be clean. ²⁹ On the eighth day she must take two turtledoves or two young pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ³⁰ The priest shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. In this way, the priest shall make atonement for her before the Lord because of her impure discharge. ³¹ You must keep the Israelites separate from their uncleanness, so they do not die in their uncleanness by defiling my dwelling place, which is among them.

Leviticus

³² This is the law for a man with a discharge, and for anyone made unclean by an emission of semen, ³³ and for a woman in her menstrual impurity, and for anyone with a discharge, male or female, and for a man who has sexual relations with a woman who is unclean.

16 The Lord spoke to Moses following the death of Aaron's two sons, who died after approaching the presence of the Lord. ² The Lord instructed Moses: "Tell your brother Aaron that he must not enter the Holy Place behind the veil, before the atonement cover on the ark, at just any time, or he will die; for I appear in the cloud over the atonement cover. ³ Aaron is to enter the Holy Place with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering. ⁴ He shall wear the holy linen tunic, with linen undergarments next to his body, and be girded with the linen sash, and he shall wear the linen turban. These are sacred garments, so he must bathe his body in water before putting them on. ⁵ He shall take from the Israelite community two male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering. ⁶ Aaron shall offer the bull for his own sin offering to make atonement for himself and his household. ⁷ He shall then take the two goats and present them before the Lord at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ⁸ Aaron shall cast lots for the two goats—one lot for the Lord and the other for the scapegoat. ⁹ Aaron shall offer the goat on which the lot for the Lord falls and sacrifice it for a sin offering. ¹⁰ But the goat chosen by lot as the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the Lord to make atonement over it, to send it into the wilderness as a scapegoat. ¹¹ Aaron shall bring the bull for his own sin offering to make atonement for himself and his household, and he shall slaughter the bull for his own sin offering. ¹² He shall take a censer full of burning coals from the altar before the Lord and two handfuls of finely ground fragrant incense, and bring them inside the veil. ¹³ He shall put the incense on the fire before the Lord, and the cloud of incense will cover the atonement cover above the tablets of the covenant law, so that he will not die. ¹⁴ He shall take some of the bull's blood and sprinkle it with his finger on the front of the atonement cover; he shall sprinkle some of it with his finger seven times before the atonement cover. ¹⁵ He shall then slaughter the goat for the sin offering for the people and bring its blood inside the veil, doing with it as he did with the bull's blood: sprinkling it on the atonement cover and in front of it. ¹⁶ In this way, he will make atonement for the Holy Place because of the uncleanness and rebellion of the Israelites, whatever their sins have been. He shall do the same for the tent of meeting, which is among them in the midst of their uncleanness. ¹⁷ No one is to be in the tent of meeting from the time Aaron enters to make atonement in the Holy Place until he comes out, having made atonement for himself, his household, and the entire community of Israel. ¹⁸ Then he shall go out to the altar before the Lord and make atonement for it. He shall take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and put it on all the horns of the altar. ¹⁹ He shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times to cleanse and consecrate it from the uncleanness of the Israelites. ²⁰ When Aaron has finished making atonement for the Holy Place, the tent of meeting, and the altar, he shall bring forward the live goat. ²¹ He shall lay both hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the wickedness and rebellion of the Israelites—all their sins—and put them on the goat's head. He shall send the goat away into the wilderness in the care of someone appointed for the task. ²² The goat will bear upon itself all their sins to a distant place; and the man shall release it in the wilderness. ²³ Then Aaron shall go into the tent of meeting and take off the linen garments he put on before he entered the Holy Place, and he shall leave them there. ²⁴ He shall bathe his body with water in a holy place and put on his regular garments. Then he shall come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, to make atonement for himself and for the people. ²⁵ He shall burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar. ²⁶ The man who releases the goat as the scapegoat must wash his clothes and bathe his body with water; afterward, he may come into the camp. ²⁷ The bull and the goat for the sin offerings, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be taken outside the camp; their hides, flesh, and intestines are to be burned. ²⁸ The man who burns them must wash his clothes and bathe his body with water; afterward, he may come into the camp. ²⁹ This shall be a lasting ordinance for you: In the seventh month, on the tenth day, you must humble yourselves and do no work, whether native-born or a foreigner residing among you, ³⁰ because on this day atonement will be made for you, to cleanse you. Before the Lord, you will be clean from all your sins. ³¹ It is a Sabbath of solemn rest, and you must humble yourselves; it is a lasting ordinance. ³² The priest who is anointed and ordained to succeed his father as high priest shall make atonement. He shall put on the sacred linen garments, ³³ and make atonement for the holy sanctuary, the tent of meeting, and the altar. He shall also make atonement for the priests and all the members of the community. ³⁴ This shall be a lasting ordinance for you: Atonement is to be made once a year for all the sins of the Israelites." And it was done, as the Lord commanded Moses.

Leviticus

17 The Lord spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to Aaron, his sons, and all the Israelites, and say to them: 'This is what the Lord has commanded: ³ Any member of the house of Israel who sacrifices an ox, a lamb, or a goat in the camp, or outside of it, ⁴ and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to offer it to the Lord in front of the tabernacle, shall be guilty of shedding blood. That person has shed blood and must be cut off from their people. ⁵ This is so the Israelites will bring their sacrifices, which they are currently offering in the open fields, to the Lord at the entrance to the tent of meeting, to the priest, and offer them as fellowship offerings. ⁶ The priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the Lord at the entrance to the tent of meeting, and burn the fat as a pleasing aroma to the Lord. ⁷ They must no longer offer their sacrifices to the goat demons, with whom they have been unfaithful. This is to be a lasting ordinance for them and for future generations.' ⁸ "Tell them: 'Any Israelite or any foreigner living among them who presents a burnt offering or sacrifice ⁹ and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to offer it to the Lord must be cut off from their people. ¹⁰ I will set my face against any Israelite or any foreigner residing among them who consumes any blood, and I will cut them off from their people. ¹¹ For the life of a creature is in the blood, and I have given it to you to make atonement for your souls on the altar; it is the blood that makes atonement for one's life. ¹² Therefore I say to the Israelites: "None of you may consume blood, nor may any foreigner residing among you consume blood." ¹³ Any Israelite or any foreigner residing among you who hunts any animal or bird that may be eaten must drain out its blood and cover it with earth,¹⁴ because the life of every creature is in its blood. That is why I have said to the Israelites: "You must not consume the blood of any creature, because the life of every creature is its blood; anyone who consumes it must be cut off."¹⁵ Anyone, whether native-born or foreigner, who eats anything found dead or torn by wild animals must wash their clothes and bathe with water, and they will remain ceremonially unclean until evening; then they will be clean.¹⁶ But if they do not wash their clothes and bathe themselves, they will bear the responsibility for their guilt.

Leviticus

18 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying,² "Address the Israelites and inform them: 'I am the Lord your God.'³ You must not act as they do in the land of Egypt, where you once lived, nor should you behave as they do in the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you. Do not follow their customs.⁴ You shall observe my judgments and keep my statutes, to live by them. I am the Lord your God.⁵ Therefore, keep my statutes and my judgments, for the person who follows them will live by them. I am the Lord.⁶ 'None of you shall approach any close relative to have sexual relations. I am the Lord.'⁷ You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, which is the nakedness of your mother. She is your mother; do not uncover her nakedness.⁸ You shall not help undress your father's wife, it is as if you made your father naked.⁹ The nakedness of your sister, whether your father's daughter or your mother's daughter, whether born at home or elsewhere, you shall not uncover.¹⁰ You shall not uncover the nakedness of your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, for their nakedness is your own.¹¹ The nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, who is your sister, you shall not uncover.¹² You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister; she is your father's close relative.¹³ You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, for she is your mother's close relative.¹⁴ You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother's wife; she is your aunt.¹⁵ You shall not help undress your daughter-in-law, as she is your son's wife.¹⁶ You shall not help undress your brother's wife, as it would dishonour your brother.¹⁷ You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, nor shall you take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter to uncover their nakedness; they are close relatives. It is a wickedness.¹⁸ You shall not take your wife's sister as a rival wife to uncover her nakedness while your wife is living.¹⁹ You shall not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness during her menstrual impurity.²⁰ You shall not have sexual relations with your neighbour's wife, to become defiled with her.²¹ You shall not give any of your children to be sacrificed to Molech, nor shall you profane the name of your God. I am the Lord.²² You shall not engage in sexual relations with a male as one does with a female; it is an abomination.²³ You shall not have sexual relations with any animal to become defiled with it, nor shall any woman present herself to an animal to mate with it; it is a perversion.²⁴ Do not defile yourselves by any of these things, for by all these the nations I am driving out before you have become defiled.²⁵ The land has become defiled, therefore I have punished it for its sin, and the land has vomited out its inhabitants.²⁶ But you must keep my statutes and my judgments, and do not commit any of these abominations, neither the native-born nor the foreigner residing among you.²⁷ For all these abominations were committed by the people who lived in the land before you, and the land became defiled.²⁸ So that the land does not vomit you out when you defile it, as it has vomited out the nations that were before you.²⁹ For anyone who commits any of these abominations, those persons must be cut off from among their people.³⁰ Therefore, keep my requirements and do not follow any of the abominable customs that were practised before you, so that you do not defile yourselves with them. I am the Lord your God."

19 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying,² "Speak to the whole assembly of the children of Israel and tell them: 'You shall be holy, for I, the Lord your God, am holy.'³ Each of you shall respect his mother and father, and you shall observe my Sabbaths. I am the Lord your God.⁴ Do not turn to idols or make for yourselves gods of cast metal. I am the Lord your God.⁵ When you offer a sacrifice of fellowship offerings to the Lord, you must offer it in such a way that it will be accepted on your behalf.⁶ It shall be eaten on the day you offer it, or on the next day; anything left over until the third day must be burned with fire.⁷ If any of it is consumed on the third day, it is considered impure and will not be accepted.⁸ Anyone who eats it will bear the consequences of his guilt, for he has profaned what is holy to the Lord; that person shall be cut off from his people. ⁹ When you gather the harvest of your land, do not harvest to the very edges of your field or collect the gleanings of your harvest. ¹⁰ Do not go over your vineyard again or gather the fallen grapes. Leave them for the poor and the foreigner. I am the Lord your God. ¹¹ You shall not steal, nor lie, nor deceive one another. ¹² You shall not swear falsely by my name, thereby profaning the name of your God. I am the Lord. ¹³ Do not cheat or rob your neighbour. Do not withhold the wages of a hired worker overnight. ¹⁴ Do not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind, but fear your God. I am the Lord. ¹⁵ Do not distort justice; do not show partiality to the poor or favouritism to the great, but judge your neighbour fairly. ¹⁶ Do not spread harmful rumours among your people. Do not act in a way that endangers your neighbour's life. I am the Lord. ¹⁷ Do not hate your fellow countryman in your heart. Rebuke your neighbour frankly so you will not share in his guilt. ¹⁸ Do not seek revenge or hold a grudge against anyone among your people, but love your neighbour as yourself. I am the Lord. ¹⁹ Keep my decrees. Do not breed different kinds of animals. Do not plant your field with two kinds of seed. Do not wear clothing woven of two kinds of material. ²⁰ If a man has sexual relations with a woman who is a slave and promised to another man, but who has not been redeemed or given her freedom, there must be due punishment. They shall not be put to death, because she was not free. ²¹ The man must bring a ram to the entrance of the tent of meeting for a guilt offering to the Lord. ²² With the ram of the guilt offering, the priest shall make atonement for him before the Lord for the sin he has committed, and his sin will be forgiven. ²³ When you enter the land and plant any kind of fruit tree, regard its fruit as forbidden. For three years it will be forbidden to you; it must not be eaten. ²⁴ In the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, an offering of praise to the Lord. ²⁵ But in the fifth year you may eat its fruit, so that its yield may increase for you. I am the Lord your God. ²⁶ You shall not eat any meat with the blood still in it. You shall not practise divination or seek omens. ²⁷ Do not trim the hair at the sides of your head or clip off the edges of your beard. ²⁸ Do not mark your bodies for the dead or put tattoo marks on yourselves. I am the Lord. ²⁹ Do not dishonour your daughter by making her a prostitute, or the land will turn to prostitution and be filled with wickedness. ³⁰ Observe my Sabbaths and show reverence for my sanctuary. I am the Lord. ³¹ Do not turn to those who claim to communicate with spirits or seek out those who consult the dead, for you will be defiled by them. I am the Lord your God. ³² Rise in the presence of the aged, show respect for the elderly and revere your God. I am the Lord. ³³ When a foreigner resides among you in your land, do not mistreat him. ³⁴ The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love him as yourself, for you were foreigners in Egypt. I am the Lord your God. ³⁵ Do not use dishonest measures when determining length, weight or quantity. ³⁶ Use accurate scales and honest weights, an honest ephah and an honest hin. I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of Egypt. ³⁷ Observe all my decrees and all my laws and follow them. I am the Lord."

Leviticus

20 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to the Israelites: 'Any Israelite or any foreigner residing in Israel who offers any of his children to Molek must surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him. ³ I will set my face against that man and cut him off from his people, because he has given his children to Molek, defiling my sanctuary and profaning my holy name. ⁴ If the people of the land turn a blind eye when that man gives his children to Molek and fail to put him to death, ⁵ I will set my face against that man and his family and cut them off from their people, along with all who follow him in prostituting themselves to Molek. ⁶ If anyone turns to mediums and spiritists to prostitute themselves with them, I will set my face against that person and cut them off from their people. ⁷ Dedicate yourselves and be set apart, for I am the Lord your God. ⁸ Keep my statutes and practise them. I am the Lord, who sanctifies you. ⁹ 'Anyone who curses their father or mother shall surely be put to death. They have cursed their father or mother; their blood shall be upon their own head. ¹⁰ 'If a man commits adultery with another man's wife, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death. ¹¹ 'If a man has sexual relations with his father's wife, he has uncovered his father's nakedness. Both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon their own heads. ¹² 'If a man has sexual relations with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death. They have committed a perversion; their blood shall be upon their own heads. ¹³ 'If a man has sexual relations with another man as with a woman, both of them have committed a detestable act. They shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon their own heads. ¹⁴ 'If a man marries a woman and her mother, it is wicked. Both he and they shall be burned with fire, so that no wickedness will be among you. ¹⁵ 'If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he shall surely be put to death, and you shall kill the animal. ¹⁶ 'If a woman approaches an animal to have sexual relations with it, you shall kill both the woman and the animal. They shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon their own heads. ¹⁷ 'If a man marries his sister, the daughter of either his father or his mother, and they have sexual relations, it is a disgrace. They shall be cut off in the sight of their people. He has uncovered his sister's nakedness and shall bear his guilt. ¹⁸ 'If a man has sexual relations with a woman during her menstrual period, he has exposed the source of her flow, and she has uncovered it. Both of them shall be cut off from their people. ¹⁹ 'You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister or your father's sister, for that would dishonour a close relative; both of you shall bear your guilt. ²⁰ 'If a man has sexual relations with his aunt, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness. They shall bear their sin; they shall die childless. ²¹ 'If a man marries his brother's wife, it is an act of impurity; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness. They shall be childless. ²² 'Keep all my statutes and laws and follow them, so that the land where I am bringing you to live may not vomit you out. ²³ You must not follow the customs of the nations I am going to drive out before you, for they did all these things, and I abhorred them. ²⁴ But I have said to you, "You shall inherit their land; I will give it to you as an inheritance, a land flowing with milk and honey." I am the Lord your God, who has set you apart from the nations. ²⁵ 'You must therefore distinguish between clean and unclean animals and between unclean and clean birds. Do not defile yourselves by any animal or bird or anything that moves along the ground—those that I have set apart as unclean for you. ²⁶ You shall be holy to me because I, the Lord, am holy, and I have set you apart from the nations to be my own. ²⁷ 'A man or woman who is a medium or spiritist among you must be put to death. You shall stone them; their blood shall be upon their own heads."

Leviticus

21 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and declare to them: 'A priest must not defile himself for any deceased person among his people, ² except for his closest relatives, such as his mother, father, son, daughter, or brother, ³ and also for his virgin sister who is dependent on him, as she has no husband; for her, he may defile himself. ⁴ He must not defile himself for those related by marriage, thus profaning himself. ⁵ Priests must not make bald spots on their heads, shave off the edges of their beards, or make any cuts on their bodies. ⁶ They must be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God, for they present the offerings by fire to the Lord, the food of their God; thus, they must be holy. ⁷ They must not marry a woman who is a prostitute or has been profaned, nor shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband, for they are holy to their God. ⁸ Therefore, regard them as holy, because they offer the food of your God. They shall be holy to you, for I, the Lord, who sanctifies you, am holy. ⁹ If a priest's daughter defiles herself by becoming a prostitute, she brings disgrace upon her father; she must be burned with fire. ¹⁰ The high priest, the one among his brothers upon whose head the anointing oil has been poured and who has been consecrated to wear the garments, must not let his hair become unkempt or tear his clothes. ¹¹ He must not approach any dead body, nor defile himself, even for his father or mother, ¹² nor leave the sanctuary of his God or desecrate it, for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is upon him. I am the Lord. ¹³ He must marry a woman in her virginity. ¹⁴ He must not marry a widow, a divorced woman, or a woman defiled by prostitution, but he must take a virgin from his own people, ¹⁵ so that he does not profane his offspring among his people. I am the Lord, who sanctifies him.'" ¹⁶ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁷ "Speak to Aaron, saying: 'None of your descendants throughout their generations who has a defect may approach to offer the food of his God. ¹⁸ No man who has any defect may approach: no man who is blind, or lame, or has a disfigured face, or any conspicuous deformity, ¹⁹ or anyone with a broken foot or hand, ²⁰ or who is a hunchback or a dwarf, or who has a defect in his eye, or has festering sores, scabs, or crushed testicles. ²¹ No descendant of Aaron the priest who has any defect is to come near to present the offerings by fire to the Lord. He has a defect; he must not come near to offer the food of his God. ²² He is permitted to partake of the food of his God, including both the most sacred and the holy portions, ²³ but because of his defect, he must not approach the veil or come near the altar, lest he profane my sanctuaries. I am the Lord, who sanctifies them.” ²⁴ Moses then communicated these instructions to Aaron, his sons, and all the Israelites.

Leviticus

22 The Lord then spoke to Moses and said, ² “Tell Aaron and his sons to handle with care the sacred offerings the Israelites dedicate to Me, so that they do not profane My holy name. I am the Lord. ³ “Say to them: ‘Throughout your generations, if any of your descendants approaches the holy gifts dedicated to the Lord while being ceremonially unclean, that person shall be cut off from My presence. I am the Lord. ⁴ ‘No descendant of Aaron who has a defiling skin disease or a discharge may eat the sacred offerings until he is clean. He will also be unclean if he touches anything made unclean by a corpse or a man who has a seminal emission, ⁵ or if he touches any swarming creature that makes him unclean, or any person by whom he is made unclean, whatever his uncleanness may be. ⁶ The person who touches any such thing shall be unclean until evening and must not eat any of the sacred offerings unless he has bathed his body in water. ⁷ When the sun sets, he will be clean, and afterward he may eat of the sacred offerings, for it is his food. ⁸ He must not eat anything that dies naturally or is torn by wild animals, becoming unclean by it. I am the Lord. ⁹ “They must carry out their duties to Me in such a way that they do not incur guilt and die because of it, for they profane it. I am the Lord who makes them holy. ¹⁰ ‘No outsider may eat the sacred offering; a foreigner residing with the priest or a hired worker shall not eat it. ¹¹ But if a priest buys a slave with his money, that person may eat of it, and those born in his household may eat of his food. ¹² If a priest’s daughter marries a layman, she may not eat of the sacred contributions. ¹³ But if a priest’s daughter becomes a widow or is divorced and has no children, and she returns to her father’s house as in her youth, she may eat of her father’s food; but no outsider shall eat of it. ¹⁴ If anyone eats a sacred offering unintentionally, they must make restitution to the priest for the offering and add a fifth of its value to it. ¹⁵ The priests must ensure that the sacred offerings presented by the Israelites to the Lord are treated with respect ¹⁶ by allowing them to eat the sacred offerings and thereby bring upon them guilt requiring restitution. I am the Lord who makes them holy.” ¹⁷ The Lord addressed Moses, ¹⁸ “Speak to Aaron, his sons, and all the Israelites and say to them: ‘If any of you—whether an Israelite or a foreigner residing in Israel—presents a gift as a burnt offering to the Lord, to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering, ¹⁹ it must be a male without defect from the cattle, sheep, or goats in order that it may be accepted on your behalf. ²⁰ Do not present anything with a defect, for it will not be accepted on your behalf. ²¹ When anyone brings a fellowship offering to the Lord to fulfill a special vow or as a freewill offering from the herd or flock, it must be without defect or blemish to be acceptable. ²² Do not offer to the Lord anything that is blind, injured, or maimed, or with warts, festering, or running sores. Do not place any of these on the altar as a food offering presented to the Lord. ²³ You may, however, present an ox or a sheep that is deformed or stunted as a freewill offering, but it will not be accepted in fulfillment of a vow. ²⁴ Do not offer to the Lord an animal whose testicles are bruised, crushed, torn, or cut. Do not do this in your land, ²⁵ and do not accept such animals from a foreigner to offer as the food of your God. They will not be accepted on your behalf, for they are deformed and have defects.” ²⁶ The Lord addressed Moses, ²⁷ “When a calf, lamb, or goat is born, it is to remain with its mother for seven days. From the eighth day on, it will be acceptable as a food offering presented to the Lord. ²⁸ Refrain from slaughtering a cow or a sheep along with its young on the same day. ²⁹ “When you offer a thank offering to the Lord, do so in a manner that ensures it will be accepted on your behalf. ³⁰ It must be eaten on the same day; do not leave any of it till morning. I am the Lord. ³¹ “Keep My commandments and follow them. I am the Lord. ³² Do not profane My holy name, for I must be acknowledged as holy by the Israelites. I am the Lord who makes you holy, ³³ and who delivered you from Egypt to be your God. I am the Lord.”

23 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ² “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘These are the Lord’s appointed times, which you shall proclaim as holy assemblies—My appointed festivals are these: ³ For six days work may be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of complete rest, a holy assembly. You shall not do any work; it is a Sabbath to the Lord in all your dwellings. ⁴ These are the Lord's appointed times, holy assemblies, which you shall proclaim at the times appointed for them: ⁵ On the fourteenth day of the first month at twilight, the Lord's Passover is observed. ⁶ On the fifteenth day of the same month is the Festival of Unleavened Bread to the Lord; for seven days you shall eat bread made without yeast. ⁷ On the first day hold a holy assembly; you shall not do any regular work. ⁸ For seven days present an offering by fire to the Lord. On the seventh day hold a holy assembly; you shall not do any regular work.” ⁹ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰ “Speak to the Israelites and say to them: ‘When you enter the land which I am going to give you and you reap its harvest, bring to the priest a sheaf of the first grain you harvest. ¹¹ He shall wave the sheaf before the Lord so it may be accepted on your behalf; the priest is to wave it on the day after the Sabbath. ¹² On the day you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a male lamb a year old without defect as a burnt offering to the Lord, ¹³ together with its grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of the finest flour mixed with oil, an offering by fire to the Lord, a pleasing aroma, and its drink offering of a quarter of a hin of wine. ¹⁴ You shall not eat any bread, or roasted or new grain, until the very day you bring this offering to your God. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live. ¹⁵ From the day after the Sabbath, the day you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, you shall count off seven full weeks. ¹⁶ Count fifty days until the day after the seventh Sabbath, and then present an offering of new grain to the Lord. ¹⁷ From your dwellings, bring two loaves made of two-tenths of an ephah of the finest flour, baked with yeast, as a wave offering of firstfruits to the Lord. ¹⁸ With this bread, present seven male lambs, each a year old and without defect, one young bull and two rams. They shall be a burnt offering to the Lord, with their grain offerings and drink offerings, an offering by fire, a pleasing aroma to the Lord. ¹⁹ Then sacrifice one male goat for a sin offering and two lambs, each a year old, as a fellowship offering. ²⁰ The priest shall wave the two lambs before the Lord as a wave offering, together with the bread of the firstfruits. They are a sacred offering to the Lord for the priest. ²¹ On that same day you shall proclaim a holy assembly and do no regular work. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live. ²² When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. Leave them for the poor and the foreigner residing among you. I am the Lord your God.” ²³ The Lord then spoke to Moses again, saying, ²⁴ “Speak to the Israelites, saying, ‘On the first day of the seventh month you shall have a day of rest, a memorial proclaimed with trumpet blasts, a holy assembly. ²⁵ You shall not do any regular work, but you shall present an offering by fire to the Lord.” ²⁶ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁷ “On the tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement. Hold a holy assembly and humble yourselves, and present an offering by fire to the Lord. ²⁸ You shall not do any work on that day, for it is the Day of Atonement, to make atonement for you before the Lord your God. ²⁹ Anyone who does not humble himself on that day must be cut off from his people. ³⁰ I will destroy from among his people anyone who does any work on that day. ³¹ You shall refrain from all work. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live. ³² It is a Sabbath of complete rest for you, and you must humble yourselves. From the evening of the ninth day of the month until the following evening you shall observe your Sabbath.” ³³ The Lord then spoke to Moses again, saying, ³⁴ “Speak to the Israelites, saying, ‘On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the Festival of Tabernacles for seven days to the Lord. ³⁵ On the first day is a holy assembly; you shall not do any regular work. ³⁶ For seven days you shall present an offering by fire to the Lord, and on the eighth day hold a holy assembly and present an offering by fire to the Lord. It is a closing special assembly; you shall not do any regular work. ³⁷ These are the Lord's appointed festivals, which you shall proclaim as holy assemblies for bringing offerings by fire to the Lord—burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, each day's requirement on its own day— ³⁸ besides those of the Sabbaths of the Lord, and besides your gifts and all your vowed and voluntary offerings, which you give to the Lord. ³⁹ On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the crops of the land, you shall celebrate the festival to the Lord for seven days; the first day is a day of rest, and the eighth day also is a day of rest. ⁴⁰ On the first day you shall take branches from luxuriant trees, from palms, willows and other leafy trees, and rejoice before the Lord your God for seven days. ⁴¹ Celebrate it as a festival to the Lord for seven days each year. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come; celebrate it in the seventh month. ⁴² Live in temporary shelters for seven days; all native-born Israelites shall live in such shelters, ⁴³ so that your descendants may know that I had the Israelites live in temporary shelters when I brought them out of Egypt. I am the Lord your God.” ⁴⁴ So Moses declared to the Israelites the appointed festivals of the Lord.

Leviticus

Leviticus

24 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ² “Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil from pressed olives for the light, so that the lamps may burn continually. ³ Outside the curtain of the testimony in the tent of meeting, Aaron shall tend the lamps before the Lord from evening until morning, continually. This shall be a lasting ordinance for all generations. ⁴ The lamps on the pure gold lampstand before the Lord must be kept in order continually. ⁵ “Take fine flour and bake twelve loaves with it, using two-tenths of an ephah for each loaf. ⁶ Arrange them in two rows, six in each row, on the table of pure gold before the Lord. ⁷ Place pure incense on each row, as a memorial portion to represent the bread, an offering by fire to the Lord. ⁸ This bread is to be set out before the Lord regularly, every Sabbath, as an everlasting covenant for the Israelites. ⁹ It shall belong to Aaron and his sons, who are to eat it in a holy place, for it is a most holy part of their perpetual share of the offerings by fire to the Lord.” ¹⁰ Now the son of an Israelite woman and an Egyptian father went out among the Israelites, and a fight broke out in the camp between him and an Israelite man. ¹¹ The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name and cursed. So they brought him to Moses. (His mother’s name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.) ¹² They held him in custody until they could discern the Lord’s will regarding him. ¹³ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁴ “Bring the blasphemer outside the camp. All those who heard him are to lay their hands on his head, and the entire assembly is to stone him. ¹⁵ Say to the Israelites:

‘Anyone who curses their God will bear the responsibility for their sin; ¹⁶ anyone who blasphemes the name of the Lord must be put to death. The entire assembly shall stone them. Whether foreigner or native-born, when they blaspheme the Name they shall be put to death. ¹⁷ “‘Anyone who takes a human life must be put to death. ¹⁸ Anyone who takes the life of an animal must make restitution, life for life. ¹⁹ If anyone injures their neighbour, the same shall be done to them: ²⁰ fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. Just as they have injured another, so shall it be inflicted on them. ²¹ Whoever kills an animal must make restitution, but whoever kills a human being must be put to death. ²² You shall have the same law for the foreigner and the native-born. I am the Lord your God.” ²³ Then Moses spoke to the Israelites, and they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him. The Israelites did just as the Lord commanded Moses.

25 The Lord communicated to Moses at Mount Sinai, ² “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘When you enter the land that I am giving you, the land must observe a sabbath to the Lord. ³ For six years you may sow your fields and prune your vineyards and gather their produce, ⁴ but in the seventh year the land shall have a sabbath rest, a sabbath to the Lord; you shall not sow your fields or prune your vineyards. ⁵ You shall not reap what grows of itself or gather the grapes from your untrimmed vines; the land shall have a year of rest. ⁶ Whatever the land yields during the sabbath year will be food for you—for yourself, your male and female servants, and the hired worker and foreign resident living among you, ⁷ and also for your livestock and the wild animals in your land. Whatever the land produces may be eaten. ⁸ “‘You shall count off seven sabbath years—seven times seven years—so that the seven sabbath years amount to a period of forty-nine years. ⁹ Then sound a trumpet throughout the land on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the Day of Atonement you shall sound the trumpet throughout your land. ¹⁰ Consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you; each of you shall return to your property and to your family. ¹¹ The fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you; you shall not sow, nor harvest what grows of itself, nor gather grapes from untrimmed vines. ¹² For it is a jubilee and shall be holy to you; you shall eat only what is taken directly from the fields. ¹³ “In this Year of Jubilee, each of you shall return to your property. ¹⁴ “If you sell land to any of your own people or buy land from them, do not take advantage of one another. ¹⁵ You are to purchase from your own people based on the number of years since the Jubilee, and they are to sell to you according to the number of years left for harvesting crops. ¹⁶ In proportion to a greater number of years you shall increase the price, and in proportion to fewer years you shall decrease the price, because it is the number of crops that is being sold to you. ¹⁷ Do not take advantage of one another, but fear your God; for I am the Lord your God. ¹⁸ “Follow my decrees and be careful to obey my laws, and you will live securely in the land. ¹⁹ Then the land will yield its produce, and you will eat your fill and live securely on it. ²⁰ You may ask, “What shall we eat in the seventh year if we do not plant or harvest our crops?” ²¹ I will command my blessing for you in the sixth year so that the land will yield enough for three years. ²² While you are sowing during the eighth year, you will eat from the old produce and continue to eat from it until the ninth year when its produce comes in. ²³ “The land must not be sold permanently, because the land is mine and you reside in my land as wanderers and guests. ²⁴ Throughout the land that you hold as a possession, you must ensure the redemption of the land. ²⁵ “If one of your fellow Israelites becomes poor and sells some of their property, their nearest relative is to come and reclaim what they have sold. ²⁶ If there is no one to redeem it for them, yet later they prosper and acquire enough means to redeem it themselves, ²⁷ they are to calculate the value for the years since they sold it and refund the balance to the one to whom they sold it; they can then return to their property. ²⁸ But if they do not acquire the means to repay, what was sold will remain with the buyer until the Year of Jubilee. It will be returned in the Jubilee, and they can then return to their property. ²⁹ “Anyone who sells a house in a walled city retains the right of redemption for a full year after its sale. During that time, the seller may redeem it. ³⁰ If it is not redeemed before a full year has passed, the house in the walled city shall belong permanently to the buyer and their descendants. It is not to be returned in the Jubilee. ³¹ However, houses in villages without walls around them are to be regarded as part of the open country. They can be redeemed, and they are to be returned in the Jubilee. ³² “The Levites have the perpetual right to redeem their houses in the Levitical towns, which they possess. ³³ So the property of the Levites is redeemable—that is, a house sold in any town they hold—and is to be returned in the Jubilee, because the houses in the towns of the Levites are their possession among the Israelites. ³⁴ Yet the pastureland belonging to their towns must remain unsold; it is their lasting possession. ³⁵ “If any of your fellow Israelites become poor and are unable to support themselves among you, assist them as you would a foreigner and guest, so they can continue to live among you. ³⁶ Do not charge them interest or seek profit from them, but fear your God, so that they may continue to live among you. ³⁷ You must not lend them money with interest or sell them food for profit. ³⁸ I am the Lord your God, who delivered you out of Egypt to grant you the land of Canaan and to be your God. ³⁹ “If any of your fellow Israelites become poor and sell themselves to you, do not treat them as slaves. ⁴⁰ They are to be regarded as hired workers or temporary residents among you; they are to work for you until the Year of Jubilee. ⁴¹ Then they and their children are to be released, and they will return to their own clans and to the property of their ancestors. ⁴² For the Israelites are my servants, whom I brought out of Egypt, they must not be sold as slaves. ⁴³ Do not rule over them with harshness, but fear your God. ⁴⁴ “Your male and female slaves are to come from the nations around you; from them you may acquire slaves. ⁴⁵ You may also acquire some of the temporary residents living among you and members of their clans born in your country, and they will become your property. ⁴⁶ You can bequeath them to your children as inherited property and can make them slaves for life, but you must not rule over your fellow Israelites with harshness. ⁴⁷ “If a foreigner residing among you becomes prosperous and any of your fellow Israelites become poor and sell themselves to the foreigner or to a member of the foreigner's clan, ⁴⁸ they retain the right of redemption after they have sold themselves. A relative may redeem them: ⁴⁹ An uncle, a cousin, or any close relative in their clan may redeem them. Or if they prosper, they may redeem themselves. ⁵⁰ They and their buyer are to calculate the time from the year they sold themselves up to the Year of Jubilee. The price for their release is to be based on the rate paid to a hired worker for that number of years.⁵¹ If there are many years remaining, they must pay a larger portion of the price for their redemption.⁵² If only a few years are left until the Year of Jubilee, they are to calculate that and pay for their redemption accordingly.⁵³ They are to be treated as workers hired from year to year; you must ensure that those to whom they owe service do not rule over them with harshness.⁵⁴ “Even if someone is not redeemed in these ways, they and their children are to be released in the Year of Jubilee,⁵⁵ for the Israelites are my servants. They are my servants, whom I brought out of Egypt. I am the Lord your God.

Leviticus

Leviticus

26 “Do not create idols or set up a carved image or a memorial stone for yourselves, nor place a figured stone in your land to bow down to it; for I am the Lord your God.² You shall keep My Sabbaths and hold My sanctuary in reverence; I am the Lord.³ If you walk in My statutes and are diligent to obey My commandments,⁴ then I will provide rain in its season, so that the land will yield its produce and the trees of the field will bear their fruit.⁵ Your threshing will extend until grape harvest, and the grape harvest will last until sowing time; you will eat your fill and dwell securely in your land.⁶ I will grant peace in the land so that you may lie down with no one to make you afraid. I will also remove harmful beasts from the land, and no sword will pass through your territory.⁷ You will pursue your enemies, and they will be defeated before you by the sword.⁸ Five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will put ten thousand to flight, and your enemies will be overcome before you by the sword.⁹ I will turn towards you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will uphold My covenant with you.¹⁰ You will consume the old supply and make way for the new.¹¹ I will set My dwelling among you, and My soul will not reject you.¹² I will walk among you, I will be your God, and you shall be My people.¹³ I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt so that you would no longer be slaves; I broke the bars of your yoke and enabled you to walk with heads held high.¹⁴ “But if you do not listen to Me and do not carry out all these commandments,¹⁵ and if you reject My statutes and loathe My ordinances, failing to carry out all My commandments and thus breaking My covenant,¹⁶ then I will do this to you: I will bring upon you sudden terror, wasting diseases and fever that will destroy your sight and sap your strength; you will sow your seed in vain, for your enemies will eat it.¹⁷ I will set My face against you so that you will be defeated by your enemies; those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when no one is pursuing you.¹⁸ If after all this you do not listen to Me, I will punish you sevenfold for your sins.¹⁹ I will break down your stubborn pride and make the sky above you like iron and the earth beneath you like bronze.²⁰ Your strength will be spent in vain, for your land will not yield its produce, nor will the trees of the land yield their fruit.²¹ “If you remain hostile towards Me and refuse to obey Me, I will multiply your afflictions sevenfold according to your sins.²² I will send wild animals among you, which will rob you of your children, destroy your cattle, and reduce your numbers so that your roads become deserted.²³ “If despite these things you do not accept My correction and remain hostile towards Me,²⁴ then I will also be hostile towards you and will strike you sevenfold for your sins.²⁵ I will bring a sword against you to execute the vengeance of the covenant; when you gather in your cities, I will send a plague among you, and you will be handed over to the enemy.²⁶ When I cut off your supply of bread, ten women will bake your bread in a single oven and dole it out by weight; you will eat, but not be satisfied.²⁷ “If in spite of this you do not listen to Me and continue to be hostile towards Me,²⁸ then I will act with furious hostility against you, and I will punish you sevenfold for your sins.²⁹ You will consume the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters.³⁰ I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars, and pile your remains on the lifeless forms of your idols, for My soul will loathe you.³¹ I will lay waste to your cities and make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not delight in the pleasing aroma of your offerings.³² I will make the land desolate so that your enemies who settle in it will be appalled.³³ I will scatter you among the nations and draw out a sword after you as your land becomes desolate and your cities become ruins.³⁴ Then the land will enjoy its Sabbaths all the days of its desolation, while you are in your enemies’ land; then the land will rest and enjoy its Sabbaths.³⁵ All the days of its desolation it will have the rest it did not have on your Sabbaths when you lived on it.

Leviticus

³⁶ As for those of you who remain, I will bring fear into their hearts in the lands of their enemies. The sound of a windblown leaf will chase them, and they will flee as though fleeing from the sword, and they will fall even though no one is pursuing them. ³⁷ They will stumble over each other as if fleeing from the sword, even though no one is pursuing them; and you will have no strength to stand before your enemies. ³⁸ You will perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies will consume you. ³⁹ Those who remain will waste away in the lands of their enemies because of their sins; also because of their ancestors' sins they will waste away. ⁴⁰ 'But if they confess their sins and the sins of their ancestors—their unfaithfulness and their hostility towards Me—⁴¹ which made Me hostile towards them so that I sent them into the land of their enemies—then when their uncircumcised hearts are humbled and they make amends for their wrongdoing, ⁴² I will remember My covenant with Jacob, My covenant with Isaac, and My covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land. ⁴³ For the land will be abandoned by them and will enjoy its Sabbaths while it lies desolate without them. They will make amends for their sins because they rejected My ordinances and loathed My statutes. ⁴⁴ Yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them or loathe them so as to destroy them completely, breaking My covenant with them; for I am the Lord their God. ⁴⁵ For their sake, I will remember the covenant with their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God. I am the Lord.' ⁴⁶ These are the statutes, ordinances, and laws which the Lord established between Himself and the Israelites through Moses on Mount Sinai.

27 The Lord spoke to Moses again, saying, ² "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'When someone makes a special vow to dedicate a person to the Lord, they shall be valued according to your assessment. ³ If the assessment is for a male between the ages of twenty and sixty, the value shall be fifty shekels of silver, by the sanctuary shekel. ⁴ If it is for a female, then the value shall be thirty shekels. ⁵ For a person between five and twenty years old, the value for a male shall be twenty shekels, and for a female, ten shekels. ⁶ For a person from one month to five years old, the value shall be five shekels of silver for a male, and three shekels of silver for a female. ⁷ For a person sixty years old or more, if a male, the value shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female, ten shekels. ⁸ If the one making the vow is too poor to pay the specified amount, they shall be presented to the priest, who will assess them according to what they can afford. ⁹ "If what is vowed is an animal that can be offered to the Lord, it shall be considered holy. ¹⁰ They must not exchange or substitute it, good for bad or bad for good; if they do substitute one animal for another, both the original and the substitute shall become holy. ¹¹ If the vowed animal is ceremonially unclean and not acceptable as an offering to the Lord, it must be presented to the priest. ¹² The priest will assess its quality, whether good or bad; whatever value the priest sets, that is what it shall be. ¹³ If the owner wishes to redeem the animal, they must add a fifth to its value. ¹⁴ "If someone dedicates their house as holy to the Lord, the priest will assess its quality, whether good or bad. The value set by the priest shall stand. ¹⁵ If the one who dedicates the house wishes to redeem it, they must add a fifth to its value, and it will become theirs again. ¹⁶ "If someone dedicates part of their family land to the Lord, its value shall be set according to the amount of seed required for it—fifty shekels of silver to a homer of barley seed. ¹⁷ If they dedicate the field during the Year of Jubilee, the value set shall remain. ¹⁸ If they dedicate the field after the Jubilee, the priest will calculate the value according to the number of years remaining until the next Jubilee, and the value will be reduced. ¹⁹ If the one who dedicates the field wishes to redeem it, they must add a fifth to its value, and it will become theirs again. ²⁰ If they do not redeem the field, or if it has been sold to someone else, it cannot be redeemed. ²¹ When the field is released in the Jubilee, it shall be holy to the Lord, like a field devoted to Him; it shall become the property of the priest. ²² "If someone dedicates to the Lord a field they have bought, which is not part of their family land, ²³ the priest will assess its value up to the Year of Jubilee, and the owner must pay the value on that day as something holy to the Lord. ²⁴ In the Year of Jubilee, the field shall return to the person from whom it was bought, to whom the land originally belonged. ²⁵ Every value shall be set according to the sanctuary shekel, which consists of twenty gerahs. ²⁶ "No one may dedicate the firstborn of an animal, since the firstborn already belongs to the Lord; whether ox or sheep, it is the Lord's. ²⁷ If it is one of the unclean animals, it may be redeemed at its set value plus a fifth; if not redeemed, it shall be sold at its set value.

Leviticus

²⁸ “Nothing that a person owns and devotes to the Lord—whether human, animal, or family land—may be sold or redeemed; everything so devoted is most holy to the Lord. ²⁹ No person who is devoted to destruction may be ransomed; they must be put to death. ³⁰ “A tenth of all produce from the land, whether grain from the soil or fruit from the trees, is consecrated to the Lord; it is holy to Him. ³¹ If anyone wishes to redeem any of their tithe, they must add a fifth to its value. ³² Every tenth animal of the herd and flock, whatever passes under the shepherd's rod, shall be holy to the Lord. ³³ No one may choose between good and bad or make any substitution. If a substitution is made, both the original and the substitute shall become holy and cannot be redeemed.” ³⁴ These are the instructions the Lord provided to Moses for the Israelites on Mount Sinai.

Numbers

1 The Lord spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month in the second year after the Israelites had come out of Egypt, saying: ² "Take a census of the entire congregation of the Israelites by their families, by their fathers' households, listing every male by name, one by one. ³ You and Aaron are to count all the men in Israel who are twenty years old or more and able to serve in the army, according to their divisions. ⁴ With you shall be a man from each tribe, each one the head of his family. ⁵ Here are the names of the men who will assist you: from Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur; ⁶ from the tribe of Simeon, Shelumiel, son of Zurishaddai; ⁷ from the tribe of Judah, Nahshon, son of Amminadab; ⁸ from the tribe of Issachar, Nethanel, son of Zuar; ⁹ from the tribe of Zebulun, Eliab, son of Helon; ¹⁰ out of the descendants of Joseph: from Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; from Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur; ¹¹ from the tribe of Benjamin, Abidan, son of Gideoni; ¹² from the tribe of Dan, Ahiezer, son of Ammishaddai; ¹³ from the tribe of Asher, Pagiel, son of Ochran; ¹⁴ from the tribe of Gad, Eliasaph, son of Deuel; ¹⁵ from the tribe of Naphtali, Ahira, son of Enan. ¹⁶ These were the men appointed from the community, the leaders of their fathers' tribes; they were the heads of the clans of Israel. ¹⁷ Moses and Aaron gathered these men who had been designated by name, ¹⁸ and they assembled the whole congregation on the first day of the second month. They registered by ancestry in their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, one by one, ¹⁹ as the Lord had commanded Moses. So he counted them in the wilderness of Sinai. ²⁰ From the descendants of Reuben, Israel's firstborn: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, one by one, according to the records of their clans and families. ²¹ The count from the tribe of Reuben was 46,500. ²² From the descendants of Simeon: All the men twenty years old or more who were eligible for military service were counted and listed by name, one by one, according to the records of their clans and families. ²³ The count from the tribe of Simeon was 59,300. ²⁴ From the descendants of Gad: All the men twenty years old or more who were eligible for military service were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families. ²⁵ The count from the tribe of Gad was 45,650. ²⁶ From the descendants of Judah: All the men twenty years old or more who were eligible for military service were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families. ²⁷ The count from the tribe of Judah was 74,600. ²⁸ From the descendants of Issachar: All the men twenty years old or more who were eligible for military service were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families. ²⁹ The count from the tribe of Issachar was 54,400. ³⁰ From the descendants of Zebulun: All the men twenty years old or more who were eligible for military service were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families. ³¹ The count from the tribe of Zebulun was 57,400. ³² Out of descendants of Joseph: From the tribe of Ephraim: All the eligible men twenty years old or more who were capable of military service were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families. ³³ The count from the tribe of Ephraim was 40,500. ³⁴ From the descendants of Manasseh: All the men twenty years old or more who were eligible for military service were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families. ³⁵ The count from the tribe of Manasseh was 32,200. ³⁶ From the descendants of Benjamin: All the men twenty years old or more who were eligible for military service were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families. ³⁷ The count from the tribe of Benjamin was 35,400. ³⁸ From the descendants of Dan: All the men twenty years old or more who were eligible for military service were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families. ³⁹ The count from the tribe of Dan was 62,700. ⁴⁰ From the descendants of Asher: All the men twenty years old or more who were eligible for military service were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families. ⁴¹ The count from the tribe of Asher was 41,500. ⁴² From the descendants of Naphtali: All the men twenty years old or more who were eligible for military service were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families. ⁴³ The count from the tribe of Naphtali was 53,400. ⁴⁴ These were the men counted by Moses and Aaron, with the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each representing his father's household. ⁴⁵ All the Israelites twenty years old or more who were eligible for military service in Israel's army were counted according to their families.⁴⁶ Their total number was 603,550.⁴⁷ The tribe of Levi, however, was not counted along with the others.⁴⁸ For the Lord had spoken to Moses, instructing him,⁴⁹ “You are not to count the tribe of Levi or include them in the census of the other Israelites.⁵⁰ Instead, appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the testimony, over all its furnishings and everything that belongs to it. They are to carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings; they are to take care of it and camp around it.⁵¹ Whenever the tabernacle is to move, the Levites are to take it down, and whenever it is to be set up, the Levites shall do it. Any outsider who approaches it shall be put to death.⁵² The Israelites are to camp by their divisions, each man by his own camp, and each man by his own standard.⁵³ But the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the testimony, so that there will be no divine wrath against the congregation of the Israelites. The Levites shall be responsible for the service to the tabernacle of the testimony.”⁵⁴ The Israelites did all this just as the Lord instructed Moses.

Numbers

2 The Lord then spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,² “The Israelites shall camp around the tent of meeting, each by their own flag, with the banners of their families, at a distance.³ On the east side, towards the sunrise, shall be the divisions of the camp of Judah, under their flag. The leader of the people of Judah is Nahshon son of Amminadab.⁴ His company of men numbered 74,600.⁵ Next to them shall camp the tribe of Issachar. The leader of the people of Issachar is Nethanel son of Zuar.⁶ His company of men numbered 54,400.⁷ Following them shall be the tribe of Zebulun. The leader of the people of Zebulun is Eliab son of Helon.⁸ His company of men numbered 57,400.⁹ All the men assigned to the camp of Judah, according to their divisions, number 186,400. They shall set out first.¹⁰ On the south side shall be the divisions of the camp of Reuben, under their flag. The leader of the people of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur.¹¹ His company of men numbered 46,500.¹² Next to them shall camp the tribe of Simeon. The leader of the people of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.¹³ His company of men numbered 59,300.¹⁴ Following them shall be the tribe of Gad. The leader of the people of Gad is Eliasaph son of Deuel.¹⁵ His company of men numbered 45,650.¹⁶ All the men assigned to the camp of Reuben, according to their divisions, number 151,450. They shall set out second.¹⁷ Then the tent of meeting, with the camp of the Levites, shall set out in the midst of the camps. They shall set out in the same order as they camp, each in their own place by their flag.¹⁸ On the west side shall be the divisions of the camp of Ephraim, under their flag. The leader of the people of Ephraim is Elishama son of Ammihud.¹⁹ His company of men numbered 40,500.²⁰ Next to them shall be the tribe of Manasseh. The leader of the people of Manasseh is Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.²¹ His company of men numbered 32,200.²² Following them shall be the tribe of Benjamin. The leader of the people of Benjamin is Abidan son of Gideon.²³ His company of men numbered 35,400.²⁴ All the men assigned to the camp of Ephraim, according to their divisions, number 108,100. They shall set out third.²⁵ On the north side shall be the divisions of the camp of Dan, under their flag. The leader of the people of Dan is Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.²⁶ His company of men numbered 62,700.²⁷ Next to them shall camp the tribe of Asher. The leader of the people of Asher is Pagiel son of Okran.²⁸ His company of men numbered 41,500.²⁹ Following them shall be the tribe of Naphtali. The leader of the people of Naphtali is Ahira son of Enan.³⁰ His company of men numbered 53,400.³¹ All the men assigned to the camp of Dan number 157,600. They shall set out last, under their flags.³² These are the Israelites, counted according to their families. The total number of men in the camps, by their divisions, is 603,550.³³ The Levites, however, were not counted among the other Israelites, as the Lord commanded Moses.³⁴ Thus the Israelites did everything the Lord commanded Moses; they camped by their flags and set out, each with their family and clan.

3 These are the records of the family of Aaron and Moses at the time when the Lord spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai.² Aaron's sons were Nadab, the firstborn, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.³ These were the names of Aaron's sons, the anointed priests, who were ordained to serve as priests.⁴ However, Nadab and Abihu died in the presence of the Lord when they offered unauthorised fire before Him in the wilderness of Sinai; and they had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during the lifetime of their father Aaron.⁵ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying,⁶ “Bring the tribe of Levi forward and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may assist him. ⁷ They shall perform duties for him and for the whole congregation at the tent of meeting, by doing the work of the tabernacle. ⁸ They are responsible for all the furnishings of the tent of meeting, fulfilling the obligations of the Israelites by managing the work of the tabernacle. ⁹ Assign the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they are exclusively given to him from among the Israelites. ¹⁰ Appoint Aaron and his sons to serve as priests; but the layman who approaches the sanctuary shall be put to death.” ¹¹ The Lord again spoke to Moses, saying, ¹² “Behold, I have taken the Levites from among the Israelites in place of every firstborn, the firstborn of the womb among the sons of Israel. The Levites shall be Mine, ¹³ for all the firstborn are Mine. On the day I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, both human and animal. They shall be Mine; I am the Lord.” ¹⁴ The Lord addressed Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, ¹⁵ “Count the sons of Levi by their families and clans; every male from a month old and upward you shall count.” ¹⁶ So Moses numbered them according to the word of the Lord, just as he had been instructed. ¹⁷ These are the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ¹⁸ These are the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei. ¹⁹ The descendants of Kohath by their families included Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. ²⁰ The sons of Merari by their families were Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers’ households. ²¹ From Gershon came the families of the Libnites and the Shimeites; these were the families of the Gershonites. ²² Their numbered men, in the counting of every male from a month old and upward, were 7,500. ²³ The Gershonite families were to set up their camp westward, behind the tabernacle. ²⁴ The leader of the fathers’ households of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael. ²⁵ The duties of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting included the tabernacle and the tent, its covering, and the curtain for the entrance of the tent of meeting, ²⁶ and the curtains of the courtyard, the curtain for the entrance of the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and the altar, and its ropes, according to all the service concerning them. ²⁷ From Kohath came the families of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites; these were the families of the Kohathites. ²⁸ In the counting of every male from a month old and upward, there were 8,600, responsible for the duties of the sanctuary. ²⁹ The families of Kohath’s descendants were to camp on the southern side of the tabernacle. ³⁰ The leader of the fathers’ households of the Kohathite families was Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. ³¹ Their duties included the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the utensils of the sanctuary with which they minister, the curtain, and all the service concerning them. ³² Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, was the head of the leaders of Levi, overseeing those who performed the duties of the sanctuary. ³³ From Merari came the families of the Mahlites and the Mushites; these were the families of Merari. ³⁴ Their numbered men in the counting of every male from a month old and upward were 6,200. ³⁵ The leader of the fathers’ households of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. They were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle. ³⁶ The duties assigned to the sons of Merari included the framework of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its bases, all its equipment, and all the service concerning them, ³⁷ and the pillars around the courtyard with their bases, their pegs, and their cords. ³⁸ Those who were to camp in front of the tabernacle eastward, in front of the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, were Moses and Aaron and his sons, performing the duties of the sanctuary for the obligation of the sons of Israel; but the layman coming near was to be put to death. ³⁹ All the numbered men of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron counted at the command of the Lord by their families, every male from a month old and upward, were 22,000. ⁴⁰ Then the Lord instructed Moses, “Count every firstborn male of the sons of Israel from a month old and upward, and make a list of their names. ⁴¹ And you shall take the Levites for Me—I am the Lord—in exchange for all the firstborn among the sons of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites in substitution for all the firstborn among the cattle of the sons of Israel.” ⁴² So Moses counted all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, just as the Lord had instructed him. ⁴³ And all the firstborn males, by the number of names from a month old and upward, were 22,273. ⁴⁴ The Lord then addressed Moses, saying, ⁴⁵ “Take the Levites in substitution for all the firstborn among the sons of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites in place of their cattle. And the Levites shall be Mine; I am the Lord.

Numbers

Numbers

⁴⁶ And as a redemption price for the 273 of the firstborn of the sons of Israel who exceed the number of the Levites, ⁴⁷ you shall collect five shekels for each individual; you shall take them according to the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel is twenty gerahs), ⁴⁸ and you shall hand over the money, the redemption price of those who are in excess among them, to Aaron and to his sons.” ⁴⁹ So Moses collected the redemption money from those who exceeded the number of those redeemed by the Levites; ⁵⁰ from the firstborn of the sons of Israel he collected the money in terms of the shekel of the sanctuary, 1,365. ⁵¹ Then Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and to his sons, at the command of the Lord, just as the Lord had instructed Moses.

4 The Lord then spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, ² “Take a census of the Kohathite branch of the Levites, by their families and their fathers’ households. ³ Count all the men from thirty to fifty years old who are eligible to serve in the work at the tent of meeting. ⁴ This is the duty of the Kohathites in the tent of meeting: the care of the most holy things. ⁵ “When the camp is to move, Aaron and his sons shall enter and take down the shielding curtain and cover the ark of the covenant with it. ⁶ Then they shall cover it with a durable leather and spread a cloth of violet over that, and insert the carrying poles. ⁷ Over the table of the Presence they shall spread a violet cloth and place on it the dishes, pans, sacrificial bowls, and the jugs for the drink offering; the continual bread shall remain on it. ⁸ They shall spread a scarlet cloth over these, cover them with a durable leather, and insert the carrying poles. ⁹ They shall take a violet cloth and cover the lampstand for the light, along with its lamps, wick trimmers, trays, and all its oil containers. ¹⁰ Then they shall put it and all its utensils in a covering of durable leather and place it on the carrying frame. ¹¹ Over the gold altar they shall spread a violet cloth and cover it with a durable leather, and insert the carrying poles. ¹² They shall take all the articles used for ministering in the sanctuary, wrap them in a violet cloth, cover them with a durable leather, and place them on a carrying frame. ¹³ They shall remove the ashes from the bronze altar and spread a purple cloth over it. ¹⁴ Then they shall place on it all the utensils used for ministering at the altar, including the firepans, forks, shovels, and basins. Over it, they shall spread a covering of durable leather and insert the carrying poles. ¹⁵ After Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy objects and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, when the camp is set to move, the Kohathites shall come to carry them, but they must not touch the holy things or they will die. These are the items in the tent of meeting that the Kohathites are to carry. ¹⁶ Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, shall be in charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the regular grain offering, and the anointing oil. He shall oversee the entire tabernacle and everything in it, including its holy furnishings and articles.” ¹⁷ The Lord communicated with Moses and Aaron, saying, ¹⁸ “Ensure that the Kohathite tribal clans are not cut off from among the Levites. ¹⁹ To ensure they live and do not die when they approach the most holy things, do this for them: Aaron and his sons shall enter and assign each man his work and what he is to carry. ²⁰ However, the Kohathites must not approach and gaze upon the holy things, even briefly, lest they perish.” ²¹ The Lord communicated with Moses, saying, ²² “Take a census of the Gershonites also, by their families and their fathers’ households. ²³ Count all the men from thirty to fifty years old who are eligible to perform service in the work at the tent of meeting. ²⁴ This is what the Gershonite clans are responsible for in their carrying and other duties: ²⁵ They shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting with its covering, and the outer covering of durable leather, and the curtain for the entrance to the tent of meeting, ²⁶ and the curtains of the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and altar, the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard, the ropes, and all the equipment used in their service. The Gershonites shall perform all that needs to be done with these things. ²⁷ All their service, whether carrying or doing other work, shall be performed under the direction of Aaron and his sons. You shall assign to them all their duties and responsibilities. ²⁸ This is the service of the Gershonite clans at the tent of meeting. Their duties shall be under the direction of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest. ²⁹ Count the Merarites by their clans and their fathers’ households. ³⁰ Count all the men from thirty to fifty years old who are eligible to serve in the work at the tent of meeting. ³¹ This is their duty as part of all their service at the tent: they are to carry the frames of the tabernacle, its crossbars, posts, and bases, ³² as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, ropes, all their equipment, and everything related to their use. Assign to each man by name the specific items he is to carry. ³³ This is what the Merarite clans are responsible for as they work at the tent of meeting under the direction of Ithamar, son of Aaron, the priest. ³⁴ Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the community counted the Kohathites by their clans and their fathers' households. ³⁵ All the men from thirty to fifty years old who could enter the service for work at the tent of meeting ³⁶ numbered by their clans were 2,750. ³⁷ This was the total of all those in the Kohathite clans who served at the tent of meeting, counted by Moses and Aaron according to the Lord's command through Moses. ³⁸ The Gershonites were counted by their clans and their fathers' households. ³⁹ All the men from thirty to fifty years old who could enter the service for work at the tent of meeting— ⁴⁰ numbered by their clans and their fathers' households, were 2,630. ⁴¹ This was the total of those in the Gershonite clans who served at the tent of meeting, counted by Moses and Aaron according to the Lord's command. ⁴² The Merarites were counted by their clans and their fathers' households. ⁴³ All the men from thirty to fifty years old who could enter the service for work at the tent of meeting— ⁴⁴ numbered by their clans were 3,200. ⁴⁵ This was the total of those in the Merarite clans, counted by Moses and Aaron according to the Lord's command through Moses. ⁴⁶ So Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel counted all the Levites by their clans and their fathers' households. ⁴⁷ All the men from thirty to fifty years old who could enter to do the work of serving and carrying in the tent of meeting ⁴⁸ they numbered 8,580. ⁴⁹ At the Lord's instruction through Moses, each was assigned his work and told what to carry. Thus they were counted, as the Lord directed Moses.

Numbers

5 The Lord then spoke to Moses, with these words, ² "Instruct the Israelites to remove from the camp everyone who has a defiling skin disease, anyone with a discharge, and anyone who is unclean due to contact with a dead body. ³ You shall send both male and female outside the camp so that they do not defile the camp where I dwell among them." ⁴ The Israelites acted accordingly and sent them outside the camp; they did just as the Lord had instructed Moses. ⁵ The Lord then spoke to Moses, with these words, ⁶ "Speak to the Israelites: 'When a man or woman commits any sin against another, thereby being unfaithful to the Lord, and becomes guilty, ⁷ they must confess the sin they have committed. They shall make full restitution for their wrongdoing, adding a fifth to its value, and give it to the person they have wronged. ⁸ If the person has no close relative to whom restitution can be made, the restitution belongs to the Lord and must be given to the priest, along with the ram for atonement for the wrongdoer. ⁹ Every sacred contribution the Israelites bring to a priest shall belong to him. ¹⁰ Each person's sacred gifts are their own, but whatever is given to the priest shall belong to the priest.'" ¹¹ The Lord addressed Moses with these words, ¹² "Tell the Israelites: 'If a man's wife strays and is unfaithful to him, ¹³ and another man has sexual relations with her, and this is concealed from her husband and her impurity is undiscovered, with no witness against her and she has not been caught in the act, ¹⁴ and if feelings of jealousy come over her husband and he suspects his wife when she is impure—or if he is jealous and suspects her although she is not impure— ¹⁵ then he shall bring his wife to the priest, along with an offering of a tenth of an ephah of barley flour. He shall not pour oil on it or put incense on it, for it is a grain offering of jealousy, a reminder-offering to draw attention to wrongdoing. ¹⁶ "The priest shall bring her forward and have her stand before the Lord. ¹⁷ The priest shall take holy water in a clay jar and put some dust from the tabernacle floor into the water. ¹⁸ The priest shall then have the woman stand before the Lord, loosen her hair, and place in her hands the reminder-offering, the grain offering of jealousy, while he holds the bitter water that brings a curse. ¹⁹ The priest shall put the woman under oath and say to her, "If no other man has had sexual relations with you and you have not gone astray into impurity while married to your husband, may this bitter water that brings a curse not harm you. ²⁰ But if you have gone astray while married to your husband and have made yourself impure by having sexual relations with a man other than your husband"— ²¹ then the priest shall have the woman swear an oath of the curse, and he shall say to her, "may the Lord make you a curse among your people when he causes your womb to miscarry and your abdomen to swell. ²² May this water that brings a curse enter your body to make your abdomen swell and your womb miscarry.” And the woman shall say, “Amen. So be it.” ²³ “The priest shall write these curses on a scroll and wash them off into the bitter water. ²⁴ He shall make the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and this water that brings a curse will enter her and cause bitterness. ²⁵ The priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy from her hands, wave it before the Lord, and bring it to the altar. ²⁶ The priest shall take a handful of the grain offering as a memorial offering and burn it on the altar; after that, he shall make the woman drink the water. ²⁷ If she has made herself impure and been unfaithful to her husband, the water that brings a curse will enter her, causing her abdomen to swell and her womb to miscarry, and she will become a curse among her people. ²⁸ But if the woman has not made herself impure and is clean, she will be cleared of guilt and will be able to conceive children. ²⁹ “This is the law of jealousy when a wife goes astray and defiles herself while married to her husband, ³⁰ or when feelings of jealousy come over a man and he suspects his wife. The priest shall have her stand before the Lord and apply this entire law to her. ³¹ The man will be free of guilt, but the woman shall bear the consequences of her guilt.”

Numbers

6 The Lord then spoke to Moses once more, saying, ² “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When a man or woman makes a special vow, the vow of a Nazirite, to dedicate themselves to the Lord, ³ they must abstain from wine and strong drink; they shall not drink vinegar made from wine or strong drink, nor shall they consume grape juice or eat fresh or dried grapes. ⁴ Throughout the period of their vow, they must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, not even the seeds or skins. ⁵ “For the entire duration of their Nazirite vow, no razor shall touch their head. They shall be holy until the time of their dedication to the Lord is completed; they shall let their hair grow long. ⁶ “During the period of their dedication to the Lord, the Nazirite must not go near a dead person. ⁷ They must not make themselves unclean for their father, mother, brother, or sister when they die, because the symbol of their consecration to God is upon their head. ⁸ Throughout their period of dedication, they are holy to the Lord. ⁹ “If someone dies suddenly beside them, defiling their consecrated head of hair, they must shave their head on the seventh day, the day of their cleansing. ¹⁰ On the eighth day, they shall bring two turtle doves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ¹¹ The priest shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to make atonement for them because they sinned by being in the presence of the dead person. On that same day, they shall reconsecrate their head. ¹² They must rededicate themselves to the Lord for the full period of their vow and bring a year-old male lamb as a guilt offering. The previous days do not count, as their consecration was defiled. ¹³ “This is the law of the Nazirite when the period of their dedication is completed: They shall be brought to the entrance of the tent of meeting. ¹⁴ There they shall present their offerings to the Lord: a year-old male lamb without defect for a burnt offering, a year-old ewe lamb without defect for a sin offering, and a ram without defect for a peace offering, ¹⁵ along with a basket of unleavened bread made of fine flour mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil, together with their grain and drink offerings. ¹⁶ “The priest shall present these before the Lord and offer the sin offering and the burnt offering. ¹⁷ He shall also offer the ram as a sacrifice of peace offerings to the Lord, together with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall also present the grain offering and drink offering. ¹⁸ “The Nazirite must then shave off their consecrated hair at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and place the hair on the fire under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. ¹⁹ “After the Nazirite has shaved off their consecrated hair, the priest is to place in their hands a boiled shoulder of the ram, one unleavened loaf, and one unleavened wafer from the basket. ²⁰ The priest shall then wave them as a wave offering before the Lord; they are holy and belong to the priest, along with the breast that is waved and the thigh that is presented. After this, the Nazirite may drink wine. ²¹ “This is the law of the Nazirite who vows offerings to the Lord according to their dedication, in addition to whatever else they can afford. They must fulfil the vow they have made, according to the law of their consecration.” ²² The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ²³ “Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is how you are to bless the Israelites. Say to them: ²⁴ ““May the Lord bless you and keep you; ²⁵ may the Lord let His face shine upon you and show you His favour; ²⁶ may the Lord look upon you with kindness and grant you peace.”’

Numbers

²⁷ "In this way, they shall invoke My name upon the Israelites, and I will bless them."

7 On the day that Moses completed setting up the tabernacle, he anointed and consecrated it along with all its furnishings, and the altar and all its utensils; he anointed and consecrated them too. ² Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers' households, who were the tribal leaders supervising those who were counted, made offerings. ³ They brought their offerings before the Lord: six covered carts and twelve oxen—one ox from each leader and a cart from every two leaders. They presented these before the tabernacle. ⁴ Then the Lord spoke to with Moses, saying, ⁵ "Accept these from them, that they may be used in the service of the tent of meeting. Distribute them to the Levites according to each man's service." ⁶ Thus, Moses received the carts and oxen and distributed them to the Levites. ⁷ He gave two carts and four oxen to the sons of Gershon, according to their service, ⁸ and he gave four carts and eight oxen to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the supervision of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest. ⁹ But he did not give any to the sons of Kohath, because they were responsible for the holy objects, which they carried on their shoulders. ¹⁰ The leaders brought their offerings for the dedication of the altar when it was anointed, presenting them before the altar. ¹¹ The Lord instructed Moses, "Each day one leader shall bring his offering for the dedication of the altar." ¹² On the first day, Nahshon son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah, presented his offering. ¹³ His offering consisted of one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ¹⁴ one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ¹⁵ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; ¹⁶ a single male goat for a sin offering; ¹⁷ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nahshon son of Amminadab. ¹⁸ On the second day, Nethanel son of Zuar, leader of Issachar, presented his offering. ¹⁹ His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ²⁰ one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ²¹ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; ²² a single male goat for a sin offering; ²³ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nethanel son of Zuar. ²⁴ On the third day, Eliab son of Helon, leader of the people of Zebulun, brought his offering. ²⁵ His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ²⁶ one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ²⁷ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; ²⁸ a single male goat for a sin offering; ²⁹ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliab son of Helon. ³⁰ On the fourth day, Elizur son of Shedeur, leader of the people of Reuben, brought his offering. ³¹ His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ³² one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ³³ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; ³⁴ a single male goat for a sin offering; ³⁵ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elizur son of Shedeur. ³⁶ On the fifth day, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, leader of the people of Simeon, brought his offering. ³⁷ His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ³⁸ one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ³⁹ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; ⁴⁰ a single male goat for a sin offering; ⁴¹ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai. ⁴² On the sixth day, Eliasaph son of Deuel, leader of the people of Gad, brought his offering. ⁴³ His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ⁴⁴ one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ⁴⁵ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb

Numbers

a year old for a burnt offering; ⁴⁶ a single male goat for a sin offering; ⁴⁷ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliasaph son of Deuel. ⁴⁸ On the seventh day, Elishama son of Ammihud, leader of the people of Ephraim, brought his offering. ⁴⁹ His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ⁵⁰ one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ⁵¹ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; ⁵² a single male goat for a sin offering; ⁵³ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elishama son of Ammihud. ⁵⁴ On the eighth day, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, leader of the people of Manasseh, brought his offering. ⁵⁵ His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ⁵⁶ one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ⁵⁷ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; ⁵⁸ a single male goat for a sin offering; ⁵⁹ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Gamaliel son of Pedahzur. ⁶⁰ On the ninth day, Abidan son of Gideoni, leader of the people of Benjamin, brought his offering. ⁶¹ His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ⁶² one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ⁶³ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; ⁶⁴ a single male goat for a sin offering; ⁶⁵ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Abidan son of Gideoni. ⁶⁶ On the tenth day, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai, leader of the people of Dan, brought his offering. ⁶⁷ His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ⁶⁸ one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ⁶⁹ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; ⁷⁰ a single male goat for a sin offering; ⁷¹ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai. ⁷² On the eleventh day, Pagiel son of Ochran, leader of the people of Asher, brought his offering. ⁷³ His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ⁷⁴ one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ⁷⁵ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; ⁷⁶ a single male goat for a sin offering; ⁷⁷ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Pagiel son of Ochran. ⁷⁸ On the twelfth day, Ahira son of Enan, leader of the people of Naphtali, brought his offering. ⁷⁹ His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ⁸⁰ one gold pan weighing ten shekels, filled with incense; ⁸¹ a young bull, a ram, and a male lamb a year old for a burnt offering; ⁸² a single male goat for a sin offering; ⁸³ and for the peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahira son of Enan. ⁸⁴ These were the offerings of the Israelite leaders for the dedication of the altar when it was anointed: twelve silver dishes, twelve silver bowls, and twelve gold pans. ⁸⁵ Each silver dish weighed 130 shekels, and each bowl seventy shekels. Altogether, the silver of these utensils weighed 2,400 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel. ⁸⁶ The twelve gold pans filled with incense weighed ten shekels each, according to the sanctuary shekel. Altogether, the gold of the pans weighed 120 shekels. ⁸⁷ The total number of animals for the burnt offering came to twelve young bulls, twelve rams, and twelve male lambs a year old, along with their grain offering. Twelve male goats were used for the sin offering. ⁸⁸ The total number of animals for the peace offerings came to twenty-four oxen, sixty rams, sixty male goats, and sixty male lambs a year old. These were the offerings for the dedication of the altar after it was anointed. ⁸⁹ When Moses entered the tent of meeting to speak with the Lord, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the atonement cover on the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubim; thus the Lord spoke to him.

Numbers

8 Then the Lord spoke to Moses with these words, ² "Speak to Aaron and instruct him, 'When you arrange the lamps, ensure that all seven illuminate the area in front of the lampstand.'"

³ Aaron complied; he arranged the lamps to face forward on the lampstand, just as the Lord had instructed Moses. ⁴ This is the craftsmanship of the lampstand: it was crafted from hammered gold, from its base to its decorative blossoms. It was made according to the pattern the Lord had shown Moses.

⁵ The Lord addressed Moses again, with these words,

⁶ "Select the Levites from among the Israelites and purify them. ⁷ To cleanse them, do the following: sprinkle them with purifying water, have them shave their entire bodies with a razor, and wash their clothes. Thus they will purify themselves. ⁸ Have them take a bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil; and take a second bull for a sin offering. ⁹ Bring the Levites to the front of the tent of meeting and gather the entire Israelite community.

¹⁰ Present the Levites before the Lord, and the Israelites shall lay their hands on the Levites. ¹¹ Aaron shall present the Levites before the Lord as a wave offering from the Israelites, so that they may be ready to perform the service of the Lord. ¹² The Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls; then offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to the Lord, to make atonement for the Levites. ¹³ Have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons and present them as a wave offering to the Lord. ¹⁴ In this manner, you shall set the Levites apart from the other Israelites, and the Levites shall be mine. ¹⁵ After you have purified the Levites and presented them as a wave offering, they may come to serve at the tent of meeting. ¹⁶ They are given entirely to me from among the Israelites. I have taken them for myself instead of the firstborn of every womb, the firstborn of all the Israelites. ¹⁷ For every firstborn in Israel, both human and animal, is mine. On the day I struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, I set them apart for myself. ¹⁸ I have taken the Levites instead of every firstborn among the Israelites. ¹⁹ I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the Israelites, to perform the service at the tent of meeting on behalf of the Israelites and to make atonement for them, so that no affliction will come upon the Israelites when they approach the sanctuary." ²⁰ Moses, Aaron, and the entire Israelite community did with the Levites just as the Lord commanded Moses. ²¹ The Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes. Aaron presented them as a wave offering before the Lord and made atonement for them to cleanse them. ²² Afterwards, the Levites went in to perform their duties at the tent of meeting under the supervision of Aaron and his sons. They did with the Levites just as the Lord commanded Moses. ²³ The Lord addressed Moses with these words, ²⁴ "This is what applies to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upwards, they shall enter to perform service in the work of the tent of meeting. ²⁵ But at the age of fifty, they shall retire from regular service and work no longer. ²⁶ They may assist their brothers in fulfilling their duties at the tent of meeting, but they shall not perform the work themselves. This is how you shall assign the responsibilities of the Levites."

9 The Lord spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, during the first month of the second year after they had left Egypt, saying, ² "The Israelites are to observe the Passover at its designated time. ³ On the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight, you shall keep it at its appointed time; you shall observe it according to all its statutes and regulations." ⁴ So Moses instructed the Israelites to observe the Passover. ⁵ And they did so in the wilderness of Sinai, at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month, in accordance with all that the Lord had commanded Moses, the Israelites did. ⁶ However, some men were unclean due to contact with a dead body, and they could not observe the Passover on that day. They approached Moses and Aaron on that day ⁷ and said, "We are unclean because of a dead body, but why should we be excluded from presenting the Lord's offering at its appointed time with the other Israelites?" ⁸ Moses responded, "Wait here until I hear what the Lord commands concerning you." ⁹ Then the Lord spoke to Moses and said, ¹⁰ "Speak to the Israelites, saying, 'If any of you or your descendants are unclean because of a dead body or are travelling, they may still observe the Passover to the Lord. ¹¹ On the fourteenth day of the second month, at twilight, they shall observe it; they shall partake of it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. ¹² They must not leave any of it until morning, nor break any of its bones. They must observe it according to all the statutes of the Passover. ¹³ But if a person who is clean and not on a journey refrains from observing the Passover, that person shall be cut off from their people for not presenting the Lord's offering at its appointed time. They will bear the guilt of their sin. ¹⁴ If a foreigner resides among you and wishes to observe the Passover to the Lord, they must do so according to its statutes and regulations. You shall have the same law for both the foreigner and the native-born." ¹⁵ On the day the tabernacle, the tent of the testimony, was set up, the cloud covered it. From evening until morning, the cloud over the tabernacle appeared as fire. ¹⁶ This was the regular pattern; the cloud covered it by day, and by night it appeared as fire. ¹⁷ Whenever the cloud lifted from above the tent, the Israelites would set out; and wherever the cloud settled, there the Israelites would camp. ¹⁸ At the Lord's command, the Israelites would set out, and at his command, they would camp. As long as the cloud stayed over the tabernacle, they remained encamped. ¹⁹ Even when the cloud lingered over the tabernacle for many days, the Israelites obeyed the Lord's command and did not set out. ²⁰ If sometimes the cloud was over the tabernacle for only a few days, at the Lord's command they would camp, and then at his command, they would set out. ²¹ If the cloud remained only from evening until morning, when it lifted in the morning, they would set out. Whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud lifted, they would set out. ²² Whether it was two days, a month, or a year that the cloud stayed over the tabernacle, the Israelites remained encamped and did not set out; but when it lifted, they would set out. ²³ At the Lord's command, they camped, and at the Lord's command, they set out. They obeyed the Lord's instructions, in accordance with his command through Moses.

Numbers

10 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying: ² "Craft two trumpets of hammered silver for yourself; use them for summoning the congregation and for breaking camp. ³ When both trumpets are blown, the whole assembly shall gather before you at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ⁴ If only one trumpet is blown, then the leaders, the heads of the clans of Israel, shall assemble before you. ⁵ When an alarm is sounded, the camps stationed on the east side shall set out. ⁶ When an alarm is sounded a second time, the camps on the south side shall set out. An alarm is to be sounded for them to break camp. ⁷ To convene the assembly, blow the trumpets, but do not sound an alarm. ⁸ The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets. This shall be a lasting ordinance for you throughout your generations. ⁹ When you go to war in your land against an enemy who oppresses you, sound an alarm with the trumpets. Then you will be remembered by the Lord your God and be rescued from your enemies. ¹⁰ On your days of rejoicing, your appointed festivals, and at the beginning of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, and they shall be a memorial before your God. I am the Lord your God." ¹¹ On the twentieth day of the second month in the second year, the cloud lifted from above the tabernacle of the covenant law. ¹² The Israelites set out from the wilderness of Sinai and travelled from place to place until the cloud settled in the wilderness of Paran. ¹³ They set out for the first time at the Lord's command through Moses. ¹⁴ The banner of the camp of Judah set out first, by their divisions, with Nahshon son of Amminadab in command. ¹⁵ Nethanel son of Zuar led the division of the tribe of Issachar, ¹⁶ Eliab son of Helon led the division of the tribe of Zebulun. ¹⁷ Then the tabernacle was dismantled, and the Gershonites and Merarites, who carried it, set out. ¹⁸ The banner of the camp of Reuben set out next, by their divisions, with Elizur son of Shedeur in command. ¹⁹ Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai led the division of the tribe of Simeon, ²⁰ Eliasaph son of Deuel led the division of the tribe of Gad. ²¹ Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy objects. The tabernacle was to be set up before their arrival. ²² The banner of the camp of Ephraim set out next, by their divisions, with Elishama son of Ammihud in command. ²³ Gamaliel son of Pedahzur led the division of the tribe of Manasseh, ²⁴ and Abidan son of Gideon led the division of the tribe of Benjamin. ²⁵ Finally, the banner of the camp of Dan, which formed the rear guard for all the camps, set out by their divisions, with Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai in command. ²⁶ Pagiel son of Ochran led the division of the tribe of Asher, ²⁷ Ahira son of Enan led the division of the tribe of Naphtali. ²⁸ This was the marching order for the Israelite divisions as they set out. ²⁹ Moses said to Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out to the place which the Lord has promised to give us. Come with us and we will treat you well, for the Lord has promised good things to Israel.”³⁰ He replied, “I will not go; I am returning to my own land and my own people.”³¹ Moses urged, “Please do not leave us. You know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you can be our guide.”³² If you come with us, we will share with you whatever good things the Lord grants us.”³³ So they set out from the mountain of the Lord and travelled for three days. The ark of the covenant of the Lord went ahead of them during those three days to find a resting place for them.³⁴ The Lord’s cloud was above them by day as they set out from the camp.³⁵ Whenever the ark set out, Moses said, “Rise up, Lord! May your enemies be scattered and your foes flee before you.”³⁶ Whenever it came to rest, he said, “Return, Lord, to the many thousands of Israel.”

Numbers

11 The people began to grumble about their misfortunes in the hearing of the Lord, and when the Lord heard it, his anger was kindled. The fire of the Lord burned among them and consumed some at the outskirts of the camp.² The people cried out to Moses, and when Moses prayed to the Lord, the fire abated.³ That place was therefore called Taberah, because the fire of the Lord had burned among them.⁴ The mixed multitude among them began to crave other food, and the Israelites also started weeping again, saying, “Who will give us meat to eat?”⁵ We remember the fish we ate freely in Egypt, the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions, and garlic.⁶ But now our appetite is gone; there is nothing but this manna to look at!”⁷ The manna was like coriander seed and had the appearance of resin.⁸ The people went about gathering it, and ground it in mills or crushed it in mortars. They boiled it in pots and made it into cakes, and it tasted like something made with olive oil.⁹ When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna would come down with it.¹⁰ Moses heard the people of every family weeping at the entrance of their tents. The Lord’s anger was greatly aroused, and Moses was troubled.¹¹ Moses said to the Lord, “Why have you brought this trouble upon your servant? Why have I not found favour in your eyes, that you lay the burden of all these people on me?”¹² Did I conceive all these people? Did I give birth to them, that you should say to me, ‘Carry them in your arms as a nurse carries a nursing infant, to the land you promised their ancestors?’¹³ Where am I to find meat to give to all these people? They keep wailing to me, ‘Give us meat to eat!’¹⁴ I am unable to bear the responsibility of all these people alone; it is too overwhelming for me.¹⁵ If this is how you are going to treat me, please kill me now—if I have found favour in your eyes—and do not let me see my own ruin.”¹⁶ The Lord said to Moses, “Gather for me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and their officers. Bring them to the tent of meeting, and have them stand there with you.”¹⁷ I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take some of the Spirit that is on you and put it on them. They will share the burden of the people with you so that you will not have to carry it alone.¹⁸ Tell the people: ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat, for you have wept in the hearing of the Lord, saying, “Who will give us meat to eat? We were better off in Egypt!” Therefore the Lord will give you meat, and you shall eat.’¹⁹ You shall eat it not just for one day, or two days, or five, ten, or twenty days,²⁰ but for a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you, because you have rejected the Lord who is among you, and have wailed before him, saying, “Why did we ever leave Egypt?””²¹ Moses said, “Here I am among six hundred thousand men on foot, and you say, ‘I will give them meat to eat for a whole month!’”²² Would there be enough if flocks and herds were slaughtered for them? Would there be enough if all the fish in the sea were caught for them?”²³ The Lord said to Moses, “Is there any limit to the Lord’s power? Now you shall see whether my word will come true for you or not.”²⁴ So Moses went out and told the people what the Lord had said. He gathered seventy elders of the people and had them stand around the tent.²⁵ Then the Lord came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the Spirit that was on him and placed it on the seventy elders. When the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but did not do so again.²⁶ However, two men had remained in the camp; one was named Eldad and the other Medad. The Spirit also rested on them, and they prophesied in the camp.²⁷ A young man hurried to Moses and informed him, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”²⁸ Joshua son of Nun, who had been Moses’ assistant from his youth, spoke up and said, “Moses, my lord, stop them!”²⁹ But Moses replied,

Numbers

"Are you concerned on my behalf? I wish that all the Lord's people were prophets and that the Lord would put his Spirit on them!" ³⁰ Afterwards, Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp. ³¹ A wind went out from the Lord and brought quail from the sea, and let them fall beside the camp, about a day's journey on this side and a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, about two cubits deep on the ground. ³² The people spent all that day, all night, and all the next day gathering the quail. The least anyone gathered was ten homers. They spread them out all around the camp. ³³ But while the meat was still between their teeth, before it was consumed, the anger of the Lord was kindled against the people, and the Lord struck them with a severe plague. ³⁴ So the place was named Kibroth Hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had craved other food. ³⁵ From Kibroth Hattaavah the people journeyed to Hazeroth, where they stayed.

12 Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses on account of the Cushite woman he had married, for indeed he had married a Cushite. ² They said, "Has the Lord spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken through us as well?" And the Lord heard it. ³ (Moses was an exceedingly humble man, more so than anyone else on the face of the earth.) ⁴ Suddenly, the Lord said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, "Come out to the tent of meeting, all three of you." So they went out. ⁵ The Lord descended in a pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance of the tent. He called Aaron and Miriam, and when they both stepped forward, ⁶ He said, "Hear my words: If there is a prophet among you, I, the Lord, will reveal myself to them in visions and speak to them in dreams. ⁷ This is not the case with my servant Moses; he is faithful in all my house. ⁸ With him, I speak face to face, clearly and not in riddles; he beholds the form of the Lord. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?" ⁹ The anger of the Lord burned against them, and He departed. ¹⁰ When the cloud lifted from above the tent, Miriam's skin became leprous, as white as snow. Aaron turned toward her and saw she had a defiling skin disease. ¹¹ Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord, I beg you, do not hold this sin against us, for we have acted foolishly and sinned. ¹² Please, do not let her be like a stillborn infant whose flesh is half eaten away at birth." ¹³ So Moses earnestly pleaded with the Lord, "Please, God, heal her!" ¹⁴ The Lord replied to Moses, "If her father had spit in her face, would she not be in disgrace for seven days? Confine her outside the camp for seven days; after that, she may be brought back." ¹⁵ So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on until she was brought back. ¹⁶ Afterwards, the people left Hazeroth and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

13 Then the Lord spoke to Moses, and said, ² "Send men to explore the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites. You shall send a man from each of their fathers' tribes, each one a leader among them." ³ So at the Lord's command, Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran, all of them leaders of the Israelites. ⁴ These were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zakkur; ⁵ from Simeon's tribe, Shaphat, son of Hori; ⁶ from Judah's tribe, Caleb, son of Jephunneh; ⁷ from Issachar's tribe, Igal son of Joseph; ⁸ from Ephraim's tribe, Hoshea son of Nun; ⁹ from Benjamin's tribe, Palti, son of Raphu; ¹⁰ from Zebulun's tribe, Gaddiel, son of Sodi; ¹¹ from the tribe of Manasseh, which is part of Joseph, Gaddi son of Susi; ¹² from Dan's tribe, Ammiel, son of Gemalli; ¹³ from Asher's tribe, Sethur, son of Michael; ¹⁴ from Naphtali's tribe, Nahbi, son of Vophsi; ¹⁵ from Gad's tribe, Geuel, the son of Machi. ¹⁶ These are the men Moses sent to explore the land. Moses also gave Hoshea son of Nun the name Joshua. ¹⁷ When Moses sent them to explore the land of Canaan, he instructed them, "Go up through the Negev and then into the hill country. ¹⁸ See what the land is like, and whether the people who dwell there are strong or weak, few or many. ¹⁹ What kind of land do they inhabit? Is it good or bad? What are the towns like? Are they unwalled or fortified? ²⁰ And how is the soil? Is it fertile or poor? Are there trees on it or not? Be courageous and bring back some of the fruit of the land." Now it was the season for the first ripe grapes. ²¹ So they went up and explored the land from the wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, towards Lebo-hamath. ²² They went up through the Negev and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the descendants of Anak, were. (Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.) ²³ When they reached the Valley of Eshcol, they cut off a branch bearing a single cluster of grapes. Two of them carried it on a pole between them, along with some pomegranates and figs. ²⁴ That place was called the Valley of Eshcol because of the cluster of grapes the Israelites cut off there. ²⁵ After forty days, they returned from exploring the land. ²⁶ They came back to Moses and Aaron and the whole Israelite community at Kadesh in the wilderness of Paran. There they reported to them and to the whole assembly and showed them the fruit of the land. ²⁷ They gave Moses this account: "We went into the land to which you sent us, and it certainly flows with milk and honey. Here is its fruit. ²⁸ However, the people who live there are powerful, and the cities are fortified and very large. We even saw the descendants of Anak there. ²⁹ The Amalekites live in the Negev; the Hittites, Jebusites, and Amorites dwell in the hill country; and the Canaanites live near the sea and along the Jordan." ³⁰ Then Caleb silenced the people before Moses and said, "We should go up and take possession of the land, for we can certainly prevail over it." ³¹ But the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we are." ³² And they spread among the Israelites a bad report about the land they had explored, saying, "The land we explored devours its inhabitants, and all the people we saw there are of great stature. ³³ We saw the Nephilim there (the descendants of Anak come from the Nephilim). We seemed like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we appeared to them."

Numbers

14 That night, the entire congregation raised their voices and cried aloud, and the people wept. ² All the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron, and the whole assembly said to them, "If only we had perished in Egypt! Or even in this wilderness! ³ Why is the Lord bringing us to this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and children will be taken as plunder. Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?" ⁴ And they said to one another, "Let us appoint a leader and go back to Egypt." ⁵ Then Moses and Aaron fell facedown before the whole assembly of the Israelites gathered there. ⁶ Joshua, son of Nun, and Caleb, son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had explored the land, tore their garments; ⁷ and they said to the entire assembly of the Israelites, "The land we passed through and explored is exceedingly good. ⁸ If the Lord finds favour with us, He will lead us into this land, a land flowing with milk and honey, and give it to us. ⁹ Only do not rebel against the Lord. Do not be afraid of the people of the land, for they will be our prey. Their protection is gone, and the Lord is with us. Do not fear them." ¹⁰ But the whole assembly discussed stoning them. Then the glory of the Lord appeared at the tent of meeting to all the Israelites. ¹¹ The Lord said to Moses, "How long will these people show contempt for Me? How long will they refuse to believe in Me, despite all the signs I have performed among them? ¹² I will strike them with a plague and destroy them, but I will make you into a nation greater and mightier than they." ¹³ Moses said to the Lord, "Then the Egyptians will hear of it! By Your power You brought these people up from among them. ¹⁴ And they will tell the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, Lord, are with these people and that You, Lord, have been seen face to face, that Your cloud stays over them, and that You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. ¹⁵ If You bring about the demise of all these people, the nations who have heard this report about You will say, ¹⁶ 'The Lord was not able to bring these people into the land He promised them on oath, so He destroyed them in the wilderness.' ¹⁷ "Now, let the power of the Lord be great, just as You have declared: ¹⁸ 'The Lord is slow to anger, abounding in love and forgiving sin and rebellion. Yet He does not leave the guilty unpunished; He holds the children accountable for the sin of the parents to the third and fourth generation.' ¹⁹ In accordance with Your great love, forgive the wrongdoing of these people, just as You have pardoned them from the time they left Egypt until now." ²⁰ The Lord replied, "I have pardoned them, as you requested. ²¹ Nevertheless, as surely as I live and as the glory of the Lord fills the whole earth, ²² not one of those who witnessed My glory and the signs I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet disobeyed Me and tested Me ten times— ²³ not one of them will ever see the land I promised on oath to their ancestors. Those who have shown contempt for Me will not see it. ²⁴ But because My servant Caleb has a different spirit and follows Me wholeheartedly, I will bring him into the land he explored, and his descendants will inherit it. ²⁵ Since the Amalekites and the Canaanites are living in the valleys, turn back tomorrow and set out towards the wilderness along the route to the Red Sea." ²⁶ The Lord spoke Moses and Aaron, saying: ²⁷ "How long will this wicked community grumble against Me? I have heard the complaints of these discontented Israelites. ²⁸ So tell them, 'As surely as I live, declares the Lord, I will do to you just as you have spoken: ²⁹ In this wilderness your bodies will fall—every one of you twenty years old or more who was counted in the census and who has complained against Me. ³⁰ None of you will enter the land I swore to make your home, except for Caleb, son of Jephunneh, and Joshua, son of Nun. ³¹ As for your children whom you said would be taken as plunder, I will bring them in to enjoy the land you have rejected. ³² However, your bodies will meet their end in this wilderness. ³³ Your children will be shepherds here for forty years, enduring the consequences of your unfaithfulness, until the last of your bodies lies in the wilderness. ³⁴ For forty years—one year for each of the forty days you explored the land—you will bear the consequences of your sins and know what it is like to have Me against you.' ³⁵ I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will surely do these things to this entire rebellious community, which has banded together against Me. They will meet their end in this wilderness; here they will perish." ³⁶ So the men Moses had sent to explore the land, who returned and made the whole community grumble against him by spreading a negative report about it— ³⁷ these men who were responsible for spreading the negative report about the land were struck down and died of a plague before the Lord. ³⁸ Of the men who went to explore the land, only Joshua, son of Nun, and Caleb, son of Jephunneh, remained alive. ³⁹ When Moses reported this to all the Israelites, they mourned greatly. ⁴⁰ Early the next morning they set out for the highest point in the hill country, saying, "Now we are ready to go up to the land the Lord promised. Indeed, we have sinned!" ⁴¹ But Moses said, "Why are you going against the Lord's command? This will not succeed! ⁴² Do not proceed, for the Lord is not with you. You will face defeat at the hands of your enemies, ⁴³ for the Amalekites and the Canaanites will confront you there. Since you have turned away from the Lord, He will not support you, and you will fall by the sword." ⁴⁴ Nevertheless, in their presumption they went up towards the highest point in the hill country, though neither Moses nor the ark of the Lord's covenant departed from the camp. ⁴⁵ Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down and attacked them and scattered them as far as Hormah.

Numbers

15 Then the Lord spoke to Moses and said, ² "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: 'When you enter the land where you are to dwell, which I am giving to you, ³ and you offer to the Lord a sacrifice by fire, a burnt offering or a sacrifice to fulfil a special vow, or as a voluntary offering or during your appointed festivals, to create a pleasing aroma to the Lord from the herd or the flock, ⁴ then the one who presents his offering shall present to the Lord a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of the finest flour mixed with a quarter of a hin of oil, ⁵ and you shall prepare wine for the drink offering, a quarter of a hin, with the burnt offering or for the sacrifice, for each lamb. ⁶ For a ram, you shall prepare as a grain offering two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a third of a hin of oil, ⁷ and for the drink offering you shall offer a third of a hin of wine, as a pleasing aroma to the Lord. ⁸ When you prepare a bull as a burnt offering or a sacrifice to fulfil a special vow, or as a fellowship offering to the Lord, ⁹ then you shall present with the bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil, ¹⁰ and you shall offer as the drink offering half a hin of wine, as an offering by fire, a pleasing aroma to the Lord. ¹¹ This is how it shall be done for each bull, ram, lamb, or goat. ¹² According to the number you prepare, so you shall do for each one. ¹³ Everyone who is native-born must do these things in this manner when presenting an offering by fire as a pleasing aroma to the Lord. ¹⁴ Whenever a foreigner resides with you or is among you throughout your generations and wishes to make an offering by fire, as a pleasing aroma to the Lord, they shall do as you do. ¹⁵ The assembly shall have the same statute for you and for the foreigner residing among you; it shall be a lasting ordinance throughout your generations. As you are, so shall the foreigner be before the Lord. ¹⁶ One law and one ordinance shall apply to both you and the foreigner residing among you.'" ¹⁷ The Lord addressed Moses, ¹⁸ "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: 'When you enter the land to which I am bringing you, ¹⁹ and you eat of the food of the land, you shall present a portion as an offering to the Lord. ²⁰ From the first of your ground meal you shall present a loaf as an offering; as an offering from the threshing floor, so you shall present it. ²¹ From the first of your ground meal you shall give to the Lord an offering throughout your generations. ²² But if you unintentionally fail to keep any of these commands the Lord gave Moses— ²³ any of the Lord's commands to you through Moses, from the day the Lord gave them and continuing through the generations to come— ²⁴ and if this is done unintentionally without the community being aware of it, then the whole community is to offer a young bull for a burnt offering, as a pleasing aroma to the Lord, along with its prescribed grain offering and drink offering, and a male goat for a sin offering. ²⁵ The priest shall make atonement for the entire Israelite community, and they will be forgiven, for it was not intentional and they have presented to the Lord for their wrong a food offering and a sin offering. ²⁶ The whole Israelite community and the foreigners residing among them will be forgiven, for all the people were involved in the unintentional wrong. ²⁷ If an individual sins unintentionally, that person must bring a year-old female goat for a sin offering. ²⁸ The priest shall make atonement before the Lord for the one who erred by sinning unintentionally, and when atonement has been made, that person will be forgiven. ²⁹ One law applies to everyone who sins unintentionally, whether a native-born Israelite or a foreigner residing among you. ³⁰ However, anyone who sins defiantly, whether native-born or foreigner, shows contempt for the Lord and must be separated from the people of Israel. ³¹ Because they have rejected the Lord's word and violated His commands, they must surely be separated; their guilt remains on them." ³² While the Israelites were in the wilderness, they encountered a man gathering wood on the Sabbath day. ³³ Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses, Aaron, and the whole assembly, ³⁴ and they kept him in custody, because it had not been decided what should be done to him. ³⁵ Then the Lord said to Moses, "The man must be put to death; the whole assembly shall stone him outside the camp." ³⁶ So the assembly took him outside the camp and executed him by stoning, as the Lord commanded Moses. ³⁷ The Lord addressed Moses, ³⁸ "Speak to the Israelites and tell them to make tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put a blue cord on each tassel. ³⁹ These tassels will be for you to look at and remember all the commands of the Lord, that you may obey them and not follow your own hearts and eyes, which lead you to stray. ⁴⁰ Then you will remember to obey all My commands and will be dedicated to your God. ⁴¹ I am the Lord your God, who delivered you from Egypt to be your God."

Numbers

16 Korah son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, along with Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth, from the tribe of Reuben, took men ² and rose up against Moses, accompanied by 250 Israelite men, leaders of the community, chosen from the assembly, men of renown. ³ They gathered together against Moses and Aaron and said to them, "You have gone too far! The whole assembly is holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them. Why then do you raise yourselves above the Lord's assembly?" ⁴ Upon hearing this, Moses prostrated himself. ⁵ He then spoke to Korah and all his followers, saying, "In the morning the Lord will show who belongs to Him and who is holy, and He will bring that person near to Him. The one He chooses, He will bring near to Himself. ⁶ Do this: You, Korah, and all your company, take censers, ⁷ and tomorrow put fire in them and place incense upon them before the Lord. The man whom the Lord chooses shall be the holy one. You have gone too far, you sons of Levi!" ⁸ Moses also said to Korah, "Listen now, you sons of Levi: ⁹ Is it a small thing that the God of Israel has separated you from the rest of the Israelite community to bring you near to Himself to perform the service of the Lord's tabernacle and to stand before the assembly to minister to them? ¹⁰ He has brought you and all your fellow Levites near to Himself, but now you seek the priesthood as well. ¹¹ Therefore, it is against the Lord that you and all your followers have banded together. Who is Aaron that you should grumble against him?" ¹² Then Moses summoned Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, but they said, "We will not come up. ¹³ Is it not enough that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness, but you must also make yourself a ruler over us? ¹⁴ Moreover, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you gouge out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!" ¹⁵ Then Moses became very angry and said to the Lord, "Do not regard their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, nor have I wronged any of them." ¹⁶ Moses instructed Korah,

Numbers

"You and all your followers are to stand before the Lord tomorrow—you, they, and Aaron.¹⁷ Each man is to take his censer and put incense in it—250 censers in all—and bring it before the Lord. You and Aaron are to bring your censers as well."¹⁸ So each of them took his censer, put fire in it, and placed incense on it, and stood with Moses and Aaron at the entrance to the tent of meeting.¹⁹ When Korah had gathered all his followers in opposition at the entrance to the tent of meeting, the glory of the Lord appeared to the entire assembly.²⁰ Then the Lord addressed Moses and Aaron, saying,²¹ "Separate yourselves from this assembly so I may consume them instantly."²² But they fell on their faces and said, "O God, the God who gives breath to all living things, will you be angry with the entire assembly when only one man sins?"²³ And so the Lord spoke to Moses, saying²⁴ "Speak to the assembly, saying, 'Move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.'" ²⁵ Moses rose and went to Dathan and Abiram, accompanied by the elders of Israel. ²⁶ He warned the assembly, "Move back from the tents of these wicked men! Do not touch anything that belongs to them, or you will be swept away because of all their sins."²⁷ So they moved away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the entrances of their tents, along with their wives, children and little ones. ²⁸ Then Moses said, "By this you shall know that the Lord has sent me to do all these works; for it is not of my own doing."²⁹ If these men die a natural death, or if they suffer the fate of all mankind, then the Lord has not sent me. ³⁰ But if the Lord creates something entirely new, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into Sheol, then you will know that these men have shown contempt for the Lord."³¹ As soon as he finished speaking, the ground beneath them split open,³² and the earth opened its mouth and engulfed them and their households, and all those associated with Korah, along with their possessions. ³³ They went down alive into Sheol with all that belonged to them; the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the assembly. ³⁴ At their cries, all the Israelites around them fled, shouting, "The earth might swallow us too!" ³⁵ And fire came forth from the Lord and consumed the 250 men who were offering the incense. ³⁶ And so the Lord spoke to Moses, saying ³⁷

"Tell Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest, to take the censers out of the charred remains and scatter the coals some distance away, for the censers are holy—³⁸ the censers of the men who sinned at the cost of their lives. Have them made into hammered sheets as plating for the altar, for they were presented before the Lord and have become holy. Let them be a sign to the Israelites."³⁹ So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers brought by those who had been burned to death, and they were hammered out to overlay the altar,⁴⁰ as a reminder to the Israelites that no one except a descendant of Aaron should come to burn incense before the Lord, or he would become like Korah and his followers—just as the Lord had spoken to him through Moses. ⁴¹ But the next day the entire Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron, saying, "You have killed the Lord's people."⁴² When the assembly gathered in opposition to Moses and Aaron and turned toward the tent of meeting, the cloud covered it and the glory of the Lord appeared. ⁴³ Moses and Aaron approached the front of the tent of meeting, ⁴⁴ And so the Lord spoke to Moses, saying ⁴⁵ "Get away from this assembly so that I may consume them instantly." And they fell on their faces. ⁴⁶ Then Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer and put fire in it from the altar, and place incense on it; then hurry to the assembly to make atonement for them. Wrath has gone out from the Lord; the plague has begun."⁴⁷ So Aaron did as Moses said, and ran into the midst of the assembly. The plague had already begun among the people, but Aaron offered the incense and made atonement for them. ⁴⁸ He stood between the living and the dead, and the plague was halted. ⁴⁹ But 14,700 people perished from the plague, in addition to those who had died because of Korah. ⁵⁰ Then Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance to the tent of meeting, for the plague had been stopped.

17 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to the Israelites and collect from them a staff for each ancestral tribe: twelve staffs, one from each leader of their ancestral tribes. Inscribe each man's name on his staff. ³ On the staff of Levi, inscribe Aaron's name, as there must be one staff for the leader of each ancestral tribe. ⁴ Place them in the tent of meeting before the testimony, where I meet with you. ⁵ The staff belonging to the man whom I choose will sprout, and this will put an end to the grumbings of the Israelites against you.”

Numbers

⁶ Moses spoke to the Israelites, and their leaders handed him twelve staffs, one for each leader of their ancestral tribes, including Aaron's staff. ⁷ Moses set the staffs before the Lord in the tent of the testimony. ⁸ The following day, Moses entered the tent and saw that Aaron's staff, representing the tribe of Levi, had sprouted, blossomed, and produced almonds. ⁹ Moses then brought out all the staffs from the Lord's presence to all the Israelites. They examined them, and each leader took back his own staff. ¹⁰ The Lord instructed Moses, “Return Aaron's staff in front of the testimony, to be kept as a sign against the rebellious, so that their grumbings against Me may cease and they do not die.” ¹¹ Moses followed the Lord's instructions precisely. ¹² The Israelites said to Moses, “We are doomed! We are perishing, we are all perishing!” ¹³ Anyone who approaches the tabernacle of the Lord will die. Are we all to perish completely?”

18 The Lord spoke to Aaron, saying, “You, your sons, and your family are to bear the responsibility for any offences associated with the sanctuary, and you and your sons alone are to bear the responsibility for any offences related to your priesthood. ² Bring your fellow Levites, the tribe of your ancestors, to join you and assist you while you and your sons minister before the tent of the testimony. ³ They shall be responsible to you and perform duties for the whole tent, but they must not approach the furnishings of the sanctuary or the altar, lest both they and you die. ⁴ They are to join you and take care of the duties of the tent of meeting, all the work at the tent, but no unauthorised person may come near you. ⁵ You shall be responsible for the duties of the sanctuary and the altar, so that no wrath will fall upon the Israelites again. ⁶ I have selected your fellow Levites from among the Israelites as a gift to you, dedicated to the Lord, to perform the work at the tent of meeting. ⁷ But only you and your sons shall serve as priests in relation to everything at the altar and inside the veil. I am giving you the priesthood as a gift. Anyone else who comes near shall be put to death.” ⁸ Then the Lord said to Aaron, “I have put you in charge of my offerings; all the holy gifts the Israelites present to me, I give to you and your sons as your portion, a permanent share. ⁹ This shall be yours from the most holy offerings, kept from the fire; from all their gifts, whether grain, sin, or guilt offerings, they are most holy to you and your sons. ¹⁰ Eat it as something most holy; every male shall eat it. Regard it as holy.

¹¹ This also is yours: whatever is set aside from the gifts of all the wave offerings of the Israelites. I give them to you and your sons and daughters as a perpetual share. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it. ¹² I give you all the best of the fresh olive oil and all the best of the fresh wine and grain, the firstfruits they give to the Lord. ¹³ The first ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the Lord, shall be yours. Everyone in your household who is clean may eat it.

¹⁴ Everything devoted to the Lord in Israel shall be yours. ¹⁵ The first offspring of every womb, both human and animal, that is offered to the Lord is yours. But you must redeem every firstborn son and the firstborn of unclean animals. ¹⁶ When they are a month old, you must redeem them at the redemption price of five shekels of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel, which is twenty gerahs. ¹⁷ But the firstborn of a cow, a sheep, or a goat you shall not redeem; they are holy. Sprinkle their blood on the altar and burn their fat as a food offering, a pleasing aroma to the Lord. ¹⁸ Their meat shall be yours, just as the breast of the wave offering and the right thigh are yours. ¹⁹ All the offerings of the holy gifts, which the Israelites present to the Lord, I give to you and your sons and daughters as a perpetual share. It is an everlasting covenant of salt before the Lord for both you and your descendants. ²⁰ The Lord said to Aaron, “You shall have no inheritance in their land, nor own any portion among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the Israelites. ²¹ To the Levites, I give all the tithes in Israel as their inheritance in return for the work they do while serving at the tent of meeting. ²² From now on, the Israelites must not approach the tent of meeting, or they will bear the consequences of their sin and will die. ²³ Only the Levites shall perform the service of the tent of meeting and bear their own guilt. This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come. They will have no inheritance among the Israelites. ²⁴ Instead, I give to the Levites as their inheritance the tithes that the Israelites present as an offering to the Lord. That is why I have said concerning them: ‘They shall have no inheritance among the Israelites.’” ²⁵ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁶ “Tell the Levites: ‘When you receive from the Israelites the tithe I give you as your inheritance, you must offer a tenth of that tithe as a contribution to the Lord.²⁷ Your offering will be credited to you as grain from the threshing floor or juice from the wine vat.²⁸ In this way, you shall also present an offering to the Lord from all the tithes you receive from the Israelites. From these tithes, you must give the Lord's portion to Aaron the priest.²⁹ You are to offer the finest and most sacred part of everything given to you as the Lord's portion.'³⁰ Say to them, 'When you present the best part, it will be credited to you as the product of the threshing floor or the wine vat.³¹ You and your households may consume the remainder anywhere, for it is your compensation for your work at the tent of meeting.³² By offering the best part, you will not be guilty in this matter; then you will not defile the holy offerings of the Israelites, and you will not die.'

Numbers

19 Then the Lord spoke to both Moses and Aaron:² "This is the statute of the law that the Lord has commanded: Speak to the Israelites that they bring you a red heifer without defect or blemish, one that has never been yoked.³ You shall give it to Eleazar the priest, and it shall be taken outside the camp and slaughtered in his sight.⁴ Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle it seven times towards the front of the tent of meeting.⁵ The heifer shall then be burned in his presence; its hide, flesh, blood, and offal shall all be consumed by fire.⁶ The priest shall take cedar wood, hyssop, and scarlet wool, and throw them into the midst of the burning heifer.⁷ Afterwards, the priest shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and then he may come into the camp; however, he will remain ceremonially unclean until evening.⁸ The one who burns the heifer shall also wash his clothes and bathe in water, and he will be unclean until evening.⁹ A man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and place them in a clean area outside the camp. They shall be kept by the Israelite community for use in the water of purification; it is for cleansing from sin.¹⁰ The man who gathers the ashes must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean until evening. This shall be a lasting ordinance for the Israelites and the foreigners residing among them.¹¹ Anyone who comes into contact with a human corpse will be unclean for seven days.¹² They must cleanse themselves with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then they will be clean. If they do not purify themselves on the third and seventh days, they will not be clean.¹³ Anyone who touches a dead body and does not purify themselves defiles the Lord's tabernacle. They must be cut off from Israel, as the water of purification has not been sprinkled on them; they remain unclean.¹⁴ This is the law when a person dies in a tent: anyone who enters the tent and anyone who is in it will be unclean for seven days.¹⁵ Every open container without a lid fastened on it will be unclean.¹⁶ Anyone in the open field who touches someone killed by a sword or who has died naturally, or touches a human bone or a grave, will be unclean for seven days.¹⁷ For the unclean person, take some of the ashes from the burnt purification offering and add running water to them in a container.¹⁸ A clean person shall take hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, all the furnishings, and the people who were there. He must also sprinkle anyone who has touched a bone, a grave, or someone who was killed or died naturally.¹⁹ The clean person shall sprinkle the unclean on the third and seventh days, and on the seventh day he shall purify them. They must wash their clothes and bathe in water, and by evening they will be clean.²⁰ But if the unclean person does not purify themselves, they must be cut off from the assembly, for they have defiled the sanctuary of the Lord. The water of purification has not been sprinkled on them, and they are unclean.²¹ This shall be a lasting ordinance for them. The one who sprinkles the water of purification must wash his clothes, and anyone who touches the water of purification will be unclean until evening.²² Anything that an unclean person touches becomes unclean, and anyone who touches it will be unclean until evening."

20 In the first month, the entire Israelite congregation arrived at the wilderness of Zin, and they stayed at Kadesh. Miriam died there and was buried.² There was no water for the community, and they gathered against Moses and Aaron.³ The people contended with Moses and said, "If only we had perished when our brethren perished before the Lord!⁴ Why have you brought the Lord's people into this wilderness, where we and our livestock are at risk of perishing?⁵ Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to this dreadful place? It is not a place of grain, figs, vines, or pomegranates, and there is no water to drink!"⁶ Moses and Aaron went from the assembly to the entrance of the tent of meeting and fell on their faces, and the glory of the Lord appeared to them. ⁷ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ⁸ "Take the staff, and you and your brother Aaron gather the assembly. Speak to the rock before their eyes, and it will yield its water. You will bring forth water from the rock for the community and their livestock to drink." ⁹ Moses took the staff from the presence of the Lord, as he was instructed. ¹⁰ Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly in front of the rock, and he said to them, "Listen, you rebels, must we bring water for you out of this rock?" ¹¹ Then Moses raised his hand and struck the rock twice with his staff. Water gushed out abundantly, and the community and their livestock drank. ¹² But the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not trust in me to honour me as holy in the sight of the Israelites, you shall not bring this assembly into the land I have given them." ¹³ These were the waters of Meribah, where the Israelites contended with the Lord, and he proved himself holy among them. ¹⁴ Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, saying: "This is what your brother Israel says: You know all the hardship that has befallen us. ¹⁵ Our ancestors went down to Egypt, and we lived there for many years. The Egyptians mistreated us and our ancestors, ¹⁶ but when we cried out to the Lord, he heard our voice and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt. Now we are at Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory. ¹⁷ Please let us pass through your land. We will not go through any field or vineyard or drink water from any well. We will travel along the King's Highway and not turn to the right or the left until we have passed through your territory." ¹⁸ But Edom replied: "You shall not pass through here; if you try, we will come out against you with the sword." ¹⁹ The Israelites said to him, "We will go along the main road, and if we or our livestock drink any of your water, we will pay for it. We only wish to pass through on foot—nothing more." ²⁰ But he said, "You shall not pass through." Then Edom came out against them with a large and powerful force. ²¹ Since Edom refused to allow Israel to pass through their territory, Israel turned away from them. ²² The entire Israelite community set out from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor. ²³ At Mount Hor, near the border of Edom, the Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron, ²⁴ "Aaron will be gathered to his people, for he shall not enter the land I have given to the Israelites, because you rebelled against my command at the waters of Meribah. ²⁵ Bring Aaron and his son Eleazar up the slopes of Mount Hor. ²⁶ Remove Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar, for Aaron will be gathered to his people and will die there." ²⁷ Moses followed the Lord's instructions: they ascended Mount Hor in the sight of the whole community. ²⁸ Moses removed Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar. Aaron died there on the mountain top. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. ²⁹ When the whole community saw that Aaron had died, all the Israelites mourned for him for thirty days.

Numbers

21 When the Canaanite king of Arad, who resided in the Negev, heard that Israel was approaching by the route of Atharim, he engaged in battle against Israel and took some of them captive. ² Then Israel vowed to the Lord, saying, "If you will indeed deliver this people into our hands, we will utterly destroy their cities." ³ The Lord heeded Israel's plea and handed the Canaanites over to them. They completely destroyed them and their towns, and the place was named Hormah. ⁴ They journeyed from Mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to circumvent the land of Edom; but the people became impatient along the way. ⁵ The people spoke against God and Moses, saying, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to perish in the wilderness? There is no bread, there is no water, and we loathe this wretched food!" ⁶ Then the Lord sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. ⁷ The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to remove the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. ⁸ The Lord instructed Moses, "Make a fiery serpent and set it on a pole; anyone who is bitten and looks at it will live." ⁹ So Moses fashioned a bronze serpent and placed it on a pole; whenever a serpent bit someone, and that person looked at the bronze serpent, they survived. ¹⁰ The Israelites moved on and encamped at Obboth. ¹¹ They set out from Obboth and camped at Iye-abarim, in the wilderness facing Moab toward the east. ¹² From there they continued and camped in the Zered Valley. ¹³ They set out from there and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness extending into Amorite territory; for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.¹⁴ This is why it is mentioned in the Book of the Wars of the Lord: "Waheb in Suphah, and the wadis of the Arnon,¹⁵ and the slopes of the wadis that extend to the site of Ar and lie along the border of Moab."¹⁶ From there they continued to Beer, the well where the Lord said to Moses, "Gather the people together and I will give them water."¹⁷ Then Israel sang joyfully: "Spring up, O well! Let us sing to it!"¹⁸ The well, which the leaders dug, which the nobles of the people hollowed out with sceptres and staffs." Then they went from the wilderness to Mattanah,¹⁹ from Mattanah they travelled to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel they went to Bamoth,²⁰ and from Bamoth to the valley in the land of Moab, at the top of Pisgah, which overlooks the wasteland.²¹ Israel sent envoys to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,²² "Let us pass through your land. We will not turn aside into field or vineyard, nor drink water from any well. We will travel along the King's Highway until we have passed through your territory."²³ But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. Instead, he mustered all his people and went out against Israel in the wilderness, and came to Jahaz and fought against Israel.²⁴ Israel struck him with the edge of the sword and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the Ammonites, for the border of the Ammonites was fortified.²⁵ Israel captured all the cities of the Amorites and settled in them, including Heshbon and all its surrounding settlements.²⁶ Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken all his land from him as far as the Arnon.²⁷ Therefore those who speak in proverbs say, "Come to Heshbon and let it be rebuilt; let the city of Sihon be restored."²⁸ For fire went out from Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon; it consumed Ar of Moab, the lords of Arnon's heights.²⁹ Woe to you, Moab! You are ruined, people of Chemosh! He has given his sons as fugitives and his daughters into captivity to Sihon king of the Amorites.³⁰ But we have shot them down; Heshbon is destroyed as far as Dibon, and we have laid waste as far as Nophah, which reaches to Medeba."³¹ So Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.³² Moses sent spies to Jazer, and they captured its surrounding settlements and drove out the Amorites who were there.³³ Then they turned and went up by the way of Bashan, and Og king of Bashan, along with all his people, came out to meet them in battle at Edrei.³⁴ But the Lord said to Moses, "Do not be afraid of him, for I have delivered him into your hands, along with all his people and his land. Do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon."³⁵ So they struck him down, along with his sons and his whole army, leaving no survivors, and they took possession of his land.

Numbers

22 The Israelites journeyed to the plains of Moab and camped along the Jordan, opposite Jericho.² Balak, son of Zippor, witnessed all that Israel had done to the Amorites.³ Moab was greatly afraid because of the people, for they were numerous; Moab was filled with dread because of the Israelites.⁴ The Moabites said to the elders of Midian, "This horde will consume everything around us, as an ox eats up the grass of the field." Balak, son of Zippor, was the king of Moab at that time.⁵ He sent messengers to summon Balaam, son of Beor, who was at Pethor near the Euphrates, in his native land. Balak said: "A people has come out of Egypt; they cover the face of the land and have settled next to me."⁶ Please come and curse these people for me, for they are too powerful for me. Perhaps I will be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land. I know that whoever you bless is blessed, and whoever you curse is cursed."⁷ The elders of Moab and Midian departed, taking with them the fee for divination. When they arrived at Balaam's, they conveyed Balak's message to him.⁸ Balaam said to them, "Spend the night here, and I will bring you back the answer the Lord gives me." So the Moabite leaders stayed with him.⁹ The Lord approached Balaam and inquired, "Who are these men with you?"¹⁰ Balaam replied to God, "Balak, son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent me this message:¹¹ 'A people has come out of Egypt and covers the face of the land. Come now, curse them for me; perhaps I will be able to fight them and drive them out.'"¹² But God said to Balaam, "Do not go with them. You must not curse the people, for they are blessed."¹³ Balaam rose in the morning and told Balak's officials, "Return to your own land, for the Lord has refused to let me go with you."¹⁴ The Moabite officials returned to Balak and reported, "Balaam refused to come with us."¹⁵ Balak sent other officials, more numerous and more distinguished than the first.¹⁶ They came to Balaam and said, "This is what Balak, son of Zippor, says: Do not let anything prevent you from coming to me,¹⁷ for I will reward you richly and do whatever you ask. Please come and curse these people for me.”¹⁸ Balaam answered them, “Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not do anything great or small beyond the command of the Lord my God.”¹⁹ Now, please stay here tonight as well, so that I may find out what else the Lord will tell me.”²⁰ That night, God came to Balaam and said, “Since these men have come to call you, go with them, but only do what I tell you.”²¹ Balaam rose early, prepared his donkey, and accompanied the Moabite officials.²² But God was angry when he went, and the angel of the Lord stood in the road to oppose him. Balaam was riding his donkey, and his two servants were with him.²³ When the donkey saw the angel of the Lord standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand, it turned off the road into a field. Balaam beat it to bring it back onto the road.²⁴ The angel of the Lord then stood in a narrow path through the vineyards, with walls on both sides.²⁵ When the donkey saw the angel of the Lord, it pressed against the wall, crushing Balaam’s foot against it. So he beat the donkey again.²⁶ The angel of the Lord moved on further and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn, either to the right or to the left.²⁷ Seeing the angel of the Lord, the donkey lay down under Balaam, causing him to become angry and strike it with his staff.²⁸ Then the Lord enabled the donkey to speak, and it said to Balaam, “What have I done to you to make you strike me these three times?”²⁹ Balaam replied to the donkey, “You have embarrassed me! If only I had a sword in my hand, I would have killed you by now.”³⁰ The donkey said to Balaam, “Am I not your own donkey, which you have ridden all your life to this day? Have I ever been in the habit of doing this to you?” “No,” he replied.³¹ Then the Lord allowed Balaam to see clearly, and he perceived the angel of the Lord standing in the road with his sword drawn. So he bowed low and fell facedown.³² The angel of the Lord asked him, “Why have you struck your donkey these three times? I have come here to oppose you because your path is a reckless one before me.”³³ The donkey saw me and turned aside from me these three times. If it had not turned aside, I would certainly have taken your life by now, but I would have spared it.”³⁴ Balaam said to the angel of the Lord, “I have sinned. I did not realise you were standing in the road to oppose me. If you are displeased, I will go back.”³⁵ The angel of the Lord said to Balaam, “Go with the men, but speak only what I tell you.” So Balaam continued with Balak’s officials.³⁶ Upon hearing of Balaam’s approach, Balak went out to meet him at the Moabite town on the Arnon border, at the edge of his territory.³⁷ Balak said to Balaam, “Did I not send you an urgent summons? Why did you not come to me? Am I really unable to reward you?”³⁸ Balaam replied, “Well, I have come to you now. But can I say just anything? I must speak only what God puts in my mouth.”³⁹ Balaam then accompanied Balak to Kiriath Huzoth.⁴⁰ Balak offered cattle and sheep, and shared them with Balaam and the officials who were with him.⁴¹ The next morning, Balak took Balaam up to the high places of Baal, and from there he could see part of the Israelite camp.

Numbers

23 Balaam instructed Balak, “Construct seven altars for me here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”² Balak complied with Balaam’s instructions, and together they sacrificed a bull and a ram on each altar.³ Balaam then said to Balak, “Remain by your offering while I go. Perhaps the Lord will meet with me, and whatever He reveals, I will convey to you.” So he went to a desolate hill.⁴ God encountered Balaam, and Balaam said, “I have erected seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each.”⁵ The Lord placed a word in Balaam’s mouth and instructed, “Return to Balak and deliver this message.”⁶ Balaam returned to Balak, who was standing beside his offering with all the Moabite leaders.⁷ Balaam began his oracle: “Balak brought me from Aram, Moab’s king from the eastern mountains, saying, ‘Come, curse Jacob for me; come, denounce Israel.’⁸ How can I speak against those whom God has not spoken against? How can I oppose those whom the Lord has not opposed?⁹ From the rocky peaks I see them, from the hills I observe them. Here is a people who live apart and do not count themselves among the nations.¹⁰ Who can count the dust of Jacob, or number even a fourth of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and may my end be like theirs!”¹¹ Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, but you have blessed them instead!”¹² Balaam replied, “Must I not speak what the Lord has put in my mouth?”¹³ Balak then said, “Come with me to another place where you can see them; you will only see a part of them, not all. From there, curse them for me.”¹⁴ So he took Balaam to the field of Zophim on the top of Pisgah, where he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each.¹⁵ Balaam said to Balak, “Stand here by your offering while I meet with the Lord over there.”¹⁶ The Lord met Balaam and put a word in his mouth, saying, “Return to Balak and deliver this message.”¹⁷ Balaam returned to Balak, who was standing by his offering with the Moabite officials. Balak asked, “What has the Lord spoken?”¹⁸ Balaam delivered his message: “Arise, Balak, and listen; hear me, son of Zippor.”¹⁹ God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should change His mind. Does He speak and not act? Does He promise and not fulfil?²⁰ I have received a directive to bless; He has given His blessing, and I cannot alter it.²¹ No misfortune is seen in Jacob, no misery in Israel. The Lord their God is with them; the shout of a king is among them.²² God led them out of Egypt; they possess the strength of a mighty ox.²³ There is no enchantment against Jacob, no divination against Israel. It will now be said of Jacob and Israel, ‘See what God has done!’²⁴ The people rise like a lioness; they rouse themselves like a lion that does not rest until it devours its prey and drinks the blood of the slain.”²⁵ Balak said to Balaam, “Refrain from cursing them or blessing them!”²⁶ Balaam answered, “Did I not tell you that I must do whatever the Lord says?”²⁷ Balak said, “Come, let me take you to another place. Perhaps it will please God to allow you to curse them for me from there.”²⁸ Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, overlooking the wasteland.²⁹ Balaam said, “Construct seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”³⁰ Balak did as Balaam had instructed, offering a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers

24 When Balaam realised that it pleased the Lord to bless Israel, he did not seek omens as he had done before, but turned his gaze towards the wilderness.² And Balaam lifted his eyes and saw Israel camped tribe by tribe, and the Spirit of God came upon him.³ He began his oracle and said, “The utterance of Balaam son of Beor, the utterance of the man whose eye is open; ⁴ The utterance of one who hears the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty, who falls down, with eyes uncovered: ⁵ How lovely are your tents, Jacob, your dwelling places, Israel! ⁶ Like valleys they extend, like gardens beside a river, like aloes planted by the Lord, like cedars beside the waters.”⁷ Abundant water shall flow from his vessels, and his descendants shall be numerous; his king shall be greater than Agag, and his kingdom shall be lifted high.⁸ God brings him out of Egypt; he has the strength of a wild ox. He will consume the nations that are his enemies, and will break their bones and pierce them with his arrows.⁹ He crouches, he lies down like a lion, and like a lioness—who dares to rouse him? Blessed are those who bless you, and cursed are those who curse you.”¹⁰ Then Balak’s anger burned against Balaam, and he clapped his hands together and said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, but you have blessed them these three times!”¹¹ Therefore, flee to your place now! I said I would greatly reward you, but the Lord has kept you from being honoured.”¹² Balaam replied to Balak, “Did I not tell your messengers whom you sent to me,¹³ ‘Even if Balak gave me his palace full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the command of the Lord to do either good or bad of my own will. What the Lord speaks, that I will speak’?¹⁴ Now, behold, I am going back to my people; come, let me inform you of what this people will do to your people in the days to come.”¹⁵ Then he began his oracle and said, “The utterance of Balaam son of Beor, the utterance of the man whose eye is open,¹⁶ The utterance of one who hears the words of God, and has knowledge from the Most High, who sees the vision of the Almighty, who falls down, with eyes uncovered: ¹⁷ I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not near; a star shall come out of Jacob, a sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall crush the foreheads of Moab, and destroy all the sons of Sheth.¹⁸ Edom shall be a possession; Seir, its enemies, shall also be a possession, while Israel grows strong.¹⁹ A ruler shall come out of Jacob, and shall destroy the survivors of the city.”²⁰ Then he looked at Amalek and began his oracle and said, “Amalek was the first among the nations, but his end shall be utter destruction.”²¹ And he looked at the Kenites and began his oracle and said, “Your dwelling place is secure, and your nest is set in the rock;²² Nevertheless, the Kenites will be destroyed when Asshur takes you captive.”²³ Then he began his oracle and said, “Alas! Who can survive unless God has willed it?”²⁴ But ships shall come from the coast of Kittim, and they shall afflict Asshur and afflict Eber; and they too shall come to destruction.”

Numbers

²⁵ Then Balaam arose and returned to his place, and Balak also went his own way.

25 While Israel was staying at Shittim, the people began to engage in immorality with the daughters of Moab. ² They invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the Israelites ate and bowed down to these gods. ³ Thus, Israel aligned themselves with Baal of Peor, and the Lord's anger was kindled against Israel. ⁴ The Lord instructed Moses, “Take all the leaders of the people and execute them in broad daylight before the Lord, so that the Lord's fierce anger may be turned away from Israel.” ⁵ Moses then said to the judges of Israel, “Each of you must put to death those of your men who have aligned themselves with Baal of Peor.” ⁶ Then, an Israelite man brought a Midianite woman to his family, in full view of Moses and the whole assembly of Israel, while they were weeping at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ⁷ When Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw this, he rose from the assembly and took a spear in his hand. ⁸ He followed the Israelite into the inner room of the tent and drove the spear through both of them, the Israelite man and the woman, through her abdomen. Thus, the plague on the Israelites was stopped. ⁹ However, those who died from the plague numbered twenty-four thousand. ¹⁰ Then the Lord spoke Moses and said, ¹¹ “Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned my wrath away from the Israelites, for he was zealous as I am among them, so I did not destroy the Israelites in my zeal. ¹² Therefore, tell him that I am giving him my covenant of peace. ¹³ It will be a covenant of an everlasting priesthood for him and his descendants, because he was zealous for the honour of his God and made atonement for the Israelites.” ¹⁴ The name of the Israelite man who was killed with the Midianite woman was Zimri son of Salu, a leader of a family among the Simeonites. ¹⁵ The name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi daughter of Zur, a tribal chief of a family in Midian. ¹⁶ The Lord addressed Moses, saying, ¹⁷ “Treat the Midianites as enemies and attack them; ¹⁸ for they have treated you as enemies with their deceit, in the incident involving Peor and their sister Cozbi, the daughter of a Midianite leader, who was killed on the day of the plague because of Peor.”

26 After the plague, the Lord spoke to Moses and Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saying, ² “Conduct a census of the entire congregation of the Israelites, from twenty years old and upwards, by their families, all who are able to go to war in Israel.” ³ So Moses and Eleazar the priest addressed them on the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying, ⁴ “Take a census of the men from twenty years old and upwards, as the Lord commanded Moses.” These were the Israelites who came out of Egypt: ⁵ The descendants of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, were: from Hanoch, the family of the Hanochites; from Pallu, the family of the Palluites; ⁶ from Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; from Carmi, the family of the Carmites. ⁷ These were the families of the Reubenites, and those counted were 43,730. ⁸ Pallu had a son, Eliab. ⁹ The sons of Eliab were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. These are the same Dathan and Abiram who were called by the assembly, who contended against Moses and Aaron in the company of Korah, when they contended against the Lord. ¹⁰ The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them along with Korah, when that company died, when the fire consumed 250 men, and they became a warning sign. ¹¹ However, the line of Korah did not die out. ¹² The descendants of Simeon by their families were: from Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; from Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; from Jachin, the family of the Jachinites; ¹³ from Zerah, the family of the Zerahites; from Shaul, the family of the Shaulites. ¹⁴ These were the families of the Simeonites, and those counted were 22,200. ¹⁵ The descendants of Gad by their families were: from Zephon, the family of the Zephonites; from Haggi, the family of the Haggites; from Shuni, the family of the Shunites; ¹⁶ from Ozni, the family of the Oznites; from Eri, the family of the Erites; ¹⁷ from Arod, the family of the Arodites; from Areli, the family of the Arelites. ¹⁸ These were the families of the sons of Gad, and those counted were 40,500. ¹⁹ Judah's sons were Er and Onan, but they died in the land of Canaan. ²⁰ The descendants of Judah by their families were: from Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; from Perez, the family of the Perezites; from Zerah, the family of the Zerahites. ²¹ The descendants of Perez were: from Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; from Hamul, the family of the Hamulites. ²² These were the families of Judah, and those counted were 76,500. ²³ The descendants of Issachar by their families were: from Tola, the family of the Tolaïtes; from Puvah, the family of the Punites; ²⁴ from Jashub, the family of the Jashubites; from Shimron, the family of the Shimronites. ²⁵ These were the families of Issachar, and those counted were 64,300. ²⁶ The descendants of Zebulun by their families were: from Sered, the family of the Seredites; from Elon, the family of the Elonites; from Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites. ²⁷ These were the families of the Zebulunites, and those counted were 60,500. ²⁸ The descendants of Joseph by their families were Manasseh and Ephraim. ²⁹ The descendants of Manasseh: from Machir, the family of the Machirites; Machir was the father of Gilead: from Gilead, the family of the Gileadites. ³⁰ These were the descendants of Gilead: from Iezer, the family of the Iezerites; from Helek, the family of the Helekites; ³¹ from Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; from Shechem, the family of the Shechemites; ³² from Shemida, the family of the Shemidaïtes; from Hephher, the family of the Hephherites. ³³ Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, had no sons, only daughters; and the names of Zelophehad's daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. ³⁴ These were the families of Manasseh, and those counted were 52,700. ³⁵ These were the descendants of Ephraim by their families: from Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthelahites; from Becher, the family of the Becherites; from Tahan, the family of the Tahanites. ³⁶ These were the descendants of Shuthelah: from Eran, the family of the Eranites. ³⁷ These were the families of the sons of Ephraim, and those counted were 32,500. These were the descendants of Joseph by their families. ³⁸ The descendants of Benjamin by their families were: from Bela, the family of the Belaïtes; from Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; from Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites; ³⁹ from Shephupham, the family of the Shuphamites; from Hupham, the family of the Huphamites. ⁴⁰ The descendants of Bela were Ard and Naaman: from Ard, the family of the Ardites; from Naaman, the family of the Naamites. ⁴¹ These were the families of Benjamin, and those counted were 45,600. ⁴² These were the descendants of Dan by their families: from Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These were the families of Dan. ⁴³ All the families of the Shuhamites, and those counted were 64,400. ⁴⁴ The descendants of Asher by their families were: from Imnah, the family of the Imnites; from Ishvi, the family of the Ishvites; from Beriah, the family of the Beriites. ⁴⁵ From the descendants of Beriah: from Heber, the family of the Heberites; from Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites. ⁴⁶ Asher had a daughter called Serah. ⁴⁷ These were the families of the sons of Asher, and those counted were 53,400. ⁴⁸ The descendants of Naphtali by their families were: from Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; from Guni, the family of the Gunites; ⁴⁹ from Jezer, the family of the Jezerites; from Shillem, the family of the Shillemites. ⁵⁰ These were the families of Naphtali by their families, and those counted were 45,400. ⁵¹ The total number of the Israelites counted was 601,730. ⁵² The Lord then instructed Moses, ⁵³ "The land shall be divided among them as an inheritance according to the number of names. ⁵⁴ To a larger group give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller group a smaller one; each shall receive its inheritance according to the number of those listed. ⁵⁵ Ensure that the land is distributed by lot. What each group inherits will be according to the names of their ancestral tribes. ⁵⁶ The inheritance is to be distributed by lot among the larger and smaller groups. ⁵⁷ These were the Levites who were counted by their families: from Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; from Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; from Merari, the family of the Merarites. ⁵⁸ These also were Levite families: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, and the family of the Korahites. Kohath was the father of Amram. ⁵⁹ The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, a daughter of Levi, who was born to the Levites in Egypt. To Amram she bore Aaron, Moses, and their sister Miriam. ⁶⁰ Aaron's sons were Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ⁶¹ But Nadab and Abihu died when they offered unauthorised fire before the Lord. ⁶² All the male Levites from a month old and upwards numbered 23,000. They were not counted among the other Israelites because they received no inheritance among them. ⁶³ These are the ones recorded by Moses and Eleazar the priest when they counted the Israelites on the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho. ⁶⁴ Among these, there was not a man of those who were counted by Moses and Aaron the priest when they counted the Israelites in the wilderness of Sinai. ⁶⁵ For the Lord had said of them, "They shall surely die in the wilderness." Not one of them was left, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

Numbers

Numbers

27 The daughters of Zelophehad, son of Hopher, son of Gilead, son of Makir, son of Manasseh, from the families of Manasseh, son of Joseph, came forward. The names of the daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. ² They stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders, and the entire assembly at the entrance to the tent of meeting and said, ³ "Our father died in the wilderness. He was not among those who banded together against the Lord with Korah, but he died for his own sin and left no sons. ⁴ Why should our father's name vanish from his family because he had no son? Grant us property among our father's relatives." ⁵ So Moses took their case to the Lord. ⁶ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ⁷ "The daughters of Zelophehad speak rightly. You shall indeed give them an inheritance among their father's brothers and transfer their father's inheritance to them. ⁸ Speak to the Israelites, saying, 'If a man dies and has no son, then transfer his inheritance to his daughter. ⁹ But if there is no daughter, allocate his inheritance to his brothers. ¹⁰ If he has no brothers, assign his inheritance to his father's brothers. ¹¹ If his father had no brothers, give his inheritance to the nearest relative in his family, and he shall possess it. This shall be a statute for the Israelites, as the Lord commanded Moses.'" ¹² The Lord said to Moses, "Go up this mountain in the Abarim Range and view the land I have given to the Israelites. ¹³ Once you have seen it, you will join your ancestors, just as your brother Aaron did, ¹⁴ because you rebelled against my command at the waters of Meribah in the Desert of Zin, failing to uphold my holiness before the Israelites." (These are the waters of Meribah of Kadesh in the Desert of Zin.) ¹⁵ Moses then spoke to the Lord, ¹⁶ "May the Lord, the God who gives life to all, appoint a leader over the community, ¹⁷ one who will lead them out and bring them in, so the Lord's people will not be like sheep without a shepherd." ¹⁸ The Lord said to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay your hand on him. ¹⁹ Have him stand before Eleazar the priest and the entire assembly, and commission him in their sight. ²⁰ Bestow some of your authority upon him, so that the whole community of the Israelites will obey him. ²¹ He shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who will inquire for him by the decision of the Urim before the Lord. At his command, they shall go out, and at his command, they shall come in, both he and the entire community of the Israelites." ²² Moses did as the Lord commanded him. He took Joshua and had him stand before Eleazar the priest and the entire assembly. ²³ He laid his hands on him and commissioned him, as the Lord had instructed through Moses.

28 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying these words, ² "Command the Israelites and say to them: 'Be careful to present to me my offerings, my food offerings by fire, as a pleasing aroma to me, at their appointed times.' ³ Say to them: 'This is the offering by fire you are to present to the Lord: two male lambs a year old without defect, as a continual burnt offering each day. ⁴ Present one lamb in the morning and the other at twilight; ⁵ along with a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of the finest flour mixed with a quarter of a hin of pure oil. ⁶ This is a continual burnt offering instituted at Mount Sinai as a pleasing aroma, an offering by fire to the Lord. ⁷ The accompanying drink offering is to be a quarter of a hin of strong drink for each lamb. Pour out the drink offering to the Lord in the sanctuary. ⁸ Offer the second lamb at twilight with the same type of grain offering and drink offering as in the morning, an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the Lord. ⁹ "On the Sabbath day, make an offering of two male lambs a year old without defect, with two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and its drink offering. ¹⁰ This is the burnt offering for each Sabbath, alongside the regular burnt offering and its drink offering. ¹¹ "At the beginning of each month, present to the Lord a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect. ¹² For each bull, there is to be a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of the finest flour mixed with oil; for the ram, a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; ¹³ and for each lamb, a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil. This is for a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering by fire to the Lord. ¹⁴ With each bull there is to be a drink offering of half a hin of wine; with the ram, a third of a hin; and with each lamb, a quarter of a hin. This is the monthly burnt offering to be made at each new moon throughout the year. ¹⁵ In addition to the regular burnt offering with its drink offering, present one male goat as a sin offering to the Lord. ¹⁶ “The Lord’s Passover is to be held on the fourteenth day of the first month. ¹⁷ On the fifteenth day of this month there is to be a festival; for seven days eat unleavened bread. ¹⁸ On the first day hold a sacred assembly and do no labourious work. ¹⁹ Present to the Lord an offering by fire, a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect. ²⁰ For each bull, prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of the finest flour mixed with oil; for the ram, two-tenths; ²¹ and for each of the seven lambs, one-tenth. ²² Present one male goat as a sin offering to provide atonement for you. ²³ Present these offerings in addition to the regular morning burnt offering. ²⁴ In this manner present the food offering every day for seven days as a pleasing aroma to the Lord; it is to be offered in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering. ²⁵ On the seventh day hold a sacred assembly and do no labourious work. ²⁶ “On the day of firstfruits, when you present to the Lord an offering of new grain during the Feast of Weeks, hold a sacred assembly and do no labourious work. ²⁷ Present a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old as a pleasing aroma to the Lord. ²⁸ For each bull, there is to be a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of the finest flour mixed with oil; for the ram, two-tenths; ²⁹ and for each of the seven lambs, one-tenth. ³⁰ Present one male goat to provide atonement for you. ³¹ Offer these together with their drink offerings, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering. Ensure the animals are without defect.

Numbers

29 ‘In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall hold a holy assembly and refrain from any regular work. It shall be a day for the sounding of trumpets. ² Offer a burnt offering as a soothing aroma to the Lord: one young bull, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect. ³ With the bull, offer a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths; ⁴ and for each of the seven lambs, provide one-tenth. ⁵ Include one male goat as a sin offering to achieve atonement for you. ⁶ These offerings are in addition to the monthly burnt offering and its grain offering, and the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offerings, as prescribed. They are a pleasing aroma, an offering by fire to the Lord. ⁷

‘On the tenth day of this seventh month, you shall hold a sacred assembly and humble yourselves; do no work. ⁸ Present a burnt offering to the Lord as a soothing aroma: one young bull, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect. ⁹ With the bull, offer a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths; ¹⁰ and for each of the seven lambs, provide one-tenth. ¹¹ Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the sin offering of atonement and the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offerings. ¹² ‘On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, hold a holy assembly and do no regular work. Celebrate a feast to the Lord for seven days. ¹³ Present a burnt offering, an offering by fire as a soothing aroma to the Lord: thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect. ¹⁴ With each of the thirteen bulls, offer a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with each of the two rams, two-tenths; ¹⁵ and for each of the fourteen lambs, provide one-tenth. ¹⁶ Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering. ¹⁷ ‘On the second day: twelve young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect. ¹⁸ With the bulls, rams, and lambs, present their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified. ¹⁹ Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offerings. ²⁰ ‘On the third day: eleven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect. ²¹ With the bulls, rams, and lambs, present their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified. ²² Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering. ²³ ‘On the fourth day: ten bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect. ²⁴ With the bulls, rams, and lambs, present their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified. ²⁵ Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering. ²⁶ ‘On the fifth day: nine bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect. ²⁷ With the bulls, rams, and lambs, present their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified. ²⁸ Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering. ²⁹ 'On the sixth day: eight bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect. ³⁰ With the bulls, rams, and lambs, present their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified. ³¹ Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offerings. ³² 'On the seventh day: seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect. ³³ With the bulls, rams, and lambs, present their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified. ³⁴ Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering. ³⁵ 'On the eighth day, you shall hold a closing special assembly and do no regular work. ³⁶ Present a burnt offering, an offering by fire as a soothing aroma to the Lord: one bull, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect. ³⁷ With the bull, the ram, and the lambs, present their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified. ³⁸ Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering. ³⁹ 'In addition to your vowed offerings and freewill offerings, present these to the Lord at your appointed festivals: your burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings, and peace offerings.' ⁴⁰ Moses relayed to the Israelites all that the Lord had commanded him.

Numbers

30 Moses said to the heads of the tribes of Israel: "This is what the Lord has commanded: ² When a man makes a vow to the Lord or takes an oath to bind himself with a pledge, he must not break his word. He must do everything he said. ³ If a young woman, still living in her father's house, makes a vow to the Lord or binds herself by a pledge, ⁴ and her father hears her vow but says nothing to her, then all her vows and pledges will stand. ⁵ But if her father forbids her on the day he hears about it, none of her vows or pledges will stand. The Lord will release her because her father has overruled her. ⁶ If she marries after making a vow or rash promise, ⁷ and her husband hears of it but says nothing to her, then her vows stand. ⁸ But if her husband cancels them on the day he hears of them, what she pledged will not stand, and the Lord will release her. ⁹ Any vow made by a widow or divorced woman is binding upon her. ¹⁰ If a woman living with her husband makes a vow or pledge, ¹¹ and her husband hears it and remains silent, then all her vows will be valid. ¹² But if her husband nullifies them when he hears them, then they are not binding. The Lord will release her. ¹³ Her husband may confirm or cancel any vow or oath she makes. ¹⁴ If he remains silent day after day, he confirms all her vows and pledges. ¹⁵ But if he cancels them later, he bears responsibility for her guilt. ¹⁶ These are the regulations the Lord gave Moses concerning a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter while she is still living in his home.

31 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Seek justice on the Midianites for the children of Israel; afterward you will be gathered to your people." ³ Moses addressed the people, "Arm some of your men for the war, so that they may go against Midian to execute the Lord's vengeance. ⁴ You shall send a thousand from each tribe of all the tribes of Israel to the battle." ⁵ So there were selected from the thousands of Israel, a thousand from each tribe, twelve thousand armed for battle. ⁶ Moses sent them to the war, a thousand from each tribe, along with Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest, who took with him the holy articles and the trumpets for sounding the alarm. ⁷ They waged war against Midian, as the Lord commanded Moses, and killed every male. ⁸ They killed the kings of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword. ⁹ The Israelites captured the women of Midian and their little ones, and they plundered all their cattle, flocks, and goods. ¹⁰ They burned all the towns where they lived and all their encampments. ¹¹ They took all the plunder and all the spoils, both of people and livestock, ¹² and brought the captives, spoils, and plunder to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the Israelites at the camp on the plains of Moab, by the Jordan opposite Jericho. ¹³ Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation went out to meet them outside the camp. ¹⁴ Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, who had returned from the war. ¹⁵ He said to them, "Have you spared all the women? ¹⁶ Behold, they were the ones who, on Balaam's advice, caused the Israelites to be unfaithful to the Lord at Peor, so that a plague struck the Lord's people.¹⁷ Now therefore, put to death every male among the little ones, and every woman who has known a man intimately.¹⁸ But all the girls who have not known a man intimately, keep alive for yourselves.¹⁹ Camp outside the camp for seven days; whoever has killed a person and whoever has touched anyone killed must purify yourselves and your captives on the third and seventh days.²⁰ Purify every garment, every article of leather, everything made of goats' hair, and every article of wood."²¹ Then Eleazar the priest said to the soldiers who had gone to battle, "This is the statute of the law which the Lord commanded Moses:²² The metals such as gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, and lead,²³ everything that can withstand fire, you shall pass through the fire, and it will be clean. It must also be purified with the water of cleansing. But whatever cannot withstand fire must be passed through the water.²⁴ Wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you will be clean; afterward you may enter the camp."²⁵ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying,²⁶ "You and Eleazar the priest and the heads of the fathers' households of the congregation are to take a count of the spoils that were captured, both of people and of livestock;²⁷ and divide the spoils between the warriors who went to battle and the rest of the congregation.²⁸ Collect a tribute for the Lord from the men of war who went to battle, one in five hundred of the persons, cattle, donkeys, and sheep;²⁹ take it from their share, and present it to Eleazar the priest as a contribution to the Lord.³⁰ From the Israelites' half, take one out of every fifty of the persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep, and other animals, and give them to the Levites who perform the duty of the tabernacle of the Lord."³¹ Moses and Eleazar the priest carried out the Lord's instructions to Moses.³² The spoils remaining from the plunder which the men of war had taken were 675,000 sheep,³³ and seventy-two thousand head of cattle,³⁴ with sixty-one thousand donkeys,³⁵ and thirty-two thousand women who had not known a man intimately.³⁶ The half share of those who went to war was: 337,500 sheep,³⁷ from which the Lord's tribute was 675;³⁸ thirty-six thousand cattle, from which the Lord's tribute was 72;³⁹ thirty thousand five hundred donkeys, from which the Lord's tribute was 61;⁴⁰ sixteen thousand people, from whom the Lord's tribute was 32.⁴¹ Moses gave the tribute, which was the Lord's offering, to Eleazar the priest, following the Lord's command to Moses.⁴² As for the Israelites' half, which Moses separated from the men who had gone to war—⁴³ the congregation's half was 337,500 sheep,⁴⁴ and thirty-six thousand head of cattle,⁴⁵ with thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,⁴⁶ and a total of sixteen thousand people.⁴⁷ From the Israelites' half, Moses took one out of every fifty, both of people and animals, and gave them to the Levites who perform the duty of the tabernacle of the Lord, as the Lord commanded Moses.⁴⁸ Then the officers who were over the units of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, approached Moses,⁴⁹ and said to him, "Your servants have counted the soldiers under our command, and none is missing.⁵⁰ So we have brought as an offering to the Lord what each man found, articles of gold—armlets, bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and necklaces—to make atonement for ourselves before the Lord."⁵¹ Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted from them the gold, all the crafted articles.⁵² All the gold of the offering that they offered to the Lord, from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, weighed 16,750 shekels.⁵³ Each soldier had taken his own share of plunder.⁵⁴ Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and brought it to the tent of meeting as a memorial for the Israelites before the Lord.

Numbers

32 The descendants of Reuben and Gad, possessing a significant number of livestock, observed that the regions of Jazer and Gilead were well-suited for their animals.² Thus, they approached Moses, Eleazar the priest, and the leaders of the community, declaring,³ "The towns of Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon—⁴ the land which the Lord subdued before the assembly of Israel—is ideal for livestock, and your servants own livestock."⁵ They continued, "If we have found favour in your sight, allow this land to be granted to your servants as our possession; do not compel us to cross the Jordan."⁶ Moses responded to the sons of Gad and Reuben, "Shall your brethren go to war while you remain here?⁷ Why do you dishearten the Israelites from crossing into the land that the Lord has provided them?⁸ This is the same action your fathers took when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to survey the land. ⁹ Upon reaching the Valley of Eshcol and viewing the land, they discouraged the Israelites from entering the land which the Lord had promised them. ¹⁰ Consequently, the Lord's anger was kindled that day, and He swore, saying, ¹¹ 'None of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and above, will see the land I pledged to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, because they did not follow Me fully, ¹² except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, for they have fully followed the Lord.' ¹³ Thus, the Lord's wrath burned against Israel, causing them to wander the wilderness for forty years, until the entire generation that had done evil in the Lord's sight had perished. ¹⁴ And now, you have risen in your fathers' stead, a brood of sinful men, to further inflame the Lord's anger against Israel. ¹⁵ If you turn away from following Him, He will again leave them in the wilderness, and you will be responsible for their destruction." ¹⁶ They then approached him and said, "We wish to construct pens here for our livestock and cities for our little ones; ¹⁷ but we will arm ourselves swiftly, leading the Israelites, until we have brought them to their place, while our little ones reside in fortified cities for protection against the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁸ We will not return to our homes until every one of the Israelites has received his inheritance. ¹⁹ We will not claim any inheritance with them beyond the Jordan, as our inheritance has been allocated to us on this side of the Jordan towards the east." ²⁰ Moses replied, "If you will do this—if you will arm yourselves for battle before the Lord, ²¹ and if all your armed men cross over the Jordan before the Lord until He has driven out His enemies from before Him— ²² then, once the land is subdued before the Lord, you may return and be free from your obligation to the Lord and Israel, and this land shall be your possession before the Lord. ²³ But if you do not do this, you will have sinned against the Lord, and be sure your sin will find you out. ²⁴ Construct cities for your little ones and pens for your flocks, and fulfil what you have promised." ²⁵ The sons of Gad and Reuben replied to Moses, "Your servants will do as our lord commands. ²⁶ Our little ones, wives, flocks, and all our cattle will remain in the cities of Gilead, ²⁷ while your servants, every man armed for battle, will cross over in the presence of the Lord to engage in battle, just as our lord has said." ²⁸ So Moses gave instructions concerning them to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers' households of the Israelite tribes. ²⁹ Moses instructed them, "If the sons of Gad and Reuben, every man armed for battle, cross over the Jordan with you before the Lord, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall grant them the land of Gilead as their possession. ³⁰ But if they do not cross over with you armed, they must accept their inheritance among you in Canaan." ³¹ The sons of Gad and Reuben answered, "As the Lord has spoken to your servants, so we will do. ³² We will cross over armed in the presence of the Lord into Canaan, but the property of our inheritance shall remain with us on this side of the Jordan." ³³ So Moses assigned to the sons of Gad, the sons of Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan—the land with its cities and the surrounding territories. ³⁴ The descendants of Gad constructed the towns of Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, ³⁵ Atroth-shophan, and Jazer, Jogbehah, ³⁶ Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran as fortified cities, and pens for their flocks. ³⁷ The sons of Reuben rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh, and Kiriathaim, ³⁸ as well as Nebo and Baal-meon (their names being changed) and Sibmah. They gave new names to the cities they rebuilt. ³⁹ The descendants of Machir son of Manasseh went to Gilead, captured it, and expelled the Amorites who were there. ⁴⁰ Therefore, Moses granted Gilead to Machir son of Manasseh, and he settled there. ⁴¹ Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, captured their settlements and named them Havvoth-jair. ⁴² Nobah went and captured Kenath and its surrounding villages, naming it Nobah after himself.

Numbers

33 These are the stages of the journey of the Israelites, by which they departed from the land of Egypt in their divisions, under the leadership of Moses and Aaron. ² At the Lord's command, Moses recorded their starting points according to their journeys. These are their journeys by stages: ³ The Israelites set out from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month, the day after the Passover. They departed boldly in the sight of all the Egyptians, ⁴ while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom the Lord had struck down among them; for the Lord had executed judgments against their gods. ⁵ The Israelites journeyed from Rameses and camped at Succoth. ⁶ They journeyed from Succoth and camped at Etham, on the edge of the wilderness. ⁷ They journeyed from Etham and turned back to Pi Hahiroth, which is to the east of Baal Zephon, and camped before Migdol. ⁸ They journeyed from Pi Hahiroth and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, and after travelling for three days in the Desert of Etham, they camped at Marah. ⁹ They journeyed from Marah and came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there. ¹⁰ From Elim, they travelled and set up camp by the Red Sea. ¹¹ They journeyed from the Red Sea and camped in the Desert of Sin. ¹² They journeyed from the Desert of Sin and camped at Dophkah. ¹³ From Dophkah, they travelled and set up camp at Alush. ¹⁴ They journeyed from Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink. ¹⁵ They journeyed from Rephidim and camped in the Desert of Sinai. ¹⁶ They journeyed from the Desert of Sinai and camped at Kibroth Hattaavah. ¹⁷ They journeyed from Kibroth Hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth. ¹⁸ From Hazeroth, they travelled and set up camp at Rithmah. ¹⁹ They journeyed from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon Perez. ²⁰ They journeyed from Rimmon Perez and camped at Libnah. ²¹ From Libnah, they travelled and set up camp at Rissah. ²² From Rissah, they travelled and set up camp at Kehelathah. ²³ From Kehelathah, they travelled and set up camp at Mount Shepher. ²⁴ From Mount Shepher, they travelled and set up camp at Haradah. ²⁵ From Haradah, they travelled and set up camp at Makheloth. ²⁶ From Makheloth, they travelled and set up camp at Tahath. ²⁷ From Tahath, they travelled and set up camp at Terah. ²⁸ From Terah, they travelled and set up camp at Mithkah. ²⁹ From Mithkah, they travelled and set up camp at Hashmonah. ³⁰ From Hashmonah, they travelled and set up camp at Moseroth. ³¹ They journeyed from Moseroth and camped at Bene Jaakan. ³² They journeyed from Bene Jaakan and camped at Hor Haggidgad. ³³ They journeyed from Hor Haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah. ³⁴ From Jotbathah, they travelled and set up camp at Abronah. ³⁵ They journeyed from Abronah and camped at Ezion Geber. ³⁶ They journeyed from Ezion Geber and camped at Kadesh, in the Desert of Zin. ³⁷ They journeyed from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, on the edge of the land of Edom. ³⁸ At the Lord's command, Aaron the priest went up Mount Hor, where he died in the fortieth year after the Israelites came out of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month. ³⁹ Aaron was one hundred and twenty-three years of age when he passed away on Mount Hor. ⁴⁰ Now the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev of Canaan, heard of the coming of the Israelites. ⁴¹ They journeyed from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah. ⁴² From Zalmonah, they travelled and set up camp at Punon. ⁴³ From Punon, they travelled and set up camp at Oboth. ⁴⁴ They journeyed from Oboth and camped at Iye Abarim, on the border of Moab. ⁴⁵ They journeyed from Iye Abarim and camped at Dibon Gad. ⁴⁶ They journeyed from Dibon Gad and camped at Almon Diblathaim. ⁴⁷ They journeyed from Almon Diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, near Nebo. ⁴⁸ They journeyed from the mountains of Abarim and camped on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho. ⁴⁹ In the plains of Moab, they set up camp along the Jordan from Beth Jeshimoth to Abel Shittim. ⁵⁰ Then the Lord spoke to Moses on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, saying, ⁵¹ "Instruct the Israelites: 'When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan, ⁵² you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their carved images, destroy all their cast idols, and demolish all their high places. ⁵³ You shall own the land and make it your home, for I have granted you the land to dwell in. ⁵⁴ You shall distribute the land by lot according to your clans. To a larger group give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller group a smaller one. Whatever falls to them by lot will be theirs. You shall distribute it according to your ancestral tribes. ⁵⁵ But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, those you allow to remain will become barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they will trouble you in the land where you will live. ⁵⁶ And what I plan to do to them, I will do to you."

Numbers

34 The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying these words, ² "Command the Israelites and tell them: 'When you enter the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall be allotted to you as an inheritance, with these boundaries: ³ "Your southern side shall extend from the wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom, and your southern boundary shall start from the eastern end of the Salt Sea, ⁴ cross south of the ascent of Akkrabbim, continue to Zin, and go south of Kadesh Barnea. Then it shall reach Hazar Addar and continue to Azmon,⁵ where it shall turn and join the Wadi of Egypt, ending at the Mediterranean Sea.⁶ “Your western boundary shall be the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea. This shall be your boundary on the west.”⁷ “For your northern boundary, draw a line from the Mediterranean Sea to Mount Hor.⁸ From Mount Hor, draw the boundary to Lebo Hamath, and the boundary shall extend to Zedad,⁹ continue to Ziphron, and end at Hazar Enan. This shall be your boundary on the north.”¹⁰ “For your eastern boundary, draw a line from Hazar Enan to Shepham.¹¹ The boundary shall go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain, and continue along the slopes east of the Sea of Galilee.¹² Then the boundary shall go down along the Jordan and end at the Salt Sea. “This shall be your land, with its boundaries on every side.”¹³ Moses commanded the Israelites: “Assign this land by lot as an inheritance, as the Lord has commanded to give to the nine and a half tribes.”¹⁴ For the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance according to their families.¹⁵ These two and a half tribes have received their inheritance east of the Jordan opposite Jericho, toward the sunrise.”¹⁶ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying these words,¹⁷ “These are the names of the men who shall assign the land to you as an inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun.¹⁸ Appoint a leader from each tribe to assist in the allocation of the land.¹⁹ The names are as follows: from the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh;²⁰ from Simeon's tribe, Shemuel son of Ammihud;²¹ from Benjamin's tribe, Elidad son of Kislon;²² from the tribe of Dan, a leader, Bukki son of Jogli;²³ from the tribe of Manasseh, a leader, Hanniel son of Ephod;²⁴ from the tribe of Ephraim, a leader, Kemuel son of Shiphtan;²⁵ from the tribe of Zebulun, a leader, Elizaphan son of Parnak;²⁶ from the tribe of Issachar, a leader, Paltiel son of Azzan;²⁷ from the tribe of Asher, a leader, Ahihud son of Shelomi;²⁸ from the tribe of Naphtali, a leader, Pedahel son of Ammihud.”²⁹ These are the men whom the Lord commanded to apportion the inheritance to the Israelites in the land of Canaan.

Numbers

to the Levites towns to reside in from the inheritance of their possessions. Also, provide them with pasturelands surrounding these towns.³ These towns will be for them to live in, and the pasturelands will be for their cattle, their equipment, and all their other animals.⁴ “The pasturelands around the towns you give to the Levites shall extend outward a thousand cubits from the town wall.⁵ Measure two thousand cubits outside the town on the east, south, west, and north sides, with the town in the centre. This area will serve as pastureland for the towns.”⁶ “Of the towns you give to the Levites, designate six as cities of refuge, where someone who has committed manslaughter may flee. In addition, provide forty-two other towns.”⁷ In total, you must allocate forty-eight towns to the Levites, along with their pasturelands.⁸ The towns you allocate to the Levites from the Israelites' land should be proportional to the inheritance of each tribe: take more towns from a tribe with a larger inheritance, and fewer from one with a smaller inheritance.”⁹ The Lord then spoke to Moses, saying,¹⁰ “Tell the Israelites: ‘When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,¹¹ select towns to serve as cities of refuge, where someone who has killed another unintentionally may flee.’¹² These cities will be a refuge from the avenger, so that the accused may not die before standing trial before the assembly.”¹³ The six towns you provide will be your cities of refuge.¹⁴ Allocate three cities on this side of the Jordan and three in the land of Canaan as cities of refuge.¹⁵ These six cities will be a refuge for the Israelites, strangers, and foreigners residing among you, so that anyone who has killed another unintentionally may flee there.”¹⁶ “If someone strikes another with an iron object causing death, that person is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death.¹⁷ If someone strikes another with a stone in the hand, causing death, that person is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death.”¹⁸ Or if someone strikes another with a wooden object in the hand, causing death, that person is a murderer; the murderer must be put to death.¹⁹ The avenger of blood is to execute the murderer; when the avenger encounters the murderer, the avenger shall put the murderer to death.²⁰ If someone pushes another out of hatred, or throws something at them with malicious intent, resulting in death,²¹ or if someone strikes another with hostility, causing death, the 35 The Lord spoke to Moses on the plains of Moab by the Jordan, opposite Jericho, saying,² “Instruct the Israelites to allocate perpetrator is a murderer and must be put to death. The avenger of blood shall execute the murderer when they meet. ²² “However, if someone pushes another suddenly without hostility, or throws any object at them without malicious intent, ²³ or, without seeing them, drops a stone heavy enough to cause death, and the person dies, but there was no enmity and no harm intended, ²⁴ then the assembly shall judge between the accused and the avenger of blood according to these laws. ²⁵ The assembly must protect the one accused of manslaughter from the avenger of blood and return the accused to the city of refuge to which they fled. The accused must remain there until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil. ²⁶ “If the accused ever leaves the boundaries of the city of refuge to which they fled, ²⁷ and the avenger of blood finds them outside the city, the avenger may kill the accused without being guilty of murder. ²⁸ The accused must remain in the city of refuge until the death of the high priest; only after the death of the high priest may they return to their property. ²⁹ “These regulations are to be a legal statute for you throughout your generations, wherever you live. ³⁰ “Anyone who kills another shall be put to death as a murderer only on the testimony of witnesses. No one is to be put to death on the testimony of just one witness. ³¹ “Do not accept a ransom for the life of a murderer who deserves to die. They must be put to death. ³² “Do not accept a ransom for anyone who has fled to a city of refuge, allowing them to return and live on their own land before the death of the high priest. ³³ “Do not defile the land where you reside. Bloodshed defiles the land, and no atonement can be made for the land on which blood has been shed, except by the blood of the one who shed it. ³⁴ Do not defile the land where you dwell, where I also dwell, for I, the Lord, dwell among the Israelites.”

Numbers

36

The heads of the fathers' households of the family of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, from the families of the descendants of Joseph, approached and spoke before Moses and the leaders, the heads of the Israelite families. ² They said, “The Lord instructed my lord to allocate the land to the Israelites as an inheritance by lot, and my lord was directed by the Lord to assign the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters. ³ But if they marry men from other Israelite tribes, their inheritance will be removed from our ancestral inheritance and added to the tribe into which they marry, thereby diminishing our allotted inheritance. ⁴ When the Year of Jubilee for the Israelites arrives, their inheritance will be added to the tribe into which they marry, and their property will be withdrawn from our ancestral tribe's inheritance.” ⁵ Moses then conveyed the Lord's command to the Israelites, saying, “The tribe of the descendants of Joseph is correct in its assertions. ⁶ This is what the Lord commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad: They may marry anyone they wish, provided they marry within their father's tribal family. ⁷ Thus, no inheritance in Israel shall be transferred from tribe to tribe, for each Israelite shall maintain the inheritance of their ancestral tribe. ⁸ Every daughter who inherits land in any Israelite tribe must marry someone from her father's tribal family, so that each Israelite may retain the inheritance of their ancestors. ⁹ No inheritance may be transferred from one tribe to another, for each Israelite tribe is to keep its own inheritance.” ¹⁰ The daughters of Zelophehad acted as the Lord had commanded Moses. ¹¹ Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, married their cousins on their father's side. ¹² They married into the families of the descendants of Manasseh, son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained within their father's tribe and family. ¹³ These are the commands and regulations the Lord gave to the Israelites through Moses on the plains of Moab by the Jordan, opposite Jericho.

Deuteronomy

1 These are the words Moses addressed to all Israel across the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab. ² It is an eleven-day journey from Horeb by way of Mount Seir to Kadesh Barnea. ³ In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the Israelites, in accordance with all that the Lord had commanded him to declare to them, ⁴ after he had overcome Sihon king of the Amorites, who resided in Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth and Edrei. ⁵ On the other side of the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to clarify this law, saying, ⁶ "The Lord our God spoke to us at Horeb, 'You have remained at this mountain long enough. ⁷ Turn and set out on your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites, and to all their neighbours in the Arabah, in the hill country, in the lowlands, in the Negev, by the seacoast, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the Euphrates. ⁸ See, I have placed the land before you; go in and take possession of the land which the Lord swore to give to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and to their descendants after them.' ⁹ "At that time I said to you, 'I am not able to bear the burden of you alone. ¹⁰ The Lord your God has multiplied you, and behold, today you are as numerous as the stars in the sky. ¹¹ May the Lord, the God of your ancestors, increase you a thousand times more and bless you, just as He has promised! ¹² But how can I alone bear the weight of your problems, burdens, and disputes? ¹³ Select for yourselves wise, discerning, and respected men from each of your tribes, and I will appoint them as your leaders.' ¹⁴ And you answered me, 'What you propose to do is good.' ¹⁵ So I took the leading men of your tribes, wise and respected, and appointed them as leaders over you, commanders of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens, and officers for your tribes. ¹⁶ "Then I charged your judges at that time, saying, 'Hear the cases between your people and judge fairly, whether the case is between two Israelites or between an Israelite and a foreigner residing among you. ¹⁷ Do not show partiality in judgment; hear both small and great alike. Do not be afraid of anyone, for the judgment is God's. Bring any case too difficult for you to me, and I will hear it.' ¹⁸ At that time I commanded you all the things you were to do. ¹⁹ "Then we set out from Horeb and went through all that vast and dreadful wilderness that you saw, on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as the Lord our God had commanded us, and we reached Kadesh Barnea. ²⁰ And I said to you, 'You have reached the hill country of the Amorites, which the Lord our God is giving us. ²¹ See, the Lord your God has placed the land before you; go up and take possession of it, just as the Lord, the God of your ancestors, has spoken to you. Do not be afraid or discouraged.' ²² "Then all of you came to me and said, 'Let us send men ahead of us to spy out the land and bring back a report about the route we are to take and the towns we will come to.' ²³ The plan seemed good to me, so I selected twelve of you, one man for each tribe. ²⁴ They set out and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshkol and explored it. ²⁵ Taking with them some of the fruit of the land, they brought it down to us and reported, 'The land that the Lord our God is giving us is good.' ²⁶ Yet you were unwilling to go up; you rebelled against the command of the Lord your God. ²⁷ You grumbled in your tents and said, 'Because the Lord hates us, He has brought us out of Egypt to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us. ²⁸ Where can we go? Our brothers have made our hearts melt, saying, "The people are stronger and taller than we are; the cities are large and fortified up to heaven. We even saw the Anakites there." ²⁹ I encouraged you, saying, 'Do not be terrified or fear them. ³⁰ The Lord your God, who goes before you, will fight for you, just as He did for you in Egypt before your eyes, ³¹ and in the wilderness where you saw how the Lord your God carried you, as a father carries his son, all the way you went until you reached this place.' ³² Yet, despite this, you did not trust the Lord your God, ³³ who went ahead of you on your journey, to seek out places for you to camp, in fire by night and in a cloud by day, to show you the way you should go. ³⁴ When the Lord heard what you said, He was angry and swore an oath: ³⁵ 'Not one of this evil generation shall see the good land I swore to give your ancestors, ³⁶ except for Caleb son of Jephunneh. He will see it, and I will give him and his descendants the land he set his feet on, because he followed the Lord with complete devotion.' ³⁷ The Lord was also angry with me because of you, saying, 'You shall not enter it, either. ³⁸ Joshua son of Nun, who stands before you, will enter it. Encourage him, for he will lead Israel to inherit it. ³⁹ Moreover, you little ones whom you said would be taken captive, your children who do not yet know good from bad, they will enter the land. I will give it to them, and they will take possession of it.⁴⁰ But as for you, turn around and set out toward the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.’⁴¹ “Then you replied, ‘We have sinned against the Lord. We will go up and fight, as the Lord our God commanded us.’ So each of you put on his weapons, thinking it easy to go up into the hill country.⁴² But the Lord said to me, ‘Tell them, “Do not go up and fight, for I am not among you; otherwise, you will be defeated by your enemies.”’⁴³ So I spoke to you, but you would not listen. You rebelled against the Lord’s command and acted presumptuously and went up into the hill country.⁴⁴ The Amorites who lived in those hills came out against you; they chased you like a swarm of bees and beat you down from Seir to Hormah.⁴⁵ You returned and wept before the Lord, but He paid no attention to your weeping and turned a deaf ear to you.⁴⁶ So you stayed in Kadesh many days—all the time you spent there.

Deuteronomy

2 Then we turned and set out towards the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea, as the Lord had instructed me, and we made our way around Mount Seir for many days.² Then the Lord spoke to me and said,³ “You have circled this hill country long enough; now turn north.”⁴ Command the people, saying, ‘You are about to pass through the territory of your brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you, so be very careful.’⁵ Do not provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of their land, not even as much as a footprint, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as his possession.⁶ You are to buy food from them with money so that you may eat, and also purchase water from them with money so that you may drink.”

⁷ For the Lord your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He has watched over your journey through this vast wilderness. These forty years the Lord your God has been with you; you have not lacked anything.⁸ So we passed by our brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir, away from the Arabah road, away from Elath and Ezion-geber, and we turned and travelled along the desert road of Moab.⁹ Then the Lord instructed me, “Do not harass Moab or provoke them to war, for I will not give you any part of their land as a possession, because I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as a possession.”¹⁰ (The Emmites used to live there—a people as great, numerous, and tall as the Anakites.¹¹ Like the Anakites, they too were regarded as Rephaim, but the Moabites called them Emmites.¹² The Horites previously lived in Seir, but the descendants of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them, and settled in their place, just as Israel did in the land of their possession which the Lord gave them.)¹³ And the Lord said, “Now arise and cross over the Zered Valley.” So we crossed the valley.¹⁴ The time it took for us to come from Kadesh Barnea until we crossed over the Zered Valley was thirty-eight years, until that entire generation of fighting men had perished from the camp, as the Lord had sworn to them.¹⁵ Certainly, the Lord’s power was against them, leading to their destruction within the camp until they all perished.¹⁶ When the last of these fighting men among the people had passed away,¹⁷ the Lord communicated to me,¹⁸ “On this day, you are to pass by the region of Moab at Ar.”¹⁹ When you come opposite the Ammonites, do not harass them or provoke them to war, for I will not give you possession of any land belonging to the Ammonites. I have given it as a possession to the descendants of Lot.”²⁰ (That too was considered a land of the Rephaim, who used to live there; but the Ammonites call them Zamzummmites,²¹ a people as great, numerous, and tall as the Anakites. The Lord destroyed them from before the Ammonites, who drove them out and settled in their place.²² The Lord had done the same for the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them. They dispossessed them and settled in their place, where they remain even to this day.²³ Regarding the Avvites who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorites coming out from Caphtor overcame them and settled in their place.²⁴ “Set out now and cross the Valley of Arnon. See, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his country. Begin to take possession of it and engage him in battle.”²⁵ This very day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the faces of all the nations under heaven. They will hear reports of you and will tremble and be in anguish because of you.”²⁶ From the wilderness of Kedemoth I sent messengers to Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying,²⁷ “We request to pass through your country. We will stay on the main road; we will not turn aside to the right or to the left.²⁸ You will sell us food for money so that we may eat, and give us water for money so that we may drink. Only let us pass through on foot—²⁹ just as the descendants of Esau in Seir and the Moabites in Ar allowed us—until we cross the Jordan into the land the Lord our God is giving us.”³⁰ But Sihon king of Heshbon was not willing for us to pass through his land; for the Lord your God had hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, in order to hand him over to you, as he is today.³¹ And the Lord said to me, “See, I have begun to deliver Sihon and his country over to you. Now begin to conquer and possess his land.”³² Sihon then came out with all his people to meet us in battle at Jahaz.³³ And the Lord our God delivered him over to us, and we defeated him with his sons and all his people.³⁴ At that time we captured all his towns and utterly destroyed the men, women, and children of every city. We left no survivors.³⁵ We took only the livestock and the plunder from the towns we had captured.³⁶ From Aroer on the edge of the Valley of Arnon, and from the town in the valley, even as far as Gilead, there was no town too strong for us. The Lord our God gave us all of them.³⁷ In obedience to the command of the Lord our God, you did not encroach on any of the land of the Ammonites, neither the land along the course of the Jabbok nor that around the towns in the hills.

Deuteronomy

3 Then we turned and went up the road towards Bashan, and Og, king of Bashan, came out with all his army to meet us in battle at Edrei.² The Lord said to me, “Do not be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you, along with all his army and his land. You shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon.”³ So the Lord our God delivered into our hands Og, king of Bashan, and all his people, and we struck them down until no survivors were left.⁴ At that time we captured all his cities; there was not a single city that we did not take from them—sixty cities, the entire region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.⁵ All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, in addition to a great many unwallled villages.⁶ We completely destroyed them, as we had done with Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying every city—men, women, and children.⁷ But all the livestock and the plunder from the cities we took for ourselves.⁸ At that time we took the land from the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the Valley of Arnon to Mount Hermon.⁹ (Hermon is called Sirion by the Sidonians, and the Amorites call it Senir.)¹⁰ We took all the cities of the plateau, all Gilead, and all Bashan as far as Salekah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.¹¹ (Og king of Bashan was the last of the Rephaim. His bed was made of iron and was more than nine cubits long and four cubits wide. It is still in Rabbah of the Ammonites.)¹² Of the land we took over at that time, I gave the Reubenites and the Gadites the territory north of Aroer by the Valley of Arnon, including half the hill country of Gilead, along with its cities.¹³ The rest of Gilead and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh. (The whole region of Argob in Bashan was known as a land of the Rephaim.)¹⁴ Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, took the entire region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites; it was named after him, so that to this day Bashan is called Havvoth Jair.¹⁵ And I gave Gilead to Machir.¹⁶ To the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave the territory from Gilead to the Valley of Arnon (the middle of the valley being the border) and as far as the Jabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites.¹⁷ Its western border was the Jordan in the Arabah, from Chinnereth to the Sea of the Arabah (that is, the Salt Sea), below the slopes of Pisgah.¹⁸ I commanded you at that time, saying, “The Lord your God has given you this land to possess it. All your valiant men, armed for battle, must cross over ahead of your fellow Israelites.¹⁹ However, your wives, your children, and your livestock (I know you have much livestock) may stay in the cities I have given you,²⁰ until the Lord gives rest to your fellow Israelites as he has to you, and they too have taken possession of the land the Lord your God is giving them beyond the Jordan. Then each of you may return to the possession I have given you.”²¹ At that time I commanded Joshua, “Your eyes have seen all that the Lord your God has done to these two kings. The Lord will do the same to all the kingdoms into which you are going.²² Do not fear them; the Lord your God will fight on your behalf.”²³ At that time I earnestly sought the Lord:²⁴ “Lord God, you have begun to reveal to your servant your greatness and your mighty hand. For what god is there in heaven or on earth who can perform the deeds and mighty works you do?²⁵ Please let me cross over and see the good land beyond the Jordan—that fine hill country and Lebanon.”²⁶ But the Lord was angry with me on account of you and would not listen to me. “That is enough,” the Lord said. “Do not speak to me anymore about this matter.”²⁷ Go up to the top of Pisgah and look west, north, south, and east. Look at the land with your own eyes, since you are not going to cross this Jordan.²⁸ But appoint Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, for he will lead this people across and will enable them to inherit the land that you will see.”²⁹ Thus, we remained in the valley opposite Beth Peor.

Deuteronomy

4 Now, Israel, listen to the statutes and decrees I am about to teach you to follow, so that you may live and enter and take possession of the land that the Lord, the God of your ancestors, is giving you.² Do not add to the word which I command you, nor take away from it, so that you may keep the commandments of the Lord your God that I am giving you.³ You have seen with your own eyes what the Lord did concerning Baal Peor, for the Lord your God destroyed from among you all who followed Baal Peor.⁴ But all of you who held fast to the Lord your God are alive today, every one of you.⁵ See, I have taught you statutes and decrees as the Lord my God commanded me, so that you may follow them in the land you are entering to possess.⁶ Observe them carefully, for this will show your wisdom and understanding to the nations, who will hear about all these statutes and say, “Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.”⁷ What other nation is so great as to have a god so near to them as the Lord our God is to us whenever we call upon Him?⁸ And what other nation is so great as to have such righteous statutes and decrees as this body of laws I am setting before you today?⁹ Only be careful, and watch over yourselves diligently, so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them fade from your heart as long as you live. Make them known to your children and to their children after them.¹⁰ Remember the day you stood before the Lord your God at Horeb, when He said to me, “Assemble the people before me to hear my words so that they may learn to revere me all the days they live on the earth and may teach them to their children.”¹¹ You approached and stood at the base of the mountain, which was ablaze with fire reaching to the heavens, surrounded by black clouds and deep darkness.¹² Then the Lord spoke to you from the midst of the fire; you heard the sound of words but saw no form—there was only a voice.¹³ He declared to you his covenant, the Ten Commandments, which He commanded you to follow and wrote them on two stone tablets.¹⁴ And the Lord commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and decrees, that you might follow them in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.¹⁵ Be very careful, since you saw no form on the day the Lord spoke to you at Horeb out of the fire.¹⁶ So that you do not become corrupt and make for yourselves an idol, an image of any shape, whether in the form of a man or a woman,¹⁷ or in the form of any animal on the earth or any bird that flies in the air,¹⁸ or in the form of any creature that moves along the ground or any fish in the waters below.¹⁹ And when you look up to the sky and see the sun, the moon, and the stars—all the heavenly array—do not be enticed into bowing down to them and worshipping things the Lord your God has apportioned to all the nations under heaven.²⁰ But as for you, the Lord took you and brought you out of the iron-smelting furnace, out of Egypt, to be a people of His own inheritance, as you are today.²¹ The Lord was angry with me because of you, and He swore that I would not cross the Jordan and enter the good land the Lord your God is giving you as your inheritance.²² I will remain in this land; I will not cross the Jordan; but you are about to cross over and take possession of that good land.²³ Be diligent not to forget the covenant of the Lord your God that He made with you; do not create an idol in any form that the Lord your God has forbidden.²⁴ For the Lord your God is a devouring fire, a God who desires exclusive devotion.²⁵ After you have had children and grandchildren and have lived in the land a long time—if you then become corrupt and create any kind of idol, doing what is evil in the eyes of the Lord your God and provoking His anger,²⁶ I call the heavens and the earth as witnesses against you today that you will quickly perish from the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess. You will not live there long but will certainly be destroyed.²⁷ The Lord will disperse you among the peoples, and only a few of you will remain among the nations to which the Lord will drive you.²⁸ There you will serve gods made by human hands, of wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or eat or smell.²⁹ But if from there you seek the Lord your God, you will find Him if you search for Him with all your heart and with all your soul. ³⁰ When you are in distress and all these things have happened to you, then in later days you will return to the Lord your God and obey His voice. ³¹ For the Lord your God is a compassionate God; He will not abandon or destroy you or forget the covenant with your ancestors, which He confirmed to them by oath. ³² Ask now about the former days, long before your time, from the day God created mankind on the earth; ask from one end of the heavens to the other. Has anything so great as this ever happened, or has anything like it ever been heard of? ³³ Has any other people heard the voice of God speaking out of fire, as you have, and survived? ³⁴ Has any god ever attempted to take for Himself one nation out of another nation, by trials, by signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, or by great and awesome deeds, like all the things the Lord your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes? ³⁵ You were shown these things so that you might know that the Lord is God; apart from Him there is no other. ³⁶ From heaven He made you hear His voice to instruct you. On earth He showed you His great fire, and you heard His words from out of the fire. ³⁷ Due to His love for your ancestors and His choice of their descendants, He brought you out of Egypt by His Presence and His great strength, ³⁸ to drive out before you nations greater and mightier than you and to bring you into their land to give it to you for your inheritance, as it is today. ³⁹ Recognise and take to heart this day that the Lord is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other. ⁴⁰ Keep His statutes and commandments, which I am giving you today, so that it may go well with you and your children after you and that you may live long in the land the Lord your God gives you for all time. ⁴¹ At that time, Moses appointed three cities east of the Jordan, ⁴² to which anyone who had killed a person could flee if they had unintentionally killed a neighbour without prior intent. They could flee into one of these cities and preserve their life. ⁴³ The cities were as follows: Bezer in the wilderness plateau, for the Reubenites; Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites. ⁴⁴ This is the law Moses presented to the Israelites. ⁴⁵ These are the testimonies, statutes, and ordinances Moses gave them when they came out of Egypt ⁴⁶ and were situated in the valley near Beth Peor, east of the Jordan, in the territory of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon and was defeated by Moses and the Israelites as they came out of Egypt. ⁴⁷ They took possession of his land along with the territory of Og king of Bashan, the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan. ⁴⁸ This land extended from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Gorge to Mount Sirion (that is, Hermon), ⁴⁹ and included all the Arabah east of the Jordan, as far as the Sea of the Arabah, below the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy

5 Moses called together all Israel and said to them: "Hear, O Israel, the statutes and decrees I am proclaiming in your hearing today. Learn them well and be diligent to observe them. ² The Lord, our God, established a covenant with us at Horeb. ³ It was not with our forefathers that the Lord made this covenant, but with us, all of us who are alive here today. ⁴ The Lord communicated with you directly at the mountain from the midst of the fire, ⁵ while I stood between the Lord and you at that time, to declare to you the word of the Lord; for you were afraid of the fire and did not go up the mountain. And He said: ⁶ 'I am the Lord your God, who delivered you from Egypt, out of the house of bondage. ⁷ 'You shall have no other gods before Me. ⁸ 'You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. ⁹ You shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I, the Lord your God, am a zealous God, bringing the consequences of the fathers' sins upon the children to the third and fourth generation of those who reject Me, ¹⁰ but showing love to thousands of generations of those who love Me and keep My commandments. ¹¹ 'You shall not misuse the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not consider anyone guiltless who misuses His name. ¹² 'Keep the Sabbath day holy, as the Lord your God has instructed you. ¹³ For six days you shall work and complete all your tasks, ¹⁴ but the seventh day is a day of rest dedicated to the Lord your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your male or female servant, nor your ox, your donkey or any of your animals, nor any foreigner residing in your towns, so that your male and female servants may rest, as you do. ¹⁵ Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the Lord your God brought you out of there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the Lord your God has instructed you to keep the Sabbath day. ¹⁶ 'Respect your father and your mother, as the Lord your God has instructed you, so that you may live long and that it may go well with you in the land the Lord your God is giving you. ¹⁷ 'You shall not commit murder. ¹⁸ 'You shall not commit adultery. ¹⁹ 'You shall not steal. ²⁰ 'You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour. ²¹ 'You shall not covet your neighbour's wife. You shall not desire your neighbour's house, his field, his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.' ²² These are the commandments the Lord proclaimed in a loud voice to your whole assembly on the mountain from out of the fire, the cloud, and the deep darkness; and He added nothing more. Then He wrote them on two stone tablets and gave them to me. ²³ When you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was ablaze with fire, all the leaders of your tribes and your elders approached me. ²⁴ And you said, 'The Lord our God has shown us His glory and His majesty, and we have heard His voice from the fire. Today we have seen that God can speak with man, and yet he lives. ²⁵ Yet now, why should we risk our lives? This great fire will consume us, and we fear that we will perish if we continue to hear the voice of the Lord our God. ²⁶ For who among all humanity has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and survived? ²⁷ Approach and listen to all that the Lord our God says. Then tell us whatever the Lord our God tells you. We will listen and obey.' ²⁸ The Lord heard you when you spoke to me, and the Lord said to me, 'I have heard what this people said to you. They have done well in all that they have spoken. ²⁹ Oh, that their hearts would be inclined to revere Me and keep all My commands always, so that it might go well with them and their children forever! ³⁰ 'Go, instruct them to return to their tents. ³¹ But you remain here with Me so that I may give you all the commands, decrees, and laws you are to teach them to follow in the land I am giving them to possess.' ³² So be careful to do just as the Lord your God has commanded you; do not turn aside to the right or to the left. ³³ Follow all that the Lord your God has commanded you, so that you may live and prosper and prolong your days in the land that you will possess.

Deuteronomy

6 These are the commandments, the statutes, and the laws which the Lord your God has instructed me to teach you, so that you may observe them in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess, ² so that you, your children, and their descendants may fear the Lord your God by keeping all His statutes and commandments that I command you, all the days of your life, and that you may enjoy long life. ³ Hear, O Israel, and be diligent to obey so that it may go well with you and that you may greatly increase in a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the Lord, the God of your ancestors, promised you. ⁴ Hear, O Israel: Of the Lord our God, the Lord is one. ⁵ You are to love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might. ⁶ These commandments that I am giving you today are to be upon your hearts. ⁷ Impress them upon your children. Speak of them when you sit at home, when you walk along the road, when you lie down, and when you rise. ⁸ Bind them as a sign on your hands and let them be as frontlets between your eyes. ⁹ Inscribe them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates. ¹⁰ When the Lord your God brings you into the land He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you—great and splendid cities which you did not build, ¹¹ houses filled with all sorts of good things you did not provide, wells you did not dig, and vineyards and olive groves you did not plant—then when you eat and are satisfied, ¹² be careful not to forget the Lord, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. ¹³ Worship the Lord your God, and serve Him only, and make your oaths in His name. ¹⁴ Do not follow other gods, any of the gods of the peoples around you; ¹⁵ for the Lord your God, who is among you, is a jealous God; otherwise, the anger of the Lord your God will be kindled against you, and He will wipe you off the face of the earth. ¹⁶ Do not test the Lord your God, like you did at Massah. ¹⁷ Be sure to keep the commandments of the Lord your God and the decrees and statutes He has given you. ¹⁸ Do what is right and good in the sight of the Lord, so that it may go well with you and that you may go in and take possession of the good land the Lord promised on oath to your ancestors, ¹⁹ by removing all your enemies from before you, as the Lord has spoken. ²⁰ In the future, when your son asks you, "What is the meaning of the statutes, decrees, and laws which the Lord our God has commanded you?"

Deuteronomy

²¹ tell him: “We were servants of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the Lord delivered us from Egypt with a mighty hand. ²² Before our eyes, the Lord performed great and terrible signs and wonders against Egypt, Pharaoh, and all his household. ²³ Yet He brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land He promised on oath to our ancestors. ²⁴ The Lord commanded us to follow all these statutes and to fear the Lord our God, for our good always and for our survival, as it is today. ²⁵ And it will be our righteousness if we are careful to obey all this commandment before the Lord our God, just as He commanded us.

7 When the Lord your God brings you into the land you are entering to take possession of, and drives out many nations before you—the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you— ² and when the Lord your God delivers them over to you and you defeat them, you shall utterly destroy them. Make no covenant with them, and show them no mercy. ³ Avoid intermarrying with them. Do not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, ⁴ for they will turn your children away from following me to serve other gods. Then the Lord’s anger will be kindled against you, and He will quickly destroy you. ⁵ This is what you shall do to them: Tear down their altars, smash their sacred stones, cut down their Asherah poles, and burn their carved images in the fire. ⁶ For you are a holy people to the Lord your God. The Lord your God has chosen you to be His treasured possession out of all the peoples on the face of the earth. ⁷ The Lord did not choose you because you were more numerous than other peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples. ⁸ But it was because the Lord loved you and kept the oath He swore to your forefathers that He brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the house of slavery, from the power of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. ⁹ Understand, therefore, that the Lord your God is God; He is the faithful God, maintaining His covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love Him and keep His commandments. ¹⁰ But those who hate Him He will repay to their face by destruction; He will not hesitate to repay to their face those who hate Him. ¹¹ So, be diligent to follow the commands, decrees, and laws I give you today. ¹² If you pay attention to these laws and are careful to follow them, then the Lord your God will maintain His covenant of love with you, as He swore to your ancestors. ¹³ He will love you, bless you, and increase your numbers. He will bless the fruit of your womb, the crops of your land—your grain, new wine, and olive oil—the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks in the land He swore to your forefathers to give you. ¹⁴ You will be blessed above all peoples; none of your men or women will be childless, nor will any of your livestock be without young. ¹⁵ The Lord will keep you free from every disease. He will not inflict on you the dreadful diseases you knew in Egypt, but He will give them to all who hate you. ¹⁶ You must destroy all the peoples the Lord your God delivers to you. Do not look on them with pity and do not serve their gods, for that would be a snare to you. ¹⁷ You may say in your heart, “These nations are greater than we are. How can we drive them out?” ¹⁸ But do not be afraid of them; remember clearly what the Lord your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt. ¹⁹ You witnessed with your own eyes the great trials, the signs and wonders, the mighty hand and outstretched arm with which the Lord your God brought you out. The Lord your God will do the same to all the peoples you now fear. ²⁰ Furthermore, the Lord your God will send the hornet among them until even the survivors who hide from you have perished. ²¹ Do not be dismayed by them, for the Lord your God, who is with you, is a mighty and awe-inspiring God. ²² The Lord your God will drive out those nations before you, little by little. You will not be able to eliminate them all at once, or the wild animals will become too numerous for you. ²³ However, the Lord your God will deliver them over to you, throwing them into great confusion until they are destroyed. ²⁴ He will hand their kings over to you, and you will wipe out their names from under heaven. No one will be able to stand against you; you will destroy them. ²⁵ The carved images of their gods you are to burn in the fire. Do not covet the silver and gold on them, nor take it for yourselves, or you will be ensnared by it, for it is detestable to the Lord your God. ²⁶ Do not bring anything abhorrent into your house, or you, like it, will become set apart for destruction. Consider it as vile and utterly reject it, for it is set apart for destruction.

8 Be diligent to observe all the commandments I am giving you today, so that you may live and multiply, and may enter and take possession of the land the Lord swore to your ancestors. ² And remember the entire journey the Lord your God has led you through in the wilderness these forty years, to humble you and to test you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not. ³ He humbled you by letting you hunger, and then fed you with manna, which you nor your fathers had known, to make you understand that man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of the Lord. ⁴ Your clothing did not wear out, nor did your feet swell during these forty years. ⁵ Understand then in your heart that the Lord your God disciplines you just as a man disciplines his son. ⁶ Therefore, keep the commandments of the Lord your God, to walk in His ways and to revere Him. ⁷ For the Lord your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with streams, fountains, and springs, flowing out in valleys and hills; ⁸ a land rich with wheat and barley, vines, fig trees, and pomegranates, abundant in olive oil and honey; ⁹ a land where you will eat without scarcity, where you will lack nothing; a land whose stones are iron, and from whose hills you can extract copper. ¹⁰ When you have eaten and are satisfied, you shall bless the Lord your God for the good land He has given you. ¹¹ Be careful not to forget the Lord your God by failing to keep His commandments, His laws, and His decrees which I am giving you today; ¹² otherwise, when you eat and are satisfied, and you build fine houses and live in them, ¹³ and when your herds and flocks grow large, and your silver and gold increase, and all your possessions multiply, ¹⁴ then your heart will become proud and you will forget the Lord your God who brought you out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. ¹⁵ He led you through the vast and terrible wilderness, with its fiery serpents and scorpions, and its thirsty ground where there was no water; He brought water for you out of the rock of flint. ¹⁶ He fed you with manna in the wilderness, which your fathers had not known, to humble you and test you, to do you good in the end. ¹⁷ You may say in your heart, 'My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me.' ¹⁸ But remember the Lord your God, for it is He who gives you the ability to produce wealth, in order to confirm His covenant which He swore to your ancestors, as it is today. ¹⁹ If you ever forget the Lord your God and follow other gods, serving and worshipping them, I testify against you today that you will surely perish. ²⁰

Deuteronomy

As with the nations the Lord destroyed before you, so you will perish, for not obeying the voice of the Lord your God.

9 Hear, O Israel: You are about to cross the Jordan today to enter and dispossess nations greater and stronger than you, with large cities fortified up to the heavens. ² The people are strong and tall—the Anakim. You know about them, and you have heard it said, 'Who can stand up to the descendants of Anak?' ³ But understand today that the Lord your God goes before you as a consuming fire. He will destroy them and subdue them before you. So you shall drive them out and annihilate them swiftly, as the Lord has promised. ⁴ When the Lord your God has driven them out before you, do not say in your heart, 'It is because of my righteousness that the Lord has brought me in to possess this land.' Rather, it is because of the wickedness of these nations that the Lord is dispossessing them before you. ⁵ It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you are going in to possess their land. Instead, it is because of their wickedness that the Lord your God is driving them out before you, to confirm the promise He made to your ancestors—to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ⁶ Know, therefore, that it is not on account of your righteousness that the Lord your God is giving you this good land to possess—for you are a stiff-necked people. ⁷ Remember and do not forget how you provoked the Lord your God to anger in the wilderness. From the day you left Egypt until you arrived here, you have been rebellious toward the Lord. ⁸ At Horeb you aroused the Lord's anger so that He was ready to destroy you. ⁹ When I went up the mountain to receive the stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant the Lord made with you, I remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights. I ate no bread and drank no water. ¹⁰ The Lord gave me two stone tablets written with His own finger. On them were all the words the Lord had spoken to you from the fire on the mountain on the day of the assembly. ¹¹ At the end of forty days and forty nights, the Lord gave me the two stone tablets—the tablets of the covenant. ¹² Then the Lord said to me, 'Get up and go down quickly from here, for your people whom you brought out of Egypt have corrupted themselves. They have quickly turned aside from the way I commanded them and have made for themselves an idol.' ¹³ And the Lord said, 'I have seen this people, and they are indeed a stubborn people. ¹⁴ Leave Me alone, so that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven. Then I will make you into a nation stronger and more numerous than they.' ¹⁵ So I turned and came down the mountain while it was ablaze with fire, with the two tablets of the covenant in my hands. ¹⁶ And I saw that you had sinned against the Lord your God; you had made for yourselves a calf idol. You had quickly turned aside from the way the Lord commanded you. ¹⁷ So I took the two tablets and threw them out of my hands, breaking them before your eyes. ¹⁸ Then I lay face down before the Lord for forty days and forty nights, as I had done the first time. I did not eat bread or drink water because of all the sin you had committed, doing what was evil in the Lord's sight and provoking Him to anger. ¹⁹ I was afraid of the fierce anger of the Lord, who was so angry with you He was ready to destroy you. But the Lord listened to me that time also. ²⁰ The Lord was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him, but I prayed for Aaron at that time too. ²¹ Then I took that sinful thing you had made—the calf—and burned it in the fire, crushed it and ground it to powder as fine as dust, and threw the dust into the stream that flows down from the mountain. ²² You also provoked the Lord at Taberah, at Massah, and at Kibroth Hattaavah. ²³ And when the Lord sent you from Kadesh Barnea saying, 'Go up and take possession of the land I have given you,' you rebelled against the command of the Lord your God. You neither trusted Him nor obeyed Him. ²⁴ You have been rebellious against the Lord from the day I first knew you. ²⁵ So I lay prostrate before the Lord those forty days and forty nights because the Lord had said He would destroy you. ²⁶ I prayed to the Lord and said, 'Lord God, do not destroy Your people, Your inheritance, whom You redeemed through Your greatness and brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. ²⁷ Remember Your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Do not look on the stubbornness of this people, or on their wickedness and sin. ²⁸ Otherwise, the land from which You brought us will say, "Because the Lord was not able to bring them into the land He promised, and because He hated them, He brought them out to kill them in the wilderness." ²⁹ Yet they are Your people—Your inheritance—whom You brought out by Your great power and outstretched arm.

Deuteronomy

10 At that time, the Lord said to me, "Carve out two stone tablets like the first ones and come up to Me on the mountain, and make a wooden ark for yourself. ² I will inscribe on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you shattered. Then you are to place them in the ark." ³ So I made an ark of acacia wood and carved out two stone tablets like the first ones, and I went up the mountain with the two tablets in my hands. ⁴ The Lord inscribed on the tablets the same words as before, the Ten Commandments which He had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly, and He gave them to me. ⁵ Then I turned and descended the mountain and placed the tablets in the ark I had made, as the Lord had commanded me, and they remain there to this day. ⁶ (The Israelites journeyed from the wells of Bene Jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died and was buried, and Eleazar his son succeeded him as priest. ⁷ From there they travelled to Gudgodah and then to Jotbathah, a land with streams of water. ⁸ At that time, the Lord set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to stand before the Lord to serve Him and to bless in His name, as they continue to do today. ⁹ This is why the Levites have no share or inheritance among their fellow Israelites; the Lord is their inheritance, as the Lord your God promised them.) ¹⁰ I stayed on the mountain for forty days and forty nights, as I did the first time, and the Lord listened to me once more; He was not willing to destroy you. ¹¹ The Lord said to me, "Get up, lead the people on their journey, so that they may enter and possess the land I swore to their ancestors to give them." ¹² And now, Israel, what does the Lord your God ask of you but to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all His ways, to love Him, and to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, ¹³ and to observe the Lord's commandments and decrees that I am giving you today for your benefit? ¹⁴ The heavens, even the highest heavens, the earth and everything in it, belong to the Lord your God. ¹⁵ Yet the Lord set His affection on your ancestors and loved them, and He chose you, their descendants, above all the other nations, as it is today. ¹⁶ Circumcise your hearts, therefore, and do not be stubborn any longer. ¹⁷ For the Lord your God is the God of gods and the Lord of lords, the great, mighty, and awesome God, who shows no partiality and accepts no bribes. ¹⁸ He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow, and loves the foreigner residing among you, providing them with food and clothing.¹⁹ Show love to those who are foreigners, for you yourselves were foreigners in Egypt.²⁰ Revere the Lord your God and serve Him. Stay close to Him and make your oaths in His name.²¹ He is your praise, and He is your God, who has performed for you those great and awesome wonders you witnessed with your own eyes.²² Your ancestors went down into Egypt seventy in number, and now the Lord your God has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky.

Deuteronomy

11 Love the Lord your God, and always keep His requirements, His statutes, His ordinances, and His commandments.² Know this day that I am not speaking with your children who have not known and have not seen the discipline of the Lord your God—His greatness, His mighty hand, and His outstretched arm,³ and the signs He performed and the deeds He did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to all his land;⁴ and what He did to the Egyptian army, to its horses and chariots, when He made the waters of the Red Sea engulf them as they pursued you, and the Lord brought lasting ruin upon them;⁵ and what He did for you in the wilderness until you came to this place;⁶ and what He did to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab, son of Reuben, when the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their households, their tents, and every living thing that belonged to them, in the midst of all Israel—⁷ but it was your own eyes that saw all the great works the Lord has done.⁸ Therefore, observe all the commandments I am giving you today, so that you may have the strength to go in and take possession of the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess,⁹ and so that you may have a long life in the land the Lord promised to your ancestors and their descendants, a land abundant with milk and honey.¹⁰ For the land you are entering to take possession of is not like the land of Egypt, from which you came, where you sowed your seed and watered it by foot as in a vegetable garden.¹¹ But the land you are crossing the Jordan to take possession of is a land of hills and valleys that receives rain from heaven.¹² It is a land the Lord your God watches over; His eyes are continually upon it from the start of the year to its end.¹³ And it shall come to pass, if you faithfully obey the commandments I am giving you today, to love the Lord your God and to serve Him with all your heart and all your soul,¹⁴ that He will provide rain for your land in its season, both the early and late rains, so that you may gather in your grain, new wine, and olive oil.¹⁵ He will also provide grass in your fields for your cattle, and you will eat and be satisfied.¹⁶ Be careful, lest your hearts be deceived and you turn away and worship other gods and bow down to them.¹⁷ Then the Lord's anger will be kindled against you, and He will shut up the heavens so that there will be no rain, and the ground will yield no produce, and you will quickly perish from the good land the Lord is giving you.¹⁸ Therefore, take these words of mine to heart and soul; tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads.¹⁹ Teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.²⁰ Inscribe them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates,²¹ so that your days and the days of your children may be numerous in the land the Lord promised to give your ancestors, as numerous as the days that the heavens are above the earth.²² If you carefully observe all this commandment I am giving you to follow—to love the Lord your God, to walk in all His ways and to hold fast to Him—²³ then the Lord will drive out all these nations before you, and you will take possession of nations greater and mightier than you.²⁴ Every place where you set your foot will be yours: your territory will extend from the wilderness to Lebanon, and from the river Euphrates to the western sea.²⁵ No one will be able to stand against you; the Lord your God will put the fear and dread of you on all the land, as He has promised you.²⁶ Behold, I present to you today both a blessing and a curse:²⁷ the blessing if you obey the commandments of the Lord your God that I am giving you today;²⁸ and the curse if you do not obey the commandments of the Lord your God, but turn aside from the way I am commanding you today by following other gods, which you have not known.²⁹ And it shall come to pass, when the Lord your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess, you shall proclaim the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.³⁰ Are they not across the Jordan, westward, toward the setting sun, in the land of the Canaanites living in the Arabah, opposite Gilgal, beside the great trees of Moreh?³¹ For you are about to cross the Jordan to go in and take possession of the land the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall possess it and live in it,³² and you shall be careful to obey all the statutes and judgments I am setting before you today.

Deuteronomy

12 These are the statutes and decrees which you must carefully follow in the land that the Lord, the God of your forefathers, has given you to possess, for as long as you live on the earth.² You shall completely destroy all the places where the nations you are dispossessing serve their gods, on the high mountains, on the hills, and under every spreading tree.³ Tear down their altars, smash their sacred stones, burn their Asherah poles in the fire, and cut down the carved images of their gods, eliminating their names from those places.⁴ You must not worship the Lord your God in their manner.⁵ Instead, seek the place the Lord your God will choose from all your tribes to establish his Name for his dwelling, and there you must go.⁶ Bring there your burnt offerings, sacrifices, tithes, special gifts, vowed offerings, freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks.⁷ There, in the presence of the Lord your God, you and your households shall eat and rejoice in all your undertakings, because the Lord your God has blessed you.⁸ You shall not do as we do here today, everyone doing what is right in their own eyes.⁹ For you have not yet reached the resting place and the inheritance the Lord your God is giving you.¹⁰ But when you cross the Jordan and settle in the land the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance, and he gives you rest from all your enemies around you so that you live in safety,¹¹ then to the place the Lord your God will choose for his Name to dwell, there you shall bring everything I command you: your burnt offerings, sacrifices, tithes, special gifts, and all your choice vowed offerings to the Lord.¹² And you shall rejoice before the Lord your God—you, your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, and the Levites from your towns, for they have no allotment or inheritance with you.¹³ Be careful not to offer your burnt offerings in any place you see.¹⁴ Offer them only at the place the Lord will choose in one of your tribes, and there observe all that I command you.¹⁵ Nevertheless, you may slaughter your animals in any of your towns and eat as much of the meat as you desire, according to the blessing the Lord your God gives you. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat it, as if it were gazelle or deer.¹⁶ But you must not consume the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.¹⁷ You must not eat in your own towns the tithe of your grain, new wine, or olive oil, or the firstborn of your herds and flocks, or any of your vowed offerings, freewill offerings, or special gifts.¹⁸ Instead, you are to eat them in the presence of the Lord your God at the place the Lord your God will choose—you, your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, and the Levites from your towns—and you shall rejoice in all your undertakings.¹⁹ Be mindful to support the Levites as long as you live in your land.²⁰ When the Lord your God enlarges your territory as he has promised, and you crave meat and say, “I would like some meat,” then you may eat as much of it as you desire.²¹ If the place where the Lord your God chooses to put his Name is too far from you, you may slaughter animals from your herds and flocks the Lord has given you, as I have commanded you, and you may eat in your own towns as much as you desire.²² Consume them as you would gazelle or deer. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may partake.²³ But be sure you do not consume the blood, for the blood is the life, and you must not eat the life with the meat.²⁴ You must not consume the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.²⁵ Refrain from eating it, so that it may be well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is right in the sight of the Lord.²⁶ But take your consecrated things and your vowed offerings, and go to the place the Lord will choose.²⁷ Present your burnt offerings on the altar of the Lord your God, both the meat and the blood. The blood of your sacrifices must be poured beside the altar of the Lord your God, but you may consume the meat.²⁸ Be diligent to obey all these regulations I am giving you, so that it may always be well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is good and right in the sight of the Lord your God.²⁹ The Lord your God will remove the nations you are about to invade and dispossess. But when you have driven them out and settled in their land,³⁰ be careful not to be ensnared by inquiring about their gods, saying, “How do these nations serve their gods? We will do the same.”³¹ You must not worship the Lord your God in their manner, because in worshipping their gods, they do all kinds of detestable things the Lord hates. They even burn their sons and daughters in the fire as sacrifices to their gods. ³² Ensure that you do all I command you; do not add to it or take away from it.

Deuteronomy

13 If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you and presents a sign or wonder, ² and the sign or wonder comes to pass, and he says, 'Let us follow other gods' (gods you have not known) 'and let us serve them,' ³ you must not heed the words of that prophet or dreamer. The Lord your God is testing you to see if you truly love Him with all your heart and soul. ⁴ You must follow the Lord your God and fear Him. Keep His commandments, listen to His voice, serve Him, and hold fast to Him. ⁵ That prophet or dreamer must be put to death, for he has spoken against the Lord your God who brought you out of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, seeking to lead you astray from the path the Lord your God commanded you to follow. Thus, you must eliminate the evil from among you. ⁶ If your own brother, your son or daughter, the wife you love, or your closest friend secretly entices you, saying, 'Let us go and serve other gods' (gods neither you nor your ancestors have known, ⁷ gods of the peoples around you, whether near or far, from one end of the earth to the other), ⁸ do not yield to or listen to them. Show no pity. Do not spare or conceal them. ⁹ You must certainly put them to death. Your hand must be the first against them to put them to death, and then the hands of all the people. ¹⁰ Stone them to death, because they sought to lead you away from the Lord your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. ¹¹ Then all Israel will hear and be afraid, and no one will do such a wicked thing among you again. ¹² If you hear it said in one of the towns the Lord your God is giving you to live in ¹³ that some worthless men have arisen among you and have led the people of their town astray, saying, 'Let us go and serve other gods' (gods you have not known), ¹⁴ then you must investigate, search out, and inquire thoroughly. If it is true and it has been proven that this detestable thing has been done among you, ¹⁵ you must certainly put to the sword all who live in that town. Destroy it utterly, both its people and its livestock. ¹⁶ Gather all the plunder of the town into the middle of the public square and burn the town and all its plunder as a whole burnt offering to the Lord your God. It shall remain a ruin forever, never to be rebuilt. ¹⁷ Nothing that is designated for destruction should remain in your hands, so that the Lord may turn from His fierce anger and show you mercy, and have compassion on you and increase your numbers, as He promised on oath to your ancestors— ¹⁸ if you obey the Lord your God by keeping all His commandments that I am giving you today and doing what is right in the sight of the Lord your God.

14 You are the children of the Lord your God; you shall not cut yourselves or shave a bald spot on your forehead for the dead. ² For you are a holy people to the Lord your God, and out of all the peoples on the face of the earth, the Lord has chosen you to be His treasured possession. ³ You shall not consume anything considered detestable. ⁴ These are the animals permitted for you to eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat, ⁵ the stag, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope, and the mountain sheep. ⁶ You may eat any animal that has a divided hoof and chews the cud. ⁷ However, among those that chew the cud or have a divided hoof, you may not eat the camel, the rabbit, or the hyrax. Although they chew the cud, they do not have a divided hoof; they are unclean for you. ⁸ The pig is also unclean for you; it has a divided hoof but does not chew the cud. You shall not eat their meat or touch their carcasses. ⁹ Of all the creatures living in the water, you may eat anything that has fins and scales. ¹⁰ But anything lacking fins and scales should not be eaten; it is unclean for you. ¹¹ You may eat any bird that is considered clean. ¹² But these you shall not eat: the eagle, the vulture, and the buzzard, ¹³ the red kite, the black kite, any type of falcon, ¹⁴ any species of raven, ¹⁵ the ostrich, the owl, the seagull, and any kind of hawk, ¹⁶ the various owls, ¹⁷ the pelican, the osprey, the cormorant, ¹⁸ the stork, any variety of heron, the hoopoe, and the bat. ¹⁹ All flying insects are considered unclean for you; refrain from eating them. ²⁰ But you may eat any clean winged creature. ²¹ You shall not eat anything that dies of itself. You may give it to the foreigner residing in your towns, and they may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner; for you are a holy people to the Lord your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk. ²² You shall certainly set aside a tenth of all that your fields produce each year. ²³ Consume the tithe of your grain, new wine, and olive oil, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks in the presence of the Lord your God at the place He will choose as a dwelling for His Name, so that you may learn to revere the Lord your God always. ²⁴ But if the place is too distant and you have been blessed by the Lord your God and cannot carry your tithe, because the place where the Lord will choose to put His Name is too far away, ²⁵ then convert your tithe into silver, and take the silver with you and go to the place the Lord your God will choose. ²⁶ Use the silver to buy whatever you desire: cattle, sheep, wine, or other strong drink, or anything you wish. Then you and your household shall eat there in the presence of the Lord your God and rejoice. ²⁷ And remember the Levites living in your towns, for they have no allotment or inheritance of their own. ²⁸ At the end of every three years, gather all the tithes of that year's produce and store it in your towns, ²⁹ so that the Levites, who have no share or inheritance of their own, along with the foreigners, the fatherless, and the widows who reside in your towns, may come and eat and be satisfied. In this way, the Lord your God will bless you in all the work of your hands.

Deuteronomy

15 At the conclusion of every seven years, you shall provide a remission of debts. ² This is the manner of the release: every creditor shall forgive what he has lent to his neighbour; he shall not demand it from his fellow Israelite, for the Lord's time of release has been proclaimed. ³ You may demand payment from a foreigner, but you must forgive whatever your brother owes you. ⁴ There should be no poor among you, for the Lord will bless you in the land that He is giving you as an inheritance to possess, ⁵ if only you carefully listen to the voice of the Lord your God and observe all these commandments that I am giving you today. ⁶ The Lord your God will bless you as He has promised, and you will lend to many nations but will not borrow; you will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you. ⁷ If there is a poor person among you, one of your fellow Israelites, in any of the towns of the land that the Lord your God is giving you, do not harden your heart or close your hand against your poor brother. ⁸ Instead, open your hand freely to him and lend him whatever he needs. ⁹ Be careful not to harbour this wicked thought: 'The seventh year, the year of release, is near,' so that you show ill will towards your needy brother and give him nothing. He may then appeal to the Lord against you, and you will be guilty of sin. ¹⁰ You shall give generously to him, and your heart shall not be grudging when you give to him, because for this the Lord your God will bless you in all your work and in all that you undertake. ¹¹ For the poor will never cease to be in the land; therefore I command you to open your hand freely to your brother, to your needy and poor in your land. ¹² If your fellow Hebrew, a man or a woman, is sold to you and serves you for six years, then in the seventh year you must let them go free. ¹³ And when you set them free, do not send them away empty-handed. ¹⁴ Provide them generously from your flock, your threshing floor, and your winepress. Give to them as the Lord your God has blessed you. ¹⁵ Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the Lord your God redeemed you; that is why I am giving you this command today. ¹⁶ But if your servant says to you, 'I will not leave you,' because he loves you and your household and is well off with you, ¹⁷ then take an awl and pierce it through his ear into the door, and he shall be your servant for life. Do the same for your female servant. ¹⁸ Do not consider it a hardship to set your servant free, because their service to you these six years has been worth twice as much as that of a hired worker. The Lord your God will bless you in all that you do. ¹⁹ Consecrate to the Lord your God all the firstborn males of your herds and flocks. Do not work with the firstborn of your cattle, nor shear the firstborn of your sheep. ²⁰ You and your household shall eat them each year in the presence of the Lord your God at the place He will choose. ²¹ If an animal has any defect, is lame or blind, or has any serious flaw, you must not sacrifice it to the Lord your God. ²² You may eat it within your towns. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat it, as if it were gazelle or deer. ²³ But you must not consume the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

16 Keep the month of Abib and honour the Passover to the Lord your God, for it was in the month of Abib that the Lord your God led you out of Egypt by night. ² Sacrifice the Passover to the Lord your God from your flock or herd, at the place the Lord chooses to establish His name. ³ Do not eat it with leavened bread; for seven days eat unleavened bread, the bread of affliction, because you left Egypt in haste, so that you may remember the day of your departure from Egypt all the days of your life. ⁴ Let no leaven be found with you in all your territory for seven days. Do not let any of the meat you sacrifice on the evening of the first day remain until morning. ⁵ You must not sacrifice the Passover in any of the towns the Lord your God gives you; ⁶ but only at the place the Lord your God will choose to establish His name. There you shall sacrifice the Passover in the evening, at sunset, at the time of your departure from Egypt. ⁷ Roast and eat it at the place the Lord your God will choose. Then in the morning, return to your tents. ⁸ For six days eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day hold a solemn assembly to the Lord your God; do no work. ⁹ Begin counting seven weeks from the time you start to harvest the standing grain. ¹⁰ Then observe the Festival of Weeks to the Lord your God by presenting a freewill offering in accordance with the blessings the Lord your God has given you. ¹¹ Rejoice before the Lord your God—you, your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, the Levites in your towns, and the foreigners, the fatherless, and the widows living among you, at the place the Lord your God will choose to establish His name. ¹² Remember that you were slaves in Egypt, and carefully follow these decrees. ¹³ Celebrate the Festival of Booths for seven days after you have gathered the produce of your threshing floor and your winepress. ¹⁴ Rejoice at your festival—you, your sons and daughters, your male and female servants, and the Levites, the foreigners, the fatherless, and the widows who live in your towns. ¹⁵ For seven days celebrate the festival to the Lord your God at the place the Lord will choose. The Lord your God will bless you in all your harvest and in all the work of your hands, and your joy will be complete. ¹⁶ Three times a year all your males must appear before the Lord your God at the place He will choose: at the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Booths. No one should appear before the Lord empty-handed. ¹⁷ Each of you must bring a gift in accordance with the way the Lord your God has blessed you. ¹⁸ Appoint judges and officials for each of your tribes in every town the Lord your God is giving you, and they shall judge the people with righteous judgement. ¹⁹ Do not pervert justice or show partiality. Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and distorts the words of the righteous. ²⁰ Pursue justice, and only justice, so that you may live and possess the land the Lord your God is giving you. ²¹ Do not plant an Asherah pole of any kind of tree beside the altar of the Lord your God, which you shall make for yourself. ²² And do not set up a sacred stone, for these the Lord your God hates.

Deuteronomy

17 Do not sacrifice to the Lord your God an ox or a sheep that has any defect or flaw, for that would be detestable to Him. ² If a man or woman among you, in any of your towns that the Lord your God is giving you, is found doing evil in the sight of the Lord by transgressing His covenant— ³ by going and serving other gods and bowing down to them, whether to the sun or moon or the host of heaven, which I have not commanded— ⁴ and it is told to you and you hear of it, you must investigate thoroughly. If it is proven true that such a detestable thing has been done in Israel, ⁵ then bring out to your gates the man or woman who has done this evil deed and stone them to death. ⁶ On the testimony of two or three witnesses the one deserving death is to be put to death. No one shall be put to death on the testimony of a single witness. ⁷ The hands of the witnesses must be the first to carry out the execution, and afterward the hands of all the people. You must purge the evil from among you. ⁸ If a case arises that is too difficult for you to judge—whether bloodshed, lawsuits, or assault—within your gates, then you must go up to the place the Lord your God will choose. ⁹ Go to the Levitical priests and to the judge who is in office at that time. Inquire of them, and they will declare to you the legal decision. ¹⁰ You must act according to the decision they give you at the place the Lord chooses. Be careful to do all that they instruct you. ¹¹ Follow the law they teach you and the decision they pronounce. Do not turn aside from what they tell you, either to the right or the left. ¹² Anyone who arrogantly refuses to listen to the priest who stands to minister before the Lord your God, or to the judge, must be put to death. You must purge the evil from Israel. ¹³ Then all the people will hear and be afraid, and will not act arrogantly again. ¹⁴ When you enter the land the Lord your God is giving you and have taken possession of it and settled there, and you say, 'Let us appoint a king over us like all the nations around us,' ¹⁵ you must appoint a king over you whom the Lord your God chooses. He must be one of your fellow Israelites. You must not place a foreigner over you, one who is not your brother. ¹⁶ The king must not acquire many horses for himself or send people to Egypt to get more, since the Lord has said to you, 'You must never go back that way again.' ¹⁷ He must not take many wives, or his heart will be led astray. Nor shall he accumulate large amounts of silver and gold.¹⁸ When he takes the throne of his kingdom, he is to write for himself on a scroll a copy of this law, taken from the scroll kept by the Levitical priests.¹⁹ It is to remain with him, and he is to read from it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to fear the Lord his God and carefully follow all the words of this law and these statutes.²⁰ In this way, his heart will not be lifted up above his fellow Israelites, and he will not turn aside from the command, either to the right or to the left. Then he and his descendants will reign long in his kingdom in Israel.

Deuteronomy

18 The Levitical priests, indeed the entire tribe of Levi, shall have no portion or inheritance with Israel; they will live on the offerings made by fire to the Lord, for that is their inheritance.² They shall not have an inheritance among their fellow Israelites; the Lord is their portion, as He promised them.³ This is the portion due to the priests from the people who offer a sacrifice, be it an ox or a sheep: the shoulder, the two cheeks, and the stomach.⁴ You shall give them the firstfruits of your grain, new wine, and olive oil, and the first fleece from the shearing of your sheep.⁵ For the Lord your God has chosen them and their descendants from all your tribes to stand and minister in the name of the Lord always.⁶ If a Levite comes from any of your towns throughout Israel where he resides, and comes whenever he desires to the place the Lord chooses,⁷ he may minister in the name of the Lord his God like all his fellow Levites who stand there before the Lord.⁸ They shall share equally in the benefits, except for what they receive from the sale of family possessions.⁹ When you enter the land the Lord your God is giving you, do not learn to imitate the detestable practices of those nations.¹⁰ Let no one be found among you who makes his son or daughter pass through the fire, who practises divination, or sorcery, interprets omens, or engages in witchcraft,¹¹ or performs enchantments, or who is a medium or spiritist, or who seeks guidance from the dead.¹² For whoever does these things is detestable to the Lord; and because of these detestable practices, the Lord your God will drive out those nations before you.¹³ You must conduct yourselves with complete integrity before the Lord your God.¹⁴ The nations you will dispossess listen to soothsayers and diviners, but as for you, the Lord your God has not permitted you to do so.¹⁵ The Lord your God will appoint for you a prophet like me from among you, from your fellow Israelites; you must heed him.¹⁶ This is in accordance with what you asked of the Lord your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, "Let us not hear the voice of the Lord our God nor see this great fire anymore, or we will die."¹⁷ The Lord said to me, "Their words are good.¹⁸ I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their fellow Israelites, and I will put my words in his mouth, and he will speak to them everything I command him."¹⁹ And it shall be that whoever does not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I myself will call to account.²⁰ But a prophet who presumes to speak in my name anything I have not commanded, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die."²¹ You may ask yourselves, "How can we recognise a message the Lord has not spoken?"²² If what a prophet proclaims in the name of the Lord does not happen or come true, that is a message the Lord has not spoken. The prophet has spoken presumptuously; do not be afraid of him.

19 When the Lord your God has cut off the nations whose land He is giving you, and you have dispossessed them and settled in their cities and houses,² you shall designate three cities for yourself in the midst of the land that the Lord your God is giving you to possess.³ Prepare the roads and divide the territory of your land into three parts, which the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance, so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally may flee there.⁴ This is the case concerning the one who kills another unintentionally, without prior malice: when he kills his neighbour without intent.⁵ For example, if a man goes with his neighbour into the forest to cut wood, and as he swings his axe to fell a tree, the iron head slips from the handle and strikes his neighbour, causing death, he may flee to one of these cities and live.⁶ Otherwise, the avenger of blood might pursue him in anger, overtake him if the distance is too far, and kill him, even though he was not deserving of death because he did not harbour hatred beforehand.⁷ Therefore, I instruct you to establish three cities for yourselves.⁸ If the Lord your God enlarges your territory, as He swore to your ancestors, and gives you all the land He promised,⁹ provided you carefully follow all these commandments I am giving you today, to love the Lord your God and to walk in His ways always, then you shall add three more cities for yourself, besides these three. ¹⁰ Do this so that innocent blood will not be shed in your land, which the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance, and so you will not be guilty of bloodshed. ¹¹ But if someone hates his neighbour, lies in wait, assaults him and kills him, and then flees to one of these cities, ¹² the elders of his city shall send for him, and bring him back from there, and deliver him over to the avenger of blood to die. ¹³ Do not show pity. You must purge from Israel the guilt of shedding innocent blood, so that it may go well with you. ¹⁴ Do not move your neighbour's boundary stone set by your ancestors in the inheritance you receive in the land the Lord your God is giving you to possess. ¹⁵ A single witness is not sufficient to convict anyone accused of any crime or offence they may have committed; a matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses. ¹⁶ If a malicious witness rises to accuse someone of wrongdoing, ¹⁷ both parties to the dispute must stand in the presence of the Lord, before the priests and judges who are in office at that time. ¹⁸ The judges must conduct a thorough investigation, and if the witness is proven to be false, giving false testimony against a fellow Israelite, ¹⁹ then you shall do to the false witness as he intended to do to his brother. You must purge the evil from among you. ²⁰ The people will hear of this and be afraid, ensuring that such an evil thing is not repeated among you. ²¹ Do not show mercy: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deuteronomy

20 When you go out to battle against your enemies and see horses, chariots, and a people more numerous than yourselves, do not be afraid of them; for the Lord your God, who brought you up out of Egypt, is with you. ² As you are about to engage in battle, the priest shall come forward and speak to the people. ³ He shall say: "Listen, Israel, today you are going into battle against your enemies. Do not be fainthearted or afraid; do not panic or be terrified of them. ⁴ For the Lord your God accompanies you to fight on your behalf against your enemies, ensuring your triumph." ⁵ The officers shall then speak to the people, saying, "Has anyone built a new house and not yet dedicated it? Let him go back to his house, lest he die in battle and another man dedicate it. ⁶ Has anyone planted a vineyard and not yet enjoyed its fruit? Let him return to his house, lest he die in battle and another man enjoy its fruit. ⁷ Has anyone become betrothed to a woman and not yet married her? Let him return to his house, lest he die in battle and another man marry her." ⁸ The officers shall also say, "Is anyone afraid or fainthearted? Let him return to his house, so that the hearts of his fellow soldiers will not melt like his own." ⁹ When the officers have finished addressing the people, they shall appoint commanders over the army. ¹⁰ When you approach a city to wage war against it, you shall offer it terms of peace. ¹¹ If it agrees to make peace with you and opens its gates, all the people found in it shall become your forced labour and serve you. ¹² But if it refuses to make peace and engages you in battle, you shall besiege it. ¹³ When the Lord your God delivers it into your hands, you shall strike down all the men in it with the sword. ¹⁴ However, the women, children, livestock, and everything else in the city, all its spoils, you may take as plunder for yourselves; and you shall use the plunder the Lord your God has given you from your enemies. ¹⁵ This is the approach you should take with all the cities that are far from you and do not belong to the nearby nations. ¹⁶ But in the cities of the nations that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance, you shall not leave anything that breathes alive. ¹⁷ You shall completely destroy them—the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites—as the Lord your God has commanded you. ¹⁸ Otherwise, they will teach you to follow all the detestable practices they perform for their gods, and you will sin against the Lord your God. ¹⁹ When you lay siege to a city for a long time, fighting against it to capture it, do not destroy its trees by putting an axe to them, because you can eat their fruit. Do not cut them down. Are trees of the field human, that you should besiege them? ²⁰ However, you may cut down trees that you know are not fruit trees and use them to build siege works against the city that is at war with you, until it falls.

21 If a slain person is found lying in the open country in the land that the Lord your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who the killer is, ² then your elders and judges shall go out and measure the distance to the towns that are around the slain person. ³ The elders of the town nearest to the body shall take a heifer that has not been worked and has not worn a yoke, ⁴ and they shall bring it down to a valley with a flowing stream, a place that has not been ploughed or sown, and there they shall break the heifer's neck. ⁵ Then the Levitical priests shall step forward, for the Lord your God has chosen them to serve Him and to bless in the name of the Lord, and to settle all disputes and cases of assault. ⁶ All the elders of the town nearest to the body shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley, ⁷ and they shall proclaim: "Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes witness it. ⁸ Forgive, Lord, Your people Israel whom You have redeemed, and do not hold the guilt of innocent blood against Your people Israel." Thus the guilt of bloodshed shall be forgiven them. ⁹ So you shall remove the guilt of innocent blood from among you, since you have done what is right in the eyes of the Lord. ¹⁰ When you engage in battle against your enemies and the Lord your God gives them into your hands and you take captives, ¹¹ if you see among the captives a beautiful woman and are attracted to her, you may take her as your wife. ¹² Bring her into your home, and she shall shave her head and trim her nails. ¹³ She shall also put aside the clothes she was wearing when captured and remain in your house, mourning her father and mother for a full month. After that, you may go to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife. ¹⁴ If you are not pleased with her, you must let her go wherever she wishes. You must not sell her or treat her as a slave, since you have humiliated her. ¹⁵ If a man has two wives, one loved and the other unloved, and both bear him sons, but the firstborn is the son of the unloved wife, ¹⁶ when he wills his property to his sons, he must not give the rights of the firstborn to the son of the loved wife in preference to his actual firstborn, the son of the unloved wife. ¹⁷ He must acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the unloved wife, by giving him a double portion of all he has, for he is the first sign of his father's strength. The right of the firstborn belongs to him. ¹⁸ If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who does not obey his father and mother and will not listen to them when they discipline him, ¹⁹ his father and mother shall take him and bring him to the elders at the entrance of his town. ²⁰ They shall tell the elders, "This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey us. He is a glutton and a drunkard." ²¹ Then all the men of his town shall stone him to death. You must purge the evil from among you. All Israel will hear of it and be afraid. ²² If a man is guilty of a capital offence and is put to death, and you hang his body on a tree, ²³ his body must not remain on the tree overnight. Be sure to bury it that same day, for anyone who is hanged is under God's curse. You must not defile the land the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Deuteronomy

22 If you see your compatriot's ox or sheep wandering off, do not ignore it; you must certainly return it to your compatriot. ² If your compatriot does not live near you or you do not know who owns it, take it to your house and keep it with you until they come to claim it. Then you shall return it. ³ You must do the same with their donkey, their cloak, or any lost property of your compatriot that you find. Do not ignore it. ⁴ If you see your compatriot's donkey or ox fallen on the road, do not ignore it. You must help them to get it back on its feet. ⁵ A woman shall not wear a man's clothing, nor shall a man put on a woman's clothing, for the Lord your God finds anyone who does this detestable. ⁶ If you come across a bird's nest beside the road, in a tree or on the ground, with the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, do not take the mother along with the young. ⁷ You may take the young, but you must let the mother go, so that it may be well with you and you may have a long life. ⁸ When you build a new house, you must make a parapet for your roof, so that you will not bring the guilt of bloodshed on your house if anyone falls from it. ⁹ Do not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, or the whole yield, both the crop you plant and the fruit of the vineyard, will be defiled. ¹⁰ Avoid ploughing with an ox and a donkey harnessed together. ¹¹ Do not wear clothes made of wool and linen woven together. ¹² Attach tassels to the four corners of the cloak you wear. ¹³ If a man takes a wife and, after being with her, turns against her ¹⁴ and falsely accuses her, giving her a bad name, saying, "I took this woman, but when I approached her, I did not find evidence of her virginity," ¹⁵ then the girl's father and mother shall bring proof of the girl's virginity to the elders at the city gate. ¹⁶ The girl's father shall say to the elders, "I gave my daughter to this man as a wife, but he has turned against her. ¹⁷ Now he has accused her, saying, 'I did not find your daughter to be a virgin.' But here is the proof of my daughter's virginity." Then they shall display the cloth before the city elders,¹⁸ and the elders shall take action against the man and discipline him.¹⁹ They shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver and give them to the girl's father, because this man has slandered an Israelite virgin. She shall remain his wife; he must not divorce her as long as he lives.²⁰ If, however, the charge is true and no proof of the girl's virginity can be found,²¹ she shall be brought to the door of her father's house and the men of her city shall stone her to death. She has committed a disgraceful act in Israel by being promiscuous in her father's house. You must purge the evil from among you.²² If a man is found lying with a married woman, both the man who lay with her and the woman must die. You must purge the evil from Israel.²³ If a virgin pledged to be married is found in the city by another man, and he lies with her,²⁴ you shall bring both of them to the city gate and stone them to death—the girl because she did not cry out for help, being in the city, and the man because he violated his neighbour's wife. You must purge the evil from among you.²⁵ But if a man finds a betrothed girl in the countryside and forces her, only the man who has done this shall die.²⁶ Do nothing to the girl; she has committed no sin deserving death. This case is like that of someone who attacks and murders a neighbour,²⁷ for the man found her in the countryside, and though the betrothed girl cried for help, there was no one to rescue her.²⁸ If a man finds a virgin who is not pledged to be married and forces her, and they are discovered,²⁹ he shall pay her father fifty shekels of silver. He must marry the girl, for he has violated her. He can never divorce her as long as he lives.³⁰ A man shall not marry his father's wife, for that would dishonour his father's bed.

Deuteronomy

23 No one who has been emasculated by injury or has had his male organ removed may enter the assembly of the Lord.² No one born of an illegitimate union nor any of their descendants may enter the assembly of the Lord, even up to the tenth generation.³ No Ammonite or Moabite or any of their descendants may enter the assembly of the Lord, even up to the tenth generation.⁴ For they did not meet you with bread and water on your journey when you came out of Egypt, and they hired Balaam son of Beor from Pethor in Mesopotamia to curse you.⁵ Yet the Lord your God did not listen to Balaam but turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the Lord your God loves you.⁶ You shall not seek their peace or prosperity all your days.⁷ Do not despise an Edomite, for they are your relatives. Do not despise an Egyptian, because you were a foreigner in their land.⁸ The third generation of their children born to them may enter the assembly of the Lord.⁹ When you set up camp against your enemies, be on guard against anything impure.¹⁰ If there is a man among you who is unclean due to a nocturnal emission, he must go outside the camp and not re-enter it.¹¹ But when evening comes, he shall wash himself with water, and at sunset he may return to the camp.¹² Set aside a location outside the camp for personal needs.¹³ Have a spade among your equipment, and when you relieve yourself, dig a hole and cover up your excrement.¹⁴ For the Lord your God moves about in your camp to protect you and to deliver your enemies to you. Therefore, your camp must be holy, so that He will not see anything indecent among you and turn away from you.¹⁵ If a slave seeks refuge with you, do not hand them over to their master.¹⁶ Let them live among you wherever they choose, in whatever town they prefer. Do not oppress them.¹⁷ No Israelite man or woman is to become a cult prostitute.¹⁸ You must not bring the earnings of a prostitute or the wages of a dog into the house of the Lord your God to fulfil any vow, for both are detestable to the Lord your God.¹⁹ Do not charge interest to a fellow Israelite, whether on money, food, or anything else that may earn interest.²⁰ You may charge interest to a foreigner, but not to a fellow Israelite, so that the Lord your God may bless you in all that you do in the land you are entering to possess.²¹ If you make a vow to the Lord your God, do not delay in fulfilling it, for the Lord your God will surely require it of you, and you will be guilty of sin.²² But if you refrain from making a vow, you will not be guilty of sin.²³ Whatever you have promised with your lips you must be sure to do, because you made your vow freely to the Lord your God with your own mouth.²⁴ If you enter your neighbour's vineyard, you may eat as many grapes as you wish, but do not put any in your basket.²⁵ If you enter your neighbour's grainfield, you may pick the heads of grain with your hands, but you must not use a sickle on their standing grain.

24 When a man marries a woman, and she does not find favour in his eyes because he has discovered some indecency in her, he may write her a certificate of divorce, place it in her hand, and send her away from his house. ² If she departs from his house and becomes another man's wife, ³ and if her second husband dislikes her and writes her a certificate of divorce, places it in her hand, and sends her away from his house, or if he dies, ⁴ then her first husband, who sent her away, is not permitted to take her again as his wife after she has been defiled. This would be an abomination before the Lord, and you must not bring sin upon the land the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance. ⁵ When a man takes a new wife, he shall not go out with the army or be assigned any duty. He shall be free to remain at home for one year and bring happiness to the wife he has married. ⁶ Do not take a handmill or even the upper millstone as security for a debt, for that would be taking someone's livelihood as a pledge. ⁷ If anyone is found kidnapping a fellow Israelite and treating them as merchandise or selling them, that kidnapper shall die. You must purge the evil from among you. ⁸ Be very careful in cases of defiling skin diseases to do exactly as the Levitical priests instruct you. Follow carefully what I have commanded them. ⁹ Recall what happened to Miriam by the Lord your God during your journey out of Egypt. ¹⁰ When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbour, do not enter their house to collect the pledge. ¹¹ Stand outside, and let the person to whom you are lending bring the pledge out to you. ¹² If the person is poor, do not sleep with their pledge in your possession. ¹³ Return their cloak by sunset so that they may sleep in it and bless you; this will be considered a righteous act before the Lord your God. ¹⁴ Do not exploit a hired worker who is poor and needy, whether they are a fellow Israelite or a foreigner residing in your towns. ¹⁵ Pay them their wages each day before sunset, for they are poor and depend on it. Otherwise, they may cry out to the Lord against you, and you will be guilty of sin. ¹⁶ Parents shall not be put to death for their children, nor children for their parents; each shall die for their own sin. ¹⁷ Do not pervert the justice due to the foreigner or the fatherless, nor take a widow's cloak as a pledge. ¹⁸ Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the Lord your God redeemed you from there; that is why I command you to do this. ¹⁹ When you harvest in your field and forget a sheaf, do not return to get it. Leave it for the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, so that the Lord your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. ²⁰ When you gather olives from your trees, do not go over the branches a second time. Leave what remains for the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow. ²¹ When you gather the grapes from your vineyard, do not go over the vines again. Leave what remains for the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow. ²² Remember that you were slaves in the land of Egypt; therefore, I command you to do this.

Deuteronomy

25 When there is a dispute between individuals, they shall bring it to court, and the judges will decide the case, declaring the innocent righteous and the guilty condemned. ² If the guilty person is deserving of a beating, the judge shall make him lie down and have him flogged in his presence with the number of lashes appropriate to his offence. ³ The judge must not impose more than forty lashes, so that your fellow Israelite does not become contemptible in your eyes by being beaten excessively. ⁴ Do not prevent an ox from eating while it is working to thresh the grain. ⁵ If brothers are living together and one of them dies without a son, the widow must not marry outside the family. Her deceased husband's brother shall marry her and perform the duty of a brother-in-law to her. ⁶ The first son she bears shall carry on the name of the deceased brother, so that his name will not be erased from Israel. ⁷ However, if the man does not wish to marry his brother's widow, she shall go to the elders at the town gate and say, "My husband's brother refuses to maintain his brother's name in Israel. He will not perform the duty of a brother-in-law to me." ⁸ Then the elders of his town shall summon him and speak to him. If he persists in saying, "I do not wish to marry her," ⁹ his brother's widow shall approach him in the presence of the elders, remove his sandal, spit in his face, and say, "This is what is done to the man who will not build up his brother's family line." ¹⁰ His family shall be known in Israel as The House of the Unsandaled. ¹¹ If two men are fighting and the wife of one intervenes to rescue her husband from his assailant, and she reaches out and seizes him by his private parts, ¹² you shall take appropriate action. Show no leniency. ¹³ Do not have differing weights in your bag—one heavy, one light. ¹⁴ Do not have differing measures in your house—one large, one small. ¹⁵ You must have accurate and honest weights and measures, so that you may live long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you. ¹⁶ For the Lord your God detests anyone who does these things, anyone who deals unjustly. ¹⁷ Remember what the Amalekites did to you on your journey out of Egypt. ¹⁸ When you were weary and worn out, they attacked all who were lagging behind; they had no fear of God. ¹⁹ When the Lord your God gives you rest from all the enemies around you in the land he is giving you as an inheritance to possess, you shall blot out the name of Amalek from under heaven. Do not forget!

Deuteronomy

26 When you enter the land that the Lord your God is granting you as an inheritance, and you have taken possession of it and reside in it, ² you shall take some of the firstfruits of all the produce from the ground that the Lord your God has given you, and place them in a basket. Then proceed to the place the Lord your God will select to establish His name. ³ You shall approach the priest who is serving at that time and declare to him, "I affirm today to the Lord my God that I have arrived in the land which the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us." ⁴ The priest shall then take the basket from your hand and set it down before the altar of the Lord your God. ⁵ You shall then proclaim before the Lord your God: "My father was a wandering Aramean, and he journeyed to Egypt and lived there, few in number; but there he became a great, powerful, and populous nation. ⁶ But the Egyptians treated us harshly, oppressed us, and subjected us to hard labour. ⁷ Then we cried out to the Lord, the God of our fathers, and the Lord heard our voice and saw our distress, our toil, and our oppression. ⁸ The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great terror, and with signs and wonders. ⁹ He brought us to this place and bestowed upon us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰ Now, I present the firstfruits of the soil which you, Lord, have given me." You shall place the basket before the Lord your God and bow down before Him. ¹¹ Then you, along with the Levites and the foreigners residing among you, shall rejoice in all the good things the Lord your God has granted you and your household. ¹² When you have completed setting aside a tenth of all your produce in the third year, the year of the tithe, you shall give it to the Levite, the foreigner, the orphan, and the widow, so they may eat in your towns and be satisfied. ¹³ You shall then declare before the Lord your God: "I have removed the sacred portion from my house and have given it to the Levite, the foreigner, the orphan, and the widow, in accordance with all your commands. I have not deviated from your commandments nor have I forgotten them. ¹⁴ I have not consumed any of it while in mourning, nor have I removed any of it while unclean, nor offered any of it to the dead. I have obeyed the Lord my God and have done everything you commanded me. ¹⁵ Look down from your holy dwelling place in heaven, and bless your people Israel and the land you have given us, as you promised on oath to our ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey." ¹⁶ This day, the Lord your God commands you to observe these statutes and decrees; therefore, carefully observe them with all your heart and with all your soul. ¹⁷ Today, you have proclaimed that the Lord is your God and that you will walk in His ways, keep His statutes, commandments, and decrees, and listen to His voice. ¹⁸ And today, the Lord has proclaimed you to be His people, His treasured possession, as He promised, and that you are to keep all His commandments. ¹⁹ He has declared that He will set you high above all the nations He has made, in praise, fame, and honour, and that you shall be a people consecrated to the Lord your God, as He has spoken.

27 Moses and the elders of Israel instructed the people, saying, "Keep all the commandments that I am giving you today. ² On the day you cross the Jordan into the land the Lord your God is giving you, you shall set up large stones and cover them with plaster. ³ Inscribe on them all the words of this law when you have crossed over, so that you may enter the land the Lord your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the Lord, the God of your ancestors, promised you. ⁴ When you cross the Jordan, set up these stones on Mount Ebal, as I command you today, and coat them with plaster. ⁵ Construct an altar to the Lord your God there, made of stones, and refrain from using any iron tool on them. ⁶ Construct the altar of the Lord your God with uncut stones and offer burnt offerings on it to the Lord your God. ⁷ Present fellowship offerings there, partaking in them and rejoicing in the presence of the Lord your God. ⁸ Write very clearly all the words of this law on the stones you have set up. ⁹ Then Moses and the Levitical priests addressed all Israel, saying, "Be silent, Israel, and listen! Today you have become the people of the Lord your God.¹⁰ Obey the Lord your God and follow His commands and decrees that I am giving you today.”¹¹ Moses also instructed the people on that day, saying:¹² “When you have crossed the Jordan, these tribes shall stand on Mount Gerizim to pronounce blessings upon the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.¹³ And for the curse, these tribes shall stand on Mount Ebal: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.¹⁴ The Levites shall then proclaim to all the people of Israel in a loud voice:¹⁵ ‘Cursed is anyone who makes an idol or cast image, an abomination to the Lord, the work of skilled hands, and sets it up in secret.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’¹⁶ ‘Cursed is anyone who treats their father or mother with contempt.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’¹⁷ ‘Cursed is anyone who moves their neighbour’s boundary marker.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’¹⁸ ‘Cursed is anyone who misleads a blind person on the road.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’¹⁹ ‘Cursed is anyone who denies justice to the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’²⁰ ‘Cursed is anyone who sleeps with his father’s wife, for he brings dishonour to his father’s bed.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’²¹ ‘Cursed is anyone who engages in relations with any animal.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’²² ‘Cursed is anyone who sleeps with his sister, whether the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’²³ ‘Cursed is anyone who has improper relations with his mother-in-law.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’²⁴ ‘Cursed is anyone who attacks their neighbour in secret.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’²⁵ ‘Cursed is anyone who accepts a bribe to harm an innocent person.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’²⁶ ‘Cursed is anyone who fails to uphold the words of this law by carrying them out.’ Then all the people shall say, ‘Amen.’

Deuteronomy

28 If you diligently obey the Lord your God and are careful to follow all His commandments that I am giving you today, the Lord your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth.² All these blessings will come upon you and accompany you if you obey the Lord your God:³ You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the countryside.⁴ Blessed will be the fruit of your womb, the produce of your ground, and the offspring of your livestock—the young of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.⁵ Your basket and your kneading bowl will be favoured.⁶ You will receive blessings in your comings and goings.⁷ The Lord will cause your enemies who rise up against you to be defeated before you. They will come at you from one direction but flee from you in seven.⁸ The Lord will command a blessing on your barns and on everything you put your hand to, and He will bless you in the land that He is giving you.⁹ The Lord will establish you as His holy people, as He swore to you, if you keep the commandments of the Lord your God and walk in His ways.¹⁰ Then all the peoples of the earth will see that you are called by the name of the Lord, and they will fear you.¹¹ The Lord will grant you great prosperity—in the fruit of your womb, the young of your livestock, and the crops of your ground—in the land He swore to your ancestors to give you.¹² The Lord will open the heavens, the storehouse of His abundance, to send rain on your land in season and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations but will borrow from none.¹³ The Lord will make you the head and not the tail. If you pay attention to the commands of the Lord your God that I give you this day and follow them carefully, you will always be at the top, never at the bottom.¹⁴ Do not turn aside from any of the commands I am giving you today, to the right or to the left, to pursue other gods and serve them.¹⁵ However, if you do not obey the Lord your God and do not carefully follow all His commands and decrees I am giving you today, all these curses will come upon you and overtake you:¹⁶ You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the countryside.¹⁷ Your basket and your kneading bowl will be afflicted.¹⁸ The fruit of your womb will be cursed, and the produce of your ground, the newborn of your herds, and the offspring of your flocks.¹⁹ You will encounter curses in your comings and goings.²⁰ The Lord will send on you curses, confusion, and rebuke in everything you undertake to do, until you are destroyed and come to sudden ruin on account of the evil you have done in forsaking Him.²¹ The Lord will plague you with diseases until He has eliminated you from the land you are entering to possess.²² The Lord will strike you with wasting disease, inflammation, fever, feverish heat, blight, and mildew, which will plague you until you perish.²³ The sky over your head will be bronze, and the ground beneath you iron.²⁴ The Lord will turn the rain of your land into dust and powder; it will come down from the skies until you are destroyed.²⁵ The Lord will cause you to be defeated before your enemies. You will go out one way against them but flee seven ways from their presence, and you will become an object of horror to all the kingdoms on earth.²⁶ Your carcasses will be food for all the birds of the sky and the wild animals, and there will be no one to frighten them away.²⁷ The Lord will afflict you with the boils of Egypt, with tumors, festering sores, and the itch, from which you cannot be healed.²⁸ The Lord will bring upon you madness, blindness, and bewilderment of mind.²⁹ At midday you will stumble about like a blind person in the dark. You will be unsuccessful in everything you do; day after day you will be oppressed and robbed, with no one to rescue you.³⁰ You will be pledged to be married to a woman, but another will violate her. You will build a house, but you will not live in it. You will plant a vineyard, but you will not enjoy its fruit.³¹ Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will eat none of it. Your donkey will be taken by force and will not be returned. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and no one will rescue them.³² Your sons and daughters will be given to another nation, and you will wear out your eyes watching for them day after day, unable to lift a hand.³³ A people that you do not know will consume what your land and labour produce, and you will endure nothing but harsh oppression all your days.³⁴ The things you witness will drive you to madness.³⁵ The Lord will afflict your knees and legs with painful boils that cannot be healed, spreading from the soles of your feet to the top of your head.³⁶ The Lord will drive you and the king you set over you to a nation unfamiliar to you or your ancestors. There you will worship other gods, gods of wood and stone.³⁷ You will become a symbol of horror, a byword, and an object of ridicule among all the peoples where the Lord will drive you.³⁸ You will sow much seed in the field but will harvest little, because locusts will devour it.³⁹ You will plant vineyards and cultivate them but will not drink the wine or gather the grapes, because worms will eat them.⁴⁰ You will have olive trees throughout your country but will not use the oil, because the olives will drop off.⁴¹ You will have sons and daughters but will not keep them, because they will go into captivity.⁴² Swarms of locusts will consume all your trees and the crops of your land.⁴³ The foreigners who reside among you will rise higher and higher above you, but you will descend lower and lower.⁴⁴ They will lend to you, but you will not lend to them. They will be the leaders, and you will follow.⁴⁵ All these curses will come upon you. They will pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the Lord your God and observe the commands and decrees He gave you.⁴⁶ They will be a sign and a wonder to you and your descendants for all time.⁴⁷ Because you did not serve the Lord your God with joy and gladness in the time of prosperity,⁴⁸ therefore in hunger and thirst, in nakedness and dire poverty, you will serve the enemies the Lord sends against you. He will place a heavy yoke on your neck until He has destroyed you.⁴⁹ The Lord will bring a nation against you from a distant place, from the ends of the earth, like an eagle swooping down, a nation whose language you will not understand,⁵⁰ a fierce-looking nation without respect for the elderly or pity for the young.⁵¹ They will consume the young of your livestock and the crops of your land until you are destroyed. They will leave you no grain, new wine, or olive oil, nor any calves of your herds or lambs of your flocks until you are ruined.⁵² They will besiege all your cities until your high fortified walls, in which you have placed your trust, fall. They will surround all the cities throughout the land the Lord your God is giving you.⁵³ Because of the hardship your enemy will impose on you during the siege, you will resort to eating the fruit of your womb, the flesh of the sons and daughters the Lord your God has given you.⁵⁴ Even the most gentle and sensitive man among you will lose compassion for his own brother, the wife he loves, and his surviving children,⁵⁵ and he will refuse to share any of the flesh of his children that he is consuming. It will be all he has left because of the hardship your enemy will impose on you during the siege of all your cities.⁵⁶ The most gentle and sensitive woman among you—so delicate and tender that she would not venture to touch the ground with the sole of her foot—will begrudge the husband she loves and her own son or daughter⁵⁷ the afterbirth from her womb and the children she bears. In her dire need, she intends to consume them secretly because of the hardship your enemy will impose on you during the siege of your cities.⁵⁸ If you do not carefully follow all the words of this law, which are written in this book, and do not hold in reverence this glorious and awesome name—the Lord your God—⁵⁹ the Lord will send dreadful plagues on you and your descendants, harsh and prolonged disasters, and severe and lingering illnesses. ⁶⁰ He will bring upon you all the diseases of Egypt that you dreaded, and they will cling to you. ⁶¹ The Lord will also bring upon you every kind of sickness and disaster not recorded in this Book of the Law, until you are destroyed. ⁶² You who were as numerous as the stars in the sky will be left with only a few, because you did not obey the Lord your God. ⁶³ Just as it pleased the Lord to make you prosper and increase in number, so it will please Him to bring you to ruin and destruction. You will be uprooted from the land you are entering to possess. ⁶⁴ Then the Lord will scatter you among all nations, from one end of the earth to the other. There you will serve other gods—gods of wood and stone, which neither you nor your ancestors have known. ⁶⁵ Among those nations you will find no rest, no place of repose for the sole of your foot. There the Lord will give you an anxious mind, eyes weary with longing, and a despairing heart. ⁶⁶ You will live in constant uncertainty, filled with dread both night and day, never sure of your life. ⁶⁷ In the morning you will say, “If only it were evening!” and in the evening, “If only it were morning!”—because of the terror that will grip your hearts and the sights that your eyes will witness. ⁶⁸ The Lord will send you back in ships to Egypt on a journey I said you should never make again. There you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female servants, but no one will buy you.

Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy

29 These are the terms of the covenant which the Lord commanded Moses to establish with the Israelites in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant He had made with them at Horeb. ² Moses gathered all of Israel and said to them: “You have witnessed all that the Lord did in Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his officials, and to all his land. ³ Your eyes have seen those great trials, those signs and wonders. ⁴ But to this day, the Lord has not given you a mind that understands, nor eyes that see, nor ears that hear. ⁵ I have led you through the wilderness for forty years; your clothes did not wear out on you, nor did the sandals on your feet. ⁶ You have not eaten bread nor drunk wine or other fermented drink, so that you might know that I am the Lord your God. ⁷ When you arrived at this place,

Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out to fight against us, but we defeated them. ⁸ We took possession of their land and assigned it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. ⁹ Therefore, observe the terms of this covenant and carry them out, so that you may prosper in everything you do. ¹⁰ All of you are standing today in the presence of the Lord your God—your leaders, your tribes, your elders and officials, all the men of Israel, ¹¹ along with your children and wives, and the foreigners residing in your camps who chop your wood and draw your water, ¹² to enter into a covenant with the Lord your God, a covenant the Lord is making with you today and sealing with an oath, ¹³ to establish you today as His people, so that He may be your God, as He promised you and as He swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ¹⁴ It is not only with you that I am making this covenant and this oath, ¹⁵ but also with those who are here with us today in the presence of the Lord our God, as well as those who are not present today. ¹⁶ You are aware of how we lived in Egypt and how we passed through the nations on the way here. ¹⁷ You saw their detestable images and idols of wood and stone, of silver and gold. ¹⁸ Ensure there is no man or woman, clan or tribe among you today whose heart turns away from the Lord our God to worship the gods of those nations; ensure there is no root among you producing such bitter poison. ¹⁹ When such a person hears the words of this oath and blesses themselves, thinking, ‘I will be safe, even though I follow my own stubborn heart,’ it will bring disaster on the well-watered land as well as the dry. ²⁰ The Lord will not be willing to forgive them; His anger and zeal will burn against them. Every curse written in this book will fall upon them, and the Lord will blot out their names from under heaven. ²¹ The Lord will set them apart from all the tribes of Israel for calamity, in accordance with all the curses of the covenant written in this Book of the Law. ²² Future generations—your descendants who rise up after you and foreigners from distant lands—will see the calamities that have befallen the land and the diseases with which the Lord has afflicted it. ²³ The whole land will be a burning waste of salt and sulphur—nothing sown, nothing sprouting, no vegetation growing on it. It will be like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the Lord overthrew in fierce anger.²⁴ All the nations will inquire, 'Why has the Lord done this to this land? Why this great intensity of anger?'²⁵ And the answer will be: 'It is because this people abandoned the covenant of the Lord, the God of their ancestors, which He made with them when He brought them out of Egypt.'²⁶ They went and served other gods and worshipped them, gods they did not know and whom He had not assigned to them.²⁷ Therefore the Lord's anger burned against this land, bringing upon it every curse written in this book.²⁸ In His anger and fury, the Lord uprooted them from their land and cast them into another land, as it is today.'²⁹ The secret things belong to the Lord our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our children forever, so that we may follow all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy

30 When all these blessings and curses I have placed before you come upon you, and you take them to heart in all the nations where the Lord your God has scattered you,² and you and your children return to the Lord your God and obey Him with all your heart and with all your soul, according to everything I command you today,³ then the Lord your God will restore your fortunes and have compassion on you, and gather you again from all the peoples where He has scattered you.⁴ Even if you have been banished to the ends of the earth, from there the Lord your God will gather you and bring you back.⁵ He will bring you to the land that your ancestors possessed, and you will take possession of it. He will make you more prosperous and numerous than your ancestors.⁶ Moreover, the Lord your God will circumcise your heart and the hearts of your descendants, so that you may love Him with all your heart and with all your soul, and live.⁷ The Lord your God will inflict all these curses on your enemies who hate and persecute you.⁸ You will once more listen to the Lord and carry out all His commands I am giving you today.⁹ Then the Lord your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all the work of your hands, in the fruit of your womb, the offspring of your livestock, and the crops of your land. The Lord will again rejoice over you for good, just as He rejoiced over your ancestors,¹⁰ if you heed the Lord your God and uphold His commands and decrees that are written in this Book of the Law, and turn to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.¹¹ For this commandment I am giving you today is not too difficult for you or beyond your reach.¹² It is not in heaven, so that you have to ask, 'Who will ascend into heaven to get it and proclaim it to us so we may follow it?'¹³ Nor is it beyond the sea, so that you have to ask, 'Who will cross the sea to get it and proclaim it to us so we may follow it?'¹⁴ No, the word is very near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart so you may follow it.¹⁵ See, I set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity.¹⁶ For I command you today to love the Lord your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commands, decrees, and laws; then you will live and increase, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land you are entering to possess.¹⁷ But if your heart turns away and you do not obey, and if you are led astray to bow down to other gods and worship them,¹⁸ I declare to you today that you will certainly perish. You will not prolong your days in the land you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.¹⁹ I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your descendants may live²⁰ by loving the Lord your God, listening to His voice, and holding fast to Him. For the Lord is your life, and He will give you many years in the land He swore to give to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

31 Then Moses went and addressed these words to all Israel:² He said to them, "I am now one hundred and twenty years old; I am no longer able to lead you, and the Lord has told me, 'You shall not cross the Jordan.'³ The Lord your God will cross over ahead of you. He will destroy these nations before you, and you will take possession of their land. Joshua will also cross over ahead of you, as the Lord has spoken.⁴ And the Lord will do to them as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, when He destroyed them and their land.⁵ The Lord will hand them over to you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandments I have given you.⁶ Be strong and courageous. Do not fear or be terrified of them, for the Lord your God goes with you; He will not leave you nor forsake you."⁷ Then Moses called Joshua and said to him in the presence of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for you will go with this people into the land that the Lord swore to their ancestors to give them, and you will divide it among them as their inheritance."⁸ The Lord Himself goes before you and will be with you;

Deuteronomy

He will not leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged.”⁹ So Moses wrote this law and gave it to the Levitical priests, who carried the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and to all the elders of Israel.¹⁰ Then Moses commanded them, “At the end of every seven years, during the year of debt release, at the Festival of Tabernacles,¹¹ when all Israel comes to appear before the Lord your God at the place He will choose, you shall read this law before them so that they may hear it.¹² Gather the people—men, women, children, and the foreigners residing in your towns—so they may listen and learn to fear the Lord your God and carefully follow all the words of this law.¹³ Their children, who are not familiar with this law, should hear it and learn to revere the Lord your God as long as you live in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.¹⁴ The Lord said to Moses, “The time of your death is near. Call Joshua and present yourselves at the tent of meeting, where I will commission him.” So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the tent of meeting.¹⁵ The Lord appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud, and the cloud stood at the entrance of the tent.¹⁶ The Lord said to Moses: “You are about to rest with your ancestors, and this people will soon turn to foreign gods of the land they are entering. They will forsake Me and break the covenant I made with them.¹⁷ On that day, My anger will be kindled against them, and I will forsake them and hide My face from them, and they will be consumed. Many disasters and calamities will come upon them, and they will say, ‘Have not these disasters come upon us because our God is not with us?’¹⁸ I will surely hide My face on that day because of all the evil they have done in turning to other gods.¹⁹ “Now write down this song and teach it to the Israelites; put it on their lips, so that it may be a witness for Me against them.²⁰ When I bring them into the land flowing with milk and honey, the land I promised on oath to their ancestors, and they eat and are satisfied and become prosperous, they will turn to other gods and worship them, rejecting Me and breaking My covenant.²¹ When many disasters and calamities come upon them, this song will testify against them, because it will not be forgotten by their descendants. I know what they are inclined to do, even before I bring them into the land I promised them on oath.”²² So Moses recorded this song that day and taught it to the Israelites.²³ The Lord commissioned Joshua son of Nun, saying, “Be strong and courageous, for you will bring the Israelites into the land I promised them on oath, and I will be with you.”²⁴ After Moses finished writing the words of this law in a book from beginning to end,²⁵ he instructed the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the Lord:²⁶ “Take this Book of the Law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God. There it will remain as a testimony against you.²⁷ For I know how rebellious and stiff-necked you are. If you have been rebellious against the Lord while I am still alive with you, how much more will you rebel after my death?²⁸ Assemble all the elders of your tribes and your officials before me, so that I may speak these words in their hearing and call the heavens and the earth to witness against them.²⁹ For I know that after my death you will act corruptly and turn from the way I have commanded you. In days to come, disaster will fall on you because you will do evil in the sight of the Lord, provoking Him to anger by what your hands have made.”³⁰ And Moses recited the words of this song from start to finish in the hearing of the whole assembly of Israel:

32 Listen, O heavens, and I will speak; let the earth hear the words of my mouth.² May my teaching fall as the rain, my words distil as the dew, like gentle rain upon the tender grass, and showers upon the herb.³ For I will declare the name of the Lord; ascribing greatness to our God!⁴ The Rock, his work is perfect, for all his ways are just. A God of faithfulness and without iniquity, righteous and upright is he.⁵ They have dealt corruptly with him; they are not his children because of their blemish; they are a crooked and perverse generation.⁶ Is this how you repay the Lord, you foolish and unwise people? Is he not your Father, who bought you? He made you and established you.⁷ Remember the days of old, reflect on the years seen by many generations. Ask your father, and he will show you; your elders, and they will remind you.⁸ When the Most High gave to the nations their inheritance, when he divided mankind, he fixed the borders of the peoples according to the number of the children of Israel.⁹ For the Lord’s treasure is his people, Jacob is his chosen heritage.¹⁰ He found him in a desert land, in the howling waste of the wilderness; he encircled him, he cared for him, he kept him as the apple of his eye.¹¹ Like an eagle that stirs up its nest, that hovers over its young, spreading out its wings, catching them, bearing them on its pinions,¹² the Lord alone led him, and there was no foreign god with him.¹³ He made him ride on the high places of the earth, and he ate the produce of the field; he made him suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock.¹⁴ Curds from the herd, and milk from the flock, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the finest of the wheat; and you drank wine from the blood of the grape.¹⁵ But Jeshurun became prosperous and self-satisfied; you grew fat, stout, and sleek; then he abandoned God who made him, and ridiculed the Rock of his salvation.¹⁶ They provoked him to jealousy with foreign gods; with detestable acts they angered him.¹⁷ They offered sacrifices to spirits that were not gods, to gods they had not known, to new gods that had recently appeared, whom your ancestors did not fear.¹⁸ You neglected the Rock who fathered you, and you forgot the God who gave you life.¹⁹ The Lord saw it and rejected them, because of the provocation of his sons and his daughters.²⁰ And he said, 'and so I will conceal my face from them, I see what their end will be; for they are a perverse generation, children in whom there is no faithfulness.²¹ They have made me jealous with what is not a god; they have angered me with their idols. So I will make them envious with those who are not a people; I will provoke them with a senseless nation.'²² For a fire is ignited by my anger, and it burns to the depths of the grave, consuming the earth and its yield, and setting ablaze the foundations of the mountains.²³ And I will bring disasters upon them; I will exhaust my arrows on them.²⁴ They shall be wasted with hunger, and consumed by plague and bitter pestilence; I will send the teeth of beasts against them, with the venom of creatures that crawl in the dust.²⁵ Outside the sword shall bereave, and inside terror, for young man and virgin alike, the nursing child with the man of grey hairs.²⁶ I would have said, "I will scatter them afar, I will make the memory of them vanish from among men,"²⁷ had I not feared the taunt of the enemy, lest their adversaries should misunderstand, lest they should say, "Our hand is triumphant, it was not the Lord who did all this."²⁸ For they are a nation with no notion of counsel, and there is no understanding in them.²⁹ If they possessed wisdom, they would comprehend this;

Deuteronomy

they would discern their ultimate fate!³⁰ How could one have chased a thousand, and two have put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had given them up, and the Lord had handed them over?³¹ For their rock is not as our Rock; our enemies themselves being judges.³² For their vine is from the vine of Sodom and from the fields of Gomorrah; their grapes are like poison, their clusters are bitter.³³ Their wine is like the poison of serpents and the cruel venom of asps.³⁴ 'Is this not stored up with me, sealed up in my treasuries?'³⁵ Vengeance belongs to me, and repayment, for the time when their foot shall slip; for the day of their calamity is near, and their doom approaches swiftly.'³⁶ For the Lord will vindicate his people and show compassion on his servants, when he sees that their strength is gone, and there is none remaining, bond or free.³⁷ Then he will say of them, 'Where are their gods, their rock in which they sought refuge,³⁸ who then, consumed the fat of the sacrifices and drank the wine of the drink offering? Let them rise up and help you, let them be your protection!' ³⁹ Observe now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god beside me; I bring death and give life; I wound and I heal; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand.⁴⁰ For I lift up my hand to heaven and declare: As I live forever,⁴¹ if I sharpen my gleaming sword and my hand takes hold on judgement, I will take vengeance on my adversaries and will repay those who hate me.⁴² I will make my arrows soaked with blood, and my sword shall consume flesh— with the blood of the slain and the captives, from the long-haired heads of the enemy.'⁴³ Rejoice, O nations, with his people; for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will take vengeance on his adversaries, and will make atonement for his land and people.⁴⁴ Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun.⁴⁵ And so, when Moses finished saying these words to all of Israel: ⁴⁶ he said to them, "Take to heart all the words by which I am warning you today, that you may instruct them to your children, that they may be careful to follow all the words of this law.⁴⁷ For it is not an empty word for you, but your very life, and by this word you shall live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess."⁴⁸ On that very day the Lord spoke to Moses,⁴⁹ "Go up this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, opposite Jericho, and view the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the people of Israel as a possession.⁵⁰ And you shall pass away on the mountain you ascend and be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother passed away on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people,⁵¹ because you broke faith with me in the midst of the people of Israel at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin, because you did not uphold me as holy in the midst of the people of Israel.⁵² For you shall see the land before you, but you shall not enter there, into the land that I am giving to the people of Israel."

Deuteronomy

33 This is the blessing that Moses, the man of God, gave to the Israelites before he passed away.² He said: "The Lord came from Sinai and dawned upon them from Seir; he shone forth from Mount Paran. He came with myriads of holy ones; at his right hand there was flashing lightning for them.³ Indeed, it is he who loves the people; all the holy ones are in his hand. They follow in his steps and take of his words.⁴ Moses gave us the law, a possession for the assembly of Jacob.⁵ He was king in Jeshurun when the leaders of the people gathered, the tribes of Israel together.⁶ "Let Reuben live and not die, nor may his people be few."⁷ And this is what he said about Judah: "Hear, O Lord, the voice of Judah, and bring him to his people. With his own hands he contends for them, and may you be a help against his adversaries."⁸ Of Levi he said: "Let your Thummim and Urim belong to your faithful servant, whom you tested at Massah and with whom you contended at the waters of Meribah.⁹ He said of his father and mother, 'I have no regard for them.' He did not acknowledge his brothers or regard his own children, for they kept your word and guarded your covenant.¹⁰ They teach your ordinances to Jacob and your law to Israel. They offer incense before you and whole burnt offerings on your altar.¹¹ Bless his strength, O Lord, and be pleased with the work of his hands. Strike down those who rise against him, his foes till they rise no more."¹² Of Benjamin he said: "Let the beloved of the Lord dwell in safety by him, who shields him all day long, and between his shoulders he rests."¹³ Of Joseph he said: "May the Lord bless his land with the precious dew from heaven above and from the deep waters that lie below;¹⁴ with the best yield of the sun and the finest produce of the months;¹⁵ with the choicest gifts of the ancient mountains and the bounty of the everlasting hills;¹⁶ with the best gifts of the earth and its fullness, and the favour of him who dwelt in the burning bush. Let these rest on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the prince among his brothers.¹⁷ In majesty he is like a firstborn bull; his horns are the horns of a wild ox. With them he will gore the nations, even to the ends of the earth. Such are the ten thousands of Ephraim, such are the thousands of Manasseh."¹⁸ Of Zebulun he said: "Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and you, Issachar, in your tents.¹⁹ They will call peoples to the mountain; there they will offer righteous sacrifices. They will feast on the abundance of the seas and the treasures hidden in the sand."²⁰ Of Gad he said: "Blessed is he who enlarges Gad's domain! Gad lives there like a lion, tearing at arm and head.²¹ He chose the best land for himself; the leader's portion was kept for him. He came with the heads of the people; he executed the Lord's justice and his ordinances with Israel."²² Of Dan he said: "Dan is a lion's cub, leaping out from Bashan."²³ Of Naphtali he said: "Naphtali is abounding with the favour of the Lord and is full of his blessing; he will take possession of the sea and the south."²⁴ Of Asher he said: "Most blessed of sons is Asher; let him be favoured by his brothers, and let him dip his foot in oil.²⁵ The bars of your gates will be iron and bronze, and your strength will equal your days.²⁶ "There is no one like the God of Jeshurun, who rides across the heavens to your help and on the clouds in his majesty.²⁷ The everlasting God is your shelter, and beneath you are his eternal arms. He will drive out your enemies before you, declaring, 'Overcome them!' "²⁸ So Israel will dwell in safety; Jacob will dwell secure in a land of grain and new wine, where the heavens drop dew.²⁹ Blessed are you, Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by the Lord? He is your shield and helper and your glorious sword. Your enemies will cringe before you, and you will tread on their high places."

34 Moses ascended from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the summit of Pisgah, opposite Jericho. The Lord showed him all the land, from Gilead to Dan,² all of Naphtali, the regions of Ephraim and Manasseh, and the entire land of Judah as far as the western sea,³ the Negev and the whole area from the Valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, reaching to Zoar.⁴ The Lord then said to him, "This is the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, declaring, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have allowed you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross into it." ⁵ Thus Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, as the Lord had spoken. ⁶ He was buried in a valley in Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but to this day, no one knows the location of his grave. ⁷ Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he passed away, yet his eyesight was not dim, nor had his strength diminished. ⁸ The Israelites mourned for Moses on the plains of Moab for thirty days, until the period of weeping and mourning for Moses concluded. ⁹ Joshua, the son of Nun, was filled with the spirit of wisdom because Moses had laid his hands on him. The Israelites heeded him and did as the Lord had commanded Moses. ¹⁰ No prophet has emerged in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew intimately, ¹¹ for all the signs and wonders the Lord sent him to perform in Egypt, against Pharaoh, all his officials, and his entire land— ¹² and for all the mighty power and all the great deeds of awe that Moses accomplished in the sight of all Israel.

Deuteronomy

Joshua

1 Following the death of Moses, the servant of the Lord, the Lord spoke to Joshua son of Nun, who had served Moses, saying, ² “Moses, my servant, is dead. Now, therefore, arise, you and all these people, and cross the Jordan River into the land I am about to give to the Israelites. ³ Every place where the sole of your foot treads, I have granted to you, just as I promised to Moses. ⁴ Your territory will extend from the wilderness and Lebanon to the great river, the Euphrates—all the land of the Hittites—and to the Great Sea on the west. ⁵ No one will be able to stand against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will not leave you nor forsake you. ⁶ Be strong and courageous, for you shall lead these people to inherit the land I swore to their ancestors to give them. ⁷ Only be strong and very courageous; be careful to act according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so that you may succeed wherever you go. ⁸ This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth; you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. Then you will make your way prosperous and achieve success. ⁹ Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened or dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go.” ¹⁰ So Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying ¹¹ “Pass through the camp and instruct the people, ‘Prepare your provisions, for in three days you will cross the Jordan to take possession of the land the Lord your God is giving you.’” ¹² Joshua addressed the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, ¹³ “Remember the command that Moses, the servant of the Lord, gave you: ‘The Lord your God is providing you a place of rest and will give you this land.’ ¹⁴ Your wives, children, and livestock may remain in the land Moses gave you east of the Jordan, but all your fighting men, ready for battle, must cross over ahead of your fellow Israelites and help them,” ¹⁵ until the Lord gives them rest, as He has given you, and they too have taken possession of the land the Lord your God is giving them. After that, you may return to occupy your own land, which Moses the servant of the Lord gave you east of the Jordan toward the sunrise.” ¹⁶ They responded to Joshua, “We will do all that you have instructed us, and we will go wherever you send us.

¹⁷ Just as we obeyed Moses in everything, so we will obey you. Only may the Lord your God be with you as He was with Moses. ¹⁸ Anyone who rebels against your command and does not obey your words in everything you command, shall be put to death. Only be strong and courageous!”

2 Then Joshua the son of Nun sent two men as spies secretly from Shittim, instructing them, “Go and explore the land, especially Jericho.” They went and entered the house of a prostitute named Rahab, where they stayed. ² The king of Jericho was informed, “Behold, some men from the Israelites have come here tonight to spy out the land.” ³ So the king of Jericho sent a message to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you and entered your house, for they have come to spy out the entire land.” ⁴ But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them. She replied, “Yes, the men did come to me, but I did not know where they were from. ⁵ At dusk, when it was time to close the city gate, they left. I do not know which way they went. Pursue them quickly, for you may overtake them.” ⁶ (However, she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them under the stalks of flax she had laid out on the roof.) ⁷ So the men pursued them along the road to the fords of the Jordan, and as soon as the pursuers had gone out, the gate was shut. ⁸ Before the spies lay down for the night, she went up to them on the roof ⁹ and said to them, “I know that the Lord has given you this land and that a great fear of you has fallen upon us, so that all the inhabitants of the land are in despair because of you. ¹⁰ We have heard how the Lord dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to Sihon and Og, the two kings of the Amorites beyond the Jordan, whom you completely destroyed. ¹¹ When we heard of it, our hearts melted in fear and no courage remained in anyone any longer because of you, for the Lord your God is God in heaven above and on the earth below. ¹² “Now then, please swear to me by the Lord that you will show kindness to my family, as I have shown kindness to you. Give me a sure sign ¹³ that you will spare the lives of my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and save us from death.” ¹⁴ The men assured her, “Our lives for yours! If you do not disclose this matter of ours, we will treat you kindly and faithfully when the Lord gives us the land.” ¹⁵ Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was part of the city wall, so she lived on the wall. ¹⁶ She advised them, "Go to the hills so the pursuers will not find you. Hide there for three days until they return, and then go on your way." ¹⁷ The men said to her, "This oath you made us swear will not be binding on us ¹⁸ unless, when we enter the land, you have tied this scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, and have gathered your father, mother, brothers, and all your family into your house. ¹⁹ If any of them go outside your house into the street, their blood will be on their own heads; we will not be responsible. But if anyone is harmed who is with you in the house, their blood will be on our head. ²⁰ But if you disclose this matter of ours, we will be released from the oath you made us swear." ²¹ She agreed, "Let it be as you say." So she sent them away, and they departed. She then tied the scarlet cord in the window. ²² When they left, they went to the hills and stayed there for three days, until the pursuers had searched all along the road and returned without finding them. ²³ Then the two men returned, descended from the hills, crossed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun. They reported to him all that had happened to them. ²⁴ They said to Joshua, "The Lord has surely given the entire land into our hands; all the people are in despair because of us."

Joshua

3 Joshua rose early in the morning, and he and all the Israelites set out from Shittim and arrived at the Jordan, where they lodged before crossing over. ² At the end of three days, the officers went throughout the camp; ³ and they instructed the people, saying, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, carried by the Levitical priests, you shall set out from your place and follow it. ⁴ Yet there shall be a distance of about two thousand cubits between you and it. Do not go near it, so that you may know the way you should go, for you have not passed this way before." ⁵ Joshua then said to the people, "Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will perform wonders among you." ⁶ And Joshua said to the priests, "Take up the ark of the covenant and proceed ahead of the people." So they took up the ark and went before the people. ⁷ The Lord said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so they may know that as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. ⁸ You shall command the priests who carry the ark of the covenant, saying, 'When you reach the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.'" ⁹ Joshua addressed the Israelites, "Gather around and hear the words of the Lord your God." ¹⁰ And Joshua said, "By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and that He will surely drive out before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites. ¹¹ Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is going ahead of you into the Jordan. ¹² Now therefore, select twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from each tribe. ¹³ And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests who carry the ark of the Lord, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters flowing downstream will be cut off and stand up in a heap." ¹⁴ When the people set out from their tents to cross the Jordan, with the priests carrying the ark of the covenant before them, ¹⁵ and as the priests carrying the ark reached the Jordan and their feet dipped into the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks during the harvest), ¹⁶ the waters flowing from upstream stopped and rose up in a heap a great distance away, at a town called Adam, near Zarethan, while the waters flowing down to the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. So the people crossed over opposite Jericho. ¹⁷ The priests carrying the ark of the covenant of the Lord stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, while all Israel crossed over on dry ground, until the whole nation had completed the crossing.

4 When the entire nation had completed crossing the Jordan, the Lord spoke to Joshua, ² "Select twelve men from among the people, one man from each tribe, ³ and instruct them to take twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, from the spot where the priests are standing firm, and carry them with you to place them at the location where you will stay tonight." ⁴ So Joshua called the twelve men he had designated from the sons of Israel, one man from each tribe, ⁵ and he said to them, "Proceed before the ark of the Lord your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you lift a stone onto his shoulder, corresponding to the number of the tribes of the Israelites. ⁶ This will serve as a sign among you. In the future, when your children ask, 'What do these stones signify?' ⁷ you shall explain to them, 'The waters of the Jordan were halted before the ark of the covenant of the Lord. When it crossed the

Joshua

Jordan, the waters were cut off.' These stones are to be a perpetual memorial for the people of Israel." ⁸ The Israelites did precisely as Joshua had instructed. They took twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, as the Lord had directed Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, and they transported them to their encampment, where they placed them. ⁹ Joshua also set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan at the location where the priests carrying the ark of the covenant had stood, and they remain there to this day. ¹⁰ The priests carrying the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan until everything the Lord had commanded Joshua was completed by the people, following all that Moses had instructed Joshua. The people hurried across, ¹¹ and once all had crossed, the ark of the Lord and the priests came to the other side while the people observed. ¹² The sons of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over in battle formation ahead of the Israelites, as Moses had commanded them. ¹³ Approximately forty thousand armed for battle crossed over before the Lord to the plains of Jericho ready for war. ¹⁴ On that day, the Lord exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they revered him throughout his life, just as they had revered Moses. ¹⁵ Then the Lord spoke to Joshua, and said ¹⁶ "Command the priests carrying the ark of the covenant law to come up from the Jordan." ¹⁷ So Joshua instructed the priests, "Come up from the Jordan." ¹⁸ It happened that when the priests carrying the ark of the covenant of the Lord came up from the middle of the Jordan, and their feet touched the dry ground, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and overflowed its banks as before. ¹⁹ On the tenth day of the first month, the people came up from the Jordan and camped at Gilgal on the eastern border of Jericho. ²⁰ At Gilgal, Joshua erected the twelve stones they had taken from the Jordan. ²¹ He addressed the Israelites, "In the future, when your descendants ask their fathers, 'What do these stones mean?' ²² you shall inform them, 'Israel crossed the Jordan on dry ground.'" ²³ For the Lord your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed over, just as the Lord your God did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed. ²⁴ He did this so that all the peoples of the earth might recognise that the hand of the Lord is mighty, and so that you may always revere the Lord your God."

5 When all the kings of the Amorites west of the Jordan and all the kings of the Canaanites by the sea heard how the Lord had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the Israelites until they had crossed over, their hearts melted in fear, and they lost all spirit to face the Israelites. ² At that time, the Lord instructed Joshua, "Prepare flint knives and perform the circumcision on the Israelites once more." ³ So Joshua prepared flint knives and carried out the circumcision of the Israelites at Gibeath Haaraloth. ⁴ This is why Joshua circumcised them: all the males, the men of war who came out of Egypt, died in the wilderness on the journey after leaving Egypt. ⁵ All the people who came out had been circumcised, but those born in the wilderness on the way from Egypt had not been circumcised. ⁶ The Israelites wandered in the wilderness for forty years until all the men of war who had come out of Egypt perished because they did not obey the Lord. The Lord had sworn that they would not see the land He had promised their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey. ⁷ So He raised up their sons in their place, and these were the ones Joshua circumcised, as they were uncircumcised, having not been circumcised on the journey. ⁸ After the whole nation had been circumcised, they stayed in the camp until they were healed. ⁹ Then the Lord said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the disgrace of Egypt from you." Therefore, the place has been called Gilgal to this day. ¹⁰ While camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, the Israelites observed the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month. ¹¹ The day after the Passover, on that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land: unleavened bread and roasted grain. ¹² The manna ceased the day after they ate the produce of the land; there was no longer any manna for the Israelites, and that year they ate the yield of the land of Canaan. ¹³ When Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua approached him and asked, "Are you for us or for our adversaries?" ¹⁴ He replied, "Neither, but as commander of the Lord's army I have now come." Then Joshua fell face down to the ground in reverence, and asked, "What message does my lord have for his servant?" ¹⁵ The commander of the Lord's army said to Joshua,

Joshua

"Remove your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy." And Joshua did so.

6 Now Jericho was securely shut up because of the Israelites; no one went out and no one came in. ² And the Lord said to Joshua, "See, I have given Jericho into your hand, along with its king and its mighty men of valour. ³ You shall march around the city, all the men of war circling the city once. You shall do this for six days. ⁴ And seven priests shall carry seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark; on the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets. ⁵ When they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and the people shall go up, every man straight ahead." ⁶ So Joshua son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams' horns in front of the ark of the Lord." ⁷ And he said to the people, "Proceed and march around the city, and let the armed men go ahead of the ark of the Lord." ⁸ And it was so, that when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the Lord went forward, blowing the trumpets, and the ark of the covenant of the Lord followed them. ⁹ The armed guard went ahead of the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard followed the ark, while the trumpets kept sounding. ¹⁰ But Joshua had commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout or let your voice be heard, nor shall any word come out of your mouth, until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout!" ¹¹ So he had the ark of the Lord carried around the city, circling it once. Then they returned to the camp and spent the night there. ¹² Joshua rose early at dawn, and the priests took up the ark of the Lord. ¹³ The seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns went on continually before the ark of the Lord, blowing the trumpets, and the armed men went ahead of them, and the rear guard followed the ark of the Lord, while the trumpets kept sounding. ¹⁴ On the second day, they marched around the city once and went back to the camp. They did this for six days. ¹⁵ On the seventh day, they rose early at dawn and marched around the city in the same manner seven times; only on that day did they march around the city seven times. ¹⁶ At the seventh time, when the priests blew the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, "Shout! For the Lord has granted you the city. ¹⁷ The city and all that is in it shall be devoted to the Lord; only Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house shall be spared, because she hid the messengers we sent. ¹⁸ But keep yourselves from the things devoted to destruction, so that you do not covet them and take any of the devoted things, and make the camp of Israel liable to destruction and bring disaster upon it. ¹⁹ All the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron are sacred to the Lord; they shall go into the treasury of the Lord." ²⁰ So the people shouted, and the priests blew the trumpets; and when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, they shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so the people went up into the city, every man straight ahead, and they took the city. ²¹ They utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, sheep, and donkey, with the edge of the sword. ²² Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the prostitute's house and bring out the woman and all she has, in accordance with your oath to her." ²³ So the young men who had done the spying went in and brought out Rahab, her father, her mother, her brothers, and all she had; they also brought out all her relatives and placed them outside the camp of Israel. ²⁴ Then they burned the city with fire and everything in it. Only the silver and gold, and the articles of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the Lord. ²⁵ But Joshua spared Rahab the prostitute, with her family and all who belonged to her, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua had sent to spy out Jericho; and she has lived among the Israelites to this day. ²⁶ At that time Joshua pronounced this solemn oath: "Cursed before the Lord is the one who undertakes to rebuild this city, Jericho: at the cost of his firstborn he will lay its foundations; at the cost of his youngest he will set up its gates." ²⁷ So the Lord was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout all the land.

7 But the Israelites acted unfaithfully concerning the things set apart for destruction, as Achan, son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, took some of these items. Thus, the Lord's anger burned against the Israelites. ² Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, east of Bethel, and instructed them, "Go up and scout the land.” So the men went up and explored Ai. ³ Upon their return to Joshua, they reported, “Not all the people need to go up; send about two or three thousand men to attack Ai. Do not trouble the whole army, for the inhabitants are few.” ⁴ Approximately three thousand men went up, but they were put to flight by the men of Ai. ⁵ The men of Ai struck down about thirty-six of them, chasing them from the city gate to the stone quarries and striking them down on the slopes. The hearts of the people melted and became like water. ⁶ Joshua tore his clothes and fell face down to the ground before the ark of the Lord until evening, along with the elders of Israel, who also put dust on their heads. ⁷ Joshua lamented, “Alas, Sovereign Lord, why did you bring this people across the Jordan, only to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us? If only we had been content to dwell on the other side of the Jordan!” ⁸ Pardon me, Lord. What can I say now that Israel has turned its back before its enemies? ⁹ The Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of this, and they will surround us and wipe out our name from the earth. What then will you do for your great name?” ¹⁰ The Lord addressed Joshua, saying, “Rise up! Why are you lying on your face? ¹¹ Israel has sinned; they have violated my covenant, which I commanded them. They have taken some of the things set apart for destruction; they have stolen, lied, and put them among their own belongings. ¹² That is why the Israelites cannot stand against their enemies; they turn their backs and flee because they have become liable to destruction. I will not be with you anymore unless you remove from among you what is set apart for destruction. ¹³ “Go, consecrate the people. Tell them, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, for this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: There are things set apart for destruction among you, Israel. You cannot stand against your enemies until you remove them. ¹⁴ “In the morning, present yourselves tribe by tribe. The tribe the Lord selects shall come forward clan by clan; the clan the Lord selects shall come forward family by family; and the family the Lord selects shall come forward man by man. ¹⁵ The one who is caught with the things set apart for destruction shall be burned with fire, along with all that belongs to him, because he has violated the Lord’s covenant and has committed a disgraceful act in Israel.” ¹⁶ Early the next morning, Joshua had Israel come forward by tribes, and the tribe of Judah was selected. ¹⁷ The clans of Judah came forward, and the Zerahites were selected. He had the clan of the Zerahites come forward man by man, and Zabdi was selected. ¹⁸ Joshua had his household come forward man by man, and Achan, son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, was selected. ¹⁹ Then Joshua addressed Achan, “My son, give praise to the Lord, the God of Israel, and honour him. Tell me what you have done; do not hide it from me.” ²⁰ Achan replied, “Indeed, I have sinned against the Lord, the God of Israel. This is what I did: ²¹ When I saw among the spoils a beautiful robe from Shinar, two hundred shekels of silver, and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels, I coveted them and took them. They are hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath.” ²² Joshua then dispatched his messengers, they hurried to his tent; and there they found the items, hidden in the tent, with the silver underneath. ²³ They took the items from the tent, brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites, and laid them out before the Lord. ²⁴ Then Joshua, together with all Israel, took Achan son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the gold bar, his sons and daughters, his cattle, donkeys, sheep, his tent, and all that he had, to the Valley of Achor. ²⁵ Joshua said, “Why have you brought trouble upon us? The Lord will bring trouble upon you today.” Then all Israel stoned him, and after they had stoned the rest, they burned them with fire. ²⁶ Over Achan they raised a large heap of stones, which remains to this day. Then the Lord turned from his fierce anger. Therefore, that place has been called the Valley of Achor to this day.

Joshua

8 Then the Lord spoke to Joshua, saying, “Do not fear or be discouraged. Take all the warriors with you, and go up to Ai. See, I have delivered into your hands the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land. ² You shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king, but you may take its spoils and livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush behind the city.”

³ So Joshua rose with all the people of war to go up to Ai. He selected thirty thousand valiant warriors and sent them out by night ⁴ with these instructions: “Behold, you shall ambush the city from behind. Do not go far from it, but all of you be on the alert. ⁵ I and all the people with me will approach the city, and when they come out to meet us as they did before, we will flee from them. ⁶ They will pursue us until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will say, 'They are fleeing before us as they did previously.' So we will flee before them. ⁷ Then you shall rise from your hiding place and take control of the city, for the Lord your God will give it into your hands. ⁸ When you have taken the city, set it on fire, in accordance with the word of the Lord. See, you have my command."

Joshua

⁹ Joshua sent them away, and they went to the place of ambush and lay in wait between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua spent that night with the people. ¹⁰ Joshua rose early in the morning and mustered the people, and he and the elders of Israel went up before the people to Ai. ¹¹ All the people of war with him went up and approached the city, and they camped on the north side of Ai, with a valley between them and the city. ¹² He took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. ¹³ So the people took their positions, with the main camp to the north of the city and the ambush to the west of it. Joshua spent that night in the valley. ¹⁴ When the king of Ai saw this, he and all his men of the city hurried out early to meet Israel in battle at the appointed place before the desert plain, but he did not know there was an ambush against him behind the city. ¹⁵ Joshua and all Israel pretended to be beaten before them and fled towards the wilderness. ¹⁶ All the men of Ai were summoned to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city. ¹⁷ Not a man was left in Ai or Bethel who did not go after Israel, leaving the city open as they pursued Israel.

¹⁸ Then the Lord said to Joshua, "Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will deliver the city into your hand." So Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. ¹⁹ As soon as he did this, the men in ambush rose quickly from their place and ran to enter the city, capturing it and setting it on fire swiftly. ²⁰ The men of Ai turned and saw the smoke of the city rising to the sky, and they had no opportunity to flee in any direction; the Israelites who had been fleeing to the wilderness turned back against their pursuers. ²¹ When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city and that smoke was rising from it, they turned back and attacked the men of Ai. ²² The others came out of the city against them, so they were caught in the middle, with Israelites on both sides. Israel struck them down, leaving neither survivors nor fugitives. ²³ However, they took the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua. ²⁴ When Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the fields and in the wilderness where they had pursued them, and all had fallen by the sword, all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. ²⁵ On that day, twelve thousand men and women of Ai perished—all its people. ²⁶ For Joshua did not withdraw the hand with which he stretched out the javelin until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. ²⁷ The Israelites took only the cattle and the spoils of the city as plunder for themselves, as the Lord had commanded Joshua. ²⁸ So Joshua burned Ai and made it a heap of ruins, a desolate place to this day. ²⁹ He hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening, and at sunset Joshua commanded that they take his body down from the tree, throw it at the entrance of the city gate, and raise a large heap of stones over it, which remains to this day. ³⁰ Joshua then constructed an altar to the Lord, an altar to the God of Israel, built on Mount Ebal, ³¹ as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded the Israelites, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses—an altar of uncut stones, on which no iron tool had been used. They offered burnt offerings on it to the Lord, and sacrificed fellowship offerings. ³² In the sight of the Israelites, Joshua inscribed on stones a copy of the law of Moses. ³³ All Israel, with their elders, officials, and judges, stood on both sides of the ark of the covenant of the Lord, facing the Levitical priests who carried it. Both the foreigners living among them and the native-born were present. Half of the people stood in front of Mount Gerizim and half in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded when he blessed the people of Israel. ³⁴ Afterward, Joshua recited all the words of the law—the blessings and the curses—just as they are recorded in the Book of the Law. ³⁵ There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read to the whole assembly of Israel, including the women, children, and the foreigners living among them.

Joshua

9 Now when all the kings beyond the Jordan heard of these events—in the hill country, the lowland, and along the entire coast of the Great Sea towards Lebanon, including the kings of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites—² they gathered together with a single purpose: to fight against Joshua and Israel.

³ However, when the inhabitants of Gibeon learned of Joshua's actions towards Jericho and Ai, ⁴ they acted with cunning and set out with provisions, loading their donkeys with worn-out sacks and old wineskins, cracked and repaired. ⁵ They wore old and patched sandals on their feet and dressed in worn-out clothes. All their bread was dry and crumbled. ⁶ They went to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal and said to him and the Israelites, "We have come from a distant country; now make a covenant with us." ⁷ The Israelites said to the Hivites, "Perhaps you live near us; how then can we make a covenant with you?" ⁸ They replied to Joshua, "We are your servants." Joshua asked them, "Who are you and where do you come from?" ⁹ They answered, "Your servants have come from a very distant country because of the renown of the Lord your God, for we have heard reports of all that He did in Egypt, ¹⁰ and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites beyond the Jordan—Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth. ¹¹ Our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us, 'Take provisions for the journey and go to meet them. Say to them, "We are your servants; make a covenant with us."' ¹² This bread of ours was warm when we packed it on the day we left to come to you, but now see how dry and crumbled it is. ¹³ And these wineskins we filled were new, but see how they are split open; and our clothes and sandals are worn out from the very long journey." ¹⁴ The Israelites sampled their provisions but did not seek the counsel of the Lord. ¹⁵ Then Joshua made peace with them and established a covenant to let them live, and the leaders of the assembly ratified it by oath.

¹⁶ Three days after they made the covenant with the Gibeonites, the Israelites learned that they were neighbours, living among them. ¹⁷ The Israelites set out and on the third day reached their cities: Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim. ¹⁸ But the Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the assembly had sworn an oath to them by the Lord, the God of Israel. The entire assembly grumbled against the leaders, ¹⁹ but all the leaders said to the assembly, "We have sworn to them by the Lord, the God of Israel, and now we cannot harm them. ²⁰ This is what we will do: let them live, so that wrath will not fall upon us for breaking the oath we swore to them." ²¹ They continued, "Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and water carriers for the entire assembly." Thus the leaders' promise to them was upheld. ²² Then Joshua summoned the Gibeonites and said, "Why did you deceive us by claiming, 'We live far from you,' when you actually dwell among us? ²³ Now you are under a curse: you will never cease to serve as woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God." ²⁴ They answered Joshua, "Your servants were clearly informed that the Lord your God commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land and to destroy all its inhabitants before you. So we feared greatly for our lives because of you, and that is why we acted this way. ²⁵ Now we are in your hands. Do to us whatever you think is good and right."

²⁶ So Joshua spared them from the Israelites, and they were not put to death. ²⁷ That day he made the Gibeonites woodcutters and water carriers for the assembly and for the altar of the Lord, at the place He would choose. And that is what they are to this day.

10 When Adoni-Zedek, the king of Jerusalem, heard that Joshua had captured Ai and utterly destroyed it, just as he had done to Jericho and its king, and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them, ² he and his people were greatly alarmed, because Gibeon was a significant city, like one of the royal cities, and it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty warriors. ³ So Adoni-Zedek, king of Jerusalem, sent word to Hoham, king of Hebron, Piram, king of Jarmuth, Japhia, king of Lachish, and Debir, king of Eglon, saying, ⁴ "Come up and help me attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and the Israelites." ⁵ Then the five kings of the Amorites—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon—joined forces. They moved with all their armies and camped against Gibeon to fight it. ⁶ The men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, "Do not abandon your servants; come up to us quickly and save us, for all the kings of the Amorites from the hill country have gathered against us.”⁷ So Joshua went up from Gilgal with all the people of war, including all the valiant warriors.⁸ And the Lord said to Joshua, “Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hand; not one of them shall be able to stand before you.”⁹ Joshua came upon them suddenly, having marched all night from Gilgal.¹⁰ And the Lord threw them into confusion before Israel, and He struck them with a great defeat at Gibeon, pursued them along the road going up to Beth Horon, and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah.¹¹ As they fled from Israel on the descent of Beth Horon, the Lord hurled large hailstones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and more died from the hailstones than were killed by the sword of the Israelites.¹² Then Joshua spoke to the Lord on the day the Lord delivered the Amorites over to Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel,

Joshua

“Sun, stand still over Gibeon, and moon, over the Valley of Aijalon.”

¹³ So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, until the nation avenged themselves on their enemies. Is it not written in the Book of Jashar? The sun stopped in the middle of the sky and delayed going down for about a whole day.

¹⁴ There was no day like that before or since, when the Lord listened to the voice of a man; for the Lord fought for Israel.¹⁵ Joshua, along with all Israel, returned to the camp at Gilgal.¹⁶ Now the five kings had fled and hidden themselves in the cave at Makkedah.¹⁷ And it was reported to Joshua, “The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah.”¹⁸ Joshua instructed, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and post men by it to guard them.”¹⁹ But do not stay there; pursue your enemies and attack them from behind. Do not let them enter their cities, for the Lord your God has given them into your hand.”²⁰ When Joshua and the Israelites had finished striking them with a great defeat, until they were destroyed, and the survivors who escaped had entered fortified cities,²¹ all the people returned safely to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah, and no one uttered a word against the Israelites.²² Joshua commanded, “Open the mouth of the cave and bring those five kings out to me.”²³ So the five kings were brought out of the cave—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon.²⁴ When they had brought these kings to Joshua, he called for all the men of Israel and said to the commanders of the army who had gone with him, “Come forward and put your feet on the necks of these kings.” So they came forward and put their feet on their necks.²⁵ Joshua said to them, “Do not be afraid or dismayed; be strong and courageous, for the Lord will do this to all the enemies you fight.”²⁶ Then Joshua struck them and put them to death, and he hung them on five trees, and they were left hanging on the trees until evening.²⁷ At sunset, Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden, and placed large stones over the mouth of the cave, which remain to this day.²⁸ That day Joshua captured Makkedah and struck it and its king with the sword. He utterly destroyed everyone in it, leaving no survivors, and he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.²⁹ Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Makkedah to Libnah and fought against it.³⁰ The Lord also gave that city and its king into Israel’s hand. Joshua struck it with the sword, leaving no survivors, and he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.³¹ Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Libnah to Lachish, took up positions against it, and attacked it.³² The Lord handed Lachish over to Israel, and Joshua captured it on the second day. He struck it with the sword, just as he had done to Libnah.³³ Meanwhile, Horam, king of Gezer, came up to help Lachish, but Joshua defeated him and his army, leaving no survivors.³⁴ Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Lachish to Eglon, took up positions against it, and attacked it.³⁵ They captured it that same day and struck it with the sword, utterly destroying everyone in it, just as they had done to Lachish.³⁶ Afterward, Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron and attacked it.³⁷ They captured it and struck it with the sword, along with its king, its villages, and everyone in it. He left no survivors, just as they had done to Eglon.³⁸ Then Joshua and all Israel with him turned to Debir and attacked it.³⁹ They captured it, its king, and its villages, and struck them with the sword. He utterly destroyed everyone in it, leaving no survivors, just as he had done to

Joshua

Hebron and Libnah. ⁴⁰ So Joshua conquered the whole region, including the hill country, the Negev, the western foothills, and the mountain slopes, along with all their kings. He left no survivors, utterly destroying all who breathed, as the Lord, the God of Israel, had commanded. ⁴¹ Joshua subdued the area from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza and from the whole region of Goshen to Gibeon. ⁴² All these kings and their lands Joshua captured in one campaign, because the Lord, the God of Israel, fought for Israel. ⁴³ Afterwards, Joshua, along with all Israel, returned to the camp at Gilgal.

11 When Jabin king of Hazor heard of this, he sent word to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, ² and to the northern kings in the hill country, in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, in the lowlands, and on the heights of Dor on the west; ³ to the Canaanites on the east and west, the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, and Jebusites in the hill country, and to the Hivites below Hermon in the land of Mizpeh. ⁴ They came out with all their armies, as numerous as the sand on the seashore, with a great many horses and chariots. ⁵ All these kings joined forces and camped together at the Waters of Merom to fight against Israel.

⁶ The Lord said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for by this time tomorrow I will deliver all of them slain into Israel's hands. You are to hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire." ⁷ So Joshua and all his warriors came upon them suddenly at the Waters of Merom and attacked them. ⁸ And the Lord delivered them into the hands of Israel. They defeated them and pursued them as far as Great Sidon, Misrephoth-maim, and the Valley of Mizpeh to the east, until no survivors were left. ⁹ Joshua did to them as the Lord had instructed: he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire. ¹⁰ At that time Joshua turned back and captured Hazor, striking its king with the sword, for Hazor had been the head of all these kingdoms. ¹¹ They struck all the people who were in it with the sword, utterly destroying them, leaving no one who breathed, and he burned Hazor with fire. ¹² Joshua captured all these royal cities and their kings and struck them with the sword, utterly destroying them, as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded. ¹³ However, Israel did not burn any of the cities built on their mounds, except Hazor, which Joshua burned. ¹⁴ The Israelites took all the spoils and livestock of these cities as their plunder, but they struck every person with the sword until they had destroyed them, leaving no one breathing. ¹⁵ As the Lord had commanded His servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and Joshua did it; he left nothing undone of all that the Lord commanded Moses. ¹⁶ So Joshua took all this land: the hill country, all the Negev, the whole region of Goshen, the lowlands, the Arabah, and the mountains of Israel with their lowlands, ¹⁷ from Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir, to Baal-gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings and put them to death. ¹⁸ Joshua engaged in conflict with all these kings for an extended period. ¹⁹ Except for the Hivites living in Gibeon, not a single city made peace with the Israelites; they took them all in battle. ²⁰ For it was the Lord's doing to harden their hearts to wage war against Israel, so that He might utterly destroy them, exterminating them without mercy, as the Lord had commanded Moses. ²¹ At that time Joshua came and eliminated the Anakim from the hill country: from Hebron, Debir, Anab, from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel. Joshua utterly destroyed them and their cities. ²² No Anakim were left in Israelite territory; only in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod did any survive.

²³ So Joshua took the whole land, just as the Lord had spoken to Moses, and he gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their tribal divisions. Then the land had rest from war.

12 These are the kings of the land whom the Israelites defeated, and whose territory they took possession of beyond the Jordan towards the sunrise, from the Arnon Gorge to Mount Hermon, including all the eastern Arabah: ² Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon. He ruled from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Gorge—from the middle of the gorge—and half of Gilead, even as far as the Jabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites. ³ He also ruled over the eastern Arabah from the Sea of Chinneroth to the Sea of the Arabah (that is, the Salt Sea), eastward to Beth-jeshimoth, and southward below the slopes of Pisgah.

⁴ And the territory of Og king of Bashan, one of the last of the Rephaim, who lived in Ashtaroth and

Joshua

Edrei.⁵ He ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecah, all of Bashan to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and half of Gilead to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.⁶ Moses, the servant of the Lord, and the Israelites defeated them. And Moses, the servant of the Lord, gave their land as a possession to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.⁷ Here are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the Israelites defeated on the west side of the Jordan, from Baal-gad in the Valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which rises towards Seir. Joshua gave their lands as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel according to their divisions.⁸ The lands included the hill country, the lowlands, the Arabah, the mountain slopes, the wilderness, and the Negev; the lands of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. These were the kings:⁹ the ruler of Jericho, one; the ruler of Ai (near Bethel), one;¹⁰ Jerusalem's king one; Hebron's king one;¹¹ Jarmuth's king one; Lachish's king one;¹² Eglon's king one; Gezer's king one;¹³ Debir's king one; Geder's king one;¹⁴ Hormah's king one; Arad's king one;¹⁵ Libnah's king one; Adullam's king one;¹⁶ Makkedah's king one; Bethel's king one;¹⁷ Tappuah's king one; Hephher's king one;¹⁸ Aphek's king one; Lasharon's king one;¹⁹ Madon's king one; Hazor's king one;²⁰ Shimron-meron's king one; Achshaph's king one;²¹ Taanach's king one; Megiddo's king one;²² Kedesh's king one; Jokneam in Carmel's king one;²³ Dor's king, situated on the heights of Dor, one; Goyim's king at Gilgal, one;²⁴ Tirzah's king one; thirty-one kings in all.

13 Joshua was now old and advanced in years when the Lord said to him, "You are old and advanced in years, and there remains a substantial portion of the land to be possessed.² This is the land that remains: all the regions of the Philistines and the Geshurites;³ from the Shihor, which is east of Egypt, to the territory of Ekron to the north, which is considered Canaanite; the five rulers of the Philistines: the Gazite, the Ashdodite, the Ashkelonite, the Gittite, the Ekronite; and the Avvite⁴ to the south; all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, as far as Aphek, to the border of the Amorites;⁵ and the land of the Gebalite, and all of Lebanon towards the east, from Baal-gad below Mount Hermon to Lebo-hamath.⁶ All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, all the Sidonians, I will drive out from before the Israelites; only allot it to Israel as an inheritance as I have commanded you.⁷ Now therefore, apportion this land as an inheritance among the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh."⁸ With the other half-tribe, the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance which Moses gave them east of the Jordan, just as Moses, the servant of the Lord, had given them;⁹ from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, with the city in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba as far as Dibon;¹⁰ and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, extending to the border of the Ammonites;¹¹ including Gilead, the lands of the Geshurites and Maacathites, all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salecah;¹² all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei (he was the last of the Rephaim); for Moses defeated them and took over their land.¹³ But the Israelites did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maacathites; thus, Geshur and Maacath live among Israel to this day.¹⁴ Only to the tribe of Levi he did not give an inheritance; the offerings by fire to the Lord, the God of Israel, are their inheritance, as He promised them.¹⁵ Thus, Moses allocated an inheritance to the tribe of the sons of Reuben according to their families:¹⁶ Their territory was from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, with the city in the middle of the valley, and all the plain by Medeba;¹⁷ Heshbon and its surrounding cities on the plain: Dibon, Bamoth-baal, Beth-baal-meon,¹⁸ the towns of Jahaz, Kedemoth, and Mephaath,¹⁹ the towns of Kiriathaim, Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar situated on the hill of the valley,²⁰ the area of Beth-peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth,²¹ all the cities of the plain, and the entire kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the leaders of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the leaders of Sihon, who lived in the land.²² The Israelites also killed Balaam son of Beor, who practised divination, with the sword among the rest of their dead.²³ The border of the Reubenites was the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the sons of Reuben according to their families, the cities and their villages.²⁴ Moses granted an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the sons of Gad, according to their families.²⁵ Their territory included Jazer and the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the sons of Ammon, reaching to Aroer, which is opposite Rabbah; ²⁶ and from Heshbon extending to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir; ²⁷ and in the valley, Beth-haram, Beth-nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the remaining part of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, with the Jordan as a border, reaching to the lower end of the Sea of Chinnereth beyond the Jordan to the east.

Joshua

²⁸ This is the inheritance of the sons of Gad according to their families, including the cities and their villages. ²⁹ Moses also gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh; it was for the half-tribe of the sons of Manasseh according to their families. ³⁰ Their territory extended from Mahanaim, including all Bashan, the entire kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, totalling sixty cities; ³¹ also half of Gilead, with Ashtaroth and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the sons of Machir son of Manasseh, for half of the sons of Machir according to their families. ³² These are the lands which Moses allocated as an inheritance in the plains of Moab, east of the Jordan at Jericho. ³³ But to the tribe of Levi, Moses did not give an inheritance; the Lord, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as He had promised them.

14 These are the territories which the Israelites inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the tribal clans of Israel apportioned to them as inheritances. ² Their inheritances were distributed by lot, as the Lord had commanded through Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe. ³ For Moses had given the inheritance to the two tribes and the half-tribe east of the Jordan; but he did not grant an inheritance to the Levites among them. ⁴ Joseph's descendants formed two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. The Levites were not given a portion of the land, except cities to live in, with pasturelands for their livestock and possessions. ⁵ The Israelites did as the Lord had commanded Moses, and they divided the land. ⁶ Then the people of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know the word the Lord spoke to Moses the man of God concerning you and me at Kadesh Barnea. ⁷ I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh Barnea to explore the land, and I brought back a report according to my convictions. ⁸ But my fellow Israelites who went up with me made the hearts of the people melt with fear. However, I followed the Lord my God wholeheartedly. ⁹ So on that day Moses swore to me, 'The land on which your feet have walked shall be your inheritance and that of your children forever, because you have followed the Lord my God wholeheartedly.' ¹⁰ And now, behold, the Lord has kept me alive, just as He promised, these forty-five years since the Lord spoke this to Moses, while Israel was in the wilderness. Now here I am today, eighty-five years old! ¹¹ I am still as strong today as I was on the day Moses sent me out; my strength now is as it was then, for battle and for going out and coming in. ¹² Now give me this hill country that the Lord promised me that day. You heard then that the Anakites were there, with large fortified cities, but with the Lord's help, I will drive them out as He said." ¹³ Joshua then blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh and granted him Hebron as his inheritance. ¹⁴ Therefore, Hebron has belonged to Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite ever since, because he followed the Lord, the God of Israel, wholeheartedly. ¹⁵ Now the name of Hebron was previously Kiriath Arba; Arba was the greatest man among the Anakites. Then the land had rest from war.

15 The lot for the tribe of the descendants of Judah, according to their families, reached down to the border of Edom, extending to the wilderness of Zin in the far south. ² Their southern boundary began at the bay at the southern end of the Salt Sea, ³ proceeded south of the ascent of Akabbim, continued to Zin, and went up south of Kadesh-barnea. It then passed Hezron, went up to Addar, and turned toward Karka. ⁴ It continued to Azmon and joined the brook of Egypt, ending at the sea. This was their southern boundary. ⁵ The eastern boundary was the Salt Sea, up to the mouth of the Jordan. The northern boundary started from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan, ⁶ went up to Beth-hoglah and continued north of Beth-arabah to the stone of Bohan, son of Reuben. ⁷ The boundary then ascended to Debir from the Valley of Achor and turned northward to Gilgal, opposite the ascent of Adummim, south of the valley. It continued to the waters of En-shemesh and ended at En-rogel. ⁸ Then it went up the Valley of Ben-hinnom along the southern slope of the Jebusite city (that is, Jerusalem). From there it ascended to the top of the hill west of the Hinnom Valley at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim. ⁹ From the hilltop, the boundary turned toward the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, went out to the cities of Mount Ephron, and turned toward Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim). ¹⁰ Then it curved westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, ran along the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Chesalon), descended to Beth-shemesh, and crossed to Timnah. ¹¹ It went to the northern slope of Ekron, turned toward Shikkeron, passed along to Mount Baalah, and reached Jabneel, where the boundary ended at the sea. ¹² The western boundary was the coastline of the Great Sea. These were the boundaries around the descendants of Judah according to their families.

Joshua

¹³ In accordance with the Lord's command to Joshua, he gave to Caleb son of Jephunneh a portion among the descendants of Judah, namely Kiriath-arba (Arba was the father of Anak), that is, Hebron. ¹⁴ Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi, the descendants of Anak. ¹⁵ From there he went up against the inhabitants of Debir (formerly known as Kiriath-sepher). ¹⁶ Caleb said, "To the man who attacks and captures Kiriath-sepher, I will give my daughter Achsah in marriage." ¹⁷ Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's brother, captured it; so Caleb gave him his daughter Achsah in marriage. ¹⁸ When she came to Othniel, she urged him to ask her father for a field. She dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb asked her, "What do you want?" ¹⁹ She replied, "Grant me a blessing. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me also springs of water." So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

²⁰ This is the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Judah, according to their families: ²¹ The southernmost towns and their villages of the tribe of Judah in the Negev toward the boundary of Edom were: Kabzeel, Eder, and Jagur, ²² Kinah, and Dimonah, and the settlement of Adadah, ²³ Kedesh, and Hazor, and the settlement of Ithnan, ²⁴ Ziph, and Telem, and the settlement of Bealoth, ²⁵ Hazor-hadattah, Keriath-hezron (known as Hazor), ²⁶ Amam, and Shema, and the settlement of Moladah, ²⁷ Hazar-gaddah, and Heshmon, and the settlement of Beth-pelet, ²⁸ Hazar-shual, and Beersheba, and the settlement of Biziothiah, ²⁹ Baalah, and Iim, and the settlement of Ezem, ³⁰ Eltolad, and Chesil, and the settlement of Hormah, ³¹ Ziklag, and, Madmannah and the settlement of Sansannah, ³² Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon—a total of twenty-nine towns along with their villages.

³³ In the Shephelah: Eshtaol, and Zorah, and the settlement of Ashnah, ³⁴ Zanoah, and En-gannim, and Tappuah, and the settlement of Enam, ³⁵ Jarmuth, and Adullam, and Socoh, and the settlement of Azekah, ³⁶ Shaaraim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim —fourteen towns along with their villages.

³⁷ Zenan, and Hadashah, and the settlement of Migdal-gad, ³⁸ Dilean, and Mizpeh, and the settlement of Joktheel, ³⁹ Lachish, and Bozkath, and the settlement of Eglon, ⁴⁰ Cabbon, and Lahmas, and the settlement of Chittish, ⁴¹ Gederoth, Beth-dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah —sixteen towns along with their villages.

⁴² Libnah, and Ether, and the settlement of Ashan, ⁴³ Iphtah, and Ashnah, and the settlement of Nezib, ⁴⁴ Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah —nine towns along with their villages.

⁴⁵ Ekron, along with its surrounding towns and villages; ⁴⁶ to the west of Ekron, all the areas near Ashdod, along with their villages; ⁴⁷ Ashdod, its towns and villages; Gaza, its towns and villages, as far as the brook of Egypt and the coastline of the Great Sea.

⁴⁸ In the mountainous region: Shamir, Jattir, and Socoh, ⁴⁹ Dannah, and Kiriath-sannah (that is, Debir), ⁵⁰ Anab, and Eshtemoh, and the settlement of Anim, ⁵¹ Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh —eleven towns along with their villages.

⁵² Arab, Dumah, and the settlement of Eshan, ⁵³ Janum, Beth-tappuah, and the settlement of Aphekah, ⁵⁴ Humtah, Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), and Zior —nine towns along with their villages.

⁵⁵ Maon, and Carmel, and Ziph, and the settlement of Juttah, ⁵⁶ Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and the settlement of Zanoah, ⁵⁷ Kain, and Gibeah, and the settlement of Timnah —ten towns along with their villages. ⁵⁸ Halhul, and Beth-zur, and the settlement of Gedor, ⁵⁹ Maarath, Beth-anoth, and Eltekon —six towns along with their villages. ⁶⁰ Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim) and Rabbah —two towns along with their villages. ⁶¹ In the desert region: Beth-arabah, Middin, and Secacah, ⁶² Nibshan, the City of Salt, and Engedi—six cities, towns along with their villages. ⁶³ The descendants of Judah could not drive out the Jebusites living in Jerusalem; so the Jebusites live there with the descendants of Judah to this day.

Joshua

16 The lot for the descendants of Joseph began at the Jordan near Jericho, east of the springs, and proceeded into the wilderness, ascending through the hill country to Bethel. ² From Bethel, it moved to Luz, and crossed to the border of the Archites at Ataroth. ³ It then descended westward to the territory of the Japhletites, reaching as far as Lower Beth Horon and extending to Gezer, ending at the sea. ⁴ Thus, the descendants of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, received their inheritance.

⁵ This was the territory allotted to the Ephraimites, according to their clans: the boundary of their inheritance extended from Ataroth Addar in the east to Upper Beth Horon. ⁶ The boundary then proceeded westward at Michmethath on the north, curving eastward to Taanath Shiloh, and passing it to the east of Janoah. ⁷ It descended from Janoah to Ataroth and Naarah, touched Jericho, and emerged at the Jordan. ⁸ From Tappuah, the border moved westward to the Kanah Ravine and ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the Ephraimites, according to their clans. ⁹ Additionally, there were towns and their villages set apart for the Ephraimites within the inheritance of the Manassites.

¹⁰ They did not expel the Canaanites living in Gezer; therefore, the Canaanites continue to live among the Ephraimites to this day, and they became subject to forced labour.

17 This was the allotment for the tribe of Manasseh, the firstborn of Joseph: To Makir, the firstborn of Manasseh and the father of Gilead—who was a man of war—were given Gilead and Bashan. ² So the allotment was made for the rest of the tribe of Manasseh, according to their clans—for the descendants of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hephher, and Shemida. These were the male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph by their clans. ³ Now Zelophehad son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons but only daughters. Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milkah, and Tirzah. ⁴ They approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders, and said, “The Lord commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our relatives.” So Joshua gave them an inheritance among the uncles of their father, in accordance with the Lord’s command. ⁵ Manasseh’s share consisted of ten portions in addition to Gilead and Bashan, which lay east of the Jordan, ⁶ because the daughters of the tribe of Manasseh received an inheritance along with the sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the descendants of Manasseh.

⁷ The boundary of Manasseh went from Asher to Mikmethath, east of Shechem. The boundary then ran southward to include the people living at En Tappuah. ⁸ The land of Tappuah itself belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah, on the border of Manasseh, belonged to the descendants of Ephraim. ⁹ Then the boundary descended to the Kanah Ravine, south of the ravine. Towns belonging to Ephraim were among those of Manasseh, but the boundary of Manasseh was on the north side of the ravine and ended at the sea. ¹⁰ The land on the south belonged to Ephraim and that on the north to Manasseh. The sea was their boundary. They touched Asher on the north and Issachar on the east. ¹¹ Within Issachar and Asher, Manasseh also had Beth Shan, Ibleam, and the people of Dor, Endor, Taanach, and Megiddo—each with their surrounding settlements. ¹² Yet the descendants of Manasseh were not able to drive out the people of those cities, and the Canaanites persisted in living there. ¹³ However, when the Israelites grew strong, they subjected the Canaanites to forced labour but did not drive them out completely.

¹⁴ The descendants of Joseph said to Joshua, “Why have you given us only one allotment and one portion for an inheritance? We are a numerous people, and the Lord has blessed us greatly.” ¹⁵ Joshua replied, “If you are so numerous, and the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you, go up into the forest and clear land for yourselves there in the territory of the Perizzites and Rephaim.” ¹⁶ The descendants of Joseph said, “The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who live in the plain have chariots fitted with iron—both those in Beth Shan and its settlements and those in the Valley of Jezreel.”

Joshua

¹⁷ But Joshua said to the tribes of Joseph—to Ephraim and Manasseh—“You are numerous and very powerful. You will not have only one allotment.

¹⁸ The forested hill country will also be yours. Clear it, and its farthest limits will be yours. Although the Canaanites have chariots fitted with iron and though they are strong, you can drive them out.”

18 The entire assembly of the Israelites gathered at Shiloh and set up the tent of meeting there; the land was subdued before them. ² However, there remained seven tribes among the Israelites who had not yet received their inheritance.

³ Joshua addressed the Israelites, saying, “How long will you delay before taking possession of the land that the Lord, the God of your forefathers, has given you? ⁴ Select three men from each tribe. I will send them out to survey the land and write a description of it, according to their inheritance, and then they shall return to me. ⁵ You shall divide the land into seven portions. Judah shall remain in its territory in the south, and the tribes of Joseph shall remain in their territory in the north. ⁶ Once you have written the descriptions of the seven divisions of the land, bring them to me here, and I will cast lots for you in the presence of the Lord our God. ⁷ The Levites, however, do not receive a portion among you, for the priestly service of the Lord is their inheritance. Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have already received their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan, which Moses, the servant of the Lord, assigned to them.”

⁸ As the men set out to map the land, Joshua instructed them, “Go and survey the land, write a description of it, and return to me. I will then cast lots for you here at Shiloh in the presence of the Lord.” ⁹ The men went and traversed the land, recording its description by towns in seven divisions, and returned to Joshua at the camp at Shiloh. ¹⁰ Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh in the presence of the Lord, and there he apportioned the land to the Israelites according to their tribal divisions.

¹¹ The first lot fell to the tribe of Benjamin according to its clans; their allotted territory lay between the tribes of Judah and Joseph. ¹² On the north side,

their boundary began at the Jordan, ascended the northern slope of Jericho, and extended westward into the hill country, ending at the wilderness of Beth Aven. ¹³ From there, it crossed southward to the slope of Luz (that is, Bethel) and descended to Ataroth Addar, on the hill south of Lower Beth Horon. ¹⁴ From the hill facing Beth Horon southward, the boundary turned south along the western side, ending at Kiriath Baal (that is, Kiriath Jearim), a town of the people of Judah. This was the western side. ¹⁵ The southern side began at the edge of Kiriath Jearim, and the boundary extended to the spring of the waters of Nephtoa. ¹⁶ The boundary descended to the foot of the hill facing the Valley of Ben Hinnom, north of the Valley of Rephaim, and continued down the Hinnom Valley along the southern slope of the Jebusite city, and then to En Rogel. ¹⁷ It then turned northward, proceeded to En Shemesh, continued to Geliloth, opposite the ascent of Adummim, and descended to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben. ¹⁸ It continued to the northern slope of Beth Arabah and descended into the Arabah. ¹⁹ The boundary then went to the northern slope of Beth Hoglah and ended at the northern bay of the Salt Sea, at the mouth of the Jordan in the south. This was the southern boundary. ²⁰ The Jordan formed the boundary on the eastern side. These were the boundaries that defined the inheritance of the clans of Benjamin on all sides.

²¹ The cities of the tribe of Benjamin according to their clans were Jericho, Beth Hoglah, and Emek Keziz, ²² Beth Arabah, and Zemaraim, and the settlement of Bethel, ²³ Avvim, and Parah, and the settlement of Ophrah, ²⁴ Kephrah Ammoni, and Ophni, and Geba —twelve towns with their villages. ²⁵ Gibeon, and Ramah, and the settlement of Beeroth, ²⁶ Mizpah, and Kephirah, and the settlement of Moza, ²⁷ Rekem, and Irpeel, and the settlement of Taralah, ²⁸ Zelah, Haeleph, the Jebusite city (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiriath —fourteen towns with their villages. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin according to their clans.

19 The second lot fell to the tribe of Simeon according to their families; their inheritance was situated within the portion of the tribe of Judah. ² Their portion comprised Beersheba (or Sheba), Moladah, ³ Hazar Shual, Balah, and the settlement of Ezem, ⁴ Eltolad, Bethul, and the settlement of Hormah, ⁵ Ziklag, Beth Markaboth, and the settlement of Hazar Susah, ⁶ Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhén; thirteen towns with their villages; ⁷ Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan; four towns with their villages— ⁸ and all the villages surrounding these towns as far as Baalath Beer (Ramah of the Negev). This was the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon according to their families. ⁹ The inheritance of Simeon was taken from the portion of Judah, because Judah's share was too large for them. Thus, the Simeonites received their inheritance within the territory of Judah.

Joshua

¹⁰ The third lot came out for the tribe of Zebulun according to their families. The boundary of their inheritance extended as far as Sarid. ¹¹ Their border went up westward to Maralah, touched Dabbesheth, and reached the brook near Jokneam. ¹² It turned eastward from Sarid toward the sunrise to the border of Kisloth Tabor, continued to Daberath, and ascended to Japhia. ¹³ From there it proceeded eastward to Gath Hepher and Eth Kazin, and came out at Rimmon, curving toward Neah. ¹⁴ The boundary circled on the north to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Iphtah El. ¹⁵ Included were Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem; twelve towns with their villages. ¹⁶ These towns and their villages constituted the inheritance of Zebulun according to their families.

¹⁷ The fourth lot came out for the tribe of Issachar according to their families. ¹⁸ Their land encompassed Jezreel, Chesulloth, Shunem, ¹⁹ Hapharaim, and Shion, and the settlement of Anaharath, ²⁰ Rabbith, and Kishion, and the settlement of Ebez, ²¹ Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah, and the settlement of Beth Pазzez. ²² The boundary touched Tabor, Shahazumah, and Beth Shemesh, and ended at the Jordan; sixteen towns with their villages. ²³ These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Issachar according to their families. ²⁴ The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher according to their families. ²⁵ Their territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, and Akshaph, ²⁶ Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal; on the west the boundary touched Carmel and Shihor Libnath. ²⁷ It turned eastward toward Beth Dagon, touched Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtah El, and went north to Beth Emek and Neiel, passing Kabul on the left. ²⁸ It went to Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, and

Kanah, as far as Greater Sidon. ²⁹ The boundary then turned back toward Ramah and went to the fortified city of Tyre, turned toward Hosah, and ended at the Mediterranean Sea in the region of Achzib. ³⁰ Included were Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob; twenty-two towns with their villages. ³¹ These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Asher according to their families. ³² The sixth lot came out for the tribe of Naphtali according to their families. ³³ Their boundary started from Heleph and the large tree in Zaanannim, passing Adami Nekeb and Jabneel to Lakkum, and ending at the Jordan. ³⁴ The boundary turned westward to Aznoth Tabor and came out at Hukkok. It touched Zebulun on the south, Asher on the west, and the Jordan on the east. ³⁵ The fortified towns were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, and Kinnereth, ³⁶ Adamah, and Ramah, and the settlement of Hazor, ³⁷ Kedesh, and Edrei, and the settlement of En Hazor, ³⁸ Yiron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh; nineteen towns with their villages. ³⁹ These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali according to their families. ⁴⁰ The seventh lot came out for the tribe of Dan according to their families. ⁴¹ The territory of their inheritance included Zorah, Eshtaol, and Ir Shemesh, ⁴² Shaalabbin, and Aijalon, and the settlement of Ithlah, ⁴³ Elon, and Timnah, and the settlement of Ekron, ⁴⁴ Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and the settlement of Baalath, ⁴⁵ the cities of Jehud, Bene Berak, and Gath Rimmon, ⁴⁶ Me Jarkon and Rakkon, along with the region facing Joppa. ⁴⁷ After the Danites lost their territory, they went up and attacked Leshem, captured it, and settled there, renaming it Dan after their ancestor. ⁴⁸ These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Dan according to their families. ⁴⁹ Once the land had been divided into its portions, the Israelites granted Joshua son of Nun an inheritance among them, ⁵⁰ as the Lord had commanded. They gave him the town he requested—Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. He built up the town and settled there. ⁵¹ These are the territories that Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the tribal clans of Israel assigned by lot at Shiloh in the presence of the Lord at the entrance to the tent of meeting. Thus, they completed the division of the land.

20 Then the Lord addressed Joshua, saying, ² “Speak to the Israelites, instructing them to appoint the cities of refuge, as I directed you through Moses, ³ so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally and without prior intent may flee there and find sanctuary from the avenger of blood.

⁴ When they flee to one of these cities, they must stand at the entrance of the city gate and present their case to the elders of that city. The elders shall then admit the fugitive into the city and provide them with a place to live among them. ⁵ If the avenger of blood pursues them, the elders must not hand over the one who committed manslaughter, as they killed their neighbour unintentionally and without prior malice. ⁶ They shall remain in that city until they have stood trial before the assembly, and until the death of the high priest serving at that time. After that, they may return to their own home in the town from which they fled.” ⁷ Thus they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (which is Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. ⁸ And across the Jordan east of Jericho, they appointed Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh. ⁹ These were the designated cities for all the Israelites and any foreigner residing among them, so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally could flee there and not be killed by the avenger of blood before standing trial before the assembly.

21 The leaders of the Levite families approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the families of the Israelite tribes. ² They spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, “The Lord instructed through Moses to give us towns to dwell in, along with pasturelands for our livestock.” ³ So, as the Lord had commanded, the Israelites gave the Levites towns and pasturelands from their own inheritance.

⁴ The first lot was cast for the clans of the Kohathites. So these descendants of Levi, descendants of Aaron the priest received by lot from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin, thirteen cities. ⁵ The remaining descendants of Kohath were allotted ten towns from the families of the tribes of Ephraim, Dan, and half of Manasseh. ⁶ The descendants of Gershon received thirteen towns from the families of the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan. ⁷ The descendants of Merari, according to their families, were given twelve towns from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun. ⁸ So the Israelites allocated these towns and their pasturelands to the Levites, as the Lord had instructed through Moses.

⁹ From the tribes of Judah and Simeon, they assigned the following towns by name: ¹⁰ These towns were for the descendants of Aaron, from the Kohathite clans of the Levites, as their lot was first. ¹¹ They gave them Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron), with its surrounding pasturelands, in the hill country of Judah. (Arba was the father of the line of Anak.) ¹² However, the fields and villages around the city had been given to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his possession. ¹³ So they gave the city of Hebron to Aaron's descendants. (a city of refuge for one who killed someone unintentionally), they also gave Aaron's descendants the towns of Libnah, ¹⁴ Jattir and Eshtemoa, ¹⁵ Holon and Debir, ¹⁶ Ain, Juttah, and Beth Shemesh, along with their pasturelands—nine towns from these two tribes. ¹⁷ From the tribe of Benjamin, they gave Gibeon, Geba, ¹⁸ Anathoth and Almon, along with their pasturelands—four towns. ¹⁹ The total number of towns for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, was thirteen, along with their pasturelands. ²⁰ The remaining Kohathite clans of the Levites received towns from the tribe of Ephraim: ²¹ In the hill country of Ephraim, they were given Shechem (a city of refuge for one who killed someone unintentionally) and Gezer, ²² Kibzaim and Beth Horon, with their pasturelands—four towns. ²³ From the tribe of Dan, they were given Eltekeh, Gibbethon, ²⁴ Aijalon, and Gath Rimmon, with their pasturelands—four towns. ²⁵ From half the tribe of Manasseh, they received Taanach and Gath Rimmon, with their pasturelands—two towns. ²⁶ In total, these ten towns and their pasturelands were given to the remaining Kohathite clans. ²⁷ The Gershonite clans of the Levites were given: from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan (a city of refuge for one who killed someone unintentionally) and Be Eshterah, with their pasturelands—two towns; ²⁸ From the tribe of Issachar, they were given Kishion, Daberath, ²⁹ Jarmuth, and En Gannim, with their pasturelands—four towns; ³⁰ From the tribe of Asher, they were given Mishal, Abdon, ³¹ Helkath, and Rehob, with their pasturelands—four towns; ³² From the tribe of Naphtali, they received Kedesh in Galilee (a city of refuge for one who killed someone unintentionally), Hammoth Dor, and Kartan, with their pasturelands—three towns. ³³ The total number of towns for the Gershonite clans was thirteen, with their pasturelands.

Joshua

³⁴ The Merarite clans, the rest of the Levites, received: from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam, Kartah, ³⁵ Dimnah, and Nahalal, with their pasturelands—four towns; ³⁶ From the tribe of Reuben, they were given Bezer, Jahaz, ³⁷ Kedemoth, and Mephaath, with their pasturelands—four towns; ³⁸ From the tribe of Gad, they received Ramoth in Gilead (a city of refuge for one who killed someone unintentionally), Mahanaim, ³⁹ Heshbon, and Jazer, with their pasturelands—four towns in all. ⁴⁰ The total number of towns allotted to the Merarite clans, who were the rest of the Levites, was twelve.

⁴¹ In total, the towns of the Levites within the territory held by the Israelites were forty-eight, with their pasturelands. ⁴² Each of these towns had surrounding pasturelands; this was the case for all these towns. ⁴³ Thus, the Lord gave Israel all the land He had sworn to give to their ancestors, and they took possession of it and settled there. ⁴⁴ The Lord granted them peace on every side, just as He had sworn to their ancestors. None of their enemies could withstand them; the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hands. ⁴⁵ Not a single one of all the good promises the Lord made to the house of Israel failed; every one was fulfilled.

22 Then Joshua called together the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, ² and spoke to them, “You have kept all that Moses, the servant of the Lord, commanded you, and have listened to my voice in all that I instructed you. ³ For a long time now, you have not abandoned your brothers, but have fulfilled the duty commanded by the Lord your God. ⁴ Now that the Lord your God has given rest to your brothers, as He promised, return to your tents in the land that Moses, the servant of the Lord, gave you beyond the Jordan. ⁵ Be very careful to observe the commandment and the law that Moses, the servant of the Lord, gave you: to love the Lord your God, to walk in all His ways, to keep His commandments, to hold fast to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.” ⁶ So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they returned to their tents. ⁷ To the half-tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given land in Bashan, but to the other half, Joshua gave land among their brothers on the west side of the Jordan. When Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them, ⁸ saying, “Return to your tents with great wealth, with numerous livestock, silver, gold, bronze, iron, and a large quantity of clothing. Share the spoils of your enemies with your brothers.” ⁹ Thus, the sons of Reuben, the sons of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned home, leaving the Israelites at Shiloh in Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, their own land, which they had acquired in accordance with the command of the Lord through Moses. ¹⁰ When they reached the region of the Jordan in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an imposing altar there by the Jordan.

¹¹ And the Israelites heard a report: “Behold, the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar on the border of Canaan, at the region of the Jordan, on the Israelite side.” ¹² When the Israelites heard of this, the whole assembly gathered at Shiloh to go to war against them. ¹³ So the Israelites sent Phinehas, son of Eleazar, the priest, to the land of Gilead—to the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. ¹⁴ Along with him, they sent ten leaders, one from each of the tribes of Israel, each the head of a family division among the Israelite clans. ¹⁵ When they arrived in Gilead, they spoke to the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, saying, ¹⁶ “This is what the whole assembly of the Lord says: ‘What is this act of unfaithfulness you have committed against the God of Israel by turning away from the Lord and building yourselves an altar, in rebellion against Him? ¹⁷ Was not the sin of Peor enough for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, despite a plague on the assembly of the Lord? ¹⁸ And now you are turning away from the Lord. If you rebel against the Lord today, tomorrow He will be angry with the whole community of Israel. ¹⁹ If the land of your possession is defiled, cross over into the land of the Lord’s possession, where the Lord’s tabernacle stands, and share the land with us. But do not rebel against the Lord or against us by building an altar for yourselves other than the altar of the Lord our God. ²⁰ Did not Achan, son of Zerah, act unfaithfully regarding the devoted things, and wrath fell upon the whole community of Israel? He was not the only one who perished for his sin.”

Joshua

²¹ Then the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh replied to the heads of the clans of Israel:

²² “The Mighty One, God, the Lord! He knows, and let Israel know. If this has been in rebellion or disobedience to the Lord, do not spare us this day. ²³ If we have built our own altar to turn away from the Lord, or to offer burnt offerings, grain offerings, or sacrifices of peace offerings on it, may the Lord Himself call us to account. ²⁴ No! We did it out of concern that in the future your descendants might say to ours, ‘What have you to do with the Lord, the God of Israel?’ ²⁵ For the Lord has made the Jordan a boundary between us and you, you Reubenites and Gadites; you have no share in the Lord.’ So your descendants might cause ours to stop fearing the Lord. ²⁶ That is why we said, ‘Let us prepare and build an altar—but not for burnt offerings or sacrifices.’ ²⁷ Instead, it is to be a witness between us and you and the generations that follow, that we will worship the Lord at His sanctuary with our burnt offerings, sacrifices, and fellowship offerings. Then in the future, your descendants will not be able to say to ours, ‘You have no share in the Lord.’ ²⁸ And we said, ‘If they ever say this to us or to our descendants, we will answer: Look at the replica of the Lord’s altar, which our ancestors built, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices, but as a witness between us and you.’ ²⁹ Far be it from us to rebel against the Lord and turn away from Him today by building an altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings, or sacrifices, other than the altar of the Lord our God that stands before His tabernacle.” ³⁰ When Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the community—the heads of the clans of the Israelites—heard what the Reubenites, Gadites, and Manasseh had to say, they were pleased. ³¹ And Phinehas, son of Eleazar, the priest, said to the Reubenites, Gadites, and Manasseh, “Today we know that the Lord is with us, because you have not been unfaithful to the Lord in this matter. Now you have saved the Israelites from the Lord’s hand.”

³² Then Phinehas, son of Eleazar, the priest, and the leaders returned to Canaan from their meeting with the Reubenites and Gadites in Gilead and reported back to the Israelites. ³³ The Israelites were pleased to hear the report and praised God. They spoke no more of going to war against them to devastate the land where the Reubenites and the Gadites lived. ³⁴ And the Reubenites and the Gadites named the altar Witness; “For,” they said, “it is a witness between us that the Lord is God.”

23 After many days had passed, when the Lord had granted Israel rest from all their enemies on every side, Joshua was now old and advanced in years, ² and he summoned all Israel—their elders, leaders, judges, and officials—and said to them, “I am now old and advanced in years. ³ You have witnessed all that the Lord your God has done to all these nations for your sake, for it is the Lord your God who has fought for you. ⁴ Remember how I have allocated to you these remaining nations as an inheritance for your tribes, along with all the nations I have conquered, from the Jordan to the Great Sea in the west. ⁵ The Lord your God will drive them out from before you and push them away for your sake, and you will take possession of their land, just as the Lord your God has promised you.

⁶ Be very determined to observe and do everything written in the Book of the Law of Moses, without deviating to the right or to the left, ⁷ so that you do not associate with these remaining nations among you, nor mention the names of their gods, nor swear by them, serve them, or bow down to them. ⁸ But you are to cling to the Lord your God, as you have done up to this day. ⁹ For the Lord has driven out great and powerful nations before you, and to this day, no one has been able to withstand you. ¹⁰ One of you can put a thousand to flight, because the Lord your God fights for you, just as He promised. ¹¹ So take great care to love the Lord your God.

¹² But if you ever turn away and cling to the survivors of these nations that remain among you, and intermarry with them and associate with them, ¹³ then be certain that the Lord your God will no longer drive out these nations before you. Instead, they will become snares and traps for you, whips on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which the Lord your God has given you. ¹⁴ “Now I am about to go the way of all the earth, and you know with all your heart and soul that not one of all the good promises the Lord your God has made to you has failed. Every promise has been fulfilled; not one has failed. ¹⁵ But just as all the good things the Lord your God promised you have come upon you, so the Lord will bring upon you all the evil things He has warned, until He has destroyed you from this good land which the Lord your God has given you. ¹⁶ If you violate the covenant of the Lord your God, which He commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then the Lord's anger will burn against you, and you will quickly perish from the good land He has given you."

Joshua

24 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel at Shechem and called for the elders, leaders, judges, and officials of Israel; and they presented themselves before God. ² Joshua said to all the people, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'In ancient times your ancestors, including Terah, the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the Euphrates River and worshipped other gods. ³ But I took your father Abraham from beyond the Euphrates and led him throughout the land of Canaan and multiplied his descendants, giving him Isaac. ⁴ To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I assigned the hill country of Seir to Esau, but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.

⁵ Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I afflicted Egypt by what I did there, and afterwards I brought you out. ⁶ I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, and you came to the sea, and the Egyptians pursued them with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea. ⁷ But when they cried out to the Lord, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea over them and covered them. Your own eyes saw what I did in Egypt. Then you lived in the wilderness for a long time.

⁸ I brought you to the land of the Amorites who lived beyond the Jordan. They fought against you, but I handed them over to you, and you took possession of their land when I destroyed them before you. ⁹ Then Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, rose to fight against Israel, and sent for Balaam son of Beor to curse you. ¹⁰ But I would not listen to Balaam, so he blessed you repeatedly, and I delivered you from his hand. ¹¹ You crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The citizens of Jericho fought against you, as did the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites, and Jebusites, but I handed them over to you. ¹² I sent the hornet ahead of you, which drove them out before you, including the two Amorite kings. It was not by your sword or bow. ¹³ I gave you a land on which you did not toil and cities you did not build, and you live in them and eat from vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant.'

¹⁴ Now, therefore, fear the Lord and serve Him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your ancestors worshipped beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt, and serve the Lord. ¹⁵ But if serving the Lord does not appeal to you, then choose today whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." ¹⁶ Then the people answered, "We would never abandon the Lord to serve other gods! ¹⁷ It was the Lord our God who brought us and our ancestors up out of Egypt, from that land of slavery, and performed those great signs before our eyes. He protected us on our entire journey and among all the nations through which we travelled. ¹⁸ The Lord drove out before us all the nations, including the Amorites, who lived in the land. We too will serve the Lord, for He is our God."

¹⁹ Joshua said to the people, "You may find it difficult to serve the Lord. He is a holy God; He is a zealous God. He will not overlook your rebellion and your sins. ²⁰ If you turn away from the Lord and serve other gods, He will bring disaster upon you and bring an end to you, after He has been good to you."

²¹ But the people were adamant to Joshua, "We are determined to serve the Lord." ²² Then Joshua said, "You acknowledge that you are witnesses to your own decision to serve the Lord." "Yes, we are witnesses," they replied. ²³ "Now then," said Joshua, "get rid of the foreign gods that are among you and direct your hearts to the Lord, the God of Israel." ²⁴ And the people said to Joshua, "We will serve the Lord our God and listen to His voice." ²⁵ On that day Joshua established a covenant for the people, and there at Shechem he reaffirmed for them decrees and laws. ²⁶ And Joshua recorded these things in the Book of the Law of God. Then he took a large stone and set it up there under the oak near the sanctuary of the Lord. ²⁷ "See!" he said to all the people. "This stone will be a witness against us. It has heard all the words the Lord has said to us. It will testify against you if you are untrue to your God." ²⁸ Then Joshua sent the people away, each to their own inheritance.

Joshua

²⁹ After these things, Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, died at the age of one hundred and ten.

³⁰ And they laid him to rest in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash. ³¹ Israel served the Lord throughout the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him and who had witnessed all the works the Lord had done for Israel. ³² And Joseph's bones, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, were buried at Shechem in the tract of land that Jacob bought for one hundred pieces of silver from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem. This became the inheritance of Joseph's descendants. ³³ And Eleazar son of Aaron died and was buried at Gibeah, which had been given to his son Phinehas in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

1 Following the death of Joshua, the Israelites inquired of the Lord, "Who shall ascend first for us to combat the Canaanites?" ² The Lord replied, "Judah shall go up; I have delivered the land into his hands." ³ Judah then said to Simeon his brother, "Accompany me into the territory allotted to me, and let us fight the Canaanites together; and I will likewise go with you into your territory." So Simeon went with him.

⁴ Judah went up, and the Lord delivered the Canaanites and Perizzites into their hands, and they defeated ten thousand men at Bezek. ⁵ They encountered Adoni-Bezek in Bezek and fought against him, defeating the Canaanites and Perizzites. ⁶ Adoni-Bezek fled, but they pursued him, captured him, and severed his thumbs and big toes. ⁷ Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes severed used to gather scraps under my table; as I have done, so God has repaid me." They brought him to Jerusalem, where he died. ⁸ The men of Judah then attacked Jerusalem and captured it, striking it with the sword and setting the city ablaze. ⁹ Afterwards, Judah went down to fight the Canaanites residing in the hill country, the Negev, and the lowlands. ¹⁰ Judah advanced against the Canaanites living in Hebron (formerly known as Kiriath Arba) and defeated Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.

¹¹ From there, they moved against the inhabitants of Debir (formerly called Kiriath Sepher). ¹² Caleb declared, "To the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher, I will give my daughter Achsah as a wife." ¹³ Othniel, son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, captured it; so Caleb gave him his daughter Achsah in marriage. ¹⁴ When she came to Othniel, she urged him to ask her father for a field. As she dismounted from her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What do you desire?" ¹⁵ She answered, "Grant me a blessing. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me also springs of water." So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

¹⁶ The descendants of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up from the City of Palms with the people of Judah to the wilderness of Judah in the south of Arad, and they settled among the people. ¹⁷ Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they attacked the Canaanites living in Zephath and utterly destroyed it. Thus the city was named Hormah. ¹⁸ Judah also captured Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory. ¹⁹ The Lord was with Judah, and they took possession of the hill country, but they could not drive out the inhabitants of the plains because they had iron chariots. ²⁰ Hebron was given to Caleb, as Moses had promised, and he expelled from there the three sons of Anak. ²¹ The Benjamites did not drive out the Jebusites living in Jerusalem; so the Jebusites have lived with the Benjamites in Jerusalem to this day.

²² The tribes of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and the Lord was with them. ²³ They sent men to spy out Bethel (formerly called Luz). ²⁴ The spies saw a man leaving the city and said to him, "Show us the entrance to the city, and we will treat you kindly." ²⁵ He showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck it with the sword, but spared the man and his entire family. ²⁶ The man then went to the land of the Hittites, built a city, and named it Luz, which remains its name to this day. ²⁷ Manasseh did not take possession of Beth Shan and its villages, Taanach and its villages, Dor and its villages, Ibleam and its villages, or Megiddo and its villages; the Canaanites persisted in living in that land. ²⁸ When Israel grew strong, they subjected the Canaanites to forced labour but did not drive them out completely. ²⁹ Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites living in Gezer, so they continued to live among them. ³⁰ Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron or Nahalol; thus, the Canaanites lived among them and became subject to forced labour. ³¹ Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, Sidon, Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or Rehob. ³² The Asherites dwelt among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land, as they did not drive them out. ³³ Naphtali did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh or Beth Anath, but lived among the Canaanites; the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath became forced labourers for them. ³⁴ The Amorites confined the Danites to the hill country, not permitting them to descend to the valley. ³⁵ The Amorites persisted in living on Mount Heres, Aijalon, and Shaalbim, but when the power of the house of Joseph increased, they were subjected to forced labour. ³⁶ The boundary of the Amorites extended from the ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela and upward.

Judges

2 The angel of the Lord ascended from Gilgal to Bochim and declared, "I brought you up from Egypt and led you into the land I promised to your forefathers. I assured you, 'I will never break my covenant with you,' ² and you shall not make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall tear down their altars.' But you have not obeyed me; what is this that you have done?" ³ Therefore, I also declared, 'I will not drive them out before you; they will become thorns in your sides, and their gods will be a snare to you.'" ⁴ When the angel of the Lord spoke these words to all the Israelites, the people raised their voices and wept aloud, ⁵ and they named that place Bochim. There they offered sacrifices to the Lord.

⁶ After Joshua had dismissed the people, the Israelites went, each to their own inheritance, to take possession of the land. ⁷ The people served the Lord throughout the lifetime of Joshua and the elders who outlived him and had witnessed all the great deeds the Lord had done for Israel. ⁸ Joshua, son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, died at the age of one hundred and ten. ⁹ They buried him in the territory of his inheritance, at Timnath Heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

¹⁰ After that entire generation had been gathered to their ancestors, another generation arose who neither knew the Lord nor the works he had done for Israel. ¹¹ Then the Israelites did evil in the sight of the Lord and served the Baals. ¹² They abandoned the Lord, the God of their ancestors, who had brought them out of Egypt. They followed and worshipped various gods of the peoples around them, provoking the Lord to anger. ¹³ They forsook the Lord and served Baal and the Ashtaroth. ¹⁴ The Lord's anger burned against Israel, and he handed them over to raiders who plundered them. He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, and they could no longer withstand their foes. ¹⁵ Wherever they went, the hand of the Lord was against them to bring calamity, as he had sworn to them. They were in great distress. ¹⁶ Then the Lord appointed judges who rescued them from those who plundered them. ¹⁷ Yet they did not listen to their judges, but prostituted themselves to other gods and worshipped them. They quickly turned aside from the way their ancestors had walked, who had obeyed the Lord's commands. ¹⁸ Whenever the Lord raised up a judge for them, he was with the judge and saved them from the hands of their enemies during the judge's lifetime; for the Lord was moved by their groaning under those who oppressed and afflicted them. ¹⁹ But when the judge died, the people returned to ways even more corrupt than those of their ancestors, following other gods and serving and worshipping them. They refused to abandon their evil practices and stubborn ways. ²⁰ Therefore, the Lord's anger burned against Israel, and he said, "Because this nation has violated the covenant I ordained for their ancestors and has not listened to my voice, ²¹ I will cease to drive out any of the nations that Joshua left behind when he passed away. ²² I will use these nations to examine Israel and see whether they will keep the way of the Lord and walk in it as their ancestors did."

²³ Thus, the Lord allowed those nations to remain, not removing them swiftly; and he did not hand them over to Joshua.

3 These are the nations that the Lord left to test all the Israelites who had not experienced any of the wars in Canaan. ² This was done to teach warfare to the generations of the Israelites who had not previously experienced it. ³ The nations included the five rulers of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites living in the Lebanon mountains from Mount Baal Hermon to Lebo Hamath. ⁴ They were left to test the Israelites to see if they would obey the Lord's commands, which He had given to their ancestors through Moses. ⁵ The Israelites dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. ⁶ They intermarried with them, taking their daughters as wives and giving their own daughters to their sons, and they served their gods.

⁷ The Israelites did evil in the sight of the Lord; they forgot the Lord their God and served the Baals and the Asherahs. ⁸ The Lord's anger burned against Israel, and He sold them into the hands of Cushan-Rishathaim, king of Aram Naharaim, and the Israelites served him for eight years. ⁹ When the Israelites cried out to the Lord, He raised up a deliverer for them, Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, who saved them. ¹⁰ The Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he became Israel's judge and went to war. The Lord delivered Cushan-Rishathaim, king of Aram, into his hands, and Othniel prevailed over him. ¹¹ The land had peace for forty years, until Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Judges

¹² Once again the Israelites did evil in the sight of the Lord, and because of this, the Lord strengthened Eglon, king of Moab, against Israel. ¹³ Eglon gathered the Ammonites and Amalekites, and they attacked Israel, capturing the City of Palms. ¹⁴ The Israelites served Eglon, king of Moab, for eighteen years. ¹⁵ When the Israelites cried out to the Lord, He raised up a deliverer for them, Ehud, a left-handed man, the son of Gera the Benjaminite. The Israelites sent him with tribute to Eglon, king of Moab. ¹⁶ Ehud made a double-edged sword about a cubit long, which he strapped to his right thigh under his clothing. ¹⁷ He presented the tribute to Eglon, king of Moab, who was an exceedingly large man. ¹⁸ After presenting the tribute, Ehud sent away those who had carried it. ¹⁹ But he himself turned back at the stone images near Gilgal and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king." The king said, "Silence!" and all his attendants left. ²⁰ Ehud approached him while he was sitting alone in the cool upper room and said, "I have a message from God for you." As the king rose from his seat, ²¹ Ehud reached with his left hand, drew the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into the king's abdomen. ²² Even the handle sank in after the blade, and the fat closed over it, for he did not pull the sword out, and the refuse came out. ²³ Then Ehud went out to the porch, shutting the doors of the upper room behind him and locking them.

²⁴ After he had left, the servants came and found the doors of the upper room locked. They said, "He must be relieving himself in the inner room of the palace."

²⁵ They waited to the point of embarrassment, but when he did not open the doors, they took a key and unlocked them. There they found their master fallen to the floor, dead. ²⁶ While they waited, Ehud escaped, passing by the stone images and fleeing to Seirah. ²⁷ When he arrived there, he sounded a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites went down with him from the hills, with him leading them. ²⁸ He said to them, "Follow me, for the Lord has given your enemies, the Moabites, into your hands." They followed him and took control of the fords of the Jordan leading to Moab, allowing no one to cross over. ²⁹ At that time, they struck down about ten thousand Moabites, all robust and valiant men; not one escaped. ³⁰ That day Moab was subdued under the hand of Israel, and the land had peace for eighty years. ³¹ After Ehud, Shamgar son of Anath arose, who struck down six hundred Philistines with an oxgoad. He also delivered Israel.

4 Once again, the Israelites did evil in the sight of the Lord after Ehud had died. ² Thus, the Lord delivered them into the hands of Jabin, the king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. Sisera, his army commander, was stationed in Harosheth-hagoyim. ³ Because Sisera had nine hundred iron chariots and had harshly oppressed the Israelites for twenty years, they cried out to the Lord for help.

⁴ At that time, Deborah, a prophetess and the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel. ⁵ She held court under the Palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites came up to her to have their disputes settled. ⁶ She sent for Barak, son of Abinoam, from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, "The Lord, the God of Israel, commands you: 'Go, take ten thousand men from Naphtali and Zebulun and lead them up to Mount Tabor.' ⁷ I will draw Sisera, the commander of Jabin's army, with his chariots and troops to the Kishon River, and I will deliver him into your hands.'" ⁸ Barak replied to her, "If you will go with me, I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go." ⁹ Deborah answered, "Certainly, I will go with you. However, the honour will not be yours on this journey, for the Lord will hand Sisera over to a woman." So Deborah went with Barak to Kedesh. ¹⁰ Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and ten thousand men went up with him; Deborah also accompanied him.

¹¹ Now Heber the Kenite had separated from the other Kenites, the descendants of Hobab, Moses' father-in-law, and pitched his tent by the great tree in Zaanannim near Kedesh. ¹² When Sisera was informed that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor, ¹³ Sisera summoned all his chariots, nine hundred iron chariots, and all his men, from Harosheth-hagoyim to the Kishon River. ¹⁴ Then Deborah said to Barak, "Arise! For this is the day the Lord has given Sisera into your hands. Has not the Lord gone ahead of you?" So Barak went down Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him. ¹⁵ The Lord routed Sisera and all his chariots and army by the sword before Barak, and Sisera abandoned his chariot and fled on foot. ¹⁶ Barak pursued the chariots and army as far as Harosheth-hagoyim, and all of Sisera's troops fell by the sword; not a single man was left. ¹⁷ Meanwhile, Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, for there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. ¹⁸ Jael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, "Come, my lord, come right in. Do not be afraid." So he entered her tent, and she covered him with a blanket. ¹⁹ He said to her, "I am thirsty. Please give me some water to drink." She opened a skin of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him. ²⁰ He instructed her, "Stand in the doorway of the tent, and if anyone comes and asks, 'Is anyone here?' say, 'No.'" ²¹ But Jael, Heber's wife, took a tent peg and a hammer, and went quietly to him while he lay fast asleep, exhausted. She drove the peg through his temple into the ground, and he died.

Judges

²² Just then, Barak came in pursuit of Sisera, and Jael went out to meet him. She said, "Come, I will show you the man you are seeking." So he went in with her, and there lay Sisera with the tent peg through his temple—dead. ²³ On that day, God subdued Jabin, the king of Canaan, before the Israelites. ²⁴ The Israelites continued to gain strength against Jabin, king of Canaan, until they overcame him completely.

5 On that day, Deborah and Barak, the son of Abinoam, sang, saying: ² "When leaders arise in Israel, when the people offer themselves willingly, praise the Lord! ³ "Hear, you kings! Listen, you rulers! I, even I, will sing to the Lord; I will sing praise to the Lord, the God of Israel. ⁴ "Lord, when you went out from Seir, when you marched from the field of Edom, the earth trembled, the heavens poured, the clouds poured down water. ⁵ The mountains quaked before the Lord, the One of Sinai, at the presence of the Lord, the God of Israel. ⁶ "In the days of Shamgar, son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were deserted, and travellers took to winding paths. ⁷ The villagers ceased in Israel; they ceased until I, Deborah, arose, until I arose, a mother in Israel. ⁸ New gods were chosen; then war was in the gates. Not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel. ⁹ My heart is with the commanders of Israel, with the willing volunteers among the people. Bless the Lord!

¹⁰ "You who ride on white donkeys, sitting on your saddle blankets, and you who walk along the road, consider this: ¹¹ the voice of the singers at the watering places. They recount the righteous acts of the Lord, the righteous acts of his villagers in Israel. Then the people of the Lord went down to the gates. ¹² "Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, sing a song! Arise, Barak, and lead your captives away, son of Abinoam. ¹³ "Then the remnant of the nobles came down; the people of the Lord came down to me as warriors. ¹⁴ From Ephraim, whose roots were in Amalek, they came down; following you, Benjamin, with your people. From Machir, commanders came down, and from Zebulun, those who wield the staff of office. ¹⁵ The princes of Issachar were with Deborah; yes, Issachar was with Barak, rushing into the valley at his heels. In the divisions of Reuben, there was much searching of heart. ¹⁶ Why did you stay among the sheepfolds to hear the piping for the flocks? In the divisions of Reuben, there was much searching of heart. ¹⁷ Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan. And why did Dan linger by the ships? Asher remained on the seashore and stayed by its landings. ¹⁸ The people of Zebulun risked their lives; so did Naphtali on the heights of the field. ¹⁹ "Kings came and fought, the kings of Canaan battled at Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo; they took no plunder of silver. ²⁰ From the heavens, the stars joined the battle, from their heavenly paths, they fought against Sisera. ²¹ The torrent of Kishon swept them away, the ancient torrent, the torrent Kishon. March on, my soul, with strength! ²² Then the horses' hooves pounded—galloping, galloping of his mighty steeds. ²³ 'Curse Meroz,' said the angel of the Lord. 'Curse its inhabitants bitterly, because they did not come to the aid of the Lord, to the aid of the Lord against the mighty.'

²⁴ "Most blessed of women is Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; most blessed is she among women in tents. ²⁵ He asked for water, and she gave him milk; in a fine bowl, she brought him curds. ²⁶ Her hand reached for the tent peg, her right hand for the workman's hammer. She struck Sisera, she smashed his head, she shattered and pierced his temple. ²⁷ At her feet he sank, he fell; there he lay. At her feet he sank, he fell; where he sank, there he fell—lifeless.

Judges

²⁸ "Through the window, Sisera's mother looked and cried out through the lattice, 'Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why is the clatter of his chariots delayed?' ²⁹ Her wise ladies answered her, indeed, she kept saying to herself, ³⁰ 'Are they not finding and dividing the spoils: a woman or two for each man, colourful garments as plunder for Sisera, colourful garments embroidered, highly embroidered garments for my neck— all this as plunder?' ³¹ 'So may all your enemies perish, Lord! But may those who love you be like the sun when it rises in its strength.'"

And the land had peace for forty years.

6 The Israelites acted wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and for seven years the Lord delivered them into the hands of the Midianites. ² The might of Midian was overwhelming against Israel. Consequently, the Israelites made for themselves shelters in mountain clefts, caves, and strongholds. ³ Whenever the Israelites sowed their crops, the Midianites, Amalekites, and other eastern peoples would invade the land. ⁴ They encamped on the land and devastated the crops all the way to Gaza, leaving no sustenance in Israel, neither sheep, ox, nor donkey. ⁵ They came up with their livestock and tents, swarming like locusts. Their numbers and their camels were beyond counting; they invaded the land to lay it waste. ⁶ Midian brought Israel to such poverty that the Israelites cried out to the Lord for help.

⁷ As the Israelites cried out to the Lord due to Midian's oppression, ⁸ the Lord sent them a prophet, who said, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'I brought you up from Egypt, out of the house of slavery. ⁹ I rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and from all your oppressors; I drove them out before you and gave you their land. ¹⁰ I said to you, 'I am the Lord your God; do not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell.' But you have not listened to me."

¹¹ The angel of the Lord came and sat under the oak in Ophrah that belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, where his son Gideon was threshing wheat in a winepress to hide it from the Midianites. ¹² The angel of the Lord appeared to Gideon and said, "The Lord is with you, valiant warrior." ¹³ Gideon replied, "Pardon me, my lord, but if the Lord is with us, why has all this happened to us? Where are all His wonders that our ancestors recounted to us, saying, 'Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt?' But now the Lord has abandoned us and handed us over to Midian." ¹⁴ The Lord turned to him and said, "Go in the strength you have and deliver Israel from Midian's hand. Am I not sending you?" ¹⁵ Gideon said, "Pardon me, my lord, but how can I save Israel? My clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my family." ¹⁶ The Lord assured him, "I will be with you, and you will strike down all the Midianites, leaving none." ¹⁷ Gideon replied, "If now I have found favour in your eyes, give me a sign that it is really you speaking to me. ¹⁸ Please do not depart until I return and bring my offering and set it before you." And the Lord said, "I will wait until you return." ¹⁹ Gideon went inside, prepared a young goat, and from an ephah of flour made unleavened bread. He put the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot, and brought them out and offered them under the oak. ²⁰ The angel of God instructed him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread, place them on this rock, and pour out the broth." And Gideon did so. ²¹ Then the angel of the Lord touched the meat and the unleavened bread with the tip of the staff in his hand, and fire flared from the rock, consuming the meat and the bread. The angel of the Lord then vanished. ²² When Gideon understood that it was the angel of the Lord, he exclaimed, "Alas, Sovereign Lord! I have seen the angel of the Lord face to face!" ²³ But the Lord said to him, "Peace be with you; do not be afraid. You are not going to die." ²⁴ Gideon built an altar there to the Lord and called it The Lord is Peace. To this day, it stands in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. ²⁵ That same night the Lord said to him, "Take your father's bull and a second bull seven years old, and tear down your father's altar to Baal and cut down the Asherah pole beside it. ²⁶ Then build a proper altar to the Lord your God on the top of this height. Using the wood of the Asherah pole you cut down, offer the second bull as a burnt offering." ²⁷ So Gideon took ten of his servants and did as the Lord had commanded. But because he was afraid of his family and the townspeople, he did it at night rather than in the daytime. ²⁸ In the morning, when the people of the town got up, they found Baal's altar demolished, with the Asherah pole beside it cut down and the second bull sacrificed on the newly built altar. ²⁹ They asked each other, "Who did this?" After they had investigated, they were told, "Gideon son of Joash did it." ³⁰ The people of the town demanded of Joash, "Bring out your son. He must die because he has torn down Baal's altar and cut down the Asherah pole beside it." ³¹ But Joash replied to the hostile crowd, "Will you plead Baal's cause? Will you save him? Whoever fights for him shall be put to death by morning! If Baal is truly a god, let him defend himself when someone breaks down his altar." ³² So because Gideon had broken down Baal's altar, they gave him the name Jerub-Baal, saying, "Let Baal contend with him." ³³ Now all the Midianites, Amalekites, and other eastern peoples joined forces, crossed over the Jordan, and camped in the Valley of Jezreel. ³⁴ Then the Spirit of the Lord came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet, summoning the Abiezrites to follow him. ³⁵ He sent messengers throughout Manasseh, calling them to arms, and also into Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, so they too went up to meet them. ³⁶ Gideon said to God, "If you intend to save Israel by my hand, as you have promised— ³⁷ behold, I will place a wool fleece on the threshing floor. If there is dew only on the fleece and all the ground is dry, then I will know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you have said." ³⁸ And it was so. Gideon rose early the next day; he squeezed the fleece and wrung out the dew—a bowlful of water. ³⁹ Then Gideon said to God, "Please do not be angry with me. Let me make just one more request. Allow me one more test with the fleece, but this time let the fleece remain dry and let the ground be covered with dew." ⁴⁰ That night God did as requested. Only the fleece was dry; all the ground was covered with dew.

Judges

7 Early in the morning, Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people with him camped beside the spring of Harod. The camp of Midian was to the north of them, by the hill of Moreh in the valley. ² The Lord said to Gideon, "You have too many people with you for Me to deliver Midian into their hands. Israel might boast against Me, saying, 'My own strength has saved me.' ³ Now, therefore, proclaim in the hearing of the people, 'Whoever is afraid and trembling, let him return and depart from Mount Gilead.'" So twenty-two thousand of the people returned, but ten thousand remained. ⁴ The Lord said to Gideon, "The people are still too many. Take them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. Whoever I say shall go with you, he shall go; but whoever I say shall not go with you, he shall not go."

⁵ So Gideon brought the people down to the water. The Lord said to him, "Separate those who lap the water with their tongues, as a dog laps, from those who kneel down to drink." ⁶ The number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest knelt down to drink water. ⁷ The Lord said to Gideon, "With the three hundred men who lapped I will save you and deliver the Midianites into your hands. Let all the others go back to their homes." ⁸ So the three hundred men took over the provisions and trumpets of the others. Gideon sent all the other Israelites to their tents but kept the three hundred men. The camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

⁹ That night the Lord said to Gideon, "Arise, go down against the camp, for I have given it into your hands."

¹⁰ If you feel hesitant to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah ¹¹ and listen to what they are saying. Afterwards, you will be encouraged to attack the camp." So he went down with Purah his servant to the outposts of the camp. ¹² The Midianites, the Amalekites, and all the people of the east lay in the valley, as numerous as locusts; their camels were without number, as numerous as the sand on the seashore. ¹³ When Gideon arrived, a man was telling a dream to his friend. He said, "I had a dream: a loaf of barley bread came tumbling into the camp of Midian. It struck the tent with such force that the tent overturned and collapsed." ¹⁴ His friend replied, "This can be nothing other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite. God has delivered Midian and the whole camp into his hands."

¹⁵ When Gideon heard the dream and its interpretation, he bowed down in worship. He returned to the camp of Israel and called out, "Arise! The Lord has delivered the camp of Midian into your hands." ¹⁶ He divided the three hundred men into three companies and placed trumpets and empty jars in the hands of all of them, with torches inside the jars. ¹⁷ He said to them, "Watch me and follow my lead. When I get to the outskirts of the camp, do exactly as I do. ¹⁸ When I and all who are with me blow our trumpets, then you also blow yours all around the camp and shout, 'For the Lord and for Gideon!'" ¹⁹ Gideon and the hundred men with him reached the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just after the guard had been posted. They blew their trumpets and smashed the jars that were in their hands.²⁰ The three companies blew the trumpets and broke the jars. Holding the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands for blowing, they shouted, "A sword for the Lord and for Gideon!"²¹ Each man stood in his place around the camp, and all the Midianites ran, crying out as they fled.²² When the three hundred trumpets sounded, the Lord set the sword of one against another throughout the camp. The army fled to Beth-shittah towards Zererah, as far as the border of Abel-meholah near Tabbath.²³ The men of Israel were called out from Naphtali, Asher, and all Manasseh, and they pursued the Midianites.²⁴ Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against the Midianites and seize the waters of the Jordan ahead of them as far as Beth-barah." So all the men of Ephraim were called out, and they seized the waters of the Jordan as far as Beth-barah.²⁵ They captured the two leaders of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, who was by the Jordan.

Judges

8 Then the Ephraimites said to Gideon, "What is this action you have taken against us by not calling us when you went to battle against Midian?" And they argued with him intensely.² But he responded, "What have I accomplished compared to you? Is not the gleaning of Ephraim's grapes better than the full harvest of Abiezer?"³ God delivered Oreb and Zeeb, the leaders of Midian, into your hands. What was I able to do in comparison to you?" At this, their anger towards him subsided.

⁴ Gideon and the three hundred men with him, exhausted yet continuing the pursuit, reached the Jordan and crossed over.⁵ He said to the men of Succoth, "Please give bread to my troops, for they are weary, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."⁶ But the leaders of Succoth replied, "Do you already have Zebah and Zalmunna in your hands, that we should give bread to your army?"⁷ Gideon answered, "For this response, when the Lord has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will punish you with the thorns and briers of the desert."

⁸ From there he went up to Penuel and made the same request, but they responded just as the men of Succoth had.⁹ So he said to the men of Penuel, "When I return safely, I will tear down this tower."¹⁰ Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with about fifteen thousand men, all that remained of the armies of the eastern peoples; a hundred and twenty thousand swordsmen had fallen.¹¹ Gideon went up by the route of the nomads east of Nobah and Jogbehah and attacked the unsuspecting camp.¹² Zebah and Zalmunna fled, but he pursued and captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, routing their entire army.¹³ Gideon son of Joash then returned from the battle by the ascent of Heres.¹⁴ He captured a young man from Succoth and questioned him, and the youth wrote down for him the names of the seventy-seven officials and elders of Succoth.¹⁵ Then Gideon came to the men of Succoth and said, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, 'Do you already have Zebah and Zalmunna in your hands, that we should give bread to your weary men?'"¹⁶ He took the elders of the town and disciplined the men of Succoth with desert thorns and briers.¹⁷ He also brought down the tower of Penuel and dealt with the men of the city.¹⁸ Then he asked Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men did you kill at Tabor?" They replied, "Men like you, each one with the bearing of a prince."¹⁹ Gideon said, "Those were my brothers, the sons of my own mother. As surely as the Lord lives, if you had spared their lives, I would not kill you."²⁰ Turning to Jether, his firstborn, he said, "Rise and kill them." But the boy did not draw his sword, because he was afraid, being still a youth.²¹ Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Rise yourself and strike us; for as the man is, so is his strength." So Gideon stepped forward and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the ornaments from their camels' necks.²² The Israelites said to Gideon, "Lead us—you, your son, and your grandson—because you have saved us from the hand of Midian."²³ But Gideon replied, "I will not rule over you, nor will my son rule over you. The Lord will rule over you."²⁴ Gideon said, "I do have one request, that each of you give me an earring from your share of the plunder." (It was the custom of the Ishmaelites to wear gold earrings.)²⁵ They answered, "We will gladly give them." So they spread out a garment, and each man threw an earring from his plunder onto it.²⁶ The weight of the gold earrings he requested was seventeen hundred shekels, not counting the ornaments, pendants, and the purple garments worn by the kings of Midian, or the chains on their camels' necks.²⁷ Gideon fashioned the gold into an ephod, which he placed in Ophrah, his town. All Israel was led astray by worshipping it there, and it became a trap to Gideon and his family.

Judges

²⁸ Thus Midian was subdued before the Israelites and did not rise again. During Gideon's lifetime, the land enjoyed peace for forty years.²⁹ Jerub-Baal son of Joash went back to live in his own house.³⁰ He had seventy sons, as he had numerous wives.³¹ A son was also born to him by his concubine who resided in Shechem, and he named him Abimelech.³² Gideon son of Joash passed away at a good old age and was laid to rest in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.³³ As soon as Gideon died, the Israelites again turned to the Baals and set up Baal-Berith as their god.³⁴ They did not remember the Lord their God, who had rescued them from the hands of all their enemies on every side.³⁵ They also failed to show kindness to the family of Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) despite all the good things he had done for Israel.

9 Abimelech, the son of Jerubbaal, went to Shechem to his mother's kin and spoke to them and to the whole family of his mother's father, saying,² "Speak to all the leaders of Shechem, 'Which is better for you: to have seventy men, all the sons of Jerubbaal, rule over you, or just one man?' Remember, I am your own flesh and blood."³ His mother's relatives spoke all these words on his behalf to the leaders of Shechem, and they were inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our relative."⁴ They gave him seventy pieces of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, and with it, Abimelech hired worthless and reckless men who became his followers.⁵ He went to his father's house in Ophrah and killed his brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, survived because he hid himself.⁶ Then all the leaders of Shechem and Beth-Millo gathered together and made Abimelech king by the oak of the memorial stone in Shechem.

⁷ When Jotham was informed, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim and shouted to them, "Listen to me, leaders of Shechem, that God may listen to you."⁸ The trees once set out to appoint a king over themselves, and they said to the olive tree, 'Rule over us!' ⁹ But the olive tree replied, 'Should I give up my oil, by which both gods and humans are honoured, to wave over the trees?' ¹⁰ Then the trees addressed the fig tree, 'You, come and reign over us!'

¹¹ But the fig tree replied, 'Should I give up my sweetness and my good fruit to wave over the trees?'

¹² The trees then spoke to the vine, saying, 'You, come and reign over us!' ¹³ But the vine replied, 'Should I give up my wine, which cheers both gods and humans, to wave over the trees?' ¹⁴ Finally, all the trees said to the bramble, 'You, come and reign over us!' ¹⁵ The bramble said to the trees, 'If you are truly anointing me as king over you, come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, let fire come out of the bramble and consume the cedars of Lebanon.'¹⁶

"So now, if you have acted with honesty and integrity in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have treated him as he deserved—¹⁷ for my father fought for you and risked his life to rescue you from the hand of Midian; ¹⁸ but today you have risen against my father's house, killed his sons, seventy men, on one stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his female slave, king over the leaders of Shechem because he is your relative—¹⁹ if you have acted with honesty and integrity towards Jerubbaal and his house today, then be joyful about Abimelech, and may he also be joyful about you."²⁰ But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech and consume the leaders of Shechem and Beth-Millo; and let fire come out from the leaders of Shechem and Beth-Millo and consume Abimelech."²¹ Then Jotham fled, escaping to Beer, and he lived there because he was afraid of his brother Abimelech.²² Abimelech governed Israel for three years.²³ Then God sent a spirit of discord between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem, and the leaders of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech,²⁴ so that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might be avenged, and the responsibility for their blood be laid on their brother Abimelech, who killed them, and on the leaders of Shechem, who helped him murder his brothers.²⁵ The leaders of Shechem set men in ambush against him on the hilltops, and they robbed everyone who passed by them on the road; and this was reported to Abimelech.²⁶ Now Gaal, the son of Ebed, came with his relatives and crossed into

Judges

Shechem, and the leaders of Shechem put their confidence in him.²⁷ They went out into the fields, gathered the grapes of their vineyards, trod them, and held a festival. They went into the house of their god, ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech.²⁸ Then Gaal, the son of Ebed, said, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is Zebul not his deputy? Serve the men of Hamor, Shechem's father! Why should we serve him?"²⁹ If only this people were under my command! Then I would get rid of him." And he said to Abimelech, "Enlarge your army and come out!"³⁰ When Zebul, the leader of the city, heard what Gaal, the son of Ebed, said, he was very angry.³¹ Under cover, he sent messengers to Abimelech, saying, "Gaal, the son of Ebed, and his relatives have come to Shechem and are stirring up the city against you."³² Now then, arise by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field.³³ In the morning, at sunrise, advance against the city. When he and the people who are with him come out against you, do to them whatever you can."³⁴ So Abimelech and all the people with him got up at night and took up concealed positions near Shechem in four companies.³⁵ Now Gaal, the son of Ebed, went out and stood at the entrance of the city gate, just as Abimelech and the people with him rose from the ambush.³⁶ When Gaal saw them, he said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!" Zebul replied, "You are mistaking the shadows of the mountains for men."³⁷ But Gaal spoke again, "Look, people are coming down from the highest part of the land, and one company is coming from the direction of the diviners' tree."³⁸ Then Zebul said to him, "Where is your boasting now, you who said, 'Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?' Are these not the people you ridiculed? Go out and fight them!"³⁹ So Gaal went out in the sight of the leaders of Shechem and fought Abimelech.⁴⁰ Abimelech pursued him, and he fled before him, and many fell wounded up to the entrance of the gate.⁴¹ Abimelech stayed in Arumah, and Zebul drove Gaal and his relatives out of Shechem.⁴² The next day, the people went out to the fields, and this was reported to Abimelech.⁴³ So he took his men, divided them into three companies, and set an ambush in the fields. When he saw the people coming out of the city, he attacked them.⁴⁴ Abimelech and the company with him rushed forward to a position at the entrance of the city gate. Then the other two companies attacked those in the fields and struck them down.⁴⁵ Abimelech fought against the city all that day, captured it, and killed its people. Then he destroyed the city and scattered salt over it.⁴⁶ When all the leaders of the tower of Shechem heard about it, they entered the inner chamber of the temple of El-Berith.⁴⁷ It was reported to Abimelech that all the leaders of the tower of Shechem had gathered together.⁴⁸ So Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people with him. Abimelech took an axe in his hand, cut down a branch from the trees, lifted it to his shoulder, and said to the people with him, "What you have seen me do, hurry and do likewise."⁴⁹ So all the people cut down their branches and followed Abimelech. They piled them against the inner chamber and set it on fire over those inside, so all the people in the tower of Shechem died, about a thousand men and women.⁵⁰ Abimelech then went to Thebez, besieged it, and captured it.⁵¹ Inside the city, however, was a strong tower, and all the men and women, along with all the leaders of the city, fled there, locked themselves in, and climbed to the roof of the tower.⁵² Abimelech went to the tower and attacked it, approaching the entrance to set it on fire.⁵³ But a woman dropped an upper millstone on Abimelech's head, cracking his skull.⁵⁴ Hurriedly, he called to his young armour-bearer and said, "Draw your sword and kill me, so that they can't say, 'A woman killed him.'" So the young man ran him through, and he died.⁵⁵ When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they each went home.⁵⁶ Thus God repaid the wickedness that Abimelech had done to his father by murdering his seventy brothers.⁵⁷ God also returned all the wickedness of the men of Shechem on their heads, and the curse of Jotham, the son of Jerubbaal, came upon them.

10 Following the death of Abimelech, Tola, son of Puah, son of Dodo, a man from the tribe of Issachar, rose to deliver Israel. He resided in Shamir, situated in the hill country of Ephraim.² He governed Israel for twenty-three years, after which he passed away and was laid to rest in Shamir.³ After him came Jair, a Gileadite, who judged Israel for twenty-two years.⁴ Jair had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys, and they possessed thirty towns in Gilead, known to this day as Havvoth Jair. ⁵ Upon Jair's passing, he was interred in Kamon.

Judges

⁶ Once again, the Israelites did evil in the sight of the Lord. They worshipped the Baals and the Ashtaroth, as well as the gods of Aram, Sidon, Moab, the Ammonites, and the Philistines. They abandoned the Lord and ceased to serve Him. ⁷ The Lord's anger burned against Israel, and He handed them over to the Philistines and the Ammonites. ⁸ That year, they oppressed and crushed the Israelites. For eighteen years, they oppressed all the Israelites east of the Jordan in Gilead, the land of the Amorites. ⁹ The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to wage war against Judah, Benjamin, and the house of Ephraim, causing great distress to Israel. ¹⁰ The Israelites cried out to the Lord, confessing, "We have sinned against You by forsaking our God and serving the Baals." ¹¹ The Lord responded to the Israelites, "Did I not rescue you from the Egyptians, the Amorites, the Ammonites, and the Philistines? ¹² When the Sidonians, Amalekites, and Maonites oppressed you, you cried out to Me, and I delivered you from their hands. ¹³ But you have turned away from Me and served other gods; as a result, I will not rescue you anymore. ¹⁴ Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen. Let them deliver you in your time of trouble."

¹⁵ But the Israelites pleaded with the Lord, "We have sinned. Do with us whatever You see fit, but please rescue us today." ¹⁶ They removed the foreign gods from among them and served the Lord, and He could no longer bear the misery of Israel. ¹⁷ The Ammonites were called to arms and camped in Gilead, while the Israelites assembled and camped at Mizpah. ¹⁸ The leaders of Gilead said to one another, "Whoever will take the lead in attacking the Ammonites shall become the head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

11 Jephthah the Gileadite was a valiant warrior, but he was the son of a prostitute. Gilead was his father. ² Gilead's wife bore him sons, and when they were grown, they drove Jephthah away, saying, "You shall not share in our family inheritance, for you are the son of another woman." ³ So Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob, where a group of worthless men gathered around him and followed him. ⁴ After some time, the Ammonites waged war against Israel. ⁵ When the Ammonites fought against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah back from the land of Tob. ⁶ They approached Jephthah, saying, "Come and lead us in battle against the Ammonites."

⁷ Jephthah replied to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me and drive me from my father's house? Why do you come to me now when you are in distress?" ⁸ The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "For this reason we have returned to you now, that you may go with us to fight the Ammonites and become our leader over all the inhabitants of Gilead." ⁹ Jephthah said to them, "If you bring me back to fight the Ammonites and the Lord delivers them to me, shall I indeed be your leader?" ¹⁰ The elders of Gilead answered, "The Lord is witness between us; we will do as you have said." ¹¹ So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them. Jephthah repeated all his words before the Lord at Mizpah. ¹² Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites, asking, "What conflict exists between us that you have come to fight against my land?" ¹³ The king of the Ammonites replied to Jephthah's messengers, "When Israel came up from Egypt, they seized my land from the Arnon to the Jabbok and the Jordan. Now, return it peaceably." ¹⁴ Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the Ammonites, ¹⁵ stating, "This is what Jephthah declares: Israel did not take the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites. ¹⁶ When they came up from Egypt, Israel travelled through the wilderness to the Red Sea and then to Kadesh. ¹⁷ Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, asking, 'Please let us pass through your land,' but the king of Edom would not listen. They also sent to the king of Moab, but he refused. So Israel remained at Kadesh. ¹⁸ Then they journeyed through the wilderness, bypassing Edom and Moab, and came to the east of Moab, camping on the other side of the Arnon. They did not enter Moabite territory, for the Arnon was its border. ¹⁹ Israel sent messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, ruler of Heshbon, saying, 'Please let us pass through your land to our place.' ²⁰ But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. He gathered all his troops, camped at Jahaz, and fought with Israel. ²¹ The Lord, the God of Israel, delivered Sihon and all his people into Israel's hands, and they defeated them. Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites who inhabited that region. ²² They captured all the territory from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

Judges

²³ Now that the Lord, the God of Israel, has driven the Amorites out before His people Israel, should you then possess it? ²⁴ Do you not possess what Chemosh your god gives you? Likewise, whatever the Lord our God has given us, we will possess. ²⁵ Are you any better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel or wage war with them? ²⁶ For three hundred years, Israel occupied Heshbon, Aroer, and the surrounding settlements, and all the towns along the Arnon. Why did you not reclaim them during that time? ²⁷ I have not wronged you, but you are wronging me by waging war against me. Let the Lord, the Judge, decide the dispute today between the Israelites and the Ammonites." ²⁸ The king of the Ammonites, however, ignored the message Jephthah sent him.

²⁹ Then the Spirit of the Lord came upon Jephthah. He passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and through Mizpah of Gilead, advancing against the Ammonites. ³⁰ Jephthah made a vow to the Lord: "If You deliver the Ammonites into my hands, ³¹ then whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return victorious from the Ammonites shall be the Lord's, and I will offer it as a burnt offering." ³² Jephthah crossed over to fight the Ammonites, and the Lord delivered them into his hands. ³³ He struck them down from Aroer to the vicinity of Minnith, twenty towns, as far as Abel Keramim. Thus the Ammonites were subdued before the Israelites. ³⁴ When Jephthah returned to his home in Mizpah, his daughter came out to meet him with tambourines and dancing. She was his only child; besides her, he had neither son nor daughter. ³⁵ Upon seeing her, he tore his clothes and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me low, and you are among those who trouble me, for I have given my word to the Lord, and I cannot retract it." ³⁶ She replied, "My father, you have given your word to the Lord; do to me as you have promised, since the Lord has avenged you of your enemies, the Ammonites." ³⁷ She then said to her father, "Grant me this request: allow me two months to roam the hills and weep with my friends because I will never marry." ³⁸ He said, "Go." So he sent her away for two months. She and her friends went into the hills and wept over her virginity. ³⁹ After two months, she returned to her father, and he did to her as he had vowed. And she was a virgin. From this arose a custom in Israel, ⁴⁰ that each year the daughters of Israel go out for four days to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

12 The men of Ephraim were called out, and they crossed over to Zaphon. They said to Jephthah, "Why did you go to fight the Ammonites without inviting us to go with you? We will burn your house down on you!" ² Jephthah replied, "I and my people were in a significant conflict with the Ammonites, and I did call you, but you did not rescue me from their hands. ³ When I realised you would not help, I risked my life and crossed over to fight the Ammonites, and the Lord gave me victory over them. So why have you come today to fight against me?"

⁴ Jephthah then gathered the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. The Gileadites defeated Ephraim because they had said, "You Gileadites are fugitives in the midst of Ephraim and Manasseh." ⁵ The Gileadites seized the fords of the Jordan leading to Ephraim, and whenever a survivor of Ephraim said, "Let me cross over," the men of Gilead would ask him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he replied, "No," ⁶ they would say, "Please say 'Shibboleth.'" If he said, "Sibboleth," because he could not pronounce it correctly, they would seize him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan. At that time, forty-two thousand Ephraimites fell. ⁷ Jephthah judged Israel for six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in a town in Gilead.

⁸ Following Jephthah, Ibzan of Bethlehem took up the role of judging Israel. ⁹ He had thirty sons and thirty daughters. He gave his daughters in marriage outside his clan and brought in thirty young women as wives for his sons from outside his clan. Ibzan judged Israel for seven years. ¹⁰ Subsequently, Ibzan passed away and was laid to rest in Bethlehem. ¹¹ After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel for ten years. ¹² Elon the Zebulunite eventually died and was interred at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun. ¹³ Following him, Abdon son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, judged Israel. ¹⁴ He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy donkeys. Abdon served as a judge over Israel for eight years. ¹⁵ Then Abdon son of Hillel died and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Judges

13 Once more the Israelites did evil in the sight of the Lord, and He handed them over to the Philistines for forty years. ² There was a man from Zorah, of the Danite clan, named Manoah, whose wife was barren and had not given birth. ³ The angel of the Lord appeared to her and said, "You are barren and childless, but you will conceive and give birth to a son. ⁴ Now be careful not to drink wine or any strong drink, and do not eat anything unclean. ⁵ For you will conceive and give birth to a son. No razor shall touch his head, for the boy is to be a Nazirite, dedicated to God from the womb. He will begin to deliver Israel from the Philistines."

⁶ The woman went to her husband and said, "A man of God came to me; his appearance was like that of an angel of God, very awe-inspiring. I did not ask where he was from, nor did he tell me his name. ⁷ He said to me, 'You will conceive and give birth to a son. Now, do not drink wine or strong drink, and do not eat anything unclean, for the boy will be a Nazirite to God from the womb until the day of his death.'" ⁸ Manoah prayed to the Lord, "Please, Lord, let the man of God you sent come again to teach us how to raise the boy who is to be born." ⁹ God listened to Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she was in the field, but her husband Manoah was not with her. ¹⁰ The woman hurried to her husband and said, "The man who appeared to me the other day is here!" ¹² Manoah asked, "When your words are fulfilled, what will be the boy's way of life and his mission?" ¹³ The angel of the Lord answered, "Your wife must observe all that I have told her. ¹⁴ She must not consume anything from the vine, nor drink wine or strong drink, nor eat anything unclean. She must do everything I have commanded her." ¹⁵ Manoah said to the angel of the Lord, "Please stay while we prepare a young goat for you." ¹⁶ The angel of the Lord replied, "Even if you detain me, I will not eat your food. But if you prepare a burnt offering, offer it to the Lord." Manoah did not realise it was the angel of the Lord. ¹⁷ Manoah asked the angel of the Lord, "What is your name, so that we may honour you when your word comes true?" ¹⁸ He replied, "Why do you ask my name? It is a mystery."

¹⁹ Manoah took a young goat and a grain offering and offered them on a rock to the Lord. The Lord performed wonders while Manoah and his wife watched. ²⁰ As the flame rose from the altar towards heaven, the angel of the Lord ascended in the flame. Seeing this, Manoah and his wife fell with their faces to the ground. ²¹ When the angel of the Lord did not appear again to Manoah and his wife, Manoah realised it was the angel of the Lord. ²² Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, for we have seen God!" ²³ But his wife replied, "If the Lord intended to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and grain offering from our hands, nor shown us all these things or told us this." ²⁴ The woman gave birth to a son and named him Samson. He grew, and the Lord blessed him. ²⁵ The Spirit of the Lord began to stir him while he was in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

14 Samson went down to Timnah and there he saw a young woman, one of the Philistines. ² Upon returning, he told his father and mother, "I have seen a woman in Timnah of the Philistines; now arrange for her to be my wife." ³ His father and mother questioned him, "Is there no suitable woman among your own relatives or among our people, that you must go to the uncircumcised Philistines for a wife?" But Samson insisted to his father, "Get her for me, for she pleases me." ⁴ His parents were unaware that this was from the Lord, who was seeking an occasion to act against the Philistines, as they were ruling over Israel at that time.

⁵ Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother. As they approached the vineyards of Timnah, a young lion came roaring towards him. ⁶ The Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and he tore the lion apart with his bare hands as one might tear a young goat. He did not tell his father or mother what he had done. ⁷ He went down and spoke with the woman, and she was pleasing to Samson. ⁸ Some time later, when he returned to marry her, he turned aside to look at the lion's carcass, and saw a swarm of bees and some honey inside it. ⁹ He scooped out the honey with his hands and ate it as he went along. When he rejoined his parents, he gave some to them and they ate it, but he did not reveal that he had taken the honey from the lion's carcass. ¹⁰ His father went down to see the woman, and Samson held a feast there, as was customary for young men. ¹¹ When the people saw him, they selected thirty companions to be with him.

Judges

¹² Samson said to them, "Let me propose a riddle to you. If you can solve it within the seven days of the feast, I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes. ¹³ But if you cannot solve it, you must give me thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes." They replied, "Tell us your riddle, so we may hear it." ¹⁴ He said,

"Out of the eater came something to eat, out of the strong came something sweet."

For three days they could not solve the riddle. ¹⁵ On the fourth day, they said to Samson's wife, "Coax your husband into explaining the riddle for us, or we will burn you and your father's household to death. Did you invite us here to impoverish us?" ¹⁶ Samson's wife wept before him, saying, "You hate me! You do not love me. You have given my people a riddle, but you have not told me the answer." He replied, "I have not even told my father or mother, so why should I tell you?" ¹⁷ She cried for the entire seven days of the feast. On the seventh day, he finally told her because she pressed him so hard. She then explained the riddle to her people. ¹⁸ Before sunset on the seventh day, the men of the city said to him,

"What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?"

Samson replied,

"If you had not ploughed with my heifer, you would not have solved my riddle."

¹⁹ Then the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him. He went down to Ashkelon, struck down thirty men, took their belongings, and gave their clothes to those who had solved the riddle. Burning with anger, he returned to his father's house. ²⁰ Samson's wife was given to one of his companions who had attended him at the feast.

15 After some time, during the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife, bringing a young goat. He said, "I will go to my wife's chamber." But her father did not allow him to enter. ² Her father said, "I was certain you despised her, so I gave her to your companion. Isn't her younger sister more beautiful? You may have her instead." ³

Samson replied to them, "This time I shall be without blame when I harm the Philistines."

⁴ So Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, tying the foxes tail to tail in pairs and placing a torch between each pair of tails. ⁵ He set the torches alight and released the foxes into the Philistines' standing grain, burning both the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and olive groves. ⁶ When the Philistines inquired, "Who has done this?" they were informed, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because his wife was given to his companion." So the Philistines went up and burned her and her father with fire. ⁷ Samson said to them, "Since you have acted in this manner, I will not cease until I have taken my revenge on you."

⁸ He attacked them with great ferocity and slaughtered many. Then he went down and stayed in a cave in the rock of Etam. ⁹ The Philistines went up and encamped in Judah, spreading out near Lehi. ¹⁰ The men of Judah asked, "Why have you come against us?" They replied, "We have come to capture Samson, to do to him as he has done to us." ¹¹ Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cave in the rock of Etam and said to Samson, "Do you not realise the Philistines rule over us? What have you done to us?" He answered, "I have done to them as they did to me." ¹² They said to him, "We have come to bind you and hand you over to the Philistines." Samson said, "Swear to me that you will not kill me yourselves." ¹³ They replied, "We agree; we will only bind you and hand you over to them. We will not kill you." So they bound him with two new ropes and led him up from the rock. ¹⁴ As he approached Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet him. The Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and the ropes on his arms became like charred flax, and the bindings dropped from his hands. ¹⁵ Finding a fresh jawbone of a donkey, he reached out, took it, and killed a thousand men with it. ¹⁶ Then Samson declared, "With a donkey's jawbone, I have made heaps upon heaps; with a donkey's jawbone, I have slain a thousand men." ¹⁷ When he had finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone, and he named the place Ramath Lehi. ¹⁸ Feeling very thirsty, he called upon the Lord and said, "You have granted this great victory to your servant. Must I now die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?" ¹⁹ Then God opened up the hollow place in Lehi, and water flowed from it. When Samson drank, his strength returned and he was revived. So the spring was named En Hakkore, and it remains in Lehi to this day.²⁰ Samson judged Israel for twenty years during the days of the Philistines.

Judges

16 Samson went to Gaza and saw a prostitute there, and he spent the night with her.² The people of Gaza were informed, "Samson is here." They encircled the place and lay in wait for him all night at the city gate, remaining silent throughout the night, saying, "At dawn, we will kill him."³ Samson lay until midnight, and then he arose and seized the doors of the city gate along with the two posts, and tore them loose, bar and all. He placed them on his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill facing Hebron.⁴ Some time later, he fell in love with a woman in the Valley of Sorek named Delilah.⁵ The leaders of the Philistines approached her and said, "Entice him to reveal the source of his great strength and how we may overpower him, so we can bind him and subdue him. Each of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver."⁶ Delilah asked Samson, "Please tell me the secret of your great strength and how you can be bound and subdued."⁷ Samson told her, "If anyone ties me with seven fresh bowstrings that have not been dried, I will become as weak as any other man."⁸ The leaders of the Philistines brought her seven fresh bowstrings that had not been dried, and she bound him with them.⁹ With men hidden in the room, she called out, "Samson, the Philistines are upon you!" But he snapped the bowstrings as easily as a piece of string snaps near a flame. So the secret of his strength was not discovered.¹⁰ Delilah said to Samson, "You have made a fool of me and lied to me. Now tell me how you can be bound."¹¹ He replied, "If anyone ties me securely with new ropes that have never been used, I will become as weak as any other man."¹² So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them. Then, with men hidden in the room, she called out, "Samson, the Philistines are upon you!" But he snapped the ropes off his arms like threads.¹³ Delilah said to Samson, "All this time you have made a fool of me and lied to me. Tell me how you can be bound." He said, "If you weave the seven locks of my hair into the fabric on the loom and fasten it with the pin, I will become as weak as any other man." So while he slept, Delilah wove the seven locks of his hair into the fabric.¹⁴ And she fastened it with the pin and called out,

"Samson, the Philistines are upon you!" He awoke from his sleep and pulled out the pin and the loom, with the fabric.¹⁵ Then she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when you will not confide in me? This is the third time you have made a fool of me and have not told me the secret of your great strength."¹⁶ With persistent nagging, she pressed him day after day until he was tired to death.¹⁷ So he revealed everything to her. "No razor has ever touched my head," he said, "for I have been a Nazirite dedicated to God from my mother's womb. If my head were shaved, my strength would leave me, and I would be as weak as any other man."¹⁸ When Delilah realised he had told her everything, she sent word to the leaders of the Philistines, "Come back once more; he has revealed everything to me." So the leaders returned with the silver in their hands.¹⁹ She lulled him to sleep on her lap and called for a man to shave off the seven locks of his hair. Thus, she began to subdue him, and his strength left him.²⁰ She called out, "Samson, the Philistines are upon you!" He awoke and thought, "I will go out as before and shake myself free." But he did not realise that the Lord had departed from him.²¹ The Philistines seized him, gouged out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza. They bound him with bronze shackles and set him to grinding grain in the prison.

²² However, the hair on his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.²³ The leaders of the Philistines gathered to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and to celebrate, saying, "Our god has delivered Samson, our enemy, into our hands."²⁴ When the people saw him, they praised their god, saying, "Our god has delivered our enemy into our hands, the one who devastated our land and killed many of us."²⁵ While they were in high spirits, they called for Samson to entertain them. So they brought him from the prison, and he performed for them. They placed him between the pillars.²⁶ Samson said to the servant who held his hand, "Place me where I can feel the pillars that support the temple, so that I may lean against them."²⁷ The temple was crowded with men and women, and all the leaders of the Philistines were there. On the roof were about three thousand men and women watching Samson perform.²⁸ Then Samson prayed to the Lord, "Sovereign Lord, remember me. Please, God, strengthen me just once more, so that I may with one blow take vengeance on the Philistines for my two eyes.”²⁹ Samson reached for the two central pillars on which the temple stood, bracing himself against them, his right hand on one and his left hand on the other.³⁰ Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!” He pushed with all his might, and the temple collapsed on the leaders and all the people in it. Thus he killed more in his death than he had during his life.³¹ Then his brothers and his father’s whole family came down to collect him. They took him and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah his father. He had judged Israel for twenty years.

Judges

17 There was a man named Micah from the hill country of Ephraim.² He said to his mother, “The eleven hundred pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you pronounced a curse and spoke in my hearing, behold, I have the silver; I took it.” His mother replied, “Blessed be my son by the Lord.”³ He returned the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother, and she said, “I solemnly dedicate my silver to the Lord for my son to make a carved image and a metal image; I will return it to you.”⁴ After he returned the silver to his mother, she took two hundred pieces of silver and gave them to a silversmith, who made them into a carved image and a metal image, which were placed in Micah’s house.⁵ Micah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and some household idols, and he consecrated one of his sons to become his priest.⁶ At that time, there was no king in Israel, and everyone acted according to their own judgment.

⁷ There was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he was staying there.⁸ He left the city of Bethlehem in Judah to find a place to stay, and on his journey, he came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah.⁹ Micah asked him, “Where do you come from?” He replied, “I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am looking for a place to stay.”¹⁰ Micah said to him, “Stay with me and be a father and priest to me, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, clothes, and your food.” So the Levite went in.¹¹ The Levite agreed to live with Micah, and the young man became like one of his sons to him.¹² Micah appointed the Levite, and the young man served as his priest and lived in Micah’s house.¹³ Micah said,

“Now I know that the Lord will do me good, because I have a Levite as a priest.”

18 In those days, Israel had no king, and the tribe of the Danites was seeking a territory of their own to settle in, for up to that time they had not been allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.² So the Danites sent from their clan five capable men from Zorah and Eshtaol to scout the land and explore it. They instructed them, “Go and explore the land.” When they reached the hill country of Ephraim, they came to the house of Micah and stayed there overnight.³ As they approached Micah’s house, they recognised the voice of the young Levite and turned aside to speak with him, asking, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What do you have here?”⁴ He replied, “This is what Micah has done for me: he has hired me, and I have become his priest.”⁵ Then they said to him, “Please inquire of God to find out if our journey will be successful.”⁶ The priest said to them, “Go in peace; your journey has the Lord’s approval.”

⁷ So the five men departed and arrived at Laish, where they observed that the people were living in security, in the manner of the Sidonians, peaceful and unsuspecting. Their land lacked nothing and was prosperous. They were far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with anyone else.⁸ When they returned to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol, their fellow Danites asked them, “What is your report?”⁹ They answered, “Let us go up and attack them, for we have seen the land, and it is very good. Why are you hesitating? Do not delay to go and take possession of the land.”¹⁰ When you arrive, you will find a people unsuspecting and a spacious land that God has given into your hands, a place where there is no lack of anything on the earth.”¹¹ Then six hundred men from the Danites, armed for battle, set out from Zorah and Eshtaol.¹² On their journey, they camped near Kiriath Jearim in Judah. This is why the place is called Mahaneh Dan to this day, located west of Kiriath Jearim.¹³ From there, they continued to the hill country of Ephraim and came to Micah’s house.¹⁴ Then the five men who had scouted the land of Laish said to their kinsmen, “Do you know that in these houses there is an ephod, some household gods, and a carved image overlaid with silver? Now you know what to do.”¹⁵ So they turned aside and went to the house of the young Levite at Micah's place and greeted him. ¹⁶ The six hundred Danites, ready for battle, stood at the entrance of the gate. ¹⁷ The five men who had scouted the land went inside and took the carved image, the ephod, the household gods, and the cast metal image, while the priest and the six hundred armed men stood at the entrance of the gate. ¹⁸ When these men entered Micah's house and took the carved image, the ephod, the household gods, and the cast metal image, the priest asked them, "What are you doing?" ¹⁹ They replied, "Be silent; put your hand over your mouth and come with us, and be a father and priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest to one man's household, or to a tribe and clan in Israel?" ²⁰ The priest was delighted. He took the ephod, the household gods, and the carved image and went with the people. ²¹ Putting their children, livestock, and possessions in front of them, they turned and left. ²² When they had gone some distance from Micah's house, the men who lived near Micah's house gathered together and overtook the Danites. ²³ As they shouted after them, the Danites turned and said to Micah, "What is the matter with you that you have called out your men to fight?" ²⁴ He replied, "You have taken the gods I made and my priest, and have gone away. What else do I have? How can you ask, 'What is the matter with you?'" ²⁵ The Danites said to him, "Do not raise your voice against us, or some fierce men may attack you, and you and your family will lose your lives." ²⁶ So the Danites went on their way, and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back home. ²⁷ They took what Micah had made and his priest and went on to Laish, to a people living in peace and security. They attacked them with the sword and burned down their city. ²⁸ There was no one to rescue them because they lived far from Sidon and had no dealings with anyone else. The city was in a valley near Beth Rehob. The Danites rebuilt the city and settled there. ²⁹ They named it Dan, after their ancestor Dan, who was born to Israel, though the city was formerly called Laish. ³⁰ The Danites set up for themselves the carved image, and Jonathan son of Gershom, the son of Moses, and his sons were priests for the tribe of Dan until the time of the captivity of the land. ³¹ They continued to use the carved image Micah had made, all the time the house of God was in Shiloh.

In those days, Israel was without a king. A certain Levite residing in a remote part of the hill country of Ephraim took a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah. ² However, the concubine was unfaithful to him and left him, returning to her father's house in Bethlehem, Judah, where she stayed for four months. ³ Her husband then set out to persuade her to return, speaking kindly to her. He took with him his servant and two donkeys. She brought him into her father's house, and her father was pleased to see him. ⁴ The woman's father urged him to stay, so he remained with him for three days, eating, drinking, and lodging there. ⁵ On the fourth day, they rose early, and he prepared to leave. But the woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Have something to eat to refresh yourself, and then you can go." ⁶ So the two of them sat down to eat and drink together. The woman's father said, "Please stay another night and enjoy yourself." ⁷ When the man got up to depart, his father-in-law persuaded him, and he stayed another night.

⁸ On the fifth day, he rose to leave early, but the woman's father said, "Please, strengthen yourself and wait until the afternoon." So the two of them ate together. ⁹ When the man, along with his concubine and servant, got up to leave, his father-in-law said, "See, the day is nearly over. Spend the night here; enjoy yourself. Tomorrow morning you can rise early and be on your way home." ¹⁰ But the man was unwilling to stay another night, so he left and travelled towards Jebus (which is Jerusalem), with his two saddled donkeys and his concubine. ¹¹ As they neared Jebus, the day was almost gone. The servant said to his master, "Let us turn into this city of the Jebusites and spend the night." ¹² His master replied, "We will not turn aside into a city of foreigners who are not Israelites. We will continue to Gibeah." ¹³ He added, "Come, let us try to reach Gibeah or Ramah and spend the night there." ¹⁴ So they continued on their way, and the sun set as they approached Gibeah in Benjamin. ¹⁵ They stopped to spend the night in Gibeah. They sat in the city square, but no one offered them hospitality. ¹⁶ That evening, an old man came in from his work in the fields. He was from the hill country of Ephraim and was living in Gibeah, though the people there were Benjaminites. ¹⁷ When he saw the traveller in the city square, the old man asked, "Where are you going and where have you come from?" ¹⁸ He answered,

Judges

"We are travelling from Bethlehem in Judah to a remote area in the hill country of Ephraim, where I live. I have been to Bethlehem, and now I am going to the house of the Lord. No one has taken us in for the night.¹⁹ We have straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine for ourselves, your servants—me, the woman, and the young man with us. We lack nothing."²⁰ The old man said, "You are welcome at my house. Let me provide for all your needs. Only do not spend the night in the square."²¹ So he took him into his house and fed his donkeys. After they washed their feet, they ate and drank.²² While they were enjoying themselves, some wicked men of the city surrounded the house. They pounded on the door and shouted to the old man, "Bring out the man who came to your house so we can have relations with him."²³ The owner of the house went outside and said, "No, my brothers, do not commit such a wicked act. Since this man is my guest, do not do this vile thing."²⁴ Look, here is my virgin daughter and his concubine. I will bring them out to you now. Do with them as you please, but do not commit this vile act against this man."²⁵ But the men would not listen to him. So the man took his concubine and sent her outside to them. They raped her and abused her throughout the night, and at dawn, they let her go.²⁶ As the day began to dawn, the woman returned to the house where her master was staying, collapsed at the door, and lay there until daylight.²⁷ When her master got up in the morning, opened the door, and stepped out to continue on his way, he found his concubine lying at the doorway of the house, with her hands on the threshold.²⁸ He said to her, "Get up; let's go." But there was no response. He put her on his donkey and set out for home.²⁹ When he reached home, he took a knife and cut his concubine, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent them throughout the territory of Israel.³⁰ Everyone who saw it said, "Such a thing has never been seen or done, not since the Israelites came up from Egypt. Consider it, make a plan, and speak up!"

20 Then all the Israelites from Dan to Beersheba, including the land of Gilead, gathered together as one assembly before the Lord at Mizpah.² The leaders of all the tribes of Israel took their places in the assembly of God's people, comprising four hundred thousand foot soldiers armed with swords.³ (The Benjamites heard that the Israelites had assembled at Mizpah.) The Israelites asked, "Explain to us how this wickedness occurred."⁴ The Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered, "My concubine and I came to Gibeah in Benjamin to spend the night."⁵ The men of Gibeah rose against me and surrounded the house by night, intending to kill me. They raped my concubine, and she died.⁶ I took my concubine, cut her into pieces, and sent them throughout Israel's territory, for they committed a disgraceful and vile act in Israel.⁷ Now, all you Israelites, give your verdict and advice here."

⁸ All the people rose as one, saying, "None of us will return to our tents or homes."⁹ This is what we will do to Gibeah: we will draw lots to decide how we attack it.¹⁰ We will take ten men out of every hundred from all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred out of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to supply provisions for the army. When the army arrives at Gibeah in Benjamin, they will punish them for the vile act committed in Israel."¹¹ So all the men of Israel united as one against the city.¹² The tribes of Israel sent messengers throughout the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What is this wickedness that has occurred among you?"¹³ Now hand over those wicked men of Gibeah so that we may put them to death and purge the evil from Israel." But the Benjamites refused to listen to their fellow Israelites.¹⁴ Instead, the Benjamites gathered from their towns to Gibeah to fight against the Israelites.¹⁵ That day, the Benjamites mobilised twenty-six thousand swordsmen from their towns, excluding seven hundred chosen men from Gibeah.¹⁶ Among all these soldiers were seven hundred select troops, left-handed, each capable of slinging a stone at a hair without missing.¹⁷ The Israelites, excluding Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand swordsmen, all prepared for battle.¹⁸ The Israelites went up to Bethel and inquired of God, "Who shall go first to battle against the Benjamites?" The Lord answered, "Judah shall go first."¹⁹ The next morning, the Israelites rose and camped near Gibeah.²⁰ The Israelites advanced to fight the Benjamites and took up battle positions against them at Gibeah.²¹ The Benjamites emerged from Gibeah and struck down twenty-two thousand Israelites on the battlefield that day.²² But the Israelites encouraged each other and took up their positions again as they had on the first day.²³ The Israelites went up and went before the Lord until evening, and inquired of the Lord, "Shall we go up again to fight against the Benjamites, our brothers?" The Lord answered, "Go up against them."²⁴ The Israelites approached the Benjamites on the second day.²⁵ This time, the Benjamites came out from Gibeah and killed another eighteen thousand Israelites, all armed with swords.²⁶ Then all the Israelites, the entire army, went up to Bethel, where they sat weeping before the Lord. They fasted that day until evening and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings to the Lord.²⁷ The Israelites inquired of the Lord. (In those days, the ark of the covenant of God was there,²⁸ with Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, ministering before it.) They asked, "Shall we go up again to fight against the Benjamites, our brothers, or should we cease?" The Lord replied, "Go, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hands."²⁹ Then Israel set men in ambush around Gibeah.³⁰ On the third day, the Israelites went up against the Benjamites and took up positions against Gibeah as before.³¹ The Benjamites came out to meet them and were drawn away from the city. They began to inflict casualties on the Israelites as on previous occasions, about thirty men fell in the open field and on the roads—one leading to Bethel and the other to Gibeah.³² The Benjamites thought, "We are defeating them as before," but the Israelites said, "Let us retreat and draw them away from the city to the roads."³³ All the men of Israel moved from their positions and took up positions at Baal Tamar, and the Israelite ambush charged out from Maareh-geba.³⁴ Ten thousand of Israel's chosen men launched a frontal attack on Gibeah. The battle was intense, and the Benjamites did not realise disaster was near.³⁵ The Lord defeated Benjamin before Israel, and the Israelites struck down 25,100 Benjamites that day, all armed with swords.³⁶ The Benjamites saw they were defeated. The men of Israel had given way before Benjamin because they relied on the ambush they had set near Gibeah.³⁷ Those in ambush rushed into Gibeah, spread out, and put the entire city to the sword.³⁸ The Israelites had arranged with the ambush that they would send up a great cloud of smoke from the city,³⁹ At that moment, the Israelites would launch their counterattack. The Benjamites had begun to inflict casualties on the Israelites (about thirty), and they said, "We are defeating them as in the first battle."⁴⁰ But when the column of smoke began to rise from the city, the Benjamites turned and saw the entire city going up in smoke.⁴¹ Then the Israelites turned on them, and the Benjamites were terrified because they realised disaster had come upon them.⁴² They fled before the Israelites toward the wilderness, but they could not escape the battle. The Israelites who came out of the towns cut them down there.⁴³ They surrounded the Benjamites, pursued them, and easily overran them in the vicinity of Gibeah on the east.⁴⁴ Eighteen thousand Benjamites fell, all of them brave warriors.⁴⁵ As they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, the Israelites caught five thousand of them on the roads and overtook them at Gidom, striking down two thousand more.⁴⁶ On that day, twenty-five thousand Benjamite swordsmen fell, all of them courageous warriors.⁴⁷ But six hundred men turned and fled into the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, where they stayed for four months.⁴⁸ The men of Israel went back to Benjamin and put all the towns to the sword, including the animals and everything else they found. They set on fire all the towns they came across.

Judges

21 The Israelites had sworn at Mizpah, saying, "None of us shall give his daughter in marriage to a Benjamite."² The people went to Bethel and sat there before God until evening, raising their voices and weeping bitterly.³ "Why, Lord, God of Israel," they cried, "has this happened in Israel, that one tribe is missing today from Israel?"

⁴ The next day, the people rose early, built an altar, and presented burnt offerings and peace offerings.⁵ The Israelites then asked, "Who among all the tribes of Israel failed to come up to the Lord at the assembly?" For they had taken a solemn oath concerning anyone who did not come up to the Lord at Mizpah, saying, "He shall surely be put to death."⁶ The Israelites grieved for their brother Benjamin, saying, "Today one tribe is cut off from Israel."⁷ "What shall we do for wives for those who remain, since we have sworn by the Lord not to give them any of our daughters in marriage?"

⁸ They asked, "Which one of the tribes of Israel did not come up to the Lord at Mizpah?" They found that no one from Jabesh-gilead had come to the camp for the assembly.⁹ When the people were counted, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead was there. ¹⁰ So the assembly sent twelve thousand valiant warriors with instructions to strike the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the sword, including women and children. ¹¹ "This is what you shall do," they commanded. "Destroy every male and every woman who has slept with a man."

Judges

¹² They found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins who had not known a man, and brought them to the camp at Shiloh in Canaan. ¹³ The whole assembly sent word to the Benjamites at the rock of Rimmon, proclaiming peace to them. ¹⁴ The Benjamites returned at that time, and they gave them the women of Jabesh-gilead who had been spared, but there were not enough for them. ¹⁵ The people mourned for Benjamin, as the Lord had allowed a void to occur among the tribes of Israel. ¹⁶ The elders of the assembly said, "What shall we do for wives for those who remain, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?" ¹⁷ "There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin," they said, "so that a tribe will not be wiped out from Israel." ¹⁸ "But we cannot give them wives from our daughters," they said, "for the Israelites have sworn, 'Cursed be anyone who gives a wife to a Benjamite.'"

¹⁹ They said, "Look, there is the annual festival of the Lord in Shiloh, north of Bethel, east of the road that goes from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah." ²⁰ They instructed the Benjamites, saying, "Go and hide in the vineyards ²¹ and watch. When the daughters of Shiloh come out to join in the dances, rush out from the vineyards and each seize a wife from the daughters of Shiloh, then return to the land of Benjamin. ²² When their fathers or brothers come to complain to us, we will say, 'Do us the kindness of allowing them, because we did not take wives for them during the war. You will not be guilty of breaking your oath, as you did not give your daughters to them.'"

²³ The Benjamites did so and took wives according to their number from those who danced, whom they seized. Then they returned to their inheritance, rebuilt the towns, and settled in them. ²⁴ At that time, the Israelites departed from there, each to his tribe and family, and returned to his inheritance. ²⁵ In those days, Israel had no king; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

Ruth

1 In the days when the judges governed, there was a famine in the land. A man from Bethlehem in Judah went to reside in the country of Moab with his wife and two sons. ² The man's name was Elimelech, his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem, Judah. They entered Moab and lived there. ³ Elimelech, Naomi's husband, passed away, leaving her with her two sons. ⁴ They took Moabite women as wives; one was named Orpah and the other Ruth. They lived there for about ten years. ⁵ Both Mahlon and Chilion also died, leaving Naomi without her two sons and her husband.

⁶ Naomi heard in Moab that the Lord had visited His people by providing them with food. She and her daughters-in-law prepared to return from there. ⁷ She departed from the place where she had been living, with her two daughters-in-law, and set out on the road to return to the land of Judah. ⁸ Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back, each of you, to your mother's house. May the Lord show kindness to you, as you have shown to the dead and to me." ⁹ May the Lord grant that each of you will find rest in the home of another husband." Then she kissed them, and they wept aloud. ¹⁰ They responded to her, "We will go back with you to your people." ¹¹ But Naomi said, "Return home, my daughters. Why would you come with me? Am I likely to have more sons who could become your husbands?" ¹² Return, my daughters; I am too old to have a husband. Even if I thought there was still hope—even if I had a husband tonight and gave birth to sons—¹³ would you wait until they grew up? Would you refrain from marrying? No, my daughters. It is more bitter for me than for you, because the Lord's hand has turned against me!" ¹⁴ They wept aloud again. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law goodbye, but Ruth clung to her. ¹⁵ Naomi said, "Look, your sister-in-law is going back to her people and her gods. Go back with her." ¹⁶ But Ruth replied, "Do not urge me to leave you or to turn back from following you. Where you go, I will go, and where you stay, I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God. ¹⁷ Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May the Lord deal with me, be it ever so severely, if anything but death separates you and me." ¹⁸ When Naomi saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she ceased trying to persuade her. ¹⁹ The two women went on until they came to Bethlehem. When they arrived in Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred because of them, and the women exclaimed, "Is this Naomi?" ²⁰ She replied to them, "Do not call me Naomi; instead call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt with me very bitterly. ²¹ I went away full, but the Lord has brought me back empty. Why call me Naomi? The Lord has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me." ²² So Naomi returned from Moab with Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, arriving in Bethlehem as the barley harvest was beginning.

2 Now Naomi had a relative on her husband's side, a man of great wealth from the family of Elimelech, whose name was Boaz. ² And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Please let me go to the fields and glean among the ears of grain after someone in whose eyes I may find favour." Naomi replied, "Go ahead, my daughter." ³ So she went out, entered a field and began to glean behind the reapers. By chance, she found herself working in a part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech. ⁴ Just then Boaz arrived from Bethlehem and said to the reapers, "The Lord be with you." And they answered, "The Lord bless you." ⁵ Boaz asked his overseer in charge of the reapers, "Whose young woman is this?" ⁶ The overseer replied, "She is the young Moabite woman who returned with Naomi from the land of Moab." ⁷ She asked, 'Please let me glean and gather among the sheaves after the reapers.' She has been here from morning until now, except for a short rest in the shelter."

⁸ Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen carefully, my daughter. Do not go and glean in another field and do not leave this one. Stay close to my young women. ⁹ Keep your eyes on the field that they are reaping, and follow along after them. I have instructed the young men not to touch you. When you are thirsty, go and drink from the water jars that the young men have filled." ¹⁰ At this, she fell on her face, bowing to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favour in your eyes that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?" ¹¹ Boaz replied, "I have been fully informed of all that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband—how you left your father and mother and the land of your birth, and came to a people you did not know before. ¹² May the Lord repay you for your deeds. May you receive a full reward from the Lord, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have taken refuge.”¹³ Then she said, “I have found favour in your sight, my lord, for you have comforted me and spoken kindly to your servant, though I am not like one of your maidservants.”¹⁴ At mealtime Boaz said to her, “Come over here and eat some bread and dip your piece in the vinegar.” So she sat beside the reapers, and he offered her roasted grain. She ate until she was satisfied and had some left over.¹⁵ When she got up to glean, Boaz instructed his young men, “Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not insult her.”¹⁶ Also, pull out some stalks for her from the bundles and leave them for her to glean, and do not rebuke her.”¹⁷ Ruth continued gleaning in the field until evening. Afterward, she threshed the barley she had gathered, which amounted to about an ephah.¹⁸ She carried it back to town, and her mother-in-law saw how much she had gleaned. Ruth also brought out and gave her what she had left over after she had eaten enough.¹⁹ Her mother-in-law asked her, “Where did you glean today? Where did you work? Blessed be the man who took notice of you!” So she told her mother-in-law about the man at whose place she had been working. “The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz,” she said.²⁰ Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed by the Lord, who has not withdrawn his kindness from the living and the dead.” She added, “That man is our close relative; he is one of our redeemers.”²¹ Then Ruth the Moabitess said, “He even told me, ‘Stay close to my servants until they have finished all my harvest.’”²² And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, so that you will not be harmed in another field.”²³ So Ruth stayed close to the young women of Boaz to glean until the end of the barley and wheat harvests. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth

3 Naomi, Ruth's mother-in-law, said to her, “My daughter, should I not seek a place of security for you, so that it may be well with you?”² Now, Boaz, with whose young women you have been working, is a relative of ours. Behold, he will be winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.³ Therefore, wash yourself, anoint yourself, put on your best clothes, and go down to the threshing floor. However, do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.⁴ When he lies down, take note of the place where he is lying. Then you shall go, uncover his feet, and lie down; he will tell you what you should do.”⁵ Ruth replied, “I will do everything you say.”⁶ So she went down to the threshing floor and did all that her mother-in-law instructed her.

⁷ After Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the grain pile. Ruth came quietly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.⁸ In the middle of the night, the man was startled and bent forward; there was a woman lying at his feet.⁹ He asked, “Who are you?” She replied, “I am Ruth, your servant. Spread your garment over your servant, for you are a guardian-redeemer.”¹⁰ He said, “May the Lord bless you, my daughter. This last kindness is greater than the first, as you have not pursued young men, whether rich or poor.”¹¹ Now, my daughter, do not be afraid. I will do for you whatever you ask, for all the people of my town know that you are a woman of noble character.¹² It is true that I am a guardian-redeemer, but there is another who is more closely related than I.¹³ Stay here for the night, and in the morning, if he wishes to redeem you, good; let him redeem you. But if he is not willing, as surely as the Lord lives, I will redeem you. Lie here until morning.”¹⁴ So she lay at his feet until morning, but rose before anyone could be recognised; and he said, “Let it not be known that a woman came to the threshing floor.”¹⁵ He said, “Bring the shawl you are wearing and hold it out.” When she held it, he measured six measures of barley and laid it on her. Then she went back to the town.¹⁶ When Ruth returned to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, “How did it go, my daughter?” Ruth told her all that Boaz had done for her.¹⁷ She added, “He gave me these six measures of barley, saying, ‘Do not go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’”¹⁸ Naomi said, “Wait, my daughter, until you see how the matter turns out; for the man will not rest until he has settled the matter today.”

4 Boaz went up to the town gate and sat down there, and just then, the redeemer Boaz had mentioned was passing by. Boaz said, “Come over here, my friend, and sit down.” So he came over and sat down.² Boaz then took ten of the town's elders and said, “Sit here.” And they sat down.³ He spoke to the redeemer, “Naomi, who has returned from Moab, is selling the piece of land that belonged to our relative Elimelech. ⁴ I thought I should inform you and suggest that you buy it in the presence of those sitting here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, do so; but if not, let me know, for you have the right to redeem it, and I am next in line." The redeemer said, "I will redeem it."

Ruth

⁵ Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the land from Naomi, you also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of the deceased, to maintain the name of the dead with his inheritance." ⁶ The redeemer replied, "I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I jeopardise my own estate. You take my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot do it." ⁷ In earlier times in Israel, for the redemption and transfer of property to be finalised, one party would remove his sandal and give it to the other. This was the method of legalising transactions in Israel. ⁸ The redeemer then told Boaz, "Purchase it yourself." And he took off his sandal. ⁹ Then Boaz declared to the elders and all the people, "Today you are witnesses that I have bought from Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech, Kilion, and Mahlon. ¹⁰ I have also acquired Ruth the Moabitess, Mahlon's widow, to be my wife, to maintain the name of the deceased with his property, so that his name will not disappear from among his family or from his hometown. You are witnesses today." ¹¹ Then all the people at the gate and the elders said, "We are witnesses. May the Lord make the woman who is coming into your home like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you prosper in Ephrathah and be renowned in Bethlehem. ¹² May your family, through the children the Lord gives you by this young woman, be like that of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah." ¹³ So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. When he had relations with her, the Lord enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son. ¹⁴ The women said to Naomi, "Praise be to the Lord, who this day has not left you without a redeemer. May he become famous throughout Israel! ¹⁵ He will renew your life and sustain you in your old age. For your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him." ¹⁶ Naomi took the child, laid him in her lap, and cared for him. ¹⁷ The neighbour women said, "Naomi has a son!" And they named him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David. ¹⁸ This is the lineage of Perez: Perez was the father of Hezron, ¹⁹ Hezron became the father of Ram, and Ram became the father of Amminadab, ²⁰ Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon became the father of Salmon, ²¹ Salmon became the father of Boaz, and Boaz became the father of Obed, ²² Obed became the father of Jesse, and Jesse was the father of David.

1 Samuel

1 There was a man from Ramathaim Zophim, in the hill country of Ephraim, named Elkanah son of Jeroham, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. ² He had two wives. The name of one was Hannah, and the other was Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none. ³ Every year this man went up from his town to worship and to offer sacrifices to the Lord of hosts at Shiloh, where the two sons of Eli — Hophni and Phinehas — served as priests of the Lord. ⁴ Whenever Elkanah offered his sacrifice, he would give portions of the meat to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters. ⁵ To Hannah, however, he gave her a double portion, for he loved her, even though the Lord had not granted her children. ⁶ Her rival provoked her bitterly to upset her, because the Lord had closed her womb. ⁷ This happened year after year. Whenever Hannah went up to the house of the Lord, her rival provoked her, and she wept and would not eat. ⁸ Elkanah her husband said to her, “Hannah, why are you weeping? Why won’t you eat? Why are you so downcast? Am I not better to you than ten sons?”

⁹ After they had eaten and drunk in Shiloh, Hannah stood up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on his chair by the doorpost of the temple of the Lord. ¹⁰ Hannah was deeply distressed, and she prayed to the Lord, weeping bitterly. ¹¹ She made a vow, saying, “O Lord of hosts, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your servant, remember me and not forget Your servant, but give Your servant a son, then I will give him to the Lord all the days of his life, and no razor shall touch his head.” ¹² As she continued praying before the Lord, Eli was watching her mouth. ¹³ Hannah was speaking in her heart; her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. So Eli thought she was drunk. ¹⁴ And Eli said to her, “How long will you remain drunk? Put away your wine!” ¹⁵ But Hannah replied, “No, my lord, I am a woman troubled in spirit. I have not been drinking wine or strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the Lord. ¹⁶ Do not consider your servant a wicked woman, for I have been praying from the depth of my anguish and sorrow.” ¹⁷ Then Eli answered, “Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant you what you have asked of Him.” ¹⁸ She said, “Let your servant find favour in your eyes.” Then she went her way and ate something, and her face was no longer downcast.

¹⁹ Early the next morning they arose and worshipped before the Lord, then returned home to Ramah. Elkanah was intimate with Hannah his wife, and the Lord remembered her. ²⁰ In due time, Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel, saying, “Because I asked the Lord for him.” ²¹ When Elkanah went up with all his household to offer the annual sacrifice to the Lord and to fulfil his vow, ²² Hannah did not go. She said to her husband, “After the boy is weaned, I will take him, so that he may appear before the Lord and stay there permanently.” ²³ Elkanah her husband said to her, “Do what seems best to you. Stay until you have weaned him; only may the Lord establish His word.” So she stayed at home and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

²⁴ After she had weaned him, she took him with her to the house of the Lord in Shiloh, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine. The boy was still young. ²⁵ They slaughtered the bull and brought the child to Eli. ²⁶ She said to him, “Pardon me, my lord. As surely as you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you, praying to the Lord. ²⁷ I prayed for this child, and the Lord has granted my request. ²⁸ So now I am dedicating him to the Lord. As long as he lives, he is given to the Lord.” And he worshipped the Lord there.

2 Then Hannah prayed and said:
“My heart rejoices in the Lord; My horn is lifted high by the Lord. My mouth boasts over my enemies, For I rejoice in Your deliverance. ² There is none holy like the Lord, For there is no one besides You, Nor is there any rock like our God. ³ Do not speak so proudly, Let not arrogance come from your mouth, For the Lord is a God of knowledge, And by His actions are weighed. ⁴ The bows of the mighty are broken, But those who stumbled are now armed with strength. ⁵ Those who were full hire themselves out for bread, But those who were hungry are now satisfied. Even the barren has borne seven, But she who had many sons languishes. ⁶ The Lord brings death and gives life; He brings down to the grave and raises up. ⁷ The Lord humbles and enriches; He lowers and He elevates. ⁸ He raises the poor from the dust, He lifts the needy from the ash heap To make them sit with princes And inherit a seat of honour. For the foundations of the earth belong to the Lord, And upon them He has set the world. ⁹ He guards the feet of His faithful ones, But the wicked shall be silenced in darkness, For not by strength shall a person prevail. ¹⁰ Those who oppose the Lord will be shattered; He will thunder against them from the heavens. The Lord will judge the ends of the earth. He will give strength to His king And exalt the horn of His anointed."

1 Samuel

¹¹ Then Elkanah went back to his home at Ramah, but the boy remained to serve the Lord under Eli the priest. ¹² Now the sons of Eli were wicked men; they had no regard for the Lord. ¹³ The custom of the priests with the people was that when anyone brought a sacrifice, the priest's servant would come with a three-pronged fork while the meat was boiling, ¹⁴ And he would plunge it into the pan or pot or kettle or cauldron. Whatever the fork brought up, the priest would take for himself. This is how they treated all the Israelites who came to Shiloh. ¹⁵ Even before the fat was burned, the servant of the priest would come and say to the person offering the sacrifice, "Give the priest meat to roast. He won't accept boiled meat from you—only raw." ¹⁶ If the man said to him, "Let the fat be burned first, and then you may take as much as you wish," he would answer, "No, hand it over now. If not, I will take it by force." ¹⁷ So the sin of the young men was very great before the Lord, because they treated the Lord's offering with contempt.

¹⁸ But Samuel ministered before the Lord—a boy wearing a linen ephod. ¹⁹ Each year his mother made him a little robe and brought it to him when she went up with her husband to offer the annual sacrifice. ²⁰ Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, saying, "May the Lord give you children from this woman in place of the one she dedicated to the Lord." Then they would return home. ²¹ And the Lord visited Hannah, and she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, the boy Samuel grew up in the presence of the Lord.

²² Now Eli was very old, and he heard about all that his sons were doing to all Israel—how they slept with the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting. ²³ So he said to them, "Why do you do such things? For I keep hearing about your wicked deeds from all the people." ²⁴ My sons, the report I hear spreading among the Lord's people is troubling. ²⁵ If a man sins against another, God may mediate for him; but if someone sins against the Lord, who can intercede?" But they did not listen to their father, for it was the Lord's will to put them to death.

²⁶ And the boy Samuel continued to grow in stature and in favour with both the Lord and with people.

²⁷ A man of God came to Eli and said to him, "This is what the Lord says: Did I not plainly reveal Myself to your ancestor's house when they were in Egypt, under Pharaoh's rule? ²⁸ I chose your ancestor out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to offer sacrifices on My altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod in My presence. I also gave your family all the food offerings made by fire from the Israelites. ²⁹ Why then do you show contempt for My sacrifice and offering that I commanded in My dwelling place? Why do you honour your sons more than Me, by fattening yourselves on the choicest parts of every offering made by My people Israel?" ³⁰ "Therefore the Lord, the God of Israel, declares: I promised that your family and the family of your ancestor would minister before Me forever. But now," declares the Lord, "far be it from Me! For those who honour Me I will honour, but those who despise Me shall be treated with contempt. ³¹ The time is coming when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your family, so that no one in your house will reach old age. ³² You will see distress in My dwelling, though good will be done to Israel, and there will never be an old man in your family line. ³³ Every one of you that I do not cut off from My altar will be spared only to bring grief to your eyes and sorrow to your heart, and all your descendants will die in the prime of life.

³⁴ And this sign will come to you concerning your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas: they will both die on the same day. ³⁵ Then I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest, who will do what is in My heart and mind. I will establish his house, and he will minister before My anointed one always. ³⁶ Then everyone left in your family will come and bow down before him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, saying, "Please appoint me to some priestly office so I may have food to eat."

3 The boy Samuel ministered before the Lord under Eli. In those days the word of the Lord was rare; visions were not widespread. ² One night Eli, whose eyesight had grown dim so that he could not see well, was lying in his usual place. ³ The lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was. ⁴ Then the Lord called out to Samuel. He answered, "Here I am!" ⁵ He ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But Eli said, "I did not call you; go back and lie down." So he went and lay down. ⁶ Again the Lord called, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But Eli replied, "I did not call you, my son. Go back and lie down." ⁷ Samuel hadn't yet met with the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not been disclosed to him. ⁸ The Lord called Samuel a third time. He got up, went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli understood that the Lord was calling the boy. ⁹ So Eli said to Samuel, "Go and lie down, and if He calls you again, say, 'Speak, Lord, for Your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place. ¹⁰ The Lord came and stood nearby, calling as He had done before, "Samuel! Samuel!" Then Samuel said, "Speak, for Your servant is listening."

1 Samuel

¹¹ And the Lord said to Samuel, "See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make the ears of everyone who hears of it tingle. ¹² On that day I will carry out against Eli everything I have spoken concerning his house—from beginning to end. ¹³ For I told him that I would judge his family forever because of the iniquity he knew about—how his sons blasphemed God, and he did not restrain them. ¹⁴ Therefore I swore to the house of Eli, 'The guilt of Eli's house shall never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering.'"

¹⁵ Samuel lay down until morning. Then he opened the doors of the house of the Lord. But Samuel was afraid to tell Eli about the vision. ¹⁶ Eli called him and said, "Samuel, my son." Samuel answered, "Here I am." ¹⁷ "What did He say to you?" Eli asked. "Do not hide it from me. May God deal with you, be it ever so severely, if you conceal from me anything He told you." ¹⁸ So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing. Then Eli said, "He is the Lord; let Him do what is good in His eyes."

¹⁹ Samuel grew up, and the Lord was with him, and He let none of Samuel's words fall to the ground. ²⁰ And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba recognised that Samuel was confirmed as a prophet of the Lord. ²¹ The Lord continued to appear at Shiloh, for there He revealed Himself to Samuel by His word.

4 And the word of Samuel was spread throughout all Israel.

Now the Israelites went out to fight against the Philistines. They camped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines set up camp at Aphek. ² The Philistines arranged their forces to confront Israel, and as the battle unfolded, Israel was overcome by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men on the battlefield. ³ When the soldiers returned to the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why did the Lord allow us to be defeated today by the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord from Shiloh, so that He may go with us and save us from our enemies." ⁴ So the people sent men to Shiloh, and they brought back the ark of the covenant of the Lord of hosts, who is enthroned between the cherubim. And Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. ⁵ When the ark of the covenant of the Lord came into the camp, all Israel raised such a great shout that the ground shook. ⁶ The Philistines heard the noise of the shout and asked, "What's this loud shouting in the Hebrew camp?" When they learned that the ark of the Lord had come into the camp, ⁷ The Philistines were afraid. "A god has entered their camp," they said. "Woe to us! Nothing like this has happened before. ⁸ Woe to us! Who can deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness. ⁹ Take courage and be men, O Philistines, or you will become slaves to the Hebrews, just as they were to you. Be men, and fight!"

¹⁰ So the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated. Every man fled to his tent. The slaughter was very great—thirty thousand foot soldiers of Israel fell. ¹¹ The ark of God fell into enemy hands, and Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, lost their lives.

¹² A man from the tribe of Benjamin ran from the battle line and came to Shiloh that same day, with his clothes torn and dust on his head. ¹³ When he arrived, Eli was sitting on his seat by the side of the road, watching, for his heart trembled for the ark of God. When the man entered the town and reported what had happened, the whole city cried out. ¹⁴ Eli heard the outcry and asked, "What is the meaning of this commotion?" The man hurried over to tell Eli. ¹⁵ Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were so weak that he could not see.¹⁶ The man said to Eli, "I have come from the battle line—I fled from it today." Eli asked, "What happened, my son?"¹⁷ The messenger replied, "Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been a great slaughter among the people. Your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been taken."¹⁸ When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell backward off his seat by the gate. His neck was broken and he died, for he was old and heavy. He had judged Israel for forty years.

1 Samuel

¹⁹ Now Eli's daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and near the time of delivery. When she heard the news that the ark of God had been taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she went into labour and gave birth, overcome by her pains.²⁰ As she was dying, the women standing by her said, "Don't be afraid, you have given birth to a son." But she did not respond or pay attention.²¹ She named the boy Ichabod, saying, "The glory has departed from Israel," because the ark of God had been taken and because of the deaths of her father-in-law and her husband.²² She said, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been taken."

5 Once the Philistines had seized the ark of God, they transported it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.²

They carried the ark into the temple of Dagon and placed it beside Dagon.³ When the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, there was Dagon, fallen face down on the ground before the ark of the Lord. They took Dagon and set him back in his place.

⁴ But the following morning when they rose early, Dagon had fallen again, face down before the ark of the Lord. His head and both hands were broken off and were lying on the threshold; only his torso remained.⁵ That is why to this day neither the priests of Dagon nor anyone who enters Dagon's temple at Ashdod step on the threshold.

⁶ The Lord's hand was heavy against the people of Ashdod. He devastated them and afflicted them with tumours.⁷ When the people of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel must not stay with us, for His hand is harsh against us and against Dagon our god."⁸ So they summoned all the rulers of the Philistines and asked, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" They answered, "Let it be moved to Gath." So they moved the ark of the God of Israel there.⁹ But after they had moved it, the Lord's hand was against that city also. He brought great panic upon it, afflicting the people of the city, both young and old, with tumours, and they broke out in the city.¹⁰ So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. But as the ark came into Ekron, the people cried out, "They have brought the ark of the God of Israel to us to kill us and our people!"¹¹ So they summoned all the rulers of the Philistines and said, "Send the ark of the God of Israel away. Let it go back to its own place, so that it will not kill us and our people." For death and panic had filled the city; God's hand was very heavy there.¹² Those who survived were afflicted with tumours, and the cries of the city rose up to the heavens.

6 The Ark of the Lord was kept in Philistine territory for seven months.² Then the Philistines called for the priests and diviners and said, "What should we do with the ark of the Lord? Tell us how we should send it back to its place."³ They answered, "If you return the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it back empty, but be sure to send a guilt offering with it. Then you will be healed, and you will understand why His hand has not turned away from you."⁴ The Philistines asked, "What guilt offering should we send to Him?" They replied, "Five gold tumours and five gold rats, according to the number of the Philistine rulers, because the same plague struck all of you and your rulers."⁵ So make models of the tumours and the rats that are ravaging your land, and give honour to the God of Israel. Perhaps He will lift His hand from you, your gods, and your land.⁶ Why do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh did? After He dealt harshly with them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?

⁷ Now then, make a new cart and take two cows that have recently calved and have never been yoked. Hitch the cows to the cart, but take their calves away and pen them up.⁸ Then put the ark of the Lord on the cart and place in a box beside it the gold objects you are sending as a guilt offering. Send it off, and let it go on its way.⁹ Watch to see what it does. If it goes up toward its own land, to Beth-shemesh, then the Lord has brought this disaster on us. But if it does not, then we shall know that it was not His hand that struck us—it happened by chance."

1 Samuel

¹⁰ So they did as instructed. They took two cows and hitched them to the cart, and they confined their calves at home. ¹¹ They placed the ark of the Lord on the cart, along with the box containing the gold rats and the models of their tumours. ¹² Then the cows went straight toward Beth-shemesh, keeping to the road and lowing as they went. They did not turn to the right or the left. The rulers of the Philistines followed them as far as the border of Beth-shemesh.

¹³ Now the people of Beth-shemesh were harvesting wheat in the valley. When they looked up and saw the ark, they rejoiced at the sight. ¹⁴ The cart came to the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh and stopped beside a large stone. The people chopped up the wood of the cart and sacrificed the cows as a burnt offering to the Lord. ¹⁵ The Levites took down the ark of the Lord and the box beside it containing the gold objects, and they placed them on the large stone. That day the people of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices to the Lord. ¹⁶ When the five rulers of the Philistines saw this, they returned to Ekron that same day.

¹⁷ These are the gold tumours the Philistines sent as a guilt offering to the Lord—one each for Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron. ¹⁸ And the gold rats were according to the number of all the Philistine towns belonging to the five rulers, both fortified and rural. The large stone on which the Levites placed the ark of the Lord is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh.

¹⁹ But God struck down some of the men of Beth-shemesh because they looked into the ark of the Lord. He put seventy of them to death, and the people mourned because the Lord had dealt them a severe blow. ²⁰ And the men of Beth-shemesh said, “Who can stand in the presence of the Lord, this holy God? To whom shall the ark go from here?” ²¹ So they sent messengers to the people of Kiriath-jearim, saying, “The Philistines have returned the ark of the Lord. Come down and take it up to you.”

7 So the men of Kiriath-jearim came and took up the ark of the Lord. They brought it to the house of Abinadab on the hill and consecrated his son Eleazar to guard the ark of the Lord. ² The ark remained at Kiriath-jearim a long time—twenty years in all. Then the whole house of Israel turned back to the Lord with sorrow. ³ Samuel said to all the people of Israel, “If you are truly returning to the Lord with all your hearts, then remove the foreign gods and the Ashtoreths from among you. Commit yourselves to the Lord and serve Him only, and He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines.” ⁴ So the Israelites removed the Baals and the Ashtoreths and served the Lord alone.

⁵ Then Samuel said, “Assemble all Israel at Mizpah, and I will pray to the Lord on your behalf.” ⁶ When they had gathered at Mizpah, they drew water and poured it out before the Lord. On that day they fasted, and they confessed, “We have sinned against the Lord.” And Samuel was serving as judge over the Israelites at Mizpah. ⁷ When the Philistines heard that Israel had assembled at Mizpah, their rulers went up to attack them. When the Israelites heard this, they were afraid of the Philistines. ⁸ They said to Samuel, “Do not stop crying out to the Lord our God for us, so that He may rescue us from the Philistines.” ⁹ Then Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the Lord. He cried out to the Lord on Israel's behalf, and the Lord answered him.

¹⁰ As Samuel was offering the burnt sacrifice, the Philistines drew near to engage Israel in battle. But that day the Lord thundered with a loud voice against the Philistines and threw them into such confusion that they were routed before Israel. ¹¹ The men of Israel rushed out from Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, striking them down along the way to a point below Beth-car. ¹² Samuel then set up a stone between Mizpah and Shen, calling it Ebenezer, and declared, “Up to this point, the Lord has aided us.”

¹³ So the Philistines were subdued and did not invade Israelite territory again. The Lord's hand was against the Philistines throughout Samuel's lifetime.

¹⁴ The towns the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored, from Ekron to Gath, and Israel recovered the surrounding territory from the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

¹⁵ Samuel continued to serve as judge over Israel for the rest of his life. ¹⁶ Each year he travelled on a circuit from Bethel to Gilgal to Mizpah, judging Israel in all those places. ¹⁷ But he always returned to

1 Samuel

Ramah, where his home was, and there he also judged Israel. And he built an altar there to the Lord.

8 As Samuel advanced in years, he designated his sons as judges over Israel. ² His firstborn was named Joel, and his second was Abijah. They served as judges in Beersheba. ³ But his sons did not follow his example. They pursued dishonest gain, accepted bribes, and perverted justice.

⁴ Then all the elders of Israel gathered and came to Samuel at Ramah. ⁵ They said to him, "You are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Appoint a king to rule over us, like the other nations have." ⁶ But this request displeased Samuel, especially their demand for a king to judge them. So he prayed to the Lord. ⁷ The Lord said to Samuel, "Listen to the people in all that they say to you. It is not you they have rejected, but Me they have rejected as their king. ⁸ They are acting toward you just as they have done to Me since the day I brought them out of Egypt—forsaking Me and serving other gods. ⁹ Now listen to them, but give them a solemn warning and explain what the king who will reign over them will do."

¹⁰ So Samuel relayed all the words of the Lord to the people who were asking him for a king. ¹¹ He said, "This is what the king who rules over you will do: He will take your sons and assign them to his chariots and horses, and they will run ahead of his chariots. ¹² He will appoint commanders of thousands and of fifties, and others to plough his ground and reap his harvest, and to make weapons of war and equipment for his chariots. ¹³ He will take your daughters to work as perfumers, cooks, and bakers. ¹⁴ He will take the best of your fields, vineyards, and olive groves, and give them to his officials. ¹⁵ He will take a tenth of your grain and your vintage and give it to his eunuchs and officers. ¹⁶ He will take your male and female servants, the best of your cattle and donkeys, and put them to his own use. ¹⁷ He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you will find yourselves serving him. ¹⁸ When that day comes, you will cry out because of the king you have chosen for yourselves, but the Lord will not answer you in that day."

¹⁹ But the people refused to listen to Samuel. "No!" they said. "We want a king to rule over us. ²⁰ Then we will be like all the other nations, with a king to lead us and go out before us and fight our battles." ²¹

When Samuel heard all that the people said, he conveyed it to the Lord. ²² And the Lord said to Samuel, "Listen to them and appoint a king for them." Then Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Each of you go back to your own town."

9 There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a man of wealth. ² He had a son named Saul, a choice and handsome young man. Among the sons of Israel there was no one more impressive than he; from his shoulders upward he was taller than any of the people. ³ Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. So Kish said to his son Saul, "Take one of the servants with you and go look for the donkeys." ⁴ He passed through the hill country of Ephraim and through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. Then they went through the land of Shaalim, and they were not there. He also passed through the territory of Benjamin, but they did not find them. ⁵ When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, let us return, or my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and begin to worry about us." ⁶ But the servant said, "Behold now, there is a man of God in this city, and he is a man held in honour. All that he says surely comes true. Let us go there now; perhaps he can tell us our way." ⁷ Then Saul said to his servant, "But look, if we go, what shall we bring the man? The bread is gone from our packs, and we have no gift to present to the man of God. What do we have?" ⁸ The servant answered Saul again and said, "Behold, I have with me a quarter of a shekel of silver. I will give it to the man of God, and he will tell us our way." ⁹ (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he would say, "Come, let us go to the seer," for the prophet of today was formerly called a seer.) ¹⁰ Then Saul said to his servant, "Your advice is good; come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.

¹¹ As they went up the hill to the city, they met young women going out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?" ¹² They answered and said, "Yes, he is just ahead of you. Hurry now, for today he has come to the city, because the people are making a sacrifice at the high place. ¹³ As soon as you enter the city, you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat, for the people will not eat until he comes. He must bless the sacrifice; afterwards those invited will eat. Go up now, for you will find him at once.” ¹⁴ So they went up to the city. As they entered, behold, Samuel was coming out toward them to go up to the high place.

1 Samuel

¹⁵ Now the Lord had revealed to Samuel a day before Saul came, saying, ¹⁶ “Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be prince over My people Israel. He shall deliver My people from the hand of the Philistines, for I have regarded My people, because their cry has come to Me.” ¹⁷ When Samuel saw Saul, the Lord said to him, “Behold, this is the man of whom I spoke to you! He shall rule over My people.”

¹⁸ Saul went up to Samuel at the entrance and asked, “Could you please show me the way to the seer’s house?” ¹⁹ Samuel answered Saul and said, “I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today. In the morning I will let you go and tell you all that is in your heart.” ²⁰ As for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not worry about them, for they have been found. And to whom is all the desire of Israel turned, if not to you and to all your father’s house?” ²¹ Saul answered and said, “Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and is not my family the least of all the clans of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then have you spoken to me this way?”

²² Then Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall, and gave them a place at the head of those who were invited—about thirty people. ²³ And Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the portion I gave you, of which I said to you, ‘Set it aside.’” ²⁴ So the cook took up the thigh and what was on it and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, “See, what has been reserved is set before you. Eat, for it was kept for you until the appointed time, since I said, ‘I have invited the people.’” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

²⁵ After they descended from the high place into the city, Samuel conversed with Saul on the rooftop. ²⁶ They arose early, and at daybreak Samuel called to Saul on the rooftop, saying, “Get up, that I may send you on your way.” So Saul got up, and both he and Samuel went out into the street. ²⁷ As they were going down to the edge of the city, Samuel said to

Saul, “Tell the servant to go on ahead of us”—and the servant passed on—“but you stand still for a moment, that I may declare to you the word of God.”

10 Then Samuel took a flask of oil and poured it on Saul’s head, kissed him, and said, “Has not the Lord anointed you ruler over His inheritance? ² When you depart from me today, you will find two men near Rachel’s tomb, in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah. They will say to you, ‘The donkeys which you went to look for have been found. Now your father has stopped worrying about the donkeys and is anxious for you, saying, “What shall I do about my son?”’” ³ Then you shall go on from there and come to the oak of Tabor. Three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine. ⁴ They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall receive from their hand. ⁵ After that, you shall come to Gibeath-haelohim, where the Philistine garrison is. As you approach the town, you will meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place with harp, tambourine, flute, and lyre before them, and they will be prophesying. ⁶ Then the Spirit of the Lord will come upon you mightily, and you shall prophesy with them and be turned into another man. ⁷ And when these signs come to you, do what your hand finds to do, for God is with you. ⁸ You shall go down before me to Gilgal. And behold, I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice peace offerings. You shall wait seven days until I come to you and show you what you must do.”

⁹ Then it happened that as Saul turned to leave Samuel, God gave him another heart, and all those signs came to pass that day. ¹⁰ When they came to Gibeah, behold, a company of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. ¹¹ And when all who knew him previously saw that he prophesied with the prophets, the people said to one another, “What has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?” ¹² And someone from there answered and said, “But who is their father?” Therefore it became a proverb: “Is Saul also among the prophets?” ¹³ After finishing his prophesying, he went up to the high place.

1 Samuel

¹⁴ Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, "Where did you go?" And he said, "To look for the donkeys. When we saw that they were not to be found, we went to Samuel." ¹⁵ Saul's uncle inquired, "Kindly tell me what Samuel said to you." ¹⁶ Saul said to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the donkeys had been found." But he did not tell him about the matter of the kingdom of which Samuel had spoken.

¹⁷ Then Samuel summoned the people to gather before the Lord at Mizpah. ¹⁸ He said to the sons of Israel, "Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, 'I brought Israel up out of Egypt, and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the power of all the kingdoms that oppressed you.' ¹⁹ But you have today rejected your God, who saves you from all your calamities and your distresses, and you have said, 'No! Set a king over us.' Now therefore present yourselves before the Lord by your tribes and by your clans." ²⁰ So Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken by lot. ²¹ Then he brought the tribe of Benjamin near by its families, and the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken. But when they looked for him, he could not be found. ²² So they inquired further of the Lord, "Has the man come here yet?" And the Lord said, "Behold, he has hidden himself among the baggage." ²³ So they ran and took him from there. And when he stood among the people, he was taller than all the people from his shoulders upward. ²⁴ Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see the one the Lord has chosen? Surely there is none like him among all the people." So all the people shouted, "Long live the king!"

²⁵ Then Samuel told the people the regulations of the kingship and wrote them in a book and laid it up before the Lord. Then Samuel sent all the people away, each to his own house. ²⁶ Saul returned to his home in Gibeah, accompanied by the valiant men whose hearts God had touched. ²⁷ But some worthless men said, "How can this man save us?" And they despised him and did not bring him any gift. But Saul held his peace.

11 Then Nahash the Ammonite came up and laid siege to Jabesh-gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you." ² But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, "On this condition I will make a covenant with you—that I gouge out the right eye of every one of you, and thus bring disgrace upon all Israel." ³ The elders of Jabesh said to him, "Give us seven days to send messengers throughout all the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to save us, we will surrender to you." ⁴ When the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and reported the terms in the ears of the people, all the people wept aloud. ⁵ Now behold, Saul was coming from the field behind the oxen, and he said, "What is wrong with the people, that they are weeping?" So they told him the words of the men of Jabesh. ⁶ Then the Spirit of God came upon Saul mightily when he heard these words, and his anger burned greatly. ⁷ He took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, "Whoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen." Then the dread of the Lord fell on the people, and they came out as one man. ⁸ When he mustered them at Bezek, the sons of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. ⁹ They said to the messengers who had come, "Thus shall you say to the men of Jabesh-gilead, 'Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have deliverance.'" So the messengers went and told the men of Jabesh, and they were glad. ¹⁰ Then the men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will present ourselves to you, and you may do to us whatever you find appropriate."

¹¹ The next day Saul arranged the troops into three divisions, and they came into the midst of the camp at dawn and struck down the Ammonites until the heat of the day. Those who remained were scattered, so that no two of them were left together. ¹² Then the people said to Samuel, "Who was it that said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring those men here, that we may put them to death." ¹³ But Saul said, "No one shall be put to death this day, for today the Lord has brought salvation to Israel."

¹⁴ Samuel then addressed the people, "Come, let us go to Gilgal to renew the kingdom there." ¹⁵ So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the Lord in Gilgal. There they sacrificed peace offerings before the Lord, and Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

12 Then Samuel said to all Israel, "Behold, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have appointed a king over you.² Now here is the king walking before you, and I am old and grey-headed; and behold, my sons are with you. I have walked before you from my youth until this day.³ Here I am. Testify against me before the Lord and before His anointed: Whose ox have I taken? Or whose donkey have I taken? Whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? From whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes with it? Testify against me, and I will restore it to you.”⁴ And they replied, “You have not wronged us, nor oppressed us, nor taken anything from anyone’s hand.”⁵ He addressed them, saying, “The Lord and His anointed are witnesses today that you have found nothing in my possession.” And they responded, “He is witness.”

1 Samuel

⁶ Then Samuel said to the people, “It is the Lord who appointed Moses and Aaron and brought your fathers up from the land of Egypt.”⁷ Now therefore stand still, that I may plead with you before the Lord concerning all the righteous deeds of the Lord, which He did for you and your fathers.⁸ When Jacob went into Egypt and your fathers cried out to the Lord, then the Lord sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt and made them dwell in this place.⁹ But they forgot the Lord their God, and so He allowed them to fall into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.¹⁰ Then they cried out to the Lord and said, ‘We have sinned, because we have forsaken the Lord and have served the Baals and the Ashtoreths; but now deliver us from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve You.’¹¹ Then the Lord sent Jerubbaal and Bedan and Jephthah and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and you lived in safety.¹² But when you saw that Nahash the king of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, ‘No, but a king shall reign over us’—when the Lord your God was your king.¹³ Now therefore behold the king whom you have chosen, for whom you have asked; and behold, the Lord has set a king over you.¹⁴ If you will fear the Lord and serve Him, and obey His voice and not rebel against the command of the Lord, and if both you and the king who reigns over you follow the Lord your God, it will be well.¹⁵ But if you will not obey the voice of the Lord, and rebel against the command of the Lord, then the hand of the Lord will be against you and against your king.

¹⁶ Now therefore stand still and observe this great thing, which the Lord will perform before your eyes.¹⁷ Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call upon the Lord, that He may send thunder and rain. Then you shall know and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the Lord, in asking for yourselves a king.”¹⁸ And Samuel called upon the Lord, and the Lord sent thunder and rain that day; so all the people held the Lord and Samuel in great reverence.

¹⁹ And all the people said to Samuel, “Pray for your servants to the Lord your God, that we do not die; for we have added to all our sins this evil, to ask for ourselves a king.”²⁰ Then Samuel said to the people, “Do not fear. You have done all this evil, yet do not turn aside from following the Lord, but serve the Lord with all your heart.”²¹ And do not turn aside to go after futile things which cannot profit or deliver, for they are nothing.²² For the Lord will not abandon His people for His great name’s sake, because it has pleased the Lord to make you His people.²³ As for me, I would never sin against the Lord by ceasing to pray for you; instead, I will guide you in the good and right way.²⁴ Fear the Lord and serve Him faithfully with all your heart; for consider what great things He has done for you.²⁵ But if you continue in wickedness, both you and your king will face destruction.

13 Saul was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned over Israel for forty-two years.² Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel. Two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. The rest of the people he sent away, each to his tent.³ Jonathan struck the garrison of the Philistines that was at Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, “Let the Hebrews hear!”⁴ And all Israel heard it said that Saul had struck the Philistine garrison, and that Israel had become a stench to the Philistines. So the people were summoned to Saul at Gilgal.

⁵ The Philistines assembled to fight with Israel—thirty thousand chariots, six thousand horsemen, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They came up and camped at Michmash, east of Beth-aven.⁶ When the men of Israel saw that they were in danger—for the people were hard pressed—they hid in caves, in thickets, among rocks, in cellars, and in pits. ⁷ Some of the Hebrews crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. But Saul remained in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. ⁸ He waited seven days, according to the appointed time set by Samuel. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the people were scattering from him. ⁹ Saul then instructed, “Bring the burnt offering and the peace offerings to me.” And he proceeded to present the burnt offering. ¹⁰ As soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came. Saul went out to meet him and greet him. ¹¹ But Samuel said, “What have you done?” And Saul replied, “When I saw that the people were scattering from me, and that you did not come within the appointed days, and that the Philistines were assembling at Michmash, ¹² I thought, ‘The Philistines will soon descend upon me at Gilgal, and I have not sought the Lord’s favour.’ So I felt compelled to offer the burnt offering.” ¹³ Then Samuel said to Saul, “You have acted foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of the Lord your God, which He commanded you. For now the Lord would have established your kingdom over Israel forever. ¹⁴ But now your kingdom shall not endure. The Lord has sought for Himself a man after His own heart, and the Lord has appointed him as ruler over His people, because you have not kept what the Lord commanded you.”

1 Samuel

¹⁵ Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul counted the people who were present with him, about six hundred men.

¹⁶ Now Saul and his son Jonathan and the people who were with them were staying in Gibeah of Benjamin, while the Philistines camped at Michmash.

¹⁷ And raiders came out from the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned toward Ophrah, to the land of Shual; ¹⁸ another company turned toward Beth-horon; and another company turned toward the border overlooking the valley of Zeboim, toward the wilderness.

¹⁹ At that time, no blacksmith could be found throughout the land of Israel, for the Philistines had said, “Otherwise the Hebrews might make swords or spears.” ²⁰ So all Israel went down to the Philistines, each to sharpen his ploughshare, his mattock, his axe, or his hoe. ²¹ The charge was two-thirds of a shekel for the sharpening of ploughshares, mattocks, pitchforks, and axes, and for setting the goads. ²² So on the day of the battle, neither sword nor spear was found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan, but they were found only with Saul and with Jonathan his son. ²³ The garrison of the Philistines moved out to the pass of Michmash.

14 Now it came to pass one day that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who carried his armour, “Come, let us go over to the Philistine garrison on the other side.” But he did not tell his father. ² Saul was staying in the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree in Migron. The people with him were about six hundred men, ³ And Ahijah the son of Ahitub, Ichabod’s brother, son of Phinehas, son of Eli, the priest of the Lord in Shiloh, was wearing the ephod. But the people did not know that Jonathan had gone. ⁴ Now between the passes by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistine garrison, there was a sharp crag on one side and a sharp crag on the other side; one was called Bozez, and the other Seneh. ⁵ One crag rose on the north facing Michmash, and the other on the south facing Geba. ⁶ And Jonathan said to the young man who carried his armour, “Come, let us cross over to the garrison of these uncircumcised men. It may be that the Lord will act for us, for nothing can hinder the Lord from saving, whether by many or by few.” ⁷ And his armour-bearer said to him, “Do all that is in your heart. Go ahead; I am with you heart and soul.” ⁸ Then Jonathan said, “Now we will cross over to the men and show ourselves to them. ⁹ If they say to us, ‘Wait until we come to you,’ then we will remain where we are and not go up to them. ¹⁰ But if they say, ‘Come up to us,’ then we will go up, for the Lord has given them into our hand. This shall be the sign to us.”

¹¹ When both of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines, the Philistines said, “Behold, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden themselves.” ¹² And the men of the garrison hailed Jonathan and his armour-bearer and said, “Come up to us, and we will show you something.” Jonathan said to his armour-bearer, “Come up after me, for the Lord has given them into the hand of Israel.” ¹³ Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, and his armour-bearer after him.

1 Samuel

And they fell before Jonathan, and his armour-bearer killed them after him.¹⁴ In that first attack, Jonathan and his armour-bearer killed about twenty men within about half a furlong of land.¹⁵ And there was a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and even the raiders trembled, and the earth quaked, and it became a great panic from God.

¹⁶ Saul's watchmen in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and behold, the multitude melted away and scattered in every direction.¹⁷ Then Saul said to the people who were with him, "Call the roll and see who has gone from us." And when they had called the roll, behold, Jonathan and his armour-bearer were not there.¹⁸ So Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God here." For the ark of God was at that time with the sons of Israel.¹⁹ And while Saul was speaking to the priest, the tumult in the camp of the Philistines continued to increase. Then Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."²⁰ Then Saul and all the people who were with him assembled and went into the battle; and behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was great confusion.²¹ Now the Hebrews who had previously been with the Philistines and had gone up with them into the camp from the surrounding country, even they joined with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.²² And all the men of Israel who had hidden in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were fleeing, and they also followed hard after them in the battle.²³ Thus the Lord delivered Israel that day, and the battle moved beyond Beth-aven.

²⁴ Now the men of Israel were hard pressed that day, for Saul had laid an oath on the people, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats food before evening, before I have taken vengeance on my enemies." So none of the people tasted food.²⁵ Then all the people of the land entered the forest, and there was honey on the ground.²⁶ And when the people entered the forest, behold, the honey was dripping, but no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath.²⁷ But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the people with the oath; so he reached out the end of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened.²⁸ Then one of the people said, "Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man who eats food today.'" And the people were faint.²⁹ Then Jonathan remarked, "My father has brought trouble to the land. See how my eyes have brightened because I tasted a little of this honey."³⁰ How much better it would have been if the people had eaten freely today from the spoil of their enemies which they found! For now the slaughter among the Philistines has not been significant."

³¹ That day, they defeated the Philistines from Michmash to Ajalon, and the people were exceedingly weary.³² The people rushed greedily upon the spoil and took sheep, oxen, and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood.³³ Then it was told Saul, saying, "Behold, the people are sinning against the Lord by eating meat with the blood." And he said, "You have dealt treacherously; roll a large stone to me here."³⁴ Then Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people and tell them, 'Each one bring his ox or sheep, and slaughter it here and eat, and do not sin against the Lord by eating with the blood.'" So all the people brought their oxen that night and slaughtered them there.³⁵ And Saul built an altar to the Lord—it was the first altar that he built to the Lord.

³⁶ Then Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them until morning light, and let us not leave a man of them." And they said, "Do whatever seems good to you." But the priest said, "Let us draw near to God here."³⁷ And Saul inquired of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But He did not answer him that day.³⁸ So Saul said, "Come here, all you chiefs of the people, and know and see wherein this sin has been today."³⁹ For as the Lord lives, who saves Israel, even if it is Jonathan my son, he shall surely die." But not one of all the people answered him.⁴⁰ Then he addressed all Israel, "You shall be on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side." And the people said to Saul, "Do what seems good to you."⁴¹ Therefore Saul said to the Lord, "O God of Israel, give a perfect lot." And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped.⁴² Then Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and Jonathan my son." And Jonathan was taken.⁴³ Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done." And Jonathan told him, "I indeed tasted a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand. Here I am; I must die.” ⁴⁴ And Saul said, “God do so to me and more also, for you shall surely die, Jonathan.” ⁴⁵ But the people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die, who has brought about this great deliverance in Israel? Far from it! As the Lord lives, not a hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he has worked with God today.” So the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die. ⁴⁶ Then Saul ceased pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines returned to their own place.

1 Samuel

⁴⁷ Now when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side—against Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. And wherever he turned, he routed them. ⁴⁸ He acted valiantly and struck the Amalekites, and delivered Israel from the hands of those who plundered them. ⁴⁹ Saul’s sons were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchi-shua. His two daughters were named Merab, the firstborn, and Michal, the younger. ⁵⁰ Ahinoam, daughter of Ahimaaz, was Saul’s wife. The commander of his army was Abner, son of Ner, who was Saul’s uncle. ⁵¹ Saul was the son of Kish, and Ner, the father of Abner, was the son of Abiel. ⁵² There was hard fighting against the Philistines all the days of Saul. And whenever Saul saw any mighty man or valiant man, he took him into his service.

15 Samuel addressed Saul, “The Lord has sent me to anoint you as king over His people Israel; now, therefore, heed the words of the Lord. ² This is what the Lord of hosts says: ‘I will punish Amalek for what he did to Israel, how he set himself against him on the way while he was coming up from Egypt. ³ Now go and strike Amalek and utterly destroy all that they have. Do not spare them, but put to death both man and woman, child and infant, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’”

⁴ Then Saul summoned the people and counted them at Telaim: two hundred thousand foot soldiers, and ten thousand men of Judah. ⁵ Saul came to the city of Amalek and lay in wait in the valley. ⁶ Saul said to the Kenites, “Go, depart, go down from among the Amalekites, so that I do not destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the sons of Israel when they came up from Egypt.” So the Kenites withdrew from among the Amalekites. ⁷ Then Saul struck down the Amalekites from Havilah as you go to Shur, which is east of Egypt. ⁸ He captured

Agag, king of the Amalekites, alive, and completely destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

⁹ But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, the oxen, the fattened animals, the lambs, and all that was good, and were unwilling to utterly destroy them. But everything despised and worthless, that they completely destroyed.

¹⁰ Then a message from the Lord came to Samuel, saying, ¹¹ “I regret that I have made Saul king, for he has turned away from following Me and has not carried out My commands.” And Samuel was distressed and cried out to the Lord all night. ¹² Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul; and it was reported to Samuel, saying, “Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up a monument for himself, then turned and proceeded down to Gilgal.”

¹³ When Samuel reached Saul, Saul greeted him, saying, “May you be blessed by the Lord! I have fulfilled the Lord’s command.” ¹⁴ But Samuel said, “Then what is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?” ¹⁵ Saul replied, “They were brought from the Amalekites, for the people spared the best of the sheep and oxen to offer as a sacrifice to the Lord your God; but the rest we have completely destroyed.”

¹⁶ Then Samuel said to Saul, “Stop! I will tell you what the Lord said to me last night.” And he said to him, “Speak.” ¹⁷ Samuel said, “Though you considered yourself insignificant, were you not made the leader of the tribes of Israel? And the Lord anointed you king over Israel, ¹⁸ and the Lord sent you on a mission, instructing you to ‘Go and completely destroy the sinful Amalekites, and fight against them until they are no more.’ ¹⁹ Why then did you not obey the voice of the Lord, but instead seized the plunder and did what was wrong in the sight of the Lord?” ²⁰ Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have indeed followed the voice of the Lord, and went on the mission on which the Lord sent me, and have brought back Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. ²¹ But the people took some of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the best of the things devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to the Lord your God at Gilgal.”

²² Samuel said,

“Has the Lord as much delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices As in obeying the voice of the Lord?”

1 Samuel

Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, And to listen than the fat of rams. ²³ For rebellion is like the sin of divination, And stubbornness is like iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the Lord, He has also rejected you from being king."

²⁴ Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned; I have indeed disobeyed the command of the Lord and your words, because I feared the people and listened to their voice. ²⁵ Now therefore, please pardon my sin and return with me, so that I may worship the Lord." ²⁶ But Samuel responded to Saul, "I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord has rejected you from being king over Israel." ²⁷ As Samuel turned to go, Saul grabbed the edge of his robe, and it tore. ²⁸ So Samuel said to him, "The Lord has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to your neighbour who is better than you. ²⁹ Moreover, the Glory of Israel will not deceive or change His mind; for He is not a man that He should change His mind."

³⁰ Then Saul said, "I have sinned; but please honour me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, so that I may worship the Lord your God." ³¹ So Samuel returned after Saul, and Saul worshipped the Lord. ³² Then Samuel said, "Bring Agag, the king of the Amalekites, to me." And Agag approached him cheerfully, saying, "Surely the bitterness of death has passed." ³³ But Samuel said,

"As your sword has made women childless, So shall your mother be childless among women." And Samuel executed Agag before the Lord at Gilgal.

³⁴ Then Samuel went to Ramah, while Saul went up to his house at Gibeah of Saul. ³⁵ Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death; for Samuel grieved over Saul, and the Lord lamented that He had made Saul king over Israel.

16 The Lord said to Samuel, "How long will you grieve over Saul, since I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go; I am sending you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have selected a king for Myself from among his sons." ² But Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me." And the Lord said, "Take a heifer with you and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the Lord.' ³ Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what to do; and you shall anoint for Me the one whom I indicate to you."

⁴ So Samuel did what the Lord said and went to Bethlehem. The elders of the town came trembling to meet him and said, "Do you come in peace?" ⁵ He said, "Yes, in peace; I have come to sacrifice to the Lord. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

⁶ As they arrived, he observed Eliab and thought, "Surely the Lord's anointed stands here before Him."

⁷ But the Lord said to Samuel,

"Do not look at his appearance or at the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for the Lord does not see as man sees, for man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart."

⁸ Then Jesse called Abinadab and made him pass before Samuel. But he said, "The Lord has not chosen this one either." ⁹ Next Jesse made Shammah pass by. But he said, "The Lord has not chosen this one either." ¹⁰ So Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, "The Lord has not chosen these."

¹¹ Then Samuel said to Jesse, "Are these all the boys?" And he said, "There remains yet the youngest, but behold, he is tending the sheep." So Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and bring him, for we will not sit down until he comes here." ¹² So he sent for him and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes and a handsome appearance. And the Lord said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is he." ¹³ Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the presence of his brothers; and from that day onward, the Spirit of the Lord was powerfully with David. And Samuel got up and went to Ramah.

¹⁴ At that time, the Spirit of the Lord withdrew from Saul, and a troubling spirit from the Lord began to distress him. ¹⁵ Saul's servants then said to him, "Behold now, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you. ¹⁶ Let our lord now command your servants who are before you. Let them seek a man who is skilful in playing the harp; and when the evil spirit from God is upon you, he shall play, and you will be well." ¹⁷ So Saul instructed his servants, "Find me someone who can play well and bring him to me." ¹⁸ Then one of the young men answered and said, "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is skilful in playing, a valiant man, a warrior, eloquent in speech, and a handsome man; and the Lord is with him."

1 Samuel

¹⁹ So Saul sent messengers to Jesse with the request, "Send me your son David, who is with the flock." ²⁰ And Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a jug of wine, and a young goat, and sent them to Saul by David his son. ²¹ Then David came to Saul and entered his service; and Saul loved him greatly, and he became his armour-bearer. ²² And Saul sent word to Jesse, saying, "Let David now remain in my service, for he has found favour in my sight." ²³ So it came about, whenever the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, David would take the harp and play it with his hand; and Saul would be refreshed and be well, and the evil spirit would leave him.

17 Now the Philistines gathered their armies for battle, and they were assembled at Socoh, which belongs to Judah; and they camped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephesdammim. ² Saul and the men of Israel gathered and camped in the Valley of Elah, and formed ranks to meet the Philistines. ³ The Philistines positioned themselves on one hill, while Israel took their stand on the opposite hill, with the valley lying between them. ⁴ Then a champion came out from the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, from Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. ⁵ He had a bronze helmet on his head, and he wore scale armour which weighed five thousand shekels of bronze. ⁶ He also wore bronze leg armour and carried a bronze javelin slung across his shoulders. ⁷ The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and the iron point of his spear weighed six hundred shekels of iron; and his shield-bearer went before him. ⁸ He stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel and said to them, "Why do you come out to line up for battle? Am I not the Philistine and you servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves and let him come down to me. ⁹ If he is able to fight me and defeat me, then we will become your servants; but if I overcome him and kill him, then you shall become our servants and serve us." ¹⁰ The Philistine said, "I defy the battle lines of Israel this day. Give me a man, that we may fight together." ¹¹ When Saul and all Israel heard the Philistine's words, they were filled with dismay and great fear.

¹² Now David was the son of the Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah, whose name was Jesse. He had eight sons, and in Saul's time he was already old and advanced in years. ¹³ The three oldest sons of Jesse had followed Saul to the battle. The names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, Abinadab the second, and Shammah the third. ¹⁴ David was the youngest. The three eldest had gone after Saul, ¹⁵ but David went back and forth from Saul to tend his father's flock in Bethlehem. ¹⁶ For forty days the Philistine came forward each morning and evening and took his stand.

¹⁷ Then Jesse said to his son David, "Take now for your brothers an ephah of roasted grain and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to your brothers. ¹⁸ Also take these ten cheeses to the commander of their thousand, and check on the welfare of your brothers, and bring back news of them." ¹⁹ Now Saul and all the men of Israel were in the Valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines. ²⁰ So David rose early in the morning, left the flock with a keeper, took the supplies and went as Jesse had commanded him. He came to the encampment as the army was going out to the battle line shouting the war cry. ²¹ Israel and the Philistines were drawn up in battle formation, army against army. ²² Then David left the baggage in the care of the baggage keeper, ran to the battle line, and entered to greet his brothers. ²³ While he was talking with them, behold, the champion, the Philistine from Gath named Goliath, was coming up from the army of the Philistines, and he spoke the same words as before; and David heard him. ²⁴ When all the men of Israel saw him, they retreated from him in great fear.

²⁵ The men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who is coming up? Surely he is coming up to defy Israel. And it will be that the king will enrich the man who kills him with great riches, give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel."

²⁶ Then David spoke to the men who were standing by him, saying, "What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and removes this disgrace from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?" ²⁷ And the people answered him in the same way, saying, "This is what will be done for the man who kills him."

²⁸ Now Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's anger burned against David and he said, "Why have you come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the evil of your heart, for you have come down in order to see the battle." ²⁹ But David said, "What have I done now? Was it not merely a question?" ³⁰ Then he turned away from him to another and said the same thing; and the people answered him as before.

1 Samuel

³¹ When the words that David spoke were heard, they were reported to Saul, and he sent for him. ³² David said to Saul, "Let no one lose heart on account of this Philistine; your servant will go and fight with him." ³³ But Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight him, for you are only a youth, and he has been a warrior from his youth." ³⁴ But David said to Saul, "Your servant was looking after his father's sheep. When a lion or a bear came and took a lamb from the flock, ³⁵ I went out after it and struck it, and rescued the lamb from its mouth. And when it rose up against me, I seized it by its beard and struck it and killed it. ³⁶ Your servant has overcome both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God." ³⁷ And David said, "The Lord, who rescued me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear, will rescue me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go, and may the Lord be with you."

³⁸ Then Saul clothed David with his garments and put a bronze helmet on his head, and clothed him with armour. ³⁹ David strapped his sword over his armour and tried to walk, but he was not used to them. So David said to Saul, "I cannot go with these, for I am not used to them." And David took them off. ⁴⁰ Then he took his staff in his hand, and chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in the shepherd's bag which he had, that is, in his pouch, and his sling was in his hand. And he approached the Philistine. ⁴¹ Meanwhile the Philistine came on and approached David, with the shield-bearer in front of him. ⁴² When the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him, for he was only a youth, and ruddy, with a handsome appearance. ⁴³ The Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And he cursed David by his gods. ⁴⁴ The Philistine also said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the field."

⁴⁵ Then David said to the Philistine,

"You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. ⁴⁶ This day the Lord will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and remove your head from you. And I will give the dead bodies of the army of the Philistines this day to the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, ⁴⁷ and that all this assembly may know that the Lord does not save by sword or by spear; for the battle is the Lord's, and He will hand you over to us!"

⁴⁸ Then it happened, when the Philistine rose and came forward to meet David, that David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine. ⁴⁹ And David put his hand into his bag and took from it a stone and slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the ground. ⁵⁰ So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and he struck the Philistine and killed him; but there was no sword in David's hand. ⁵¹ Then David ran and stood over the Philistine, took his sword and drew it from its sheath, and killed him and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. ⁵² Then the men of Israel and Judah rose up and shouted and pursued the Philistines as far as the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the slain Philistines lay along the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath and Ekron. ⁵³ Then the sons of Israel returned from their pursuit of the Philistines and plundered their camps. ⁵⁴ David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his weapons in his own tent.

⁵⁵ Now when Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he said to Abner the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this young man?" And Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I do not know." ⁵⁶ The king said, "Inquire whose son the youth is." ⁵⁷ So when David returned from defeating the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the Philistine's head in his hand. ⁵⁸ Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And

1 Samuel

David said, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

18 After he had finished speaking to Saul, Jonathan became deeply connected to David, so that Jonathan was devoted to him; as if to his own soul. ² Saul took him that day and did not allow him to return to his father's house. ³ Then Jonathan made a covenant with David and he was devoted to him; as if to his own soul. ⁴ Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and gave it to David, along with his armour, even his sword, his bow, and his belt. ⁵ And David went out and was successful wherever Saul sent him, so Saul set him over the men of war. And it was pleasing in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

⁶ Now it happened as they were coming home, when David returned from striking down the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul with tambourines, with joy, and with musical instruments.

⁷ The women sang as they celebrated and said,

"Saul has slain his thousands, And David his tens of thousands."

⁸ Then Saul became very angry, for this statement displeased him, and he said, "They have ascribed to David tens of thousands, but to me they have ascribed only thousands. What more can he have but the kingdom?" ⁹ So Saul watched David with suspicion from that day on.

¹⁰ The following day, an evil spirit from God came forcefully upon Saul, and he raved in the midst of the house, while David was playing the harp with his hand, as usual. And Saul had a spear in his hand. ¹¹ Then Saul hurled the spear, intending to pin David to the wall. But David managed to escape from his presence on two occasions. ¹² Saul was fearful of David, because the Lord was with him, but had departed from Saul. ¹³ So Saul removed him from his presence and appointed him as a commander of a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people. ¹⁴ David was successful in all his endeavours, and the Lord was with him. ¹⁵ When Saul saw that he was very successful, he feared him. ¹⁶ But all Israel and Judah loved David, for he would lead them into battle and return before them.

¹⁷ Then Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife. Only be a valiant man for me and fight the Lord's battles." For Saul thought, "Let not my hand be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him." ¹⁸ But David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my life or my father's family in Israel, that I should become the king's son-in-law?" ¹⁹ So it came about, when the time came for Merab, Saul's daughter, to be given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.

²⁰ Now Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David. When they told Saul, the matter was pleasing to him. ²¹ Saul thought, "I will give her to him, so that she may become a snare to him, and so that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David, "For a second time you may become my son-in-law today." ²² Then Saul commanded his servants, "Speak to David secretly, saying, 'Behold, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you. Now become the king's son-in-law.'" ²³ So Saul's servants spoke these words to David. But David said, "Is it trivial in your sight to become the king's son-in-law, when I am a poor man and lightly esteemed?" ²⁴ The servants of Saul reported to him according to what David had said. ²⁵ Then Saul said, "This is what you shall say to David: 'The king desires no dowry except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on the king's enemies.'" But Saul intended for David to fall by the hand of the Philistines.

²⁶ When his servants told David these words, it pleased David to become the king's son-in-law. Before the allotted time had expired, ²⁷ David set out and went, he and his men, and struck down two hundred men among the Philistines. Then David brought their foreskins and presented the full number to the king, so that he might become the king's son-in-law. So Saul gave him his daughter Michal as a wife. ²⁸ When Saul observed and understood that the Lord was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him, ²⁹ Saul's fear of David increased. Thus, Saul remained David's adversary continually. ³⁰ Then the commanders of the Philistines went out to battle, and it came about, as often as they went out, that David was more successful than all the servants of Saul.

1 Samuel

19 Now Saul told Jonathan his son and all his servants to put David to death. But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted greatly in David. ² So Jonathan informed David, saying, "My father Saul is seeking to kill you. Now then, be on your guard in the morning, and stay in a secret place and hide yourself. ³ I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak with my father about you; and if I learn anything, I will tell you." ⁴ Then Jonathan spoke favourably of David to Saul his father and said to him, "May the king not act unjustly against his servant David, since he has not wronged you, and since his actions have been very beneficial to you. ⁵ For he took his life in his hand and struck the Philistine, and the Lord brought about a great victory for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced. Why then would you act against innocent blood by putting David to death without a cause?" ⁶ Saul heeded Jonathan's words and made an oath, "As surely as the Lord lives, David shall not be put to death." ⁷ Then Jonathan called David and told him all these words. Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as before.

⁸ When there was war again, David went out and fought against the Philistines and defeated them with great slaughter, so that they fled before him. ⁹ Now an evil spirit from the Lord came upon Saul as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, and David was playing the harp with his hand. ¹⁰ Saul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he slipped away from Saul's presence, so that he struck the spear into the wall. David fled and escaped that night. ¹¹ Then Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him, in order to put him to death in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, told him, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be put to death." ¹² So Michal helped David escape through a window, and he fled and got away. ¹³ Michal took the household idol and laid it on the bed, put a quilt of goat's hair at its head, and covered it with clothes. ¹⁴ When Saul sent messengers to seize David, she said, "He is sick." ¹⁵ Then Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me on the bed, that I may put him to death." ¹⁶ When the messengers entered, behold, the idol was on the bed with the quilt of goat's hair at its head. ¹⁷ So Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?" And Michal said to Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go! Why should I kill you?'"

¹⁸ Now David fled and escaped, and came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth. ¹⁹ It was reported to Saul, saying, "Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah." ²⁰ Then Saul sent messengers to capture David, but when they saw the company of prophets prophesying, with Samuel standing and leading them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they too prophesied. ²¹ When it was told to Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. So Saul sent messengers again a third time, and they also prophesied. ²² Then he himself went to Ramah and came to the large well that is in Secu. And he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" Someone said, "Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah." ²³ So he went to Naioth in Ramah. And the Spirit of God came upon him as well, so that he went along prophesying continually until he arrived at Naioth in Ramah. ²⁴ Then he also stripped off his clothes, and he too prophesied before Samuel, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

20 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said to Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my guilt? What is my sin before your father, that he is seeking my life?" ² But he said to him, "Far from it! You shall not die. Behold, my father does nothing either great or small without telling me. Why would my father hide this matter from me? It is not so!" ³ Yet David vowed again and said, "Your father knows well that I have found favour in your sight, and he has said, 'Jonathan must not know this, so that he does not grieve.' But truly, as the Lord lives and as you yourself live, there is hardly a step between me and death." ⁴ Then Jonathan assured David, "I will do whatever you request." ⁵ David said to Jonathan, "Behold, tomorrow is the New Moon, and I am expected to sit with the king to eat. But let me go, so that I may hide myself in the field until the third evening. ⁶ If your father misses me at all, then say, 'David earnestly requested permission of me to run to Bethlehem, his city, because it is the yearly sacrifice there for the whole family.' ⁷ If he says, 'It is good,' your servant will be safe; but if he becomes angry, know that he has decided to harm me. ⁸ Therefore deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the Lord with you. But if there is guilt in me, put me to death yourself; for why should you bring me to your father?" ⁹ Jonathan said, "Far be it from you! For if I indeed learn that my father has decided to harm you, would I not inform you?"

1 Samuel

¹⁰ Then David asked Jonathan, "How will I know if your father responds to you harshly?" ¹¹ Jonathan said to David, "Come, let us go out into the field." So the two of them went out to the field. ¹² Then Jonathan said to David, "The Lord, the God of Israel, be witness! When I have sounded out my father about this time tomorrow or the third day, if all is well with David, shall I not then send word to you and disclose it to you?" ¹³ But if it pleases my father to do you harm, may the Lord deal harshly with me, Jonathan, and worse, if I do not inform you and send you away, so that you may go in safety. And may the Lord be with you as He has been with my father. ¹⁴ If I am still alive, will you not show me the lovingkindness of the Lord, so that I do not die? ¹⁵ And you shall not cut off your loyalty from my house forever, not even when the Lord eliminates every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth."

¹⁶ So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "May the Lord hold David's enemies accountable." ¹⁷ Jonathan made David vow again because of his love for him, for he loved him as he loved his own life.

¹⁸ Then Jonathan said to him, "It is the New Moon tomorrow, and you will be missed, for your seat will be empty. ¹⁹ When you have stayed for three days, you shall go down quickly and come to the place where you hid yourself on that eventful day, and you shall stay beside the stone Ezel. ²⁰ And I will shoot three arrows to the side, as if aiming at a target. ²¹ Then behold, I will send the boy and say, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I specifically say to the boy, 'Behold, the arrows are on this side of you; get them,' then come out, for there is safety for you and no harm, as the Lord lives. ²² But if I say to the youth, 'Behold, the arrows are beyond you,' then go, for the Lord has sent you away. ²³ As for the matter which you and I have spoken of, behold, the Lord is between you and me forever."

²⁴ So David hid in the field; and when the New Moon came, the king sat down to eat the meal. ²⁵ The king sat on his seat as usual, the seat by the wall; then Jonathan got up and Abner sat down by Saul's side, but David's place was empty. ²⁶ Nevertheless Saul did not say anything that day, for he thought, "It must be an accident; he is not ceremonially clean; surely he is not clean." ²⁷ And it came about the next day, the second day of the New Moon, that David's place was empty. So Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal, either yesterday or today?" ²⁸ Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly requested permission from me to go to Bethlehem. ²⁹ He said, 'Please let me go, since our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to attend. Now if I have found favour in your sight, please let me slip away so that I may see my brothers.' For that reason he has not come to the king's table."

³⁰ Then Saul's anger flared against Jonathan and he said to him, "You son of a wayward and rebellious woman! Do I not know that you are choosing the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother's disgrace? ³¹ For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you and your kingdom will not be established. Now then, send someone and bring him to me, for he is doomed to die!" ³² But Jonathan replied to his father Saul and asked, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?" ³³ Then Saul hurled his spear at him to strike him down; so Jonathan realised that his father was determined to put David to death. ³⁴ So Jonathan got up from the table in burning anger, and did not eat food on the second day of the new moon, for he was grieved over David because his father had dishonoured him.

³⁵ Now it came about in the morning that Jonathan went out to the field for the meeting with David, and a little boy was with him. ³⁶ And he said to his boy, "Run, find now the arrows which I am going to shoot." As the boy ran, he shot an arrow past him. ³⁷ When the boy reached the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan called after the boy and said, "Is the arrow not beyond you?" ³⁸ And Jonathan called after the boy, "Hurry, be quick, do not stay!" And Jonathan's boy picked up the arrow and came to his master. ³⁹ But the boy was unaware of anything; only Jonathan and David understood the matter. ⁴⁰ Then Jonathan handed his weapons to his boy and instructed him, "Go, take them to the city." ⁴¹ When the boy had gone, David got up from the south side and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed three times. And they kissed each other and wept together, but David wept more. ⁴² Jonathan said to David, "Go in safety, since we have sworn in the name of the Lord, saying, 'The Lord will be between me and you, and between my descendants and your descendants forever.'" So David set out and Jonathan went into the city.

1 Samuel

21 David arrived at Nob, where Ahimelech the priest was. Ahimelech, trembling, came to meet David and asked him, "Why are you alone, with no one accompanying you?" ² David said to Ahimelech the priest, "The king has commissioned me with a matter and said to me, 'Let no one know anything about the matter on which I am sending you, and with which I have commissioned you.' And I have directed the young men to a certain place." ³ So, what provisions do you have available? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever can be found." ⁴ The priest answered David and said, "There is no ordinary bread on hand, but there is consecrated bread—provided the men have kept themselves from women." ⁵ David answered the priest and said to him, "Indeed, women have been kept from us as always when I go out. The vessels of the young men were holy, though it was an ordinary journey; how much more then today will their vessels be holy?" ⁶ Thus, the priest provided him with the consecrated bread, as there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence, which was taken from before the Lord to replace it with hot bread when it was removed.

⁷ Now one of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the Lord. His name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of Saul's shepherds. ⁸ David inquired of Ahimelech, "Is there a spear or sword available here? I brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, as the king's matter was pressing." ⁹ The priest replied, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you defeated in the Valley of Elah, is here, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you wish to take it, do so, for there is no other here." And David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."

¹⁰ Then David got up and escaped that day from Saul, and went to Achish king of Gath. ¹¹ But the servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing of him as they danced, saying,

"Saul has slain his thousands, And David his tens of thousands?"

¹² David pondered these words and became very afraid of Achish king of Gath. ¹³ So he disguised his behaviour before them, and pretended to be insane in their hands, and scribbled on the doors of the gate, and let his saliva run down into his beard. ¹⁴ Then Achish said to his servants, "Look, you see the man is insane. Why do you bring him to me? ¹⁵ Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this one to behave like a madman in my presence? Shall this man come into my house?"

22 David left that place and found refuge in the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and all his father's household learned of this, they went down to him there. ² Everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him; and he became captain over them. Now there were about four hundred men with him. ³ And David went from there to Mizpah of Moab. He said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and my mother come and stay with you until I know what God will do for me." ⁴ He entrusted them to the king of Moab; and they remained with him for as long as David was in the stronghold. ⁵ But the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold; leave and go into the land of Judah." So David left and went to the forest of Hereth.

⁶ Then Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered. Now Saul was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree on the hill, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him. ⁷ Saul said to his servants who stood around him, "Hear now, you Benjaminites! Will the son of Jesse also give all of you fields and vineyards? Will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds? ⁸ For all of you have conspired against me, so that no one informs me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse, and none of you is concerned for me or informs me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in ambush, as it is this day." ⁹ Then Doeg the Edomite, who was standing by the servants of Saul, said, "I witnessed the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.¹⁰ He sought guidance from the Lord for him, provided him with supplies, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

1 Samuel

¹¹ Then the king sent someone to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's household, the priests who were in Nob; and they all came to the king.¹² Saul said, "Listen now, son of Ahitub." And he said, "Here I am, my lord."¹³ Then Saul said to him, "Why have you and the son of Jesse conspired against me, by giving him bread and a sword, and by inquiring of God for him, so that he would rise up against me, by lying in ambush, as it is this day?"¹⁴ Ahimelech answered the king and said, "And who among all your servants is as faithful as David, the king's son-in-law, captain over your guard, and honoured in your house?"¹⁵ Was it only today that I began to inquire of God for him? Certainly not! Do not let the king accuse your servant or any of my father's household, for your servant knows nothing at all of this entire matter."¹⁶ But the king declared, "Ahimelech, you and all your father's household shall surely die!"¹⁷ And the king said to the guards who were attending him, "Turn around and put the priests of the Lord to death, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he was fleeing and did not inform me." But the servants of the king were not willing to reach out with their hands to attack the priests of the Lord.¹⁸ Then the king said to Doeg, "You turn around and attack the priests!" So Doeg the Edomite turned around and attacked the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.¹⁹ He also struck Nob the city of the priests with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and infants; also oxen, donkeys, and sheep he struck with the edge of the sword.

²⁰ However, one son of Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, managed to escape and fled to David.²¹ Abiathar told David that Saul had slain the priests of the Lord.²² Then David said to Abiathar, "I realised on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was present, that he would certainly inform Saul. I have brought harm upon every person in your father's household."²³ Stay with me; do not be afraid, for the one who is seeking my life is seeking your life as well, but you are safe with me."

23 Then they told David, "Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are plundering the threshing floors."² So David sought guidance from the Lord, asking, "Should I go and attack these Philistines?" And the Lord replied to David, "Go, attack the Philistines and deliver Keilah."³ But David's men expressed their concern, saying, "We are already fearful here in Judah. How much more if we go to Keilah against the ranks of the Philistines?"⁴ Then David inquired of the Lord once more. And the Lord answered him and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah, for I will hand the Philistines over to you."⁵ So David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines. He led away their livestock and struck them with a great slaughter. Thus David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

⁶ Now when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand.⁷ When it was reported to Saul that David had come to Keilah, Saul remarked, "God has delivered him into my hands, for he has trapped himself by entering a city with double gates and bars."⁸ So Saul gathered all the people to go down to Keilah, intending to besiege David and his men.⁹ Now David was aware of Saul's scheme against him; so he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod here."¹⁰ Then David said, "Lord God of Israel, Your servant has heard for certain that Saul is planning to come to Keilah, to destroy the city on my account."¹¹ Will the men of Keilah hand me over to him? Will Saul come down just as Your servant has heard? Lord God of Israel, I pray, tell Your servant." And the Lord said, "He will come down."¹² Then David said, "Will the men of Keilah hand me and my men over to Saul?" And the Lord said, "They will hand you over."¹³ So David and his men, about six hundred, arose and left Keilah, and they went wherever they could go. When it was reported to Saul that David had escaped from Keilah, he gave up the pursuit.

¹⁴ David stayed in the wilderness strongholds and remained in the hill country of the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul searched for him every day, but God did not hand him over to him.¹⁵ David realised that Saul had come out to seek his life, while he was in the wilderness of Ziph, at Horesh.¹⁶ And Jonathan, Saul's son, went to David at Horesh and strengthened his faith in God.¹⁷ He said to him, "Do not be afraid, for the hand of my father Saul will not find you, and you will be king over Israel and I will be second to you; and Saul my father knows that also.”¹⁸ So the two of them made a covenant before the Lord. And David stayed at Horesh, while Jonathan returned to his home.

1 Samuel

¹⁹ Then Ziphites came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “Is David not hiding with us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is south of Jeshimon?”²⁰ Now then, O king, come down, according to all the desire of your soul to do so; and our part shall be to hand him over to the king.”²¹ Saul said, “May you be blessed by the Lord, for you have shown kindness to me.”²² Go now, be very careful, and find out where he is and who has seen him there; for I am told that he is very cunning.”²³ So observe and discover all the hiding places where he conceals himself, and return to me with certainty, and I will go with you. And if he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah.”

²⁴ Then they set out and went to Ziph before Saul. Now David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshimon.”²⁵ When Saul and his men went to search for him, they told David, and he went down to the rock and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard it, he pursued David in the wilderness of Maon.”²⁶ And Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain. And David was hurrying to get away from Saul, for Saul and his men were surrounding David and his men to seize them.”²⁷ But a messenger came to Saul, saying, “Hurry and come, for the Philistines have launched an attack on the land!”²⁸ So Saul returned from pursuing David and went to confront the Philistines; therefore they called that place the Rock of Escape.”²⁹ And David departed from there and stayed in the strongholds of Engedi.

24 Now when Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, they told him, “Behold, David is in the wilderness of Engedi.”² Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel and went to search for David and his men in front of the Rocks of the Wild Goats.”³ He passed by the sheepfolds along the way, where there was a cave; and Saul entered to relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the inner recesses of the cave.”⁴ The men of David said to him, “Behold, this is the day of which the Lord said to you, ‘Behold, I am about to hand your enemy over to you, and you shall do to him as it seems good to you.’” Then David got up and cut off the edge of Saul’s robe secretly.”⁵ But afterward, David felt no joy over the cutting off of the edge of Saul’s robe.”⁶ So he said to his men, “May it be far from me, because of the Lord, to do such a thing to my lord, the Lord’s anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, since he is the Lord’s anointed.”⁷ And David restrained his men with these words and did not allow them to rise up against Saul. And Saul got up, left the cave, and went on his way.

⁸ Afterward David got up and went out of the cave, and called after Saul, saying, “My lord the king!” When Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground and prostrated himself.”⁹ David said to Saul, “Why do you listen to the words of men who say, ‘Behold, David is seeking to harm you’?”¹⁰ Behold, this day your eyes have seen that the Lord had handed you over to me today in the cave, and some said to kill you, but I spared you. And I said, ‘I will not reach out with my hand against my lord, for he is the Lord’s anointed.’”¹¹ So, my father, look! Indeed, look at the edge of your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the edge of your robe but did not kill you, know and understand that there is no evil or rebellion in my hands, and I have not sinned against you, though you are intent on taking my life.”¹² May the Lord be the judge between you and me, and may He bring justice upon you; but my hand shall not be against you.”¹³ As the ancient proverb says,

‘Out of the wicked comes wickedness; But my hand shall not be against you.

¹⁴ After whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom are you pursuing? A mere dog, a single flea?”¹⁵ May the Lord therefore be judge and decide between you and me; and may He see and uphold my cause and deliver me from your hand.”

¹⁶ Now when David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” Then Saul raised his voice and wept.”¹⁷ And he said to David, “You are more righteous than I; for you have treated me well, while I have treated you maliciously.”¹⁸ You have shown today that you have done good to me, that the Lord handed me over to you and yet you did not kill me.”¹⁹ For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away safely? May the Lord reward you with good in return for what you have done for me this day. ²⁰ Now behold, I am aware that you will certainly be king, and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand. ²¹ So now swear to me by the Lord that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not erase my name from my father's household." ²² And David swore to Saul. Then Saul went to his home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

1 Samuel

25 Then Samuel died, and all Israel gathered and mourned for him, and buried him at his house in Ramah. And David arose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

² There was a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel; and this man was exceedingly wealthy, owning three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. An occasion came to pass while he was shearing his sheep in Carmel— ³ For the man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigail. The woman was discerning and beautiful, but the man was harsh and dishonest in his dealings, and he was a Calebite. ⁴ Then David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. ⁵ David sent ten young men, instructing them, "Go up to Carmel, visit Nabal, and extend greetings in my name. ⁶ And this is what you shall say: 'Peace to you, and peace to your house, and peace to all that you have!' ⁷ Now I have heard that you have shearers. Your shepherds have been with us, and we did not insult them, nor did they miss anything all the days they were in Carmel. ⁸ Ask your young men and they will tell you. Therefore, let my young men find favour in your sight, for we have come on a festive day. Please give whatever you find at hand to your servants and to your son David.'" ⁹ When David's young men arrived, they relayed all these words to Nabal on behalf of David; then they awaited his response. ¹⁰ But Nabal replied to David's servants, "Who is David? And who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants these days who are breaking away from their masters. ¹¹ Shall I then take my bread and my water and my meat that I have prepared for my shearers, and give it to men whose origin I do not know?" ¹² So David's young men returned and went back; and they came and told him all these words. ¹³ David said to his men, "Each of you strap on his sword!" So each man strapped on his sword, and David also strapped on his sword. And about four hundred men went up behind David, while two hundred stayed with the supplies.

¹⁴ But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, "Behold, David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master, and he shouted at them in anger. ¹⁵ Yet the men were very good to us, and we were not insulted, nor did we miss anything as long as we went with them, while we were in the fields. ¹⁶ They protected us both by night and by day, all the time we were with them tending the sheep. ¹⁷ Now then, be aware and consider what you should do, for harm is determined against our master and against all his household; and he is such a worthless man that no one can speak to him." ¹⁸ Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread, two jugs of wine, five sheep already prepared, five seahs of roasted grain, a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys. ¹⁹ She said to her young men, "Go on ahead of me; behold, I am coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal. ²⁰ As she was riding on her donkey and coming down by the hidden part of the mountain, David and his men were descending toward her; so she met them. ²¹ Now David had said, "It was surely in vain that I protected all that this man has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him; and he has returned me evil for good. ²² May God do so to the enemies of David, and more so, if by morning I leave as much as one male of any who belong to him alive."

²³ When Abigail saw David, she hurried and dismounted from her donkey, and fell on her face before David and bowed down to the ground. ²⁴ She fell at his feet and said, "On me alone, my lord, be the guilt. And please let your slave speak to you, and listen to the words of your slave. ²⁵ Please do not let my lord pay attention to this worthless man, Nabal, for as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name, and foolishness is with him. But I, your slave, did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent. ²⁶ Now then, my lord, as surely as the Lord lives and as you live, since the Lord has kept you from shedding blood, and from avenging yourself by your own hand, may your enemies and those who seek harm against my lord be like Nabal. ²⁷ And now, let this gift which your servant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who are with my lord. ²⁸ Please forgive the offence of your slave; for the Lord will certainly make for my lord an enduring house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the Lord, and evil will not be found in you all your days. ²⁹ And when someone arises to pursue you and to seek your life, the life of my lord will be bound in the bundle of the living with the Lord your God; but the lives of your enemies He will sling out as from the hollow of a sling. ³⁰ And when the Lord fulfils for my lord all the good He has promised concerning you, and appoints you leader over Israel, ³¹ this will not become an obstacle to you, or a troubled heart to my lord, both by having shed blood without cause and by my lord having avenged himself. When the Lord deals well with my lord, then remember your slave."

1 Samuel

³² Then David said to Abigail, "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me, ³³ and blessed be your discernment, and blessed be you, who have kept me this day from bloodshed and from avenging myself by my own hand. ³⁴ Nevertheless, as the Lord God of Israel lives, who has restrained me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, certainly by morning there would not have been left to Nabal as much as one male." ³⁵ So David accepted from her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, "Go up to your house in peace. See, I have listened to you and granted your request."

³⁶ Then Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he was holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; so she did not tell him anything at all until the morning light. ³⁷ But in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him, and he became like a stone. ³⁸ About ten days later, the Lord caused Nabal to pass away.

³⁹ When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the Lord, who has pleaded the cause of the insult directed at me by the hand of Nabal, and has kept His servant from evil. The Lord has also returned the evil of Nabal on his own head." Then David sent a proposal to Abigail, to take her as his wife. ⁴⁰ When David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, "David has sent us to you, to take you as his wife." ⁴¹ She got up and bowed with her face to the ground, and said, "Behold, your servant is a slave to wash the feet of my lord's servants." ⁴² Then Abigail got up quickly, and rode on a donkey, with her five female attendants following her; and she went after the messengers of David and became his wife.

⁴³ David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel, and she became his wife alongside Abigail. ⁴⁴ Now Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

26 The Ziphites approached Saul at Gibeah and said, "Is David not keeping himself hidden on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon?" ² Saul then set out and journeyed to the wilderness of Ziph, bringing with him three thousand chosen men of Israel, to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph. ³ Saul camped on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon, beside the road. But David was staying in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul had come after him into the wilderness. ⁴ David sent out spies, and he learned for certain that Saul had indeed arrived. ⁵ David then arose and came to the place where Saul had camped. And David saw the place where Saul was lying, and Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army. Now Saul was lying in the inner circle of the camp, and the people were camped around him.

⁶ David spoke to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, asking, "Who will accompany me to Saul in the camp?" And Abishai replied, "I will go down with you." ⁷ So David and Abishai came to the people by night, and behold, Saul was lying asleep inside the camp, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head. And Abner and the people were lying around him. ⁸ Then Abishai said to David, "Today God has delivered your enemy into your hand; now then, please let me strike him with the spear to the ground with one thrust, and I will not need to strike him a second time." ⁹ But David replied to Abishai, "Do not kill him, for who can reach out against the Lord's anointed and remain innocent?" ¹⁰ David also said, "As the Lord lives, the Lord will surely strike him, or his day will come when he dies, or he will go down in battle and perish. ¹¹ The Lord forbid that I would reach out against the Lord's anointed! But now, please take the spear that is at his head and the jug of water, and let us go." ¹² So David took the spear and the jug of water from beside Saul's head, and they went away. But no one saw it or knew it, nor did anyone wake up, for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the Lord had fallen upon them.

1 Samuel

¹³ Then David crossed over to the other side and stood on top of the mountain at a distance; a large area was between them. ¹⁴ And David called to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Will you not answer, Abner?" Then Abner answered, "Who are you who calls to the king?" ¹⁵ So David addressed Abner, "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not protected your lord the king? For one of the people came to harm the king your lord. ¹⁶ This thing that you have done is not good. As the Lord lives, you all must die, because you did not guard your lord, the Lord's anointed. Now look and see where the king's spear and the jug of water that were at his head are."

¹⁷ Then Saul recognised David's voice and said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And David said, "It is my voice, my lord the king." ¹⁸ He also said, "Why is my lord pursuing his servant? For what have I done, or what evil is in my hand?" ¹⁹ Now then, please let my lord the king listen to the words of his servant. If the Lord has incited you against me, may He accept an offering; but if it is people, cursed are they before the Lord, for they have driven me out today so that I would have no share in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.' ²⁰ Therefore, do not let my blood fall to the ground away from the presence of the Lord, for the king of Israel has come out to search for a single flea, just as one hunts a partridge in the mountains."

²¹ Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will not harm you again, because my life was precious in your sight this day. Behold, I have played the fool and have made a terrible mistake." ²² David replied and said, "Behold, the spear of the king! Now have one of the young men come over and take it. ²³ And the Lord will repay each man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the Lord delivered you into my hands today, but I refused to reach out against the Lord's anointed. ²⁴ Now behold, just as your life was highly valued in my sight this day, so may my life be highly valued in the sight of the Lord, and may He rescue me from all distress." ²⁵ Then Saul said to David, "Blessed are you, my son David; you will both accomplish much and will certainly prevail." So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27 Then David said to himself, "Now I will perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than to escape to the land of the Philistines, so that Saul will despair of searching for me any longer within the borders of Israel, and I will escape from his hand." ² Thus, David departed with the six hundred men who accompanied him, to Achish, the son of Maach, king of Gath. ³ And David lived with Achish in Gath, he and his men, each with his household— David with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel. ⁴ Now when Saul was informed that David had fled to Gath, he no longer searched for him. ⁵ Then David said to Achish, "If now I have found favour in your sight, let them give me a place in one of the country towns, so that I may live there. For why should your servant live in the royal city with you?" ⁶ Achish then granted him Ziklag on that day; as a result, Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day. ⁷ Now the time that David lived in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

⁸ Now David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for they were the inhabitants of the land from ancient times, as you come to Shur, even as far as the land of Egypt. ⁹ And David attacked the land and did not leave a man or a woman alive, but took the sheep, the cattle, the donkeys, the camels, and the clothing. Then he returned and came to Achish. ¹⁰ Now Achish would say, "Where have you carried out a raid today?" And David would say, "Against the Negev of Judah," or "Against the Negev of the Jerahmeelites," or "Against the Negev of the Kenites." ¹¹ And David did not leave a man or a woman alive, to bring to Gath, saying, "Otherwise they will tell about us, saying, 'This is what David has done.'" So David practiced this behaviour all the time he lived in the country of the Philistines. ¹² So Achish trusted David, saying, "He has certainly made himself repulsive to his people Israel; therefore he will be my servant forever."

28 Now it came about in those days that the Philistines gathered their armed camps for war, to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, "Know for certain that you will go out with me in the army, you and your men." ² David said to Achish, "Very well, you shall know what your servant can do." So Achish said to David, "Very well, I will appoint you as my bodyguard for life."

1 Samuel

³ Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. And Saul had removed the mediums and spiritists from the land. ⁴ The Philistines gathered and set up camp in Shunem, while Saul assembled all Israel, and they encamped in Gilboa. ⁵ When Saul observed the Philistine camp, he was filled with fear and his heart trembled intensely. ⁶ So Saul inquired of the Lord, but the Lord did not answer him, either by dreams, or by Urim, or by prophets. ⁷ Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek out a woman who is a medium, so that I may visit her and seek her counsel." And his servants replied, "Behold, there is a woman who is a medium at En-dor." ⁸ So Saul disguised himself by putting on different clothes and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Consult a spirit for me, please, and bring up for me the one whom I shall name to you." ⁹ But the woman said to him, "Behold, you know what Saul has done, how he has eliminated the mediums and the spiritists from the land. Why then are you setting a trap for my life, to bring about my death?"

¹⁰ So Saul vowed to her by the Lord, saying, "As the Lord lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing." ¹¹ Then the woman asked, "Whom shall I summon for you?" And he replied, "Call up Samuel for me." ¹² When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out loudly; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!" ¹³ But the king said to her, "Do not be afraid; tell me what you see." And the woman said to Saul, "I see a divine being rising from the earth." ¹⁴ And he said to her, "What is his appearance?" And she said, "An old man is coming up, and he is wrapped in a robe." Then Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground and paid homage.

¹⁵ Then Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" And Saul answered, "I am greatly distressed; for the Philistines are waging war against me, and God has departed from me and no longer answers me, either by prophets or by dreams. Therefore I have called you, so that you may let me know what I should do."

¹⁶ Samuel said, "Why then do you ask me, since the Lord has left you and is now opposed to you?" ¹⁷ And the Lord has done just as He spoke through me; for the Lord has torn the kingdom from your hand and given it to your neighbour, to David. ¹⁸ Because you did not obey the voice of the Lord and did not execute His fierce wrath on Amalek, so the Lord has done this thing to you this day. ¹⁹ Furthermore, the Lord will also hand Israel along with you over to the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. Indeed, the Lord will hand over the army of Israel to the Philistines!"

²⁰ Then Saul immediately fell full length to the ground, and was very afraid because of Samuel's words. There was no strength in him, because he had eaten no food all day and all night. ²¹ Then the woman came to Saul and saw that he was terrified, and said to him, "Behold, your servant has obeyed you, and I have taken my life in my hand and have listened to your words which you spoke to me." ²² So now you too, please listen to the voice of your servant, and let me set a piece of bread before you, so that you may eat and have strength when you go on your way." ²³ But he refused, saying, "I will not eat." However, his servants, along with the woman, persuaded him, and he heeded them. So he got up from the ground and sat on the bed. ²⁴ Now the woman had a fattened calf in the house, and she quickly slaughtered it. And she took flour, kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it. ²⁵ She brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they got up and left that night.

29 Now the Philistines gathered all their armies to Aphek, while the Israelites were camped by the spring in Jezreel. ² And the governors of the Philistines were proceeding on by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men were proceeding in the rear with Achish. ³ Then the commanders of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" And Achish said to the commanders of the Philistines, "Is this not David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me now for days and years, and I have found no fault in him since the day he deserted to me to this day?" ⁴ But the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him, and the commanders of the Philistines said to him, "Make the man go back, so that he may return to his place where you have assigned him, and do not let him go down to battle with us, so that he does not become an adversary to us during the battle. For with what should this man make himself acceptable to his lord? Would it not be with the heads of these men? ⁵ Is this not David, of whom they sing in the dances, saying,

1 Samuel

‘Saul has slain his thousands, And David his tens of thousands?’

⁶ Then Achish called David and said to him, “As the Lord lives, you have been honest, and going out and coming in with me in the army is good in my sight, for I have not found evil in you from the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, you are not pleasing in the sight of the governors.” ⁷ So now return and go in peace, so that you do not displease the governors of the Philistines.” ⁸ But David said to Achish, “But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant from the day when I came before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?” ⁹ But Achish responded to David, “I know that you are as pleasing to me as an angel of God; however, the commanders of the Philistines have said, ‘He must not go up with us to the battle.’” ¹⁰ Now then, rise early in the morning with the servants of your lord who have come with you; and when you have arisen early in the morning and it becomes light, leave.” ¹¹ So David and his men rose early in the morning to depart and return to the land of the Philistines. Meanwhile, the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

30 When David and his men arrived at Ziklag on the third day, they discovered that the Amalekites had raided the Negev and Ziklag, overthrowing Ziklag and setting it ablaze. ² And they took captive the women and all who were in it, both small and great, without killing anyone, and drove them off and went their way. ³ Upon reaching the city, David and his men found it burned, and realised their wives, sons, and daughters had been taken captive. ⁴ Then David and the people who were with him raised their voices and wept until they had no strength left to weep. ⁵ David’s two wives had also been taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail, the widow of Nabal the Carmelite. ⁶ David was deeply troubled because the people spoke of stoning him, for they were all embittered, each one because of his sons and daughters. But David found strength in the Lord his God.

⁷ David then spoke to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, “Please bring me the ephod.” So Abiathar brought the ephod to David. ⁸ David sought guidance from the Lord, asking, “Shall I pursue this band of raiders? Will I overtake them?” And He replied, “Pursue them, for you will surely overtake them and rescue everyone.” ⁹ So David set out with the six hundred men who were with him, and they reached the brook Besor, where those who stayed behind remained. ¹⁰ David continued the pursuit with four hundred men, while two hundred, who were too exhausted to cross the brook Besor, stayed behind.

¹¹ They came across an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David, giving him bread to eat and water to drink. ¹² They provided him with a slice of fig cake and two clusters of raisins, and after he ate, his spirit revived, for he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights. ¹³ David asked him, “To whom do you belong, and where are you from?” He replied, “I am a young Egyptian, a servant of an Amalekite, and my master left me behind when I fell ill three days ago. ¹⁴ We carried out a raid on the Negev of the Cherethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the Negev of Caleb, and we burned Ziklag with fire.” ¹⁵ Then David said to him, “Will you lead me to this band?” And he said, “Swear to me by God that you will not kill me or hand me over to my master, and I will lead you to this band.”

¹⁶ When he had led him down, they found them spread out over all the land, eating, drinking, and celebrating, because of all the great plunder they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah. ¹⁷ David attacked them from twilight until the evening of the next day; and not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled. ¹⁸ David recovered everything the Amalekites had taken, including rescuing his two wives. ¹⁹ And nothing of theirs was missing, whether small or great, sons or daughters, plunder or anything that they had taken for themselves; David brought everything back. ²⁰ So David captured all the sheep and the cattle which the people drove ahead of the other livestock, and they said, “This is David’s plunder.”

²¹ When David came to the two hundred men who were too exhausted to follow him and had also been left at the brook Besor, they came out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him. Then David approached the people and greeted them. ²² Then all the wicked and useless men among those who went with David said, "Since they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoils that we have recovered, except to each man his wife and his children, so that they may lead them away and leave." ²³ But David said, "You must not do so, my brothers, with what the Lord has given us, who has protected us and handed over to us the band that came against us. ²⁴ And who will listen to you in this matter? For as is the share of the one who goes down to the battle, so shall be the share of the one who stays with the baggage; they shall share alike."

1 Samuel

²⁵ From that day onwards, it was established as a statute and an ordinance for Israel.

²⁶ Upon returning to Ziklag, David sent some of the spoils to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, "Here is a gift for you from the spoils of the enemies of the Lord: ²⁷ to those in Bethel, Ramoth of the Negev, and Jattir; ²⁸ to those in Aroer, Siphmoth, and Eshtemoa; ²⁹ to those in Racal, and to those in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those in the cities of the Kenites; ³⁰ to those in Hormah, Bor-ashan, and Athach; ³¹ and to those in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men walked."

31 The Philistines engaged in battle with Israel, and the men of Israel retreated from the Philistines and were slain on Mount Gilboa. ² And the Philistines overtook Saul and his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul. ³ The battle pressed hard against Saul, and the archers located him; and he was severely wounded by them. ⁴ Then Saul said to his armour-bearer, "Draw your sword and pierce me with it, otherwise these uncircumcised men will come and pierce me and abuse me." But his armour-bearer was unwilling, because he was very afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell on it. ⁵ When his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died with him. ⁶ So Saul died with his three sons, his armour-bearer, and all his men on that day together.

⁷ When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled; then the Philistines came and settled in them. ⁸ On the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹ They removed his head and stripped off his weapons, and sent them throughout the land of the Philistines, to announce the news to the house of their idols and to the people. ¹⁰ Then they put his weapons in the temple of Ashtaroth, and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan.

¹¹ When the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead learned about what the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹² all the valiant men set out and walked all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and they came to Jabesh and burned them there. ¹³ And they took their bones and laid them to rest under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and observed a fast for seven days.

2 Samuel

1 After the death of Saul, when David had returned from defeating the Amalekites, he stayed in Ziklag for two days. ² On the third day, a man came from Saul's camp, his clothes torn and dust on his head. When he approached David, he fell to the ground in respect. ³ David asked him, "Where have you come from?" He answered, "I have escaped from the Israelite camp." ⁴ David said, "What happened? Tell me." He replied, "The troops fled from the battle; many fell and died. Saul and his son Jonathan are dead." ⁵ Then David asked the young man who brought him the report, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?" ⁶ The young man answered, "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa, and there was Saul, leaning on his spear, with the chariots and horsemen closing in on him. ⁷ When he turned and saw me, he called to me, and I said, 'Here I am.' ⁸ He inquired, 'Who are you?' I replied, 'I am an Amalekite.' ⁹ Then he said, 'Stand over me and finish me off, for I am in agony, yet still alive.' ¹⁰ So I stood over him and killed him, because I knew that once he had fallen, he would not survive. Then I took the crown that was on his head and the armband from his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord."

¹¹ Then David tore his clothes, and all the men with him did the same. ¹² They mourned, wept, and fasted until evening for Saul and his son Jonathan, and for the people of the Lord and the nation of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword. ¹³ David then asked the young man who had brought the report, "Where are you from?" He answered, "I am the son of a foreigner, an Amalekite." ¹⁴ David said to him, "How is it that you were not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy the Lord's anointed?" ¹⁵ Then David called for one of his men and said, "Go and strike him down." So he struck him, and the man died. ¹⁶ David said to him, "Your blood is on your own head. Your own mouth testified against you when you said, 'I killed the Lord's anointed.'"

¹⁷ Then David composed this lament for Saul and his son Jonathan, ¹⁸ and he ordered that the people of Judah be taught this song of the bow — it is written in the Book of Jashar:

¹⁹ Your splendour, O Israel, lies slain upon your heights. How the mighty have fallen! ²⁰ Do not proclaim it in Gath, Do not declare it in the streets of Ashkelon, Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph. ²¹ Mountains of Gilboa, May no dew or rain fall upon you, Nor fields yielding offerings, For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, The shield of Saul—no longer anointed with oil. ²² From the blood of the slain, From the flesh of the mighty, The bow of Jonathan did not turn back, Nor did the sword of Saul return empty. ²³ Saul and Jonathan—loved and admired in life, And not divided in death. They were swifter than eagles, They were stronger than lions. ²⁴ O daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, Who clothed you in scarlet and finery, Who adorned your garments with ornaments of gold. ²⁵ How the mighty have fallen in battle! Jonathan lies, his body lifeless upon your heights. ²⁶ I grieve for you, Jonathan my brother; You were very dear to me. Your love for me was more wonderful Than the love of women. ²⁷ How the mighty have fallen! The weapons of war are lost!

2 Afterward, David sought guidance from the Lord, asking, "Should I go up to one of the cities of Judah?" And the Lord replied, "Go up." David then asked, "To which city shall I go?" And He answered, "To Hebron." ² So David went up there, accompanied by his two wives: Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, who had been the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. ³ David also led his men who were with him, each with his household, and they settled in the towns of Hebron. ⁴ Then the men of Judah came and anointed David as king over the house of Judah there. And they informed David, saying, "It was the men of Jabesh-gilead who buried Saul." ⁵ So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead and said to them, "May you be blessed by the Lord for showing this kindness to Saul your lord and for burying him. ⁶ And now may the Lord show kindness and truth to you, and I also will show you this goodness because you have done this thing. ⁷ Now then, let your hands be strong and be valiant, for Saul your lord is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

⁸ However, Abner the son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, had taken Ish-bosheth, the son of Saul, and brought him to Mahanaim. ⁹ And he made him king over Gilead, over the Ashurites, over Jezreel, over Ephraim, over Benjamin, even over all Israel. ¹⁰ Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he reigned for two years. Yet the house of Judah followed David. ¹¹ David reigned in Hebron over the house of Judah for seven years and six months.

2 Samuel

¹² Abner, the son of Ner, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon with the servants of Ish-bosheth, the son of Saul. ¹³ And Joab, the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David also went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, one group on one side of the pool and the other group on the other side. ¹⁴ Then Abner said to Joab, "Now let the young men arise and compete before us." And Joab said, "Let them arise." ¹⁵ So they got up and came forward by count: twelve for Benjamin and Ish-bosheth, the son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David. ¹⁶ And each one seized his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon. ¹⁷ And the battle became very severe that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated before the servants of David.

¹⁸ Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was as swift-footed as one of the gazelles in the field. ¹⁹ And Asahel pursued Abner and did not turn to the right or to the left from following him. ²⁰ Then Abner turned around and said, "Is that you, Asahel?" And he answered, "It is I." ²¹ So Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right or to your left, and take hold of one of the young men for yourself, and take his armour." But Asahel would not turn aside from following him. ²² So Abner repeated again to Asahel, "Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I show my face to your brother Joab?" ²³ However, he refused to turn aside; so Abner struck him in the belly with the butt end of the spear, so that the spear came out at his back. And he fell there and died on the spot. And it happened that everyone who came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died stood still.

²⁴ But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner, and the sun was going down when they came to the hill of Ammah, which is in front of Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. ²⁵ And the sons of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became one band, and they stood on the top of a hill. ²⁶ Then Abner called to Joab and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the end? How long will you refrain from telling the people to stop pursuing their kinsmen?" ²⁷ Joab said, "As God lives, if you had not spoken, then the people would have only withdrawn in the morning, each from pursuing his brother." ²⁸ So Joab blew the trumpet, and all the people halted and no longer pursued Israel, nor did they continue to fight.

²⁹ Then Abner and his men travelled through the Arabah all that night, crossed the Jordan, walked all morning, and came to Mahanaim. ³⁰ Then Joab returned from pursuing Abner, and when he had gathered all the people, nineteen of David's servants were missing, besides Asahel. ³¹ But David's servants had struck down many of Benjamin and Abner's men, resulting in the death of three hundred and sixty men. ³² And they picked up Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb, which was in Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men travelled all night until the day dawned at Hebron.

3 Now the war between the house of Saul and the house of David was long; and David grew stronger and stronger, but the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker. ² David had sons born to him in Hebron: his firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelite; ³ and his second, Chileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur; ⁴ and the fourth, Adonijah, son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah, son of Abital; ⁵ and the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah, David's wife. These children were born to David in Hebron.

⁶ During the time of conflict between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was gaining influence in the house of Saul. ⁷ Saul had a concubine named Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah; and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, "Why have you been with my father's concubine?" ⁸ Then Abner was very angry over the words of Ish-bosheth and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show kindness to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers and to his friends, and have not handed you over to David; yet you accuse me today of wrongdoing with a woman?" ⁹ May God do so to Abner, and more also, if as the Lord has sworn to David, I do not do so for him: ¹⁰ to shift the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to establish the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Beersheba!" ¹¹ And Ish-bosheth could no longer answer Abner with a single word, because he was afraid of him.

2 Samuel

¹² Then Abner sent messengers to David in his place, saying, "To whom does the land belong? Make your covenant with me, and behold, my hand shall be with you to bring all Israel over to you." ¹³ So David said, "Good, I will make a covenant with you. But I demand one thing from you: you shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see me." ¹⁴ So David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, saying, "Return my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines." ¹⁵ So Ish-bosheth sent and took her from her husband, from Paltiel the son of Laish. ¹⁶ But her husband went with her, weeping as he went, following her as far as Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, "Go, return." So he returned.

¹⁷ Abner spoke with the elders of Israel, saying, "In times past you sought for David to be king over you.

¹⁸ Now then, act upon it! For the Lord has spoken of David, saying, 'By the hand of My servant David I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from all their enemies.'" ¹⁹ Abner also spoke in the hearing of Benjamin; and in addition, Abner went to speak to David in Hebron everything that was good in the sight of Israel and in the sight of all the house of Benjamin. ²⁰ Then Abner and twenty men with him came to David at Hebron. And David prepared a feast for Abner and the men who were with him. ²¹ Abner said to David, "Let me arise and go and gather all Israel to my lord the king, so that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may be king over all that your soul desires." So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

²² And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought much plunder with them; but Abner was not with David in Hebron, for David had sent him away, and he had gone in peace. ²³ When Joab and all the army that was with him arrived, they informed Joab, saying, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace." ²⁴ Then Joab approached the king and asked, "What have you done? Abner came to you. Why then have you sent him away, and he has already departed?" ²⁵ You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you and to learn of your movements and to know everything that you do."

²⁶ When Joab left David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah; but David did not know it. ²⁷ So when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the middle of the gate to speak with him privately, and there he struck him in the stomach, so he died as a result of the blood of Asahel his brother.

²⁸ Afterward, when David heard about it, he said, "I and my kingdom are innocent before the Lord forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner. ²⁹ May the consequences fall on Joab and all his father's house, and may there not fail from the house of Joab one who has a discharge, or who is afflicted with leprosy, or who takes hold of a distaff, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks bread." ³⁰ Thus, Joab and Abishai his brother were responsible for Abner's death, because he had killed their brother Asahel during the battle at Gibeon.

³¹ Then David instructed Joab and all the people who were with him, "Tear your clothes and put on sackcloth, and mourn before Abner." And King David walked behind the bier. ³² They laid Abner to rest in Hebron; and the king raised his voice and wept at Abner's grave, and all the people wept. ³³ And the king sang a song of mourning for Abner and said,

"Should Abner meet his end as a fool does? ³⁴ Your hands were not bound, Nor your feet put in bronze shackles; As one falls before the wicked, you have fallen." And all the people wept again over him.

³⁵ Then all the people came to provide food for David in his distress, but David vowed, saying, "May God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun goes down."

³⁶ All the people took note of it, and it pleased them, just as everything the king did was pleasing to all the people. ³⁷ So all the people and all Israel understood on that day that it had not been the will of the king to put Abner the son of Ner to death. ³⁸ Then the king said to his servants, "Are you not aware that a leader and a great man has fallen in Israel this day?" ³⁹ And I am weak today, though anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too harsh for me. May the Lord repay the evildoer according to his evil."

2 Samuel

4 Now when Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, heard that Abner had died in Hebron, his courage failed, and all Israel was disturbed. ² And Saul's son had two men who were commanders of raiding bands; the name of the one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the sons of Benjamin (for Beeroth is also considered part of Benjamin, ³ and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have lived there as strangers to this day). ⁴ Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was crippled in both feet. He was five years old when the news of Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel, and his nurse picked him up and fled. But it happened that in her hurry to flee, he fell and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.

⁵ So the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went and came to the house of Ish-bosheth in the heat of the day, while he was lying on his bed at noon. ⁶ And they entered the house as if to get wheat, and they struck him in the stomach; and Rechab and his brother Baanah escaped. ⁷ Now when they came into the house, as he was lying on his bed in his bedroom, they struck and killed him and beheaded him. And they took his head and travelled by way of the Arabah all night. ⁸ Then they brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the king, "Behold, the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life; the Lord has given my lord the king vengeance this day on Saul and his descendants."

⁹ But David replied to Rechab and Baanah his brother, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, "As the Lord lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress, ¹⁰ when one informed me, saying, 'Behold, Saul is dead,' thinking he was bringing good news, I seized him and killed him in Ziklag—this was the reward I gave him for his news. ¹¹ How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous man in his own house on his bed, shall I not now require his blood from your hands and eliminate you from the earth?" ¹² Then on David's order the young men executed them and severed their hands and feet, and displayed them beside the pool in Hebron. However, they took the head of Ish-bosheth and laid it to rest in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

5 Then all the tribes of Israel gathered to David at Hebron and said, "Behold, we are of your own kin and flesh. ² In times past, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in. And the Lord said to you, 'You shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be a ruler over Israel.'" ³ So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them there before the Lord; and they anointed David king over Israel. ⁴ David was thirty years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for forty years. ⁵ He reigned in Hebron over Judah for seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned for thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

⁶ Now the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land. And they said to David, "You shall not come in here, but the blind and the lame will turn you away," thinking, "David cannot enter here." ⁷ Yet, David captured the stronghold of Zion, which is known as the city of David. ⁸ And David said on that day, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites must strike through the water tunnel to reach the lame and the blind, who are despised by David's soul." Therefore they say, "The blind and the lame shall not come into the house." ⁹ So David lived in the stronghold and called it the city of David. And he built all around from the Millo and inward. ¹⁰ And David became greater and greater, for the Lord God of armies was with him.

¹¹ Hiram, king of Tyre, sent messengers to David with cedar trees, along with carpenters and stonemasons; and they constructed a house for David. ¹² And David realised that the Lord had established him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel. ¹³ Meanwhile, David took additional concubines and wives from Jerusalem after he came from Hebron, and more sons and daughters were born to him. ¹⁴ The children born to him in Jerusalem were: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ¹⁵ Ibhar, and Elishua, Nepheg, and Japhia, ¹⁶ and Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

¹⁷ When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard about it and went down to the stronghold. ¹⁸ The Philistines advanced and spread throughout the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁹ So David inquired of the Lord, asking, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?" And the Lord replied to David, "Go up, for I will surely deliver the Philistines into your hand." ²⁰ So David went to Baal-perazim and defeated them there; and he declared, "The Lord has broken through my enemies before me like a breakthrough of waters." Therefore, he named that place Baal-perazim. ²¹ The Philistines left their idols there, so David and his men took them away.

2 Samuel

²² The Philistines came up once again and spread throughout the valley of Rephaim. ²³ So David inquired of the Lord, and He said, "You shall not go directly up; circle around behind them and come at them in front of the balsam trees. ²⁴ And it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then act promptly, for the Lord will have gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines." ²⁵ Then David did so, just as the Lord had commanded him, and he struck and defeated the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

6 David once more assembled all the selected men of Israel, thirty thousand. ² And David arose and went with all the people who were with him to Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the Name, the name of the Lord of armies, who is enthroned above the cherubim. ³ And they mounted the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were leading the new cart. ⁴ Thus they transported the ark of God from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill, with Ahio walking in front of the ark. ⁵ At the same time, David and all the house of Israel were celebrating before the Lord with various instruments made of juniper wood, along with lyres, harps, tambourines, castanets, and cymbals.

⁶ But as they reached the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah extended his hand toward the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen had stumbled. ⁷ And the Lord's anger was kindled against Uzzah, and God struck him there for his irreverence; and he died there beside the ark of God. ⁸ Then David was displeased because of the Lord's outburst against Uzzah, and that place has been called Perez-uzzah to this day. ⁹ David was filled with fear of the Lord that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the Lord come to me?" ¹⁰ And David was unwilling to move the ark of the Lord to himself in the city of David; but David took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. ¹¹ So the ark of the Lord remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite for three months, and the Lord blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

¹² Now it was reported to King David, saying, "The Lord has blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, on account of the ark of God." So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with joy. ¹³ And so it was, that when those carrying the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened steer. ¹⁴ And David was dancing before the Lord with all his strength, and he was wearing a linen ephod. ¹⁵ So David and all the house of Israel were bringing up the ark of the Lord with joyful shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.

¹⁶ Then it happened, as the ark of the Lord was coming into the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked down through the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart. ¹⁷ Thus they placed the ark of the Lord in its designated spot inside the tent which David had set up for it, and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Lord. ¹⁸ When David had completed the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of armies. ¹⁹ And he distributed to all the people, to all the multitude of Israel, both men and women, a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a raisin cake to each one. Then all the people departed, each to his house.

²⁰ But when David returned to bless his own household, Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, "How the king of Israel distinguished himself today! He uncovered himself today in the sight of his servants' female slaves, as one of the foolish ones shamelessly uncovers himself!" ²¹ But David said to Michal, "It was before the Lord, who chose me above your father and above all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the Lord, over Israel; therefore I will celebrate before the Lord! ²² And I might demean myself even more than this, and be humbled in my own eyes; but with the female slaves of whom you spoke, with them I shall be held in honour." ²³ And Michal, the daughter of Saul, remained childless throughout her life.

2 Samuel

7 Once the king was settled in his house, and the Lord had granted him peace from all his enemies on every side, ² the king said to Nathan the prophet, “See now, I live in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells within tent curtains.” ³ Nathan said to the king, “Go, do all that is in your heart, for the Lord is with you.”

⁴ However, that night, the word of the Lord came to Nathan, saying, ⁵ “Go and tell My servant David, ‘This is what the Lord says: Is it you who should build Me a house to dwell in?’ ⁶ For I have not dwelt in a house since the day I brought up the sons of Israel from Egypt, even to this day; but I have been moving about in a tent, that is, a dwelling place. ⁷ Wherever I have gone with all the sons of Israel, did I ever speak a word with one of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’”

⁸ Therefore, you shall say to My servant David: ‘This is what the Lord of hosts says: I took you from the pasture, from tending the sheep, to be ruler over My people Israel. ⁹ And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have eliminated all your enemies from you; and I will make your name great, like the names of the great men who are on the earth. ¹⁰ And I will establish a place for My people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place and not be disturbed again, nor will the wicked afflict them any more as previously, ¹¹ from the time I appointed judges over My people Israel; and I will give you peace from all your enemies. The Lord also declares to you that He will establish a house for you. ¹² When your days are complete and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your descendant after you, who will come from you, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹³ He will construct a house for My name, and I will secure the throne of his kingdom for all time. ¹⁴ I will be a father to him and he will be a son to Me; when he does wrong, I will discipline him with a rod of men and with lashes of the sons of mankind, ¹⁵ but My favour shall not depart from him, as I took it away from Saul, whom I removed from you. ¹⁶ Your house and your kingdom shall stand firm before Me perpetually; your throne shall be secured for all time.’” ¹⁷ Nathan relayed all these words and this vision to David.

¹⁸ Then King David went in and sat before the Lord, and he said, “Who am I, Lord God, and what is my house, that You have brought me this far?” ¹⁹ Yet this was a small thing in Your eyes, Lord God, for You have spoken also of the house of Your servant regarding the distant future. And this is the custom of humanity, Lord God. ²⁰ Moreover, what more can David say to You? For You know Your servant, Lord God! ²¹ For the sake of Your promise, and according to Your own heart, You have performed all this greatness, to let Your servant understand. ²² Therefore, You are great, Lord God; for there is no one like You, and there is no God except You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. ²³ And who is like Your people, Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, and to make a name for Himself, and to do a great thing for You—awesome things for Your land, because of Your people whom You have redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, from other nations and their gods? ²⁴ For You have established Your people Israel as Your own people forever, and You, Lord, have become their God.

²⁵ Now Lord God, the word that You have spoken about Your servant and his house, confirm it forever, and do just as You have spoken, ²⁶ so that Your name may be great forever, by declaring, ‘The Lord of hosts is God over Israel’; and may the house of Your servant David be established before You. ²⁷ For You, Lord of hosts, God of Israel, have revealed to Your servant, saying, ‘I will build you a house’; therefore Your servant has found courage to pray this prayer to You. ²⁸ Now then, Lord God, You are God, and Your words are truth, and You have pledged this good thing to Your servant. ²⁹ And now, may it please You to bless the house of Your servant, so that it may endure perpetually before You. For You, Lord God, have spoken; and with Your blessing may the house of Your servant be blessed for all time.”

8 Following these events, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them; and David took control of the chief city from the hand of the Philistines. ² And he defeated Moab, and measured them with a line, making them lie down on the ground; he measured two lines to be put to death, and one full line to keep alive. So the Moabites became servants to David, bringing tribute. ³ David also defeated Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to regain his power at the River

2 Samuel

Euphrates. ⁴ David captured from him seventeen hundred horsemen and twenty thousand foot soldiers; and David hamstringed all the chariot horses, but left enough of them for a hundred chariots. ⁵ When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand men of the Arameans. ⁶ Then David placed garrisons among the Arameans of Damascus, and the Arameans became servants to David, bringing tribute. And the Lord helped David wherever he went. ⁷ David took the gold shields carried by the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸ From Betah and Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David acquired a very large amount of bronze.

⁹ Now when Toi king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer, ¹⁰ Toi sent Joram his son to King David to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Toi); and Joram brought articles of silver, gold, and bronze. ¹¹ King David dedicated these to the Lord, along with the silver and gold he had set apart from all the nations he had subdued: ¹² from Aram, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, Amalek, and from the plunder of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah. ¹³ Thus David made a name for himself, when he returned from defeating eighteen thousand Arameans in the Valley of Salt. ¹⁴ He placed garrisons in Edom; in all Edom he placed garrisons, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And the Lord helped David wherever he went.

¹⁵ David reigned over all Israel; and he administered justice and righteousness for all his people. ¹⁶ Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was secretary. ¹⁷ Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar served as priests, and Seraiah was the scribe. ¹⁸ Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and David's sons were chief officials.

9 Then David said, "Is there still anyone left of the house of Saul, so that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?" ² There was a servant from Saul's household named Ziba, who was brought before David. The king asked him, "Are you Ziba?" And he replied, "I am your servant." ³ Then the king said, "Is there no one remaining from the house of Saul to whom I may show the kindness of God?" And Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan, who is crippled in both feet." ⁴ The king inquired, "Where is he?" And Ziba replied to the king, "He is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar." ⁵ Then King David sent messengers and brought him from the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar. ⁶ Mephibosheth, Jonathan's son and Saul's grandson, came to David and bowed down, prostrating himself. And David said, "Mephibosheth!" And he answered, "Here is your servant!" ⁷ David said to him, "Do not be afraid, for I will assuredly show kindness to you for the sake of your father Jonathan, and I will restore to you all the land of your grandfather Saul; and you yourself shall eat at my table regularly." ⁸ And he prostrated himself and said, "What is your servant, that you should regard a dead dog like me?"

⁹ The king then called for Ziba, Saul's servant, and told him, "I have given to your master's grandson all that belonged to Saul and his family." ¹⁰ You, your sons, and your servants shall work the land for him, and bring in the harvest so that your master's grandson may have food; however, Mephibosheth, your master's grandson, shall eat at my table regularly." Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. ¹¹ Then Ziba said to the king, "In accordance with all that my lord the king commands his servant, so your servant will do." So Mephibosheth ate at David's table, like one of the king's sons. ¹² Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica. And all who lived in Ziba's household were servants to Mephibosheth. ¹³ So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, because he ate at the king's table regularly. And he was lame in both feet.

10 Now it happened afterward that the king of the Ammonites died, and Hanun his son became king in his place. ² Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent his servants to console him concerning his father. But when David's servants came to the land of the Ammonites, ³ the princes of the Ammonites said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think that David is honouring your father because he has sent consolers to you? Has David not sent his servants to you in order to explore the city, to spy it out and overthrow it?" ⁴ So Hanun seized David's servants, shaved off half of their beards, cut their garments at the waist, and sent them away. ⁵ When it was reported to David, he sent messengers to meet them, for the men were deeply humiliated. And the king said, “Stay in Jericho until your beards grow back, and then return.”

2 Samuel

⁶ When the Ammonites saw that they had become odious to David, the Ammonites sent and hired the Arameans of Beth-rehob and the Arameans of Zobah, twenty thousand foot soldiers, and the king of Maacah with a thousand men, and the men of Tob with twelve thousand men. ⁷ Upon learning of this, David dispatched Joab and the entire army, the valiant warriors. ⁸ The Ammonites came out and lined up for battle at the entrance of the city, while the Arameans of Zobah and Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the field. ⁹ Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him in front and behind, he selected some of the best men of Israel and lined them up against the Arameans. ¹⁰ Then he placed the rest of the people under the command of his brother Abishai, and he lined them up against the Ammonites. ¹¹ And he said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will come to help you. ¹² Be strong, and let us show ourselves courageous for the sake of our people and the cities of our God; and may the Lord do what is good in His sight.” ¹³ So Joab and the people who were with him moved forward to engage the Arameans in battle, and they retreated from him. ¹⁴ When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they also fled from Abishai and entered the city. Then Joab returned from fighting against the Ammonites and came to Jerusalem.

¹⁵ When the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they regrouped themselves. ¹⁶ And Hadadezer sent word and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the Euphrates River, and they came to Helam; and Shobach the commander of Hadadezer’s army led them. ¹⁷ When it was reported to David, he gathered all Israel together, crossed the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Arameans lined up to confront David and fought against him. ¹⁸ But the Arameans fled from Israel, and David killed seven hundred charioteers of the Arameans and forty thousand horsemen, and struck down Shobach the commander of their army, and he died there. ¹⁹ When all the kings who were servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites anymore.

11 Then it happened in the spring, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel, and they destroyed the sons of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed behind in Jerusalem. ² One evening, David rose from his bed and strolled on the roof of the king’s house. From there, he saw a woman bathing, and she was very beautiful. ³ David sent servants to inquire about the woman. And someone said, “Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?” ⁴ Then David sent messengers and took her, and when she came to him, he slept with her —now she had purified herself from her uncleanness— then she returned to her house. ⁵ And the woman conceived; so she sent word to David, and said, “I am pregnant.”

⁶ David then sent a message to Joab, saying, “Send Uriah the Hittite to me.” So Joab sent Uriah to David. ⁷ When Uriah came to him, David asked about Joab’s well-being and the people’s well-being and the state of the war. ⁸ David said to Uriah, “Go down to your house, and refresh yourself.” So Uriah left the king’s house, and a gift from the king followed him. ⁹ However, Uriah slept at the entrance of the king’s house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house. ¹⁰ When they informed David, saying, “Uriah did not go down to his house,” David said to Uriah, “Have you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?” ¹¹ And Uriah said to David, “The ark and Israel and Judah are staying in temporary shelters, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field. Shall I then go to my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? By your life and the life of your soul, I will not do this thing.” ¹² Then David said to Uriah, “Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will send you back.” So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next. ¹³ Now David summoned him, and he ate and drank before him, and he made him drunk. In the evening he went out to lie on his bed with his lord's servants, but he did not go down to his house.

2 Samuel

¹⁴ In the morning, David gave a letter to Joab who sent it with Uriah. ¹⁵ He had written in the letter, saying, "Place Uriah on the front line of the fiercest battle, and pull back from him, so that he may be struck and die." ¹⁶ So it was as Joab kept watch on the city, he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew there were valiant men. ¹⁷ The men of the city went out and fought against Joab, and some of the people among David's servants fell; Uriah the Hittite also died. ¹⁸ Then Joab sent word and reported to David all the events of the war. ¹⁹ He commanded the messenger, saying, "When you have finished reporting all the events of the war to the king, ²⁰ and if the king's anger arises and he says to you, 'Why did you approach the city so closely to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?' ²¹ Who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did a woman not throw an upper millstone on him from the wall so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' —then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.'"

²² So the messenger departed and came and told David everything that Joab had sent him to report. ²³ And the messenger said to David, "The men gained the upper hand against us and came out to us in the field, but we drove them back to the entrance of the gate. ²⁴ Then the archers shot at your servants from the wall; some of the king's servants died, and your servant Uriah the Hittite also died." ²⁵ Then David said to the messenger, "This is what you shall say to Joab: 'Do not let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another; strengthen your battle against the city and overthrow it; and encourage him.'"

²⁶ Now when the wife of Uriah heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for her husband. ²⁷ When the time of mourning was over, David sent servants and brought her to his house, and she became his wife; then she bore him a son. But the thing that David had done was evil in the sight of the Lord.

12 Then the Lord sent Nathan to David. And he came to him and said, "There were two men in a city, the one rich and the other poor. ² The wealthy man possessed numerous flocks and herds. ³ But the poor man had nothing at all except one little ewe lamb which he bought and nurtured; and it grew up together with him and his children. It would eat scraps from him, and drink from his cup, and lie in his arms, and was like a daughter to him. ⁴ Now a visitor came to the rich man, and he could not bring himself to take any animal from his own flock or herd to prepare for the traveller who had come to him; so he took the poor man's ewe lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him." ⁵ Then David was filled with intense anger against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the Lord lives, the man who has done this surely deserves to die! ⁶ So he must make restitution for the lamb four times over, because he did this thing and had no compassion." ⁷ Nathan then said to David, "You are the man! This is what the Lord, the God of Israel says: 'It is I who anointed you as king over Israel, and it is I who rescued you from the hand of Saul. ⁸ I also entrusted you with your master's house and his wives, and I gave you the house of Israel and Judah; and if that had been insufficient, I would have added to you many more blessings like these! ⁹ Why have you despised the word of the Lord, by doing evil in His sight? You have struck and killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, you have taken his wife as your wife, and you have killed him with the sword of the sons of Ammon. ¹⁰ Now therefore, the sword shall never leave your house, because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.' ¹¹ This is what the Lord says: 'Behold, I am going to bring adversity upon you from your own household; I will even take your wives before your eyes and give them to your companion, and he will lie with your wives in broad daylight. ¹² Indeed, you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, and in the open.'"

¹³ Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord." And Nathan said to David, "The Lord has also pardoned your sin; you shall not die. ¹⁴ However, since by this deed you have shown utter disrespect for the Lord, the child that is born to you certainly shall die." ¹⁵ Then Nathan went to his house. The Lord struck the child that Uriah's widow bore to David, so that he was very sick. ¹⁶ David therefore pleaded with God for the child; and David fasted and went and lay on the ground all night. ¹⁷ The elders of his household stood beside him to help him rise from the ground, but he was unwilling and would not eat food with them. ¹⁸ Then it happened on the seventh day that the child died. But David's servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "Behold, while the child was still alive, we spoke to him and he did not listen to our voice; how then can we tell him that the child is dead, since he might do himself harm?" ¹⁹ But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, he perceived that the child was dead; so David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" And they said, "He is dead." ²⁰ So David got up from the ground, washed, anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he came into the house of the Lord and worshipped. Then he came to his own house, and when he requested, they served him food and he ate. ²¹ Then his servants said to him, "What is this that you have done? While the child was alive, you fasted and wept; but when the child passed away, you rose and ate food." ²² He said, "While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; for I thought, 'Who knows, the Lord may be gracious to me, and the child may live.' ²³ But now that he has passed away, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me."

2 Samuel

²⁴ Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba, and went to her and lay with her; she gave birth to a son, whom he named Solomon. Now the Lord loved him, ²⁵ and He sent word through Nathan the prophet, and he named him Jedidiah, for the Lord's sake.

²⁶ At that time, Joab engaged in battle against Rabbah of the Ammonites and seized the royal city.

²⁷ Then Joab sent messengers to David and said, "I have fought against Rabbah, and I have even captured the city of waters. ²⁸ Now then, gather the rest of the people together, and camp against the city and capture it, otherwise I will capture the city myself, and it will be named after me." ²⁹ So David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah, fought against the city, and captured it. ³⁰ Then he took the crown of their king from his head; and its weight was a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone, and it was placed on David's head. And he brought out the spoils of the city in great amounts. ³¹ He also brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws, sharp iron tools, and axes, and sent them to the brick kilns. And he did the same to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

13 Now it happened afterward that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar, and Amnon the son of David loved her. ² Amnon was so frustrated because of his sister Tamar that he made himself ill, for she was a virgin, and it seemed difficult to Amnon to do anything to her. ³ Amnon had a companion named Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother; and Jonadab was known for his cunning. ⁴ He said to him, "Why are you, the king's son, so depressed morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" Then Amnon said to him, "I am in love with Tamar, the sister of my brother Absalom." ⁵ Jonadab then said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill, and when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me some food to eat, and let her prepare the food in my sight, so that I may see it and eat from her hand.'" ⁶ So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill, and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, so that I may eat from her hand." ⁷ Then David sent word to the house of Tamar, saying, "Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him." ⁸ So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, where he was lying down. She took dough, kneaded it, made cakes in his presence, and baked them. ⁹ Then she took the pan and dished them out before him, but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, "Have everyone leave me." So everyone left him. ¹⁰ Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom, so that I may eat from your hand." So Tamar took the cakes which she had made and brought them into the bedroom to her brother Amnon. ¹¹ When she brought them to him to eat, he seized her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister." ¹² But she answered him, "No, my brother! Do not violate me, for such a thing is not done in Israel; do not do this disgraceful sin! ¹³ As for me, where could I bear my shame? And as for you, you will be like one of the fools in Israel. Now then, please speak to the king, for he will not refuse you." ¹⁴ However, he would not listen to her; since he was stronger than she, he overpowered her and lay with her. ¹⁵ Then Amnon hated her with a very great hatred; for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. So Amnon said to her, "Get up, go away!" ¹⁶ But she said to him, "No, for this wrong in sending me away is even greater than what you have already done to me!" Yet he would not listen to her.¹⁷ Then he called his young man who attended him and said, "Now remove this woman from my presence, and lock the door behind her!"¹⁸ Now she was wearing a long-sleeved garment, for this is what the king's virgin daughters wore previously. So his attendant took her out and locked the door behind her.¹⁹ Then Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the long-sleeved garment that was on her, and she put her hand on her head and went away, crying aloud as she went.²⁰ And her brother Absalom said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now, keep silent, my sister; he is your brother. Do not take this matter to heart." So Tamar stayed and lived in her brother Absalom's house, desolate.

2 Samuel

²¹ When King David heard about all these matters, he was filled with anger.²² Absalom did not speak with Amnon either good or bad; for Absalom harboured hatred towards Amnon because he had wronged his sister Tamar.

²³ Now it came about after two full years, that Absalom had shearers in Baal-hazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king's sons.²⁴ Then Absalom came to the king and said, "Now behold, your servant has shearers; please let the king and his servants go with your servant."²⁵ But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, we should not all go, so that we will not be a burden to you." Although he urged him, he would not go; but he blessed him.²⁶ Then Absalom said, "If not, please have my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"²⁷ Nevertheless, Absalom persisted, so he allowed Amnon and all the king's sons to go with him.²⁸ Then Absalom commanded his servants, saying, "See now, when Amnon's heart is joyful with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon,' then put him to death. Do not fear; have I not myself commanded you? Be courageous and be valiant."²⁹ And the servants of Absalom acted upon his command concerning Amnon. Then all the king's sons got up and each mounted his mule and fled.

³⁰ While they were on the way, a report reached David, saying, "Absalom has struck and killed all the king's sons, and not one of them is left!"³¹ Then the king stood up, tore his clothes, and lay on the ground; and all his servants were standing by with their clothes torn.³² But Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother, responded, "Do not let my lord assume that they have put to death all the young men, the king's sons; for only Amnon is dead, because Absalom has planned this since the day he wronged his sister Tamar."³³ Now then, do not let my lord the king take the report to heart, namely, 'All the king's sons are dead,' for only Amnon is dead."³⁴ Now Absalom had fled. And the young man who was on watch raised his eyes and looked, and behold, many people were coming from the road behind him by the side of the mountain.³⁵ Jonadab said to the king, "Behold, the king's sons have come; in accordance with the word of your servant, so it happened."³⁶ As soon as he had finished speaking, behold, the king's sons came and raised their voices and wept; and the king and all his servants also wept greatly.

³⁷ Meanwhile, Absalom had fled to Talmai the son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.³⁸ So Absalom had fled and gone to Geshur, and he was there for three years.³⁹ And King David's heart longed to go out to Absalom; and he was in anguish over the death of his son Amnon.

14 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was concerned about Absalom.² So Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman. He said to her, "Please pretend to be in mourning, and put on garments of grief. Do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has long been mourning for the dead."³ Then approach the king and speak to him in this way." Joab instructed her on what to say.⁴ When the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and paid homage, saying, "Help me, O king."⁵ The king said to her, "What troubles you?" And she answered, "Truly I am a widow, for my husband is dead."⁶ Now your servant had two sons, but the two of them quarrelled in the field, and there was no one to separate them. One struck the other and killed him."⁷ Now the entire family has risen against your servant, saying, 'Bring him who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for killing his brother.' They would also destroy the heir, and so they would extinguish my burning coal that is left, leaving neither name nor remnant on the earth for my husband.”⁸ Then the king said to the woman, “Return to your home, and I will issue instructions regarding your case.”⁹ The woman of Tekoa said to the king, “My lord the king, let the guilt be on me and on my father’s house, and may the king and his throne be guiltless.”¹⁰ The king said, “If anyone troubles you, bring him to me, and he will not bother you again.”¹¹ Then she said, “Please let the king remember the Lord your God, that the avenger of blood may not destroy any more, so that they will not eliminate my son.” And he said, “As the Lord lives, not a hair of your son shall fall to the ground.”

2 Samuel

¹² Then the woman said, “Please allow your servant to speak a word to my lord the king.” And he said, “Speak.”¹³ So the woman said, “Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking this word, the king is as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring back his banished one.”¹⁴ For we will surely die, and are like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not take away life, but devises means so that the banished one may not remain outcast from Him.”¹⁵ Now I have come to speak of this matter to my lord the king, because the people have made me afraid. So your servant said, ‘Let me speak to the king; perhaps the king will act on the request of his servant.’¹⁶ For the king will hear and deliver his servant from the hand of the man who seeks to cut me off and my son from the inheritance of God.’¹⁷ Then your servant thought, ‘The word of my lord the king will bring rest, for my lord the king is like the angel of God, to discern good and evil. And may the Lord your God be with you.’”

¹⁸ Then the king answered and said to the woman, “Please do not hide anything from me that I am about to ask you.” And the woman said, “Let my lord the king speak.”¹⁹ So the king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?” And the woman answered, “As your soul lives, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. It was indeed your servant Joab who commanded me, and it was he who put all these words in the mouth of your servant.”²⁰ Your servant Joab has done this in order to bring about this change in the situation. But my lord is wise, like the wisdom of the angel of God, to know all that is in the earth.”

²¹ Then the king said to Joab, “Behold now, I will do this thing. Go therefore, bring back the young man Absalom.”²² Joab fell on his face to the ground, prostrated himself, and blessed the king. Then Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found favour in your sight, my lord the king, because the king has done the request of his servant.”²³ So Joab set out for Geshur and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem.²⁴ However, the king said, “Let him turn to his own house, and not see my face.” So Absalom turned to his own house and did not see the king’s face.

²⁵ Now in all Israel there was no one as praised for his appearance as Absalom; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head, there was no defect in him.

²⁶ And when he cut the hair of his head—for it was at the end of every year that he cut it, because it was heavy on him, and when he cut it, he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels by the king’s weight.²⁷ Absalom had three sons and a daughter named Tamar. She was a woman of beautiful appearance.

²⁸ Absalom remained in Jerusalem for two complete years without seeing the king’s face.²⁹ Then Absalom sent for Joab to send him to the king, but he did not come to him. So he sent again a second time, but he still did not come.³⁰ Therefore he instructed his servants, “See, Joab’s field is next to mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire.” So Absalom’s servants set the field ablaze.³¹ Then Joab arose and came to Absalom at his house and said to him, “Why have your servants set my field on fire?”³² Absalom answered Joab, “Behold, I sent to you, saying, ‘Come here, that I may send you to the king, to say, Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to still be there.’ Now therefore, let me see the king’s face; and if there is guilt in me, let him put me to death.”³³ So Joab came to the king and told him. Then he called for Absalom, who came to the king and prostrated himself with his face to the ground before the king, and the king kissed Absalom.

15 Now after this, Absalom provided for himself a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run before him.² And Absalom would rise early and stand beside the road to the gate. Whenever any man had a suit to bring before the king for judgment, Absalom would call to him and say, "From what city are you?" And he would say, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel."³ Then Absalom would say to him, "See, your claims are good and right, but there is no one appointed by the king to hear you."⁴ And Absalom would say, "Oh that I were appointed judge in the land, then every man who had a case or cause would come to me, and I would give him justice."⁵ And whenever a man approached to bow before him, he would reach out his hand, take hold of him, and kiss him.⁶ Absalom did this to all Israel who came to the king for judgment; so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

2 Samuel

⁷ Now at the end of four years, Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go and pay my vow which I have made to the Lord in Hebron."⁸ For your servant made a vow while I was living at Geshur in Aram, saying, 'If the Lord will indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the Lord.'⁹ And the king replied, "Go safely." So he got up and went to Hebron.¹⁰ However, Absalom sent messengers throughout all the tribes of Israel, instructing them, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall proclaim, 'Absalom reigns in Hebron!'"¹¹ And two hundred men went with Absalom from Jerusalem, who had been invited; they went in innocence, knowing nothing.¹² And while Absalom was offering the sacrifices, he summoned Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city Giloh. And the conspiracy gained strength, and the people with Absalom continued to increase.

¹³ Then a messenger came to David, saying, "The loyalty of the men of Israel has turned to Absalom."

¹⁴ So David said to all his servants who were with him in Jerusalem, "Arise, let us flee, for otherwise none of us will escape from Absalom. Go quickly, lest he overtake us suddenly and bring disaster upon us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword."¹⁵ Then the king's servants said to him, "Behold, your servants are ready to do whatever my lord the king chooses."¹⁶ So the king went out, and all his household with him. But the king left behind ten concubines to keep the house.¹⁷ And the king departed with all the people accompanying him, and they paused at the last house.¹⁸ Now all his servants passed by him, and all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites—six hundred men who had followed him from Gath—passed before the king.¹⁹ Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why do you also go with us? Return and stay with the king, for you are a foreigner and also an exile from your own place."²⁰ You came only yesterday, and shall I today make you wander with us, since I do not even know where I am going? Return, and take back your brothers. Mercy and truth be with you."²¹ But Ittai answered the king and said, "As the Lord lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely wherever my lord the king may be, whether for death or for life, there your servant will be."²² So David said to Ittai, "Go on then, march." So Ittai the Gittite passed by with all his men and the little ones who were with him.

²³ All the land wept aloud as all the people passed by. And the king crossed the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over toward the way of the wilderness.²⁴ Behold, also Zadok came, and all the Levites with him, carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set down the ark of God, and Abiathar came up until all the people had finished passing out of the city.²⁵ Then the king said to Zadok, "Return the ark of God to the city. If I find favour in the eyes of the Lord, He will bring me back and let me see both it and His dwelling place."²⁶ But if He should say thus, 'I have no delight in you,' behold, here I am; let Him do to me what seems good to Him."²⁷ The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Are you not a seer? Go back to the city safely, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son and Jonathan the son of Abiathar."²⁸ See, I will wait at the fords of the wilderness until you send word to inform me."²⁹ Thus, Zadok and Abiathar returned the Ark of God to Jerusalem and remained there.

³⁰ And David went up the ascent of the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went. His head was covered and he walked barefoot. And all the people who were with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they went.³¹ Then someone told David, saying, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." And David said, "O Lord, please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness."³² Now as David came to the summit where God was worshipped, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his tunic torn and dust on his head.³³ And David said to him, "If you pass over with me, you will be a burden to me."³⁴ But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king; as

2 Samuel

I have been your father's servant in time past, so now I will be your servant,' then you can thwart the counsel of Ahithophel for me. ³⁵ Will not Zadok and Abiathar the priests be with you there? So whatever you hear from the king's house, you shall report to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. ³⁶ Look, their two sons are there with them, Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok, and Jonathan, the son of Abiathar; and through them you shall send to me everything you hear." ³⁷ So Hushai, David's friend, entered the city just as Absalom was arriving in Jerusalem.

16 Now when David had passed a little beyond the summit, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him with a pair of saddled donkeys, and on them were two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred clusters of raisins, a hundred summer fruits, and a container of wine. ² The king said to Ziba, "What do you mean to do with these?" Ziba said, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride, the bread and summer fruit are for the young men to eat, and the wine is for whoever becomes weary in the wilderness to drink." ³ Then the king said, "And where is your master's son?" Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore to me the kingdom of my father.'" ⁴ So the king said to Ziba, "Behold, all that belonged to Mephibosheth is now yours." And Ziba said, "I bow before you; may I find favour in your sight, my lord the king."

⁵ When King David came to Bahurim, behold, a man came out from there of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera; he was coming out cursing continually as he came. ⁶ He threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David, even though all the people and all the mighty men were at his right and left. ⁷ Thus Shimei said when he cursed, "Get out, get out, you man of bloodshed, you worthless man!" ⁸ The Lord has returned upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. The Lord has given the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. Behold, you are caught in your own evil, for you are a man of bloodshed!" ⁹ Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over now and take off his head." ¹⁰ But the king said, "What have I to do with you, sons of Zeruiah? If he curses, and if the Lord has told him, 'Curse David,' then who shall say, 'Why have you done so?'" ¹¹ Then David said to Abishai and to all his servants, "Behold, my own son, who came from my body, seeks my life; how much more now this Benjaminite? Leave him alone and let him curse, for the Lord has told him. ¹² Perhaps the Lord will notice my distress and repay me with good instead of his cursing today." ¹³ So David and his men went on the way, and Shimei went along on the hillside opposite him, cursing as he went, throwing stones at him, and flinging dust. ¹⁴ And the king and all the people who were with him arrived weary, and he refreshed himself there.

¹⁵ Now Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel was with him. ¹⁶ Then Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom and said to him, "Long live the king! Long live the king!" ¹⁷ But Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this how you show loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?" ¹⁸ Then Hushai said to Absalom, "No! For whomever the Lord, this people, and all the men of Israel choose, his I will be, and with him I will remain. ¹⁹ Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should it not be his son? As I have served your father, so I will serve you."

²⁰ Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Advise us. What should we do?" ²¹ And Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines whom he left to keep the house; then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself odious to your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strengthened." ²² So they set up a tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. ²³ Now the advice of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if one inquired at the word of God. So was all the advice of Ahithophel, both with David and with Absalom.

17 Then Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight. ² I will come upon him while he is weary and weak-handed, and I will terrify him so that all the people who are with him will flee. Then I will strike down the king alone, ³ and I will bring back all the people to you. The return of everyone hinges on the man you seek; then all the people will be at peace." ⁴ Absalom and all the elders of Israel found the advice agreeable.

2 Samuel

⁵ But Absalom said, "Call also Hushai the Archite, and let us hear what he has to say as well." ⁶ When Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom said to him, "Ahithophel has spoken this way. Shall we follow his word? If not, speak." ⁷ Then Hushai said to Absalom, "The counsel that Ahithophel has given this time is not good." ⁸ Hushai said further, "You know your father and his men, that they are mighty, and bitter in soul like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. Moreover, your father is an expert in war; he will not spend the night with the people." ⁹ Behold, even now he hides himself in one of the pits or in some other place. And when some of them fall at the first attack, whoever hears it will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the followers of Absalom.' ¹⁰ Then even the one who is brave and has the heart of a lion will utterly melt, for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man and those with him are valiant." ¹¹ "But I advise that all Israel be gathered to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is by the sea in abundance, and that you yourself go to battle in person." ¹² Then we shall come upon him in whatever place he is to be found, and we shall fall on him as the dew falls on the ground. Of him and all the men who are with him, not one will be left. ¹³ If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city, and we shall drag it into the valley, so that not even a pebble will be found there." ¹⁴ Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For the Lord had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, so that the Lord might bring disaster upon Absalom.

¹⁵ Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel thus, but I advised them differently." ¹⁶ Now therefore, send quickly and tell David, saying, 'Do not spend the night at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means cross over, or the king and all the people with him will be swallowed up.'" ¹⁷ Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En-rogel, and a maidservant would go and tell them, and they would go and inform King David, for they could not risk being seen entering the city. ¹⁸ But a young man saw them and told Absalom. So they both went quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his courtyard, and they went down into it. ¹⁹ The woman took a covering and spread it over the well's mouth and scattered grain on it, so nothing was known. ²⁰

Then Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house and said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" The woman said to them, "They have crossed the brook of water." And they searched and did not find them, and returned to Jerusalem. ²¹ After they had gone, the men came up out of the well, and went and told King David. They said to David, "Arise and cross over the water quickly, for thus Ahithophel has advised against you." ²² So David and all the people who were with him arose and crossed the Jordan. By daybreak, not even one person was left who had not crossed the Jordan.

²³ Now when Ahithophel saw that his advice was not followed, he saddled his donkey and arose and went to his house, to his city. He set his house in order and hanged himself. Thus he died and was buried in the tomb of his father.

²⁴ Then David reached Mahanaim. And Absalom also crossed the Jordan, along with all the men of Israel.

²⁵ And Absalom had set Amasa over the army in place of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra the Israelite, who had gone in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother. ²⁶ And Absalom and the Israelites set up camp in the land of Gilead.

²⁷ Now when David came to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim, ²⁸ brought beds, basins, earthen vessels, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils, roasted seeds, ²⁹ honey, curds, sheep, and cheese from the herd, for David and the people who were with him to eat; for they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."

18 Then David mustered the people who were with him, and set over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds. ² David sent out the army: one third under Joab, one third under Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third under Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, "I myself will surely go out with you also." ³ But the people said, "You shall not go out. For if we flee, they will not care about us; even if half of us die, they will not care. But you are worth ten thousand of us. Therefore it is better that you be ready to send help from the city." ⁴ The king said to them, "Whatever seems best in your sight I will do." So the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.

2 Samuel

⁵ And the king commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And all the people heard the king give orders concerning Absalom to the commanders.

⁶ Then the people went out into the field to meet Israel, and the battle was fought in the forest of Ephraim. ⁷ There the people of Israel were defeated by the servants of David, and the slaughter there that day was great—twenty thousand men. ⁸ The battle spread over the entire countryside, and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

⁹ Now Absalom encountered the servants of David. Absalom was riding on his mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a great oak. His head caught fast in the tree, and he was left hanging between heaven and earth, while the mule that was under him kept going. ¹⁰ A certain man saw it and told Joab, "Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree." ¹¹ Then Joab said to the man who had told him, "You saw him! Why then did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten pieces of silver and a belt." ¹² But the man said to Joab, "Even if I were to receive a thousand pieces of silver, I would not reach out my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king commanded you, Abishai, and Ittai, saying, 'Protect the young man Absalom for my sake.' ¹³ Otherwise, if I had dealt treacherously against his life, and nothing is hidden from the king, then you yourself would have stood aloof." ¹⁴ Then Joab said, "I will not waste time with you." So he took three spears in his hand and thrust them into the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the midst of the oak. ¹⁵ And ten young men who carried Joab's armour surrounded Absalom and struck him and killed him. ¹⁶ Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab restrained the troops. ¹⁷ They took Absalom and threw him into a great pit in the forest, and erected a very large heap of stones over him. And all Israel fled, each to his tent. ¹⁸ Now Absalom during his lifetime had taken and set up for himself a pillar, which is in the King's Valley, for he said, "I have no son to preserve my name." And he called the pillar after his own name, and it is called Absalom's Monument to this day.

¹⁹ Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, "Let me run and carry the news to the king, that the Lord has vindicated him by delivering him from the hand of his enemies." ²⁰ But Joab said to him, "You shall not carry news today, but you shall carry news another day. Today you shall not deliver the news, because the king's son is dead." ²¹ Then Joab said to a Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." So the Cushite bowed to Joab and ran. ²² Ahimaaz the son of Zadok again said to Joab, "Whatever may happen, please let me also run after the Cushite." And Joab said, "Why would you run, my son, seeing you have no reward for the news?" ²³ "But whatever may come," he said, "I will run." So he said to him, "Run." Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain and outran the Cushite.

²⁴ Now David was sitting between the two gates, and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate by the wall, and he raised his eyes and looked, and behold, a man was running alone. ²⁵ The watchman called and told the king. And the king said, "If he is alone, there is good news in his mouth." And he came closer and closer. ²⁶ Then the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, "Behold, another man is running alone." And the king said, "He also is bringing good news." ²⁷ The watchman said, "I think the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." And the king said, "He is a good man, and he comes with good news." ²⁸ Then Ahimaaz cried out and said to the king, "All is well." And he prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground and said, "Blessed be the Lord your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king." ²⁹ The king said, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" And Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent the king's servant, your servant, I saw a great commotion, but I did not know what it was." ³⁰ The king instructed him, "Step aside and wait here." So he stepped aside and waited. ³¹ Then behold, the Cushite arrived and said, "Let my lord the king receive good news, for the Lord has vindicated you this day by delivering you from the hand of all who rose up against you." ³² And the king said to the Cushite, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" And the Cushite answered, "May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up against you for evil, be like that young man."

2 Samuel

³³ Then the king was deeply shaken, and he went up to the chamber over the gate and wept. As he went, he said, "O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! Would that I had died instead of you, O Absalom, my son, my son!"

19 Then it was reported to Joab, "Behold, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom."

² So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the people, for the people heard it said that day, "The king is grieving over his son." ³ And the people stole away into the city that day as people steal away who are humiliated when they flee in battle. ⁴ The king hid his face and lamented loudly, "O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!" ⁵ Then Joab came into the house to the king and said, "Today you have shamed all your servants, who this day have saved your life and the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives and the lives of your concubines, ⁶ by loving those who hate you and hating those who love you. You have made it clear today that commanders and servants are nothing to you. For today I see that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead, then it would please you. ⁷ Now therefore arise, go out and speak kindly to your servants, for I swear by the Lord, if you do not go out, not a man will stay with you tonight. And this will be worse for you than all the calamity that has come upon you from your youth until now."

⁸ So the king arose and sat in the gate. And when it was told to all the people, saying, "Behold, the king is sitting in the gate," then all the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled, each to his tent.

⁹ All the people throughout all the tribes of Israel were arguing, saying, "The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies and rescued us from the hand of the Philistines, but now he has fled out of the land from Absalom. ¹⁰ And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore, why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?" ¹¹ Then King David sent word to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, 'Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the word of all Israel has come to the king, to return him to his house?' ¹² You are my kin; you are my own flesh and blood. Why then should you be the last to bring back the king?" ¹³ And say to Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me and more also if you will not be commander of the army before me continually in place of Joab.'" ¹⁴ So he turned the heart of all the men of Judah as one man, so that they sent word to the king, saying, "Return, you and all your servants."

¹⁵ Then the king returned and came as far as the Jordan. And the men of Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king, to escort the king over the Jordan. ¹⁶ Then Shimei son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David. ¹⁷ And a thousand men from Benjamin were with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, with his fifteen sons and twenty servants; and they rushed to the Jordan before the king. ¹⁸ They crossed the ford to bring over the king's household and to do what pleased him. Then Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king as he was about to cross the Jordan. ¹⁹ He said to the king, "Let not my lord hold me guilty, nor remember what your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king went out from Jerusalem, that the king should take it to heart. ²⁰ For your servant knows that I have sinned. Therefore, behold, I have come today, first of all the house of Joseph, to go down to meet my lord the king." ²¹ But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, "Should not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the Lord's anointed?" ²² But David said, "What is it to me or to you, sons of Zeruiah, that you should today become an adversary to me? Should any man in Israel be put to death today? For do I not know that I am king over Israel today?" ²³ So the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king swore to him.

²⁴ Then Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. He had not taken care of his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he returned in peace. ²⁵ It happened when he came to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?" ²⁶ He answered, "My lord the king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, 'I will saddle a donkey for myself, so that I may ride on it and go with the king,' because your servant is lame. ²⁷ And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is like the angel of God; therefore do what seems good to you. ²⁸ For all my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king; yet you set your servant among those who eat at your table. What right therefore have I to cry out any more to the king?" ²⁹ So the king said to him, "Why do you speak any more of your matters? I have decided: you and Ziba shall divide the land." ³⁰ And Mephibosheth said to the king, "Let him take it all, since my lord the king has come back in peace to his own house."

2 Samuel

³¹ Now Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim, and he went over the Jordan with the king, to escort him over the Jordan. ³² Barzillai was an elderly man, eighty years old, and he had provided the king with food while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a man of great wealth. ³³ The king said to Barzillai, "Come over with me and I will provide for you with me in Jerusalem." ³⁴ But Barzillai said to the king, "How long do I have to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?" ³⁵ I am this day eighty years old. Can I discern between good and bad? Can your servant taste what he eats or what he drinks? Can I still hear the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be a burden to my lord the king? ³⁶ Your servant would merely cross the Jordan with the king. Why should the king repay me with such a reward? ³⁷ Please let your servant return, that I may die in my own city near the grave of my father and mother. But here is your servant Chimham; let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him whatever seems good to you." ³⁸ And the king answered, "Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do for him whatever seems good to you. Whatever you desire from me, I will do for you." ³⁹ So all the people crossed over the Jordan, and the king also crossed. And the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own place.

⁴⁰ Now the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him. All the people of Judah and also half the people of Israel escorted the king. ⁴¹ And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king and said to him, "Why have our brothers, the men of Judah, stolen you away, and brought the king and his household over the Jordan, and all David's men with him?" ⁴² All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is closely related to us. Why are you angry about this? Have we eaten at the king's expense, or has he given us any gift?" ⁴³ Then the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, "We have ten shares in the king; therefore we also have more claim on David than you. Why then did you treat us with contempt? Were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king?" But the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

20 Now a worthless man happened to be there, whose name was Sheba the son of Bichri, a Benjaminite. He blew the trumpet and said, "We have no share in David, nor inheritance in the son of Jesse; every man to his tents, O Israel!" ² So all the men of Israel withdrew from David and followed Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah remained steadfast to their king, from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

³ Then David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, the concubines whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in confinement and provided for them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up until the day of their death, living as widows.

⁴ Then the king instructed Amasa, "Gather the men of Judah for me within three days, and ensure you are present here yourself." ⁵ So Amasa went to summon Judah, but he delayed beyond the time set for him. ⁶ Then David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom. Take your lord's servants and pursue him quickly, so that he does not find fortified cities and escape from our sight." ⁷ So Joab's men went out after him, along with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the mighty men; and they went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri. ⁸ When they were at the great stone that is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Now Joab was wearing his military tunic, and over it was a belt with a sword in its sheath fastened at his waist; and as he stepped forward, it fell out. ⁹ And Joab greeted Amasa, "Is all well with you, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. ¹⁰ But Amasa did not notice the sword in Joab's hand. So Joab struck him in the stomach with it and poured out his entrails to the ground, and he died without being struck again. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.

¹¹ Now one of Joab's young men stood by him and said, "Whoever favours Joab and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab!" ¹² But Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa from the road into the field and threw a garment over him, because he saw that everyone who came by him stood still. ¹³ When he was removed from the road, everyone passed on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

2 Samuel

¹⁴ Now he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, even Beth-maacah, and all the Bichrites gathered and also went after him. ¹⁵ They came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maacah, and they cast up a mound against the city, and it stood by the rampart; and all the people who were with Joab were battering the wall to bring it down. ¹⁶ Then a wise woman called from the city, "Listen, listen! Please tell Joab, 'Come here that I may speak with you.'" ¹⁷ So he approached her, and the woman said, "Are you Joab?" And he answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your servant." And he said, "I am listening." ¹⁸ Then she spoke, saying, "They used to say in former times, 'Let them ask advice at Abel,' and so they settled disputes. ¹⁹ I am among the peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why would you swallow up the Lord's inheritance?" ²⁰ Joab replied, "Far be it, far be it from me that I would swallow up or destroy! ²¹ That is not the case. A man from the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against King David. Deliver him only, and I will withdraw from the city." The woman said to Joab, "Behold, his head shall be thrown to you over the wall."

²² Then the woman wisely came to all the people. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and threw it to Joab. So he blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, every man to his tent. Joab returned to the king at Jerusalem.

²³ Now Joab was over the entire army of Israel, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites. ²⁴ Adoram was over the forced labour, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder. ²⁵ Sheva was secretary, and Zadok and Abiathar were priests. ²⁶ And Ira the Jairite also was a priest to David.

21 Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David inquired of the Lord. The Lord said, "It is because of Saul and his bloody house, because he put the Gibeonites to death." ² So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not of the sons of Israel but of the remnant of the Amorites, and the sons of Israel had sworn to them; but Saul had sought to strike them down in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah.) ³ Thus David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you, and how shall I make atonement, that you may bless the inheritance of the Lord?" ⁴ The Gibeonites said to him, "We have no claim for silver or gold with Saul or his house, nor is it for us to put any man to death in Israel." So he said, "I will do for you whatever you say." ⁵ So they said to the king, "The man who consumed us and planned to destroy us, that we should have no place in all the territory of Israel— ⁶ Let seven men from his sons be handed over to us, and we will hang them before the Lord in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of the Lord." And the king said, "I will give them."

⁷ But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the oath of the Lord which was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. ⁸ So the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul—Armoni and Mephibosheth— and the five sons of Merab the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholahite. ⁹ Then he handed them over to the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the mountain before the Lord. So the seven fell together, and they were put to death in the first days of harvest, at the beginning of barley harvest.

¹⁰ Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until it rained on them from the sky; and she did not allow the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the wild animals by night. ¹¹ When David learned of the actions of Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, ¹² David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the public square of Bethshan, where the Philistines had hanged them, on the day the Philistines killed Saul in Gilboa. ¹³ He retrieved the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son from there, and they gathered the remains of those who had been executed. ¹⁴ And they buried the bones of Saul and of Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father. So they did all that the king commanded. And after that God responded to prayer for the land.

2 Samuel

¹⁵ Now the Philistines again made war with Israel, and David went down with his servants and fought against the Philistines, and David became weary. ¹⁶ Then Ishbi-benob, who was among the descendants of the giant, whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of bronze, and who was girded with a new sword, intended to kill David. ¹⁷ But Abishai the son of Zeruiah came to his help and struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, "You shall not go out again with us to battle, so that you do not extinguish the lamp of Israel."

¹⁸ Now it happened after this that there was war again with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite struck down Saph, who was among the descendants of the giant. ¹⁹ And once more there was conflict with the Philistines at Gob, and Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite struck down Goliath the Gittite, whose spear shaft was like a weaver's beam. ²⁰ There was war again at Gath, and there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also was descended from the giants. ²¹ When he challenged Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David's brother, defeated him. ²² These four were born to the giant in Gath, and they were overcome by David and his servants.

22 And David spoke the words of this song to the Lord on the day the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. ² He declared:

"The Lord is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer;

³ My God, my rock, in whom I find safety, My shield and the horn of my salvation, My stronghold and my refuge; My saviour, you protect me from harm. ⁴ I call upon the Lord, who is worthy of praise, And I am saved from my enemies.

⁵ For the waves of death surrounded me, The torrents of destruction swept over me; ⁶ The cords of Sheol encircled me; The snares of death confronted me. ⁷ In my distress I called upon the Lord, Yes, I called to my God; From His temple He heard my voice, And my cry for help reached His ears.

⁸ Then the earth shook and quaked, The foundations of heaven trembled And were shaken, because He was angry. ⁹ Smoke rose from His nostrils, And fire from His mouth devoured; Coals were kindled by it. ¹⁰ He bent the heavens and descended With thick darkness beneath His feet. ¹¹ He rode upon a cherub and flew; He soared on the wings of the wind. ¹² He made darkness His canopy around Him, A gathering of waters, thick clouds of the sky. ¹³ From the radiance before Him Coals of fire were ignited. ¹⁴ The Lord thundered from heaven, And the Most High raised His voice. ¹⁵ He sent forth arrows and scattered them, Lightning, and put them to flight. ¹⁶ Then the channels of the sea were revealed, The foundations of the world were uncovered By the rebuke of the Lord, At the blast of the breath of His nostrils.

¹⁷ He reached out from on high, He took me; He drew me out of many waters. ¹⁸ He rescued me from my powerful enemy, From those who hated me, for they were too strong for me. ¹⁹ They confronted me in my time of calamity, But the Lord was my support. ²⁰ He brought me out into a spacious place; He saved me, because He delighted in me.

²¹ The Lord has rewarded me according to my righteousness; According to the cleanness of my hands He has repaid me. ²² For I have followed the ways of the Lord, And have not turned away from my God. ²³ For all His ordinances were before me, And I did not turn away from His statutes. ²⁴ I was also blameless before Him, And I kept myself from my guilt. ²⁵ Therefore the Lord has repaid me according to my righteousness, According to my cleanness before His eyes.

²⁶ With the faithful You show Yourself faithful, With the blameless You show Yourself blameless; ²⁷ With the pure You show Yourself pure, But with the devious You show Yourself shrewd. ²⁸ And You save a humble people, But Your eyes are on the proud, whom You bring down.

²⁹ For You are my lamp, O Lord; And the Lord illuminates my darkness. ³⁰ For by You I can charge against a troop; By my God I can leap over a wall.

2 Samuel

³¹ As for God, His way is perfect; The word of the Lord is pure; He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him. ³² For who is God, if not the Lord? And who is a rock, if not our God? ³³ God is my stronghold; And He makes my path straight. ³⁴ He makes my feet like the feet of deer, And sets me on high places. ³⁵ He prepares my hands for battle, So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze. ³⁶ You have also given me the shield of Your salvation, And Your support makes me great. ³⁷ You broaden my path beneath me, And my feet have not slipped.

³⁸ I pursued my enemies and defeated them, And I did not turn back until they were destroyed. ³⁹ I have consumed them and shattered them, So that they did not rise; They fell under my feet. ⁴⁰ For You have equipped me with strength for battle; You have subdued under me those who rose up against me. ⁴¹ You have made my enemies turn their backs to me, And I destroyed those who hated me. ⁴² They looked, but there was no one to save— Even to the Lord, but He did not answer them. ⁴³ Then I crushed them like the dust of the earth; I pulverised them and stamped them like the mud of the streets.

⁴⁴ You have rescued me from the disputes of my people; You have kept me as head of the nations; A people I have not known serve me. ⁴⁵ Foreigners feign obedience to me; As soon as they hear, they obey me. ⁴⁶ Foreigners lose heart, And come trembling out of their strongholds.

⁴⁷ The Lord lives, and blessed be my rock; And exalted be my God, the foundation of my salvation, ⁴⁸ The God who brings vengeance for me, And brings down peoples under me, ⁴⁹ Who also delivers me from my enemies; You even lift me above those who rise up against me; You save me from the violent man. ⁵⁰ Therefore I will express my gratitude to You, Lord, among the nations, And I will sing praises to Your name. ⁵¹ He is a tower of salvation to His king, And shows favour to His anointed, To David and his descendants forever."

23

These are the final words of David: David, son of Jesse, speaks, The man exalted by the Most High, The anointed of the God of Jacob, And the beloved psalmist of Israel:

² "The Spirit of the Lord spoke through me, And His words were upon my tongue. ³ The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spoke to me: 'He who governs humanity justly, Who rules in reverence for God, ⁴ Is like the morning light when the sun rises, A dawn without clouds, When the fresh grass springs from the earth, After sunshine and rain.' ⁵ Truly is not my house so with God? For He has made an everlasting covenant with me, Ordered and secured in all things; For will He not indeed make all my salvation and all my desire grow? ⁶ But the worthless, all of them will be cast aside like thorns, Because they cannot be handled; ⁷ But whoever touches them Must be equipped with iron and the shaft of a spear, And they will be utterly burned with fire where they lie."

⁸ These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-basshebeth, a Tahchemonite, chief of the captains— He wielded his spear against eight hundred whom he killed at one time. ⁹ Next to him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the son of Ahohi, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel had withdrawn. ¹⁰ He rose and struck the Philistines until his hand grew weary and clung to the sword, and the Lord brought about a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to strip the slain. ¹¹ Next to him was Shammah the son of Agee a Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered into a troop where there was a plot of ground full of lentils, and the people fled from the Philistines. ¹² But he took his stand in the midst of the plot and defended it, and struck the Philistines; and the Lord brought about a great victory.

¹³ Then three of the thirty chief men went down and came to David at harvest time to the cave of Adullam, while the camp of the Philistines was in the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁴ David was in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was in Bethlehem. ¹⁵ And David longed and said, "Oh that someone would bring me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!" ¹⁶ So the three mighty men forced their way through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water from the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. But he would not drink it, and poured it out as an offering to the Lord; ¹⁷ And he said, "Far be it from me, Lord, to do this! Shall I drink the blood of the men who risked their lives?" So he would not drink it. These deeds were done by the three mighty men.

2 Samuel

¹⁸ Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the thirty. And he wielded his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name as well as the three. ¹⁹ He was the most honoured of the thirty, so he became their commander; but he did not attain to the three. ²⁰ Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a valiant warrior from Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, killed two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit on a snowy day. ²¹ And he killed a notable Egyptian. Now the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but he went down to him with a staff, and snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. ²² These acts Benaiah the son of Jehoiada performed, and had a name as well as the three mighty men. ²³ He was honoured among the thirty, but he did not attain to the three. And David appointed him over his guard.

²⁴ Asahel, Joab's brother, was among the thirty; Elhanan, Dodo's son from Bethlehem, ²⁵ Shammah, a Harodite; Elikah, another Harodite; ²⁶ Helez, a Paltite; Ira, the son of Ikkesh, hailing from Tekoa, ²⁷ Abiezer, an Anathothite; Mebunnai, a Hushathite; ²⁸ Zalmon, an Ahohite; Maharai, a Netophathite; ²⁹ Heleb, the son of Baanah from Netophah; Ittai, the son of Ribai from Gibeah of the Benjaminites, ³⁰ Benaiah, a Pirathonite; Hiddai from the streams of Gaash, ³¹ Abi-albon, an Arbathite; Azmaveth, a Barhumite, ³² Eliahba, a Shaalbomite; the sons of Jashen, including Jonathan, ³³ Shammah, a Hararite; Ahiam, the son of Sharar from Arar, ³⁴ Eliphelet, the son of Ahasbai, a Maacathite; Eliam, the son of Ahithophel from Giloh, ³⁵ Hezro, a Carmelite; Paarai, an Arbite; ³⁶ Igal, the son of Nathan, hailing from Zobah; Bani, a Gadite, ³⁷ Zelek, an Ammonite; Naharai, a Beerothite, armour bearer of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, ³⁸ Ira, an Ithrite; Gareb, another Ithrite, ³⁹ Uriah, a Hittite; thirty-seven in total.

24 Now again the anger of the Lord burned against Israel, and He incited David against them, saying, "Go, take a census of Israel and Judah." ² So the king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, "Go about now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and count the people, so that I may know the number of the people." ³ But Joab said to the king, "May the Lord your God add to the people a hundred times as many as they are, while the eyes of my lord the king still see; but why does my lord the king delight in this thing?" ⁴ Nevertheless, the king's word prevailed against Joab and the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army went out from the presence of the king to count the people of Israel. ⁵ They crossed the Jordan and camped in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the centre of the Valley of Gad and toward Jazer. ⁶ Then they came to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi, and they came to Dan-jaan and circled around to Sidon. ⁷ And they came to the fortress of Tyre and all the cities of the Hivites and of the Canaanites, and they went out to the south of Judah, to Beersheba. ⁸ So after they had travelled through the entire land, they arrived in Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. ⁹ And Joab gave the number of the census of the people to the king: in Israel there were eight hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

¹⁰ Now David's heart troubled him after he had counted the people. So David said to the Lord, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, Lord, please forgive the guilt of Your servant, for I have acted very foolishly." ¹¹ When David awoke in the morning, a message from the Lord came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, ¹² "Go and speak to David, 'This is what the Lord says: I am offering you three things; choose for yourself one of them, and I will do it to you.'" ¹³ So Gad came to David and told him, "Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee for three months before your enemies while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days of plague in your land? Now consider and see what answer I shall return to Him who sent me." ¹⁴ Then David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Let us fall into the hand of the Lord, for His mercies are great; but do not let me fall into human hands."

¹⁵ So the Lord sent a plague upon Israel from the morning until the designated time, and seventy thousand men of the people from Dan to Beersheba perished. ¹⁶ When the angel extended his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord relented of the disaster, and said to the angel who destroyed the people, "It is enough! Now relax your hand!" And the angel of the Lord was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.¹⁷ Then David spoke to the Lord when he saw the angel who was striking down the people, and said, "Behold, it is I who have sinned, and it is I who have done wrong; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let Your hand be against me and my father's house!"

2 Samuel

¹⁸ So Gad came to David that day and said to him, "Go up, build an altar to the Lord on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite."¹⁹ David went up in accordance with the word of Gad, just as the Lord had commanded.²⁰ Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants crossing over toward him, and he went out and bowed to the king with his face to the ground.²¹ Then Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you, to build an altar to the Lord, so that the plague may be halted from the people."²² Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him. Look, the oxen for the burnt offering, the threshing sledges, and the yokes of the oxen for the wood."²³ All this, O king, Araunah freely gives to the king." And Araunah said to the king, "May the Lord your God accept you."²⁴ However, the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will certainly buy it from you for a price; for I will not offer burnt offerings to the Lord my God that cost me nothing." So David purchased the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.²⁵ Then David built there an altar to the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And the Lord responded to prayer for the land, and the plague was withdrawn from Israel.

1 Kings

1 Now King David was old and advanced in years, and although they covered him with blankets, he could not keep warm. ² So his servants said to him, "Let a young virgin be sought for my lord the king, and let her attend the king and lie in your arms, that my lord the king may be kept warm." ³ So they searched for a beautiful young woman throughout all the territory of Israel, and they found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king. ⁴ The young woman was very beautiful, and she cared for the king and served him, but the king did not have relations with her.

⁵ Adonijah, the son of Haggith, took it upon himself to declare, "I will be king." And he arranged for himself chariots and horsemen and fifty men to run before him. ⁶ His father had never rebuked him at any time by asking, "Why have you done this?" And he was also a very handsome man, and he was born after Absalom. ⁷ He conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest, and they followed Adonijah and supported him. ⁸ But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and David's mighty men were not with Adonijah.

⁹ And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fattened cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En-rogel. He invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah who were servants of the king. ¹⁰ Yet, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, and Solomon his brother were not invited.

¹¹ Nathan approached Bathsheba, Solomon's mother, and said, "Have you not heard that Adonijah, the son of Haggith, has declared himself king, and David our lord is unaware of it? ¹² Now come, let me give you advice, so that you may save your life and the life of your son Solomon. ¹³ Go immediately to King David and say to him, 'Did you not, my lord the king, swear to your maidservant, saying, "Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne"? Why then has Adonijah become king?' ¹⁴ Then, while you are still speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words."

¹⁵ So Bathsheba went to the king in the chamber. Now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was attending to the king. ¹⁶ Bathsheba bowed and prostrated herself before the king, and the king said, "What do you wish?" ¹⁷ She said to him, "My lord, you swore by the Lord your God to your maidservant, 'Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne.' ¹⁸ But now, behold, Adonijah has become king, and you, my lord the king, do not know it. ¹⁹ And he has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army, but he has not invited Solomon your servant. ²⁰ And you, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. ²¹ Otherwise it will come about, when my lord the king lies down with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be considered offenders."

²² Now while she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in. ²³ And they told the king, saying, "Behold, Nathan the prophet is here." And he came in before the king and prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground. ²⁴ And Nathan said, "My lord the king, have you said, 'Adonijah shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne'? ²⁵ For he has gone down today and has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, and the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest; and behold, they are eating and drinking before him and saying, 'Long live King Adonijah!' ²⁶ But me, even me your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon—he has not invited. ²⁷ Has this thing been done by my lord the king, and you have not informed your servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

²⁸ King David responded, "Call Bathsheba to me." So she came into the king's presence and stood before the king. ²⁹ And the king swore and said, "As the Lord lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress, ³⁰ just as I swore to you by the Lord, the God of Israel, saying, 'Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place,' I will indeed do so this day." ³¹ Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, and prostrated herself before the king and said, "May my lord King David have enduring life."

³² Then King David said, "Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." So they came into the king's presence. ³³

1 Kings

And the king instructed them, "Take your lord's servants with you, and have my son Solomon ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon." ³⁴ And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there as king over Israel, and blow the trumpet and say, 'Long live King Solomon!' ³⁵ Then you shall follow him up, and he shall come and sit on my throne and be king in my place; for I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah." ³⁶ And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, "Amen! May the Lord, the God of my lord the king, confirm it." ³⁷ Just as the Lord has been with my lord the king, so may He be with Solomon, and elevate his throne beyond that of my lord King David."

³⁸ So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David's mule, and brought him to Gihon. ³⁹ Then Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!" ⁴⁰ And all the people went up after him, and the people were playing flutes and rejoicing with great joy, so that the earth shook with their noise.

⁴¹ Now Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished feasting. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "Why is the city in such an uproar?" ⁴² As he was still speaking, Jonathan, the son of Abiathar the priest, arrived. And Adonijah said, "Come in, for you are a worthy man and surely bring good news." ⁴³ But Jonathan replied to Adonijah and said, "No! Our lord King David has made Solomon king." ⁴⁴ And the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and they have had him ride on the king's mule. ⁴⁵ And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon, and they have come up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you have heard." ⁴⁶ Furthermore, Solomon now sits on the throne of the kingdom. ⁴⁷ Additionally, the king's servants came to bless our lord King David, saying, 'May your God make Solomon's name more esteemed than yours, and his throne greater than yours.' And the king bowed himself on the bed. ⁴⁸ The king also said, "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who has granted one to sit on my throne this day while my eyes see it."

⁴⁹ Then all the guests of Adonijah were terrified, and they rose and each went his own way. ⁵⁰ And Adonijah feared Solomon, and he arose and went and took hold of the horns of the altar. ⁵¹ Then it was reported to Solomon, saying, "Behold, Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon; for behold, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.'" ⁵² And Solomon said, "If he is a worthy man, not one hair of him will fall to the ground; but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die." ⁵³ So King Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed to King Solomon, and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

2 As the time of David's passing approached, he gave instructions to Solomon his son, saying, ² "I am going the way of all the earth. Be strong, therefore, and prove yourself a man. ³ Keep the charge of the Lord your God, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, so that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn, ⁴ so that the Lord may fulfil His word which He spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your sons are careful in their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and soul, you shall not lack a man to sit on the throne of Israel.'

⁵ Moreover, you also know what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed. And he shed the blood of war in peacetime, and he put the blood of war on his belt that was around his waist and on his sandals that were on his feet. ⁶ Therefore act according to your wisdom, and do not let his grey hair go down to the grave in peace. ⁷ But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, for they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother. ⁸ And behold, you have with you Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a severe curse on the day I went to Mahanaim. But when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the Lord, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.' ⁹

1 Kings

But now do not consider him innocent, for you are a wise man and will know what you ought to do to him; and you shall bring his grey hair down to the grave with blood."

¹⁰ So David passed away and was laid to rest with his ancestors, and was buried in the City of David. ¹¹ David reigned over Israel for forty years. He reigned seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. ¹² Solomon then ascended the throne of his father David, and his kingdom was firmly established.

¹³ Now Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, and she said, "Do you come peaceably?" And he said, "Peaceably." ¹⁴ Then he said, "I have something to say to you." So she said, "Speak." ¹⁵ And he said, "You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel expected me to reign. However, the kingdom has turned around and become my brother's, for it was his from the Lord. ¹⁶ Now I ask one petition of you; do not refuse me." And she said to him, "Speak." ¹⁷ Then he said, "Please speak to King Solomon—he will not refuse you— that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as a wife." ¹⁸ So Bathsheba said, "Very well; I will speak to the king for you."

¹⁹ So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose to meet her and bowed down to her, and sat down on his throne and had a throne set for the king's mother, and she sat at his right hand. ²⁰ Then she said, "I have a small request of you; do not refuse me." And the king said to her, "Ask, my mother, for I will not refuse you." ²¹ So she said, "Allow Abishag the Shunammite to be given to Adonijah your brother as his wife." ²² King Solomon answered and said to his mother, "Why are you asking Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom as well—since he is my older brother— even for him, for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah!" ²³ Then King Solomon swore by the Lord, saying, "May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life. ²⁴ Now therefore, as surely as the Lord lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of my father David, and who has made me a house as He promised— Adonijah shall indeed be put to death today." ²⁵ So King Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, who struck him down, and he died.

²⁶ Then the king said to Abiathar the priest, "Go to Anathoth, to your own fields, for you deserve to die; but I will not put you to death at this time, because you carried the ark of the Lord God before my father David, and because you were afflicted in everything in which my father was afflicted." ²⁷ So Solomon removed Abiathar from being priest to the Lord, to fulfil the word of the Lord which He had spoken concerning the house of Eli at Shiloh.

²⁸ Now the news came to Joab, for Joab had followed Adonijah, though he had not followed Absalom. So Joab fled to the tent of the Lord and took hold of the horns of the altar. ²⁹ And it was told King Solomon that Joab had fled to the tent of the Lord, and behold, he was by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, strike him down." ³⁰ So Benaiah came to the tent of the Lord and said to him, "Thus says the king, 'Come out!'" But he said, "No, for I will die here." So Benaiah brought word again to the king, saying, "This is what Joab said, and this is how he answered me."

³¹ Then the king said to him, "Do as he has said, and strike him down and bury him, so that you may remove from me and from my father's house the guilt of the blood which Joab shed without cause. ³² And the Lord will return his blood on his own head, because he struck down two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword: Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah, though my father David did not know it. ³³ So their blood shall return on the head of Joab and on the head of his descendants forever. But to David and his descendants and his house and his throne there shall be peace from the Lord forever." ³⁴ Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck Joab and killed him, and he was buried at his own house in the wilderness.

³⁵ The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the army in his place, and the king appointed Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.

³⁶ Then the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, and do not go out from there to any other place. ³⁷ For on the day you go out and cross the Brook Kidron, you shall know for certain that you will surely die; your blood shall be on your own head." ³⁸ Shimei said to the king, "The word is good. As my lord the king has said, so your servant will do." So Shimei lived in Jerusalem for many days. ³⁹ But after three years, two of Shimei's servants ran away to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, "Behold, your servants are in Gath." ⁴⁰ So Shimei arose and saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants, and Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath. ⁴¹ And Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned. ⁴² So the king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the Lord and solemnly warn you, saying, 'Know for certain that on the day you depart and go anywhere, you shall surely die'? And you said to me, 'The word I have heard is good.' ⁴³ Why have you not kept the oath of the Lord and the command that I gave you?" ⁴⁴ The king also said to Shimei, "You know in your heart all the evil that you did to my father David; therefore the Lord shall return your evil on your own head. ⁴⁵ But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall remain established before the Lord forever." ⁴⁶ So the king gave command to Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck him down, and he died. Thus the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

1 Kings

3 Solomon entered into a marriage alliance with Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and brought Pharaoh's daughter to the city of David. This was until he had completed the construction of his own house, the house of the Lord, and the wall around Jerusalem. ² The people were still sacrificing on the high places, because no house had yet been built for the name of the Lord. ³ Now Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of his father David, except that he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

⁴ And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place; Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. ⁵ While in Gibeon, the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream at night; and God said, "Ask what you desire Me to give you." ⁶ Then Solomon said, "You have shown great kindness to Your servant David my father, according as he walked before You in truth, in righteousness and uprightness of heart toward You; and You have reserved this great kindness for him, that You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

⁷ Now, Lord my God, You have made Your servant king in place of my father David, yet I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. ⁸ And here is Your servant among Your chosen people, a great multitude that cannot be numbered or counted. ⁹ Therefore, grant Your servant an understanding heart to govern Your people, to distinguish between good and evil. For who is able to govern this great people of Yours?"

¹⁰ It was pleasing to the Lord that Solomon had made this request. ¹¹ God said to him, "Because you have asked for this, and have not requested long life for yourself, nor riches for yourself, nor the life of your enemies, but have sought discernment to understand justice, ¹² Behold, I have acted according to your words. I have given you a wise and discerning heart, so that there has been no one like you before, nor shall there be anyone like you after.

¹³ I have also granted you what you have not asked for, both riches and honour, so that there will not be anyone among the kings like you all your days. ¹⁴ And if you walk in My ways, keeping My statutes and commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days." ¹⁵ Then Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and held a feast for all his servants.

¹⁶ Afterwards, two women who were known for their trade came to the king and stood before him. ¹⁷ One woman said, "Please, my lord: this woman and I live in the same house; and I gave birth to a child while she was in the house. ¹⁸ On the third day after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth to a child. We were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, only the two of us. ¹⁹ And this woman's son died during the night, because she accidentally lay on him. ²⁰ So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me while your servant was asleep, and laid him in her arms, and placed her dead son in my arms. ²¹ When I got up in the morning to nurse my son, behold, he was dead; but when I examined him closely in the morning, behold, he was not my son, the one whom I had borne." ²² Then the other woman said, "No! The living one is my son, and the dead one is your son." But the first woman said, "No! The dead one is your son, and the living one is my son.” Thus they spoke before the king.

1 Kings

²³ Then the king said, “This one says, ‘This is my son, the living one, and your son is the dead one’; and the other says, ‘No! Your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.’” ²⁴ Then the king commanded, “Bring me a sword.” So they brought a sword to the king. ²⁵ And the king instructed, “Cut the living child in two, and give half to one and half to the other.” ²⁶ Then the woman whose child was the living one spoke to the king, for she was deeply moved over her son, and said, “Please, my lord, give her the living child, and do not kill him!” But the other said, “He shall neither be mine nor yours; divide him!” ²⁷ Then the king responded, “Give the first woman the living child, and do not kill him. She is his mother.”

²⁸ When all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had rendered, they held the king in awe, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

4 King Solomon governed all of Israel. ² These were his officials: Azariah, the son of Zadok, served as the priest; ³ Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, acted as scribes; Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, functioned as the recorder; ⁴ Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, commanded the army; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; ⁵ Azariah, the son of Nathan, was over the deputies; Zabud, the son of Nathan, a priest, was the king’s friend; ⁶ Ahishar managed the household; and Adoniram, the son of Abda, was over the forced labour.

⁷ Solomon had twelve deputies over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household; each man had to provide for a month in the year. ⁸ Their names included: Ben-hur, in the hill country of Ephraim; ⁹ Ben-deker, who was governor over Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan; ¹⁰ Ben-hesed, in Arubboth (Socoh belonged to him, along with all the land of Hepher); ¹¹ Ben-abinadab, in the entire region of Dor (Taphath, the daughter of Solomon, was his wife); ¹² Baana, the son of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is beside Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, extending to the other side of Jokmeam; ¹³ Ben-geber, in Ramoth-gilead (the towns of Jair, the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead, were his; also the region of Argob, which is in Bashan—sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars); ¹⁴ Ahinadab, was the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim; ¹⁵ Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also took Basemath, the daughter of Solomon, as a wife); ¹⁶ Baana, the son of Hushai - responsible for Asher and Bealoth; ¹⁷ Jehoshaphat, was the son of Paruah, in Issachar; ¹⁸ Shimei, was the son of Ela, in Benjamin; ¹⁹ Geber, the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and there was one deputy who was over the land.

²⁰ Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand on the seashore in abundance; they were eating, drinking, and rejoicing. ²¹ Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt; they brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

²² Solomon’s daily provision included thirty kors of fine flour, and sixty kors of meal, ²³ ten fat oxen, twenty pasture-fed oxen, a hundred sheep, along with deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fattened fowl. ²⁴ For he had dominion over everything west of the River, from Tiphseh even to Gaza, over all the kings west of the River; and he had peace on all sides around him. ²⁵ So Judah and Israel lived in safety, each man under his vine and fig tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, throughout the days of Solomon.

²⁶ Solomon possessed forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. ²⁷ Those deputies provided food for King Solomon and all who came to King Solomon’s table, each in his month; they did not let anything be lacking. ²⁸ They also brought barley and straw for the horses and swift steeds to the place where it was needed, each according to his charge.

²⁹ God granted Solomon wisdom and very great discernment and breadth of understanding, like the sand that is on the seashore. ³⁰ Solomon’s wisdom exceeded the wisdom of all the people of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt. ³¹ For he was wiser than all other men, than Ethan the Ezrahite, Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was known in all the surrounding nations. ³² He also spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs numbered one thousand and five. ³³ He spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon to the hyssop that grows on the wall; he spoke also of animals, birds, reptiles, and fish. ³⁴ People came from all nations to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

1 Kings

5 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, when he heard that they had anointed him king in the place of his father, for Hiram had always been a friend to David. ² Solomon then messaged Hiram, saying, ³ "You know that my father David was not able to build a house for the name of the Lord his God because of the wars which surrounded him, until the Lord put them under the soles of his feet. ⁴ But now the Lord my God has granted me peace on every side; there is neither adversary nor trouble. ⁵ So behold, I intend to build a house for the name of the Lord my God, just as the Lord spoke to my father David, saying, 'Your son, whom I will put on your throne in your place, he shall build the house for My name.' ⁶ Now then, command that they cut cedars for me from Lebanon, and my servants will be with your servants; and I will give you wages for your servants according to whatever you say. For you know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians."

⁷ When Hiram heard Solomon's message, he was exceedingly glad and said, "Blessed be the Lord this day, who has given to David a wise son to rule over this great people." ⁸ So Hiram sent word to Solomon, saying, "I have heard your message which you have sent me; I will do what you desire concerning the cedar timber and the cypress timber. ⁹ My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea; and I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place you designate, and I will have them dismantled there, and you shall carry them away. Then you shall fulfil my request by providing food for my household."

¹⁰ So Hiram gave Solomon all the cedar and cypress timber that he desired. ¹¹ Solomon then gave Hiram twenty thousand kors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty kors of beaten oil. Solomon would give this to Hiram year by year. ¹² And the Lord endowed Solomon with wisdom, just as He promised him; and there was harmony between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a covenant.

¹³ Now King Solomon conscripted forced labourers from all Israel, and the forced labourers numbered thirty thousand men. ¹⁴ He sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in shifts; they were in Lebanon for a month and two months at home. And Adoniram was over the forced labour. ¹⁵ Now Solomon had seventy thousand men who carried loads, and eighty thousand who quarried stone in the mountains, ¹⁶ besides Solomon's chief officers who were over the work, three thousand three hundred who ruled over the people doing the work. ¹⁷ Then the king commanded, and they quarried large stones, valuable stones, to lay the foundation of the house with cut stones. ¹⁸ So Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the men of Gebal cut the stones, and they prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

6 In the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel departed from the land of Egypt, during the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv (which is the second month), he commenced the construction of the house of the Lord. ² The house which King Solomon built for the Lord was sixty cubits in length, twenty cubits in width, and thirty cubits in height. ³ The porch in front of the nave of the house was twenty cubits in length, in line with the width of the house, and ten cubits deep in front of the house. ⁴ And he made windows for the house with artistic frames. ⁵ He also built against the wall of the house an annex around the walls of the house, both of the nave and the inner sanctuary; and he made side chambers all around. ⁶ The lowest floor was five cubits wide, the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for he made offsets on the wall of the house all around, so that the beams would not be inserted into the walls of the house. ⁷ The house was built of stone prepared at the quarry, and no hammer or axe or any iron tool was heard in the house while it was being built. ⁸ The doorway for the lowest side chamber was on the right side of the house; and they would go up by winding stairs to the middle floor, and from the middle to the third. ⁹ Thus, he constructed the house and completed it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar. ¹⁰ He also built the side chambers against the whole house, each five cubits high; and they were attached to the house with timbers of cedar.

1 Kings

¹¹ Then the Lord came to Solomon, saying, ¹² "As for this house which you are building, if you walk in My statutes, carry out My ordinances, and keep all My commandments by walking in them, then I will fulfil My word with you, which I spoke to your father David.

¹³ And I will reside among the sons of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel."

¹⁴ Thus, Solomon constructed the house and completed it. ¹⁵ He built the walls of the house to the inside with cedar; from the floor of the house to the ceiling he overlaid it with wood on the inside, and he overlaid the floor of the house with boards of juniper. ¹⁶ He also constructed a section of twenty cubits at the rear of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the ceiling; he built them on the inside as an inner sanctuary, known as the Most Holy Place. ¹⁷ The nave, which is the area in front of the inner sanctuary, was forty cubits long. ¹⁸ The interior of the house was adorned with cedar, carved in the shape of gourds and open flowers; everything was cedar, and no stone was visible. ¹⁹ Then he prepared an inner sanctuary within the house to place the ark of the covenant of the Lord. ²⁰ The inner sanctuary measured twenty cubits in length, twenty cubits in width, and twenty cubits in height, and he overlaid it with pure gold. He also covered the altar with cedar.

²¹ So Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold. He drew chains of gold across the front of the inner sanctuary, and he overlaid it with gold. ²² He overlaid the entire house with gold, until all the house was finished. He also overlaid the entire altar that was by the inner sanctuary with gold.

²³ Within the inner sanctuary, he crafted two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high. ²⁴ Five cubits was the length of one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the length of the other wing of the cherub; from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other was ten cubits. ²⁵ The other cherub was ten cubits; both cherubim were of the same size and shape. ²⁶ The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and the other cherub was the same height. ²⁷ He placed the cherubim in the inner house, and the wings of the cherubim were spread out, so that the wing of one was touching one wall, and the wing of the other cherub was touching the other wall, and their wings were touching one another in the centre of the house. ²⁸ He also covered the cherubim with gold.

²⁹ Then he carved all the walls of the house all around with carved engravings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, from the inner room to the outer room. ³⁰ He also overlaid the floor of the house with gold, from the inner room to the outer room.

³¹ For the entrance of the inner sanctuary, he made doors of olive wood, with the lintel and five-sided doorposts. ³² So he made two doors of olive wood, and he carved on them cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he hammered gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees. ³³ Likewise, he crafted four-sided doorposts of olive wood for the entrance of the nave, ³⁴ and made two doors of cypress wood; the two leaves of one door turned on pivots, and the two leaves of the other door turned on pivots. ³⁵ He carved cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers on them, and overlaid them with gold evenly applied on the carved work.

³⁶ And he constructed the inner courtyard with three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams.

³⁷ In the fourth year, during the month of Ziv, the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid. ³⁸ In the eleventh year, in the month of Bul (which is the eighth month), the house was finished throughout all its parts and according to all its plans. So he built it in seven years.

7 Now Solomon built his own house over thirteen years, and he finished all his house. ² He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon; its length was one hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars with cedar beams on the pillars. ³ It was roofed with cedar above the chambers that were on the forty-five pillars, fifteen in each row. ⁴ There were decorative window frames in three rows, and each window faced another window in three tiers. ⁵ All the doorways and doorposts had squared artistic frames, and each window faced another window in three tiers. ⁶ Then he made the Hall of Pillars; its length was fifty cubits and its width thirty cubits, and a porch was in front with pillars and a canopy in front of them. ⁷ He made the Hall of the Throne where he was to judge, the Hall of Judgement, and it was panelled with cedar from floor to ceiling. ⁸ His house where he was to dwell, in the other courtyard inward from the hall, was of the same workmanship. He also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Solomon had taken as a wife.

1 Kings

⁹ All these were made of precious stones, cut to size, sawed with saws inside and out, from the foundation to the eaves, and from the outside to the great court. ¹⁰ The foundation was of precious stones, large stones, stones of ten and eight cubits. ¹¹ And above were precious stones, stone cut to size, and cedar. ¹² So the great courtyard all around had three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams, similar to the inner courtyard of the house of the Lord, and the porch of the house.

¹³ At this time, King Solomon sent for Hiram to come from Tyre. ¹⁴ He was a widow's son from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a bronze worker; and he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill for doing any work in bronze. So he came to King Solomon and performed all his work. ¹⁵ He cast two pillars of bronze; eighteen cubits was the height of one pillar, and a line of twelve cubits measured the circumference of both. ¹⁶ He made two capitals of molten bronze to set on the tops of the pillars; the height of one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits. ¹⁷ There were lattices of latticework and twisted threads of chainwork for the capitals which were on the tops of the pillars, seven for each capital. ¹⁸ So he made the pillars, and two rows of pomegranates all around on the one latticework to cover the capitals that were on top of the pillars; and he did the same for the other capital. ¹⁹ Now the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars in the porch were of lily design, four cubits. ²⁰ And there were capitals on the two pillars even above the rounded section which was beside the latticework, and the pomegranates numbered two hundred in rows all around on each capital. ²¹ And he set up the pillars at the porch of the main hall; he set up the right pillar and named it Jachin, and he set up the left pillar and named it Boaz. ²² On the tops of the pillars was lily design. So the work of the pillars was finished.

²³ He also made the Sea of cast metal, ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in shape, and five cubits high, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference. ²⁴ And under its brim gourds went around it, ten to a cubit, encircling the Sea all around; the gourds were cast in two rows when it was cast. ²⁵ It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; and the Sea was set on top of them, and all their hindquarters turned inward. ²⁶ It was a handbreadth thick, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom; it could hold two thousand baths.

²⁷ Then he made the ten stands of bronze; the length of each stand was four cubits, its width four cubits, and its height three cubits. ²⁸ And this was the design of the stands: they had borders, even borders between the frames; ²⁹ and on the borders which were between the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. And on the frames there was a pedestal above, and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of decorative work. ³⁰ Now each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and its four feet had supports; beneath the basin were cast supports, at the side of each, wreaths. ³¹ Its opening inside the crown at the top was a cubit, and the opening was round, like a pedestal, a cubit and a half in diameter; and also on the opening there were engravings. And their borders were square, not round. ³² And the four wheels were underneath the borders, and the axles of the wheels were on the stand itself; the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half. ³³ The craftsmanship of the wheels was like that of a chariot wheel. Their axles, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all cast. ³⁴ Now there were four supports at the four corners of each stand; these supports were integral to the stand itself. ³⁵ On the top of the stand there was a circular form half a cubit high, and on the top of the stand its stays and its borders were integral to it. ³⁶ And he engraved on the plates of its stays and on its borders, cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the available space on each, with wreaths all around. ³⁷ He made the ten stands in this manner: all of them had a uniform casting, measure, and form.

³⁸ And he made ten basins of bronze, one basin for each of the ten stands; each basin held forty baths and was four cubits; and on each of the ten stands was one basin. ³⁹ Then he set the stands, five on the right side of the house and five on the left side of the house; and he set the Sea on the right side of the house eastward toward the south.

⁴⁰ Now Hiram made the basins, and the shovels, and the bowls. So Hiram finished doing all the work that he performed for King Solomon in the house of the Lord: ⁴¹ the two pillars and the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two latticeworks to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; ⁴² and the four hundred pomegranates for the two latticeworks, two rows of pomegranates for each latticework to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the pillars; ⁴³ as well as the ten stands with their ten basins; ⁴⁴ and the large basin, known as the Sea, and the twelve oxen beneath it; ⁴⁵ and the pots, the shovels, and the bowls. All these utensils which Hiram made for King Solomon in the house of the Lord were of polished bronze. ⁴⁶ In the plain of the Jordan, the king cast them, in the clay soil between Succoth and Zarethan. ⁴⁷ Solomon left all the utensils unweighed, because they were too many; the weight of the bronze could not be determined.

1 Kings

⁴⁸ Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in the house of the Lord: the golden altar and the golden table on which was the bread of the Presence; ⁴⁹ and the lampstands, five on the right side and five on the left, in front of the inner sanctuary, of pure gold, with the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of gold; ⁵⁰ and the cups, the snuffers, the bowls, the spoons, and the firepans, of pure gold; and the hinges for the doors of the inner house, that is, for the Most Holy Place, and for the doors of the house, that is, of the nave, of gold.

⁵¹ So all the work that King Solomon performed in the house of the Lord was finished. And Solomon brought in the things that his father David had dedicated: the silver, the gold, and the utensils; and he put them in the treasuries of the house of the Lord.

8 Then Solomon gathered the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the ancestral houses of the sons of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord from the city of David, which is Zion. ² All the men of Israel gathered before King Solomon at the feast, in the month of Ethanim, which is the seventh month. ³ Then all the elders of Israel arrived, and the priests carried the ark. ⁴ They brought up the ark of the Lord, the tent of meeting, and all the sacred utensils which were in the tent; and the priests and the Levites carried them up. ⁵

And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were gathered to him, were with him before the ark, offering so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered. ⁶ Then the priests placed the ark of the covenant of the Lord in its position, within the inner sanctuary of the house, to the Most Holy Place, beneath the wings of the cherubim. ⁷ For the cherubim spread their wings over the location of the ark, and the cherubim provided a covering over the ark and its poles from above. ⁸ But the poles were so long that the ends of the poles could be seen from the holy place in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen outside; they remain there to this day. ⁹ There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses placed there at Horeb, where the Lord made a covenant with the sons of Israel when they came out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰ And when the priests exited the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the Lord, ¹¹ so that the priests were unable to stand and minister due to the cloud, for the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord.

¹² Then Solomon said, "The Lord has declared that He would dwell in the thick cloud. ¹³ I have indeed built You a magnificent house, a place for Your dwelling forever."

¹⁴ Then the king turned to bless all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel stood. ¹⁵ He said, "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David, and has fulfilled it with His hands, saying, ¹⁶ 'Since the day that I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I did not choose a city from all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house so that My name would be there, but I chose David to be over My people Israel.'

¹⁷ Now it was in the heart of my father David to construct a house for the name of the Lord, the God of Israel. ¹⁸ But the Lord said to my father David, 'I saw it was in your heart to build a house for My name, and you have done well to have this desire. ¹⁹ But, you shall not build the house, for your son who will be born to you, will build the house for My name.'

²⁰ Now the Lord has fulfilled His word which He spoke, for I have risen in place of my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and I have built the house for the name of the Lord, the God of Israel. ²¹ And I have set there a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the Lord, which He made with our fathers when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.”

1 Kings

²² Then Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and lifted his hands toward heaven. ²³ He said, “O Lord, God of Israel, there is no God like You in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping the covenant and showing faithfulness to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart, ²⁴ who have kept with Your servant, my father David, that which You promised him; You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day. ²⁵ Now then, Lord, the God of Israel, keep with Your servant David my father what You have promised him, saying, ‘You shall not lack a man to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons are careful about their way, to walk before Me as you have walked.’ ²⁶ Now then, God of Israel, let Your word be confirmed, which You have spoken to Your servant, my father David.

²⁷ But can God truly dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heavens cannot contain You, how much less this house which I have built! ²⁸ Yet, please turn Your attention to the prayer of Your servant and to his plea, Lord my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You today, ²⁹ so that Your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, toward the place of which You have said, ‘My name shall be there,’ to listen to the prayer which Your servant will pray toward this place. ³⁰ And listen to the plea of Your servant and of Your people Israel when they pray toward this place; hear in heaven Your dwelling place; and when You hear, forgive.

³¹ If someone sins against his neighbour and is required to take an oath, and he comes and swears before Your altar in this house, ³² then hear in heaven and act, judging Your servants, condemning the wicked by bringing his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

³³ When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, if they turn to You again and confess Your name and pray and plead with You in this house, ³⁴ then hear in heaven, forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and restore them to the land which You gave to their fathers.

³⁵ When the skies are closed and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and confess Your name and turn from their sin when You afflict them, ³⁶ then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and of Your people Israel; indeed, teach them the good way in which they are to walk. And send rain on Your land, which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

³⁷ If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, if their enemy besieges them in the land of their cities, whatever plague, whatever sickness there is, ³⁸ whatever prayer or plea is made by anyone or by all Your people Israel, each knowing the affliction of his own heart, and spreading his hands toward this house, ³⁹ then hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and act and give to each one according to all his ways, whose heart You know—for You alone know the hearts of all mankind— ⁴⁰ so that they may fear You all the days that they live in the land which You have given to our fathers.

⁴¹ Also concerning the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel, when he comes from a distant country for the sake of Your name ⁴² (for they will hear of Your great name, and Your mighty hand, and Your outstretched arm), when he comes and prays toward this house, ⁴³ hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, so that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, to fear You as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name.

⁴⁴ When Your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way You send them, and they pray to the Lord toward the city You have chosen and the house I have built for Your name, ⁴⁵ then hear in heaven their prayer and their pleading, and support their cause.

⁴⁶ When they sin against You (for there is no one who does not sin), and You are angry with them and turn them over to the enemy, so that they are taken away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near; ⁴⁷ if they take it to heart in the land where they have been taken captive, and repent and plead with

1 Kings

You in the land of their captors, saying, 'We have sinned and done wrong, we have acted wickedly';⁴⁸ if they return to You with all their heart and all their soul in the land of their enemies who have taken them captive, and pray to You toward their land which You have given to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name,⁴⁹ then hear in heaven Your dwelling place their prayer and their pleading, and support their cause,⁵⁰ and forgive Your people who have sinned against You, and all their offences which they have committed against You, and make them objects of compassion before those who have taken them captive, so that they will have compassion on them.⁵¹ For they are Your people and Your inheritance whom You brought out of Egypt, from the midst of the iron furnace—⁵² so that Your eyes may be open to the plea of Your servant and to the plea of Your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they call to You.⁵³ For You have separated them from all the peoples of the earth as Your inheritance, just as You spoke through Moses Your servant, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God."

⁵⁴ When Solomon had finished praying this entire prayer and plea to the Lord, he got up from in front of the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread toward heaven.⁵⁵ And he rose and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying,⁵⁶ "Blessed be the Lord, who has given rest to His people Israel, in accordance with everything that He promised; not one word has failed of all His good promise, which He promised through Moses His servant.⁵⁷ May the Lord our God be with us, as He was with our fathers; may He not leave us nor abandon us,⁵⁸ so that He may guide our hearts to Himself, to walk in all His ways and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His ordinances, which He commanded our fathers.⁵⁹ And may these words of mine, with which I have pleaded before the Lord, be near to the Lord our God day and night, so that He may support the cause of His servant and the cause of His people Israel, as each day requires,⁶⁰ so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the Lord is God; there is none else.⁶¹ Let your heart therefore be wholly devoted to the Lord our God, to walk in His statutes and to keep His commandments, as on this day."

⁶² Then the king, along with all Israel, offered sacrifices before the Lord.⁶³ Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the Lord, twenty-two thousand oxen and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord.⁶⁴ On the same day the king consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the house of the Lord, because there he offered the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat of the peace offerings; for the bronze altar that was before the Lord was too small to hold the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat of the peace offerings.⁶⁵ So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt, before the Lord our God, for seven days and another seven days, fourteen days in all.⁶⁶ On the eighth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the king. Then they went to their tents joyful and happy of heart because of all the goodness that the Lord had shown to David His servant, and to His people Israel.

9 When Solomon had completed the construction of the house of the Lord, and the king's house, and all that Solomon wished to accomplish,² the Lord appeared to Solomon again, in the same manner as He had at Gibeon.³ And the Lord said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your plea which you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built, by putting My name there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there always.⁴ As for you, if you will walk before Me as your father David walked, in integrity of heart and uprightness, to do in accordance with everything that I have commanded you, and will keep My statutes and My ordinances,⁵ then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel permanently, just as I promised to your father David, saying, 'You shall always have a successor on the throne of Israel.'⁶ But if you or your sons indeed turn away from following Me, and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have placed before you, and you go and serve other gods and worship them,⁷ then I will cut Israel off from the land which I have given them, and the house which I have consecrated for My name, I will expel from My sight. So Israel will become a proverb and an object of ridicule among all peoples.⁸ And this house will become a heap of ruins; everyone who passes by it will be appalled and hiss and say, 'Why has the Lord done such a thing to this land and to this house?' ⁹ And they will say, 'Because they abandoned the Lord their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and they adopted other gods and worshipped and served them; therefore the Lord has brought all this adversity upon them.'

1 Kings

¹⁰ At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon had constructed the two houses, the house of the Lord and the king's house, ¹¹ since Hiram king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress timber and gold according to all his wishes, King Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. ¹² So Hiram came from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, but they did not please him. ¹³ And he said, "What are these cities which you have given me, my brother?" So he called them the land of Cabul to this day. ¹⁴ And Hiram sent to the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold.

¹⁵ Now this is the account of the forced labour which King Solomon conscripted to build the house of the Lord, his own house, the Millo, the wall of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer. ¹⁶ Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and captured Gezer, and burned it with fire, and had killed the Canaanites who lived in the city, and had given it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife. ¹⁷ Thus Solomon rebuilt Gezer, and Lower Beth-horon, ¹⁸ Baalath and Tamar in the wilderness region of Judah, ¹⁹ and all the storage cities which Solomon had, the cities for his chariots and for his horsemen, and everything that it pleased Solomon to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land under his dominion.

²⁰ Regarding the people who remained of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the sons of Israel, ²¹ their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel were unable to completely eliminate, Solomon imposed forced labour on them to this day. ²² But Solomon did not make slaves from the sons of Israel; they were men of war, his servants, his commanders, his captains, chariot commanders, and his horsemen. ²³ These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty in number, who supervised the people doing the work.

²⁴ When Pharaoh's daughter came up from the city of David to her house which Solomon had built for her, he then constructed the Millo. ²⁵ Now three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he built to the Lord, burning incense with them on the altar which was before the Lord. So he finished the house.

²⁶ King Solomon also built a fleet of ships at Ezion-geber, which is near Elath on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. ²⁷ And Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, sailors who knew the sea, along with Solomon's servants. ²⁸ They journeyed to Ophir and acquired four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

10 When the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame related to the name of the Lord, she came to challenge him with profound questions. ² She came to Jerusalem with a very large entourage, with camels carrying spices, and very much gold, and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart. ³ Solomon responded to all her inquiries; nothing was concealed from the king that he did not clarify for her. ⁴ When the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, ⁵ the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the attendance of his ministers and their attire, his cupbearers, and his stairway by which he went up to the house of the Lord, there was no more spirit in her. ⁶ Then she said to the king, "The report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom was true. ⁷ But I did not believe the reports until I came and saw with my own eyes. And behold, the half was not told to me! You exceed in wisdom and prosperity the report which I heard. ⁸ Blessed are your men, blessed are these servants who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom. ⁹ Blessed be the Lord your God, who delighted in you to set you on the throne of Israel! Because the Lord loved Israel forever, He made you king, to do justice and righteousness." ¹⁰ Then she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, a very great amount of spices, and precious stones. Never again did such abundance of spices come as that which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹¹ Also the ships of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir a very great quantity of almug wood and precious stones.¹² The king made from the almug wood supports for the house of the Lord and for the king's house, lyres also and harps for the singers; such almug wood has not come in again nor been seen to this day.

1 Kings

¹³ King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she requested, besides what he gave her from his royal bounty. Then she turned and went to her own land, she and her servants.

¹⁴ The amount of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold,¹⁵ besides that from the traders and the wares of the merchants and all the kings of the Arabs and the governors of the land.¹⁶ King Solomon crafted two hundred large shields of beaten gold, six hundred shekels of gold were used for each shield.¹⁷ And he fashioned three hundred shields of beaten gold, three minas of gold were used for each shield; and the king placed them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.¹⁸ Furthermore, the king constructed a great throne of ivory and covered it with refined gold.¹⁹ There were six steps to the throne and a rounded top at its rear, with arms on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the arms.²⁰ Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps, one on each side; nothing like it was made for any other kingdom.²¹ All of King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None was of silver; it was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon.

²² For the king had at sea the ships of Tarshish with the ships of Hiram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.²³ So King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in wealth and in wisdom.²⁴ The whole world sought an audience with Solomon, to hear the wisdom that God had placed in his heart.²⁵ And they brought every man his gift: articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

²⁶ Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.²⁷ The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamores in the lowland.²⁸ Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Kue; the king's traders acquired them from Kue for a price.²⁹ A chariot was imported from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty; and by their means they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of Aram.

11 Now King Solomon loved many foreign women in addition to the daughter of Pharaoh: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women,² from the nations concerning which the Lord had said to the sons of Israel, "You shall not associate with them, nor shall they associate with you; they will surely turn your heart away after their gods." Solomon clung to these in love.³ He had seven hundred wives of royal birth, and three hundred concubines, and his wives influenced his heart.⁴ For when Solomon was old, his wives led his heart astray after other gods; and his heart was not wholly devoted to the Lord his God, as the heart of his father David had been.⁵ Solomon pursued Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and Milcom, the idol of the Ammonites.⁶ Solomon acted in a way displeasing to the Lord, and did not follow the Lord completely, as David his father had done.⁷ Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the idol of Moab, on the mountain that is east of Jerusalem, and for Molech, the idol of the sons of Ammon.⁸ He did similarly for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and offered sacrifices to their gods.

⁹ Now the Lord was displeased with Solomon because his heart had turned away from the Lord, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice,¹⁰ and had commanded him about this matter, that he was not to follow other gods. But he did not comply with what the Lord had commanded.¹¹ So the Lord said to Solomon, "Since this has been done by you, and you have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant.¹² However, I will not do it in your days for the sake of your father David, but I will tear it away from the hand of your son.¹³ Yet I will not remove the entire kingdom, but I will give one tribe to your son, for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."

1 Kings

¹⁴ Then the Lord brought forth an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the royal lineage in Edom. ¹⁵ For when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, he struck down every male in Edom. ¹⁶ For Joab and all Israel stayed there for six months, until he had dealt with every male in Edom. ¹⁷ But Hadad fled to Egypt, he and certain Edomites from his father's servants with him, while Hadad was still a young boy. ¹⁸ They set out from Midian and came to Paran, and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who provided him with a house, and assigned him food, and gave him land. ¹⁹ Now Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, and he gave him as a wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. ²⁰ The sister of Tahpenes gave birth to his son Genubath, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house, and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh. ²¹ But when Hadad heard in Egypt that David lay down with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Send me away, that I may go to my own country." ²² Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that now you are seeking to go to your own country?" And he said, "Nothing; nevertheless, you must surely let me go."

²³ God also raised up another adversary for him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah. ²⁴ He gathered men to himself and became leader of a band, when David killed those of Zobah; and they went to Damascus and stayed there, and reigned in Damascus. ²⁵ So he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, along with the evil that Hadad did; and he hated Israel and reigned over Aram.

²⁶ Now Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Zeredah, the servant of Solomon—whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow—also raised his hand against the king. ²⁷ Now this was the reason why he raised his hand against the king: Solomon built the Millo and closed the gap of the city of his father David. ²⁸ Now the man Jeroboam was a valiant warrior, and when Solomon saw that the young man was industrious, he appointed him over all the forced labour of the house of Joseph.

²⁹ Now it came about at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the

Shilonite found him on the road. Now he had covered himself with a new cloak, and the two of them were alone in the field. ³⁰ Then Ahijah took hold of the new cloak he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces. ³¹ And he said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces for yourself; for this is what the Lord, the God of Israel says: 'Behold, I am going to tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and give you ten tribes. ³² But he shall retain one tribe, for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, ³³ because they have abandoned Me, and have bowed down to Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, to Chemosh the god of Moab, and to Milcom the god of the sons of Ammon, and they have not walked in My ways, nor done what is right in My sight, nor kept My statutes and My ordinances, as his father David did. ³⁴ Nevertheless, I will not take the entire kingdom out of his hand, but I will make him ruler all the days of his life, for the sake of My servant David whom I chose, who kept My commandments and My statutes. ³⁵ But I will take the kingdom from his son's hand and give it to you—that is, ten tribes. ³⁶ But to his son I will give one tribe, so that My servant David may always have a light before Me in Jerusalem, the city where I have chosen for Myself to put My name. ³⁷ Yet, I will take you, and you shall rule over all that your heart desires, and you shall be king over Israel. ³⁸ Then it shall be, if you listen to all that I command you and walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight by keeping My statutes and My commandments, as My servant David did, then I will be with you and build you an enduring house as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you. ³⁹ So I will afflict the descendants of David for this, but not forever.'"

⁴⁰ Solomon sought to put Jeroboam to death, but Jeroboam got up and fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and he stayed in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

⁴¹ Now the rest of Solomon's deeds, and all that he accomplished, and his wisdom, are they not recorded in the Book of the Acts of Solomon? ⁴² Thus, Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years. ⁴³ Then Solomon lay down with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David, and his son Rehoboam became king in his place.

1 Kings

12 Rehoboam travelled to Shechem, for all Israel had gathered there to crown him king. ² Now when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, he was still in Egypt where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon, and Jeroboam remained in Egypt. ³ And they sent word and called him, and Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, ⁴ "Your father made our yoke hard; now therefore lighten the hard labour and the heavy yoke which your father put on us, and we will serve you." ⁵ Then he said to them, "Go away for three days, then return to me." So the people departed.

⁶ Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, "How do you advise me to answer this people?" ⁷ They spoke to him, saying, "If you will be a servant to this people today, and serve them and grant them their request and speak kind words to them, then they will be your servants forever." ⁸ But he abandoned the advice of the elders which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who had grown up with him and served him. ⁹ He said to them, "What advice do you give, that we may answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us?'" ¹⁰ The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "This is what you should say to this people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, now you make it lighter for us!' You shall say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins! ¹¹ Although my father placed a heavy yoke upon you, I will increase it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.'"

¹² Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had instructed, saying, "Return to me on the third day." ¹³ The king answered the people harshly, for he had forsaken the advice of the elders which they had given him, ¹⁴ and he spoke to them following the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions." ¹⁵ So the king did not listen to the people, for it was a turn of events from the Lord, so that He might establish His word, which the Lord spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶ When all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them, the people answered the king, saying, "What portion do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse! To your tents, O Israel! Now see to your own house, O David!" So Israel departed to their tents. ¹⁷ However, concerning the Israelites who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam continued to reign over them. ¹⁸ Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the forced labour, but all Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam made haste to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹ Thus, Israel has continued to resist the house of David to this day.

²⁰ And it came about, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. None followed the house of David except the tribe of Judah alone. ²¹ Now when Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men, to fight against the house of Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. ²² However, the Lord's message came to Shemaiah, the man of God, saying, ²³ "Convey to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and to the rest of the people, saying, ²⁴ 'This is what the Lord says: You shall not go up, nor fight against your relatives, the sons of Israel; return every man to his house, for this matter is from Me.'" So they listened to the word of the Lord, and returned and went their way, according to the word of the Lord.

²⁵ Jeroboam established Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and settled there. He then went out and built Penuel. ²⁶ Jeroboam thought to himself, "Now the kingdom will revert to the house of David. ²⁷ If these people continue to offer sacrifices in the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, their hearts will turn back to their master, to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah." ²⁸ So the king sought counsel, and made two golden calves, and he said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem; behold your gods, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt." ²⁹ He placed one in Bethel, and the other he positioned in Dan. ³⁰ This act led to sin, for the people went to worship before the one as far as Dan.

1 Kings

³¹ And he constructed shrines on high places, and appointed priests from among all the people who were not of the sons of Levi. ³² Jeroboam instituted a feast in the eighth month on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he went up to the altar; so he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves which he had made. And he stationed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made. ³³ Then he went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, in the month which he had devised in his own heart; and he instituted a feast for the sons of Israel, and went up to the altar to burn incense.

13 Now behold, a man of God came from Judah to Bethel by the word of the Lord, while Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense. ² And he cried out against the altar by the word of the Lord, and said, "Altar, altar, this is what the Lord says: 'Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name; and on you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and human bones shall be burned on you.'" ³ Then he provided a sign that day, saying, "This is the sign the Lord has declared: Behold, the altar shall be broken apart, and the ashes upon it shall be spilled out." ⁴ Now when the king heard the word of the man of God, which he cried out against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Seize him!" But his hand which he had stretched out toward him dried up, so that he could not draw it back to himself. ⁵ The altar also was torn to pieces, and the ashes were poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the Lord. ⁶ Then the king responded and said to the man of God, "Please appease the Lord your God, and pray for me, so that my hand may be restored to me." So the man of God appeased the Lord, and the king's hand was restored to him, and it became as it was before. ⁷ Then the king invited the man of God, saying, "Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a gift." ⁸ But the man of God replied to the king, "Even if you were to offer me half your possessions, I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water in this place." ⁹ For I was instructed by the word of the Lord, saying, 'You shall not eat bread, nor drink water, nor return by the way that you came.'" ¹⁰

So he took a different path and did not return by the way that he had come to Bethel.

¹¹ Now an old prophet was living in Bethel, and his sons came and told him all the deeds which the man of God had done that day in Bethel; they also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king. ¹² And their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" Now his sons had seen the way the man of God went, who had come from Judah. ¹³ Then he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled the donkey for him, and he mounted it. ¹⁴ And he pursued the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. And he said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" And he replied, "I am." ¹⁵ Then he invited him, "Come home with me and eat bread." ¹⁶ But he said, "I am unable to return with you or accompany you, nor will I eat bread or drink water with you in this place." ¹⁷ For I received a command by the word of the Lord: 'You shall not eat bread nor drink water there; do not return by going the way that you came.'" ¹⁸ But he said to him, "I also am a prophet like you, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the Lord, saying, 'Bring him back with you to your house, so that he may eat bread and drink water.'" But he lied to him. ¹⁹ Thus, he returned with him, and they shared a meal and drank water in his house.

²⁰ Now it came about, as they were sitting at the table, that the word of the Lord came to the prophet who had brought him back; ²¹ and he proclaimed to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, "This is what the Lord says: 'Because you have disobeyed the Lord's command, and have not kept the commandment which the Lord your God instructed you,' ²² but have returned and eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which He said to you, 'Do not eat bread nor drink water,' your dead body shall not come to the grave of your fathers.'" ²³ And it came about after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for him, for the prophet whom he had brought back. ²⁴ Now when he had gone, a lion met him on the road and killed him, and his dead body was thrown on the road, with the donkey standing beside it, and the lion was standing beside the dead body. ²⁵ And behold, men passed by and saw the dead body thrown on the road, and the lion standing beside the body; so they came and told about it in the city where the old prophet lived.

1 Kings

²⁶ Now when the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard about it, he said, "It is the man of God, who disobeyed the command of the Lord; therefore the Lord has given him to the lion, and it has torn him and killed him, according to the word of the Lord which He spoke to him." ²⁷ Then he instructed his sons, saying, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled it. ²⁸ And he went and found his dead body thrown on the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside the dead body; the lion had not eaten the dead body nor attacked the donkey. ²⁹ So the prophet picked up the dead body of the man of God, and laid it on the donkey, and brought it back; and he came to the city of the old prophet, to mourn and to bury him. ³⁰ And he laid his dead body in his own grave, and they mourned over him, saying, "Oh, my brother!" ³¹ Now it came about, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, "When I die, bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones. ³² For the word shall certainly come to pass which he cried out by the word of the Lord against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria."

³³ After this event, Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but he again made priests of the high places from among all the people; any who wanted, he ordained, so they became priests of the high places. ³⁴ This event also became sin for the house of Jeroboam, to wipe it out and eliminate it from the face of the earth.

14 During that period, Abijah, the son of Jeroboam, fell ill. ² And Jeroboam said to his wife, "Please arise and disguise yourself so that they will not know that you are the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh. Behold, Ahijah the prophet is there, the one who said about me that I would be king over this people. ³ Take ten loaves of bread with you, some cakes, and a jug of honey, and go to him; he will tell you what will happen to the boy." ⁴ So Jeroboam's wife did so, and set out and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were dim because of his age. ⁵ But the Lord had said to Ahijah, "Behold, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to inquire of you concerning her son, for he is sick. You shall say such and such to her, for it will be when she arrives, that she will pretend to be someone else." ⁶

So when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet coming in the doorway, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam! Why are you pretending to be someone else? I have been sent to you with a harsh message. ⁷ Go, tell Jeroboam, 'This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, declares: "I raised you from among the people and appointed you as leader over My people Israel, ⁸ and tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you— yet you have not been like My servant David, who kept My commandments and followed Me with all his heart, to do only that which was right in My sight— ⁹ you have committed more evil than all who were before you, and you have gone and created other gods and cast metal images, provoking Me to anger, and have cast Me aside— ¹⁰ therefore, behold, I am bringing disaster on the house of Jeroboam, and will eliminate from Jeroboam every male person, both bond and free in Israel, and I will sweep away the house of Jeroboam, as one sweeps away refuse until it is all gone. ¹¹ Those belonging to Jeroboam who die in the city, the dogs will consume, and those who die in the field, the birds of the sky will consume; for the Lord has spoken it." ¹² Now you, arise, return to your house. When your feet enter the city, the child will pass away. ¹³ And all Israel will mourn for him and bury him, for he alone of Jeroboam's family will come to the grave, because in him something good was found toward the Lord, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. ¹⁴ Moreover, the Lord will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who will eliminate the house of Jeroboam on that day. Now and from now on! ¹⁵ For the Lord will strike Israel, just as the reed shakes in the water; and He will uproot Israel from this good land which He gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the Euphrates River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking the Lord to anger. ¹⁶ And He will give up Israel on account of the sins of Jeroboam, which he committed and with which he misled Israel into sin." ¹⁷ Then Jeroboam's wife arose and departed, and came to Tirzah. As she was crossing the threshold of the house, the child passed away. ¹⁸ And all Israel buried him and mourned for him, in accordance with the word of the Lord, which He had spoken through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

¹⁹ Now regarding the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, his wars and his reign, behold, they are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. ²⁰

1 Kings

And the duration of Jeroboam's reign was twenty-two years; and he rested with his ancestors, and his son Nadab succeeded him as king.

²¹ Now Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the Lord had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to place His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. ²² And Judah did evil in the sight of the Lord, and they provoked Him to jealousy more than all that their fathers had done, with the sins which they committed. ²³ For they also built for themselves high places, memorial stones, and Asherim on every high hill and under every luxuriant tree. ²⁴ There were also male cult prostitutes in the land. They committed all the abominations of the nations which the Lord dispossessed before the sons of Israel. ²⁵ In the fifth year of King Rehoboam's reign, Shishak, the king of Egypt, advanced against Jerusalem. ²⁶ And he took the treasures of the house of the Lord and the treasures of the king's house, and he took everything; he also took all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. ²⁷ So King Rehoboam made shields of bronze to replace them, and entrusted them to the care of the commanders of the guard who protected the entrance to the king's house. ²⁸ And it happened that as often as the king entered the house of the Lord, the guards would carry them and bring them back into the guards' room.

²⁹ Now concerning the rest of the acts of Rehoboam and all that he did, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ³⁰ And conflict and war persisted between Rehoboam and Jeroboam throughout their reigns. ³¹ And Rehoboam rested with his ancestors and was buried with them in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. And his son Abijam succeeded him as king.

15 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, son of Nebat, Abijam began his reign over Judah. ² He ruled for three years in Jerusalem, and his mother was Maacah, daughter of Abishalom. ³ He followed in all the transgressions of his father, which he had committed before him, and his heart was not fully devoted to the Lord his God, unlike the heart of his ancestor David. ⁴ Yet for David's sake, the Lord his God provided a lamp in Jerusalem, by raising up his son after him and establishing Jerusalem; ⁵ because David acted rightly in the eyes of the Lord, and did not deviate from anything He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter concerning Uriah the Hittite. ⁶ And there was ongoing conflict between Rehoboam and Jeroboam throughout his life. ⁷ As for the other deeds of Abijam and all that he accomplished, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. ⁸ Abijam rested with his ancestors, and they buried him in the city of David; and his son Asa succeeded him as king.

⁹ In the twentieth year of Jeroboam's reign over Israel, Asa became king over Judah. ¹⁰ He ruled for forty-one years in Jerusalem, and his mother was Maacah, daughter of Abishalom. ¹¹ Asa did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, like his forefather David. ¹² He also expelled the male shrine prostitutes from the land, and removed all the idols that his ancestors had made. ¹³ And he also removed Maacah his mother from her position as queen mother, because she had made an offensive image as an Asherah; and Asa cut down her offensive image and burned it at the brook Kidron. ¹⁴ But the high places were not eliminated; nevertheless, the heart of Asa was fully devoted to the Lord all his days. ¹⁵ And he brought into the house of the Lord the holy offerings of his father and his own holy offerings: silver, gold, and utensils.

¹⁶ There was ongoing conflict and war between Asa and Baasha, king of Israel, throughout their reigns. ¹⁷ And Baasha, king of Israel, went up against Judah and fortified Ramah, to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to Asa, king of Judah. ¹⁸ Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasuries of the house of the Lord and the treasuries of the king's house, and handed them over to his servants; and King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, son of Tabrimmon, son of Hezion, king of Aram, who lived in Damascus, saying, ¹⁹ "Let there be a treaty between you and me, as between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you a gift of silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha, king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me." ²⁰ So Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, and they conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-bethmaacah, all Chinneroth, besides all the land of Naphtali. ²¹ Upon hearing of it, Baasha ceased fortifying Ramah and stayed in Tirzah. ²² Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah—none was exempt—and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had built, and King Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

1 Kings

²³ Now as for all the acts of Asa and all his might and everything that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age, he suffered from a disease in his feet. ²⁴ And Asa rested with his ancestors and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David; and his son Jehoshaphat succeeded him as king.

²⁵ Nadab, son of Jeroboam, became king over Israel in the second year of Asa, king of Judah, and he ruled over Israel for two years. ²⁶ He did what was evil in the eyes of the Lord, and followed in the ways of his father and in his sin, into which he led Israel.

²⁷ Then Baasha, son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar, conspired against him, and Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. ²⁸ Thus, Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa, king of Judah, and took over the throne.

²⁹ And as soon as he became king, he struck down all the household of Jeroboam. He did not leave to Jeroboam anyone alive, but wiped them out completely, according to the word of the Lord, which He had spoken through His servant Ahijah the Shilonite, ³⁰ because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he committed, and into which he led Israel, because of his provocation with which he provoked the Lord God of Israel to anger.

³¹ Now as for the rest of the acts of Nadab and everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ³² And there was continuous conflict between Asa and Baasha, king of Israel, throughout their reigns.

³³ In the third year of Asa, king of Judah, Baasha, son of Ahijah, became king over all Israel at Tirzah, and reigned for twenty-four years. ³⁴ He did what was evil in the eyes of the Lord, and followed in the ways of Jeroboam and in his sin, into which he led Israel.

16 The message from the Lord was delivered to Jehu the son of Hanani concerning Baasha, saying, ² “Since I exalted you from the dust and made you leader over My people Israel, but you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have caused My people Israel to sin, provoking Me to anger with their sins, ³ behold, I am going to consume Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

⁴ Anyone belonging to Baasha who dies in the city the dogs will eat, and anyone who dies in the field the birds of the sky will eat.” ⁵ As for the other deeds of Baasha, his actions and his strength, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ⁶ And Baasha passed away and was laid to rest in Tirzah, and his son Elah succeeded him as king. ⁷ Moreover, the word of the Lord through the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani also came against Baasha and his household, because of all the evil which he did in the sight of the Lord, provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, by being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck it.

⁸ In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began his reign over Israel at Tirzah, and he ruled for two years. ⁹ But his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now Elah was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was in charge of the household at Tirzah. ¹⁰ Then Zimri came in and struck him and put him to death in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and became king in his place. ¹¹ When he became king, as soon as he sat on his throne, he struck down all the household of Baasha; he did not leave a single male, neither of his relatives nor of his friends. ¹² Thus, Zimri destroyed all the household of Baasha, in accordance with the word of the Lord which He spoke against Baasha through Jehu the prophet, ¹³ because of all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, which they committed and into which they led Israel, provoking the Lord God of Israel to anger with their idols. ¹⁴ As for the other deeds of Elah and all that he did, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

¹⁵ In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned for seven days at Tirzah. Now the people were camped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. ¹⁶ And the people who were camped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired and also struck down the king." So all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. ¹⁷ Omri and all Israel with him advanced from Gibbethon and laid siege to Tirzah. ¹⁸ When Zimri saw that the city was captured, he went into the citadel of the king's house, and set fire to the king's house around him, and perished, ¹⁹ because of his sins which he committed, doing evil in the sight of the Lord, by walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in the sin which he committed, making Israel sin. ²⁰ As for the other deeds of Zimri and his conspiracy which he carried out, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

1 Kings

²¹ Then the people of Israel were divided into two factions: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; the other half followed Omri. ²² However, the followers of Omri were stronger than the followers of Tibni the son of Ginath. So Tibni died, and Omri became king. ²³ In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began his reign over Israel and reigned for twelve years; he ruled six years at Tirzah. ²⁴ He purchased the hill Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver, and he built on the hill, naming the city he constructed Samaria, after Shemer, the former owner of the hill. ²⁵ But Omri did evil in the sight of the Lord, and acted more wickedly than all who were before him. ²⁶ For he followed entirely in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins into which he misled Israel, provoking the Lord God of Israel to anger with their worthless idols. ²⁷ As for the other deeds of Omri which he accomplished and his might which he displayed, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ²⁸ And Omri passed away and was laid to rest in Samaria, and his son Ahab succeeded him as king.

²⁹ Now Ahab the son of Omri began his reign over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, and Ahab the son of Omri ruled over Israel in Samaria for twenty-two years. ³⁰ Ahab the son of Omri acted more wickedly in the sight of the Lord than all who were before him. ³¹ And it came about, as though it had been a trivial matter for him to follow the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he also took Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians as his wife, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. ³² So he constructed an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he built in Samaria. ³³ Ahab also made the Asherah. Thus, Ahab did more to provoke the Lord God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him. ³⁴ In his days Hiel the Bethelite rebuilt Jericho; he laid its foundations at the cost of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, in accordance with the word of the Lord, which He spoke through Joshua the son of Nun.

17 Now Elijah the Tishbite, who was among the settlers of Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the Lord, the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall certainly be neither dew nor rain during these years, except by my word." ² Then a message from the Lord came to him, saying, ³ "Depart from here and head eastward, and conceal yourself by the brook Cherith, which is east of the Jordan. ⁴ You shall drink from the brook, and I have instructed the ravens to bring you food there." ⁵ So he went and acted according to the word of the Lord, for he went and resided by the brook Cherith, which is east of the Jordan. ⁶ The ravens delivered bread and meat to him in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the brook. ⁷ After some time, the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

⁸ Then a message from the Lord came to him, saying, ⁹ "Get up, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and reside there. Behold, I have instructed a widow there to provide you with food." ¹⁰ So he arose and went to Zarephath, and when he came to the entrance of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, "Please bring me a little water in a cup, so that I may drink." ¹¹ As she was going to get it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand as well." ¹² But she said, "As the Lord your God lives, I have no food, only a handful of flour in the bowl and a little oil in the jar. And behold, I am gathering a few sticks so that I may go in and prepare it for me and my son, so that we may eat it and then die." ¹³ Then Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go, do as you have said. But first make a little bread cake for me from it, and bring it out to me, and afterward you may make one for yourself and your son. ¹⁴ For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel says: 'The bowl of flour shall not be used up, nor shall the jar of oil become empty, until the day that the Lord provides rain on the face of the land.”¹⁵ So she went and did as Elijah had said, and she and he and her household had food for many days.¹⁶ The bowl of flour was not used up, nor did the jar of oil become empty, just as the word of the Lord had spoken through Elijah.

1 Kings

¹⁷ Now it happened after these things that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick. And his illness was very severe, until there was no breath left in him.¹⁸ So she said to Elijah, “What do I have to do with you, man of God? You have come to me to bring my guilt to remembrance and to put my son to death!”¹⁹ But he said to her, “Give me your son.” Then he took him from her arms and carried him up to the upstairs room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed.²⁰ And he called to the Lord and said, “O Lord my God, have You also brought tragedy to the widow with whom I am staying, by causing her son to die?”²¹ Then he stretched himself out over the boy three times, and called to the Lord and said, “O Lord my God, please let this boy’s life return to him.”²² And the Lord heeded Elijah’s voice, and the life of the boy returned to him and he revived.²³ Elijah took the boy and brought him down from the upstairs room into the house, and gave him to his mother; and Elijah said, “See, your son is alive.”²⁴ Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I am certain that you are a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in your mouth is true.”

18 After a long period, the word of the Lord came to Elijah in the third year, instructing him, “Go, present yourself to Ahab, and I will bring rain upon the land.”² Thus, Elijah set out to present himself to Ahab. At that time, the famine was intense in Samaria.³ And Ahab summoned Obadiah, who was in charge of the household. (Obadiah greatly revered the Lord.⁴ For when Jezebel sought to destroy the prophets of the Lord, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them in groups of fifty in a cave, and supplied them with bread and water.)⁵ Then Ahab said to Obadiah, “Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the valleys; perhaps we will find grass to keep the horses and mules alive, and not have to kill some of the livestock.”⁶ So they divided the land between them to explore it; Ahab went one way on his own, and Obadiah went another way on his own.⁷ Now as Obadiah was on the way, behold, Elijah met him, and he recognised him and fell on his face and said, “Is it you, Elijah my master?”⁸ And he said to him, “Yes, it is I. Go, tell your master, ‘Behold, Elijah is here.’”⁹ But he said, “What wrong have I done, that you are delivering your servant to Ahab, to be put to death?”¹⁰ As surely as the Lord your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent to search for you; and when they said, ‘He is not here,’ he made the kingdom or nation swear that they could not find you.¹¹ And now you are telling me, ‘Go, tell your master, “Behold, Elijah is here.”’¹² And it will come about when I leave you that the Spirit of the Lord will carry you where I do not know, so when I come and tell Ahab and he does not find you, he will kill me, though I your servant have revered the Lord from my youth.¹³ Has it not been reported to my master what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the Lord, that I hid a hundred prophets of the Lord in groups of fifty in a cave, and supplied them with bread and water?¹⁴ Now you are telling me, ‘Go, tell your master, “Behold, Elijah is here”; then he will kill me.’”¹⁵ But Elijah said, “As the Lord of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will certainly show myself to him today.”¹⁶ So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and informed him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.¹⁷ When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, “Is this you, the one who troubles Israel?”¹⁸ He replied, “I have not been the cause of trouble for Israel, but you and your father’s house have, because you have abandoned the commandments of the Lord and you have followed the Baals.¹⁹ Now then, send orders and gather to me all Israel at Mount Carmel, together with 450 prophets of Baal and 400 prophets of the Asherah, who eat at Jezebel’s table.”

²⁰ So Ahab sent orders among all the sons of Israel and gathered the prophets together at Mount Carmel.²¹ Then Elijah approached all the people and said, “How long will you waver between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow Him; but if Baal, follow him.” But the people did not answer him so much as a word.²² Then Elijah said to the people, “I alone remain as a prophet of the Lord, while Baal’s prophets are 450 men.²³ Now let them give us two oxen; and let them choose one ox for themselves and cut it up, and place it on the wood, but put no fire under it; and I will prepare the other ox and lay it on the wood, and I will not put fire under it.”²⁴ Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the Lord; and the God who answers by fire, He is God." And all the people replied, "That is a good proposal." ²⁵ So Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one ox for yourselves and prepare it first, since there are many of you, and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it." ²⁶ Then they took the ox which was given to them and prepared it, and they called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, "O Baal, answer us!" But there was no voice, and no one answered. And they limped about the altar which they had made. ²⁷ At noon Elijah mocked them and said, "Call out with a loud voice, since he is a god; perhaps he is deep in thought, or is on the way, or is on a journey; maybe he is asleep and will wake up!" ²⁸ So they cried out with a loud voice, and cut themselves according to their custom with swords and lances until the blood gushed out on them. ²⁹ When midday was past, they raved until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice; but there was no voice, no answer, and no attention was paid.

1 Kings

³⁰ Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." So all the people came near to him. And he restored the altar of the Lord which had been torn down. ³¹ Then Elijah took twelve stones, representing the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the Lord had come, saying, "Israel shall be your name." ³² And with the stones he constructed an altar in the name of the Lord; and he made a trench around the altar, large enough to hold two measures of seed. ³³ Then he laid out the wood, and cut the ox in pieces and placed it on the wood. And he said, "Fill four jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood." ³⁴ Then he said, "Do it again," and they did it again. Then he said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time. ³⁵ So the water flowed around the altar, and he also filled the trench with water. ³⁶ Then at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet approached and said, "O Lord, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, today let it be known that You are God in Israel and that I am Your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your word. ³⁷ Hear me, Lord, hear me, so that this people may know that You, Lord, are God, and that You have turned their hearts back." ³⁸ Then the fire of the Lord fell and consumed the burnt offering, the wood, the stones, and the dust, and it licked up the water that was in the trench. ³⁹ When all the people witnessed this, they fell on their faces; and they said, "The Lord, He is God; the Lord, He is God!" ⁴⁰ Then Elijah said to them, "Capture the prophets of Baal; do not let one of them escape." So they captured them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and executed them there.

⁴¹ Elijah then said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of a mighty rainstorm." ⁴² So Ahab went up to eat and drink. But Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bent down to the ground, and put his face between his knees. ⁴³ And he said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea." So he went up and looked, and said, "There is nothing." But he said, "Go back" seven times. ⁴⁴ And when he returned the seventh time, he said, "Behold, a cloud as small as a person's hand is coming up from the sea." And Elijah said, "Go up, say to Ahab, 'Prepare your chariot and go down, so that the heavy rain does not stop you.'" ⁴⁵ Meanwhile the sky became dark with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy rain. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel. ⁴⁶ Then the hand of the Lord was on Elijah, and he tucked his cloak into his belt and outran Ahab to Jezreel.

19 Ahab reported to Jezebel all that Elijah had accomplished, including how he had slain all the prophets with the sword. ² Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So may the gods do to me and more so, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like the life of one of them." ³ Elijah, filled with fear, arose and fled for his life, arriving at Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, where he left his servant. ⁴ But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom tree; and he asked for himself to die, and said, "It is enough! Now, Lord, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers." ⁵ Then he lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree; but behold, there was an angel touching him, and he said to him, "Arise, eat!" ⁶ Then he looked, and behold, there was at his head a loaf of bread baked on hot stones, and a jug of water. So he ate and drank, and lay down again. ⁷ But the angel of the Lord returned a second time, touched him, and said, "Arise, eat, for the journey is too much for you." ⁸ So he got up, ate and drank, and travelled in the strength of that food for forty days and forty nights to Horeb, the mountain of God.

1 Kings

⁹ Then he came to a cave and spent the night there; and behold, the word of the Lord came to him, and He said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" ¹⁰ He said, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of armies; for the sons of Israel have abandoned Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. And I alone am left; and they sought to take my life." ¹¹ So He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord." And behold, the Lord was passing by! And a great and powerful wind was tearing out the mountains and breaking the rocks in pieces before the Lord; but the Lord was not in the wind. And after the wind, an earthquake; but the Lord was not in the earthquake. ¹² And after the earthquake, a fire; but the Lord was not in the fire. And after the fire, the sound of a gentle whisper. ¹³ When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his cloak and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. And behold, a voice came to him and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" ¹⁴ Then he said, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of armies; for the sons of Israel have abandoned Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. And I alone am left; and they sought to take my life." ¹⁵ The Lord instructed him, "Go, return by the way you came to the wilderness of Damascus, and when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram; ¹⁶ and Jehu the son of Nimshi you shall anoint as king over Israel; and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah you shall anoint as prophet in your place. ¹⁷ And it shall be that whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will put to death, and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will put to death. ¹⁸ Yet I will preserve seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal and every mouth that has not kissed him."

¹⁹ So he departed from there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, while he was ploughing with twelve pairs of oxen in front of him, and he was with the twelfth. And Elijah passed by him and threw his cloak on him. ²⁰ Then he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, "Please let me kiss my father and my mother, then I will follow you." And Elijah replied, "Go back, for what have I done to you?" ²¹ So he returned from following him, and took the pair of oxen and sacrificed them, and boiled their meat with the implements of the oxen, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he got up and followed Elijah, and served him.

20 Now Ben-hadad, king of Aram, gathered all his army. Thirty-two kings were with him, along with horses and chariots. He marched up and laid siege to Samaria and attacked it. ² He sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, saying, ³ "This is what Ben-hadad says: 'Your silver and gold are mine. The best of your wives and children also belong to me.'" ⁴ The king of Israel answered, "Just as you say, my lord the king. I and everything I have are yours." ⁵ Then the messengers returned and said, "This is what Ben-hadad says: I sent word to you to give me your silver and gold, your wives and your children. ⁶ But now I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your officials. Whatever is precious in your eyes, they will take and carry away."

⁷ Then the king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said, "Please notice how this man is seeking trouble. He sent for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold, and I did not refuse him." ⁸ All the elders and the people said to him, "Do not listen to him or give in." ⁹ So he said to Ben-hadad's messengers, "Tell my lord the king: I will give all that you first demanded of your servant, but this second demand I cannot meet." So the messengers left and reported back. ¹⁰ Then Ben-hadad sent word again, saying, "May the gods punish me severely if enough dust remains in Samaria to give a handful to each of the men who follow me!" ¹¹ But the king of Israel answered, "Tell him: Let not the one who puts on his armour boast like the one who takes it off." ¹² When Ben-hadad heard this reply, he and the other kings were drinking in their tents. He ordered his men, "Prepare to attack!" So they prepared to assault the city.

¹³ Then a prophet came to Ahab king of Israel and said, "This is what the Lord says: Have you seen this vast army? I will deliver it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am the Lord." ¹⁴ Ahab asked, "By whom?" And he said, "This is what the Lord says: By the young officers of the district governors." Then Ahab asked, "Who will begin the battle?" And he answered, "You will." ¹⁵ So Ahab mustered the young officers of the district governors, 232 in total. Then he assembled the rest of the army — all the Israelites — numbering seven thousand.¹⁶ They marched out at noon, while Ben-hadad and the thirty-two kings with him were in their tents getting drunk.¹⁷ The young officers of the district governors went out first. Ben-hadad sent scouts, who reported, “Men are advancing from Samaria.”¹⁸ He said, “If they have come for peace, take them alive; and if they have come for war, take them alive.”¹⁹ So the young officers of the district governors advanced from the city, with the army behind them.²⁰ Each struck down his opponent, and the Arameans fled. Israel pursued them, and Ben-hadad king of Aram escaped on horseback with some of his horsemen.²¹ Then the king of Israel went out and struck down the horses and chariots, and inflicted a great defeat on the Arameans.

1 Kings

²² Then the prophet came to the king of Israel and said, “Go and strengthen yourself. Consider carefully what you must do, for in the spring the king of Aram will come back against you.”²³ Meanwhile the officials of the king of Aram said to him, “Their gods are gods of the hills. That is why they were stronger than us. But if we fight them in the plains, surely we will be stronger than they.”²⁴ Do this: remove all the kings from their commands and replace them with commanders.²⁵ Also, raise an army like the one you lost — horse for horse and chariot for chariot — so we can fight them in the plains. Then surely we will defeat them.” He agreed and did as they advised.

²⁶ When spring arrived, Ben-hadad gathered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to engage Israel in battle.²⁷ The Israelites also were mustered and given provisions, and they went out to meet them. The people of Israel camped before them like two small flocks of goats, while the Arameans filled the countryside.²⁸ Then a man of God came and told the king of Israel, “This is what the Lord says: Because the Arameans have said, ‘The Lord is a god of the hills but not a god of the valleys,’ I will deliver this vast army into your hands, and you will know that I am the Lord.”

²⁹ They camped opposite each other for seven days. On the seventh day, they engaged in battle, and the Israelites struck down 100,000 foot soldiers of the Arameans in a single day.³⁰ The rest fled into the city of Aphek, where the wall collapsed on 27,000 of them. Ben-hadad fled and hid in an inner room within the city.³¹ His officials said to him, “Look, we have heard that the kings of Israel are merciful. Let us dress in sackcloth with ropes around our heads and go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will spare your life.”³² So they wore sackcloth and ropes, and went to the king of Israel and said, “Your servant Ben-hadad says: Please let me live.” Ahab replied, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”³³ The men took it as a good sign and quickly responded, “Yes, Ben-hadad is your brother.” Ahab said, “Go and bring him.” So Ben-hadad came out, and Ahab had him come up into the chariot.³⁴ Ben-hadad said, “I will return the cities my father took from your father. You may set up market areas for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria.” Ahab said, “On the basis of this agreement, I will let you go.” So he made a treaty with him and let him go.

³⁵ Now a certain man from the sons of the prophets said to his neighbour by the word of the Lord, “Strike me, please.” But the man refused to strike him.³⁶ So the prophet said to him, “Because you have not obeyed the voice of the Lord, as soon as you leave me, a lion will kill you.” And as soon as he left, a lion found him and killed him.³⁷ He then approached another man and requested, “Strike me, please.” The man struck him and wounded him.³⁸ Then the prophet went and waited for the king by the road, disguising himself with a bandage over his eyes.³⁹ As the king passed by, he cried out to him, “Your servant went into the middle of the battle, and someone turned aside and brought a man to me and said, ‘Guard this man; if he is missing, it will be your life for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.’”⁴⁰ But while your servant was busy here and there, the man disappeared.” And the king of Israel said to him, “That is your judgment. You have decided it yourself.”⁴¹ Then the prophet quickly removed the bandage from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognised him as one of the prophets.⁴² And he said to the king, “This is what the Lord says: Because you have let go from your hand the man I had devoted to destruction, your life shall be for his life, and your people for his people.”⁴³ So the king of Israel went back to his house, sullen and angry, and came to Samaria.

21 Now it came to pass after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, next to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.² Ahab said to Naboth, “Let me have your vineyard to use as a vegetable garden, because it is near my palace. I will give you a better vineyard in exchange, or if you prefer, I will pay you its value in silver.”³ But Naboth said to Ahab, “The Lord forbid that I should give you the inheritance of my ancestors.”⁴ So Ahab went home, sullen and angry because Naboth the Jezreelite had said, “I will not give you the inheritance of my ancestors.” He lay on his bed, turned his face away, and refused to eat.

1 Kings

⁵ His wife Jezebel came in and asked, “Why are you so upset? Why won’t you eat?”⁶ He replied, “Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and asked him to sell me his vineyard, or to exchange it if he preferred. But he answered, ‘I will not give you my vineyard.’”⁷ Jezebel his wife said, “Is this how you act as king over Israel? Get up and eat something. Cheer up. I will get you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.”⁸ So she wrote letters in Ahab’s name, sealed them with his seal, and sent them to the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth’s city.⁹ In those letters she wrote: “Proclaim a fast and seat Naboth in a prominent place among the people.”¹⁰ But seat two scoundrels opposite him and have them testify that he has cursed both God and the king. Then take him out and stone him to death.”

¹¹ So the men of Naboth’s city—the elders and nobles who lived there—did exactly as Jezebel had instructed in the letters she had sent them.¹² They announced a fast and placed Naboth in a notable position among the people.¹³ Then two worthless men came in and sat opposite him, and testified before the people, saying, “Naboth has cursed God and the king.” So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death.¹⁴ Afterwards, they informed Jezebel, “Naboth has been stoned and is dead.”

¹⁵ As soon as Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, she said to Ahab, “Get up and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to sell you. He is no longer alive, but dead.”¹⁶ When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he got up and went down to take possession of the vineyard.

¹⁷ The word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite and it was:¹⁸ “Go to meet Ahab king of Israel, who reigns in Samaria. He is now in Naboth’s vineyard, where he has gone to claim it.”¹⁹ Say to him: ‘This is what the Lord says: Have you murdered and also taken possession?’ Then say to him, ‘This is what the Lord says: In the place where the dogs licked up Naboth’s blood, dogs will also lick up your blood—yes, yours!’”²⁰ Ahab said to Elijah, “So you’ve found me, my enemy!” Elijah answered, “I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do evil in the sight of the Lord.”²¹ This is what the Lord says: ‘I will bring disaster upon you. I will wipe out your descendants, and cut off from Ahab every male in Israel—slave or free.’²² I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat and that of Baasha son of Ahijah, because you have provoked My anger and caused Israel to sin.’²³ And regarding Jezebel, the Lord also says: ‘Dogs will devour Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.’²⁴ Dogs will eat anyone belonging to Ahab who dies in the city, and the birds will feed on those who die in the countryside.”

²⁵ There was no one like Ahab, who sold himself to do evil in the sight of the Lord, influenced by Jezebel his wife.²⁶ He acted in the most detestable ways by following idols, as the Amorites had done, whom the Lord drove out before Israel.

²⁷ When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and fasted. He lay in sackcloth and went about quietly and humbly.²⁸ The message of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite:²⁹ “Have you noticed how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself, I will not bring the disaster in his lifetime. I will bring it upon his house in the days of his son.”

22 For three years, Aram and Israel did not engage in conflict.² However, during the third year, Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, visited the king of Israel.³ The king of Israel said to his servants, “Don’t you know that Ramoth-gilead belongs to us? Yet we are doing nothing to take it back from the king of Aram.”⁴ So he asked Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to fight at Ramoth-gilead?” Jehoshaphat answered the king of Israel, “I am as you are; my people as your people, my horses as your horses.”

⁵ But Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “First, seek the word of the Lord.”⁶ So the king of Israel brought together the prophets—about four hundred men—and asked them, “Shall I go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or shall I refrain?” They answered, “Go, for the Lord will give it into the hand of the king.”⁷ But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there not still a prophet of the Lord here whom we may inquire of?”⁸ The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man through whom we can inquire of the Lord, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me—only disaster. He is Micaiah son of Imlah.” Jehoshaphat replied, “The king should not speak like that.”⁹ So the king of Israel called an officer and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once.”

1 Kings

¹⁰ Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting on their thrones, arrayed in robes at the threshing floor by the entrance to the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them. ¹¹ Zedekiah son of Kenaanah had made iron horns, and he said, “This is what the Lord says: With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.” ¹² All the prophets were prophesying the same thing: “Go up to Ramoth-gilead and triumph, for the Lord will give it into the king’s hand.”

¹³ The messenger who went to call Micaiah told him, “Look, the words of the prophets are all in agreement, promising success to the king. Let your word be like theirs, and speak favourably.” ¹⁴ But Micaiah said, “As surely as the Lord lives, I will say only what the Lord tells me.”

¹⁵ When he arrived before the king, the king asked him, “Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or not?” He answered, “Go and triumph, for the Lord will give it into the hand of the king.” ¹⁶ The king then asked him, “How many times must I insist that you speak nothing but the truth in the name of the Lord?” ¹⁷ Then Micaiah said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the hills, like sheep without a shepherd, and the Lord said, ‘These people have no master; let each of them return to his home in peace.’”

¹⁸ The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would prophesy nothing good about me, but only calamity?” ¹⁹ Micaiah said, “Therefore hear the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on His throne, with all the host of heaven standing by Him, on His right and on His left. ²⁰ And the Lord said, ‘Who will entice Ahab to go and fall at Ramoth-gilead?’ One suggested this, and another that. ²¹ Then a spirit approached the Lord and said, ‘I will entice him.’ ²² ‘How?’ the Lord asked. ‘By being a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets,’ he said.

The Lord said, ‘You shall succeed in enticing him. Go and do it.’ ²³ So now the Lord has put a lying spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours. The Lord has decreed disaster for you.”

²⁴ Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah approached Micaiah and struck him on the cheek. He said, “Which way did the spirit of the Lord go from me to speak to you?” ²⁵ Micaiah replied, “You will discover this on the day you go to hide in an inner room.” ²⁶ The king of Israel ordered, “Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash the king’s son, ²⁷ and say, ‘This is what the king says: Put this man in prison and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.’” ²⁸ But Micaiah declared, “If you ever return safely, then the Lord has not spoken through me.” And he added, “Take note, all you people!”

²⁹ Therefore, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, proceeded to Ramoth-gilead. ³⁰ The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself when I go into battle, but you wear your royal robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into battle. ³¹ Meanwhile, the king of Aram had instructed his thirty-two chariot commanders, “Do not engage with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel.” ³² When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, “Surely this is the king of Israel.” So they turned to attack him, but Jehoshaphat cried out. ³³ When the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned away from him.

³⁴ But someone drew his bow at random and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armour. He said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn around and get me out of the battle, for I am wounded.” ³⁵ The battle raged that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans. But the blood from his wound flowed onto the floor of the chariot, and that evening he died. ³⁶ At sunset, a cry went throughout the army: “Every man to his own city, and every man to his own land!” ³⁷ Thus, the king died and was taken to Samaria, where they buried him. ³⁸ They washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria, where the prostitutes bathed, and the dogs licked up his blood, just as the word of the Lord had spoken.

³⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all he did—the ivory palace he built and the cities he fortified—are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ⁴⁰ Ahab was laid to rest with his ancestors, and his son Ahaziah succeeded him as king.

1 Kings

⁴¹ Jehoshaphat, son of Asa, began his reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab, king of Israel. ⁴² Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. His mother's name was Azubah, daughter of Shilhi. ⁴³ He followed in the ways of his father Asa and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord. Yet the high places were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there. ⁴⁴ Jehoshaphat maintained peaceful relations with the king of Israel.

⁴⁵ As for the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, the mighty deeds he performed and the battles he fought—are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ⁴⁶ He removed from the land the rest of the male cult prostitutes

who remained from the days of his father Asa. ⁴⁷ There was no king in Edom; a deputy ruled in place of a king. ⁴⁸ Jehoshaphat built ships of Tarshish to sail for Ophir for gold, but they never set sail, for they were wrecked at Ezion-geber. ⁴⁹ During this period, Ahaziah, son of Ahab, proposed to Jehoshaphat, "Let my men sail with yours," but Jehoshaphat declined.

⁵⁰ Jehoshaphat was laid to rest with his ancestors and was buried with them in the city of his father David. And his son Jehoram succeeded him as king.

⁵¹ Ahaziah, son of Ahab, began his reign over Israel in Samaria during the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, and he ruled over Israel for two years. ⁵² He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord and walked in the ways of his father and mother and in the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. ⁵³ He served and worshipped Baal and provoked the Lord, the God of Israel, to anger, just as his father had done.

2 Kings

1 Following the passing of Ahab, Moab rose up against Israel. ² Now Ahaziah fell through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria and injured himself. So he sent messengers, saying to them, "Go and inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover from this injury." ³ But the angel of the Lord said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Go up and meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going off to consult Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?' ⁴ Therefore this is what the Lord says: You shall not leave the bed you are lying on. You will surely die.'" So Elijah went.

⁵ Upon the messengers' return, the king inquired, "Why have you come back?" ⁶ They answered, "A man came to meet us and said, 'Go back to the king who sent you and say to him, This is what the Lord says: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending men to consult Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not leave the bed you are lying on. You will surely die.'" ⁷ The king then questioned them, "What kind of man was it who came to meet you and told you this?" ⁸ They replied, "He was a man with a hairy garment and a leather belt around his waist." The king said, "That was Elijah the Tishbite."

⁹ Then the king sent a captain with fifty men to Elijah. He went up to Elijah, who was sitting on top of a hill, and said to him, "Man of God, the king says, 'Come down!'" ¹⁰ Elijah responded to the captain, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." Then fire fell from heaven and consumed the captain and his men. ¹¹ At this, the king sent another captain with fifty men. He said to Elijah, "Man of God, this is what the king says: 'Come down at once!'" ¹² Elijah replied, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." Then the fire of God fell from heaven and consumed them.

¹³ So the king sent a third captain with his fifty men. This third captain went up, fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, "Man of God, please have regard for my life and the lives of these fifty servants of yours." ¹⁴ See, fire has come down from heaven and consumed the first two captains and their men. But now, please let my life be precious in your sight." ¹⁵ Then the angel of the Lord said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid." So Elijah got up and went down with him to the king.

¹⁶ He said to the king, "This is what the Lord says: You have sent messengers to consult Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron. Is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore you shall not leave the bed you are lying on. You will surely die." ¹⁷ So Ahaziah died, according to the word of the Lord spoken by Elijah. Because he had no son, Jehoram succeeded him as king in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah.

¹⁸ As for the rest of the acts of Ahaziah and what he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

2 As the time approached for the Lord to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were travelling from Gilgal. ² Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here, for the Lord has sent me to Bethel." But Elisha said, "As surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel. ³ The company of prophets at Bethel came out to Elisha and asked, "Do you know that the Lord is going to take your master from you today?" He replied, "Yes, I know — be silent." ⁴ Then Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here, for the Lord has sent me to Jericho." But he replied, "As surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went to Jericho. ⁵ The company of prophets at Jericho approached Elisha and said, "Do you know that today the Lord is going to take your master from you?" And he replied, "Yes, I know. Be silent." ⁶ Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, for the Lord has sent me to the Jordan." But Elisha replied, "As surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So the two of them walked on.

⁷ Fifty men from the company of the prophets went and stood at a distance, observing the place where Elijah and Elisha had paused at the Jordan. ⁸ Then Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up, and struck the water with it. The water parted to the left and to the right, and the two of them crossed over on dry ground. ⁹ When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask what I can do for you before I am taken from you." Elisha said, "Let me inherit a double portion of your spirit." ¹⁰ Elijah answered, "You have asked a difficult thing. Yet if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be yours — otherwise, it will not.” ¹¹ As they were walking along and talking, suddenly a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared and separated the two of them, and Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind. ¹² Elisha saw it and cried out, “My father, my father! The chariot of Israel and its horsemen!” And Elisha saw him no more. Then he took hold of his own garments and tore them in two.

2 Kings

¹³ Elisha picked up Elijah’s cloak that had fallen from him and went back and stood at the bank of the Jordan. ¹⁴ He took the cloak that had fallen from Elijah, struck the water with it, and said, “Where is the Lord, the God of Elijah?” When he struck the water, it divided to the left and to the right, and Elisha crossed over.

¹⁵ When the company of prophets from Jericho, who were watching, saw him, they said, “The spirit of Elijah now rests on Elisha.” And they came to meet him and bowed to the ground before him. ¹⁶ They said to him, “Look, we your servants have fifty strong men. Let them go and search for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the Lord has lifted him up and set him down on a mountain or in a valley.” But Elisha replied, “Do not send them.” ¹⁷ But they persisted until he was embarrassed to refuse. So he said, “Send them.” And they sent fifty men, who searched for three days but did not find him. ¹⁸ When they returned to Elisha, who had stayed in Jericho, he said to them, “Did I not tell you not to go?”

¹⁹ The men of the city said to Elisha, “Look, our lord can see that this town is well situated, but the water is bad and the land unproductive.” ²⁰ Elisha instructed, “Fetch me a new bowl and place salt in it.” So they brought it to him. ²¹ Then he went out to the spring and threw the salt into it, saying, “This is what the Lord says: I have healed this water. Never again will it cause death or make the land barren.” ²² And the water has remained pure to this day, just as Elisha had declared.

²³ From there Elisha went up to Bethel. As he was walking along the road, some boys came out of the city and mocked him, saying, “Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!” ²⁴ He turned around, looked at them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord. Then two bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the boys. ²⁵ From there Elisha went to Mount Carmel, and then returned to Samaria.

3 Jehoram son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned for twelve years. ² He did evil in the sight of the Lord, though not like his father and mother, for he removed the sacred pillar of Baal that his father had made. ³ Nevertheless, he clung to the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. He did not turn away from them.

⁴ Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder, and he used to pay the king of Israel a tribute of one hundred thousand lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams. ⁵ However, following the death of Ahab, the king of Moab rose in rebellion against the king of Israel. ⁶ So King Jehoram set out from Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel. ⁷ He also sent this message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah: “The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?” Jehoshaphat answered, “I will go. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.” ⁸ Then he asked, “Which way shall we go?” Jehoram replied, “By way of the wilderness of Edom.”

⁹ So the king of Israel, the king of Judah, and the king of Edom set out. After a roundabout march of seven days, there was no water for the army or for the animals that followed them. ¹⁰ Then the king of Israel said, “Alas! The Lord has summoned these three kings only to deliver them into the hand of Moab!” ¹¹ But Jehoshaphat said, “Is there no prophet of the Lord here, through whom we may inquire of the Lord?” One of the servants of the king of Israel answered, “Elisha son of Shaphat is here. He used to pour water on the hands of Elijah.” ¹² Jehoshaphat said, “The word of the Lord is with him.” So the king of Israel, Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.

¹³ Elisha said to the king of Israel, “What do I have to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother.” But the king of Israel said to him, “No, for it is the Lord who has called us three kings together to hand us over to Moab.” ¹⁴ Elisha said, “As surely as the Lord of hosts lives, whom I serve, if I did not have regard for the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you or even notice you. ¹⁵ But now bring me a musician." And as the musician played, the hand of the Lord came upon Elisha. ¹⁶ He said, "This is what the Lord says: Make this valley full of trenches. ¹⁷ For this is what the Lord says: You will see neither wind nor rain, yet this valley will be filled with water, and you, your cattle, and your animals will drink.

2 Kings

¹⁸ This is a simple thing in the sight of the Lord. He will also deliver Moab into your hands. ¹⁹ You will conquer every fortified city and every major town. You will fell every good tree, block up all the springs, and cover every good field with stones.

²⁰ The next morning, about the time for the offering of the morning sacrifice, suddenly water came from the direction of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

²¹ Now all the Moabites had heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, so every man old enough to bear arms was summoned and stationed at the border. ²² When they rose early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water, and to the Moabites it looked red—like blood. ²³ They said, "This is blood! The kings have fought and slaughtered each other. Now to the plunder, Moab!"

²⁴ But when the Moabites came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck them down. They fled before Israel, who pursued them and struck them down. ²⁵ They destroyed the cities, and each man threw stones on every good field until it was covered. They stopped up all the springs and cut down every good tree. Only Kir-hareseth was left, but even that was surrounded and attacked by slingers.

²⁶ When the king of Moab saw that the battle was going against him, he took seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they could not prevail. ²⁷ Then he took his firstborn son, who was to succeed him as king, and offered him as a burnt offering on the wall. Great wrath came upon Israel, and they withdrew from him and returned to their own land.

4 Now a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant, my husband, is dead, and you know that your servant feared the Lord. Now the creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves." ² Elisha responded to her, "How can I assist you? Please tell me, what do you have in your house?" And she replied, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil." ³ Then he said, "Go, borrow containers elsewhere for yourself, from all your neighbours — empty vessels; do not get just a few. ⁴ Then go in and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour the oil into all these containers; and you shall set aside each one when it is full." ⁵ So she left him and shut the door behind her and her sons. They kept bringing the containers to her, and she kept pouring. ⁶ When the containers were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another container." But he said to her, "There is not one more." Then the oil stopped. ⁷ So she came and informed the man of God. And he instructed her, "Go, sell the oil and settle your debt, and you and your sons can live on the remainder."

⁸ Now there came a day when Elisha went over to Shunem, where there was a prominent woman, and she urged him to eat food. So whenever he passed by, he would turn in there to eat. ⁹ And she said to her husband, "Behold now, I know that this is a holy man of God who passes by us continually. ¹⁰ Please, let us make a little walled upper room, and put a bed for him there, and a table, a chair, and a lampstand; and it shall be, when he comes to us, that he can turn in there." ¹¹ One day he came there and turned in to the upper room and lay down there. ¹² And he said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite woman." So he called her, and she stood before him.

¹³ And he said to him, "Say now to her, 'Behold, you have taken all this trouble for us; what can I do for you? Should I speak for you to the king or to the commander of the army?'" But she answered, "I am living among my own people." ¹⁴ So he said, "What then is to be done for her?" And Gehazi answered, "Well, she has no son, and her husband is old." ¹⁵ Then he said, "Call her." So he called her, and she stood in the doorway. ¹⁶ Then he said, "At this time next year, you are going to embrace a son." But she said, "No, my lord, you man of God, do not lie to your servant." ¹⁷ But the woman conceived and gave birth to a son at that season the next year, just as Elisha had told her.

¹⁸ Now the child grew. And it happened one day that he went out to his father, to the reapers. ¹⁹ And he said to his father, "My head, my head!" And he said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother." ²⁰ When he had carried him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her lap until noon, and then he passed away. ²¹ So she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door behind him and left. ²² She called to her husband and said, "Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, so that I may run to the man of God and return." ²³ But he said, "Why are you going to him today? It is neither the new moon nor the Sabbath." And she said, "It will be well." ²⁴ Then she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, "Drive on and do not slow down the pace for me unless I tell you." ²⁵ So she went and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. When the man of God saw her at a distance, he said to Gehazi his servant, "Behold, there is the Shunammite woman." ²⁶ Now please run to meet her and say to her, 'Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?'" And she answered, "It is well." ²⁷ When she came to the man of God at the hill, she took hold of his feet. And Gehazi came up to push her away, but the man of God said, "Leave her alone, for her soul is troubled within her; and the Lord has hidden it from me and has not informed me." ²⁸ Then she said, "Did I ask for a son from my lord? Did I not say, 'Do not mislead me?'"

2 Kings

²⁹ Then he said to Gehazi, "Get ready, take my staff in your hand and go. If you meet anyone, do not greet him, and if anyone greets you, do not answer him. And lay my staff on the boy's face." ³⁰ But the mother of the boy said, "As surely as the Lord lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So he got up and followed her. ³¹ Now Gehazi went on ahead of them and laid the staff on the boy's face, but there was no sound or response. So he returned to meet him and told him, "The boy has not awakened."

³² When Elisha came into the house, behold, the boy was dead and laid on his bed. ³³ So he entered and shut the door behind the two of them, and prayed to the Lord. ³⁴ Then he got up on the bed and lay on the child, putting his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands, and as he bent down on him, the flesh of the child became warm. ³⁵ Then he returned and walked in the house once back and forth, and went up and bent down on him again; and the boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes. ³⁶ And he called Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite." So he called her, and when she came in to him, he said, "Pick up your son." ³⁷ Then she came in and fell at his feet and bowed to the ground. And she picked up her son and went out.

³⁸ When Elisha returned to Gilgal, there was a famine in the land. As the sons of the prophets were sitting before him, he instructed his servant, "Put on the large pot and prepare stew for the sons of the prophets." ³⁹ Then one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered from it a lapful of wild gourds, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, though they did not know what they were. ⁴⁰ So they served it to the men to eat. But as they were eating the stew, they cried out and said, "Man of God, there is death in the pot!" And they were unable to eat it. ⁴¹ Then he said, "Bring flour." And he threw it into the pot and said, "Serve it to the people and let them eat." And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

⁴² Now a man came from Baal-shalishah, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits: twenty loaves of barley bread and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And Elisha said, "Give them to the people so that they may eat." ⁴³ But his attendant said, "How am I to set this before a hundred men?" Yet he said, "Give them to the people so that they may eat, for this is what the Lord says: 'They shall eat and have some left over.'" ⁴⁴ So he set it before them, and they ate and had some remaining, according to the word of the Lord.

5 Now Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man in the sight of his master and highly respected, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man was also a valiant warrior, but he was a leper. ² Now the Arameans had gone out in bands and had taken captive a young girl from the land of Israel; and she served Naaman's wife. ³ And she spoke to her mistress, "If only my master were with the prophet in Samaria! He would surely heal him of his leprosy." ⁴ So Naaman went in and told his master, saying, "This is what the girl who is from the land of Israel said." ⁵ Then the king of Aram replied, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he departed, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothes. ⁶ And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which said: "Now when this letter reaches you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, so that you may cure him of his leprosy." ⁷ But when the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man is sending word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? But consider now, and see how he is seeking a quarrel with me."

2 Kings

⁸ Now it happened, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent word to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel." ⁹ So Naaman came with his horses and his chariot, and stood at the doorway of the house of Elisha. ¹⁰ And Elisha sent a messenger to him, instructing, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh will be restored to you, and you shall be clean." ¹¹ But Naaman was furious and went away, saying, "Behold, I thought, 'He will certainly come out to me and stand, and call on the name of the Lord his God, and wave his hand over the place and cure the leper.' ¹² Are Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, not better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in rage. ¹³ Then his servants approached and spoke to him, and said, "My father, had the prophet told you to do something great, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean?'" ¹⁴ So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as instructed by the man of God; and his flesh was restored like that of a young child, and he was clean.

¹⁵ Then he returned to the man of God with all his company, and came and stood before him. And he declared, "Behold now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel; so please accept a gift from your servant now." ¹⁶ But he said, "As surely as the Lord lives, before whom I stand, I will not accept anything." And he urged him to take it, but he refused. ¹⁷ So Naaman said, "If not, please let your servant be given two mule-loads of earth; for your servant will no longer offer a burnt offering or sacrifice to other gods, but only to the Lord. ¹⁸ In this matter may the Lord pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon— when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, may the Lord pardon your servant in this matter." ¹⁹ And he said to him, "Go in peace." So he departed from him a short distance.

²⁰ But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, thought, "Behold, my master has spared this Aramean Naaman, by not accepting from his hand what he brought. As the Lord lives, I will run after him and take something from him." ²¹ So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw someone running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him and asked, "Is everything well?" ²² And he said, "All is well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Behold, just now two young men from the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothes.'" ²³ Naaman said, "Please take two talents." And he urged him and tied up two talents of silver in two bags with two changes of clothes, and gave them to two of his servants; and they carried them before him. ²⁴ When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand and stored them in the house, and then sent the men away, and they departed. ²⁵ But he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha asked him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?" And he replied, "Your servant went nowhere." ²⁶ Then he said to him, "Did my heart not go with you, when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to accept money, and to accept clothes, olive groves, vineyards, sheep, oxen, male and female servants? ²⁷ Therefore the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and to your descendants forever." So he went out from his presence leprous, as white as snow.

6 The sons of the prophets approached Elisha, saying, "See now, the place where we dwell under your guidance is too cramped for us. ² Allow us to go to the Jordan, and each of us will take a beam from there, and let us construct a place there for ourselves where we may reside." So he said, "Go." ³ Then one of them said, "Please accompany your servants." And he replied, "I shall go." ⁴ So he went with them; and upon reaching the Jordan, they began cutting down trees. ⁵ But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into the water. And he cried out and said, "Oh, my master! It was borrowed!" ⁶ The man of God asked, "Where did it fall?" And when he showed him the spot, he cut off a stick and threw it there, causing the iron to float.⁷ And he said, "Pick it up for yourself." So he reached out his hand and took it.

2 Kings

⁸ The king of Aram was warring against Israel, and he consulted with his servants, saying, "At such and such a place shall be my camp."⁹ But the man of God sent word to the king of Israel, saying, "Be careful not to pass by this place, for the Arameans are coming down there."¹⁰ So the king of Israel sent someone to the place about which the man of God had told him. Thus he warned him, so that he guarded himself there more than once or twice.¹¹ The heart of the king of Aram was enraged over this matter; and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you not tell me which of us is for the king of Israel?"¹² One of his servants replied, "No, my lord the king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, informs the king of Israel of the words you speak in your bedroom."¹³ So he said, "Go and see where he is, so that I may send men to capture him." And it was reported to him, saying, "Behold, he is in Dothan."¹⁴ So he dispatched horses, chariots, and a substantial army there, and they arrived by night and surrounded the city.

¹⁵ When the attendant of the man of God rose early and went out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was encircling the city. And his servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What are we to do?"¹⁶ So he said, "Do not be afraid, for those who are with us are greater than those who are with them."¹⁷ Then Elisha prayed and said, "Lord, kindly open his eyes, so that he may see." And the Lord opened the servant's eyes, and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

¹⁸ When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to the Lord and said, "Strike this people with blindness, I pray." So He struck them with blindness in accordance with the word of Elisha.¹⁹ Then Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man whom you seek." And he guided them to Samaria.²⁰ When they had come into Samaria, Elisha said, "O Lord, open the eyes of these men, so that they may see." So the Lord opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the middle of Samaria.²¹ Then the king of Israel, when he saw them, said to Elisha, "Shall I kill them? Shall I kill them, my father?"²² But he said, "You shall not kill them. Would you kill those you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, so that they may eat and drink and return to their master."²³ So he prepared a great feast for them; and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they returned to their master. And the marauding bands of Arameans did not come again into the land of Israel.

²⁴ After this, Ben-hadad king of Aram gathered all his army, and went up and besieged Samaria.²⁵ There was a severe famine in Samaria; and behold, they kept besieging it until a donkey's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and a fourth of a kab of dove's dung for five shekels of silver.²⁶ As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, "Help, my lord the king!"²⁷ But he said, "If the Lord does not help you, from where am I to help you? From the threshing floor, or from the winepress?"²⁸ Then the king said to her, "What is the matter with you?" And she answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son so that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'²⁹ So we cooked my son and ate him; and I said to her the next day, 'Give your son, so that we may eat him'; but she has hidden her son."

³⁰ When the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes— and as he was passing by on the wall, the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth underneath on his body.³¹ Then he said, "May God do so to me and more as well, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today!"

³² Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And the king sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent someone to remove my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold it shut against him. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"³³ While he was still speaking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him and said, "Behold, this evil is from the Lord; why should I wait for the Lord any longer?"

7 Then Elisha said, "Hear the word of the Lord: Thus says the Lord, 'About this time tomorrow, a measure of fine flour will be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.'" ² But the officer on whose arm the king was leaning responded to the man of God and said, "Behold, if the Lord were to make windows in heaven, could this thing happen?" Then he said, "Behold, you will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat of it."

2 Kings

³ Now there were four men with leprosy at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, "Why are we sitting here until we die?" ⁴ If we say, 'We will enter the city,' then the famine is in the city, and we will die there. And if we sit here, we will also die. So now, come, let us go over to the camp of the Arameans. If they spare us, we will live; and if they kill us, we will die." ⁵ So they arose at twilight to head towards the camp of the Arameans. When they reached the edge of the camp of the Arameans, behold, there was no one there. ⁶ For the Lord had caused the camp of the Arameans to hear a sound of chariots and a sound of horses— that is, the sound of a great army—so that they said to one another, "Behold, the king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians against us, to come upon us!" ⁷ So they got up and fled at twilight, and abandoned their tents, their horses, and their donkeys—the camp just as it was—and fled for their lives.

⁸ When these men with leprosy came to the outskirts of the camp, they entered one tent and ate and drank, and carried away silver, gold, and clothes, and went and hid them. Then they returned and entered another tent, and carried things from there also, and went and hid them. ⁹ Then they said to one another, "We are not doing what is right. This day is a day of good news, but we are keeping silent. If we wait until morning light, punishment will overtake us. Now come, let us go and tell the king's household." ¹⁰ So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and told them, saying, "We came to the camp of the Arameans, and behold, there was no one there, nor a human voice—only the horses and donkeys tied up, and the tents just as they were." ¹¹ And the gatekeepers called out, and it was reported inside the king's house.

¹² Then the king got up in the night and said to his servants, "I will now tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They know that we are hungry, so they have gone out from the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we will capture them alive and get into the city.'" ¹³ But one of his servants responded and said, "Please, let some men take five of the horses that remain in the city— behold, they will be like all the multitude of Israel who are left in it— and let us send them and see." ¹⁴ So they prepared two chariots with horses, and the king dispatched them after the army of the Arameans, instructing, "Go and see." ¹⁵ They went after them to the Jordan, and behold, all the road was full of clothes and equipment which the Arameans had thrown away in their haste. Then the messengers returned and told the king.

¹⁶ So the people ventured out and looted the camp of the Arameans. Consequently, a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in accordance with the word of the Lord. ¹⁷ Now the king appointed the officer on whose arm he leaned to be in charge of the gate; but the people trampled on him at the gate, and he died, just as the man of God had spoken, who spoke when the king came down to him. ¹⁸ And it happened just as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, "Two measures of barley for a shekel and a measure of fine flour for a shekel will be sold tomorrow about this time at the gate of Samaria." ¹⁹ Then the officer had answered the man of God and said, "Now behold, if the Lord were to make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?" And he said, "Behold, you will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it." ²⁰ And indeed, this is what occurred to him: the people trampled on him at the gate, and he died.

8 Now Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise and go, with your household, and stay wherever you can; for the Lord has called for a famine, and it will also come upon the land for seven years." ² So the woman arose and acted in accordance with the word of the man of God, and went with her household and stayed in the land of the Philistines for seven years. ³ When the seven years had passed, the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went to make an appeal to the king for her house and her field. ⁴ At that time, the king was conversing with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, "Please tell me all the remarkable things that Elisha has done." ⁵ And as he was relating to the king how he had restored the dead to life, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life appealed to the king for her house and for her field. So Gehazi said,

2 Kings

"My lord the king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life." ⁶ When the king asked the woman, she told him the story. So the king appointed for her a certain officer, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the produce of the field from the day she left the land even until now."

⁷ Elisha arrived in Damascus. At that time, Ben-hadad, the king of Aram, was ill, and he was informed, saying, "The man of God has come here." ⁸ So the king said to Hazael, "Take a gift in your hand and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the Lord by him, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'" ⁹ So Hazael went to meet him and took a gift in his hand, of every good thing of Damascus—forty camel loads— and he came and stood before him and said, "Your son Ben-hadad king of Aram has sent me to you, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'" ¹⁰ Then Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You will certainly recover,' but the Lord has shown me that he will surely die." ¹¹ And he stared steadily at him until Hazael was embarrassed, and the man of God wept. ¹² Hazael said, "Why is my lord weeping?" And he answered, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the sons of Israel: you will set their fortresses on fire, kill their young men with the sword, dash their little ones, and rip open their pregnant women." ¹³ Then Hazael said, "But what is your servant, who is nothing more than a dog, that he should do this great thing?" And Elisha answered, "The Lord has shown me that you will be king over Aram." ¹⁴ So he left Elisha and returned to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he said, "He told me that you would certainly recover." ¹⁵ Yet, on the next day, he took the cover, soaked it in water, and spread it over his face, causing his death. And Hazael became king in his place.

¹⁶ Now in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah became king. ¹⁷ He was thirty-two years old when he first sat on the throne, and his reign in Jerusalem lasted for eight years. ¹⁸ He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab became his wife. So he did evil in the sight of the Lord. ¹⁹ However, the Lord was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of His servant David, since He had promised him to give him a lamp for his sons always.

²⁰ In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and appointed a king over themselves. ²¹ Then Joram crossed over to Zair with all his chariots, and it came about that he rose by night and struck the Edomites who had surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots; but the people fled to their tents. ²² So Edom revolted against Judah to this day. Then Libnah also revolted at the same time. ²³ Now as for the rest of the acts of Joram and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²⁴ So Joram rested with his ancestors and was buried with them in the city of David, and Ahaziah his son succeeded him as king.

²⁵ In the twelfth year of Joram, son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah, son of Jehoram, king of Judah, began his reign. ²⁶ Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, the granddaughter of Omri king of Israel. ²⁷ He followed the ways of the house of Ahab and did evil in the sight of the Lord, similar to what the house of Ahab had done, because he was related by marriage to the house of Ahab. ²⁸ He went with Joram the son of Ahab to wage war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-gilead, and the Arameans wounded Joram. ²⁹ So King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds inflicted by the Arameans at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. Then Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was unwell.

9 Now Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, "Prepare yourself, take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead. ² When you arrive there, look for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, and go in and have him rise from among his brothers, and bring him to an inner room. ³ Then take the flask of oil and pour it on his head, and say, 'This is what the Lord says: I have anointed you king over Israel.' Then open the door and flee, and do not delay." ⁴ The young man, who served the prophet, made his way to Ramoth-gilead. ⁵ When he arrived, behold, the commanders of the army were sitting, and he said, "I have a message for you, commander." And Jehu said, "For which one of us?" And he said, "For you, commander." ⁶ So he got up and went into the house, and the young man poured the oil on his head and said to him, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'I have anointed you king over the people of the Lord, over Israel.' ⁷ You shall strike the house of your master Ahab, so that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the Lord, at the hand of Jezebel. ⁸ For the entire house of Ahab shall come to an end, and I will cut off from Ahab every male, both bond and free in Israel. ⁹ I will bring the house of Ahab to ruin, as I did with the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and the house of Baasha son of Ahijah. ¹⁰ The dogs will devour Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel, and she will not be buried.'" Then he opened the door and fled.

2 Kings

¹¹ Now Jehu went out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, "Is everything well? Why did this madman come to you?" And he said to them, "You know the man and his talk." ¹² But they said, "It is a lie! Tell us now." And he said, "This is what he said to me: 'This is what the Lord says: I have anointed you king over Israel.'" ¹³ Then they hurried, and each man took his garment and placed it under him on the bare steps, and blew the trumpet, proclaiming, "Jehu is king!"

¹⁴ So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. Now Joram was keeping guard at Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Aram. ¹⁵ But King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Arameans had inflicted on him when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. So Jehu said, "If this is your decision, then let no one escape or leave the city to go tell it in Jezreel." ¹⁶ Then Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was lying there recovering. And Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

¹⁷ Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel and saw the company of Jehu as he came, and he said, "I see a company." And Joram said, "Take a horseman and send him to meet them, and have him say, 'Is it peace?'" ¹⁸ So a horseman went to meet him and said, "The king asks, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu said, "What concern is peace to you? Fall in behind me." And the watchman reported, "The messenger reached them, but he did not return." ¹⁹

Then he sent out a second horseman, who came to them and said, "The king asks, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu answered, "What concern is peace to you? Fall in behind me." ²⁰ And the watchman reported, "He reached them, but he did not return. And the driving is like that of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives with great intensity."

²¹ Then Joram said, "Get ready." And they made his chariot ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu and found him in the property of Naboth the Jezreelite. ²² When Joram saw Jehu, he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" And he answered, "How can there be peace, as long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her sorceries are so many?" ²³ So Joram turned the reins and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "There is treachery, Ahaziah!" ²⁴ Then Jehu drew his bow with full strength and shot Joram between his arms; and the arrow went through his heart, and he sank in his chariot. ²⁵ And Jehu said to Bidkar his officer, "Take him up and throw him into the field of Naboth the Jezreelite, for remember, when you and I were riding together behind Ahab his father, the Lord pronounced this sentence against him: ²⁶ 'Certainly I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons,' declares the Lord, 'and I will repay you in this property,' declares the Lord. So now, take him and throw him into the property, in accordance with the word of the Lord."

²⁷ Now when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the road to Beth-haggan. But Jehu pursued him and said, "Strike him down, too, in the chariot." So they struck him on the ascent to Gur, which is at Ibleam. But he fled to Megiddo and died there. ²⁸ Then his servants transported him in a chariot to Jerusalem and laid him to rest with his ancestors in the city of David. ²⁹ It was in the eleventh year of Joram, son of Ahab, that Ahaziah began his reign over Judah.

³⁰ Now when Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard about it. And she put makeup on her eyes and adorned her head and looked out through the window. ³¹ As Jehu entered the gate, she said, "Is it well, Zimri, your master's murderer?" ³² Then he raised his face toward the window and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" And two or three officials looked down at him. ³³ And he said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down, and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall and on the horses, and he trampled her underfoot.³⁴ Then he went in and ate and drank, and he said, "Attend to this cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king's daughter."³⁵ So they went to bury her, but they found nothing more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.³⁶ Therefore they returned and informed him. And he said, "This is the word of the Lord, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 'In the property of Jezreel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;³⁷ and the corpse of Jezebel will be like dung on the face of the field in the property of Jezreel, so they cannot say, "This is Jezebel."'"

2 Kings

10 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, the elders, and the guardians of the sons of Ahab, saying,² "Now when this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and you have chariots, horses, a fortified city, and weapons,³ select the best and most capable of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house."⁴ But they were very afraid and said, "Behold, the two kings could not stand before him; how then can we stand?"⁵ And the overseer of the house, and the overseer of the city, together with the elders and the guardians, sent word to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants; all that you say we will do. We will not make anyone king. Do what is good in your eyes."⁶ Then he wrote a letter to them a second time, saying, "If you are on my side, and will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men, your master's sons, and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow at this time." Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the leaders of the city, who were raising them.⁷ And when the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and slaughtered them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.⁸ When the messenger arrived and reported, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons," he instructed, "Arrange them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."

⁹ In the morning he went out and stood, and said to all the people, "You are righteous; behold, I conspired against my master and killed him. But who killed all these?"¹⁰ Know then that nothing shall fall to the ground of the word of the Lord, which the Lord spoke concerning the house of Ahab, for the Lord has done what He spoke through His servant Elijah."

¹¹ So Jehu struck down all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, his acquaintances, and his priests, until he left him without a survivor.

¹² Then he set out and journeyed to Samaria. On his way, while he was at Beth-eked of the shepherds,¹³ Jehu encountered the relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah and asked, "Who are you?" And they replied, "We are the relatives of Ahaziah, and we have come down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."¹⁴ Then he said, "Take them alive." So they took them alive and killed them at the well of Beth-eked, forty-two men, and he left none of them alive.

¹⁵ Now as he departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him; and he greeted him and asked, "Is your heart true, as my heart is with your heart?" And Jehonadab answered, "It is." Jehu said, "If it is, give me your hand." And he gave him his hand, and he took him up into the chariot.¹⁶ And he said, "Come with me and witness my zeal for the Lord." So he had him ride in his chariot.¹⁷ When he came to Samaria, he struck down all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had eliminated them, according to the word of the Lord which He spoke to Elijah.

¹⁸ Then Jehu gathered all the people and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him greatly."¹⁹ Now, summon to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshippers and all his priests; let no one be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal; whoever is missing shall not live." But Jehu was acting deceitfully, in order to eliminate the worshippers of Baal.²⁰ And Jehu said, "Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal." So they proclaimed it.²¹ Then Jehu sent word throughout Israel, and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was no one left who did not come. When they entered the house of Baal, the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other.²² And he said to the one who was in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out garments for all the worshippers of Baal." So he brought out garments for them.²³ Then Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab entered the house of Baal, and he said to the worshippers of Baal, "Search carefully and see that there is not here with you any of the servants of the Lord, but only the worshippers of Baal.”²⁴ Then they entered to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed for himself eighty men outside, and he said, “The one who lets any of the men escape whom I bring into your hands shall give up his life in exchange.”²⁵ Then it came about, as soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guards and to the officers, “Go in, kill them; let no one come out.” So they struck them with the edge of the sword, and the guards and the officers threw them out, and went into the inner room of the house of Baal.²⁶ And they brought out the memorial stones of the house of Baal and burned them.²⁷ They also tore down the memorial stone of Baal and tore down the house of Baal, and made it a latrine to this day.

2 Kings

²⁸ In this way, Jehu removed Baal from Israel.²⁹ However, Jehu did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin—specifically, the golden calves that were in Bethel and Dan.³⁰ And the Lord said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in carrying out what is right in My eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab in accordance with all that was in My heart, your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.”³¹ But Jehu was not careful to walk in the Law of the Lord, the God of Israel, with all his heart; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam, which he caused Israel to commit.

³² In those days the Lord began to cut off pieces from Israel; and Hazael defeated them throughout the territory of Israel:³³ from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead—the Gadites, the Reubenites, and the Manassites—from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan.³⁴ Now the remainder of Jehu's deeds, all that he accomplished, and all his might, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?³⁵ And Jehu rested with his ancestors, and they buried him in Samaria; and Jehoahaz his son succeeded him as king.³⁶ Jehu's reign over Israel in Samaria lasted for twenty-eight years.

11 When Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, realised her son had died, she arose and destroyed all the royal descendants.² But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the king's sons who were being put to death, and placed him and his nurse in a bedroom. So they hid him from Athaliah, and he was not put to death.³ So he was hidden with her in the house of the Lord for six years, while Athaliah was reigning over the land.

⁴ In the seventh year, Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them into the house of the Lord. Then he made a covenant with them, had them take an oath in the house of the Lord, and showed them the king's son.⁵ And he commanded them, saying, “This is the thing that you shall do: one third of you, who come in on the Sabbath and keep watch over the king's house,⁶ one third shall be at the gate of Sur, and one third at the gate behind the guard. And you shall keep watch over the house to defend it.⁷ Two divisions of you, all who go out on the Sabbath, shall keep watch over the house of the Lord for the king.⁸ And you shall surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand, and whoever comes within the ranks shall be put to death. And you are to be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in.”

⁹ So the captains of hundreds did according to everything that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each of them took his men who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.¹⁰ And the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and shields that had been King David's, which were in the house of the Lord.¹¹ Then the guards stood, each with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, by the altar and the house, around the king.¹² And he brought out the king's son and placed the crown on him and gave him the testimony. And they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, “Long live the king!”

¹³ When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people at the house of the Lord.¹⁴ And she looked, and behold, the king was standing by the pillar, as was the custom, with the captains and the trumpeters beside the king. And all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and cried out, “Treason! Treason!”¹⁵ Then Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were appointed over the army and said to them, “Bring her out between the ranks, and whoever put follows her put to death with the sword." For the priest had said, "She shall not be put to death in the house of the Lord." ¹⁶ So they seized her, and she went by the way of the horses' entrance to the king's house, and she was put to death there.

2 Kings

¹⁷ Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the Lord, the king, and the people, that they would be the Lord's people; also between the king and the people. ¹⁸ And all the people of the land came to the house of Baal and tore it down; they smashed his altars and his images thoroughly, and they killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the Lord. ¹⁹ And he gathered the captains of hundreds, the Carites, the guards, and all the people of the land, and they escorted the king down from the house of the Lord, coming by way of the gate of the guards to the king's house. There, he took his place on the royal throne. ²⁰ So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was peaceful, for they had executed Athaliah with the sword at the king's house.

²¹ Jehoash was only seven years old when he was crowned king.

12 In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began his reign, and he ruled for forty years in Jerusalem. His mother was Zibiah from Beersheba. ² Jehoash did what was right in the sight of the Lord all his days, in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. ³ However, the high places were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense on them.

⁴ Then Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the sacred offerings which is brought into the house of the Lord, in current money—both the money for each person's assessment and all the money which anyone's heart prompts him to bring into the house of the Lord— ⁵ Let the priests take it for themselves, each from his own acquaintance; and let them repair the damages of the house wherever any damage is found." ⁶ But it came about that in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, the priests had not repaired the damage to the house. ⁷ Then King Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest and for the other priests, and said to them, "Why have you not repaired the damage to the house? Now, do not take any more money from your acquaintances, but hand it over for the repair of the house." ⁸ So the priests agreed that they would not take any more money from the people, nor repair the damage to the house themselves.

⁹ But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and placed it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the Lord; and the priests who guarded the threshold put in it all the money which was brought into the house of the Lord. ¹⁰ When they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put the money in bags and counted the money found in the house of the Lord. ¹¹ Then they gave the money, which had been counted, into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the Lord; and they paid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked on the house of the Lord, ¹² and to the masons and the stonecutters, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the damage to the house of the Lord, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it. ¹³ However, there were not made for the house of the Lord silver cups, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, any vessels of gold or silver, from the money that was brought into the house of the Lord; ¹⁴ for they allocated it to the workmen, who used it to restore the house of the Lord. ¹⁵ Moreover, they did not require an accounting from the men into whose hand they gave the money to pay the workmen, for they dealt faithfully. ¹⁶ The money from the guilt offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the Lord; it was kept by the priests.

¹⁷ Then Hazael king of Aram advanced and fought against Gath and captured it, and Hazael prepared to go up to Jerusalem. ¹⁸ So Jehoash king of Judah took all the sacred things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own sacred things, and all the gold that was found among the treasuries of the house of the Lord and of the king's house, and sent them to Hazael king of Aram. Then he withdrew from Jerusalem.

¹⁹ As for the other events of Joash's reign and all he accomplished, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²⁰ And his servants arose and formed a conspiracy, and struck Joash at the house of Millo, on the way down to Silla.

²¹ For Jozacar the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad

2 Kings

the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him and he died. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Amaziah his son succeeded him as king.

13 During the twenty-third year of Joash, son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, began his reign over Israel in Samaria, and his reign lasted seventeen years. ² He did evil in the sight of the Lord, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin; he did not turn away from them. ³ So the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and He continually handed them over to the hand of Hazael king of Aram, and to the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael. ⁴ Then Jehoahaz pleaded for the favour of the Lord, and the Lord listened to him; for He saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Aram oppressed them. ⁵ And the Lord gave Israel a deliverer, so that they escaped from under the hand of the Arameans; and the sons of Israel lived in their tents as previously. ⁶ Nevertheless, they did not turn away from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, which he caused Israel to commit, but walked in them; and the Asherah also remained standing in Samaria. ⁷ For he left to Jehoahaz no more of the army than fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand foot soldiers, for the king of Aram had destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.

⁸ As for the other deeds of Jehoahaz, including all his accomplishments and his might, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ⁹ And Jehoahaz lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and his son Jehoash became king in his place.

¹⁰ In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned sixteen years. ¹¹ He did evil in the sight of the Lord; he did not turn away from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, but walked in them. ¹² Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ¹³ So Jehoash lay down with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne; and Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

¹⁴ When Elisha became sick with the illness of which he was to die, Jehoash the king of Israel came down to him and wept over him and said, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" ¹⁵ And Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and arrows." So he took a bow and arrows for himself. ¹⁶ Then he instructed the king of Israel, "Place your hand on the bow." And he placed his hand on it, and Elisha placed his hands over the king's hands. ¹⁷ And he said, "Open the window toward the east," and he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot!" and he shot. And he said, "The Lord's arrow of victory, and the arrow of victory over Aram; for you will strike the Arameans at Aphek until you have destroyed them." ¹⁸ Then he said, "Take the arrows," and he took them. And he instructed the king of Israel, "Strike the ground," and he struck it three times and stopped. ¹⁹ Then the man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck Aram until you had put an end to it. But now you shall strike Aram only three times."

²⁰ And Elisha died, and they buried him. Now bands of Moabites would invade the land in the spring of the year. ²¹ While they were burying a man, they noticed a marauding band; so they threw the man into the grave of Elisha. Upon touching the bones of Elisha, the man revived and stood up on his feet.

²² During the time of Jehoahaz, Hazael king of Aram had oppressed Israel. ²³ Yet the Lord was gracious to them and had compassion on them and turned to them, because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and He would not destroy them or cast them from His presence up to this time. ²⁴ Upon the death of Hazael king of Aram, his son Ben-hadad succeeded him as king. ²⁵ Then Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again from the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken in war from the hand of his father Jehoahaz. Jehoash defeated him three times and recovered the cities of Israel.

14 During the second year of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah, son of Joash, king of Judah, began his reign. ² Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. ³ He did what was right in the sight of the Lord, though not as his ancestor David had done. He followed the example set by his father Joash.⁴ However, the high places were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there.⁵ Once the kingdom was securely under his control, he executed the servants who had assassinated his father, the king.⁶ But he did not put the children of the murderers to death, in accordance with what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, as the Lord commanded, saying, "Fathers shall not be put to death for sons, nor shall sons be put to death for fathers; but each shall be put to death for his own sin."

2 Kings

⁷ He defeated ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt, captured Sela in battle, and named it Joktheel, as it remains to this day.⁸ Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face one another in battle."⁹ But Jehoash, king of Israel, sent a message to Amaziah, king of Judah, saying, "The thorn bush in Lebanon sent a message to the cedar in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as a wife.' But a wild animal in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thorn bush."¹⁰ You have indeed defeated Edom, and your heart has become proud. Enjoy your honour and stay in your house. Why should you provoke trouble so that you fall, you and Judah with you?"¹¹ Yet Amaziah did not heed the warning. So Jehoash, king of Israel, advanced, and he and Amaziah, king of Judah, confronted each other at Beth-shemesh, which is part of Judah.¹² Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his own tent.¹³ Jehoash, king of Israel, captured Amaziah, king of Judah, son of Jehoash, son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh. He then went to Jerusalem and demolished the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, a distance of four hundred cubits.¹⁴ He took all the gold and silver and all the utensils found in the house of the Lord and in the treasuries of the king's house, along with hostages, and returned to Samaria.

¹⁵ The remaining acts of Jehoash, his might, and how he fought with Amaziah, king of Judah, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ¹⁶ Jehoash rested with his ancestors and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel, and his son Jeroboam succeeded him as king.

¹⁷ Amaziah, son of Joash, king of Judah, lived for fifteen more years after the death of Jehoash, son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.¹⁸ As for the other events of Amaziah's reign, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ¹⁹ They conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But they sent men after him to Lachish, and they killed him there.²⁰ They brought him back on horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his ancestors in the city of David.²¹ All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.²² He rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after the king had passed away.

²³ In the fifteenth year of Amaziah, son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam, son of Joash, king of Israel, began his reign in Samaria, and he ruled for forty-one years.²⁴ He did evil in the sight of the Lord; he did not turn away from all the sins of Jeroboam, son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin.²⁵ He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah, in accordance with the word of the Lord, the God of Israel, which He spoke through His servant Jonah, son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gath-hepher.²⁶ For the Lord saw the affliction of Israel, which was very bitter; for there was neither bond nor free remaining, nor was there any helper for Israel.²⁷ Yet the Lord did not declare that He would erase the name of Israel from under heaven; but He delivered them by the hand of Jeroboam, son of Joash.

²⁸ The remaining acts of Jeroboam, all that he accomplished, his might, how he fought and how he recovered for Israel Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ²⁹ Jeroboam rested with his ancestors, with the kings of Israel, and his son Zechariah succeeded him as king.

15 During the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah, king of Judah, began his reign.² At the age of sixteen, he began his reign, and he ruled for fifty-two years in Jerusalem; his mother was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.³ He acted rightly in the eyes of the Lord, following the example of his father Amaziah.⁴ However, the high places were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense on these high places.⁵ And the Lord afflicted the king, causing him to be a leper until the day of his death. He resided in a separate house, while Jotham, the king's son, managed the household, judging the people of the land. ⁶ As for the other deeds of Azariah and all his accomplishments, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ⁷ Azariah passed away and was laid to rest with his ancestors in the city of David, and his son Jotham succeeded him as king.

2 Kings

⁸ In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in Samaria for six months. ⁹ He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, as his forefathers had done; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin. ¹⁰ Then Shallum son of Jabesh plotted against him, struck him down in front of the people, and killed him, becoming king in his place. ¹¹ As for the other deeds of Zechariah, indeed, they are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. ¹² This is the word of the Lord which He spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." And so it came to pass.

¹³ Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned for one month in Samaria. ¹⁴ Then Menahem son of Gadi went up from Tirzah and came to Samaria, and he struck Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria and killed him, and took the throne in his place. ¹⁵ As for the other deeds of Shallum and his conspiracy, indeed, they are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. ¹⁶ Then Menahem attacked Tiphshah and all who were in it and its borders, from Tirzah, because they did not open to him; so he attacked it, and ripped up all its women who were pregnant.

¹⁷ In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel, and he reigned ten years in Samaria. ¹⁸ He did evil in the eyes of the Lord; he did not depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin. ¹⁹ Pul king of Assyria came against the land, and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, so that his support would be with him to secure the kingdom under his rule. ²⁰ Then Menahem exacted the money from Israel, from all the mighty men of wealth, fifty shekels of silver from each man, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria withdrew and did not remain in the land. ²¹ As for the other deeds of Menahem and all his accomplishments, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ²² Menahem passed away, and his son Pekahiah succeeded him as king.

²³ In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for two years. ²⁴ He did evil in the eyes of the Lord; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin. ²⁵ Then Pekah son of Remaliah, his officer, conspired against him and struck him in Samaria, in the citadel of the king's house, along with Argob and Arieah, and with fifty men of the Gileadites. And he killed him and took the throne in his place. ²⁶ As for the other deeds of Pekahiah and all his accomplishments, indeed, they are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

²⁷ In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned for twenty years. ²⁸ He did evil in the eyes of the Lord; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel into sin. ²⁹ In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came and captured Ijon, Abel-beth-maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he led their inhabitants into exile to Assyria. ³⁰ And Hoshea son of Elah conspired against Pekah son of Remaliah, and struck him and killed him, and took the throne in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. ³¹ As for the other deeds of Pekah and all his accomplishments, indeed, they are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

³² During the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah king of Judah began his reign. ³³ He was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for sixteen years in Jerusalem; his mother was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok. ³⁴ He acted rightly in the eyes of the Lord; he followed in all the ways of his father Uzziah. ³⁵ However, the high places were not removed; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense on these high places. He constructed the upper gate of the house of the Lord. ³⁶ As for the other deeds of Jotham and his accomplishments, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ³⁷ At that time, the Lord initiated the sending of Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah. ³⁸ Jotham passed away and was laid to rest with his ancestors in the city of his father David; and his son Ahaz succeeded him as king.

2 Kings

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham, king of Judah, began his reign. ² Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the sight of the Lord his God, as his father David had done. ³ But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and he even made his son pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the Lord had driven out from before the sons of Israel. ⁴ He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hills, and beneath every green tree.

⁵ Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem for war, and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. ⁶ At that time Rezin king of Aram recovered Elath for Aram, and drove the Judeans from Elath entirely; and the Arameans came to Elath and have lived there to this day.

⁷ So Ahaz sent envoys to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son; come to my aid against the king of Aram, and the king of Israel, who are rising up against me." ⁸ And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the Lord and in the treasuries of the king's house, and sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria. ⁹ So the king of Assyria heeded his request; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus and captured it, and led its people into exile to Kir, and executed Rezin.

¹⁰ Now King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and he saw the altar that was at Damascus. And King Ahaz sent to Uriah the priest the pattern of the altar and its model, corresponding to all its workmanship. ¹¹ So Uriah the priest built the altar; according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Uriah the priest made it before the king came from Damascus. ¹² When the king came from Damascus, the king saw the altar; and the king approached the altar and went up to it, ¹³ and he burned his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured out his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar. ¹⁴ And the bronze altar, which was before the Lord, he moved from the front of the house, from between his altar and the house of the Lord, and he placed it on the north side of his altar. ¹⁵ Then King Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, saying, "Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering and the evening meal offering, and the king's burnt offering and his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meal offering and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offerings and all the blood of the sacrifices. But the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by." ¹⁶ So Uriah the priest carried out all that King Ahaz instructed.

¹⁷ Then King Ahaz cut off the borders of the stands, and removed the wash basin from them; he also took down the sea from the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stone. ¹⁸ And he removed the covered canopy for the Sabbath which they had built in the house, and the outer entry for the king, from the house of the Lord, because of the king of Assyria.

¹⁹ Now the remainder of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²⁰ So Ahaz slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Hezekiah became king in his place.

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years. ² He did evil in the sight of the Lord, though not as the kings of Israel who were before him. ³ Shalmaneser, the king of Assyria, advanced against him, and Hoshea became his vassal and rendered him tribute. ⁴ But the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea, for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt and had not paid tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. So the king of Assyria shut him up and bound him in prison. ⁵ Then the king of Assyria invaded the whole land and went up to Samaria and besieged it for three years. ⁶ In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and took the people of Israel into exile to Assyria, and settled them in Halah and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

2 Kings

⁷ Now this happened because the sons of Israel had sinned against the Lord their God, who had brought them up from the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and they had feared other gods ⁸ and followed the practices of the nations whom the Lord had driven out before the sons of Israel, and in the ways of the kings of Israel which they had introduced. ⁹ And the sons of Israel did things secretly which were not right against the Lord their God. Moreover, they built for themselves high places in all their towns, from watchtower to fortified city. ¹⁰ They set up for themselves memorial stones and Asherim on every high hill and under every green tree, ¹¹ and there they burned incense on all the high places, as the nations did whom the Lord had carried away before them; and they did evil things, provoking the Lord. ¹² They served idols, about which the Lord had said to them, "You shall not do this thing." ¹³ Nevertheless, the Lord sent messages to Israel and Judah through all His prophets and every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways and keep My commandments and statutes, in accordance with all the Law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you through My servants the prophets." ¹⁴ However, they did not listen, but stiffened their necks like their fathers, who did not believe in the Lord their God. ¹⁵ They rejected His statutes and His covenant which He made with their fathers, and His warnings with which He warned them. And they followed idols and became empty, and followed the nations which surrounded them, concerning whom the Lord had commanded them not to do as they did. ¹⁶ They abandoned all the commandments of the Lord their God and made for themselves cast metal images—two calves— and made an Asherah, and worshipped all the heavenly lights and served Baal. ¹⁷ Then they made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire, practised divination and interpreted omens, and gave themselves over to do evil in the sight of the Lord, provoking Him. ¹⁸ So the Lord was very angry with Israel and removed them from His sight; none was left except the tribe of Judah alone. ¹⁹ Also Judah did not keep the commandments of the Lord their God, but they walked in the customs which Israel had introduced. ²⁰ So the Lord rejected all the descendants of Israel and afflicted them, and handed them over to plunderers, until He had cast them from His sight. ²¹ When He had separated Israel from the house of David, they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam led Israel away from following the Lord and caused them to commit a great sin. ²² And the sons of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he committed; they did not depart from them, ²³ until the Lord removed Israel from His sight, as He had spoken through all His servants the prophets. So Israel was exiled from their own land to Assyria to this day.

²⁴ Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and settled them in the cities of Samaria in place of the sons of Israel. So they possessed Samaria and lived in its cities. ²⁵ And at the beginning of their living there, they did not fear the Lord; therefore the Lord sent lions among them that killed some of them. ²⁶ So they informed the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations whom you have taken into exile and settled in the cities of Samaria do not know the custom of the God of the land; so He has sent lions among them, and behold, they are killing them, because they do not know the custom of the God of the land."

²⁷ Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Take one of the priests whom you took into exile from there, and have him go and live there, and let him teach them the custom of the God of the land."

²⁸ So one of the priests who had been taken into exile from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the Lord.

²⁹ But every nation still made gods of its own and put them in the houses of the high places which the people of Samaria had made, every nation in their cities where they lived. ³⁰ The people of Babylon crafted Succoth-benoth, the people of Cuth fashioned Nergal, the people of Hamath created Ashima, ³¹ and the Avvites devised Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites offered their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. ³² They also feared the Lord, and appointed from among themselves priests of the high places, who served them in the houses of the high places. ³³ They feared the Lord, yet served their own gods in accordance with the customs of the nations from among whom they had been taken into exile. ³⁴ To this day they act in accordance with the earlier customs: they do not fear the Lord, nor do they follow His statutes, His ordinances, the Law, or the commandment which the Lord commanded the sons of Jacob, whom He named Israel; ³⁵ with whom the Lord made a covenant and commanded them, saying, "You shall not fear other gods, nor bow down to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them." ³⁶ But the Lord, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, Him you shall fear, and to Him you shall bow down, and to Him you shall offer sacrifices. ³⁷ And the statutes, the ordinances, the Law, and the commandment which He wrote for you, you shall be careful to do always, and you shall not fear other gods. ³⁸ And the covenant that I have made with you, you shall remember, nor shall you fear other gods. ³⁹ But the Lord your God you shall fear; and He will save you from the hand of all your enemies." ⁴⁰ However, they did not listen, but kept acting in accordance with their earlier custom. ⁴¹ So while these nations feared the Lord, they also served their idols; their children likewise and their grandchildren, just as their fathers acted, so they do to this day.

2 Kings

18 Now it came about in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, king of Judah, became king. ² He was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother was Abi, the daughter of Zechariah. ³ He did what was right in the sight of the Lord, in accordance with all that his father David had done. ⁴ He removed the high places, smashed the memorial stones, cut down the Asherah, and also crushed to pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the sons of Israel burned incense to it; and it was called Nehushtan. ⁵ He placed his trust in the Lord, the God of Israel; there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, either before or after him. ⁶ For he held fast to the Lord; he did not turn away from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the Lord had given to Moses. ⁷ And the Lord was with him; wherever he went, he found success. He also stood against the king of Assyria and did not serve him. ⁸ He overcame the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city.

⁹ In the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria advanced against Samaria and laid siege to it. ¹⁰ At the end of three years they captured it; in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. ¹¹ Then the king of Assyria led Israel into exile to Assyria, and settled them in Halah and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, ¹² because they did not obey the voice of the Lord their God, but violated His covenant—all that Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded; they neither listened nor obeyed.

¹³ In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria advanced against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them. ¹⁴ Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent word to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "I have done wrong; withdraw from me. Whatever you impose on me, I will bear." So the king of Assyria imposed on Hezekiah king of Judah a payment of three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. ¹⁵ Hezekiah provided him with all the silver that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasuries of the king's house. ¹⁶ At that time Hezekiah removed the gold from the doors of the temple of the Lord, and from the doorposts which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

¹⁷ Then the king of Assyria sent Tartan, Rab-saris, and Rabshakeh from Lachish to King Hezekiah with a large army to Jerusalem. So they came up and arrived at Jerusalem. And they went up and came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the highway of the fuller's field. ¹⁸ Then they called to the king, and Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them. ¹⁹ Then Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: What is this confidence that you have? ²⁰ You claim—but they are only empty words—"I have a plan and strength for the war." Now on whom have you relied, that you have revolted against me? ²¹ Now behold, you have relied on the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt, on which, if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him. ²² But if you say to me, "We have trusted in the Lord our God," is it not He whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and Jerusalem, "You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem"? ²³ Now then, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to put riders on them. ²⁴ How then can you turn back even one official of the least of my master's servants, and rely on Egypt for chariots and horsemen? ²⁵ Have I now come up without the Lord's consent against this place to destroy it? The Lord said to me, "Go up against this land, and destroy it."'''

2 Kings

²⁶ Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna and Joah, said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and do not speak with us in Judean in the hearing of the people who are on the wall." ²⁷ But Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who are doomed to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?" ²⁸ Then Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Judean, and said, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria! ²⁹ This is what the king says: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you from my hand.' ³⁰ Nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the Lord, saying, 'The Lord will certainly save us, and this city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.' ³¹ Do not listen to Hezekiah; for this is what the king of Assyria says: 'Make peace with me and come out to me, and each of you will eat from his own vine and each from his own fig tree, and drink from the waters of his own well, ³² until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil and honey, so that you will live and not die.' But do not listen to Hezekiah, for he misleads you by saying, 'The Lord will save us.' ³³ Have any of the gods of the nations been able to rescue their land from the hand of the king of Assyria? ³⁴ What has become of the gods of Hamath and Arpad? What has become of the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they rescued Samaria from my hand? ³⁵ Who among all the gods of the lands have saved their land from my hand, that the Lord would save Jerusalem from my hand?"

³⁶ But the people were silent and did not answer him a word, for the king's command was, "Do not answer him." ³⁷ Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and they reported to him the words of Rabshakeh.

19 Now when King Hezekiah heard this, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and entered the house of the Lord. ² Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. ³ They said to him, "This is what Hezekiah says: 'This day is a day of distress, rebuke, and humiliation; for children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them.' ⁴ Perhaps the Lord your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to taunt the living God, and will rebuke the words which the Lord your God has heard. Therefore, offer a prayer for the remnant that is left.'" ⁵ Thus, King Hezekiah's servants approached Isaiah. ⁶ And Isaiah said to them, "Say this to your master: 'This is what the Lord says: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.' ⁷ Behold, I am going to put a spirit in him, so that he will hear a rumour and return to his own land. And I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.'"

⁸ Rabshakeh returned to find the king of Assyria engaged in battle against Libnah, for he had been informed that the king had left Lachish. ⁹ When he heard them say regarding Tirhakah king of Cush, "Behold, he has come out to fight against you," he again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰ "Say this to Hezekiah king of Judah: 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria." ¹¹ Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands, destroying them completely. So will you be saved? ¹² Did the gods of the nations whom my fathers destroyed save them—Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the sons of Eden who were in Telassar? ¹³ What has become of the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, and of Hena and Ivvah?"

¹⁴ Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers, read it, and went up to the house of the Lord, spreading it out before the Lord. ¹⁵ And Hezekiah prayed before the Lord and said, "Lord, God of Israel, enthroned above the cherubim, You are the God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁶ Incline Your ear, Lord, and hear; open Your eyes, Lord, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to taunt the living God. ¹⁷ Indeed, Lord, the kings of Assyria have devastated the nations and their lands, ¹⁸ and have thrown their gods into the fire, for they were not gods but only the work of human hands, wood and stone. So they have destroyed them. ¹⁹ But now, Lord our God, we ask You to save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone, Lord, are God."

2 Kings

²⁰ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent word to Hezekiah, saying, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel says: 'Because you have prayed to Me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard you.' ²¹ This is the message that the Lord has spoken against him:

'She has scorned you and ridiculed you, The virgin daughter of Zion; She has tossed her head at you, The daughter of Jerusalem! ²² Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel! ²³ Through your messengers you have defied the Lord, and you have said, "With my many chariots I came up to the heights of the mountains, To the remotest parts of Lebanon; And I cut down its tall cedars and its choice junipers. And I entered its farthest resting place, its thickest forest. ²⁴ I dug wells and drank waters from foreign lands, And with the soles of my feet I dried up All the rivers of Egypt." ²⁵ Have you not heard? Long ago I did it, From ancient times I planned it. Now I have brought it about, That you would turn fortified cities into ruinous heaps. ²⁶ So their inhabitants were powerless, They were shattered and put to shame. They were like the vegetation of the field and the green herb, Like grass on the rooftops that is scorched before it has grown. ²⁷ But I am aware of your sitting down, Your going out and your coming in, And your rage against Me. ²⁸ Because of your rage against Me, And because your arrogance has reached My ears, I will put My hook in your nose And My bridle in your lips, And I will turn you back by the way that you came.

²⁹ This will be the sign for you:

you will eat this year what grows of itself, in the second year what springs from the same, and in the third year sow, reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. ³⁰ And the survivors that are left of the house of Judah will again take root downward and bear fruit upward. ³¹ For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go, and survivors out of Mount Zion. The zeal of the Lord will accomplish this.

³² Therefore this is what the Lord says about the king of Assyria:

'He will not come to this city, Nor shoot an arrow there; Nor come before it with a shield, Nor throw up a siege ramp against it. ³³ He will return by the route he came, and he shall not come to this city,' declares the Lord. ³⁴ 'For I will protect this city and preserve it, for My own sake and for the sake of My servant David.'

³⁵ Then it happened that night that the angel of the Lord went out and struck 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians; and when the people got up in the morning, behold, all of them were dead bodies. ³⁶ So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and returned home, and lived in Nineveh. ³⁷ And it came about, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And his son Esarhaddon became king in his place.

20 During that time, Hezekiah fell gravely ill. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, visited him and said, "This is what the Lord declares: 'Prepare your affairs, for you will not recover; you shall die and pass away.'" ² At this, he turned towards the wall and prayed to the Lord, saying, ³ "Please, Lord, just remember how I have walked before You wholeheartedly and truthfully, and have done what is good in Your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

⁴ Now even before Isaiah had gone out of the middle courtyard, the word of the Lord came to him, saying,

⁵ "Return and tell Hezekiah, the leader of My people, 'This is what the Lord, the God of your ancestor David, declares:

I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; behold, I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the Lord. ⁶ And I will extend your life by fifteen years, and I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will protect this city for My own sake, and for the sake of My servant David."

2 Kings

⁷ Then Isaiah said, "Take a cake of figs." And they took it and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. ⁸ Hezekiah then asked Isaiah, "What will be the sign that the Lord will heal me, and that I will go up to the house of the Lord on the third day?" ⁹ Isaiah said, "This shall be the sign to you from the Lord, that the Lord will perform what He has promised:

Shall the shadow advance ten steps, or shall it go back ten steps?"

¹⁰ So Hezekiah answered, "It is easy for the shadow to decline ten steps; no, but have it go back ten steps." ¹¹ Then Isaiah the prophet called upon the Lord, and He caused the shadow on the stairway to move back ten steps, by which it had descended on the stairway of Ahaz.

¹² Around that time, Berodach-baladan, a son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard of Hezekiah's illness. ¹³ And Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all his treasure house— the silver, the gold, the balsam oil, the scented oil, his armour, and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his realm, that Hezekiah did not show them. ¹⁴ Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" And Hezekiah said, "They came from a distant land, from Babylon." ¹⁵ And he said, "What have they seen in your house?" So Hezekiah answered, "They have seen everything that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasuries that I have not shown them." ¹⁶ Isaiah then addressed Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the Lord:

¹⁷ 'Behold, the days are coming when everything that is in your house, and everything that your fathers have stored up to this day, will be carried to Babylon; nothing will be left,' says the Lord. ¹⁸ 'And some of your descendants, your own offspring, will be taken away, and they will serve as officials in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"

¹⁹ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the Lord which you have spoken is good." For he thought, "Is it not good if there will be peace and truth in my days?"

²⁰ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and all his achievements, including how he made the pool and the conduit and brought water into the city, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²¹ So Hezekiah rested with his ancestors, and his son Manasseh succeeded him as king.

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother was named Hephzibah. ² He acted wickedly in the eyes of the Lord, following the detestable practices of the nations that the Lord had driven out before the Israelites. ³ For he rebuilt the high places which his father Hezekiah had destroyed; and he erected altars for Baal and made an Asherah, just as Ahab king of Israel had done, and he bowed down to all the host of heaven and served them. ⁴ He also constructed altars in the house of the Lord, where the Lord had declared, "In Jerusalem I will place My name." ⁵ For he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courtyards of the house of the Lord. ⁶ And he made his son pass through the fire, practised witchcraft and used divination, and dealt with mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the Lord, provoking Him to anger. ⁷ Then he put the carved image of Asherah that he had made in the house about which the Lord had spoken to David and to his son Solomon, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will place My name forever. ⁸ And I will not make the feet of Israel wander again from the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will be careful to do all that I have commanded them, according to all the Law that My servant Moses commanded them." ⁹ But they did not listen, and Manasseh led them astray to do more evil than the nations whom the Lord destroyed before the sons of Israel.

¹⁰ The Lord conveyed His message through His servants the prophets, saying, ¹¹ "Since Manasseh king of Judah has committed these abominations, having done more evil than the Amorites who were before him, and has also made Judah sin with his idols, ¹² therefore this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says:

'Behold, I am bringing such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both ears will tingle. ¹³ And I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line of Samaria, and the plumb line of the house of Ahab, and I will cleanse Jerusalem as one cleanses a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. ¹⁴ And I will forsake the remnant of My inheritance and deliver them into the hands of their enemies, and they will become as plunder and spoils to all their enemies, ¹⁵ because they have done what is evil in My sight, and have been provoking Me to anger since the day their fathers came from Egypt, even to this day."

2 Kings

¹⁶ Moreover, Manasseh shed very much innocent blood until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides his sin into which he led Judah, in doing evil in the sight of the Lord.

¹⁷ Now the remainder of the acts of Manasseh and all that he did, and the sin he committed, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ¹⁸ And Manasseh rested with his ancestors and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza, and his son Amon succeeded him as king.

¹⁹ Amon was twenty-two years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for two years in Jerusalem. His mother was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. ²⁰ He acted wickedly in the eyes of the Lord, just as his father Manasseh had done. ²¹ For he followed all the ways that his father had followed, and served the idols that his father had served, and bowed down to them. ²² So he forsook the Lord, the God of his ancestors, and did not walk in the way of the Lord. ²³ And the servants of Amon plotted against him and killed the king in his own house. ²⁴ Then the people of the land dealt with those who had conspired against King Amon, and they appointed his son Josiah as king in his place.

²⁵ Now the remainder of the acts of Amon, which he did, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²⁶ And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and his son Josiah succeeded him as king.

22 Josiah was eight years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. ² He did what was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in all the way of his father David, and did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

³ In the eighteenth year of King Josiah's reign, the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam the scribe, to the house of the Lord, saying, ⁴ "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, so that he may count the money brought into the house of the Lord, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people. ⁵ And have them hand it over to the workmen who have oversight of the house of the Lord, and have them give it to the workmen who are in the house of the Lord to repair the damage to the house, ⁶ to the craftsmen and the builders and the masons, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the house. ⁷ However, no accounting shall be made with them for the money handed over to them, because they deal faithfully."

⁸ Hilkiah the high priest informed Shaphan the scribe, "I have discovered the Book of the Law in the house of the Lord." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, who read it. ⁹ And Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought back word to the king, and said, "Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have handed it over to the workmen who have oversight of the house of the Lord." ¹⁰ Moreover, Shaphan the scribe informed the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king. ¹¹ Upon hearing the words of the Book of the Law, the king tore his garments. ¹² Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, ¹³ "Go, inquire of the Lord for me, and the people, and all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found—for great is the wrath of the Lord that burns against us, because our fathers did not listen to the words of this book, to do in accordance with everything written concerning us."

¹⁴ So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter), and they spoke to her. ¹⁵ And she said to them, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel says: 'Say to the man who sent you to Me, ¹⁶ "This is what the Lord says: Behold, I am bringing calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read. ¹⁷ Because they have abandoned Me and have burned incense to other gods, so as to provoke Me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore My wrath burns against this place, and it shall not be quenched.”

2 Kings

¹⁶ To the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the Lord, this is what you shall say to him:

“This is what the Lord, the God of Israel says: Concerning the words which you have heard— ¹⁹ because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before the Lord when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become an object of horror and a curse, and you have torn your garments and wept before Me, I indeed have heard you,” declares the Lord. ²⁰ “Therefore, behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the calamity which I am bringing on this place.”” So they brought back word to the king.

23 The king sent messengers, and they assembled all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to him. ² And the king went up to the house of the Lord, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, along with the priests, the prophets, and all the people, from the least to the greatest; and he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the house of the Lord. ³ Then the king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep His commandments, His testimonies, and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to carry out the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people confirmed the covenant.

⁴ Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the doorkeepers, to bring out of the temple of the Lord all the utensils made for Baal, for Asherah, and for all the host of heaven; and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel. ⁵ He also did away with the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah and in the areas surrounding Jerusalem, also those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, the moon, the constellations, and to all the host of heaven. ⁶ He brought out the Asherah from the house of the Lord to the outside of Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and ground it to dust, and threw its dust on the graves of the common people. ⁷ He also tore down the houses of the male cult prostitutes which were in the house of the Lord, where the women were weaving hangings for the Asherah. ⁸ Then he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba. And he tore down the high places of the gates which were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on one's left at the city gate. ⁹ Yet the priests of the high places did not ascend to the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers. ¹⁰ He also desecrated Topheth, located in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to prevent anyone from making his son or daughter pass through the fire for Molech. ¹¹ And he removed the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of the Lord, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the official, which was in the annex; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. ¹² The altars which were on the roof, the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courtyards of the house of the Lord, the king tore down; and he smashed them there and threw their dust into the brook Kidron. ¹³ The high places which were before Jerusalem, which were on the right of the mount of destruction which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the sons of Ammon, the king defiled. ¹⁴ He also smashed the memorial stones, cut down the Asherim, and filled their places with human bones.

¹⁵ Furthermore, the altar which was at Bethel and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who misled Israel into sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he tore down. Then he demolished its stones, ground them to dust, and burned the Asherah. ¹⁶ Now when Josiah turned, he saw the graves that were there on the mountain, and he sent men and took the bones from the graves and burned them on the altar, and defiled it, in accordance with the word of the Lord which the man of God had proclaimed, who had proclaimed these things. ¹⁷

2 Kings

Then he said, "What is this monument that I see?" And the men of the city told him, "It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah, and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar at Bethel." ¹⁸ And he said, "Leave it alone, no one is to disturb his bones." So they left his bones undisturbed, with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria. ¹⁹ Then Josiah also removed all the shrines of the high places which were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the Lord to anger; and he did to them just as he had done in Bethel. ²⁰ And he slaughtered on the altars all the priests of the high places who were there, and burned human bones on them; then he returned to Jerusalem.

²¹ The king commanded all the people, saying, "Celebrate the Passover to the Lord your God as it is written in this Book of the Covenant." ²² For such a Passover had not been celebrated since the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah. ²³ However, in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was held to the Lord in Jerusalem.

²⁴ Moreover, Josiah removed the mediums, the spiritists, the household idols, the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, so that he might confirm the words of the Law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the Lord. ²⁵ Before him there was no king like him who turned to the Lord with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, in accordance with all the Law of Moses; nor did any like him arise after him.

²⁶ However, the Lord did not turn away from the greatness of His wrath with which His anger burned against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him. ²⁷ And the Lord said, "I will also remove Judah from My sight, as I have removed Israel. And I will reject Jerusalem, this city which I have chosen, and the temple of which I said, 'My name shall be there.'"

²⁸ As for the rest of the acts of Josiah and all that he did, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²⁹ In his days Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt went up to the king of Assyria to the Euphrates River. And King Josiah went to meet him, but when Pharaoh Neco saw him he killed him at Megiddo. ³⁰ His servants carried his body in a chariot from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in place of his father.

³¹ Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ³² He did evil in the sight of the Lord, in accordance with all that his fathers had done. ³³ And Pharaoh Neco imprisoned him at Riblah in the land of Hamath, preventing him from reigning in Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a fine of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. ³⁴ Then Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah, and changed his name to Jehoikim. But he took Jehoahaz and brought him to Egypt, and he died there. ³⁵ So Jehoikim gave the silver and gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land to give the money at the command of Pharaoh. He exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, each according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Neco.

³⁶ Jehoikim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. ³⁷ He did evil in the sight of the Lord, in accordance with all that his fathers had done.

24

In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoikim became his servant for three years; but then he turned and rebelled against him. ² And the Lord sent against him bands of Chaldeans, bands of Arameans, bands of Moabites, and bands of Ammonites. So He sent them against Judah to destroy it, in accordance with the word of the Lord which He had spoken through His servants the prophets. ³ Indeed, it came upon Judah at the command of the Lord, to remove them from His sight because of the sins of Manasseh, in accordance with all that he had done, ⁴ and also for the innocent blood which he shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; and the Lord was not willing to forgive.

⁵ As for the other events of Jehoikim's reign and all he accomplished, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ⁶ So Jehoiakim rested with his ancestors, and his son Jehoiachin succeeded him as king. ⁷ The king of Egypt did not march out of his land again, for the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates.

2 Kings

⁸ Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. ⁹ He acted wickedly in the eyes of the Lord, following the ways of his father.

¹⁰ During that period, the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon advanced to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. ¹¹ Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon himself arrived at the city, while his servants were laying siege to it. ¹² Then Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, his mother, his servants, his captains, and his officials. So the king of Babylon took him captive in the eighth year of his reign. ¹³ And he brought out from there all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house, and he cut in pieces all the articles of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the Lord, just as the Lord had said. ¹⁴ Then he led into exile all Jerusalem: all the captains and all the valiant warriors, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths. None remained except the poorest people of the land. ¹⁵ So he led Jehoiachin into exile to Babylon; also the king's mother, the king's wives, his officials, and the leading men of the land, he led into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. ¹⁶ And all the men of valour, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths, one thousand, all strong and fit for war, these the king of Babylon brought into exile to Babylon.

¹⁷ Then the king of Babylon appointed Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, as king, and changed his name to Zedekiah. ¹⁸ Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ¹⁹ He acted wickedly in the eyes of the Lord, following the ways of Jehoiakim. ²⁰ For it was due to the anger of the Lord that this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until He cast them out from His presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

25 In the ninth year of his reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, arrived with his entire army against Jerusalem, encamped around it, and constructed a siege wall all around it. ² Thus, the city remained besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. ³ On the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no food for the people of the land. ⁴ Then the city was breached, and all the men of war fled by night by way of the gate between the two walls beside the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. And they went by way of the Arabah. ⁵ However, the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and caught up with him in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him. ⁶ Then they captured the king and brought him to the king of Babylon at Riblah, where he was judged. ⁷ And they slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, then put out the eyes of Zedekiah and bound him with bronze shackles, and brought him to Babylon.

⁸ On the seventh day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard and servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. ⁹ And he burned the house of the Lord, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; even every large house he burned with fire. ¹⁰ So all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard tore down the walls around Jerusalem. ¹¹ Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard led into exile the rest of the people who were left in the city, the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the population. ¹² But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and farmers.

¹³ The bronze pillars which were in the house of the Lord, along with the stands and the bronze sea, were broken into pieces by the Chaldeans, who carried the bronze to Babylon. ¹⁴ They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils used in temple service. ¹⁵ The captain of the guard also took away the firepans and the basins, whatever was fine gold and whatever was fine silver. ¹⁶ The two pillars, the one sea, and the stands which Solomon had made for the house of the Lord— the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weight. ¹⁷ The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a bronze capital was on it; the height of the capital was three cubits, with latticework and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of bronze. And the second pillar was like these, with latticework.

2 Kings

¹⁸ Then the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers. ¹⁹ And from the city he took one official who was overseer of the men of war, five of the king's advisers who were found in the city, the scribe of the captain of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city. ²⁰ Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²¹ Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was taken into exile from its land.

²² As for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, had left, he appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, over them. ²³ When all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, namely Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan the son of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. ²⁴ Then Gedaliah swore to them and to their servants of the Chaldeans; live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you." ²⁵ But in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men and struck Gedaliah down so that he died, along with the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah. ²⁶ Then all the people, from small to great, and the captains of the forces, arose and went to Egypt, for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

²⁷ It came about in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin, king of Judah, on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month, that Evil-merodach, king of Babylon, in the year that he became king, released Jehoiachin, king of Judah, from prison. ²⁸ And he spoke kindly to him and set his throne above the thrones of the kings who were with him in Babylon. ²⁹ So Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes, and dined regularly in the king's presence all the days of his life. ³⁰ And for his sustenance, a regular allowance was given to him by the king, a portion for each day, throughout his life.

1 Chronicles

1 Adam, Seth, and Enosh, ² Kenan, Mahalalel, and Jared, ³ Enoch, Methuselah, and Lamech, ⁴ Noah, along with his sons:

Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

⁵ Japheth's sons included:

Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.

⁶ Gomer's sons were:

Ashkenaz, Diphath, and Togarmah.

⁷ Javan's lineage included:

Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Rodanim.

⁸ Ham's sons included:

Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan.

⁹ Cush's sons were:

Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raama, and Sabteca. And Raama's sons were: Sheba and Dedan. ¹⁰ Cush was the father of Nimrod; he became a mighty figure on the earth.

¹¹ Mizraim was father to the line of Lud, Anam, Lehab, Naphtuh, ¹² Pathrus, Casluh (from whom the Philistines came), and Caphtor.

¹³ Canaan was father to Sidon, his firstborn, and Heth,

¹⁴ and the Jebusite, the Amorite, and the Gergashite,

¹⁵ and the Hivite, the Arkite, and the Sinite, ¹⁶ and the Avadite, the Zemarite, and the Hamathite.

¹⁷ The sons of Shem included:

Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, Aram, The sons of Aram were Uz, Hul, Gether, and Meshech.

¹⁸ Arpachshad was father to Shelah, and Shelah was father to Eber. ¹⁹ Eber had two sons:

one was named Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother was named Joktan.

²⁰ Joktan's descendants included:

Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

²¹ Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, ²² Ebal, Abimael, and Sheba, ²³ Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. These were all the sons of Joktan.

²⁴ Shem, Arpachshad, and Shelah, ²⁵ Eber, Peleg, and Reu, ²⁶ Serug, Nahor, and Terah, ²⁷ and Abram, who is also known as Abraham.

²⁸ Abraham's sons were: named Isaac and Ishmael.

²⁹ These are their generations:

Ishmael's firstborn was Nebaioth, followed by Kedar, Adbeel, and Mibsam, ³⁰ Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, and Tema, ³¹ Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. These were Ishmael's descendants.

³² The sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine, whom she bore:

Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. Jokshan's sons were: Sheba and Dedan.

³³ Midian's sons were:

Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. These were all Keturah's sons.

³⁴ Abraham fathered Isaac.

Isaac's sons were: Esau and Israel.

³⁵ Esau's sons were:

Eliphaz, Reuel, and Jeush; Jalam, and Korah.

³⁶ Eliphaz's sons were:

Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, Kenaz, Timna, and Amalek.

³⁷ Reuel's sons were:

Nahath, and Zerah; Shammah, and Mizzah.

³⁸ Seir's sons were:

Lotan, Shobal, and Zibeon; Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.

³⁹ Lotan's sons were:

Hori and Homam; and Timna was Lotan's sister.

⁴⁰ Shobal's sons were:

Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi, and Onam. And Zibeon's sons were: Aiah and Anah.

1 Chronicles

⁴¹ Anah's son was:

Dishon. And Dishon's sons were: Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

⁴² Ezer's sons were:

Bilhan, Zaavan, and Jaakan. Dishan's sons were: Uz and Aran.

⁴³ These are the kings who ruled in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the Israelites: Bela the son of Beor, and his city was named Dinhabah. ⁴⁴ Upon Bela's death, Jobab the son of Zerah from Bozrah succeeded him as king. ⁴⁵ After Jobab's death, Husham from the land of the Temanites assumed the throne. ⁴⁶ When Husham passed away, Hadad the son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the territory of Moab, became king; his city was named Avith. ⁴⁷ Upon Hadad's death, Samlah from Masrekah took the throne. ⁴⁸ Upon Samlah's death, Shaul from Rehoboth by the River succeeded him as king. ⁴⁹ Following Shaul's death, Baal-hanan the son of Achbor took the throne. ⁵⁰ When Baal-hanan passed away, Hadad became king; his city was named Pai, and his wife was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

⁵¹ Then Hadad died. And the chiefs of Edom were: chief Timna, chief Aliah, and chief Jetheth, ⁵² chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, and chief Pinon, ⁵³ chief Kenaz, chief Teman, and chief Mibzar, ⁵⁴ chief Magdiel, and chief Iram. These were the leaders of Edom.

2 These were the sons of Israel:

Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher

². ³ The sons of Judah were:

Er, Onan, and Shelah. These three were born to him by Bath-shua the Canaanitess. Er, Judah's firstborn, was evil in the sight of the Lord, so He put him to death.

⁴ Tamar, Judah's daughter-in-law, gave birth to Perez and Zerah.

Judah had five sons in total.

⁵ Perez was the father of two sons:

Hezron and Hamul.

⁶ Zerah's sons were:

Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Dara—five in total.

⁷ Carmi's son was:

Achar, who brought trouble to Israel by violating the ban.

⁸ Ethan had a son named:

Azariah.

⁹ Hezron had sons, who were:

Jerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai.

¹⁰ Ram fathered Amminadab, and Amminadab fathered Nahshon, the leader of the sons of Judah.

¹¹ Nahshon became the father of Salma, who in turn became the father of Boaz.

¹² Boaz was the father of Obed, who was the father of Jesse.

¹³ Jesse fathered Eliab his firstborn, then Abinadab the second, Shimea the third, ¹⁴ Nethanel was the fourth, Raddai was the fifth, ¹⁵ Ozem was the sixth, David was the seventh.

¹⁶ Their sisters were:

Zeruiah and Abigail. Zeruiah had three sons: Abshai, Joab, and Asahel.

¹⁷ Abigail was the mother of Amasa, and Amasa's father was Jether the Ishmaelite.

¹⁸ Now Caleb, the son of Hezron, fathered children by Azubah his wife and by Jerioth; and these were her sons:

Jesher, Shobab, and Ardon.

¹⁹ When Azubah passed away, Caleb married Ephrath, and she bore him Hur.

²⁰ Hur was the father of Uri, and Uri fathered Bezalel.

²¹ Later, Hezron married the daughter of Machir, the father of Gilead, whom he wed at the age of sixty; and she bore him Segub.

1 Chronicles

²² Segub was the father of Jair, who possessed twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead.

²³ But Geshur and Aram took the towns of Jair from them, with Kenath and its villages, sixty settlements. All these were the descendants of Machir, the father of Gilead.

²⁴ After Hezron's death in Caleb-ephraiah, Abijah, Hezron's wife, bore him Ashhur, the father of Tekoa.

²⁵ Now Jerahmeel, the firstborn of Hezron, had sons:

Ram the firstborn, then Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah.

²⁶ Jerahmeel had another wife, known as Atarah;

she was the mother of Onam.

²⁷ Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel, had sons:

Maaz, Jamin, and Eker.

²⁸ Onam's sons were:

Shammai and Jada. Shammai had sons: Nadab and Abishur.

²⁹ Abishur's wife was named Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid.

³⁰ Nadab's sons were:

Seled and Appaim. Seled passed away without sons.

³¹ Appaim had a son named:

Ishi. Ishi had a son named: Sheshan. Sheshan had a son named: Ahlai.

³² Jada, Shammai's brother, had sons:

Jether and Jonathan. Jether died without sons.

³³ Jonathan's sons were:

Peleth and Zaza. These were among the descendants of Jerahmeel.

³⁴ Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. Sheshan had an Egyptian servant named Jarha, ³⁵ Sheshan gave his daughter in marriage to Jarha, his servant, and she bore him Attai.

³⁶ Attai became the father of Nathan, and Nathan fathered Zabad, ³⁷ Zabad was the father of Ephlal, and Ephlal fathered Obed, ³⁸ Obed was the father of Jehu, and Jehu fathered Azariah, ³⁹ Azariah was the father of Helez, and Helez became the father of Eleasah, ⁴⁰ Eleasah was the father of Sismai, and Sismai became the father of Shallum, ⁴¹ Shallum was the father of Jekamiah, and Jekamiah fathered Elishama.

⁴² Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel, had sons:

Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph; and the sons of Mareshah, the father of Hebron.

⁴³ Hebron had sons:

Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema.

⁴⁴ Shema was the father of Raham, who was the father of Jorkeam; and Rekem was the father of Shammai.

⁴⁵ Shammai's son was:

Maon, and Maon was the father of Bethzur.

⁴⁶ Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza, and Gazez; and Haran was the father of Gazez.

⁴⁷ Jahdai had sons:

Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

⁴⁸ Caleb's concubine Maacah gave birth to Sheber and Tirhanah.

⁴⁹ She also bore Shaaph, the father of Madmannah, Sheva, the father of Machbenah and the father of Gibeaz; and Caleb's daughter was Achsah.

⁵⁰ These were Caleb's sons: The sons of Hur, Ephraiah's firstborn:

Shobal, the father of Kiriath-jearim, ⁵¹ Salma, who was the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph, who was the father of Beth-gader.

⁵² Shobal, the father of Kiriath-jearim, had sons:

Haroeh and half of the Manahathites, ⁵³ and the families of Kiriath-jearim: the Ithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites, and the Mishraiters. From these originated the Zorathites and the Eshtaolites.

1 Chronicles

⁵⁴ Salma's sons were:

Bethlehem and the Netophathites, Atroth-beth-joad, and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites.

⁵⁵ The families of scribes who lived at Jabez were: the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Sucathites. These were the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.

3 These are the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron:

The firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelite; the second was Daniel, by Abigail the Carmelite; ² the third was Absalom, the son of Maacah, daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fourth was Adonijah, the son of Haggith; ³ the fifth was Shephatiah, by Abital; the sixth was Ithream, by Eglah his wife.

⁴ Six sons were born to him in Hebron, where he reigned for seven years and six months. In Jerusalem, he reigned for thirty-three years.

⁵ These were his sons born in Jerusalem:

Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon—four by Bath-shua, daughter of Ammiel— ⁶ and Ithar, Elishama, and Eliphelet, were born ⁷ Nogah, Nepheg, and Japhia, were born ⁸ Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet—making a total of nine.

⁹ All these were the sons of David, in addition to the sons of the concubines; and Tamar was their sister.

¹⁰ Rehoboam was the son of Solomon, followed by Abijah, Asa, and Jehoshaphat, ¹¹ Joram, Ahaziah, and Joash, ¹² Amaziah, Azariah, and Jotham, ¹³ Ahaz, Hezekiah, and Manasseh, ¹⁴ Amon, followed by Josiah.

¹⁵ The sons of Josiah were:

Johanan the firstborn, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum.

¹⁶ Jehoiakim's sons were:

Jeconiah his son, Zedekiah his son.

¹⁷ Jeconiah, who was taken captive, had sons:

Shealtiel his son, ¹⁸ along with Malchiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

¹⁹ The sons of Pedaiah included:

Zerubbabel and Shimei. Zerubbabel's children were: Meshullam and Hananiah, with Shelomith as their sister; ²⁰ together with Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah, and Jushab-hesed—five in total.

²¹ The sons of Hananiah were:

Pelatiah and Jeshaiah, the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, and the sons of Shecaniah.

²² The descendants of Shecaniah were:

Shemaiah, and the sons of Shemaiah: Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat—six in all.

²³ Neariah's sons were:

Elioenai, Hizkiah, and Azrikam—three in total.

²⁴ Elioenai's sons were:

Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani—seven in total.

4 Judah's sons included:

Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

² Shobal's son Reaiah, was the father of Jahath, and Jahath was the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These were the line of the Zorathites.

³ These were the descendants of Etam:

Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash; and their sister was named Hazzelelponi.

⁴ Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer was the father of Hushah.

These were the descendants of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, who was the father of Bethlehem.

⁵ Ashhur, who was the father of Tekoa, had two wives:

Helah and Naarah.

⁶ Naarah bore:

1 Chronicles

Ahuzzam, Hephher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.

⁷ The sons of Helah included:

Zereth, Izhar, and Ethnan.

⁸ Koz was the father of Anub and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel, the son of Harum.

⁹ Now Jabez was more honourable than his brothers, and his mother named him Jabez, saying, "Because I gave birth to him in pain."

¹⁰ Now Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying,

"Oh that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my border, and that Your hand might be with me, and that You would keep me from harm so that it would not hurt me!" And God granted him what he requested.

¹¹ Chelub, the brother of Shuhah, was the father of Mehir, who fathered the line of Eshton.

¹² Beth-rapha was the son of Eshton, as was Paseah, and Tehinnah, the father of Ir-nahash.

These were the men of Recah.

¹³ The sons of Kenaz included:

Othniel and Seraiah. And the son of Othniel was Hathath.

¹⁴ Meonothai was the father of Ophrah, and Seraiah was the father of Joab, the father of Ge-harashim, for they were craftsmen.

¹⁵ Caleb was the son of Jephunneh, his sons were:

Iru, Elah, and Naam; and the son of Elah was Kenaz.

¹⁶ The sons of Jehallelel included:

Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel.

¹⁷ The sons of Ezrah were:

Jether, Mered, Ephraim, and Jalon. And these are the sons of Bithiah, the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took: She conceived and bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah, the father of Eshtemoa.

¹⁸ His Jewish wife bore Jered, the father of Gedor, Heber, the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel, the father of Zanoah.

These were the sons of Bithiah, the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered had taken.

¹⁹ The sons of the wife of Hodiah, the sister of Naham, were:

the ancestor of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maacathite.

²⁰ The sons of Shimon included:

Amnon, Rinnah, Benhanan, and Tilon. And the sons of Ishi were: Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

²¹ The sons of Shelah, the son of Judah, were:

Er, the father of Lecah, Laadah, the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of the linen workers at Beth-ashbea;

²² Jokim, the men of Cozeba, Joash, and Saraph, who ruled in Moab and Jashubi-lehem. But the records are ancient.

²³ These were the potters and the inhabitants of Netaim and Gederah; they resided there with the king for his work.

²⁴ The sons of Simeon included:

Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and Shaul;

²⁵ his son Shallum, Mibsam his son, and Mishma his son.

²⁶ The sons of Mishma were:

his son Hammuel, Zaccur his son, and Shimei his son.

²⁷ Now Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have that many sons, nor did all their family multiply like the line of Judah.

²⁸ They resided in Beersheba, Moladah, and Hazar-shual, ²⁹ in Bilhah, Ezem, and Tolad, ³⁰ in Bethuel, Hormah, and Ziklag, ³¹ in Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susim, Beth-biri, and Shaaraim.

These were their cities until the reign of David.

³² Their villages included:

1 Chronicles

Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan—five cities—

³³ and all their settlements which were around these cities as far as Baal.

These were their dwellings, and they have their genealogy.

³⁴ Meshobab, Jamlech, and Joshah, fathered Amaziah, ³⁵ along with Joel and Jehu, descendant of Joshibiah, Seraiah, and Asiel, ³⁶ and Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, and Benaiah, ³⁷ and Ziza, was the son of Shiphi, who was of Allon, who was of Jedaiah, who was of Shimri, who was of Shemaiah—

³⁸ those mentioned by name were leaders in their families; and their fathers' houses increased greatly.

³⁹ They travelled to the entrance of Gedor, to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

⁴⁰ They found rich and good pasture, and the land was spacious, quiet, and peaceful; for those who lived there formerly were Hamites.

⁴¹ Now those who came listed by name in the days of Hezekiah, king of Judah, attacked their tents and the Meunites who were found there, and they utterly destroyed them to this day, and lived in their place, because there was pasture there for their flocks.

⁴² From them, from the descendants of Simeon, five hundred men went to Mount Seir, with Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, as their leaders.

⁴³ They destroyed the remnant of the Amalekites who had escaped, and have lived there to this day.

5 The descendants of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, (for he was the firstborn, but because he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel; thus, he is not listed in the genealogy according to the birthright.

² Although Judah became prominent among his brothers, and from him came the leader, yet the birthright belonged to Joseph),

³ The offspring of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, included:

Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

⁴ The descendants of Joel included:

Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, ⁵ Micah, his descendant, Reaiah, his descendant, Baal, his descendant, ⁶ and Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria carried away into exile. He was a leader of the Reubenites.

⁷ His relatives, according to their families and generations, were Jeiel the chief, then Zechariah, ⁸ and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who lived in Aroer, extending to Nebo and Baal-meon.

⁹ To the east, he settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, because their livestock had increased in the land of Gilead.

¹⁰ During the days of Saul, they waged war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand, and they lived in their tents throughout the land east of Gilead.

¹¹ The descendants of Gad resided opposite them in the land of Bashan, extending to Salecah.

¹² Joel held the chief position, and Shapham was second, then Janai and Shaphat in Bashan.

¹³ Their kinsmen from their fathers' households included:

Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber—seven in all.

¹⁴ These were the descendants of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz—

¹⁵ Ahi, the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was the head of their fathers' households.

1 Chronicles

¹⁶ They resided in Gilead, in Bashan and its towns, and in all the pasture lands of Sharon, reaching their borders.

¹⁷ All of these were recorded in the genealogies during the days of Jotham king of Judah, and during the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

¹⁸ The descendants of Reuben, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasse—consisting of valiant men, men who carried shield and sword, and drew the bow, and were trained for battle— totaled 44,760, who went out for military duty.

¹⁹ They engaged in battle with the Hagrites,

Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.

²⁰ They received assistance against them, and the Hagrites and all who were with them were delivered into their hands;

because they cried out to God in the battle, and He answered their prayers, because they trusted in Him.

²¹ They seized their livestock:

fifty thousand camels, two hundred and fifty thousand sheep, two thousand donkeys, and one hundred thousand people.

²² For many fell fatally wounded, because the war was of God.

And they settled in their place until the exile.

²³ The descendants of the half-tribe of Manasse resided in the land; from Bashan to Baal-hermon, Senir, and Mount Hermon, they were numerous.

²⁴ These were the leaders of their fathers' households:

Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel— mighty men of valour, renowned men, heads of their fathers' households.

²⁵ But they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers, and engaged in idolatry with the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

²⁶ So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, that is, the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away into exile, namely:

the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the river of Gozan, to this day.

6 The descendants of Levi included:

Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

² Kohath's lineage comprised:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

³ The offspring of Amram were:

Aaron, Moses, and Miriam. And the sons of Aaron were: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

⁴ Eleazar fathered Phinehas, and Phinehas fathered Abishua, ⁵ and Abishua fathered Bukki, and Bukki fathered Uzzi, ⁶ and Uzzi fathered Zerariah, and Zerariah fathered Meraioth, ⁷ Meraioth fathered Amariah, and Amariah fathered Ahitub, ⁸ and Ahitub fathered Zadok, and Zadok fathered Ahimaaz, ⁹ and Ahimaaz fathered Azariah, and Azariah fathered Johanan, ¹⁰ and Johanan fathered Azariah (it was he who served as priest in the house which Solomon built in Jerusalem), ¹¹ and Azariah fathered Amariah, and Amariah fathered Ahitub, ¹² and Ahitub fathered Zadok, and Zadok fathered Shallum, ¹³ and Shallum fathered Hilkiah, and Hilkiah fathered Azariah, ¹⁴ and Azariah fathered Seraiah, and Seraiah fathered Jehozadak;

¹⁵ And Jehozadak went along when the Lord took Judah and Jerusalem into exile by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

¹⁶ The descendants of Levi included:

Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

¹⁷ These are the sons of Gershon:

Libni and Shimei.

¹⁸ Kohath's lineage comprised:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

¹⁹ The sons of Merari were:

1 Chronicles

Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' households.

²⁰ Of Gershom:

Libni who fathered, Jahath who fathered, Zimmah

²¹ Joah who fathered, Iddo who fathered, Zerah who fathered, Jeatherai

²² Kohath's lineage comprised:

Aminadab who fathered, Korah who fathered, Assir, ²³ Elkanah who fathered, Ebiasaph who fathered, Assir, ²⁴ Tahath who fathered, Uriel who fathered, Uziah who fathered, Shaul.

²⁵ The offspring of Elkanah were:

Amasai and Ahimoth.

²⁶ Elkanah:

Elkanah who fathered, Zophai who fathered, Nahath, ²⁷ Eliab who fathered, Jeroham who fathered, Elkanah.

²⁸ The offspring of Samuel were:

Joel the firstborn, and Abijah the second.

²⁹ The sons of Merari were:

Mahli, Libni who fathered, Shimei who fathered, Uzzah, ³⁰ Shimea who fathered, Haggiah who fathered, Asaiah.

³¹ These are the ones whom David appointed over the service of song in the house of the Lord, after the ark came to rest there.

³² They ministered with song before the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, until Solomon had built the house of the Lord in Jerusalem; and they carried out their duties according to the order given them.

³³ These are those who served with their sons: From the sons of the Kohathites:

Heman the singer, whose father was Joel, whose father was Samuel, ³⁴ whose father was Elkanah, whose father was Jeroham, whose father was Eliel, whose father was Toah, ³⁵ whose father was Zuph, whose father was Elkanah, whose father was Mahath, whose father was Amasai, ³⁶ whose father was Elkanah, whose father was Joel, whose father was Azariah, whose father was Zephaniah, ³⁷ whose father was Tahath, whose father was Assir, whose father was Ebiasaph, whose father was Korah, ³⁸ whose father was Izhar, whose father was Kohath, whose father was Levi, whose father was Israel.

³⁹ Heman's relative Asaph stood at his right hand,

Asaph whose father was Berechiah, whose father was Shimea, ⁴⁰ whose father was Michael, who was the father of Baaseiah, whose father was Malchijah, ⁴¹ whose father was Ethni, who was the father of Zerah, whose father was Adaiah, ⁴² whose father was Ethan, whose father was Zimmah, whose father was Shimei, ⁴³ whose father was Jahath, who was the father of Gershom, whose father was Levi.

⁴⁴ On the left hand were their relatives, the sons of Merari: Ethan whose father was Kishi, who was the father of Abdi, whose father was Malluch, ⁴⁵ whose father was Hashabiah, who was the father of Amaziah, whose father was Hilkiyah, ⁴⁶ whose father was Amzi, who was the father of Bani, whose father was Shemer, ⁴⁷ whose father was Mahli, who was the father of Mushi, whose father was Merari, whose father was Levi.

⁴⁸ Their relatives the Levites were appointed for all the service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

⁴⁹ However, Aaron and his sons made offerings on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the Most Holy Place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

⁵⁰ These are the sons of Aaron:

Eleazar who fathered, Phinehas who fathered, Abishua who fathered, ⁵¹ Bukki who fathered, Uzzi who fathered, Zerahiah who fathered, ⁵² Meraioth who fathered, Amariah who fathered, Ahitub who fathered, ⁵³ Zadok who fathered, and Ahimaaz.

⁵⁴ Now these are their settlements according to their camps within their borders: To the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites, for the lot fell to them first.

⁵⁵ They gave them Hebron in the land of Judah and its surrounding pasture lands, ⁵⁶ but they gave the fields of the city and its villages to Caleb, son of Jephunneh.

1 Chronicles

⁵⁷ To the sons of Aaron they provided the following cities of refuge:

Hebron, Libnah with its pasture lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its pasture lands, ⁵⁸ Hilen with its grazing areas, Debir with its grazing areas, ⁵⁹ Ashan with its grazing areas, and Beth-shemesh with its grazing areas.

⁶⁰ From the tribe of Benjamin they gave:

Geba, Alemeth, and Anathoth with their pasture lands. All their cities for the families of the sons of Aaron were thirteen cities in all.

⁶¹ To the rest of the sons of Kohath, from the families of the tribe, they gave ten cities by lot from the half-tribe, the half of Manasseh.

⁶² To the sons of Gershom, according to their families, they gave thirteen cities from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and Manasseh in Bashan.

⁶³ To the sons of Merari, according to their families, they gave twelve cities from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.

⁶⁴ Thus, the Israelites provided the Levites with the cities and their pasture lands.

⁶⁵ They allocated by lot from the tribe of the sons of Judah, the tribe of the sons of Simeon, and the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, these cities which are mentioned by name.

⁶⁶ Now some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their inheritance from the tribe of Ephraim.

⁶⁷ They gave them the cities of refuge:

Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim with its pasture lands, Gezer with its pasture lands, ⁶⁸ Jokmeam with its grazing areas, Beth-horon with its grazing areas, ⁶⁹ Aijalon with its grazing areas, and Gath-rimmon with its grazing areas;

⁷⁰ and from the half-tribe of Manasseh:

Aner with its pasture lands, and Bileam with its pasture lands, for the rest of the families of the sons of Kohath.

⁷¹ To the sons of Gershom they gave:

From the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan with its pasture lands, and Ashtaroth with its pasture lands;

⁷² From the tribe of Issachar:

Kedesh with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands, ⁷³ Ramoth and its grazing lands, and Anem and its grazing lands;

⁷⁴ From the tribe of Asher:

Mashal with its pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands, ⁷⁵ Hukok with its grazing areas, and Rehob with its grazing areas;

⁷⁶ From the tribe of Naphtali:

Kedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, Hammon with its pasture lands, and Kiriathaim with its pasture lands.

⁷⁷ To the rest of the Levites, the sons of Merari:

From the tribe of Zebulun: Rimmono with its pasture lands, Tabor with its pasture lands;

⁷⁸ And beyond the Jordan at Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan:

From the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the wilderness with its pasture lands, Jahzah with its pasture lands, ⁷⁹ Kedemoth with its grazing areas, and Mephaath with its grazing areas;

⁸⁰ From the tribe of Gad:

Ramoth in Gilead with its pasture lands, Mahanaim with its pasture lands, ⁸¹ Heshbon with its grazing areas, and Jazer with its grazing areas.

7 Now the sons of Issachar were:

Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron—four in all.

² The sons of Tola were:

Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam, and Samuel—heads of their fathers' households. To Tola's descendants were assigned fighting men in their generations, their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred.

³ The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah. And the sons of Izrahiah were:

Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Isshiah—five in all, all of them chief men.

1 Chronicles

⁴ Together with their descendants, according to their fathers' households, they had thirty-six thousand troops for battle, as they had many wives and sons.

⁵ Their relatives among all the families of Issachar, mighty men of valour, were recorded by genealogy—eighty-seven thousand in all.

⁶ The sons of Benjamin were:

Bela, Becher, and Jediahel—three.

⁷ The sons of Bela were:

Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri—five; they were heads of fathers' households, mighty men of valour, and were recorded by genealogy—twenty-two thousand thirty-four.

⁸ Becher's sons included:

Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. These were all the sons of Becher.

⁹ They were recorded by genealogy according to their generations, heads of their fathers' households, mighty men of valour—twenty thousand two hundred.

¹⁰ Jediahel's son was Bilhan. And Bilhan's sons were:

Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar.

¹¹ All these were sons of Jediahel, according to the heads of their fathers' households, seventeen thousand two hundred mighty men of valour, ready to go out with the army to war.

¹² Shuppim and Huppim were sons of Ir;

Hushim was a descendant of Aher.

¹³ The sons of Naphtali were:

Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shallum—sons of Bilhah.

¹⁴ The sons of Manasseh were:

Asriel, whom his Aramean concubine bore; she gave birth to Machir the father of Gilead.

¹⁵ Machir took a wife for Huppim and Shuppim, and their sister was named Maacah. The second was named Zelophehad, and Zelophehad had daughters.

¹⁶ Maacah, the wife of Machir, bore a son, whom she named Peresh; and his brother was Sheresh. His sons were: Ulam and Rakem.

¹⁷ Ulam's son was Bedan.

These were the descendants of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

¹⁸ Hammolecheth, his sister, became the mother of:

Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah.

¹⁹ The descendants of Shemida included:

Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

²⁰ The sons of Ephraim were:

Shuthelah, and Bered his son, and Tahath his son, and Eleadah his son, and Tahath his son, ²¹ and Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his son, and Ezer and Elead. But the men of Gath who were born in the land killed them, because they came down to take their livestock.

²² Their father Ephraim mourned for many days, and his relatives came to console him.

²³ Then he went to his wife, and she conceived and bore a son, whom he named Beriah, because misfortune had come upon his house.

²⁴ His daughter was Sheerah, who established Lower and Upper Beth-horon, and Uzzan-sheerah.

²⁵ Rephah was his son, along with Resheph, Telah who fathered, Tahan who fathered, ²⁶ Ladan who fathered, Ammihud who fathered, Elishama who fathered, ²⁷ Nun who fathered Joshua.

²⁸ Their possessions and settlements were:

1 Chronicles

Bethel with its villages, and to the east Naaran, and to the west Gezer with its villages, also Shechem with its villages, as far as Ayyah with its villages.

²⁹ And along the borders of the sons of Manasseh:

Beth-shean, Taanach, Megiddo, and Dor, with their villages. In these lived the sons of Joseph the son of Israel.

³⁰ The sons of Asher were:

Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah, and their sister Serah.

³¹ The sons of Beriah were:

Heber and Malchiel, who became the father of Birzaith.

³² Heber's children were:

Japhlet, Shomer, Hotham, and their sister Shua.

³³ Japhlet's sons were:

Pasach, Bimhal, and Ashvath. These were Japhlet's descendants.

³⁴ Shemer's sons were:

Ahi, Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram.

³⁵ The sons of his brother Helem included:

Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal.

³⁶ Zophah's sons included:

Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, ³⁷ Bezer, Hod, and Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran, and Beera.

³⁸ Jether's sons included:

Jephunneh, Pispa, and Ara.

³⁹ Ulla's sons included:

Arah, Hanniel, and Rizia.

⁴⁰ All of these were the sons of Asher, heads of the fathers' households, choice and mighty men of valour, chief of the princes. And the number of them enrolled by genealogy for service in war was twenty-six thousand men.

the third, ² Nohah was the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.

³ Bela's sons included:

Addar, Gera, Abihud, ⁴ Abishua, and Naaman, and Ahoah, ⁵ Gera, and Shephuphan, and Huram.

⁶ These are the descendants of Ehud. They were the leaders of the families living in Geba, and they were taken into exile to Manahath:

⁷ namely, Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera—he led them into exile. And he was the father of Uzza and Ahihud.

⁸ Shaharaim had children in the land of Moab after he had sent away Hushim and Baara his wives.

⁹ Through Hodesh his wife, he had:

Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, ¹⁰ Jeuz, Sachia, and Mirmah. These were his sons, leaders of their families.

¹¹ With Hushim, he fathered:

Abitub and Elpaal.

¹² The sons of Elpaal were:

Eber, Misham, and Shemed—who built Ono and Lod with its towns—

¹³ and Beriah and Shema, who were leaders of the families of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who drove away the inhabitants of Gath.

¹⁴ Ahio, and Shashak, and Jeremoth, ¹⁵ and Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, ¹⁶ Michael, and Ishpah, and Joha were the sons of Beriah.

¹⁷ Zebadiah, and Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, ¹⁸ Ishmerai, and Izliah, and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal.

¹⁹ with Jakim, and Zichri, and Zabdi, ²⁰ Elienai, and Zillethai, and Eliel, ²¹ Adaiah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei.

²² Ishpan, and Eber, and Eliel, ²³ Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan, ²⁴ Hananiah, and Elam, and Anthothijah, ²⁵ Iphdeiah, and Penuel -sons of Shashak.

²⁶ Shamsheraï, and Shehariah, and Athaliah, ²⁷ Jaareshiah, and Elijah, and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham.

8

Benjamin was father to:

Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, Aharah

1 Chronicles

²⁸ These were leaders of families according to their generations, prominent men who lived in Jerusalem.

²⁹ Now in Gibeon, Jeiel, the patriarch of Gibeon, lived, and his wife's name was Maacah.

³⁰ His firstborn son was Abdon, followed by Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, ³¹ Gedor, and Ahio, and Zecher.

³² Mikloth was the father of Shimeah.

They also resided with their relatives in Jerusalem opposite their other relatives.

³³ Ner was the father of the line of Kish,

Kish was father to Saul, Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal.

³⁴ Jonathan's son was Merib-baal,

and Merib-baal was father to Micah.

³⁵ The descendants of Micah were:

Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz.

³⁶ Ahaz was the father of Jehoaddah, and Jehoaddah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri was the father of Moza.

³⁷ Moza was father to Binea; Raphah was his son,

Eneas his son, Azel his son.

³⁸ Azel had six sons, and these are their names:

Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the descendants of Azel.

³⁹ Eshek's sons included:

Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

⁴⁰ The sons of Ulam were valiant warriors skilled in archery, and they had many sons and grandsons, 150 in total. All these were among the descendants of Benjamin.

9 Thus, all Israel was recorded in genealogies, and indeed, they are documented in the Book of the Kings of Israel. And Judah was taken into exile to Babylon due to their unfaithfulness.

² Now the first who lived in their possessions in their cities were:

Israelites, priests, Levites, and the temple servants.

³ Some descendants of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh resided in Jerusalem:

⁴ Uthai, descendant of Ammihud, Omri, Imri, and Bani, from the lineage of Perez, son of Judah.

⁵ From the descendants of Shiloh: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.

⁶ From the sons of Zerah: Jeuel and their relatives, 690.

⁷ Among the descendants of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah, ⁸ along with Ibneiah, descendant of Jeroham, and Elah, descendant of Uzzi and Michri, and Meshullam, descendant of Shephatiah, Reuel, and Ibnijah;

⁹ and their relatives according to their generations, 956. All these were leaders of their fathers' households according to their family lines.

¹⁰ Among the priests were Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, and Jachin,

¹¹ and Azariah, descendant of Hilkiah, Meshullam, Zadok, Meraioth, and Ahitub, chief officer of the house of God;

¹² and Adaiah, descendant of Jeroham, Pashhur, and Malchijah; and Maasai, descendant of Adiel, Jahzerah, Meshullam, Meshillemith, and Immer;

¹³ and their relatives, heads of their fathers' households, 1,760 able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

¹⁴ From the Levites: Shemaiah, descendant of Hasshub, Azrikam, and Hashabiah, from the sons of Merari;

¹⁵ and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal; and Mattaniah, descendant of Mica, Zichri, and Asaph;

1 Chronicles

¹⁶ and Obadiah, descendant of Shemaiah, Galal, and Jeduthun; and Berechiah, descendant of Asa and Elkanah, who lived in the settlements of the Netophathites.

¹⁷ Now the gatekeepers were:

Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their relatives. Shallum was the chief.

¹⁸ Until now he had been at the king's gate to the east. These were the gatekeepers for the camp of the sons of Levi.

¹⁹ Shallum, descendant of Kore, Ebiasaph, and Korah, and his relatives of his father's household, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent.

And their fathers had been over the camp of the Lord, keepers of the entrance.

²⁰ Phinehas, descendant of Eleazar, had been ruler over them previously, and the Lord was with him.

²¹ Zechariah, son of Meshelemiah, served as gatekeeper at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

²² All of those chosen to be gatekeepers at the thresholds were 212. These were enrolled by genealogy in their settlements, those whom David and Samuel the seer appointed in their office of trust.

²³ So they and their sons had oversight of the gates of the house of the Lord, namely, the house of the tent, as guards.

²⁴ The gatekeepers were stationed on all four sides:

to the east, west, north, and south.

²⁵ Their relatives from their settlements would join them every seven days periodically;

²⁶ for the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were entrusted with the rooms and with the treasuries in the house of God.

²⁷ They spent the night around the house of God, because the watch was entrusted to them; and they were in charge of opening it morning by morning.

²⁸ Now some of them were responsible for the utensils of service, for they counted them when they brought them in and when they took them out.

²⁹ Some of them also were appointed over the furniture and over all the utensils of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices.

³⁰ Certain descendants of the priests were tasked with preparing the mixture of the spices.

³¹ Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the responsibility for the baking of flat cakes in pans.

³² Some of their relatives from the sons of the Kohathites were in charge of the showbread to prepare it every Sabbath.

³³ Now these are the singers, leaders of the fathers' households of the Levites, who lived in the chambers of the temple exempt from other service, for they were engaged in their work day and night.

³⁴ These were leaders of the fathers' households of the Levites according to their generations, chief men, who lived in Jerusalem.

³⁵ In Gibeon, Jeiel the father of Gibeon lived, and the name of his wife was Maacah.

³⁶ His first son was Abdon, followed by Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, ³⁷ also Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth.

³⁸ Mikloth fathered Shimeam.

They also lived with their relatives in Jerusalem opposite their other relatives.

³⁹ Ner was father to Kish, and Kish was father to Saul;

Saul was father to Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal.

⁴⁰ Jonathan's son was Merib-baal,

and Merib-baal was father to Micah.

⁴¹ Micah's sons included:

Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz.

1 Chronicles

⁴² Ahaz was father to Jarah, and Jarah was father to Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri was father to Moza;

⁴³ Moza was father to Binea, and his son was Rephaiah, his son was Eleasah, and his son was Azel.

⁴⁴ Azel had six sons named:

Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

10 The Philistines went into battle with Israel, and the men of Israel fled from the Philistines and were slain on Mount Gilboa.

² The Philistines pursued Saul and his sons with determination, and they struck down Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul.

³ The battle became heavy against Saul, and the archers found him; and he was wounded by the archers.

⁴ Then Saul said to his armour bearer,

"Draw your sword and pierce me through with it, otherwise these uncircumcised will come and abuse me." But his armour bearer would not, for he was very afraid. So Saul took his sword and fell on it.

⁵ When his armour bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died.

⁶ Thus, Saul perished with his three sons, and all those of his house perished together.

⁷ When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled. Then the Philistines came and lived in them.

⁸ It came about the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

⁹ So they stripped him and took his head and his armour, and sent messengers around the land of the Philistines, to bring the good news to their idols and to the people.

¹⁰ They put his armour in the house of their gods, and they fastened his skull in the house of Dagon.

¹¹ When the people of Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul,

¹² all the valiant men rose and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons, and they brought them to Jabesh, and they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and they fasted for seven days.

¹³ So Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he committed against the Lord, because of the word of the Lord which he did not keep; and also because he asked counsel of a medium, making inquiry of it, ¹⁴ and did not inquire of the Lord.

Therefore He put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David, the son of Jesse.

11 Then all Israel came together to David at Hebron and said,

"Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.

"In times past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in. And the Lord your God said to you, 'You shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be prince over My people Israel.'"

³ So all the elders of Israel gathered to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the Lord; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the Lord through Samuel.

⁴ Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus); and the Jebusites were the inhabitants of the land.

⁵ The inhabitants of Jebus said to David,

1 Chronicles

"You shall not enter here." However, David captured the stronghold of Zion, which is the city of David.

⁶ Now David had said,

"Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and commander." Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief.

⁷ Then David resided in the stronghold;
therefore it was called the city of David.

⁸ He built the city all around, from the Millo and in every direction, and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

⁹ David grew stronger and stronger, for the Lord of hosts was with him.

¹⁰ Now these are the leaders of the mighty men whom David had, who provided him with strong support in his kingdom, along with all Israel, to make him king according to the word of the Lord concerning Israel.

¹¹ These are the leaders of David's mighty men:

Jashobeam the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the thirty; he wielded his spear against three hundred and killed them at one time.

¹² Following him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.

¹³ He was with David at Pas-dammim, when the Philistines were gathered there for battle, and there was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled before the Philistines.

¹⁴ But they took their stand in the midst of the plot and defended it, and struck down the Philistines; and the Lord saved them with a great victory.

¹⁵ At that time, three of the thirty chief men went to David at the rock, in the cave of Adullam, while the army of the Philistines was camping in the Valley of Rephaim.

¹⁶ David was then in the stronghold, while the Philistine garrison was stationed in Bethlehem.

¹⁷ David expressed a longing and said,

"Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

¹⁸ So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water from the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David;

yet, David would not drink it, but poured it out to the Lord;

¹⁹ And he said,

"Far be it from me before my God that I would do this. Shall I drink the blood of these men who went at the risk of their lives? For they brought it at the risk of their lives." Therefore he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

²⁰ As for Abshai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the thirty.

He swung his spear against three hundred and killed them, and he had a name as well as the three.

²¹ He was honoured among the thirty, but he did not attain to the three. And David appointed him over his guard.

²² Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, mighty in deeds, struck down the two sons of Ariel of Moab.

He also went down and struck a lion in the middle of a pit on a snowy day.

²³ He also killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature five cubits tall.

Now in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam, but he went down to him with a staff and snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.

²⁴ These deeds Benaiah the son of Jehoiada accomplished, and had a name as well as the three mighty men.

²⁵ He was honoured among the thirty,

but he did not attain to the three. And David appointed him over his guard.

1 Chronicles

²⁶ Now the mighty men of the armies included:

Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, ²⁷ Shammoth of Harod, and Helez the Pelonite, ²⁸ Ira, son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer from Anathoth, ²⁹ Sibbecai of Hushah, Ilai of Ahoh, ³⁰ Maharai from Netophah, and Heled, son of Baanah also from Netophah, ³¹ Ithai, son of Ribai from Gibeah of the sons of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, ³² Hurai from the streams of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite, ³³ Azmaveth from Bahurim, and Eliahba the Shaalbonite, ³⁴ the sons of Hashem of Gizon, Jonathan, son of Shagee of Harar, ³⁵ Ahiam, son of Sacar of Harar, Eliphal, son of Ur, ³⁶ Hephher of Mecherah, Ahijah the Pelonite, ³⁷ Hezro from Carmel, Naarai, son of Ezbai, ³⁸ Joel, who was the brother of Nathan, and Mibhar, son of Hagri, ³⁹ Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armour bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah, ⁴⁰ Ira, the Ithrite, and also Gareb, the Ithrite, ⁴¹ Uriah the Hittite, and Zabad, son of Ahlai, ⁴² Adina, son of Shiza the Reubenite, a leader among the Reubenites, along with thirty others, ⁴³ Hanan, the son of Maacah, and also Joshaphat the Mithnite, ⁴⁴ Uzzia from Ashterath, Shama and Jeiel, sons of Hotham the Aroerite, ⁴⁵ Jediahel, the son of Shimri, and also Joha, his brother, the Tizite, ⁴⁶ Eliel the Mahavite, and also Jeribai and Joshaviah, sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah of Moab, ⁴⁷ and Eliel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

12 Now these are the ones who came to David at Ziklag, while he was still restricted because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men who helped him in battle.

² They were skilled with bows, adept with both the right hand and the left to sling stones and to shoot arrows; they were Saul's relatives from Benjamin.

³ The leader was Ahiezer, followed by Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah, and Jehu the Anathothite, ⁴ and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a valiant leader among the thirty, and over them. Then came

Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite,

⁵ Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah from Haruph,

⁶ Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, from the Korahites,

⁷ along with Joelah and Zebadiah, sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

⁸ From the Gadites valiant men came over to David in the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valour, men trained for war, who could handle shield and spear, and whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as gazelles on the mountains.

⁹ Ezer was the leader, Obadiah followed, Eliab was third,

¹⁰ Mishmannah was the fourth, and Jeremiah was fifth,

¹¹ Attai was the sixth, and Eliel was seventh,

¹² Johanan was the eighth, and Elzabad was ninth,

¹³ Jeremiah was tenth, along with Machbannai the eleventh.

¹⁴ These sons of Gad were leaders in the army;

the least among them was as strong as a hundred, and the greatest as a thousand.

¹⁵ These are the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks, and they drove away all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

¹⁶ Then some from the tribes of Benjamin and Judah joined David at the stronghold.

¹⁷ David went out to meet them and said to them,

"If you come peacefully to me to help me, my heart shall be united with you; but if to betray me to my enemies, though there is no violence in my hands, may the God of our fathers see and judge."

¹⁸ Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, who was the chief of the thirty, and he said,

1 Chronicles

"We are yours, David, and with you, son of Jesse! Peace, peace to you, and peace to him who helps you; for your God helps you." So David received them and made them captains of the band.

¹⁹ From Manasseh some defected to David when he was about to go to battle with the Philistines against Saul. However, they did not help them, for the Philistine lords sent him away after consultation, saying, "He may desert to his master Saul at the cost of our heads."

²⁰ When he went to Ziklag, those from Manasseh who came to him were:

Adnah, Jozabad, Jediahel, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of thousands who belonged to Manasseh.

²¹ They helped David against the band of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valour and were captains in the army.

²² For day by day men came to David to support him, until there was a great army, comparable to the army of God.

²³ Now these are the numbers of the divisions prepared for war, who came to David at Hebron to transfer the kingdom of Saul to him, as the word of the Lord had declared.

²⁴ The sons of Judah who carried shield and spear were:

6,800, equipped for war.

²⁵ From the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valour for war:

7,100.

²⁶ From the sons of Levi:

numbering 4,600.

²⁷ Jehoiada was the leader of Aaron's house, and with him were 3,700.

²⁸ Also Zadok, a young man mighty in valour, and from his father's house twenty-two captains.

²⁹ From the sons of Benjamin, Saul's kinsmen:

3,000; for until that time the majority of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul.

³⁰ From the sons of Ephraim, mighty men of valour, famous men in their fathers' households:

20,800.

³¹ From the half-tribe of Manasseh:

18,000, who were designated by name to come and make David king.

³² From the sons of Issachar, men who understood the times, with knowledge of what Israel should do:

their chiefs were 200, and all their relatives were at their command.

³³ From Zebulun, those who went out to battle with all kinds of weapons of war, prepared for battle:

50,000, who could draw up in battle formation with no double heart.

³⁴ From Naphtali:

1,000 captains, and with them 37,000 with shield and spear.

³⁵ From the Danites, who could draw up in battle formation:

28,600.

³⁶ From Asher, those who went out for war, who could draw up in battle formation:

40,000.

³⁷ From the other side of the Jordan, from the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all kinds of weapons for war:

120,000.

³⁸ All these, being men of war who could draw up in battle formation, came to Hebron with a perfect heart to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were of one mind to make David king.

³⁹ They were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their relatives had provided for them.

⁴⁰ Moreover, those who were near to them, even as far as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen—great quantities of flour, fig cakes, raisin cakes, wine, oil, oxen, and sheep.

1 Chronicles

There was joy indeed in Israel.

13 David sought advice from the leaders of the thousands and hundreds, including every leader.

² David said to all the assembly of Israel,

"If it seems good to you, and if it is from the Lord our God, let us send word everywhere to our kinsmen who remain in all the land of Israel, also to the priests and Levites who are with them in their cities with pasture lands, that they may meet with us;

³ and let us return the ark of our God to us, for we did not seek it during the days of Saul."

⁴ Then all the assembly agreed to do so, for it was right in the eyes of all the people.

⁵ So David gathered all Israel together, from the Shihor of Egypt to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

⁶ David and all Israel went up to Baalah, which is Kiriath-jearim in Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, the Lord who is enthroned above the cherubim, where His name is invoked.

⁷ They transported the ark of God on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, with Uzza and Ahio guiding the cart.

⁸ David and all Israel were celebrating before God with all their might, with songs and lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets.

⁹ When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza reached out his hand to take hold of the ark, because the oxen nearly upset it.

¹⁰ The anger of the Lord burned against Uzza, so He struck him down because he had put out his hand toward the ark; and he died there before God.

¹¹ David was indignant because of the Lord's outburst against Uzza; and he named that place Perez-uzza, a name it retains to this day.

¹² David was afraid of God that day, saying,

"How can I bring the ark of God to myself?"

¹³ So David did not take the ark to himself into the city of David, but took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

¹⁴ Thus the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house for three months; and the Lord blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that he had.

14 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar timber, masons, and carpenters, to build a house for him.

² And David realised that the Lord had established him as king over Israel, and that his kingdom was highly exalted, for the sake of His people Israel.

³ In Jerusalem, David took additional wives, and he became the father of more sons and daughters.

⁴ These were the names of the children born to him in Jerusalem:

Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ⁵ Ibhar, and Elishua, Elpelet, ⁶ Nogah, and Nepheg, Japhia, ⁷ Elishama, and Beeliada, Eliphelet.

⁸ Upon hearing that David had been anointed king over all Israel, the Philistines gathered to seek him; and when David learned of this, he went out to meet them.

⁹ At that time, the Philistines came and launched a raid in the Valley of Rephaim.

¹⁰ Then David inquired of God, saying,

1 Chronicles

"Shall I go up against the Philistines, and will You hand them over to me?" And the Lord said to him, "Go up, for I will hand them over to you."

¹¹ So they came up to Baal-perazim, where David achieved victory over them. And David said,

"God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like the breakthrough of waters." Therefore they named that place Baal-perazim.

¹² They left the idols of their gods there;

so David commanded that they be burned with fire.

¹³ Then the Philistines carried out another raid in the valley.

¹⁴ David again inquired of God, and God said to him,

"You shall not go directly up after them; circle around behind them and come at them in front of the baka-shrubs.

¹⁵ And it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the baka-shrubs, then you shall go out to battle, for God will have gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines."

¹⁶ David did just as God had commanded him, and they struck the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even as far as Gezer.

¹⁷ David's renown spread throughout all the lands; and the Lord instilled a reverence for him among all the nations.

15 David constructed houses for himself in the city of David; and he made ready a place for the ark of God, and set up a tent for it.

² Then David declared,

"No one is to transport the ark of God except the Levites, for the Lord has chosen them to bear the ark of the Lord and to serve Him perpetually."

³ David gathered all Israel at Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the Lord to the location he had prepared for it.

⁴ David summoned the sons of Aaron and the Levites:

⁵ From the descendants of Kohath: Uriel the leader, along with 120 of his kin;

⁶ From the descendants of Merari: Asaiah the leader, along with 220 of his kin;

⁷ From the descendants of Gershon: Joel the leader, along with 130 of his kin;

⁸ From the descendants of Elizaphan: Shemaiah the leader, along with 200 of his kin;

⁹ From the descendants of Hebron: Eliel the leader, along with 80 of his kin;

¹⁰ From the descendants of Uzziel: Amminadab the leader, along with 112 of his kin.

¹¹ Then David called for the priests Zadok and Abiathar, and for the Levites:

Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab,

¹² and said to them,

"You are the heads of the fathers' households of the Levites; consecrate yourselves, you and your relatives, so that you may bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel to the place that I have prepared for it.

¹³ Because you did not carry it at first, the Lord our God made an outburst on us, for we did not seek Him according to the ordinance."

¹⁴ Thus, the priests and the Levites set themselves apart to bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel.

¹⁵ And the sons of the Levites carried the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles on it, just as Moses had commanded according to the word of the Lord.

¹⁶ Then David spoke to the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their relatives the singers, with instruments of music, harps, lyres, and cymbals, to raise their voices with joy.

¹⁷ So the Levites selected:

1 Chronicles

Heman the son of Joel, and from his relatives Asaph the son of Berechiah, and from the sons of Merari their relatives, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

¹⁸ and with them their relatives of the second rank:

Zechariah, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers.

¹⁹ Thus, the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were appointed to sound aloud cymbals of bronze;

²⁰ and Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah with harps set to the alamoth tuning;

²¹ and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah with lyres tuned to the sheminith, to direct the singing.

²² Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was responsible for the singing;

he provided instruction in singing because he was skillful.

²³ And Berechiah and Elkanah served as gatekeepers for the ark.

²⁴ And the priests Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer blew the trumpets before the ark of God. And Obed-edom and Jehiah also were gatekeepers for the ark.

²⁵ Thus, David, with the elders of Israel and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord from the house of Obed-edom with joy.

²⁶ And because God was aiding the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the Lord, they offered seven bulls and seven rams.

²⁷ Now David was dressed in a robe of fine linen along with all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and the singers and Chenaniah the leader of the singing with the singers.

David also wore a linen ephod.

²⁸ So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the Lord with shouting, and with sound of the horn, with trumpets, with loud-sounding cymbals, with harps and lyres.

²⁹ And as the ark of the covenant of the Lord came to the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and celebrating; and she despised him in her heart.

16 They brought the ark of God and set it inside the tent David had prepared for it, and they presented burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

² When David had completed the offering of the burnt and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord.

³ He distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to each a loaf of bread, a portion of meat, and a raisin cake.

⁴ He appointed some of the Levites as ministers before the ark of the Lord, to celebrate, thank, and praise the Lord God of Israel:

⁵ Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel with harps and lyres; Asaph played loud-sounding cymbals, ⁶ and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests sounded trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

⁷ Then on that day David first designated this song of thanksgiving to the Lord by Asaph and his relatives:

⁸ Offer thanks to the Lord, call upon His name; Make His deeds known among the peoples.

⁹ Sing to Him, offer Him praises; Tell of all His marvellous works.

1 Chronicles

¹⁰ Glory in His holy name; Let the heart of those who seek the Lord be joyful.

¹¹ Pursue the Lord and His strength; Seek His presence continually.

¹² Remember His wonders which He has done, His marvels and the judgments of His mouth, ¹³ You offspring of Israel, His servant, Children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

¹⁴ He is the Lord our God; His judgments extend throughout the earth.

¹⁵ Recall His covenant forever, The word He commanded for a thousand generations, ¹⁶ The covenant He established with Abraham, And His promise to Isaac.

¹⁷ He also confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, To Israel as an everlasting covenant,

¹⁸ Declaring, "To you I will give the land of Canaan, As the portion of your inheritance."

¹⁹ When you were few in number, Very few, and strangers in it,

²⁰ And they journeyed from nation to nation, And from one kingdom to another people,

²¹ He permitted no one to oppress them, And He reproved kings for their sake, saying,

²² "Do not touch My anointed ones, And do no harm to My prophets."

²³ Sing to the Lord, all the earth; Announce the good news of His salvation from day to day.

²⁴ Declare His glory among the nations, His wonderful deeds among all the peoples.

²⁵ For the Lord is great and greatly to be praised; He is to be revered above all gods.

²⁶ For all the gods of the peoples are mere idols, But the Lord made the heavens.

²⁷ Splendour and majesty are before Him, Strength and joy are in His place of dwelling.

²⁸ Attribute to the Lord, you families of the peoples, Attribute to the Lord glory and strength.

²⁹ Attribute to the Lord the glory due His name; Bring an offering, and come before Him; Worship the Lord in sacred attire.

³⁰ Stand in awe before Him, all the earth; Indeed, the world is firmly established, it will not be moved.

³¹ Let the heavens be joyful, and the earth rejoice; And let them proclaim among the nations, "The Lord reigns."

³² Let the sea resound, and everything it contains; Let the field be jubilant, and everything that is in it.

³³ Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before the Lord; For He is coming to bring justice to the earth.

³⁴ Offer thanks to the Lord, for He is good; For His faithfulness is everlasting.

³⁵ Then say, "Save us, God of our salvation, And gather us and rescue us from the nations, To give thanks to Your holy name, And glory in Your praise."

³⁶ Praised be the Lord, the God of Israel, From eternity to eternity!" Then all the people said, "Amen," and praised the Lord.

³⁷ So he left Asaph and his relatives there before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, to minister before the ark continually, as each day's work required;

³⁸ and Obed-edom with his sixty-eight relatives;

Obed-edom, also the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, as gatekeepers.

³⁹ He left Zadok the priest and his brothers the priests before the tabernacle of the Lord in the high place which was at Gibeon,

⁴⁰ to offer burnt offerings to the Lord on the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, according to all that is written in the Law of the Lord, which He commanded Israel.

⁴¹ With them were Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name to give thanks to the Lord, because His faithfulness is everlasting.

1 Chronicles

⁴² With them were Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those who played loudly, and with instruments for the songs of God, and the sons of Jeduthun for the gate.

⁴³ Then all the people departed, each to his own home; and David returned to bless his household.

17 And it came about, when David lived in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet,

"Behold, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the Lord is under tent curtains."

² Then Nathan said to David,

"Proceed with what you have in mind, for God is with you."

³ But it came about in the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

⁴ "Go and say to My servant David, 'This is what the Lord says: You shall not build a house for Me to dwell in.

⁵ For I have not dwelt in a house since the day I brought Israel up to this day, but I have gone from tent to tent, and from one dwelling place to another.

⁶ Wherever I have walked with all Israel, have I spoken a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, 'Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?'"

⁷ Now, this is what you shall say to My servant David: 'This is what the Lord of armies says: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be leader over My people Israel.

⁸ I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have eliminated all your enemies from you; and I will make a name for you like the name of the great ones who are on the earth.

⁹ And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, so that they may dwell in their own place and not be moved again; and the wicked will not waste them anymore as previously,

¹⁰ even from the day that I appointed judges over My people Israel. And I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover, I declare to you that the Lord will build a house for you.

¹¹ When your days are fulfilled and you go to be with your fathers, I will raise up one of your descendants after you, one of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

¹² He will construct a house for Me, and I will secure his throne for all time.

¹³ I will be a father to him and he shall be a son to Me; and I will not take My favour away from him, as I took it from the one who was before you.

¹⁴ But I will establish him in My house and in My kingdom for all time, and his throne shall be secured forever."

¹⁵ In accordance with all these words and this vision, Nathan conveyed them to David.

¹⁶ Then David the king went in and sat before the Lord, and said,

"Who am I, Lord God, and what is my house, that You have brought me this far?"

¹⁷ This was a small thing in Your eyes, God, but You have spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the standard of a man of high degree, Lord God.

¹⁸ What more can David still say to You concerning the honour bestowed on Your servant? For You know Your servant.

¹⁹ Lord, for the sake of Your servant, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, to make known all these great things.

²⁰ Lord, there is no one like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

²¹ And what one nation in the earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make a name for Yourself by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people, whom You redeemed from Egypt?"

²² For You have made Your people Israel Your own people forever, and You, Lord, have become their God.

1 Chronicles

²³ Now, Lord, let the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house be confirmed forever, and do as You have spoken.

²⁴ Let Your name be confirmed and be great forever, saying, "The Lord of armies is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel; and the house of Your servant David is established before You."

²⁵ For You, my God, have disclosed to Your servant that You will build him a house; therefore, Your servant has found the courage to pray before You.

²⁶ Now, Lord, You are God, and You have promised this good thing to Your servant.

²⁷ And now, You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue forever before You; for You, Lord, have blessed, and it is blessed forever."

18 Now after this it came about that David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Gath and its villages from the hand of the Philistines.

² He overcame Moab, and the Moabites became subjects to David, offering tribute.

³ David also defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah at Hamath, as he went to establish his rule at the Euphrates River.

⁴ David took from him a thousand chariots, seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers.

And David hamstringed all the chariot horses, but reserved enough of them for a hundred chariots.

⁵ When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand men of the Arameans.

⁶ Then David stationed garrisons among the Arameans of Damascus, and the Arameans became subjects to David, offering tribute. And the Lord supported David in all his endeavours.

⁷ And David seized the shields of gold which were carried by the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

⁸ Also from Tibhath and Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the bronze utensils.

⁹ Upon hearing of David's victory over the entire army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, ¹⁰ he sent Hadoram his son to King David to greet him and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and had defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou). And he brought all kinds of articles of gold, silver, and bronze.

¹¹ King David also dedicated these to the Lord, with the silver and the gold which he had carried away from all the nations: from Edom, Moab, the sons of Ammon, the Philistines, and Amalek.

¹² Abishai the son of Zeruiah achieved victory over eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

¹³ Then he stationed garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became subjects to David.

And the Lord supported David in all his endeavours.

¹⁴ So David reigned over all Israel; and he ensured justice and righteousness for all his people.

¹⁵ Joab the son of Zeruiah was in charge of the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder;

¹⁶ Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were priests, and Shavsha was secretary;

¹⁷ Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and the sons of David were chief officials at the king's side.

1 Chronicles

19 Following these events, Nahash, the king of the sons of Ammon, passed away, and his son succeeded him as king.

² David resolved,

"I will extend kindness to Hanun, the son of Nahash, as his father was kind to me." Thus, David dispatched messengers to offer condolences regarding his father. David's servants entered the land of the sons of Ammon to Hanun to express their sympathy.

³ But the commanders of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun,

"Do you think that David is honouring your father because he has sent comforters to you? Have not his servants come to you to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?"

⁴ So Hanun took David's servants, shaved them and cut off their garments in the middle as far as their hips, and sent them away.

⁵ Then certain people went and informed David about the men, and he sent messengers to meet them, for the men were deeply humiliated. And the king said, "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow back, and then return."

⁶ When the sons of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the sons of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, from Aram-maacah, and from Zobah.

⁷ So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped before Medeba. And the sons of Ammon gathered together from their cities and came to the battle.

⁸ Upon learning of this,

David sent Joab and the entire army, the mighty men.

⁹ And the sons of Ammon came out and lined up for battle at the entrance of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

¹⁰ Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him in front and in the rear, he selected from all the choice men of Israel, and they lined up against the Arameans.

¹¹ But the remainder of the people he placed under the command of his brother Abishai, and they lined up against the sons of Ammon.

¹² And he said,

"If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you.

¹³ Be strong, and let us show ourselves courageous for the sake of our people and the cities of our God; and may the Lord do what is good in His sight."

¹⁴ So Joab and the people who were with him advanced to the battle against the Arameans, and they fled from him.

¹⁵ When the sons of Ammon saw that the Arameans fled, they also fled from Abishai his brother, and entered the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

¹⁶ When the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the Euphrates, with Shophach the commander of the army of Hadadezer leading them.

¹⁷ When David was informed, he gathered all Israel together, and crossed the Jordan, and came upon them, and lined up against them. So when David had lined up for battle against the Arameans, they fought against him.

¹⁸ But the Arameans fled from Israel, and David killed of the Arameans seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers, and he put to death Shophach the commander of the army.

1 Chronicles

¹⁹ When the servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and served him. So the Arameans were not willing to help the sons of Ammon anymore.

20 When spring arrived, during the season when kings typically go to war, Joab led the army and devastated the land of the sons of Ammon, and advanced to besiege Rabbah. Meanwhile, David remained in Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah and conquered it.

² David took the crown of their king from his head, and he found it to weigh a talent of gold, and it had a precious stone in it; and it was placed on David's head. And he brought out the spoils of the city in great amounts.

³ He brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws, iron picks, and axes.

And David did the same to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

⁴ Now it came about after this, that war broke out at Gezer with the Philistines; then Sibbecai the Hushathite struck down Sippai, one of the descendants of the giants, and they were subdued.

⁵ Once more, conflict arose with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair defeated Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear shaft was like a weaver's beam.

⁶ Again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot; and he also was descended from the giants.

⁷ When he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, struck him down.

⁸ These were the descendants of the giants in Gath, and they were defeated by David and his servants.

21 Satan rose against Israel and prompted David to count the people of Israel.

² So David said to Joab and to the leaders of the people,

"Go, count Israel from Beersheba to Dan, and bring me a report, so that I may know their number."

³ But Joab said,

"May the Lord add to His people a hundred times as many as they are! But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why does my lord seek this thing? Why should he bring guilt upon Israel?"

⁴ Nevertheless, the king's word prevailed against Joab. So Joab departed and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

⁵ Joab gave the number of the census of all the people to David.

And all Israel was 1,100,000 men who drew the sword, and Judah was 470,000 men who drew the sword.

⁶ But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them, because the king's command was detestable to Joab.

⁷ God was displeased with this action, so He brought trouble upon Israel.

⁸ Then David said to God,

"I have sinned greatly by doing this thing. But now, please forgive Your servant's guilt, for I have acted very foolishly."

⁹ The Lord then gave a message to Gad, David's seer,

¹⁰ "Go and speak to David, saying, 'This is what the Lord says: I am offering you three things; choose for yourself one of them, which I will do to you.'"

¹¹ So Gad came to David and said to him,

"This is what the Lord says:

1 Chronicles

¹² 'Choose for yourself: either three years of famine, or three months to be swept away before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you, or three days of the sword of the Lord, a plague in the land, and the angel of the Lord destroying throughout the territory of Israel.' Now decide what answer I shall bring back to Him who sent me."

¹³ David said to Gad,

"I am in great distress; let me fall into the hands of the Lord, for His mercies are very great. But do not let me fall into human hands."

¹⁴ So the Lord sent a plague on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell.

¹⁵ And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; but as he was about to destroy it, the Lord saw and relented of the disaster, and said to the destroying angel, "It is enough; now relax your hand." And the angel of the Lord was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

¹⁶ Then David raised his eyes and saw the angel of the Lord standing between earth and heaven, with his drawn sword in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem. And David and the elders, covered with sackcloth, fell on their faces.

¹⁷ David said to God,

"Was it not I who commanded to count the people? Indeed, I am the one who has sinned and done very wickedly, but these sheep, what have they done? Lord my God, please let Your hand be against me and my father's household, but not against Your people, so that there will not be a plague among them."

¹⁸ Then the angel of the Lord instructed Gad to tell David that he should go up and build an altar to the Lord on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

¹⁹ So David went up at Gad's instruction, which he spoke in the name of the Lord.

²⁰ Ornan turned back and saw the angel, and his four sons who were with him hid themselves.

Ornan was threshing wheat.

²¹ As David approached Ornan,

Ornan looked and saw David, and went out from the threshing floor, and bowed down to David with his face to the ground.

²² Then David said to Ornan,

"Give me the site of the threshing floor, so that I may build an altar to the Lord on it; give it to me for the full price, so that the plague may be brought to a halt from the people."

²³ But Ornan said to David,

"Take it for yourself; and may my lord the king do what is good in his sight. See, I will give the oxen for the burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for the wood, and the wheat for the grain offering; I will give it all."

²⁴ However, King David said to Ornan,

"No, but I will certainly buy it for the full price; for I will not take what is yours for the Lord, nor offer a burnt offering that costs me nothing."

²⁵ So David paid Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight to buy the site.

²⁶ Then David built an altar to the Lord there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. He called to the Lord, and He answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

²⁷ Then the Lord commanded the angel, and he put his sword back in its sheath.

²⁸ When David realised that the Lord had responded to him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he offered sacrifice there.

²⁹ At that time, the tabernacle of the Lord, constructed by Moses in the wilderness, along with the altar of burnt offering, was located on the high place at Gibeon.

³⁰ But David was unable to go before it to inquire of God, because he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the Lord.

1 Chronicles

22 At that time, David declared,
"This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

² So David gave orders to gather the strangers who were in the land of Israel, and he appointed stonecutters to cut finished stones to build the house of God.

³ David prepared large quantities of iron to make nails for the doors of the gates and for the clamps, and more bronze than could be weighed,

⁴ and cedar timbers in abundance; for the Sidonians and Tyrians brought large quantities of cedar timber to David.

⁵ David said,

"My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the Lord shall be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all lands. Therefore I will make preparations for it." So David made ample preparations before his death.

⁶ He then summoned his son Solomon and instructed him to construct a house for the Lord God of Israel.

⁷ David said to Solomon,

"My son, I had in my heart to build a house for the name of the Lord my God.

⁸ However, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, 'You have shed much blood and have waged great wars; you shall not build a house for My name, because you have shed so much blood on the earth before Me.

⁹ A son will be born to you, who shall be a man of peace; and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. For his name shall be Solomon, and I will grant peace and quiet to Israel in his days.

¹⁰ He will construct a house for My name, and he will be My son and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for all time.'

¹¹ Now, my son, may the Lord be with you, so that you may succeed in building the house of the Lord your God, just as He has spoken concerning you.

¹² Only may the Lord give you insight and understanding, and give you command over Israel, so that you may keep the Law of the Lord your God.

¹³ Then you will prosper and have success, if you are diligent and follow the statutes and the ordinances which the Lord commanded Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and courageous, do not fear or be dismayed.

¹⁴ Now behold, with great effort I have prepared for the house of the Lord:

a hundred thousand talents of gold, a million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond measure, for they are in great quantity; I have also prepared timber and stone, and you may add to them.

¹⁵ Moreover, you have many workmen with you:

stonecutters, masons, carpenters, and all men who are skilful in every kind of work.

¹⁶ Of the gold, the silver, the bronze, and the iron there is no limit. Arise and work, and may the Lord be with you."

¹⁷ David instructed all the leaders of Israel to assist his son Solomon, saying,

¹⁸ "Is the Lord your God not with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the Lord and before His people.

¹⁹ Now set your heart and your soul to seek the Lord your God. Arise, and build the sanctuary of the Lord God, so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord and the holy articles of God into the house that is to be built for the name of the Lord."

23 In his later years, David appointed his son Solomon as king over Israel.

² And he assembled all the leaders of Israel, including the priests and the Levites.

1 Chronicles

³ The Levites were numbered from thirty years old and upward, and their number by census of men was thirty-eight thousand.

⁴ Among them, twenty-four thousand were to oversee the work of the house of the Lord; and six thousand served as officers and judges,

⁵ and four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand were dedicated to praising the Lord with the instruments which David crafted for worship.

⁶ David organised them into divisions according to the sons of Levi:

Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

⁷ From the descendants of Gershon:

Ladan and Shimei.

⁸ The sons of Ladan were:

Jehiel the first, then Zetham and Joel—three.

⁹ The sons of Shimei were:

Shelomoth, Haziel, and Haran—three. These were the heads of the fathers' households of Ladan.

¹⁰ Shimei's sons included:

Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

¹¹ Jahath was the first, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they were counted as one father's household.

¹² The sons of Kohath were:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel—four.

¹³ The sons of Amram were:

Aaron and Moses. And Aaron was set apart to sanctify him as most holy, he and his sons forever, to offer sacrifices before the Lord, to minister to Him and to bless in His name forever.

¹⁴ As for Moses, the man of God, his sons were recognised among the tribe of Levi.

¹⁵ The descendants of Moses were:

Gershom and Eliezer.

¹⁶ Gershom's son was Shebuel, who served as chief.

¹⁷ The son of Eliezer was Rehabiah the chief; and Eliezer had no other sons, yet the sons of Rehabiah were numerous.

¹⁸ Izhar's son was Shelomith, who was the leader and chief.

¹⁹ Hebron's sons were:

Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

²⁰ Uzziel's sons were:

Micah the first and Isshiah the second.

²¹ The descendants of Merari were:

Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were: Eleazar and Kish.

²² Eleazar died and had no sons, but only daughters, and their relatives, the sons of Kish, took them as wives.

²³ The sons of Mushi were:

Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth—three.

²⁴ These were the sons of Levi by their fathers' households, the heads of the fathers' households of those who were counted, according to the number of names by their individual headcount, who performed the work for the service of the house of the Lord, from twenty years old and upward.

²⁵ For David declared,

"The Lord God of Israel has granted peace to His people, and He resides in Jerusalem forever.

²⁶ Furthermore, the Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its utensils for its service."

²⁷ According to the final instructions of David, the sons of Levi were counted from twenty years old and upward.

²⁸ Their duty is to assist the sons of Aaron with the service of the house of the Lord, in the courtyards and in the rooms, and in the purification of all holy things, even the work of the service of the house of God, ²⁹ and with the showbread, the fine flour for a grain offering, the unleavened wafers, or what is baked in the pan or mixed, and all measures of volume and size.

1 Chronicles

³⁰ They are to stand every morning to give thanks and to praise the Lord, and likewise at evening,

³¹ and to present all burnt offerings to the Lord, on the Sabbaths, the new moons, and the appointed festivals, in the number specified by the ordinance concerning them, continually before the Lord.

³² So they are to perform the duties of the tent of meeting, the duties of the holy place, and the duties of the sons of Aaron, their relatives, for the service of the house of the Lord.

24

Here are the divisions of Aaron's sons:

Aaron's sons were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

² However, Nadab and Abihu passed away before their father, and they had no children.

Thus, Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests.

³ David, with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their assigned duties in their service.

⁴ More chief men were found from the sons of Eleazar than from the sons of Ithamar, and they divided them accordingly. There were sixteen heads of fathers' households of the sons of Eleazar, and eight of the sons of Ithamar according to their fathers' households.

⁵ So they were divided by lot, the one group with the other, for the officers of the sanctuary and officers of God were from the sons of Eleazar and the sons of Ithamar.

⁶ Shemaiah the son of Nethanel the scribe, from the Levites, wrote them down in the presence of the king, the officers, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites— one father's household taken for Eleazar and one taken for Ithamar.

⁷ The first lot was assigned to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

⁸ the third was given to Harim, the fourth was given to Seorim,

⁹ the fifth was given to Malchijah, the sixth was given to Mijamin,

¹⁰ the seventh was given to Hakkoz, the eighth was given to Abijah,

¹¹ the ninth was given to Jeshua, the tenth was given to Shecaniah,

¹² the eleventh was given to Eliashib, the twelfth was given to Jakim,

¹³ the thirteenth was given to Huppah, the fourteenth was given to Jeshebeab,

¹⁴ the fifteenth was given to Bilgah, the sixteenth was given to Immer,

¹⁵ the seventeenth was given to Hezir, the eighteenth was given to Huppizez,

¹⁶ the nineteenth was given to Pethahiah, the twentieth was given to Jehezkel,

¹⁷ the twenty-first was given to Jachin, the twenty-second was given to Gamul, ¹⁸ the twenty-third was given to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth was given to Maaziah.

¹⁹ These were their offices for their ministry when they came into the house of the Lord according to the ordinance given to them through Aaron their father, just as the Lord God of Israel had commanded him.

²⁰ Now of the rest of the sons of Levi:

of the sons of Amram: Shubael; of the sons of Shubael: Jehdeiah.

1 Chronicles

²¹ Of Rehabiah, Isshiah was the first of his sons.

²² From the Izharites: Shelomoth; of Shelomoth's sons: Jahath.

²³ The sons of Hebron were: Jeriah who was the first, Amariah who was the second, Jahaziel who was the third, and Jekameam who was the fourth.

²⁴ Of Uzziel's sons: Micah; of Micah's sons: Shamir.

²⁵ The brother of Micah: Isshiah; of Isshiah's sons: Zechariah.

²⁶ The descendants of Merari included Mahli and Mushi; the sons of Jaaziah: Beno.

²⁷ The descendants of Merari through Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.

²⁸ From Mahli: Eleazar, who did not have sons.

²⁹ Of Kish: Jerahmeel, son of Kish.

³⁰ The sons of Mushi were:

Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' households.

³¹ These also cast lots just as their relatives the sons of Aaron did in the presence of David the king, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites— the head of fathers' households as well as those of his younger brother.

25 Moreover, David and the commanders of the army set apart for the service some of the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, who were to prophesy with lyres, harps, and cymbals; and the number of those who performed their service was:

² From the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah; these sons were guided by Asaph, who prophesied under the guidance of the king.

³ Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun were Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah—six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun with the harp, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising the Lord.

⁴ Of Heman: the sons of Heman were Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth.

⁵ All these were the sons of Heman, the king's seer, to honour him according to the words of God; for God granted Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

⁶ All of these were under their father's guidance to sing in the house of the Lord, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the king's direction.

⁷ Their number who were trained in singing to the Lord, with their relatives, all who were skillful, was ⁸ They cast lots for their duties, all equally, the young as well as the old, the teacher as well as the student.

⁹ The first lot for Asaph fell to Joseph, the second to Gedaliah, he with his relatives and sons were twelve;

¹⁰ the third lot fell to Zaccur, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

¹¹ the fourth lot fell to Izri, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

¹² the fifth lot fell to Nethaniah, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

¹³ the sixth lot fell to Bukkiah, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

¹⁴ the seventh lot fell to Jesharelah, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

¹⁵ the eighth lot fell to Jeshaiiah, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

¹⁶ the ninth lot fell to Mattaniah, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

¹⁷ the tenth lot fell to Shimei, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

¹⁸ the eleventh lot fell to Azarel, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

1 Chronicles

¹⁹ the twelfth lot fell to Hashabiah, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

²⁰ the thirteenth to Shubael, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

²¹ the fourteenth to Mattithiah, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

²² the fifteenth to Jeremoth, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

²³ the sixteenth to Hananiah, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

²⁴ the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his relatives, twelve;

²⁵ the eighteenth to Hanani, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

²⁶ the nineteenth to Mallothi, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

²⁷ the twentieth to Eliathah, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

²⁸ the twenty-first to Hothir, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

²⁹ the twenty-second to Giddalti, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

³⁰ the twenty-third to Mahazioth, along with his sons and relatives, twelve;

³¹ the twenty-fourth to Romamti-ezer, along with his sons and relatives, twelve.

26 Regarding the divisions of the gatekeepers: Among the Korahites, Meshelemiah, son of Kore, from the descendants of Asaph.

² The sons of Meshelemiah were:

Zechariah the firstborn, Jedaiel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, ³ Elam was the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh.

⁴ The sons of Obed-edom were:

Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, ⁵ Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth; for the Lord had blessed him.

⁶ Also to his son Shemaiah sons were born, who ruled over the house of their father, for they were valiant men.

⁷ The sons of Shemaiah were:

Othni, Rephael, Obed, Elzabad, whose brothers, Elihu and Semachiah, were valiant men.

⁸ All these were of the sons of Obed-edom; they and their sons and their relatives were able men with strength for the work:

sixty-two from Obed-edom.

⁹ Meshelemiah had sons and relatives, able men:

eighteen in all.

¹⁰ Also Hosah, one of the sons of Merari, had sons:

Shimri the first (though he was not the firstborn, his father made him first), ¹¹ Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth. Altogether, the sons and relatives of Hosah were thirteen.

¹² To these divisions of the gatekeepers, the leading men, were assigned duties similar to their relatives, to serve in the house of the Lord.

¹³ They cast lots, both small and great alike, according to their fathers' households, for each gate.

¹⁴ The lot to the east fell to Shelemiah. Then for his son Zechariah, a counsellor with insight, they cast lots, and his lot came out to the north.

¹⁵ For Obed-edom it was to the south, and for his sons, the storehouse.

¹⁶ For Shuppim and Hosah it was to the west, by the gate of Shallecheth on the ascending road. Guard corresponded to guard.

¹⁷ On the east there were six Levites assigned, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, and at the storehouse two at a time.

¹⁸ At the Parbar on the west there were four at the road and two at the Parbar.

1 Chronicles

¹⁹ These were the divisions of the gatekeepers of the sons of the Korahites and of the sons of Merari.

²⁰ Of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God and over the treasures of the dedicated gifts.

²¹ The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, the heads of the fathers' households belonging to Ladan the Gershonite, were:

Jehieli.

²² The sons of Jehieli were:

Zetham and Joel his brother, who were over the treasures of the house of the Lord.

²³ Of the descendants of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel—

²⁴ Shebuel, a descendant of Gershom and Moses, was in charge of the treasures.

²⁵ His relatives by Eliezer were:

Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomoth his son.

²⁶ This Shelomoth and his relatives were over all the treasures of the dedicated gifts, which King David and the heads of the fathers' households, the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and the commanders of the army had dedicated.

²⁷ They dedicated part of the spoils won in battle to repair the house of the Lord.

²⁸ And all that Samuel the seer had dedicated, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, everything that anyone had dedicated, was in the care of Shelomoth and his relatives.

²⁹ Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were assigned to outside duties for Israel, as officers and judges.

³⁰ Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his relatives, 1,700 able men, had charge of the affairs of Israel west of the Jordan, for all the work of the Lord and the service of the king.

³¹ Of the Hebronites, Jerijah was the chief of the Hebronites. According to their genealogies by fathers' households, in the fortieth year of David's reign they were examined, and capable men were found among them at Jazer of Gilead.

³² And his relatives, capable men, were 2,700 heads of fathers' households.

And King David appointed them over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites, for all the affairs of God and of the king.

27 Now this is the number of the sons of Israel, the heads of fathers' households, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all matters of the divisions that came in and went out month by month throughout the year—each division was 24,000.

² Jashobeam, son of Zabdiel, led the first division for the first month;

and in his division were 24,000.

³ He was a descendant of Perez and led all the commanders of the army for the first month.

⁴ Dodai the Ahohite was over the division of the second month, and Mikloth was the chief officer; and in his division were 24,000.

⁵ Benaiah, son of Jehoiada the priest, was the third commander of the army for the third month;

and in his division were 24,000.

⁶ This Benaiah was the mighty man of the thirty, and was over the thirty; and over his division was Ammizabad his son.

⁷ Asahel, brother of Joab, was the fourth for the fourth month, with Zebadiah his son succeeding him;

and in his division were 24,000.

1 Chronicles

⁸ The fifth for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite;

and in his division were 24,000.

⁹ Ira, son of Ikkeiah the Tekoite, was the sixth for the sixth month;

and in his division were 24,000.

¹⁰ Helez the Pelonite, from the sons of Ephraim, was the seventh for the seventh month;

and in his division were 24,000.

¹¹ Sibbecai the Hushathite, from the Zerahites, was the eighth for the eighth month;

and in his division were 24,000.

¹² The ninth for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite of the Benjaminites;

and in his division were 24,000.

¹³ Maharai the Netophathite, from the Zerahites, was the tenth for the tenth month;

and in his division were 24,000.

¹⁴ Benaiah the Pirathonite, from the sons of Ephraim, was the eleventh for the eleventh month;

and in his division were 24,000.

¹⁵ Heldai the Netophathite, from Othniel, was the twelfth for the twelfth month;

and in his division were 24,000.

¹⁶ Now over the tribes of Israel:

for the Reubenites, Eliezer the son of Zichri was chief officer; for the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah;

¹⁷ overseeing Levi was Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; overseeing Aaron was Zadok;

¹⁸ leading Judah was Elihu, one of David's brothers; leading Issachar was Omri the son of Michael;

¹⁹ leading Zebulun was Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; leading Naphtali was Jeremoth the son of Azriel;

²⁰ overseeing the descendants of Ephraim was Hoshea the son of Azariah; overseeing the half-tribe of Manasseh was Joel the son of Pedaiiah;

²¹ overseeing the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead was Iddo the son of Zechariah; overseeing Benjamin was Jaasiel the son of Abner;

²² for Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the chiefs of the tribes of Israel.

²³ But David did not count those who were twenty years of age and under, because the Lord had promised to multiply Israel as the stars of heaven.

²⁴ Joab, son of Zeruiah, had begun to count them, but did not finish; and because of this, wrath came upon Israel, and the number was not included in the account of the chronicles of King David.

²⁵ Now over the king's storehouses was Azmaveth the son of Adiel.

And over the storehouses in the country, in the cities, in the villages, and in the towers was Jonathan the son of Uzziah;

²⁶ and Ezri the son of Chelub was in charge of those who worked the fields for cultivating the soil;

²⁷ and over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite; and over the produce of the vineyards stored in the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite;

²⁸ and over the olive trees and the sycamore trees in the Shephelah was Baal-hanan the Gederite; and over the stores of oil was Joash;

²⁹ and over the cattle that grazed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite; and over the cattle in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai;

³⁰ and overseeing the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite; and managing the donkeys was Jehdeiah the Meronothite;

³¹ and over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. All these were stewards of the property of King David.

³² Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counsellor, a man of understanding, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni tutored the king's sons.

³³ Ahithophel was counsellor to the king, and Hushai the Archite was the king's friend.

1 Chronicles

³⁴ Jehoiada, son of Benaiah, and Abiathar succeeded Ahithophel; and Joab was the commander of the king's army.

28 Now David assembled at Jerusalem all the officials of Israel:

the leaders of the tribes, the commanders of the divisions that served the king, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, the supervisors of all the property and livestock of the king and his sons, with the officials and the mighty men, and all the valiant warriors.

² Then King David rose to his feet and said,

"Listen to me, my brothers and my people; I had it in my heart to build a permanent home for the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and for the footstool of our God. So I had made preparations to build it.

³ However, the Lord told me,

'You shall not build a house for My name, because you are a man of war and have shed blood.'

⁴ Nevertheless, the Lord, the God of Israel, selected me from all my father's family to be king over Israel perpetually.

For He has chosen Judah to lead, and from the house of Judah, my father's family, and among my father's sons, He found delight in me to make me king over all Israel.

⁵ And among all my sons (for the Lord has blessed me with many),

He has chosen my son Solomon to take the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel.

⁶ He said to me,

'Your son Solomon is the one who shall construct My house and My courtyards; for I have chosen him to be a son to Me, and I will be a Father to him.

⁷ I will establish his kingdom forever if he faithfully keeps My commandments and My ordinances, as is done now.'

⁸ So now, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the Lord, and in the hearing of our God, keep and seek after all the commandments of the Lord your God so that you may possess the good land and leave it as an inheritance to your sons after you forever.

⁹ As for you, my son Solomon, acknowledge the God of your father, and serve Him with a whole heart and a willing mind; for the Lord searches all hearts, and understands every intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will let you find Him; but if you abandon Him, He will reject you forever.

¹⁰ Reflect now, for the Lord has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be courageous and act."

¹¹ Then David gave his son Solomon the plan of the porch of the temple, its buildings, its storehouses, its upper rooms, its inner rooms, and the room for the mercy seat;

¹² and the design of all that he had envisioned, for the courtyards of the house of the Lord, and for all the surrounding rooms, for the storehouses of the house of God and for the storehouses of the dedicated things;

¹³ and concerning the divisions of the priests and the Levites, and the tasks involved in the service of the house of the Lord, and for all the utensils used in the service of the house of the Lord;

¹⁴ for the golden utensils, with the weight of gold for each utensil for every service; for all the silver utensils, with the weight of silver for each utensil for every service;

¹⁵ and the weight of gold for the gold lampstands and their lamps, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for the silver lampstands and their lamps, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps, according to the service of each lampstand;

¹⁶ and the gold, measured for the tables of the showbread, for each table; and silver for the tables made of silver;

¹⁷ and the pure gold for the forks, the basins, and the pitchers; and for the golden bowls, by weight for each bowl; and for the silver bowls, by weight for each bowl;

1 Chronicles

¹⁸ and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the model of the chariot, the cherubim that spread out their wings and covered the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

¹⁹ "All these details," said David, "the Lord made me understand through His guidance, all the intricacies of this design."

²⁰ Then David said to his son Solomon,

"Be strong and courageous, and act; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the Lord God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you nor abandon you until all the work for the service of the house of the Lord is finished."

²¹ Now behold, there are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God, and every willing person of any skill will be with you in all the work, for all the work, also the officials and all the people, will be entirely at your command."

29 Then King David said to the entire assembly,

"My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced, and the work is great; for the temple is not for mankind, but for the Lord God."

² Now with all my ability I have provided for the house of my God:

the gold for the things of gold, the silver for the things of silver, the bronze for the things of bronze, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, onyx stones and inlaid stones, stones of antimony and coloured stones, and every kind of precious stone and alabaster in abundance.

³ Furthermore, because I take great joy in the house of my God, I have given my own treasure of gold and silver to the house of my God, in addition to all that I have already provided for the holy temple:

⁴ specifically, 3,000 talents of gold (of the gold of Ophir), and 7,000 talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the buildings;

⁵ gold for the things of gold and silver for the things of silver, that all the work may be done by the craftsmen. Who then is willing to consecrate himself this day to the Lord?"

⁶ Then the leaders of the fathers' households, the leaders of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and the supervisors over the king's work offered willingly;

⁷ and for the service of the house of God they gave:

5,000 talents and 10,000 gold coins, 10,000 talents of silver, 18,000 talents of bronze, and 100,000 talents of iron.

⁸ Whoever possessed precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the Lord, in the care of Jehiel the Gershonite.

⁹ Then the people rejoiced because they had given so willingly, for they made their offering to the Lord with a whole heart, and King David also rejoiced exceedingly.

¹⁰ So David praised the Lord in the presence of all the assembly; and David said, "Blessed are You, Lord God of Israel our father, forever and ever.

¹¹ Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power, the splendour, the triumph, and the majesty, indeed everything that is in the heavens and on the earth; Yours is the dominion, Lord, and You lift Yourself as head over all.

¹² Both riches and honour come from You, and You rule over all, and in Your hand is power and might; and it lies in Your hand to make great and to strengthen everyone.

¹³ Therefore, our God, we express our gratitude to You, and praise Your glorious name.

¹⁴ But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to offer so generously as this? For all things come from You, and from Your hand we have given to You.

1 Chronicles

¹⁵ For we are strangers before You, and wanderers, as all our fathers were; our days on the earth are like a shadow, without certainty.

¹⁶ Lord our God, all this abundance that we have gathered to build a house for Your holy name, it comes from Your hand, and everything is Yours.

¹⁷ Since I know, my God, that You test the heart and take pleasure in uprightness, I, in the integrity of my heart, have willingly offered all these things; so now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here, make their offerings willingly to You.

¹⁸ Lord, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the intentions of the hearts of Your people, and guide their hearts to You;

¹⁹ and give my son Solomon a devoted heart to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies, and Your statutes, and to carry them out, and to build the temple, for which I have made provision."

²⁰ Then David addressed all the assembly,

"Now give praise to the Lord your God." And all the assembly praised the Lord, the God of their fathers, and bowed down and paid homage to the Lord and the king.

²¹ On the following day they made sacrifices to the Lord, and offered burnt offerings to the Lord: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

²² So they ate and drank that day before the Lord with great joy. And they made Solomon the son of David king a second time, and they anointed him as ruler for the Lord, and Zadok as priest.

²³ Then Solomon sat on the throne of the Lord as king in place of his father David; and he was successful, and all Israel obeyed him.

²⁴ All the officials, the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David pledged their loyalty to King Solomon.

²⁵ The Lord highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him royal majesty which had not been bestowed on any king before him in Israel.

²⁶ David, the son of Jesse, reigned over all Israel.

²⁷ The period of his reign over Israel was forty years:

he reigned in Hebron seven years, and in Jerusalem thirty-three years.

²⁸ Then he died at a good old age, full of days, riches, and honour; and his son Solomon reigned in his place.

²⁹ Now the acts of King David, from the first to the last, are recorded in the chronicles of Samuel the seer, in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet, and in the chronicles of Gad the seer, ³⁰ with all his reign, his power, and the circumstances which came upon him, Israel, and all the kingdoms of the lands.

2 Chronicles

1 Solomon, the son of David, firmly established his rule over his kingdom, for the Lord his God was with him and greatly exalted him.

² Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' households.

³ Solomon, along with all the assembly, went to the high place at Gibeon, because God's tent of meeting was there, which Moses, the servant of the Lord, had constructed in the wilderness.

⁴ David, however, had brought the ark of God up from Kiriath-jearim to the place he had prepared for it, for he had set up a tent for it in Jerusalem.

⁵ Now the bronze altar which Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there in front of the tabernacle of the Lord, and Solomon and the assembly sought it out.

⁶ Solomon approached the bronze altar before the Lord, which was at the tent of meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

⁷ During the night, God appeared to Solomon and said,

"Ask what I shall give you."

⁸ Solomon said to God,

"You have shown great faithfulness to my father David, and You have made me king in his place.

⁹ And now, Lord God, Your promise to my father David is fulfilled, for You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.

¹⁰ Therefore, grant me wisdom and knowledge, so that I may lead this people, for who can govern this great people of Yours?"

¹¹ Then God said to Solomon,

"Because this was in your heart, and you did not ask for riches, wealth, or honour, or the life of those who hate you, nor have you even asked for long life, but you have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself so that you may rule My people over whom I have made you king, ¹² wisdom and knowledge have been granted to you. I will also give you riches, wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings who were before you has possessed, nor will those who come after you."

¹³ Solomon departed from the high place at Gibeon, from the tent of meeting, and went to Jerusalem, where he reigned over Israel.

¹⁴ Solomon amassed chariots and horsemen.

He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

¹⁵ The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamores in the lowland.

¹⁶ Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Kue;

the king's merchants acquired them from Kue for a price.

¹⁷ They imported chariots from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver each, and horses for one hundred and fifty. And by the same means, they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

2 Solomon planned to construct a house for the name of the Lord, and a royal palace for himself.

² So Solomon assigned seventy thousand men to carry loads, eighty thousand men to quarry stone in the mountains, and 3,600 supervisors to direct the people.

³ Then Solomon sent word to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying,

2 Chronicles

"As you dealt with my father David and sent him cedar to build a house for him to live in, so do for me.

⁴ Behold, I am building a house for the name of the Lord my God, to consecrate it to Him, to burn fragrant incense before Him, to set out the showbread continually, and to offer burnt offerings morning and evening, on Sabbaths, on new moons, and on the appointed feasts of the Lord our God. This is to be done in Israel forever.

⁵ The house I intend to build will be magnificent, for our God is greater than all other gods.

⁶ Yet, who is capable of building a house for Him, since the heavens and the highest heavens cannot contain Him? So who am I, that I should construct a house for Him, except as a place to offer incense before Him?

⁷ Now send me a skilled man to work in gold, silver, brass, iron, purple, crimson, and violet fabrics, and who knows how to engrave, to work with the skilled workers who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom my father David provided.

⁸ Also send me cedar, cypress, and algum timber from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know how to cut timber in Lebanon; and indeed my servants will work with your servants,

⁹ to prepare timber in abundance for me, for the house I plan to build will be grand and marvellous.

¹⁰ Behold, I will provide your servants, the woodsmen who cut the timber, twenty thousand kors of crushed wheat, twenty thousand kors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil."

¹¹ Then Hiram, king of Tyre, responded in a letter sent to Solomon:

"Because the Lord cherishes His people, He has appointed you as their king."

¹² Hiram also said,

"Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth, who has given King David a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, who will build a house for the Lord and a royal palace for himself.

¹³ I am now sending Hiram-abi, a skilled man, endowed with understanding,

¹⁴ the son of a Danite woman and a Tyrian father, who knows how to work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood, and in purple, violet, linen, and crimson fabrics, and who knows how to engrave all kinds of engravings, and to execute any design that is assigned to him, to work with your skilled workers and with those of my lord David your father.

¹⁵ Now then, let my lord send his servants the wheat, barley, oil, and wine of which he has spoken.

¹⁶ We will cut whatever timber you need from Lebanon and bring it to you on rafts by sea to Joppa, so that you may bring it up to Jerusalem."

¹⁷ Then Solomon numbered all the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, following the census which his father David had taken; and 153,600 were found.

¹⁸ He appointed seventy thousand of them to carry loads, eighty thousand to quarry stone in the mountains, and 3,600 supervisors to direct the people doing the work.

3 Solomon initiated the construction of the house of the Lord in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the Lord had appeared to his father David, at the location that David had prepared on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

² He commenced the construction on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

³ Now these are the foundations which Solomon laid for building the house of God.

The length in cubits, according to the old standard, was sixty cubits, and the width was twenty cubits.

⁴ The porch which was in front of the house was the same width as the house, twenty cubits, and the height was 120; and he overlaid the inside with pure gold.

⁵ He overlaid the main room with juniper wood and overlaid it with fine gold, and ornamented it with palm trees and chains.

2 Chronicles

⁶ He also adorned the house with precious stones; and the gold was gold from Parvaim.

⁷ He overlaid the house, its beams, its thresholds, its walls, and its doors with gold, and he carved cherubim on the walls.

⁸ Then he made the Most Holy Place.
Its length, corresponding to the width of the house, was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to 600 talents.

⁹ The nails weighed fifty shekels of gold.
He also overlaid the upper rooms with gold.

¹⁰ Then he made two sculptured cherubim in the Most Holy Place and overlaid them with gold.

¹¹ The wingspan of the cherubim was twenty cubits:
the wing of one, five cubits, touched the wall of the house, and its other wing, five cubits, touched the wing of the other cherub.

¹² The wing of the other cherub, five cubits, touched the other wall of the house, and its other wing, five cubits, was attached to the wing of the first cherub.

¹³ The cherubim's wings stretched twenty cubits, and they stood upright facing the main room.

¹⁴ He crafted the veil of violet, purple, crimson, and fine linen, and he worked cherubim into it.

¹⁵ He also fashioned two pillars for the front of the house, thirty-five cubits high, and the capital on the top of each was five cubits.

¹⁶ He created chains in the inner sanctuary and placed them on the tops of the pillars, and he made one hundred pomegranates and placed them on the chains.

¹⁷ He set up the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right and the other on the left; and he named the one on the right Jachin, and the one on the left Boaz.

4 He constructed a bronze altar, twenty cubits in length, twenty cubits in width, and ten cubits in height.

² He also made the Sea of cast metal, ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in form, and its height was five cubits, and it was thirty cubits in circumference.

³ Under it was something like the figures of oxen encircling it, ten to a cubit, entirely encircling the Sea; the oxen were cast in two rows when it was cast.

⁴ It stood on twelve oxen:
three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; and the Sea was set on top of them, and all their hindquarters turned inward.

⁵ It was as thick as a hand's breadth, and its brim was crafted like the edge of a cup, resembling a lily blossom; it could contain three thousand baths.

⁶ He also made ten basins in which to wash, and he set five on the right side and five on the left side, to rinse things for the burnt offering; but the Sea was for the priests to wash in.

⁷ Then he made the ten golden lampstands in accordance with their specifications, and he placed them in the temple: five on the right side and five on the left.

⁸ He crafted ten tables and positioned them in the temple: five on the right side and five on the left. Additionally, he made one hundred golden bowls.

⁹ Then he made the courtyard of the priests, and the great courtyard and doors for the courtyard, and he overlaid their doors with bronze.

2 Chronicles

¹⁰ He positioned the Sea on the right side of the house, towards the southeast.

¹¹ Hiram also fashioned the pails, the shovels, and the bowls.

Thus, Hiram completed the work he undertook for King Solomon in the house of God:

¹² the two pillars, the bowls and the two capitals on the top of the pillars, and the two latticeworks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on top of the pillars,

¹³ and the four hundred pomegranates for the two latticeworks— two rows of pomegranates for each latticework to cover the two bowls of the capitals on top of the pillars.

¹⁴ He also crafted the stands and the basins that were placed on them, ¹⁵ and the Sea along with the twelve oxen beneath it.

¹⁶ The pails, the shovels, the forks, and all its utensils were made by Hiram-abi of polished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the Lord.

¹⁷ The king cast them in the clay ground on the plain of the Jordan, between Succoth and Zeredah.

¹⁸ So Solomon produced all these utensils in great quantities, for the weight of the bronze could not be determined.

¹⁹ Solomon also crafted all the items that were in the house of God:

the golden altar, the tables with the bread of the Presence on them, ²⁰ the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, to burn in front of the inner sanctuary according to the ordinance;

²¹ the blossoms, the lamps, and the tongs of gold, of the finest gold;

²² and the extinguishers, the bowls, the spoons, and the firepans of pure gold; and the entrance of the house, its inner doors for the Most Holy Place, and the doors of the house, that is, of the main room, made of gold.

5 Thus, all the work that Solomon completed for the house of the Lord was accomplished. And Solomon brought in the items that his father David had set apart— the silver, the gold, and all the utensils— and he placed them in the treasuries of the house of God.

² Then Solomon assembled to Jerusalem the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' households of the sons of Israel, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord from the city of David, which is Zion.

³ All the men of Israel gathered before the king at the feast, which took place in the seventh month.

⁴ Then all the elders of Israel arrived, and the Levites lifted the ark.

⁵ They brought up the ark, the tent of meeting, and all the holy utensils which were in the tent; the Levitical priests brought them up.

⁶ And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who were gathered with him before the ark were offering so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

⁷ Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the Lord to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, into the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim.

⁸ For the cherubim extended their wings over the place of the ark, so that the cherubim created a covering over the ark and its poles.

⁹ But the poles were so long that the ends of the poles of the ark could be seen in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen outside; and they are there to this day.

¹⁰ There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets which Moses placed there at Horeb, where the Lord established a covenant with the sons of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

¹¹ When the priests came out of the holy place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without regard to divisions),

2 Chronicles

¹² and all the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and relatives, clothed in fine linen, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, were standing east of the altar, and with them one hundred and twenty priests blowing trumpets—

¹³ in unison when the trumpeters and the singers were to make themselves heard with one voice to praise and to glorify the Lord, and when they raised their voices, accompanied by trumpets and cymbals and other instruments of music, and when they praised the Lord, saying,

“He indeed is good, for His mercy endures forever,” then the house, the house of the Lord, was filled with a cloud, ¹⁴ so that the priests could not stand to minister due to the cloud, for the glory of the Lord filled the house of God.

6 Then Solomon spoke, “The Lord has declared that He would reside in the thick cloud.

² I have constructed for You a grand house, And a place for Your eternal dwelling.”

³ Then the king turned and blessed all the assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel stood.

⁴ He proclaimed, “Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who spoke to my father David, and has accomplished it with His hands, saying,

⁵ ‘Since the day that I brought My people from the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house so that My name would be there, nor did I choose any man as a leader over My people Israel;

⁶ but I have chosen Jerusalem so that My name would be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.’

⁷ It was in the heart of my father David to construct a house for the name of the Lord, the God of Israel.

⁸ But the Lord said to my father David, ‘Because it was in your heart to build a house for My name, you did well to have this desire in your heart.

⁹ However, you shall not construct the house, but your son who will be born to you, he shall build the house for My name.’

¹⁰ Now the Lord has fulfilled His word which He spoke; for I have risen in place of my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and I have built the house for the name of the Lord, the God of Israel.

¹¹ And there I have placed the ark, in which is the covenant of the Lord, which He made with the sons of Israel.”

¹² Then he stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and extended his hands.

¹³ For Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the courtyard; and he stood on it, then knelt on his knees in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and extended his hands toward heaven.

¹⁴ He said, “Lord, God of Israel, there is no god like You in heaven or on the earth, keeping Your covenant and Your faithfulness to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart—

¹⁵ You who have kept with Your servant, my father David, that which You promised him; You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is today.

¹⁶ Now then, Lord, God of Israel, keep for Your servant, my father David, that which You have promised him, saying, ‘You shall not lack a man to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons take care of their way, to walk in My Law as you have walked before Me.’

¹⁷ Now then, Lord, God of Israel, let Your word which You have spoken to Your servant David be confirmed.

¹⁸ But will God truly dwell with mankind on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have constructed!

¹⁹ Yet, turn Your attention to the prayer of Your servant and to his plea, Lord my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant offers before You,

²⁰ so that Your eye will be open toward this house day and night, toward the place of which You have declared that You would put Your name there, to listen to the prayer which Your servant will pray toward this place.

2 Chronicles

²¹ And listen to the pleas of Your servant and Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place; hear from Your dwelling place, from heaven; hear and forgive.

²² If a person sins against his neighbour and is required to take an oath, and he comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this house, ²³ then hear from heaven and act, and judge Your servants, bringing justice to the wicked by bringing his way on his own head, and vindicating the righteous by rewarding him according to his righteousness.

²⁴ If Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and they return and confess Your name, and pray and plead with You in this house, ²⁵ then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and restore them to the land which You have given to them and to their fathers.

²⁶ When the heavens are closed and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin when You afflict them, ²⁷ then hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and Your people Israel, indeed, teach them the good way in which they are to walk; and send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

²⁸ If there is a famine in the land, if there is a plague, if there is blight or mildew, locust or grasshopper, if enemies besiege them in the land of their cities, whatever plague or sickness there is,

²⁹ whatever prayer or plea is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israel, each knowing his own affliction and his own pain, and extending his hands toward this house,

³⁰ then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and render to each according to all his ways, whose heart You know— for You alone know the hearts of the sons of mankind—

³¹ so that they may revere You, to walk in Your ways as long as they live in the land which You have given to our fathers.

³² Also concerning the foreigner who is not from Your people Israel, but comes from a distant country because of Your great name, and Your mighty hand, and Your outstretched arm— when they come and pray toward this house, ³³ then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, so that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, and revere You as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name.

³⁴ When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, in whatever direction You send them, and they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name, ³⁵ then hear from heaven their prayer and their pleading, and uphold their cause.

³⁶ When they sin against You (for there is no person who does not sin) and You are angry with them and turn them over to an enemy, so that they take them away captive to a land far or near,

³⁷ if they take it to heart in the land where they are taken captive, and repent and plead with You in the land of their captivity, saying, 'We have sinned, we have done wrong and have acted wickedly';

³⁸ if they return to You wholeheartedly and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been taken captive, and pray toward their land which You have given to their fathers, and the city which You have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Your name, ³⁹ then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, their prayer and their pleadings, and uphold their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

⁴⁰ Now, my God, let Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to the prayer offered in this place.

⁴¹ Now then arise, Lord God, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your strength; let Your priests,

2 Chronicles

Lord God, be clothed with salvation, and let Your faithful ones rejoice in goodness.

⁴² Lord God, do not turn away the face of Your anointed; remember Your steadfast love to Your servant David."

7 When Solomon concluded his prayer, fire descended from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the Lord filled the house.

² And the priests were unable to enter the house of the Lord because the glory of the Lord filled the Lord's house.

³ All the sons of Israel, seeing the fire come down and the glory of the Lord upon the house, bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshipped and gave praise to the Lord, saying,

"He certainly is good, for His mercy is everlasting."

⁴ Then the king and all the people presented offerings and sacrifices before the Lord.

⁵ King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen and 120,000 sheep. Thus, the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

⁶ The priests stood at their posts, and the Levites also, with the musical instruments of the Lord which King David had made for giving praise to the Lord—"For His mercy is everlasting"—whenever he gave praise by their means, while the priests on the other side blew trumpets, and all Israel was standing.

⁷ Then Solomon consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the house of the Lord, for he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings there because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to hold the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat.

⁸ So Solomon held the feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly from Lebo-hamath to the brook of Egypt.

⁹ And on the eighth day they held a festive assembly, for they celebrated the dedication of the altar for seven days, and the feast for seven days.

¹⁰ Then on the twenty-third day of the seventh month, he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and happy of heart because of the goodness that the Lord had shown to David, to Solomon, and to His people Israel.

¹¹ So Solomon finished the house of the Lord and the king's palace, and he successfully completed everything that he had planned on doing in the house of the Lord and in his palace.

¹² Then the Lord appeared to Solomon at night and said to him, "I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of offerings.

¹³ If I close the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to consume the land, or if I send a plague among My people, ¹⁴ and My people who are called by My name humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will restore their land.

¹⁵ Henceforth, My eyes shall be open and My ears attentive to the prayers made in this place.

¹⁶ For the present time, I have chosen and consecrated this house so that My name may reside there perpetually, and My eyes and My heart will remain there continually.

¹⁷ As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, and do according to everything that I have commanded you, and keep My statutes and My ordinances,

¹⁸ then I will establish your royal throne as I promised your father David, saying, 'You shall not lack a man to be ruler in Israel.'

¹⁹ However, should you turn away and abandon My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them, ²⁰ then I will remove you from My land which I have given you, and this house which I have consecrated for My name I will discard from My presence, and I will make it a proverb and an object of scorn among all peoples.

²¹ As for this house, which was exalted, everyone who passes by it will be appalled and say, 'Why has the Lord done these things to this land and to this house?'

2 Chronicles

²² And they will say, 'Because they abandoned the Lord, the God of their fathers who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and they adopted other gods and worshipped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this adversity on them.'

8 At the conclusion of the twenty years during which Solomon constructed the house of the Lord and his own residence, ² he established the cities that Hiram had given to him, and settled the sons of Israel there.

³ Solomon proceeded to Hamath-zobah and took control of it.

⁴ He developed Tadmor in the wilderness and all the storage cities he had established in Hamath.

⁵ He constructed both Upper Beth-horon and Lower Beth-horon, which were fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars;

⁶ and Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots and cities for his horsemen, and everything that it pleased Solomon to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land under his rule.

⁷ All the remaining people of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel—⁸ from their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel had not destroyed—Solomon imposed forced labour on them to this day.

⁹ But Solomon did not make slaves from the sons of Israel for his work; they were men of war, his chief captains, his officers, and the commanders of his chariots and his horsemen.

¹⁰ These were the principal officers of King Solomon, two hundred and fifty who governed the people.

¹¹ Then Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the city of David to the house which he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not live in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy where the ark of the Lord has entered."

¹² Solomon then made burnt offerings to the Lord on the altar of the Lord which he had constructed in front of the porch;

¹³ and he did so according to the daily rule, offering them up according to the commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths, the new moons, and the appointed feasts three times a year: the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Booths.

¹⁴ Now according to the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their duties of praise and ministering before the priests according to the daily rule, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate; for this was the command of David, the man of God.

¹⁵ And they adhered faithfully to the king's command to the priests and Levites in every matter, including the storehouses.

¹⁶ So all the work of Solomon was carried out from the day of the foundation of the house of the Lord, and until it was finished. So the house of the Lord was completed.

¹⁷ Solomon then travelled to Ezion-geber and to Elath on the seashore in the land of Edom.

¹⁸ And Hiram sent him ships by the hand of his servants, and servants who knew the sea. And they went with Solomon's servants to Ophir, and took from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought it to King Solomon.

9 Now when the queen of Sheba heard the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with riddles. She had a very large entourage, with camels carrying spices, a large amount of gold, and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about everything that was on her mind.

² Solomon addressed all her inquiries; there was nothing that Solomon did not clarify for her.

³ When the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

⁴ the food at his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his ministers and their attire, his cupbearers and their attire, and the stairway by which he went up to the house of the Lord, she was breathless.

2 Chronicles

⁵ Then she said to the king, "The report I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom was indeed true.

⁶ But I did not believe the report until I came and my eyes had seen it. And behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me! You exceed the report that I heard.

⁷ How fortunate are your men, how fortunate are these your servants who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom.

⁸ Blessed be the Lord your God who delighted in you, to put you on His throne as king for the Lord your God; because your God loved Israel, to establish them forever, He made you king over them, to carry out justice and righteousness."

⁹ Then she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and a very large amount of spices and precious stones. Never again did such spices come in, as those that the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹⁰ And the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, also brought algum trees and precious stones.

¹¹ From the algum trees the king made steps for the house of the Lord and for the king's palace, and lyres and harps for the singers; and nothing like them had been seen before in the land of Judah.

¹² King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba everything she desired, whatever she asked, besides what she had brought to the king. Then she turned and went to her own land with her servants.

¹³ Now the amount of gold that came to Solomon in one year was 666 talents of gold, ¹⁴ in addition to what the traders and merchants brought; and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

¹⁵ King Solomon crafted two hundred large shields of beaten gold, using six hundred shekels of beaten gold on each large shield.

¹⁶ He crafted three hundred shields of beaten gold, using three hundred shekels of gold on each shield; and the king placed them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

¹⁷ The king also fashioned a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold.

¹⁸ The throne had six steps, with a gold footstool attached to it, and arms on each side of the seat, with two lions standing beside the arms.

¹⁹ Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps on the one side and the other; nothing like it was made for any other kingdom.

²⁰ All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the utensils of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; silver was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon.

²¹ For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

²² Thus King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in wealth and wisdom.

²³ And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear the wisdom which God had placed in his heart.

²⁴ They were bringing, every man his gift: articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

²⁵ Solomon possessed four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; and he stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

²⁶ And he was the ruler over all the kings from the Euphrates River even to the land of the Philistines, and as far as the border of Egypt.

²⁷ The king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem, and he made cedars as plentiful as sycamore trees in the lowland.

²⁸ And horses were brought for Solomon from Egypt and from all countries.

²⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, from the beginning to the end, are they not written in the records of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

2 Chronicles

³⁸ Solomon's reign in Jerusalem over all Israel lasted for forty years.

³¹ And Solomon lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of his father David; and his son Rehoboam became king in his place.

10 Rehoboam travelled to Shechem, as all Israel had gathered there to proclaim him king.

² When Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard about it (for he was in Egypt where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

³ They sent for him, and when Jeroboam and all Israel arrived, they addressed Rehoboam, saying,

⁴ "Your father made our yoke hard; now therefore, lighten the hard labour imposed by your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

⁵ But he said to them, "Return to me again in three days." So the people departed.

⁶ Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, "How do you advise me to answer this people?"

⁷ They spoke to him, saying, "If you will be kind to this people and please them and speak pleasant words to them, then they will be your servants always."

⁸ But he abandoned the advice of the elders which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who grew up with him and served him.

⁹ So he said to them, "What advice do you give, that we should answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"

¹⁰ Then the young men who grew up with him spoke to him, saying, "This is what you should say to the people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter for us!' You shall say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist!'"

¹¹ Now then, my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, but I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions."

¹² Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had instructed, saying, "Return to me on the third day."

¹³ And the king answered them harshly, and King Rehoboam abandoned the advice of the elders.

¹⁴ He addressed them following the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions."

¹⁵ So the king did not listen to the people, because it was a turn of events from God so that the Lord would establish His word, which He had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶ When all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them, the people answered the king, saying,

"What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to your tents, Israel! Now look after your own house, David!"

So all Israel departed to their tents.

¹⁷ However, Rehoboam continued to reign over the Israelites who lived in the cities of Judah.

¹⁸ Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of the forced labour, and the sons of Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam hurried to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.

¹⁹ Thus, Israel has remained in opposition to the house of David up to the present time.

11 Upon Rehoboam's arrival in Jerusalem, he gathered the house of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen warriors, to wage war against Israel with the aim of restoring the kingdom to himself.

² However, a message from the Lord came to Shemaiah, the man of God, saying,

³ "Convey this message to Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin:

2 Chronicles

⁴ "This is what the Lord says: You shall not go up nor fight against your relatives; return, every man to his house, for this matter is from Me." So they listened to the words of the Lord and returned from going against Jeroboam.

⁵ Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and constructed cities for defence in Judah.

⁶ He established Bethlehem, Etam, and Tekoa,

⁷ along with Beth-zur, Soco, and Adullam,

⁸ as well as Gath, Mareshah, and Ziph,

⁹ and also Adoraim, Lachish, and Azekah,

¹⁰ including Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which were fortified cities in Judah and in Benjamin.

¹¹ He further fortified the strongholds, appointing officers and providing them with supplies of food, oil, and wine.

¹² He equipped every city with shields and spears, greatly strengthening them. Thus, he maintained control over Judah and Benjamin.

¹³ Moreover, the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel stood with him from all their territories.

¹⁴ For the Levites left their pasture lands and their possessions and came to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jeroboam and his sons had excluded them from serving as priests to the Lord.

¹⁵ He appointed for himself priests for the high places, for the goat demons and for the calves which he had made.

¹⁶ Those from all the tribes of Israel who were devoted to seeking the Lord God of Israel followed them to Jerusalem, to offer sacrifices to the Lord God of their ancestors.

¹⁷ They fortified the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, for three years, as they followed the ways of David and Solomon during that time.

¹⁸ Rehoboam married Mahalath, the daughter of Jerimoth, son of David, and Abihail, daughter of Eliab, son of Jesse.

¹⁹ She gave birth to his sons: Jeush, Shemariah, and Zham.

²⁰ After her, he married Maacah, the daughter of Absalom, and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

²¹ Rehoboam cherished Maacah, the daughter of Absalom, more than all his other wives and concubines. He had taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

²² Rehoboam designated Abijah, the son of Maacah, as the chief and leader among his brothers, intending to make him king.

²³ He acted wisely and distributed some of his sons to all the regions of Judah and Benjamin, to all the fortified cities. And he provided them with abundant provisions and sought many wives for them.

12 When Rehoboam's kingdom was established and became strong, he and all Israel with him turned away from the law of the Lord.

² In the fifth year of King Rehoboam's reign, because they had been unfaithful to the Lord, Shishak, king of Egypt, advanced against Jerusalem.

³ He came with 1,200 chariots, 60,000 horsemen, and countless people who accompanied him from Egypt: the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians.

⁴ He seized the fortified cities of Judah and proceeded towards Jerusalem.

⁵ Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and he said to them, "This is what the Lord says: 'You have abandoned Me, so I also have abandoned you to Shishak.'"

⁶ Therefore, the leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves and declared, "The Lord is righteous."

⁷ When the Lord saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves, so I will not destroy them; and I will grant them a little deliverance, and My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by means of Shishak.

⁸ However, they will serve him, so that they may understand the difference between serving Me and serving the kingdoms of other lands."

2 Chronicles

⁹ So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and he took the treasures of the house of the Lord and the treasures of the king's house. He took everything. He also took the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

¹⁰ Then King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place and entrusted them to the care of the commanders of the guard who guarded the entrance of the king's house.

¹¹ And whenever the king entered the house of the Lord, the guards came and carried them back to the guards' room.

¹² And when he humbled himself, the anger of the Lord turned away from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and conditions also were good in Judah.

¹³ So King Rehoboam grew strong in Jerusalem and reigned. Now Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the Lord had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

¹⁴ He acted wickedly because he did not set his heart to seek the Lord.

¹⁵ Are not the acts of Rehoboam, from the first to the last, recorded in the writings of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, according to genealogical records? And there were constant wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

¹⁶ Rehoboam rested with his ancestors and was buried in the city of David; and his son Abijah succeeded him as king.

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam's reign, Abijah began his reign of Judah.

² He reigned for three years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

³ Abijah began the battle with an army of valiant warriors, four hundred thousand chosen men, while Jeroboam drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, valiant warriors.

⁴ Abijah took his stand on Mount Zemaraim, located in the hill country of Ephraim, and proclaimed, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

⁵ Are you not aware that the Lord God of Israel granted the kingship over Israel to David and his descendants forever through a binding covenant?

⁶ However, Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had served Solomon son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord, ⁷ and men of low character gathered to him, unrighteous men, who proved too strong for Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, when he was young and hesitant and could not withstand them.

⁸ So now you intend to assert yourselves against the kingdom of the Lord through the sons of David, being a great multitude and having with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made for gods for you.

⁹ Have you not driven out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves like the peoples of the lands? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a bull and seven rams, even he may become a priest of what are not gods.

¹⁰ But as for us, the Lord is our God, and we have not abandoned Him. The sons of Aaron are ministering to the Lord as priests, and the Levites are at their work.

¹¹ Every morning and evening they burn burnt offerings and fragrant incense to the Lord, and the showbread is set on the pure table, and the golden lampstand with its lamps is ready to burn every evening; for we keep the responsibility given by the Lord our God, but you have abandoned Him.

¹² Now behold, God is with us at our head, and His priests with the signal trumpets to sound the alarm against you. Sons of Israel, do not fight against the Lord God of your fathers, for you will not succeed."

¹³ However, Jeroboam had arranged an ambush to come from behind, so that Israel was positioned in front of Judah, and the ambush was at their rear.

¹⁴ When Judah turned around, behold, they were attacked both front and rear; so they cried out to the Lord, and the priests blew the trumpets.

2 Chronicles

¹⁵ Then the men of Judah raised a war cry, and as they did so, God defeated Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

¹⁶ So the sons of Israel fled before Judah, and God handed them over to them.

¹⁷ Abijah and his people struck them with a mighty blow, so that five hundred thousand chosen men of Israel fell.

¹⁸ So the sons of Israel were subdued at that time, and the sons of Judah prevailed because they trusted in the Lord, the God of their fathers.

¹⁹ Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured cities from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephron with its villages.

²⁰ Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah; and the Lord struck him and he died.

²¹ But Abijah grew in strength; and he took fourteen wives for himself and fathered twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

²² Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways and his words, are written in the treatise of the prophet Iddo.

14 Abijah passed away and was laid to rest in the city of David; his son Asa succeeded him as king. The land experienced peace for ten years during his reign.

² Asa acted in a manner that was both pleasing and righteous before the Lord God,

³ for he eliminated the foreign altars and high places, dismantled the memorial stones, and cut down the Asherim, ⁴ and instructed Judah to seek the Lord God of their ancestors and to follow the Law and the commandment.

⁵ He also removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah, and the kingdom enjoyed peace under his rule.

⁶ He constructed fortified cities in Judah, as the land was at peace, and there was no conflict during those years, for the Lord had granted him rest.

⁷ For he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and encircle them with walls and towers, gates and bars. The land remains ours because we have sought the Lord our God; we have sought Him, and He has granted us peace on every side." So they built and prospered.

⁸ Now Asa had an army of 300,000 from Judah, bearing large shields and spears, and 280,000 from Benjamin, bearing shields and drawing bows; all of them were valiant warriors.

⁹ Now Zerah the Ethiopian went out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came as far as Mareshah.

¹⁰ Asa went out to confront him, and they arranged themselves in battle formation in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

¹¹ Then Asa called to the Lord his God and said, "Lord, there is no one besides You to help in the battle between the powerful and those who have no strength; so help us, Lord our God, for we trust in You, and in Your name have come against this multitude. Lord, You are our God; let no man prevail against You."

¹² The Lord defeated the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

¹³ Asa and the people who were with him pursued them as far as Gerar; and so many Ethiopians fell that none of them were found alive, for they were broken before the Lord and His army. And they carried away a very large amount of plunder.

¹⁴ They destroyed all the cities around Gerar, for the terror of the Lord had fallen on them; and they plundered all the cities, for there was much plunder in them.

¹⁵ They also fatally struck those who owned livestock, and they carried away large numbers of sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

15 The Spirit of God descended upon Azariah, the son of Oded, ² He approached Asa and said, "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: the Lord is with you when you are with Him. If you seek Him, He will allow you to find Him; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you.

³ For a long time, Israel was without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without the Law.

2 Chronicles

⁴ Yet in their distress, they turned to the Lord God of Israel, and they sought Him, and He allowed them to find Him.

⁵ During those times, there was no peace for those who went out or came in, because many disturbances troubled all the inhabitants of the lands.

⁶ Nation clashed against nation, and city against city, for God troubled them with various kinds of distress.

⁷ But you, take courage and do not lose heart, for there is a reward for your work."

⁸ When Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded the prophet, he took courage and removed the detestable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. He then restored the altar of the Lord that was in front of the porch of the Lord.

⁹ And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who resided with them, for many had deserted to him from Israel when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.

¹⁰ Thus, they gathered at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign.

¹¹ They sacrificed to the Lord on that day seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep from the plunder they had brought.

¹² They entered into a covenant to seek the Lord God of their fathers with all their heart and soul;

¹³ and those who did not seek the Lord God of Israel faced severe consequences, regardless of their status or gender.

¹⁴ Furthermore, they made a solemn oath to the Lord with a loud voice, accompanied by shouting, trumpets, and horns.

¹⁵ All Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn with their whole heart and had sought Him earnestly, and He allowed them to find Him. So the Lord gave them rest on every side.

¹⁶ He also removed Maacah, the mother of King Asa, from her position as queen mother, because she had made an offensive image as an Asherah, and Asa cut down her image, crushed it, and burned it at the brook Kidron.

¹⁷ But the high places were not removed from Israel; nevertheless, Asa's heart was fully devoted all his days.

¹⁸ And he brought into the house of God the holy things of his father and his own holy things: silver, gold, and utensils.

¹⁹ And there was peace until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

16 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and fortified Ramah, to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah.

² Asa took silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the Lord and the king's house, and sent them to Ben-hadad king of Aram, who resided in Damascus, with this message,

³ "There is a treaty between you and me, as between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold; go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me."

⁴ So Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, and they struck Ijon, Dan, Abel-maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali.

⁵ When Baasha heard about it, he stopped fortifying Ramah and abandoned his work.

⁶ King Asa then gathered all Judah, and they took away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had been building, and with these materials he fortified Geba and Mizpah.

⁷ At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, "Because you have relied on the king of Aram and have not relied on the Lord your God, therefore the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand.

⁸ Did not the Ethiopians and the Lubim possess a vast army with numerous chariots and horsemen? Yet because you trusted in the Lord, He delivered them into your hands.

2 Chronicles

⁹ For the eyes of the Lord move throughout the earth, that He may strongly support those whose heart is fully His. You have acted unwisely in this; indeed, from now on you will face wars."

¹⁰ Then Asa was furious with the seer and placed him in prison, for he was incensed at him for this. And Asa also oppressed some of the people at that time.

¹¹ The deeds of Asa, from beginning to end, are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

¹² In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa suffered from a disease in his feet. His condition was severe, yet even in his illness he did not seek the Lord, but turned to the physicians.

¹³ So Asa lay down with his fathers. He died in the forty-first year of his reign.

¹⁴ They buried him in his own tomb which he had cut out for himself in the city of David, and they laid him on the resting place which he had filled with spices of various kinds blended by the perfumer's art; and they made a very great fire for him.

17 Jehoshaphat his son then became king in his place, and he proved himself strong over Israel.

² He placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and stationed garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which his father Asa had captured.

³ The Lord was with Jehoshaphat because he followed the ways of his ancestor David in his earlier days and did not pursue the Baals, ⁴ but sought the God of his father, adhered to His commandments, and did not behave as Israel did.

⁵ Thus, the Lord firmly established the kingdom under his rule, and all Judah brought gifts to Jehoshaphat, and he enjoyed great wealth and honour.

⁶ And he took great pride in the ways of the Lord, and again removed the high places and the Asherim from Judah.

⁷ In the third year of his reign, he sent his officials—Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah—to provide instruction in the cities of Judah;

⁸ and with them the Levites, Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah—Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, priests.

⁹ And they taught in Judah, and they had the Book of the Law of the Lord with them; and they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught among the people.

¹⁰ Now the dread of the Lord was on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they did not fight against Jehoshaphat.

¹¹ And some of the Philistines brought gifts and silver as tribute to Jehoshaphat. The Arabs also brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.

¹² Jehoshaphat continued to grow in power, and he built fortresses and storage cities in Judah.

¹³ He had abundant supplies in the cities of Judah, and warriors, valiant men of strength, in Jerusalem.

¹⁴ This was their muster according to their fathers' households:

of Judah, commanders of thousands: Adnah the commander, and with him 300,000 valiant warriors;

¹⁵ and next to him, Johanan the commander, and with him 280,000;

¹⁶ and next to him, Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself for the Lord, and with him 200,000 valiant warriors;

¹⁷ and of Benjamin: Eliada, a valiant warrior, and with him 200,000 equipped with bow and shield;

¹⁸ and next to him, Jehozabad, and with him 180,000 prepared for war.

¹⁹ These are the ones who served the king, in addition to those whom the king stationed in the fortified cities throughout Judah.

2 Chronicles

18 Jehoshaphat possessed abundant wealth and honour; and he formed a marriage alliance with Ahab.

² Some years later he went down to Ahab in Samaria. And Ahab slaughtered many sheep and oxen for him and the people who were with him, and he induced him to go up against Ramoth-gilead.

³ Ahab, king of Israel, asked Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, "Will you join me in battle against Ramoth-gilead?" And he replied, "I am as you are, and my people as your people, and we will stand with you in the battle."

⁴ Jehoshaphat, however, said to the king of Israel, "Let us first seek the counsel of the Lord."

⁵ So the king of Israel assembled the prophets, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain?" And they said, "Go up, for God will hand it over to the king."

⁶ But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no longer a prophet of the Lord here, so that we may inquire of him?"

⁷ Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may inquire of the Lord, but I hate him, because he never prophesies anything good regarding me, but only bad. He is Micaiah, son of Imla." But Jehoshaphat said, "May the king not say so."

⁸ Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, "Bring Micaiah son of Imla quickly."

⁹ Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, dressed in their robes, and they were sitting at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

¹⁰ Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah crafted horns of iron for himself and declared, "This is what the Lord says: 'With these you will gore the Arameans until they are vanquished!'"

¹¹ All the prophets were prophesying this as well, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed, for the Lord will hand it over to the king."

¹² Then the messenger who went to summon Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Behold, the words of the prophets are unanimously favourable to the king. So please let your word be like one of them, and speak favourably."

¹³ But Micaiah said, "As surely as the Lord lives, I will speak whatever my God says."

¹⁴ When he came to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to battle against Ramoth-gilead, or shall I refrain?" He said, "Go up and succeed, for they will be handed over to you!"

¹⁵ Then the king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear that you will not tell me anything but the truth in the name of the Lord?"

¹⁶ So he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd; and the Lord said, 'These have no master. Each of them is to return to his house in peace.'"

¹⁷ Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not say to you that he would not prophesy anything good regarding me, but only bad?"

¹⁸ Micaiah said, "Therefore, hear the word of the Lord. I saw the Lord sitting on His throne, and all the angels of heaven standing on His right and on His left.

¹⁹ And the Lord said, 'Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' And one said this, while another said that.

²⁰ Then a spirit came forward and stood before the Lord and said, 'I will persuade him.' And the Lord said to him, 'In what way?'

²¹ He said, 'I will go and be a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' Then He said, 'You shall entice him, and you will also prevail. Go and do so.'

²² Now then, behold, the Lord has put a deceiving spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; for the Lord has proclaimed disaster against you."

²³ Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came up and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, "How did the Spirit of the Lord pass from me to speak to you?"

²⁴ Micaiah said, "Behold, you are going to see on that day when you go from one inner room to another to hide yourself."

2 Chronicles

²⁵ Then the king of Israel commanded, "Take Micaiah back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son,

²⁶ and say, 'This is what the king says: "Put this man in prison, and feed him only bread and water until I return safely.'"

²⁷ But Micaiah said, "If you indeed return safely, the Lord has not spoken by me." And he said, "Listen, all you people!"

²⁸ Thus, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, proceeded to Ramoth-gilead.

²⁹ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you put on your royal attire." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.

³⁰ Now the king of Aram had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, "Do not fight with anyone small or great, except the king of Israel alone."

³¹ So when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "It is the king of Israel!" And they turned to fight against him, but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the Lord helped him, and God diverted them from him.

³² When the captains of the chariots realised it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

³³ Now a man drew his bow at random and struck the king of Israel in a joint of the armour. So he said to the driver of the chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am severely wounded."

³⁴ The battle raged on that day, and the king of Israel held himself up in his chariot against the Arameans until the evening; and at sunset he died.

19 Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, arrived safely back at his house in Jerusalem.

² And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the Lord, and so bring wrath on yourself from the Lord?"

³ But there is some good in you, for you have removed the Asherah poles from the land, and you have set your heart to seek God."

⁴ Jehoshaphat resided in Jerusalem, and he went out once more among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and guided them back to the Lord, the God of their ancestors.

⁵ He established judges throughout the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, one city at a time.

⁶ He addressed the judges, saying, "Be mindful of your actions, for you do not judge for mankind but for the Lord, who is with you in your judgments.

⁷ Now then, let the fear of the Lord be upon you; be careful what you do, for there is no injustice with the Lord our God, or partiality, or taking of a bribe."

⁸ In Jerusalem also Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites, priests, and heads of the fathers' households of Israel, for the judgment of the Lord and to judge disputes among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

⁹ He instructed them, saying, "This is how you shall act in the fear of the Lord, with faithfulness and sincerity.

¹⁰ Whenever any dispute comes to you from your brothers who live in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, you are to warn them so that they do not become guilty before the Lord, and wrath may not come on you and your brothers. This is what you shall do, and you will not incur guilt.

¹¹ And behold, Amariah the chief priest will be over you in all that pertains to the Lord, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all that pertains to the king. Also the Levites shall be officers before you. Act resolutely, and may the Lord be with the upright."

20 After these events, the sons of Moab and the sons of Ammon, along with some of the Meunites, came to wage war against Jehoshaphat.

² Messengers came and informed Jehoshaphat, saying, "A vast army is approaching you from beyond the sea, from Aram; and behold, they are in Hazazon-tamar (that is Engedi)."

2 Chronicles

³ Jehoshaphat was afraid and turned his attention to seek the Lord; and he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

⁴ Thus, Judah assembled to seek help from the Lord; people even came from all the cities of Judah to seek the Lord.

⁵ Jehoshaphat then stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the Lord before the new courtyard, ⁶ and he said, "Lord, God of our ancestors, are You not God in the heavens? And do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in Your hand, and no one can withstand You.

⁷ Did You not, our God, expel the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and give it to the descendants of Your friend Abraham forever?

⁸ They have settled in it and have constructed a sanctuary for Your Name, saying,

⁹ 'If disaster comes upon us, whether by sword, judgment, plague, or famine, we will stand before this house and before You (for Your name is in this house), and cry out to You in our distress, and You will hear and deliver us.'

¹⁰ Now behold, the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, whom You did not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt (for they turned aside from them and did not destroy them), ¹¹ see how they are repaying us by coming to drive us out from Your possession, which You have given us as an inheritance.

¹² Our God, will You not judge them? For we are powerless before this great multitude who are coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are on You."

¹³ All Judah stood before the Lord, with their infants, their wives, and their children.

¹⁴ Then, while the assembly was gathered, the Spirit of the Lord came upon Jahaziel, son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph;

¹⁵ and he said, "Listen, all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat: this is what the Lord says to you: 'Do not fear or be dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours but God's.

¹⁶ Tomorrow, go down against them. Behold, they will ascend by the ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the valley in front of the wilderness of Jeruel.

¹⁷ You need not fight in this battle; take your position, stand firm and see the deliverance of the Lord on your behalf, Judah and Jerusalem. Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow, go out to face them, for the Lord is with you."

¹⁸ Jehoshaphat bowed his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before the Lord, worshipping the Lord.

¹⁹ The Levites, from the descendants of the Kohathites and the Korahites, stood up to praise the Lord God of Israel with a very loud voice.

²⁰ They got up early in the morning and went out to the wilderness of Tekoa; and when they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: Put your trust in the Lord your God and you will endure. Put your trust in His prophets, and succeed."

²¹ After consulting with the people, he appointed those who sang to the Lord and those who praised Him in holy attire, as they went out before the army and said,

"Give thanks to the Lord, for His faithfulness is everlasting."

²² As they began singing and praising, the Lord set ambushes against the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; so they were struck down.

²³ For the sons of Ammon and Moab rose up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, completely destroying them; and when they had finished with the inhabitants of Seir, they turned on each other and destroyed one another.

²⁴ When Judah came to the watchtower of the wilderness, they turned toward the multitude, and behold, there were corpses lying on the ground, and no one had escaped.

2 Chronicles

²⁵ When Jehoshaphat and his people came to gather the spoils, they found much among them, including goods, garments, and valuable things which they took for themselves, more than they could carry. And they were collecting the spoils for three days because there was so much.

²⁶ Then on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, for there they blessed the Lord. Therefore they named that place “The Valley of Beracah” until today.

²⁷ Every man of Judah and Jerusalem returned with Jehoshaphat at their head, returning to Jerusalem with joy, for the Lord had made them rejoice over their enemies.

²⁸ They entered Jerusalem with harps, lyres, and trumpets, proceeding to the house of the Lord.

²⁹ And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that the Lord had fought against the enemies of Israel.

³⁰ So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace, for his God granted him rest on all sides.

³¹ Jehoshaphat began his reign over Judah at the age of thirty-five. He ruled in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. His mother was Azubah, daughter of Shilhi.

³² He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not deviate from it, doing what was right in the sight of the Lord.

³³ Only, the high places were not removed; the people still had not directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.

³⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, from the first to the last, behold, they are written in the annals of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

³⁵ After this, Jehoshaphat king of Judah formed an alliance with Ahaziah king of Israel. He acted wickedly in doing so.

³⁶ Thus, he allied himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they constructed the ships in Ezion-geber.

³⁷ Eliezer, son of Dodavahu of Mareshah, prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, “Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the Lord has destroyed your works.” As a result, the ships were broken and could not go to Tarshish.

21 Jehoshaphat passed away and was laid to rest with his ancestors in the city of David, and his son Jehoram succeeded him as king.

² Jehoram had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah. All these were the sons of Jehoshaphat, king of Israel.

³ Their father gave them many gifts of silver, gold, and valuable things, with fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the firstborn.

⁴ Now when Jehoram had taken over the kingdom of his father and gathered strength for himself, he killed all his brothers with the sword, and some of the leaders of Israel as well.

⁵ Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for eight years in Jerusalem.

⁶ He followed the practices of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab did (for Ahab’s daughter was his wife), and he did what was evil in the eyes of the Lord.

⁷ Yet the Lord chose not to destroy the house of David because of the covenant He had made with David, and since He had promised to maintain a lamp for him and his sons forever.

⁸ In his days Edom revolted from under the authority of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

⁹ Then Jehoram crossed over with his commanders and all his chariots, and he got up at night and struck down the Edomites who were surrounding him and the commanders of the chariots.

¹⁰ So Edom revolted against Judah to this day. Then Libnah also revolted at that time from his authority, because he had abandoned the Lord God of his fathers.

¹¹ Moreover, he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves, and led Judah astray.

2 Chronicles

¹² Afterwards, a message came to him from Elijah the prophet, declaring, "This is what the Lord, the God of your ancestor David, proclaims: 'Because you have not followed the ways of your father Jehoshaphat and the ways of Asa king of Judah,

¹³ but have followed the practices of the kings of Israel, and have caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves as the house of Ahab did, and you have also killed your brothers, your own family, who were better than you,

¹⁴ behold, the Lord is going to strike your people, your sons, your wives, and all your possessions with a great catastrophe;

¹⁵ and you will suffer great pain from a disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out because of the disease, day by day.'"

¹⁶ Then the Lord incited against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabs who bordered the Ethiopians;

¹⁷ and they came up against Judah, invaded it, and took away all the possessions that were found in the king's house, together with his sons and his wives, so that no son was left to him except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

¹⁸ So after all this, the Lord struck him in his intestines with an incurable disease.

¹⁹ Now it came about in the course of time, at the end of two years, that his intestines came out because of his disease and he died in great pain. And his people made no fire for him like the fire for his fathers.

²⁰ He was thirty-two years old when he began his reign, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eight years; and he departed with no one's regret. And they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

22 The people of Jerusalem appointed Ahaziah, his youngest son, as king in his place, because the group of men who came with the Arabs to the camp had killed all the older sons. Thus, Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, became king.

² Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for one year in Jerusalem. His mother was Athaliah, a descendant of Omri.

³ He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counsellor to act wickedly.

⁴ And he did evil in the sight of the Lord like the house of Ahab, for they were his counsellors after the death of his father, to his destruction.

⁵ He also followed their advice, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to wage war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-gilead. But the Arameans wounded Joram.

⁶ And he returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which they had inflicted on him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

⁷ Now the downfall of Ahaziah was from God, in that he went to Joram. For when he came, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the Lord had anointed to eliminate the house of Ahab.

⁸ And it came about, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the leaders of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers ministering to Ahaziah, and he killed them.

⁹ Then he searched for Ahaziah, and they caught him while he was hiding in Samaria. They brought him to Jehu, put him to death, and buried him, for they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the Lord with all his heart." So there was no one of the house of Ahaziah to retain the power of the kingdom.

¹⁰ When Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, realised her son was dead, she rose and destroyed all the royal children of the house of Judah.

¹¹ But Jehoshabeath, the king's daughter, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the king's sons who were being put to death, and placed him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram and wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah so that she would not put him to death.

2 Chronicles

¹² And he kept hidden with them in the house of God for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

23 Now in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and he took captains of hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, and they entered into a covenant with him.

² They travelled throughout Judah and assembled the Levites from all the cities of Judah, along with the leaders of the families of Israel, and they gathered in Jerusalem.

³ Then all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And Jehoiada said to them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the Lord has spoken regarding the sons of David.

⁴ This is what you are to do: one third of you, the priests and Levites who come in on the Sabbath, shall act as gatekeepers,

⁵ and one third shall be at the king's house, and one third at the Gate of the Foundation; and all the people shall be in the courtyards of the house of the Lord.

⁶ But no one is to enter the house of the Lord except the priests and the ministering Levites; they may enter, for they are holy. And all the people shall keep the watch of the Lord.

⁷ And the Levites will surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever enters the house shall be put to death. And you are to be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out."

⁸ So the Levites and all Judah did in accordance with everything that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And they each took his men who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss any of the divisions.

⁹ Then Jehoiada the priest gave the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had been King David's, which were in the house of God.

¹⁰ He positioned all the people, each man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, surrounding the king.

¹¹ Then they brought out the king's son and placed the crown upon him, and handed him the testimony, and proclaimed him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and declared, "Long live the king!"

¹² When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and celebrating the king, she entered the house of the Lord to the people.

¹³ And she looked, and behold, the king was standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpeters were beside the king. And all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, the singers with musical instruments leading the praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and said, "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!"

¹⁴ Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were appointed over the army and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks; and whoever follows her shall be put to death with the sword." For the priest said, "She is not to be put to death in the house of the Lord."

¹⁵ So they captured her, and when she reached the entrance of the Horse Gate of the king's house, they executed her there.

¹⁶ Then Jehoiada established a covenant between himself, all the people, and the king, that they would be the Lord's people.

¹⁷ And all the people went to the house of Baal and tore it down, and they smashed its altars and its images to pieces, and they killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.

¹⁸ Moreover, Jehoiada placed the oversight of the house of the Lord in the hands of the Levitical priests, whom David had assigned over the house of the Lord, to offer the burnt offerings of the Lord, as it is written in the Law of Moses—with rejoicing and singing according to the order of David.

¹⁹ He stationed gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the Lord, so that no one would enter who was in any way unclean.

2 Chronicles

²⁸ He took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the Lord, and they came through the upper gate to the king's house, and they placed the king upon the royal throne.

²¹ So all the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet. For they had put Athaliah to death with the sword.

24 Joash was seven years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for forty years in Jerusalem; his mother was Zibiah from Beersheba.

² Joash acted rightly in the eyes of the Lord throughout the lifetime of Jehoiada the priest.

³ Jehoiada arranged two marriages for him, and he became the father of sons and daughters.

⁴ After these events, Joash resolved to restore the temple of the Lord.

⁵ And he gathered the priests and Levites and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair the house of your God annually, and you shall do the work quickly." But the Levites did not act quickly.

⁶ So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the collection prescribed by Moses the servant of the Lord for the tent of the testimony?"

⁷ For the sons of the wicked Athaliah had broken into the temple of God, and even used the sacred items of the house of the Lord for the Baals.

⁸ So the king commanded, and they constructed a chest and placed it outside by the gate of the temple of the Lord.

⁹ And they made a proclamation in Judah and Jerusalem to bring to the Lord the collection that Moses the servant of God had imposed on Israel in the wilderness.

¹⁰ All the officers and all the people rejoiced and brought in their contributions and dropped them into the chest until they had finished.

¹¹ Whenever the chest was brought in to the king's officer by the Levites, and when they saw that there was a large amount of money, the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer would come and empty the chest, then take it and return it to its place. They did this daily, and collected a large amount of money.

¹² The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the Lord. And they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the Lord, and also craftsmen in iron and bronze to repair the house of the Lord.

¹³ So the workmen laboured, and the restoration work progressed in their hands, and they restored the house of God according to its specifications, and strengthened it.

¹⁴ When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, and it was made into utensils for the house of the Lord—utensils for the service and for the burnt offering, and pans and utensils of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the Lord continually all the days of Jehoiada.

¹⁵ But Jehoiada grew old and died, being full of days; he was 130 years old at his death.

¹⁶ And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done well in Israel and for God and His house.

¹⁷ However, after Jehoiada's death, the officials of Judah came and bowed down to the king, and the king heeded their advice.

¹⁸ They abandoned the house of the Lord, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols; so wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this guilt of theirs.

¹⁹ Nevertheless, prophets were sent to them to bring them back to the Lord; though they testified against them, they would not listen.

²⁰ Then the Spirit of God came on Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people and said to them, "This is what God has said: 'Why do you break the commandments of the Lord and do not prosper? Because you have abandoned the Lord, He has also abandoned you.'"

2 Chronicles

²¹ So they plotted against him, and by the king's command, they stoned him to death in the courtyard of the temple of the Lord.

²² So King Joash did not remember the kindness which his father Jehoiada had shown him, but he killed his son. And as he was dying, he said, "May the Lord see and avenge!"

²³ At the beginning of the year, the army of the Arameans came up against Joash, and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, destroyed all the officials of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoils to the king of Damascus.

²⁴ Indeed, the army of the Arameans came with a small number of men; yet the Lord handed over a very great army to them, because they had abandoned the Lord, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment on Joash.

²⁵ When they had left him—because they left him very sick—his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest, and they murdered him on his bed. So he died, and they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

²⁶ These were the ones who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

²⁷ As to his sons, the many oracles against him, and the restoration of the house of God, behold, they are written in the treatise of the Book of the Kings. Then his son Amaziah became king in his place.

25 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

² He did what was right in the sight of the Lord, yet not with a whole heart.

³ Now it came about, as soon as the kingdom was firmly in his grasp, that he executed his servants who had killed his father the king.

⁴ However, he did not execute their sons, but acted in accordance with what is written in the Law, in the Book of Moses, which the Lord commanded, saying, "Fathers shall not be put to death for sons, nor sons be put to death for fathers, but each shall die for his own sin."

⁵ Moreover, Amaziah assembled Judah and appointed them by fathers' households under commanders of thousands and of hundreds throughout Judah and Benjamin; and he took a census of those from twenty years old and upward, and found them to be 300,000 choice men, able to go to war and handle spear and shield.

⁶ He also engaged a hundred thousand brave warriors from Israel for a hundred talents of silver.

⁷ However, a man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the Lord is not with Israel, nor with any of the sons of Ephraim.

⁸ But if you do go, do it, be strong for the battle—yet God will bring you down before the enemy, for God has power to help and to bring down."

⁹ Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what are we to do about the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?" And the man of God answered, "The Lord has much more to provide you than this."

¹⁰ Then Amaziah dismissed the troops who had come to him from Ephraim, to go home; so their anger burned against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger.

¹¹ Now Amaziah gathered his courage and led his people out, and he went to the Valley of Salt and struck the sons of Seir, 10,000 of them.

¹² The sons of Judah also captured 10,000 alive and brought them to the top of the cliff, and cast them down from the top of the cliff so that they were all dashed to pieces.

¹³ But the troops whom Amaziah had sent back, those not going with him to battle, raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth-horon, and struck 3,000 of them and plundered a great deal of spoil.

¹⁴ After Amaziah returned from defeating the Edomites, he brought the gods of the sons of Seir, set them up as his gods, bowed down before them, and burned incense to them.

2 Chronicles

¹⁵ Then the anger of the Lord burned against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, "Why have you sought the gods of the people who have not saved their own people from your hand?"

¹⁶ As he was speaking to him, the king said, "Who appointed you as a royal counsellor? Stop speaking! Or you will be struck down!" Then the prophet stopped and said, "I know that God has planned to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel."

¹⁷ Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent word to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face each other in combat."

¹⁸ But Joash king of Israel sent a reply to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thorn bush that was in Lebanon sent word to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' But a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thorn bush.

¹⁹ You have said, 'See, you have conquered Edom.' And your heart has become proud in your boasting. Now remain at home; for why should you incite trouble that would lead to your downfall, and that of Judah with you?"

²⁰ But Amaziah would not listen, because it was from God, so that He might hand them over, because they had sought the gods of Edom.

²¹ So Joash king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

²² And Judah was overcome by Israel, and they fled, each man to his tent.

²³ Then Joash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, a distance of 400 cubits.

²⁴ And he took all the gold, silver, and all the utensils which were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages as well, and returned to Samaria.

²⁵ And Amaziah, the son of Joash, king of Judah, continued to live for fifteen years after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

²⁶ Now the remainder of the acts of Amaziah, from the first to the last, behold, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

²⁷ From the time that Amaziah turned away from following the Lord, they conspired against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent men to Lachish after him, and they killed him there.

²⁸ Afterwards, they brought him back on horses and laid him to rest with his ancestors in the city of Judah.

26 The people of Judah chose Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and appointed him king in place of his father Amaziah.

² He rebuilt Eloth and returned it to Judah after the king was laid to rest with his ancestors.

³ Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

⁴ He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, following all that his father Amaziah had done.

⁵ He continued to seek God during the days of Zechariah, who had insight through the visions of God; and as long as he sought the Lord, God granted him success.

⁶ He went out and fought against the Philistines and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the area of Ashdod and among the Philistines.

⁷ God supported him against the Philistines, and against the Arabs who lived in Gurbaal, and the Meunites.

⁸ The Ammonites also paid tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread to the border of Egypt, for he became exceedingly strong.

⁹ Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress, and fortified them.

¹⁰ He constructed towers in the wilderness and dug many wells, for he had much livestock, both in the lowland and the plain. He also had farmers and vinedressers in the hill country and fertile fields, for he loved the soil.

2 Chronicles

¹¹ Moreover, Uzziah had an army ready for battle, which entered combat by divisions according to the number of their muster, as recorded by the scribe Jeiel and the official Maaseiah, under the direction of Hananiah, one of the king's officers.

¹² The total number of the leaders of the families, valiant warriors, was 2,600.

¹³ Under their command was a formidable army of 307,500, who could engage in battle with great strength to assist the king against adversaries.

¹⁴ Moreover, Uzziah equipped the entire army with shields, spears, helmets, body armour, bows, and sling stones.

¹⁵ He made skillfully designed devices in Jerusalem to be on the towers and on the corners, for the purpose of shooting arrows and great stones. And his fame spread far, for he was marvellously helped until he was strong.

¹⁶ But when he became strong, his heart was proud, leading to his downfall, and he was unfaithful to the Lord his God, for he entered the temple of the Lord to burn incense on the altar of incense.

¹⁷ Then Azariah the priest followed him in, and with him were eighty priests of the Lord, courageous men.

¹⁸ They confronted King Uzziah and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the Lord, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron who have been consecrated to burn incense. Leave the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful and will have no honour from the Lord God."

¹⁹ But Uzziah, with a censer in his hand for burning incense, was furious; and while he was angry with the priests, leprosy appeared on his forehead before the priests in the house of the Lord, beside the altar of incense.

²⁰ Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and behold, he was leprous on his forehead; and they hurried him out of there, and he himself also hurried to leave, because the Lord had afflicted him.

²¹ King Uzziah was a leper until the day of his death; and he lived in a separate house, being a leper, for he was cut off from the house of the Lord. And his son Jotham was in charge of the king's house, judging the people of the land.

²² Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from the beginning to the end, were recorded by the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz.

²³ So Uzziah was laid to rest with his ancestors, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the grave which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." And his son Jotham became king in his place.

27 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother was named Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

² He did what was right in the sight of the Lord, in accordance with everything that his father Uzziah had done; however, he did not enter the temple of the Lord. But the people continued acting corruptly.

³ He constructed the upper gate of the house of the Lord, and he significantly fortified the wall of Ophel.

⁴ Moreover, he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and he built fortresses and towers in the wooded areas.

⁵ He fought with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed over them. And the Ammonites gave him during that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand kors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The Ammonites also paid him this amount in the second and third years.

⁶ So Jotham became powerful because he ordered his ways before the Lord his God.

⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his conduct, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

⁸ At the age of twenty-five, he began his reign, and he ruled for sixteen years in Jerusalem.

⁹ Jotham rested with his ancestors, and they buried him in the city of David; his son Ahaz succeeded him as king.

2 Chronicles

28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the Lord, as his father David had done.

² Instead, he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and he also made cast metal images for the Baals.

³ Moreover, he burned incense in the Valley of Ben-hinnom, and burned his sons in the fire, in accordance with the abominations of the nations whom the Lord had driven out before the sons of Israel.

⁴ He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hills, and beneath every green tree.

⁵ Therefore the Lord his God handed him over to the king of Aram; and they defeated him and led many of his people into exile to Damascus. And he was also handed over to the king of Israel, who inflicted a heavy defeat on him.

⁶ For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed a hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all valiant men, because they had abandoned the Lord God of their fathers.

⁷ And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the leader of the house, and Elkanah the second to the king.

⁸ And the sons of Israel led away captive two hundred thousand of their brothers, women, sons, and daughters; and they took a great deal of plunder from them and brought the plunder to Samaria.

⁹ However, a prophet of the Lord named Oded was present; he approached the army returning to Samaria and said to them, "See, because the Lord, the God of your ancestors, was displeased with Judah, He has delivered them into your hands, and you have slain them in a fury that has reached up to heaven.

¹⁰ And now you are saying you are going to bring the sons of Judah and Jerusalem into subjugation as male and female slaves for yourselves? Behold, are you not also guilty before the Lord your God?

¹¹ Now then, listen to me and return the captives whom you took from your brothers, for the burning anger of the Lord is against you."

¹² Then some of the leaders of the sons of Ephraim—Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai—rose up against those who were coming from the battle,

¹³ and said to them, "You must not bring the captives in here, for you are proposing to bring on us guilt against the Lord, adding to our sins and our guilt; for our guilt is great, and the burning anger of the Lord is against Israel."

¹⁴ So the armed men left the captives and the plunder before the officers and all the assembly.

¹⁵ Then the men who were designated by name rose up and took the captives, and they clothed all their naked ones from the plunder, gave them clothes and sandals, fed them and gave them drink, anointed them with oil, led all their feeble ones on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers. Then they returned to Samaria.

¹⁶ During that period, King Ahaz reached out to the kings of Assyria for assistance.

¹⁷ For again the Edomites had come and attacked Judah, and led away captives.

¹⁸ The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland and of the Negev of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages, and they settled there.

¹⁹ For the Lord brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had caused disorder in Judah, and was very unfaithful to the Lord.

²⁰ So Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came against him and oppressed him rather than supporting him.

²¹ Although Ahaz took a portion from the house of the Lord, from the house of the king and the officers, and gave it to the king of Assyria, it did not help him.

²² Now in the time of his distress, this same King Ahaz became even more unfaithful to the Lord.

²³ For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus who had defeated him, and said, "Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice to them so that they will help me.” But they became the downfall of him and all Israel.

2 Chronicles

²⁴ Moreover, when Ahaz gathered the utensils of the house of God, he cut the utensils of the house of God to pieces; and he closed the doors of the house of the Lord, and made altars for himself in every corner of Jerusalem.

²⁵ Throughout every city of Judah he established high places to burn incense to other gods, and incited the Lord, the God of his fathers, to anger.

²⁶ Regarding the remainder of his acts and all his deeds, from the first to the last, behold, they are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

²⁷ So Ahaz lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel; and his son Hezekiah became king in his place.

29 Hezekiah began his reign at the age of twenty-five, and he ruled for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother was named Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. ² He acted righteously in the eyes of the Lord, following the example set by his ancestor David.

³ In the first month of the first year of his reign, he reopened the doors of the house of the Lord and restored them. ⁴ He summoned the priests and the Levites and gathered them in the public square on the east side. ⁵ Then he said to them, “Listen to me, you Levites. Consecrate yourselves now, and consecrate the house of the Lord, the God of your fathers, and bring the impurity out of the holy place.

⁶ For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done evil in the sight of the Lord our God, and have abandoned Him and turned their faces away from the dwelling place of the Lord, and have turned their backs. ⁷ They have also closed the doors of the porch and extinguished the lamps, and have not burned incense or made burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. ⁸ Therefore the wrath of the Lord was against Judah and Jerusalem, and He has made them an object of terror, horror, and hissing, as you see with your own eyes. ⁹ For indeed, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity because of this. ¹⁰ Now I am determined to make a covenant with the Lord God of Israel, so that His fierce anger may turn away from us. ¹¹ My sons, do not be negligent now, for the Lord has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and to be His ministers and offer incense.”

¹² Then the Levites arose: Mahath, son of Amasai, and Joel, son of Azariah, from the sons of the Kohathites; and from the sons of Merari, Kish, son of Abdi, and Azariah, son of Jehallelel; and from the Gershonites, Joah, son of Zimmah, and Eden, son of Joah; ¹³ From the descendants of Elizaphan were Shimri and Jeiel; from the descendants of Asaph were Zechariah and Mattaniah; ¹⁴ From the descendants of Heman were Jehiel and Shimei; from the descendants of Jeduthun were Shemaiah and Uzziel.

¹⁵ They gathered their brothers, consecrated themselves, and went in to cleanse the house of the Lord, according to the commandment of the king by the words of the Lord. ¹⁶ So the priests went into the inner part of the house of the Lord to cleanse it, and they brought every unclean thing which they found in the temple of the Lord out to the courtyard of the house of the Lord. Then the Levites received it to bring it out to the Kidron Valley. ¹⁷ They began the consecration on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they entered the porch of the Lord. Then they consecrated the house of the Lord in eight days and finished on the sixteenth day of the first month.

¹⁸ Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, “We have cleansed the entire house of the Lord, the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the table of the bread of the Presence with all its utensils. ¹⁹ Furthermore, all the utensils which King Ahaz had discarded during his reign in his unfaithfulness, we have prepared and consecrated; and behold, they are before the altar of the Lord.”

²⁰ Then King Hezekiah rose early and gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the house of the Lord. ²¹ They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary, and Judah. And he instructed the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the Lord. ²² So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. They did likewise with the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar; then they did the same with the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar. ²³ Then they brought the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they placed their hands on them. ²⁴ And the priests slaughtered them and purified the altar with their blood, to make atonement for all Israel, because the king ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.

2 Chronicles

²⁵ He then stationed the Levites in the house of the Lord with cymbals, harps, and lyres, in accordance with the command of David and of Gad, the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for the command was from the Lord through His prophets. ²⁶ And the Levites took their places with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

²⁷ Then Hezekiah gave the order to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And as the burnt offering began, the song to the Lord also commenced with the trumpets, accompanied by the instruments of David, king of Israel. ²⁸ So the entire assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpets sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

²⁹ When the burnt offerings were completed, the king and all who were present with him bowed down and worshiped. ³⁰ Moreover, King Hezekiah and the officials instructed the Levites to sing praises to the Lord with the words of David and Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with joy, and bowed down and worshiped.

³¹ Then Hezekiah responded and said, "Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the Lord, come near and bring sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings to the house of the Lord." So the assembly brought sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings, and all who were willing brought burnt offerings.

³² The assembly brought seventy bulls, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs as burnt offerings; all these were for a burnt offering to the Lord. ³³ And the offerings set apart were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep. ³⁴ But the priests were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings; therefore their brothers the Levites helped them until the work was completed and until the priests had consecrated themselves. For the Levites were more conscientious to consecrate themselves than the priests. ³⁵ There were also many burnt offerings with the fat of the peace offerings and with the drink offerings for the burnt offerings.

Thus, the service of the house of the Lord was re-established. ³⁶ Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced over what God had prepared for the people, because it happened so suddenly.

30 Now Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah, and he also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, inviting them to come to the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, to celebrate the Passover to the Lord God of Israel. ² For the king, his officials, and all the assembly in Jerusalem had resolved to observe the Passover in the second month, ³ since they could not celebrate it at that time, because not enough priests had consecrated themselves, and the people had not been gathered to Jerusalem. ⁴ The decision was right in the sight of the king and all the assembly. ⁵ So they established a decree to circulate a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they were to come to celebrate the Passover to the Lord God of Israel in Jerusalem. For they had not celebrated it in great numbers as it was prescribed.

⁶ The couriers went throughout Israel and Judah with the letters from the hand of the king and his officials, even according to the command of the king, saying, "Sons of Israel, return to the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, so that He may return to those of you who are left, who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria. ⁷ Do not be like your fathers and your brothers, who were unfaithful to the Lord God of their fathers, so that He made them an object of horror, just as you see. ⁸ Now do not stiffen your neck like your fathers, but yield to the Lord and enter His sanctuary which He has consecrated forever, and serve the Lord your God, so that His burning anger may turn away from you. ⁹ For if you return to the Lord, your brothers and your sons will find mercy from those who took them captive and will return to this land. For the Lord your God is gracious and compassionate, and will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him."

¹⁰ So the couriers passed from city to city through the territory of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far as Zebulun, but they were met with ridicule and mockery. ¹¹ However, some men from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem. ¹² God also moved the hearts of the people of Judah to unite them in following the commands of the king and the officials, in accordance with the word of the Lord.

2 Chronicles

¹³ Now a great multitude gathered at Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very large assembly. ¹⁴ They rose and removed the altars which were in Jerusalem; they also took away all the incense altars and cast them into the brook Kidron.

¹⁵ Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and Levites were ashamed of themselves, and consecrated themselves, and brought burnt offerings to the house of the Lord. ¹⁶ They took their places at their posts according to the Law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood received from the hand of the Levites. ¹⁷ Since there were many in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves, the Levites were responsible for slaughtering the Passover lambs for everyone who was unclean, so that they might consecrate them to the Lord. ¹⁸ For a large number of the people, many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not purified themselves, yet they ate the Passover contrary to what was written. For Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, "May the good Lord pardon ¹⁹ everyone who sets his heart to seek God, the Lord God of his fathers, though not according to the purification rules of the sanctuary." ²⁰ So the Lord listened to Hezekiah and restored the people.

²¹ The sons of Israel who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy, and the Levites and the priests praised the Lord day after day with loud instruments to the Lord.

²² Then Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good insight in the things of the Lord. So they ate for the appointed seven days, offering peace offerings and giving thanks to the Lord God of their fathers.

²³ Then the whole assembly decided to celebrate the feast for another seven days, so they celebrated the additional seven days with joy. ²⁴ For Hezekiah king of Judah had contributed for the assembly a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the leaders had contributed for the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and a large number of priests consecrated themselves. ²⁵ The entire assembly of Judah rejoiced, along with the priests, the Levites, and all who had come from Israel, including the foreigners from the land of Israel and those residing in Judah. ²⁶ So there was great joy in Jerusalem, because such an event had not occurred in Jerusalem since the days of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel. ²⁷ Then the Levitical priests stood and blessed the people; and their voice was heard, and their prayer reached His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

31 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, broke the memorial stones in pieces, cut down the Asherim, and pulled down the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, as well as in Ephraim and Manasseh, to completion. Then all the sons of Israel returned to their cities, each to his possession.

² And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites by their divisions, each according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and peace offerings, to serve and to give thanks and to praise in the gates of the camp of the Lord. ³ He also appointed the king's portion of his goods for the burnt offerings, namely, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, and for the appointed festivals, as it is written in the Law of the Lord. ⁴ He also told the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and the Levites, so that they might devote themselves to the Law of the Lord. ⁵ As soon as the order spread, the sons of Israel provided generously the first fruits of their grain, new wine, oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field, and they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything. ⁶ The people of Israel and Judah residing in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of sacred offerings dedicated to the Lord their God, and placed them in heaps. ⁷ They commenced gathering the heaps in the third month and completed them by the seventh month. ⁸ When Hezekiah and the rulers came and observed the heaps, they praised the Lord and His people Israel.

2 Chronicles

⁹ Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites about the heaps. ¹⁰ Azariah, the chief priest of the house of Zadok, said to him, “Since the contributions began to be brought into the house of the Lord, we have had enough to eat with plenty left over, for the Lord has blessed His people, and this abundance remains.”

¹¹ Then Hezekiah instructed them to prepare chambers in the house of the Lord, and they made them ready. ¹² They faithfully brought in the contributions, the tithes, and the consecrated things; and Conaniah the Levite was the officer in charge over them, and his brother Shimei was second. ¹³ Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the authority of Conaniah and Shimei his brother by the appointment of King Hezekiah, and Azariah served as the chief officer of the house of God.

¹⁴ Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the eastern gate, was over the voluntary offerings for God, to distribute the contributions for the Lord and the most holy things. ¹⁵ Under his authority were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah in the cities of the priests, faithfully distributing portions to their brothers by divisions, whether great or small,

¹⁶ without regard to their genealogical enrollment, to the males from thirty years old and upward—everyone who entered the house of the Lord for his daily obligations—for their work in their duties according to their divisions; ¹⁷ and the genealogical enrollment of the priests by their fathers’ households, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, by their duties and their divisions; ¹⁸ and the genealogical enrollment of all their little children, their wives, their sons and their daughters, for the whole assembly—for they consecrated themselves faithfully in holiness.

¹⁹ Also for the sons of Aaron, the priests, who were in the pasture lands of their cities, or in each and every city, there were men who were designated by name to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to every genealogically enrolled Levite.

²⁰ This was the practice of Hezekiah throughout Judah; and he acted in a manner that was good, right, and true before the Lord his God. ²¹ Every work which he began in the service of the house of God, in the Law and in the commandment, seeking his God, he did with all his heart and succeeded.

32 After these acts of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah, and encamped against the fortified cities, and intended to break into them for himself. ² When Hezekiah realised that Sennacherib had come and planned to make war against Jerusalem, ³ he decided with his officers and his warriors to block off the water supply from the springs which were outside the city, and they helped him. ⁴ Therefore, a large assembly gathered and blocked all the springs and the stream that flowed through the land, saying, “Why should the kings of Assyria come and find an abundance of water?” ⁵ And he took courage and rebuilt all the wall that had been broken down, and erected towers on it, and built another outside wall and strengthened the Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in great numbers.

⁶ Hezekiah appointed military officers over the people, gathered them to him in the square at the city gate, and spoke to them with encouragement, saying, ⁷ “Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or discouraged because of the king of Assyria nor because of all the multitude that is with him; for the One with us is greater than the one with him. ⁸ With him is only a man’s strength, but with us is the Lord our God, to help us and to fight our battles.” And the people relied on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

⁹ After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem while he was besieging Lachish with all his forces with him, against Hezekiah king of Judah and against all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying,

¹⁰ “This is what Sennacherib king of Assyria says: ‘On what are you trusting, that you are remaining in Jerusalem under siege?’ ¹¹ Is Hezekiah not deceiving you to surrender yourselves to die by hunger and by thirst, saying, ‘The Lord our God will save us from the hand of the king of Assyria?’ ¹² Has the same Hezekiah not taken away His high places and His altars, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, ‘You shall worship before one altar, and on it you shall burn incense?’”

2 Chronicles

¹³ Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands able at all to save their land from my hand? ¹⁴ Who was there among all the gods of these nations which my fathers utterly destroyed who could save his people from my hand, that your God would be able to save you from my hand? ¹⁵ Now then, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you in this way, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to save his people from my hand or from the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God save you from my hand?"

¹⁶ His servants said even more against the Lord God and against His servant Hezekiah. ¹⁷ He also wrote letters to taunt the Lord God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, "As the gods of the nations of the lands have not saved their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not save His people from my hand." ¹⁸ They shouted this with a loud voice in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, so that they might capture the city. ¹⁹ They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of human hands.

²⁰ However, King Hezekiah and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed about this and cried out to heaven. ²¹ And the Lord sent an angel who eliminated every mighty warrior, commander, and officer in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned in shame to his own land. And when he had entered the temple of his god, some of his own children killed him there with the sword.

²² Thus, the Lord delivered Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side. ²³ And many were bringing gifts to the Lord at Jerusalem and valuable things to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all the nations thereafter.

²⁴ In those days Hezekiah became seriously ill; and he prayed to the Lord, and the Lord spoke to him and gave him a sign. ²⁵ But Hezekiah did not respond appropriately to the benefit he received, because his heart was proud; therefore wrath came on him and on Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶

Nevertheless, Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem humbled themselves, and thus the wrath of the Lord did not come upon them during Hezekiah's lifetime.

²⁷ Hezekiah possessed immense riches and honour; and he made for himself treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and all kinds of valuable articles. ²⁸ He also constructed storage facilities for the harvest of grain, wine, and oil, along with shelters for various types of cattle and enclosures for the flocks. ²⁹ He also made cities for himself, and acquired flocks and herds in abundance, because God had given him very great wealth. ³⁰ It was Hezekiah who stopped the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon and directed them to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah succeeded in everything that he did. ³¹ Even in the matter of the envoys of the rulers of Babylon, who were sent to him to inquire of the wonder that had happened in the land, God left him alone only to test him, so that He might know everything that was in his heart.

³² Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his deeds of devotion, behold, they are recorded in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. ³³ So Hezekiah lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper section of the tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honoured him at his death. And his son Manasseh became king in his place.

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for fifty-five years in Jerusalem. ² He did evil in the sight of the Lord, in accordance with the abominations of the nations whom the Lord dispossessed before the sons of Israel. ³ For he rebuilt the high places which his father Hezekiah had torn down; he also erected altars for the Baals and made Asherim, and he worshiped all the heavenly lights and served them. ⁴ He constructed altars in the house of the Lord, about which the Lord had declared, "My name shall be in Jerusalem forever." ⁵ He made altars for all the heavenly lights in the two courtyards of the house of the Lord. ⁶ He also made his sons pass through the fire in the Valley of Ben-hinnom; and he practiced witchcraft, used divination, practiced sorcery, and dealt with mediums and spiritists. He did great evil in the sight of the Lord, provoking Him to anger.

2 Chronicles

⁷ Then he put the carved image of the idol which he had made in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever; ⁸ and I will no longer remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will be careful to do all that I have commanded them according to all the Law, the statutes, and the ordinances given through Moses." ⁹ So Manasseh misled Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom the Lord eliminated before the sons of Israel.

¹⁰ So the Lord communicated with Manasseh and his people, but they disregarded Him. ¹¹ As a result, the Lord allowed the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria to come against them, and they captured Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze chains, and took him to Babylon. ¹² When he was in distress, he sought to appease the Lord his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. ¹³ When he prayed to Him, He was moved by his entreaty and heard his plea, and brought him back to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the Lord alone is God.

¹⁴ After this he built the outer wall of the city of David on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance of the Fish Gate; and he encircled the Ophel with it and made it very high. Then he put army commanders in all the fortified cities in Judah.

¹⁵ He also took away the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the Lord, as well as all the altars which he had built on the mountain of the house of the Lord and in Jerusalem, and he cast them outside the city. ¹⁶ He restored the altar of the Lord and offered peace offerings and thanksgiving offerings on it; and he instructed Judah to serve the Lord God of Israel. ¹⁷ Nevertheless, the people still sacrificed on the high places, although only to the Lord their God.

¹⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, including his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the Lord God of Israel, behold, they are among the records of the kings of Israel. ¹⁹ His prayer also and how God was moved by him, and all his sin, his unfaithfulness, and the sites on which he built high places and erected the Asherim and the carved images, before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the records of the Hozai. ²⁰ So Manasseh lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in his house, and his son Amon became king in his place.

²¹ Amon was twenty-two years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for two years in Jerusalem. ²² He did evil in the sight of the Lord, just as his father Manasseh had done. And Amon worshipped all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and he served them. ²³ Moreover, he did not humble himself before the Lord as his father Manasseh had humbled himself, but Amon multiplied his guilt. ²⁴ Ultimately, his servants conspired against him and put him to death in his own house. ²⁵ However, the people of the land struck down all the conspirators against King Amon, and the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

34 Josiah was eight years old when he began his reign, and he ruled for thirty-one years in Jerusalem. ² He did what was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the ways of his father David, and did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

³ In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his ancestor David; and in the twelfth year, he initiated the cleansing of Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, the Asherim, the carved images, and the cast metal images. ⁴ They tore down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and he cut down the incense altars that were high above them; he also smashed the Asherim, the carved images, and the cast metal images into powder, and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. ⁵ He then burned the bones of the priests on their altars and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶ In the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their surrounding areas, ⁷ he also tore down the altars and crushed the Asherim and the carved images into powder, and he cut down all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

⁸ Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent

2 Chronicles

Shaphan the son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the Lord his God.

⁹ They approached Hilkiah the high priest and handed over the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the doorkeepers, had gathered from Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ Then they entrusted it to the hands of the workmen who were overseeing the house of the Lord, and the workmen who were labouring in the house of the Lord used it to restore and repair the house. ¹¹ They in turn gave it to the craftsmen and builders to buy quarried stone and timber for couplings and to make beams for the buildings which the kings of Judah had allowed to become dilapidated.

¹² The men did the work faithfully with foremen over them to supervise: Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam of the sons of the Kohathites; and the Levites—all who were skillful with musical instruments. ¹³ They were also in charge of the burden bearers and supervised all the workmen from job to job; and some of the Levites were scribes, officials, and gatekeepers.

¹⁴ As they were bringing out the money that had been brought into the house of the Lord, Hilkiah the priest discovered the Book of the Law of the Lord given by Moses. ¹⁵ Hilkiah addressed Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the Lord." And Hilkiah handed the book to Shaphan.

¹⁶ Then Shaphan brought the book to the king and conveyed additional information to the king, saying, "Everything that was assigned to your servants, they are doing. ¹⁷ They have also emptied out the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and have delivered it into the hands of the supervisors and the workmen." ¹⁸ Furthermore, Shaphan the scribe informed the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest gave me a book." And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

¹⁹ Upon hearing the words of the Law, the king tore his clothes. ²⁰ Then the king instructed Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah,

Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, ²¹ "Go, inquire of the Lord for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book which has been found, for the wrath of the Lord that has been poured out on us is great, because our fathers have not kept the word of the Lord, to do everything that is written in this book."

²² So Hilkiah and those whom the king had appointed went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter), and they spoke to her about this matter.

²³ She said to them, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, declares: Tell the man who sent you to Me, ²⁴ 'This is what the Lord declares: Behold, I am bringing calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses written in the book which they have read in the presence of the king of Judah, ²⁵ because they have abandoned Me and have burned incense to other gods, so that they would provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore My wrath will be poured out on this place, and it will not be quenched.' ²⁶ But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the Lord, this is what you shall say to him: 'This is what the Lord, the God of Israel says regarding the words which you have heard: ²⁷ Because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and its inhabitants, and because you humbled yourself before Me, tore your clothes, and wept before Me, I truly have heard you,' declares the Lord. ²⁸ 'Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the evil which I am bringing on this place and on its inhabitants.'" So they brought back word to the king.

²⁹ The king then sent word and assembled all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰ The king went up to the house of the Lord, and all the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites, and all the people from the greatest to the least; and he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant that was found in the house of the Lord. ³¹ Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep His commandments, His testimonies, and

2 Chronicles

His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that are written in this book.

³² Moreover, he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand with him. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem acted in accordance with the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

³³ Josiah eliminated all the detestable things from all the lands belonging to the sons of Israel, and compelled all who were present in Israel to serve the Lord their God. Throughout his lifetime, they did not turn from following the Lord God of their fathers.

35 Josiah observed the Passover for the Lord in Jerusalem, and the Passover animals were sacrificed on the fourteenth day of the first month. ² He appointed the priests to their duties and encouraged them in the service of the house of the Lord. ³ He instructed the Levites, who taught all Israel and were dedicated to the Lord, "Place the holy ark in the house which Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel, built; it will no longer be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve the Lord your God and His people Israel. ⁴ Prepare yourselves by your fathers' households in your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel and the writing of his son Solomon.

⁵ Moreover, stand in the holy place according to the sections of the fathers' households of your countrymen, the sons of the people, and according to the Levites, by division of a father's household. ⁶ Now slaughter the Passover animals, sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your countrymen to carry out the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses."

⁷ Josiah contributed to the sons of the people, flocks of lambs and young goats, all for the Passover offerings, to all who were present, in number 30,000, along with 3,000 bulls; these were from the king's property.

⁸ His officers also contributed a voluntary offering to the people, the priests, and the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the officials of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings 2,600 from the flocks, and 300 bulls. ⁹ Conaniah, Shemaiah and Nethanel his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad, the leaders of the Levites, provided for the Levites for the Passover offerings 5,000 from the flocks, and 500 bulls.

¹⁰ Thus the service was arranged, and the priests stood at their positions, and the Levites by their divisions according to the king's command. ¹¹ They sacrificed the Passover animals, and while the priests sprinkled the blood they received, the Levites skinned the animals. ¹² Then they removed the burnt offerings so that they might give them to the sections of the fathers' households of the sons of the people, to present to the Lord, as it is written in the Book of Moses. They did this also with the bulls. ¹³ So they roasted the Passover animals on the fire according to the ordinance, and they boiled the holy things in pots, kettles, and pans, and carried them quickly to all the sons of the people. ¹⁴ Afterward, they prepared for themselves and for the priests, since the priests, the sons of Aaron, were occupied with offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night. Thus, the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

¹⁵ The singers, the sons of Asaph, were at their positions according to the command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the gatekeepers were at each gate. They did not need to leave their service, because their countrymen the Levites prepared for them.

¹⁶ Thus all the service of the Lord was arranged on that day to observe the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the Lord according to the command of King Josiah. ¹⁷ And the sons of Israel who were present observed the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days. ¹⁸ There had not been a Passover like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet; nor had any of the kings of Israel observed such a Passover as Josiah did with the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹ This Passover was observed during the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign.

²⁰ Following all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, Neco king of Egypt came up to wage war at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to confront him. ²¹ But Neco sent messengers to him, saying, "What business do we have with each other, King of Judah? I am not coming against you today, but against the house with which I am at war; and God has told me to hurry. Stop for your own sake from interfering with God who is with me, so that He will not destroy you.”

2 Chronicles

²² However, Josiah would not turn away from him, but disguised himself in order to fight against him; nor did he listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, but came to engage him in battle on the plain of Megiddo.

²³ And the archers shot King Josiah, and the king said to his servants, “Take me away, because I am severely wounded.” ²⁴ So his servants took him out of the chariot and carried him on the second chariot which he had, and brought him to Jerusalem where he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

²⁵ Then Jeremiah chanted a song of mourning for Josiah. And all the male and female singers speak about Josiah in their songs of mourning to this day. And they made them a custom in Israel; behold, they are written in the Lamentations.

²⁶ The remainder of Josiah’s acts and his deeds of devotion, as recorded in the Law of the Lord, ²⁷ and his acts, from beginning to end, are indeed written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

36 The people of the land chose Jehoahaz, the son of Josiah, and established him as king in place of his father in Jerusalem.

² Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem. ³ Then the king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and imposed a fine on the land of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. ⁴ The king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiaikim. But Neco took his brother Jehoahaz and brought him to Egypt.

⁵ Jehoiaikim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem. And he acted wickedly in the eyes of the Lord his God. ⁶ Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, came against him and bound him with bronze chains to take him to Babylon. ⁷ Nebuchadnezzar also brought some of the articles of the house of the Lord to Babylon, and put them in his temple in Babylon.

⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiaikim and the abominations which he did, and what was found against him, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. And his son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

⁹ Jehoiachin was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months and ten days in Jerusalem. And he acted wickedly in the eyes of the Lord. ¹⁰ At the turn of the year King Nebuchadnezzar sent orders and brought him to Babylon, with the valuable articles of the house of the Lord, and he made his relative Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹ Zedekiah, at the age of twenty-one, became king and reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem. ¹² He acted wickedly in the eyes of the Lord his God; he did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke on behalf of the Lord. ¹³ He also defied King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear allegiance by God. But he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against returning to the Lord God of Israel. ¹⁴ Furthermore, all the officials of the priests and the people were exceedingly unfaithful, following all the detestable practices of the nations; and they defiled the house of the Lord which He had made holy in Jerusalem.

¹⁵ And the Lord, the God of their fathers, sent word to them again and again by His messengers, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place; ¹⁶ but they persistently mocked the messengers of God, despised His words, and ridiculed His prophets, until the anger of the Lord rose against His people, until there was no remedy. ¹⁷ Therefore He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or infirm; He handed them all over to him. ¹⁸ All the articles of the house of God, both large and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king and of his officers, he took them all to Babylon. ¹⁹ Then they set fire to the house of God and tore down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all its palaces with fire, and ruined all its precious articles.

²⁰ He took into exile to Babylon those who had escaped from the sword; and they were servants to him and to his sons until the rule of the kingdom of Persia, ²¹ to bring to pass the word of the Lord spoken by Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths. All the days of its desolation it observed rest until seventy years were complete.

2 Chronicles

²² Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia— in order to bring to pass the word of the Lord spoken by Jeremiah— the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a proclamation throughout his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying, ²³ “This is what Cyrus king of Persia says: ‘The Lord, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has appointed me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all His people, may the Lord his God be with him, and let him go up!’”

Ezra

1 In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, to fulfil the word of the Lord spoken by Jeremiah, the Lord stirred the heart of Cyrus king of Persia to issue a proclamation throughout his realm and also to put it in writing:

² “This is what Cyrus king of Persia says: ‘The Lord, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and has appointed me to build a house for Him in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. ³ Any among you who are His people, may their God be with them, and let them go up to Jerusalem in Judah and build the house of the Lord, the God of Israel, who is in Jerusalem. ⁴ And in any place where survivors may now reside, the people are to support them with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, along with freewill offerings for the house of God in Jerusalem.’”

⁵ Then the heads of the families of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and Levites—everyone whose spirit God had moved—prepared to go up and build the house of the Lord in Jerusalem. ⁶ All their neighbours assisted them with articles of silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with valuable gifts, besides all the freewill offerings. ⁷ Moreover, King Cyrus brought out the articles belonging to the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and placed in the house of his gods. ⁸ Cyrus king of Persia had them brought out by Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah. ⁹ This was the inventory:

thirty gold dishes, a thousand silver dishes, and twenty-nine silver pans; ¹⁰ thirty gold bowls, four hundred and ten matching silver bowls, and a thousand other articles.

¹¹ In total, there were 5,400 articles of gold and silver. Sheshbazzar brought all these along with the exiles when they came up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

2 These are the people of the province who returned from the captivity of the exiles, whom Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, had taken into exile to Babylon. They returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to their own town. ² They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah. Here is the list of the men of the people of Israel:

³ the line of Parosh, numbered 2,172; ⁴ the line of Shephatiah, numbered 372; ⁵ the line of Arah, numbered 775; ⁶ the line of Pahath-Moab, through the line of Jeshua and Joab, numbered 2,812; ⁷ the line of Elam, numbered 1,254; ⁸ the line of Zattu, numbered 945; ⁹ the line of Zaccai, numbered 760; ¹⁰ the line of Bani, numbered 642; ¹¹ the line of Bebai, numbered 623; ¹² the line of Azgad, numbered 1,222; ¹³ the line of Adonikam, numbered 666; ¹⁴ the line of Bigvai, numbered 2,056; ¹⁵ the line of Adin, numbered 454; ¹⁶ the line of Ater, through Hezekiah, numbered 98; ¹⁷ the line of Bezai, numbered 323; ¹⁸ the line of Jorah, numbered 112; ¹⁹ the line of Hashum, numbered 223; ²⁰ the line of Gibbar, numbered 95;

²¹ the men of Bethlehem, numbered 123; ²² the men of Netophah, numbered 56; ²³ the men of Anathoth, numbered 128; ²⁴ the line of Azmaveth, numbered 42; ²⁵ the line of Kiriath Jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, 743; ²⁶ the line of Ramah and Geba, numbered 621; ²⁷ those from Michmas, numbered 122; ²⁸ those from Bethel and Ai, numbered 223; ²⁹ the line of Nebo, numbered 52; ³⁰ the line of Magbish, numbered 156; ³¹ the line of the other Elam, numbered 1,254; ³² the line of Harim, numbered 320; ³³ the line of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, 725; ³⁴ the men of Jericho, numbered 345; ³⁵ the line of Senaah, numbered 3,630. ³⁶ The priests: the line of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, numbered 973; ³⁷ the line of Immer, numbered 1,052; ³⁸ the line of Pashhur, numbered 1,247; ³⁹ the line of Harim, numbered 1,017.

⁴⁰ The Levites: the family of Jeshua and Kadmiel, from the line of Hodaviah, 74. ⁴¹ The musicians: the family of Asaph, 128.

⁴² The gatekeepers of the temple:

the line of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, and Shobai, 139.

⁴³ The temple servants:

the line of Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth, ⁴⁴ Keros, Siaha, and Padon, ⁴⁵ Lebanah, Hagabah, and Akkub, ⁴⁶ Hagab, Shalmai, and Hanan, ⁴⁷ Giddel, Gahar, and Reaiah, ⁴⁸ Rezin, Nekoda, and Gazzam, ⁴⁹ Uzza, Paseah, and Besai, ⁵⁰ Asnah, Meunim, and Nephusim, ⁵¹ Bakbuk, Hakupha, and Harhur, ⁵² Bazluth, Mehida, and Harsha, ⁵³ Barkos, Sisera, and Temah, ⁵⁴ Neziah, and also Hatipha.

⁵⁵ The descendants of the servants of Solomon: the descendants of Sotai, Hassophereth, and Peruda, ⁵⁶ Jaala, Darkon, and Giddel, ⁵⁷ Shephatiah, Hattil, and Pokereth-Hazzebaim, and Ami.

⁵⁸ The temple servants and the descendants of the servants of Solomon totaled 392. ⁵⁹ These were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer, but they could not prove their families were descended from Israel: ⁶⁰ The families of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda, 652. ⁶¹ And from among the priests:

the descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai, who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by their name. ⁶² They searched for their family records but could not find them, and thus were excluded from the priesthood as unclean. ⁶³ The governor instructed them not to partake of the most sacred food until there was a priest ministering with the Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁴ So, the whole assembly numbered 42,360, ⁶⁵ besides their male and female slaves, who numbered 7,337; and they had 200 male and female singers. ⁶⁶ They possessed 736 horses, and 245 mules, ⁶⁷ had 435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys.

⁶⁸ Upon arriving at the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, some of the family heads gave voluntary offerings towards the rebuilding of the house of God on its site. ⁶⁹ In accordance with their ability, they contributed to the treasury for this work 61,000 darics of gold, 5,000 minas of silver, and 100 priestly garments.

⁷⁰ The priests, the Levites, the musicians, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants settled in their own towns, along with some of the other people, while the rest of the Israelites settled in their towns.

3 When the seventh month arrived and the Israelites were settled in their towns, the people gathered together as one in Jerusalem.

² Then Jeshua son of Jozadak and his fellow priests, along with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and his associates, began to construct the altar of the God of Israel to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the Law of Moses, the man of God. ³ Despite their fear of the surrounding peoples, they set the altar on its foundation and offered burnt offerings on it to the Lord, both morning and evening. ⁴ They celebrated the Feast of Tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the prescribed number of burnt offerings each day, according to the ordinance. ⁵ After this, they presented the regular burnt offerings, the offerings for the New Moons, and for all the appointed sacred festivals of the Lord, as well as those given as freewill offerings to the Lord. ⁶ From the first day of the seventh month, they began to offer burnt offerings to the Lord, although the foundation of the Lord's temple had not yet been laid.

⁷ They provided money to the masons and carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the Sidonians and Tyrians, to bring cedar logs from Lebanon to the sea at Joppa, as authorised by Cyrus king of Persia. ⁸ In the second year of their arrival at the house of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers—the priests, the Levites, and all who had returned from the captivity to Jerusalem—began the work. They appointed Levites twenty years old and upwards to oversee the building of the house of the Lord. ⁹ Jeshua and his sons and brothers, along with Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Hodaviah, and the sons of Henadad with their sons and brothers—all Levites—joined together to oversee those working on the house of God.

¹⁰ When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the Lord, the priests stood in their vestments with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the Lord, as directed by King David of Israel. ¹¹ With praise and thanksgiving, they sang to the Lord: "He is good; his love towards Israel endures forever." And all the people gave a great shout of joy to the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid. ¹² However, many of the older priests, Levites, and family heads, who had seen the former temple, wept aloud when they saw the foundation of this temple being laid, while many others shouted for joy.

¹³ No one could distinguish the sound of the joyful shouts from the sound of weeping, because the people made so much noise, and the sound was heard far away.

4 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles were building a temple to the Lord, the God of Israel, ² they approached Zerubbabel and the heads of the fathers' households, saying, "Let us build with you, for like you, we seek your God and have been offering sacrifices to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here."

³ But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of the fathers' households of Israel said to them, "You have no part with us in building a house to our God; we alone will build for the Lord, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, has commanded us." ⁴ Then the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah and made them afraid to continue building, ⁵ and hired counsellors against them to frustrate their plans all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia. ⁶ At the beginning of the reign of Ahasuerus, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. ⁷ And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their associates wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; the letter was written in Aramaic and translated. ⁸ Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe composed a letter concerning Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes, stating: ⁹ Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates—the judges, the lesser governors, the officials, the secretaries, the men of Persia, Uruk, and Babylon, the men of Susa, that is, the Elamites, ¹⁰ and the rest of the nations whom the great and honourable Osnappar deported and settled in the city of Samaria and in the rest of the region beyond the River. ¹¹ (This is a copy of the letter they sent to him.) "To King Artaxerxes, from your servants, the men of the region beyond the River: And now, ¹² let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem; they are rebuilding the rebellious and wicked city, and are finishing the walls and repairing the foundations.

¹³ Now let it be known to the king that if this city is rebuilt and the walls are finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and it will be detrimental to the royal revenue. ¹⁴ Now because we are in the service of the palace, and it is not fitting for us to see the king's dishonour, we have sent and informed the king, ¹⁵ so that a search may be made in the record books of your predecessors. You will find in the records that this city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces, and has a history of revolt. That is why this city was destroyed. ¹⁶ We inform the king that if this city is rebuilt and the walls finished, you will have no possession in the province beyond the River." ¹⁷ The king sent this reply: "To Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates who live in Samaria and the rest of the province beyond the River: Peace. And now, ¹⁸ the document you sent to us has been translated and read before me. ¹⁹ I issued a decree and a search was made, and it was found that this city has a long history of revolt against kings and has been a place of rebellion and sedition. ²⁰ Jerusalem has had powerful kings ruling over the whole of the province beyond the River, and tribute, custom, and toll were paid to them. ²¹ Now issue a decree to make these men stop work, so that this city will not be rebuilt until a decree is issued by me. ²² Take care not to be negligent in this matter. Why should damage increase to the detriment of the kings?" ²³ Then, as soon as the copy of King Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their associates, they went in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews and stopped them by force of arms. ²⁴ Thus the work on the house of God in Jerusalem ceased, and it was stopped until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

5 In that time, the prophets Haggai and Zechariah, the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem, speaking in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them. ² Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, son of Jozadak, arose and commenced the rebuilding of the house of God in Jerusalem; and the prophets of God were with them, providing support.

³ During this period, Tattenai, the governor of the region beyond the Euphrates, along with Shethar-Bozenai and their colleagues, approached them and inquired, "Who has given you the authority to rebuild this temple and complete this structure?" ⁴ They also inquired about the names of the individuals who were involved in the construction of this building. ⁵ However, the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, and they were not hindered until the matter could be reported to Darius and a response was received. ⁶ Here is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor of the region beyond the Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates, the officials of that region, sent to King Darius. ⁷ The report they dispatched to him was written as follows: "To King Darius: All peace. ⁸ We wish to inform the king that we visited the province of Judah, to the temple of the great God. The building is being constructed with large stones, and timber is being laid in the walls. The work is progressing diligently and is advancing successfully under their supervision.

⁹ We questioned the elders, asking them, 'Who authorised you to rebuild this temple and complete this structure?' ¹⁰ We also requested their names to inform you, so that we might record the names of the leaders for your knowledge. ¹¹ Their response to us was: 'We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was constructed many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and completed. ¹² But because our forefathers angered the God of heaven, He delivered them into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar, the Chaldean king of Babylon, who destroyed this temple and exiled the people to Babylon. ¹³ Nevertheless, in the first year of Cyrus, king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this house of God. ¹⁴ Moreover, the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple in Babylon, King Cyrus retrieved from the temple of Babylon and entrusted to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor. ¹⁵ He instructed him, "Take these articles and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its original site." ¹⁶ Thus, Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem; and from that time until now, it has been under construction, although it is not yet completed.' ¹⁷ Therefore, if it pleases the king, let a search be conducted in the royal archives there in Babylon to determine whether a decree was indeed issued by King Cyrus to rebuild this house of God in Jerusalem; and let the king send us his decision regarding this matter."

6 King Darius issued a decree, and a search was conducted in the archives where the treasures were stored in Babylon. ² In the fortress of Ecbatana in the province of Media, a scroll was discovered, and the following was written: Memorandum— ³ In the first year of King Cyrus, a decree was issued regarding the house of God in Jerusalem: Let the temple be rebuilt as a place for offering sacrifices, and let its foundations be laid, with a height of sixty cubits and a width of sixty cubits, ⁴ using three layers of large stones and one layer of timber. The expenses are to be covered by the royal treasury. ⁵ Moreover, the gold and silver articles from the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, are to be returned to their rightful places in the temple in Jerusalem; they are to be placed in the house of God.

⁶ Now, Tattenai, governor of the province beyond the River, Shethar-Bozenai, and your colleagues, the officials of that region, stay away from there. ⁷ Do not interfere with the work on this house of God. Allow the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders to rebuild this house of God on its original site. ⁸ Furthermore, I issue a decree concerning what you are to do for these elders of the Jews in the rebuilding of this house of God: The full cost is to be paid to these men from the royal treasury, from the taxes of the provinces beyond the River, without delay. ⁹ Whatever is needed—bulls, rams, and lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine, and olive oil, as requested by the priests in Jerusalem—must be provided to them daily without fail, ¹⁰ so that they may offer sacrifices to the God of heaven and seek the well-being of the king and his sons. ¹¹ I also decree that if anyone violates this edict, a beam is to be pulled from their house and they are to be impaled on it, and their house is to be made a refuse heap for this offence. ¹² May the God who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who attempts to alter this decree or destroy this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have issued this decree; let it be executed with diligence. ¹³ Then, due to the decree King Darius had sent, Tattenai, governor of the province beyond the River, Shethar-Bozenai, and their associates carried it out with diligence. ¹⁴ Thus, the elders of the Jews continued to build and prosper under the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, son of Iddo. They completed the building according to the command of the God of Israel and the decrees of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia. ¹⁵ The temple was completed on the third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.¹⁶ Then the Israelites—the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the exiles—celebrated the dedication of the house of God with joy.¹⁷ For the dedication of this house of God, they offered a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, corresponding to the number of the tribes of Israel.¹⁸ They appointed the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their groups for the service of God in Jerusalem, as it is written in the Book of Moses.¹⁹ On the fourteenth day of the first month, the exiles observed the Passover.²⁰ The priests and Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were ceremonially clean. The Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their brothers the priests, and for themselves.²¹ So the Israelites who had returned from exile ate it, along with all who had separated themselves from the impurity of the nations to seek the Lord, the God of Israel.²² For seven days they celebrated with joy the Festival of Unleavened Bread, because the Lord had filled them with joy by changing the heart of the king of Assyria towards them, to encourage them in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra

7 After these events, during the reign of Artaxerxes, king of Persia, Ezra went up to Jerusalem. He was the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,² descendant of Shallum, descendant of Zadok, descendant of Ahitub,³ descendant of Amariah, descendant of Azariah, descendant of Meraioth,⁴ descendant of Zerariah, descendant of Uzzi, descendant of Bukki,⁵ descendant of Abishua, descendant of Phinehas, descendant of Eleazar, descendant of Aaron the chief priest.⁶ This Ezra came up from Babylon. He was a scribe skilled in the Law of Moses, which the Lord, the God of Israel, had given. The king granted him all he requested, for the hand of the Lord his God was upon him.⁷ Some of the Israelites, including priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and temple servants, went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.⁸ Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month, during the seventh year of the king.

⁹ On the first day of the first month, he began his journey from Babylon, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, because the good hand of his God was upon him.¹⁰ For Ezra had set his heart to study the Law of the Lord, to practice it, and to teach its statutes and ordinances in Israel.¹¹ This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, a scribe learned in the words of the commandments of the Lord and His statutes for Israel:¹² “Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, scribe of the Law of the God of heaven: Perfect peace. And now¹³ I have issued a decree that any of the people of Israel, including priests and Levites, in my kingdom who are willing to go to Jerusalem, may go with you.¹⁴ You are sent by the king and his seven advisers to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem with respect to the Law of your God, which is in your hand.¹⁵ Moreover, you are to carry the silver and gold which the king and his advisers have voluntarily given to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,¹⁶ along with all the silver and gold you find in the province of Babylon, together with the freewill offerings of the people and priests for the house of their God in Jerusalem.¹⁷ With this money, be sure to buy bulls, rams, and lambs, along with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.¹⁸ You and your fellow Israelites may then do whatever seems best with the rest of the silver and gold, according to the will of your God.¹⁹ Deliver all the articles entrusted to you for the service of the house of your God to the God of Jerusalem.²⁰ And the rest of the needs for the house of your God, which you may have to provide, you may supply from the royal treasury.²¹ “I, King Artaxerxes, issue a decree to all the treasurers in the provinces beyond the Euphrates River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, requires of you, it shall be done diligently,²² up to one hundred talents of silver, one hundred cors of wheat, one hundred baths of wine, one hundred baths of olive oil, and salt without measure.²³ Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven must be done with zeal for the house of the God of heaven, so that there will not be wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons.²⁴ We also inform you that it is not permitted to impose tax, tribute, or toll on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants, or other workers of this house of God.²⁵ “And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God which you possess, appoint magistrates and judges to judge all the people in the province beyond the Euphrates—all who know the laws of your God. And you are to teach anyone who is ignorant of them. ²⁶ Whoever does not obey the law of your God and the law of the king is to be punished by death, banishment, confiscation of property, or imprisonment as deemed necessary.” ²⁷ Blessed be the Lord, the God of our ancestors, who has put such a thing as this in the king’s heart, to glorify the house of the Lord in Jerusalem, ²⁸ and who has extended His favour to me before the king and his counsellors and all the king’s mighty officials. Because the hand of the Lord my God was upon me, I took courage and gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

8 These are the heads of the families and the genealogical records of those who went up with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes: ² from the lineage of Phinehas, Gershom; from the lineage of Ithamar, Daniel; from the lineage of David, Hattush; ³ of the descendants of Shekaniah, who was of the descendants of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him were listed 150 males; ⁴ of the descendants of Pahath-Moab, Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah, and with him 200 males; ⁵ of the descendants of Zattu, Shekaniah son of Jahaziel, and with him 300 males; ⁶ of the descendants of Adin, Ebed son of Jonathan, and with him 50 males; ⁷ of the descendants of Elam, Jeshaiiah son of Athaliah, and with him 70 males; ⁸ of the descendants of Shephatiah, Zebadiah son of Michael, and with him 80 males; ⁹ of the descendants of Joab, Obadiah son of Jehiel, and with him 218 males; ¹⁰ of the descendants of Bani, Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and with him 160 males; ¹¹ of the descendants of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him 28 males; ¹² of the descendants of Azgad, Johanan son of Hakkatan, and with him 110 males; ¹³ of the descendants of Adonikam, the last ones, whose names were Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and with them 60 males; ¹⁴ of the descendants of Bigvai, Uthai and Zakkur, and with them 70 males. ¹⁵ I assembled them at the river that flows towards Ahava, and we camped there for three days. When I reviewed the people and the priests, I found no Levites there. ¹⁶ So I summoned Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, who were leading men, and Joiarib and Elnathan, who were teachers. ¹⁷ I sent them to Iddo, the leader in Casiphia, instructing them what to say to Iddo and his fellow Levites, the temple servants in Casiphia, to bring us ministers for the house of our God. ¹⁸ Because the good hand of our God was upon us, they brought us Sherebiah, a man of insight, from the descendants of Mahli, son of Levi, son of Israel, and Sherebiah’s sons and brothers, 18 in total; ¹⁹ and Hashabiah, along with Jeshaiiah from the descendants of Merari, and his brothers and their sons, 20 in total. ²⁰ They also brought 220 of the temple servants, whom David and the officials had appointed to assist the Levites, all registered by name. ²¹ There, by the river Ahava, I proclaimed a fast, that we might humble ourselves before our God and seek from Him a safe journey for us, our children, and all our possessions. ²² I was embarrassed to request soldiers and horsemen from the king to protect us from enemies on the road, because we had told the king, “The hand of our God is favourably disposed to all who seek Him, but His power and anger are against all who forsake Him.” ²³ So we fasted and entreated our God about this, and He listened to our plea. ²⁴ Then I designated twelve of the leading priests: Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and with them ten of their brothers. ²⁵ I weighed out to them the silver, the gold, and the articles, the offering for the house of our God that the king, his advisers, his officials, and all Israel present had contributed. ²⁶ I weighed out to them 650 talents of silver, silver articles weighing 100 talents, and 100 talents of gold, ²⁷ 20 gold bowls valued at 1,000 darics, and two fine articles of polished bronze, as precious as gold. ²⁸ I said to them, “You are holy to the Lord, and the articles are holy; the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the Lord, the God of your ancestors. ²⁹ Guard them carefully until you weigh them out in the chambers of the house of the Lord in Jerusalem before the leading priests, the Levites, and the family heads of Israel.” ³⁰ So the priests and the Levites received the silver, the gold, and the sacred articles that had been weighed out to be taken to the house of our God in Jerusalem. ³¹ On the twelfth day of the first month, we set out from the river Ahava to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was upon us, and He protected us from enemies and ambushes along the way. ³² So we arrived in Jerusalem and stayed there for three days. ³³ On the fourth day, in the house of our God, we weighed out the silver, the gold, and the sacred articles into the hands of Meremoth son of Uriah, the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him, and so were the Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui. ³⁴ Everything was verified by number and weight, and the entire weight was recorded at that time. ³⁵ Then the exiles who had returned from captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven male lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the Lord. ³⁶ They also delivered the king's orders to the king's satraps and the governors of the provinces beyond the Euphrates, who then supported the people and the house of God.

9 After these matters were completed, the officials approached me and said, "The people of Israel, including the priests and the Levites, have not kept themselves distinct from the neighbouring peoples and their abominations, such as those of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites. ² They have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, thus mingling the holy lineage with the peoples of the lands. Indeed, the leaders and officials have been foremost in this unfaithfulness."

³ Upon hearing this, I tore my garment and cloak, pulled hair from my head and beard, and sat down utterly appalled. ⁴ Then all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, on account of the exiles' unfaithfulness, gathered around me, and I remained appalled until the evening sacrifice. ⁵ At the time of the evening offering, I arose from my self-abasement, with my garment and cloak torn, and fell on my knees, spreading out my hands to the Lord my God; ⁶ and I prayed, "O my God, I am too ashamed and humiliated to lift up my face to You, my God, for our iniquities have risen above our heads, and our guilt has reached up to the heavens. ⁷ From the days of our ancestors to this very day, our guilt has been great. Because of our sins, we, our kings, and our priests have been delivered into the hands of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to disgrace, as is the case today. ⁸ But now, for a brief moment, the Lord our God has shown us grace by leaving us a remnant and giving us a secure foothold in His holy place, so that our God may enlighten our eyes and grant us a little relief in our bondage. ⁹ For though we are slaves, our God has not abandoned us in our bondage. He has extended kindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, granting us new life to rebuild the house of our God and restore its ruins, and has given us a wall of protection in Judah and Jerusalem. ¹⁰ "And now, our God, what can we say after this? For we have indeed forsaken Your commandments, ¹¹ which You gave through Your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land you are entering to possess is a land defiled by the impurity of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations filling it from one end to the other. ¹² Therefore, do not give your daughters in marriage to their sons nor take their daughters for your sons. Never seek their peace or prosperity, that you may be strong and eat the good of the land and leave it as an everlasting inheritance to your children.'

¹³ After all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and great guilt, since You, our God, have punished us less than our sins deserved and have given us such a remnant as this, ¹⁴ shall we again break Your commandments and intermarry with the peoples who practise such abominations? Would You not be angry with us to the point of destruction, leaving us no remnant or survivor? ¹⁵ O Lord, God of Israel, You are righteous! We are left this day as a remnant. Here we stand before You in our guilt, and because of it, none of us can stand in Your presence."

10 While Ezra was praying and making confession, weeping and lying prostrate before the house of God, a very large assembly of Israelites—men, women, and children—gathered around him, for the people wept bitterly. ² Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, one of the descendants of Elam, said to Ezra, "We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women from the peoples of the land. Yet there is hope for Israel despite this. ³ Let us now make a covenant with our God to send away all these women and their children, following the advice of my lord and those who tremble at the commandment of our God. Let it be done according to the Law. ⁴ Arise, for this matter is your responsibility. We will support you, so be courageous and act."

⁵ So Ezra rose and made the leading priests, the Levites, and all Israel take an oath to do what had been proposed. And they took the oath. ⁶ Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God and went to the chamber of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. He did not eat bread or drink water there, for he was mourning over the unfaithfulness of the exiles. ⁷ A proclamation was issued throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the exiles to assemble in Jerusalem. ⁸ Anyone who did not appear within three days would forfeit all his property, in accordance with the decision of the leaders and elders, and would be excluded from the assembly of the exiles.

Ezra

⁹ Within the three days, all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem. On the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people sat in the square before the house of God, trembling because of this matter and the heavy rain. ¹⁰ Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have been unfaithful by marrying foreign women, adding to the guilt of Israel. ¹¹ Now make confession to the Lord, the God of your ancestors, and do His will. Separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from your foreign wives." ¹² The whole assembly responded with a loud voice, "It is our duty to do as you have said. ¹³ However, there are many people here, and it is the rainy season; we cannot stand outside. Besides, this matter cannot be resolved in a day or two, for we have sinned greatly in this thing. ¹⁴ Let our leaders act on behalf of the whole assembly, and let everyone in our towns who has married a foreign woman come at appointed times, along with the elders and judges of each town, until the fierce anger of our God in this matter is turned away from us." ¹⁵ Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah were the only ones who opposed this, with Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supporting them. ¹⁶ So the exiles did as proposed. Ezra the priest selected men who were heads of families, one from each family division, all of them designated by name. They convened on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter, ¹⁷ and by the first day of the first month they completed addressing all the men who had married foreign women. ¹⁸ Among the descendants of the priests, the following had married foreign women: From the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah. ¹⁹ They pledged to send away their wives, and for their guilt, they each presented a ram from the flock as a guilt offering. ²⁰ From the line of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah. ²¹ From the line of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uziah. ²² From the line of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasa. ²³ Among the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (also known as Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. ²⁴ Eliashib was among those who served in the musical roles. Shallum, Telem, and Uri were among those who served as gatekeepers. ²⁵ And among the other Israelites: From the line of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah. ²⁶ From the line of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah. ²⁷ From the line of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza. ²⁸ From the line of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai. ²⁹ From Bani's family: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Jeremoth. ³⁰ From Pahath-moab's family: Adna, Kelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh. ³¹ From the line of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³² Including Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah. ³³ From the line of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei. ³⁴ From the line of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel, ³⁵ Benaiah, and Bedeiah, and Cheluhi, ³⁶ Vaniah, and Meremoth, and Eliashib, ³⁷ Mattaniah, and Mattenai, and Jaasu. ³⁸ From the line of Binnui: Shimei, ³⁹ Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah, ⁴⁰ Machnadebai, and Shashai, and Sharai, ⁴¹ Azarel, and Shelemiah, and Shemariah, ⁴² Shallum, and Amariah, and Joseph. ⁴³ From the line of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaiah. ⁴⁴ All these had married foreign women, and some of them had children with these wives.

Nehemiah

1 These are the words of Nehemiah, son of Hakaliah. During the month of Kislev, in the twentieth year, while I was in the citadel of Susa, ² Hanani, one of my brothers, came with some men from Judah, and I asked them about the Jewish remnant that had survived the exile, and about Jerusalem. ³ They replied, "Those who survived the exile and are in the province are in great distress and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire."

⁴ When I heard these words, I sat down and wept, mourning for several days. I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven. ⁵ I said, "O Lord, God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant of love with those who love Him and keep His commandments, ⁶ please listen closely and look upon the prayer Your servant is offering before You day and night for Your servants, the people of Israel. I confess the sins we Israelites, including myself and my father's family, have committed against You. ⁷ We have acted very corruptly towards You. We have not obeyed the commands, decrees, and laws You gave Your servant Moses. ⁸ Remember the word You gave Your servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations, ⁹ but if you return to Me and obey My commands, then even if your exiled people are at the farthest horizon, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen for My Name to dwell.' ¹⁰ They are Your servants and Your people, whom You have redeemed by Your great strength and Your mighty hand. ¹¹ Lord, let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of this Your servant and to the prayer of Your servants who delight in revering Your name. Grant Your servant success today by granting him mercy in the presence of this man." I was the cupbearer to the king.

2 In the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was before him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had not been sad in his presence before. ² So the king said to me, "Why does your face look sad when you are not ill? This can only be sadness of heart." Then I was very much afraid. ³ And I said to the king, "May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad when the city where my ancestors are buried lies desolate and its gates have been destroyed by fire?"

⁴ The king said to me, "What is it you would request?" So I prayed to the God of heaven. ⁵ And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favour in your sight, send me to Judah, to the city of my ancestors' tombs, that I may rebuild it." ⁶ Then the king, with the queen sitting beside him, asked me, "How long will your journey take, and when will you return?" It pleased the king to send me, so I set a time. ⁷ I also said to the king, "If it pleases the king, may I have letters to the governors of the provinces beyond the River, so that they will allow me to pass through until I arrive in Judah?" ⁸ And may I have a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king's forest, so that he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the temple, for the city wall, and for the house I will occupy?" And because the gracious hand of my God was upon me, the king granted my requests. ⁹ Then I went to the governors of the provinces beyond the Euphrates and gave them the king's letters. The king had also sent army officers and horsemen with me. ¹⁰ When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about this, they were very displeased that someone had come to seek the welfare of the Israelites. ¹¹ Upon my arrival in Jerusalem, I stayed there for three whole days. ¹² I set out during the night with a few others. I had not told anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. There was no animal with me except the one I was riding on. ¹³ By night I went out through the Valley Gate towards the Dragon's Spring and the Dung Gate, examining the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates, which had been consumed by fire. ¹⁴ Then I moved on towards the Fountain Gate and the King's Pool, but there was no room for my mount to pass through. ¹⁵ So I continued up the valley during the night, inspecting the wall. Finally, I returned and re-entered through the Valley Gate. ¹⁶ The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, because as yet I had said nothing to the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or the rest who were to do the work. ¹⁷ Then I said to them, "You can see the situation we are in: Jerusalem is in ruins, and its gates have been burned. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, so we will no longer be in disgrace." ¹⁸ I also told them about the gracious hand of my God upon me and what the king had said to me. They replied, "Let us arise and build." So they set their hands to this good work. ¹⁹ But when

Nehemiah

Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us. "What are you doing?" they asked. "Are you rebelling against the king?" ²⁰ I answered them, saying, "The God of heaven will give us success. We, his servants, will start rebuilding, but as for you, you have no share, right, or historic claim in Jerusalem."

3 Eliashib the high priest, along with his fellow priests, commenced the work on the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and installed its doors. They continued the consecration up to the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel. ² Next to them, the men of Jericho constructed the adjacent section, and Zakkur son of Imri built alongside them. ³ The sons of Hassenaah rebuilt the Fish Gate, laying its beams and setting up its doors, bolts, and bars. ⁴ Adjacent to them, Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, undertook repairs. Beside him, Meshullam son of Berekiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs, with Zadok son of Baana repairing next to him. ⁵ The Tekoites repaired the following section, though their nobles would not support the work of their overseers. ⁶ Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah repaired the Jeshanah Gate, setting its beams and installing its doors, bolts, and bars. ⁷ Next to them, Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, men of Gibeon and Mizpah, made repairs for the governor of the province beyond the Euphrates. ⁸ Uzziel son of Harhaiah, a goldsmith, repaired the next section, and Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs beside him, restoring Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall. ⁹ Rephaiah son of Hur, official of half the district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section. ¹⁰ Adjoining this, Jedaiah son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house, with Hattush son of Hashabneiah working next to him. ¹¹ Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section, including the Tower of the Ovens. ¹² Shallum son of Hallohesh, official of half the district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section with his daughters. ¹³ Hanun and the residents of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate, constructing it and installing its doors, bolts, and bars, as well as a thousand cubits of the wall up to the Dung Gate. ¹⁴ Malkijah son of Rekab, official of the district of Beth Hakkerem, repaired the Dung Gate, constructing it and installing its doors, bolts, and bars. ¹⁵ Shallun son of Kol-Hozeh, official of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate, roofing it and installing its doors, bolts, and bars. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Siloam by the King's Garden, as far as the steps descending from the City of David. ¹⁶ Beyond him, Nehemiah son of Azbuk, official of half the district of Beth Zur, made repairs opposite the tombs of David, up to the artificial pool and the House of the Heroes. ¹⁷ Next to him, the Levites carried out repairs under Rehum son of Bani. Beside him, Hashabiah, official of half the district of Keilah, repaired for his district. ¹⁸ Next to him, their fellow Levites under Binnui son of Henadad, official of the other half-district of Keilah, made repairs. ¹⁹ Next to him, Ezer son of Jeshua, official of Mizpah, repaired another section opposite the ascent to the armoury at the angle. ²⁰ Beside him, Baruch son of Zabbai earnestly repaired another section, from the angle to the entrance of the house of Eliashib the high priest. ²¹ Next to him, Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, repaired another section, from the entrance of Eliashib's house to its end. ²² The priests from the surrounding region made repairs next to him. ²³ Beyond them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs in front of their house, with Azariah son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, repairing beside his house. ²⁴ Beside him, Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section, from Azariah's house to the angle and the corner. ²⁵ Palal son of Uzai worked opposite the angle and the tower projecting from the upper palace near the court of the guard. Next to him, Pedaiah son of Parosh made repairs. ²⁶ The temple servants living on the hill of Ophel made repairs up to a point opposite the Water Gate towards the east and the projecting tower. ²⁷ Beside them, the men of Tekoa repaired another section, from the large projecting tower to the wall of Ophel. ²⁸ Above the Horse Gate, the priests repaired, each in front of his own house. ²⁹ Next to them, Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his house, with Shemaiah son of Shekaniah, the guard at the East Gate, making repairs next to him. ³⁰ Beside him, Hananiah son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. Next to them, Meshullam son of Berekiah made repairs opposite his living quarters. ³¹ Next to him, Malkijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs up to the house of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Inspection Gate, and as far as the room above the corner.³² Between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and merchants made repairs.

Nehemiah

4 When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furious and very angry, and he mocked the Jews.² He spoke in the presence of his associates and the army of Samaria, saying, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they restore their wall? Can they offer sacrifices? Will they complete it in a day? Can they revive the stones from the heaps of rubble, even the burned ones?"³ Tobiah the Ammonite, who was near him, said, "What they are building—even if a fox were to climb on it, it would break their stone wall down!"⁴ Hear us, O our God, for we are despised. Turn their insults back on their own heads and make them plunder in a land of captivity.⁵ Do not cover up their guilt or let their sin be wiped out from your sight, for they have demoralised the builders.⁶ Thus, we continued rebuilding the wall until it reached half its height, for the people were fully committed to the work.⁷ When Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repairs to Jerusalem's walls had gone ahead and that the breaches were being closed, they were very angry.⁸ They all conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to cause confusion in it.⁹ In response, we prayed to our God and stationed a guard day and night to protect against this threat.¹⁰ Meanwhile, the people in Judah said, "The strength of the labourers is failing, and there is so much rubble that we cannot rebuild the wall."¹¹ Our enemies said, "Before they know it or see us, we will be right there among them and will kill them and put an end to the work."¹² Then the Jews who lived near them came and repeatedly warned us, "Wherever you turn, they will attack us."¹³ Therefore, I stationed some of the people behind the lowest points of the wall at the exposed places, organizing them by families with their swords, spears, and bows.¹⁴ After I looked things over, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your families, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes."¹⁵ When our enemies heard that we were aware of their plot and that God had thwarted it, we all returned to the wall, each to our own work.¹⁶ From that day forward, half of my men worked on the construction, while the other half were equipped with spears, shields, bows, and armour. The officers stationed themselves behind all the people of Judah.

¹⁷ Those who were building the wall and those who carried materials did their work with one hand and held a weapon in the other.¹⁸ Each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. But the man who sounded the trumpet stayed with me.¹⁹ I addressed the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, saying, "The task is extensive and spread out, and we are widely separated from each other along the wall.²⁰ Whenever you hear the sound of the trumpet, gather to us there. Our God will fight for us!"²¹ Thus, we continued the work with half the men holding spears, from the first light of dawn until the stars appeared.²² At that time I also said to the people, "Let every man and his helper stay inside Jerusalem at night, so they can serve as guards by night and as workers by day."²³ Neither I nor my brothers nor my men nor the guards with me took off our clothes; each kept his weapon, even when he went for water.

5 Now there was a significant outcry from the people and their wives against their Jewish brethren.² Some were saying, "We, along with our sons and daughters, are numerous; therefore, we need to obtain grain so that we may eat and live."³ Others said, "We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards, and our homes to procure grain because of the famine."

⁴ There were also those who said, "We have borrowed money to pay the king's tax on our fields and vineyards.⁵ Now our flesh is the same as that of our brothers, our children are like their children. Yet, we are forcing our sons and daughters into slavery; some of our daughters have already been enslaved, and we are powerless because our fields and vineyards belong to others."⁶ When I heard their outcry and these words, I was exceedingly angry.⁷ After considering the matter, I confronted the nobles and officials, saying, "You are charging interest to your own people!" So, I convened a large assembly against them.⁸ I said to them, "As much as possible, we have redeemed our Jewish brothers who were sold to the Gentiles. Now you are selling your own brothers, only for them to be sold back to us!" They remained silent, unable to find a response.⁹ So I continued, "What you are doing is not right. Should you not walk in the fear of our God to avoid the reproach of our Gentile enemies? ¹⁰ I, my brothers, and my men are also lending them money and grain. Let us cease this interest! ¹¹ Please, restore to them this very day their fields, vineyards, olive groves, and houses, along with the interest you are charging them—the hundredth part of the money, grain, new wine, and oil.” ¹² They responded, “We will restore it and will not demand anything more from them; we will do as you say.” Then I summoned the priests and made the nobles and officials take an oath to do what they had promised. ¹³ I also shook out the folds of my garment and declared, “In this way may God shake out of their house and possessions anyone who does not keep this promise. So may such a person be shaken out and emptied!” The whole assembly said, “Amen,” and praised the Lord. And the people did as they had promised. ¹⁴ Moreover, from the day I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, for twelve years, neither I nor my brothers consumed the governor’s food allowance. ¹⁵ But the previous governors who were before me placed heavy burdens on the people and took from them forty shekels of silver in addition to bread and wine. Even their servants lorded it over the people. But I did not do so because of my reverence for God. ¹⁶ Instead, I devoted myself to the work on this wall. All my men were gathered there for the work; we did not acquire any land. ¹⁷ Furthermore, 150 Jews and officials ate at my table, besides those who came to us from the surrounding nations. ¹⁸ Each day, one ox, six choice sheep, and some poultry were prepared for me, and every ten days an abundant supply of all kinds of wine was provided. Despite all this, I did not demand the governor’s food allowance, because the demands were heavy on these people. ¹⁹ Remember me favourably, my God, for all that I have done for these people.

Nehemiah

6 When it was reported to Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our adversaries that I had rebuilt the wall and that no gap was left in it—though at that time I had not yet set the doors in the gates— ² Sanballat and Geshem sent me a message: “Come, let us meet together in one of the villages on the plain of Ono.” But they were plotting to harm me. ³ So I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am engaged in a significant work and cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and come down to you?” ⁴ They sent me the same message four times, and each time I gave them the same response. ⁵ Then, on the fifth occasion, Sanballat sent his servant to me with the same message, and in his hand was an open letter ⁶ which stated: “It is reported among the nations—and Gashmu confirms it—that you and the Jews are intending to rebel, and that is why you are rebuilding the wall. According to these reports, you are to become their king. ⁷ You have also appointed prophets to proclaim in Jerusalem, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ This report will reach the king; so let us confer together.” ⁸ I sent him this reply: “None of what you are saying has occurred; you are inventing it in your own mind.” ⁹ They were all trying to intimidate us, thinking, “Their hands will become too weak for the work, and it will not be finished.” But I prayed, “Now, God, strengthen my hands.” ¹⁰ I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel, who was confined at home. He said, “Let us meet in the house of God, inside the temple, and close the temple doors, for they are coming to kill you—at night they are coming to kill you.” ¹¹ But I said, “Should a man like me flee? And who like me would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.” ¹² Then I realised that God had not sent him, but he had uttered his prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³ He was hired to intimidate me so that I would act in fear and sin, and they might have grounds for an evil report to disgrace me. ¹⁴ Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat for their deeds, and also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who were trying to intimidate me. ¹⁵ Thus the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of Elul, in fifty-two days. ¹⁶ When all our enemies heard of this, and all the surrounding nations saw it, they lost their confidence, for they realised that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God. ¹⁷ In those days, the nobles of Judah were sending many letters to Tobiah, and letters from Tobiah were coming to them. ¹⁸ For many in Judah were bound by oath to him, since he was son-in-law to Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah. ¹⁹ Moreover, they were speaking of his good deeds in my presence, and reporting my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

Nehemiah

7 When the wall was completed and the doors were set in place, I appointed the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites. ² I appointed my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the commander of the fortress, in charge of Jerusalem, for he was a trustworthy man who feared God more than many others. ³ I instructed them, "Do not open the gates of Jerusalem until the sun is high. While the gatekeepers are still on duty, let them close and bolt the doors. Also, appoint guards from the inhabitants of Jerusalem, each at his station and in front of his own house."

⁴ The city was large and spacious, but the population was small, and the houses had not been rebuilt. ⁵ Then my God put it into my heart to gather the nobles, the officials, and the common people for registration by families. I found the genealogical record of those who had first returned, and this is what I discovered: ⁶ These are the people of the province who returned from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, had taken into exile. They returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town, ⁷ accompanying Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah. The list of the men of Israel:

⁸ the line of Parosh, numbered 2,172; ⁹ the line of Shephatiah, numbered 372; ¹⁰ the line of Arah, numbered 652; ¹¹ the line of Pahath-Moab, numbered through the line of Jeshua and Joab, 2,818; ¹² the line of Elam, numbered 1,254; ¹³ the line of Zattu, numbered 845; ¹⁴ the line of Zaccai, numbered 760; ¹⁵ the line of Binnui, numbered 648; ¹⁶ the line of Bebai, numbered 628; ¹⁷ the line of Azgad, numbered 2,322; ¹⁸ the line of Adonikam, numbered 667; ¹⁹ the line of Bigvai, numbered 2,067; ²⁰ the line of Adin, numbered 655; ²¹ the line of Ater, numbered through Hezekiah, 98; ²² the line of Hashum, numbered 328; ²³ the line of Bezai, numbered 324; ²⁴ the line of Hariph, numbered 112; ²⁵ the line of Gibeon, numbered 95;

²⁶ the people of Bethlehem and Netophah, numbered 188; ²⁷ the people of Anathoth, numbered 128; ²⁸ the people of Beth Azmaveth, numbered 42; ²⁹ the people of Kiriath Jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth, numbered 743; ³⁰ the people of Ramah and Geba, numbered 621; ³¹ the people of Michmas, numbered 122; ³² the people of Bethel and Ai, numbered 123; ³³ the people of the other Nebo, numbered 52; ³⁴ the line of the other Elam, numbered 1,254; ³⁵ the line of Harim, numbered 320; ³⁶ the people of Jericho, numbering 345; ³⁷ the people of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, numbered 721; ³⁸ the line of Senaah, numbered 3,930.

³⁹ The priests:

the line of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, numbered 973; ⁴⁰ the line of Immer, numbered 1,052; ⁴¹ the line of Pashhur, numbered 1,247; ⁴² the line of Harim, numbered 1,017.

⁴³ The Levites:

the line of Jeshua, through Kadmiel, through the line of Hodevah, numbered 74.

⁴⁴ The singers:

the line of Asaph, numbered 148.

⁴⁵ The gatekeepers:

the line of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, and Shobai, numbered 138.

⁴⁶ The temple servants: the line of Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,

⁴⁷ the line of Keros, Sia, and Padon, ⁴⁸ the line of Lebane, Hagaba, and Shalmaï, ⁴⁹ the line of Hanan, Giddel, and Gahar, ⁵⁰ the line of Reaiah, Rezin, and Nekoda, ⁵¹ the line of Gazzam, Uzza, and Paseah, ⁵² the line of Besai, Meunim, and the temple servant Nephushesim, ⁵³ the line of Bakbuk, Hakupha, and Harhur, ⁵⁴ the line of Bazluth, Mehida, and Harsha, ⁵⁵ the line of Barkos, Sisera, and Temah, ⁵⁶ the line of Nezhiah, and Hatipha.

⁵⁷ The descendants of Solomon's servants: the descendants of Sotai, Sophereth, and Perida, ⁵⁸ the descendants of Jaala, Darkon, and Giddel, ⁵⁹ the descendants of Shephatiah, Hattil, Pochereth-Hazzebaim, and the temple servant Amon. ⁶⁰ The temple servants and the descendants of Solomon's servants totalled 392.

⁶¹ These were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer, but they could not prove their families or their descent, whether they were of Israel: ⁶² the families of

Nehemiah

Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda, 642. ⁶³ And from among the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai, who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and took that name.

⁶⁴ These searched for their family records, but they could not find them and were thus excluded from the priesthood as unclean. ⁶⁵ The governor ordered them not to eat any of the most sacred food until a priest arose with Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁶ The whole assembly numbered 42,360, ⁶⁷ in addition to their 7,337 male and female servants; and they also had 245 singers, both male and female. ⁶⁸ They possessed 736 horses, 245 mules, ⁶⁹ and had 435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys.

⁷⁰ Some of the heads of the families contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 gold drachmas, 50 bowls, and 530 garments for priests. ⁷¹ Some of the heads of the families gave to the treasury for the work 20,000 gold drachmas and 2,200 silver minas. ⁷² The rest of the people gave 20,000 gold drachmas, 2,000 silver minas, and 67 garments for priests. ⁷³ The priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, and all Israel settled in their towns. When the seventh month came, the Israelites were in their towns.

8 All the people gathered together as one in the square before the Water Gate, and they requested Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel. ² So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, which included men, women, and all who could understand, on the first day of the seventh month. ³ He read from it aloud from early morning until midday in front of the square before the Water Gate, in the presence of men, women, and those who could understand, and all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

⁴ Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform constructed for the occasion. Beside him on his right stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah; and on his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam. ⁵ Ezra opened the book in full view of all the people, for he was above them; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. ⁶ Ezra praised the Lord, the great God, and all the people responded,

"Amen, Amen!" while lifting their hands. Then they bowed down and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground. ⁷ The Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah—explained the Law to the people while they stood in their places. ⁸ They read from the Book of the Law of God, making it clear and providing the meaning so that the people understood what was read.

⁹ Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were instructing the people said to them all, "This day is holy to the Lord your God. Do not mourn or weep." For all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the Law. ¹⁰ Nehemiah said, "Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and send portions to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the Lord is your strength." ¹¹ The Levites calmed all the people, saying, "Be still, for this is a holy day. Do not be grieved." ¹² Then all the people departed to eat and drink, to share portions of food, and to celebrate with great joy, because they now understood the words that had been explained to them.

¹³ On the second day, the heads of all the families, along with the priests and the Levites, gathered around Ezra the scribe to gain insight into the words of the Law. ¹⁴ They found written in the Law that the Lord had commanded through Moses that the Israelites were to dwell in temporary shelters during the festival of the seventh month. ¹⁵ And they were to proclaim this message and spread it throughout their towns and in Jerusalem: "Go out to the hills and bring back branches from olive and wild olive trees, myrtles, palms, and other leafy trees to make temporary shelters, as it is written." ¹⁶ So the people went out and brought back branches and built themselves temporary shelters on their roofs, in their courtyards, in the courts of the house of God, and in the square by the Water Gate and the one by the Gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷ The whole assembly that had returned from exile made temporary shelters and lived in them. From the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated in this way. And their joy was exceedingly great. ¹⁸ Day after day, from the first day to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the festival for seven days, and on the eighth day, in accordance with the ordinance, there was a solemn assembly.

Nehemiah

9 On the twenty-fourth day of this month, the Israelites assembled together, fasting, in sackcloth, and with dust upon their heads. ² The descendants of Israel had separated themselves from all foreigners, and they stood and confessed their sins and the wrongdoings of their fathers. ³ While standing in their places, they read from the Book of the Law of the Lord their God for a quarter of the day, and for another quarter, they confessed and worshipped the Lord their God. ⁴ Standing on the platform of the Levites were Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and they cried out with loud voices to the Lord their God. ⁵ Then the Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah—said, “Arise, bless the Lord your God, who is from everlasting to everlasting. May your glorious name be blessed and exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶ You alone are the Lord. You made the heavens, the heaven of heavens with all their starry host, the earth and everything on it, the seas and all that is in them. You give life to all of them, and the heavenly host worships you. ⁷ You are the Lord God, who chose Abram and brought him out from Ur of the Chaldeans and gave him the name Abraham. ⁸ You found his heart faithful before you, and made a covenant with him to give to his descendants the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites, and Girgashites. You have fulfilled your promise, for you are righteous. ⁹ You saw the affliction of our ancestors in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Red Sea. ¹⁰ You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, against all his servants and all the people of his land, for you knew how arrogantly they treated them. You made a name for yourself, which remains to this day. ¹¹ You divided the sea before them, so they passed through the midst of the sea on dry ground, and you hurled their pursuers into the depths, like a stone into mighty waters. ¹² With a pillar of cloud you led them by day, and with a pillar of fire by night to light for them the way they were to go. ¹³ You came down on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. You gave them just ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments. ¹⁴ You made known to them your holy Sabbath and gave them commandments, statutes, and laws through your servant Moses. ¹⁵ In their hunger, you provided bread from heaven for them, and in their thirst, you brought forth water from the rock; you told them to go in and take possession of the land you had sworn to give them. ¹⁶ But they, our ancestors, acted arrogantly and became stiff-necked, and they did not obey your commandments. ¹⁷ They refused to listen and did not remember the wondrous deeds you performed among them. They became stubborn and appointed a leader to return to their slavery. But you are a forgiving God, gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in mercy; you did not abandon them. ¹⁸ Even when they fashioned a calf from molten metal and declared, ‘This is your god who brought you up from Egypt,’ and committed great blasphemies, ¹⁹ In your great compassion, you did not abandon them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud did not leave them by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, to light for them the way they were to go. ²⁰ You gave your good Spirit to instruct them, did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and gave them water for their thirst. ²¹ For forty years you sustained them in the wilderness; they lacked nothing, their clothes did not wear out, nor did their feet swell. ²² You gave them kingdoms and peoples, allotting them even the remotest frontiers. They took possession of the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and the land of Og king of Bashan. ²³ You made their children as numerous as the stars in the sky, and brought them into the land you had promised their ancestors to enter and possess. ²⁴ Their children went in and took possession of the land. You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and handed them over to them, with their kings and the peoples of the land, to deal with them as they desired. ²⁵ They captured fortified cities and a fertile land; they took possession of houses filled with every good thing, wells already dug, vineyards, olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance. They ate to the full, were well-nourished, and revelled in your great goodness. ²⁶ But they became disobedient and rebelled against you; they turned their backs on your law. They killed your prophets, who had warned them to turn them back to you, and they committed great blasphemies. ²⁷ So you delivered them into the hands of their enemies, who oppressed them. But when they cried out to you in their distress, you heard from heaven, and in your great compassion, you gave them deliverers who rescued them from the hand of their enemies.²⁸ But as soon as they had rest, they did evil again before you; therefore you abandoned them to the hand of their enemies, so they ruled over them. When they cried out to you again, you heard from heaven, and many times you rescued them according to your compassion.²⁹ You warned them to turn back to your law, but they acted arrogantly and did not listen to your commandments. They sinned against your ordinances, which, if a person follows them, he will live by them. They turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened their neck, refusing to listen.³⁰ Yet you were patient with them for many years, and admonished them by your Spirit through your prophets, but they would not listen. Therefore, you handed them over to the peoples of the lands.³¹ Nevertheless, in your great mercy, you did not put an end to them or abandon them, for you are a gracious and compassionate God.

Nehemiah

³² Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps his covenant and faithfulness, do not let all the hardship seem insignificant before you, which has come upon us, our kings, our leaders, our priests, our prophets, our ancestors, and all your people, from the days of the kings of Assyria to this day.³³ In all that has happened to us, you have remained righteous; you have acted faithfully, while we have acted wickedly.³⁴ Our kings, our leaders, our priests, and our ancestors did not follow your law or pay attention to your commandments and your admonitions with which you admonished them.³⁵ Even while they were in their kingdom, enjoying your great goodness in the spacious and fertile land you gave them, they did not serve you or turn from their evil ways.

³⁶ Behold, we are slaves today, slaves in the land you gave to our ancestors to eat its fruit and its bounty.³⁷ Because of our sins, its abundant produce goes to the kings you have set over us. They rule over our bodies and our cattle as they please, and we are in great distress.³⁸ Now because of all this, we are making a binding agreement in writing, and our leaders, our Levites, and our priests are affixing their seals to it.

10 Upon the sealed document were the names of: Nehemiah the governor, son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah,

² Seraiah, Azariah, and Jeremiah, ³ Pashhur, Amariah, and Malchijah, ⁴ Hattush, Shebaniah, and Malluch, ⁵ Harim, Meremoth, and Obadiah, ⁶ Daniel, Ginnethon, and Baruch, ⁷ Meshullam, Abijah, and Mijamin, ⁸ Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah were the priests. ⁹ And the Levites: Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, and Kadmiel; ¹⁰ together with their brethren: Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, and Hanan, ¹¹ Mica, Rehob, and Hashabiah, ¹² Zaccur, Sherebiah, and Shebaniah, ¹³ Hodiah, and Bani, and Beninu.

¹⁴ The leaders of the people:

Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, and Bani, ¹⁵ Bunni, Azgad, and Bebai, ¹⁶ Adonijah, Bigvai, and Adin, ¹⁷ Ater, Hezekiah, and Azzur, ¹⁸ Hodiah, Hashum, and Bezai, ¹⁹ Hariph, Anathoth, and Nebai, ²⁰ Magpiash, Meshullam, and Hezir, ²¹ Meshezabel, Zadok, and Jaddua, ²² Pelatiah, Hanan, and Anaiah, ²³ Hoshea, Hananiah, and Hasshub, ²⁴ Hallohes, Pilha, and Shobek, ²⁵ Rehum, Hashabnah, and Maaseiah, ²⁶ Ahiah, Hanan, and Anan, ²⁷ Malluch, and Harim, and Baanah.

²⁸ Now the rest of the people—the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, together with their wives, their sons, and their daughters, all who had knowledge and understanding—²⁹ are joining with their kinsmen, the nobles, and are taking upon themselves a curse and an oath to walk in God's Law, which was given through Moses, God's servant, and to keep and observe all the commands, regulations, and decrees of the Lord our God.³⁰ And that we will not give our daughters in marriage to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons.³¹ As for the peoples of the land who bring merchandise or grain on the Sabbath day to sell, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or on any holy day; and we will forgo the crops of the seventh year and every debt.

³² We also imposed upon ourselves the obligation to contribute annually a third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God:³³ for the showbread, for the regular grain offerings and burnt offerings, for the Sabbaths, the new moons, the appointed festivals, for the holy offerings, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the duties of the house of our God. ³⁴ Likewise, we cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people for the supply of wood, to bring it to the house of our God, according to our families, at set times annually, to burn on the altar of the Lord our God, as it is written in the Law. ³⁵ We also take upon ourselves the responsibility to bring to the house of the Lord each year the firstfruits of our ground and the firstfruits of all the fruit of every tree. ³⁶ And to bring to the house of our God the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, as it is written in the Law, and the firstborn of our herds and our flocks, to the priests ministering in the house of our God. ³⁷ Moreover, we will bring the first of our dough, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, the new wine, and the oil to the priests at the chambers of the house of our God, and the tithe of our ground to the Levites, for the Levites are they who receive the tithes in all the rural towns. ³⁸ And the priest, a descendant of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes, and the Levites shall bring a tenth of the tithes up to the house of our God, to the chambers of the storehouse. ³⁹ For the people of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring the contribution of grain, new wine, and oil to the storerooms, where the articles for the sanctuary, the ministering priests, the gatekeepers, and the singers are kept. Thus, we will not neglect the house of our God.

Nehemiah

11 The leaders of the people took up residence in Jerusalem, while the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten to dwell in Jerusalem, the holy city, with the remaining nine staying in their respective towns. ² The people praised all those who willingly chose to live in Jerusalem. ³ These are the heads of the provinces who settled in Jerusalem. In the cities of Judah, each lived on his own property—the Israelites, priests, Levites, temple servants, and descendants of Solomon's servants. ⁴ Some of the sons of Judah and Benjamin resided in Jerusalem.

From the sons of Judah:

Athaiah son of Uziah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mahalalel, of the lineage of Perez; ⁵ and Maaseiah son of Baruch, son of Kol-Hozeh, son of Hazaiah, son of Adaiah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, a descendant of Shelah. ⁶ The descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem numbered 468 men of valour.

⁷ From the sons of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiah, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiiah; ⁸ and those with him, Gabbai and Sallai—928 men. ⁹ Joel son of Zikri was their chief officer, and Judah son of Hassenuah was second in command over the city. ¹⁰ Among the priests were Jedaiah son of Joiarib, and Jakin; ¹¹ Seraiah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the official in charge of the house of God, ¹² and their associates who performed the work of the temple—822 men; Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pelaliah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malkijah, ¹³ and his associates, heads of families—242 men; Amashsai son of Azarel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer, ¹⁴ and their brethren, valiant warriors—128. Their chief officer was Zabdiel son of Haggadolim. ¹⁵ Among the Levites were Shemaiah, descendant of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, son of Bunni; ¹⁶ Shabbethai and Jozabad, leaders among the Levites, who were responsible for the external work of the house of God; ¹⁷ Mattaniah son of Mika, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, the leader who began the thanksgiving in prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his brethren; and Abda son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun. ¹⁸ The Levites residing in the holy city numbered 284. ¹⁹ The gatekeepers: Akkub, Talmon and their brethren, who kept watch at the gates—172 men. ²⁰ The rest of the Israelites, along with the priests and Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, each on his ancestral property. ²¹ The temple servants resided on the hill of Ophel, with Ziha and Gishpa overseeing them. ²² The chief officer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, son of Hashabiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Mika, from the descendants of Asaph, who were the singers responsible for the service of the house of God. ²³ There was a royal command concerning the singers, regulating their daily tasks. ²⁴ Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, from the descendants of Zerah son of Judah, was the king's representative for every matter concerning the people. ²⁵ As for the villages with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and its surrounding settlements, in Dibon and its villages, and in Jekabzeel and its settlements, ²⁶ in the towns of Jeshua, Moladah, and Beth Pelet, ²⁷ in Hazar Shual, Beersheba and its settlements, ²⁸ in Ziklag, Meconah and its settlements, ²⁹ in En Rimmon, Zorah, and Jarmuth, ³⁰ Zanoah, Adullam and their villages, Lachish and its fields, and Azekah and its settlements. Thus they dwell from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom. ³¹ The sons of Benjamin resided from Geba, at Michmash, Aija, Bethel and its settlements, ³² at Anathoth, Nob, and Ananiah, ³³ at Hazor, Ramah, and Gittaim, ³⁴ at Hadid, Zeboim, and Neballat, ³⁵ at Lod and Ono, in the Valley of Craftsmen. ³⁶ Some divisions of the Levites from Judah were assigned to Benjamin.

Nehemiah

12 These are the priests and Levites who came up with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and with Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, ² Amariah, Malluch, and Hattush, ³ Shecaniah, Rehum, and Meremoth, ⁴ Iddo, Ginnethon, and Abijah, ⁵ Mijamin, Maadiah, and Bilgah, ⁶ Shemaiah, Joiarib, and Jedaiah, ⁷ Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, and Jedaiah. These were the leaders of the priests and their kinsmen in the days of Jeshua.

⁸ Among the Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who, along with his brothers, was responsible for the songs of thanksgiving. ⁹ Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, stood opposite them in their service divisions. ¹⁰ Jeshua became the father of Joiakim, Joiakim became the father of Eliashib, and Eliashib became the father of Joiada, ¹¹ Joiada became the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan became the father of Jaddua. ¹² During the time of Joiakim, these were the heads of the priestly families: from Seraiah's family, Meraiah; from Jeremiah's, Hananiah; ¹³ From Ezra's family, Meshullam; from Amariah's, Jehohanan; ¹⁴ From Malluchi's, Jonathan; from Shebaniah's, Joseph; ¹⁵ From Harim's, Adna; from Meraioth's, Helkai; ¹⁶ From Iddo's, Zechariah; from Ginnethon's, Meshullam; ¹⁷ From Abijah's, Zichri; from Moadiah's, Piltai, of the land of Miniamin; ¹⁸ From Bilgah's, Shammua; from Shemaiah's, Jehonathan; ¹⁹ From Joiarib's, Mattenai; from Jedaiah's, Uzzi; ²⁰ From Sallai's, Kallai; from Amok's, Eber; ²¹ From Hilkiyah's, Hashabiah; from Jedaiah's, Nethanel. ²² The heads of the Levites were recorded in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua, as well as the priests in the reign of Darius the Persian. ²³ The sons of Levi, the heads of families, were recorded in the Book of the Chronicles up to the days of Johanan son of Eliashib. ²⁴ The leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua son of Kadmiel, and their brothers, who stood opposite them to give praise and thanksgiving, one section responding to the other, as prescribed by David the man of God. ²⁵ Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers who kept watch at the storerooms of the gates. ²⁶ They served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest and scribe. ²⁷ At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, the Levites were sought out from all their places to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with joy, with songs of thanksgiving and with the music of cymbals, harps, and lyres. ²⁸ The sons of the singers gathered together from the region around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathites, ²⁹ from Beth-gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had established villages for themselves around Jerusalem. ³⁰ The priests and Levites purified themselves; they also purified the people, the gates, and the wall. ³¹ Then I had the leaders of Judah go up on top of the wall, and I appointed two large choirs to give thanks. One was to proceed to the right on top of the wall toward the Dung Gate. ³² Hoshaiiah, along with half of the leaders of Judah, followed them, ³³ together with Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, ³⁴ Judah, and Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, ³⁵ and some of the priests with trumpets, and also Zechariah son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph, ³⁶ and his kinsmen—Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani—with the musical instruments of David the man of God. Ezra the scribe led them. ³⁷ At the Fountain Gate they went directly up the steps of the City of David on the ascent to the wall and passed above the house of David to the Water Gate on the east. ³⁸ The second choir proceeded to the left, and I followed them with half of the people on the wall, above the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall, ³⁹ over the Gate of Ephraim, the Jeshanah Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel, and the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate; and they stopped at the Gate of the Guard. ⁴⁰ The two choirs that offered thanks then took their places in the house of God; I also took my place there, along with half the officials,⁴¹ and the priests—Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah with their trumpets—⁴² and Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang under the direction of Jezrahiah.⁴³ On that day they offered great sacrifices, rejoicing because God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The sound of rejoicing in Jerusalem could be heard far away.

Nehemiah

⁴⁴ At that time men were appointed over the storerooms for the contributions, firstfruits, and tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions required by the Law for the priests and Levites, for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who served.⁴⁵ They performed the worship of their God and the service of purification, as did also the singers and gatekeepers, according to the command of David and his son Solomon.⁴⁶ For in the days of David and Asaph, in ancient times, there were leaders of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.⁴⁷ So all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah gave the portions due to the singers and the gatekeepers as each day required, and they set apart the consecrated portion for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the consecrated portion for the sons of Aaron.

13 On that day, as the Book of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people, it was discovered that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be admitted into the assembly of God,² because they did not meet the Israelites with bread and water, but instead hired Balaam to curse them. However, our God turned the curse into a blessing.³ When they heard this law, they excluded all those of foreign descent from Israel.

⁴ Before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the storerooms of the house of our God, was closely related to Tobiah,⁵ and he had prepared a large room for him, which had previously been used to store the grain offerings, incense, temple articles, and the tithes of grain, new wine, and olive oil prescribed for the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers, as well as the contributions for the priests.

⁶ But during all this, I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon,

I had returned to the king. Later, I requested leave of absence from the king⁷ and returned to Jerusalem. There, I learned about the evil thing Eliashib had done for Tobiah by providing him a room in the courts of the house of God.⁸ I was very displeased and threw all of Tobiah's household goods out of the room.⁹ I ordered the rooms to be purified, and then I restored the equipment of the house of God, along with the grain offerings and incense.¹⁰ I also discovered that the portions assigned to the Levites had not been given to them, so the Levites and singers responsible for the service had returned to their own fields.¹¹ So I rebuked the officials and asked, "Why is the house of God neglected?" Then I gathered them together and stationed them at their posts.¹² All Judah then brought the tithes of grain, new wine, and olive oil into the storerooms.¹³ I appointed Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and a Levite named Pedaiah to be in charge of the storerooms, and made Hanan son of Zakkur, the son of Mattaniah, their assistant, because they were considered reliable. They were responsible for distributing the supplies to their fellow Levites.

¹⁴ Remember me for this, my God, and do not erase what I have so faithfully done for the house of my God and its services.¹⁵ In those days, I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath and bringing in sacks of grain, loading them on donkeys, along with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of loads. They were bringing all this into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I warned them against selling food on that day.¹⁶ People from Tyre who lived in Jerusalem were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling them to the people of Judah on the Sabbath, even in Jerusalem.¹⁷ I reprimanded the nobles of Judah and said, "What is this wicked thing you are doing—desecrating the Sabbath day?¹⁸ Did your ancestors not do the same things, causing our God to bring all this calamity upon us and upon this city? Now you are stirring up more wrath against Israel by desecrating the Sabbath."

¹⁹ As evening shadows fell on the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I ordered the doors to be shut and not opened until after the Sabbath. I stationed some of my own men at the gates so that no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day.²⁰ On a few occasions, the merchants and sellers of various goods stayed the night outside Jerusalem. ²¹ But I warned them and said, "Why do you spend the night by the wall? If you do this again, I will use force against you." From that time on, they no longer came on the Sabbath. ²² Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and to guard the gates in order to keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember me for this also, my God, and show mercy to me according to Your great love. ²³ Furthermore, in those days I saw men of Judah who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. ²⁴ Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or the language of one of the other peoples, and were not fluent in the language of Judah. ²⁵ So I rebuked them and called curses down on them. I beat some of the men and pulled out their hair. I made them take an oath in God's name and said: "You shall not give your daughters in marriage to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons or for yourselves. ²⁶ Did Solomon king of Israel not sin because of such marriages? Among the many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel, yet even he was led into sin by foreign women. ²⁷ Must we hear now that you too are committing all this great evil and are being unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women?" ²⁸ One of the sons of Joiada, son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. So I drove him away from me.

Nehemiah

²⁹ Remember them, my God, for they have brought disgrace upon the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites. ³⁰ So I purified the priests and the Levites of everything foreign, and assigned duties to each, according to his task. ³¹ I also arranged for contributions of wood at designated times, and for the firstfruits. Remember me with kindness, my God.

Esther

1 In the days of Ahasuerus, the Ahasuerus who reigned over 127 provinces from India to Cush, ² during the time when King Ahasuerus was seated on his royal throne in the fortress of Susa, ³ in the third year of his reign, he held a banquet for all his officials and servants, the military leaders of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the princes of the provinces being present.

⁴ He displayed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the splendour of his majesty for many days, 180 days in total. ⁵ When these days were completed, the king held a banquet lasting seven days for all the people present in the citadel of Susa, from the greatest to the least, in the courtyard of the garden of the king's palace. ⁶ There were hangings of fine white and blue linen, fastened with cords of fine purple linen to silver rings on marble pillars. The couches were of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl, and other costly stones. ⁷ Drinks were served in golden goblets, each different from the other, and the royal wine was abundant in accordance with the king's generosity. ⁸ By the king's command, there was no compulsion in drinking, for he had instructed all the stewards to serve each man what he desired.

⁹ Queen Vashti also held a banquet for the women in the royal palace of King Ahasuerus. ¹⁰ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Karkas, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus, ¹¹ to bring Queen Vashti before the king with her royal crown, to show her beauty to the people and the officials, for she was lovely to behold. ¹² But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command delivered by the eunuchs. Then the king was furious, and his anger burned within him. ¹³ Then the king consulted the wise men who understood the times, for it was the custom of the king to speak before all who knew law and justice, ¹⁴ and who were closest to him: Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven nobles of Persia and Media who had access to the king and were highest in the kingdom.

¹⁵ "What shall be done according to the law to Queen Vashti," he asked, "because she has not carried out the command of King Ahasuerus delivered by the eunuchs?" ¹⁶ Then Memucan replied in the presence of the king and the nobles, "Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king but also all the nobles and the peoples in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus. ¹⁷ For the queen's behaviour will become known to all women, causing them to look with contempt on their husbands, saying, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, but she did not come.' ¹⁸ This very day the noble women of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's conduct will respond in the same way to all the king's officials, resulting in much contempt and wrath. ¹⁹ If it pleases the king, let a royal decree be issued and recorded in the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be repealed, that Vashti is never again to enter the presence of King Ahasuerus. Also, let the king give her royal position to another who is better than she. ²⁰ When the king's decree is proclaimed throughout his vast kingdom, all women will give honour to their husbands, from the greatest to the least." ²¹ The proposal pleased the king and the princes, and the king did as Memucan proposed. ²² He sent letters to all the king's provinces, to each province in its own script and to every people in their own language, declaring that every man should be ruler in his own household and speak according to the language of his people.

2 After these events, when the anger of King Xerxes had subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done, and what had been decreed against her. ² Then the king's attendants who served him suggested, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king. ³ Let the king appoint commissioners in all the provinces of his kingdom to gather all the beautiful young virgins to the citadel of Susa, to the harem, under the supervision of Hegai, the king's eunuch who is in charge of the women; and let beauty treatments be provided for them. ⁴ Then let the young woman who pleases the king be made queen in place of Vashti." This proposal pleased the king, and he acted accordingly.

⁵ Now there was a Jew in the citadel of Susa named Mordecai, son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite, ⁶ who had been taken into exile from Jerusalem with the captives who had been deported with Jehoiachin king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken into exile. ⁷ Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah, also known as Esther, whom he had brought up because she had neither father nor mother. This young woman was lovely in form and features, and when her father and mother died, Mordecai adopted her as his own daughter.

Esther

⁸ When the king's command and edict had been proclaimed, many young women were brought to the citadel of Susa and placed under the care of Hegai. Esther also was taken to the king's palace and entrusted to Hegai, who was in charge of the harem.

⁹ She pleased him and won his favour. Immediately he provided her with beauty treatments and special food. He assigned to her seven chosen female attendants from the king's palace and moved her and her attendants to the best place in the harem. ¹⁰ Esther had not revealed her nationality or family background, because Mordecai had instructed her not to do so. ¹¹ Every day Mordecai walked back and forth near the courtyard of the harem to find out how Esther was and what was happening to her. ¹² Before a young woman's turn came to go in to King Xerxes, she had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments as prescribed: six months with oil of myrrh and six months with perfumes and cosmetics. ¹³ And this is how she would go to the king: anything she desired was given to her to take with her from the harem to the king's palace. ¹⁴ In the evening she would go in and in the morning return to another part of the harem, under the care of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the concubines. She would not return to the king unless he was pleased with her and summoned her by name.

¹⁵ When the turn came for Esther, the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai who had adopted her as his daughter, to go in to the king, she requested nothing other than what Hegai, the king's eunuch in charge of the harem, suggested. And Esther found favour in the eyes of all who saw her. ¹⁶ Esther was taken to King Xerxes in the royal palace in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. ¹⁷ The king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she found favour and kindness with him more than all the other virgins. So he set a royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti. ¹⁸ Then the king gave a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his nobles and officials. He proclaimed a holiday throughout the provinces and distributed gifts with royal generosity.

¹⁹ When the virgins were gathered together a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate. ²⁰ Esther had not revealed her family background or her people, just as Mordecai had instructed her, for she continued to follow Mordecai's instructions as she had when he was bringing her up. ²¹ While Mordecai was at the king's gate, Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the entrance, became angry and plotted to harm King Xerxes. ²² But the plot became known to Mordecai, and he informed Queen Esther, who reported it to the king, giving credit to Mordecai. ²³ When the report was investigated and found to be true, the two officials were hanged on a gallows. All this was recorded in the book of the chronicles in the presence of the king.

3 After these events, King Xerxes honoured Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite, elevating him and establishing his authority over all the other officials. ² All the king's servants at the king's gate bowed down and paid homage to Haman, for the king had commanded this concerning him. But Mordecai neither bowed down nor paid him homage.

³ Then the king's servants at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?" ⁴ Day after day they spoke to him, but he refused to listen. Therefore, they reported it to Haman to see whether Mordecai's reason would be tolerated, for he had informed them that he was a Jew.

⁵ When Haman saw that Mordecai neither bowed down nor paid him homage, he was filled with rage. ⁶ Having learned who Mordecai's people were, he deemed it beneath him to kill only Mordecai. Instead, Haman sought to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, throughout the kingdom of Xerxes. ⁷ In the twelfth year of King Xerxes, in the first month, the month of Nisan, the pur (that is, the lot) was cast in Haman's presence to determine the day and month, and the lot fell on the twelfth month, the month of Adar. ⁸ Then Haman said to King Xerxes, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom. Their customs are different from all other people, and they do not obey the king's laws; it is not in the king's interest to tolerate them. ⁹ If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who manage the king's affairs for the royal treasury."¹⁰ The king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

Esther

¹¹ The king said to Haman, "Keep the silver, and do with the people as you please."

¹² On the thirteenth day of the first month, the king's scribes were summoned, and they wrote out all of Haman's orders to the king's satraps, the governors of each province, and the officials of every people, each province in its own script and each people in their own language. These were written in the name of King Xerxes and sealed with his ring.¹³ Dispatches were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces with orders to destroy, kill, and annihilate all the Jews—young and old, women and children—on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, and to plunder their goods.¹⁴ A copy of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to all peoples so that they would be ready for that day.¹⁵ The couriers went out, hastened by the king's command, and the decree was issued in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was bewildered.

4 When Mordecai discovered all that had been done, he tore his clothes, donned sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the centre of the city, wailing loudly and bitterly.² He went as far as the king's gate, as no one was permitted to enter the king's gate wearing sackcloth.³ In every province where the king's command and decree reached, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and lamentation; many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴ When Esther's eunuchs and female attendants came and informed her about Mordecai, she was seized with great distress. She sent garments for Mordecai to wear in place of his sackcloth, but he refused to accept them.⁵ Then Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs appointed to attend her, and instructed him to go to Mordecai to learn what was troubling him and why.

⁶ Hathach went up to Mordecai in the main city square near the king's gate.⁷ Mordecai recounted to him all that had happened to him, including the precise sum of money Haman had promised to deposit into the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews.⁸ He also handed him a copy of the edict for their annihilation, which had been published in Susa, to show to Esther and to explain it to her, instructing her to go into the king's presence to seek his favour and plead with him for her people.

⁹ Hathach returned and relayed Mordecai's words to Esther.¹⁰ Then Esther instructed Hathach to respond to Mordecai:¹¹ "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that any man or woman who approaches the king in the inner court without being summoned faces the same law: death, unless the king extends the golden sceptre to them so that they may live. I have not been summoned to come to the king for thirty days."¹² Esther's words were conveyed to Mordecai.¹³ Mordecai sent back this reply to Esther: "Do not think that because you are in the king's house you alone of all the Jews will escape.¹⁴ For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have attained your royal position for such a time as this?"

¹⁵ Esther then replied to Mordecai:¹⁶ "Go, gather all the Jews who are in Susa, and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my attendants will fast as you do. After that, I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. And if I perish, I perish."¹⁷ So Mordecai went away and did everything as Esther had instructed him.

5 On the third day, Esther donned her royal apparel and stood in the inner courtyard of the king's palace, facing the entrance to the king's hall. The king was seated on his royal throne in the throne room, opposite the entrance.² When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the courtyard, she found favour in his eyes; and he extended to her the golden sceptre that was in his hand. Esther approached and touched the top of the sceptre.

³ The king then asked, "What troubles you, Queen Esther? What is your request? Up to half the kingdom, it shall be granted to you."⁴ Esther answered, "If it pleases the king, may the king and Haman come today to a banquet I have prepared for him."⁵ The king said, "Bring Haman quickly so that we may do as Esther desires." So the king and

Esther

Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared.⁶ As they drank wine at the banquet, the king asked Esther, "What is your petition? It will be granted to you. And what is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it shall be fulfilled."

⁷ Esther responded, "Here is my petition and my request:⁸ If I have found favour in the king's sight, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfil my request, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet I will prepare for them. Then I will answer the king's question."⁹ Haman left that day joyful and with a glad heart. But when he saw Mordecai at the king's gate, and noticed that Mordecai neither stood up nor showed fear in his presence, Haman was filled with rage against him.¹⁰ Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home.

He called together his friends and Zeresh, his wife,¹¹ and boasted to them about his great wealth, his many sons, and all the ways the king had honoured him and elevated him above the other officials and servants.¹² Haman added, "Moreover, Queen Esther invited no one but me to accompany the king to the banquet she prepared. And tomorrow, I am again invited by her along with the king."¹³ Yet all this gives me no satisfaction as long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

¹⁴ His wife Zeresh and all his friends suggested, "Have a gallows built, fifty cubits high, and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then go joyfully with the king to the banquet." This advice pleased Haman, and he had the gallows constructed.

6 That night, the king could not sleep, so he commanded that the book of the chronicles, the records of his reign, be brought and read to him.² It was discovered there that Mordecai had reported Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the entrance, who had plotted to attack King Xerxes.³ The king asked, "What honour or recognition has been given to Mordecai for this?" The king's attendants replied, "Nothing has been done for him."

⁴ The king then said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows he had prepared for him.⁵ The king's servants answered, "Haman is standing in the court." The king said, "Bring him in."⁶ When Haman came in, the king asked him, "What should be done for the man whom the king wishes to honour?"

Haman thought to himself, "Whom would the king wish to honour more than me?"⁷ So Haman replied to the king, "For the individual whom the king desires to honour,⁸ let them bring a royal robe which the king has worn, and a horse on which the king has ridden, with a royal crest placed on its head.⁹ Let the robe and the horse be entrusted to one of the king's most noble officials. Let them dress the man whom the king wishes to honour, and lead him on horseback through the city square, proclaiming before him, 'This is what is done for the man whom the king wishes to honour!'"

¹⁰ The king commanded Haman, "Go quickly, take the robe and the horse, as you have suggested, and do so for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Do not neglect anything you have recommended."¹¹ So Haman took the robe and the horse, dressed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city square, proclaiming before him, "This is what is done for the man whom the king wishes to honour!"¹² Afterward, Mordecai returned to the king's gate, but Haman hurried home, mourning, with his head covered.¹³ Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him.

His wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against him, but will surely come to ruin."¹⁴ While they were still speaking with him, the king's eunuchs arrived and hastily brought Haman to the banquet Esther had prepared.

7 The king and Haman went to drink wine with Queen Esther.² On the second day, as they drank wine at the banquet, the king asked, "Queen Esther, what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. And what is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it shall be fulfilled."

³ Queen Esther replied, "If I have found favour in your sight, O king, and if it pleases you, grant me my life—this is my petition. And spare my people—this is my request.⁴ For my people and I have been sold to be destroyed, killed, and annihilated. If we had merely been sold as slaves, men and women, I would have remained silent, because such distress would not justify troubling the king.”⁵ King Ahasuerus asked Queen Esther, “Who is he, and where is he, who has dared to do such a thing?”⁶ Esther said, “An adversary and enemy! This wicked Haman!” Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen.⁷ The king rose in anger from the wine and went into the palace garden. But Haman, realising that the king had determined harm against him, stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life.

Esther

⁸ When the king returned from the palace garden to the place of the banquet, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was. The king exclaimed, “Will he even assault the queen while I am in the house?” As the words left the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.⁹ Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs attending the king, said, “Look, a gallows fifty cubits high stands at Haman’s house. He had it made for Mordecai, who spoke up to help the king.”

The king said, “Hang him on it!”¹⁰ So they hanged Haman on the gallows he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s anger subsided.

8 On that same day, King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the adversary of the Jews. Mordecai came before the king, as Esther had revealed their relationship.² The king removed his signet ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther then appointed Mordecai over Haman’s estate.

³ Esther again approached the king, falling at his feet, weeping and pleading with him to stop the evil plan of Haman the Agagite, which he had devised against the Jews.⁴ The king extended the golden sceptre to Esther, and she rose and stood before him.⁵ She said, “If it pleases the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and if the matter seems right to the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let a decree be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king’s provinces.⁶ For how can I bear to see the calamity that will befall my people? How can I endure the destruction of my family?”⁷ King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, “I have given Haman’s estate to Esther, and they have hanged him on the gallows because he laid hands on the Jews.⁸ Now, write another decree in the king’s name on behalf of the Jews as you see fit, and seal it with the king’s signet ring, for no document written in the king’s name and sealed with the king’s ring can be revoked.”

⁹ The king’s scribes were summoned at once, on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan. They wrote out all Mordecai’s orders to the Jews, and to the satraps, governors, and officials of the 127 provinces stretching from India to Cush. These orders were written in the script of each province and the language of each people, including the Jews in their own script and language.¹⁰ Mordecai wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed the letters with the king’s signet ring, and sent them by mounted couriers riding royal horses, bred from swift mares.¹¹ The king’s edict granted the Jews in every city the right to assemble and defend themselves, to destroy, kill, and annihilate any armed force of any nationality or province that might attack them, including their women and children, and to plunder their goods.¹² This was to be done on a single day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.¹³ A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in each province and made known to all peoples, so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.¹⁴ The couriers, riding the royal relay horses, hurried out, spurred on by the king’s command, and the decree was issued in the citadel of Susa.¹⁵ Mordecai left the king’s presence wearing royal garments of blue and white, with a large crown of gold and a robe of fine linen and purple. The city of Susa shouted and rejoiced.¹⁶ For the Jews, it was a time of light, joy, gladness, and honour.¹⁷ In every province and city where the king’s command and decree reached, there was joy and gladness among the Jews, with feasting and celebrating. Many people of other nationalities became Jews because the fear of the Jews had fallen upon them.

9 In the twelfth month, the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day, when the king’s command and edict were to be enacted, the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to overpower them, it was reversed, and the Jews gained mastery over those who hated them.² The Jews gathered in their cities throughout the provinces of King Xerxes to attack those who sought their harm, and no one could stand against them, for the fear of them had fallen upon all peoples.³ All the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and those who conducted the king's business supported the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had overtaken them.⁴ Mordecai was prominent in the king's palace, and his fame spread throughout the provinces, for he became more and more powerful.

Esther

⁵ The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them, and they did as they pleased to those who hated them.⁶ Within the fortress of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.⁷ Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,⁸ Poratha, Adalia, and Aridatha,⁹ Parmashta, and Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha,¹⁰ the ten sons of Haman, son of Hammedatha, who was an adversary of the Jews. However, they did not take any plunder.

¹¹ On that day, the number of those killed in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king.¹² The king said to Queen Esther, "In the citadel of Susa, the Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now, what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. And what further request do you have? It shall be done."¹³ Esther replied, "If it pleases the king, let the Jews in Susa be allowed to carry out today's edict tomorrow also, and let the ten sons of Haman be hanged on gallows."¹⁴ So the king commanded that this be done. An edict was issued in Susa, and they hanged the ten sons of Haman.¹⁵ The Jews in Susa gathered again on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed three hundred men in Susa, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.

¹⁶ Meanwhile, the rest of the Jews in the king's provinces assembled to defend themselves and rid themselves of their enemies, killing seventy-five thousand of those who hated them, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.¹⁷ This took place on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth day, they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.¹⁸ However, the Jews in Susa had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth days, and on the fifteenth day, they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.¹⁹ Therefore, the Jews of the rural areas, who live in villages, observe the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a day of joy and feasting, a day for sending gifts of food to one another.

²⁰ Mordecai recorded these events and sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Xerxes, both near and far,²¹ to establish among them an annual celebration on the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar²² as the time when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and the month when their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into a day of celebration. They were to observe them as days of feasting and joy and giving presents of food to one another and gifts to the poor.²³ So the Jews agreed to continue the celebration they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them.²⁴ For Haman, son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the adversary of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the pur, that is, the lot, to disturb and destroy them.²⁵ But when the matter came to the king's attention, he issued written orders that the wicked scheme Haman had devised against the Jews should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on gallows.²⁶ Therefore, these days were called Purim, from the word pur. Because of everything written in this letter and what they had seen and what had happened to them,²⁷ the Jews established and made a custom for themselves, their descendants, and all who allied themselves with them, to celebrate these two days every year, in the prescribed manner and at the appointed time.²⁸ These days should be remembered and celebrated in every generation, by every family, in every province and every city. And these days of Purim should never cease to be celebrated by the Jews, nor should the memory of them fade from their descendants.

²⁹ Then Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.³⁰ And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Xerxes, containing words of peace and truth,³¹ to establish these days of Purim at their designated times, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had decreed for them, and as they had set for themselves and their descendants regarding their times of fasting and lamentation.³² The decree of Esther confirmed these regulations about Purim, and it was written down in the records.

Esther

10

King Ahasuerus levied a tribute on the land and the islands of the sea. ² All the deeds of his power and might, along with a comprehensive account of the greatness of Mordecai, whom the king honoured, are they not recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia? ³ Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Ahasuerus, esteemed among the Jews and held in high regard by his many kinsmen, as he sought the good of his people and spoke for the welfare of his entire nation.

1 In the land of Uz, there was a man named Job; this man was blameless and upright, fearing God and avoiding evil. ² Job was blessed with seven sons and three daughters. ³ His possessions included seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred donkeys, and a great many servants. He was the most prominent man among all the people of the East.

⁴ His sons would take turns holding feasts in their homes on their appointed day, and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. ⁵ When the days of feasting had run their course, Job would send for them and consecrate them. Rising early in the morning, he would offer a burnt offering for each of them, thinking, "Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." This was Job's regular practice.

⁶ One day, the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them. ⁷ The Lord asked Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Satan answered the Lord, "From roaming through the earth and walking back and forth on it." ⁸ Then the Lord said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one like him on earth; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil."

⁹ Satan replied to the Lord, "Does Job fear God for nothing?" ¹⁰ "Have you not placed a hedge around him and his household and all that he owns? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his livestock have spread throughout the land. ¹¹ But stretch out your hand now and touch all that he has, and he will surely curse you to your face."

¹² The Lord said to Satan, "Very well, all that he has is in your power, but do not lay a hand on the man himself." So Satan departed from the presence of the Lord.

¹³ One day, while Job's sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, ¹⁴ a messenger arrived and reported to Job, "The oxen were ploughing and the donkeys were grazing nearby, ¹⁵ when the Sabeans attacked and took them away. They put the servants to the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

¹⁶ While he was still speaking, another messenger arrived and said, "The fire of God fell from the sky and burned up the sheep and the servants, and I alone have escaped to tell you." ¹⁷ While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three bands and raided the camels and took them away. They put the servants to the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you." ¹⁸ While he was still speaking, yet another messenger came and said, "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at their eldest brother's house, ¹⁹ when suddenly a mighty wind swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house, and it collapsed on them, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you." ²⁰ At this, Job arose, tore his robe, and shaved his head. Then he fell to the ground and worshipped. ²¹ He declared,

"Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked I shall return there. The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

²² Throughout all these events, Job did not sin or accuse God of wrongdoing.

2 On another day, the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the Lord. ² And the Lord said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Satan answered the Lord, "From roaming throughout the earth and walking back and forth on it."

³ Then the Lord said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one like him on earth; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil. And he still maintains his integrity, though you incited me against him to ruin him without cause." ⁴ Satan replied to the Lord, "Skin for skin! Indeed, a man will give all he has for his own life. ⁵ But now, stretch out your hand and strike his bone and flesh, and he will surely curse you to your face."

⁶ The Lord said to Satan, "Very well, he is in your hands; only spare his life." ⁷ So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord and afflicted Job with painful boils from the soles of his feet to the crown of his head. ⁸ Then Job took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself as he sat among the ashes.

⁹ His wife said to him, "Are you still holding on to your integrity? Renounce God and pass away!" ¹⁰ He replied, "You are speaking like one of the foolish women. Shall we accept good from God, and not adversity?" In all this, Job did not sin with his lips. ¹¹ When Job's three friends, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, heard about all the troubles that had come upon him, they set out from their homes and agreed to meet together to sympathise with him and comfort him. ¹² When they saw him from a distance, they could hardly recognise him; they raised their voices and wept aloud, tearing their robes and sprinkling dust on their heads towards the sky. ¹³ Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights. No one spoke a word to him, because they saw how great his suffering was.

3 Following these events, Job spoke and lamented the day of his birth. ² And he said:

³ "May the day of my birth vanish, and the night that declared, 'A boy is conceived.' ⁴ Let that day be darkness; may God above disregard it, and let no light shine upon it. ⁵ Let darkness and deep shadow claim it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it. ⁶ As for that night, let thick darkness seize it; let it not be counted among the days of the year, nor be numbered among the months. ⁷ Behold, let that night be barren; let no joyful shout be heard in it. ⁸ Let those who curse days curse that day, those who are ready to rouse Leviathan. ⁹ Let its morning stars be darkened; let it hope for light but have none, and let it not see the first light of dawn, ¹⁰ because it did not close the doors of my mother's womb, nor keep trouble away from my eyes.

¹¹ "Why did I not perish at birth, come forth from the womb and expire? ¹² Why were there knees to receive me, and breasts that I might suckle? ¹³ For now, I would be resting in peace; I would be asleep and at rest, ¹⁴ with kings and counsellors of the earth, who built ruins for themselves, ¹⁵ or with princes who possessed gold, who filled their houses with silver. ¹⁶ Or why was I not hidden like a stillborn child, like infants who never saw the light? ¹⁷ There the wicked cease from their unrest, and there the weary find rest. ¹⁸ The prisoners are at ease together; they do not hear the voice of the oppressor. ¹⁹ Both the humble and the mighty are there, and the servant is liberated from his master.

²⁰ "Why is light given to those in misery, and life to the bitter in soul, ²¹ to those who long for death, but it does not come, and dig for it more than for hidden treasures, ²² who are filled with joy and exult when they find the grave? ²³ Why is light given to a man whose path is concealed, whom God has surrounded? ²⁴ For my sighing comes before my food, and my groans pour out like water. ²⁵ For what I feared has come upon me, and what I dreaded has overtaken me. ²⁶ I have no peace, no quiet, no rest, but only turmoil."

4 Eliphaz the Temanite responded:

² "If one dares to speak with you, will you become restless? Yet who can hold back words? ³ Consider how you have taught many, and how you have strengthened weak hands. ⁴ Your words have supported those who were stumbling, and you have strengthened faltering knees. ⁵ But now it comes upon you, and you are disheartened; it touches you, and you are alarmed. ⁶ Is not your reverence for God your confidence, and the integrity of your ways your hope?

⁷ "Reflect now, who ever perished being innocent? Or where have the upright been destroyed? ⁸ As I have observed, those who plough iniquity and those who sow trouble reap the same. ⁹ By the breath of God they perish; by the blast of His anger they are consumed. ¹⁰ The roaring of the lion and the voice of the fierce lion, yet the teeth of the young lions are shattered. ¹¹ The lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are dispersed. ¹² "A word was secretly brought to me, and my ear caught a whisper of it. ¹³ Amid troubling thoughts from visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on people, ¹⁴ fear and trembling came upon me, and made all my bones shake. ¹⁵ A spirit glided past my face; the hair of my flesh stood on end. ¹⁶ It stood still, but I could not discern its form; a shape was before my eyes, and I heard a quiet voice: ¹⁷ 'Can a mortal be just before God? Can a man be pure before his Maker?' ¹⁸ He puts no trust even in His servants, and He charges His angels with error. ¹⁹ How much more those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed more easily than a moth! ²⁰ From morning to evening they are shattered; unnoticed, they perish forever. ²¹ Are not the cords of their tent pulled up within them? They die without wisdom.'

5 "Call now, is there anyone who will respond to you? And to which of the holy ones will you turn? ² For irritation kills the fool, And jealousy brings death to the naive. ³ I have seen the fool taking root, And I promptly cursed his home. ⁴ His sons are far from safety, They are even oppressed in the gate, And there is no rescuer. ⁵ The hungry devour his harvest And take it even from the thorns, And the schemer pants after their wealth. ⁶ For calamity does not arise from the dust, Nor does trouble sprout from the ground, ⁷ But man is born for trouble, As sparks fly upward.

⁸ "However, I would seek God, And I would make my plea to God, ⁹ Who performs great and unfathomable deeds, Wonders beyond counting. ¹⁰ He provides rain on the earth, And sends water upon the fields, ¹¹ So that He sets the lowly on high, And those who mourn are lifted to safety. ¹² He thwarts the plans of the shrewd, So that their hands cannot achieve success. ¹³ He ensnares the wise in their own cunning, And the counsel of the crafty is swiftly overturned. ¹⁴ By day they encounter darkness, And grope at noon as in the night. ¹⁵ But He rescues from the sword of their mouth, And the poor from the hand of the mighty. ¹⁶ So the helpless has hope, And injustice shuts its mouth.

¹⁷ "Behold, blessed is the person whom God corrects, So do not reject the discipline of the Almighty. ¹⁸ For He causes pain and brings relief; He wounds, and His hands also heal. ¹⁹ From six troubles He will save you, Even in seven, evil will not touch you. ²⁰ In famine, He will rescue you from death, And in war, from the power of the sword. ²¹ You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, And will not be afraid of violence when it comes. ²² You will laugh at destruction and hunger, And you will not fear the wild creatures. ²³ For you will have an agreement with the stones of the field, And the animals of the field will be at peace with you. ²⁴ You will know that your tent is secure, For you will visit your home and find nothing amiss. ²⁵ You will also know that your descendants will be numerous, And your offspring as abundant as the grass of the earth. ²⁶ You will come to the grave at a full age, Like a sheaf of grain gathered in its season. ²⁷

Behold, we have examined this, and it is true; Hear it, and understand it for yourself."

6 Then Job responded, saying ² "If only my anguish were weighed and my calamity laid in the balances together! ³ For it would surely be heavier than the sand of the seas; that is why my words have been rash. ⁴ The arrows of the Almighty are within me, my spirit drinks their poison; the terrors of God are arrayed against me. ⁵ Does a wild donkey bray when it has grass, or does an ox low over its fodder? ⁶ Can tasteless food be eaten without salt, or is there any flavour in the juice of the mallow? ⁷ I refuse to touch such things; they are like loathsome food to me.

⁸ "Oh, that my request might be fulfilled, that God would grant what I long for, ⁹ that God would be willing to crush me, to let loose His hand and cut me off! ¹⁰ Then I would still have this consolation—my joy in relentless pain— that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

¹¹ What strength do I have, that I should hope? What is my end, that I should be patient? ¹² Is my strength the strength of stones, or is my flesh made of bronze? ¹³ Is there any help within me, now that success has been driven away?

¹⁴ "For a despairing man there should be kindness from his friend, so that he does not forsake the fear of the Almighty. ¹⁵ But my brothers have acted deceitfully like a wadi, like the streams that overflow ¹⁶ when they are darkened by thawing ice and filled with melting snow, ¹⁷ but when they dry up, they vanish; in the heat they disappear from their place. ¹⁸ Their paths meander; they ascend into wasteland and are lost. ¹⁹ The caravans of Tema look, the travellers of Sheba hope for them. ²⁰ They are put to shame because they had trusted; they arrive there, only to be disappointed. ²¹ Indeed, you have now become like them; you see something dreadful and are afraid. ²² Have I ever said, 'Give me something,' or, 'Offer a bribe on my behalf from your wealth,' ²³ or, 'Deliver me from the hand of the enemy,' or, 'Redeem me from the clutches of the ruthless'?

²⁴ "Teach me, and I will be silent; show me where I have gone wrong. ²⁵ How difficult it is to hear honest words! But what do your arguments establish? ²⁶ Do you intend to correct my words, and treat the words of one in despair as wind? ²⁷ You would even gamble over an orphan and bargain away your friend.

²⁸ But now, please look at me, and see if I am lying to your face. ²⁹ Relent, let there be no injustice; reconsider, for my integrity is at stake. ³⁰ Is there any wickedness on my tongue? Does my mouth not discern calamity?

7 ¹ "Is a human not forced to labour on earth, And are his days not like the days of a hired worker?

² Just as a bond servant longs for the shade, And like a labourer who eagerly awaits his wages, ³ So I am given months of futility, And nights filled with trouble are assigned to me. ⁴ When I lie down, I ask, 'When will I get up?' But the night drags on, And I am restless until dawn. ⁵ My flesh is covered with worms and clods of dust, My skin hardens and breaks out.

⁶ My days pass more swiftly than a weaver's shuttle, And they conclude without hope. ⁷ Remember that my life is but a breath; My eye will not see good again. ⁸ The eye of him who sees me will see me no more; Your eyes will be upon me, but I will be gone. ⁹ A cloud vanishes, and it is no more, So one who descends to Sheol does not return. ¹⁰ He will not come back to his house again, Nor will his place acknowledge him anymore.

¹¹ "Thus, I will not hold back my words; I will speak out in the distress of my spirit, I will express my sorrow in the bitterness of my soul. ¹² Am I the sea, or a sea creature, That You place a guard over me?

¹³ If I think, 'My bed will comfort me, My couch will relieve my complaint,' ¹⁴ Then You alarm me with dreams And terrify me with visions, ¹⁵ So that my soul would prefer suffocation, Death rather than my suffering. ¹⁶ I am wasting away; I will not live forever. Leave me be, for my days are but a breath.

¹⁷ What is man, that You honour him, And that You care for him, ¹⁸ That You observe him every morning And test him at every moment? ¹⁹ Will You never turn Your gaze away from me, Nor leave me alone until I swallow my spit? ²⁰ Have I sinned? What have I done to You, Keeper of mankind? Why have You made me Your target, So that I am a burden to myself? ²¹ Why then do You not forgive my transgression And take away my iniquity? For now I will lie down in the dust; And You will search for me, but I will be no more."

8 Bildad the Shuhite responded,

² "How long will you speak such things, and the words of your mouth be a strong wind? ³ Does God distort justice? Or does the Almighty twist what is right? ⁴ If your children sinned against Him, He delivered them to the consequences of their transgression. ⁵ But if you seek God earnestly and plead for the mercy of the Almighty, ⁶ if you are pure and upright, surely He will rouse Himself on your behalf and restore your rightful place. ⁷ Though your beginnings seemed small, your future will flourish greatly.

⁸ "Inquire of former generations, and consider what their ancestors discovered, ⁹ for we are but of yesterday and know nothing, as our days on earth are a mere shadow. ¹⁰ Will they not instruct you and speak to you, bringing forth words from their understanding? ¹¹ Can papyrus grow tall without a marsh? Can reeds thrive without water? ¹² While still green and uncut, they wither faster than any other plant. ¹³ Such is the fate of all who forget God; the hope of the godless shall perish. ¹⁴ Their confidence is fragile, and their trust is like a spider's web. ¹⁵ They lean on their house, but it does not stand; they hold fast to it, but it does not endure. ¹⁶ They are like a plant flourishing in the sunlight, spreading its shoots over the garden. ¹⁷ Its roots entwine around a pile of stones, it seeks a place among the rocks. ¹⁸ But if it is uprooted from its place, that place will deny it, saying, 'I never saw you.' ¹⁹ Surely this is the joy of its way, and from the soil others will sprout.

²⁰ Behold, God will not reject a person of integrity, nor will He support evildoers. ²¹ He will once again bring laughter to your mouth and joy to your lips. ²² Those who oppose you will be clothed with shame, and the tents of the wicked will be no more."

9 Job responded, saying,

² "Truly, I know that this is so; but how can a human be justified before God? ³ If one desired to contend with Him, they could not answer Him once in a thousand times. ⁴ He is wise in heart and mighty in strength; who has opposed Him and remained unharmed? ⁵ He removes mountains without their knowing it, when He overturns them in His anger. ⁶ He causes the earth to tremble from its place, and its foundations quake. ⁷ He commands the sun not to shine, and seals up the stars. ⁸ He alone stretches out the heavens and walks on the waves of the sea. ⁹ He is the Creator of the Bear and Orion, the Pleiades, and the constellations of the south. ¹⁰ He performs great and unfathomable things, wonders without number.

¹¹ If He passes by me, I would not see Him; if He goes by, I would not perceive Him. ¹² If He takes away, who can hinder Him? Who can ask Him, 'What are You doing?' ¹³ God does not turn back His anger; beneath Him the helpers of Rahab cower.

¹⁴ How then can I respond to Him, or select my words with Him? ¹⁵ Even if I were innocent, I could not answer Him; I would have to plead for mercy from my Judge. ¹⁶ If I called and He responded to me, I would not believe that He was attentive to my voice. ¹⁷ He would crush me with a storm and multiply my wounds without cause. ¹⁸ He would not allow me to catch my breath, but would fill me with bitterness. ¹⁹ If it is a matter of strength, He is mighty; and if it is a matter of justice, who can summon Him? ²⁰ Even if I were righteous, my own mouth would condemn me; if I were guiltless, it would declare me guilty.

²¹ I am blameless, yet I do not care for myself; I despise my life. ²² It is all the same; therefore I say, 'He destroys both the guiltless and the wicked.'

²³ If a scourge brings sudden death, He mocks the despair of the innocent. ²⁴ When a land is given into the hands of the wicked, He blinds its judges. If it is not He, then who is it? ²⁵ "My days are swifter than a runner; they hurry away, they see no good. ²⁶ They pass by like papyrus boats, like an eagle swooping down on its prey. ²⁷ If I say, 'I will put aside my complaint, I will change my expression, and smile,' ²⁸ I still dread all my sufferings, for I know that You will not acquit me. ²⁹ Since I am already guilty, why should I labour in vain? ³⁰ Even if I washed myself with snow and cleansed my hands with lye, ³¹ You would plunge me into a pit, so that even my clothes would detest me.

³² For He is not a man, as I am, that I might answer Him, that we might confront each other in court. ³³

There is no mediator between us, who might lay his hand upon us both. ³⁴ Let Him remove His rod from me, and let not His dread terrify me. ³⁵ Then I would speak without fear of Him, but as it stands with me, I cannot.

10 "In grief I loathe my life; so I will express my complaint freely; and I will speak in the bitterness of my soul. ² I will ask God, 'Do not condemn me; Help me understand why You are accusing me. ³ Is it right for You indeed to oppress, To reject the work of Your hands, And to look favourably on the plan of the wicked?' ⁴ Do You have eyes like a man, Or do You see as mankind sees? ⁵ Are Your days those of a mortal, Or Your years like those of a man, ⁶ That You should search after my faults And probe after my every sin? ⁷ Though you know I am not guilty, And there is no one who can save me from Your hand.

⁸ 'Your hands fashioned me and made me, Yet would You now turn to destroy me? ⁹ Remember that You made me as clay; And would You turn me into dust again? ¹⁰ Did You not form me like milk, And solidify me like cheese; ¹¹ Cover me with skin and flesh, And weave me together with bones and sinews? ¹² You have granted me life and kindness; And Your care has preserved my spirit.

¹³ Yet these things You have hidden in Your heart; I know that this is within You: ¹⁴ If I sin, then You would take note of me, And would not absolve me of my guilt. ¹⁵ If I am wicked, woe to me! But if I am righteous, I dare not lift up my head. I am full of shame, and aware of my misery. ¹⁶ Should my head rise high, You would hunt me like a lion, And again show Your power against me. ¹⁷ You renew Your witnesses against me And increase Your anger toward me; Hardship after hardship comes upon me.

¹⁸ Why then have You brought me out of the womb? If only I had died, and no eye had seen me!

¹⁹ I should have been as though I had not been, Brought from the womb to the grave.' ²⁰ Are my days not few? Stop, leave me alone, so that I may have a little cheer ²¹ Before I go—and I shall not return— To the realm of darkness and deep shadow, ²² The land of utter gloom, like darkness itself, Of deep shadow without order, Where even light is like darkness."

11 Zophar the Naamathite responded:

² “Should a torrent of words remain unanswered, and should a man full of talk be justified? ³ Should your empty chatter silence others? Will no one correct you when you mock? ⁴ You claim, ‘My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in your sight.’ ⁵ Oh, that God would speak and open His lips against you, ⁶ and reveal to you the secrets of wisdom, for true wisdom has two sides. Be assured that God has overlooked some of your iniquity.

⁷ “Can you comprehend the mysteries of God? Can you explore the limits of the Almighty? ⁸ They are higher than the heavens—what can you achieve? They are deeper than the grave—what can you understand? ⁹ Their scope is longer than the earth and broader than the sea.

¹⁰ If He passes by and imprisons or calls a court, who can oppose Him? ¹¹ For He knows deceitful men; He sees wickedness without needing to examine it. ¹² A senseless person will gain understanding when a wild donkey’s colt is born a man.

¹³ “If you prepare your heart and stretch out your hands towards Him, ¹⁴ if there is any wrong in your hand, remove it, and do not let wickedness reside in your tents, ¹⁵ then you will lift up your face without shame; you will stand firm and without fear. ¹⁶ You will forget your misery, remembering it like waters that have passed away. ¹⁷ Your life will be brighter than the noonday; even darkness will be like the morning. ¹⁸ You will feel secure, for there is hope; you will look around and rest in safety. ¹⁹ You will lie down, and none will make you afraid, and many will seek your favour. ²⁰ But the eyes of the wicked will fail, and escape will elude them; their hope will be to breathe their last.”

12 Then Job responded, saying,

² “Surely, you are the people, and wisdom will perish with you! ³ But I have understanding as well as you; I am not beneath you. Who does not know such things as these?

⁴ I have become a joke to my friends, I who called upon God and was answered— a just and blameless man has become a joke. ⁵ Those who are at ease hold calamity in contempt, as it is prepared for those whose feet are slipping. ⁶ The tents of robbers are at peace, and those who provoke God are secure, whom God has brought into their power.

⁷ “But ask the animals, and they will teach you; or the birds in the sky, and they will inform you. ⁸ Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you; and let the fish of the sea declare to you. ⁹ Who among all these does not accept that the hand of the Lord is responsible for this? ¹⁰ In His hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all humanity. ¹¹ Does the ear not test words as the palate tastes food? ¹² Wisdom is found with the aged, and understanding comes with long life.

¹³ “To Him belong wisdom and might; counsel and understanding are His. ¹⁴ What He breaks down cannot be rebuilt; the person He imprisons cannot be released. ¹⁵ If He restrains the waters, they dry up; if He releases them, they overwhelm the earth. ¹⁶ To Him belong strength and sound wisdom; both the deceived and the deceiver are His. ¹⁷ He leads counsellors away barefoot and makes judges into fools. ¹⁸ He removes the shackles of kings and binds a loincloth around their waist. ¹⁹ He leads priests away barefoot and overthrows those long established. ²⁰ He silences the speech of trusted advisers and removes the discernment of elders. ²¹ He pours contempt upon nobles and loosens the belt of the mighty. ²² He reveals deep things from the darkness and brings the hidden darkness into light. ²³ He makes nations great, then destroys them; He enlarges nations, then disperses them. ²⁴ He deprives the leaders of the earth of their reason and makes them wander in a trackless wasteland. ²⁵ They grope in darkness without light; He makes them stagger like drunkards.

13 “See, my eye has witnessed all this, My ear has listened and comprehended it. ² What you know, I also understand; I am not beneath you. ³ Yet I wish to speak to the Almighty, And I long to reason with God. ⁴ But you cover me with falsehoods; You are all ineffective healers. ⁵ If only you would remain silent, That would indeed be your wisdom! ⁶ Kindly hear my plea, And attend to the arguments of my lips. ⁷ Will you speak unjustly on God’s behalf, And speak deceitfully for Him? ⁸ Will you show favouritism for Him? Will you argue for God? ⁹ Will it be well when He examines you?

Or will you mislead Him as one misleads a man?¹⁰ He will surely correct you If you secretly show favouritism.¹¹ Will His majesty not frighten you, And the fear of Him fall upon you?¹² Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes; Your defences are defences of clay.

¹³ "Be silent before me so that I may speak; Then let whatever may come upon me.¹⁴ Why should I risk my life, And place my life in my own hands?¹⁵ Though He may slay me, I will trust in Him. Nevertheless, I will present my case before Him.¹⁶ This too will be my deliverance, For a godless person cannot stand before Him.¹⁷ Pay close attention to my words, And let my declaration reach your ears.¹⁸ See now, I have prepared my case; I am confident that I will be justified.¹⁹ Who will argue against me? For then I would be silent and perish.

²⁰ "Only two things do not do to me, Then I will not hide from Your presence:²¹ Withdraw Your hand from me, And do not let Your fear overwhelm me.²² Then call, and I will respond; Or let me speak, then answer me.²³ How numerous are my transgressions and sins? Reveal to me my offences and my sin.²⁴ Why do You conceal Your face And regard me as Your adversary?²⁵ Will You frighten a windblown leaf? Or will You chase after dry chaff?²⁶ For You inscribe bitter things against me And make me bear the consequences of my youth.²⁷ You confine my feet in shackles And observe all my paths; You set a boundary for the soles of my feet,²⁸ While I am wasting away like something decayed, Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

14 "Human beings, born of women, Have brief lives and are filled with trouble.² Like a flower, they emerge and wither, They also flee like a shadow and do not endure.³ You also observe them closely And bring them into judgment with Yourself.⁴ Who can bring purity from impurity? No one can!⁵ Since their days are determined, The number of their months is known to You; And You have set their boundaries which they cannot exceed.⁶ Turn Your gaze from them so they may have rest, Until they complete their day like a hired labourer.

⁷ "For there is hope for a tree, If it is cut down, that it will sprout again, And its shoots will not fail.⁸

Though its root grows old in the ground, And its stump dies in the dry soil,⁹ At the scent of water, it will thrive And send out branches like a young plant.¹⁰ But when a person dies and lies low, A person passes away, and where are they?¹¹ As water vanishes from the sea, And a river becomes dry and parched,¹² So people lie down and do not rise. Until the heavens are no more, They will not awaken nor be roused from their slumber.

¹³ "Oh that You would hide me in Sheol, That You would conceal me until Your anger subsides, That You would set a time for me and remember me!¹⁴ If a person dies, will they live again? All the days of my hardship I will wait Until my renewal comes.¹⁵ You will call, and I will answer You; You will yearn for the work of Your hands.¹⁶ For now You count my steps, You do not watch over my sin.¹⁷ My transgression is sealed up in a bag, And You cover over my iniquity.

¹⁸ "But a mountain collapses and crumbles away, And a rock is moved from its place;¹⁹ Water erodes stones, Its torrents wash away the soil of the earth; So You diminish a person's hope.²⁰ You continually overpower them and they depart; You alter their appearance and send them away.²¹ Their children attain honour, but they do not know it; Or they become insignificant, and they do not perceive it.²² However, their body feels pain, And their soul mourns over it."

15 Then Eliphaz the Temanite spoke:

² "Should a wise person respond with empty ideas, and fill themselves with the hot east wind?³ Should they engage in fruitless talk, with words that bring no benefit?⁴ You indeed diminish reverence and obstruct meditation before God.⁵ Your wrongdoing instructs your speech, and you choose the tongue of the crafty.⁶ Your own mouth condemns you, not I; your own lips bear witness against you.

⁷ "Were you the first human ever born? Were you brought forth before the hills?⁸ Do you listen in on God's secret council? Do you claim exclusive wisdom?⁹ What do you know that we do not? What insights do you possess that we lack?¹⁰ The grey-haired and the aged are among us, older than your father.¹¹ Are the consolations of God too small for you, or the gentle word spoken to you?¹² Why does your heart lead you astray, and why do your eyes flash, ¹³ that you turn your spirit against God and utter such words? ¹⁴ What is humanity, that they could be pure, or those born of a woman, that they could be righteous? ¹⁵ If He places no trust in His holy ones, and even the heavens are not pure in His sight, ¹⁶ how much less mortals, who are vile and corrupt, who drink iniquity like water!

¹⁷ "Listen to me and I will explain; I will declare what I have observed, ¹⁸ what the wise have proclaimed, and have not concealed from their ancestors, ¹⁹ to whom alone the land was given when no stranger passed among them: ²⁰ The wicked person suffers torment all their days, and the years reserved for the ruthless are limited. ²¹ Terrifying sounds fill his ears; when he is at peace, marauders attack him. ²² He does not anticipate freedom from darkness; he is marked for the sword. ²³ He wanders for food, saying, 'Where is it?' He knows the day of darkness is near. ²⁴ Distress and anguish terrify him; they overpower him like a king ready for battle, ²⁵ because he has stretched out his hand against God, and shown arrogance towards the Almighty. ²⁶ He charges defiantly at Him with a thick, strong shield.

²⁷ Even though his face is covered with fat and his waist is full of flesh, ²⁸ he will dwell in desolate cities, in houses no one inhabits, destined to become ruins. ²⁹ He will not remain wealthy, nor will his riches endure; his possessions will not spread across the land. ³⁰ He will not find refuge from the darkness; a flame will wither his shoots, and the breath of God's mouth will carry him away.

³¹ Let him not deceive himself by trusting in vanity, for he will receive nothing in return. ³² It will be fulfilled before his time, and his branches will not flourish. ³³ He will be like a vine stripped of its immature grapes, like an olive tree shedding its blossoms. ³⁴ For the company of the godless is barren, and fire consumes the tents of those who love bribes. ³⁵ They conceive trouble and give birth to wrongdoing; their mind prepares deceit."

16 Job responded, saying,

² "I have listened to much of this; you are all ineffective comforters! ³ Is there no end to your long-winded speeches? What provokes you to keep arguing? ⁴ I too could speak as you do, if you were in my place. I could make eloquent speeches against you and shake my head at you. ⁵ But I would encourage you with my mouth, and the comfort of my lips would bring you relief. ⁶ "If I speak, my suffering is not eased, and if I remain silent, it does not leave me. ⁷ Surely, now God has worn me out; you have devastated my entire household. ⁸ You have shrivelled me up, and it has become a witness; my gauntness rises up and testifies against me. ⁹ In his anger, God has torn me and hunted me down; he gnashes his teeth at me. My adversary glares at me. ¹⁰ People gape at me with their mouths; they strike my cheek in scorn and gather themselves against me. ¹¹ God has handed me over to the wicked and thrown me into the hands of the ungodly. ¹² I was at ease, but he shattered me; he seized me by the neck and crushed me. He has made me his target. ¹³ His archers surround me. Without mercy, he pierces my kidneys and spills my bile on the ground. ¹⁴ He breaks through me breach upon breach; he rushes at me like a warrior. ¹⁵ I have sewn sackcloth over my skin and buried my brow in the dust. ¹⁶ My face is flushed with weeping, and deep shadows encircle my eyes, ¹⁷ although my hands are free of violence and my prayer is pure.

¹⁸ "O earth, do not cover my blood; may my cry find no resting place! ¹⁹ Yet, my witness is in the heavens; my advocate resides on high. ²⁰ My friends are my scoffers; my eyes pour out tears to God, ²¹ that one might plead for a man with God as one pleads for a friend.

²² For after a few years have passed, I shall go the way of no return.

17 "My spirit is crushed, my days are extinguished, The grave awaits me. ² Certainly mockers are with me, And my eye gazes on their provocation.

³ Please lay down a pledge for me with Yourself; Who is there that will be my guarantor? ⁴ For You have kept their heart away from understanding, Therefore You will not exalt them. ⁵ He who informs against friends for a share of the spoil, The eyes of his children will perish.

⁶ Yet He has made me a byword among the people, And I am one at whom people spit. ⁷ My eye has also grown dim because of grief, And all my body parts are like a shadow. ⁸ The upright will be astonished at this, And the innocent will rise up against the godless. ⁹ Nevertheless the righteous will remain steadfast in his way, And the one who has clean hands will become ever stronger.

¹⁰ Yet return, all of you, I pray, For I do not find a wise man among you. ¹¹ My days are past, my plans are shattered, The desires of my heart. ¹² They turn night into day, saying, 'The light is near,' in the presence of darkness. ¹³ If I look to Sheol as my home, I spread my bed in the darkness; ¹⁴ I call to the grave, 'You are my father'; To the maggot, 'my mother and my sister.' ¹⁵ Where then is my hope? And who see any hope for me? ¹⁶ Will it descend with me to Sheol? Shall we together go down into the dust?"

18 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied and said:

² "How long will you keep searching for words? Be prudent, and then we can converse. ³ Why are we viewed as beasts, and considered foolish in your eyes? ⁴ You who tear yourself in anger, should the earth be forsaken for your sake, or the rock be displaced from its position?

⁵ "The light of the wicked is extinguished, and the flame of his fire ceases to shine. ⁶ The light in his tent is dimmed, and the lamp above him is put out. ⁷ His vigorous stride is curtailed, and his own plans bring him down. ⁸ His feet lead him into a net, and he walks into its mesh. ⁹ A snare catches him by the heel, and a trap holds him tightly. ¹⁰ A noose is hidden for him on the ground, and a trap lies on his path. ¹¹ Sudden terrors frighten him on every side and pursue him at every step. ¹² His strength is depleted, and calamity is ready at his side. ¹³ It consumes parts of his skin; death's firstborn devours his limbs. ¹⁴ He is torn from the security of his tent and led before the king of terrors. ¹⁵ Brimstone is scattered on his dwelling; fire consumes his tent. ¹⁶ His roots wither below, and his branches fade above. ¹⁷ His memory fades from the earth, and he leaves no name in the land. ¹⁸ He is cast from light into darkness and removed from the world. ¹⁹ He has no offspring or descendants among his people, nor any survivor where he lived. ²⁰ Those in the west are dismayed at his fate, and those in the east are filled with dread. ²¹ Surely these are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of one who does not know God."

19 Then Job responded, saying,

² "How long will you torment me and crush me with your words? ³ You have reproached me these ten times; you are not ashamed to mistreat me. ⁴ Even if I have erred, my mistake concerns me alone. ⁵ If indeed you exalt yourselves over me and use my disgrace against me, ⁶ then understand that I feel wronged by God and surrounded by His net.

⁷ "Though I cry out, 'Violence!' I receive no answer; I call for help, but there is no justice. ⁸ He has blocked my path so I cannot pass, and He has shrouded my ways in darkness. ⁹ He has stripped me of my honour and taken the crown from my head. ¹⁰ He tears me down on all sides, and I am gone; He uproots my hope like a tree. ¹¹ His anger burns against me; He regards me as His enemy. ¹² His troops advance together; they construct a siege ramp against me and encamp around my tent.

¹³ "He has alienated my brothers from me, and my acquaintances are estranged from me. ¹⁴ Those who are related to me have let me down; my close friends have forgotten me. ¹⁵ The dwellers in my house and my maidservants consider me a stranger; I am a foreigner in their sight. ¹⁶ I call to my servant, but he gives no answer; I must plead with him with my own mouth. ¹⁷ My breath is offensive to my wife, and I am loathsome to my own family. ¹⁸ Even young children despise me; when I stand up, they speak against me. ¹⁹ All my close friends abhor me; those I love have turned against me. ²⁰ I am reduced to skin and bones; I have escaped with only the skin of my teeth. ²¹ "Show me compassion, my friends, show compassion, for the hand of God has struck me. ²² Why do you pursue me as God does? Are you not satisfied with my flesh?

²³ "Oh, that my words were recorded, that they were inscribed in a book, ²⁴ that they were engraved with an iron tool and lead, or carved in the rock forever! ²⁵ For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that in the end He will stand upon the earth. ²⁶ And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I shall see God; ²⁷ I myself will see Him with my own eyes — I, and not another. My heart yearns within me! ²⁸ If you say, 'How shall we persecute him, since the root of the trouble is found in him,' ²⁹ then be cautious of the sword for yourselves, for wrath brings the consequences of the sword, so that you may understand there is judgment."

20 Zophar the Naamathite responded,

² "My restless thoughts compel me to respond, because of my deep unease. ³ I have heard a rebuke that insults me, and the insight of my understanding urges me to reply.

⁴ Do you not know this from ancient times, since mankind was placed upon the earth, ⁵ that the exultation of the wicked is fleeting, and the joy of the godless is but for a moment? ⁶ Though his conceit reaches the heavens and his head touches the clouds, ⁷ he will vanish forever like his own waste; those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?' ⁸ He will vanish like a dream, and cannot be found; like a vision of the night, he is chased away. ⁹ The eye that saw him will see him no more; his place will behold him no longer. ¹⁰ His children will seek the favour of the poor, and his hands will return his wealth. ¹¹ His bones, once full of youthful vigour, will lie down with him in the dust.

¹² "Though wrongdoing is sweet in his mouth and he hides it under his tongue, ¹³ though he cherishes it and does not let it go, but keeps it in his mouth, ¹⁴ yet his food will turn sour in his stomach; it will become the venom of cobras within him. ¹⁵ He swallows riches, but will vomit them up; God will force them out of his belly. ¹⁶ He will draw in the venom of cobras; the viper's tongue will bring him down. ¹⁷ He will not gaze upon the streams, the rivers flowing with honey and cream.

¹⁸ He will return what he laboured for and will not consume it; he will not enjoy the wealth from his trading. ¹⁹ For he has crushed and abandoned the poor; he has seized a house he did not build. ²⁰ "Because he knew no peace within himself, he will not retain anything he desires. ²¹ Nothing remains for him to devour; thus his prosperity will not endure. ²² In the midst of his abundance, distress will overtake him; the full force of misery will come upon him. ²³ When he has filled his belly, God will unleash His fierce anger upon him and rain it down while he is eating. ²⁴ Though he flees from an iron weapon, a bronze-tipped arrow will strike him. ²⁵ It is drawn and comes out of his back, the flashing point from his liver; terrors will come upon him. ²⁶ Complete darkness is reserved for his treasures; an unfanned fire will consume him and devour what remains in his tent. ²⁷ The heavens will expose his wrongdoing, and the earth will rise up against him. ²⁸ The increase of his house will flow away; his possessions will vanish on the day of God's wrath. ²⁹ This is the portion allotted by God to the wicked, the inheritance decreed to him by God."

21 Job responded:

² "Listen intently to my words, and let this be your way of comforting me. ³ Allow me to speak, and after I have spoken, you may mock me.

⁴ Is my complaint directed to a mere human? Why should I not be impatient? ⁵ Look at me and be astonished; place your hand over your mouth. ⁶ When I think of it, I am disturbed; horror grips my flesh. ⁷ Why do the wicked continue to live, grow old, and increase in power? ⁸ Their children thrive around them, their offspring are before their eyes. ⁹ Their homes are secure and free from fear; the rod of God is not upon them. ¹⁰ Their bulls breed successfully; their cows calve and do not lose their young. ¹¹ They send forth their children like a flock; their little ones dance. ¹² They sing to the tambourine and lyre, and rejoice to the sound of the flute. ¹³ They spend their days in prosperity and descend peacefully to the grave. ¹⁴ Yet they say to God, 'Depart from us! We have no desire to know your ways. ¹⁵ Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him? What profit do we have if we pray to him?' ¹⁶ Indeed, their prosperity is not in their own hands, so I distance myself from the counsel of the wicked.

¹⁷ "How often is the lamp of the wicked extinguished? How often does calamity befall them, apportioned by God in his anger? ¹⁸ Are they as straw before the wind, like chaff swept away by a storm? ¹⁹ It is said, 'God stores up a person's iniquity for their children.' Let him repay them so that they may know it themselves. ²⁰ Let their own eyes see their downfall; let them drink of the wrath of the Almighty. ²¹ For what do they care about their household after them, when their allotted months have ended?

²² Can anyone impart knowledge to God, since he judges even the highest? ²³ One person dies in full strength, completely at ease and secure, ²⁴ his body well nourished, bones rich with marrow. ²⁵ Another dies with a troubled soul, never having enjoyed anything good. ²⁶ Together they lie in the dust, and worms cover them both. ²⁷ "Behold, I know your thoughts and the schemes you devise against me. ²⁸ You ask, 'Where now is the house of the noble, the tents where the wicked lived?' ²⁹ Have you not questioned those who travel? Have you not considered their accounts— ³⁰ that the wicked are spared from the day of calamity, and are led away from the day of wrath? ³¹ Who confronts them with their actions, and who repays them for what they have done? ³² They are carried to the grave, and a watch is kept over their tombs. ³³ The earth in the valley is sweet to them; all humanity follows after them, and countless others precede them.

³⁴ So how can you offer me empty comfort? Your answers are nothing but falsehood!"

22 Now Eliphaz the Temanite spoke,

² "Can a man be of any use to God? Can a wise person be beneficial to himself? ³ Does it bring any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous, or any gain if your ways are perfect?

⁴ Is it because of your reverence that He corrects you and enters into judgement with you? ⁵ Is not your wickedness vast, and are not your iniquities without end? ⁶ For you have taken pledges from your kin without cause and stripped the naked of their clothing. ⁷ You have failed to provide water for the weary, and you have denied bread to the hungry. ⁸ But the land belongs to the powerful, and the honourable dwell on it. ⁹ You have sent widows away empty-handed, and the strength of the fatherless has been crushed. ¹⁰ That is why snares are around you, and sudden terror overwhelms you, ¹¹ or darkness so that you cannot see, and a flood of waters covers you.

¹² "Is not God in the heights of heaven? And behold the highest stars, how lofty they are! ¹³ Yet you question, 'What does God know? Can He judge through the dense darkness? ¹⁴ Clouds are a covering for Him, so that He does not see us, and He walks on the vault of heaven.' ¹⁵ Will you continue on the ancient path that the wicked have trodden, ¹⁶ who were carried away before their time, whose foundations were swept away by a flood? ¹⁷ They told God, 'Leave us alone!' and 'What can the Almighty do to them?' ¹⁸ Yet it was He who filled their houses with good things, but the counsel of the wicked is far from me. ¹⁹ The righteous see it and are glad, and the innocent mock them, saying, ²⁰ 'Surely our adversaries are cut off, and fire consumes their wealth.'

²¹ "Acquaint yourself with Him and be at peace; thereby good will come to you. ²² Accept guidance from His mouth and treasure His words in your heart. ²³ If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored; if you remove iniquity far from your tent, ²⁴ and cast your gold to the dust, the gold of Ophir to the stones of the brooks, ²⁵ then the Almighty will be your treasure, and precious silver to you. ²⁶ For then you will find joy in the Almighty and lift up your face to God. ²⁷ You will call upon Him, and He will answer you, and you will fulfil your vows. ²⁸ You will decree a thing, and it will be established for you, and light will shine on your ways. ²⁹ When people are humbled, you will say, 'Lift them up!' and He will save the lowly. ³⁰ He will deliver even the guilty, who will be saved by the cleanness of your hands."

23 Job responded,

² "Today also my complaint is bitter; His hand is heavy despite my sighing. ³ If only I knew how to find Him, that I might reach His dwelling! ⁴ I would present my case to Him and speak with conviction. ⁵ I would know the words He would reply to me, and consider what He would say. ⁶ Would He oppose me with great power? No, He would surely give heed to me. ⁷ There the upright could engage with Him, and I would be set free forever from my judge.

⁸ "Behold, I go east but He is not there, and west, but I cannot find Him; ⁹ When He works in the north, I do not see Him; He turns to the south, but I do not behold Him. ¹⁰ Yet He knows the path I take; when He has tested me, I shall emerge as gold. ¹¹ My feet have held fast to His steps; I have kept His way and not turned aside. ¹² I have not departed from the command of His lips; I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my daily sustenance.

¹³ But He is unchangeable, and who can turn Him? He does whatever He desires. ¹⁴ He will complete what He has planned for me, and many such things are with Him. ¹⁵ Therefore, I am terrified at His presence; when I consider this, I am in dread of Him. ¹⁶ It is God who has made my heart faint, and the Almighty who has frightened me, ¹⁷ Yet I am not silenced by the darkness, nor by the deep gloom that covers my face.

24 ¹ "Why are times not appointed by the Almighty, And why do those who know Him not perceive His days? ² People move boundary stones; They seize and consume flocks. ³ They drive away the donkeys of the orphans, They seize the widow's ox as a pledge. ⁴ They push the needy off the road; The poor of the land are made to hide together. ⁵ Behold, like wild donkeys in the wilderness They search for food in their activity, As sustenance for their children in the desert. ⁶ They gather their fodder in the field And glean the vineyard of the unjust. ⁷ They spend the night without clothing, And have no covering against the cold. ⁸ They are drenched by the mountain rains, And they cling to the rock for lack of a shelter. ⁹ Others snatch an orphan from the breast, And seize it as a pledge against the poor. ¹⁰ They cause the poor to go about without clothing, And they take away the sheaves from the hungry. ¹¹ Within the walls they press oil; They tread wine presses but remain thirsty. ¹² From the city people groan, And the souls of the wounded cry out; Yet God does not regard the wrongdoing.

¹³ Others have been with those who rebel against the light; They do not want to know its ways, And do not stay in its paths. ¹⁴ The murderer rises at dawn; He kills the poor and the needy, And at night he behaves like a thief. ¹⁵ The eye of the adulterer waits for twilight, Saying, 'No eye will see me.' And he disguises his face. ¹⁶ In the dark they break into houses, They shut themselves up by day; They do not know the light. ¹⁷ For the morning is the same to him as deep darkness, For he is familiar with the terrors of deep darkness.

¹⁸ They are insignificant on the surface of the water; Their plot of land is cursed on the earth.

They do not turn toward the vineyards. ¹⁹ Dryness and heat consume the snow waters, So Sheol consumes those who have sinned. ²⁰ A mother will forget him; the worm feeds sweetly on him. He is no longer remembered. And wickedness is broken like a tree. ²¹ He mistreats the childless woman, And does no good for the widow. ²² But He drags off the strong by His power; He rises, but no one has assurance of life. ²³ He grants them security, and they are supported; And His eyes are on their ways. ²⁴ They are exalted a little while, then they are gone; Moreover, they are brought low, like everything gathered up; Even like the heads of grain they are cut off.

²⁵ Now if it is not so, who can prove me false, And make my words meaningless?"

25 Bildad the Shuhite responded, saying, ² "Dominion and awe belong to Him who brings order to the heights. ³ Is there a limit to His armies? Upon whom does His light not shine? ⁴ How then can a human be just before God? How can one born of a woman be clean? ⁵ If even the moon lacks brightness and the stars are not pure in His view, ⁶ how much less a human, who is a maggot, and a son of man, who is a worm!"

26 Job responded, ² "What assistance you have given to the weak! How you have strengthened the arm that lacks power! ³ What counsel you have provided to the one without wisdom! What abundant insight you have shown! ⁴ Whom did you address with these words? And whose spirit has spoken through you?

⁵ "The spirits of the departed tremble beneath the waters and their inhabitants. ⁶ The realm of Sheol is exposed before Him; Abaddon is laid bare. ⁷ He stretches out the northern skies over the void and suspends the earth upon nothing. ⁸ He binds up the waters in His clouds, yet the clouds do not burst under their weight. ⁹ He conceals the face of the full moon, spreading His cloud over it. ¹⁰ He has drawn a circle on the surface of the waters, marking the boundary between light and darkness.

¹¹ The pillars of the heavens shake, astounded at His rebuke. ¹² By His power, He stirs the sea; by His wisdom, He shattered Rahab. ¹³ By His breath, the skies are made clear; His hand pierced the swift serpent.

¹⁴ Indeed, these are but the edges of His ways; and how faint is the whisper we hear of Him! But the thunder of His power, who can comprehend?"

27 Then Job again took up his discourse and said,

² "As surely as God lives, who has denied me justice, And the Almighty, who has filled my soul with bitterness, ³ For as long as I have life within me, And the breath of the Almighty in my nostrils, ⁴ My lips will not speak falsehood, Nor will my tongue utter deceit. ⁵ It is far from me to say you are right; Until I die, I will not abandon my integrity. ⁶ I hold fast to my righteousness and will not let it slip. My heart does not reproach me for any of my days.

⁷ Let my enemy be like the wicked, And my adversary like the unjust. ⁸ For what hope has the godless when his life comes to an end, When God demands his life? ⁹ Will God listen to his cry When trouble befalls him? ¹⁰ Will he find joy in the Almighty? Will he call upon God at all times?

¹¹ I will teach you about the power of God; I will not hide what is with the Almighty. ¹² Behold, all of you have now seen it; Why then do you speak of empty nonsense?

¹³ This is the fate of a wicked person from God, And the inheritance which oppressors receive from the Almighty: ¹⁴ Though his children are many, they are destined for the sword; And his offspring will not have enough bread. ¹⁵ His survivors will be buried by the plague, And their widows will not be able to mourn. ¹⁶ Though he heaps up silver like dust, And amasses fabrics as plentiful as clay, ¹⁷ He may gather it, but the righteous will wear it, And the innocent will share the silver. ¹⁸ He builds his house like a spider's web, Or a shelter made by a watchman. ¹⁹ He lies down wealthy, but never again; He opens his eyes, and it is gone. ²⁰ Terrors overtake him like a flood; A storm sweeps him away in the night. ²¹ The east wind carries him off, and he vanishes; It sweeps him out of his place. ²² It hurls itself against him without pity; He will surely try to escape its power. ²³ People will clap their hands at him, And will hiss at him from their places.

28 "Indeed, there is a mine for silver And a location for purifying gold. ² Iron is extracted from the earth, And copper is refined from stone. ³ Man brings an end to darkness, And to the farthest limit he searches out The rock in gloom and deep shadow. ⁴ He sinks a shaft far from habitation, Forgotten by the foot; They hang and swing to and fro far from people. ⁵ The earth, from it comes food, And underneath it is turned over as fire. ⁶ Its rocks yield sapphires, And its dust holds gold. ⁷ The path is unknown to birds of prey, Nor has the falcon's eye seen it. ⁸ The proud animals have not walked on it, Nor has the lion passed over it. ⁹ He lays his hand on the flint; He overturns the mountains at their base. ¹⁰ He cuts out channels through the rocks, And his eye discovers all that is precious. ¹¹ He stops the streams from flowing, And brings to light what was hidden.

¹² "But where is wisdom to be found? And where is the place of understanding? ¹³ Humanity does not know its worth, Nor is it located in the land of the living. ¹⁴ The depths of the ocean declare, 'It is not within me'; And the sea proclaims, 'It is not with me.' ¹⁵ Pure gold cannot be exchanged for it, Nor can silver be weighed as its value. ¹⁶ It cannot be esteemed in the gold of Ophir, In precious onyx, or sapphire. ¹⁷ Gold or glass cannot compare to it, Nor can it be traded for items of fine gold. ¹⁸ Coral and crystal are not to be mentioned; And the gaining of wisdom is more precious than pearls. ¹⁹ The topaz of Cush cannot compare to it, Nor can it be esteemed in pure gold.

²⁰ "Then from where does wisdom arise? And where is the place of understanding? ²¹ It remains hidden from the eyes of every living being, And is concealed from the birds of the sky. ²² Abaddon and Death say, 'With our ears we have heard a rumour of it.' ²³ God comprehends its path, And He knows its place. ²⁴ For He observes to the ends of the earth; He sees everything under the heavens. ²⁵ When He gave the wind its weight, And measured the waters by measure, ²⁶ When He set a boundary for the rain, And a path for the thunderbolt, ²⁷ Then He saw it and declared it; He established it and also examined it. ²⁸ And to all of mankind He said,

'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; And to turn away from evil is understanding.'

29 Then Job again took up his discourse and said,

² "If only I could be as in the months of old, As in the days when God watched over me; ³ When His lamp shone above me, And by His light I walked through darkness; ⁴ Just as I was in the days of my youth, When God's protection was over my tent; ⁵ When the Almighty was still with me, And my children surrounded me; ⁶ When my steps were bathed in butter, And the rock poured out streams of oil for me!

⁷ When I went to the city gate, When I took my seat in the public square, ⁸ The young men saw me and withdrew, And the old men arose and stood. ⁹ The leaders ceased speaking And placed their hands on their mouths; ¹⁰ The voices of the nobles were hushed, And their tongues clung to their palates. ¹¹ For when an ear heard, it called me blessed, And when an eye saw, it gave witness of me, ¹² Because I delivered the poor who cried for help, And the orphan who had no supporter. ¹³ The blessing of the one who was perishing came upon me, And I made the widow's heart sing for joy. ¹⁴ I wore righteousness, and it clothed me; My justice was like a robe and a headband. ¹⁵ I was a guide to the blind, And a support to the lame. ¹⁶ I was a father to the needy, And I examined the case I did not know. ¹⁷ I shattered the jaws of the wicked, And rescued the prey from their teeth.

¹⁸ Then I thought, 'I will die in my nest, And I will multiply my days like the sand. ¹⁹ My roots spread out to the waters, And dew lies on my branches all night. ²⁰ My glory is ever fresh with me, And my bow is renewed in my hand.'

²¹ To me they listened and waited, And remained silent for my advice. ²² After my words they did not speak again, And my speech settled on them. ²³ They waited for me as for the rain, And opened their mouths as for the spring rain. ²⁴ I smiled at them when they did not believe, And they did not look at the light of my face unkindly. ²⁵ I determined their course and sat as chief, And dwelt as a king among the troops, As one who comforted the mourners.

30 "But now those younger than I ridicule me, Whose fathers I would not have placed with the dogs of my flock. ² Indeed, what benefit was the strength of their hands to me? Their vigour had departed from them. ³ From poverty and hunger they are gaunt— They who gnaw the dry ground by night in devastation and desolation, ⁴ Who gather saltweed by the bushes, And whose food is the root of the broom shrub. ⁵ They are driven from the community; People shout against them as against a thief, ⁶ So that they dwell in desolate valleys, In holes of the earth and of the rocks. ⁷ Among the bushes they wail; Under the weeds they huddle together. ⁸ Sons of the foolish, even sons of the nameless, They have been driven out of the land.

⁹ And now I have become their ridicule, And I have become a byword to them. ¹⁰ They detest me and keep their distance from me, And they do not refrain from spitting in my face. ¹¹ Because He has loosened His bowstring and afflicted me, They have cast off restraint in my presence. ¹² On the right hand their brood arises; They push aside my feet and build up against me their ways of destruction. ¹³ They disrupt my path, They gain from my downfall; No one holds them back. ¹⁴ They come upon me like a breach in the wall; They advance in the storm. ¹⁵ Sudden terrors are turned against me; They pursue my honour like the wind, And my prosperity has passed away like a cloud.

¹⁶ And now my soul is poured out within me; Days of suffering have overtaken me. ¹⁷ At night it pierces my bones within me, And my relentless pains do not rest. ¹⁸ By a great force my garment is distorted; It binds me like the collar of my coat. ¹⁹ He has thrown me into the mire, And I am reduced to dust and ashes.

²⁰ I cry out to You for help, yet You do not respond; I stand up, and You turn Your gaze against me. ²¹ You have become harsh to me; With the strength of Your hand You persecute me. ²² You lift me up to the wind and make me ride on it, And You scatter me in the storm. ²³ For I know that You will bring me to death, And to the house of meeting for all the living.

²⁴ Yet does one not stretch out his hand in a heap of ruins, Or in his disaster therefore cry out for help? ²⁵ Have I not wept for the one in distress? Was my soul not grieved for the needy? ²⁶ When I hoped for good, evil came; When I waited for light, darkness came. ²⁷ My internal organs are in turmoil and are never still; Days of suffering confront me. ²⁸ I wander about in mourning without solace; I stand up in the assembly and plead for help. ²⁹ I have become akin to jackals, And a companion to ostriches. ³⁰ My skin has turned dark upon me, And my bones are burning with fever. ³¹ Thus my harp is tuned to mourning, And my flute to the sound of lamentation.

31 "I have made an agreement with my eyes; How then could I gaze upon a young woman? ² And what is the portion given by God from above, Or the inheritance from the Almighty on high? ³ Is it not disaster for the unjust, And misfortune for those who work iniquity? ⁴ Does He not observe my ways, And count all my steps?

⁵ If I have walked in falsehood, And my foot has hastened after deceit, ⁶ Let Him weigh me with honest scales, And let God know my integrity. ⁷ If my step has strayed from the path, Or my heart followed my eyes, Or any stain has clung to my hands, ⁸ Let me sow and another consume, And let my produce be uprooted.

⁹ If my heart has been lured by a woman, Or I have waited at my neighbour's doorway, ¹⁰ May my wife grind for another, And let others bow down over her. ¹¹ For that would be a shameful act; Moreover, it would be wrongdoing punishable by judges. ¹² For it would be a fire that consumes to destruction, And would uproot all my increase.

¹³ If I have disregarded the plea of my male or female servants When they brought a complaint against me, ¹⁴ What then could I do when God rises up? And when He calls me to account, how shall I answer Him? ¹⁵ Did He who made me in the womb not make them, And did not the same one form us in the womb?

¹⁶ If I have denied the poor their desires, Or caused the widow to lose hope, ¹⁷ Or have eaten my morsel alone, And not shared it with the orphan ¹⁸ (But from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, And from my mother's womb I guided her), ¹⁹ If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, Or a needy person without a cloak, ²⁰ If his waist has not blessed me, Or he has not been warmed with the fleece of my sheep, ²¹ If I have raised my hand against the orphan, Because I saw I had support at the gate, ²² May my shoulder dislocate, And my arm be broken off at the elbow. ²³ For the fear of calamity from God is overwhelming to me, And because of His majesty, I am powerless.

²⁴ If I have placed my trust in gold, And called fine gold my security, ²⁵ If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, And because my hand had gained so much, ²⁶ If I have been captivated by the sun when it shone Or the moon in its splendour, ²⁷ And my heart was secretly drawn, And my hand offered a kiss from my mouth, ²⁸ That too would have been a sin deserving judgment, For I would have denied God above.

²⁹ Have I rejoiced at the downfall of my enemy, Or become glad when trouble found him? ³⁰ No, I have not permitted my mouth to sin By asking for his life in a curse. ³¹ Have the people of my tent not said, 'Who can find one who has not been satisfied with his food'? ³² The stranger has not spent the night outside, For I have opened my doors to the traveller. ³³ Have I concealed my transgressions like Adam, By hiding my guilt in my heart, ³⁴ Because I was afraid of the large crowd, And the scorn of families unnerved me, And I kept silent and did not go out of doors?

³⁵ Oh that I had someone to hear me! Here is my mark; Let the Almighty respond to me! And the indictment which my adversary has written, ³⁶ I would certainly carry it on my shoulder, I would bind it to myself like a crown. ³⁷ I would recount to Him all my steps; Like a prince, I would approach Him.

³⁸ If my land cries out against me, And its furrows join in lament, ³⁹ If I have consumed its produce without payment, Or have caused its owners to lose their lives, ⁴⁰ May thorns grow instead of wheat, And weeds instead of barley." The words of Job are ended.

32 Thus, the three men ceased responding to Job, for he was righteous in his own eyes. ² However, Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, from the family of Ram, was incensed with Job because he justified himself rather than God. ³ His anger also kindled against the three friends, as they had found no answer to refute Job, yet they had condemned him. ⁴ Elihu had held back from speaking to Job because they were older than he. ⁵ But when Elihu observed that the three men had no further responses, his anger was ignited.

⁶ So Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite declared:

"I am young in years, and you are aged; hence, I was timid and refrained from expressing my thoughts. ⁷ I thought, 'Let age speak, and let many years impart wisdom.' ⁸ But it is the spirit in a person, the breath of the Almighty, that bestows understanding. ⁹ It is not just the elderly who are wise, nor is it only the aged who comprehend justice.

¹⁰ Therefore, I say: 'Hear me out; I too will share what I know.' ¹¹ I waited for your words, I listened to your considered speech, while you searched for what to say. ¹² I gave you my full attention. Yet not one of you has proven Job wrong; none has answered his arguments. ¹³ Therefore, do not claim, 'We have discovered wisdom; let God, not man, defeat him.' ¹⁴ But Job has not directed his words against me, and I will not respond to him with your arguments.

¹⁵ They are dismayed and have ceased to answer; words have left them. ¹⁶ Should I wait, now that they are silent, now that they stand without a reply? ¹⁷ I too will have my say; I also will share my thoughts. ¹⁸ For I am filled with words, and the spirit within me urges me to speak. ¹⁹ Inside, I am like wine that has no vent, like new wineskins ready to burst. ²⁰ I must speak to find relief; I must open my lips and respond. ²¹ I will show no partiality, nor will I flatter any man. ²² For I do not know how to flatter; if I did, my Maker would swiftly take me away.

33 "But now, Job, please listen to my speech; pay attention to all my words. ² See now, I am about to open my mouth; my tongue is ready to speak. ³ My words come from the integrity of my heart; my lips express knowledge sincerely. ⁴ The Spirit of God has created me; the breath of the Almighty gives me life. ⁵ Respond to me if you can; prepare yourself and take your stand. ⁶ I am just like you before God; I too have been formed from clay. ⁷ No fear of me should alarm you, nor should my hand be heavy upon you.

⁸ "But you have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the very words you said: ⁹ 'I am pure, without transgression; I am clean and there is no iniquity in me. ¹⁰ Yet He finds occasions against me; He regards me as His adversary. ¹¹ He puts my feet in shackles; He watches all my paths.'

¹² "But I say to you, in this you are not right, for God is greater than any human. ¹³ Why do you contend with Him, saying He does not answer any of your words? ¹⁴ For God does speak—now one way, now another—yet no one notices it. ¹⁵ In a dream, a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon people, while they slumber on their beds, ¹⁶ He may open their ears and terrify them with warnings, ¹⁷ to turn a person from wrongdoing and to keep them from pride, ¹⁸ to preserve their soul from the pit, and their life from perishing by the sword.

¹⁹ "Or they may be chastened on a bed of pain, with constant distress in their bones, ²⁰ so that their being loathes bread, and their soul despises their favourite food. ²¹ Their flesh wastes away to nothing, and their bones, once unseen, now stick out. ²² Their soul draws near to the pit, and their life to the messengers of death. ²³ Yet if there is an angel on their side, a mediator, one out of a thousand, to show them what is right, ²⁴ and he is gracious to them, and says, 'Deliver them from going down to the pit; I have found a ransom for them— ²⁵ let their flesh be renewed like a child's; let them return to the days of their youthful vigour— ²⁶ then they will pray to God and find favour with Him; they will see His face with joy, and He will restore their righteousness. ²⁷ They will sing to others and say, 'I have sinned and perverted what was right, but I did not receive what I deserved. ²⁸ He has delivered my soul from descending into the pit, and my life shall behold the light.'

²⁹ "Indeed, God does all these things for a person—twice, even three times— ³⁰ to bring back their soul from the pit, that they may be enlightened with the light of life.

³¹ "Listen carefully, Job, and hear me; remain silent, and I will speak. ³² If you have anything to say, respond to me; speak, for I wish to justify you. ³³

But if not, then heed my words; stay silent, and I will impart wisdom to you.”

34 Then Elihu continued and spoke:

² “Hear my words, you wise men, and listen to me, you men of understanding. ³ For just as the palate tastes food, so the ear discerns words. ⁴ Let us choose for ourselves what is right; let us discern together what is good.

⁵ For Job has said, ‘I am righteous, but God has denied me justice. ⁶ Though I am without fault, I am considered a liar; my wound is incurable, though I am guiltless.’ ⁷ What man is like Job, who drinks derision like water, ⁸ who associates with evildoers and walks with the wicked? ⁹ For he has said, ‘There is no benefit to a man in trying to please God.’ ¹⁰ “Therefore, listen to me, you men of understanding. It is far from God to do evil, and from the Almighty to do wrong. ¹¹ He repays a person according to their deeds, and brings upon them what their conduct deserves. ¹² It is unimaginable that God would act wickedly, or that the Almighty would pervert justice. ¹³ Who gave Him authority over the earth? Who placed the whole world in His care? ¹⁴ If He were to gather His spirit and breath to Himself, ¹⁵ all humanity would perish together, and mankind would return to dust.

¹⁶ “If you are wise, pay attention to this; heed the sound of my words. ¹⁷ Can one who hates justice govern? Will you condemn the righteous and mighty One? ¹⁸ Is He not the One who declares to kings, ‘You are of no account,’ and to nobles, ‘You are corrupt,’ ¹⁹ who shows no partiality to princes and does not favour the wealthy over the poor, for they are all the work of His hands? ²⁰ In a moment they die, in the middle of the night; people are shaken and pass away, and the powerful are removed without human hand.

²¹ “For His eyes are on the ways of mortals; He sees their every step. ²² There is no darkness or deep shadow where evildoers can hide themselves.

²³ God does not need to examine people further, that they should come before Him for judgment. ²⁴ Without inquiry, He shatters the mighty and sets others in their place. ²⁵ Because He observes their actions, He overthrows them in the night and they are crushed. ²⁶ He strikes them for their wickedness in a public place, ²⁷ because they turned away from following Him and had no regard for any of His ways. ²⁸ They caused the cry of the poor to come before Him, so that He heard the cry of the afflicted. ²⁹ When He remains silent, who can condemn Him? If He hides His face, who can see Him? He is over both nation and individual alike, ³⁰ to prevent the godless from ruling and laying snares for the people.

³¹ “For has anyone said to God, ‘I have endured punishment; I will offend no more;’ ³² show me what I do not see; if I have done wrong, I will not repeat it?’ ³³ Should God repay on your terms because you reject His? You must choose, not I; therefore, declare what you know.

³⁴ Men of understanding will say to me, and a wise man who hears me will say, ³⁵ ‘Job speaks without knowledge; his words lack wisdom.’ ³⁶ Oh, that Job might be thoroughly tested, for answering like a wicked man! ³⁷ For he adds rebellion to his sin; he claps his hands among us and increases his words against God.”

35 Then Elihu continued and spoke:

² “Do you consider this to be just? You claim, ‘My righteousness surpasses God’s.’ ³

For you ask, ‘What benefit is it to me? What do I gain more than if I had sinned?’

⁴ I shall respond to you and your companions. ⁵ Observe the heavens and see; look at the clouds, they are far above you. ⁶ If you sin, what effect does it have on Him? If your transgressions are many, how do they affect Him? ⁷ If you are righteous, what can you offer Him, or what does He want from your hand? ⁸ Your wickedness affects only humans like yourself, and your righteousness impacts only fellow people.

⁹ “People cry out under the weight of oppression; they seek relief from the power of the mighty. ¹⁰ Yet no one asks, ‘Where is God my Maker, who provides songs in the night,’ ¹¹ who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?’ ¹² They cry out, but He does not answer because of the arrogance of the wicked. ¹³ Indeed, God will not heed an empty plea; the Almighty pays no attention to it. ¹⁴ How much less will He listen when you claim you do not see Him, that your case is before Him, and you must wait for Him. ¹⁵ And now, because He has not punished in His anger, nor has He regarded wrongdoing, ¹⁶ So Job speaks with empty words; he multiplies words without understanding."

36 Elihu continued speaking and said:

² "Bear with me a little while longer, and I will demonstrate that there is more to be spoken on God's behalf. ³ I will bring forth my knowledge from afar and attribute righteousness to my Maker. ⁴ Rest assured, my words are not false; one perfect in knowledge is with you.

⁵ Behold, God is mighty and does not reject anyone; He is mighty in strength and understanding. ⁶ He does not preserve the wicked, but upholds the rights of the afflicted. ⁷ He does not avert His gaze from the righteous; He seats them with kings on the throne and exalts them forever. ⁸ If they are bound in chains and caught in cords of affliction, ⁹ then He declares to them their deeds and their transgressions, that they have acted arrogantly. ¹⁰ He opens their ears to instruction and commands them to turn from iniquity. ¹¹ If they heed and serve Him, they will spend their days in prosperity and their years in happiness. ¹² Yet if they do not listen, they will meet their end by the sword and pass away without understanding.

¹³ The godless in heart harbour anger; they do not call for help when He binds them. ¹⁴ They die in their youth, and their life ends among the shrine's male prostitutes. ¹⁵ He rescues the afflicted in their misery and opens their ears in times of oppression.

¹⁶ Indeed, He is drawing you from the jaws of distress to a broad place without constraint, and your table is laden with rich food. ¹⁷ But now you are filled with the judgment due to the wicked; judgment and justice have taken hold of you. ¹⁸ Beware that wrath does not entice you to scorn, and do not let a large ransom turn you aside. ¹⁹ Will your wealth or the exertion of your strength keep you from distress? ²⁰ Do not long for the night, when people are taken from their places. ²¹ Be wary of turning to evil, which you seem to prefer over affliction.

²² Behold, God is supreme in His power; who can instruct like Him? ²³ Who has appointed His path for Him, or who has said, "You have done wrong"? ²⁴ Remember to extol His work, which people have sung in praise. ²⁵ All humanity has observed it; mankind gazes upon it from afar. ²⁶ Behold, God is great beyond our understanding; the number of His years is unsearchable.

²⁷ For He draws up the drops of water, which distil as rain from the celestial streams, ²⁸ the clouds pour down their moisture, and abundant showers fall upon mankind. ²⁹ Can anyone comprehend the spreading of the clouds, the thunder from His pavilion? ³⁰ Behold, He scatters His lightning around Him and covers the depths of the sea. ³¹ For by these He governs the nations and provides food in abundance. ³² He fills His hands with lightning and commands it to strike its target. ³³ His thunder announces the storm; even the cattle are aware of its approach.

37 "At this, my heart quakes, And leaps from its place. ² Hear attentively the thunder of His voice, And the rumbling that issues from His mouth. ³ Across the whole sky He releases it, And His lightning reaches the ends of the earth. ⁴ Following it, a voice roars; He thunders with His majestic voice, And He does not hold back the lightning when His voice is heard. ⁵ God thunders marvellously with His voice, Accomplishing great things beyond our understanding. ⁶ To the snow He commands, 'Fall on the earth,' And to the rain shower, 'Be strong.' ⁷ He seals the hand of every person, So that all people may recognise His work. ⁸ Then the animal retreats to its lair And stays in its den. ⁹ From the south comes the storm, And from the north the cold. ¹⁰ By the breath of God ice forms, And the expanse of the waters is frozen. ¹¹ He also fills the clouds with moisture; He scatters the cloud of His lightning. ¹² It shifts direction, turning around by His guidance, That it may accomplish whatever He commands it On the face of the inhabited earth. ¹³ Whether for correction, or for His world, Or for mercy, He causes it to happen.

¹⁴ "Hear this, Job: Stand and reflect on the wonders of God. ¹⁵ Do you know how God establishes them, And makes the lightning of His cloud shine? ¹⁶ Do you understand about the hovering of the clouds, The wonders of One who is perfect in knowledge, ¹⁷ You whose garments are warm, When the land is still because of the south wind? ¹⁸ Can you, with Him, spread out the sky, Strong as a cast metal mirror?

¹⁹ "Instruct us what we should say to Him; We cannot present our case due to darkness. ²⁰ Shall it be reported to Him that I would speak? Or should a person say that he would be overwhelmed? ²¹ At present, people do not see the light that is bright in the skies; But the wind has passed and cleared them. ²² From the north comes golden splendour; Around God is awesome majesty. ²³ The Almighty—we cannot fully comprehend Him; He is exalted in power, And He will not compromise justice and abundant righteousness. ²⁴ Therefore people revere Him; He does not regard any who are wise in heart."

38 Then the Lord spoke to Job from the whirlwind and said:

² "Who is this that darkens my counsel with words devoid of knowledge? ³ Gird yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall inform me.

⁴ Where were you when I established the earth's foundation? Declare, if you have understanding. ⁵ Who determined its measurements? Surely you know! Or who stretched the measuring line upon it? ⁶ On what were its bases set, or who laid its cornerstone— ⁷ when the morning stars sang in chorus and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

⁸ "Who enclosed the sea with doors when it burst forth from the womb, ⁹ when I clothed it with clouds and wrapped it in thick darkness, ¹⁰ when I set limits for it and put bars and doors in place, ¹¹ when I said, 'This far you may come and no farther; here is where your proud waves shall stop'?

¹² "Have you ever commanded the morning, or shown the dawn its place, ¹³ that it might seize the edges of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?

¹⁴ The earth takes form like clay under a seal; its features stand out like a garment. ¹⁵ The light is withheld from the wicked, and the uplifted arm is broken.

¹⁶ "Have you journeyed to the springs of the sea or walked in the depths of the ocean? ¹⁷ Have the secrets of death been shown to you? Have you seen the gates of the shadowy realm? ¹⁸ Have you comprehended the vast expanses of the earth? Declare, if you know all this.

¹⁹ Where is the way to the dwelling of light? And where does darkness reside, ²⁰ that you may take it to its territory, and discern the paths to its abode?

²¹ Surely you must know, for you were born by then, and your days are many!

²² "Have you entered the treasures of the snow or seen the reserves of the hail, ²³ which I have reserved for times of trouble, for days of war and battle? ²⁴ What is the way to the place where the light is divided, or the east wind scattered over the earth? ²⁵ Who has carved a channel for the torrents of rain, and a path for the thunderbolt, ²⁶ to water a land that is uninhabited, a deserted wilderness, ²⁷ to satisfy the desolate wasteland and cause the grass to sprout? ²⁸ Does the rain have a source? Who is the parent of the drops of dew? ²⁹ From whose womb does the ice come? Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens ³⁰ when the waters harden like stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen?

³¹ "Can you bind the chains of the Pleiades, or loosen the cords of Orion? ³² Can you bring forth the constellations in their seasons, or guide the Bear with her cubs? ³³ Are you familiar with the laws of the heavens? Can you establish their rule over the earth?

³⁴ "Can you call to the clouds and cover yourself with a deluge of water? ³⁵ Do you send the lightning bolts on their way? Do they present themselves to you, saying, 'Here we are'? ³⁶ Who has placed wisdom within the heart, or given understanding to the mind? ³⁷ Who can count the clouds by wisdom, or tip over the water jars of the heavens ³⁸ when the dust becomes solid and the clods stick together?

³⁹ "Can you hunt the prey for the lioness and satisfy the hunger of the young lions ⁴⁰ when they crouch in their dens or lie in wait in their lairs? ⁴¹ Who provides sustenance for the raven when its young cry out to God and wander about without food?

39 "Do you know the moment when the mountain goats give birth? Do you watch when the deer bring forth their young? ² Can you count the months they fulfil, Or do you know the time they give birth? ³ They kneel down, they deliver their young, They get rid of their labour pains. ⁴ Their offspring grow strong, maturing in the open field; They depart and do not return to them.

Job

⁵ Who set the wild donkey free? And who released the swift donkey from its bonds, ⁶ To whom I gave the wilderness as a home, And the salt land as his dwelling place? ⁷ He mocks the chaos of the city, He does not hear the shouting of the taskmaster. ⁸ He roams the mountains for his pasture, And seeks out every green thing.

⁹ Will the wild ox be willing to serve you, Or will he spend the night at your feeding trough? ¹⁰ Can you tie down the wild ox in a furrow with ropes, Or will he plough the valleys after you? ¹¹ Will you trust him because his strength is great, And leave your labour to him? ¹² Will you rely on him to bring back your grain, And gather it from your threshing floor?

¹³ "The wings of the ostrich wave joyfully, With the pinion and feathers of affection, ¹⁴ For she leaves her eggs on the ground, And lets them warm in the dust, ¹⁵ And she is unaware that a foot may crush them, Or that a wild animal might trample them. ¹⁶ She treats her young harshly, as if they were not hers; Though her labour is in vain, she is unconcerned, ¹⁷ Because God has deprived her of wisdom, And has not granted her a share of understanding. ¹⁸ When she takes to flight, She mocks the horse and its rider.

¹⁹ "Do you endow the horse with strength? Do you adorn his neck with a flowing mane? ²⁰ Do you make him leap like a locust? His majestic snorting is terrifying. ²¹ He paws in the valley, exulting in his strength; He charges into the fray. ²² He scoffs at fear and is undaunted; And he does not turn back from the sword. ²³ The quiver clatters against him, The flashing spear and javelin. ²⁴ He races over the ground with a roar and fury, And he does not stand still at the sound of the trumpet. ²⁵ Whenever the trumpet sounds he exclaims, 'Aha!' And he perceives the battle from afar, And the thunder of the captains and the war cry.

²⁶ "Is it through your wisdom that the hawk soars, Stretching his wings toward the south? ²⁷ Is it by your command that the eagle ascends, And makes his nest on high? ²⁸ He dwells and spends his nights on the cliff, On the rocky crag, an inaccessible place. ²⁹ From there he searches for prey; His eyes observe it from afar. ³⁰ His young ones also feast on blood; And where the slain are, there he is."

40

Then the Lord addressed Job,

² "Will the one who finds fault contend with the Almighty? Let the one who challenges God respond."

³ Job responded to the Lord, and said,

⁴ "Behold, I am of little account; how can I answer You? I will place my hand over my mouth. ⁵ I have spoken once, and I will not reply; twice, and I will add nothing further."

⁶ Then the Lord spoke to Job from the whirlwind,

⁷ "Prepare yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall inform me. ⁸ Will you indeed annul my judgement? Will you condemn me to justify yourself? ⁹ Do you possess strength like that of God, and can your voice resound with power like His?

¹⁰ Adorn yourself with grandeur and dignity, and clothe yourself with honour and majesty. ¹¹ Release the fury of your wrath, and look at all who are proud and humble them. ¹² Look at all who are arrogant and bring them low, and crush the wicked where they stand. ¹³ Bury them in the dust together; imprison them in the hidden place. ¹⁴ Then I will acknowledge to you that your own right hand can deliver you.

¹⁵ Behold, Behemoth, which I made along with you; it eats grass like an ox. ¹⁶ See the strength in its loins, and the power in the muscles of its belly. ¹⁷ Its tail sways like a cedar; the sinews of its thighs are closely bound. ¹⁸ Its bones are like tubes of bronze, its limbs like bars of iron. ¹⁹ It is the foremost of the works of God; its Maker can approach it with His sword. ²⁰ The mountains yield food for it, and all the wild animals play nearby. ²¹ Beneath the lotus plants it rests, concealed among the reeds in the marsh. ²² The lotuses provide it with shade; the willows of the brook surround it. ²³ Though a river rages, it is not alarmed; it remains confident, even if the Jordan surges against its mouth. ²⁴ Can anyone capture it when it is alert, or pierce its nose with snares?

41 "Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook, And hold down his tongue with a cord? ² Can you place a cord through his nose, And pierce his jaw with a hook? ³ Will he plead with you repeatedly, Or will he speak to you with gentle words? ⁴ Will he make an agreement with you? Will you take him as a servant for all time? ⁵ Will you play with him as with a bird, Or bind him for your young maidens? ⁶ Will the traders haggle over him? Will they divide him among the merchants? ⁷ Can you cover his skin with harpoons, Or his head with fishing spears? ⁸ Place your hand upon him. Recall the battle; you will not attempt it again! ⁹ Behold, your expectation is in vain; Will you be cast down even at the sight of him? ¹⁰ No one is so fearless that he dares to rouse him; Who then is he who can stand before Me? ¹¹ Who has given to Me that I should repay him? Whatever is under the entire heaven is Mine.

¹² "I will not be silent about his limbs, Or his mighty strength, or his graceful form. ¹³ Who can strip off his outer covering? Who can penetrate his double armour? ¹⁴ Who can open his mouth? His teeth inspire awe. ¹⁵ His strong scales are his pride, Sealed tightly together. ¹⁶ Each one is so close to the next That no air can pass between them. ¹⁷ They are joined one to another; They cling together and cannot be separated. ¹⁸ His sneezes emit flashes of light, And his eyes are like the rays of dawn. ¹⁹ From his mouth come burning torches; Sparks of fire shoot forth. ²⁰ Smoke pours from his nostrils As from a boiling pot and burning reeds. ²¹ His breath kindles coals, And a flame issues from his mouth. ²² Power is in his neck, And fear moves before him. ²³ The folds of his flesh are tightly joined, Firm and immovable upon him. ²⁴ His heart is hard as a stone, Indeed, as hard as a lower millstone. ²⁵ When he rises up, the mighty are terrified; Because of the crashing they are bewildered. ²⁶ The sword that strikes him does not prevail, Nor the spear, the dart, or the javelin. ²⁷ He considers iron as straw, Bronze as decayed wood. ²⁸ The arrow cannot make him flee; Slingstones are like chaff to him. ²⁹ Clubs are regarded as chaff; He laughs at the clatter of the javelin. ³⁰ His underparts are like sharp shards of pottery; He spreads himself like a threshing sledge on the mire. ³¹ He makes the depths churn like a pot; He makes the sea like a pot of ointment. ³² Behind him he leaves a glistening wake; One would think the deep to be grey-haired. ³³ There is nothing on earth like him, A creature made without fear. ³⁴ He surveys everything that is lofty; He is king over all the proud."

42 Then Job responded to the Lord and said, ² "I am aware that you are capable of all things, and that no plan of yours can be thwarted. ³ 'Who is this that obscures counsel without knowledge?' Indeed, I spoke of things I did not understand, things too marvellous for me to know. ⁴ 'Listen now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you will inform me.' ⁵ I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eyes have witnessed you; ⁶ Therefore I retract my words and repent in dust and ashes."

⁷ After the Lord had spoken these words to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My anger burns against you and your two friends, because you have not spoken what is right about me, as my servant Job has. ⁸ Now take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer and not deal with you according to your folly, because you have not spoken what is right about me, as my servant Job has." ⁹ So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the Lord had instructed them; and the Lord accepted Job's prayer.

¹⁰ The Lord restored Job's fortunes when he prayed for his friends, and the Lord gave him twice as much as he had before. ¹¹ Then all his brothers, sisters, and everyone who had known him before came to him and ate with him in his house. They sympathised with him and comforted him over all the misfortunes the Lord had brought upon him, and each one gave him a piece of silver and a gold ring.

¹² The Lord blessed the latter part of Job's life more than the beginning. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. ¹³ He was blessed with seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴ He named the first daughter Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-Happuch. ¹⁵ In all the land, no women were found as beautiful as Job's daughters, and their father granted them an inheritance alongside their brothers.

Job

¹⁶ After this, Job lived for 140 years; he saw his children and their children to the fourth generation.

¹⁷ Thus, Job passed away, having lived a long and full life.

Psalms

1 Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, Nor stand in the path of sinners, Nor sit in the seat of scoffers! ² Rather, he finds joy in the Lord's Law, And he reflects on His Law both day and night. ³ He is like a tree planted by streams of water, Which bears its fruit in its season, And its leaf remains green; And in all that he undertakes, he thrives.

⁴ The wicked are not like this, But they resemble chaff that the wind drives away. ⁵ Thus, the wicked will not endure in the judgment, Nor will sinners be found in the gathering of the righteous.

⁶ For the Lord is aware of the path of the righteous, But the path of the wicked leads to ruin.

2 Why do the nations rage, And the peoples devise futile plans? ² The kings of the earth take their stand, And the rulers join forces Against the Lord and His Anointed, saying, ³ "Let us break their chains, And cast their cords from us!"

⁴ He who dwells in the heavens laughs, The Lord mocks them. ⁵ Then He will address them in His anger, And alarm them in His wrath, saying, ⁶ "Yet I have set My King On Zion, My sacred hill."

⁷ I will declare the decree of the Lord:

He said to Me, "You are My Son, Today I have become Your Father. ⁸ Request of Me, and I will surely grant the nations as Your inheritance, And the farthest parts of the earth as Your possession. ⁹ You shall crush them with a rod of iron, You shall dash them to pieces like pottery."

¹⁰ Therefore, you kings, be wise; Be open to instruction, you judges of the earth. ¹¹ Worship the Lord with awe, And celebrate with trembling. ¹² Honour the Son, lest He be angry and you perish in your path, For His wrath can ignite swiftly. Blessed are all who seek refuge in Him.

3 A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.

¹ Lord, how my enemies have increased! Many are rising up against me. ² Many are saying about me, "There is no deliverance for him through God." Selah

³ Yet You, Lord, are a shield around me, My glory, and the One who lifts my head high. ⁴ I called out to the Lord with my voice, And He responded to me from His sacred mountain. Selah

⁵ I lay down and slept; I awoke, for the Lord upholds me. ⁶ I will not fear the multitudes of people Who have encircled me.

⁷ Rise up, Lord; deliver me, my God! For You have struck all my foes on the cheek; You have broken the teeth of the wicked.

⁸ Deliverance is the Lord's; May Your blessing rest upon Your people. Selah

4 For the music director; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

¹ Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness! You have relieved me in my distress; Be gracious to me and hear my prayer.

² You sons of man, how long will my honour be turned into shame? How long will you love what is worthless and strive for a lie? Selah ³ Yet understand that the Lord has chosen the faithful for Himself; The Lord listens when I call to Him.

⁴ Be in awe, and do not sin; Reflect quietly in your heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah ⁵ Present offerings of righteousness, And place your trust in the Lord.

⁶ Many are saying, "Who will show us any good?" Shine the light of Your face upon us, Lord! ⁷ You have filled my heart with joy, More than when their grain and new wine overflow.

⁸ I will lie down and sleep in peace, For You alone, Lord, provide me with safety.

5 For the music director; for flutes. A Psalm of David.

¹ Listen to my words, Lord, Consider my sighing. ² Hear my plea for help, my King and my God, For it is to You I pray.

³ In the morning, Lord, You will hear my voice; At dawn, I will present my prayer to You and keep watch. ⁴ For You are not a God who delights in wickedness; No evil can reside with You. ⁵ The boastful will not stand before Your eyes; You despise all who commit injustice. ⁶ You bring to ruin those who speak falsehoods; The Lord detests the person of bloodshed and deceit. ⁷ But as for me, by Your abundant mercy I will enter Your house; At Your holy temple I will bow in reverence for You.

Psalms

⁸ Lord, guide me in Your righteousness because of my foes; Make Your path straight before me. ⁹ For there is nothing reliable in their speech; Their inner being is destruction itself. Their throat is an open grave; They use their tongue to flatter. ¹⁰ Hold them accountable, God; Let them fall by their own schemes! In the multitude of their transgressions, drive them out, For they have rebelled against You. ¹¹ But let all who seek refuge in You be glad; Let them ever sing for joy! And may You protect them, That those who love Your name may exult in You.

¹² For You bless the righteous person, Lord, You surround them with favour as with a shield.

6

For the music director; with stringed instruments, upon an eight-string lyre. A Psalm of David.

¹ Lord, do not rebuke me in Your anger, Nor discipline me in Your wrath. ² Show kindness to me, Lord, for I am weak; Heal me, Lord, for my bones are in distress. ³ And my soul is deeply troubled; But You, Lord—how long?

⁴ Return, Lord, deliver my soul; Save me because of Your loving kindness. ⁵ For there is no remembrance of You in death; In Sheol, who will give You praise?

⁶ I am exhausted with my groaning; Every night I drench my bed, I soak my couch with my tears. ⁷ My eye has grown weak with sorrow; It has aged because of all my foes.

⁸ Depart from me, all you who commit injustice, For the Lord has heard the sound of my weeping. ⁹ The Lord has listened to my plea, The Lord accepts my prayer. ¹⁰ All my enemies will be put to shame and greatly troubled; They shall turn back, they will suddenly be put to shame.

7

A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the Lord concerning Cush, a Benjaminite.

¹ Lord my God, in You I have taken refuge; Save me from all those who pursue me, and rescue me, ² Or he will tear my soul like a lion, Dragging me away, while there is no one to rescue.

³ Lord my God, if I have done this, If there is injustice in my hands, ⁴ If I have done evil to my ally, Or have plundered my enemy for no reason, ⁵ Allow the enemy to pursue my soul and overtake it; And let him trample my life to the ground And lay my honour in the dust. Selah

⁶ Rise, Lord, in Your anger; Stand against the fury of my enemies, And awaken for me; You have appointed judgment. ⁷ Let the gathering of the peoples surround You, And return to Your place on high. ⁸ The Lord judges the peoples; Judge me, Lord, according to my righteousness and the integrity within me. ⁹ Let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous; For the righteous God examines hearts and minds.

¹⁰ My protection is with God, Who delivers those who are upright in heart. ¹¹ God is a fair judge, And a God who expresses displeasure every day. ¹² If one does not repent, He will sharpen His sword; He has bent His bow and made it ready. ¹³ He has also prepared His deadly weapons; He makes His arrows fiery shafts.

¹⁴ Behold, an evil person is filled with injustice, And he conceives harm and gives birth to falsehood. ¹⁵ He has dug a pit and made it deep, And has fallen into the hole he created. ¹⁶ His harm will return upon his own head, And his violence will come down on his own crown.

¹⁷ I will thank the Lord for His righteousness And will sing praise to the name of the Lord Most High.

8

For the music director; on the Gittith. A Psalm of David.

¹ Lord, our Lord, How majestic is Your name across the earth, You who have displayed Your splendour above the heavens! ² From the mouths of infants and nursing babies, You have ordained strength

Psalms

Because of Your adversaries, To silence the foe and the avenger. ³ When I reflect on Your heavens, the work of Your hands, The moon and the stars, which You have positioned, ⁴ What is humanity that You are mindful of them, And whats is a child of man that You care for him?

⁵ Yet You have made them a little lower than the divine, And You crown them with glory and honour!

⁶ You have given them dominion over the works of Your hands; You have placed everything under their feet, ⁷ All sheep and oxen, And also the creatures of the field, ⁸ The birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, Whatever travels the paths of the seas.

⁹ Lord, our Lord, How majestic is Your name across the earth!

9

For the music director; on Muth-labben. A Psalm of David.

¹ I will give thanks to the Lord with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wonders. ² I will rejoice and be joyful in You; I will sing praises to Your name, O Most High.

³ When my enemies retreat, They stumble and perish in Your presence. ⁴ For You have upheld my just cause; You have sat on the throne giving righteous judgment. ⁵ You have reprov'd the nations, You have brought an end to the wicked; You have wiped out their name for all time. ⁶ The enemy has met an end in everlasting ruins, And You have uprooted the cities; The very memory of them has vanished.

⁷ Yet the Lord reigns as King forever; He has established His throne for judgment, ⁸ And He will judge the world with righteousness; He will govern the peoples with fairness. ⁹ The Lord will also be a refuge for the oppressed, A stronghold in times of trouble; ¹⁰ And those who know Your name will trust in You, For You, Lord, have not forsaken those who seek You.

¹¹ Sing praises to the Lord, who resides in Zion; Proclaim His deeds among the peoples. ¹² For He who avenges blood remembers them; He does not forget the cry of the afflicted.

¹³ Be gracious to me, Lord; Observe my suffering from those who hate me, You who lift me from the gates of death, ¹⁴ So that I may recount all Your praises, That in the gates of the daughter of Zion I may rejoice in Your salvation.

¹⁵ The nations have sunk into the pit they made; In the net they hid, their own foot is ensnared. ¹⁶ The Lord has revealed Himself; He has executed judgment. A wicked one is trapped in the work of his own hands. Higgsion Selah ¹⁷ The wicked will descend to Sheol, Along with all the nations that forget God. ¹⁸ For the needy will not always be forgotten, Nor will the hope of the afflicted vanish forever.

¹⁹ Arise, Lord, do not let mankind triumph; Let the nations be judged in Your presence. ²⁰ Instil fear in them, Lord; Let the nations know they are merely human. Selah

10

Why do You seem distant, Lord? Why do You conceal Yourself in times of trouble?

² In their arrogance, the wicked fervently pursue the needy; Let them be ensnared in the schemes they have devised. ³ For the wicked boasts of his heart's desire, And the greedy person curses and shows contempt for the Lord. ⁴ The wicked, in his pride, does not seek Him. There is no room for God in all his plans. ⁵ His ways prosper at all times; Yet Your judgments are beyond his reach; As for all his enemies, he sneers at them. ⁶ He says to himself, "I shall not be shaken; Through all generations I shall not face adversity."

⁷ His mouth is full of curses, deceit, and oppression; Under his tongue are mischief and injustice. ⁸ He waits in ambush in the villages; He kills the innocent in hidden places; His eyes secretly watch for the unfortunate. ⁹ He lies in wait like a lion in his den; He waits to seize the needy; He seizes the needy when he draws him into his net. ¹⁰ He crouches, he bows down, And the unfortunate fall by his strong ones. ¹¹ He says to himself, "God has overlooked; He has hidden His face; He will never notice."

¹² Rise up, Lord; God, lift Your hand. Do not overlook the humble. ¹³ Why has the wicked shown contempt for God? He has said to himself, "You will not call me to account." ¹⁴ You have observed it, for

Psalms

You have noted harm and provocation to take it into Your hand. The unfortunate entrusts himself to You; You have been the helper of the orphan. ¹⁵ Break the power of the wicked and the evildoer, Seek out his wickedness until none remains.

¹⁶ The Lord reigns as King forever and ever; Nations have vanished from His land. ¹⁷ Lord, You have heard the longing of the humble; You will strengthen their heart, You will incline Your ear, ¹⁸ To uphold the orphan and the oppressed, So that mankind, who is of the earth, will no longer cause fear.

11

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ In the Lord I take refuge; How can you say to my soul, "Flee as a bird to your mountain; ² For, observe, the wicked prepare their bow, They have readied their arrow on the string To shoot in the shadows at those upright in heart. ³ If the very foundations are destroyed, What action can the righteous take?"

⁴ The Lord is in His holy temple; The Lord's throne is in heaven; His eyes behold, His eyelids test the sons of mankind. ⁵ The Lord examines both the righteous and the wicked, And He deeply dislikes one who delights in violence. ⁶ He will rain coals of fire upon the wicked, Fire and brimstone and burning wind will be the portion of their cup.

⁷ For the Lord is just, He cherishes righteousness; Those who are upright will behold His face.

12

For the music director; upon an eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm of David.

¹ Help, Lord, for the godly person has come to an end, For the faithful have disappeared from the sons of mankind. ² They speak deceitfully to one another; They use flattering lips and harbour duplicity in their hearts.

³ May the Lord silence all flattering lips, The tongue that boasts of great things; ⁴ Those who have said, "With our words, we will succeed; Our lips belong to us; who can be master over us?"

⁵ "Because of the oppression of the poor, because of the sighing of the needy, Now I will arise," says the Lord; "I will place him in the safety he desires."

⁶ The words of the Lord are pure words; Like silver refined in a furnace on the earth, Purified seven times. ⁷ You, Lord, will preserve them; You will guard him from this generation perpetually. ⁸ The wicked prowls on every side, When depravity is honoured among the sons of mankind.

13

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ How long, Lord? Will You forget me forever? How long will You hide Your face from me? ² How long will I carry this concern in my soul, With sorrow in my heart throughout the day? How long will my enemy triumph over me?

³ Look upon me and respond, O Lord my God; Brighten my eyes, lest I fall into the sleep of death, ⁴ And my enemy will declare, "I have prevailed against him," And my adversaries will be glad when I am unsettled.

⁵ Yet I have placed my trust in Your steadfast love; My heart shall find joy in Your deliverance. ⁶ I will sing to the Lord, Because He has been gracious to me.

14

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they have committed detestable acts; There is no one who does good.

² The Lord gazes from heaven upon the realms of men To see if there are any who are wise, Who seek after God. ³ They have all turned away, together they have become corrupt; There is no one who does good, not even one.

⁴ Are the workers of injustice unaware, Who consume my people as they eat bread, And do not call upon the Lord?

⁵ There they are, filled with great fear, For God is with the generation of the righteous. ⁶ You seek to frustrate the plans of the poor, But the Lord is their refuge.

Psalms

⁷ Oh, that deliverance for Israel would come from Zion! When the Lord brings back the fortunes of His people, Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad.

15

A Psalm of David.

¹ Lord, who may reside in Your tent? Who may settle on Your holy hill?

² A person who lives with integrity, acts justly, And speaks truthfully from the heart. ³ He does not slander with his tongue, Nor do evil to his neighbour, Nor bring shame on his friend; ⁴ In his eyes a despicable person is despised, But he honours those who fear the Lord; He takes an oath to his own detriment, and does not change; ⁵ He does not lend his money unfairly, Nor does he accept a bribe against the innocent.

Whoever lives in this manner will remain steadfast.

16

A Mikhtam of David.

¹ Protect me, God, for I take refuge in You.

² I declared to the Lord, "You are my Lord; I have no goodness apart from You." ³ Regarding the saints who are on the earth, They are the noble ones; all my delight is in them. ⁴ The sorrows of those who pursue another god will be multiplied; I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood, Nor will I speak their names with my lips.

⁵ The Lord is my portion and my cup of blessing; You uphold my destiny. ⁶ The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; Indeed, I have a delightful inheritance. ⁷ I will praise the Lord who guides me; Indeed, my heart instructs me in the night. ⁸ I continually set the Lord before me; With Him at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.

⁹ Therefore my heart is glad and my spirit rejoices; My body also will rest securely. ¹⁰ For You will not leave my soul in Sheol; You will not let Your Holy One see decay. ¹¹ You will show me the path of life; In Your presence is the fullness of joy; At Your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

17

A Prayer of David.

¹ Hear a just cause, Lord, give Your attention to my cry; Listen to my prayer, which is not from deceitful lips. ² Let my judgment come from Your presence; Let Your eyes look with integrity.

³ You have put my heart to the test; You have visited me by night; You have examined me and found nothing; My intent is not to transgress with my mouth. ⁴ As for the deeds of mankind, By the word of Your lips I have kept from the paths of the violent. ⁵ I have remained steadfast in Your ways. My feet have not faltered.

⁶ I have called upon You, for You will respond to me, God; Incline Your ear to me, heed my words. ⁷ Show Your wonderful faithfulness, You who save those who take refuge at Your right hand From those who rise up against them. ⁸ Guard me as the cherished one; Shelter me under the cover of Your wings ⁹ From the wicked who act violently against me, My mortal foes who encircle me.

¹⁰ They have hardened their unfeeling hearts, With their mouths they speak arrogantly. ¹¹ They have now encircled us in our steps; They set their eyes to bring us down to the ground. ¹² He is like a lion that is eager to tear, And like a young lion lurking in secret places.

¹³ Arise, Lord, face him, bring him low; Deliver my soul from the wicked with Your sword, ¹⁴ From people by Your hand, Lord, From people of the world, whose portion is in this life, And whose belly You fill with Your treasure; They are satisfied with children, And leave their abundance to their infants.

¹⁵ As for me, I shall gaze upon Your face in righteousness; I shall be fulfilled with Your likeness when I awake.

18

For the music director. A Psalm of David, the servant of the Lord, who spoke to the Lord the words of this song on the day that the Lord rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. And he said:

Psalms

¹ I love You, Lord, my strength. ² The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my Saviour, My God, my rock in whom I take refuge; My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

³ I call upon the Lord, who is worthy of praise, And I am delivered from my enemies. ⁴ The cords of death encircled me, And the torrents of destruction filled me with dread. ⁵ The grips of the grave entangled me; The traps of death confronted me.

⁶ In my distress I called upon the Lord, And cried to my God for assistance; He heard my voice from His temple, And my cry for help reached His ears. ⁷ Then the earth trembled and quaked; And the foundations of the mountains shook And were moved, because He was angry. ⁸ Smoke rose from His nostrils, And consuming fire came from His mouth; Burning coals blazed forth. ⁹ He also bent the heavens and descended, With thick darkness under His feet. ¹⁰ He rode upon a cherub and flew; And He soared on the wings of the wind. ¹¹ He made darkness His secret place, His covering around Him, Dark waters, thick clouds of the skies. ¹² From the brightness before Him His thick clouds passed, Hailstones and coals of fire. ¹³ The Lord also thundered in the heavens, And the Most High raised His voice, Hailstones and coals of fire. ¹⁴ He sent out His arrows and scattered them, And abundant lightning flashes, and routed them. ¹⁵ Then the channels of water were seen, And the foundations of the world were laid bare By Your rebuke, Lord, At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

¹⁶ He reached down from on high, He took hold of me; He drew me out of deep waters. ¹⁷ He delivered me from my powerful enemy, And from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me. ¹⁸ They confronted me on the day of my calamity, But the Lord was my support. ¹⁹ He also brought me out into a spacious place; He rescued me, because He delighted in me.

²⁰ The Lord has rewarded me in accordance with my righteousness; According to the purity of my hands He has repaid me. ²¹ For I have followed the ways of the Lord, And have not turned away from my God. ²² For all His judgments were before me, And I did not disregard His statutes. ²³ I was also blameless before Him, And I kept myself from wrongdoing. ²⁴ Therefore the Lord has repaid me in accordance with my righteousness, According to the purity of my hands in His sight.

²⁵ With the faithful You show Yourself faithful; With the blameless You reveal Yourself blameless; ²⁶ With the pure You show Yourself pure, And with the devious You show Yourself shrewd. ²⁷ For You save a humble people, But You bring down haughty eyes. ²⁸ For You light my lamp; The Lord my God brightens my darkness. ²⁹ For with Your help I can run against a troop; And with my God I can leap over a wall.

³⁰ As for God, His way is perfect; The word of the Lord is tried; He is a shield to all who seek refuge in Him. ³¹ For who is God, if not the Lord? And who is a rock, if not our God? ³² The God who arms me with strength, And makes my way perfect? ³³ He makes my feet nimble like those of a deer, And sets me securely on the heights. ³⁴ He prepares my hands for battle, So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze. ³⁵ You have also given me the shield of Your salvation, And Your right hand sustains me; And Your gentleness exalts me. ³⁶ You broaden the path beneath me, And my feet have not slipped.

³⁷ I pursued my enemies and overtook them, And I did not turn back until they were destroyed. ³⁸ I struck them down, so that they could not rise; They fell beneath my feet. ³⁹ For You have equipped me with strength for battle; You have subdued those who rose up against me. ⁴⁰ You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, And I annihilated those who hated me. ⁴¹ They cried for help, but there was no one to save them; They cried to the Lord, but He did not respond to them. ⁴² Then I pulverised them like dust before the wind; I cast them out like mud in the streets. ⁴³ You delivered me from the disputes of the people; You made me the leader of the nations; A people I had not known serve me. ⁴⁴ As soon as they hear, they obey me; Foreigners yield to me. ⁴⁵ Foreigners lose heart, And come trembling from their strongholds.

⁴⁶ The Lord lives, and blessed be my rock; And exalted be the God who saves me, ⁴⁷ The God who brings justice to me, And subdues peoples under me. ⁴⁸ He delivers me from my enemies; You indeed lift me above those who rise up against me; You rescue me from a violent man. ⁴⁹ Therefore I will express my gratitude to You among the nations, Lord, And I will sing praises to Your name.

Psalms

⁵⁰ He grants great salvation to His king, And shows steadfast love to His anointed, To David and his descendants forever.

19

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ The heavens tell of the glory of God; And their expanse declares the work of His hands. ² Each day brings forth speech, And each night unveils knowledge. ³ They do not speak, nor do they use words; Their voice remains unheard. ⁴ Their message has gone out into all the earth, And their words to the end of the world. In them He has set a dwelling for the sun, ⁵ Which is like a bridegroom emerging from his chamber; It delights like a strong runner to follow its path. ⁶ Its rising is from one end of the heavens, And its circuit to the other end of them; And nothing is hidden from its warmth.

⁷ The Law of the Lord is flawless, reviving the soul; The testimony of the Lord is certain, imparting wisdom to the simple. ⁸ The precepts of the Lord are just, bringing joy to the heart; The commandment of the Lord is clear, giving light to the eyes. ⁹ The reverence for the Lord is pure, lasting forever; The judgments of the Lord are trustworthy; they are altogether righteous.

¹⁰ They are more precious than gold, even much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the drippings of the honeycomb. ¹¹ Furthermore, Your servant is enlightened by them; In observing them there is great reward. ¹² Who can recognize his own errors? Cleanse me from hidden faults. ¹³ Also restrain Your servant from wilful sins; Let them not dominate me; Then I will be blameless, And free from great transgression.

¹⁴ May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Be pleasing in Your sight, Lord, my rock and my Redeemer.

20

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ May the Lord answer you on a day of trouble! May the name of the God of Jacob protect you! ² May He send you assistance from the sanctuary, And uphold you from Zion! ³ May He remember all your offerings And regard your burnt sacrifices with favour! Selah ⁴ May He grant you your heart's desire And fulfil all your plan!

⁵ We will sing for joy over your victory, And in the name of our God we will set up our banners.

May the Lord fulfil all your requests.

⁶ Now I am certain that the Lord delivers His anointed; He will respond to him from His holy heaven With the powerful strength of His right hand. ⁷ Some praise chariots and some horses, But we will praise the name of the Lord, our God. ⁸ They have collapsed and fallen, But we have risen and stand firm. ⁹ Deliver us, Lord; May the King respond to us on the day we call.

21

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ Lord, the king will rejoice in Your strength, And how greatly he will rejoice in Your salvation!

² You have granted him his heart's desire, And You have not denied the request of his lips. Selah ³ For You welcome him with the blessings of good things; You place a crown of pure gold upon his head. ⁴ He asked You for life, and You granted it to him, Length of days for all time. ⁵ His glory is great through Your salvation, Splendour and majesty You bestow upon him. ⁶ For You make him exceedingly blessed forever; You fill him with joy in Your presence. ⁷ For the king has faith in the Lord, And through the steadfastness of the Most High he will remain unshaken.

⁸ Your hand will reach all your enemies; Your right hand will seize those who bear hatred towards you.

⁹ You will make them like a blazing furnace in the time of your anger; The Lord will consume them in His wrath, And fire will engulf them. ¹⁰ You will remove their descendants from the earth, And their offspring from among the children of mankind. ¹¹ Though they plotted evil against You And devised a scheme, They will not prevail. ¹² For You will make them retreat; You will aim at their faces with Your bowstrings.

Psalms

¹³ Be lifted high, Lord, in Your strength; We will sing and praise Your might.

22

For the music director; upon Aijeleth Hashshahar. A Psalm of David.

¹ My God, my God, why have You forsaken me? Far from my help are the words of my groaning. ² My God, I call out by day, yet You do not respond; And by night, but I find no peace.

³ Yet You are holy, You who sit enthroned upon the praises of Israel. ⁴ In You our ancestors placed their trust; They trusted, and You delivered them. ⁵ To You they cried out and found refuge; In You they trusted and were not put to shame.

⁶ But I am like a worm, not a man, A reproach among people and despised by the populace. ⁷ All who see me mock me; They sneer, they shake their heads, saying, ⁸ "Commit yourself to the Lord; let Him deliver him; Let Him rescue him, since He delights in him."

⁹ Yet it was You, the One who brought me forth from the womb; You made me trust while on my mother's breasts. ¹⁰ From birth, I was entrusted to You; You have been my God since my mother's womb.

¹¹ Do not be distant from me, for trouble is near; For there is no one to assist.

¹² Many bulls have surrounded me; Mighty bulls of Bashan have encircled me. ¹³ They gape at me with their mouths, Like a ravenous and roaring lion. ¹⁴ I am poured out like water, And all my bones are out of their joints; My heart is like wax; It has melted within me. ¹⁵ My strength is dried up like a shard of pottery, And my tongue clings to my jaws; And You lay me in the dust of death.

¹⁶ For dogs have surrounded me; Like a pack, evildoers encircle me; They have pierced my hands and my feet. ¹⁷ I can count all my bones. They look, they gaze upon me; ¹⁸ They share my garments among them, And they draw lots for my clothing.

¹⁹ But You, Lord, do not be far away; You who are my help, rush to my aid. ²⁰ Deliver my soul from the sword, My precious life from the grasp of the dog.

²¹ Rescue me from the lion's mouth; From the horns of the wild oxen, You have answered me.

²² I will declare Your name to my brethren; In the midst of the congregation, I will praise You. ²³ You who revere the Lord, praise Him; All you descendants of Jacob, honour Him, And stand in awe of Him, all you descendants of Israel. ²⁴ For He has not disregarded nor abhorred the suffering of the afflicted; Nor has He hidden His face from him; But when he cried to Him for help, He listened.

²⁵ From You comes my praise in the great congregation; I will fulfil my vows before those who revere Him. ²⁶ The afflicted will eat and be satisfied; Those who seek Him will praise the Lord. May your heart endure forever!

²⁷ All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the Lord, And all the families of the nations will bow before You. ²⁸ For the kingdom belongs to the Lord, And He governs the nations.

²⁹ All the prosperous of the earth will eat and worship, All those who descend to the dust will kneel before Him, Even he who cannot sustain his own life. ³⁰ Future generations will serve Him; It will be recounted of the Lord to the coming generation.

³¹ They will come and declare His righteousness To a people yet to be born, that He has accomplished it.

23

A Psalm of David.

¹ The Lord is my shepherd, I will not want. ² He makes me lie down in the green pastures; He leads me beside quiet waters. ³ He refreshes my soul; He leads me along the paths of righteousness For His name's sake. ⁴ Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

⁵ You set a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have blessed my head with oil; My cup is overflowing. ⁶ Certainly goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

24

A Psalm of David.

¹ The earth is the Lord's, and all it contains, The world, and those who live in it. ² For He has set it upon the seas And made it firm upon the waters.

³ Who is permitted to ascend the hill of the Lord? And who is able to stand in His holy place? ⁴ The one with clean hands and a pure heart, Who has not turned his soul to falsehood And has not sworn falsely.

⁵ Such a person will receive a blessing from the Lord And righteousness from the God who saves him. ⁶ This is the generation of those who seek Him, Who seek Your face—Jacob. Selah

⁷ Raise your heads, you gates, And rise up, you ancient doors, That the King of glory may enter! ⁸ Who is the King of glory? The Lord, strong and mighty, The Lord, powerful in battle. ⁹ Raise your heads, you gates, And lift them up, you ancient doors, That the King of glory may enter! ¹⁰ Who is this majestic King? The Lord of hosts, He is truly the King of glory. Selah

25

A Psalm of David.

¹ To You, Lord, I lift up my soul.

² My God, in You I trust, Do not let me be disgraced; Do not allow my enemies to triumph over me. ³ Truly, none of those who wait for You will be disgraced; Those who act treacherously without reason will be put to shame.

⁴ Reveal Your ways to me, Lord; Guide me in Your paths. ⁵ Direct me in Your truth and instruct me, For You are the God of my salvation; I wait for You all day long. ⁶ Remember, Lord, Your mercy and Your steadfast love, For they have existed from ancient times. ⁷ Do not recall the sins of my youth or my transgressions; Remember me according to Your steadfast love, For the sake of Your goodness, Lord.

⁸ The Lord is kind and just; Therefore He guides sinners in the right path. ⁹ He leads the humble in what is right, And He teaches the humble His way.

¹⁰ All the ways of the Lord are steadfast love and truth To those who keep His covenant and His decrees. ¹¹ For the honour of Your name, Lord, Pardon my iniquity, for it is vast.

¹² Who is the one who reveres the Lord? He will guide him in the path he should select. ¹³ His soul will abide in well-being, And his offspring will inherit the land. ¹⁴ The counsel of the Lord is for those who revere Him, And He will reveal to them His covenant. ¹⁵ My eyes are ever on the Lord, For He will free my feet from the snare.

¹⁶ Turn to me and show me favour, For I am isolated and troubled. ¹⁷ The anxieties of my heart have multiplied; Deliver me from my distresses. ¹⁸ Consider my affliction and my trouble, And pardon all my sins. ¹⁹ Observe my foes, for they are numerous, And they bear a fierce hatred against me.

²⁰ Protect my soul and deliver me; Do not let me be disgraced, for I seek refuge in You. ²¹ May integrity and uprightness guard me, For I place my hope in You. ²² Deliver Israel, God, From all his troubles.

26

A Psalm of David.

¹ Vindicate me, Lord, for I have walked in my integrity, And I have trusted in the Lord without wavering. ² Search me, Lord, and try my heart; Purify my thoughts and my soul. ³ For Your steadfast love is before my eyes, And I have followed Your truth.

⁴ I do not associate with deceitful people, Nor will I join with pretenders. ⁵ I detest the gathering of evildoers, And I will not sit with the wicked. ⁶ I will cleanse my hands in innocence, And I will encircle Your altar, Lord, ⁷ So that I may proclaim with a voice of gratitude And declare all Your marvellous deeds.

⁸ Lord, I cherish the abode of Your house, And the place where Your glory dwells. ⁹ Do not gather my soul with sinners, Nor my life with those who shed blood, ¹⁰ In whose hands are wicked schemes, And whose right hand is full of bribes. ¹¹ But as for me, I will walk in my integrity; Rescue me, and show me Your favour.

Psalms

¹² My foot stands on solid ground; In the congregations, I will praise the Lord.

27

A Psalm of David.

¹ The Lord is my light and my salvation; Whom should I fear? The Lord is the defence of my life; Whom should I dread?

² When evildoers approached me with intent to harm, My adversaries and my enemies, they stumbled and fell. ³ Though an army encamps against me, My heart will not fear; Though war arises against me, Even then I am confident.

⁴ One thing I have requested from the Lord, this I will seek: That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, To gaze upon the beauty of the Lord And to reflect in His temple. ⁵ For in the day of trouble He will shelter me in His tabernacle; He will hide me in the secret place of His tent; He will set me high upon a rock.

⁶ And now my head will be exalted above my enemies around me, And I will offer sacrifices in His tent with joyful shouts; I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the Lord.

⁷ Hear me, Lord, when I cry with my voice, And be gracious to me and respond to me. ⁸ When You said, "Seek My face," my heart responded to You, "I will seek Your face, Lord." ⁹ Do not hide Your face from me, Do not reject Your servant in anger; You have been my help; Do not abandon me nor forsake me, God of my salvation! ¹⁰ Though my father and my mother have forsaken me, The Lord will receive me. ¹¹ Teach me Your way, Lord, And guide me on a level path because of my enemies. ¹² Do not deliver me to the will of my adversaries, For false witnesses have risen against me, And the violent breathe out violence.

¹³ I am confident that I will see the goodness of the Lord In the land of the living. ¹⁴ Wait for the Lord; Be strong and let your heart take courage; Indeed, wait for the Lord.

28

A Psalm of David.

¹ To You, Lord, I call; My rock, do not be deaf to me, For if You are silent to me, I will become like those who go down to the pit. ² Listen to my pleas when I cry out for Your help, When I lift my hands toward Your sacred sanctuary.

³ Do not drag me away with the wicked And with those who practice injustice, Who speak peace with their neighbours, While evil is in their hearts. ⁴ Repay them according to their deeds And according to the wickedness of their actions; Repay them for the work of their hands; Give them what they deserve.

⁵ Because they do not consider the works of the Lord Nor the deeds of His hands, He will tear them down and not build them up.

⁶ Blessed be the Lord, For He has listened to the voice of my pleas. ⁷ The Lord is my strength and my shield; My heart trusts in Him, and I am helped; Therefore my heart rejoices, And with my song I shall thank Him. ⁸ The Lord is the strength of His people, And He is a stronghold of salvation for His anointed. ⁹ Deliver Your people and grant favour to Your heritage; Guide them and support them always.

29

A Psalm of David.

¹ Ascribe to the Lord, sons of the mighty, Ascribe to the Lord glory and strength. ² Ascribe to the Lord the glory due His name; Worship the Lord in holy splendour.

³ The voice of the Lord echoes over the waters; The God of glory roars, The Lord reigns over the vast waters. ⁴ The voice of the Lord is full of power, The voice of the Lord is full of majesty. ⁵ The voice of the Lord shatters the cedars; Indeed, the Lord splinters the cedars of Lebanon. ⁶ He causes Lebanon to leap like a calf, And Sirion to bound like a young wild ox. ⁷ The voice of the Lord divides forks of fire. ⁸ The voice of the Lord quakes the wilderness; The Lord causes the wilderness of Kadesh to tremble. ⁹ The voice of the Lord prompts the deer to give birth And lays the forests bare; And in His temple, all cry, "Glory!" ¹⁰ The Lord was enthroned as King at the flood; Indeed, the Lord reigns as King forever. ¹¹ The Lord will impart strength to His people; The Lord will bestow peace upon His people.

Psalms

30

A Psalm; a Song at the Dedication of the House. A Psalm of David.

¹ I will exalt You, Lord, for You have lifted me up, And have not let my enemies rejoice over me. ² O Lord my God, I called to You for assistance, and You restored me. ³ Lord, You have raised my soul from Sheol; You have preserved my life, so that I would not descend to the pit.

⁴ Offer praise to the Lord, you His faithful ones, And give thanks at the mention of His holiness. ⁵ For His anger is but for a moment, His favour is for a lifetime; Weeping may last for the night, But a shout of joy comes in the morning.

⁶ Now as for me, I said in my prosperity, "I shall never be shaken." ⁷ Lord, by Your favour You have made my mountain to stand strong; You hid Your face, I was dismayed.

⁸ To You, Lord, I called, And I pleaded with the Lord: ⁹ "What benefit is there in my demise, if I descend to the pit? Will the dust give You praise? Will it proclaim Your faithfulness?" ¹⁰ Listen, Lord, and show me Your grace; Lord, be my support."

¹¹ You have transformed my mourning into dancing; You have removed my sackcloth and surrounded me with joy, ¹² So that my soul may sing praise to You and not remain silent. O Lord my God, I will express my gratitude to You forever.

31

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ In You, Lord, I have taken refuge; Let me never be put to shame; In Your righteousness rescue me.

² Turn Your ear to me, deliver me without delay; Be a steadfast rock for me, A fortress to protect me. ³ For You are my rock and my stronghold; For the sake of Your name, You will lead and guide me. ⁴ You will free me from the net they have secretly set for me, For You are my strength. ⁵ Into Your hand I commit my spirit; You have redeemed me, Lord, faithful God.

⁶ I reject those who cling to worthless idols, But I trust in the Lord. ⁷ I will rejoice and be glad in Your favour, Because You have seen my misery; You have known the troubles of my soul, ⁸ And You have not handed me over to the enemy's hand; You have set my feet in a large place.

⁹ Show me kindness, Lord, for I am in distress; My eyes are worn out from grief, my soul and my body as well. ¹⁰ For my life is consumed with sorrow And my years with sighing; My strength has failed because of my guilt, And my body has withered away. ¹¹ Because of all my adversaries, I have become a disgrace, Especially to my neighbours, And an object of dread to my acquaintances; Those who see me in the street flee from me. ¹² I am forgotten like someone who is dead, out of mind; I am like a shattered vessel. ¹³ For I have heard the whispering of many, "Terror on every side!" As they conspired together against me, They plotted to take my life.

¹⁴ Yet I trust in You, Lord, I declare, "You are my God." ¹⁵ My times are in Your hand; Deliver me from the grasp of my enemies and from those who pursue me. ¹⁶ Let Your face shine upon Your servant; Save me through Your faithfulness. ¹⁷ Lord, do not let me be put to shame, for I call upon You; Let the wicked be put to shame, let them be silent in Sheol. ¹⁸ Let the deceitful lips be silenced, Which speak arrogantly against the righteous With pride and contempt.

¹⁹ How abundant is Your goodness, Which You have reserved for those who fear You, Which You have accomplished for those who seek refuge in You, In the sight of humanity! ²⁰ You hide them in the shelter of Your presence from the schemes of people; You keep them safe in a refuge from the strife of tongues.

²¹ Blessed be the Lord, For He has shown His marvellous faithfulness to me in a besieged city. ²² In my alarm, I said, "I am cut off from Your sight!" Yet You heard the sound of my pleadings When I called to You for help.

²³ Love the Lord, all His faithful ones! The Lord preserves the loyal But fully repays the one who acts arrogantly. ²⁴ Be strong and let your heart be courageous, All you who hope in the Lord.

32

A Psalm of David. A Maskil.

¹ Blessed is the one whose wrongdoing is forgiven, Whose sin is covered. ² Blessed is the person whose guilt the Lord does not take into account,
And in whose spirit there is no deceit.

³ When I kept silent about my wrongdoing, my body grew weak Through my constant groaning. ⁴
For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me;
My strength was drained as in the heat of summer.
Selah

⁵ I acknowledged my wrongdoing to You, And I did not conceal my guilt; I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord"; And You forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah

⁶ Therefore, let everyone who is godly pray to You while You may be found; Surely in a flood of great waters, they will not reach him. ⁷ You are my refuge; You protect me from trouble; You surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

⁸ I will guide you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with My watchful eye upon you. ⁹ Do not be like the horse or the mule, which lack understanding, Whose gear includes bit and bridle to restrain them, Otherwise they will not come near to you. ¹⁰ The sorrows of the wicked are many, But the one who trusts in the Lord will be surrounded by goodness.

¹¹ Be joyful in the Lord and rejoice, you righteous ones, And shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart.

33

Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous; Praise is fitting for the upright. ² Offer thanks to the Lord with the lyre; Sing to Him with a harp of ten strings. ³ Sing to Him a new song; Play skillfully with joyful shouts.

⁴ For the word of the Lord is true, And all His work is done with faithfulness. ⁵ He cherishes righteousness and justice; The earth is filled with the goodness of the Lord.

⁶ By the word of the Lord the heavens were created, And by the breath of His mouth all their host. ⁷ He gathers the waters of the sea as a heap;
He stores the depths in storehouses. ⁸ Let the whole earth revere the Lord; Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him. ⁹ For He spoke, and it came into existence; He gave the command,

and it was established.

¹⁰ The Lord thwarts the counsel of nations; He frustrates the schemes of peoples. ¹¹ The counsel of the Lord endures forever, The thoughts of His heart through all generations.

¹² Fortunate is the nation whose God is the Lord,
The people He has chosen as His own possession.

¹³ The Lord observes from heaven; He sees all the children of humanity; ¹⁴ From His dwelling place He watches All the inhabitants of the earth, ¹⁵ He who shapes the hearts of them all, He who comprehends all their deeds.

¹⁶ A king is not saved by a large army; A warrior is not delivered by great strength. ¹⁷ A horse is a vain hope for victory; Nor does it deliver by its great strength. ¹⁸ Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who revere Him, On those who hope in His faithfulness, ¹⁹ To deliver their soul from death And to sustain them in famine.

²⁰ Our soul awaits the Lord; He is our help and our shield. ²¹ For our heart delights in Him, Because we trust in His holy name. ²² Let Your favour, Lord, be upon us, Just as we have hoped in You.

34

A Psalm of David, when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him away and he departed.

¹ I will continually praise the Lord; His praise will always be on my lips. ² My soul will boast in the Lord; The humble will hear and be glad. ³ Exalt the Lord with me, And let us exalt His name together.

⁴ I sought the Lord, and He responded to me, And delivered me from all my fears. ⁵ They looked to Him and were radiant, And their faces will never be covered with shame. ⁶ This humble man cried out, and the Lord listened to him, And rescued him from all his troubles. ⁷ The angel of the Lord surrounds those who revere Him, And delivers them.

⁸ Experience and see that the Lord is good; How fortunate is the one who takes refuge in Him! ⁹

Psalms

Revere the Lord, you His holy ones; For those who revere Him lack nothing. ¹⁰ The young lions may grow weak and hungry; But those who seek the Lord lack no good thing. ¹¹ Come, my children, listen to me; I will teach you the reverence of the Lord. ¹² Who is the person who desires life And loves many days, that he may see good? ¹³ Guard your speech from evil And your lips from uttering deceit. ¹⁴ Turn away from evil and do good; Seek peace and strive to maintain it.

¹⁵ The Lord watches over the righteous, And His ears are attentive to their cry. ¹⁶ The face of the Lord is against those who do evil, To erase their memory from the earth.

¹⁷ The righteous call out, and the Lord hears them, And delivers them from all their troubles. ¹⁸ The Lord is near to those who are broken-hearted And saves those who are crushed in spirit.

¹⁹ The righteous may have many troubles, But the Lord delivers him from them all. ²⁰ He guards all his bones, Not one of them will be broken.

²¹ Calamity will overtake the wicked, And those who hate the righteous will be held accountable. ²² The Lord redeems the souls of His servants, And none of those who take refuge in Him will be condemned.

35

A Psalm of David.

¹ Contend, Lord, with those who contend with me; Fight against those who fight against me. ² Grasp the shield and armour, And stand up to assist me. ³ Draw the spear and javelin to face those who pursue me; Assure my soul, "I am your salvation."

⁴ Let those be ashamed and dishonoured who seek my life; Let those be turned back and humiliated who devise evil against me. ⁵ Let them be like chaff before the wind, With the angel of the Lord driving them onward. ⁶ Let their path be dark and slippery, With the angel of the Lord pursuing them.

⁷ For they set their net for me without reason; Without reason they dug a pit for my soul. ⁸ Let destruction come upon him when he is unaware, And let the net he hid ensnare him; Let him fall into that very destruction. ⁹ And my soul shall rejoice in the Lord; It shall rejoice in His salvation. ¹⁰ All my bones will declare, "Lord, who is like You, Who rescues the afflicted from one who is too strong for him, And the afflicted and the poor from one who robs him?"

¹¹ False witnesses rise up; They question me about things I do not know. ¹² They return harm for my good, Bringing grief to my soul. ¹³ But as for me, when they were sick, I wore sackcloth; I humbled my soul with fasting, But my prayer returned unanswered. ¹⁴ I went about as though it were my friend or brother; I bowed down in mourning, like one who grieves for a mother. ¹⁵ But at my stumbling they rejoiced and gathered themselves together; The afflicted whom I did not know gathered together against me, They slandered me without ceasing. ¹⁶ Like irreverent jesters at a feast, They gnashed at me with their teeth.

¹⁷ Lord, how long will You look on? Rescue my soul from their ravages, My precious life from the lions.

¹⁸ I will give You thanks in the great congregation; I will praise You among a vast assembly. ¹⁹ Do not let those who are unjustly my enemies rejoice over me; Nor let those who hate me without cause wink maliciously. ²⁰ For they do not speak of peace, But they devise deceitful words against those who live quietly in the land. ²¹ They opened their mouths wide against me; They exclaimed, "Aha, aha! Our eyes have witnessed it!"

²² You have seen it, Lord, do not remain silent; Lord, do not be distant from me. ²³ Rouse Yourself, and awake to my right And to my cause, my God and my Lord. ²⁴ Judge me, Lord my God, according to Your righteousness, And prevent them from rejoicing over me.

²⁵ Do not let them say in their heart, "Aha, our desire!" Do not let them say, "We have consumed him!" ²⁶ Let those be ashamed and altogether humiliated who rejoice at my distress; Let those be clothed with shame and dishonour who exalt themselves over me. ²⁷ Let them shout for joy and rejoice, who take delight in my vindication; And let them continually say, "The Lord be exalted, Who delights in the prosperity of His servant."

²⁸ And my tongue shall proclaim Your righteousness And Your praise throughout the day.

36

For the music director. A Psalm of David the servant of the Lord.

¹ Wrongdoing speaks to the ungodly within his heart; There is no fear of God before his eyes.

² For it flatters him in his own eyes Concerning the discovery of his guilt and hatred. ³ His words are full of wickedness and deceit; He has abandoned wisdom and goodness. ⁴ He devises evil while on his bed; He chooses a path that is not good; He does not turn away from wrongdoing.

⁵ Your lovingkindness, Lord, reaches to the heavens, Your faithfulness extends to the skies. ⁶ Your righteousness is as majestic as the mountains; Your judgments are as profound as the great deep. Lord, You care for both humans and animals. ⁷ How invaluable is Your lovingkindness, God! And humanity finds shelter under the shadow of Your wings. ⁸ They are satisfied with the abundance of Your house; And You refresh them with the river of Your delights. ⁹ For with You is the source of life; In Your light, we perceive light.

¹⁰ Continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You, And Your righteousness to those with upright hearts. ¹¹ Let not the foot of arrogance overtake me, And let not the hand of the wicked force me away. ¹² There the wrongdoers have fallen; They have been cast down and cannot rise.

37

A Psalm of David.

¹ Do not get upset because of evildoers, Do not be envious of wrongdoers. ² For they will soon fade like the grass, And wither like green plants.

³ Place your trust in the Lord and do good; Dwell in the land and nurture faithfulness. ⁴ Delight yourself in the Lord; And He will fulfil the desires of your heart.

⁵ Entrust your path to the Lord, Rely on Him, and He will act. ⁶ He will make your righteousness shine like the dawn, And your justice like the noonday sun.

⁷ Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for Him; Do not be troubled by those who succeed in their ways, By those who carry out wicked schemes.

⁸ Refrain from anger and forsake wrath; Do not be upset, it leads only to harm. ⁹ For evildoers will be cut off, But those who hope in the Lord will inherit the land.

¹⁰ In a little while, the wicked will be no more; Though you look for them, they will not be found. ¹¹ But the meek will inherit the land, And will enjoy abundant peace.

¹² The wicked devise schemes against the righteous, And gnash their teeth at them. ¹³ The Lord laughs at the wicked, For He knows their day is coming.

¹⁴ The wicked prepare their weapons To bring down the poor and needy, To harm those who walk uprightly. ¹⁵ Their swords will pierce their own hearts, And their bows will be broken.

¹⁶ A little that the righteous have Is better than the wealth of many wicked. ¹⁷ For the strength of the wicked will be broken, But the Lord supports the righteous.

¹⁸ The Lord watches over the days of the blameless, And their inheritance will endure forever. ¹⁹ They will not be put to shame in times of trouble, And in days of famine they will have abundance.

²⁰ But the wicked will perish; The enemies of the Lord will vanish like the splendour of the meadows, They will disappear like smoke.

²¹ The wicked borrow and do not repay, But the righteous are generous and give. ²² Those blessed by Him will inherit the land, But those cursed by Him will be cut off.

²³ The Lord makes firm the steps of the one who delights in Him; He takes pleasure in their way. ²⁴ Though they stumble, they will not fall, For the Lord upholds them with His hand.

²⁵ I was young and now I am old, Yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken Or their children begging for bread. ²⁶ They are always generous and lend freely, And their children will be a blessing.

Psalms

²⁷ Turn from evil and do good, So that you may dwell in the land forever. ²⁸ For the Lord loves justice And will not forsake His faithful ones;

They will be protected forever, But the offspring of the wicked will be cut off. ²⁹ The righteous will inherit the land And live in it perpetually.

³⁰ The mouths of the righteous speak wisdom, And their tongues express what is just. ³¹ The law of their God is in their hearts; Their steps do not falter.

³² The wicked lie in wait for the righteous, Seeking to take their lives. ³³ But the Lord will not abandon them to the power of the wicked Or let them be condemned when brought to trial.

³⁴ Hope in the Lord and follow His path, And He will lift you up to inherit the land; When the wicked are destroyed, you will see it.

³⁵ I have seen a wicked and ruthless person Flourishing like a luxuriant native tree. ³⁶ But they soon passed away and were no more; Though I looked for them, they could not be found.

³⁷ Consider the blameless, observe the upright; A future awaits those who pursue peace. ³⁸ But all who sin will be destroyed; There will be no future for the wicked.

³⁹ The salvation of the righteous comes from the Lord; He is their stronghold in times of trouble. ⁴⁰ The Lord helps them and delivers them; He rescues them from the wicked and saves them, Because they seek refuge in Him.

38

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

¹ Lord, do not rebuke me in Your wrath, And do not punish me in Your burning anger. ² For Your arrows have pierced me deeply, And Your hand has weighed heavily upon me. ³ There is no healthy spot in my flesh because of Your indignation; There is no health in my bones because of my sin. ⁴ For my wrongdoings have overwhelmed me; Like a heavy burden they are too much for me to bear.

⁵ My wounds are unpleasant and inflamed Due to my own folly. ⁶ I am stooped and deeply bowed down; I walk in mourning all day long. ⁷ For my sides are filled with burning, And there is no healthy spot in my flesh. ⁸ I feel faint and utterly crushed; I groan because of the turmoil in my heart.

⁹ Lord, all my longing is before You; And my sighing is not hidden from You. ¹⁰ My heart beats wildly, my strength fails me; And the light of my eyes, even that has left me. ¹¹ My loved ones and my friends keep their distance from my affliction, And my relatives stand far away. ¹² Those who seek my life set traps for me; And those who seek to harm me talk of destruction, And plot deception all day long.

¹³ But I, like one who is deaf, do not hear; And I am like one who cannot speak, who does not open his mouth. ¹⁴ Yes, I am like one who does not hear, And in whose mouth there are no arguments. ¹⁵ For I wait for You, Lord; You will respond, Lord my God. ¹⁶ For I said, "Let them not rejoice over me, Who, when my foot slips, would exalt themselves over me."

¹⁷ For I am on the verge of falling, And my sorrow is ever before me. ¹⁸ For I confess my guilt; I am filled with anxiety because of my sin. ¹⁹ But my enemies are vigorous and strong, And those who unjustly hate me are many. ²⁰ And those who repay evil for good, They oppose me, because I pursue what is good.

²¹ Do not forsake me, Lord; My God, do not be distant from me! ²² Hasten to assist me, Lord, my salvation!

39

For the music director, for Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

¹ I said, "I will keep watch over my ways So that I do not sin with my tongue; I will keep watch over my mouth as with a muzzle While the wicked are in my presence." ² I was mute and silent, I refrained even from good, And my pain was stirred. ³ My heart burned within me, While I was reflecting, the fire ignited; Then I spoke with my tongue:

⁴ "Lord, help me understand my end, And the measure of my days; Let me realise how fleeting I am. ⁵ Behold, You have made my days as short as hand spans, And my lifetime is as nothing before You; Truly, all humanity is but a breath. Selah

Psalms

⁶ Truly, every person moves like a passing shadow; They make a commotion for no purpose; He gathers wealth, not knowing who will collect it.

⁷ And now, Lord, what am I to anticipate? My hope rests in You. ⁸ Deliver me from all my transgressions; Do not let me be a scorn to the foolish. ⁹ I have become silent, I do not open my mouth, Because it is You who have acted. ¹⁰ Remove Your affliction from me; Because of the pressure of Your hand, I am undone. ¹¹ With rebukes You discipline a person for iniquity; You consume what is dear to him like a moth; Truly, all humanity is but a breath. Selah

¹² Hear my prayer, Lord, and listen to my cry for help; Do not ignore my tears; For I am a stranger with You, A wanderer like all my ancestors. ¹³ Turn Your gaze from me, that I may find joy again Before I depart and am no more.

40

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ I waited patiently for the Lord; And He reached down to me and heard my cry. ² He lifted me from the pit of ruin, out of the mire; And He set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure. ³ He placed a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God; Many will see and stand in awe, And will place their trust in the Lord.

⁴ Blessed is the man who has made the Lord his trust, And has not turned to the proud, nor to those who become involved in falsehood. ⁵ Numerous, Lord my God, are the wonders You have performed, And Your thoughts toward us; There is none to compare with You. If I were to declare and speak of them, They would be beyond counting.

⁶ You have not desired sacrifices and offerings; You have opened my ears; You have not required burnt offerings and sin offerings. ⁷ Then I said, "Look, I have come; It is written about me in the scroll of the book." ⁸ I take joy in doing Your will, my God; Your Law is within my heart."

⁹ I have announced the good news of righteousness in the great assembly; Behold, I will not hold back my lips, Lord, You know. ¹⁰ I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart; I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation; I have not concealed Your mercy and Your truth from the great congregation.

¹¹ You, Lord, will not withhold Your compassion from me; Your mercy and Your truth will continually guard me. ¹² For evils beyond number have surrounded me; My guilty deeds have overtaken me, so that I cannot see; They are more numerous than the hairs of my head, And my heart has failed me. ¹³ Be pleased, Lord, to deliver me; Make haste, Lord, to assist me.

¹⁴ May those be ashamed and humiliated together Who seek my life to destroy it; May those be turned back and dishonoured Who delight in my hurt. ¹⁵ May those be dismayed because of their shame Who say to me, "Aha, aha!" ¹⁶ May all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; May those who love Your salvation continually say, "The Lord be magnified!"

¹⁷ But I am afflicted and needy; May the Lord be mindful of me. You are my help and my saviour; Do not delay, my God.

41

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ Blessed is one who considers the helpless; The Lord will save him on a day of trouble. ² The Lord will watch over him and preserve his life, And he will be regarded as blessed upon the earth; And do not hand him over to the will of his enemies. ³ The Lord will support him on his sickbed; In his illness, You restore him to health.

⁴ As for me, I said, "Lord, show mercy to me; Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You." ⁵ My enemies speak ill of me, "When will he die, and his name vanish?" ⁶ And when he comes to see me, he speaks insincerely; His heart harbours wickedness; When he goes outside, he spreads it.

⁷ All who despise me whisper together against me; They devise harm against me, saying, ⁸ "A dire affliction has seized him, So that when he lies down, he will not rise again.”⁹ Even my close friend in whom I trusted, Who shared my bread, Has turned against me.

Psalms

¹⁰ But You, Lord, show mercy to me and raise me up, That I may repay them. ¹¹ By this I know that You are pleased with me, Because my enemy does not triumph over me. ¹² But as for me, You sustain me in my integrity, And You place me in Your presence forever.

¹³ Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, From eternity to eternity. Amen and Amen.

42

For the music director. A Maskil of the sons of Korah.

¹ As the deer pants for the water brooks, So my soul longs for You, God. ² My soul thirsts for the living God; When shall I come and be in God's presence? ³ My tears have been my sustenance day and night, While they continually ask me, “Where is your God?” ⁴ I recall these memories and pour out my soul within me. For I used to join the multitude and lead them to the house of God, With shouts of joy and thanksgiving, a throng celebrating a festival.

⁵ Why are you downcast, my soul? And why are you unsettled within me? Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him For His saving presence, my God.

⁶ My soul is downcast within me; Therefore I remember You from the land of the Jordan And the heights of Hermon, from Mount Mizar. ⁷ The depths call to one another at the sound of Your waterfalls; All Your waves and breakers have passed over me.

⁸ The Lord will send His steadfast love in the daytime; And His song will accompany me in the night, A prayer to the God of my life.

⁹ I will say to God my rock, “Why have You forgotten me? Why must I go about mourning because of the enemy's oppression?” ¹⁰ As if crushing my bones, my adversaries taunt me, While they continually ask me, “Where is your God?”

¹¹ Why are you downcast, my soul? And why are you unsettled within me? Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him For His saving presence, my God.

43

Defend me, God, and argue my case against a nation without godliness; Rescue me from the deceitful and unjust person! ² For You are the God of my refuge; why have You rejected me? Why do I go about mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? ³ Send forth Your light and Your truth, they shall guide me; They shall bring me to Your sacred hill And to Your dwelling places. ⁴ Then I will approach the altar of God, To God, my greatest joy; And I will praise You with the lyre, God, my God.

⁵ Why are you downcast, my soul? And why are you unsettled within me? Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him For the help of His presence, my God.

44

For the music director. A Maskil of the sons of Korah.

¹ God, we have heard with our ears, Our fathers have told us The work that You did in their days, In the days of old. ² With Your mighty hand, You drove out the nations and established our ancestors; You afflicted the peoples and then set them free. ³ For by their own sword they did not possess the land, And their own arm did not save them, But Your right hand and Your arm and the light of Your presence, For You favoured them.

⁴ You are my sovereign, O God; Grant triumphs for Jacob. ⁵ Through You, we will repel our adversaries; In Your name, we will overcome those who rise against us. ⁶ For I will not rely on my bow, Nor will my sword deliver me. ⁷ But You have delivered us from our adversaries, And You have brought shame upon those who hate us. ⁸ In God, we have gloried all day long, And we will continually give thanks to Your name. Selah

⁹ Yet You have rejected us and brought us to dishonour, And do not go out with our armies. ¹⁰ You make us retreat from the enemy, And those who hate us have taken spoils for themselves. ¹¹ You turn us over as sheep to be eaten, And have scattered us among the nations. ¹² You have sold Your people for a pittance, And gained nothing from their sale.

¹³ You make us an object of reproach to our neighbours, Of scoffing and ridicule to those around us. ¹⁴ You have made us a proverb among the nations, A source of derision among the peoples. ¹⁵ All day long my dishonour is before me, And I am covered with my humiliation, ¹⁶ Because of the voice of one who taunts and reviles, Because of the enemy and the avenger.

Psalms

¹⁷ All this has come upon us, yet we have not forgotten You, And we have remained true to Your covenant. ¹⁸ Our heart has not turned back, And our steps have not strayed from Your path, ¹⁹ Yet You have crushed us in a desolate place, And covered us with deep darkness.

²⁰ If we had forgotten the name of our God Or reached out to a foreign god, ²¹ Would God not discover this? For He knows the secrets of the heart. ²² Yet for Your sake, we are in peril all day long; We are regarded as sheep destined for slaughter.

²³ Awake, why do You sleep, Lord? Arise, do not reject us forever. ²⁴ Why do You hide Your face And ignore our affliction and oppression?

²⁵ For our souls have been brought down to the dust; Our bodies cling to the earth. ²⁶ Arise, be our aid, And redeem us because of Your lovingkindness.

45

For the music director; according to the Shoshannim. A Maskil of the sons of Korah. A Song of Love.

¹ My heart is moved with a good theme; I address my verses to the King; My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

² You are the fairest among the sons of men; Grace flows from Your lips; Therefore God has blessed You eternally.

³ Strap Your sword on Your thigh, Mighty One, In Your splendour and majesty! ⁴ And in Your majesty ride forth triumphantly, For the sake of truth, humility, and righteousness; Let Your right hand reveal marvellous things. ⁵ Your arrows are keen; The nations fall beneath You; Your arrows pierce the heart of the King's foes. ⁶ Your throne, God, is forever and ever; The sceptre of Your kingdom is a sceptre of justice. ⁷ You cherish righteousness and detest wickedness; Therefore God, Your God, has anointed You With the oil of joy above Your peers. ⁸ All Your garments are scented with myrrh, aloes, and cassia; From ivory palaces, stringed instruments have delighted You. ⁹ Daughters of kings are among Your noble women; At Your right hand stands the queen adorned in gold from Ophir.

¹⁰ Hear, daughter, observe and incline your ear: Leave behind your people and your father's house;

¹¹ Then the King will desire your beauty. Because He is your Lord, honour Him. ¹² The daughter of Tyre will come with a gift; The wealthy among the people will seek your favour. ¹³ The King's daughter is resplendent within; Her attire is woven with gold.

¹⁴ She will be brought to the King in colourful garments; The virgins, her companions who follow her, will be brought to You. ¹⁵ They will be brought with gladness and joy; They will enter the King's palace.

¹⁶ In place of your fathers shall be your sons; You will appoint them as princes throughout the land.

¹⁷ I will cause Your name to be remembered in all generations; Therefore the peoples will praise You forever and ever.

46

For the music director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah, set to Alamoth. A Song.

¹ God is our refuge and strength, A very present help in times of trouble. ² Thus, we will not fear, even if the earth trembles And the mountains fall into the depths of the sea; ³ Though its waters roar and foam, Though the mountains quake at its surging pride. Selah

⁴ There is a river whose streams bring joy to the city of God, The sacred dwelling places of the Most High. ⁵ God is within her, she will not be shaken; God will assist her at the break of day. ⁶ The nations were in turmoil, the kingdoms were shaken; He raised His voice, and the earth melted.

⁷ The Lord Almighty is with us; The God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah

⁸ Come, behold the works of the Lord, Who has brought astounding events upon the earth. ⁹ He makes wars cease to the end of the earth; He breaks the bow and cuts the spear in two; He burns the chariots with fire. ¹⁰ "Be still and recognise that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted on the earth."

Psalms

¹¹ The Lord Almighty is with us; The God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah

47

For the music director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹ Clap your hands, all you peoples; Shout to God with a voice of joy.

² For the Lord Most High is awe-inspiring, A great King over all the earth. ³ He brings peoples under our influence And nations beneath our feet. ⁴ He selects our heritage for us, The pride of Jacob whom He cherishes. Selah

⁵ God has ascended amidst joyful cries, The Lord, with the sound of a trumpet. ⁶ Offer praises to God, offer praises; Offer praises to our King, offer praises. ⁷ For God is the King of all the earth; Offer praises with a psalm of insight.

⁸ God rules over the nations, God is seated on His holy throne. ⁹ The leaders of the peoples have gathered As the people of the God of Abraham, For the shields of the earth belong to God; He is highly exalted.

48

A Song; a Psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹ Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised In the city of our God, His holy mountain.

² Majestic in its height, bringing joy to the whole earth, Is Mount Zion on the northern side, The city of the great King. ³ God has revealed Himself as a refuge Within her palaces.

⁴ Indeed, the kings gathered, They moved on together. ⁵ They observed it and were astounded; They were alarmed, they fled swiftly. ⁶ Panic seized them there, Anguish, like a woman in childbirth. ⁷ With the east wind You shatter the ships of Tarshish.

⁸ Just as we have heard, so we have seen In the city of the Lord of armies, in the city of our God; God will establish her forever. Selah

⁹ We have reflected on Your mercy, God, In the midst of Your temple. ¹⁰ As Your name is renowned, God, So is Your praise throughout the earth; Your right hand is full of righteousness. ¹¹ Let Mount Zion be joyful, Let the daughters of Judah celebrate Because of Your judgments.

¹² Walk around Zion and go around her; Count her towers; ¹³ Consider her ramparts; Pass through her palaces, So that you may tell of it to the next generation. ¹⁴ For this God is our God forever and ever; He will guide us even unto death.

49

For the music director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹ Hear this, all peoples; Listen, all inhabitants of the world, ² Whether of humble or noble birth, The wealthy and the poor together. ³ My mouth will speak with wisdom, And the thoughts of my heart will be insightful. ⁴ I will listen to a proverb; I will reveal my riddle with the harp.

⁵ Why should I fear in days of adversity, When the guilt of my foes surrounds me, ⁶ Those who rely on their wealth And take pride in their abundant riches? ⁷ No one can ever redeem another, Or offer God a ransom for them— ⁸ For the redemption of their soul is beyond price, And they should cease imagining it forever— ⁹ So that they might live on eternally, That they might not undergo decay. ¹⁰ For he observes that even the wise meet their end; The foolish and the senseless perish alike And leave their wealth to others. ¹¹ They believe their houses will last forever And their dwelling places for all generations; They have named their lands after themselves.

¹² But man in his splendour will not endure; He is like the animals that perish.

¹³ Such is the path of those who are foolish, And of those who follow them and approve their sayings. Selah ¹⁴ Like sheep they are destined for Sheol; Death will shepherd them; And the upright will have dominion over them in the morning, And their form shall be consumed by Sheol So that they have no exalted home. ¹⁵ But God will redeem my soul from the grasp of Sheol, For He will take me to Himself. Selah ¹⁶ Do not be afraid when someone becomes wealthy, When the splendour of their house increases; ¹⁷ For when they die, they will take nothing with them; Their wealth will not follow them down. ¹⁸ Though in life they congratulate themselves— And though others praise you when you prosper— ¹⁹ They will join the company of their ancestors; They will never again see the light.

Psalms

²⁰ Mankind, in its splendour, yet without understanding, Is like the animals that perish.

50

A Psalm of Asaph.

¹ The Mighty One, God, the Lord, has spoken, And summoned the earth, from the rising of the sun to its setting. ² From Zion, the epitome of beauty, God has revealed His light. ³ May our God come and not remain silent; A consuming fire precedes Him, And a mighty storm swirls around Him. ⁴ He calls upon the heavens above, And the earth, to judge His people: ⁵ “Gather to Me My faithful ones, Those who have entered into a covenant with Me through sacrifice.” ⁶ And the heavens proclaim His righteousness, For God Himself is the judge. Selah

⁷ “Listen, My people, and I will speak; Israel, I will bear witness against you; I am God, your God. ⁸ I do not reprimand you for your sacrifices, And your burnt offerings are ever before Me. ⁹ I will not take a bull from your house, Nor male goats from your pens. ¹⁰ For every creature of the forest is Mine, The cattle on a thousand hills. ¹¹ I am familiar with every bird of the mountains, And all that moves in the field belongs to Me. ¹² If I were hungry, I would not inform you, For the world is Mine, and all it holds. ¹³ Do I consume the flesh of bulls Or drink the blood of male goats?

¹⁴ Present to God an offering of gratitude And fulfil your promises to the Most High; ¹⁵ Call upon Me when you face adversity; I will rescue you, and you will honour Me.”

¹⁶ But to the wicked God declares,

“What right have you to recite My statutes And to speak of My covenant? ¹⁷ For you despise correction, And you cast My words aside. ¹⁸ When you witness a thief, you align with him, And you keep company with adulterers. ¹⁹ You freely speak evil, And your tongue weaves deceit. ²⁰ You sit and speak against your brother; You malign your own mother's son. ²¹ These actions you have taken, and I remained silent; You assumed I was like you; I will correct you and lay out the case before your eyes.

²² Now reflect on this, you who forget God, Lest I tear you apart, with none to rescue you. ²³ Whoever offers a sacrifice of thanksgiving honours Me; And to the one who conducts his way rightly, I will reveal the salvation of God.”

51

For the music director. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

¹ Be gracious to me, God, according to Your mercy; According to the greatness of Your compassion, blot out my wrongdoings. ² Cleanse me thoroughly from my guilt And purify me from my sin.

³ For I am aware of my wrongdoings, And my sin is ever before me. ⁴ Against You, and You alone, I have sinned And done what is evil in Your sight, So that You are justified in Your words And blameless in Your judgement. ⁵ Indeed, I was born into a state of guilt, And in sin my mother conceived me. ⁶ Truly, You desire truth deep within, And in the hidden part You will make wisdom known to me.

⁷ Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; Purify me, and I will be whiter than snow. ⁸ Let me hear joy and gladness, Let the bones You have humbled rejoice. ⁹ Hide Your face from my sins And blot out all my guilty deeds.

¹⁰ Create in me a pure heart, God, And renew a steadfast spirit within me. ¹¹ Do not banish me from Your presence, And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me. ¹² Return to me the joy of Your salvation, And sustain me with a willing spirit.

¹³ Then I will teach wrongdoers Your ways, And sinners will return to You. ¹⁴ Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, God, the God of my salvation; Then my tongue will joyfully sing of Your righteousness. ¹⁵ Lord, open my lips, So that my mouth may proclaim Your praise. ¹⁶ For You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; You do not take pleasure in burnt offerings. ¹⁷ The offerings of God are a humble spirit; A heart that is broken and contrite, God, You will not despise.

Psalms

¹⁸ By Your favour do good to Zion; Build the walls of Jerusalem. ¹⁹ Then You will take pleasure in righteous sacrifices, In burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings; Then bulls will be offered on Your altar.

52

For the music director. A Maskil of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, "David has come to the house of Ahimelech."

¹ Why do you boast in evil, you mighty man? The faithfulness of God endures all day long. ² Your tongue plots destruction, Like a sharp razor, you who practice deceit. ³ You prefer evil over good, Falsehood over speaking what is right. Selah ⁴ You delight in words that consume, You deceitful tongue.

⁵ Yet God will bring you down permanently; He will seize you and remove you from your dwelling, And uproot you from the land of the living. Selah ⁶ The righteous will observe and be in awe, And they will mock him, saying, ⁷ "Behold, the man who would not make God his refuge, But trusted in the abundance of his riches, And sought refuge in his own destruction."

⁸ But as for me, I am like a flourishing olive tree in the house of God; I trust in the faithfulness of God forever and ever. ⁹ I will praise You forever, because You have accomplished it, And I will wait on Your name, for it is good, in the presence of Your faithful ones.

53

For the music director; according to Mahalath. A Maskil of David.

¹ The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, and have committed abominable injustice; There is no one who does good.

² God observed from heaven upon humanity To see if there is anyone who possesses understanding, Who seeks after God. ³ All have turned aside; together they have become corrupt; There is no one who does good, not even one.

⁴ Do the workers of injustice lack knowledge, Who consume My people as they would bread, And have not called upon God? ⁵ They were in great fear where there was no cause for fear; For God scattered the bones of those who encamped against you; You put them to shame, because God had rejected them.

⁶ Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When God restores the fortunes of His people, Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad.

54

For the music director; on stringed instruments. A Maskil of David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Is David not keeping himself hidden among us?"

¹ Save me, God, by Your name, And vindicate me by Your power. ² Attend to my prayer, God; Give ear to the words I speak.

³ For outsiders have risen against me, And ruthless men have sought my life; They have not placed God before them. Selah

⁴ Indeed, God is my helper; The Lord is the upholder of my soul.

⁵ He will repay the evil to my enemies; In Your faithfulness, bring them down.

⁶ Freely I will offer sacrifices to You; I will extol Your name, Lord, for it is good. ⁷ For He has delivered me from all distress, And my eye has gazed with satisfaction upon my foes.

55

For the music director; on stringed instruments. A Maskil of David.

¹ Listen to my prayer, God; And do not hide Yourself from my pleading. ² Turn Your ear to me and respond to me; I am unsettled in my complaint and greatly troubled, ³ Due to the voice of the adversary, Due to the oppression of the wicked; For they heap trouble upon me And in anger they bear a grudge against me.

⁴ My heart is deeply pained within me, And the terrors of death have seized me. ⁵ Fear and trembling have beset me, And horror has engulfed me. ⁶ I said, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and find rest. ⁷ Behold, I would escape far away, I would spend my night in the wilderness. Selah ⁸ I would hasten to my place of refuge From the stormy wind and fierce gale."

Psalms

⁹ Confound them, Lord, divide their tongues, For I have witnessed violence and strife in the city. ¹⁰ Day and night they encircle her upon her walls, And wrongdoing and harm are within her. ¹¹ Ruin is within her; Oppression and deceit do not leave her streets.

¹² For it is not an enemy who mocks me, then I could bear it; Nor is it one who despises me who has risen against me, Then I could hide myself from him. ¹³ But it is you, a person my equal, My companion and my confidant; ¹⁴ We who shared sweet fellowship together, Walked in the house of God among the throng.

¹⁵ May death come upon them unexpectedly; May they descend alive to Sheol, For wickedness is in their dwelling, among them.

¹⁶ As for me, I will call upon God, And the Lord will deliver me. ¹⁷ Evening and morning and at noon, I will lament and groan, And He will hear my voice. ¹⁸ He will rescue my soul in peace from the battle against me, For many are those who oppose me. ¹⁹ God will hear and humble them— Even the one who sits enthroned from ancient times— Selah Because they do not change, And do not fear God.

²⁰ He has stretched out his hands against those who were at peace with him; He has broken his covenant. ²¹ His words were smoother than butter, But his heart was set on war; His words were softer than oil, Yet they were drawn swords.

²² Cast your burden upon the Lord and He will uphold you; He will never permit the righteous to be moved. ²³ But You, God, will bring them down to the pit of destruction; Men of bloodshed and deceit will not live out half their days. But I will place my trust in You.

56

For the music director; according to Jonath elem rehokim. A Mikhtam of David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

¹ Be gracious to me, God, for a man has trampled upon me; Fighting all day long he oppresses me. ² My adversaries have pursued me throughout the day, For numerous are those who contend against me with pride.

³ In times of fear, I will place my trust in You. ⁴ In God, whose word I praise, In God I have placed my trust; I shall not be afraid. What can mere mortals do to me?

⁵ Throughout the day they twist my words; All their schemes are against me for harm. ⁶ They attack, they lurk, They watch my steps, Just as they have waited to take my life. ⁷ Because of their wickedness, is there a way of escape for them? In Your anger, bring the nations down, God!

⁸ You have noted my sufferings; Collect my tears in Your bottle. Are they not recorded in Your book? ⁹ Then my foes will retreat on the day I call; This I know, that God is with me.

¹⁰ In God, whose word I praise, In the Lord, whose message I honour, ¹¹ In God I have placed my trust, I shall not be afraid. What can the world do to me?

¹² Your promises are binding upon me, God; I will offer thanksgiving sacrifices to You. ¹³ For You have rescued my soul from death, Indeed my feet from stumbling, So that I may walk before God In the brightness of life.

57

For the music director; set to Al-tashheth. A Mikhtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

¹ Be gracious to me, God, be gracious to me, For my soul takes refuge in You; And in the shadow of Your wings I will take refuge Until destruction passes by.

² I will call out to God Most High, To God who fulfils His purpose for me. ³ He will send from heaven and save me; He rebukes the one who tramples upon me. Selah God will send His favour and His truth.

⁴ My soul is among lions; I must lie down among those who devour, Among sons of mankind, whose teeth are spears and arrows, And their tongue is a sharp sword.

Psalms

⁵ Be lifted high above the heavens, God; May Your glory be over all the earth.

⁶ They have laid a snare for my steps; My soul is bowed down; They dug a pit before me; They themselves have fallen into it. Selah

⁷ My heart is unwavering, God, my heart is unwavering; I will sing, indeed, I will sing praises! ⁸ Arise, my soul! Arise, harp and lyre! I will awaken the morning light.

⁹ I will give thanks to You, Lord, among the peoples; I will sing praises to You among the nations. ¹⁰ For Your mercy reaches to the heavens, And Your truth to the clouds.

¹¹ Be lifted high above the heavens, God; May Your glory be over all the earth.

58

For the music director; set to Al-tashheth. A Mikhtam of David.

¹ Do you indeed speak righteousness, you gods? Do you judge fairly, you sons of mankind? ² Yet, in heart you engage in wrongdoing; On earth you pave a path for the violence of your hands.

³ The wicked have strayed from the very beginning; Those who speak falsehoods wander from birth. ⁴ They possess venom akin to that of a serpent; Like a deaf cobra that closes its ear, ⁵ So that it does not heed the voice of charmers, Or a skilful enchanter.

⁶ God, break their teeth within their mouth; Remove the fangs of the young lions, Lord. ⁷ May they vanish like water that flows away; When he bends his bow, may his arrows be as headless shafts. ⁸ May they be like a snail that dissolves into slime, Like a miscarriage that never sees the sun.

⁹ Before your pots can feel the heat of thorns, He will sweep them away with a whirlwind, both the fresh and the burning. ¹⁰ The righteous will rejoice when he witnesses justice; He will bathe his feet in the downfall of the wicked. ¹¹ And people will declare, "Truly there is a reward for the righteous; Truly there is a God who judges on the earth!"

59

For the music director; set to Al-tashheth. A Mikhtam of David, when Saul sent men and they watched the house to kill him.

¹ Rescue me from my enemies, my God; Set me securely on high away from those who rise up against me. ² Deliver me from those who commit injustice, And save me from violent men.

³ For behold, they have laid a trap for my life; Fierce men attack me, Not because of any wrongdoing or sin of mine, Lord, ⁴ Without any guilt on my part, they run and take their stand against me. Rouse Yourself to help me, and see! ⁵ You, Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel, Awake to bring justice to all the nations; Show no favour to those who act treacherously in wrongdoing. Selah

⁶ They return at evening, they growl like a dog, And roam around the city. ⁷ Behold, they spew out with their mouths; Swords are in their lips, For, they say, "Who hears?" ⁸ Yet You, Lord, find them laughable; You hold all the nations in derision.

⁹ In His strength, I will keep watch for You, For God is my refuge. ¹⁰ My God in His faithfulness will come to me; God will let me look in triumph upon my enemies.

¹¹ Do not destroy them, lest my people forget; Scatter them by Your power and bring them down, Lord, our shield. ¹² Because of the sin of their mouths and the words of their lips, May they be caught in their pride, And because of curses and lies which they speak. ¹³ Consume them in wrath, consume them so they will be no more; So that people may know that God rules in Jacob, To the ends of the earth. Selah

¹⁴ They return at evening, they growl like a dog, And roam around the city. ¹⁵ They wander about for food, And grumble if they are not satisfied. ¹⁶ But as for me, I will sing of Your strength; Yes, I will joyfully sing of Your mercy in the morning, For You have been my refuge And a place of shelter on the day of my distress.

¹⁷ My strength, I will sing praises to You; For God is my refuge, the God who shows me mercy.

Psalms

60

For the music director; according to Shushan Eduth. A Mikhtam of David, to teach; when he fought with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, and Joab returned and struck twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

¹ God, You have rejected us. You have broken us; You have been angry; restore us. ² You have made the land quake, You have split it open; Heal its cracks, for it totters. ³ You have caused Your people to endure hardship; You have given us wine that causes us to stagger. ⁴ You have given a banner to those who fear You, So that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah

⁵ So that Your beloved may be rescued, Save with Your right hand, and answer us! ⁶ God has spoken in His holiness: "I will triumph, I will divide Shechem, And measure out the Valley of Succoth. ⁷ Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim also is the helmet of My head; Judah is My sceptre. ⁸ Moab is My basin for washing; Over Edom I will cast My sandal; Philistia, shout aloud because of Me!"

⁹ Who will guide me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom? ¹⁰ Have You Yourself not rejected us, God? And will You not go forth with our armies, God? ¹¹ Give us help against the enemy, For rescue by man is worthless. ¹² Through God we will achieve victory, And it is He who will overcome our foes.

61

For the music director; on a stringed instrument. A Psalm of David.

¹ Hear my cry, God; Give Your attention to my prayer.

² From the farthest reaches, I call to You when my heart is weary; Guide me to the rock that is higher than I. ³ For You have been my refuge, A strong tower against the adversary.

⁴ May I reside in Your tent forever; Let me find safety in the shelter of Your wings. Selah ⁵ For You have listened to my vows, God; You have granted me the heritage of those who revere Your name.

⁶ You will extend the king's life; His years will span generations. ⁷ He will abide before God forever; Appoint mercy and truth, that they may guard him.

⁸ So I will sing praise to Your name forever, So that I may fulfil my vows day by day.

62

For the music director; according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

¹ My soul waits in silence for God alone; From Him comes my salvation. ² He alone is my rock and my salvation, My fortress; I will not be greatly moved.

³ How long will you assail a man, That you may bring him down, all of you, Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence? ⁴ They have devised only to topple him from his high position; They take pleasure in falsehood; They bless with their mouth, But inwardly they curse. Selah

⁵ My soul, remain silent before God alone, For my hope comes from Him. ⁶ He alone is my rock and my salvation, My refuge; I will not be moved. ⁷ My salvation and my honour depend on God; The rock of my strength, my refuge is in God. ⁸ Trust in Him at all times, you people; Pour out your hearts before Him; God is a shelter for us. Selah

⁹ People of low standing are but a breath, and those of rank are a deception; In the balances they rise. Together they are lighter than air. ¹⁰ Do not rely on oppression, And do not place vain hope in robbery; If wealth increases, do not fix your heart on it.

¹¹ God has spoken once; Twice I have heard this: That strength belongs to God; ¹² And steadfast love is Yours, Lord, For You repay a person according to their deeds.

63

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

¹ God, You are my God; I shall be watching for You; My soul thirsts for You, my flesh yearns for You, In a dry and exhausted land, where there is no water.

² Thus have I beheld You in the sanctuary, To witness Your power and glory. ³ Because Your favour is better than life, My lips will praise You. ⁴

Psalms

Therefore, I will bless You throughout my life; I will raise my hands in Your name. ⁵ My soul is fulfilled as with rich food, And my mouth offers praises with joyful lips.

⁶ As I think of You upon my bed, I reflect on You during the night watches, ⁷ For You have been my support, And under the shelter of Your wings, I sing for joy. ⁸ My soul holds fast to You; Your right hand upholds me.

⁹ Yet those who seek to harm my life Will descend into the depths of the earth. ¹⁰ They will be delivered to the power of the sword; They will become prey for foxes. ¹¹ However, the king will find joy in God; Everyone who swears by Him will exult, For the mouths of those who speak falsehoods will be silenced.

64

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ Hear my voice, God, in my complaint; Protect my life from dread of the enemy.

² Conceal me from the secret schemes of evildoers, From the turmoil of those who commit injustice, ³ Who have sharpened their tongues like a sword. They directed harsh words as their arrows, ⁴ To strike unexpectedly at the innocent; Suddenly they attack without fear.

⁵ They strengthen their wicked plans; They discuss laying traps in secret; They say, "Who can perceive them?" ⁶ They plot injustices, saying, "We are prepared with a clever scheme"; For the inner thoughts and the heart of a person are profound.

⁷ But God will send an arrow into them; Suddenly they will be struck. ⁸ So they will be made to stumble; Their own tongues will turn against them; All who see them will shake their heads. ⁹ Then all people will be in awe, And they will proclaim the deeds of God, And will ponder what He has accomplished.

¹⁰ The righteous will rejoice in the Lord and seek shelter in Him; And all the upright in heart will exult.

65

For the music director. A Psalm of David. A Song.

¹ There will be silence before You, and praise in Zion, God, And the vow will be fulfilled to You. ² You who listen to prayer, To You all people come. ³ Wrongdoings prevail against me; As for our offences, You forgive them. ⁴ Blessed is the one You choose and bring near to You; He will dwell in Your courtyards. We will be satisfied with the goodness of Your house, Your sacred temple.

⁵ By wondrous deeds You answer us with righteousness, God of our salvation, You who are the hope of all the ends of the earth and the distant seas; ⁶ Who establishes the mountains by His strength, Who is surrounded with might; ⁷ Who calms the roaring of the seas, The roaring of their waves, And the unrest of the nations. ⁸ Those who dwell at the ends of the earth are in awe of Your signs; You make the sunrise and the sunset shout for joy.

⁹ You visit the earth and make it overflow; You greatly enrich it; The stream of God is full of water; You prepare their grain, for thus You prepare the earth. ¹⁰ You water its furrows abundantly, You level its ridges, You soften it with showers, You bless its growth. ¹¹ You have crowned the year with Your goodness, And Your paths overflow with abundance. ¹² The pastures of the wilderness overflow, And the hills wrap themselves with joy. ¹³ The meadows are adorned with flocks, And the valleys are covered with grain; They shout for joy, yes, they sing.

66

For the music director. A Song. A Psalm.

¹ Shout joyfully to God, all the earth; ² Sing of the splendour of His name; Make His praise resound gloriously. ³ Say to God, "How marvellous are Your works! Because of the greatness of Your power, Your enemies will feign obedience to You. ⁴ All the earth will worship You, And will sing praises to You; They will celebrate Your name." Selah

⁵ Come and witness the works of God, Who is wondrous in His deeds toward the children of mankind. ⁶ He turned the sea into dry land; They passed through the river on foot; Let us rejoice there, in Him! ⁷ He rules by His might forever; His eyes observe the nations; The rebellious shall not exalt themselves. Selah

⁸ Praise our God, you peoples, And let His praise be heard far and wide, ⁹ Who preserves our lives, And does not let our feet stumble. ¹⁰ For You have tested us, God; You have refined us as silver is refined. ¹¹ You brought us into the net; You placed a heavy burden upon us. ¹² You allowed men to ride over our heads; We went through fire and water. Yet You brought us out to a place of abundance.

¹³ I shall come into Your house with burnt offerings; I shall fulfil my vows to You, ¹⁴ Which my lips have spoken And my mouth declared when I was in distress. ¹⁵ I shall offer to You burnt offerings of well-fed animals, With the smoke of rams; I shall present an offering of bulls with male goats. Selah

¹⁶ Come and listen, all who fear God, And I will recount what He has done for my soul. ¹⁷ I cried out to Him with my mouth, And His praise was on my tongue. ¹⁸ If I cherish wickedness in my heart, The Lord will not listen; ¹⁹ But God has listened; He has attended to the voice of my prayer. ²⁰ Blessed be God, Who has not turned away my prayer, Nor withheld His favour from me.

¹ God be gracious to us and bless us, And cause His face to shine upon us— Selah ² So that Your ways may be recognised across the earth, Your deliverance among all nations.

³ Let the peoples give You praise, God; Let all the peoples give You praise. ⁴ Let the nations rejoice and sing with gladness; For You will judge the peoples with equity And lead the nations on the earth. Selah ⁵ Let the peoples give You praise, God; Let all the peoples give You praise.

⁶ The earth has brought forth its harvest; God, our God, bestows His blessings upon us. ⁷ God bestows His blessings upon us, So that all the ends of the earth may hold Him in reverence.

¹ God arises, His enemies scatter, And those who hate Him flee from His presence. ² As smoke is blown away, so You blow them away; As wax melts before the fire, So the wicked perish before God. ³ But the righteous are glad; they rejoice before God, Yes, they rejoice with joy.

⁴ Sing to God, offer praises to His name; Lift up the One who journeys through the deserts, Whose name is the Lord, and be joyful before Him. ⁵ A protector of orphans and a defender of widows, Is God in His holy dwelling. ⁶ God provides a home for those who are alone; He leads out the prisoners into prosperity, But the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

⁷ God, when You went out before Your people, When You marched through the desert, Selah ⁸ The earth trembled; The heavens also poured rain at the presence of God; Sinai itself shook at the presence of God, the God of Israel. ⁹ You sent abundant rain, God; You restored Your inheritance when it was weary. ¹⁰ Your people settled in it; In Your goodness You provided for the needy, God.

¹¹ The Lord delivers the message; The women who proclaim the tidings are a great host: ¹² "Kings of armies retreat, they retreat, And she who stays at home divides the plunder!" ¹³ When you rest among the sheepfolds, You are like the wings of a dove covered with silver, And its feathers with shimmering gold. ¹⁴ When the Almighty scattered kings there, It was as if it snowed on Zalmon.

¹⁵ The mountain of Bashan is a majestic mountain; The mountain of Bashan is a mountain of many peaks. ¹⁶ Why do you gaze with envy, you rugged mountains, At the mountain God has chosen for His dwelling? Indeed, the Lord will reside there forever. ¹⁷ The chariots of God are countless, thousands upon thousands; The Lord is among them as He was at Sinai, in holiness. ¹⁸ You have ascended on high, You have led captives in Your train; You have received gifts from people, Even from the rebellious, That the Lord God may dwell there.

Psalms

¹⁹ Praise be to the Lord, who daily carries our burdens, The God who is our salvation. Selah ²⁰ Our God is a God who saves; To the Sovereign Lord belong ways of escape from death. ²¹ God will surely crush the heads of His enemies, The hairy crown of those who persist in their sins. ²² The Lord declared, "I will bring them back from Bashan. I will bring them back from the depths of the sea, ²³ So that your foot may wade in their blood, And the tongues of your dogs may have their share from the foes."

²⁴ They have witnessed Your procession, God, The procession of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.

²⁵ The singers lead the way, the musicians follow after, Among the young women playing tambourines. ²⁶ Bless God in the assemblies, The Lord, you who are from the fountain of Israel. ²⁷ Benjamin, the youngest, is there, leading them, The princes of Judah in their throng, The princes of Zebulun, the princes of Naphtali.

²⁸ Your God has ordained your strength; Display Your power, God, You who have acted on our behalf. ²⁹ Because of Your temple in Jerusalem, Rulers will bring tribute to You. ³⁰ Rebuke the beasts among the reeds, The herd of bulls with the calves of the nations, Trampling down the pieces of silver; He has scattered the nations who delight in conflict. ³¹ Envoys will come from Egypt; Cush will quickly stretch out her hands to God.

³² Sing to God, all you kingdoms of the earth, Sing praises to the Lord, Selah ³³ To Him who rides upon the highest heavens, which are from ancient times; Behold, He speaks with His voice, a mighty voice. ³⁴ Ascribe power to God; His splendour is over Israel, And His strength is in the skies. ³⁵ God, You are awe-inspiring from Your sanctuary. The God of Israel Himself gives strength and power to the people. Blessed be God!

69

For the music director; according to Shoshannim. A Psalm of David.

¹ Save me, God, For the waters have threatened my life. ² I have sunk into deep mire, and there is no foothold; I have come into deep waters, and the flood overwhelms me. ³ I am exhausted from crying; my throat is dry; My eyes fail as I wait for my God. ⁴ Those who hate me without reason are more than the hairs of my head; Those who seek to destroy me are powerful, those who oppose me with falsehoods; What I did not steal, I must now restore.

⁵ God, You are aware of my foolishness, And my guilt is not concealed from You.

⁶ May those who wait for You not be put to shame because of me, Lord God of armies; May those who seek You not be dishonoured because of me, God of Israel, ⁷ Because for Your sake I have endured disgrace; Dishonour has covered my face. ⁸ I have become alienated from my brothers, And a stranger to my mother's sons. ⁹ For zeal for Your house has consumed me, And the insults of those who insult You have fallen on me. ¹⁰ When I wept and fasted, It brought me reproach. ¹¹ When I wore sackcloth as my garment, I became a byword to them. ¹² Those who sit at the gate talk about me, And I am the subject of songs by those who are intoxicated.

¹³ But as for me, my prayer is to You, Lord, at a favourable time; God, in the abundance of Your mercy, Answer me with Your saving truth. ¹⁴ Deliver me from the mire and do not let me sink; May I be rescued from those who hate me, and from the depths of the water. ¹⁵ May the floodwaters not sweep over me Nor the deep engulf me, Nor the pit close its mouth over me.

¹⁶ Respond to me, Lord, for Your kindness is abundant; In Your great compassion, turn towards me, ¹⁷ And do not hide Your face from Your servant, For I am in distress; respond to me quickly. ¹⁸ Draw near to my soul and redeem it; Rescue me because of my enemies!

¹⁹ You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonour; All my adversaries are known to You. ²⁰ Reproach has broken my heart, and I am so weak. And I looked for sympathy, but there was none, And for comforters, but I found none. ²¹ They also gave me bitter food, And for my thirst they offered me sour wine.

²² May their table before them become a snare; And when they feel secure, may it become a trap.

²³ May their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, And make their bodies tremble continually. ²⁴

Psalms

Pour out Your indignation on them, And may Your fierce anger overtake them. ²⁵ May their camp be deserted; May there be none dwelling in their tents.

²⁶ For they have persecuted the one You have struck, And they recount the pain of those You have wounded. ²⁷ Add iniquity to their iniquity, And may they not enter into Your righteousness. ²⁸ May they be blotted out of the book of life, And may they not be listed with the righteous.

²⁹ But I am afflicted and in pain; May Your salvation, God, set me securely on high.

³⁰ I will honour the name of God with a song, And exalt Him with thanksgiving. ³¹ And it will please the Lord more than an ox Or a bull with horns and hoofs. ³² The humble have seen it and are glad; You who seek God, let your hearts be revived. ³³ For the Lord hears the needy, And does not despise His prisoners.

³⁴ Let the heavens and the earth extol Him, The seas and all that move within them. ³⁵ For God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah, So that they may dwell there and possess it. ³⁶ The offspring of His servants will inherit it, And those who love His name will live in it.

70

For the music director. A Psalm of David; to bring to remembrance.

¹ God, hurry to save me; Lord, hurry to help me!

² May those who seek my life be put to shame and humiliated; May those who delight in my harm be turned back and dishonoured. ³ May those who mock with "Aha, aha!" be turned back Due to their disgrace. ⁴ May all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; And may those who love Your salvation continually say, "May God be exalted!"

⁵ But I am afflicted and needy; Hasten to me, God! You are my help and my saviour; Lord, do not delay.

71

In You, Lord, I seek shelter; May I never be disgraced. ² In Your righteousness deliver me and save me; Incline Your ear to me and assist me. ³ Be to me a rock of dwelling to which I may continually come; You have given the command to save me, For You are my rock and my fortress. ⁴ Rescue me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, From the grasp of the wrongdoer and the ruthless.

⁵ For You are my hope; Lord God, You have been my trust since my youth. ⁶ I have relied on You since my birth; You are the one who brought me forth from my mother's womb; My praise is always of You. ⁷ I have become a wonder to many, For You are my strong refuge. ⁸ My mouth is filled with Your praise And with Your glory throughout the day.

⁹ Do not cast me away in the time of my old age; Do not abandon me when my strength fails. ¹⁰ For my enemies have spoken against me; And those who seek my life have conspired together, ¹¹ Saying, "God has forsaken him; Pursue and capture him, for there is no one to deliver him." ¹² God, do not be distant from me; My God, hasten to assist me! ¹³ May those who are adversaries of my soul be put to shame and consumed; May they be covered with disgrace and dishonour, those who seek to harm me.

¹⁴ But as for me, I will hope continually, And will praise You more and more.

¹⁵ My mouth will recount Your righteousness And Your salvation all day long, For I do not know the art of writing. ¹⁶ I will come with the mighty deeds of the Lord God; I will speak of Your righteousness, Yours alone. ¹⁷ God, You have instructed me from my youth, And I still proclaim Your wondrous deeds. ¹⁸ And even when I am old and grey, God, do not leave me, Until I declare Your strength to this generation, Your power to all who are to come.

¹⁹ For Your righteousness, God, extends to the skies, You who have accomplished marvellous deeds; God, who can compare to You? ²⁰ You who have allowed me to face many troubles and hardships Will restore me once more, And will lift me again from the depths of despair. ²¹ May You enhance my honour And turn to bring me solace.

²² I will also praise You with a harp, And proclaim Your faithfulness, my God; I will sing praises to You with the lyre, Holy One of Israel. ²³ My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to You; And my soul, which You have rescued. ²⁴ My tongue also will speak of Your righteousness all day long; For they are put to shame, for they are humiliated who seek my harm.

Psalms

72

A Psalm of Solomon.

¹ Give the king Your judgments, God, And Your righteousness to the king's son. ² May he govern Your people with fairness And Your afflicted ones with equity.

³ May the mountains yield peace to the people, And the hills, through righteousness. ⁴ May he defend the afflicted among the people, Save the children of the needy, And subdue the oppressor. ⁵ May they revere You as long as the sun endures, And as long as the moon endures, throughout all generations. ⁶ May he descend like rain upon the mown grass, Like showers that nourish the earth. ⁷ May the righteous thrive in his days, And may there be an abundance of peace until the moon is no more.

⁸ May he also have dominion from sea to sea, And from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth. ⁹ May the nomads of the desert bow before him, And may his enemies lick the dust. ¹⁰ May the kings of Tarshish and of the islands bring offerings; May the kings of Sheba and Seba present tributes. ¹¹ And may all kings bow down before him, May all nations serve him.

¹² For he will deliver the needy when they call for help, The afflicted also, and those who have no helper. ¹³ He will show compassion to the poor and needy, And he will preserve the lives of the needy.

¹⁴ He will redeem their life from oppression and violence, And their blood will be valued in his sight.

¹⁵ So may he live, and may the gold of Sheba be given to him; And may they pray for him continually; May they bless him all day long. ¹⁶ May there be an abundance of grain on the earth, even on the tops of the mountains; Its fruit will wave like the cedars of Lebanon; And may those from the city flourish like the vegetation of the earth. ¹⁷ May his name endure forever; May his name continue as long as the sun shines;

And may people bless themselves through him; May all nations call him blessed.

¹⁸ Praised be the Lord God, the God of Israel, Who alone performs wonders. ¹⁹ And praised be His glorious name forever; And may the whole earth be filled with His glory. Amen and Amen.

²⁰ The prayers of David the son of Jesse are concluded.

73

A Psalm of Asaph.

¹ God certainly is good to Israel, To those who are pure in heart!

² Yet my feet nearly stumbled, My steps almost slipped. ³ For I was envious of the arrogant When I observed the success of the wicked.

⁴ For they seem to have no struggles in their death, And their bodies are well-nourished. ⁵ They do not face the troubles of others, Nor are they plagued like the rest of humanity. ⁶ Therefore arrogance adorns them like a necklace; Violence clothes them like a garment. ⁷ Their eyes bulge with abundance; The imaginations of their heart overflow. ⁸ They scoff and speak with malice; They speak with haughty intent. ⁹ They set their mouths against the heavens, And their tongues strut through the earth. ¹⁰ Therefore their people turn to them, And they drink up waters in abundance. ¹¹ They say, "How can God know? Is there knowledge with the Most High?"

¹² Behold, these are the wicked; Always at ease, they increase in wealth.

¹³ Surely I have kept my heart pure in vain And washed my hands in innocence; ¹⁴ For I have been afflicted all day long, And chastened every morning.

¹⁵ If I had resolved to speak like this, Behold, I would have been unfaithful to Your children. ¹⁶ When I tried to understand this, It was a burden to me ¹⁷ Until I entered the sanctuary of God; Then I understood their final destiny.

¹⁸ Surely You place them on slippery paths; You cast them down to ruin. ¹⁹ How suddenly they are destroyed, Completely swept away by terrors! ²⁰ Like a dream when one awakens, Lord, When You arise, You will despise their form.

Psalms

²¹ When my heart was grieved And my spirit was embittered, ²² I was senseless and ignorant; I was like a brute beast before You.

²³ Nevertheless, I am continually with You; You uphold me by my right hand. ²⁴ You lead me with Your wisdom, And afterward You will receive me into honour. ²⁵ Whom have I in heaven but You? And on earth, I desire nothing besides You. ²⁶ My flesh and my heart may falter, But God remains the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

²⁷ For indeed, those who are far from You will perish; You destroy all who are unfaithful to You. ²⁸ But as for me, it is good to be near God; I have made the Sovereign Lord my refuge, That I may tell of all Your deeds.

74

A Maskil of Asaph.

¹ God, why have You rejected us forever? Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture? ² Recall Your people, whom You acquired long ago, Whom You have reclaimed as the tribe of Your inheritance; And this Mount Zion, where You have resided. ³ Approach the desolate ruins; The enemy has laid waste to everything in the sanctuary.

⁴ Your enemies roar in the heart of Your meeting place; They have set up their own emblems as symbols. ⁵ It seems like one bringing up An axe into a forest of trees. ⁶ And now they break down all its carved work With hatchet and hammers. ⁷ They have reduced Your sanctuary to ashes; They have desecrated the dwelling place of Your name. ⁸ They said in their heart, "Let's completely subdue them." They have set fire to all the meeting places of God in the land.

⁹ We do not see our signs; There is no longer any prophet, Nor is there anyone among us who knows the duration. ¹⁰ How long, God, will the enemy taunt You? Shall the enemy treat Your name with disrespect forever? ¹¹ Why do You hold back Your hand, even Your right hand? Release it from Your bosom and bring justice!

¹² Yet God is my King from long ago, Who performs deeds of salvation in the midst of the earth.

¹³ You parted the sea by Your strength; You shattered the heads of the sea creatures in the waters. ¹⁴ You crushed the heads of Leviathan; You provided him as food for the creatures of the wilderness. ¹⁵ You opened springs and torrents; You dried up perpetual streams. ¹⁶ Yours is the day, Yours also is the night; You have set in place the light and the sun. ¹⁷ You have defined all the boundaries of the earth; You have fashioned summer and winter.

¹⁸ Remember this, Lord, that the enemy has taunted You, And a foolish people has treated Your name with disrespect. ¹⁹ Do not surrender the soul of Your turtledove to the wild beast; Do not forget the life of Your afflicted forever. ²⁰ Consider the covenant; For the dark places of the land are full of the haunts of violence. ²¹ May the oppressed not return dishonoured; May the afflicted and the needy praise Your name. ²² Rise, God, and defend Your own cause; Remember how the foolish person taunts You all day long. ²³ Do not forget the voice of Your enemies, The uproar of those who rise against You, which ascends continually.

75

For the music director; set to Al-tashheth. A Psalm of Asaph, a Song.

¹ We give thanks to You, God, we give thanks, For Your name is near; People declare Your wondrous works.

² "When I choose the right moment, It is I who judge with fairness. ³ The earth and all who dwell in it shake; It is I who have firmly set its pillars. Selah

⁴ I said to the boastful, 'Refrain from boasting,' And to the wicked, 'Do not raise your horn; ⁵ Do not raise your horn on high, Do not speak with arrogant pride.'"

⁶ For exaltation does not come from the east, nor from the west, Nor from the desert; ⁷ But God is the Judge; He brings down one and raises up another.

⁸ For a cup is in the hand of the Lord, and the wine foams; It is well mixed, and He pours out of it; Certainly all the wicked of the earth must drain and drink its dregs.

⁹ Yet I will proclaim it forever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob. ¹⁰ And He will cut off all the horns of the wicked, But the horns of the righteous will be exalted.

Psalms

76

For the music director; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph, a Song.

¹ God is revered in Judah; His name holds great renown in Israel. ² His sanctuary is in Salem; His abode is also in Zion. ³ There He shattered the fiery arrows, The shield, the sword, and the implements of war. Selah

⁴ You are resplendent, More majestic than the mountains full of prey. ⁵ The courageous were despoiled, They fell into slumber; And none of the warriors could wield his hands. ⁶ At Your rebuke, God of Jacob, Both rider and horse were plunged into a deep sleep.

⁷ You, You indeed are to be revered, And who may stand in Your presence, when You are provoked? ⁸ You made judgment resound from heaven; The earth trembled and was still, ⁹ When God rose to execute judgment, To deliver all the humble of the earth. Selah ¹⁰ For the fury of mankind shall extol You; You will gird Yourself with the remainder of wrath.

¹¹ Make vows to the Lord your God and fulfill them; All who are near Him are to present gifts to Him who is to be revered. ¹² He will humble the spirit of princes; He is revered by the kings of the earth.

77

For the music director; according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

¹ My voice rises to God, and I will cry aloud; My voice rises to God, and He will hear me. ² In my distress, I sought the Lord; In the night, my hand was extended without tiring; My soul found no comfort.

³ When I think of God, I become unsettled; When I sigh, my spirit grows faint. Selah ⁴ You have kept my eyes from closing; I am so troubled that I cannot speak. ⁵ I have reflected on the days of old, The years of times past. ⁶ I will recall my song in the night; I will meditate in my heart, And my spirit reflects:

⁷ Will the Lord reject forever? And will He never show favour again? ⁸ Has His favour ceased forever? Has His promise come to an end for all time? ⁹ Has God forgotten to be gracious, Or has He in anger withheld His compassion? Selah

¹⁰ Then I said, "This is my sorrow, That the right hand of the Most High has altered." ¹¹ I will recall the deeds of the Lord; Surely I will remember Your marvellous works of old. ¹² I will reflect on all Your works, And on Your deeds with gratitude.

¹³ Your way, God, is sacred; What deity is great like our God? ¹⁴ You are the God who performs wonders; You have revealed Your strength among the nations. ¹⁵ By Your power, You have redeemed Your people, The descendants of Jacob and Joseph. Selah

¹⁶ The waters saw You, God; The waters saw You and were in anguish; The ocean depths also trembled. ¹⁷ The clouds poured out water; The skies resounded; Your arrows flashed to and fro. ¹⁸ The sound of Your thunder was in the whirlwind; The lightning illuminated the world; The earth trembled and shook. ¹⁹ Your path was through the sea, And Your way through the mighty waters, And Your footprints were unseen. ²⁰ You guided Your people like a flock By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

78

A Maskil of Asaph.

¹ Listen, my people, to my instruction; Incline your ears to the words of my mouth. ² I will speak in parables; I will share ancient riddles, ³ Which we have heard and known, And which our ancestors have shared with us. ⁴ We will not hide them from their children, But we will declare to the next generation the praises of the Lord, And His power and the marvellous works He has accomplished.

⁵ For He established a testimony in Jacob, And set a law in Israel, Which He instructed our ancestors So they could teach to their children, ⁶ So that the next generation would know, the children yet to be born, That they would rise and tell them to their children, ⁷ So that they would place their trust in God And not forget the deeds of God, But adhere to His commandments, ⁸ And not be like their ancestors, A stubborn and rebellious generation, A generation that did not prepare its heart, And whose spirit was not faithful to God.

Psalms

⁹ The sons of Ephraim, armed with bows, Yet retreated on the day of battle. ¹⁰ They did not uphold the covenant of God And refused to follow His law; ¹¹ They forgot His deeds And the miracles He had shown them. ¹² He performed wonders before their ancestors In the land of Egypt, in the fields of Zoan.

