¹³ He divided the sea and led them through, And He made the waters stand up like a wall. ¹⁴ Then He guided them with the cloud by day, And all night with a light of fire. ¹⁵ He split the rocks in the wilderness And gave them abundant water like the ocean depths. ¹⁶ He brought forth streams from the rock And made waters flow down like rivers.

[Psalm 78 continues to verse 72; due to its length, would you like me to continue with now in Markdown, or pause here and pick up from verse 17 in the next message?]

¹⁷ Yet they continued to sin against Him, Rebelling against the Most High in the desert. ¹⁸ And they tested God in their hearts By demanding food to satisfy their cravings. ¹⁹ Then they spoke against God; They said, "Can God set a table in the wilderness?" ²⁰ Behold, He struck the rock so that waters gushed out, And streams overflowed; Can He also provide bread? Will He supply meat for His people?"

²¹ Therefore the Lord heard and was filled with wrath; And fire was kindled against Jacob, And anger also mounted against Israel. ²² Because they did not believe in God And did not trust in His deliverance. ²³ Nevertheless, He commanded the skies above And opened the gates of heaven; ²⁴ He rained down manna for them to eat, And gave them food from heaven. ²⁵ Humanity partook of the bread of angels; He provided them with food in abundance.

²⁶ He made the east wind blow in the heavens And by His power directed the south wind. ²⁷ He rained meat upon them like dust, Even winged birds like the sand of the seas; ²⁸ He allowed them to fall in the midst of their camp, All around their dwellings.

²⁹ So they ate and were well satisfied, And He fulfilled their desire. ³⁰ Yet before they had satisfied their craving, While their food was still in their mouths, ³¹ The anger of God rose against them And struck down some of their strongest, And subdued the choice men of Israel.

³² Despite all this, they continued to sin And did not believe in His marvellous works. ³³ So He ended their days in futility, And their years in sudden terror. ³⁴ When He struck them down, then they sought Him, And they returned and earnestly searched for God; ³⁵ And they recalled that God was their rock, And the Most High God their Redeemer.

³⁶ But they flattered Him with their words And lied to Him with their tongues. ³⁷ For their hearts were not steadfast toward Him, Nor were they faithful to His covenant. ³⁸ But He, being compassionate, forgave their iniquity and did not destroy them; And often He restrained His anger And did not unleash all His wrath. ³⁹ So He remembered that they were mere flesh, A passing breeze that does not return.

⁴⁰ How frequently they rebelled against Him in the wilderness, And grieved Him in the desert! ⁴¹ Time and again they tested God, And pained the Holy One of Israel. ⁴² They did not remember His power, The day when He redeemed them from the foe, ⁴³ When He displayed His signs in Egypt And His wonders in the fields of Zoan,

⁴⁴ And turned their rivers to blood, And their streams, so they could not drink. ⁴⁵ He sent swarms of flies among them that devoured them, And frogs that devastated them. ⁴⁶ He also gave their crops to the grasshopper And the produce of their labour to the locust. ⁴⁷ He ruined their vines with hail And their sycamore trees with frost. ⁴⁸ He turned their livestock over to the hailstones, And their herds to bolts of lightning.

⁴⁹ He sent His burning anger upon them, Fury and indignation and trouble, A company of destroying angels. ⁵⁰ He cleared a path for His anger; He did not spare their souls from death, But handed their lives over to the plague, ⁵¹ And struck all the firstborn in Egypt, The first and best of their strength in the tents of Ham.

⁵² Yet He led His own people out like sheep, And guided them in the wilderness like a flock; ⁵³ He led them safely, so they did not fear; But the sea overwhelmed their foes. ⁵⁴ So He brought them to His holy land, To this hill country which His right hand had won. ⁵⁵ He also drove out the nations before them, And allotted them as an inheritance by measurement, And settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

Psalms

⁵⁶ Yet they tested and rebelled against the Most High God And did not keep His decrees, ⁵⁷ But turned back and acted deceitfully like their ancestors; They turned aside like a faulty bow. ⁵⁸ For they provoked Him with their high places And stirred Him to jealousy with their carved images. ⁵⁹ When God heard them, He was filled with wrath And He utterly rejected Israel;

⁶⁰ So that He abandoned the dwelling place at Shiloh, The tent He had set among people, ⁶¹ And gave His strength into captivity, And His glory into the hand of the enemy. ⁶² He also delivered His people to the sword, And was filled with wrath at His inheritance. ⁶³ Fire consumed His young men, And His maidens had no wedding songs. ⁶⁴ His priests fell by the sword, And His widows could not weep.

⁶⁵ Then the Lord awoke as if from sleep, Like a warrior overcome by wine. ⁶⁶ He drove His enemies backward; He put on them an everlasting disgrace.

⁶⁷ He also turned away from the tent of Joseph, And did not choose the tribe of Ephraim, ⁶⁸ But selected the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which He cherished.

⁶⁹ And He established His sanctuary like the heights, Like the earth which He has founded forever. ⁷⁰ He also chose His servant David, And took him from tending the sheep; ⁷¹ From caring for the ewes with nursing lambs He brought him To shepherd Jacob His people, And Israel His inheritance. ⁷² So he shepherded them with integrity of heart, And guided them with skilful hands.

bodies of Your servants as food for the birds of the sky, The flesh of Your godly ones to the animals of the earth. ³ They have shed their blood like water all around Jerusalem, And there was no one to lay them to rest. ⁴ We have become a disgrace before our neighbours, An object of ridicule and derision to those around us.

⁵ How long, Lord? Will Your anger stay forever? Will Your zealotness burn like fire? ⁶ Pour out Your wrath upon the nations that do not know You, And upon the kingdoms that do not call upon Your name. ⁷ For they have consumed Jacob And brought ruin to his dwelling place.

⁸ Do not hold us accountable for the wrongs of our ancestors; Let Your compassion swiftly meet us, For we have been brought very low. ⁹ Assist us, God of our salvation, for the honour of Your name; And deliver us and pardon our sins for the sake of Your name. ¹⁰ Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"

Let the retribution for the blood of Your servants that has been shed Be made known among the nations before our eyes. ¹¹ Let the lament of the prisoner come before You; According to the greatness of Your power, let those destined to die be spared. ¹² And return to our neighbours sevenfold into their lap Their taunts with which they have taunted You, Lord.

¹³ So we, Your people and the sheep of Your pasture, Will give thanks to You forever; To all generations, we will proclaim Your praise.

80

For the music director; set to Shoshannim, Eduth. A Psalm of Asaph.

¹ Listen, Shepherd of Israel, Who leads Joseph like a flock; You who are enthroned above the cherubim, shine forth! ² Awaken Your might before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, And come to our rescue!

³ God, bring us back And let Your face shine upon us, so we may be saved.

⁴ Lord God of hosts, How long will You be displeased with the prayers of Your people? ⁵ You have given them the bread of tears, And You have

79

A Psalm of Asaph.

¹ God, the nations have invaded Your inheritance; They have defiled Your holy temple; They have laid Jerusalem in ruins. ² They have given the dead made them drink abundant tears. ⁶ You make us a source of strife to our neighbours, And our enemies laugh among themselves.

Psalms

⁷ God of hosts, bring us back And let Your face shine upon us, so we may be saved.

⁸ You brought a vine out of Egypt; You displaced the nations and planted it. ⁹ You prepared the ground for it, And it took deep root and filled the land. ¹⁰ Its shadow covered the mountains, And its branches reached the mighty cedars. ¹¹ It extended its branches to the sea And its shoots to the Euphrates River.

¹² Why have You broken down its walls, So that all who pass that way pluck its fruit? ¹³ A boar from the forest ravages it, And whatever moves in the field feeds on it. ¹⁴ God of hosts, please return; Look down from heaven and see, and tend to this vine, ¹⁵ The root Your right hand has planted, And the son whom You have raised for Yourself.

¹⁶ It is consumed by fire, it is cut down; They perish at the rebuke of Your presence. ¹⁷ Let Your hand rest upon the man at Your right hand, Upon the son of man whom You have made strong for Yourself. ¹⁸ Then we will not turn away from You; Revive us, and we will call upon Your name.

¹⁹ Lord God of hosts, bring us back; Let Your face shine upon us, so we may be saved.

81

For the music director; on the Gittith. A Psalm of Asaph.

¹ Sing for joy to God our strength; Shout joyfully to the God of Jacob. ² Raise a song, strike the tambourine, The sweet-sounding lyre with the harp. ³ Sound the trumpet at the new moon, At the full moon, on our day of celebration. ⁴ For it is a decree for Israel, A command of the God of Jacob. ⁵ He set it up as a witness in Joseph, When he journeyed through the land of Egypt;

I heard a language unfamiliar to me:

⁶ "I took the burden from his shoulder, His hands were released from the basket. ⁷ You called in distress and I delivered you; I answered you from the secret place of thunder; I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah ⁸ Listen, My people, and I will warn you; Israel, if you would heed My voice! ⁹ Let there be no foreign god among you; Nor shall you bow down to an alien god. ¹⁰ I am the Lord your God, Who led you out of the land of Egypt; Open your mouth wide, and I will satisfy you.

¹¹ Yet My people did not heed My voice, And Israel did not follow Me. ¹² So I let them follow the stubbornness of their heart, To pursue their own devices.

¹³ Oh, that My people would heed Me, That Israel would follow My paths! ¹⁴ I would swiftly defeat their foes And turn My hand against their adversaries. ¹⁵ Those who despise the Lord would feign obedience, And their punishment would be everlasting. ¹⁶ But I would provide you with the finest wheat, And with honey from the rock I would satisfy you."

82

A Psalm of Asaph.

¹ God takes His stand in His own congregation; He judges in the midst of the gods.

² How long will you render unjust judgments And favour the wicked? Selah ³ Defend the weak and fatherless; Uphold the rights of the afflicted and destitute. ⁴ Deliver the weak and needy; Rescue them from the grasp of the wicked.

⁵ They neither know nor understand; They wander in darkness; All the foundations of the earth are unstable.

⁶ I declared, "You are gods, And all of you are children of the Most High. ⁷ Yet you shall die like mortals, And fall like any other ruler."

⁸ Rise up, God, and judge the earth! For You have dominion over all the nations.

83

A Song, a Psalm of Asaph.

¹ God, do not remain quiet; Do not be silent and, God, do not be still. ² For see, Your enemies are in uproar, And those who oppose You have lifted themselves up. ³ They devise cunning schemes against Your people, And plot together against Your cherished ones. ⁴ They have declared, "Come, let us destroy them as a nation, So that the name of Israel will be forgotten.”

Psalms

⁵ For they have united with a single purpose; They have formed an alliance against You: ⁶ The encampments of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites; ⁷ The people of Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek, Philistia along with the inhabitants of Tyre; ⁸ Assyria too has allied with them; They have lent support to the descendants of Lot. Selah

⁹ Deal with them as with Midian, As with Sisera and Jabin at the river Kishon, ¹⁰ Who met their end at En-dor, Becoming refuse for the earth. ¹¹ Let their nobles be as Oreb and Zeeb, And their leaders as Zebah and Zalmunna, ¹² Who said, “Let us take possession Of the fields of God.”

¹³ My God, make them like the swirling dust, Like chaff driven by the wind. ¹⁴ Like a fire that consumes the forest, And like a flame that ignites the mountains, ¹⁵ So chase them with Your tempest, And frighten them with Your storm. ¹⁶ Cover their faces with shame, So that they may seek Your name, Lord.

¹⁷ May they be eternally ashamed and dismayed, And may they be disgraced and vanish, ¹⁸ So that they will recognise that You alone, whose name is the Lord, Are the Most High over all the earth.

84

For the music director; on the Gittith. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹ How lovely are Your dwelling places, Lord of armies! ² My soul longs and even yearns for the courtyards of the Lord; My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. ³ The bird also finds a house, And the swallow a nest for herself, where she may place her young: Your altars, Lord of armies, My King and my God. ⁴ Happy are those who reside in Your house! They continually praise You. Selah

⁵ Fortunate is the person whose strength is in You, In whose heart are the paths to Zion! ⁶ As they pass through the Valley of Baca, they make it a place of springs; The early rain also covers it with blessings. ⁷ They progress from strength to strength, Each one appears before God in Zion.

⁸ Lord God of armies, hear my prayer; Attend, God of Jacob! Selah ⁹ Behold our shield, God, And regard the face of Your anointed.

¹⁰ For a day in Your courtyards is more desirable than a thousand elsewhere. I would prefer to stand at the threshold of the house of my God Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. ¹¹ For the Lord God is a sun and shield; The Lord bestows grace and honour; He withholds no good thing from those who walk with integrity.

¹² Lord of armies, Fortunate is the person who places their trust in You!

85

For the music director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹ Lord, You showed favour to Your land; You restored the fortunes of Jacob. ² You pardoned the wrongdoing of Your people; You covered all their sin. Selah ³ You withdrew all Your fury; You turned away from Your blazing wrath.

⁴ Renew us, God of our salvation, And let Your indignation toward us come to an end. ⁵ Will You remain angry with us forever? Will Your anger extend to all generations? ⁶ Will You not bring us to life again, So that Your people may find joy in You? ⁷ Reveal Your mercy to us, Lord, And grant us Your salvation.

⁸ I will listen to what God the Lord will say; For He will speak peace to His people, to His faithful ones; And may they not return to folly. ⁹ Surely His salvation is near to those who revere Him, That glory may reside in our land.

¹⁰ Mercy and truth have met together; Righteousness and peace have embraced each other. ¹¹ Truth springs up from the earth, And righteousness gazes down from heaven. ¹² Indeed, the Lord will provide what is good, And our land will yield its harvest. ¹³ Righteousness will precede Him And will prepare a path for His steps.

86

A Prayer of David.

¹ Incline Your ear, Lord, and answer me; For I am afflicted and needy. ² Guard my soul, for I am devoted to You; You are my God, deliver Your servant who trusts in You. ³ Be merciful to me, Lord, For I call upon You throughout the day. ⁴ Bring joy to the soul of Your servant, For to You, Lord, I lift up my soul.

Psalms

⁵ For You, Lord, are good, and ready to pardon, And rich in mercy to all who call upon You. ⁶ Hear, Lord, my prayer; And attend to the sound of my supplications! ⁷ In the day of my trouble I will call upon You, For You will respond to me.

⁸ There is none like You among the gods, Lord, Nor are there any deeds like Yours. ⁹ All nations You have made will come and worship before You, Lord, And they will honour Your name. ¹⁰ For You are great, and You perform marvellous deeds; You alone are God.

¹¹ Instruct me in Your way, Lord; I will walk in Your truth; Unite my heart to revere Your name. ¹² I will give thanks to You, Lord my God, with all my heart, And I will honour Your name forever. ¹³ For Your mercy toward me is immense, And You have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

¹⁴ God, proud men have risen up against me, And a group of violent men have sought my life, And they have not considered You. ¹⁵ But You, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, Slow to anger and rich in mercy and truth. ¹⁶ Turn to me, and be merciful to me; Grant Your strength to Your servant, And save the child of Your maidservant. ¹⁷ Show me a sign of Your goodness, That those who hate me may see it and be ashamed, Because You, Lord, have helped me and comforted me.

87

A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song.

¹ His foundation is set in the holy mountains. ² The Lord cherishes the gates of Zion More than all the other homes of Jacob.

³ Wonderful things are declared about you, City of God. Selah ⁴ "I will mention Rahab and Babylon among those who know Me; Behold, Philistia and Tyre with Cush: 'This one was born there.'" ⁵ Yet of Zion it will be proclaimed, "This one and that one were born in her"; And the Most High Himself will uphold her. ⁶ The Lord will take account when He records the peoples: "This one was born there."

Selah ⁷ Then those who sing, along with those who play the flutes, will proclaim, "All my sources of joy are in you."

88

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

For the music director; according to Mahalath Leannoth. A Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.

¹ Lord, God of my salvation, I have cried out by day and in the night before You. ² May my prayer reach You; Please listen to my plea!

³ For my soul is overwhelmed with troubles, And my life draws near to Sheol. ⁴ I am regarded as one who descends to the pit; I have become like a person without strength, ⁵ Abandoned among the dead, Like the slain who lie in the grave, Whom You remember no more, And they are cut off from Your hand.

⁶ You have placed me in the lowest pit, In dark places, in the depths. ⁷ Your wrath has weighed heavily upon me, And You have overwhelmed me with all Your waves. Selah ⁸ You have distanced my acquaintances from me; You have made me an object of loathing to them; I am shut in and cannot go out. ⁹ My eye has wasted away because of misery;

I have called upon You every day, Lord; I have spread out my hands to You. ¹⁰ Will You work wonders for the dead? Or will the departed spirits rise and praise You? Selah ¹¹ Will Your mercy be proclaimed in the grave, Your faithfulness in Abaddon? ¹² Will Your wonders be revealed in the darkness? And Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

¹³ But I, Lord, have cried out to You for help, And in the morning my prayer reaches You. ¹⁴ Lord, why do You turn away from my soul? Why do You hide Your face from me?

¹⁵ I have been afflicted and near death from my youth; I endure Your terrors; I grow weary. ¹⁶ Your fierce anger has swept over me; Your terrors have undone me. ¹⁷ They have surrounded me like water all day long; They have encircled me completely. ¹⁸ You have taken lover and friend far from me; My acquaintances dwell in darkness.

¹ I will sing of the mercy of the Lord forever; With my mouth I will make Your faithfulness known through all generations. ² For I have said, "Mercy will be built up forever; In the heavens You will establish Your faithfulness." ³ "I have made a promise with My chosen one; I have pledged to My servant David, ⁴ I will secure your descendants for all time, And uphold your throne through every generation." Selah

⁵ The heavens will celebrate Your wonders, Lord, Your faithfulness also among the assembly of the holy ones. ⁶ For who in the skies can be compared to the Lord? Who among the mighty is like the Lord, ⁷ A God greatly revered in the council of the holy ones, And awe-inspiring above all who surround Him? ⁸ Lord God of hosts, who is like You, mighty Lord? Your faithfulness encircles You.

⁹ You govern the surging of the sea; When its waves rise, You still them. ¹⁰ You have crushed Rahab like one who is slain; You scattered Your foes with Your powerful arm. ¹¹ The heavens belong to You, and the earth is Yours as well; You have established the world and all it contains. ¹² You have fashioned the north and the south; Tabor and Hermon sing for joy in Your name. ¹³ You possess a strong arm; Your hand is mighty, Your right hand is lifted high.

¹⁴ Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne; Mercy and truth proceed before You. ¹⁵ Blessed are the people who hear the joyful call! Lord, they walk in the light of Your presence. ¹⁶ In Your name they rejoice all day long, And by Your righteousness they are uplifted. ¹⁷ For You are the splendour of their strength, And by Your favour our horn is raised. ¹⁸ For our protector is the Lord, And our sovereign is the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁹ Once You spoke in a vision to Your faithful ones, And said, "I have granted help to a mighty one; I have elevated one chosen from among the people.

²⁰ I have discovered My servant David; With My sacred oil I have anointed him, ²¹ With whom My hand will be firm; My arm also will empower him. ²² The enemy will not outwit him, Nor will the wicked oppress him. ²³ But I will crush his foes before him,

And strike down those who detest him. ²⁴ My faithfulness and My mercy will accompany him, And in My name his horn will be raised. ²⁵ I will extend his hand over the sea, And his right hand over the rivers. ²⁶ He will call to Me, 'You are my Father, My God, and the foundation of my salvation.' ²⁷ I will also appoint him as My firstborn, The highest of the kings of the earth. ²⁸ I will maintain My mercy for him forever, And My covenant shall be steadfast with him. ²⁹ Thus I will secure his descendants for all time, And his throne as enduring as the days of heaven.

³⁰ If his sons forsake My Law And do not follow My judgments, ³¹ If they break My statutes And do not observe My commandments, ³² Then I will discipline their wrongdoing with the rod, And their guilt with afflictions. ³³ But I will not withdraw My mercy from him, Nor be unfaithful to My promise. ³⁴ I will not violate My covenant, Nor alter what has gone out of My lips. ³⁵ Once I have sworn by My holiness; I will not deceive David. ³⁶ His descendants shall last forever, And his throne as constant as the sun before Me. ³⁷ It shall be established forever like the moon, And a faithful witness in the sky." Selah

³⁸ But You have rejected and spurned, You have been full of wrath against Your anointed. ³⁹ You have renounced the covenant of Your servant; You have defiled his crown in the dust. ⁴⁰ You have breached all his walls; You have reduced his strongholds to ruin. ⁴¹ All who pass by plunder him; He has become a disgrace to his neighbours. ⁴² You have elevated the right hand of his adversaries; You have made all his enemies rejoice. ⁴³ You also turn back the edge of his sword, And have not supported him in battle. ⁴⁴ You have brought an end to his splendour And cast his throne to the ground. ⁴⁵ You have shortened the days of his youth; You have enveloped him in dishonour. Selah

⁴⁶ How long, Lord? Will You hide Yourself perpetually? Will Your wrath blaze like fire? ⁴⁷ Remember how fleeting my life is; For what futility You have created all the sons of mankind! ⁴⁸ What man can live and not see death? Can he save his soul from the power of Sheol? Selah ⁴⁹ Where are Your former acts of mercy, Lord, Which You pledged to David in Your faithfulness? ⁵⁰

Psalms

Remember, Lord, the taunt against Your servants;
How I bear in my heart the taunts of all the many peoples,⁵¹ With which Your enemies have taunted, Lord, With which they have mocked the footsteps of Your anointed.

⁵² May the Lord be glorified eternally! Amen and Amen.

90

A Prayer of Moses, the man of God.

¹ Lord, You have been our dwelling place in all generations. ² Before the mountains came into being Or You formed the earth and the world, Even from eternity to eternity, You are God.

³ You return mortals to dust And declare, "Return, you children of humanity." ⁴ For a thousand years in Your sight Are like a day that has just gone by,
Or like a watch in the night. ⁵ You carry them away like a flood, they fall asleep; In the morning they are like grass that renews itself. ⁶ In the morning it flourishes and grows anew; By evening it fades and withers away.

⁷ For we have been consumed by Your anger, And we have been dismayed by Your wrath. ⁸ You have placed our wrongdoings before You, Our hidden sins in the light of Your presence. ⁹ For all our days have passed away under Your fury; We have ended our years with a sigh. ¹⁰ As for the days of our life, they contain seventy years, Or if due to strength, eighty years, Yet their pride is only trouble and sorrow; For it quickly passes, and we disappear. ¹¹ Who comprehends the power of Your anger And Your wrath, according to the reverence that is due You? ¹² So guide us to count our days rightly, That we may develop a heart of wisdom.

¹³ Return, Lord; how long will it be? And have compassion on Your servants. ¹⁴ Satisfy us in the morning with Your mercy, That we may sing for joy and be glad all our days. ¹⁵ Make us joyful according to the days You have afflicted us, And the years we have experienced adversity. ¹⁶ Let Your deeds be shown to Your servants And Your splendour to their children.

¹⁷ May the favour of the Lord our God rest upon us;
And establish for us the work of our hands— Yes, establish the work of our hands.

91 Whoever resides in the refuge of the Most High Will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

² I will declare of the Lord, "You are my refuge and my fortress, My God, in whom I place my trust!"

³ For He is the one who delivers you from the snare of the trapper And from the perilous plague. ⁴ He will shield you with His feathers, And beneath His wings you may find refuge; His faithfulness is a protective shield and barrier. ⁵ You need not fear the terror of the night, Nor the arrow that flies by day; ⁶ Nor the pestilence that prowls in darkness,
Or the destruction that lays waste at noon. ⁷
Though a thousand may fall at your side And ten thousand at your right hand, It shall not come near you. ⁸ You will merely observe with your eyes And witness the recompense of the wicked.

⁹ Since you have made the Lord your refuge, The Most High your dwelling place, ¹⁰ No harm will overtake you, Nor will any plague come near your dwelling. ¹¹ For He will give His angels charge over you, To watch over you in all your ways. ¹² They will bear you up in their hands, So that you will not dash your foot against a stone. ¹³ You will tread upon the lion and the cobra, You will trample the fierce lion and the serpent.

¹⁴ "Because he holds fast to Me in love, I will deliver him; I will set him on high, because he acknowledges My name. ¹⁵ He will call upon Me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble;
I will rescue him and honour him. ¹⁶ I will bless him with a long life, And reveal to him My salvation."

92

A Psalm, a Song for the Sabbath day.

¹ It is good to give thanks to the Lord And to sing praises to Your name, Most High; ² To declare Your mercy in the morning And Your faithfulness by night, ³ With harmonious sounds of the lute and harp, With melodious music on the lyre.

⁴ For You, Lord, have filled me with joy through Your deeds, I will sing with joy over the works of Your hands. ⁵ How magnificent are Your works, Lord! Your thoughts are profoundly deep. ⁶ An unwise person lacks knowledge, Nor does a senseless person comprehend this: ⁷ When the wicked sprouted up like grass And all who did injustice flourished. It was only that they might be destroyed eternally.

Psalms

⁸ But You, Lord, are forever on high.

⁹ For indeed, Your enemies, Lord, For indeed, Your enemies will perish; All who do injustice will be scattered. ¹⁰ But You have lifted my horn like that of the wild ox; I have been anointed with fresh oil.

¹¹ And my eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies, My ears hear of the evildoers who rise up against me.

¹² The righteous will thrive like the palm tree, They will grow like a cedar in Lebanon. ¹³ Rooted in the house of the Lord, They will flourish in the courts of our God. ¹⁴ They will still bear fruit in their later years; They will be full of vitality and very green, ¹⁵ To declare that the Lord is upright; He is my rock, and there is no malice in Him.

93 The Lord reigns, adorned in majesty; The Lord has wrapped Himself in strength. Truly, the world is firmly established; it shall not be moved. ² Your throne has been established from ancient times; You are everlasting.

³ The floods have risen, Lord, The floods have raised their voice, The floods lift up their crashing waves. ⁴ Beyond the sounds of many waters, Beyond the mighty breakers of the sea, The Lord on high is powerful.

⁵ Your decrees are thoroughly affirmed; Holiness adorns Your house, Lord, for all time.

94 Lord, God who brings justice, God who brings justice, reveal Yourself! ² Arise, Judge of the earth, Render justice to the proud. ³ How long, Lord, shall the wicked— How long shall the wicked prevail?

⁴ They pour out words, they speak with arrogance; All who do wrong boast. ⁵ They oppress Your people, Lord, And bring harm to Your inheritance. ⁶ They take the lives of the widow and the stranger, And slay the orphans. ⁷ They have said, "The Lord does not observe, Nor does the God of Jacob notice."

⁸ Pay attention, you senseless ones among the people; And when will you understand, foolish ones? ⁹ He who created the ear, does He not hear?

He who shaped the eye, does He not see? ¹⁰ He who instructs the nations, will He not correct, He who imparts knowledge to mankind? ¹¹ The Lord knows the thoughts of mankind, That they are but a fleeting breath.

¹² Blessed is the one whom You correct, Lord, And whom You instruct from Your Law, ¹³ So that You may provide him relief from the days of trouble, Until a pit is prepared for the wicked. ¹⁴ For the Lord will not desert His people, Nor will He abandon His inheritance. ¹⁵ For justice will once more be fair, And all the upright in heart will pursue it.

¹⁶ Who will rise up for me against evildoers? Who will stand with me against those who do wrong? ¹⁷ If the Lord had not been my support, My soul would soon have dwelt in silence. ¹⁸ If I should say, "My foot has slipped," Your mercy, Lord, will sustain me. ¹⁹ When my anxious thoughts increase within me, Your comfort brings joy to my soul.

²⁰ Can a throne of destruction be associated with You, One which plans mischief by decree? ²¹ They gather against the life of the righteous And condemn the innocent to death. ²² But the Lord has been my refuge, And my God the rock of my protection. ²³ He has returned their wrongdoing upon them, And He will bring them to ruin in their wickedness; The Lord our God will bring them to ruin.

95 Come, let us sing with joy to the Lord, Let us shout with gladness to the rock of our salvation. ² Let us approach His presence with a song of gratitude, Let us joyfully praise Him with music.

³ For the Lord is indeed a great God And a mighty King above all gods, ⁴ In His hand are the depths of the earth, The peaks of the mountains belong to Him as well. ⁵ The sea is His, for He created it, And His hands shaped the dry land.

⁶ Come, let us worship and bow down, Let us kneel before the Lord, our Creator. ⁷ For He is our God, And we are His people, the flock He tends.

Today, if you hear His voice, ⁸ Do not harden your hearts as at Meribah, Like on the day at Massah in the wilderness, ⁹ When your ancestors tested Me, They tried Me, though they had seen My deeds. ¹⁰

Psalms

For forty years I was grieved with that generation, And said they are a people who go astray in their heart, And they have not understood My ways. ¹¹ Therefore I declared in My wrath, They shall certainly not enter My rest.

96 Sing a fresh song to the Lord; Sing to the Lord, everyone on earth. ² Sing to the Lord, bless His name; Announce the good news of His salvation every day. ³ Proclaim His glory among the nations, His wonderful deeds among all the peoples.

*⁴ For the Lord is great and worthy of much praise;
He is to be revered above all gods. ⁵ For all the gods of the peoples are mere idols, But the Lord created the heavens. ⁶ Splendour and majesty are in His presence, Strength and beauty are found in His sanctuary.*

⁷ Attribute to the Lord, you families of nations, Attribute to the Lord glory and strength. ⁸ Attribute to the Lord the glory due His name; Bring an offering and enter His courtyards. ⁹ Worship the Lord in holy attire; Tremble before Him, everyone on earth. ¹⁰ Declare among the nations, "The Lord reigns; Indeed, the world is firmly established, it shall not be shaken; He will judge the peoples with fairness."

¹¹ Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; Let the sea resound, and all that is in it; ¹² Let the field be jubilant, and everything in it; Then all the trees of the forest will sing with joy ¹³ In the presence of the Lord, for He is coming, For He is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, And the peoples with His faithfulness.

97 *The Lord reigns, let the earth be glad; Let the many islands celebrate. ² Clouds and deep darkness surround Him; Righteousness and justice form the base of His throne. ³ Fire advances before Him And consumes His foes on every side. ⁴ His lightning illuminated the world; The earth saw it and shook. ⁵ The mountains dissolved like wax in the presence of the Lord, In the presence of the Lord of all the earth. ⁶ The heavens proclaim His righteousness,
And all the peoples have witnessed His glory.*

⁷ Let all those who serve carved images be put to shame, Who take pride in idols; Bow down to Him, all you gods.

*⁸ Zion heard and was glad, And the daughters of Judah have rejoiced Because of Your judgments, Lord. ⁹ For You are the Lord Most High over all the earth; You are elevated far above all gods. ¹⁰ Detest evil, you who love the Lord, Who guards the souls of His faithful ones; He delivers them from the grasp of the wicked. ¹¹ Light is scattered for the righteous, And joy for the upright in heart. ¹² Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous ones, And praise
His holy name.*

98

A Psalm.

¹ Sing a new song to the Lord, For He has done marvellous things, His right hand and His holy arm have gained the victory for Him. ² The Lord has made His salvation known; He has shown His righteousness to all the nations. ³ He has remembered His mercy and His faithfulness to the house of Israel; All the ends of the earth have witnessed the salvation of our God.

⁴ Shout joyfully to the Lord, all the earth; Be glad and sing for joy and offer praises. ⁵ Sing praises to the Lord with the lyre, With the lyre and the sound of a melody. ⁶ With trumpets and the sound of the horn Rejoice before the King, the Lord.

*⁷ Let the sea roar and all it holds, The world, and those who inhabit it. ⁸ Let the rivers applaud with joy, Let the mountains join in joyful song ⁹ In the presence of the Lord, for He is coming to judge the earth; He will judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples with fairness.*

99 The Lord reigns, let the peoples tremble; He sits enthroned above the cherubim, let the earth shake. ² The Lord is great in Zion, And He is lifted high above all the peoples. ³ Let them praise Your great and awe-inspiring name; Holy is He.

⁴ The strength of the King loves justice; You have established fairness; You have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob. ⁵ Lift up the Lord our God And worship at His footstool; Holy is He.

Psalms

⁶ Among His priests were Moses and Aaron, And Samuel was among those who invoked His name; They called upon the Lord, and He responded to them. ⁷ He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud; They kept His testimonies And the statute that He provided them.

⁸ Lord our God, You responded to them; You were a forgiving God to them, Yet an avenger of their misdeeds. ⁹ Lift up the Lord our God And worship at His holy hill, For the Lord our God is holy.

100

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

¹ Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth. ² Serve the Lord with gladness; Approach Him with joyful singing. ³ Recognise that the Lord is indeed God; He is our Creator, and we did not create ourselves; We belong to Him, the flock under His care. ⁴ Enter His gates with gratitude, And His courts with praise. Offer thanks to Him, honour His name. ⁵ For the Lord is good; His kindness endures forever, And His faithfulness continues through all generations.

101

A Psalm of David.

¹ I will sing of mercy and justice; To You, Lord, I will sing praises. ² I will strive to follow the path of integrity. When will You visit me?

I will walk within the halls of my house with a sincere heart. ³ I will place nothing worthless before my eyes;

I despise the deeds of those who stray; It shall not cling to me. ⁴ A perverse heart shall depart from me; I will not engage in evil.

⁵ Whoever secretly slanders his neighbour, I will put an end to him; The one who has a haughty look and an arrogant heart, I will not endure.

⁶ My eyes will be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me; One who walks in a blameless way is the one who will serve me.

⁷ One who practices deceit shall not remain within my house; One who speaks lies shall not stand firm before me.

⁸ Every morning I will remove all the wicked of the land, So as to rid the city of the Lord of all those who commit injustice.

102

A Prayer of the afflicted when he is weak and pours out his complaint before the Lord.

¹ Hear my prayer, Lord! And let my cry for help come to You. ² Do not hide Your face from me on the day of my distress; Incline Your ear to me; On the day I call, answer me quickly.

³ For my days have vanished like smoke, And my bones feel scorched as in a hearth. ⁴ My heart is stricken and withered like grass, Indeed, I forget to eat my bread. ⁵ Due to my intense groaning, My bones cling to my flesh. ⁶ I am like a pelican in the wilderness; I have become like an owl among the ruins. ⁷ I lie awake, I am like a solitary bird on a housetop. ⁸ My enemies have taunted me all day long; Those who ridicule me use my name as a curse. ⁹ For I have eaten ashes as if they were bread, And mingled my drink with tears ¹⁰ Because of Your indignation and Your wrath; For You have picked me up and thrown me away. ¹¹ My days are like an extended shadow, And I wither away like grass.

¹² But You, Lord, endure forever, And Your name is remembered through all generations. ¹³ You will arise and have mercy on Zion; For it is time to show her favour, For the appointed time has come.

¹⁴ Surely Your servants cherish her stones, And have compassion on her dust. ¹⁵ So the nations will revere the name of the Lord, And all the kings of the earth will see Your glory. ¹⁶ For the Lord has rebuilt Zion; He has revealed His glory. ¹⁷ He has heeded the prayer of the destitute, And has not disregarded their plea.

¹⁸ This will be recorded for future generations, So that a people yet to be created may praise the Lord: ¹⁹ For He gazed down from His holy height; From heaven the Lord observed the earth, ²⁰ To listen to the groans of the prisoners, To free those condemned to death, ²¹ So that people may proclaim the name of the Lord in Zion, And His praise in Jerusalem, ²² When the peoples are gathered together, And the kingdoms, to worship the Lord.

Psalms

²³ He has weakened my strength along the way; He has shortened my days. ²⁴ I say, "My God, do not take me away in the midst of my days, Your years extend through all generations. ²⁵ In times past, You established the earth's foundation, And the heavens are crafted by Your hands. ²⁶ They will perish, but You remain; All of them will wear out like a garment; Like a ruined cloth You will change them, and they will be gone. ²⁷ But You remain unchanged, And Your years will never end. ²⁸ The children of Your servants will dwell securely, And their descendants will be established before You."

103

Of David.

¹ Bless the Lord, my soul, And all that is within me, bless His holy name. ² Praise the Lord, my soul, And remember all His benefits; ³ Who forgives all your iniquities, Who heals all your ailments; ⁴ Who redeems your life from the pit, Who crowns you with favour and compassion; ⁵ Who fills your life with good things, So that your youth is renewed like the eagle.

⁶ The Lord executes righteous acts And justice for all who are oppressed.

⁷ He revealed His ways to Moses, His deeds to the children of Israel. ⁸ The Lord is compassionate and gracious, Slow to anger and rich in mercy. ⁹ He will not always accuse us, Nor will He harbour His anger forever. ¹⁰ He has not treated us as our sins deserve, Nor repaid us according to our iniquities.

¹¹ For as high as the heavens are above the earth, So great is His mercy towards those who fear Him.

¹² As far as the east is from the west, So far has He taken away our transgressions from us.

¹³ Just as a father shows compassion to his children, So the Lord shows compassion to those who fear Him. ¹⁴ For He understands our nature; He remembers that we are mere dust. ¹⁵ As for man, his days are like grass; Like a flower of the field, so he blooms. ¹⁶ When the wind has passed over it, it is no more, And its place remembers it no longer.

¹⁷ But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting Upon those who fear Him, And His righteousness to the children's children, ¹⁸ To those who uphold His covenant And remember His commandments to follow them.

¹⁹ The Lord has set His throne in the heavens, And His kingdom reigns over all.

²⁰ Praise the Lord, you His angels, Mighty in strength, who carry out His word, Obeying the voice of His word! ²¹ Praise the Lord, all you His hosts, You who serve Him, doing His will. ²² Praise the Lord, all you works of His, In all places of His dominion; Praise the Lord, my soul!

104

Bless the Lord, my soul! Lord my God, You are very great; You are clothed with splendour and majesty, ² Wrapping Yourself in light as with a garment, Spreading out the heavens like a tent curtain. ³ He constructs the beams of His upper chambers on the waters; He uses the clouds as His chariot; He moves upon the wings of the wind; ⁴ He appoints the winds as His messengers, Flaming fire as His servants.

⁵ He founded the earth upon its bases, So that it will not be shaken for all time. ⁶ You enveloped it with the deep as with a covering; The waters stood above the mountains. ⁷ At Your rebuke they retreated, At the sound of Your thunder they rushed away. ⁸ The mountains ascended, the valleys descended To the place You designated for them. ⁹ You set a limit so that they will not cross, So that they will not return to flood the earth.

¹⁰ He releases springs into the valleys; They travel among the mountains; ¹¹ They provide drink to every beast of the field; The wild donkeys satisfy their thirst. ¹² Beside them the birds of the sky reside; They sing among the branches. ¹³ He irrigates the mountains from His upper chambers; The earth is fulfilled with the yield of His works. ¹⁴ He causes the grass to sprout for the cattle, And plants for the labour of mankind, So that they may bring forth food from the earth, ¹⁵ And wine, which gladdens a human heart, So that one's face shines with oil, And food, which strengthens a human heart. ¹⁶ The trees of the Lord are well-watered, The cedars of Lebanon which He established, ¹⁷ Where the birds make their nests, And the stork, whose dwelling is the fir trees. ¹⁸ The high mountains are for the wild goats; The cliffs serve as a refuge for the rock hyrax.

Psalms

¹⁹ He created the moon to mark the seasons; The sun knows its setting place. ²⁰ You bring about darkness and it becomes night, In which all the creatures of the forest move about. ²¹ The young lions roar for their prey, And seek their sustenance from God. ²² When the sun rises, they retreat, And lie down in their dens. ²³ A person goes out to his work And to his labour until evening.

²⁴ Lord, how numerous are Your works! In wisdom You have crafted them all; The earth is filled with Your creations. ²⁵ This is the sea, vast and expansive, In which are countless creatures, Beings both small and great. ²⁶ The ships navigate there, And Leviathan, which You have fashioned to frolic in it.

²⁷ They all depend on You They wait for their food to be given in time. ²⁸ You offer to them, they gather it; You open Your hand, they are filled with good things. ²⁹ You hide Your face, they are dismayed; You withdraw their breath, they expire And return to their dust. ³⁰ You send forth Your Spirit, they are brought into being; And You renew the surface of the ground.

³¹ May the glory of the Lord last forever; May the Lord take delight in His creations; ³² He observes the earth, and it quakes; He touches the mountains, and they emit smoke.

³³ I will sing to the Lord throughout my life; I will sing praise to my God while I exist. ³⁴ May my meditation be pleasing to Him; As for me, I shall find joy in the Lord. ³⁵ May sinners vanish from the earth And may the wicked be no more. Bless the Lord, my soul. Praise the Lord!

105

Offer gratitude to the Lord, call upon His name; Proclaim His deeds among the peoples. ² Sing to Him, offer praises to Him; Declare all His wonders. ³ Glory in His holy name; May the heart of those who seek the Lord be joyful. ⁴ Seek the Lord and His strength; Pursue His presence continually.

⁵ Recall His wonders which He has performed, His marvels, and the judgments spoken by His mouth, ⁶ You descendants of His servant Abraham, You sons of Jacob, His chosen ones! ⁷ He is the Lord our God; His judgments are throughout the earth.

⁸ He has remembered His covenant eternally, The word which He commanded to a thousand generations, ⁹ The covenant which He established with Abraham, And His promise to Isaac. ¹⁰ Then He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, To Israel as an everlasting covenant, ¹¹ Declaring, "To you I will give the land of Canaan As your allotted inheritance."

¹² When they were but a few in number, Very few, and strangers in it, ¹³ And they moved from nation to nation, From one kingdom to another people, ¹⁴ He permitted no one to oppress them, And reproved kings on their behalf, declaring, ¹⁵ "Do not touch My anointed ones, And do no harm to My prophets."

¹⁶ And He summoned a famine upon the land; He broke the entire supply of bread. ¹⁷ He sent a man ahead of them, Joseph, who was sold as a slave. ¹⁸ They afflicted his feet with shackles, He himself was put in irons; ¹⁹ Until the time his word was fulfilled, The word of the Lord tested him. ²⁰ The king called for him and set him free, The ruler of peoples released him. ²¹ He appointed him lord of his household, And ruler over all his possessions, ²² To bind his officials at will, That he might teach his elders wisdom.

²³ Israel also came into Egypt; So Jacob resided in the land of Ham. ²⁴ And He made His people very fruitful, And made them stronger than their adversaries. ²⁵ He turned their hearts to hate His people, To deal cunningly with His servants. ²⁶ He sent Moses, His chosen servant, And Aaron, whom He had selected. ²⁷ They displayed His miraculous signs among them, And wonders in the land of Ham. ²⁸ He sent darkness and made it dark; And they did not defy His commands. ²⁹ He turned their waters into blood, And caused their fish to perish.

³⁰ Their land teemed with frogs Even in the chambers of their kings. ³¹ He spoke, and swarms of flies came, And gnats throughout their territory.

³² He gave them hail instead of rain, And flaming fire in their land. ³³ He also struck down their vines and their fig trees, And shattered the trees of their territory. ³⁴ He spoke, and locusts came, And countless grasshoppers beyond number, ³⁵ And they devoured all the vegetation in their land, And consumed the fruit of their ground. ³⁶ He also struck down all the firstborn in their land, The first fruits of all their strength. ³⁷ Then He led the Israelites out with silver and gold, And among His tribes there was not one who faltered. ³⁸ Egypt rejoiced when they departed, For fear of them had fallen upon the Egyptians.

Psalms

³⁹ He spread a cloud as a covering, And fire to illuminate the night. ⁴⁰ They asked, and He brought quail, And provided them with the bread of heaven. ⁴¹ He opened the rock and water poured forth; It flowed like a river through the desert.

⁴² For He remembered His sacred pledge To His servant Abraham; ⁴³ And He brought out His people with joy, His chosen ones with a joyful shout. ⁴⁴ And He gave them the lands of the nations, And they inherited the labour of the peoples, ⁴⁵ So that they might keep His statutes And comply with His laws. Praise the Lord!

106

Praise the Lord!

Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good;
For His mercy is everlasting.

² Who can speak of the mighty deeds of the Lord, Or proclaim all His praise? ³ Blessed are those who keep justice, Who practise righteousness at all times!

⁴ Remember me, Lord, in Your favour toward Your people; Visit me with Your salvation, ⁵ That I may witness the prosperity of Your chosen ones, That I may share in the joy of Your nation, That I may take pride in Your inheritance.

⁶ We have sinned as our ancestors did, We have strayed, we have acted wickedly. ⁷ Our ancestors in Egypt did not grasp Your wonders; They failed to remember Your abundant kindnesses, But rebelled by the sea, at the Red Sea. ⁸ Yet He saved them for the sake of His name, To make His power known. ⁹ He rebuked the Red Sea and it dried up, And He led them through the mighty waters, as through the wilderness. ¹⁰ Thus He saved them from the hand of those who hated them, And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. ¹¹ The waters covered their adversaries; Not one of them remained. ¹² Then they trusted His words; They sang His praise.

¹³ They quickly forgot His works; They did not wait for His guidance, ¹⁴ But became greedily desirous in the wilderness, And tested God in the desert. ¹⁵ So He granted their request, But sent a wasting disease among them.

¹⁶ When they envied Moses in the camp, And Aaron, the holy one of the Lord, ¹⁷ The ground opened and took in Dathan, And enveloped the assembly of Abiram. ¹⁸ And a fire blazed up in their company; The flame consumed the evildoers. ¹⁹ They made a calf at Horeb, And worshipped a cast metal image. ²⁰ Thus they exchanged their glory For the likeness of an ox that eats grass. ²¹ They forgot God their Saviour, Who had accomplished great things in Egypt, ²² Miracles in the land of Ham, And awe-inspiring deeds by the Red Sea. ²³ Therefore He declared He would destroy them, Had not Moses, His chosen one, stood in the breach before Him, To turn away His wrath from destroying them.

²⁴ Then they rejected the pleasant land; They did not believe His promise, ²⁵ But grumbled in their tents; They did not heed the voice of the Lord. ²⁶ Therefore He swore to them That He would let them fall in the wilderness, ²⁷ And that He would disperse their descendants among the nations, And scatter them in the lands.

²⁸ They also followed Baal of Peor, And ate sacrifices offered to the dead. ²⁹ Thus they provoked Him to anger with their deeds, And a plague broke out among them. ³⁰ Then Phinehas stood up and intervened, And the plague was halted. ³¹ And it was credited to him as righteousness, For all generations to come. ³² They also provoked Him to wrath at the waters of Meribah, So that it went badly for Moses because of them; ³³ Because they defied His Spirit, He spoke rashly with his lips.

³⁴ They did not eliminate the peoples, As the Lord had commanded them, ³⁵ But they mixed with the nations And adopted their customs, ³⁶ And worshipped their idols, Which became a trap for them. ³⁷ For they even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons, ³⁸ And shed innocent blood, The blood of their sons and daughters, Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; And the land was defiled with the blood. ³⁹

Psalms

Thus they became unclean in their practices, And were unfaithful in their deeds.

⁴⁰ Therefore the anger of the Lord was kindled against His people, And He loathed His inheritance.

⁴¹ So He delivered them into the hands of the nations, And those who hated them ruled over them. ⁴² Their enemies also oppressed them, And they were subdued under their power. ⁴³ Many times He would rescue them; Yet they were rebellious in their intentions, And they sank down into their guilt. ⁴⁴ Yet He looked upon their distress When He heard their cry; ⁴⁵ And He remembered His covenant for their sake, And relented according to the greatness of His mercy. ⁴⁶ He also made them objects of compassion In the sight of all their captors.

⁴⁷ Deliver us, Lord our God, And gather us from the nations, To give thanks to Your holy name And glory in Your praise.

⁴⁸ Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, From everlasting to everlasting. And all the people shall say, "Amen." Praise the Lord!

107 Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; For His love is everlasting.

² Let those redeemed by the Lord declare it, Those He has rescued from the hand of the adversary. ³ And brought together from distant lands, From the east and from the west, From the north and from the south.

⁴ They wandered in the wilderness, a desert region; They could not find a path to a city where they might dwell. ⁵ They were hungry and thirsty; Their souls grew faint within them. ⁶ Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble; He delivered them from their distresses. ⁷ He also led them by a straight way, To go to an inhabited city. ⁸ Let them give thanks to the Lord for His mercy, And for His marvellous deeds to the children of mankind! ⁹ For He has satisfied the thirsty soul, And He has filled the hungry soul with good things.

¹⁰ There were those who dwelt in darkness and in the shadow of death, Prisoners in suffering and chains, ¹¹ Because they had rebelled against the words of God And rejected the counsel of the Most High. ¹² Therefore He humbled their heart with labour; They stumbled and there was no one to help. ¹³ Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble; He rescued them from their distresses. ¹⁴ He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death And broke their chains apart. ¹⁵ Let them give thanks to the Lord for His mercy, And for His marvellous deeds to the children of mankind! ¹⁶ For He has shattered gates of bronze, And cut through bars of iron.

¹⁷ Fools, because of their rebellious ways, And because of their wrongdoings, were afflicted. ¹⁸ Their souls loathed all kinds of food, And they drew near to the gates of death. ¹⁹ Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble; He rescued them from their distresses. ²⁰ He sent His word and healed them, And saved them from their ruin. ²¹ Let them give thanks to the Lord for His mercy, And for His marvellous deeds to the children of mankind! ²² Let them also bring offerings of gratitude, And proclaim His works with joyful singing.

²³ Those who go down to the sea in ships, Who conduct business on great waters, ²⁴ They have witnessed the works of the Lord, And His wonders in the deep. ²⁵ For He spoke and stirred up a stormy wind, Which lifted the waves of the sea. ²⁶ They rose up to the heavens, they went down to the depths; Their courage melted away in their distress. ²⁷ They reeled and staggered like someone overcome with drink, And were at their wits' end. ²⁸ Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble, And He delivered them from their distresses. ²⁹ He calmed the storm to a whisper, So that the waves of the sea were hushed. ³⁰ Then they were glad, because they were quiet, So He guided them to their desired harbour. ³¹ Let them give thanks to the Lord for His mercy, And for His marvellous deeds to the children of mankind! ³² Let them also exalt Him in the congregation of the people, And praise Him at the assembly of the elders.

³³ He turns rivers into a wilderness, And springs of water into parched ground; ³⁴ A fruitful land into a barren wasteland, Because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it. ³⁵ He transforms a wilderness into a pool of water, And a dry land into springs of water; ³⁶ And He has the hungry live there, So that they may establish a city to dwell in, ³⁷ And cultivate fields and plant vineyards, And gather a fruitful harvest. ³⁸ He also blesses them and they multiply greatly, And He does not let their cattle diminish.

Psalms

³⁹ When they are reduced and brought low Due to oppression, misery, and sorrow, ⁴⁰ He pours contempt upon noblemen And makes them wander in a trackless wasteland. ⁴¹ But He sets the needy securely on high, away from affliction, And makes their families like a flock. ⁴² The upright see it and are glad; But all injustice is silenced.

⁴³ Who is wise? Let him pay attention to these things, And consider the mercy of the Lord.

108

A Song. A Psalm of David.

¹ My heart is steadfast, God; I will sing, I will sing praises also with my soul. ² Awake, harp and lyre; I will herald the dawn! ³ I will offer my thanks to You, Lord, among the peoples, And I will sing praises to You among the nations. ⁴ For Your mercy is vast above the heavens, And Your truth extends to the skies. ⁵ Be exalted high above the heavens, God, And may Your glory be over all the earth.

⁶ So that Your beloved may be delivered, Save with Your right hand, and respond to me! ⁷ God has spoken in His holiness: "I will triumph, I will divide Shechem, and measure out the Valley of Succoth. ⁸ Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine; Ephraim also is the helmet of My head; Judah is My sceptre. ⁹ Moab is My washbowl; I will cast My sandal over Edom; I will proclaim victory over Philistia."

¹⁰ Who will guide me into the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom? ¹¹ Have You Yourself not rejected us, God? And will You not go out with our armies? ¹² Give us help against the adversary, For rescue by man is futile. ¹³ Through God we will achieve great deeds, And it is He who will subdue our foes.

109

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ God of my praise, do not be silent! ² For they have spoken with malice and deceit against me; They have used false words against me. ³ They have surrounded me with words of hatred, And fought against me without cause. ⁴ In return for my love they accuse me; But I continue in prayer. ⁵ Thus they have repaid me evil for good, And animosity for my love.

⁶ Let an unrighteous person be appointed over him, And may a challenger stand at his right hand. ⁷ When he is judged, may he be found guilty, And may his prayer be considered as sin. ⁸ May his days be few; May another assume his position. ⁹ May his children be left without a father, And his wife without a husband. ¹⁰ May his children wander and seek help; And may they search for sustenance far from their devastated homes. ¹¹ May the creditor seize all that he has, And may strangers take the fruits of his labour. ¹² May there be no one to show him kindness, Nor any to show favour to his orphaned children. ¹³ May his descendants be cut off; May their name be erased in the next generation. ¹⁴ May the wrongdoing of his ancestors be remembered before the Lord, And do not let the sin of his mother be erased. ¹⁵ May they be before the Lord continually, So that He may remove their memory from the earth;

¹⁶ Because he failed to show compassion, But pursued the afflicted and needy, And the downhearted, to bring about their demise. ¹⁷ He also embraced cursing, so it befell him; And he did not take pleasure in blessing, so it was distant from him. ¹⁸ He also wore cursing like a garment, And it entered his body like water, And like oil into his bones. ¹⁹ May it be to him like a garment he wraps around himself, And like a belt he constantly wears. ²⁰ May this be the recompense of my accusers from the Lord, And of those who speak harm against my soul.

²¹ But You, O God, the Lord, act kindly towards me for the sake of Your name; Because Your mercy is good, deliver me; ²² For I am afflicted and in need, And my heart is deeply wounded. ²³ I am fading away like a lengthening shadow; I am tossed aside like the locust. ²⁴ My knees are weakened from fasting, And my body has become lean, without nourishment. ²⁵ I have also become a reproach to them; When they see me, they shake their heads.

²⁶ Assist me, Lord my God; Save me according to Your mercy. ²⁷ And may they recognise that this is Your doing: You, Lord, have accomplished it. ²⁸ They will curse, but You will bless; When they arise, they will be put to shame, But Your servant will rejoice. ²⁹ May my accusers be clothed with disgrace, And may they cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.

Psalms

³⁰ With my mouth I will give abundant thanks to the Lord, And I will praise Him among many. ³¹ For He is at the side of the needy, To deliver him from those who pass judgment on his soul.

110

A Psalm of David.

¹ The Lord says to my Lord: "Sit at My right hand Until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet."

² The Lord will stretch out Your strong sceptre from Zion, saying, "Rule in the midst of Your enemies." ³ Your people will volunteer freely on the day of Your power; In holy splendour, from the womb of the dawn, Your youth are to You as the dew.

⁴ The Lord has made an unchangeable oath, "You are a priest forever In the manner of Melchizedek."

⁵ The Lord stands at Your right hand; He will crush kings on the day of His anger. ⁶ He will execute judgement among the nations, Filling them with the fallen, He will crush the leaders over a vast land. ⁷ He will refresh Himself from the brook by the path; Therefore He will hold His head high.

111

Honour the Lord! I will express my gratitude to the Lord wholeheartedly, Amongst the upright and within the gathering.

² The works of the Lord are magnificent; They are explored by all who take pleasure in them. ³ Splendour and majesty are His work, And His righteousness endures forever. ⁴ He has ensured His wonders are remembered; The Lord is gracious and compassionate. ⁵ He provides sustenance to those who revere Him; He will remember His covenant forever.

⁶ He has revealed to His people the might of His works, By granting them the inheritance of the nations. ⁷ The deeds of His hands are truth and justice; All His precepts are reliable. ⁸ They are steadfast for all time; They are carried out with truth and integrity. ⁹ He has brought redemption to

His people; He has established His covenant forever; Holy and awe-inspiring is His name.

¹⁰ Reverence for the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; All those who adhere to His commandments possess good understanding; His praise endures forever.

112

Give praise to the Lord! Fortunate is the one who reveres the Lord, Who finds great joy in His commandments.

² His descendants will be influential on the earth; The lineage of the upright will be favoured. ³ Wealth and riches reside in his home, And his righteousness lasts forever. ⁴ Light dawns in the darkness for the upright; He is gracious, compassionate, and just. ⁵ It goes well for a person who is generous and lends; He will uphold his cause in judgment.

⁶ For he will remain unshaken; The righteous will be remembered perpetually. ⁷ He will not dread bad news; His heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord. ⁸ His heart is resolute, he will not fear, But will look upon his enemies with resolve. ⁹ He has given freely to the poor, His righteousness endures forever; His horn will be exalted in honour.

¹⁰ The wicked will see it and be troubled, He will gnash his teeth and dissolve away; The longing of the wicked will come to nothing.

113

Praise the Lord!

Praise, you servants of the Lord, Praise the name of the Lord. ² May the name of the Lord be honoured From this moment and for all time. ³ From sunrise to sunset, The name of the Lord is worthy of praise.

⁴ The Lord is exalted above all nations; His splendour is beyond the heavens. ⁵ Who can compare to the Lord our God, Who is seated on high, ⁶ Who humbles Himself to behold The things in heaven and on earth?

⁷ He lifts the poor from the dust, He raises the needy from the ash heap, ⁸ To place them with princes, With the leaders of His people. ⁹ He grants the childless woman a home As a joyful mother of children. Praise the Lord!

Psalms

114 When Israel went out from Egypt, The house of Jacob from a people of a foreign language, ² Judah became His holy place, Israel, His realm.

³ The sea observed and retreated; The Jordan flowed back. ⁴ The mountains leapt like rams, The hills, like young sheep.

⁵ What is it to you, sea, that you retreat? Jordan, that you flow back? ⁶ Mountains, that you leap like rams? Hills, like young sheep?

⁷ Quake, earth, in the presence of the Lord, In the presence of the God of Jacob, ⁸ Who transformed the rock into a pool of water, The flint into a flowing spring.

115 Not to us, O Lord, not to us, But to Your name be the glory, Because of Your loving kindness and Your faithfulness.

² Why should the nations question, "Where is their God now?" ³ Yet our God is in the heavens; He accomplishes all that He desires. ⁴ Their idols are made of silver and gold, Crafted by human hands. ⁵ They have mouths, yet they do not speak; They have eyes, yet they do not see; ⁶ They have ears, yet they do not hear; They have noses, yet they do not smell; ⁷ They have hands, yet they do not feel; They have feet, yet they do not walk; They make no sound with their throat. ⁸ Those who create them will become like them, As will all who trust in them.

⁹ O Israel, place your trust in the Lord; He is your help and your shield. ¹⁰ House of Aaron, place your trust in the Lord; He is your help and your shield. ¹¹ You who revere the Lord, place your trust in the Lord; He is your help and your shield.

¹² The Lord is mindful of us and will bestow blessings upon us. He will bless the house of Israel; He will bless the house of Aaron. ¹³ He will bless those who revere the Lord, Both the small and the great.

¹⁴ May the Lord cause you to flourish, You and your children. ¹⁵ May you be favoured by the Lord, Creator of heaven and earth.

¹⁶ The heavens belong to the Lord, But the earth He has entrusted to humanity. ¹⁷ The dead do not extol the Lord, Nor do any who descend into silence; ¹⁸ But we will bless the Lord From now and forevermore. Praise the Lord!

116 I love the Lord, for He listens To my voice and my supplications. ² Since He has turned His ear towards me, I will therefore call upon Him throughout my days.

³ The traps of death surrounded me And the terrors of the grave overtook me; I encountered distress and sorrow. ⁴ Then I invoked the name of the Lord: "Please, Lord, preserve my life!"

⁵ The Lord is gracious and righteous; Indeed, our God is full of compassion. ⁶ The Lord protects the simple-hearted; I was brought low, and He delivered me.

⁷ Return to your peace, my soul, For the Lord has been generous to you. ⁸ For You have rescued my soul from death, My eyes from weeping, My feet from faltering. ⁹ I will walk before the Lord In the realm of the living.

¹⁰ I trusted even when I said, "I am greatly afflicted." ¹¹ I declared in my dismay, "All people are deceitful."

¹² How can I repay the Lord For all His goodness to me?

¹³ I will raise the cup of salvation, And invoke the name of the Lord. ¹⁴ I will keep my promises to the Lord In the assembly of His people.

¹⁵ Precious in the eyes of the Lord Is the passing of His faithful ones. ¹⁶ Lord, I am truly Your servant; I am Your servant, the child of Your maidservant, You have freed me from my bonds.

¹⁷ To You I will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving, And invoke the name of the Lord. ¹⁸ I will keep my promises to the Lord In the assembly of His people. ¹⁹ In the courts of the Lord's house, In the midst of you, Jerusalem. Praise the Lord!

117 Honour the Lord, all nations; Celebrate His name, all peoples! ² For His kindness toward us is immense, And the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever.

Honour the Lord!

Psalms

118 Offer thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His mercy endures forever.

² Let Israel declare, "His mercy endures forever." ³ Let the house of Aaron declare, "His mercy endures forever." ⁴ Let those who revere the Lord declare, "His mercy endures forever."

⁵ In my distress, I called upon the Lord; The Lord answered me and set me in a spacious place. ⁶ The Lord is by my side; I will not fear; What can mere mortals do to me? ⁷ The Lord is with me as my helper; Therefore I will look with triumph on those who dislike me.

⁸ It is better to seek refuge in the Lord Than to place trust in mankind. ⁹ It is better to seek refuge in the Lord Than to place trust in rulers. ¹⁰ All nations surrounded me; In the name of the Lord, I will surely fend them off. ¹¹ They encircled me, indeed, they surrounded me; In the name of the Lord, I will surely fend them off. ¹² They swarmed around me like bees; They were extinguished like a fire among thorns; In the name of the Lord, I will surely fend them off. ¹³ You pushed me hard to make me fall, But the Lord supported me. ¹⁴ The Lord is my strength and my song, And He has become my deliverance.

¹⁵ Joyful shouts of salvation resound in the tents of the righteous; The right hand of the Lord performs valiantly. ¹⁶ The right hand of the Lord is lifted high; The right hand of the Lord performs valiantly. ¹⁷ I shall not die, but live, And proclaim the deeds of the Lord. ¹⁸ The Lord has disciplined me harshly, But He has not given me over to death. ¹⁹ Open to me the gates of righteousness; I shall enter through them and praise the Lord. ²⁰ This is the gateway of the Lord; The righteous shall enter through it. ²¹ I will thank You, for You have answered me, And You have become my salvation.

²² The stone which the builders rejected Has become the cornerstone. ²³ The Lord has accomplished this; It is marvellous in our eyes. ²⁴ This is the day the Lord has fashioned; Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

²⁵ O Lord, we beseech You, save us; O Lord, we beseech You, grant us success!

²⁶ Fortunate is the one who arrives in the name of the Lord; We extend our blessings from the house of the Lord. ²⁷ The Lord is God, and He has given us light; Secure the festival offering with cords to the altar's horns.

²⁸ You are my God, and I will thank You; You are my God, I will exalt You.

²⁹ Offer thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His mercy endures forever.

119

א Aleph

¹ Joyful are those whose path is pure, Who follow the Law of the Lord. ² Joyful are those who observe His testimonies, And seek Him with all their heart. ³ They also commit no wrong; They walk in His ways. ⁴ You have established Your precepts, That we are to keep them diligently. ⁵ Oh that my ways may be steadfast To keep Your statutes! ⁶ Then I will not be ashamed When I consider all Your commandments. ⁷ I will give thanks to You with sincerity of heart, When I learn Your righteous judgments. ⁸ I will uphold Your statutes; Do not utterly abandon me!

ב Beth

⁹ How can a young man keep his way pure? By keeping it according to Your word. ¹⁰ With all my heart I have sought You; Do not let me drift from Your commandments. ¹¹ I have cherished Your word in my heart, So that I may not sin against You. ¹² Praised are You, Lord; Teach me Your statutes. ¹³ With my lips I have declared All the ordinances of Your mouth. ¹⁴ I have found joy in the way of Your testimonies, As much as in all riches. ¹⁵ I will reflect on Your precepts And consider Your ways. ¹⁶ I shall take pleasure in Your statutes; I will not forget Your word.

ג Gimel

¹⁷ Deal generously with Your servant, That I may live and keep Your word. ¹⁸ Open my eyes, that I may see Wonderful things from Your Law. ¹⁹ I am a wanderer on the earth; Do not hide Your commandments from me. ²⁰ My soul is overwhelmed with longing For Your ordinances at all times. ²¹ You rebuke the proud, the cursed, Who stray from Your commandments. ²² Take disgrace and contempt away from me, For I observe Your testimonies. ²³ Even though rulers sit and speak against me, Your servant reflects on Your statutes. ²⁴ Your testimonies also are my delight; They are my counsellors.

Psalms

† Daleth

²⁵ My soul clings to the ground; Renew me according to Your word. ²⁶ I have recounted my ways, and You have responded to me; Teach me Your statutes. ²⁷ Help me understand the way of Your precepts, So that I will meditate on Your wonders. ²⁸ My soul weeps because of sorrow; Strengthen me according to Your word. ²⁹ Remove the deceitful path from me, And graciously grant me Your Law. ³⁰ I have chosen the path of faithfulness; I have placed Your judgments before me. ³¹ I cling to Your testimonies; Lord, do not let me be put to shame! ³² I shall run the course of Your commandments, For You will enlarge my heart.

π He

³³ Teach me, the way of Your statutes, Lord, And I shall observe it to the end. ³⁴ Give me understanding, so that I may observe Your Law And keep it with all my heart. ³⁵ Guide me in the path of Your commandments, For I delight in it. ³⁶ Draw my heart towards Your testimonies, And not towards dishonest gain. ³⁷ Turn my eyes away from looking at what is worthless, And renew me in Your ways. ³⁸ Establish Your word to Your servant, As that which inspires reverence for You. ³⁹ Remove my disgrace which I dread, For Your judgments are good. ⁴⁰ Behold, I long for Your precepts; Renew me through Your righteousness.

י Waw

⁴¹ May Your favour also come to me, Lord, Your salvation according to Your word; ⁴² So that I will have a response for one who taunts me, For I trust in Your word. ⁴³ And do not take the word of truth completely out of my mouth, For I wait for Your judgments. ⁴⁴ So I will keep Your Law continually, For all time. ⁴⁵ And I will walk in freedom, For I seek Your precepts. ⁴⁶ I will also declare Your testimonies before kings, And shall not be ashamed. ⁴⁷ I will take pleasure in Your commandments, Which I love. ⁴⁸ And I shall lift up my hands to Your commandments, which I love; And I will reflect on Your statutes.

י Zayin

⁴⁹ Remember the word to Your servant, In which You have made me hope. ⁵⁰ This is my comfort in my affliction, That Your word has renewed me. ⁵¹ The proud utterly deride me, Yet I do not turn aside from Your Law. ⁵² I have remembered Your judgments from of old, Lord, And find comfort. ⁵³ Intense indignation has seized me because of the wicked, Who abandon Your Law. ⁵⁴ Your statutes have been my songs In the house of my journey. ⁵⁵ Lord, I recall Your name in the night, And keep Your Law. ⁵⁶ This has become my own, That I observe Your precepts.

π Heth

⁵⁷ The Lord is my portion; I have promised to keep Your words. ⁵⁸ I sought Your favour with all my heart; Be gracious to me according to Your word. ⁵⁹ I reflected on my ways And turned my steps to Your testimonies. ⁶⁰ I hurried and did not delay To follow Your commandments. ⁶¹ The traps of the wicked have surrounded me, But I have not forgotten Your Law. ⁶² I rise at midnight to give thanks to You Because of Your righteous judgments. ⁶³ I am a friend to all who fear You, And to those who keep Your precepts. ⁶⁴ The earth is full of Your mercy, Lord; Teach me Your statutes.

ט Teth

⁶⁵ You have treated Your servant well, Lord, According to Your word. ⁶⁶ Teach me good discernment and knowledge, For I trust in Your commandments. ⁶⁷ Before I was afflicted, I went astray, But now I always keep Your word. ⁶⁸ You are good and do what is right; Teach me Your statutes. ⁶⁹ The proud have forged a lie against me; With all my heart I will observe Your precepts. ⁷⁰ Their heart is unfeeling, like hardened fat, But I delight in Your Law. ⁷¹ It is beneficial for me that I experienced hardship, So that I may learn Your statutes. ⁷² The Law of Your mouth is more precious to me Than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

י Yodh

Psalms

⁷³ Your hands made me and fashioned me; Give me understanding, so that I may learn Your commandments. ⁷⁴ May those who fear You see me and be glad, Because I hope in Your word. ⁷⁵ I know, Lord, that Your judgments are righteous, And that You have allowed me to face trials in faithfulness. ⁷⁶ May Your favour comfort me, According to Your word to Your servant. ⁷⁷ May Your compassion come to me, granting me life, For Your Law is my delight. ⁷⁸ May the proud be ashamed, for they wrong me with lies; But I shall reflect on Your precepts. ⁷⁹ May those who fear You turn to me, And those who know Your testimonies. ⁸⁰ May my heart be steadfast in Your statutes, So that I will not be ashamed.

ⲓ Kaph

⁸¹ My soul languishes for Your salvation; I wait for Your word. ⁸² My eyes fail with longing for Your word, While I say, "When will You comfort me?" ⁸³ Though I have become like a dried wineskin in the smoke, I do not forget Your statutes. ⁸⁴ What is the measure of my days, Your servant? When will You bring justice to those who pursue me? ⁸⁵ The proud have dug pits for me, People who are not in accord with Your Law. ⁸⁶ All Your commandments are faithful; They have persecuted me with lies; help me! ⁸⁷ They almost destroyed me on earth, But I did not abandon Your precepts. ⁸⁸ Revive me according to Your mercy, So that I may keep the testimony of Your mouth.

ⲓ Lamedh

⁸⁹ Forever, Lord, Your word stands in heaven. ⁹⁰ Your faithfulness continues throughout generations; You established the earth, and it stands. ⁹¹ They stand this day by Your ordinances, For all things serve You. ⁹² Had Your Law not been my delight, I would have perished of my affliction. ⁹³ I will never forget Your precepts, For by them You have revived me. ⁹⁴ I belong to You; deliver me, For I have sought Your precepts. ⁹⁵ The wicked lie in wait to destroy me; I will diligently consider Your testimonies. ⁹⁶ I have seen a limit to all perfection; Your commandment is exceedingly broad.

ⲓ Mem

⁹⁷ How I love Your Law! It is my meditation all the day. ⁹⁸ Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, For they are ever mine. ⁹⁹ I possess more insight than all my teachers, For Your testimonies are my meditation. ¹⁰⁰ I understand more than those who are old, Because I have observed Your precepts. ¹⁰¹ I have kept my feet from every evil way, So that I may keep Your word. ¹⁰² I have not turned aside from Your judgments, For You have instructed me. ¹⁰³ How sweet are Your words to my taste! Yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth! ¹⁰⁴ From Your precepts I gain understanding; Therefore I hate every false way.

ⲓ Nun

¹⁰⁵ Your word is as a lamp for my feet And a light on my path. ¹⁰⁶ I have made an oath and will uphold it, That I will keep Your righteous judgments. ¹⁰⁷ I am exceedingly afflicted; Revive me, Lord, according to Your word. ¹⁰⁸ Please accept the voluntary offerings of my mouth, Lord, And teach me Your judgments. ¹⁰⁹ My life is constantly in my hand, Yet I do not forget Your Law. ¹¹⁰ The wicked have set a trap for me, Yet I have not wandered from Your precepts. ¹¹¹ I have received Your testimonies as an everlasting heritage, For they are the joy of my heart. ¹¹² I have set my heart to perform Your statutes Forever, even to the end.

ⲓ Samekh

¹¹³ I hate those who are double-minded, But I love Your Law. ¹¹⁴ You are my refuge and my shield; I hope in Your word. ¹¹⁵ Depart from me, you evildoers, So that I may observe the commandments of my God. ¹¹⁶ Sustain me according to Your word, that I may live; And do not let me be ashamed of my hope. ¹¹⁷ Uphold me so that I may be safe, That I may have regard for Your statutes continually. ¹¹⁸ You have rejected all those who stray from Your statutes, For their deceitfulness is useless. ¹¹⁹ You have removed all the wicked of the earth as an impurity; Therefore I love Your statutes. ¹²⁰ My flesh trembles from the fear of You, And I am afraid of Your judgments.

ⲓ Ayin

¹²¹ I have done justice and righteousness; Do not leave me to my oppressors. ¹²² Be a guarantor for Your servant for good; Do not let the proud oppress me. ¹²³ My eyes fail with longing for Your salvation, And for Your righteous word. ¹²⁴ Treat Your servant with Your mercy, And teach me Your statutes. ¹²⁵ I am Your servant; grant me understanding, So that I may know Your testimonies. ¹²⁶ It is time for the Lord to act, For they have violated Your Law. ¹²⁷ Therefore I love Your commandments More than gold, yes, more than pure gold. ¹²⁸ Therefore I follow all Your precepts with care, I hate every false way.

Psalms

Pe

¹²⁹ Your testimonies are wonderful; Therefore my soul observes them. ¹³⁰ The revelation of Your words brings light; It imparts understanding to the simple. ¹³¹ I opened my mouth wide with longing, For I yearned for Your commandments. ¹³² Turn to me and be gracious to me, As is fitting for those who love Your name. ¹³³ Establish my footsteps in Your word, And do not let any wrongdoing have power over me. ¹³⁴ Redeem me from human oppression, So that I may keep Your precepts. ¹³⁵ Let Your face shine upon Your servant, And teach me Your statutes. ¹³⁶ My eyes shed streams of water, Because they do not keep Your Law.

Tsadhe

¹³⁷ You are righteous, Lord, And Your judgments are right. ¹³⁸ You have commanded Your testimonies with righteousness And in great faithfulness. ¹³⁹ My fervour has overtaken me, Because my enemies have forgotten Your words. ¹⁴⁰ Your word is very pure, Therefore Your servant loves it. ¹⁴¹ I am insignificant and despised, Yet I do not forget Your precepts. ¹⁴² Your righteousness is eternally just, And Your Law is the essence of truth. ¹⁴³ Trouble and anguish have found me, Yet Your commandments bring me joy. ¹⁴⁴ Your testimonies are righteous forever; Grant me understanding so that I may live.

Goph

¹⁴⁵ I cried out with all my heart; answer me, Lord! I will observe Your statutes. ¹⁴⁶ I called to You; rescue me, And I shall keep Your testimonies. ¹⁴⁷ I rise before dawn and cry for help; I wait for Your words. ¹⁴⁸ My eyes anticipate the night watches, So that I may meditate on Your word. ¹⁴⁹ Hear my voice according to Your mercy; Revive me, Lord, according to Your judgments. ¹⁵⁰ Those who pursue wickedness draw near; They are distant from Your Law. ¹⁵¹ Yet You are near, Lord, And all Your commandments are truth. ¹⁵² Long ago I learned from Your testimonies, That You have established them forever.

Resh

¹⁵³ Look at my affliction and rescue me, For I do not forget Your Law. ¹⁵⁴ Plead my case and redeem me; Revive me according to Your word. ¹⁵⁵ Salvation is distant from the wicked, For they do not seek Your statutes. ¹⁵⁶ Great are Your mercies, Lord; Revive me according to Your judgments. ¹⁵⁷ Numerous are my persecutors and my enemies, Yet I do not turn aside from Your testimonies. ¹⁵⁸ I see the treacherous and feel disdain, Because they do not keep Your word. ¹⁵⁹ Consider how I love Your precepts; Revive me, Lord, according to Your mercy. ¹⁶⁰ The entirety of Your word is truth, And every one of Your righteous judgments is everlasting.

Sin and Shin

¹⁶¹ Princes pursue me without reason, But my heart stands in awe of Your words. ¹⁶² I rejoice at Your word, Like one who finds great treasure. ¹⁶³ I detest and abhor falsehood, But I love Your Law. ¹⁶⁴ I praise You throughout the day Because of Your righteous judgments. ¹⁶⁵ Those who love Your Law have great peace, And nothing causes them to stumble. ¹⁶⁶ I hope for Your salvation, Lord, And follow Your commandments. ¹⁶⁷ My soul keeps Your testimonies, And I love them greatly. ¹⁶⁸ I observe Your precepts and Your testimonies, For all my ways are before You.

Taw

¹⁶⁹ Let my cry come before You, Lord; Give me understanding according to Your word. ¹⁷⁰ Let my pleading come before You; Save me according to Your word. ¹⁷¹ Let my lips overflow with praise, For You teach me Your statutes. ¹⁷² Let my tongue sing of Your word, For all Your commandments are righteousness. ¹⁷³ Let Your hand be prepared to assist me, For I have chosen Your precepts. ¹⁷⁴ I yearn for Your salvation, Lord, And Your Law is my delight. ¹⁷⁵ Let my soul live that it may praise You, And let Your ordinances assist me. ¹⁷⁶ I have wandered about like a lost sheep; seek Your servant, For I do not forget Your commandments.

Psalms

120

A Song of Ascents.

¹ In my trouble I cried to the Lord, And He answered me. ² Lord, save my soul from lying lips, From a deceitful tongue.

³ What will be given to you, and what more will be done to you, You deceitful tongue? ⁴ Keen arrows of the warrior, Along with the glowing coals of the broom tree!

⁵ Alas for me, for I dwell in Meshech, And I have made my home among the tents of Kedar! ⁶ My soul has dwelt too long Among those who are against peace. ⁷ I seek peace, but when I speak, They pursue conflict.

121

A Song of Ascents.

¹ I lift my eyes up to the mountains; From where will my help come? ² My help comes from the Lord, Creator of heaven and earth.

³ He will not let your foot falter; The one who watches over you will not slumber. ⁴ Behold, the guardian of Israel Will neither slumber nor sleep.

⁵ The Lord is your keeper; The Lord provides shade at your right hand. ⁶ And the sun will not harm you by day, Nor the moon by night.

⁷ The Lord will shield you from all harm; He will preserve your soul. ⁸ The Lord will watch over your coming and going Now and forevermore.

122

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

¹ I rejoiced when they said to me, "Let us go to the dwelling of the Lord." ² Our feet are now standing Within your gates, O Jerusalem,

³ Jerusalem, that is built As a city that is joined together; ⁴ To which the tribes ascend, the tribes of the Lord— A decree for Israel— To give thanks to the name of the Lord. ⁵ For seats of judgment were established there, The seats of the house of David.

⁶ Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: "May those who cherish you find safety. ⁷ May tranquillity be within your walls, And prosperity within your palaces." ⁸ For the sake of my kin and companions, I will now say, "May tranquillity be within you." ⁹ For the sake of the house of the Lord our God, I will pursue your welfare.

123

A Song of Ascents.

¹ To You I have raised my eyes, You who are enthroned in the heavens! ² Observe, just as the eyes of servants are fixed on the hand of their master, And as the eyes of a maid look to the hand of her mistress, So our eyes are directed to the Lord our God, Until He shows us His favour.

³ Show us Your kindness, Lord, show us Your kindness, For we have endured more than enough of contempt. ⁴ Our soul has endured more than enough Of the scoffing of those who are at ease, And of the contempt of the proud.

124

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

¹ "Had it not been the Lord who was on our side," Let Israel now say, ² "If the Lord had not been on our side When people rose up against us, ³ Then they would have devoured us completely, When their anger burned fiercely against us; ⁴ Then the waters would have flooded over us, The stream would have swept over our soul; ⁵ and the raging waters would have swept over our soul."

⁶ Praised be the Lord, Who has not allowed us to be torn by their teeth. ⁷ Our soul has escaped like a bird from the trapper's snare; The snare is broken and we have escaped. ⁸ Our aid is in the name of the Lord, Who created heaven and earth.

125

A Song of Ascents.

¹ Those who trust in the Lord Are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved but remains forever. ² Just as the mountains encircle Jerusalem, So the Lord encircles His people Now and for all time.

Psalms

³ For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest upon the land of the righteous, So that the righteous will not extend their hands to do wrong.

⁴ Show kindness, Lord, to those who are good, And to those who are upright in their hearts. ⁵ But for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, The Lord will guide them away with those who practice injustice. May peace be upon Israel.

126

A Song of Ascents.

¹ When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, We were like those who dream. ² Then our mouth was filled with laughter And our tongue with songs of joy; Then they said among the nations, "The Lord has done great things for them." ³ The Lord has done great things for us; We are filled with joy.

⁴ Renew our fortunes, Lord, Like the streams in the Negev. ⁵ Those who sow in tears shall reap with songs of joy. ⁶ One who goes forth weeping, carrying seed to sow, Shall indeed return with shouts of joy, bringing his sheaves with him.

127

A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.

¹ Unless the Lord builds the house, They who build it, labour in vain; Unless the Lord guards the city, The watchman stays awake in vain. ² It is futile for you to rise up early, To stay up late, To eat the bread of painful labours; For He gives to His beloved even in his sleep.

³ Observe, children are a blessing from the Lord, The fruit of the womb is a gracious reward. ⁴ Just as arrows are in the hand of a warrior, So are the children born in one's youth. ⁵ Blessed is the man whose quiver is filled; They will not be put to shame When they engage with their adversaries at the gate.

128

A Song of Ascents.

¹ Blessed is everyone who fears the Lord, Who walks in His ways. ² You will eat the fruit of the labour of your hands; You will be happy, and it will go well for you. ³ Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your home, Your children like young olive shoots around your table. ⁴ Observe, for in this manner shall a man Who reveres the Lord be favoured.

⁵ May the Lord bless you from Zion, And may you witness the flourishing of Jerusalem all the days of your life. ⁶ Truly, may you see your descendants. Peace be upon Israel!

129

A Song of Ascents.

¹ "Many times they have attacked me from my youth up," Let Israel say, ² "Many times they have attacked me since my youth; Yet they have not overcome me. ³ The ploughers ploughed upon my back; They lengthened their furrows." ⁴ The Lord is just; He has severed the cords of the wicked.

⁵ May all who despise Zion Be put to shame and turned back; ⁶ May they be like grass on the housetops, Which withers before it grows up; ⁷ With which the reaper does not fill his hand, Nor does the binder of sheaves fill his arms; ⁸ Nor do those who pass by say, "May the Lord's blessing be upon you; We bless you in the Lord's name."

130

A Song of Ascents.

¹ Out of the depths I have cried to You, Lord. ² Lord, listen to my voice! May Your ears be attentive To the sound of my supplications.

³ If You, Lord, were to mark our iniquities, Lord, who could stand? ⁴ But with You there is forgiveness, Therefore You are revered.

⁵ I wait for the Lord, my soul is patient, And I place my hope in His word. ⁶ My soul waits eagerly for the Lord More than the watchmen wait for the morning; Indeed, more than the watchmen for the morning.

⁷ Israel, place your hope in the Lord; For with the Lord there is lovingkindness, And with Him is plentiful redemption. ⁸ And He will deliver Israel From all his iniquities.

131

Psalms

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

¹ Lord, my heart is not proud, nor my eyes arrogant;
Nor do I involve myself in great matters, Or in things too difficult for me. ² I have indeed calmed and quieted my soul, Like a weaned child resting with its mother, My soul within me is like a weaned child.

³ Israel, wait for the Lord From now and forever.

132

A Song of Ascents.

¹ Remember, Lord, in David's behalf, All his affliction;

² How he made an oath to the Lord And pledged to the Mighty One of Jacob: ³ "I surely will not enter my house, Nor lie down on my bed; ⁴ I will not allow sleep to my eyes, Or slumber to my eyelids, ⁵ Until I find a place for the Lord, A sanctuary for the Mighty One of Jacob."

⁶ Indeed, we heard of it in Ephrathah, We discovered it in the fields of Jaar. ⁷ Let us enter His dwelling place; Let us bow at His footstool. ⁸ Rise, Lord, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your might. ⁹ May Your priests be adorned with righteousness, And may Your faithful ones shout for joy.

¹⁰ For the sake of Your servant David, Do not reject the face of Your anointed.

¹¹ The Lord has made a promise to David A truth
He will not revoke: "I will place upon your throne
One from your own lineage. ¹² If your sons will uphold My covenant And the decrees I will teach them, Their descendants will also sit upon your throne forever."

¹³ For the Lord has chosen Zion; He has wished for it as His dwelling. ¹⁴ "This is My resting place forever; Here I will reside, for I have longed for it.

¹⁵ I will greatly bless her provisions; I will satisfy her poor with bread. ¹⁶ I will also clothe her priests with salvation, And her faithful will sing joyfully.

¹⁷ I will cause the horn of David to flourish there; I have prepared a light for My anointed. ¹⁸ I will cover his enemies with disgrace, But upon him, his crown will shine."

133

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

¹ Behold, how good and how pleasant it is For brothers to dwell together in unity!

² It is like the precious oil on the head, Running down upon the beard, Aaron's beard, Coming down upon the edge of his robes. ³ It is like the dew of Hermon Coming down upon the mountains of Zion;
For there the Lord commanded the blessing— Life forever.

134

A Song of Ascents.

¹ Behold, bless the Lord, all you servants of the Lord, Who serve by night in the house of the Lord!

² Raise your hands towards the holy place And offer praise to the Lord.

³ May the Lord, the Creator of heaven and earth, bless you from Zion.

135

Praise the Lord! Honour the name of the Lord; Praise Him, you servants of the Lord, ² You who stand in the dwelling of the Lord, In the courtyards of the house of our God!

³ Praise the Lord, for the Lord is good; Sing praises to His name, for it is delightful. ⁴ For the Lord has chosen Jacob for His own, Israel as a cherished possession.

⁵ For I am certain that the Lord is great, And that our Lord is above all other gods. ⁶ Whatever the Lord desires, He accomplishes, In heaven and on earth, in the seas and in all the ocean depths. ⁷ He causes the clouds to rise from the ends of the earth, Who makes lightning for the rain, Who brings forth the wind from His storehouses.

⁸ He struck the firstborn of Egypt, Both of man and animal. ⁹ He sent signs and wonders into your midst, Egypt, Against Pharaoh and all his servants.

¹⁰ He defeated many nations And brought down mighty kings: ¹¹ Sihon, ruler of the Amorites, And Og, ruler of Bashan, And all the territories of Canaan; ¹² And He granted their land as an inheritance, An inheritance to His people Israel.

Psalms

¹³ Your name, Lord, is everlasting, Your remembrance, Lord, is throughout all generations.
¹⁴ For the Lord will judge His people And will show compassion on His servants.

¹⁵ The idols of the nations are crafted from silver and gold, The work of human hands. ¹⁶ They have mouths, yet they do not speak; They have eyes, yet they do not see; ¹⁷ They have ears, yet they do not hear, Nor is there any breath in their mouths. ¹⁸ Those who make them will become like them, Everyone who trusts in them.

¹⁹ House of Israel, honour the Lord; House of Aaron, honour the Lord; ²⁰ House of Levi, honour the Lord; You who revere the Lord, honour the Lord. ²¹ Blessed be the Lord, who comes from Zion, Who dwells in Jerusalem. Praise the Lord!

136 Give thanks to the Lord, He is good,
His love endures forever.

² Give thanks to Him, the God of gods,
His love endures forever.

³ Give thanks to Him, the Lord of lords,
His love endures forever.

⁴ To Him who alone performs great wonders,
His love endures forever.

⁵ To Him who made the heavens with skill,
His love endures forever.

⁶ To Him who spread out the earth above the waters,
His love endures forever.

⁷ To Him who made the great lights,
His love endures forever.

⁸ The sun to rule by day,
His love endures forever.

⁹ The moon and stars to rule by night,
His love endures forever.

¹⁰ To Him who struck the Egyptians, that is, their firstborn,
His love endures forever.

¹¹ And brought Israel out from their midst,
His love endures forever.

¹² With a strong hand and an outstretched arm,
His love endures forever.

¹³ To Him who divided the Red Sea in parts,
His love endures forever.

¹⁴ And led Israel through the midst of it,
His love endures forever.

¹⁵ But He overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea,
His love endures forever.

¹⁶ To Him who guided His people through the wilderness,
His love endures forever.

¹⁷ To Him who struck great kings,
His love endures forever.

¹⁸ And brought death to mighty kings,
His love endures forever.

¹⁹ Sihon, the ruler of the Amorites,
His love endures forever.

²⁰ And Og, the ruler of Bashan,
His love endures forever.

²¹ And granted their land as a heritage,
His love endures forever.

²² A heritage to His servant Israel,
His love endures forever.

²³ Who remembered us in our lowliness,
His love endures forever.

²⁴ And has rescued us from our enemies,
His love endures forever.

²⁵ Who gives food to all flesh,
His love endures forever.

²⁶ Offer gratitude to the God of heaven,

Psalms

His love endures forever.

137 *By the rivers of Babylon, There we sat and wept, And we remembered Zion. ²
On the willows in its midst We placed our harps. ³ For there our captors asked us for songs, And our tormentors for joy, saying, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"*

⁴ How can we sing the Lord's song While in a foreign land? ⁵ If I forget you, Jerusalem, May my right hand lose its skill. ⁶ May my tongue adhere to the roof of my mouth If I fail to remember you, If I do not honour Jerusalem Above my greatest joy.

⁷ Recall, Lord, against the sons of Edom The day of Jerusalem, Those who said, "Tear it down, tear it down To its very foundation!" ⁸ Daughter of Babylon, you devastated one, Blessed will be the one who repays you With the recompense you have given us. ⁹ Blessed is he then, who would seize your children and throw them dashed on your rocks.

138 A Psalm of David.

¹ *I will give You thanks with all my heart; I will sing Your praises before the gods. ² I will bow in reverence toward Your sacred temple And give thanks to Your name for Your mercy and Your truth;
For You have magnified Your word in accordance with all Your name. ³ On the day I called, You heard me; You infused my soul with courage and strength.*

⁴ *All the kings of the earth shall give thanks to You,
Lord, When they have heard the words spoken by Your mouth. ⁵ And they shall sing of the paths of the Lord, For the glory of the Lord is indeed great.*

⁶ *For the Lord is exalted, Yet He regards the lowly,
But the haughty He knows from afar. ⁷ Even though I walk amidst trouble, You will revive me; You will extend Your hand against the anger of my enemies, And Your right hand will deliver me. ⁸ The Lord will fulfil His purpose for me; Your mercy, Lord, is everlasting; Do not abandon the works of Your hands.*

139 For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ Lord, You have searched me and know me. ² You know when I sit down and when I rise up; You perceive my thoughts from a distance. ³ You scrutinise my path and my lying down, And are acquainted with all my ways. ⁴ Even before a word is on my tongue, Behold, Lord, You know it completely. ⁵ You hem me in Lord, behind and in front, And laid Your hand upon me. ⁶ Such knowledge is beyond my understanding; It is so lofty, I cannot grasp it.

⁷ *Where could I go from Your Spirit? Or where could I escape from Your presence? ⁸ If I go up to heaven, You are there; If I lie myself in the depths,
You are there. ⁹ If I take up the wings of the dawn,
And dwell in the farthest part of the sea, ¹⁰ Even there Your hand will lead me, And Your right hand will hold me tight. ¹¹ If I say, "Surely darkness will cover me, And the light around me will become night," ¹² Even darkness is not dark to You, And the night shines like the day. Darkness and light are both alike to You.*

¹³ *For You formed my innermost being; You knit me together in my mother's womb. ¹⁴ I will thank You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Wonderful are Your works, And my soul knows it very well. ¹⁵ My frame was not hidden from You When I was made in secret, And skilfully formed in the depths of the earth. ¹⁶ Your eyes saw my unformed body;
And in Your book were written All the days that were planned for me, When none of them had yet come to be. ¹⁷ How treasured are Your thoughts to me, God! How vast is the sum of them! ¹⁸ If I were to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand. When I awake, I am still with You.*

¹⁹ *If only You would slay the wicked, God; Depart from me, you men of bloodshed. ²⁰ For they speak against You with malice, And Your adversaries misuse Your name. ²¹ Do I not hate those who hate You, Lord? And do I not despise those who rise up against You? ²² I hate them with complete hatred;
They have become my foes. ²³ Examine me, God, and know my heart; Test me and know my anxious thoughts; ²⁴ And see if there is any offensive way in me, And lead me in the way everlasting.*

140

For the music director. A Psalm of David.

¹ Rescue me, Lord, from evil people; Protect me from violent men ² Who plot evil schemes in their hearts; They are constantly stirring conflicts. ³ They sharpen their tongues like a serpent; The venom of a viper is under their lips. Selah

⁴ Keep me, Lord, from the hands of the wicked; Protect me from violent men Who intend to trip up my steps. ⁵ The proud have laid a trap for me, with snares; They have spread a net beside the path; They have set traps for me. Selah

⁶ I declared to the Lord, "You are my God; Hear, Lord, the sound of my plea." ⁷ Sovereign Lord, the strength of my salvation, You have shielded my head on the day of battle. ⁸ Do not grant, Lord, the desires of the wicked; Do not let their wicked plans succeed, so that they are not exalted. Selah

⁹ As for those who surround me, May their own words bring them harm. ¹⁰ May burning coals fall upon them; May they be thrown into the fire, Into deep pits from which they cannot escape. ¹¹ May a slanderer not endure on the earth; May evil pursue a violent man to his ruin.

¹² I am confident that the Lord will uphold the cause of the afflicted, And bring justice to the poor.

¹³ Surely the righteous will offer thanks to Your name; The upright will abide in Your presence.

141

A Psalm of David.

¹ Lord, I call upon You; hurry to me! Listen to my voice when I call to You! ² Let my prayer rise before You like incense; The lifting up of my hands like the evening sacrifice.

³ Place a guard, Lord, at my mouth; Watch over the entrance of my lips. ⁴ Do not let my heart be drawn to anything evil, To engage in acts of wickedness With those who commit wrong; And may I not partake in their delicacies.

⁵ Let the righteous strike me, it is a kindness; Let him rebuke me, it is oil for the head; My head shall not refuse it, For still my prayer is against their evil deeds.

⁶ Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock, And they will hear my words, for they are pleasant. ⁷ As when one ploughs and breaks open the earth, Our bones have been scattered at the mouth of Sheol.

⁸ For my eyes are toward You, God the Lord; In You I take refuge, do not leave my soul defenceless. ⁹ Protect me from the jaws of the trap they have set for me, And from the snares of those who do evil.

¹⁰ Let the wicked fall into their own nets, While I pass by unharmed.

142

A Maskil of David. When he was in the cave. A Prayer.

¹ I cry out with my voice to the Lord; I plead with my voice to the Lord for mercy. ² I pour out my distress before Him; I reveal my troubles to Him.

³ When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, You were aware of my going. On the path where I walk They have set a snare for me. ⁴ Look to the right and observe; For there is no one who notices me. There is no escape for me; No one is concerned for my soul.

⁵ I called out to You, Lord; I declared, "You are my refuge, My share in the land of the living.

⁶ Listen to my cry, For I have been brought very low; Deliver me from my persecutors, For they are too powerful for me. ⁷ Raise my soul up from sorrow, So that I may give thanks to Your name; The righteous will gather around me, For You will care for me."

143

A Psalm of David.

¹ Hear my prayer, Lord, Listen to my pleadings! Answer me in Your faithfulness, in Your righteousness! ² And do not make Your servant stand trial, For no one alive is righteous before You. ³ For the enemy has pursued my soul; He has brought my life low to the ground; He has made me dwell in darkness, like those long deceased. ⁴ Therefore my spirit is faint within me; My heart is dismayed within me. ⁵ I remember the days of old; I meditate on all Your doings; I reflect on the work of Your hands. ⁶ I reach out my hands to You; My soul thirsts for You, like a parched land. Selah

Psalms

⁷ Respond to me swiftly, Lord, My spirit is failing; Do not conceal Your face from me, Or I will be like those who descend to the pit. ⁸ Let me hear of Your mercy in the morning, For I trust in You; Teach me the way in which I should walk, For to You I lift up my soul. ⁹ Rescue me, Lord, from my enemies; I seek shelter in You. ¹⁰ Guide me to do Your will, For You are my God; Let Your good Spirit guide me on level ground.

¹¹ For the sake of Your name, Lord, give me life. In Your righteousness deliver my soul from distress.

¹² And in Your mercy, vanquish my enemies, And destroy all those who oppress my soul, For I am Your servant.

144

A Psalm of David.

¹ Blessed be the Lord, my rock, Who trains my hands for war, And my fingers for battle; ² My faithfulness and my fortress, My stronghold and my saviour, My shield and He in whom I take refuge, Who subdues my people under me.

³ Lord, what is man, that You care for him? Or the children of man, that You are mindful of them? ⁴ Man is like a breath; His days are like a fleeting shadow.

⁵ Lower Your heavens, Lord, and descend; Touch the mountains, so they may smoke. ⁶ Send forth lightning and scatter them; Release Your arrows and disorient them. ⁷ Extend Your hand from above; Deliver me and save me from mighty waters, From the grasp of strangers ⁸ Whose mouths speak deceit, And whose right hand is a hand of falsehood.

⁹ O God, I will sing a new song to You; With a harp of ten strings I will offer praises to You, ¹⁰ Who grants deliverance to kings, Who saves His servant David from the harmful sword. ¹¹ Deliver me and save me from the grasp of strangers, Whose mouths speak deceit, And whose right hand is a hand of falsehood.

¹² May our sons in their youth be like thriving plants, And our daughters like corner pillars Crafted for a palace. ¹³ May our granaries be full, Providing every kind of produce, May our flocks bring forth thousands And ten thousands in our fields; ¹⁴ May our cattle be bred Without mishap and without loss, May there be no distress in our streets! ¹⁵ Blessed are the people who are in such a state; Blessed are the people whose God is the Lord!

145

A Psalm of Praise by David.

¹ I will exalt You, my God, the King, And I will bless Your name forever and ever. ² Each day I will bless You, And I will praise Your name for all time.

³ The Lord is great and worthy of high praise, And His greatness cannot be fathomed. ⁴ One generation will commend Your works to another, And will proclaim Your mighty acts. ⁵ On the glorious splendour of Your majesty And on Your wonderful works, I will meditate. ⁶ People will speak of the power of Your awe-inspiring acts, And I will recount Your greatness. ⁷ They will burst forth in speaking of the memory of Your abundant goodness, And will shout joyfully of Your righteousness.

⁸ The Lord is gracious and full of compassion; Slow to anger and rich in mercy.

⁹ The Lord is kind to all, And His mercies extend over all His works. ¹⁰ All Your works will give thanks to You, Lord, And Your faithful ones will bless You.

¹¹ They will speak of the glory of Your kingdom, And discuss Your might, ¹² To make known to the children of mankind Your mighty acts, And the glory of the majesty of Your kingdom. ¹³ Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, And Your dominion endures throughout all generations.

The Lord is trustworthy in all he promises and faithful in all he does ¹⁴ The Lord upholds all who stumble, And lifts up all who are bowed down. ¹⁵ The eyes of all look to You, And You provide them with their food at the proper time. ¹⁶ You open Your hand And satisfy the needs of every living thing.

¹⁷ The Lord is righteous in all His ways, And gracious in all His works. ¹⁸ The Lord is near to all who call upon Him, To all who call upon Him sincerely. ¹⁹ He will fulfill the desire of those who revere Him; He will also hear their cry for help and rescue them. ²⁰ The Lord protects all who love Him, But He will bring an end to all the wicked.

Psalms

²¹ My mouth will declare the praise of the Lord, And all people will bless His holy name for all eternity.

146 Praise the Lord! Honour the Lord, my soul! ² I shall praise the Lord as long as I live; I will sing to my God for as long as I exist. ³ Place no trust in noblemen, In mortal man, where there is no deliverance. ⁴ When his spirit departs, he returns to the earth; On that very day, his plans come to nothing. ⁵ Fortunate is he whose aid is the God of Jacob, Whose hope rests in the Lord, his God,

⁶ Who created heaven and earth, The sea and all that is within them; Who remains faithful forever; ⁷ Who brings justice to the oppressed; Who provides food for the hungry. The Lord releases the captives.

⁸ The Lord gives sight to the blind; The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down; The Lord cherishes the righteous. ⁹ The Lord protects strangers; He upholds the orphan and the widow, But He frustrates the plans of the wicked.

¹⁰ The Lord shall reign eternally, Your God, Zion, through all generations. Honour the Lord!

147 Praise the Lord! It is good to sing praises to our God; It is delightful, and such praise is lovely.

² The Lord restores Jerusalem; He gathers the exiles of Israel. ³ He mends the broken-hearted And heals their wounds. ⁴ He numbers the stars; He names each one. ⁵ Great is our Lord, and mighty in power; His understanding knows no bounds. ⁶ The Lord upholds the oppressed; He brings the wicked to the ground.

⁷ Offer songs to the Lord with gratitude; Play music to our God on the lyre,

⁸ Who spreads clouds across the sky, Who sends rain upon the earth, Who causes grass to flourish on the mountains. ⁹ He provides food for the animals, And to the young ravens when they call.

¹⁰ He finds no joy in the strength of the horse; He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man. ¹¹ The Lord delights in those who revere Him, Those who hope in His mercy.

¹² Praise the Lord, Jerusalem! Honour your God, Zion!

¹³ For He has fortified the bars of your gates; He has blessed your children within you. ¹⁴ He grants peace within your borders; He fills you with the finest wheat.

¹⁵ He sends His command to the earth; His word moves swiftly. ¹⁶ He bestows snow like wool; He spreads frost like ashes. ¹⁷ He casts His ice like fragments; Who can withstand His cold? ¹⁸ He sends His word and melts them; He makes His wind blow, and the waters flow.

¹⁹ He reveals His words to Jacob, His statutes and judgments to Israel. ²⁰ He has not acted this way with any other nation; And as for His judgments, they have not understood them. Praise the Lord!

148 Praise the Lord! Glorify the Lord from the heavens; Praise Him in the heights! ² Praise Him, all His angels; Glorify Him, all His heavenly hosts! ³ Praise Him, sun and moon; Glorify Him, all shining stars! ⁴ Praise Him, you highest heavens, And the waters above the heavens!

⁵ Let them praise the name of the Lord, For He commanded, and they came into being. ⁶ He has established them forever and ever; He has made a decree, and it will not pass away.

⁷ Glorify the Lord from the earth, Sea creatures and all the ocean depths; ⁸ Fire and hail, snow and mist; Stormy wind, carrying out His word; ⁹ The towering mountains and gentle hills; Fruit-bearing trees and majestic cedars; ¹⁰ Animals and all livestock; Creeping things and flying birds; ¹¹ The Kings of the earth and all peoples; All who rule and all judge on the earth; ¹² Both young men and maidens; The old and the young.

¹³ Let them praise the name of the Lord, For His name alone is exalted; His splendour is above earth and heaven. ¹⁴ And He has raised a horn for His people, Praise for all His faithful ones, For the children of Israel, a people close to Him. Praise the Lord!

Psalms

149 Praise the Lord! Sing a fresh song to the Lord, And celebrate Him in the congregation of the faithful. ² Israel shall delight in their Creator; The children of Zion shall exult in their Sovereign. ³ They shall praise His name with dancing; They shall sing to Him with tambourine and lyre. ⁴ For the Lord delights in His people; He will adorn the humble with salvation. ⁵ The faithful shall be joyful in glory; They shall sing for joy upon their beds.

⁶ The exalted praises of God shall be in their mouths, And a double-edged sword in their hands,

⁷ To bring justice to the nations, And correction to the peoples, ⁸ To bind their rulers with chains, And their nobles with shackles of iron, ⁹ To carry out the judgement decreed against them. This honour is for all His faithful ones. Praise the Lord!

150 Praise the Lord! Honour God in His holy place; Praise Him in His vast heavens. ² Honour Him for His mighty acts; Praise Him for His supreme greatness. ³ Honour Him with the sound of the trumpet; Praise Him with harp and lyre. ⁴ Honour Him with tambourine and dance; Praise Him with stringed instruments and flute. ⁵ Honour Him with loud cymbals; Praise Him with resounding cymbals. ⁶ Everything that has breath, praise the Lord. Praise the Lord!

Proverbs

1 The wise sayings of Solomon, son of David, ruler of Israel: ² To gain wisdom and instruction, to discern words of understanding; ³ To receive instruction in wise conduct, in righteousness, justice, and fairness; ⁴ To impart prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the young; ⁵ Let the wise hear and increase their learning, and let those of understanding acquire guidance, ⁶ To comprehend proverbs and parables, the sayings and enigmas of the wise. ⁷ For the fear of the Lord is the start of all knowledge; those who are foolish hate wisdom and instruction. ⁸ Pay attention, my son, to your father's guidance, and do not abandon your mother's teaching; ⁹ For they are like a beautiful crown for your head and ornaments for your neck.

¹⁰ My son, if sinners try to lure you, do not follow. ¹¹ If they say, "Join us, let us wait in secret for blood, let us ambush the innocent without cause;

¹² Let us swallow them alive like the grave, and whole, like those who go down to the pit;

¹³ We shall find all kinds of precious goods,

we shall fill our houses with plunder;

¹⁴ Throw in your lot with us,

we shall all share one purse"—

¹⁵ My son, do not walk in their way, keep your foot from their path, ¹⁶ For they are swift to pursue wrongdoing, and they hasten to shed blood. ¹⁷ How futile it is to spread a net in full view of all the birds!

¹⁸ But these men are setting a trap for themselves; they ambush their own lives. ¹⁹ Such are the ways of everyone who is greedy for unjust gain; it takes away the life of those who pursue it.

²⁰ Wisdom calls aloud in the street, she raises her voice in the public squares; ²¹ At the head of the bustling streets she cries out, at the entrance of the city gates she makes her speech: ²² "How long, you simple ones, will you love your simple ways?

How long will scoffers delight in scoffing and fools hate knowledge?

²³ Repent at my rebuke!

Then I will pour out my spirit upon you, I will make my words known to you.

²⁴ Because I have called and you refused, I have stretched out my hand and no one heeded; ²⁵ Since you ignored all my advice and would not accept my rebuke, ²⁶ I will also smile at your calamity; I will respond with mirth when your dread comes,

²⁷ When your dread comes like a storm and your calamity like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you. ²⁸ They will call upon me, but I will not respond; they will seek me earnestly but will not find me, ²⁹ Because they rejected wisdom and did not choose to fear the Lord. ³⁰ They would not accept my advice and spurned all my rebuke. ³¹ Therefore they shall eat the fruit of their ways and be filled with the fruit of their schemes. ³² For the waywardness of the simple will lead to their downfall, and the complacency of fools will bring about their ruin; ³³ But whoever listens to me will bring about their ruin; ³⁴ But whoever listens to me will dwell securely and will be at ease, without fear of harm."

2 My son, if you accept my words and treasure my commandments within you, ² So listen closely to wisdom and open your heart to understanding— ³ Indeed, if you cry out for insight and raise your voice for understanding, ⁴ If you seek it as silver and search for it as for hidden treasure, ⁵ Then you will grasp what it means to revere the Lord and find the knowledge of God. ⁶ For the Lord grants wisdom; from His mouth flow knowledge and understanding. ⁷ He stores up sound wisdom for the upright; He is a shield to those whose walk is blameless, ⁸ Guarding the paths of justice and watching over the way of His faithful ones.

⁹ Then you will perceive what is right and just and fair—every good path. ¹⁰ For wisdom will fill your heart, and knowledge will bring joy to your soul. ¹¹ Discretion will protect you, and understanding will watch over you.

¹² To save you from the ways of wicked men, from those who speak perverse things, ¹³ From those who have left the paths of uprightness to walk in dark ways, ¹⁴ Who delight in doing wrong and rejoice in the perversity of evil, ¹⁵ Whose ways are twisted and who are deceitful in their actions.

¹⁶ To save you from the adulterous woman, from the foreign woman who flatters with her words, ¹⁷ Who leaves the partner of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God. ¹⁸ For her house leads down to death, and her paths to the spirits of the dead. ¹⁹ None who go to her return, nor do they attain the paths of life.

Proverbs

²⁰ So you will walk in the ways of good people and keep to the paths of the righteous. ²¹ For those who are upright will inhabit the land, and those who are blameless will dwell in it; ²² But the wicked will be removed from the land, and the treacherous will be uprooted from it.

3 My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart comply with my commandments; ² for they will add length of days and years of life, and bring you peace. ³ Let kindness and truth never leave you; bind them around your neck, inscribe them on the tablet of your heart. ⁴ Thus you will find favour and a good reputation in the sight of God and man. ⁵ Trust fully in the Lord, with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. ⁶ In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall make your paths straight. ⁷ Do not consider yourself wise; fear the Lord and turn from from evil. ⁸ This will bring well-being to your body and refreshment to your bones. ⁹ Give honour to the Lord with your wealth, and with the first-fruits of all your produce; ¹⁰ then your barns will be filled with abundance, and your vats will overflow with new wine.

¹¹ My son, do not reject the Lord's discipline, or loathe His rebuke, ¹² for the Lord disciplines those He loves, just as a father disciplines the son in whom he delights.

¹³ Blessed is the one who finds wisdom, and the one who gains understanding, ¹⁴ for her profit is better than silver, and her yield better than gold. ¹⁵ She is more valuable than jewels, and nothing you desire can equal her. ¹⁶ A long life accompanies her in one hand; in the other are wealth and honour. ¹⁷ Her ways are pleasant, and all her paths are peace. ¹⁸ She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her; happy are those who hold her fast.

¹⁹ By wisdom the Lord founded the earth; by understanding He established the heavens. ²⁰ By His knowledge the depths were divided, and the clouds drop the dew.

²¹ My son, do not let wisdom and discretion escape from your sight; preserve sound judgment, ²² and they will be life to your soul and an adornment to your neck. ²³ Then you will walk securely on your way, and your foot will not stumble. ²⁴ When you lie down, you will not be afraid; your sleep will be sweet. ²⁵ Do not fear sudden disaster, nor the ruin of the wicked when it comes; ²⁶ for the Lord will be your confidence and will prevent your foot from being ensnared.

²⁷ Do not hold back good from those who deserve it, when it is within your power to help. ²⁸ Do not say to your neighbour, "Go, and come back, and tomorrow I will give it to you," when you have it with you.

²⁹ Do not plot harm against your neighbour, who lives trustfully beside you. ³⁰ Do not contend with anyone without cause, if they have done you no harm. ³¹ Do not be envious of those who are violent, and do not choose any of their ways. ³² For the devious are detestable to the Lord, but He is intimate with the upright. ³³ The Lord's curse is upon the dwelling of the wicked, but He blesses the home of the righteous. ³⁴ He mocks the mockers, but gives grace to the humble. ³⁵ The wise will inherit honour, but fools will only gain disgrace.

4 Hear, my sons, a father's instruction; pay heed to gain understanding. ² For I offer you sound teaching; do not forsake my guidance. ³ When I was a son to my father, tender and cherished by my mother, ⁴ He instructed me and said,

"Let your heart grasp my words; keep my commandments and live.

⁵ Seek wisdom, seek understanding; do not forget nor turn away from the words of my mouth. ⁶ Do not abandon wisdom, and she will protect you; love her, and she will watch over you. ⁷ The beginning of wisdom is this: seek wisdom. Though it costs all you have, gain understanding. ⁸ Value her, and she will exalt you; embrace her, and she will honour you. ⁹ She will place a garland of grace on your head and present you with a crown of splendour."

¹⁰ Hear, my son, accept my sayings, and the years of your life will be many. ¹¹ I guide you in the way of wisdom and lead you in upright paths. ¹² When you walk, your steps will not be hindered; and if you run, you will not stumble. ¹³ Hold fast to instruction, do not let it go; guard it, for it is your life. ¹⁴ Do not enter the path of the wicked or walk in the way of evildoers. ¹⁵ Avoid it, do not travel on it; turn from it and continue on your way. ¹⁶ For they cannot sleep unless they do evil; they are robbed of slumber until they cause someone to stumble. ¹⁷ They consume the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.

Proverbs

¹⁸ But the path of the righteous is like the morning light, growing brighter until the full light of day. ¹⁹ The way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know what makes them stumble.

²⁰ My son, heed my words; listen carefully to my sayings. ²¹ Keep them always in your sight; hold them close within your heart. ²² For they are life to those who find them and health to the whole body. ²³ Protect your heart with all diligence, for it is the wellspring of life. ²⁴ Rid yourself of a deceitful mouth; keep corrupt speech far from your lips. ²⁵ Let your eyes look directly ahead; fix your gaze straight before you. ²⁶ Ponder the path of your feet, and all your ways will be secure. ²⁷ Do not turn to the right or to the left; keep your foot from evil.

5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom, and incline your ear to my understanding, ² so that you may maintain discretion, and your lips may preserve knowledge. ³ For the lips of an adulterous woman drip honey, and her speech is smoother than oil; ⁴ but ultimately she is as bitter as wormwood, as sharp as a double-edged sword. ⁵ Her feet descend to death, her steps lead straight to Sheol. ⁶ She does not consider the path of life; her ways are unstable, and she does not know it.

⁷ Therefore, my sons, listen to me and do not turn away from my words. ⁸ Keep your path far from her, and do not approach the door of her house, ⁹ lest you give your honour to others, and your years to the cruel one; ¹⁰ lest strangers be filled with your wealth, and your hard-earned possessions go to the house of a foreigner; ¹¹ and in the end, you will groan when your flesh and body are spent, ¹² You will say, "How I hated discipline, and my heart rejected correction! ¹³ I did not heed the voice of my teachers, nor did I listen to my instructors. ¹⁴ I was almost in complete ruin in the midst of the assembly and congregation."

¹⁵ Only drink water from your own storage jars, and only draw your fresh water from your own wells. ¹⁶ Should your springs overflow into the streets, your streams of water in the public squares? ¹⁷ Let them be yours alone, not to be shared with strangers. ¹⁸ May your source of joy be blessed, and find delight in the wife of your youth. ¹⁹ A loving doe, a graceful gazelle—may her breasts satisfy you always, may you be ever intoxicated with her love. ²⁰ Why, my son, should you be intoxicated with an adulteress, and embrace the bosom of a wayward woman?

²¹ For the ways of everyone are before the eyes of the Lord, and He examines all their paths. ²² The wrongdoings of the wicked will ensnare them, and they will be held fast by the cords of their sins. ²³ They will die for lack of discipline, and in the greatness of their folly they will go astray.

6 My son, if you have become a guarantor for your neighbour, or have given a handshake for a stranger, ² you have been ensnared by the words of your mouth, caught by what you have spoken. ³ So do this, my son, to save yourself, since you have fallen into your neighbour's hands:

Go, humble yourself, and be urgent with your neighbour to free yourself.

⁴ Do not allow sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids; ⁵ Save yourself like a gazelle from the hunter's hand, and like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

⁶ Consider the ant, you lazy one; watch its ways and gain wisdom! ⁷ It has no chief, officer, or ruler, ⁸ yet it prepares its food in the summer and gathers its provision at harvest. ⁹ How long will you lie there, you lazy one? When will you arise from your sleep? ¹⁰ A brief sleep, a little slumber, a slight folding of the hands to rest—

¹¹ and poverty will come upon you like a drifter, and scarcity like an armed man.

¹² A worthless and wicked person, who walks with a corrupt mouth, ¹³ who winks with his eyes, signals with his feet, and points with his fingers, ¹⁴ who plots evil with deceit in his heart—

he continually spreads strife.

Proverbs

¹⁵ Therefore disaster will overtake him suddenly; instantly he will be broken without remedy.

¹⁶ There are six things the Lord hates, seven that are an abomination to Him:

¹⁷ proud eyes, a deceitful tongue, and hands that spill innocent blood, ¹⁸ a heart that plans wicked schemes, feet that are swift to rush into evil, ¹⁹ a false witness who pours out lies, and one who spreads strife among brothers.

²⁰ My son, keep your father's commandment, and do not forsake your mother's teaching. ²¹ Bind them continually on your heart; fasten them around your neck. ²² When you walk, they will guide you; when you sleep, they will watch over you;

and when you awake, they will speak to you.

²³ For the commandment is a lamp, the teaching is a light, and corrections for discipline are the way to life, ²⁴ to keep you from the evil woman, from the smooth tongue of the wayward woman. ²⁵ Do not desire her beauty in your heart, nor let her captivate you with her eyes.

²⁶ For a prostitute can be had for a loaf of bread, but an adulteress hunts for a precious life. ²⁷ Can a man take fire into his lap without his clothes being burned? ²⁸ Or can one walk on hot coals without his feet being scorched? ²⁹ So is the one who goes in to his neighbour's wife; whoever touches her will not go unpunished.

³⁰ A thief is not despised if he steals to satisfy his hunger when he is starving; ³¹ yet if he is caught, he must repay sevenfold, even if it costs him all the wealth of his house. ³² But one who commits adultery with a woman lacks sense; he who does so destroys himself. ³³ He will face wounds and disgrace, and his shame will never be wiped away.

³⁴ For jealousy enrages a man, and he will show no mercy on the day of vengeance. ³⁵ He will not accept any compensation; no matter how great the bribe, he will refuse it.

7 My son, preserve my words and treasure my commandments within you. ² Keep my commandments and live; guard my teachings as the apple of your eye. ³ Bind them upon your fingers; inscribe them on the tablet of your heart. ⁴ Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," and call understanding your close friend, ⁵ so they may protect you from the adulterous woman, from the foreign woman who flatters with her words.

⁶ For at the window of my house I looked out through the lattice, ⁷ and I saw among the simple, I noticed among the youths, a young man lacking sense, ⁸ passing along the street near her corner, taking the path to her house ⁹ at twilight, in the evening, in the dark of night.

¹⁰ And behold, a woman comes to meet him, dressed like a prostitute and wily of heart. ¹¹ She is loud and rebellious; her feet do not remain at home; ¹² now in the streets, now in the squares, she lurks at every corner. ¹³ She seizes him and kisses him, and with a brazen face she says:

¹⁴ "I have fulfilled my vows today, and I have food from my peace offerings at home. ¹⁵ So I came out to meet you, to seek you earnestly, and I have found you! ¹⁶ I have adorned my bed with coverings, with coloured linens from Egypt. ¹⁷ I have scented my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. ¹⁸ Come, let us drink deeply of love until morning; let us delight ourselves with caresses. ¹⁹ For my husband is away; he has embarked on a long journey. ²⁰ He has taken a bag of money with him and will not return until the full moon."

²¹ With her many persuasions she entices him; with her smooth lips she seduces him. ²² Suddenly he follows her as an ox goes to the slaughter,

or as a deer stepping into a trap,

²³ until an arrow pierces his liver;

as a bird rushes into a snare, not knowing it will cost him his life.

²⁴ So now, my sons, listen to me, and give heed to what I say. ²⁵ Do not let your heart turn to her ways, do not wander into her paths. ²⁶ For she has brought down many victims; her slain are a vast multitude. ²⁷ Her house is a highway to the grave, descending to the chambers of death.

8 Does not wisdom call out, and understanding raise her voice? ² On the heights along the way, where the paths meet, she takes her stand; ³ Beside the gates leading into the city, at the entrance, she cries out: ⁴ "To you, O people, I call, and my voice is to all mankind. ⁵ You who are simple, gain prudence; you who are foolish, understand wisdom. ⁶ Listen, for I speak of noble things; the opening of my lips will reveal what is right. ⁷ My mouth speaks truth; wickedness is an abomination to my lips. ⁸ All the words of my mouth are righteous; there is nothing crooked or perverse in them. ⁹ To the discerning, they are all straightforward; to those who find knowledge, they are right. ¹⁰ Accept my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold. ¹¹ For wisdom is more valuable than rubies, and nothing you desire can equal her.

Proverbs

¹² "I, wisdom, live with prudence, and I possess knowledge and discretion. ¹³ To fear the Lord is to hate evil; I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and perverse speech.

¹⁴ Sound advice is mine and true wisdom; I am understanding, strength is mine. ¹⁵ Through me, kings exercise their rule, and rulers make their fair decrees; ¹⁶ by me princes govern, and nobles—all who judge rightly. ¹⁷ I cherish those who love me, and those who earnestly seek me will find me. ¹⁸ With me are riches and honour, enduring wealth and righteousness. ¹⁹ My fruit is better than gold, even pure gold; what I yield surpasses choice silver. ²⁰ I follow the path of righteousness, in the midst of the ways of justice, ²¹ bestowing wealth on those who love me, and filling their treasuries.

²² "The Lord created me as the first of His works, before His deeds of old. ²³ From eternity I was established, from the beginning, when the world came to be. ²⁴ Before the ocean depths existed, I was brought forth, before there were springs overflowing with water; ²⁵ before the mountains were created, before the hills, I was brought forth; ²⁶ before He made the earth or its fields or any of the dust of the world. ²⁷ I was there when He set the heavens in place, when He inscribed a circle on the face of the deep, ²⁸ when He made firm the skies above and fixed securely the fountains of the deep, ²⁹ when He set a boundary for the sea so that the waters would not overstep His command, and when He marked out the foundations of the earth.

³⁰ Then I was beside Him, as a master craftsman; I was His delight day after day, rejoicing always in His presence, ³¹ finding joy in His creation and taking pleasure in humanity.

³² "So now, my children, listen to me; blessed are those who follow my ways. ³³ Listen to my instruction and be wise; do not neglect it. ³⁴ Fortunate is the person who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at my doorposts. ³⁵ For whoever finds me discovers life and receives favour from the Lord. ³⁶ But whoever fails to find me harms themselves; all who hate me love death."

9 Wisdom has constructed her dwelling; she has carved out her seven pillars. ² She has prepared her feast, she has blended her wine;

she has also arranged her table.

³ She has dispatched her servants, and she calls out from the highest places of the city, ⁴ "Let anyone who is simple turn in here!" To those who lack sense she says, ⁵ "Come, partake of my food and drink the wine I have mixed. ⁶ Forsake your foolishness and live; walk in the path of insight."

⁷ He who corrects a scoffer invites dishonour; he who rebukes the wicked receives insults. ⁸ Do not rebuke a scoffer, lest they hate you;

rebuke the wise, and they will love you.

⁹ Instruct the wise and they will grow wiser still;

teach the righteous and they will enhance their learning.

¹⁰ Reverence for the Lord is the foundation of wisdom, and understanding comes from knowing the Holy One. ¹¹ For through wisdom your days will be multiplied, and years will be added to your life. ¹² If you are wise, your wisdom benefits you; if you scoff, you alone will bear it.

¹³ Folly is a boisterous woman; she is naive and knows nothing. ¹⁴ She sits at the entrance of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city, ¹⁵ calling out to those who pass by, while they are going on their way, ¹⁶ "Let anyone who is simple turn in here!" And to those who lack sense she says, ¹⁷ "Stolen water is sweet, and bread eaten in secret is delightful." ¹⁸ Yet they are unaware that the dead reside there, that her guests are in the depths of the grave.

Proverbs

10 These are the sayings of Solomon: A wise son brings joy to his father, but a foolish son causes sorrow to his mother. ² Ill-gotten gains do not endure, but righteousness delivers from death. ³ The Lord will not let the righteous go hungry, but He frustrates the desires of the wicked. ⁴ Lazy hands lead to poverty, but diligent hands bring wealth. ⁵ He who gathers in the summer is a prudent son, but he who sleeps during harvest is a shameful son. ⁶ Blessings crown the head of the righteous, but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence. ⁷ The memory of the righteous is a blessing, but the name of the wicked will decay. ⁸ Those who are wise in heart accept commands, but those who speak foolishly come to ruin. ⁹ Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but whoever takes crooked paths will be discovered. ¹⁰ He who winks maliciously causes grief, and those who talk foolishly will come to ruin. ¹¹ The words of the righteous are a source of life, but the speech of the wicked conceals harm. ¹² Hatred stirs up conflict, but love covers all wrongs. ¹³ Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning, but a rod is for the back of one who lacks sense. ¹⁴ The wise accumulate knowledge, but the words of a fool invite ruin. ¹⁵ The wealth of the rich is their fortress, but poverty is the ruin of the poor. ¹⁶ The wages of the righteous lead to life, but the income of the wicked brings punishment. ¹⁷ Whoever listens to discipline shows the way to life, but whoever ignores correction leads others astray. ¹⁸ Those who hide hatred with deceitful words and spread slander are foolish. ¹⁹ When words are many, sin is not absent, but whoever restrains their lips is wise. ²⁰ The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver, but the heart of the wicked is of little value. ²¹ The lips of the righteous nourish many, but those lacking sense perish. ²² The blessing of the Lord brings wealth, without adding sorrow to it. ²³ A foolish person finds joy in wicked schemes, but one who is wise delights in understanding. ²⁴ What the wicked dread will overtake them, but the desires of the righteous will be granted. ²⁵ When the storm has passed, the wicked are no more, but the righteous stand firm forever. ²⁶ As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes, so is a sluggard to those who send him. ²⁷ Reverence for the Lord prolongs life, but the years of the wicked are cut short. ²⁸ The hope of the righteous is joy, but the expectations of the wicked will perish. ²⁹ The way of the Lord is a refuge for the blameless, but it is ruin for those who do evil. ³⁰ The righteous will remain secure, but the wicked will not stay in the land. ³¹ The words of the righteous bear the fruit of wisdom, but a perverse tongue will be silenced. ³² The lips of the righteous know what is favourable, but the mouth of the wicked only what is perverse.

11 The Lord abhors false scales, but accurate weights are His pleasure. ² When pride arrives, disgrace follows, but with the humble there is wisdom. ³ The integrity of the upright guides them, but the treachery of the unfaithful leads to their ruin. ⁴ Riches are futile on the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death. ⁵ The righteousness of the blameless clears their path, but the wicked stumble by their own wickedness. ⁶ The righteousness of the upright rescues them, but the treacherous are ensnared by their own greed. ⁷ When the wicked die, their hopes perish, and the promise of their might comes to nothing. ⁸ The righteous are saved from trouble, and it befalls the wicked instead. ⁹ With their mouths the godless ruin their neighbours, but through knowledge the righteous find deliverance. ¹⁰ When the righteous prosper, the city rejoices; when the wicked perish, there is celebration. ¹¹ A city is exalted by the blessing of the upright, but it is destroyed by the words of the wicked. ¹² Whoever belittles their neighbour lacks judgement, but a person of understanding remains silent. ¹³ A gossip betrays a confidence, but a trustworthy person keeps a matter concealed. ¹⁴ Without guidance a nation falls, but victory comes through many counsellors. ¹⁵ Whoever guarantees a stranger will suffer for it, but whoever avoids such pledges is secure. ¹⁶ A kind-hearted woman gains honour, but ruthless men gain only riches. ¹⁷ A merciful person benefits themselves, but the cruel bring harm upon themselves. ¹⁸ A wicked person earns deceptive wages, but the one who sows righteousness receives a true reward. ¹⁹ The steadfast in righteousness attain life, but those who pursue evil meet death. ²⁰ The Lord detests those with perverse hearts, but He delights in the blameless. ²¹ Rest assured, the wicked will not go unpunished, but the righteous will be delivered. ²² As a gold ring in the snout of a pig, so is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion. ²³ The desires of the righteous end in good, but the expectations of the wicked result in wrath. ²⁴ One person gives freely, yet gains more; another withholds unduly, and comes to poverty. ²⁵ A generous person will prosper, and whoever refreshes others will themselves be refreshed. ²⁶ People curse the one who hoards grain, but blessing is upon the one willing to sell. ²⁷ Whoever seeks good finds favour, but evil comes to those who pursue it. ²⁸ Those who trust in their riches will fall, but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf. ²⁹ Whoever brings trouble upon their family will inherit only wind, and the fool will serve the wise. ³⁰ The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and the wise save lives. ³¹ If the righteous are rewarded on earth, how much more the wicked and the sinner!

Proverbs

12 Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but whoever despises rebuke is foolish. ² A good person gains favour from the Lord, but He condemns those who devise evil. ³ No one is established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous remains unshaken. ⁴ A wife of noble character is her husband's crown, but a wife who brings shame is like decay in his bones. ⁵ The thoughts of the righteous are just, but the advice of the wicked is deceitful. ⁶ The words of the wicked lie in ambush for blood, but the speech of the upright rescues them. ⁷ The wicked are overthrown and vanish, but the house of the righteous stands firm. ⁸ A person is praised according to their insight, but one with a perverse mind is despised. ⁹ Better to be of lowly status and have a servant, than to pretend to be important and lack food. ¹⁰ The righteous care for the life of their animals, but the kindest acts of the wicked are cruel. ¹¹ Those who work their land will have plenty of food, but those who chase worthless pursuits lack sense. ¹² The wicked desire the plunder of evildoers, but the root of the righteous bears fruit. ¹³ Evildoers are ensnared by their sinful talk, but the righteous escape trouble. ¹⁴ From the fruit of their words people are filled with good things, and the work of their hands brings them reward. ¹⁵ The way of a fool seems right to them, but the wise heed advice. ¹⁶ Fools show their annoyance instantly, but the prudent overlook an insult. ¹⁷ An honest witness speaks truthfully, but a false witness speaks deceit. ¹⁸ Rash words pierce like swords, but the tongue of the wise brings healing. ¹⁹ Truthful speech is enduring, but deceitful words are short-lived. ²⁰ Those who harbour deceit in their hearts plot evil, but those who promote peace experience joy. ²¹ The righteous encounter no lasting harm, but the wicked are filled with trouble. ²² The Lord detests lying lips, but He delights in those who are trustworthy. ²³ The prudent keep their knowledge to themselves, but the heart of fools blurts out folly. ²⁴ Diligent hands will rule, but laziness leads to forced labour. ²⁵ Anxiety burdens the heart, but a kind word lifts it up. ²⁶ The righteous are careful in choosing their friends, but the way of the wicked leads them astray. ²⁷ The lazy do not roast their game, but the diligent make use of their resources. ²⁸ In the way of righteousness there is life; along its path there is no death.

13 A wise son listens to his father's guidance, but a scoffer does not pay attention to correction. ² From the fruit of one's mouth, good things are enjoyed, but the desire of the unfaithful is for violence. ³ Those who guard their mouth preserve their life, but those who speak rashly come to ruin. ⁴ The soul of the lazy craves and gets nothing, but the desires of the diligent are fully satisfied. ⁵ The righteous detest falsehood, but the wicked act shamefully and disgustingly. ⁶ Righteousness protects the person of integrity, but wickedness overthrows the sinner. ⁷ One pretends to be rich and has nothing; another pretends to be poor and has great wealth. ⁸ A person's wealth may ransom their life, but the poor hear no rebuke. ⁹ The light of the righteous shines brightly, but the lamp of the wicked shall go out. ¹⁰ Pride leads to strife, but wisdom is found in those who accept counsel. ¹¹ Wealth obtained dishonestly dwindles, but whoever gathers little by little increases it. ¹² Delayed hope can weigh heavily on the heart, but when a desire is fulfilled, it is like a tree of life. ¹³ Whoever scorns instruction will suffer for it, but whoever respects a command is rewarded. ¹⁴ The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life, turning one away from the snares of death. ¹⁵ Good judgment gains favour, but the way of the treacherous leads to destruction. ¹⁶ Every prudent person acts with knowledge, but a fool exposes their folly. ¹⁷ A wicked messenger encounters misfortune, but a trustworthy envoy brings healing. ¹⁸ Poverty and shame come to those who disregard discipline, but those who heed correction are honoured. ¹⁹ A longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul, but fools detest turning away from evil. ²⁰ Keep company with the wise and become wise, for a companion of fools suffers harm. ²¹ Trouble pursues sinners, but the righteous are rewarded with prosperity.²² A good person leaves an inheritance for their grandchildren, but a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous.²³ Abundant food is found in the unploughed field of the poor, but it is swept away by injustice.²⁴ Whoever spares the rod hates their child, but the one who loves their child is diligent to discipline them.²⁵ The righteous eat to their heart's content, but the stomach of the wicked remains hungry.

Proverbs

14 The wise woman constructs her house, but the foolish one demolishes it with her own hands.² Whoever walks in uprightness fears the Lord, but the devious in their ways show contempt for Him.³ In the mouth of the foolish is a rod for their back, but the lips of the wise will safeguard them.⁴ Where there are no oxen, the manger is clean, but abundant harvests come from the strength of an ox.⁵ A truthful witness does not lie, but a false witness speaks deceit.⁶ A mocker seeks wisdom and finds none, but knowledge is easily found by those with understanding.⁷ Depart from the presence of a fool, for you will not find words of knowledge on their lips.⁸ The wisdom of the prudent is to understand their way, but the folly of fools is deceit.⁹ Fools make light of making amends for sin, but goodwill is found among the upright.¹⁰ The heart alone knows the extent of its own bitterness, and no stranger can fully share its joy.¹¹ The dwelling of the wicked will be brought down, but the abode of the upright will flourish.¹² There is a way that seems right to a person, but in the end, it leads to death.¹³ Even when laughing, the heart may be in pain, and the conclusion of joy may be sorrow.¹⁴ The faithless will be filled with their own ways, but a good person will be satisfied with theirs.¹⁵ The simple believe anything, but the prudent consider their steps.¹⁶ A wise person is careful and avoids evil, but a fool is reckless and overconfident.¹⁷ A quick-tempered person acts foolishly, and one who devises evil schemes is despised.¹⁸ The naive acquire foolishness, but those who are prudent are adorned with knowledge.¹⁹ Evildoers will bow down before the good, and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.²⁰ The poor are shunned even by their neighbour, but the rich have many friends.²¹ It is a sin to despise one's neighbour, but blessed is the one who is kind to the poor.²² Do not those who plot evil go astray? But kindness and truth come to those who plan what is good.²³ In all diligent work there is profit, but idle talk leads only to poverty.²⁴ The wealth of the wise is their crown, but the folly of fools is simply folly.²⁵ A truthful witness saves lives, but one who speaks lies is deceitful.²⁶ In the fear of the Lord there is strong confidence, and for their children it will be a refuge.²⁷ The fear of the Lord is a fountain of life, turning one away from the snares of death.²⁸ The multitude of a nation is a king's honour, but a prince is undone when he has no followers.²⁹ Whoever is slow to anger has great understanding, but one who is quick-tempered displays folly.³⁰ A tranquil heart gives life to the body, but envy rots the bones.³¹ Whoever oppresses the poor shows contempt for their Maker, but whoever is kind to the needy honours Him.³² When calamity comes, the wicked are brought down, but the righteous have a refuge even in death.³³ Wisdom rests in the heart of the discerning, but even among fools, she is made known.³⁴ Righteousness exalts up a nation, but sin brings disgrace to any people.³⁵ A king delights in a servant who acts wisely, but his anger is towards one who acts shamefully.

15 A gentle answer deflects anger, but a harsh word incites fury.² The tongue of the wise enhances knowledge, but the mouth of fools spills folly.³ The eyes of the Lord are in every place, observing the wicked and the good.⁴ A soothing tongue is a tree of life, but a twisted tongue crushes the spirit.⁵ A fool rejects a parent's discipline, but whoever accepts correction is wise.⁶ The house of the righteous holds great wealth, but the income of the wicked brings trouble.⁷ The lips of the wise spread knowledge, but the hearts of fools are not right.⁸ The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable to the Lord, but the prayer of the upright delights Him.⁹ The Lord finds the way of the wicked distasteful, but He loves those who follow righteousness.¹⁰ Severe discipline awaits anyone who strays from the path; one who hates correction will die.¹¹ Sheol and Abaddon lie open before the Lord; how much more so the hearts of mankind!¹² A mocker resents correction and will not seek the wise.¹³ A joyful heart makes a cheerful face, but a broken heart crushes the spirit.¹⁴ The discerning heart seeks knowledge, but the mouth of fools indulges in folly.¹⁵ All the days of the oppressed are difficult, but a cheerful heart enjoys a continual feast.¹⁶ Better is a little with the fear of the Lord than great wealth with turmoil.¹⁷

Proverbs

Better is a small serving of vegetables with love than a fattened ox with hatred. ¹⁸ A hot-tempered person stirs up conflict, but one slow to anger calms a dispute. ¹⁹ The way of the sluggard is like a hedge of thorns, but the path of the upright is a highway. ²⁰ A wise child brings joy to their father, but a foolish person shows disregard for their mother. ²¹ Foolishness brings joy to one who lacks sense, but a person of understanding walks a straight path. ²² Plans fail without counsel, but with many advisers they succeed. ²³ A person finds joy in an apt reply, and how delightful is a timely word! ²⁴ The path of life leads upwards for the prudent, to keep them from descending to Sheol. ²⁵ The Lord will tear down the house of the proud, but He will protect the boundary of the widow. ²⁶ The Lord finds evil plans detestable, but gracious words are pure. ²⁷ The greedy bring trouble to their household, but the one who hates bribes will live. ²⁸ The heart of the righteous considers how to answer, but the mouth of the wicked pours out evil. ²⁹ The Lord keeps His distance from the wicked, but He hears the prayer of the righteous. ³⁰ Bright eyes bring joy to the heart; good news refreshes the bones. ³¹ Whoever listens to life-giving correction will dwell among the wise. ³² Those who neglect discipline despise themselves, but whoever heeds correction gains understanding. ³³ The fear of the Lord is the instruction for wisdom, and before honour comes humility.

16 The plans of the heart belong to humans, but the response of the tongue is from the Lord. ² All a person's ways are pure in their own eyes, but the Lord weighs the motives. ³ Commit your actions to the Lord, and He will establish your plans. ⁴ The Lord has made everything for its own purpose, even the wicked for the day of trouble. ⁵ The Lord detests all who are proud in heart; be assured, they will not go unpunished. ⁶ Through mercy and truth, sin is atoned for; through the fear of the Lord, evil is avoided. ⁷ When the Lord is pleased with a person's ways, he makes even their enemies live at peace with them. ⁸ Better a little with righteousness than great gain with injustice. ⁹ In their hearts, humans plan their course, but the Lord directs their steps.

¹⁰ A divine decision is on the lips of a king; his mouth should not betray justice. ¹¹ Honest scales and balances are the Lord's; all the weights in the bag

are his concern. ¹² Kings detest wrongdoing, for a throne is established by righteousness. ¹³ Righteous lips are the delight of kings, and they love those who speak what is right. ¹⁴ A king's wrath is a messenger of death, but a wise person will appease it. ¹⁵ In the light of a king's face is life, and his favour is like a cloud bringing spring rain.

¹⁶ How much better to acquire wisdom than gold, and to gain understanding is to be chosen above silver. ¹⁷ The highway of the upright turns away from evil; those who guard their way preserve their life. ¹⁸ Pride precedes destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall. ¹⁹ It is better to be humble in spirit with the oppressed than to share spoils with the proud. ²⁰ Whoever pays attention to instruction will find good, and blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord. ²¹ The wise in heart are called discerning, and sweetness of speech increases persuasiveness. ²² Understanding is a fountain of life to those who have it, but the folly of fools brings punishment. ²³ The heart of the wise makes their mouth prudent, and their lips promote learning. ²⁴ Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.

²⁵ There is a way that seems right to a person, but its end leads to death. ²⁶ A labourer's appetite works for them; their hunger drives them on. ²⁷ A worthless person plots evil, and their words are like a scorching fire. ²⁸ A perverse person stirs up conflict, and a slanderer separates close friends. ²⁹ A violent person entices their neighbour and leads them onto a harmful path. ³⁰ Whoever winks with their eye is plotting perversity; whoever compresses their lips brings evil to pass. ³¹ Grey hair is a crown of splendour; it is found in the way of righteousness. ³² Better a patient person than a warrior, one who controls their spirit than one who captures a city. ³³ The lot is cast into the lap, yet its every decision comes from the Lord.

17 Better is a dry crust with peace than a house full of feasting with conflict. ² A wise servant will govern over a disgraceful son and will share the inheritance among the family. ³ The crucible is for silver and the furnace for gold, but the Lord examines hearts. ⁴ An evildoer listens to deceitful lips; a liar heeds a harmful tongue. ⁵ Whoever mocks the poor insults their Maker; whoever rejoices at calamity will not go unpunished. ⁶ Grandchildren are the pride of their grandparents, and the honour of ones children is found in their parents. ⁷ Eloquent speech is unfitting for a fool, much less lying lips for a leader. ⁸ A bribe is like a charm to the one who gives it; wherever he turns, he succeeds. ⁹ Whoever covers an offence promotes love, but whoever repeats the matter separates close friends. ¹⁰ A reprimand penetrates more deeply into a discerning person than a hundred lashes into a fool. ¹¹ A rebellious person seeks only evil; therefore a cruel messenger will be sent against him. ¹² Better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than a fool in his folly. ¹³ Evil will not depart from the house of one who repays good with evil. ¹⁴ The start of a quarrel is like releasing water; so abandon the dispute before it breaks out. ¹⁵ Justifying the wicked and condemning the righteous are both detestable to the Lord. ¹⁶ Why should a fool have money to buy wisdom when he has no understanding? ¹⁷ A friend loves at all times, and a sibling is there for times of adversity. ¹⁸ One lacking sense shakes hands in pledge and becomes surety for a neighbour. ¹⁹ Whoever loves a quarrel loves sin; whoever raises his doorway seeks destruction. ²⁰ One with a perverse heart finds no good, and one with a deceitful tongue falls into trouble. ²¹ To have a fool for a child brings sorrow; there is no joy for the parent of a fool. ²² A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a broken spirit dries up the bones. ²³ A wicked person accepts a bribe in secret to pervert the course of justice. ²⁴ Wisdom is in the presence of one who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth. ²⁵ A foolish son brings grief to his father and sorrow to the mother who gave him birth. ²⁶ It is not good to punish the innocent, nor to flog the upright for their integrity. ²⁷ One who has knowledge uses words sparingly, and one with a calm spirit is a person of understanding. ²⁸ Even a fool is considered wise if he remains silent, and discerning if he holds his tongue.

Proverbs

18 A person who isolates themselves seeks their own desires; they quarrel against all sound judgment. ² Fools take no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing their own thoughts. ³ When wickedness arrives, so does contempt, and with dishonour comes reproach. ⁴ The words from a person's mouth are deep waters; the wellspring of wisdom is a flowing brook. ⁵ It is not good to show favouritism to the wicked or to deny justice to the righteous. ⁶ The lips of a fool bring them into conflict, and their mouth invites a beating. ⁷ A fool's mouth is their ruin, and their lips are a trap for their soul. ⁸ The words of a gossip are like choice morsels; they go down to the innermost parts. ⁹ One who is slack in their work is a sibling to one who destroys. ¹⁰ The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous run to it and find safety. ¹¹ The wealth of the rich is their fortified city; they perceive it as an unscalable wall. ¹² Before destruction, a person's heart is proud, but humility precedes honour. ¹³ To respond before listening is foolishness and brings shame. ¹⁴ The spirit of a person can sustain them in sickness, but a broken spirit who can endure? ¹⁵ The discerning heart acquires knowledge, and the ears of the wise seek it out. ¹⁶ A gift paves the way for the giver and brings them before the great. ¹⁷ The first to present their case seems right, until another comes and examines them. ¹⁸ Casting lots ends disputes and separates powerful opponents. ¹⁹ An offended brother is more unyielding than a fortified city, and disputes are like the barred gates of a citadel. ²⁰ From the fruit of their mouth a person's stomach is filled; with the yield of their lips they are satisfied. ²¹ The tongue holds the power of life and death, and those who love it will eat its fruit. ²² Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing and receives favour from the Lord. ²³ The poor plead for mercy, but the rich respond harshly. ²⁴ One with too many friends may come to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

19 Better is a poor person who walks in integrity than one who is perverse in speech and is a fool. ² Desire without knowledge is not good, and one who hurries his steps misses the way. ³ A person's own folly leads to ruin, yet his heart rages against the Lord. ⁴ Wealth brings many companions, but a poor person finds himself distanced from friends. ⁵ A false witness will not go unpunished, and whoever spreads lies will not escape. ⁶ Many seek the favour of a generous person, and everyone is a friend to one who gives gifts. ⁷ All the relatives of a poor person shun him; how much more do his friends avoid him! Though he pursues them with pleading, they are nowhere to be found. ⁸ The one who acquires wisdom loves his own soul; the one who cherishes understanding will find good. ⁹ A false witness will not go unpunished, and whoever spreads lies will meet their end. ¹⁰ Opulence is not suitable for a fool; even less so for a servant to govern over nobles. ¹¹ A person's wisdom makes him slow to anger; it is to his glory to overlook an offence. ¹² A king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion, but his favour is like dew on the grass. ¹³ A foolish child is a father's ruin, and the quarrels of a wife are like a constant dripping. ¹⁴ Property and riches are passed down from parents, but a wise wife is from the Lord. ¹⁵ Laziness brings on deep sleep, and a lazy person will suffer hunger. ¹⁶ Whoever keeps the commandment keeps his life, but whoever is careless of conduct will die. ¹⁷ Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the Lord, and He will repay him for his good deed. ¹⁸ Discipline your children while there is hope, and do not be a willing party to their death. ¹⁹ A hot-tempered person must pay the penalty; if you rescue him, you will have to do it again. ²⁰ Listen to advice and accept discipline, so that you may be wise for the rest of your days. ²¹ Many are the plans in a person's heart, but it is the Lord's purpose that will stand. ²² What is desirable in a person is his kindness; it is better to be poor than a liar. ²³ Reverence for the Lord leads to life; then one rests content, untouched by trouble. ²⁴ The sluggard buries his hand in the bowl but will not even bring it back to his mouth. ²⁵ Strike a mocker, and the simple will learn prudence; rebuke the discerning, and they will gain knowledge. ²⁶ He who robs his father and drives out his mother is a shameful and disgraceful son. ²⁷ If you cease to heed instruction, you will stray from the words of knowledge. ²⁸ A worthless witness mocks at justice, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down wrongdoing. ²⁹ Judgments are ready for mockers, and blows for the backs of fools.

Proverbs

20 Wine is a mocker, and strong drink a brawler; whoever is led astray by it is not wise. ² A king's wrath is like the roar of a lion; one who provokes him forfeits their life. ³ To avoid strife is an honour for a person, but any fool is quick to quarrel. ⁴ The sluggard does not plough in season; so at harvest time they look and find nothing. ⁵ The purposes in a person's heart are like deep waters, but one with understanding draws them out. ⁶ Many proclaim their own steadfast love, but a faithful person who can find? ⁷ The righteous walk in integrity; blessed are their children after them. ⁸ A king who sits on the throne of judgement winnows out all evil with his eyes. ⁹ Who can claim, "I have purified my heart; I am free from my sin"? ¹⁰

Differing weights and differing measures— both are detestable to the Lord. ¹¹ Even a child is known by their actions, whether their conduct is pure and right. ¹² The ability to hear and see— both are crafted by the Lord. ¹³ Do not love sleep, or you will grow poor; open your eyes, and you will have food to spare. ¹⁴ "It's no good, it's no good!" says the buyer, but then goes off and boasts. ¹⁵ There is gold and an abundance of jewels, but lips that speak knowledge are a rare treasure. ¹⁶ Take the garment of one who puts up security for a stranger; hold it in pledge if it is for an outsider. ¹⁷ Food gained by deceit is sweet, but afterwards the mouth is full of gravel. ¹⁸ Plans are established by counsel; make war with wise guidance. ¹⁹ A gossip betrays a confidence; therefore, avoid anyone who talks too much. ²⁰ If someone curses their father or mother, their lamp will be snuffed out in darkness. ²¹ An inheritance claimed hastily will not be blessed in the end. ²² Do not declare, "I will repay evil"; instead, wait for the Lord, and he will deliver you. ²³ Differing weights are an abomination to the Lord, and dishonest scales are not good. ²⁴ The Lord directs a person's steps; how then can anyone fully understand their own path? ²⁵ It is risky to dedicate something impulsively and only later reflect on one's vows. ²⁶ A wise king winnows out the wicked and drives the threshing wheel over them. ²⁷ The human spirit is the lamp of the Lord, searching all the innermost parts. ²⁸ Love and faithfulness preserve a king; through loyalty his throne is made secure. ²⁹ The glory of young men is their strength, and the splendour of old men is their grey hair. ³⁰ Blows and wounds purge away evil, and beatings cleanse the innermost being.

21 The heart of the king is like streams of water in the hand of the Lord; He directs it wherever He desires. ² A person's way may seem right in their own eyes, but the Lord evaluates the heart. ³ To act with righteousness and justice is more desirable to the Lord than sacrifice. ⁴ Haughty eyes and a proud heart, the lamp of the wicked, are sinful. ⁵ The plans of the diligent lead surely to profit, but those who are hasty end in poverty. ⁶ Gaining wealth through a lying tongue is a fleeting vapour and a deadly trap. ⁷ The violence of the wicked will carry them away, because they refuse to act justly. ⁸ The path of the guilty is twisted, but the actions of the pure are straightforward. ⁹ Better to live on the corner of a roof than to share a house with a contentious woman. ¹⁰ The soul of the wicked desires evil; they show no mercy to their neighbour. ¹¹ When a mocker is punished, the simple gain wisdom; when the wise are instructed, they receive knowledge. ¹² The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked and brings them to ruin. ¹³ Whoever closes their ears to the cry of the poor will also cry out and not be answered. ¹⁴ A gift given in secret calms anger, and a bribe hidden in the cloak pacifies strong wrath. ¹⁵ The execution of justice brings joy to the righteous but terror to those who do evil. ¹⁶ Whoever strays from the path of understanding will rest in the company of the dead. ¹⁷ Whoever loves pleasure will become poor; whoever loves wine and oil will not become wealthy. ¹⁸ The wicked serve as a ransom for the righteous, and the treacherous for the upright. ¹⁹ Better to live in a desert than with a contentious and irritable woman. ²⁰ The wise store up precious treasure and oil, but the foolish consume it all. ²¹ Whoever seeks righteousness and love discovers life, prosperity, and honour. ²² A wise person can scale the city of the mighty and bring down the stronghold in which they trust. ²³ Those who guard their mouths and tongues protect themselves from trouble. ²⁴ The proud and arrogant person, known as "Scoffer," acts with insolent pride. ²⁵ The desire of the sluggard will be his downfall, for his hands refuse to work. ²⁶ All day long he craves, but the righteous give generously without holding back. ²⁷ The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable, and even more so when brought with evil intent. ²⁸ A false witness will perish, but the one who listens will speak with endurance. ²⁹ A wicked person puts on a bold face, but the upright gives careful thought to their ways. ³⁰ There is no wisdom, no understanding, and no plan that can prevail against the Lord. ³¹ The horse is prepared for the day of battle, but victory is of the Lord.

Proverbs

22 A good name is more to be desired than great wealth; to be esteemed is better than silver or gold. ² The rich and the poor share this in common: the Lord is the Maker of them all. ³ A prudent person sees danger and takes refuge, but the naive continue on and pay the penalty. ⁴ The reward of humility and the fear of the Lord is riches, honour, and life. ⁵ Thorns and snares lie in the path of the wicked; those who guard their lives will stay far from them. ⁶ Train a child in the way he should go, and even when he is old he will not depart from

it. ⁷ Those with wealth have authority over those with less, and those who borrow are in a position of service to their lenders. ⁸ Whoever sows injustice will reap calamity, and the rod of their fury will be broken. ⁹ Those who are generous will be blessed, for they share their provisions with those in need. ¹⁰ Expel the scoffer, and strife will depart; quarrels and insults will cease. ¹¹ One who loves a pure heart and whose speech is gracious will have the king as a friend. ¹² The eyes of the Lord watch over knowledge, but He overthrows the words of the unfaithful. ¹³ The lazy person says, "There is a lion outside! I will be killed in the streets!" ¹⁴ The mouth of an adulterous woman is a deep pit; he who is cursed by the Lord will fall into it. ¹⁵ Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline will drive it far away. ¹⁶ One who oppresses the poor to increase wealth, or gives gifts to the rich, will only come to poverty.

¹⁷ Incline your ear and listen to the words of the wise; apply your heart to my knowledge, ¹⁸ for it is pleasing when you keep them within you and have them ready on your lips. ¹⁹ So that your trust may be in the Lord, I instruct you today, even you. ²⁰ Have I not provided you with numerous sayings of counsel and knowledge, ²¹ to teach you true and reliable words, so that you may give a correct answer to those who sent you? ²² Do not exploit the poor because they are poor, nor crush the needy in the gate, ²³ for the Lord will take up their cause and will bring about justice.

²⁴ Do not make friends with a hot-tempered person, nor associate with one easily angered, ²⁵ or you may learn their ways and find a snare for yourself.

²⁶ Do not be among those who shake hands in pledge, or among those who become guarantors for debts. ²⁷ If you have nothing with which to repay, why should your bed be taken from under you? ²⁸ Do not move an ancient boundary stone set by your ancestors. ²⁹ Do you see someone skilled in their work? They will serve before kings; they will not serve before obscure people.

23 When you sit to dine with a ruler, pay careful attention to what is set before you, ² and put a knife to your throat if you are prone to great appetite. ³ Do not desire his delicacies, for that food is deceptive. ⁴ Do not exhaust yourself in pursuit of wealth; cease relying on your own understanding. ⁵ When you fix your eyes on it, it is gone, for riches will surely sprout wings and fly to the sky like an eagle.

Proverbs

⁶ Do not eat the bread of a begrudging host, nor desire his delicacies; ⁷ for just as he thinks within himself, so he is. He says to you, "Eat and drink," but his heart is not truly with you. ⁸ You will vomit up the morsel you have eaten and squander your compliments. ⁹ Do not speak in the hearing of a fool, for he will scorn the wisdom of your words. ¹⁰ Do not move an ancient boundary stone or encroach upon the fields of the fatherless, ¹¹ for their Defender is strong; he will take up their cause against you. ¹² Commit yourself to instruction and listen to words of knowledge. ¹³ Do not withhold discipline from a child; if you strike them with the rod, they will not die. ¹⁴ Strike them with the rod and rescue their soul from Sheol. ¹⁵ My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart will be glad indeed; ¹⁶ my deepest being will rejoice when your lips speak what is right. ¹⁷ Do not let your heart envy sinners, but always be zealous for the fear of the Lord. ¹⁸ Surely there is a future hope for you, and your hope will not be cut off. ¹⁹ Listen, my son, and be wise, and direct your heart in the right way. ²⁰ Do not be among those who drink too much wine or gorge themselves on meat, ²¹ for drunkards and gluttons will come to poverty, and drowsiness will clothe them in rags. ²² Pay attention to your father, who gave you life, and do not despise your mother when she is old. ²³ Buy the truth and do not sell it; acquire wisdom, instruction, and understanding. ²⁴ The father of a righteous child will have great joy; he who fathers a wise son will rejoice in him. ²⁵ Let your father and mother be glad; let her who gave you birth rejoice. ²⁶ My son, give me your heart and let your eyes take pleasure in my ways, ²⁷ for a promiscuous woman is a deep pit, and a wayward wife is a narrow well. ²⁸ She lurks like a bandit and increases the unfaithful among men. ²⁹ Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has strife? Who has complaints? Who has needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes? ³⁰ Those who linger long over wine, who go to sample mixed wine. ³¹ Do not be captivated by wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup, when it goes down smoothly; ³² for in the end it bites like a serpent and stings like a viper. ³³ Your eyes will see peculiar things, and your mind will speak distorted things. ³⁴ You will be like one sleeping on the high seas, lying on top of the mast. ³⁵ "They struck me," you will say, "but I was not hurt! They beat me, but I did not feel it! When will I wake up so I can find another drink?"

24 Do not envy evil people, nor desire their company; ² for their hearts devise violence, and their lips speak of trouble. ³ Through wisdom a house finds its foundation, and through understanding it becomes firmly set; ⁴ through knowledge its rooms are filled with precious and pleasant treasures.

⁵ A wise person is strong, and a person of knowledge enhances their strength. ⁶ For with wise guidance you can wage war, and victory is achieved through many advisers. ⁷ Wisdom is beyond the reach of fools; at the city gate they do not open their mouths. ⁸ Whoever plans evil will be known as a schemer. ⁹ The plotting of foolishness is sin, and a mocker is detested by people. ¹⁰ If you falter in times of trouble, your strength is small. ¹¹ Rescue those being led to death; hold back those staggering towards slaughter. ¹² If you claim, "We did not know this," does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who guards your life know it? Will he not repay everyone according to their deeds? ¹³ My son, eat honey, for it is good; honey from the comb is sweet to your taste. ¹⁴ Know that wisdom is sweet to your soul; if you find it, there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off. ¹⁵ Do not lie in wait, you wicked person, against the home of the righteous; do not destroy their dwelling place; ¹⁶ for though the righteous fall seven times, they rise again, but the wicked stumble when disaster strikes. ¹⁷ Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not let your heart be glad when they stumble, ¹⁸ lest the Lord take notice and turn his attention away from them. ¹⁹ Do not fret because of evildoers or envy the wicked, ²⁰ for the evildoer has no future, and the lamp of the wicked will be extinguished. ²¹ Fear the Lord and the king, my son, and do not associate with the rebellious, ²² for their disaster will arise suddenly, and who knows what ruin they can bring? ²³ These also are sayings of the wise: Showing partiality in judgement is not good. ²⁴ Whoever declares the wicked to be innocent will be cursed by peoples and denounced by nations. ²⁵ But it will go well with those who convict the guilty, and a rich blessing will come upon them. ²⁶ An honest sincere response is as pleasing as a gentle kiss. ²⁷ Prepare your work outside, and make it ready in the field; afterwards, build your house. ²⁸ Do not testify against your neighbour without cause, and do not deceive with your lips. ²⁹ Do not say, "I will do to them as they have done to me; I will repay them for what they have done." ³⁰ I passed by the field of a sluggard, by the vineyard of someone lacking sense; ³¹ and it was overgrown with thorns, the ground was covered with weeds, and the stone wall was in ruins. ³² I observed and took it to heart; I looked and received instruction. ³³ A bit of sleep, a bit of slumber, a slight folding of the hands to rest— ³⁴ and poverty will come upon you like a robber, and scarcity like an armed man.

Proverbs

25 These are further proverbs of Solomon, transcribed by the men of Hezekiah, king of Judah. ² It is the glory of God to conceal a matter; the honour of kings is to search out a matter. ³ As the heavens are high and the earth is deep, so the heart of kings is unsearchable. ⁴ Remove the impurities from the silver, and a vessel emerges for the silversmith. ⁵ Remove the wicked from the king's presence, and his throne will be established through righteousness. ⁶ Do not exalt yourself in the king's presence, and do not stand in the place of the great. ⁷ It is better for him to say to you, "Come up here," than for you to be humiliated before the prince whom your eyes have seen. ⁸ Do not go hastily to court, for what will you do in the end if your neighbour puts you to shame? ⁹ Argue your case with your neighbour, and do not betray another's confidence, ¹⁰ lest the one who hears it put you to shame, and your reputation be ruined. ¹¹ A word fitly spoken is like golden apples in silver settings. ¹² Like a gold earring or a fine gold ornament is a wise rebuke to a listening ear. ¹³ Like the coolness of snow at harvest time is a faithful messenger to those who send him; he refreshes the soul of his master. ¹⁴ One who boasts of gifts never given is like clouds and wind without rain. ¹⁵ With patience, a ruler may be persuaded, and a gentle tongue can break a bone. ¹⁶ If you find honey, eat only what you need, lest you have too much and vomit. ¹⁷ Let your foot seldom be in your neighbour's house, lest he become weary of you and hate you. ¹⁸ Like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow is one who gives false testimony against a neighbour. ¹⁹ Like a bad tooth or a lame foot is reliance on the unfaithful in times of trouble. ²⁰ Like one who takes away a garment on a cold day, or vinegar on soda, is one who sings songs to a heavy heart. ²¹ If your enemy is hungry, provide him with food; if he is thirsty, give him water to drink. ²² By doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head, and the Lord will reward you. ²³ As the north wind brings rain, so a sly tongue brings an angry face. ²⁴ Better to live on a corner of the roof than to share a house with a quarrelsome woman. ²⁵ Good news from a distant land is like cold water to a weary soul. ²⁶ Like a muddied spring or a polluted well are the righteous who give way before the wicked. ²⁷ It is not good to eat too much honey, nor is it honourable to seek one's own glory. ²⁸ Like a city whose walls are broken down is a person who lacks self-control.

26 As snow in summer and rain during harvest, so honour does not suit a fool. ² Like a fluttering sparrow or a darting swallow, a curse without cause does not alight. ³ The whip for the horse, the bridle for the donkey, and the stick for the back of fools. ⁴ Do not respond to a fool according to his folly, or you will be like him yourself. ⁵ Respond to a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes. ⁶ Sending a message by a fool is like cutting off one's feet and drinking violence. ⁷ As useless as legs to a lame person is a proverb in the mouth of fools. ⁸ Like binding a stone in a sling, so is giving honour to a fool. ⁹ Like a thornbush in the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of fools. ¹⁰ As an archer who shoots aimlessly is one who hires a fool or any passer-by. ¹¹ As a dog returns to its vomit, so a fool repeats his folly. ¹² Do you see someone who is wise in their own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for them. ¹³ A sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road, a lion in the streets!" ¹⁴ As a door swings on its hinges, so a sluggard turns on his bed. ¹⁵ A sluggard buries his hand in the dish; he is too weary to bring it back to his mouth. ¹⁶ A sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven people who can give a discreet answer. ¹⁷ Like one who seizes a dog by the ears is someone who meddles in a quarrel not their own. ¹⁸ Like a madman who shoots flaming arrows and death, ¹⁹ is one who deceives a neighbour and says, "I was only joking!" ²⁰ Without wood, a fire goes out; without a gossip, a quarrel subsides. ²¹ As charcoal to embers and wood to fire, so is a contentious person to kindle strife. ²² The words of a gossip are like choice morsels; they go down to the innermost parts. ²³ Like an earthenware vessel coated with silver dross are fervent lips with an evil heart. ²⁴ Those who are enemies disguise their intentions with their lips, but in their hearts they harbour deceit. ²⁵ Though their speech is charming, do not believe them, for seven abominations fill their heart. ²⁶ Their malice may be hidden by deception, but their wickedness will be revealed in the assembly. ²⁷ Whoever digs a pit will fall into it; if someone rolls a stone, it will return upon them. ²⁸ A deceitful tongue despises those it harms, and a flattering mouth leads to ruin.

Proverbs

27 Refrain from boasting about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring. ² Allow others to praise you, and not your own mouth; let it be a stranger, and not your own lips. ³ A stone is heavy and sand is burdensome, but the provocation of a fool is heavier than both. ⁴ Anger is cruel and wrath is overwhelming, but who can stand against jealousy? ⁵ An open reprimand is better than love that is concealed. ⁶ The wounds of a friend can be trusted, but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful. ⁷ A person who is full despises honey, but to the hungry even what is bitter tastes sweet. ⁸ Like a bird that wanders from its nest, so is a person who leaves their home. ⁹ Perfume and oil bring joy to the heart, and the sweetness of a friend comes from their sincere counsel. ¹⁰ Do not forsake your friend or your father's friend, and do not go to your brother's house in the day of your calamity; better is a neighbour who is near than a brother far away.

¹¹ Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad, so that I may answer those who reproach me. ¹² The prudent see danger and hide themselves, but the simple go on and suffer for it. ¹³ Take the garment of one who is surety for a stranger; hold it in pledge when it is for a foreigner. ¹⁴ If anyone blesses their neighbour with a loud voice early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse. ¹⁵ A continual dripping on a rainy day is like a quarrelsome wife. ¹⁶ Trying to restrain her is like restraining the wind or grasping oil with the hand.

¹⁷ Just as iron sharpens iron, so does one person sharpen another. ¹⁸ The one who tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and whoever looks after their master will be honoured. ¹⁹ As water reflects the face, so the heart of a person reflects the person. ²⁰ Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied, and neither are the eyes of a person. ²¹ The crucible is for silver and the furnace for gold, but people are tested by the praise they receive. ²² Though you grind a fool in a mortar, grinding them like grain with a pestle, their folly will not depart from them.

²³ Be sure to know the state of your flocks, and pay attention to your herds; ²⁴ for wealth does not last forever, nor does a crown endure to all generations. ²⁵ When the hay is removed and new growth appears, and the herbs of the mountains are gathered in, ²⁶ the lambs will provide you with clothing, and the goats will bring the price of a field. ²⁷ And there will be enough goats' milk for your food, for the food of your household, and sustenance for your maidservants.

28 The wicked run away even though no one is chasing, but the righteous stand as confident as a lion. ² When a land is in rebellion, it has many rulers, but with a person of understanding and knowledge, it endures. ³ A ruler who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain that leaves no food. ⁴ Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, but those who keep it strive against them. ⁵ Evildoers do not understand justice, but those who seek the Lord understand it fully. ⁶ Better is the poor who walks in integrity than the rich whose ways are crooked. ⁷ A discerning son heeds the law, but a companion of gluttons brings shame to his father. ⁸ Whoever increases wealth by interest or profit from the poor gathers it for one who will be kind to the poor. ⁹ If anyone turns away from listening to the law, even their prayer is detestable. ¹⁰ Whoever leads the upright astray in an evil way will fall into their own pit, but the blameless will inherit good.

¹¹ The rich are wise in their own eyes, but the poor with understanding sees through them. ¹² When the righteous succeed, there is great celebration; but when the wicked come to power, people conceal themselves. ¹³ Whoever conceals their sins will not prosper, but the one who confesses and renounces them finds mercy. ¹⁴ Blessed is the one who always fears God, but whoever hardens their heart falls into disaster. ¹⁵ A wicked ruler with power over a poor people is like a roaring lion or a charging bear. ¹⁶ A tyrannical ruler lacks understanding, but one who hates unjust gain will prolong their days. ¹⁷ Anyone burdened with the guilt of murder will be a fugitive until death; let no one support them.

Proverbs

¹⁸ The one who walks blamelessly will be kept safe, but the one whose ways are crooked will fall suddenly. ¹⁹ Those who work their land will have plenty of food, but those who pursue fantasies will have plenty of poverty. ²⁰ A faithful person will abound with blessings, but one eager to get rich will not go unpunished. ²¹ To show partiality is not good, yet for a piece of bread a person will do wrong. ²² The stingy hurry after wealth and do not realise that poverty awaits them. ²³ Whoever rebukes a person will find more favour in the end than one who flatters with the tongue. ²⁴ Whoever robs their father or mother and says, "It is not wrong," is a companion to one who destroys. ²⁵ The arrogant stir up strife, but those who trust in the Lord will prosper. ²⁶ Those who trust in themselves are fools, but those who walk wisely will be kept safe. ²⁷ Those who give to the poor will lack nothing, but those who shut their eyes to them receive many curses. ²⁸ When the wicked come to power, people conceal themselves; but when they are gone, the righteous flourish.

29 A person who frequently receives correction yet remains obstinate will suddenly face consequences beyond remedy. ² When the righteous flourish, the people rejoice; but when the wicked govern, the people lament. ³ A man who cherishes wisdom brings happiness to his father, but one who associates with harlots squanders his wealth. ⁴ A king gives stability to the land through justice, but those who accept bribes undermine it. ⁵ Those who flatter their neighbour are laying a snare for their steps. ⁶ Wrongdoers are trapped by their own sin, but the righteous sing and rejoice. ⁷ The righteous care about the rights of the poor; the wicked show no such concern. ⁸ Mockers incite a city, but the wise turn away wrath. ⁹ When a wise person engages in a dispute with a fool, the fool either rages or mocks, and there is no peace. ¹⁰ Bloodthirsty individuals hate the person of integrity, but the upright seek to protect them. ¹¹ Fools give full vent to their anger, but the wise hold it back. ¹² If a ruler listens to falsehood, all his officials become corrupt. ¹³ The poor and the tyrant share this: the Lord lights up the eyes of both. ¹⁴ When a king judges the poor with fairness, his reign will be firmly established.

¹⁵ The rod and reproof impart wisdom, but a child left to his own devices brings shame to his mother.

¹⁶ When the wicked multiply, transgression increases; but the righteous will witness their downfall. ¹⁷ Discipline your child, and they will give you rest; they will bring delight to your soul. ¹⁸ Where there is no vision, the people cast off restraint; but blessed is the one who follows the law. ¹⁹ A servant cannot be corrected by words alone; for though they understand, they will not respond. ²⁰ Do you see someone who is hasty in their speech? There is more hope for a fool than for them. ²¹ One who indulges a servant from youth will find him rebellious in the end.

²² An angry person stirs up strife, and a hot-tempered person abounds in sin. ²³ Pride brings a person low, but a humble spirit gains honour. ²⁴ An accomplice of a thief is their own enemy; they hear the curse but reveal nothing. ²⁵ The fear of others lays a snare, but whoever trusts in the Lord is kept safe. ²⁶ Many seek the favour of a ruler, but justice for humanity comes from the Lord. ²⁷ The righteous detest the unjust; the wicked detest the upright.

30 The sayings of Agur, son of Jakeh, the pronouncement. This man declares to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal: "I am weary, God, but I can prevail. ² Surely I am more ignorant than any other, and I lack human understanding. ³ I have not acquired wisdom, nor do I possess the knowledge of the Holy One. ⁴ Who has ascended to heaven and descended? Who has gathered the wind in his hands? Who has wrapped the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name? Surely you know! ⁵ Every word of God is flawless; he is a shield to those who seek refuge in him. ⁶ Do not add to his words, or he will rebuke you and you will be found a liar.

⁷ Two things I ask of you, Lord; do not deny me before I die: ⁸ Keep falsehood and deceit far from me; give me neither poverty nor wealth, but provide me with my allotted portion. ⁹ Otherwise, I may have too much and deny you and say, 'Who is the Lord?' Or I may become impoverished and steal, and so dishonour the name of my God. ¹⁰ Do not slander a servant to their master, or they will curse you, and you will be found guilty.

¹¹ Some curse their fathers and fail to bless their mothers; ¹² those who consider themselves pure but have not been cleansed from their wrongdoing; ¹³ those whose eyes are ever so haughty, whose glances are filled with arrogance; ¹⁴ those whose teeth are like swords and whose jaws are set with knives to devour the poor from the earth and the needy from among humanity.

Proverbs

¹⁵ The leech has two daughters, crying out, 'Give! Give!' There are three things that are never satisfied, four that never say, 'Enough!': ¹⁶ the grave, the barren womb, the earth that is never satisfied with water, and fire that never says, 'Enough!' ¹⁷ The eye that mocks a father and scorns an aged mother will be pecked out by the ravens of the valley, and eaten by the vultures.

¹⁸ There are three things that are too wonderful for me, four that I do not understand: ¹⁹ the flight of an eagle in the sky, the movement of a snake on a rock, the course of a ship on the high seas, and the way of a man with a young woman. ²⁰ Such is the behaviour of an unfaithful woman: she eats the food, and then cleans her mouth so she can state: 'I have done nothing wrong.' ²¹ Under three things the earth trembles, under four it cannot endure: ²² a servant who becomes king, a fool who is satisfied with food, ²³ an unloved woman who gets married, and a servant who displaces her mistress.

²⁴ Four small creatures on earth are exceedingly wise: ²⁵ Ants, though small and weak, store up their food in the summer; ²⁶ Hyraxes, though not powerful, make their home in the crags; ²⁷ Locusts, having no king, advance together in ranks; ²⁸ A lizard, easily caught by hand, yet found in kings' palaces.

²⁹ There are three things that are stately in their stride, four that move with noble bearing: ³⁰ A lion, majestic among creatures, who retreats from nothing; ³¹ A proud rooster, a he-goat, and a king secure against revolt.

³² If you have been foolish in exalting yourself, or if you have devised evil, put your hand over your mouth. ³³ For as the churning of milk produces butter, and as twisting the nose produces blood, so stirring up anger produces strife.

31 The sayings of King Lemuel, an inspired message his mother imparted to him: ² How shall I address you, my son? How shall I address you, child of my womb? How shall I address you, child of my vows? ³ Do not give your strength to women, nor your ways to those who ruin kings. ⁴ It is not for kings, Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, nor for rulers to crave strong drink, ⁵ lest they drink and forget what has been decreed, and pervert the rights of all the oppressed. ⁶ Let strong drink be given to those who are perishing, and wine to those in bitter distress. ⁷ Let them drink and forget their poverty, and remember their trouble no more.

⁸ Advocate for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute. ⁹ Speak up, judge righteously, and defend the rights of the poor and needy.

¹⁰ A wife of noble character, who can find her? Her worth is far above rubies. ¹¹ Her husband has full confidence in her, and he will have no lack of gain. ¹² She brings him good and not harm, throughout her life. ¹³ She seeks wool and flax, and works with eager hands. ¹⁴ She is like a fleet of merchant ships, bringing her food from afar. ¹⁵ She rises while it is still night, and provides food for her household, and portions for her maidservants. ¹⁶ She evaluates a field and purchases it; with her earnings she plants a vineyard. ¹⁷ She prepares herself with strength and fortifies her arms. ¹⁸ She perceives that her trading is profitable, and her lamp does not go out at night. ¹⁹ She lays her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle. ²⁰ She reaches out to the poor and extends her hands to the needy. ²¹ She has no fear for her household when it snows, for all of them are clothed in scarlet. ²² She makes coverings for her bed; her clothing is fine linen and purple. ²³ Her husband is respected at the city gates, where he takes his seat among the elders of the land. ²⁴ She crafts linen garments and sells them, and provides the merchants with sashes. ²⁵ Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she can laugh at the days to come. ²⁶ Her words are filled with wisdom, and she teaches kindness: it is ever present on her tongue. ²⁷ She oversees the activities of her household, and does not partake in idleness. ²⁸ Her children stand and bless her; her husband also praises her: ²⁹ "Many women do noble things, but you excel them all." ³⁰ Charm can be misleading, and beauty does not last; but a woman who reveres the Lord is to be praised. ³¹ Honour her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gates.

Ecclesiastes

1 The sayings of the Teacher, descendant of David, ruler in Jerusalem. ² "Utter futility," says the Teacher, "Utter futility! Everything is meaningless." ³ What do people gain from all their work at which they toil under the sun? ⁴ Generations come and go, yet the earth remains unchanged through time. ⁵ The sun rises and the sun sets, and hurries back to its place where it rises again. ⁶ The wind blows towards the south and turns to the north; round and round it goes, returning on its course. ⁷ All rivers flow into the sea, yet the sea is never full. To the place where the rivers come from, there they return again. ⁸ All things are wearisome, more than one can express. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. ⁹ What has been will be again, and what has been done will be done again; there is nothing new under the sun. ¹⁰ Is there anything of which one can say, "Look! This is something new"? It has already existed in ages past. ¹¹ There is no remembrance of former things, nor will there be any remembrance of later things by those who come after. ¹² I, the Teacher, have served as king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³ I applied my mind to seek and explore by wisdom all that is done under heaven. It is a burdensome task God has given to the sons of men. ¹⁴ I have seen all things done under the sun; all of them are meaningless and a mere chasing after the wind. ¹⁵ What is crooked cannot be made straight; what is lacking cannot be counted. ¹⁶ I said to myself, "Behold, I have increased in wisdom more than anyone who has ruled over Jerusalem before me; I have experienced a great deal of wisdom and knowledge." ¹⁷ Then I applied my mind to know wisdom and also madness and folly, but I learned that this too is a chasing after the wind. ¹⁸ For with much wisdom comes much sorrow; the more knowledge, the more pain.

2 I said to myself, "Come now, I will test you with pleasure to discover what is worthwhile." Yet this too turned out to be futile. ² I said of laughter, "It is madness," and of pleasure, "What does it achieve?" ³ I sought to cheer myself with wine, embracing folly—my mind still guiding me with wisdom—to discern what is good for people to do under the heavens during the brief span of their lives. ⁴ I embarked on great works: I constructed houses for myself and planted vineyards. ⁵ I created gardens and parks, and planted all kinds of fruit trees within them. ⁶ I constructed reservoirs to water groves of flourishing trees. ⁷ I acquired male and female servants, and had servants born in my household. I also owned more herds and flocks than anyone before me in Jerusalem. ⁸ I accumulated silver and gold for myself, and the treasures of kings and provinces. I procured male and female singers, and the pleasures of men: many concubines. ⁹ I became greater than anyone who had preceded me in Jerusalem. In all this, my wisdom remained with me. ¹⁰ I denied my eyes nothing they desired; I withheld no pleasure from my heart. My heart rejoiced in all my labour, and this was the reward for all my toil. ¹¹ Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had accomplished and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind; there was no profit under the sun. ¹² Then I turned my thoughts to consider wisdom, madness, and folly. What more can the successor to the king do than what has already been done? ¹³ I saw that wisdom is superior to folly, just as light is superior to darkness. ¹⁴ The wise have eyes in their heads, while the fool walks in darkness; yet I realised that the same fate befalls them both. ¹⁵ Then I said to myself, "The fate of the fool will overtake me also. What then is the benefit of being wise?" I said to myself, "This too is meaningless." ¹⁶ For the wise, like the fool, will not be remembered for long; in days to come both will be forgotten. Like the fool, the wise too must die! ¹⁷ So I loathed life, because the work done under the sun was grievous to me. All of it is meaningless, a chasing after the wind. ¹⁸ I detested all the things I had toiled for under the sun, because I must leave them to the one who comes after me. ¹⁹ And who can tell if that person will be wise or foolish? Yet they will have authority over all the results of my toil into which I have poured my effort and skill under the sun. This too is futile. ²⁰ So my heart was filled with despair over all my labourious work under the sun. ²¹ For a person may labour with wisdom, knowledge, and skill, and then they must leave all they own to another who has not toiled for it. This too is futile and a great misfortune. ²² What do people gain from all their toil and anxious striving with which they labour under the sun? ²³ All their days their work brings grief and pain; even at night their minds do not rest. This too is futile. ²⁴ There is nothing better for a person than to eat, drink, and find satisfaction in their toil. This too, I see, is from the hand of God, ²⁵ for who can eat or find enjoyment apart from Him? ²⁶ To the person who pleases Him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and happiness, but to the sinner, He assigns the task of gathering and storing up wealth to hand it over to the one who pleases God. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

Ecclesiastes

3 There is a time appointed for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: ² A time to be born and a time to pass away, a time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted, ³ A time to take life and a time to heal, a time to dismantle and a time to construct, ⁴ A time to shed tears and a time to laugh, a time to grieve and a time to dance, ⁵ A time to disperse stones and a time to collect them, a time to embrace and a time to hold back from embracing, ⁶ A time to search and a time to abandon the search, a time to keep and a time to discard, ⁷ A time to rip off and a time to repair, a time to be hold your tongue and a time when you must speak, ⁸ A time to love and a time to dislike, a time for conflict and a time for peace. ⁹ What do workers gain from their labour? ¹⁰ I have seen the task God has given to the human race to occupy themselves. ¹¹ He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also placed eternity in the human heart, yet no one can comprehend what God has done from beginning to end. ¹² I know that there is nothing better for people than to rejoice and to do good in their lifetime. ¹³ Moreover, that each person may eat and drink and find satisfaction in all their toil—this is the gift of God. ¹⁴ I know that everything God does will endure forever; nothing can be added to it, and nothing taken from it. God does this so that people will fear Him. ¹⁵ Whatever is has already been, and what will be has been before; and God calls the past to account. ¹⁶ Furthermore, I have seen under the sun that in the place of judgment there is wickedness, and in the place of justice there is wickedness. ¹⁷ I said to myself, “God will bring into judgment both the righteous and the wicked, for there is a time for every matter and every deed.” ¹⁸ I also said to myself regarding humans, “God tests them so that they may see that they are like the animals.” ¹⁹ For the fate of human beings and the fate of animals is the same: As one dies, so dies the other. They all have the same breath; humans have no advantage over animals. Everything is meaningless. ²⁰ All return to the same place; all come from dust, and to dust all return. ²¹ Who can determine if the human spirit ascends upward and if the spirit of the animal descends into the earth? ²² So I saw that there is nothing better than for a person to be happy in their work, because that is their lot. For who can bring them to see what will happen after them?

4 Once more, I observed all the acts of oppression that occur under the sun. I saw the tears of the oppressed, and they had no comforter; power was on the side of their oppressors, and they had no comforter. ² I concluded that the dead who have already passed are more fortunate than the living who are still alive. ³ Yet better than both is the one who has never been born, who has not witnessed the evil deeds done under the sun. ⁴ I noticed that all labour and all achievement stem from one person's rivalry with another. This too is vanity, a pursuit of the wind. ⁵ The fool sits idly and brings ruin upon himself. ⁶ Better is one handful with tranquillity than two handfuls with toil and chasing after the wind. ⁷ Again, I observed something futile under the sun: ⁸ There was a man who was alone, without a son or brother. There was no end to his toil, yet his eyes were not satisfied with wealth. “For whom am I toiling,” he asked, “and depriving myself of enjoyment?” This too is vanity, and a miserable task. ⁹ Two are more effective than one, as they have a good return for their efforts: ¹⁰ If one falls, the other can lift him up. But pity anyone who falls and has no one to help them up. ¹¹ Moreover, if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone? ¹² Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not easily broken. ¹³ Better is a poor but wise youth than an old and foolish king who no longer knows how to take advice. ¹⁴ For he may have come from prison to become king, even though he was born poor in his kingdom. ¹⁵ I observed all who live and walk under the sun following the youth, the successor to the throne. ¹⁶ There is no end to all the people who were before them, yet those who come later will not be pleased with him. This too is vanity, a chasing after the wind.

5 Be cautious as you enter the house of God, and approach to listen rather than to present the offering of fools, who are unaware that they are doing wrong. ² Do not be rash with your mouth, nor hasty in your heart to bring up a matter before God. For God is in heaven and you are on earth, so let your words be few. ³ For dreams come with much busyness, and a fool's voice with many words. ⁴ When you make a vow to God, do not delay in fulfilling it. He takes no pleasure in fools; fulfil what you vow. ⁵ It is better not to vow than to make a vow and not fulfil it. ⁶ Do not let your mouth lead you into sin, and do not say before the messenger of God that it was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your words and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷ For in many dreams and many words, there is futility. Instead, stand in awe of God. ⁸ If you see the oppression of the poor and the denial of justice and rights in a province, do not be astonished at the matter; for one official is watched by a higher one, and there are higher officials over them. ⁹ The produce of the land is shared by all; even the king benefits from the fields. ¹⁰ Whoever loves money will never have enough; whoever loves wealth will not be satisfied with their income. This too is vanity. ¹¹ As goods increase, so do those who consume them. What advantage then do the owners have except to gaze upon them? ¹² The sleep of the labourer is sweet, whether he eats little or much, but the abundance of the rich will not allow them to sleep. ¹³ There is a grievous evil I have seen under the sun: wealth hoarded to the detriment of its owner, ¹⁴ or wealth lost through unfortunate circumstances, leaving nothing for their children to inherit. ¹⁵ As one comes naked from their mother's womb, so they will depart as they came. They will take nothing from their toil that they can carry in their hands. ¹⁶ This too is a grievous evil: exactly as one comes, so they will depart. What gain is there for those who toil for the wind? ¹⁷ All their days they eat in darkness, with great frustration, sickness, and anger. ¹⁸ This is what I have observed to be good and fitting: to eat, to drink, and to find satisfaction in all one's labour under the sun during the few days of life God has given them—for this is their reward. ¹⁹ Moreover, when God gives someone wealth and possessions, and the ability to enjoy them, to accept their lot and find joy in their toil—this is a gift from God. ²⁰ They seldom reflect on the days of their life, because God keeps them occupied with joy in their heart.

Ecclesiastes

6 I have observed an evil under the sun, and it is prevalent among humanity: ² God grants individuals riches, wealth, and honour, so that they lack nothing their heart desires, yet God does not allow them the capacity to enjoy them, and instead, a stranger enjoys them. This is vanity and a severe misfortune. ³ If a man has a hundred children and lives many years, no matter how long, but he cannot enjoy his wealth and does not receive a proper burial, then I say a stillborn child is better off than he. ⁴ For it comes in futility and departs into darkness, and its name is enveloped in darkness. ⁵ Though it has not seen the sun or known anything, it finds more rest than that man. ⁶ Even if he lives two thousand years but does not enjoy his prosperity—do not all go to the same place? ⁷ All one's labour is for the mouth, yet the appetite is never satisfied. ⁸ What advantage does the wise have over the fool? What benefit does the poor have in knowing how to conduct themselves among the living? ⁹ Better is what the eyes see than the wandering of desire. This too is vanity, a pursuit of the wind. ¹⁰ Whatever exists has already been named, and what humanity is has been known; no one can contend with one who is mightier. ¹¹ The more words, the greater the vanity, and what profit is there to anyone? ¹² For who knows what is good for a person in life, during the few and futile days they pass like a shadow? Who can inform them what will occur under the sun after they are gone?

7 A good name is more desirable than fine oil, and the day of death is better than the day of birth. ² It is preferable to visit a house of mourning than a house of feasting, for death is the fate of everyone, and the living should take this to heart. ³ Sorrow is preferable to laughter, for a sad face may lead to a happy heart. ⁴ The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, while the heart of fools is in the house of pleasure. ⁵ It is better to heed the rebuke of the wise than to listen to the song of fools. ⁶ As the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of fools. This too is vanity. ⁷ Oppression may make a wise person act foolishly, and a bribe corrupts the heart. ⁸ The conclusion of a matter is better than its beginning, and patience is superior to pride. ⁹ Do not be quick to anger, for anger resides in the bosom of fools. ¹⁰ Do not ask, "Why were the former days better than these?" For it is not wise to ask such questions. ¹¹ Wisdom, like an inheritance, is a good thing and a benefit to those who see the sun. ¹² Wisdom is a shelter, as money is a shelter, but the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of its possessor. ¹³ Consider the work of God: Who can straighten what He has made crooked? ¹⁴ In times of prosperity be joyful, but in times of adversity consider: God has made one as well as the other, so that no one can discover what will come after them. ¹⁵ In my fleeting life, I have seen both: the righteous perishing in their righteousness, and the wicked living long in their wickedness. ¹⁶ Do not be excessively righteous, nor be overly wise— why should you bring trouble upon yourself? ¹⁷ Do not be overly wicked, and do not be foolish— why should you die before your time? ¹⁸ It is good to grasp one and not let go of the other. Whoever fears God will avoid all extremes. ¹⁹ Wisdom gives strength to a wise person more than ten rulers in a city. ²⁰ Truly, there is no one on earth who is perfectly righteous, no one who always does what is right and never sins. ²¹ Do not pay close attention to every word people say, or you might hear your servant speaking ill of you— ²² for you know in your heart that you have also spoken ill of others many times. ²³ I applied all this to wisdom and said, “I will be wise”— but it was beyond me. ²⁴ What exists is distant and deep— who can discover it? ²⁵ So I turned my mind to understand, to explore and to search out wisdom and the scheme of things, and to understand the folly of wickedness and the madness of folly. ²⁶ I find more bitter than death the woman who ensnares, whose heart is a trap and whose hands are chains. The man who pleases God will escape her, but the sinner she will capture. ²⁷ “Behold,” says the Teacher, “this is what I have discovered: Adding one thing to another to find an explanation— ²⁸ while I was still searching but not finding— I found one upright man among a thousand, but not a single upright woman among them all. ²⁹ This only have I found: God created mankind upright, but they have sought out many schemes.”

Ecclesiastes

8 Who is comparable to the wise, and who understands the meaning of a matter? Wisdom brightens a person's face and softens its sternness. ² I advise you to keep the king's command because of the oath made before God. ³ Do not be quick to leave his presence. Do not support an evil matter, for he will act as he wishes. ⁴ Since the king's word is authoritative, who can question him, “What are you doing?” ⁵ Whoever obeys his command will face no harm, and a wise heart knows the proper time and procedure. ⁶ For there is a proper time and procedure for every matter, though a person's troubles weigh heavily upon them. ⁷ Since no one knows what will happen, who can tell them when it will occur? ⁸ No one has power over the wind to restrain it, nor authority over the day of death; just as there is no discharge in time of war, wickedness will not deliver those who practice it. ⁹ All this I have observed, applying my mind to everything done under the sun, during a time when one person exercises power over another to their detriment. ¹⁰ Then I saw the wicked buried, those who frequented the holy place and were praised in the city where they did so. This too is vanity. ¹¹ Because the sentence against wrongdoing is not executed swiftly, therefore the hearts of people are filled with schemes to do evil. ¹² Although a sinner does evil a hundred times and prolongs his life, I am certain that it will be well with those who fear God, who revere Him openly. ¹³ But it will not go well for the wicked, nor will they prolong their days like a shadow, because they do not fear God. ¹⁴ There is a vanity that occurs on earth: righteous people who receive what the wicked deserve, and wicked people who receive what the righteous deserve. I say that this too is vanity. ¹⁵ So I commend enjoyment, for there is nothing better for a person under the sun than to eat, drink, and be joyful, for this will accompany them in their labour throughout the days of life God has given them under the sun. ¹⁶ When I set my mind to understand wisdom and to observe the business done on earth, even though people never sleep day or night, ¹⁷ then I saw all the work of God. No one can comprehend what happens under the sun. Despite all their efforts to search it out, no one can discover its meaning. Even if the wise claim to know, they cannot truly grasp it.

9 I contemplated all this and determined that the righteous, the wise, and their deeds are in the hands of God. Yet, no one knows whether love or hatred lies ahead of them. ² All share the same fate: the righteous and the wicked, the good and the bad, the clean and the unclean, those who offer sacrifices and those who do not. As it is with the good, so it is with the sinner; the one who swears an oath is as the one who fears to swear. ³ This is the evil in all that occurs under the sun: the same destiny befalls everyone. Moreover, the hearts of people are filled with evil, and madness resides in their hearts while they live, and afterwards they join the dead. ⁴ For anyone who is among the living, there is hope; indeed, a live dog is better than a dead lion. ⁵ The living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing; they have no further reward, and even their memory is forgotten. ⁶ Their love, their hate, and their zeal have long since vanished; never again will they have a part in anything that happens under the sun. ⁷ Go then, eat your bread with gladness, and drink your wine with a joyful heart, for God has already approved your deeds. ⁸ Ensure your garments are always white, and do not let oil be lacking on your head. ⁹ Enjoy life with your beloved wife all the days of your futile life that God has given you under the sun—all your futile days. For this is your portion in life and in your labour under the sun. ¹⁰ Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might, for in Sheol, where you are going, there is neither activity nor planning nor knowledge nor wisdom. ¹¹ I observed again under the sun that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor does bread come to the wise, or wealth to the discerning, or favour to the skilled; but time and chance overtake them all. ¹² Indeed, no one knows when their time will come: like fish caught in a treacherous net, or birds trapped in a snare, so people are ensnared at an evil time when it suddenly falls upon them. ¹³ I also saw this example of wisdom under the sun, and it greatly impressed me: ¹⁴ There was a small city with few inhabitants, and a great king came against it, surrounded it, and built large siegeworks against it. ¹⁵ Within it lived a poor yet wise man, and he saved the city by his wisdom. Yet no one remembered that poor man. ¹⁶ So I said, "Wisdom is better than strength." Nevertheless, the wisdom of the poor man is despised, and his words are no longer heeded. ¹⁷ The quiet words of the wise are to be heeded more than the shouts of a ruler among fools. ¹⁸ Wisdom surpasses weapons of war, yet a single sinner can undo much good.

Ecclesiastes

10 Dead flies cause the perfumer's oil to stink, so a little folly is more influential than wisdom and honour. ² The heart of a wise person inclines to the right, but the heart of a fool inclines to the left. ³ Even as a fool walks along the road, he lacks sense and shows everyone that he is foolish. ⁴ If a ruler's anger rises against you, do not leave your position; calmness can lay great offences to rest. ⁵ There is an evil I have seen under the sun, like an error that arises from a ruler: ⁶ Foolishness is placed in many high positions, while the rich sit in humble places. ⁷ I have observed servants riding on horses, while princes walk on foot like servants. ⁸ Whoever digs a pit may fall into it, and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a serpent. ⁹ Whoever quarries stones may be injured by them, and whoever splits logs may be at risk from them. ¹⁰ If the axe is dull and its edge unsharpened, more strength is needed, but wisdom brings success. ¹¹ If a serpent bites before it is charmed, there is no profit for the charmer. ¹² Words from the mouth of the wise are gracious, but the lips of a fool consume him. ¹³ The beginning of his words is folly, and the end of it is wicked madness. ¹⁴ Yet the fool multiplies words. No one knows what will happen, and who can tell him what will come after him? ¹⁵ The toil of a fool wearies him; he does not even know the way to the city. ¹⁶ Woe to the land whose king is a servant, and whose princes feast in the morning. ¹⁷ Blessed is the land whose king is of noble birth, and whose princes eat at the proper time—for strength and not for drunkenness. ¹⁸ Due to laziness, the rafters sag; because of idle hands, the house leaks. ¹⁹ A feast is made for laughter, wine makes life joyful, and money is the answer to everything. ²⁰ Do not curse the king even in your thoughts, nor curse the rich in your bedroom, for a bird of the sky may carry your words, and a winged creature may report what you say.

11 Send your grain across the waters, for after many days you may find it again. ² Allocate your resources to seven, or even eight, since you do not know what calamity may occur on the land. ³ When clouds are full, they shed rain upon the earth; and whether a tree falls to the south or to the north, wherever it falls, there it will remain. ⁴ Those who observe the wind will not sow, and those who regard the clouds will not reap. ⁵ As you are unaware of the path of the wind, and how the bones are formed in the womb of a pregnant woman, so you cannot comprehend the deeds of God, the Creator of all things. ⁶ Plant your seed in the morning, and do not let your hands be idle in the evening, for you do not know which will prosper, this or that, or if both will do equally well. ⁷ Light is delightful, and it is pleasing for the eyes to behold the sun. ⁸ If a person lives many years, let them rejoice in all of them; yet let them remember the days of darkness, for they will be numerous. Everything that is to come is vanity. ⁹ Be joyful, young person, during your youth, and let your heart be merry in the days of your youth. Follow the inclinations of your heart and the vision of your eyes, but know that God will bring you into judgment for all these things. ¹⁰ Therefore, remove sorrow from your heart and keep distress away from your body, for youth and the dawn of life are fleeting.

Ecclesiastes

12 Remember your Creator in the days of your youth, before the days of adversity arrive and the years draw near when you will say, “I find no pleasure in them”— ² before the sun and the light, the moon and the stars grow dim, and the clouds return after the rain; ³ when the guardians of the house tremble, and the strong men stoop, when the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look through the windows grow dim; ⁴ when the doors to the street are closed and the sound of grinding fades; when one rises at the sound of a bird, and all the daughters of song are brought low; ⁵ when people fear heights and dangers in the streets; when the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper drags itself along, and the caper berry fails. For man goes to his eternal home, and mourners go about the streets. ⁶ Remember your Creator before the silver cord is severed, and the golden bowl is broken; before the pitcher is shattered at the spring, and the wheel is broken at the well, ⁷ and the dust returns to the ground as it was, and the spirit goes back to God who gave it. ⁸ “Utter futility,” says the Teacher, “all is futile!” ⁹ In addition to being wise, the Teacher also imparted knowledge to the people. He pondered, searched out, and arranged many proverbs. ¹⁰ The Teacher sought to find the right words and to write words of truth accurately. ¹¹ The words of the wise are like goads, and their collected sayings like firmly embedded nails—given by one Shepherd. ¹² But beyond this, my son, be warned: of making many books there is no end, and much study wearies the body. ¹³ Now all has been heard; here is the conclusion of the matter: fear God and keep His commandments, for this is the duty of all people. ¹⁴ For God will evaluate every action, including all that is hidden, whether it is good or bad.

Song of Solomon

1 The greatest of songs, attributed to Solomon.
² May he kiss me with the kisses of his mouth!
For your love is more delightful than wine. ³
Your oils have a pleasing fragrance, Your name is like refined oil; Therefore the young women cherish you. ⁴ Draw me after you and let us run together! The king has brought me into his chambers. We will rejoice and be glad in you; We will praise your love more than wine. Rightly do they love you.

⁵ I am black and beautiful, You daughters of Jerusalem, Like the tents of Kedar, Like the curtains of Solomon. ⁶ Do not gaze at me because I am darkened, For the sun has tanned me. My mother's sons were angry with me; They made me keeper of the vineyards, But I have not tended my own vineyard.

⁷ Tell me, you whom my soul loves, Where do you graze your flock, Where do you have it rest at noon?
For why should I be like one who veils herself Beside the flocks of your companions?

⁸ If you are unsure, Most beautiful among women, Follow the tracks of the flock And graze your young goats Near the tents of the shepherds. ⁹ To me, my darling, you are like My mare among Pharaoh's chariots. ¹⁰ Your cheeks are delightful with jewellery, Your neck with strings of beads. ¹¹ We will make for you jewellery of gold With beads of silver.

¹² While the king was at his table, My perfume spread its fragrance. ¹³ My beloved is to me a pouch of myrrh Resting all night between my breasts. ¹⁴ My beloved is to me like a cluster of henna blossoms In the gardens of Engedi.

¹⁵ How beautiful you are, my darling, How beautiful you are! Your eyes resemble doves. ¹⁶ How handsome you are, my beloved, And so delightful!
Indeed, our couch is luxuriant! ¹⁷ The beams of our dwelling are cedars, Our rafters are made of cypresses.

2 I am like the rose of Sharon, And the lily of the valleys. ² Like a lily among the thorns, So is my darling among the young women.

³ As an apple tree stands out among the trees of the forest, So is my beloved among the young men. In his shade, I found great delight and sat down, And his fruit was sweet to my taste. ⁴ He has led me to the place of feasting, And his banner over me is love.

⁵ Revive me with raisin cakes, Sustain me with apples, For I am lovesick. ⁶ His left hand supports my head, And his right hand holds me close.

⁷ I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, By the gazelles or by the does of the field, That you do not awaken or stir up love Until it pleases.

⁸ The voice of my beloved! Behold, he is coming,
Leaping on the mountains, Skipping on the hills! ⁹
My beloved resembles a gazelle or a young stag.
Behold, he is standing behind our wall, He is looking through the windows, He is peering through the lattice.

¹⁰ My beloved spoke and said to me, "Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, And come along. ¹¹ For indeed, the winter is past, The rain is over and gone.

¹² The blossoms have appeared in the land; The time has arrived for pruning the vines, And the voice of the turtledove has been heard in our land. ¹³ The fig tree has ripened its fruit, And the vines in blossom have given forth fragrance. Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, And come along!"

¹⁴ My dove, in the clefts of the rock, In the hiding place of the mountain pathway, Let me see your form, Let me hear your voice; For your voice is sweet,
And your form is lovely.

¹⁵ Seize the foxes for us, The little foxes that are spoiling the vineyards, While our vineyards are in blossom.

¹⁶ My beloved belongs to me, and I to him; He tends his flock among the lilies. ¹⁷ Until the day breathes and the shadows flee, Return, my beloved, and be like a gazelle Or a young stag on the rugged hills.

3 Upon my bed, night after night, I searched for him Whom my soul cherishes; I sought him but did not find him. ² I must arise now and go about the city; In the streets and in the public squares. I must seek him whom my soul cherishes."
I searched for him but did not find him. ³ The watchmen who patrol the city found me, And I asked,
"Have you seen him whom my soul cherishes?" ⁴ Scarcely had I passed them When I found him whom my soul cherishes; I held on to him and would not let him go Until I had brought him to my mother's house, And into the room of her who conceived me.

Song of Solomon

⁵ I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, By the gazelles or by the does of the field, That you do not awaken or stir up love Until it pleases.

⁶ What is this coming up from the wilderness Like columns of smoke, Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, With all the scented powders of the merchant? ⁷ Behold, it is the travelling couch of Solomon; Sixty warriors around it, Of the warriors of Israel. ⁸ All of them are wielders of the sword, Expert in war; Each has his sword at his side, Guarding against the terrors of the night. ⁹ King Solomon made for himself a sedan chair From the timber of Lebanon. ¹⁰ He crafted its posts of silver, Its back of gold, And its seat of purple fabric, With its interior lovingly adorned By the daughters of Jerusalem.

¹¹ Go out, you daughters of Zion, And behold King Solomon with the crown With which his mother crowned him On the day of his wedding, And on the day of his heart's delight.

4 How lovely you are, my darling, How truly lovely you are! Your eyes resemble doves behind your veil; Your hair flows like a flock of goats That have descended from Mount Gilead. ² Your teeth are like a flock of newly shorn sheep Which have come up from their washing, All of which bear twins, And not one among them has lost her young. ³ Your lips are as a scarlet thread, And your mouth is delightful. Your temples are like a slice of a pomegranate Behind your veil. ⁴ Your neck is as the tower of David, Built with layers of stones On which are hung a thousand shields, All the round shields of the warriors. ⁵ Your two breasts resemble two fawns, Twins of a gazelle, That graze among the lilies.

⁶ Until the day breathes its coolness, When the shadows flee, I will go my way to the mountain of myrrh And to the hill of frankincense. ⁷ You are completely beautiful, my darling, And there is no flaw in you.

⁸ Join me from Lebanon, my bride, May you come with me from Lebanon. Descend from the summit of Amana, From the summit of Senir and Hermon, From the dens of lions, From the mountains of leopards. ⁹ You have captured my heart, my sister, my bride; You have captured my heart with a single glance of your eyes, With a single strand of your necklace. ¹⁰ How delightful is your love, my sister, my bride! How much better is your love than wine, And the fragrance of your oils than all kinds of balsam oils! ¹¹ Your lips drip with honey, my bride; Honey and milk are under your tongue, And the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon. ¹² A locked garden is my sister, my bride, A locked well, a sealed spring. ¹³ Your branches are like an orchard of pomegranates With delightful fruits, Henna with nard plants, ¹⁴ Nard and saffron, spice cane and cinnamon, With all the trees of frankincense, Myrrh and aloes, along with all the finest balsam oils. ¹⁵ You are like a garden spring, A well of fresh water, And flowing streams from Lebanon.

¹⁶ Awake, north wind, And come, wind of the south; Make my garden breathe out fragrance, Let its balsam oils flow. May my beloved come into his garden And eat its delightful fruits!

5 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride; I have gathered my myrrh along with my balsam. I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey; I have drunk my wine and my milk. Eat, friends; Drink and become intoxicated with love.

² I was asleep, yet my heart was awake. I heard a voice! My beloved was at the door: "Open to me, my sister, my darling, My dove, my flawless one! For my head is soaked with dew, My hair with the moisture of the night." ³ "I have taken off my tunic, How can I put it on again? I have washed my feet, How can I dirty them again?" ⁴ My beloved reached out his hand through the opening, And my heart was moved for him. ⁵ I rose to open to my beloved; And my hands were covered with myrrh, And my fingers with flowing myrrh, Upon the handles of the bolt. ⁶ I opened to my beloved, But my beloved had turned away and had gone! My soul failed when he departed. I searched for him but did not find him; I called him but he did not answer me. ⁷ The watchmen patrolling the city found me, They struck me and wounded me; The guards of the walls took my shawl from me. ⁸ I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, If you find my beloved, As to what you will tell him: That I am lovesick.

⁹ What kind of beloved is your beloved, O most beautiful among women? What kind of beloved is your beloved, That you make us adjure you?

¹⁰ My beloved is dazzling and reddish, Outstanding among ten thousand. ¹¹ His head is like refined gold; His hair is like clusters of dates And as dark as a raven. ¹² His eyes are like doves by streams of water, Bathed in milk, And perfectly set. ¹³ His cheeks are like a garden bed of balsam, Banks of fragrant herbs; His lips are lilies Dripping with liquid myrrh. ¹⁴ His hands are rods of gold Set with topaz; His abdomen is carved ivory Inlaid with sapphires. ¹⁵ His legs are pillars of alabaster Set on pedestals of pure gold; His appearance is majestic like Lebanon, Select as the cedars. ¹⁶ His mouth is full of sweetness. And he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Song of Solomon

6 Where has your beloved gone, O most beautiful among women? Where has your beloved turned, So that we may seek him with you?

² My beloved has descended to his garden, To the beds of balsam, To tend his flock in the gardens And gather lilies. ³ I belong to my beloved, and my beloved belongs to me, He who tends his flock among the lilies.

⁴ You are as enchanting as Tirzah, my darling, As lovely as Jerusalem, As majestic as an army with banners. ⁵ Turn your eyes away from me, For they have overwhelmed me; Your hair is like a flock of goats That have descended from Gilead. ⁶ Your teeth are like a flock of ewes That have come up from their washing, All of which bear twins, And not one among them has lost her young. ⁷ Your temples are like the inner part of a pomegranate Behind your veil. ⁸ There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, And maidens beyond counting; ⁹ But my dove, my perfect one, stands alone: She is her mother's only daughter; She is the cherished child of the one who bore her. The young women saw her and called her blessed, The queens and the concubines also, and they praised her, saying,

¹⁰ "Who is this who appears like the dawn, As beautiful as the full moon, As pure as the sun, As majestic as an army with banners?"

¹¹ I went down to the grove of nut trees To see the blossoms of the valley, To see whether the vine had budded Or the pomegranates had bloomed. ¹² Before I was aware, my soul set me Among the chariots of my noble people.

¹³ Come back, come back, O Shulammitte; Come back, come back, so that we may look at you! Why should you look at the Shulammitte, As at the dance of the two armies?

7 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O daughter of a prince! The curves of your hips are like jewels, The work of the hands of an artist. ² Your navel is a round goblet That never lacks mixed wine; Your belly is like a heap of wheat Fenced about with lilies. ³ Your two breasts are like gentle fawns, Twins of a gazelle. ⁴ Your neck is graceful like a tower of ivory, Your eyes are like the serene pools in Heshbon By the gate of Bath-rabbim; Your nose is as elegant as the tower of Lebanon, Which looks toward Damascus. ⁵ Your head is majestic like Carmel, And the flowing hair of your head resembles purple threads; The king is enchanted by your tresses. ⁶ How lovely and how pleasing you are, My love, with all your charms! ⁷ Your stature is like a palm tree, And your breasts resemble its clusters. ⁸ I said, "I will climb the palm tree, I will take hold of its fruit stalks." Oh, may your breasts be like clusters of the vine, And the fragrance of your breath be like apples, ⁹ And your mouth like the finest wine!" It glides smoothly for my beloved, Flowing gently through the lips of those who rest.

¹⁰ I belong to my beloved, And his longing is for me.

¹¹ Come, my beloved, let us venture into the countryside, Let us spend the night in the villages. ¹² Let us rise early and go to the vineyards; Let us see whether the vine has budded And its blossoms have opened, And whether the pomegranates have bloomed. There I will share my love with you. ¹³ The mandrakes have released their fragrance; And over our doors are all the choice fruits, Both new and old, Which I have kept for you, my beloved.

8 If only you were like a brother to me, Who was nursed by my mother. If I found you outdoors, I would kiss you; No one would look down on me.

² I would lead you and bring you Into the house of my mother, who used to teach me; I would give you spiced wine to drink From the juice of my pomegranates. ³ His left hand supports my head, And his right hand holds me close.

⁴ I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, Do not awaken or stir up love Until it pleases.

⁵ Who is this coming up from the wilderness Leaning on her beloved?" "Beneath the apple tree I awakened you; There your mother went into labour with you, There she was in labour and gave birth to you. ⁶ Set me as a seal upon your heart, As a seal upon your arm. For love is as powerful as death, Passion as relentless as the grave; Its flashes are flashes of fire, A divine flame. ⁷ Many waters cannot quench love, Nor will rivers flood it; If a man were to give all the riches of his house for love, It would be utterly despised.

Song of Solomon

⁸ We have a little sister, And she has not yet matured; What shall we do for our sister On the day when she is spoken for? ⁹ If she is a wall, We will build on her a silver battlement; But if she is a door, We will barricade her with planks of cedar.

¹⁰ I was a wall, and my stature was like towers; Then I became in his eyes As one who finds peace. ¹¹ Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; He leased the vineyard to caretakers. Each one was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit. ¹² My very own vineyard is at my disposal; The thousand shekels are for you, Solomon, And two hundred are for those who tend its fruit.

¹³ You who dwell in the gardens, My companions are listening for your voice— Let me hear it! ¹⁴ Hasten, my beloved, And be like a swift gazelle or a young stag Upon the fragrant hills.

Isaiah

1 The vision of Isaiah, son of Amoz, concerning Judah and Jerusalem, which he saw during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. ² Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the Lord has spoken: "I have raised children and brought them up, but they have rebelled against Me. ³ The ox knows its owner, and the donkey its master's manger, but Israel does not know; My people do not understand." ⁴ Woe to the sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, offspring of evildoers, children who act corruptly! They have forsaken the Lord, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they have turned away from Him. ⁵ Why should you be stricken again, as you continue in your rebellion? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. ⁶ From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it, only bruises, welts, and raw wounds; not pressed out, nor bandaged, nor soothed with oil. ⁷ Your land is desolate, your cities are burned with fire; your fields are being devoured by strangers right in front of you; it is desolate, as overthrown by foreigners. ⁸ The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut in a cucumber field, like a city under siege. ⁹ If the Lord of Hosts had not left us a few survivors, we would have become like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah. ¹⁰ Listen to the message of the Lord, you rulers in Sodom; heed the guidance of our God, you people just like those of Gomorrah! ¹¹ "What are your many sacrifices to Me?" says the Lord. "I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of well-fed cattle; I take no pleasure in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats. ¹² When you come to appear before Me, who has required this from you, this trampling of My courts? ¹³ Bring no more meaningless offerings; incense is an abomination to Me. New moons, Sabbaths, and convocations—I cannot endure iniquity and solemn assembly. ¹⁴ Your new moon festivals and your appointed feasts My soul hates; they have become a burden to Me; I am weary of bearing them. ¹⁵ When you spread out your hands in prayer, I will hide My eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I will not listen. Your hands are full of blood. ¹⁶ Cleanse yourselves, purify your actions. Remove the evil of your deeds from My sight. Cease to do evil, ¹⁷ Learn to do good; seek justice, correct the oppressor; defend the fatherless, plead for the widow. ¹⁸ "Come now, let us reason together," says the Lord. "Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall be like wool. ¹⁹ If you are ready and comply, you shall enjoy the bounty of the land; ²⁰ but if you refuse and rebel, you shall fall by the sword." For the Lord has declared it. ²¹ How the faithful city has become unfaithful! She who was full of justice! Righteousness once lodged in her, but now murderers. ²² Your silver has become tarnished, and your wine is diluted with water. ²³ Your rulers are rebels and companions of thieves; everyone loves bribes and pursues rewards. They do not defend the fatherless, nor does the widow's case come before them. ²⁴ Therefore the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, declares: "Ah, I will get relief from My adversaries and avenge Myself on My enemies. ²⁵ I will turn My hand against you, and thoroughly purge away your dross, and remove all your impurities. ²⁶ I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counsellors as at the beginning. Afterward you shall be called the City of Righteousness, the Faithful City." ²⁷ Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her repentant ones with righteousness. ²⁸ But those who rebel and sin shall be broken together, and those who forsake the Lord shall be consumed. ²⁹ For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, and you shall be embarrassed by the gardens that you have chosen. ³⁰ For you shall be like an oak whose leaf fades, and like a garden without water. ³¹ The strong man shall become tinder, and his work a spark; both shall burn together, with no one to quench the fire.

2 The message that Isaiah son of Amoz received about Judah and Jerusalem. ² In the latter days, the mountain of the Lord's house will be established as the chief among the mountains; it will be raised above the hills, and all nations will flow to it. ³ Many peoples will come and say, "Come, let us ascend to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will instruct us in His ways, so that we may walk in His paths." For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. ⁴ He will arbitrate between the nations and will mediate for many peoples. They will transform their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war any longer. ⁵ Come, O house of Jacob, let us walk in the light of the Lord. ⁶ For You have forsaken Your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled with influences from the east and practice divination like the Philistines; they make alliances with foreigners. ⁷ Their land is abundant with silver and gold, and their treasures seem endless. Their land is filled with horses, and their chariots are countless. ⁸ Their land is filled with idols; they bow down to the work of their hands, to what their fingers have crafted. ⁹ So humanity will be humbled, and each person brought low— do not forgive them. ¹⁰ Enter into the rocks and hide in the dust from the dread of the Lord and the splendour of His majesty. ¹¹ The haughty eyes of mankind will be humbled, and human pride will be brought low; the Lord alone will be exalted on that day. ¹² For the Lord of Hosts has a day of reckoning against all that is proud and lofty, against all that is exalted, and they will be humbled, ¹³ against all the cedars of Lebanon, tall and proud, and against all the oaks of Bashan, ¹⁴ against all the towering mountains and all the high hills, ¹⁵ against every lofty tower and every strong wall, ¹⁶ against all the ships of Tarshish and against all the stately vessels. ¹⁷ The pride of humanity will be humbled and human arrogance brought low; the Lord alone will be exalted on that day, ¹⁸ and the idols will utterly vanish.

Isaiah

¹⁹ People will flee to the caves in the rocks and to the holes in the ground from the terror of the Lord and the splendour of His majesty, when He rises to shake the earth. ²⁰ On that day people will discard to the moles and bats their idols of silver and their idols of gold, which they made to worship. ²¹ They will retreat to the crevices in the rocks and the overhanging crags from the terror of the Lord and the splendour of His majesty, when He rises to shake the earth. ²² Cease to trust in mere humans, who have but a breath in their nostrils. Why hold them in esteem?

3 Behold, the Lord, the God of hosts, is about to withdraw from Jerusalem and Judah both sustenance and support: the entire provision of bread and the entire provision of water; ² The mighty man and the warrior, the judge and the prophet, the soothsayer and the elder, ³ The captain of fifty and the man of distinction, the counsellor and the skilled craftsman, and the expert enchanter. ⁴ "I will appoint mere lads as their leaders, and unruly children shall govern them." ⁵ And the people will be oppressed, each by another and each by his neighbour; the youth will rise against the elder, and the lowly against the honoured. ⁶ When a man takes hold of his brother in his father's house, saying, "You have a cloak, you shall be our leader; take charge of this heap of ruins!" ⁷ On that day he will protest, saying, "I will not be your healer, for in my house there is neither bread nor cloak; do not appoint me as leader of the people." ⁸ For Jerusalem has stumbled and Judah has fallen, because their words and deeds are against the Lord, to defy His glorious presence. ⁹ The expression on their faces testifies against them; they flaunt their sin like Sodom; they do not even attempt to hide it. Woe to them! For they have brought calamity upon themselves. ¹⁰ Say to the righteous that it shall be well with them, for they will enjoy the fruit of their actions. ¹¹ Woe to the wicked! It will go ill for him, for what his hands have done shall be done to him. ¹² My people! Their oppressors are children, and women rule over them. My people, those who guide you lead you astray and misdirect your paths.

¹³ The Lord takes His stand to contend, and rises to judge the people. ¹⁴ The Lord enters into judgment with the elders and leaders of His people: "It is you who have ravaged my vineyard; the spoils from the poor are in your houses. ¹⁵ What do you mean by crushing My people and grinding the faces of the poor?" declares the Lord, the God of hosts.

¹⁶ Moreover, the Lord says, "Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with outstretched necks and seductive eyes, mincing as they go, and jingling their anklets, ¹⁷ The Lord will afflict the scalps of the daughters of Zion with sores, and the Lord will make their foreheads bare." ¹⁸ On that day the Lord will take away the splendour of their anklets, headbands, and crescent ornaments, ¹⁹ the dangling earrings, bracelets, and veils, ²⁰ the headdresses, ankle chains, sashes, perfume bottles, and amulets, ²¹ the rings of authority and adornments for the nose, ²² the festive robes, outer garments, shawls, and purses, ²³ and the fine linen garments, turbans, and veils. ²⁴ And it shall come to pass that instead of fragrance there will be a stench; instead of a belt, a rope; instead of well-set hair, baldness; instead of fine clothing, sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty. ²⁵ Your men shall meet their fate by the sword, and your warriors shall fall in battle. ²⁶ And her gates shall lament and mourn, and she shall sit desolate on the ground.

Isaiah

4 In that day, seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, "We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothes; only let us be called by your name. Take away our reproach!" ² On that day, the Branch of the Lord shall be splendid and glorious, and the fruit of the land shall be the pride and honour of the survivors of Israel. ³ Those who remain in Zion and are left in Jerusalem shall be called holy, all who are recorded among the living in Jerusalem. ⁴ The Lord will wash away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleanse the bloodstains of Jerusalem from its midst by a spirit of judgement and a spirit of burning. ⁵ Then the Lord will create over the whole area of Mount Zion and over those who gather there a cloud by day and a glow of flaming fire by night; over all the glory will be a canopy. ⁶ It will serve as a shelter and shade from the heat by day, and a refuge and hiding place from the storm and rain.

5 Let me sing for my beloved a song about his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a fertile hillside. ² He dug it up, cleared it of stones, and planted it with the choicest vines. He built a watchtower in the midst of it and carved out a winepress as well. Then he looked for a crop of good grapes, but it produced only worthless fruit. ³ "And now, you dwellers in Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard. ⁴ What more could have been done for my vineyard than I have done for it? When I expected good grapes, why did it yield only bad ones? ⁵ Now I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard: I will remove its hedge, and it will be consumed; I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled. ⁶ I will lay it waste; it will neither be pruned nor cultivated, and briars and thorns will grow there. I will command the clouds not to rain on it." ⁷ For the vineyard of the Lord Almighty is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are the vines he delighted in. He looked for justice, but saw bloodshed; for righteousness, but heard cries of distress.

⁸ Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field, until there is no space left and you are alone in the land. ⁹ The Lord Almighty has declared in my hearing: "Many houses will become desolate, even great and fine ones, without occupants. ¹⁰ A ten-acre vineyard will yield only a bath of wine, and a homer of seed will yield only an ephah of grain."

¹¹ Woe to those who rise early in the morning to pursue strong drink, who stay up late at night till they are inflamed with wine. ¹² Their banquets are accompanied by lyres and harps, by tambourines and flutes, and by wine; but they have no regard for the deeds of the Lord, nor do they consider the work of his hands. ¹³ Therefore my people will go into exile for their lack of understanding; their nobles will die of hunger, and the multitude will be parched with thirst. ¹⁴ Therefore Sheol has enlarged its throat and opened its mouth beyond measure; into it will descend their nobles and masses, with all their revelry and jubilation. ¹⁵ So people will be humbled and everyone brought low, the eyes of the haughty will be humbled. ¹⁶ But the Lord Almighty will be exalted by his justice, and the holy God will show himself holy by his righteousness. ¹⁷ Then lambs will graze as in their own pasture, and strangers will eat among the ruins of the wealthy.

¹⁸ Woe to those who drag sin along with cords of deceit, and wickedness as with cart ropes, ¹⁹ to those who say, "Let God hurry, let him hasten his work so we may see it; let the plan of the Holy One of Israel approach and come to pass, so we may know it." ²⁰ Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter. ²¹ Woe to those who consider themselves wise and perceive themselves as clever. ²² Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine and valiant in mixing strong drink, ²³ who acquit the guilty for a bribe, and deny justice to the innocent. ²⁴ Therefore, as a tongue of fire consumes stubble and dry grass collapses in the flames, so their roots will decay and their blossoms blow away like dust; for they have rejected the law of the Lord Almighty and spurned the word of the Holy One of Israel. ²⁵ Therefore the Lord's anger burns against his people; his hand is raised and he strikes them down. The mountains shake, and their corpses lie like refuse in the streets. Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away, his hand is still upraised. ²⁶ He lifts up a banner for distant nations and whistles for those at the ends of the earth. Here they come, swiftly and speedily! ²⁷ No one among them grows tired or stumbles, no one slumbers or sleeps; not a belt is loosened at the waist, nor a sandal strap broken.²⁸ Their arrows are sharp, all their bows are bent; their horses' hooves seem like flint, and their chariot wheels like a whirlwind.²⁹ Their roar is like that of a lioness, they roar like young lions; they growl as they seize their prey and carry it off with no one to rescue.³⁰ In that day they will roar over it like the roaring of the sea. And if one looks at the land, there is only darkness and distress; even the light is darkened by clouds.

Isaiah

6 In the year that King Uzziah passed away, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, with the train of His robe filling the temple.² Above Him stood the seraphim, each having six wings: with two they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew.³ And they called out to one another, saying, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory."⁴ At the sound of their voices, the foundations of the thresholds shook, and the temple was filled with smoke.⁵ Then I said, "Woe is me, for I am undone! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell among a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts."⁶ Then one of the seraphim flew to me holding a live coal, which he had taken with tongs from the altar.⁷ He touched my mouth with it and said, "See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin is atoned for."⁸ Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here I am. Send me!"⁹ He said, "Go and tell this people: 'You will keep on hearing, but never understand; you will keep on seeing, but never perceive.'¹⁰ Make the heart of this people callous, make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed."¹¹ Then I asked, "For how long, Lord?" And He replied, "Until the cities are laid waste and without inhabitant, the houses are deserted and the fields are ruined and ravaged,¹² until the Lord has removed people far away, and the land is utterly desolate.¹³ And though a tenth remains in it, it will again be subject to burning, like a terebinth or an oak whose stump remains when it is felled. The holy seed is its stump."

7 In the days of Ahaz son of Jotham, son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to wage war against it, but they could not prevail against it.² When the house of David was informed, "Aram has allied with Ephraim," the hearts of Ahaz and his people trembled like trees of the forest shaken by the wind.³ Then the Lord said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-Jashub, at the end of the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Launderer's Field."⁴ Say to him, 'Be careful, stay calm, do not fear, and do not lose heart because of these two smouldering stumps of firewood—because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and the son of Remaliah.'⁵ Aram, Ephraim, and Remaliah's son have devised evil against you, saying,⁶ "Let us invade Judah, terrorize it, and divide it among ourselves, and set up the son of Tabeel as king in its midst."⁷ Thus says the Sovereign Lord: "It shall not stand, nor shall it come to pass."⁸ For Damascus is the capital of Aram, and Rezin is the leader of Damascus. Within sixty-five years, Ephraim will be shattered, no longer a people.⁹ The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you do not stand firm in faith, you will not stand at all."¹⁰ The Lord spoke again to Ahaz,¹¹ "Seek a sign from the Lord your God, whether from the depths below or the heights above."¹² But Ahaz replied, "I will not seek a sign. I will not test the Lord."¹³ Then Isaiah said, "Hear now, O house of David! Is it not enough to try the patience of men? Will you try the patience of my God also?"¹⁴ Therefore the Lord himself will provide you with a sign: Behold, the young virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.¹⁵ He will eat curds and honey by the time he knows to refuse evil and choose good,¹⁶ for before the boy knows to refuse evil and choose good, the land of the two kings you dread will be deserted.

¹⁷ The Lord will bring upon you, your people, and your father's house days unlike any since Ephraim separated from Judah—he will bring the king of Assyria."¹⁸ On that day, the Lord will whistle for the fly from the farthest streams of Egypt and for the bee from the land of Assyria.¹⁹ They will all come and settle in the steep ravines, in the clefts of the rocks, on all the thorn bushes, and at all the watering places.²⁰ On that day, the Lord will use a razor hired from beyond the Euphrates—the king of Assyria—to shave your head and the hair of your legs, and to remove your beard also.²¹ On that day, a person will sustain a young cow and two sheep.²² And because of the abundance of milk they produce, he will eat curds; for everyone left in the land will eat curds and honey. ²³ On that day, every place where there were a thousand vines worth a thousand silver shekels will become briers and thorns. ²⁴ People will go there with bows and arrows, because the whole land will be covered with briers and thorns. ²⁵ As for all the hills once cultivated with the hoe, you will not go there for fear of briers and thorns; they will become places for cattle to roam and sheep to trample.

Isaiah

8 The Lord said to me, "Take a large tablet and inscribe on it with ordinary letters: Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz." ² I summoned Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah as trustworthy witnesses for myself. ³ I approached the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. The Lord instructed me, "Call him Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz. ⁴ For before the child knows how to say 'My father' or 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the spoils of Samaria will be taken away by the king of Assyria."

⁵ The Lord addressed me once more: ⁶ "Because this people have rejected the gently flowing waters of Shiloah and delight in Rezin and the son of Remaliah, ⁷ therefore the Lord is about to bring upon them the powerful and overflowing waters of the Euphrates—the king of Assyria with all his splendour. It will rise above all its channels and overflow all its banks. ⁸ It will sweep through Judah, flooding and passing through; it will reach up to the neck. Its outspread wings will cover the breadth of your land, O Immanuel." ⁹ Be shattered, O nations, and be broken! Listen, all distant lands. Prepare for battle, but be broken! Prepare for battle, but be broken! ¹⁰ Devise a plan, but it will come to nothing; propose a strategy, but it will not succeed, for God is with us.

¹¹ This is what the Lord said to me with a strong hand upon me, warning me not to follow the way of this people: ¹² "Do not call conspiracy everything this people calls a conspiracy; do not fear what they fear, nor be in dread of it. ¹³ The Lord of Hosts is the one you are to regard as holy; He is the one you are to fear, He is the one you are to dread. ¹⁴ He will be a sanctuary; but for both houses of Israel, He will be a stone that causes people to stumble and a rock that makes them fall. For the people of Jerusalem, He will be a trap and a snare. ¹⁵ Many will stumble over it, fall and be broken, be snared and captured."

¹⁶ Bind up the testimony and seal the law among my disciples. ¹⁷ I will wait for the Lord, who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob. I will hope in Him. ¹⁸ Here am I, and the children the Lord has given me. We are signs and symbols in Israel from the Lord of Hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion.

¹⁹ When people say to you, "Consult mediums and spiritists who whisper and mutter," should not a people inquire of their God? Why consult the dead on behalf of the living? ²⁰ Look to the law and the testimony! If they do not speak in alignment with this word, it is because they lack light. ²¹ They will roam through the land, distressed and hungry; when they are famished, they will become enraged and, looking upward, will curse their king and their God. ²² Then they will look to the earth and see only distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and they will be thrust into utter darkness.

9 However, there will be no more gloom for those who were in anguish. In former times, He humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the future, He will bring honour to Galilee of the nations, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan. ² The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in a land of deep darkness, a light has shone. ³ You have expanded the nation and increased their joy; they rejoice before You as people rejoice at the harvest, as warriors exult when dividing the spoils. ⁴ For You have broken the yoke of their burden and the staff on their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, as in the day of Midian's defeat. ⁵ Every boot of the warrior in the tumult of battle, and every garment rolled in blood, will be destined for burning, fuel for the fire. ⁶ For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government will be upon his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. ⁸ The Lord has sent a word against Jacob, and it will fall upon Israel. ⁹ And all the people will know it—Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria—who say in pride and arrogance of heart: ¹⁰ "The bricks have fallen down, but we will rebuild with hewn stones; the sycamores have been cut down, but we will replace them with cedars." ¹¹ But the Lord has strengthened Rezin's adversaries against them and has stirred up their enemies. ¹² The Arameans from the east and the Philistines from the west have devoured Israel with open mouth. Yet in spite of all this, His anger is not turned away, and His hand is still stretched out.¹³ But the people have not returned to Him who struck them, nor have they sought the Lord of hosts.¹⁴ Therefore, the Lord will cut off from Israel both head and tail, both palm branch and reed in a single day.¹⁵ The elder and honourable man is the head, and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail.¹⁶ For those who lead this people cause them to err, and those who are led by them are confused.¹⁷ Therefore, the Lord will take no joy in their young men, nor will He have compassion on their fatherless and widows, for everyone is ungodly and wicked, and every mouth speaks foolishness. Yet in spite of all this, His anger is not turned away, and His hand is still stretched out.¹⁸ For wickedness burns like a fire; it consumes briers and thorns, and it kindles the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke.¹⁹ By the wrath of the Lord of hosts, the land is scorched, and the people are fuel for the fire; no one spares his brother.²⁰ They devour on the right hand but still remain hungry; they eat on the left hand, but they are not satisfied. Each one devours the flesh of his own arm.²¹ Manasseh devours Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh; together they are against Judah. Yet in spite of all this, His anger is not turned away, and His hand is still stretched out.

Isaiah

10 Woe to those who craft unjust laws and to those who continually record harmful decrees,² to deny justice to the needy and rob the poor of my people of their rights, making widows their spoil and plundering the fatherless.³ What will you do on the day of judgement, when devastation comes from afar? To whom will you flee for help, and where will you leave your wealth?⁴ All that remains is to crouch among the captives or fall among the slain. Yet despite all this, his anger does not turn away, and his hand remains outstretched.

⁵ Woe to Assyria, the rod of my anger, in whose hand is the staff of my indignation.⁶ I send him against a godless nation, and I commission him against the people of my wrath, to capture spoils and seize plunder, and to trample them down like mud in the streets.⁷ Yet this is not what he intends, nor does he plan it in his heart; his purpose is to destroy and to eliminate many nations.⁸ For he asserts, "Are not my commanders like kings?"⁹ "Is not Calno like Carchemish? Is not Hamath like Arpad, and Samaria like Damascus?"¹⁰ As my hand has reached the kingdoms of the idols, whose carved images were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria—¹¹ shall I not do to Jerusalem and her images what I have done to Samaria and her idols?"¹² When the Lord has completed all his work against Mount Zion and Jerusalem, he will say, "I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and the proud look in his eyes."¹³ For he has said, "By the strength of my hand and by my wisdom I have done this, because I have understanding; I removed the boundaries of nations and plundered their treasures; like a mighty one I subdued their inhabitants."¹⁴ My hand reached for the wealth of the peoples like a nest, and as one gathers abandoned eggs, I gathered all the earth; not one flapped a wing, opened its beak, or chirped."¹⁵ Does the axe boast over the one who wields it, or the saw exalt itself over the one who uses it? That would be like a rod wielding the one who lifts it, or a club brandishing the one who is not wood.¹⁶ Therefore, the Lord, the Lord of hosts, will send a wasting disease among his stout warriors; under his glory a fire will be kindled like a burning flame.¹⁷ The Light of Israel will become a fire, and their Holy One a flame; it will burn and devour his thorns and briers in a single day.¹⁸ He will destroy the splendour of his forest and his fertile fields, both soul and body; it will be as when a sick person wastes away.¹⁹ The remaining trees of his forest will be so few that a child could write them down.

²⁰ On that day, the remnant of Israel, the survivors of the house of Jacob, will no longer rely on him who struck them down, but will truly rely on the Lord, the Holy One of Israel.²¹ A remnant of Jacob will return to the Mighty God.²² Though your people, Israel, be like the sand of the sea, only a remnant will return. A destruction has been decreed, overflowing with righteousness.²³ The Lord, the Lord of hosts, will carry out the decreed destruction upon the whole land.²⁴ Therefore, this is what the Lord, the Lord of hosts, says: "My people who dwell in Zion, do not fear the Assyrian, who strikes you with a rod and lifts up his staff against you, as Egypt did."²⁵ For in a very little while, my indignation against you will end, and my wrath will be directed towards their destruction."²⁶ The Lord of hosts will wield a whip against them, as he did when he struck down Midian at the rock of Oreb; and he will raise his staff over the sea, as he did in Egypt. ²⁷ On that day, their burden will be removed from your shoulders, and their yoke from your neck; the yoke will be broken because of fatness. ²⁸ They have come against Aiath; they have passed through Migron; at Michmash, they have deposited their supplies. ²⁹ They have crossed the pass, saying, "We will camp overnight at Geba." Ramah trembles, Gibeah of Saul flees. ³⁰ Cry out, daughter of Gallim! Listen, Laishah! Poor Anathoth! ³¹ Madmenah has taken flight; the people of Gebim have found refuge. ³² This very day they will halt at Nob; they shake their fist at the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. ³³ Behold, the Lord, the Lord of hosts, will lop off the branches with great power; the tall trees will be felled, and the lofty will be brought low. ³⁴ He will cut down the thickets of the forest with an iron axe; Lebanon will fall before the Mighty One.

Isaiah

11 A shoot will emerge from the stem of Jesse, and from his roots a Branch will bear fruit. ² The Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him—the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. ³ He will find delight in the fear of the Lord. He will not judge by what his eyes see, nor decide by what his ears hear; ⁴ but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and with fairness he will decide for the humble of the earth. He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked. ⁵ Righteousness will be the belt around his waist, and faithfulness the sash around his hips. ⁶ The wolf will dwell with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat, the calf and the young lion and the fattened steer together; and a little child shall lead them. ⁷ The cow and the bear shall graze, their young ones will lie down together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox. ⁸ The nursing child will play by the cobra's hole, and the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's nest. ⁹ They will not cause harm or destruction on all my holy mountain, for the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁰ In that day, the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples; the nations will resort to him, and his resting place will be glorious. ¹¹ On that day, the Lord will extend his hand a second time to reclaim the remnant of his people from Assyria, from

Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. ¹² He will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel; he will assemble the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. ¹³ Ephraim's jealousy will vanish, and those who harass Judah will be eliminated; Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah, nor will Judah harass Ephraim. ¹⁴ They will swoop down on the slopes of the Philistines to the west; together they will plunder the people of the east. They will possess Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites will be subject to them. ¹⁵ The Lord will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; with a scorching wind, he will wave his hand over the Euphrates River, breaking it into seven streams so that people can cross over in sandals. ¹⁶ There will be a highway from Assyria for the remnant of his people who remain, just as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt.

12 On that day you will declare: "I will thank you, Lord. Though you were angry with me, your wrath has turned away and you have given me comfort. ² Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. The Lord God is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation." ³ With gladness, you will draw from the wells of salvation. ⁴ And on that day you will say: "Give praise to the Lord, call upon his name; make his deeds known among the nations, and let them remember that his name is exalted. ⁵ Sing to the Lord, for he has done marvellous things; let this be known across the earth. ⁶ Shout aloud and sing for joy, you who dwell in Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel."

13 The oracle concerning Babylon that Isaiah the son of Amoz envisioned: ² Raise a banner on the bare hilltop, lift up your voice to them; wave the hand so that they may enter the gates of the nobles. ³ I have commanded those I set apart for battle; I have summoned my warriors, who boast in my glory, to execute my wrath. ⁴ Listen, a roar on the mountains, like that of a vast multitude! Hear the uproar of kingdoms, nations gathering together! The Lord of hosts is mustering an army for battle. ⁵ They come from distant lands, from the farthest horizons—the Lord and the weapons of his indignation—to devastate the whole land. ⁶ Cry out, for the day of the Lord is near; it will arrive as devastation from the Almighty. ⁷ Therefore, all hands will hang limp, every heart will melt. ⁸ They will be seized with terror, pain and anguish will grip them; they will writhe like a woman in labour. They will look at each other in astonishment, their faces aflame. ⁹ Behold, the day of the Lord is coming— a day of cruelty, with fury and fierce anger— to make the land desolate and to annihilate the sinners within it. ¹⁰ For the stars of heaven and their constellations will not shine; the rising sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light. ¹¹ I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity. I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud and will humble the haughtiness of the ruthless. ¹² I will make people rarer than pure gold, more scarce than the gold of Ophir. ¹³ Thus, I will cause the heavens to tremble, and the earth will be moved from its place at the wrath of the Lord of hosts, in the day of his burning anger. ¹⁴ It will be like a hunted gazelle, or like sheep with no one to gather them; each will turn to his own people, each will flee to his native land. ¹⁵ Whoever is found will be pierced through; all who are captured will fall by the sword. ¹⁶ Their infants will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses will be plundered and their wives violated. ¹⁷ Behold, I am stirring up the Medes against them, who do not value silver and take no delight in gold. ¹⁸ Their bows will strike down the young men; they will show no mercy to infants, nor will they pity children. ¹⁹ And Babylon, the jewel of kingdoms, the pride and glory of the Chaldeans, will be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. ²⁰ It will never be inhabited or lived in through all generations; no Arab will pitch his tent there, no shepherds will let their flocks rest there. ²¹ But desert creatures will lie there, and their houses will be full of owls; ostriches will dwell there, and wild goats will frolic there. ²² Hyenas will howl in her strongholds, and jackals in her luxurious palaces. Her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

14 The Lord will show mercy to Jacob and will once more choose Israel, settling them in their own land. Strangers will join them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob. ² Nations will escort them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them in the land of the Lord as male and female servants. They will capture their captors and rule over their oppressors.

³ On the day the Lord grants you rest from your suffering, turmoil, and the harsh labour in which you were enslaved, ⁴ you will recite this saying against the king of Babylon: "How the oppressor has ceased, how his fury has ended!" ⁵ The Lord has shattered the rod of the wicked, the sceptre of rulers, ⁶ which struck peoples in anger with unceasing blows, and subdued nations in wrath with relentless persecution. ⁷ The whole earth is at rest and quiet; they burst into song. ⁸ Even the junipers and the cedars of Lebanon rejoice over you, saying, "Now that you have been laid low, no woodcutter comes against us." ⁹ The realm of the dead below is stirred to meet you at your coming; it awakens the spirits of the departed, all the leaders of the earth; it raises all the kings of the nations from their thrones. ¹⁰ They will all answer and say to you, "You too have become weak as we are; you have become like us." ¹¹ Your pomp and the sound of your harps have been brought down to the grave; maggots are spread beneath you, and worms cover you. ¹² How you have fallen from heaven, shining one, son of the dawn! You have been cast down to the earth, you who once laid low the nations! ¹³ You said in your heart, "I will ascend to the heavens; I will raise my throne above the stars of God; I will sit enthroned on the mount of assembly, on the utmost heights of the north. ¹⁴ I will rise above the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High." ¹⁵ Yet you are brought down to the realm of the dead, to the depths of the pit. ¹⁶ Those who see you will gaze at you, they will ponder your fate: "Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms, ¹⁷ who made the world a wilderness, who overthrew its cities and did not let his captives go home?" ¹⁸ All the rulers of the nations rest in honour, each in his own tomb. ¹⁹ But you are cast out of your grave like a rejected branch, covered with the slain, those pierced by the sword, who descend to the stones of the pit, like a trampled corpse. ²⁰ You will not join them in burial, for you have destroyed your land and slain your people. May the offspring of evildoers never be mentioned again. ²¹ Prepare a place to slaughter his children for the sins of their forefathers; they must not rise to inherit the land and fill the earth with their cities. ²² "I will rise up against them," declares the Lord Almighty, "and cut off from Babylon name and survivors, offspring and descendants," declares the Lord. ²³ "I will turn her into a place for owls and into swamps; I will sweep her with the broom of destruction," declares the Lord Almighty.

Isaiah

²⁴ The Lord Almighty has sworn: "Surely, as I have planned, so it will be, and as I have purposed, so it will stand. ²⁵ I will crush the Assyrian in my land; on my mountains I will trample him down. His yoke will be removed from my people, and his burden from their shoulders." ²⁶ This is the plan devised against the whole earth; this is the hand stretched out over all the nations. ²⁷ For the Lord Almighty has purposed, and who can thwart it? His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?

²⁸ In the year King Ahaz died, this prophecy came: ²⁹ Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken; from the root of that serpent will come forth a viper, its fruit will be a darting, venomous serpent. ³⁰ The poorest will find pasture, and the needy will lie down in safety. But I will destroy your root by famine; it will slay your survivors. ³¹ Wail, you gate! Cry out, you city! Melt away, all you Philistines! A cloud of smoke comes from the north, and there is not a straggler in its ranks. ³² What answer will be given to the envoys of that nation? "The Lord has established Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will find refuge."

15 A declaration concerning Moab: Surely in a night Ar of Moab is devastated and laid waste; Surely in a night Kir of Moab is devastated and laid waste. ² The people ascend to the temple and to Dibon, to the high places to mourn. Moab laments over Nebo and Medeba; Every head is bald and every beard is shorn. ³ In the streets they don sackcloth; On the rooftops and in the public squares, all are wailing, overwhelmed with tears. ⁴ Heshbon and Elealeh cry out as well, Their voices reach all the way to Jahaz; Thus the warriors of Moab cry out; Their spirits tremble within them. ⁵ My heart cries out for Moab; Its fugitives reach as far as Zoar and Eglath-shelishiyah. They ascend the slope of Luhith weeping; Indeed, on the path to Horonaim they raise cries of distress over their downfall. ⁶ The waters of Nimrim are desolate. Truly, the grass is withered, the new growth has perished, No greenery remains. ⁷ Thus the wealth they have gathered and stored, They carry away over the brook of the Poplars. ⁸ For the cry of distress has encircled the land of Moab, Its lamentation reaches as far as Eglaim, its wailing to Beer-elim. ⁹ For the waters of Dimon are filled with blood; I will surely bring further woes upon Dimon, A lion upon the fugitives of Moab and those remaining in the land.

16 Dispatch lambs as tribute to the sovereign of the land, from Sela, through the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion. ² Like fluttering birds cast from the nest, so are the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon. ³ "Give counsel, make a decision. Cast your shadow like night at midday. Conceal the fugitives, do not betray the refugees. ⁴ Let the Moabite outcasts reside with you; provide them shelter from the destroyer." The oppressor will cease, and devastation will end; the aggressors will be removed from the land. ⁵ In faithfulness, a throne will be established; one will sit on it in the tent of David, seeking justice and being swift in righteousness. ⁶ We have heard of Moab's pride—how excessive is her arrogance!—of her conceit, her pride, and her fury; yet her boasts are empty. ⁷ Therefore Moab will lament; all of Moab will wail. Mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth as those deeply stricken. ⁸ The fields of Heshbon wither, the vines of Sibmah too. The lords of the nations have trampled down the choice vines, which reached Jazer and spread towards the wilderness. Their tendrils extended and reached the sea. ⁹ Therefore I will weep as Jazer weeps for the vines of Sibmah. I will drench you with my tears, Heshbon and Elealeh; for the shouts over your summer fruits and your harvest have ceased. ¹⁰ Joy and gladness are removed from the orchards; in the vineyards, there is no singing or jubilant shouting; no one treads out wine at the presses, for I have silenced the shouting. ¹¹ My heart laments for Moab like the sound of a harp, my inmost being for Kir Hareseth. ¹² When Moab appears at her high place, she wears herself out; when she goes to her sanctuary to pray, it is to no avail. ¹³ This is the word the Lord spoke earlier concerning Moab. ¹⁴ But now the Lord declares: "Within three years, as a hired worker would count them, Moab's splendour and her numerous people will be despised, and her survivors will be few and feeble."

17 A proclamation concerning Damascus: "Behold, Damascus will cease to be a city and will become a heap of ruins. ² The cities of Aroer will be forsaken; they will be left for flocks to lie down in, with no one to disturb them. ³ The fortified city will vanish from Ephraim, and sovereignty from Damascus; the remnant of Aram will be like the glory of the children of Israel," declares the Lord of Hosts. ⁴ In that day, the glory of Jacob will diminish, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean. ⁵ It will be as when the reaper gathers the standing grain, and his arm harvests the ears, or as when one gleanes ears of grain in the Valley of Rephaim. ⁶ Yet gleanings will remain, as when an olive tree is shaken, leaving two or three olives on the topmost branches, four or five on the fruitful boughs," declares the Lord, the God of Israel. ⁷ In that day, people will turn to their Maker and their eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel. ⁸ They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands, nor will they regard what their fingers have made, neither the Asherah poles nor the incense altars. ⁹ In that day, their fortified cities will be like abandoned places in the woods, or like branches left before the Israelites; and the land will be desolate. ¹⁰ For you have forgotten the God of your salvation and have not remembered the Rock of your refuge. Therefore, though you plant the finest plants and set them with imported vine shoots, ¹¹ though on the day you plant them, you make them grow, and in the morning you make your seed to blossom, yet the harvest will be nothing in the day of disease and incurable pain. ¹² Ah, the tumult of many nations, who roar like the roaring of the seas, and the rushing of peoples who rush like the rushing of mighty waters! ¹³ The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters, but He will rebuke them and they will flee far away, driven like chaff on the hills before the wind, or like whirling dust before a gale. ¹⁴ In the evening, behold, terror! Before the morning, they are no more. This is the fate of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who pillage us.

Isaiah

18 Woe to the land of whirring wings that lies beyond the rivers of Cush, ² which sends envoys by sea in papyrus vessels over the waters. Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth-skinned, to a people feared far and wide, a powerful and aggressive nation whose land is divided by rivers. ³ All you inhabitants of the world, you who dwell on the earth, when a banner is raised on the mountains, you will see it, and when the trumpet is sounded, you will hear it. ⁴ For this is what the Lord has said to me: "I will remain quiet and observe from my dwelling place, like shimmering heat in the sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest." ⁵ For before the harvest, when the blossom is gone and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the shoots with pruning knives, and remove and take away the spreading branches. ⁶ They will be left together for the mountain birds of prey and for the wild animals; the birds will feed on them all summer, and the wild animals will feed on them all winter. ⁷ At that time gifts of tribute will be brought to the Lord Almighty from a people tall and smooth-skinned, from a people feared far and wide, a powerful and aggressive nation, whose land is divided by rivers— to the place of the Name of the Lord Almighty, to Mount Zion.

19 A prophecy concerning Egypt: Behold, the Lord rides on a swift cloud and is coming to Egypt; the idols of Egypt will tremble at His presence, and the hearts of the Egyptians will melt within them. ² "I will incite Egyptians against Egyptians; brother will fight against brother, neighbour against neighbour, city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. ³ The spirit of the Egyptians will be demoralised within them, and I will confound their plans. They will resort to idols and the spirits of the dead, to mediums and spiritists. ⁴ I will hand the Egyptians over to the power of a cruel master, and a mighty king will rule over them," declares the Lord, the Lord of Hosts. ⁵ The waters of the sea will dry up, and the riverbed will become parched and dry. ⁶ The canals will emit a stench; the streams of Egypt will dwindle and dry up. The reeds and rushes will wither. ⁷ The bulrushes by the Nile, at the edge of the river, and all the sown fields by the Nile will become dry, be driven away, and be no more. ⁸ The fishermen will groan and lament; all who cast hooks into the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will pine away. ⁹ Those who work with combed flax will despair, and the weavers of fine linen will be utterly dejected. ¹⁰ The workers in cloth will be disheartened, and all the hired labourers will be grieved in soul. ¹¹ The officials of Zoan are mere fools; the wise counsellors of Pharaoh give senseless advice. How can you say to Pharaoh, "I am one of the wise, a disciple of ancient kings"? ¹² Where are your wise men now? Let them show you and make known what the Lord of Hosts has planned against Egypt. ¹³ The officials of Zoan have become fools, the leaders of Memphis are deceived; the cornerstones of her tribes have led

Egypt astray. ¹⁴ The Lord has mixed within her a spirit of dizziness; they make Egypt stagger in all that she does, as a drunkard staggers in his vomit. ¹⁵ There is nothing Egypt can do—head or tail, palm branch or bulrush. ¹⁶ On that day the Egyptians will become weaklings; they will tremble with fear at the uplifted hand that the Lord of Hosts raises against them. ¹⁷ The land of Judah will bring terror to the Egyptians; everyone to whom it is mentioned will be in great fear because of what the Lord of Hosts is planning against them. ¹⁸ On that day, five cities in Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the Lord of Hosts; one will be called the City of the Sun. ¹⁹ On that day there will be an altar to the Lord in the heart of Egypt, and a monument to the Lord at its border. ²⁰ It will be a sign and witness to the Lord of Hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry out to the Lord because of their oppressors, He will send them a saviour and defender, and He will rescue them. ²¹ So the Lord will make Himself known to the Egyptians, and on that day they will acknowledge the Lord. They will worship with sacrifices and offerings, and will make vows to the Lord and fulfil them. ²² The Lord will bring affliction upon Egypt, but He will also bring healing. They will turn to the Lord, and He will respond to their pleas and restore them. ²³ On that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. The Assyrians will go to Egypt and the Egyptians to Assyria; the Egyptians and Assyrians will worship together. ²⁴ On that day Israel will be the third, along with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth. ²⁵ The Lord of Hosts will bless them, saying, “Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria my handiwork, and Israel my inheritance.”

20 In the year that the commander was sent by Sargon, king of Assyria, to Ashdod, he fought against it and captured it— ² at that time the Lord spoke through Isaiah, son of Amoz, saying, “Remove the sackcloth from your body and take the sandals off your feet.” And he did so, walking around naked and barefoot. ³ Then the Lord said, “Just as my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and symbol against Egypt and Cush, ⁴ so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, young and old, naked and barefoot, with buttocks exposed, to Egypt’s humiliation. ⁵ Those who placed their trust in Cush and boasted in Egypt will be dismayed and ashamed. ⁶ On that day, the inhabitants of this coastland will say, ‘Look at what has happened to those we relied on, those we fled to for help and deliverance from the king of Assyria! How then shall we escape?’”

21 A proclamation concerning the Desert by the Sea: As whirlwinds in the Negev sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from a land of dread. ² A severe vision has been revealed to me: The traitor continues to betray, and the destroyer continues to destroy. Elam, advance! Media, lay siege! I have put an end to all her groaning. ³ Therefore my loins are filled with anguish; pains grip me like those of a woman in labour. I am bewildered by what I hear, I am terrified by what I see. ⁴ My heart staggers, horror overwhelms me; the twilight I longed for has been turned into a horror for me. ⁵ They set the tables, they spread out the cloths, they eat, they drink! Rise up, commanders, oil the shields! ⁶ For this is what the Lord has said to me: “Go, post a watchman, let him declare what he sees. ⁷ When he sees chariots with teams of horses, riders on donkeys, riders on camels, he must be fully alert, very alert.” ⁸ And the watchman called out, “Day after day, my lord, I stand on the watchtower; every night I remain at my post. ⁹ And behold, here comes a chariot of men, with a pair of horsemen. And he answered, saying, ‘Babylon has fallen, has fallen! All the images of its gods lie shattered on the ground!’” ¹⁰ O my crushed people, threshed on the threshing floor, what I have heard from the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, I declare to you. ¹¹ A proclamation concerning Edom: Someone calls to me from Seir, “Watchman, what is left of the night? Watchman, what is left of the night?” ¹² The watchman replies, “Morning is coming, but also the night. If you would inquire, then inquire; come back yet again.” ¹³ A proclamation concerning Arabia: You caravans of Dedanites, who lodge in the thickets of Arabia, ¹⁴ bring water for the thirsty; you inhabitants of Tema, meet the fugitives with bread. ¹⁵ For they flee from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the heat of battle. ¹⁶ For this is what the Lord has spoken to me: “Within a year, as a hired worker would count it, all the splendour of Kedar will come to an end. ¹⁷ The number of the archers, the warriors of Kedar, will be few.” The Lord, the God of Israel, has spoken.

22 A proclamation concerning the Valley of Vision: What is troubling you now, that you have all ascended to the rooftops? ² You city full of noise, you tumultuous town, you city of jubilation. Your dead were not slain by the sword, nor did they perish in battle. ³ All your leaders have fled together; they have been captured without the use of the bow. All of you who were discovered were taken captive together, even though you had fled far away. ⁴ Therefore I said, "Look away from me; let me weep bitterly. Do not attempt to comfort me over the ruin of my people." ⁵ For the Lord, the God of hosts, has a day of panic, trampling, and confusion in the Valley of Vision, a day of breaking down walls and crying out to the mountains. ⁶ Elam takes up the quiver, with chariots, infantry, and horsemen; Kir uncovers the shield. ⁷ Your choicest valleys are filled with chariots, and horsemen have taken their positions at the city gates. ⁸ The Lord has removed the protection of Judah, and on that day you looked to the weapons in the House of the Forest. ⁹ You saw that the breaches in the walls of the City of David were many; you collected the waters of the Lower Pool. ¹⁰ You counted the houses in Jerusalem and demolished houses to fortify the wall. ¹¹ You constructed a reservoir between the two walls for the waters of the Old Pool, but you did not look to the One who made it, nor did you consider the One who planned it long ago. ¹² On that day, the Lord, the God of hosts, called you to weeping, wailing, shaving your head, and wearing sackcloth. ¹³ But instead, there is joy and revelry, slaughtering of cattle and killing of sheep, eating of meat and drinking of wine: "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we may die." ¹⁴ The Lord of hosts has revealed this in my hearing: "Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you until you die," says the Lord, the God of hosts. ¹⁵ This is what the Lord, the God of hosts, says: "Go, approach this steward, to Shebna, who is in charge of the royal household: ¹⁶ What right do you have here, and who do you have here, that you have carved a tomb for yourself here, you who carve a tomb on the height and chisel a resting place for yourself in the rock? ¹⁷ Behold, the Lord is about to hurl you away violently, you strong man. He is about to seize you firmly ¹⁸ and wrap you up tightly like a ball, to be thrown into a vast country; there you will die, and there your splendid chariots will be, a disgrace to your master's house. ¹⁹ I will remove you from your office, and you will be pulled down from your position. ²⁰ And on that day, I will call upon my servant, Eliakim son of Hilkiah. ²¹ I will clothe him with your robe and fasten your sash securely around him, and I will hand your authority over to him. He will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. ²² I will set upon his shoulder the key to the house of David; what he opens, no one can shut, and what he shuts, no one can open. ²³ I will drive him like a peg into a firm place; he will become a throne of honour for his father's house. ²⁴ All the glory of his family will hang on him: its offspring and descendants—all its lesser vessels, from the bowls to all the jars. ²⁵ On that day," declares the Lord of hosts, "the peg driven into a firm place will give way; it will be sheared off and will fall, and the load hanging on it will be cut down, for the Lord has spoken."

23 A message concerning Tyre: Lament, you ships of Tarshish, for Tyre is laid waste, without house or harbour; it is reported to them from the land of Cyprus. ² Be silent, you who dwell on the coast, you merchants of Sidon; your envoys have crossed the sea. ³ On the vast waters came the grain of the Nile; her harvest was the revenue of Tyre, and she was the marketplace of the nations. ⁴ Be ashamed, Sidon, for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, "I have neither been in labour nor given birth; I have neither raised young men nor brought up daughters." ⁵ When the news reaches Egypt, they will be in distress at the news of Tyre. ⁶ Journey to Tarshish; lament, you inhabitants of the coast. ⁷ Is this your city of joy, whose origin is from ancient times, whose feet carried her to settle in distant lands? ⁸ Who has devised this against Tyre, the crown-giver, whose merchants were princes, whose traders were honoured across the earth? ⁹ The Lord of Hosts has purposed it, to defile the pride of all splendour, to humble all who are honoured on the earth. ¹⁰ Overflow your land like the Nile, Daughter of Tarshish, for you no longer have restraint. ¹¹ The Lord has stretched out his hand over the sea, he has made kingdoms tremble; he has given a command concerning Canaan to destroy its fortresses. ¹² He has declared, "You shall no longer exult, O crushed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, cross over to Cyprus; even there you will find no rest." ¹³ Look at the land of the Chaldeans—this is the people that was not; Assyria appointed it for desert creatures—they set up their siege towers, stripped its palaces, and made it a ruin. ¹⁴ Lament, you ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is destroyed. ¹⁵ In that time Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, like the days of one king. At the end of seventy years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the harlot: ¹⁶ "Take up a harp, go around the city, you forgotten harlot; play the harp well, sing many songs, so that you may be remembered." ¹⁷ At the end of seventy years, the Lord will attend to Tyre. She will return to her trade and will engage in commerce with all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. ¹⁸ Yet her earnings and her wages will be set apart for the Lord; they will not be stored or hoarded, but her profits will provide abundant food and splendid clothing for those who dwell in the presence of the Lord.

Isaiah

24 Behold, the Lord is set to lay waste the earth, devastate it, distort its surface, and disperse its inhabitants. ² The people will be as the priest, the servant as his master, the maid as her mistress, the buyer as the seller, the lender as the borrower, the debtor as the creditor. ³ The earth shall be utterly laid waste and thoroughly plundered, for the Lord has declared this word. ⁴ The earth dries up and withers, the world languishes and crumbles, the exalted of the earth dwindle. ⁵ The earth is defiled by its inhabitants; they have transgressed the laws, altered the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. ⁶ Therefore, a curse devours the earth, and its people suffer for their guilt. Thus, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few remain. ⁷ The new wine mourns, the vine withers, all the merry-hearted sigh. ⁸ The joy of the tambourines ceases, the noise of the revelers ends, the joy of the harp is silenced. ⁹ They do not drink wine with song; strong drink is bitter to those who consume it. ¹⁰ The chaotic city is in ruins; every house is sealed so that none may enter. ¹¹ There is an outcry for wine in the streets; all joy turns to gloom, the joy of the earth is banished. ¹² Desolation remains in the city, and the gate is battered to ruins. ¹³ Thus it shall be in the midst of the earth among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten, or as the gleanings after the grape harvest. ¹⁴ They lift up their voices, they sing for joy; they shout from the west about the Lord's majesty. ¹⁵ Therefore, honour the Lord in the east, the name of the Lord, the God of Israel, in the coastlands of the sea. ¹⁶ From the ends of the earth we hear songs: "Glory to the Righteous One." But I say, "I am undone! I am undone! Woe to me! The treacherous deal treacherously, and the treacherous deal very treacherously." ¹⁷ Terror, pit, and snare await you, O inhabitant of the earth. ¹⁸ He who flees the sound of terror will fall into the pit, and he who climbs out of the pit will be caught in the snare; for the windows of heaven are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. ¹⁹ The earth is completely shattered, the earth is split apart, the earth is violently shaken. ²⁰ The earth staggers like a drunkard, it sways like a hut; its transgression lies heavy upon it, and it falls, never to rise again. ²¹ On that day, the Lord will punish the host of heaven in heaven, and the kings of the earth on earth. ²² They will be gathered together like prisoners in a pit; they will be shut up in prison, and after many days they will be punished. ²³ Then the moon will be abashed, and the sun ashamed; for the Lord Almighty will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and His glory will be before His elders.

25 Lord, you are my God; I will exalt you and give thanks to your name, for you have accomplished wonderful deeds, plans formed long ago with perfect faithfulness. ² You have turned the city into a heap, the fortified city into a ruin; the palace of foreigners is no longer a city, it will never be rebuilt. ³ As a result, strong peoples will honour you; cities of ruthless nations will hold you in awe. ⁴ For you have been a stronghold for the poor, a refuge for the needy in their distress, a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat; for the breath of the ruthless is like a storm against a wall. ⁵ Like heat in a dry land, you subdue the uproar of foreigners; as heat is reduced by the shadow of a cloud, so the song of the ruthless is silenced. ⁶ On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare a lavish feast for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine, the best of meats and the finest of wines. ⁷ And on this mountain, he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations. ⁸ He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces; he will remove the disgrace of his people from all the earth. The Lord has spoken. ⁹ And on that day, it will be said, "Surely this is our God; we have waited for him, and he has saved us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation." ¹⁰ For the hand of the Lord will rest on this mountain, but Moab will be trampled down in their place as straw is trampled down in the water of a manure pile. ¹¹ They will spread out their hands in it, as swimmers spread out their hands to swim, but the Lord will bring down their pride together with the cleverness of their hands. ¹² The high fortified walls he will bring down, lay low, and throw to the ground, to the dust.

26 On that day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah: “We have a strong city; God sets up salvation as its walls and ramparts for security. ² Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter, the nation that remains faithful. ³ You will keep in complete peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you. ⁴ Trust in the Lord forever, for the Lord God is the eternal Rock. ⁵ He has brought low those who dwell on high; the lofty city he lays low, he levels it to the ground and casts it to the dust. ⁶ The foot will trample it down— the feet of the poor, the steps of the oppressed. ⁷ The path of the righteous is level; O Upright One, you make the way of the righteous smooth. ⁸ Indeed, while following the way of your laws, Lord, we have waited for you; your name and your renown are the desire of our souls. ⁹ At night my soul longs for you, indeed, my spirit within me seeks you diligently; for when your judgments come upon the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness. ¹⁰ Though compassion is shown to the wicked, they do not learn righteousness; they continue to act unjustly in a land of uprightness and do not perceive the majesty of the Lord. ¹¹ Lord, your hand is lifted high, yet they do not see it. Let them see your zeal for your people and be put to shame; indeed, let the fire reserved for your enemies consume them. ¹² Lord, you will bring about peace for us, since you have also accomplished all our works for us. ¹³ Lord our God, other rulers besides you have governed us, but we honour your name alone. ¹⁴ The dead will not live, the departed spirits will not rise; therefore you have punished and destroyed them, and you have wiped out all memory of them. ¹⁵ You have increased the nation, Lord; you have increased the nation. You have gained glory for yourself; you have extended all the borders of the land. ¹⁶ Lord, they sought you in their distress; when you disciplined them, they could only whisper a prayer. ¹⁷ As a pregnant woman about to give birth writhes and cries out in her labour pains, so were we in your presence, Lord. ¹⁸ We were pregnant, we writhed in labour, but we gave birth to wind. We could not accomplish deliverance for the earth, nor were the inhabitants of the world born. ¹⁹ Your dead will live; their bodies will rise. You who dwell in the dust, awake and shout for joy, for your dew is like the dew of the dawn, and the earth will give birth to the departed spirits. ²⁰ Come, my people, enter your rooms and close your doors behind you; hide for a little while until the indignation has passed by. ²¹ For behold, the Lord is coming out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their wrongdoing; the earth will reveal her bloodshed and will no longer cover her slain.

27 On that day, the Lord will punish Leviathan, the swift serpent, with His fierce, great, and mighty sword— Leviathan, the coiling serpent; He will slay the dragon of the sea. ² On that day— “Sing of a delightful vineyard: ³ I, the Lord, am its keeper; I water it continually. I guard it day and night so that no one can harm it. ⁴ I am not angry. If only there were briars and thorns to confront me! I would march against them; I would set them all ablaze. ⁵ Or let them seek My protection; let them make peace with Me, yes, let them make peace with Me.” ⁶ In the days to come, Jacob will take root, Israel will blossom and sprout, and they will fill the entire world with fruit. ⁷ Has He struck them as He struck those who struck them? Or have they been slain as those were slain who killed them? ⁸ By warfare and exile, you contended with them— with His fierce wind He drove them away, as on the day the east wind blows. ⁹ Therefore, through this, Jacob’s guilt will be atoned for, and this will be the full measure of the removal of his sin: When he makes all the altar stones like crushed chalk, no Asherah poles or incense altars will remain standing. ¹⁰ The fortified city stands isolated, a deserted homestead, abandoned like the wilderness; there the calves graze, there they lie down and strip its branches bare. ¹¹ When its branches are dry, they are broken off, and women come to make fires with them. For this is a people without understanding; therefore, their Maker will show them no compassion, and their Creator will not be gracious to them. ¹² On that day, the Lord will thresh from the flowing Euphrates to the brook of Egypt, and you, the children of Israel, will be gathered one by one. ¹³ And on that day, a great trumpet will sound. Those who were perishing in Assyria and those who were exiled in Egypt will come and worship the Lord on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

28 Woe to the proud crown of Ephraim's drunkards, and to the fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is set on the head of a fertile valley, of those who are overcome with wine! ² Behold, the Lord has a strong and mighty one. Like a hailstorm and a tempest of destruction, like a storm of mighty overflowing waters, he will cast it down to the earth with force. ³ The proud crown of Ephraim's drunkards will be trampled underfoot. ⁴ The fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley, will be like the first-ripe fig before the summer; as soon as someone sees it, while it is still in their hand, they swallow it. ⁵ In that day, the Lord Almighty will be a beautiful crown and a glorious diadem for the remnant of his people. ⁶ He will be a spirit of justice to the one who sits in judgment, and a source of strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate. ⁷ These also stagger from wine and reel from intoxicating drink: the priest and the prophet stagger from drink, they are confused by wine, they stagger from intoxicating drink; they reel while having visions, they stumble when rendering decisions. ⁸ All the tables are covered with vomit; there is not a clean spot anywhere. ⁹ "To whom is he trying to teach knowledge, and to whom is he explaining the message? To children just weaned from milk, to those just taken from the breast? ¹⁰ For it is: Order on order, order on order, line on line, line on line, a little here, a little there." ¹¹ Indeed, with stammering lips and a foreign tongue, God will speak to this people, ¹² to whom he declared, "This is the resting place; let the weary find rest," and, "This is the place of repose," but they would not listen. ¹³ So the word of the Lord to them will be: Order on order, order on order, line on line, line on line, a little here, a little there, so that they may go and fall backward, be broken, snared, and captured. ¹⁴ Therefore, listen to the word of the Lord, you who scoff and rule this people in Jerusalem. ¹⁵ Because you have said, "We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol we have made an agreement. When the overwhelming scourge passes through, it will not reach us, for we have made falsehood our refuge and concealed ourselves with deception." ¹⁶ Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: "Behold, I lay a stone in Zion, a tested stone, a precious cornerstone for a sure foundation; the one who believes in it will not be disturbed. ¹⁷ I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the plumb line; hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and waters will overflow the hiding place. ¹⁸ Your covenant with death will be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand; when the overwhelming scourge passes through, you will be trampled by it. ¹⁹ As often as it passes through, it will seize you; morning after morning, by day and by night, it will sweep through. The understanding of this message will bring sheer terror. ²⁰ The bed is too short to stretch out on, and the blanket too narrow to wrap oneself in. ²¹ For the Lord will rise up as he did at Mount Perazim, he will be stirred as in the Valley of Gibeon, to do his work, his strange work, and to perform his task, his alien task. ²² Now stop your mocking, or your shackles will be made heavier; for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts of decisive destruction upon the whole land. ²³ Listen and hear my voice; be attentive and heed my words. ²⁴ Does the farmer plough continually to plant seed? Does he continually turn and break up his ground? ²⁵ When he has levelled its surface, does he not sow dill and scatter cumin, and plant wheat in rows, barley in its place, and rye in its area? ²⁶ God instructs him and guides him in the right way. ²⁷ Dill is not threshed with a sledge, nor is the cartwheel driven over cumin; but dill is beaten out with a rod, and cumin with a stick. ²⁸ Grain must be crushed to make bread; one does not continue to thresh it forever. Though the wheels of a cart may be rolled over it, one does not use horses to grind grain. ²⁹ All this also comes from the Lord of hosts, whose counsel is wonderful and whose wisdom is great.

29 Woe to you, Ariel, Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year upon year, let your cycle of festivals continue. ² Yet I will bring distress upon Ariel, and she shall be a city of sorrow and lamentation; she will be to me like an altar hearth. ³ I will encamp against you all around; I will besiege you with towers and raise up siegeworks against you. ⁴ Brought low, you shall speak from the ground; your words will come from the dust where you lie prostrate. Your voice will be like that of a spirit from the earth, and your speech will whisper from the dust. ⁵ But the multitude of your foes shall become like fine dust, and the ruthless hordes like chaff that blows away; it shall happen suddenly, in an instant. ⁶ From the Lord of Hosts you shall be visited with thunder, earthquake, and a great noise, with whirlwind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire. ⁷ The multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, that besiege her and her stronghold, shall be as a dream, a vision of the night. ⁸ It will be like when a hungry person dreams of eating but wakes up hungry, or when a thirsty person dreams of drinking but wakes up faint and thirsty. So shall it be with the multitude of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion. ⁹ Be stunned and amazed; blind yourselves and be sightless; they are drunk, but not with wine, they stagger, but not with strong drink. ¹⁰ For the Lord has poured upon you a spirit of deep sleep; He has closed your eyes, the prophets, and covered your heads, the seers. ¹¹ This entire vision will be to you like the words of a sealed book. When it is given to one who can read, saying, "Read this, please," he will say, "I cannot, for it is sealed." ¹² Or if it is given to one who cannot read, saying, "Read this, please," he will say, "I do not know how to read." ¹³ The Lord says: "These people draw near to me with their mouth and honour me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. Their reverence for me is based on human rules taught by men. ¹⁴ Therefore, behold, I will again do a marvellous work among this people, a wondrous work; the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hidden." ¹⁵ Woe to those who seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord, whose deeds are done in darkness, and who say, "Who sees us? Who knows us?" ¹⁶ You invert the natural order! Should the potter be considered the same as the clay? Should that what is made say of its maker, "He did not make me," or the creation say of its creator, "He lacks understanding"? ¹⁷ Is it not soon that Lebanon will be transformed into a fertile field, and the fertile field will be esteemed as a forest? ¹⁸ On that day the deaf shall hear the words of a book, and out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see. ¹⁹ The humble shall increase their joy in the Lord, and the needy among mankind shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. ²⁰ For the ruthless shall come to an end, and the mockers shall be finished, and all who watch for iniquity shall be cut off— ²¹ those who make a man an offender by a word, and lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate, and with false testimony turn aside the just. ²² Therefore, this is what the Lord, who redeemed

Isaiah

Abraham, says about the house of Jacob: "Jacob shall no longer be ashamed, nor shall his face grow pale. ²³ But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in his midst, they shall sanctify my name; they shall sanctify the Holy One of Jacob and stand in awe of the God of Israel. ²⁴ Those who err in spirit shall come to understanding, and those who grumble shall accept instruction."

30 "Woe to the stubborn children," declares the Lord, "who execute plans that are not mine, and forge alliances not of my Spirit, adding sin upon sin; ² who go down to Egypt without consulting me, seeking refuge in Pharaoh's protection and shelter in Egypt's shadow. ³ But Pharaoh's protection will be your shame, and the shelter in Egypt's shadow your disgrace. ⁴ For though their officials are in Zoan and their envoys have reached Hanes, ⁵ everyone will be ashamed because of a people that do not benefit them, bringing neither help nor advantage, only shame and disgrace." ⁶ A prophecy concerning the beasts of the Negev: Through a land of hardship and distress, of lions and lionesses, of vipers and darting snakes, they carry their riches on donkeys' backs, their treasures on camels' humps, to a people who will not profit them; ⁷ to Egypt, whose help is utterly futile. Therefore I have called her Rahab the Do-Nothing. ⁸ Go now, write it on a tablet before them, inscribe it on a scroll, that it may serve as an everlasting witness in the days to come. ⁹ For these are a rebellious people, deceitful children, children unwilling to listen to the Lord's instruction. ¹⁰ They say to the seers, "See no more visions!" and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy the truth to us. Speak to us pleasant things, prophesy illusions. ¹¹ Leave us alone, turn away from the path, and cease confronting us with the Holy One of Israel!" ¹² Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel says: "Since you have rejected this message and relied on oppression and deceit, and depended on them, ¹³ this sin will become for you like a breach in a high wall, bulging and about to collapse, whose fall comes suddenly, in an instant. ¹⁴ It will break in pieces like pottery, shattered so ruthlessly that not a fragment will be found among its pieces to take coals from a hearth or to scoop water from a cistern." ¹⁵ This is what the Sovereign Lord, the Holy One of Israel, says: "In repentance and rest is your salvation, in quietness and trust is your strength, but you were not willing. ¹⁶ You said, 'No, we will flee on horses.' Therefore you will flee! You said, 'We will ride on swift horses.' Therefore your pursuers will be swift! ¹⁷ A thousand will flee at the threat of one; at the threat of five you will all flee away, until you are left like a flagstaff on a mountaintop, like a banner on a hill." ¹⁸ Yet the Lord longs to be gracious to you; therefore he will rise to show you compassion. For the Lord is a God of justice. Blessed are all who wait for him! ¹⁹ People of Zion, who dwell in Jerusalem, you will weep no more. How gracious he will be when you cry for help! As soon as he hears, he will answer you. ²⁰ Although the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, your Teacher will no longer hide himself; your eyes will see your Teacher. ²¹ Wherever you turn, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it." ²² Then you will desecrate your idols overlaid with silver and your images covered with gold; you will throw them away like a filthy thing and say to them, "Be gone!" ²³ He will also send rain for the seed you sow in the ground, and the food that comes from the land will be rich and plentiful. On that day your livestock will graze in broad pastures. ²⁴ The oxen and donkeys that work the soil will eat seasoned feed, spread out with fork and shovel. ²⁵ On every high mountain and lofty hill there will be streams of water on the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. ²⁶ The light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, when the Lord binds up the bruises of his people and heals the wounds he inflicted. ²⁷ Behold, the name of the Lord comes from afar, with burning anger and dense clouds of smoke; his lips are full of wrath, and his tongue is like a consuming fire. ²⁸ His breath is like an overflowing river, reaching up to the neck, to shake the nations in the sieve of destruction, and to place in the jaws of the peoples a bridle that leads them astray. ²⁹ You will have songs as in the night when you celebrate a holy festival; your hearts will rejoice as when people playing pipes go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the Rock of Israel. ³⁰ The Lord will cause his majestic voice to be heard and will make them see his arm coming down with furious anger and consuming fire, with cloudburst, thunderstorm, and hailstones. ³¹ At the voice of the Lord, Assyria will be shattered; he will strike them with his rod. ³² Every blow the Lord lays on them with his punishing club will be to the music of tambourines and lyres, as he fights them in battle with the blows of his arm. ³³ For Topheth has long been prepared; it has been made ready for the king. Its pyre is deep and wide, with an abundance of fire and wood; the breath of the Lord, like a stream of burning sulphur, sets it ablaze.

Isaiah

31 Woe to those who descend to Egypt for assistance, who depend on horses, and trust in the abundance of their chariots and the power of their horsemen, but do not turn to the Holy One of Israel or seek the Lord's guidance. ² Yet He is wise and brings calamity; He does not retract His words. He will rise against the nation of evildoers and those who support wrongdoers. ³ The Egyptians are human and not divine; their horses are flesh, not spirit. When the Lord stretches out His hand, the helpers will stumble, and those aided will fall; all will perish together. ⁴ This is what the Lord has spoken to me: "As a lion or young lion growls over its prey, and though a band of shepherds is summoned against it, it is not alarmed by their cries or disturbed by their noise, so the Lord Almighty will descend to wage war on Mount Zion and its hill." ⁵ Like birds hovering, the Lord Almighty will protect Jerusalem; He will shield and deliver it, He will pass over and rescue it. ⁶ Return to Him, you Israelites, whom you have so greatly defied. ⁷ For on that day, each of you will cast away your silver idols and gold idols, which your sinful hands have crafted. ⁸ Assyria will fall by a sword not wielded by a human; a sword not of mortals will consume them. They will flee from the sword, and their young men will become forced labourers. ⁹ Their stronghold will collapse out of panic, and their commanders will be terrified at the sight of the battle standard," declares the Lord, whose fire is in Zion and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

32 Observe, a king will govern with righteousness, and officials will administer justice. ² Each will serve as a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm, akin to streams of water in a dry land and the shade of a vast rock in a parched region. ³ At that time, those who see will have their eyes open, and those who hear will listen attentively. ⁴ The mind of the hasty will comprehend knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers will speak fluently and clearly. ⁵ No longer will the fool be called noble, nor the rogue be regarded as generous. ⁶ For fools utter folly, and their hearts are inclined towards wickedness: They engage in ungodliness and spread falsehoods about the Lord; they leave the hungry unsatisfied and withhold drink from the thirsty. ⁷ The rogue uses wicked devices; he devises evil plans to ruin the poor with falsehoods, even when the needy speak what is right. ⁸ But the noble person devises noble plans, and by noble deeds he stands. ⁹ Arise, you women who are complacent, and listen to my voice; heed my words, you daughters who feel secure. ¹⁰ In a little more than a year, you who feel secure will be troubled; the grape harvest will fail, and the fruit gathering will not occur. ¹¹ Tremble, you complacent women; be troubled, you daughters who feel at ease! Remove your fine garments and put on sackcloth. ¹² Mourn for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vines, ¹³ and for the land of my people, overgrown with thorns and briars— yes, mourn for all the joyous houses and the jubilant city. ¹⁴ For the palace will be forsaken, the bustling city deserted; hill and watchtower will become caves forever, a delight for wild donkeys, a pasture for flocks, ¹⁵ until the Spirit is poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fertile field, and the fertile field is deemed a forest. ¹⁶ Then justice will inhabit the wilderness, and righteousness will dwell in the fertile field. ¹⁷ The result of righteousness will be peace, and the effect of righteousness will be quietness and confidence forever. ¹⁸ My people will reside in peaceful settlements, in secure homes, and in undisturbed resting places. ¹⁹ And it will hail when the forest falls, and the city will be completely laid low. ²⁰ How blessed you will be, sowing your seed by all waters, and letting your cattle and donkeys roam freely.

33 Woe to you, destroyer, who have not yet been destroyed; and to you, betrayer, who have not yet been betrayed! When you finish your destruction, you will be destroyed; when you cease your treachery, you will be betrayed. ² Lord, be gracious to us; we have waited for you. Be our strength each morning, our salvation in times of distress. ³ At the sound of your tumult, peoples flee; when you rise up, nations scatter. ⁴ Your plunder is gathered as locusts gather; like a swarm of locusts, people rush upon it. ⁵ The Lord is lifted high, for He resides above; He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness. ⁶ He will be the stability of your times, a wealth of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of the Lord is the treasure. ⁷ Behold, their courageous men cry out in the streets; the messengers of peace weep bitterly. ⁸ The highways lie waste, travellers have ceased. The covenant is broken, cities are despised, and there is no regard for mankind. ⁹ The land mourns and languishes, Lebanon is ashamed and withers; Sharon is like a desert, and Bashan and Carmel shed their leaves. ¹⁰ “Now I will take action,” says the Lord. “Now I will be exalted; now I will be lifted up. ¹¹ You conceive chaff, you give birth to stubble; my breath will consume you like fire. ¹² The peoples will be burned to lime, like cut thornbushes set ablaze. ¹³ Those who are distant, listen to what I have done; and those who are near, recognise my power. ¹⁴ The sinners in Zion are terrified; trembling grips the godless: “Who among us can dwell with the consuming fire? Who among us can dwell with everlasting burning?” ¹⁵ Those who walk righteously and speak with integrity, who reject unjust gain and shake their hands free of bribes, who stop their ears from hearing of bloodshed and shut their eyes from seeing evil— ¹⁶ they will dwell on the heights, their refuge will be the impregnable rock; their bread will be supplied, and their water will be sure. ¹⁷ Your eyes will see the king in his beauty and behold a land that stretches afar. ¹⁸ In your heart, you will ponder the former terror: “Where is the one who counts? Where is the one who weighs? Where is the one who counts the towers?” ¹⁹ You will no longer see a fierce people, a people of unintelligible speech, whose language is incomprehensible. ²⁰ Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem, a peaceful habitation, a tent that will not be moved; its stakes will never be pulled up, nor any of its ropes broken. ²¹ There the Lord will be our majestic one, a place of broad rivers and streams, where no galley with oars will go, nor any mighty ship pass by. ²² For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our king; he will deliver us. ²³ Your rigging hangs loose; it cannot hold the mast firm, nor spread the sail. Then an abundance of spoils will be divided, and even the lame will carry off plunder. ²⁴ No inhabitant will say, “I am ill”; the people who dwell there will be forgiven their iniquity.

34 Draw near, you nations, and listen; pay heed, you peoples! Let the earth and all it contains hear, the world and all that springs forth from it. ² For the Lord's indignation is upon all nations, and His fury upon all their armies. He has utterly destroyed them, He has delivered them to slaughter. ³ Their slain shall be cast out, and their corpses will emit a stench; the mountains shall be soaked with their blood. ⁴ All the stars of the heavens shall fade away, and the sky shall be rolled up like a scroll; all its host shall wither as leaves wither from the vine, or as shrivelled figs from the fig tree. ⁵ For My sword has been sated in the heavens; behold, it shall descend in judgment upon Edom, upon the people I have devoted to destruction. ⁶ The sword of the Lord is drenched in blood, and covered with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For the Lord has a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom. ⁷ Wild oxen shall fall with them, and young bulls with mighty ones; their land shall be drenched with blood, and their dust shall be greasy with fat. ⁸ For the Lord has a time of retribution, and a year of repayment in the name of Zion. ⁹ Its streams shall be turned into pitch, and its dust into burning sulphur; its land shall become blazing pitch. ¹⁰ It shall not be quenched night nor day; its smoke shall ascend forever. From generation to generation it shall lie desolate; none shall pass through it forever and ever. ¹¹ The pelican and the hedgehog shall possess it; the owl and the raven shall dwell there. He shall stretch over it the line of chaos and the plumb line of desolation. ¹² Its nobles shall have nothing there to be called a kingdom, and all its princes shall vanish away. ¹³ Thorns shall overrun its citadels, nettles and brambles its strongholds; it shall become a haunt for jackals, a dwelling for ostriches. ¹⁴ Desert creatures shall meet with hyenas, and wild goats shall call to each other; there the night-bird shall also settle and find for herself a resting place. ¹⁵ The tree snake shall make its nest there and lay eggs, and hatch them, and gather them under its shadow; there also the hawks shall gather, each with its mate. ¹⁶ Seek from the book of the Lord, and read: Not one of these shall be missing, none shall lack its mate. For His mouth has commanded, and His Spirit has gathered them. ¹⁷ He has cast the lot for them, and His hand has divided it to them by measure. They shall possess it forever; from generation to generation they shall dwell in it.

35 The wilderness and the parched land shall be glad; the desert will rejoice and blossom abundantly, like the crocus. ² It will burst into bloom and rejoice with great joy and singing. The glory of Lebanon will be bestowed upon it, the splendour of Carmel and Sharon. They shall see the glory of the Lord, the majesty of our God. ³ Support those with weak hands, and steady the trembling knees. ⁴ Say to those with anxious hearts, "Be strong, do not fear; behold, your God will come with vengeance, with divine retribution. He will come to save you." ⁵ At that time, the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be cleared. ⁶ Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute shall shout for joy. For waters shall gush forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert. ⁷ The burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water. In the haunt of jackals, where they once lay, grass, reeds, and rushes shall grow. ⁸ And a highway shall be there, called the Way of Holiness. The unclean shall not travel on it, but it shall be for those who walk in that Way; fools shall not wander on it. ⁹ No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast go up on it; they shall not be found there. But the redeemed shall walk there, ¹⁰ and the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall crown their heads. Gladness and joy shall overtake them, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

36 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah's reign, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, advanced against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them. ² The king of Assyria sent his chief officer from Lachish to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a substantial army. He halted by the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Launderer's Field. ³ Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, went out to meet him. ⁴ The chief officer said to them, "Say to Hezekiah: 'This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: What is this confidence you have?' ⁵ You claim to have strategy and strength for war, but these are mere words. On whom do you rely, that you have rebelled against me?' ⁶ Behold, you rely on Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which pierces the hand of anyone who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. ⁷ But if you say to me, 'We trust in the Lord our God,' is it not He whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed, commanding Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship before this altar?"⁸ "Now, make a deal with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you can provide riders for them!"⁹ How then can you repel even one officer of the least of my master's servants, when you rely on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?¹⁰ Moreover, have I come up against this land to destroy it without the Lord's approval? The Lord himself said to me, "Go up against this land and destroy it."¹¹ Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the chief officer, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. Do not speak to us in Judean in the hearing of the people on the wall."¹² But the chief officer replied, "Has my master sent me to speak these words only to your master and to you, and not to the men sitting on the wall, who, like you, will have to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?"¹³ Then the chief officer stood and called out loudly in Judean, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!"¹⁴ This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he cannot deliver you.¹⁵ Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the Lord by saying, 'The Lord will surely deliver us; this city will not fall into the hand of the king of Assyria.'¹⁶ Do not listen to Hezekiah. This is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me. Then each of you will eat from his own vine and fig tree and drink water from his own cistern,¹⁷ until I come and take you to a land like your own, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.¹⁸ Do not let Hezekiah mislead you by saying, 'The Lord will deliver us.' Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria?¹⁹ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand?²⁰ Who among all the gods of these lands have delivered their land from my hand, that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"²¹ But the people remained silent and did not answer him a word, for the king had commanded, "Do not answer him."²² Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and reported to him the words of the chief officer.

37 When King Hezekiah received the report, he tore his garments, donned sackcloth, and went into the house of the Lord.² He sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, all clothed in sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah, son of Amoz.³ They said to him, "This is what Hezekiah says: 'This day is one of distress, rebuke, and humiliation, like when children come to the point of birth, but there is no strength to bring them forth.'⁴ Perhaps the Lord your God will hear the words of the field commander, whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words which the Lord your God has heard. Therefore, pray for the remnant that remains."⁵ The messengers of King Hezekiah went to Isaiah.⁶ Isaiah said to them, "This is what you shall say to your master: 'This is what the Lord says: Do not be afraid of the words you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.'⁷ Behold, I will put a spirit in him, so that when he hears a certain report, he will return to his own land, and there I will cause him to fall by the sword."⁸ When the field commander returned, he found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had left Lachish.⁹ Now Sennacherib heard concerning Tirhakah, king of Cush, "He has set out to fight against you." On hearing this, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,¹⁰ "This is what you shall say to Hezekiah king of Judah: 'Do not let your God, in whom you trust, deceive you by saying, 'Jerusalem will not be delivered into the hands of the king of Assyria.'¹¹ Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them completely. Will you then be delivered?¹² Did the gods of the nations that my forefathers destroyed deliver them—Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?¹³ Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, or the kings of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?"¹⁴ Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the house of the Lord and spread it out before the Lord.¹⁵ And Hezekiah offered his prayer to the Lord:¹⁶ "O Lord of hosts, God of Israel, who is enthroned above the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.¹⁷ Incline your ear, O Lord, and hear; open your eyes, O Lord, and see; and listen to all the words Sennacherib has sent to mock the living God.¹⁸ Indeed, O Lord, the kings of Assyria have devastated all the nations and their lands,¹⁹ and have cast their gods into the fire, for they were no gods, but the work of human hands, wood and stone. Thus they were destroyed.²⁰ Now, O Lord our God, deliver us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone, O Lord, are God.”²¹ Then Isaiah, son of Amoz, sent a message to Hezekiah, saying, “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria,’²² this is the word the Lord has spoken against him: “The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and mocks you; the daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at you as you flee.”²³ Whom have you taunted and blasphemed? And against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel!²⁴ By your servants you have mocked the Lord, and you have said, ‘With my many chariots I have ascended the heights of the mountains, to the farthest recesses of Lebanon. I have cut down its tallest cedars, its choicest junipers. I have reached its remotest heights, its densest forest.’²⁵ I have dug wells and drunk waters, and with the sole of my feet I have dried up all the streams of Egypt.’²⁶ Have you not heard? Long ago I ordained it. In days of old I planned it; now I have brought it to pass, that you should turn fortified cities into heaps of ruins.²⁷ Their inhabitants, drained of power, are dismayed and confounded. They are like plants in the field, like tender green shoots, like grass on the housetops, scorched before it grows up.²⁸ But I know your sitting down, your going out and coming in, and your raging against me.²⁹ Because of your raging against me and your arrogance that has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way you came.³⁰ “This shall be the sign for you: This year you will eat what grows by itself, and the second year what springs from that. But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.³¹ The remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root below and bear fruit above.³² For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will accomplish this.³³ “Therefore, this is what the Lord says concerning the king of Assyria: ‘He will not enter this city or shoot an arrow there. He will not come before it with a shield or build a siege ramp against it.³⁴ He will return by the same way he came; he will not enter this city,’ declares the Lord.³⁵ ‘I will protect this city and save it, for my sake and for the sake of my servant David.’”³⁶ Then the angel of the Lord went out and struck down 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians. When the people arose early in the morning, behold, all these were dead bodies.³⁷ So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and returned home, and he stayed in Nineveh.³⁸ And it came to pass, while he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Isaiah

38 In those days, Hezekiah became seriously ill and was near death. The prophet Isaiah, son of Amoz, came to him and said, “This is what the Lord says: Put your affairs in order, for you are going to die; you will not survive.”² Hezekiah then turned and faced the wall and prayed to the Lord,³ saying, “Remember, Lord, how I have walked before you with wholehearted devotion and in truth, and have done what is good in your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.⁴ At that time, the message from the Lord reached Isaiah,⁵ “Go and tell Hezekiah, ‘This is what the Lord, the God of your ancestor David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will add fifteen years to your life.’⁶ I will also deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city.”⁷ “This will be the sign to you from the Lord that He will do what He has promised:⁸ I will make the shadow cast by the sun go back ten steps on the stairway of Ahaz.” So the shadow went back the ten steps it had descended.⁹ This is the account of Hezekiah, king of Judah, after he was ill and recovered:¹⁰ I said, “In the middle of my days I must pass through the gates of Sheol and be deprived of the rest of my years.”¹¹ I said, “I will not see the Lord in the land of the living; I will no longer look upon mankind or be among the inhabitants of the world.”¹² Like a shepherd’s tent, my dwelling is pulled up and taken from me. Like a weaver, I have rolled up my life, and he cuts me off from the loom; from day to night you bring me to an end.¹³ I composed myself until morning, but like a lion, he breaks all my bones; from day to night you bring me to an end.”¹⁴ I chirped like a swallow or a crane, I moaned like a dove. My eyes grew weak as I looked to the heavens. I am oppressed, Lord, be my support!" ¹⁵ But what shall I say? He has spoken to me, and He Himself has done it. I will walk humbly all my years because of this anguish of my soul. ¹⁶ Lord, by such things people live; and in all these is the life of my spirit. Restore me to health and let me live. ¹⁷ Surely it was for my benefit that I suffered such bitterness. In your love, you have kept me from the pit of destruction; you have cast all my sins behind your back. ¹⁸ For the realm of the dead cannot thank you, nor can death praise you; those who descend to the grave cannot hope for your faithfulness. ¹⁹ The living, the living—they give thanks to you, as I do today; parents tell their children about your faithfulness. ²⁰ The Lord will save me, and we will sing with stringed instruments all the days of our lives in the house of the Lord. ²¹ Isaiah had instructed, "Prepare a poultice of figs and apply it to the boil, and he will recover." ²² Hezekiah had asked, "What will be the sign that I will go up to the house of the Lord?"

39 At that time, Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard of his illness and recovery. ² Hezekiah was delighted and showed them all that was in his storehouses—the silver, the gold, the spices, the fine olive oil—his entire armoury and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them. ³ Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" Hezekiah replied, "They came to me from a distant land, from Babylon." ⁴ The prophet asked, "What did they see in your palace?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen everything in my palace; there is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them." ⁵ Isaiah then addressed Hezekiah, saying, "Listen to the message from the Lord of Hosts: ⁶ 'Behold, the days are coming when everything in your palace, and all that your forefathers have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left,' says the Lord. ⁷ 'And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood who will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will serve in the palace of the king of Babylon.'" ⁸ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the Lord you have spoken is good." For he thought, "There will be peace and security in my days."

40 "Console and console my people," says your God. ² Speak tenderly to Jerusalem and proclaim to her that her warfare has ended, that her guilt has been removed, that she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins. ³ A voice of one calling out in the wilderness: "Prepare the way for the Lord; make straight in the desert a highway for our God. ⁴ Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rugged terrain a plain. ⁵ Then the majesty of the Lord will be unveiled, and all people will witness it together. For the mouth of the Lord has spoken." ⁶ A voice says, "Cry out." And I said, "What shall I cry?" All flesh is like grass, and all its loveliness is like the flowers of the field. ⁷ The grass withers and the flowers fade, because the breath of the Lord blows on them. Surely the people are grass. ⁸ The grass withers and the flowers fade, but the word of our God endures forever. ⁹ You who bring good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain. You who bring good news to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with a shout, lift it up, do not be afraid; say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!" ¹⁰ Behold, the Sovereign Lord comes with power, and His arm rules for Him. Behold, His reward is with Him, and His recompense accompanies Him. ¹¹ He cares for His flock like a shepherd: He gathers the lambs in His arms and carries them close to His heart; He gently guides those that have young. ¹² Who has gauged the waters in the hollow of His hand, or with the span of His hand set the heavens in place? Who has gathered the dust of the earth in a measure, or weighed the mountains on the scales and the hills in a balance? ¹³ Who can comprehend the Spirit of the Lord, or serve as the Lord's advisor? ¹⁴ Whom did He consult to enlighten Him, and who taught Him the right way? Who was it that taught Him knowledge, or showed Him the path of understanding? ¹⁵ Surely the nations are like a drop in a bucket; they are regarded as dust on the scales; He lifts up the islands like fine dust. ¹⁶ Even Lebanon is not sufficient for altar fires, nor its animals enough for burnt offerings. ¹⁷ Before Him all the nations are as nothing; they are regarded by Him as less than nothing and meaningless. ¹⁸ With whom, then, will you compare God? To what likeness will you liken Him? ¹⁹ As for an idol, a craftsman casts it, and a goldsmith overlays it with gold and fashions silver chains for it. ²⁰ A person too impoverished for such an offering selects wood that will not rot; they look for a skilled craftsman to set up an idol that will not totter. ²¹ Do you not know? Have you not heard? Has it not been told to you from the beginning? Have you not understood since the foundations of the earth? ²² He sits enthroned above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers. He stretches out the heavens like a canopy and spreads them out like a tent to live in. ²³ He brings princes to insignificance and reduces the rulers of this world to nothing. ²⁴ Scarcely are they planted, scarcely are they sown, scarcely do they take root in the ground, than He blows on them and they wither, and a whirlwind sweeps them away like chaff. ²⁵ "To whom can you compare Me? Or who is My equal?" says the Holy One. ²⁶ Lift up your eyes and look to the heavens: Who created all these? It is He who brings out the starry host one by one and calls forth each of them by name. Because of His great power and mighty strength, not one of them is missing. ²⁷ Why do you complain, Jacob? Why do you say, Israel, "My way is concealed from the Lord; my cause is overlooked by my God"? ²⁸ Do you not know? Have you not heard? The Lord is the eternal God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and His understanding is beyond human reach. ²⁹ He provides strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. ³⁰ Even youths grow tired and weary, and vigorous young men stumble and fall; ³¹ but those who wait for the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.

Isaiah

41 "Remain silent before me, you coastlands, and let the nations renew their strength. Let them come forward and speak; let us meet together for judgment. ² Who has stirred up one from the east, whom He calls in righteousness to His service? He delivers nations to him and subdues kings. He makes them like dust with his sword, like wind-blown chaff with his bow. ³ He pursues them and moves on safely, by a path his feet have not travelled before. ⁴ Who has performed and accomplished this, calling forth the generations from the beginning? I, the Lord, am the first, and with the last—I am He." ⁵ The coastlands have seen it and are afraid; the ends of the earth tremble. They approach and come forward; ⁶ Each helps the other and says to his companion, "Be strong!" ⁷ The craftsman encourages the goldsmith, and he who smooths with the hammer encourages him who strikes the anvil. They say of the soldering, "It is good." They fasten it with nails so it will not topple. ⁸ "But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, descendants of Abraham my friend, ⁹ I took you from the ends of the earth and called you from its remotest parts. I said, 'You are my servant; I have chosen you and have not rejected you. ¹⁰ Do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. ¹¹ All who are enraged against you will be ashamed and disgraced; those who contend with you will be as nothing and perish. ¹² Though you search for your adversaries, you will not find them. Those who war against you will be as nothing and non-existent. ¹³ For I am the Lord your God, holding your right hand, and I say to you, 'Do not fear; I will help you.' ¹⁴ Do not be afraid, you worm Jacob, little Israel, for I myself will help you," declares the Lord, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. ¹⁵ "See, I will make you into a new, sharp threshing sledge with many teeth. You will thresh the mountains and crush them, and reduce the hills to chaff. ¹⁶ You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away, and a storm will scatter them. But you will rejoice in the Lord and glory in the Holy One of Israel. ¹⁷ "The poor and needy search for water, but there is none; their tongues are parched with thirst. I, the Lord, will answer them; I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them. ¹⁸ I will make rivers flow on barren heights, and springs in the valleys. I will turn the desert into pools of water, and the dry land into fountains of water. ¹⁹ I will place the cedar in the wilderness, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive tree. I will set the juniper in the desert, together with the elm and the cypress, ²⁰ so that people may observe and Recognise, may ponder and comprehend, that the hand of the Lord has done this, that the Holy One of Israel has created it. ²¹ "State your case," says the Lord. "Present your arguments," says the King of Jacob. ²² Let them bring them forward and declare to us what is going to happen. Tell us what the former things were, so that we may consider them and know their outcome. Or declare to us the things to come, ²³ reveal what the future holds, so we may know that you are gods. Perform something, whether good or bad, so that we will be astonished and filled with awe. ²⁴ But you are less than nothing, and your works are utterly worthless; whoever chooses you is an abomination. ²⁵ “I have stirred up one from the north, and he comes; from the rising of the sun he will call on my name. He will trample on rulers as if they were mortar, as the potter treads clay. ²⁶ Who has declared this from the beginning, that we might know, or from former times, that we may say, ‘He is right’? No one declared it, no one proclaimed it, no one heard any words from you. ²⁷ I was the first to say to Zion, ‘Look, here they are!’ I gave to Jerusalem a messenger of good news. ²⁸ But when I look, there is no one, no counsellor among them, who, if I ask, can give an answer. ²⁹ See, they are all deceptive! Their deeds amount to nothing; their images are but wind and confusion.

42 “Behold, my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved chosen one in whom my soul delights. I have put my Spirit upon him; he shall bring forth justice to the nations. ² He will not cry out nor raise his voice, nor make his voice heard in the streets. ³ A bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not snuff out; he will faithfully bring forth justice. ⁴ He will not falter or be discouraged until he has established justice on the earth; and the coastlands shall wait expectantly for his teaching.” ⁵ This is what God the Lord says, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and all that springs from it, who gives breath to its people and spirit to those who walk on it: ⁶ “I am the Lord; I have called you in righteousness, I will hold you by the hand and watch over you, and I will appoint you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations, ⁷ to give sight to the blind, to free captives from confinement, and those who reside in darkness from their imprisonment. ⁸ I am the Lord; this is my name! I will not share my glory with another, nor my praise with idols. ⁹ Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I declare; before they spring forth I announce them to you.” ¹⁰ Sing to the Lord a new song, his praise from the ends of the earth, you who go down to the sea and all that is in it, you islands and those who live on them. ¹¹ Let the wilderness and its towns raise their voices, the settlements where Kedar inhabits. Let the inhabitants of Sela sing for joy; let them shout from the mountaintops. ¹² Let them give honour and glory to the Lord and proclaim his praise in the coastlands. ¹³ The Lord will go out like a warrior; he will stir up his zeal like a man of war. With a shout he will raise the battle cry and will triumph over his enemies. ¹⁴ “I have kept silent for a long time; I have been quiet and restrained myself. Now, like a woman in labour, I will groan, I will both gasp and pant. ¹⁵ I will lay waste the mountains and hills and wither all their vegetation; I will turn rivers into coastlands and dry up the ponds. ¹⁶ I will lead the blind by ways they have not known, along unfamiliar paths I will guide them. I will turn darkness into light before them and make the rough places smooth. These are the things I will do, and I will not forsake them. ¹⁷ They will be turned back and utterly shamed, those who trust in idols, who say to cast images, ‘You are our gods.’ ¹⁸ Listen, you deaf; look, you blind, and see! ¹⁹ Who is blind but my servant, or so deaf as my messenger whom I send? Who is so blind as the one in covenant with me, or so blind as the servant of the Lord? ²⁰ You have seen many things, but you do not remember them; your ears are open, but no one listens. ²¹ The Lord was pleased, for his righteousness’ sake, to make his law great and glorious. ²² But this is a people plundered and pillaged; all of them trapped in pits or hidden away in prisons. They have become plunder, with no one to rescue them; they have been made loot, with no one to say, “Send them back.” ²³ Who among you will heed this? Who will pay attention and listen for the future? ²⁴ Who gave Jacob up for spoil, and Israel to the plunderers? Was it not the Lord, against whom we have sinned? For they would not follow his ways, nor did they obey his law. ²⁵ So he poured out on them the heat of his anger and the violence of war; it enveloped them in flames, yet they did not understand; it consumed them, but they paid no attention.

43 Yet now, this is what the Lord declares— He who created you, Jacob, and He who shaped you, Israel: “Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name; you belong to me. ² When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they will not overwhelm you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be scorched, nor will the flame set you ablaze. ³ For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour; I have given Egypt as your ransom, Cush and Seba in your place. ⁴ Since you are precious in my sight, honoured and loved, I will give people in exchange for you, and nations in exchange for your life. ⁵ Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east and gather you from the west. ⁶ I will command the north to release them, and the south not to hold them back. Gather my sons from distant lands and my daughters from the farthest corners of the earth— ⁷ all those who are called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.” ⁸ Bring out the people who are blind, though they have eyes, and those who are deaf, though they have ears. ⁹ All the nations gather together, and the peoples assemble. Who among them can declare this and proclaim the former things to us? Let them present their witnesses to prove they were right, so that others may hear and say, “It is true.” ¹⁰ “You are my witnesses,” says the Lord, “and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he. Before me no god was formed, nor will there be one after me. ¹¹ I, even I, am the Lord, and besides me there is no saviour. ¹² I have revealed, saved, and proclaimed— I, and not some foreign god among you. You are my witnesses,” declares the Lord, “that I am God. ¹³ From eternity, I am he, and no one can rescue from my hand. When I act, who can reverse it?” ¹⁴ This is what the Lord declares— your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: “For your sake, I have sent to Babylon and will bring them all down as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships over which they rejoiced. ¹⁵ I am the Lord, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your Sovereign and King.” ¹⁶ This is what the Lord declares— He who makes a way through the sea and a path through the mighty waters, ¹⁷ who brings out the chariot and horse, the army and the mighty man; they will lie down together and not rise again, extinguished, snuffed out like a wick: ¹⁸ “Do not call to mind the former things, nor dwell on the past. ¹⁹ Behold, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. ²⁰ The wild animals honour me, the jackals and the ostriches, because I provide water in the wilderness and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, ²¹ the people I formed for myself so that they may declare my praise. ²² “Yet you have not called on me, Jacob; you have grown weary of me, Israel. ²³ You have not brought me sheep for burnt offerings, nor honoured me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings nor wearied you with incense. ²⁴ You have not bought me sweet cane with money, nor satisfied me with the fat of your sacrifices; rather, you have burdened me with your sins and wearied me with your wrongdoings. ²⁵ “I, even I, am the one who blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and remembers your sins no more. ²⁶ Review the past with me, let us argue the matter together; state your case, so that you may be proved right. ²⁷ Your earliest ancestor sinned, and your representatives have rebelled against me. ²⁸ So I will disgrace the officials of the sanctuary, and I will consign Jacob to destruction and Israel to scorn.

44 “But now hear, Jacob, my servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen: ² This is what the Lord says— he who made you and formed you in the womb, who will help you: Do not fear, Jacob my servant, and Jeshurun, whom I have chosen. ³ For I will pour water upon the parched land, and streams upon the dry ground; I will pour out my Spirit on your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants. ⁴ They will spring up among the grass, like poplars by flowing streams. ⁵ One will say, ‘I am the Lord’s;’ another will call himself by the name of Jacob; and another will write on his hand, ‘The Lord’s,’ and will adopt the name Israel with honour.

⁶ This is what the Lord says— the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the Lord of Hosts: I am the first and I am the last; apart from me, there is no God. ⁷ Who is like me? Let him proclaim it. Let him declare and set it forth before me, what has happened since I established my ancient people, and what is yet to come— let them foretell what is to come. ⁸ Do not tremble, do not be afraid. Have I not long since announced it and declared it? You are my witnesses. Is there any God besides me? No, there is no other Rock; I know not one. ⁹ All who make idols are futile, and the things they treasure are of no benefit; even their witnesses fail to see or know, so that they will be put to shame. ¹⁰ Who fashions a god or casts an idol, which is of no benefit? ¹¹ Behold, all their companions will be put to shame, for the craftsmen themselves are mere mortals. Let them all assemble and take their stand; they will be brought down to terror and shame. ¹² The blacksmith takes a tool and works with it in the coals; he shapes an idol with hammers and forges it with the might of his arm. He gets hungry and loses strength; he drinks no water and grows faint. ¹³ The carpenter stretches a line and makes an outline with a marker; he roughs it out with chisels and marks it with compasses. He shapes it in human form, human form in all its beauty, to dwell in a shrine.¹⁴ He cuts down cedars, or perhaps takes a cypress or oak. He lets it grow strong among the trees of the forest, or plants a pine, and the rain makes it grow.¹⁵ It becomes fuel for burning; some of it he takes and warms himself, he kindles a fire and bakes bread. But he also fashions a god and worships it; he makes an idol and bows down to it.¹⁶ Half of the wood he burns in the fire; over it he prepares his meal, he roasts meat and eats his fill. He also warms himself and says, "Ah! I am warm; I see the fire."¹⁷ From the remainder he creates a god, his idol; he bows down to it and worships. He prays to it and says, "Rescue me! You are my god!"¹⁸ They know nothing, they understand nothing; their eyes are smeared over so they cannot see, and their hearts so they cannot comprehend.¹⁹ No one considers, nor is there knowledge or understanding to say, "Half of it I used for fuel; I even baked bread over its coals, I roasted meat and I ate. Shall I make a detestable thing from what is left? Shall I bow down to a block of wood?"²⁰ He feeds on ashes; a deceived heart has misled him. He cannot save himself, nor say, "Is not this thing in my right hand a lie?"²¹ "Remember these things, Jacob, for you, Israel, are my servant. I have formed you, you are my servant; Israel, I will not forget you."²² I have wiped away your transgressions like a cloud, and your sins like a mist. Return to me, for I have redeemed you."²³ Sing for joy, you heavens, for the Lord has done it; shout aloud, you lower parts of the earth. Burst into song, you mountains, you forests and all your trees, for the Lord has redeemed Jacob, and he displays his glory in Israel.²⁴ This is what the Lord says—your Redeemer, who formed you from the womb: I am the Lord, the Maker of all things, who stretches out the heavens by myself, who spreads out the earth alone,²⁵ who frustrates the signs of false prophets and makes fools of diviners, who overthrows the learning of the wise and turns it into nonsense,²⁶ who confirms the word of his servant and carries out the purpose of his messengers, who says of Jerusalem, 'It shall be inhabited,' and of the towns of Judah, 'They shall be rebuilt,' and of their ruins, 'I will restore them,'²⁷ who commands the watery deep, 'Be dry, and I will dry up your streams,'²⁸ who speaks of Cyrus, 'He is my shepherd and will accomplish all that I desire; he will say of Jerusalem, "Let it be rebuilt," and of the temple, "Let its foundations be laid."

45 This is what the Lord says to His anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped, to subdue nations before him and to loosen the armour of kings; to open doors before him so that gates will not be closed:² I will go before you and make the rough places level; I will break down the gates of bronze and cut through the bars of iron.³ I will give you the treasures hidden in darkness and the riches stored in secret places, so that you may know that I am the Lord, the God of Israel, who calls you by name.⁴ For the sake of Jacob my servant, of Israel my chosen, I have called you by name and given you a title of honour, though you have not known me.⁵ I am the Lord, and there is no other; besides me there is no God. I will strengthen you, though you have not known me,⁶ so that from the rising of the sun to its setting people may know there is none besides me. I am the Lord, and there is no other.⁷ I create light and form darkness, I bring prosperity and allow challenges; I, the Lord, do all these things.⁸ Heavens above, rain down righteousness; let the clouds pour it down. Let the earth open wide, let salvation spring up, and let righteousness flourish with it; I, the Lord, have created it.⁹ Woe to those who quarrel with their Maker, those who are but potsherds among the potsherds on the ground. Does the clay say to the potter, 'What are you making?' Does your work say, 'He has no hands'?¹⁰ Woe to those who question a father, 'What have you begotten?' or a mother, 'What have you brought forth?'¹¹ This is what the Lord says—the Holy One of Israel, and its Maker: Concerning things to come, do you question me about my children, or give me orders about the work of my hands?¹² It is I who made the earth and created mankind upon it. My own hands stretched out the heavens; I marshalled their starry hosts.¹³ I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will make all his ways straight. He will rebuild my city and set my exiles free, but not for a price or reward, says the Lord Almighty.¹⁴ This is what the Lord says: The products of Egypt, the merchandise of Cush, and the tall Sabeans will come over to you and will be yours; they will walk behind you in chains. They will bow down before you and plead with you, saying, 'Surely God is with you, and there is no other; there is no other god.’¹⁵ Truly, you are a God who hides himself, the God and Saviour of Israel.¹⁶ All those who craft idols will be put to shame and disgraced; they will depart together in dishonour.¹⁷ But Israel will be saved by the Lord with an everlasting salvation; you will not be put to shame or disgraced for all eternity.¹⁸ For this is what the Lord says—he who created the heavens, he is God; he who fashioned and made the earth, he established it; he did not create it to be empty, but formed it to be inhabited—he says: I am the Lord, and there is no other.¹⁹ I have not spoken in secret, from a hidden place in a land of darkness; I have not said to Jacob’s descendants, ‘Seek me in vain.’ I, the Lord, speak the truth; I declare what is right.²⁰ Gather together and come; assemble, you fugitives from the nations. Ignorant are those who carry about idols of wood and pray to gods that cannot save.²¹ Declare and present your case; let them take counsel together. Who foretold this long ago, who declared it from the distant past? Was it not I, the Lord? And there is no God apart from me, a righteous God and a Saviour; there is none but me.²² Look to me for salvation, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no other.²³ By myself I have sworn, my mouth has uttered in all integrity a word that will not be revoked: Before me every knee will bow, by me every tongue will swear allegiance.²⁴ They will say of me, ‘In the Lord alone are righteousness and strength.’ All who have raged against him will come to him and be put to shame.²⁵ In the Lord all the descendants of Israel will be justified and will boast.

46 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops over; their idols are carried by beasts and cattle. The images that you carry are burdensome, a load for the weary.² They stoop and bow down together; they cannot rescue the burden, and they themselves go into captivity.³ ‘Listen to me, house of Jacob, all the remnant of the people of Israel, you who have been upheld by me since birth and carried from the womb.’⁴ Even to your old age and grey hairs I will be the same; I am he who will carry you. I have made you and I will bear you; I will carry and save you.⁵ ‘To whom will you liken me or make me equal? To whom will you compare me that we may be alike?’⁶ Some take gold from their bags and measure out silver on the scales; they employ a goldsmith to fashion it into a deity, and they bow down and worship it.⁷ They lift it to their shoulders and carry it; they set it in its place, and there it stands. It cannot move from its spot. Though one cries out to it, it cannot answer; it cannot save them from their distress.⁸ ‘Remember this, keep it in mind; take it to heart, you wrongdoers.’⁹ Remember the former things, those of long ago; for I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me.¹⁰ I declare the end from the beginning, from ancient times what is still to come. I say, ‘My purpose will stand, and I will accomplish all that I please.’¹¹ Calling a bird of prey from the east, a man for my purpose from a distant land. What I have spoken, I will bring about; what I have planned, I will certainly do.¹² ‘Listen to me, you stubborn-hearted, you who are far from righteousness.’¹³ I am bringing my righteousness near, it is not far away; and my salvation will not delay. I will grant salvation to Zion, my glory to Israel.

47 ‘Descend and sit in the dust, Virgin Daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, Daughter of the Chaldeans. You will no longer be called tender and delicate.’² Take the millstones and grind flour; remove your veil, lift up your skirts, uncover your legs, and cross the rivers.³ Your nakedness will be revealed, and your shame will be exposed. I will take vengeance and will spare no one.’⁴ Our Redeemer, the Lord of Hosts is His name, the Sacred One of Israel.⁵ ‘Sit in silence and enter into darkness, Daughter of the Chaldeans; for you will no longer be called the queen of kingdoms.’⁶ I was angry with My people, I desecrated My inheritance and delivered them into your hand. You showed them no mercy; even on the elderly, you laid a heavy yoke.⁷ You said, ‘I will be queen forever,’ but you did not consider these things or reflect on their outcome.⁸ ‘Now then, listen, you who indulge in pleasure, dwelling securely, saying in your heart, ‘I am, and there is none besides me. I will never be a widow or know the loss of children.’⁹ These two things will come upon you suddenly in one day: loss of children and widowhood. They will come upon you in full despite your many sorceries and potent spells.¹⁰ You have felt secure in your wickedness and said, ‘No one sees me.’ Your wisdom and knowledge have misled you, for you have said in your heart, ‘I am, and there is none besides me.’¹¹ But disaster will come upon you, and you will not know how to charm it away. Calamity will fall upon you that you cannot avert; destruction you cannot foresee will come upon you suddenly. ¹² "Continue with your spells and your many sorceries, which you have practised since your youth. Perhaps you will succeed, perhaps you will cause trembling. ¹³ You are wearied by your many counsels; let your astrologers stand up, those who gaze at the stars and predict by the new moons, let them save you from what is coming upon you. ¹⁴ Surely they are like stubble; the fire will consume them. They cannot save themselves from the power of the flame. This is not a coal for warming, nor a fire to sit by. ¹⁵ This is what they have become to you, those with whom you have laboured, those who have dealt with you from your youth; each wanders in his own direction; there is no one to save you.

48 "Hear this, descendants of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel and have come forth from the waters of Judah, who swear by the name of the Lord and invoke the God of Israel— but not in truth or righteousness— ² For you name yourselves after the holy city and rely on the God of Israel; the Lord of Armies is His name: ³ I declared the former things long ago; they came out of My mouth, and I made them known. Suddenly I acted, and they came to pass. ⁴ Because I knew how obstinate you are, your neck is an iron sinew and your forehead bronze, ⁵ Therefore I told you these things long ago; before they happened I announced them to you so that you could not say, 'My idol did them; my carved image and my cast metal image ordained them.' ⁶ You have heard these things; observe them all. Will you not declare it? From now on I will tell you of new things, hidden things unknown to you. ⁷ They are created now, and not long ago; you have not heard of them before today, so you cannot say, 'Yes, I knew them.' ⁸ You have neither heard nor understood; from of old your ear has not been open. I knew you would deal very treacherously; you have been called a rebel from birth. ⁹ For the sake of My name I delay My wrath; for My praise I restrain it for you, so as not to cut you off. ¹⁰ Behold, I have refined you, though not as silver is refined; I have tested you in the furnace of affliction. ¹¹ For My own sake, for My own sake, I do this. How can My name be profaned? I will not give My glory to another. ¹² "Pay attention to Me, Jacob, Israel whom I have called: I am the One; I am the first, and I am the last. ¹³ My own hand laid the foundations of the earth, and My right hand spread out the heavens; when I call to them, they stand up together. ¹⁴ Assemble, all of you, and listen: Who among them has declared these things? The Lord's chosen ally will carry out His purpose against Babylon; His arm will be against the Chaldeans. ¹⁵ I, even I, have spoken; indeed I have called him. I have brought him, and he will succeed in his mission. ¹⁶ "Come near to Me and listen to this: From the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time it happens, I am there." And now the Sovereign Lord has sent Me, endowed with His Spirit. ¹⁷ This is what the Lord says— your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "I am the Lord your God, who teaches you to benefit, who directs you in the way you should go. ¹⁸ If only you had paid attention to My commandments, your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea. ¹⁹ Your descendants would have been like the sand, your offspring like its numberless grains; their name would never be blotted out nor destroyed from My presence." ²⁰ Leave Babylon, flee from the Chaldeans! Announce this with shouts of joy and proclaim it. Send it out to the ends of the earth; say, "The Lord has redeemed His servant Jacob." ²¹ They did not suffer thirst when He guided them through the deserts; He made water flow for them from the rock; He split the rock, and water gushed out. ²² "The Lord says, 'For the wicked, there is no peace.'"

49 Listen to me, you islands; pay attention, you distant peoples: The Lord called me from the womb; from my mother's body he named me. ² He made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand he concealed me; he made me into a polished arrow and hid me in his quiver. ³ He said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, through whom I will display my glory." ⁴ But I said, "I have laboured in vain; I have spent my strength for nothing and futility. Yet my vindication is with the Lord, and my reward is with my God." ⁵ And now the Lord says— he who formed me in the womb to be his servant to bring Jacob back to him and gather Israel to himself, for I am honoured in the sight of the Lord and my God is my strength— ⁶ he says: "It is too small a thing for you to be my servant to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back the preserved ones of Israel. I will also make you a light for the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth." ⁷ This is what the Lord says— the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel— to the one who is despised and abhorred by the nation, to the servant of rulers: "Kings will see and arise, princes will bow down, because of the Lord, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you." ⁸ This is what the Lord says: "In the time of my favour I will answer you, and in the day of salvation I will help you; I will keep you and make you a covenant for the people, to restore the land and to reassign its desolate inheritances, ⁹ to say to the captives, 'Come out,' and to those in darkness, 'Show yourselves.' They will feed beside the roads and find pasture on all barren heights. ¹⁰ They will neither hunger nor thirst, nor will the scorching heat or sun beat down on them. He who has compassion on them will guide them and lead them beside springs of water. ¹¹ I will transform all my mountains into roads, and my highways will be elevated. ¹² See, they will come from afar— some from the north, some from the west, and some from the land of Aswan." ¹³ Shout for joy, you heavens; rejoice, you earth; break forth into singing, you mountains! For the Lord comforts his people and will have compassion on his afflicted ones. ¹⁴ But Zion lamented, "The Lord has left me; the Lord no longer remembers me." ¹⁵ "Can a mother forget her nursing child and have no compassion on the child she has borne? Though she may forget, I will not forget you! ¹⁶ See, I have inscribed you on the palms of my hands; your walls are ever before me. ¹⁷ Your children hasten back, and those who laid you waste will depart from you. ¹⁸ Raise your eyes and look around; all your children gather and come to you. As surely as I live," declares the Lord, "you will wear them all as ornaments; you will adorn yourself with them, like a bride. ¹⁹ Though you were ruined and made desolate and your land laid waste, now you will be too cramped for your people, and those who swallowed you will be far away. ²⁰ The children born during your bereavement will yet say in your hearing, 'This place is too cramped for us; give us more space to live in.' ²¹ Then you will say in your heart, 'Who has borne me these? I was bereaved and barren; I was exiled and rejected. Who brought these up? I was left all alone, but these—where have they come from?'" ²² This is what the Sovereign Lord says: "See, I will beckon to the nations, I will lift up my banner to the peoples; they will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders. ²³ Kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers. They will bow down before you with their faces to the ground; they will lick the dust at your feet. Then you will know that I am the Lord; those who hope in me will not be put to shame." ²⁴ Can spoils be taken from warriors, or captives be freed from the fierce? ²⁵ But this is what the Lord says: "Yes, captives can be taken from warriors, and plunder retrieved from the fierce; I will contend with those who contend with you, and your children I will save. ²⁶ I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh; they will be drunk on their own blood, as with sweet wine. Then all mankind will know that I, the Lord, am your Saviour, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

Isaiah

50 This is what the Lord says: "Where is your mother's certificate of divorce by which I sent her away? Or to which of my creditors did I sell you? Behold, you were sold because of your sins, and due to your transgressions your mother was sent away. ² Why was there no one when I came? When I called, why did no one answer? Is my arm too short to redeem? Do I lack the power to rescue? By my rebuke, I dry up the sea, turning rivers into a desert; their fish rot for lack of water and perish from thirst. ³ I cover the heavens with darkness and use sackcloth as their covering." ⁴ The Sovereign Lord has given me the tongue of the learned, so that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. He awakens me morning by morning, awakens my ear to listen as one being taught. ⁵ The Sovereign Lord has opened my ears, and I was not rebellious, nor did I turn away. ⁶ I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who pulled out my beard; I did not hide my face from mocking and spitting. ⁷ For the Sovereign Lord helps me, I will not be disgraced. Therefore, I have set my face like flint, and I know I will not be put to shame. ⁸ He who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand together. Who is my accuser? Let him confront me. ⁹ Behold, the Sovereign Lord helps me. Who is he that will condemn me? They will all wear out like a garment; the moth will devour them. ¹⁰ Who among you fears the Lord and obeys the voice of his servant? Let the one who walks in darkness and has no light trust in the name of the Lord and rely on their God. ¹¹ Behold, all you who kindle a fire and encircle yourselves with flaming torches, walk in the light of your fire and among the torches you have set ablaze. This is what you will receive from my hand: You will lie down in torment.

51 “Hearken to me, you who chase after righteousness, who seek the Lord: Consider the rock from which you were cut, and the quarry from which you were hewn; ² Reflect on Abraham, your father, and Sarah, who bore you. When he was but one, I called him, and I blessed him and made him numerous.” ³ Truly, the Lord will comfort Zion; He will console all her ruins. He will transform her wilderness into Eden, and her desert into the garden of the Lord. Joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the sound of melody. ⁴ “Attend to me, my people; listen, my nation: A law will proceed from me; my justice will be a light to the peoples. ⁵ My righteousness is near, my salvation is on its way, and my arms will judge the nations. The coastlands will look to me and wait expectantly for my arm. ⁶ Lift your eyes to the heavens, and then look at the earth below; the heavens will vanish like smoke, and the earth will wear out like a garment, and its inhabitants will perish in the same manner. But my salvation will endure forever, and my righteousness will never fail. ⁷ “Hear me, you who know righteousness, a people in whose heart is my law. Do not fear the reproach of mortals, nor be dismayed by their insults. ⁸ For the moth will consume them like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool. But my righteousness will endure forever, and my salvation through all generations.” ⁹ Awake, awake, arm of the Lord, clothe yourself with strength! Awake, as in days of old, the ancient generations. Was it not you who cut Rahab to pieces, who pierced the dragon? ¹⁰ Was it not you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep, who made the depths of the sea a path for the redeemed to cross over? ¹¹ The redeemed of the Lord will return and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy will crown their heads. They will obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will flee away. ¹² “I, even I, am he who comforts you. Who are you that you fear mortal man, human beings who are like grass, ¹³ that you forget the Lord your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, that you live in constant dread every day because of the fury of the oppressor, who is bent on destruction? Where is the fury of the oppressor? ¹⁴ The exiled will soon be set free; they will not die in their dungeon, nor will they lack bread. ¹⁵ For I am the Lord your God, who stirs the sea to make its waves roar—the Lord Almighty is His name. ¹⁶ I have placed my words in your mouth and covered you with the shadow of my hand, to establish the heavens, to lay the foundations of the earth, and to say to Zion, ‘You are my people.’” ¹⁷ Awake, awake! Arise, Jerusalem, you who have drunk from the hand of the Lord the cup of his wrath, you who have drained to its dregs the chalice that makes people stagger. ¹⁸ There is none to guide her among all the children she has borne, nor is there anyone to take her by the hand among all the children she has reared. ¹⁹ These dual calamities have befallen you—who will console you?—devastation and destruction, famine and sword—how can I comfort you? ²⁰ Your children have fainted; they lie at every street corner, like an antelope caught in a net. They are filled with the wrath of the Lord, the rebuke of your God. ²¹ Therefore, hear this, you afflicted one, who are drunk, but not with wine. ²² This is what your Sovereign Lord says, your God who contends for his people: “Behold, I have taken from your hand the cup that made you stagger; from that chalice, the cup of my wrath, you will never drink again. ²³ I will place it into the hands of your tormentors, who said to you, ‘Lie down that we may walk over you.’ And you laid your back like the ground, like a street to be walked over.”

52 Awake, awake, Zion, adorn yourself with strength! Dress in your splendid garments, Jerusalem, the holy city. The uncircumcised and the unclean will no longer enter you. ² Shake off the dust, rise up, enthroned Jerusalem; Free yourself from the chains around your neck, captive Daughter Zion. ³ For thus says the Lord: “You were sold for nothing, and without money you shall be redeemed.” ⁴ For thus says the Sovereign Lord: “My people went down to Egypt initially to reside there; then Assyria oppressed them without cause. ⁵ “And now what have I here?” declares the Lord. “Seeing that my people have been taken away for nothing, and those who rule over them wail,” declares the Lord. “My name is continually blasphemed all day long. ⁶ Therefore my people shall know my name; therefore on that day they will know that it is I who speaks, ‘Here I am.’” ⁷ How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the one who brings good news, who proclaims peace, who brings glad tidings, who announces salvation, and says to Zion, “Your God reigns!” ⁸ Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices, they shout for joy together; for they will see with their own eyes when the Lord returns to Zion. ⁹ Break forth into joyful singing together, you ruins of Jerusalem, for the Lord has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. ¹⁰ The Lord has bared his holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. ¹¹ Depart, depart, go out from there! Touch no unclean thing! Come out from the midst of her, be pure, you who carry the vessels of the Lord. ¹² But you will not go out in haste, nor will you flee; for the Lord will go before you, and the God of Israel will be your rear guard. ¹³ Behold, my servant will act wisely; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and be very high. ¹⁴ Just as many were appalled at him—his appearance was so marred beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of the sons of mankind— ¹⁵ so shall he sprinkle many nations, and kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for what they were not told, they shall see, and what they have not heard, they shall understand.

53 Who then has received our report? Who then has witnessed the strong arm of the Lord? ² He grew up before Him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to Him, nor any appearance that we should desire Him. ³ He was despised and rejected by humanity, a man of suffering, familiar with pain. Like one from whom people hide their faces, He was despised, and we held Him in low regard. ⁴ Surely He took up our pain and bore our suffering, yet we considered Him stricken by God, afflicted, and humiliated. ⁵ But He was pierced for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon Him, and by His wounds we are healed. ⁶ We all have wandered like sheep, each of us has turned to our own path; and the Lord has placed upon Him the iniquity of us all. ⁷ He was oppressed and afflicted, yet He remained silent; He was led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, so He remained silent. ⁸ Through oppression and judgment He was taken away. Yet who among His generation considered it? For He was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people He was punished. ⁹ He was given a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in His death, though He had done no violence, nor was any deceit found in His mouth. ¹⁰ Yet it was the Lord's will to crush Him and cause Him to suffer. When He makes His life an offering for sin, He will see His offspring and prolong His days, and the will of the Lord will prosper in His hand. ¹¹ After He has suffered, He will see the light of life and be satisfied; by His knowledge, my righteous servant will justify many, for He will bear their iniquities. ¹² Therefore, I will allot Him a portion among the great, and He will share the spoils with the strong, because He poured out His life unto death and was counted among the transgressors. For He bore the sin of many and made intercession for the transgressors.

54 "Rejoice, barren woman, you who have not borne a child; break into song and shout with joy, you who have not gone through labour; for the children of the desolate woman are more numerous than those of the woman with a husband," says the Lord. ² "Expand the space of your tent, stretch wide the curtains of your dwelling, do not hold back; lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes. ³ For you will spread out to the right and to the left; your descendants will take possession of nations and inhabit the desolate cities. ⁴ "Fear not, for you will not suffer shame; do not be dismayed, for you will not be disgraced; you will forget the shame of your youth and will remember no more the reproach of your widowhood. ⁵ For your Maker is your husband— the Lord of Hosts is His name— the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; He is called the God of all the earth. ⁶ The Lord has called you back like a wife deserted and distressed in spirit, like a wife married young, only to be rejected," says your God. ⁷ "For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with great compassion I will gather you back. ⁸ In a moment of anger, I turned away from you, but with enduring kindness, I will show you compassion," says the Lord your Redeemer. ⁹ "To me this is like the days of Noah, when I swore that the waters of Noah would never again flood the earth. So I have sworn not to be angry with you or rebuke you again. ¹⁰ Though the mountains be removed and the hills be shaken, yet my steadfast love for you will not be removed nor my covenant of peace be shaken," says the Lord, who has compassion on you. ¹¹ "O afflicted city, lashed by storms and not comforted, I will rebuild you with stones of turquoise and lay your foundations with sapphires. ¹² I will make your battlements of rubies, your gates of crystal, and all your walls of precious stones. ¹³ All your children will be guided by the Lord, and their peace will be abundant. ¹⁴ In righteousness you will be established; you will be far from oppression, and you will not fear; terror will be far removed; it will not come near you. ¹⁵ If anyone attacks you, it will not be from me; whoever attacks you will fall before you. ¹⁶ "Behold, it is I who created the blacksmith who fans the coals into flame and forges a weapon fit for its work; and I have created the destroyer to wreak havoc. ¹⁷ No weapon forged against you will succeed, and you will refute every tongue that rises against you in judgement. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their vindication is from me," declares the Lord.

55 "Come, everyone who is thirsty, come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, purchase wine and milk without money and without cost. ² Why do you spend money on what is not bread, and your labour on what does not satisfy? Listen attentively to me, and eat what is good, and you will delight in the abundance. ³ Incline your ear and come to me; listen, that you may live. I will make an everlasting covenant with you, my faithful love promised to David. ⁴ Look, I have appointed him as a witness to the nations, a leader and commander for the peoples. ⁵ Surely you will call nations you do not know, and nations that do not know you will hasten to you, because of the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you." ⁶ Seek out the Lord while he may yet still be found; call out to him while he is still yet near. ⁷ Let the wicked forsake their way and the unrighteous their thoughts. Let them return to the Lord, and he will have compassion on them, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. ⁸ "For my thoughts are not the same as your thoughts, nor are your ways like my ways," declares the Lord. ⁹ "For just as the heavens are higher than the earth, so my ways are higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. ¹⁰ For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there without watering the earth and making it sprout and flourish, providing seed for the sower and bread for the eater, ¹¹ so is my word that goes out from my mouth: it will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and succeed in the purpose for which I sent it. ¹² You will go out with joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and hills will burst into song before you, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands. ¹³ Instead of the thornbush will grow the juniiper, and instead of briars the myrtle will grow. This will be a memorial to the Lord, an everlasting sign that will not be cut off."

56 This is what the Lord says: "Uphold justice and practise righteousness, for my salvation is near and my righteousness will soon be unveiled. ² Blessed is the individual who acts in this way, and the person who adheres to it; who refrains from desecrating the Sabbath, and keeps their hands from committing any evil." ³ Let not the foreigner who has aligned themselves with the Lord say, "The Lord will surely separate me from his people." Nor let the eunuch declare, "I am merely a dry tree." ⁴ For this is what the Lord says: "To the eunuchs who observe my Sabbaths, who choose what delights me and hold firmly to my covenant— ⁵ to them I will grant within my house and its walls a memorial and a name superior to that of sons and daughters; I will bestow upon them an everlasting name that shall never be cut off. ⁶ And the foreigners who join themselves to the Lord to serve him, to love the name of the Lord, and to be his servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath without desecrating it and holds firmly to my covenant— ⁷ these I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples." ⁸ The Lord God, who gathers the scattered of Israel, proclaims, "I will gather yet others to them, in addition to those already gathered." ⁹ Come, all you wild creatures of the field, come and devour, all you creatures of the forest! ¹⁰ His watchmen are blind, they all lack knowledge; they are all mute dogs, unable to bark; they lie around dreaming, loving to slumber. ¹¹ The dogs are voracious, they are never satisfied. They are shepherds who lack understanding; they have all turned to their own way, each seeking their own gain. ¹² "Come," they say, "let us fetch wine, and drink our fill of strong drink; and tomorrow will be like today, even more abundant."

57 The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart; the devout are taken away, with no one understanding that the righteous are removed to be spared from evil. ² They enter into peace; they rest in their beds, each one who walked uprightly. ³ "But come here, you children of a sorceress, offspring of an adulterer and a prostitute!

⁴ Whom are you mocking? Against whom do you open your mouth wide and stick out your tongue? Are you not a brood of rebels, offspring of deceit? ⁵ You burn with lust among the oaks and under every luxuriant tree; you slaughter your children in the ravines, under the clefts of the rocks. ⁶ Among the smooth stones of the ravines is your portion; they are your lot. Yes, to them you have poured out drink offerings and offered grain offerings. Should I relent concerning these things? ⁷ You have set up your resting place on a high and elevated hill; there you ascended to present your sacrifices. ⁸ Behind your doors and doorposts you have placed your pagan symbols. Forsaking me, you uncovered your bed, you climbed into it and opened it wide; you made a pact with those whose beds you love, and you gazed upon their nakedness. ⁹ You journeyed to the king with olive oil and increased your perfumes; you sent your ambassadors far away and descended to Sheol. ¹⁰ You wearied yourself with your many journeys, yet you did not say, 'It is hopeless.' You found renewal of your strength, so you did not faint. ¹¹ "Whom did you dread and fear so much that you have been unfaithful to me, and have neither remembered me nor taken it to heart? Is it not because I have been silent for a long time that you do not fear me? ¹² I will expose your righteousness and your deeds, and they will not profit you. ¹³ When you cry out for help, let your collection of idols save you! The wind will carry them all off, a mere breath will blow them away. But whoever takes refuge in me will inherit the land and possess my holy mountain." ¹⁴ And it will be said: "Build up, build up, prepare the way! Remove the obstacles out of the way of my people." ¹⁵ For this is what the high and exalted One says— he who lives forever, whose name is holy: "I dwell in a high and holy place, but also with the contrite and lowly in spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite. ¹⁶ For I will not accuse forever, nor will I always be angry, for then the spirit would grow faint before me— the very breath of those I have made. ¹⁷ Because of the iniquity of his unjust gain I was angry and struck him; I hid my face in anger, yet he continued turning away, in the way of his heart. ¹⁸ I have seen his ways, but I will heal him; I will guide him and restore comfort to him and to his mourners, ¹⁹ bringing forth praise on their lips. Peace, peace, to those far and near," says the Lord. "And I will heal them." ²⁰ But the wicked are like the tossing sea, which cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and mud. ²¹ "My God declares, 'There is no peace for the wicked.'"

58 "Cry out loudly, do not hold back; Raise your voice like a trumpet, and declare to My people their rebellion, and to the house of Jacob their sins. ² For day by day they seek Me out and delight to know My ways, as if they were a nation that practises righteousness and has not abandoned the ordinance of their God. They ask Me for just decisions and delight in the nearness of God. ³ 'Why have we fasted,' they say, 'and You have not seen? Why have we humbled ourselves, and You have not noticed?' Behold, on the day of your fasting, you pursue your own desires and oppress all your workers. ⁴ Your fasting leads to contention and strife, and to striking each other with wicked fists. You cannot fast as you do today and expect your voice to be heard on high. ⁵ Is this the kind of fast I have chosen, a day for a person to humble themselves? Is it only for bowing one's head like a reed and for spreading out sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, an acceptable day to the Lord? ⁶ Is this not the fast I have chosen: to release the chains of injustice, to undo the ropes of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? ⁷ Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own flesh and blood? ⁸ Then your light will break forth like the dawn, and your healing will quickly appear; your righteousness will go before you, and the glory of the Lord will be your rear guard. ⁹ Then you will call, and the Lord will answer; you will cry for help, and He will say, 'Here I am.' If you remove the yoke from your midst, the pointing finger and malicious talk, ¹⁰ and if you offer yourself to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light will rise in the darkness, and your gloom will become like midday. ¹¹ The Lord will continually guide you, and satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land, and strengthen your bones. You will be like a well-watered garden, like a spring whose waters do not fail. ¹² Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins; you will raise up the age-old foundations; you will be called the Repairer of Broken Walls, the Restorer of Streets to Dwell In. ¹³ "If you refrain from breaking the Sabbath and from doing as you please on My holy day, if you call the Sabbath a delight and the Lord's holy day honourable, and if you honour it by not going your own way or seeking your own pleasure or speaking idle words, ¹⁴ then you will find your joy in the Lord, and I will cause you to ride on the heights of the earth and to feast on the heritage of your father Jacob." For the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

Isaiah

59 Indeed, the hand of the Lord is not too short to save, nor is His ear too dull to hear. ² But your wrongdoings have created a separation between you and your God; your sins have hidden His face from you so that He does not listen. ³ For your hands are tainted with blood, and your fingers with wrongdoing. Your lips have spoken lies, and your tongue murmurs wickedness. ⁴ No one calls for justice, nor does anyone plead honestly. They rely on empty arguments and speak falsehoods; they conceive trouble and give birth to disaster. ⁵ They hatch viper eggs and weave a spider's web. Whoever eats their eggs dies, and from one that is crushed, a snake breaks out. ⁶ Their webs cannot become clothing, nor can they cover themselves with what they make. Their deeds are acts of wrongdoing, and violence is in their hands. ⁷ Their feet run to evil, and they are quick to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are thoughts of wrongdoing; devastation and destruction are in their paths. ⁸ They are unfamiliar with the path of peace, and justice is absent from their ways. They have made their paths crooked; whoever walks on them does not find peace. ⁹ As a result, justice is distant from us, and righteousness does not reach us. We hope for light, but behold, there is darkness; for brightness, but we walk in gloom. ¹⁰ We grope along the wall like the blind, feeling our way like those without eyes. We stumble at midday as if it were twilight; among the strong, we are like the dead. ¹¹ We all growl like bears and moan sadly like doves. We look for justice, but find none; for salvation, but it is far from us. ¹² For our offences are many in Your sight, and our sins testify against us. Our wrongdoings are with us, and we acknowledge our iniquities: ¹³ Rebellion and denial of the Lord, turning away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering lying words from the heart. ¹⁴ Justice is driven back, and righteousness stands far away; truth has stumbled in the streets, and uprightness cannot enter. ¹⁵ Truth is absent, and whoever shuns evil becomes a prey. The Lord saw, and it displeased

Him that there was no justice. ¹⁶ He saw that there was no one, and was amazed that there was no one to intercede; so His own arm brought salvation to Him, and His righteousness upheld Him. ¹⁷ He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on His head; He clothed Himself with garments of vengeance and wrapped Himself in zeal as a cloak. ¹⁸ According to their deeds, so will He repay: wrath to His adversaries, retribution to His enemies; He will repay the islands their due. ¹⁹ So people will fear the name of the Lord from the west, and His glory from the rising of the sun, for He will come like a rushing stream driven by the breath of the Lord. ²⁰ "A Redeemer will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who turn from their sins," declares the Lord. ²¹ "As for Me, this is My covenant with them," says the Lord: "My Spirit, which is upon you, and My words that I have put in your mouth will not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your children, nor from the mouth of their descendants—from this time on and forever," says the Lord.

60 "Rise up and shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord rises upon you. ² Behold, darkness covers the earth and deep darkness the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you, and His glory appears over you. ³ Nations will be drawn to your light, and rulers to the radiance of your dawn. ⁴ "Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather and come to you. Your sons will come from afar, and your daughters will be carried on the hip. ⁵ Then you will see and be radiant, and your heart will throb and swell with joy; the wealth of the seas will be brought to you, and the riches of the nations will come to you. ⁶ A multitude of camels will cover your land, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba will come, bringing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the Lord. ⁷ All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered to you, the rams of Nebaioth will serve you; they will be accepted on My altar, and I will adorn My glorious temple. ⁸ Who are these that fly like clouds, like doves to their nests? ⁹ Surely the coastlands look to me; the ships of Tarshish are in the lead, bringing your children from afar, with their silver and gold, for the honour of the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, for He has glorified you. ¹⁰ "Foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you; for in My wrath I struck you, but in My favour I have shown you compassion. ¹¹ Your gates will always stand open; they will not be shut day or night, so that people may bring you the wealth of the nations, with their kings led in procession. ¹² For any nation or kingdom that does not serve you will perish; it will be completely destroyed. ¹³ The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the juniper, the fir, and the cypress together, to beautify My sanctuary; and I will make the place of My feet glorious. ¹⁴ The sons of those who oppressed you will come bowing before you; all who despised you will bow down at your feet and will call you the City of the Lord, Zion of the Holy One of Israel. ¹⁵ "Although you have been forsaken and hated, with no one passing through, I will make you an everlasting pride, a joy from generation to generation. ¹⁶ You will partake of the abundance of nations and be sustained by royal provisions; then you will know that I, the Lord, am your Saviour, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. ¹⁷ Instead of bronze I will bring gold, and silver in place of iron; instead of wood I will bring bronze, and iron in place of stones. I will make peace your governor and righteousness your overseer. ¹⁸ Violence will no longer be heard in your land, nor ruin or destruction within your borders; but you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise. ¹⁹ The sun will no longer be your light by day, nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you; for the Lord will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory. ²⁰ Your sun will never set again, and your moon will wane no more; for the Lord will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning will be ended. ²¹ Then all your people will be righteous; they will possess the land forever. They are the branch I have planted, the work of My hands, that I may be glorified. ²² The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation. I, the Lord, will bring it about quickly in its time."

61 The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the humble. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release for the prisoners; ² to declare the favourable year of the Lord and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn, ³ to provide for those who grieve in Zion, bestowing on them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the Lord for his splendour. ⁴ They will rebuild the ancient ruins and raise up the former devastations; they will renew the ruined cities, the desolations of many generations. ⁵ Strangers will tend your flocks, and foreigners will be your farmers and vinedressers. ⁶ But you will be called priests of the Lord; you will be named ministers of our God. You will feed on the wealth of nations, and boast in their riches. ⁷ Instead of your shame you will receive a double portion, and instead of disgrace they will shout for joy over their inheritance. Therefore, they will possess a double portion in their land, and everlasting joy will be theirs. ⁸ For I, the Lord, love justice; I hate robbery and wrongdoing. In my faithfulness, I will reward them and make an everlasting covenant with them. ⁹ Their offspring will be known among the nations, and their descendants among the peoples. All who see them will acknowledge that they are a people whom the Lord has blessed. ¹⁰ I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul will exult in my God; for he has clothed me with garments of salvation and wrapped me in a robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom adorns his head like a priest, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. ¹¹ For as the earth brings forth its sprouts, and as a garden causes seeds to grow, so the Sovereign Lord will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all nations.

62 For the sake of Zion, I will not remain silent, and for the sake of Jerusalem, I will not be quiet, until her righteousness shines like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. ² Nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory; you will be given a new name that the mouth of the Lord will assign. ³ You will be like a crown of splendour in the Lord's hand, a royal diadem held by your God. ⁴ You will no longer be called Forsaken, nor will your land be called Desolate. Instead, you will be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah; for the Lord takes delight in you, and your land will be married. ⁵ As a young man marries a young woman, so will your sons marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, so will your God rejoice over you. ⁶ I have stationed watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem; they will never be silent day or night. You who call on the Lord, do not rest, ⁷ and give Him no rest until He establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth. ⁸ The Lord has sworn by His right hand and by His mighty arm: "I will never again give your grain as food for your enemies, nor will foreigners drink the new wine for which you have laboured; ⁹ but those who harvest it will consume it and praise the Lord, and those who gather the grapes will enjoy it in the courts of My sanctuary.” ¹⁰ Proceed through the gates! Prepare the way for the people. Build up the highway! Clear the stones. Raise a banner for the nations. ¹¹ Behold, the Lord has proclaimed to the ends of the earth: “Say to Daughter Zion, ‘Behold, your Saviour is coming; see, His reward is with Him, and His recompense accompanies Him.’” ¹² They will be called the Holy People, the Redeemed of the Lord; and you will be called Sought After, a City No Longer Deserted.

Isaiah

63 Who is this coming from Edom, with garments of radiant colours from Bozrah, this one who is majestic in his attire, marching forward in the greatness of his strength? “It is I, the one who speaks in righteousness, mighty to save.” ² Why are your garments red, like those of one who treads the winepress? ³ “I have trodden the winepress alone, and from the nations no one was with me. I trampled them in my anger and crushed them in my wrath; their lifeblood spattered my garments, and I stained all my clothing. ⁴ For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redemption has come. ⁵ I looked, but there was no one to help, and I was appalled that no one gave support; so my own arm brought salvation to me, and my wrath upheld me. ⁶ I trampled down the nations in my anger and made them drunk with my wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the ground.” ⁷ I will recount the mercies of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord has done for us, and the great goodness towards the house of Israel, which he has granted according to his compassion and the abundance of his mercies. ⁸ For he said, “Surely they are my people, children who will not be false.” So he became their Saviour. ⁹ In all their suffering, he also suffered, and the angel of his presence delivered them. In his love and mercy, he redeemed them; he lifted them up and carried them throughout the days of old. ¹⁰ Yet they rebelled and saddened his Holy Spirit; so he turned and became their adversary, and he himself contended against them. ¹¹ Then his people remembered the days of old, the days of Moses. Where is he who brought them through the sea with the shepherd of his flock? Where is he who set his Holy Spirit among them, ¹² who sent his glorious arm of power to be at Moses’ right hand, who divided the waters before them to gain for himself an everlasting name, ¹³ who led them through the depths? Like a horse in the wilderness, they did not stumble; ¹⁴ like cattle that go down to the plain, the Spirit of the Lord gave them rest. So you led your people to make for yourself a glorious name. ¹⁵ Look down from heaven and see from your holy and glorious lofty habitation. Where are your zeal and your mighty deeds? The stirrings of your heart and your compassion are withheld from us. ¹⁶ For you are our Father, though Abraham does not know us and Israel does not recognise us; you, Lord, are our Father, our Redeemer from old is your name. ¹⁷ Why, Lord, do you cause us to stray from your ways and harden our hearts from fearing you? Return for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your heritage. ¹⁸ For a little while your holy people possessed your sanctuary, but now our adversaries have trampled it down. ¹⁹ We have become a people whom you have not ruled, just like those who have not been called by your name.

64 If only you would open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains might tremble at your presence— ² As fire kindles brushwood and causes water to boil, come down to make your name known to your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at your presence! ³ When you did awesome things that we did not expect, you came down, and the mountains quaked at your presence. ⁴ Since ancient times, no one has heard or perceived by ear, nor has the eye seen any God besides you, who acts on behalf of those who wait for him. ⁵ You meet those who rejoice in doing righteousness, who remember you in your ways. Behold, you were angry, for we sinned; we continued in our sins for a long time. How then shall we be saved? ⁶ For all of us have become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy garment; we all wither like a leaf, and our wrongdoings, like the wind, carry us away. ⁷ There is no one who calls on your name or stirs himself to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us and have surrendered us to the power of our wrongdoings. ⁸ Yet you, Lord, are our Father. We are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. ⁹ Do not be angry beyond measure, Lord, nor remember our wrongdoings forever.

Isaiah

Behold, please look, for we are all your people. ¹⁰ Your holy cities have become a wilderness; Zion has become a wasteland, Jerusalem a desolation. ¹¹ Our holy and beautiful temple, where our ancestors praised you, has been burned with fire, and all our treasured things have become a ruin. ¹² Will you hold back at these things, Lord? Will you remain silent and let us suffer beyond measure?

65 “I allowed myself to be discovered by those who did not ask for me; I was found by those who did not seek me. I said, ‘Here I am, here I am,’ to a nation that did not call on my name. ² I have stretched out my hands all day to a rebellious people, who walk in ways that are not good, following their own thoughts— ³ a people who constantly provoke me openly, offering sacrifices in gardens and burning incense on bricks; ⁴ who sit among the graves and spend the night in secret places; who eat the flesh of pigs, and whose pots contain the broth of unclean meat; ⁵ who say, ‘Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am holier than you!’ Such people are smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all day long. ⁶ Behold, it is recorded before me: I will not remain silent but will repay; I will repay into their laps— ⁷ both your sins and the sins of your ancestors,” says the Lord. “Because they offered incense on the mountains and scorned me on the hills, I will measure into their laps the full payment for their former actions.” ⁸ This is what the Lord says: “As when new wine is found in a cluster, and someone says, ‘Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it,’ so will I act on behalf of my servants, not to destroy them all. ⁹ I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah those who will inherit my mountains; my chosen ones will possess them, and there my servants will dwell. ¹⁰ Sharon will be a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds, for my people who seek me. ¹¹ But as for you who abandon the Lord and forget my holy mountain, who set a table for Fortune and fill bowls of mixed wine for Destiny, ¹² I will destine you for the sword, and all of you will bow down to the slaughter; because I called and you did not answer, I spoke and you did not listen. You did evil in my sight and chose what displeases me.” ¹³ Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says: “Behold, my servants will eat, but you will be hungry; behold, my servants will drink, but you will be thirsty; behold, my servants will rejoice, but you will be put to shame. ¹⁴ Behold, my servants will sing out of the joy of their hearts, but you will cry out from pain of heart and wail from a broken spirit. ¹⁵ You will leave your name as a curse for my chosen ones, and the Sovereign Lord will put you to death, but he will give his servants another name. ¹⁶ Whoever invokes a blessing in the land will do so by the God of truth; whoever swears an oath in the land will swear by the God of truth. For the former troubles will be forgotten and hidden from my sight. ¹⁷ “For indeed, I create new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be remembered or come to mind. ¹⁸ But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create; for indeed, I create Jerusalem for rejoicing and her people for gladness. ¹⁹ I will rejoice over Jerusalem and take delight in my people; the sound of weeping and of crying will no longer be heard in her. ²⁰ No longer will there be in it an infant who lives only a few days, or an old person who does not live out his years; the one who dies at a hundred will be considered a mere youth, and the one who fails to reach a hundred will be thought accursed. ²¹ They will build houses and live in them; they will also plant vineyards and enjoy their fruit. ²² They will not build and others inhabit, they will not plant and others eat; for as the days of a tree, so will be the days of my people, and my chosen ones will long enjoy the work of their hands. ²³ They will not labour in vain, nor bear children doomed to misfortune; for they will be a people blessed by the Lord, they and their descendants with them. ²⁴ Even before they call, I will respond; while they are still speaking, I will attend to them. ²⁵ The wolf and the lamb will graze together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox, and dust will be the serpent’s food. They will do no harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain,” says the Lord.

66 This is what the Lord says: “Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool. Where is the house you could build for me? And where is my resting place? ² For my hand has made all these things, and so they came into being,” declares the Lord. “But I will look on this one: one who is humble and contrite in spirit, and who trembles at my word. ³ But whoever slaughters an ox is like one who kills a person; whoever offers a lamb is like one who breaks a dog’s neck; whoever makes a grain offering is like one who offers pig’s blood; whoever burns incense is like one who worships an idol. They have chosen their own ways, and their souls delight in their abominations; ⁴ so I will choose harsh treatment for them and bring upon them what they dread. For when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, they did not listen. Instead, they did evil in my sight and chose what displeases me.” ⁵ Hear the word of the Lord, you who tremble at his word: “Your own people who hate you and exclude you because of my name have said, ‘Let the Lord be glorified, that we may see your joy!’ But they will be put to shame. ⁶ A sound of uproar from the city, a voice from the temple, the voice of the Lord repaying his enemies what they deserve. ⁷ “Before she goes into labour, she gives birth; before the pain comes upon her, she delivers a boy. ⁸ Who has ever heard of such things? Who has ever seen things like this? Can a land be born in a day or a nation be brought forth in a moment? Yet as soon as Zion was in labour, she gave birth to her children. ⁹ Do I bring to the moment of birth and not give delivery?” says the Lord. “Or do I close up the womb when I bring to delivery?” says your God. ¹⁰ “Celebrate with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her; be filled with joy with her, all you who mourn over her, ¹¹ so that you may nurse and be satisfied at her comforting breasts; you will drink deeply and delight in her abundant breasts.” ¹² For this is what the Lord says: “I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream; you will be nursed, carried on her hip and dandled on her knees. ¹³ As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you; and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.” ¹⁴ When you see this, your heart will rejoice, and your bones will flourish like the new grass; the hand of the Lord will be made known to his servants, but he will be indignant towards his enemies. ¹⁵ For behold, the Lord will come with fire, and his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. ¹⁶ For with fire and with his sword the Lord will bring judgment upon all people, and many will fall by the hand of the Lord. ¹⁷ “Those who sanctify and purify themselves to go into the gardens, following one in the centre, who eat pig’s flesh, detestable things, and mice, will meet their end together,” declares the Lord. ¹⁸ “For I know their works and their thoughts, and the time is coming to gather all nations and languages. And they will come and see my glory. ¹⁹ I will set a sign among them, and I will send survivors to the nations: to Tarshish, Put, Lud, Meshech, Tubal, and Javan, to the distant coastlands that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory among the nations. ²⁰ And they will bring all your people from all the nations to my holy mountain in Jerusalem as an offering to the Lord—on horses, in chariots and wagons, on mules and camels,” says the Lord, “as the Israelites bring their grain offerings in clean vessels to the house of the Lord. ²¹ And I will select some of them as priests and Levites,” says the Lord. ²² “For as the new heavens and the new earth that I make will endure before me,” declares the Lord, “so will your name and descendants endure. ²³ From one new moon to another and from one Sabbath to another, all mankind will come to bow down before me,” says the Lord. ²⁴ “Then they will go out and look on the corpses of those who have rebelled against me; for their worm will not die, and their fire will not be quenched, and they will be an abhorrence to all mankind.”

Isaiah

Jeremiah

1 The words of Jeremiah, son of Hilkiah, one of the priests at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, ² to whom the word of the Lord came during the days of Josiah, son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. ³ It also came during the reign of Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, son of Josiah, king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem went into exile. ⁴ Then a message from the Lord came to me, saying, ⁵ “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations.” ⁶ Then I said, “Alas, Sovereign Lord! I do not know how to speak, for I am a youth.” ⁷ But the Lord said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am too young,’ for you must go to everyone I send you to and speak whatever I command you. ⁸ Do not fear them, for I am with you to protect you,” declares the Lord. ⁹ Then the Lord extended His hand and touched my mouth and said to me, “I have placed My words in your mouth. ¹⁰ See, today I appoint you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and dismantle, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant.” ¹¹ The word of the Lord came to me, saying, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” And I replied, “I see the branch of an almond tree.” ¹² The Lord said to me, “You have seen correctly, for I am watching over My word to fulfil it.” ¹³ The word of the Lord came to me a second time, saying, “What do you see?” And I said, “I see a boiling pot, tilting away from the north.” ¹⁴ Then the Lord said to me, “From the north disaster will be poured out on all who live in the land. ¹⁵ For I am about to summon all the peoples of the northern kingdoms,” declares the Lord. “Their kings will come and set up their thrones at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem; they will come against all her surrounding walls and against all the towns of Judah. ¹⁶ I will pronounce my judgments on them because of their wickedness in forsaking me, in burning incense to other gods and in worshipping what their hands have made. ¹⁷ “Prepare yourself! Stand up and say to them whatever I command you. Do not be dismayed by them, or I will dismay you before them. ¹⁸ Today I have made you like a fortified city, an iron pillar and a bronze wall to stand against the whole land—against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the people of the land. ¹⁹ They will fight against you but will not overcome you, for I am with you to rescue you,” declares the Lord.

2 A message from the Lord reached me: ² “Go and proclaim in the ears of Jerusalem: ‘This is what the Lord says: “I remember the devotion of your youth, your love as a bride, how you followed me through the wilderness, through a land not sown. ³ Israel was holy to the Lord, the firstfruits of his harvest. All who devoured her were held guilty; disaster came upon them,” declares the Lord. ⁴ Hear the word of the Lord, you descendants of Jacob, all the families of the house of Israel. ⁵ This is what the Lord says: “What did your ancestors find lacking in me, that they wandered so far from me? They pursued worthless idols and became worthless themselves. ⁶ They did not say, ‘Where is the Lord who brought us up out of Egypt, who led us through the barren wilderness, through a land of deserts and pits, a land of drought and deep darkness, a land where no one travels and no one lives?’” ⁷ I brought you into a fertile land to eat its fruit and good things. But you came and defiled my land and made my inheritance detestable. ⁸ The priests did not say, ‘Where is the Lord?’ Those who handle the law did not know me; the rulers rebelled against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, following things that are of no benefit. ⁹ “Therefore I bring charges against you again,” declares the Lord. “And I will contend with your children’s children. ¹⁰ Cross over to the coastlands of Kittim and see, send to Kedar and observe closely; see if there has ever been anything like this: ¹¹ Has a nation ever changed its gods, even though they are not gods at all? But my people have exchanged their glorious God for that which is worthless. ¹² Be astonished at this, you heavens, and tremble with great fear,” declares the Lord. ¹³ “For my people have committed two sins: They have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and have dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold water. ¹⁴ Is Israel a servant, born into slavery? Why then has he become plunder? ¹⁵ Lions have roared at him, they have roared loudly. They have laid waste his land; his towns are burned and deserted. ¹⁶ Also, the men of Memphis and Tahpanhes have caused you harm. ¹⁷ Is it not you who have brought this upon yourselves by abandoning the Lord your God when he led you in the way? ¹⁸ Now why go to Egypt to drink the waters of the Nile? And why go to Assyria to drink the waters of the Euphrates? ¹⁹ Your wickedness will correct you, and your backsliding will rebuke you.

Jeremiah

Consider then and realise how evil and bitter it is for you to forsake the Lord your God and have no awe of me,” declares the Lord, the God of armies. ²⁰ “Long ago you broke off your yoke and tore off your bonds; you said, ‘I will not serve you!’ Indeed, on every high hill and under every spreading tree you lay down as one unfaithful. ²¹ I had planted you like a choice vine, a completely faithful seed. How then did you turn against me into a corrupt, wild vine? ²² Although you wash yourself with lye and use much soap, the stain of your guilt is still before me,” declares the Sovereign Lord. ²³ “How can you say, ‘I am not defiled; I have not run after the Baals’? See your behaviour in the valley; consider what you have done. You are a swift she-camel running here and there, ²⁴ a wild donkey accustomed to the desert, sniffing the wind in her craving—in her heat who can restrain her? Any males that pursue her need not tire themselves; at her time they will find her. ²⁵ Do not run until your feet are bare and your throat is dry. But you said, ‘It is hopeless! I love foreign gods, and I must go after them.’ ²⁶ “As a thief is disgraced when he is caught, so the house of Israel is disgraced—they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets. ²⁷ They speak to wood, ‘You are my father,’ and to stone, ‘You gave me birth.’ They have turned their backs to me and not their faces; yet when they are in trouble, they call out, ‘Come and rescue us!’ ²⁸ Where then are the gods you made for yourselves? Let them arise if they can save you in your time of trouble! For you, Judah, have as many gods as you have towns. ²⁹ “Why do you bring accusations against me? You have all rebelled against me,” declares the Lord. ³⁰ “In vain I disciplined your people; they did not respond to correction. Your sword has devoured your prophets like a ravenous lion. ³¹ “You generation, consider the word of the Lord: Have I been a desert to Israel or a land of thick darkness? Why do my people say, ‘We are free to roam; we will come to you no more’? ³² Does a young woman forget her adornments, a bride her wedding ornaments? Yet my people have forgotten me, days without number. ³³ How adept you are at pursuing love! Even the worst of women can learn from your ways. ³⁴ On your clothes is found the lifeblood of the innocent poor, though you did not catch them breaking in. Nevertheless, ³⁵ you say, ‘I am innocent; surely his anger is turned away from me.’ But I will pass judgment on you because you say, ‘I have not sinned.’ ³⁶ Why do you wander so much, changing your ways? You will be disappointed by Egypt as you were by Assyria. ³⁷ You will also leave that place with your hands on your head, for the Lord has rejected those you trust; you will not prosper with them.

3 The Lord says, “If a man divorces his wife and she departs from him to become another man’s wife, should he return to her again? Would not the land be thoroughly defiled? Yet you have acted as a harlot with numerous lovers; would you return to me?” declares the Lord. ² “Look up to the barren heights and consider: is there any place you have not been violated? You have waited by the roadsides for lovers, like a nomad in the desert, and you have polluted the land with your prostitution and wickedness. ³ As a result, the showers have been withheld, and there has been no spring rain. You have the boldness of a prostitute; you refuse to feel shame. ⁴ Have you not just called out to me: ‘My Father, you are the companion of my youth,’ ⁵ will you be angry forever? Will your wrath persist to the end?” This is what you say, but you continue to do all the evil you can.” ⁶ During the days of King Josiah, the Lord said to me, “Have you seen what faithless Israel has done? She has gone up on every high hill and under every spreading tree and committed adultery there. ⁷ I thought, ‘After she has done all this, she will return to me,’ but she did not return, and her unfaithful sister Judah saw it. ⁸ I gave faithless Israel her certificate of divorce and sent her away because of her adulteries. Yet her unfaithful sister Judah was not afraid; she also went and committed adultery. ⁹ Because of her casual immorality, she defiled the land and committed adultery with stone and wood. ¹⁰ Despite all this, her unfaithful sister Judah did not return to me with all her heart, but only in pretence,” declares the Lord. ¹¹ And the Lord said to me, “Faithless Israel is more righteous than unfaithful Judah. ¹² Go and proclaim this message toward the north: ‘Return, faithless Israel,’ declares the Lord, ‘I will not remain angry with you, for I am gracious,’ declares the Lord, ‘I will not be angry forever. ¹³ Only acknowledge your guilt—that you have rebelled against the Lord your God, scattered your favours to foreign gods under every spreading tree, and have not obeyed my voice,’ declares the Lord. ¹⁴ “Return, faithless people,” declares the Lord, “for I am your master. I will take you—one from a city and two from a family—and bring you to Zion. ¹⁵ Then I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will guide you with knowledge and understanding. ¹⁶ In those days, when you have multiplied and increased in the land," declares the Lord, "they will no longer say, 'The ark of the covenant of the Lord.' It will not come to mind, nor will they remember it or miss it, nor will it be made again. ¹⁷ At that time, Jerusalem will be called The Throne of the Lord, and all nations will gather in Jerusalem to honour the name of the Lord. They will no longer follow the stubbornness of their evil hearts. ¹⁸ In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and together they will come from the land of the north to the land I gave your ancestors as an inheritance. ¹⁹ "I said, 'How gladly would I treat you as sons and give you a pleasant land, the most beautiful inheritance of any nation.' I thought you would call me 'Father' and not turn away from following me. ²⁰ But just as a woman is unfaithful to her husband, so you, Israel, have been unfaithful to me," declares the Lord. ²¹ A voice is heard on the barren heights, the weeping and pleading of the people of Israel, because they have perverted their ways and have forgotten the Lord their God. ²² "Return, faithless people; I will heal your backsliding." "Yes, we will come to you, for you are the Lord our God. ²³ Surely the commotion on the hills and mountains is a deception; truly in the Lord our God is the salvation of Israel. ²⁴ From our youth, shameful gods have consumed the fruits of our ancestors' labour—their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters. ²⁵ Let us lie down in our shame, and let our disgrace cover us. We have sinned against the Lord our God, both we and our ancestors; from our youth to this day we have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God."

Jeremiah

4 "If you, Israel, are to return," declares the Lord, "then return to Me. If you remove your detestable idols from My sight and do not stray, ² and if you swear, 'As surely as the Lord lives,' in truth, in justice, and in righteousness, then the nations will bless themselves by Him and in Him they will glory." ³ For this is what the Lord says to the people of Judah and to Jerusalem: "Break up your unploughed ground and do not sow among thorns. ⁴ Circumcise yourselves to the Lord and circumcise your hearts, people of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, or My wrath will flare up like fire and burn with no one to quench it, because of the evil of your deeds." ⁵ "Proclaim in Judah and announce in Jerusalem, and say: 'Sound the trumpet throughout the land!' Cry aloud and say: 'Assemble yourselves and let us flee to the fortified cities!' ⁶ Raise a signal towards Zion! Flee for safety without delay! For I am bringing disaster from the north, even great destruction." ⁷ A lion has come up from his thicket; a destroyer of nations has set out. He has left his place to lay waste your land. Your towns will be ruined without inhabitant. ⁸ For this, put on sackcloth, lament and wail, for the fierce anger of the Lord has not turned away from us. ⁹ "In that day," declares the Lord, "the heart of the king and the hearts of the officials will fail; the priests will be horrified, and the prophets will be appalled." ¹⁰ Then I said, "Alas, Sovereign Lord! Surely You have utterly deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying, 'You will have peace,' while the sword is at our throats!" ¹¹ At that time, it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A scorching wind from the barren heights in the desert blows towards My people, not to winnow or cleanse; ¹² a wind too powerful for that comes from Me. Now I announce My judgments against them." ¹³ Behold, he advances like the clouds, his chariots are like a whirlwind, his horses swifter than eagles. Woe to us! We are ruined! ¹⁴ Jerusalem, wash the evil from your heart so that you may be saved. How long will you harbour wicked thoughts? ¹⁵ A voice announces from Dan, proclaiming disaster from the hills of Ephraim. ¹⁶ "Report this to the nations, proclaim concerning Jerusalem: 'A besieging army is coming from a distant land, raising a war cry against the cities of Judah. ¹⁷ They surround her like watchmen of a field, because she has rebelled against Me,' declares the Lord. ¹⁸ "Your conduct and actions have brought this upon you. This is your punishment. How bitter it is! How it pierces to the heart!" ¹⁹ Oh, my anguish, my anguish! I writhe in pain. Oh, the agony of my heart! My heart pounds within me, I cannot keep silent. For I have heard the sound of the trumpet; the alarm of war. ²⁰ Disaster upon disaster is proclaimed; the whole land is devastated. In an instant my tents are destroyed, my shelters in a moment. ²¹ How long must I witness the battle standard and hear the sound of the trumpet? ²² "For My people are foolish; they do not know Me. They are senseless children; they have no understanding. They are skilled in doing evil; they do not know how to do good." ²³ I observed the earth, and it was formless and empty; and at the heavens, and their light was gone. ²⁴ I observed the mountains, and they were quaking; all the hills were swaying. ²⁵ I observed, and there were no people; every bird in the sky had flown away. ²⁶ I observed, and the fruitful land was a desert; all its towns lay in ruins before the Lord, in the face of His fierce anger. ²⁷ For this is what the Lord says: "The whole land will be a desolation, yet I will not destroy it completely. ²⁸ Therefore the earth will mourn and the heavens above grow dark, because I have spoken and will not relent, I have purposed and will not turn back." ²⁹ At the sound of horsemen and archers every town takes to flight; they go into the thickets and climb among the rocks. Every town is deserted; no one lives in them. ³⁰ And you, devastated one, what will you do? Although you dress in scarlet, although you put on jewels of gold, although you highlight your eyes with makeup, in vain you make yourself beautiful. Your lovers despise you; they seek your life. ³¹ I hear a cry as of a woman in labour, a groan as of one bearing her first child—the cry of Daughter Zion gasping for breath, stretching out her hands and saying, "Alas! I am fainting; my life is given over to murderers."

Jeremiah

5 "Wander through the streets of Jerusalem, observe and take note. Search in her public squares; if you find a single person who acts justly and seeks truth, I will pardon her. ² Even though they say, 'As surely as the Lord lives,' they are surely swearing falsely." ³ Lord, do Your eyes not seek truth? You struck them, yet they felt no pain; You consumed them, yet they refused correction. They have made their faces harder than rock and have refused to turn back. ⁴ I thought, "These are only the poor; they are foolish, for they do not know the way of the Lord, the judgment of their God. ⁵ I will go to the great and speak to them, for they surely know the way of the Lord, the judgment of their God." But they too have broken the yoke and burst the bonds. ⁶ Therefore a lion from the forest will slay them, a wolf from the desert will ravage them, a leopard is watching their cities. All who venture out will be torn to pieces, for their transgressions are many, their apostasies numerous. ⁷ "Why should I forgive you? Your children have abandoned Me and sworn by those who are not gods. I provided for them, yet they committed adultery and thronged to the houses of harlots. ⁸ They are like well-fed, lusty stallions, each neighing after his neighbour's wife. ⁹ Shall I not punish them for these things?" declares the Lord. "Shall I not avenge Myself on a nation such as this? ¹⁰ "Go through her vineyards and devastate them, but do not make a complete destruction; strip away her branches, for they do not belong to the Lord. ¹¹ The house of Israel and the house of Judah have been utterly unfaithful to Me," declares the Lord. ¹² They have denied the Lord and said, "He will do nothing; no disaster will come upon us, nor will we see sword or famine. ¹³ The prophets are but wind, and the word is not in them; thus it will be done to them." ¹⁴ Therefore, this is what the Lord God of Hosts says: "Because you have spoken this word, I will make My words in your mouth a fire and this people wood, and it will consume them. ¹⁵ Behold, I am bringing a nation against you from afar, O house of Israel," declares the Lord. "It is an ancient and enduring nation, a people whose language you do not know, nor can you understand what they say. ¹⁶ Their quivers are like a deep pit; all of them are valiant warriors. ¹⁷ They will consume your harvest and your food; they will devour your sons and daughters; they will consume your flocks and herds; they will devour your vines and fig trees. They will demolish your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword. ¹⁸ "Even in those days," declares the Lord, "I will not completely destroy you. ¹⁹ And when the people ask, 'Why has the Lord our God done all this to us?' you shall say to them, 'As you have forsaken Me and served foreign gods in your own land, so you will serve foreigners in a land not your own.' ²⁰ "Proclaim this to the descendants of Jacob and announce it in Judah: ²¹ Hear this, you senseless and foolish people, who have eyes but do not see, who have ears but do not hear: ²² Do you not fear Me?" declares the Lord. "Do you not tremble in My presence? I have set the sand as a boundary for the sea, an everlasting barrier it cannot cross. Though the waves toss, they cannot prevail; though they roar, they cannot cross it. ²³ But this people has a stubborn and defiant heart; they have turned aside and departed. ²⁴ They do not say in their hearts, 'Let us fear the Lord our God, who gives the autumn and spring rains in season, who assures us of the regular weeks of harvest.' ²⁵ Your wrongdoings have deprived you of these, and your sins have kept good from you. ²⁶ For wicked men are found among My people; they lie in wait like those who set traps to catch people. ²⁷ Like cages full of birds, their houses are full of deceit; therefore they have become great and rich.²⁸ They have grown fat and sleek. Their evil deeds have no limit; they do not seek justice. They do not defend the cause of the fatherless, nor do they uphold the rights of the poor.²⁹ Shall I not punish them for these things?" declares the Lord. "Shall I not avenge Myself on a nation such as this?"³⁰ "A shocking and dreadful thing has occurred in the land:³¹ The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own authority; and My people love it this way. But what will you do when the end comes?"

Jeremiah

6 "Flee for safety, people of Benjamin, from the midst of Jerusalem! Blow the trumpet in Tekoa and raise a signal over Beth Hakkerem, for disaster looms from the north, along with great destruction.² The beautiful and delicate Daughter Zion, I will destroy.³ Shepherds with their flocks will come against her; they will pitch their tents around her, each tending to his own portion.⁴ 'Prepare for battle against her! Arise, let us attack at noon! Woe to us, for the day is fading, and the shadows of evening grow long!' ⁵ So arise, let us attack by night and destroy her strongholds!' ⁶ For this is what the Lord of Hosts says: 'Cut down the trees and build siege ramps against Jerusalem. This city must be punished; it is filled with oppression.⁷ As a well keeps its waters fresh, so she pours out her wickedness. Violence and destruction resound in her; sickness and wounds are ever before me.⁸ Be warned, Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you and make your land desolate, uninhabited.⁹ This is what the Lord of Hosts says: 'Let them glean the remnant of Israel as thoroughly as a vine; pass your hand over the branches again, like one gathering grapes.'¹⁰ To whom can I speak and give warning, that they may hear? Their ears are closed and they cannot listen. The word of the Lord is offensive to them; they take no pleasure in it.¹¹ Yet I am overwhelmed with the Lord's anger, unable to contain it. 'Pour it out on the children in the street and on the young men gathered together; both husband and wife will be caught in it, and the old, those weighed down with years.¹² Their houses will be turned over to others, along with their fields and their wives, when I stretch out my hand against the inhabitants of the land,' declares the Lord.¹³ 'From the least to the greatest, everyone is greedy for gain; prophets and priests alike, all practice deceit.¹⁴ They treat the wound of my people as though it were not serious. 'Peace, peace,' they say, when there is no peace.¹⁵ Are they ashamed of their detestable conduct? No, they have no shame at all; they do not even know how to blush. Therefore, they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when I punish them,' says the Lord.¹⁶ This is what the Lord says: 'Stand at the crossroads and look; ask for the ancient paths, where the good way is, and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. But you said, 'We will not walk in it.'¹⁷ I appointed watchmen over you and said, 'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!' But you said, 'We refuse to listen.'¹⁸ Therefore hear, you nations, and understand, you congregation, what is among them.¹⁹ Hear, earth: I am bringing disaster on this people, the fruit of their schemes, because they have not listened to my words and have rejected my law.²⁰ What do I care about incense from Sheba or sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable; your sacrifices do not please me.²¹ Therefore, this is what the Lord says: 'I will place obstacles before this people. Parents and children alike will stumble over them; neighbours and friends will perish.'²² This is what the Lord says: 'Behold, an army is coming from the land of the north; a great nation is being stirred up from the remote parts of the earth.²³ They are armed with bow and spear; they are cruel and show no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea as they ride on horses, arrayed as a man for battle against you, Daughter Zion.'²⁴ We have heard reports about them, and our hands are weak. Anguish has gripped us, pain like that of a woman in labour.²⁵ Avoid going out to the fields or walking on the roads, for the enemy has a sword, and there is terror on every side.²⁶ Dress in sackcloth and cover yourselves in ashes; lament with deep mourning as for an only son, for suddenly the destroyer will come upon us.²⁷ 'I have made you a tester of metals and my people the ore, that you may observe and examine their ways.²⁸ They are all stubbornly rebellious, going about as slanderers. They are bronze and iron; they all act corruptly.²⁹ The bellows blow fiercely to remove the lead with fire, but the refining is in vain; the wicked are not removed.³⁰ They are called rejected silver, because the Lord has turned away from them."

Jeremiah

7 The message that was given to Jeremiah from the Lord: ² “Stand at the entrance of the Lord’s house and there proclaim this message: ‘Hear the word of the Lord, all you people of Judah who enter through these gates to worship the Lord.’ ³ This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Amend your ways and your deeds, and I will let you dwell in this place. ⁴ Do not rely on deceptive words, saying, ‘This is the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord.’ ⁵ For if you truly amend your ways and your deeds, and practice justice between a person and his neighbour, ⁶ if you do not oppress the foreigner, the orphan, or the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, nor follow other gods to your own detriment, ⁷ then I will let you dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your ancestors for ever and ever. ⁸ Behold, you are trusting in deceptive words that are of no benefit. ⁹ Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and follow other gods that you have not known, ¹⁰ and then come and stand before Me in this house, which is called by My name, and say, ‘We are safe,’ so that you may continue doing all these abominations? ¹¹ Has this house, which is called by My name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I have seen it Myself,” declares the Lord. ¹² “But go now to My place that was in Shiloh, where I first made My name dwell, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel. ¹³ And now, because you have done all these things,” declares the Lord, “and I spoke to you, speaking persistently, but you did not listen, and I called you but you did not answer, ¹⁴ therefore I will do to the house which is called by My name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. ¹⁵ I will cast you out of My sight, just as I have cast out all your brethren, all the descendants of Ephraim. ¹⁶ “As for you, do not pray for this people, nor offer any plea or petition for them; do not plead with Me, for I will not hear you. ¹⁷ Can you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah? Or in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸ The children gather wood, the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and they pour out drink offerings to other gods to provoke Me to anger. ¹⁹ Is it Me they are provoking?” declares the Lord. “Is it not themselves, to their own shame?” ²⁰ Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says: “Behold, My anger and My wrath will be poured out on this place, on man and beast, on the trees of the field and the fruit of the ground; and it will burn and not be quenched.” ²¹ This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: “Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat the meat yourselves! ²² For when I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, I did not merely give them commands concerning burnt offerings and sacrifices, ²³ but I gave them this command: Obey My voice, and I will be your God and you will be My people; and walk in all the ways that I command you, that it may go well with you. ²⁴ Yet they did not listen or incline their ear, but followed the stubborn inclinations of their evil hearts. They went backward and not forward. ²⁵ From the time your ancestors left Egypt until now, day after day, again and again I sent you all My servants the prophets. ²⁶ But they did not listen to Me or incline their ear. They stiffened their neck and did more evil than their ancestors. ²⁷ “So you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not listen to you; and you shall call to them, but they will not answer. ²⁸ Therefore say to them, ‘This is the nation that has not obeyed the voice of the Lord their God or accepted discipline. Truth has perished; it has vanished from their lips. ²⁹ Cut off your hair and throw it away; take up a lamentation on the barren heights, for the Lord has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath. ³⁰ For the people of Judah have done evil in My sight,” declares the Lord. “They have set up their detestable idols in the house which is called by My name, to defile it. ³¹ They have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to burn their sons and daughters in the fire—something I did not command, nor did it come into My mind. ³² Therefore, behold, the days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when it will no longer be called Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter, for they will bury in Topheth until there is no more room. ³³ The carcasses of this people will become food for the birds of the sky and the animals of the earth, and no one will frighten them away. ³⁴ I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom, in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, for the land will become desolate.

8 “At that time,” says the Lord, “the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of its leaders, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will be brought out from their graves. ² They will be spread out before the sun, the moon, and all the stars of the heavens, which they have loved and served, and which they have followed, consulted, and worshipped. They will not be gathered or buried, but will be like dung on the surface of the ground. ³ And death will be chosen over life by all the remnant that remains of this wicked nation, wherever I have driven them," declares the Lord of Hosts.

Jeremiah

⁴ "You shall say to them, 'This is what the Lord says: "Do people fall and not rise again? Does one turn away and not return?" ⁵ Why then has this people, Jerusalem, turned away in perpetual backsliding? They hold fast to deceit, they refuse to return. ⁶ I have listened carefully, but they do not speak what is right. No one repents of their wickedness, saying, 'What have I done?' Everyone turns to their own course, like a horse charging into battle. ⁷ Even the stork in the sky knows her appointed times, and the turtledove, the swift, and the crane observe the time of their migration. But my people do not know the requirements of the Lord. ⁸ "How can you say, 'We are wise, and the law of the Lord is with us'? But behold, the lying pen of the scribes has turned it into a lie. ⁹ The wise are put to shame, they are dismayed and ensnared. Since they have rejected the word of the Lord, what wisdom do they have? ¹⁰ Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to new owners. From the least to the greatest, everyone is greedy for gain; from prophet to priest, everyone deals falsely. ¹¹ They have treated the wound of my people superficially, saying, 'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace. ¹² Are they ashamed of their abominable deeds? No, they are not at all ashamed, nor do they know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; at the time of their punishment they shall be cast down," says the Lord. ¹³ "I will surely consume them," declares the Lord. "There will be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaves will wither; what I have given them will be taken away from them." ¹⁴ Why do we sit still? Assemble yourselves, let us flee to the fortified cities and perish there. For the Lord our God has decreed our destruction and given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against Him. ¹⁵ We hoped for peace, but no good came; we hoped for a time of healing, but we behold terror! ¹⁶ The snorting of their horses is heard from Dan; at the sound of the neighing of their stallions the whole land quakes. They come to devour the land and all that fills it, the city and those who dwell therein. ¹⁷ "For behold, I am sending serpents among you, vipers that cannot be charmed, and they will bite you," declares the Lord. ¹⁸ My grief is beyond healing, my heart is faint within me. ¹⁹ Listen to the cry of my people from a distant land: "Is the Lord not in Zion? Is her King not within her?" "Why have they provoked me with their carved images, with foreign idols?" ²⁰ "The harvest season has passed, the summer is not over, and yet we have not been saved." ²¹ For the brokenness of the daughter of my people I am broken; I mourn, and horror grips me. ²² Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then is there no healing for the wound of the daughter of my people?

9 Oh, that my head were a spring of water and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! ² Oh, that I had a lodging place for travellers in the desert, so that I might leave my people and go away from them! For they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous people. ³ "They bend their tongues like bows to shoot lies; it is not by truth that they prevail in the land. They proceed from one evil to another; they do not know me," declares the Lord. ⁴ "Let everyone be on guard against their neighbour; do not trust any brother. For every brother utterly betrays, and every friend is a slanderer. ⁵ Friend deceives friend, and no one speaks the truth. They have taught their tongues to speak lies; they weary themselves with wrongdoing. ⁶ You dwell in the midst of deceit; in their deceit they refuse to know me," declares the Lord. ⁷ Therefore this is what the Lord Almighty says: "Behold, I will refine them and test them, for what else can I do because of the sin of my people? ⁸ Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceitfully. With their mouths they speak peace to their neighbours, but in their hearts they set traps for them. ⁹ Should I not punish them for these things?" declares the Lord. "Should I not avenge myself on such a nation as this?" ¹⁰ I will take up a weeping and wailing for the mountains and a lament for the pastures of the wilderness, because they are desolate and untravelled, and the sound of livestock is not heard. The birds of the sky and the animals have fled; they are gone. ¹¹ I will turn Jerusalem into a desolate place, a dwelling for wild animals; and I will devastate the towns of Judah so that no one can inhabit them.”¹² Who is wise enough to understand this? Who has been instructed by the Lord and can declare it? Why has the land been destroyed and laid waste like a desert that no one can cross?¹³ The Lord said, “It is because they have forsaken my law, which I set before them; they have not obeyed my voice or walked according to it,¹⁴ but have followed the stubbornness of their hearts and the Baals, as their ancestors taught them.”¹⁵ Therefore this is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “Behold, I will make this people eat bitter food and drink poisoned water.¹⁶ I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have known, and I will pursue them with the sword until I have put an end to them.”¹⁷ This is what the Lord Almighty says: “Consider now! Call for the mourning women to come; send for the most skillful of them.¹⁸ Let them come quickly and take up a wailing for us, so that our eyes may shed tears and our eyelids flow with water.¹⁹ The sound of wailing is heard from Zion: ‘How devastated we are! How great is our shame! We must leave our land because they have torn down our homes.’²⁰ Now, you women, hear the word of the Lord; open your ears to the words of his mouth. Teach your daughters how to wail; teach each other a lament.²¹ For death has come up through our windows and has entered our fortresses; it has removed the children from the streets and the young men from the public squares.²² Say, ‘This is what the Lord declares: ‘The corpses will lie like dung on the open field, like cut grain behind the reaper, with no one to gather them.’”²³ This is what the Lord says: “Let not the wise take pride in their wisdom or the strong in their strength or the rich in their wealth,²⁴ but let the one who takes pride take pride in this: that they have the understanding to know me, that I am the Lord who exercises kindness, justice, and righteousness on earth, for in these I delight,” declares the Lord.²⁵ “Behold, the days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when I will punish all who are circumcised only in the flesh—²⁶ Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab, and all who live in the wilderness in distant places. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and even the whole house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart.”

Jeremiah

or be alarmed by the signs in the heavens, even though the nations are alarmed by them.³ For the customs of the peoples are futile; they cut wood from the forest, a craftsman shapes it with a tool.⁴ They embellish it with silver and gold; they secure it with nails and hammers so it will not topple.⁵ They are like a scarecrow in a cucumber field, unable to speak; they must be carried because they cannot walk. Do not fear them; they can do no harm, nor can they do any good.”⁶ There is none like you, Lord; you are great, and your name is mighty in power.⁷ Who should not revere you, O King of the nations? This is your rightful due. Among all the wise men of the nations and in all their kingdoms, there is none like you.⁸ They are altogether senseless and foolish; the instruction from idols is mere wood.⁹ Hammered silver is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of a craftsman and of the hands of a goldsmith. Their clothing is violet and purple, all made by skilled workers.¹⁰ But the Lord is the true God; he is the living God, the eternal King. The earth trembles at his wrath, and the nations cannot endure his indignation.¹¹ This is what you shall say to them: “The gods that did not create the heavens and the earth will perish from the earth and from under these heavens.”¹² He is the one who, by his power, made the earth. He established the world with his wisdom, and by his understanding spread out the heavens.¹³ When he speaks, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he makes the clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He sends lightning with the rain and brings out the wind from his storehouses.¹⁴ Every person is senseless, devoid of knowledge; every goldsmith is shamed by his idols, for his images are a fraud, and there is no breath in them.¹⁵ They are worthless, objects of ridicule; at the time of their punishment, they will perish.¹⁶ The Portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the Maker of all things, and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; the Lord of Hosts is his name.¹⁷ Collect your possessions, you who dwell under siege.¹⁸ For this is what the Lord says: “Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and I will bring distress upon them so that they may be captured.”¹⁹ Woe is me because of my injury! My wound is incurable. Yet I said, “This is my affliction, and I must bear it.”²⁰ My tent is destroyed, and all its ropes are broken. My children have gone from me and are no more; there is no one to pitch my tent or 10 Listen to the word that the Lord speaks to you, house of Israel.² This is what the Lord says: “Do not adopt the ways of the nations set up my curtains. ²¹ The shepherds are senseless and have not sought the Lord; therefore they do not prosper, and all their flock is scattered. ²² Listen! A report is coming— a great commotion from the land of the north! It will make the towns of Judah desolate, a haunt of jackals. ²³ I understand, Lord, that a person's path is not within their own control, nor is it for them to determine their steps. ²⁴ Discipline me, Lord, but with fairness; not in your anger, or I will be diminished. ²⁵ Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge you, and on the families that do not call upon your name; for they have devoured Jacob, they have devoured him completely and laid waste his homeland.

Jeremiah

11 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying: ² Pay attention to the terms of this covenant and convey what it says to the people of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem. ³ Say to them, 'This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: "Cursed is the one who does not obey the terms of this covenant— ⁴ the terms which I commanded your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, 'Obey me and do all that I command you, and you will be my people, and I will be your God.' ⁵ Then I will fulfil the oath I swore to your ancestors, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is today.'" I replied, "Amen, Lord." ⁶ The Lord said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: 'Listen to the terms of this covenant and follow them. ⁷ For I solemnly warned your ancestors from the time I brought them up from Egypt until today, persistently saying, 'Obey me.' ⁸ But they did not listen or incline their ear; instead, they followed the stubbornness of their evil hearts. So I brought upon them all the words of this covenant which I commanded them to follow, but they did not keep.'" ⁹ Then the Lord said to me, "There is a conspiracy among the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ They have returned to the sins of their ancestors, who refused to listen to my words. They have followed other gods to serve them. Both the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their ancestors. ¹¹ Therefore this is what the Lord says: 'I am bringing disaster upon them from which they will not be able to escape. Though they cry out to me, I will not listen to them. ¹² The cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they burn incense, but they will not save them at all in their time of disaster. ¹³ For your gods are as numerous as your cities, Judah; and the altars you have set up to the shameful god Baal are as many as the streets of Jerusalem. ¹⁴ "So do not pray for this people or offer any plea or petition for them, because I will not listen when they call to me in the time of their disaster. ¹⁵ What is my beloved doing in my house as she carries out her evil schemes with many others? Can consecrated meat avert your punishment? When you engage in your wickedness, then you rejoice." ¹⁶ The Lord called you a thriving olive tree, beautiful in fruit and form. But with the roar of a mighty storm, he will set it on fire, and its branches will be broken. ¹⁷ The Lord of hosts, who planted you, has decreed disaster for you, because the house of Israel and the house of Judah have done evil and provoked me by burning incense to Baal. ¹⁸ Because the Lord made their plot known to me, I understood it, for at that time he showed me what they were doing. ¹⁹ I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter; I did not realise that they had plotted against me, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit; let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name be remembered no more." ²⁰ But you, Lord of hosts, who judge righteously and test the heart and mind, let me see your vengeance on them, for to you I have committed my cause. ²¹ Therefore this is what the Lord says concerning the people of Anathoth who are seeking your life, saying, "Do not prophesy in the name of the Lord or you will die by our hand"— ²² therefore, this is what the Lord of hosts says: "I will punish them. Their young men will die by the sword, their sons and daughters by famine. ²³ A remnant will not remain for them, because I will bring disaster on the people of Anathoth in the year of their punishment."

12 You are righteous, O Lord, when I present my case to you; yet I wish to discuss matters of justice with you: Why does the path of the wicked prosper? Why do those who deal in treachery live at ease? ² You have planted them, and they have taken root; they grow and produce fruit. You are near to their lips but distant from their hearts. ³ But you know me, Lord; you see me and examine my heart's attitude towards you. Drag them away like sheep for the slaughter, and set them apart for the day of slaughter! ⁴ How long will the land mourn and the grass of every field wither? Because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it, the animals and birds have perished. For the people say, "He will not see our final end." ⁵ "If you have raced with men on foot and they have worn you out, how can you compete with horses? If you stumble in a land of peace, how will you manage in the thickets by the Jordan?" ⁶ Even your brothers and the household of your father, even they have betrayed you; they have raised a loud cry against you. Do not trust them, though they speak kindly to you." ⁷ "I have abandoned my house, I have forsaken my inheritance; I have given the beloved of my soul into the hands of her enemies. ⁸ My inheritance has become to me like a lion in the forest; she roars against me; therefore I have come to hate her. ⁹ Is my inheritance to me like a speckled bird of prey? Are other birds of prey surrounding and attacking her? Go, gather all the wild beasts; bring them to devour. ¹⁰ Many shepherds have ruined my vineyard, they have trampled down my field; they have turned my pleasant field into a desolate wilderness. ¹¹ It is made a wasteland, parched and desolate before me; the whole land is laid waste because no one takes it to heart. ¹² On all the barren heights in the wilderness destroyers have come, for the sword of the Lord devours from one end of the land to the other; there is no peace for anyone. ¹³ They have sown wheat but have reaped thorns; they have worn themselves out but gained nothing. Be ashamed of your harvest because of the Lord's fierce anger." ¹⁴ This is what the Lord says concerning all my wicked neighbours who harm the inheritance I have given my people Israel: "Behold, I will uproot them from their land, and I will uproot the house of Judah from among them. ¹⁵ Yet after I have uprooted them, I will again have compassion and will bring each of them back to their own inheritance and their own land. ¹⁶ And if they truly learn the ways of my people and swear by my name, 'As surely as the Lord lives'—just as they once taught my people to swear by Baal—then they will be established among my people. ¹⁷ But if they do not heed, I will thoroughly uproot and bring an end to that nation," declares the Lord.

Jeremiah

13 This is what the Lord said to me: "Go and purchase a linen garment and place it around your waist, but do not let it come into contact with water." ² So I acquired the garment as the Lord instructed, and wrapped it around my waist. ³ The word of the Lord then came to me again, saying, ⁴ "Take the garment you have bought, which is around your waist, and go to the Euphrates. Conceal it there in a crevice of the rock." ⁵ So I went and concealed it by the Euphrates, as the Lord had commanded me. ⁶ After a number of days, the Lord instructed me, "Arise, go to the Euphrates and retrieve the garment that I directed you to hide there." ⁷ So I went to the Euphrates and dug up the garment from the place where I had hidden it; and behold, the garment was ruined and utterly useless. ⁸ The word of the Lord then came to me, saying, ⁹ "This is what the Lord says: 'In the same manner, I will destroy the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ These wicked people, who refuse to heed my words, who follow the stubbornness of their hearts and pursue other gods to serve and worship them, will be like this garment—completely useless! ¹¹ For as a garment clings to the waist of a person, so I made the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah cling to me,' declares the Lord, 'that they might be my people, for renown, for praise, and for glory; but they did not listen.'

¹² "Therefore, speak this word to them: 'This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Every container should be filled with wine.' And if they respond, 'Do we not know that every container should be filled with wine?' ¹³ then say to them, 'This is what the Lord says: I am going to fill all the inhabitants of this land—the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—with drunkenness. ¹⁴ I will shatter them against each other, both parents and children alike,' declares the Lord. 'I will show no compassion, nor will I spare or have mercy to prevent their destruction.' ¹⁵ Hear and heed this, do not be proud, for the Lord has spoken. ¹⁶ Give glory to the Lord your God before he brings darkness and before your feet stumble on the darkening hills. You hope for light, but he will turn it into deep darkness and transform it into thick gloom. ¹⁷ But if you do not listen, I will weep in secret because of your pride; my eyes will weep bitterly, overflowing with tears, because the Lord's flock will be taken captive. ¹⁸ Say to the king and the queen mother, 'Descend from your thrones, for your splendid crowns will fall from your heads.' ¹⁹ The cities of the Negev will be closed, with no one to open them. All Judah will be taken into exile, completely carried away. ²⁰ Lift up your eyes and see those coming from the north. Where is the flock that was entrusted to you, the sheep of which you boasted? ²¹ What will you say when the Lord sets over you those you cultivated as your allies? Will not pain seize you like that of a woman in labour? ²² And if you ask yourself, "Why has this happened to me?"— it is because of the magnitude of your sins that your skirts have been torn off and your body mistreated. ²³ Is it possible for an Ethiopian to change his skin or a leopard its spots? In the same way, you who are accustomed to doing evil cannot do good. ²⁴ "I will disperse you like chaff blown by the desert wind. ²⁵ This is your lot, the portion I have decreed for you," declares the Lord, "because you have forgotten me and trusted in falsehood. ²⁶ I will pull up your skirts over your face so that your shame may be seen— ²⁷ your adulteries and lustful neighings, your shameless prostitution! I have seen your detestable acts on the hills and in the fields. Woe to you, Jerusalem! How long will you remain unclean?"

Jeremiah

14 This is the word of the Lord that came to Jeremiah regarding the drought: ² "Judah mourns, and her gates languish; her people sit on the ground in mourning garments, and a cry rises from Jerusalem. ³ The nobles send their servants for water; they go to the cisterns but find no water. They return with their containers empty, put to shame and humiliated, they cover their heads. ⁴ The ground is cracked because there is no rain on the land; the farmers are dismayed and cover their heads in shame. ⁵ Even the doe in the field abandons her newborn fawn because there is no grass. ⁶ Wild donkeys stand on the barren heights, panting for air like jackals; their eyes fail for lack of vegetation. ⁷ Though our wrongdoings testify against us, act, Lord, for the sake of your name. Our apostasies have indeed been many; we have sinned against you. ⁸ Hope of Israel, its Saviour in times of distress, why are you like a stranger in the land, like a traveller who stays only a night? ⁹ Why are you like a confused person, like a warrior who cannot save? Yet you are among us, Lord, and we are called by your name; do not forsake us! ¹⁰ This is what the Lord says about this people: "They greatly love to wander; they do not restrain their feet. Therefore, the Lord does not accept them; now he will remember their wrongdoing and punish them for their sins." ¹¹ Then the Lord instructed me, "Do not intercede for the well-being of this people. ¹² Even though they fast, I will not listen to their cry; though they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Instead, I will destroy them with the sword, famine, and plague." ¹³ But I responded, "Alas, Sovereign Lord! The prophets keep telling them, 'You will not see the sword or suffer famine. Indeed, I will give you lasting peace in this place.'" ¹⁴ Then the Lord said to me, "The prophets are prophesying falsehood in my name. I have not sent them, nor commanded them, nor spoken to them. They are prophesying to you false visions, divinations, futility, and the delusions of their own minds. ¹⁵ Therefore, this is what the Lord says about the prophets who are prophesying in my name: I did not send them, yet they are saying, 'No sword or famine will touch this land.' By sword and famine, those prophets shall meet their end. ¹⁶ And the people to whom they are prophesying will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword. There will be no one to bury them, their wives, their sons, and their daughters. I will pour out their own wickedness upon them. ¹⁷ You shall speak this word to them: "Let my eyes overflow with tears night and day without ceasing; for the virgin daughter, my people, has suffered a grievous wound, a crushing blow. ¹⁸ If I go out to the country, I see those slain by the sword; if I enter the city, I see the ravages of famine. Both prophet and priest have wandered into a land they do not know." ¹⁹ Have you completely rejected Judah? Do you despise Zion? Why have you afflicted us so that we cannot be healed? We hoped for peace, but no good has come; for a time of healing, but there is only terror. ²⁰ We confess our wrongdoing, Lord, and the guilt of our ancestors; we have indeed sinned against you. ²¹ For the sake of your name, do not despise us; do not disgrace your glorious throne. Remember your covenant with us and do not annul it. ²² Do any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain? Do the skies themselves send down showers? Is it not you, Lord our God? Therefore, we wait for you, for you are the one who does all these things.

15 Then the Lord said to me, "Even if Moses and Samuel were to stand before Me, My heart would not be inclined towards this people. Send them away from My presence and let them depart! ² And when they ask you, 'Where should we go?' tell them, 'This is what the Lord says:

Jeremiah

"Those destined for death, to death; those for the sword, to the sword; those for famine, to famine; those for captivity, to captivity."³ "I will appoint over them four kinds of doom," declares the Lord: "the sword to slay, the dogs to drag away, and the birds of the sky and the wild animals to devour and destroy." "I will make them an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of Manasseh, son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem." "Who will have compassion on you, Jerusalem? Who will mourn for you? Who will turn aside to inquire about your welfare?" "You have forsaken Me," declares the Lord. "You keep backsliding. So I will stretch out My hand against you and destroy you; I am weary of relenting." "I will winnow them with a winnowing fork at the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children and destroy My people, for they have not repented of their ways." "I will make their widows more numerous than the sand of the seas. At midday I will bring a destroyer against the mother of a young man; suddenly I will bring down on them anguish and terror." "The mother of seven will grow faint and breathe her last. Her sun will set while it is still day; she will be disgraced and humiliated. I will give their survivors to the sword before their enemies," declares the Lord. "Woe to me, my mother, that you have given birth to me, a man of strife and contention to all the land! I have neither lent nor borrowed, yet everyone curses me." "The Lord said, 'I will surely deliver you for a good purpose; I will make your enemies plead with you in times of disaster and distress.' 'Can anyone break iron, iron from the north, or bronze?' 'I will give your wealth and your treasures as plunder, without cost, because of all your sins throughout your borders.' 'I will make your enemies carry your possessions into a land you do not know, for a fire has been kindled in My anger, and it will burn against you.' 'You know, Lord; remember me and take notice of me. Avenge me on my persecutors. Do not take me away, in view of Your patience; consider how I suffer reproach for Your sake.' 'Your words were found, and I ate them; they were my joy and my heart's delight, for I bear Your name, Lord God of hosts.' 'I did not sit in the company of revelers and celebrate. Because Your hand was upon me, I sat alone, for You filled me with indignation.' 'Why is my pain unending and my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Will You be to me like a deceptive stream, with waters that are unreliable?"¹⁹ Therefore, this is what the Lord says: "If you return, I will restore you, that you may stand before Me; if you extract the precious from the worthless, you will be My spokesman. Let them turn to you, but you must not turn to them."²⁰ "I will make you to this people a fortified wall of bronze; they will fight against you but will not prevail, for I am with you to save and deliver you," declares the Lord. "I will free you from the hands of the wicked and liberate you from the grasp of the violent."

16 A message from the Lord was given to me:² "You shall not marry or have sons or daughters in this place."³ For this is what the Lord says concerning the sons and daughters born in this land, and concerning their mothers who bear them and their fathers who beget them in this land:⁴ "They shall die of grievous diseases; they shall not be lamented or buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground. They shall perish by the sword and by famine, and their corpses shall be food for the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth."⁵ For thus says the Lord: "Do not enter the house of mourning, nor go to lament or console them, for I have withdrawn my peace, my lovingkindness, and my compassion from this people," declares the Lord. "Both the great and the small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, nor shall anyone lament for them, nor make cuts on themselves or shave their heads for them."⁷ No one shall break bread in mourning for them, to comfort anyone for the dead, nor shall anyone give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or mother."⁸ "And do not enter the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and drink."⁹ For this is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride in this place, before your eyes and in your days."¹⁰ "And it shall come to pass, when you tell this people all these words, and they say to you, 'Why has the Lord pronounced all this great disaster against us? What is our iniquity? What is our sin that we have committed against the Lord our God?' "¹¹ then you shall say to them, 'Because your ancestors have forsaken me,' declares the Lord, 'and have followed other gods and served and worshipped them, and have forsaken me and have not kept my law."¹² And you have done worse than your ancestors, for behold, each one of you follows the stubbornness of his evil heart, without listening to me. ¹³ Therefore, I will cast you out of this land into a land that neither you nor your ancestors have known, and there you shall serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favour.' ¹⁴ "Therefore, behold, the days are coming," declares the Lord, "when it shall no longer be said, 'As the Lord lives, who brought the children of Israel up out of the land of Egypt,' ¹⁵ but, 'As the Lord lives, who brought the children of Israel from the land of the north and from all the lands where he had driven them.' For I will bring them back to their own land which I gave to their ancestors. ¹⁶ "Behold, I am sending for many fishermen," declares the Lord, "and they shall catch them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and from the clefts of the rocks. ¹⁷ For I am aware of all their ways; they are not hidden from me, nor is their iniquity concealed from my sight. ¹⁸ I will repay them double for their iniquity and their sin, because they have defiled my land with the lifeless forms of their detestable idols, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations." ¹⁹ O Lord, my strength and my fortress, my refuge in the day of trouble, to you the nations shall come from the ends of the earth and say, "Surely our ancestors have inherited lies, worthless idols that are of no benefit." ²⁰ Can a person make gods for themselves? But they are not gods! ²¹ "Therefore, behold, I will make them know—this time I will make them know my power and my might; and they shall know that my name is the Lord."

Jeremiah

17 The sin of Judah is etched with an iron tool, engraved with a flint point upon the tablets of their hearts and on the horns of their altars. ² As their children remember, so do they recall their altars and Asherah poles beside the lush trees and on the high hills. ³ My mountain in the countryside, your wealth and all your treasures I shall surrender as plunder, along with your high places, due to sin throughout your territory. ⁴ Through your own actions, you shall relinquish the inheritance I bestowed upon you; I will cause you to serve your adversaries in a land unknown to you, for you have ignited a fire of anger within me which will burn perpetually.

⁵ This is what the Lord declares: "Cursed is the one who places trust in mankind, who relies on mere flesh, and whose heart turns away from the Lord. ⁶ Such a person will be like a shrub in the desert and will not perceive prosperity when it arrives. They will inhabit the parched places of the wilderness, in a salt land uninhabited. ⁷ Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in Him. ⁸ They will be like a tree planted by the waters, extending its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves remain green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never ceases to bear fruit. ⁹ The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately sick; who can comprehend it? ¹⁰ I, the Lord, search the heart and examine the mind, to reward each person according to their ways, according to the results of their deeds. ¹¹ Like a partridge that hatches eggs it did not lay, so is one who amasses wealth unjustly; in the midst of life, it will abandon them, and in the end, they will be revealed as fools. ¹² A glorious throne, established from the beginning, is where our sanctuary resides. ¹³ Lord, you are the hope of Israel; all who forsake you will be put to shame. Those who turn away on earth will be inscribed in the dust, for they have abandoned the Lord, the fountain of living water. ¹⁴ Heal me, Lord, and I shall be healed; save me and I shall be saved, for you are my praise. ¹⁵ They persist in saying to me, "Where is the word of the Lord? Let it come now!" ¹⁶ I have not hastened away from being your shepherd; you know I have not desired the day of disaster. What I have spoken has been before you. ¹⁷ Do not be a dread to me; you are my refuge in times of trouble. ¹⁸ Let my persecutors be put to shame, but let me not be put to shame; let them be dismayed, but let me not be dismayed. Bring upon them the day of calamity; crush them with double destruction. ¹⁹ This is what the Lord said to me: "Go and stand at the Gate of the People, through which the kings of Judah enter and exit, and also at all the other gates of Jerusalem. ²⁰ Say to them, 'Hear the word of the Lord, you kings of Judah and all Judah and all inhabitants of Jerusalem who enter through these gates. ²¹ This is what the Lord says: Take heed for yourselves, and do not carry any load on the Sabbath day or bring it through the gates of Jerusalem. ²² Do not bring a load out of your homes or do any work on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded you ancestors. ²³ Yet they did not listen or incline their ears; they were stiff-necked and would not listen or accept discipline. ²⁴ But if you diligently listen to me, declares the Lord, and bring no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy by not doing any work on it, ²⁵ then kings who sit on David's throne will come through the gates of this city with their officials, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their officials, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever. ²⁶ People will come from the towns of Judah and the areas surrounding Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the lowland, from the hill country, and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings, sacrifices, grain offerings, and incense, and bringing thank offerings to the house of the Lord. ²⁷ But if you do not listen to me to keep the Sabbath day holy by not carrying any load as you come through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it will consume the fortresses of Jerusalem and will not be quenched."

Jeremiah

18 The message that was given to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying: ² "Rise and go down to the potter's house, and there I will convey My words to you." ³ So I went down to the potter's house, and I found him working on the wheel. ⁴ But the vessel he was crafting from the clay was flawed in the potter's hand; so he reformed it into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make. ⁵ The word of the Lord then came to me, saying, ⁶ "Can I not do with you, house of Israel, as this potter does?" declares the Lord. "Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, house of Israel. ⁷ At any moment I may speak concerning a nation or a kingdom, to uproot it, to tear it down, or to destroy it; ⁸ if that nation against which I have spoken turns from its evil, I will relent of the disaster that I intended to bring upon it. ⁹ Or at another moment I may speak concerning a nation or a kingdom, to build it up or to plant it; ¹⁰ if it does evil in My sight by not obeying My voice, then I will reconsider the good I had promised to do for it.

¹¹ Now therefore, speak to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'This is what the Lord says: "Behold, I am shaping a disaster against you and devising a plan against you. Turn now, each one from his evil way, and amend your ways and your deeds!"' ¹² But they will say, 'It is hopeless! We will follow our own plans, and each of us will act according to the stubbornness of his evil heart.' ¹³ Therefore this is what the Lord says: 'Ask among the nations, Who has heard anything like this? The virgin of Israel has done a most dreadful thing. ¹⁴ Does the snow of Lebanon abandon the rocky slopes? Or do the cool waters from distant sources ever cease to flow?' ¹⁵ Yet My people have forgotten Me; they burn incense to worthless idols, and they have stumbled in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in byways, not on a highway. ¹⁶ Their land will become a desolation, an object of perpetual scorn; all who pass by it will be appalled and will shake their heads. ¹⁷ Like a strong east wind, I will scatter them before the enemy; I will turn away from them and not show My face in the day of their calamity. ¹⁸ Then they said, "Come, let us devise plans against Jeremiah. Certainly the law will not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, let us attack him with our tongues, and pay no heed to any of his words." ¹⁹ Hear me, Lord, and listen to what my adversaries are saying! ²⁰ Should good be repaid with evil? For they have dug a pit for me. Remember how I stood before You to speak on their behalf, to turn Your wrath away from them. ²¹ Therefore, deliver their children to famine, and hand them over to the power of the sword; let their wives become childless and widows. Let their men be put to death, their young men struck down by the sword in battle. ²² Let a cry be heard from their houses when You suddenly bring raiders upon them; for they have dug a pit to capture me and have hidden snares for my feet. ²³ But You, Lord, know all their schemes against me to kill me. Do not forgive their iniquity or blot out their sin from Your sight. Let them be overthrown before You; deal with them in the time of Your anger.

19 This is what the Lord says: "Go and purchase a clay jar from a potter, and take some of the elders of the people and some of the senior priests. ² Then proceed to the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate, and there proclaim the words I instruct you, ³ and say, 'Hear the word of the Lord, you kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I am about to bring a calamity upon this place which will cause the ears of everyone who hears of it to tingle. ⁴

Jeremiah

For they have abandoned Me and have made this place alien, burning incense in it to gods neither they nor their ancestors nor the kings of Judah have known, and they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent. ⁵ They have constructed the high places of Baal to burn their children in the fire as offerings to Baal—something I did not command, nor speak of, nor did it enter My mind. ⁶ Therefore, behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when this place will no longer be called Topheth or the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. ⁷ In this place, I will thwart the plans of Judah and Jerusalem. I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, by the hands of those who seek their lives, and I will give their carcasses as food to the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth. ⁸ I will make this city a desolation and an object of derision; everyone who passes by will be appalled and will hiss because of all its wounds. ⁹ I will make them consume the flesh of their sons and daughters, and they will eat one another's flesh due to the siege and the distress with which their enemies, those who seek their lives, will afflict them.'

¹⁰ Then break the jar in the presence of those who accompany you, ¹¹ and say to them, 'This is what the Lord of Hosts says: I will shatter this people and this city just as one breaks a potter's vessel, which cannot be repaired; and they will bury their dead in Topheth until there is no more room. ¹² This is what I will do to this place and its inhabitants, declares the Lord, making this city like Topheth. ¹³ The houses in Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be defiled like this place, Topheth—all the houses on whose rooftops they burned incense to all the starry hosts and poured out drink offerings to other gods.'"

¹⁴ Then Jeremiah returned from Topheth, where the Lord had sent him to prophesy, and he stood in the courtyard of the Lord's house and spoke to all the people, ¹⁵ "This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I am going to bring on this city and all its surrounding towns every disaster I have pronounced against them, because they have stiffened their necks and have not listened to My words."

20 When Pashhur, the priest, son of Immer, who was the chief overseer in the house of the Lord, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things, ² he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and placed in the stocks at the Upper Gate of Benjamin by the temple of the Lord. ³ The following day, when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, "The Lord does not call you Pashhur, but rather Terror on Every Side. ⁴ For this is what the Lord says: 'I will make you a terror to yourself and all your friends; you will witness them fall by the sword of their enemies. I will hand over all Judah to the king of Babylon, who will take them away to Babylon or slay them with the sword. ⁵ I will deliver all the wealth of this city, all its produce, and all its valuables, including the treasures of the kings of Judah, into the hands of their enemies, who will plunder them and carry them off to Babylon. ⁶ And you, Pashhur, along with all who dwell in your house, will go into exile to Babylon. There you will die and be buried, you and all your friends to whom you have falsely prophesied.'"

⁷ Lord, you deceived me, and I was deceived; you overpowered me and prevailed. I have become a laughingstock all day long; everyone mocks me. ⁸ Whenever I speak, I cry out, proclaiming violence and destruction. The word of the Lord has brought me insult and reproach all day long. ⁹ But if I say, "I will not mention him or speak any more in his name," his word is like a burning fire in my heart, shut up in my bones. I am weary of holding it in; indeed, I cannot. ¹⁰ I hear many whispering, "Terror on every side! Denounce him! Let us denounce him!" All my trusted friends are watching for me to slip, saying, "Perhaps he will be deceived, and we will prevail over him and take our revenge on him." ¹¹ But the Lord is with me like a mighty warrior; therefore my persecutors will stumble and not prevail. They will be put to great shame, their disgrace will never be forgotten. ¹² Lord of hosts, you who test the righteous and see the heart and mind, let me see your vengeance on them, for to you I have committed my cause. ¹³ Sing to the Lord, praise the Lord! For he rescues the life of the needy from the hands of the wicked. ¹⁴ May the day of my birth be forgotten! May the day my mother gave birth to me not be celebrated! ¹⁵ Cursed be the man who brought my father the news, who made him very glad, saying, "A son is born to you!" ¹⁶ May that man be like the towns the Lord overthrew without mercy. May he hear cries of distress in the morning, and the sound of battle at noon. ¹⁷ For he did not end my life in the womb, with my mother as my grave, her womb enlarged forever. ¹⁸ Why did I come forth from the womb to see hardship and grief, and to end my days in disgrace?

Jeremiah

21 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur son of Malchijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, saying, ² "Please inquire of the Lord on our behalf, because Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is waging war against us. Perhaps the Lord will act for us according to all His marvellous deeds, so that the enemy will withdraw from us." ³ But Jeremiah said to them, "This is what you shall say to Zedekiah: ⁴ 'This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I am about to turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, which you are using to fight against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who are besieging you outside the wall; and I will gather them into the midst of this city. ⁵ I Myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and a mighty arm, in anger, fury, and great indignation. ⁶ I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both people and animals; they will die from a severe plague. ⁷ Afterwards, declares the Lord, I will hand over Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials, and the people who survive in this city from the plague, sword, and famine, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to their enemies, and to those who seek their lives. He will strike them down with the sword; he will show no mercy, pity, or compassion.'

⁸ "Furthermore, say to this people, 'This is what the Lord says: Behold, I am setting before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹ Whoever remains in this city will die by the sword, famine, or plague; but whoever goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who are besieging you will live, and will have their life as a prize. ¹⁰ For I have determined to bring adversity upon this city and not prosperity, declares the Lord. It will be handed over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.' ¹¹ "Moreover, say to the house of the king of Judah, 'Hear the word of the Lord, ¹² house of David, this is what the Lord says: Administer justice every morning; rescue the one who has been robbed from the hand of the oppressor, so that My wrath will not break out like fire and burn with no one to quench it, because of the evil of your deeds. ¹³ Behold, I am against you, you who dwell in the valley, on the rocky plateau, declares the Lord— you who say, "Who can come down against us? Who can enter our dwellings?"' ¹⁴ But I will punish you according to your deeds, declares the Lord. I will kindle a fire in your forests that will consume all its surroundings."

22 This is what the Lord says: "Go down to the residence of the king of Judah and deliver this message there: ² 'Listen to the word of the Lord, O king of Judah, you who sit upon David's throne, along with your servants and your people who enter these gates. ³ This is what the Lord says: Act with justice and righteousness. Rescue the victim of robbery from the hand of the oppressor. Do no harm or violence to the foreigner, the orphan, or the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴ For if you carefully follow these instructions, then kings who sit on David's throne will enter through the gates of this house, riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by their servants and their people. ⁵ But if you do not heed these words, declares the Lord, I swear by myself that this house will become a desolation.'" ⁶ For this is what the Lord says concerning the house of the king of Judah: "Though you are to me like Gilead, like the summit of Lebanon, I will surely make you a wilderness, cities not inhabited. ⁷ I will appoint destroyers against you, each with his weapons, and they will cut down your finest cedars and cast them into the fire. ⁸ "Many nations will pass by this city and will say to one another, 'Why has the Lord done this to such a great city?' ⁹ And the answer will be: 'Because they abandoned the covenant of the Lord their God and worshipped and served other gods.'" ¹⁰ Do not weep for the dead king or mourn his loss; rather, weep bitterly for him who is exiled, for he will never return nor see his native land again.

¹¹ This is what the Lord declares regarding Shallum son of Josiah, who succeeded his father as king of Judah but has departed: "He will never return. ¹² He will die in the place where they have taken him captive; he will not see this land again." ¹³ "Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his upper rooms by injustice, who makes his neighbour work for nothing, not paying him for his labour. ¹⁴ He says, 'I will build myself a grand house with spacious upper rooms.' So he makes large windows in it, panels it with cedar and paints it in bright red. ¹⁵ Does it make you a king to have more cedar? Did not your father have food and drink? He did what was right and just, so all went well with him.¹⁶ He defended the cause of the poor and needy, and so all went well. Is this not what it means to know me?" declares the Lord.¹⁷ "But your eyes and heart are set only on dishonest gain, on shedding innocent blood, and on oppression and extortion."¹⁸ Thus says the Lord concerning Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: "They will not mourn for him: 'Alas, my brother! Alas, my sister!' They will not mourn for him: 'Alas, my master! Alas, his splendour!'"¹⁹ He will have the burial of a donkey—dragged away and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem."²⁰ "Ascend to Lebanon and cry out, let your voice be heard in Bashan, call out from Abarim, for all your allies are crushed."²¹ I spoke to you in your prosperity, but you said, 'I will not listen!' This has been your way from your youth; you have not obeyed my voice."²² The wind will drive away all your shepherds, and your allies will go into captivity. Then you will be ashamed and disgraced because of all your wickedness."²³ You who dwell in Lebanon, nestled in cedar buildings, how you will groan when pangs come upon you, pain like that of a woman in labour!"²⁴ "As surely as I live," declares the Lord, "even if Coniah son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were a signet ring on my right hand, I would still pull you off."²⁵ I will deliver you into the hands of those who seek your life, those you fear—Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Chaldeans."²⁶ I will hurl you and the mother who bore you into another country, where neither of you was born, and there you will both die."²⁷ You will never return to the land you long to return to."²⁸ Is this man Coniah a despised, shattered pot, an object no one wants? Why will he and his descendants be hurled out, cast into a land they do not know?"²⁹ O earth, O earth, O earth, hear the word of the Lord!"³⁰ This is what the Lord says: "Record this man as childless, a man who will not prosper in his lifetime, for none of his offspring will prosper, none will sit on the throne of David or rule anymore in Judah."

Jeremiah

23 "Woe to the shepherds who are causing the sheep of my pasture to perish and scatter!" declares the Lord.² Therefore, this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says regarding the shepherds who tend my people: "You have scattered my flock and driven them away, and have not cared for them; behold, I will hold you accountable for the evil of your deeds," declares the Lord.³ "Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the countries where I have driven them, and bring them back to their pasture, where they will be fruitful and multiply."⁴ I will appoint shepherds over them who will tend them; and they will no longer be afraid or terrified, nor will any be missing," declares the Lord.⁵ "Behold, the days are coming," declares the Lord, "when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch; a King who will reign wisely and execute justice and righteousness in the land."⁶ In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will live securely; and this is the name by which he will be called: 'The Lord Our Righteousness.'⁷ "Therefore, behold, the days are coming," declares the Lord, "when they will no longer say, 'As the Lord lives, who brought the Israelites up from the land of Egypt,'⁸ but rather, 'As the Lord lives, who brought up and led the descendants of Israel from the north land and from all the countries where he had banished them.' Then they will live in their own land."⁹ Concerning the prophets: My heart is broken within me, all my bones tremble. I am like a drunken man, like one overcome by wine, because of the Lord and his holy words."¹⁰ The land is full of adulterers; because of the curse, the land mourns and the pastures of the wilderness have dried up. Their course is evil and their strength is not right."¹¹ "For both prophet and priest are corrupted; even in my house I have found their wickedness," declares the Lord."¹² "Therefore their path will become slippery; they will be driven into the gloom and fall. I will bring disaster upon them in the year of their punishment," declares the Lord."¹³ "Moreover, among the prophets of Samaria I saw a distressing thing: They prophesied by Baal and led my people Israel astray."¹⁴ Also among the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen a horrible thing: They commit adultery and walk in deceit. They strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no one turns back from his wickedness. They are all like Sodom to me; the people of Jerusalem are like Gomorrah."¹⁵ Therefore, this is what the Lord of hosts says concerning the prophets: "Behold, I will make them eat wormwood and drink poisoned water, for ungodliness has spread from the prophets of Jerusalem throughout the land."¹⁶ This is what the Lord of hosts says: "Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you; they fill you with false hopes. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the mouth of the Lord."¹⁷ They keep saying to those who despise me, 'The Lord has said, "You will have peace.” And to everyone who follows the stubbornness of his heart, they say, ‘No harm will come to you.’¹⁸ But who has stood in the council of the Lord to see and hear his word? Who has listened and heard his word?¹⁹ Behold, the storm of the Lord has gone forth in wrath, a whirlwind swirling down on the heads of the wicked.²⁰ The anger of the Lord will not turn back until he has performed and carried out the purposes of his heart. In the last days you will understand it clearly.²¹ I did not send these prophets, yet they ran with their message; I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied.²² But if they had stood in my council, they would have proclaimed my words to my people and turned them back from their evil way and from their evil deeds.²³ “Am I a God who is near,” declares the Lord, “and not also a God far off?”²⁴ Can anyone hide in secret places so that I cannot see them?” declares the Lord. “Do I not fill heaven and earth?” declares the Lord.²⁵ “I have heard what the prophets say who prophesy lies in my name, saying, ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’²⁶ How long will this continue in the hearts of these deceitful prophets, who prophesy the illusions of their own minds?²⁷ They believe that the dreams they share with each other will cause my people to forget my name, just as their ancestors did through Baal worship.²⁸ Let the prophet who has a dream recount the dream, but let the one who has my word speak it faithfully. For what does straw have in common with grain?” declares the Lord.²⁹ “Is not my word like fire,” declares the Lord, “and like a hammer that shatters a rock?”³⁰ “Therefore,” declares the Lord, “I am against the prophets who steal words from one another supposedly from me.³¹ Yes,” declares the Lord, “I am against the prophets who wag their own tongues and declare, ‘The Lord declares.’³² Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams,” declares the Lord. “They tell them and lead my people astray with their reckless lies, yet I did not send them or appoint them. They do not benefit these people in the least,” declares the Lord.³³ “When this people, or a prophet or a priest, asks you, ‘What is the message from the Lord?’ say to them, ‘What message? I will forsake you,’ declares the Lord.³⁴ If a prophet or a priest or anyone else claims, ‘This is a message from the Lord,’ I will punish that person and their household.³⁵ This is what each of you will say to your neighbour and to your brother: ‘What has the Lord answered?’

Jeremiah

or ‘What has the Lord spoken?’³⁶ But you must no longer mention ‘a message from the Lord,’ because each one’s word becomes their own message. You have perverted the words of the living God, the Lord of hosts, our God.³⁷ This is what you will say to a prophet: ‘What has the Lord answered you?’ or ‘What has the Lord spoken?’³⁸ And if you say, ‘The message of the Lord!’ for that reason the Lord says: ‘Because you have used this phrase, “The message of the Lord!” I told you not to say, “The message of the Lord!”’³⁹ Therefore, behold, I will surely forget you and cast you out of my presence, along with the city I gave to you and your ancestors.⁴⁰ I will bring upon you everlasting disgrace—an everlasting shame that will not be forgotten.”

24 After Jehoiachin, the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, along with the officials and the craftsmen and artisans of Judah, were carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the Lord showed me two baskets of figs placed before the temple of the Lord.² One basket contained very good figs, like those that ripen early; the other basket contained very bad figs, so bad they could not be eaten due to their rottenness.³ Then the Lord asked me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” I replied, “Figs: the good ones are very good, but the bad ones are so bad they cannot be eaten.”⁴ The message from the Lord came to me, saying,⁵ “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘Like these good figs, I will regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I have sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans.⁶ I will watch over them for their good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down; I will plant them and not uproot them.’⁷ I will grant them an understanding heart to Recognise Me as the Lord. They will be My people, and I will be their God, for they will return to Me wholeheartedly.⁸ ‘But like the bad figs, which cannot be eaten due to their rottenness,’ says the Lord, ‘so will I treat Zedekiah, king of Judah, his officials, and the remnant of Jerusalem, whether they remain in this land or dwell in Egypt.’⁹ I will make them an object of horror and a disgrace to all the kingdoms of the earth, a reproach and a byword, a taunt and a curse, wherever I scatter them.¹⁰ I will bring the sword, famine, and plague upon them until they are removed from the land I gave to them and their ancestors.

Jeremiah

25 The message came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. ² The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: ³ “From the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah, even until this day, these twenty-three years the word of the Lord has come to me, and I have spoken to you persistently, but you have not listened. ⁴ And the Lord has sent to you all his servants the prophets persistently, but you have not listened or inclined your ear to hear. ⁵ saying, ‘Turn now, each of you, from your evil ways and from the evil of your deeds, and dwell in the land that the Lord has given to you and your ancestors for ever and ever; ⁶ and do not follow other gods to serve and worship them, and do not provoke me to anger with the work of your hands, then I will do you no harm.’ ⁷ However, you have not heeded me,” declares the Lord, “and have provoked me to anger with the work of your hands, bringing harm upon yourselves. ⁸ Therefore this is what the Lord Almighty says: ‘Because you have not obeyed my words, ⁹ behold, I will summon all the peoples of the north,’ declares the Lord, ‘and I will send for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, my servant, and bring them against this land and its inhabitants and against all these surrounding nations. I will utterly destroy them and make them an object of horror and scorn, and an everlasting desolation. ¹⁰ Moreover, I will silence from them the voice of joy and gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp. ¹¹ This whole land will become a desolate wasteland, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years. ¹² But when the seventy years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation,’ declares the Lord, ‘for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and make it an everlasting desolation. ¹³ I will bring upon that land all the words I have pronounced against it, all that is written in this book which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴ They will be subjugated by many nations and great kings; I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands.’” ¹⁵ For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, said to me: “Take this cup of the wine of my wrath from my hand and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it. ¹⁶ When they drink it, they will stagger and go mad because of the sword I am sending among them.” ¹⁷ So I took the cup from the Lord’s hand and gave it to all the nations to whom he sent me: ¹⁸ Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, its kings and officials, to make them a ruin and an object of horror, scorn, and a curse, as it is today; ¹⁹ The ruler of Egypt, along with his servants, officials, and all his people; ²⁰ and all the foreign people there; all the kings of the land of Uz; all the kings of the land of the Philistines (those of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod); ²¹ The people of Edom, Moab, and the descendants of Ammon; ²² the rulers of Tyre, the rulers of Sidon, and the leaders of the coastlands across the sea; ²³ Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who have the corners of their hair cut; ²⁴ all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the foreign people who live in the desert; ²⁵ all of Zimri’s kings, all of Elam’s kings, and all of Media’s kings; ²⁶ and all the kings of the north, near and far, one after another—all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. And after all of them, the king of Sheshak will drink it too. ²⁷ “Then you shall say to them, ‘This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Drink, be drunk, vomit, and fall to rise no more because of the sword I am sending among you.’” ²⁸ But if they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink, say to them, ‘This is what the Lord Almighty says: You must certainly drink it!’ ²⁹ See, I am beginning to bring disaster on the city that bears my Name, and will you indeed go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am summoning a sword against all who live on the earth,’ declares the Lord Almighty. ³⁰ “Therefore you shall prophesy against them all these words, and say to them: ‘The Lord will roar from on high; he will thunder from his holy dwelling and roar mightily against his land. He will shout like those who tread the grapes, against all who live on the earth. ³¹ The noise will resound to the ends of the earth, for the Lord has a controversy with the nations; he will bring judgment on all humanity and put the wicked to the sword,’ declares the Lord. ³² This is what the Lord Almighty says: ‘Look! Disaster is spreading from nation to nation; a mighty storm is rising from the farthest parts of the earth.’” ³³ At that time those slain by the Lord will be everywhere—from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned, gathered, or buried, but will be like dung on the ground. ³⁴ Wail, you shepherds, and cry out; roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock. For your time to be slaughtered has come; you will fall like the finest of the rams. ³⁵ The shepherds will find no refuge, the leaders of the flock no place to escape. ³⁶ Listen to the cry of the shepherds, the wailing of the leaders of the flock, for the Lord is destroying their pasture. ³⁷ The tranquil pastures will be laid waste because of the fierce anger of the Lord. ³⁸ Like a lion he has left his lair; for their land has become desolate because of the oppressing sword and because of the Lord's fierce anger.

Jeremiah

26 At the start of Jehoiakim's reign, son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the Lord: ² "This is what the Lord says: Stand in the courtyard of the Lord's house and proclaim to all the towns of Judah who come to worship in the Lord's house all the words I command you to speak to them. Do not leave out a single word. ³ Perhaps they will listen and each person will turn from their evil way. Then I will relent from the disaster I intend to bring upon them due to the evil of their deeds. ⁴ Tell them, 'This is what the Lord declares: If you do not listen to me and follow my law, which I have set before you, ⁵ and if you do not heed the words of my servants the prophets, whom I have sent to you persistently, though you have not listened, ⁶ then I will make this house like Shiloh, and this city will become a curse among all the nations of the earth.'" ⁷ The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the Lord. ⁸ When Jeremiah finished delivering all the words the Lord had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests, the prophets, and all the people seized him, saying, "You must die! ⁹ Why do you prophesy in the Lord's name that this house will be like Shiloh, and this city will be desolate and without inhabitants?" And all the people gathered around Jeremiah in the house of the Lord. ¹⁰ When the officials of Judah heard these things, they went up from the king's house to the house of the Lord and took their seats at the entrance of the New Gate of the Lord's house. ¹¹ Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and to all the people, "This man deserves a death sentence because he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears!" ¹² Then Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people: "The Lord sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the words you have heard. ¹³ Now reform your ways and your deeds and obey the Lord your God. Then the Lord will relent from the disaster he has pronounced against you. ¹⁴ As for me, I am in your hands; do with me as you see fit and right. ¹⁵ But be sure of this, if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and its inhabitants, for in truth the Lord has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing." ¹⁶ Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man does not deserve a death sentence, for he has spoken to us in the name of the Lord our God." ¹⁷ Some of the elders of the land stood up and addressed the entire assembly of the people, ¹⁸ "Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He declared to all the people of Judah, 'This is what the Lord of Hosts says: "Zion will be ploughed like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of ruins, and the temple hill a thicket of trees.'" ¹⁹ Did Hezekiah king of Judah or anyone in Judah put him to death? Did not Hezekiah fear the Lord and seek his favour? And did not the Lord relent of the disaster he had pronounced against them? We are about to bring a great evil upon ourselves!" ²⁰ Now there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the Lord, Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim, and he prophesied against this city and this land in words similar to those of Jeremiah. ²¹ When King Jehoiakim and all his officers and officials heard his words, the king sought to put him to death. But Uriah heard of it and fled in fear to Egypt. ²² King Jehoiakim, however, sent men to Egypt: Elnathan son of Akbor and others with him. ²³ They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who struck him down with a sword and his body was thrown into the burial place of the common people. ²⁴ Nevertheless, Ahikam son of Shaphan supported Jeremiah, so he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

27 At the start of the reign of Zedekiah, son of Josiah, king of Judah, this message came to Jeremiah from the Lord: ² This is what the Lord instructed me: "Craft a yoke with straps and bars and place it upon your neck. ³ Send a message to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon through the envoys who have arrived in Jerusalem to see Zedekiah, king of Judah. ⁴ Direct them to deliver this to their masters: 'This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, declares: "Relay this to your masters: ⁵ With my immense power and outstretched arm, I created the earth, mankind, and the animals that dwell upon it, and I grant it to whomever I choose. ⁶ Now I have handed over all these lands to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, my servant, and I have also made the animals of the field subject to him. ⁷ All nations shall serve him, his son, and his grandson, until the time comes for his own land; then many nations and great kings will subjugate him. ⁸ "If any nation or kingdom refuses to serve Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, or to submit under his yoke, I will punish that nation with the sword, famine, and plague, declares the Lord, until I have destroyed it by his hand. ⁹ Therefore, do not heed your prophets, diviners, dreamers, soothsayers, or sorcerers who say to you, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon.' ¹⁰ They are prophesying falsehoods to you, which will lead to your removal from your land; I will drive you out and you will perish. ¹¹ But any nation that submits to the yoke of the king of Babylon and serves him, I will allow to remain in its own land to cultivate it and reside there, declares the Lord." ¹² I delivered the same message to Zedekiah, king of Judah, saying, "Submit to the yoke of the king of Babylon; serve him and his people, and you shall live. ¹³ Why should you and your people die by the sword, famine, and plague, as the Lord has warned any nation that does not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴ Do not listen to the words of the prophets who say to you, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying falsehoods to you. ¹⁵ 'I have not sent them,' declares the Lord. 'They are prophesying falsely in my name. Consequently, I will drive you away and you will perish, along with the prophets who prophesy to you.'" ¹⁶ Then I addressed the priests and all the people, saying, "This is what the Lord says: Do not listen to the prophets who claim, 'Very soon now the articles from the Lord's house will be returned from Babylon.' They are prophesying falsehoods to you. ¹⁷ Do not heed them. Serve the king of Babylon, and you will live. Why should this city become desolate? ¹⁸ If they are indeed prophets and have the word of the Lord, let them plead with the Lord of Hosts that the articles remaining in the house of the Lord, the palace of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem not be taken to Babylon. ¹⁹ For this is what the Lord of Hosts says concerning the pillars, the bronze Sea, the movable stands, and the other articles that are left in this city, ²⁰ which Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, left behind when he exiled Jeconiah, son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem— ²¹ Yes, this is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says concerning the items remaining in the house of the Lord, the palace of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem: ²² 'They will be taken to Babylon and will remain there until the day I attend to them,' declares the Lord. 'Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.'"

Jeremiah

28 In the same year, at the start of Zedekiah king of Judah's reign, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, Hananiah the prophet, son of Azzur, from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the Lord in the presence of the priests and all the people, saying: ² "This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, declares: 'I have shattered the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³ Within two years I will restore to this place all the articles of the Lord's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took from here and brought to Babylon. ⁴ I will also bring back to this place Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the exiles of Judah who went to Babylon,' declares the Lord, 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'" ⁵ Jeremiah the prophet addressed Hananiah the prophet in the presence of the priests and all the people who were gathered in the house of the Lord, ⁶ and said, "Amen! May the Lord do so! May the Lord fulfil the words you have prophesied by bringing back the articles of the Lord's house and all the exiles from Babylon to this place. ⁷ However, hear now this word that I am about to speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people: ⁸ The prophets who came before you and me from ancient times prophesied against many lands and great kingdoms, concerning war, disaster, and plague. ⁹ But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognised as truly sent by the Lord only if his prediction comes to pass." ¹⁰ Then Hananiah the prophet removed the yoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it. ¹¹ And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "This is what the Lord says: 'In the same way, within two years I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all the nations.'" At this, Jeremiah the prophet went on his way. ¹² After Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah: ¹³ “Go and tell Hananiah, ‘This is what the Lord says: You have broken a wooden yoke, but in its place you will have a yoke of iron.’ ¹⁴ For this is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I will put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve him. I will even give him control over the wild animals.” ¹⁵ Then Jeremiah the prophet said to Hananiah the prophet, “Listen, Hananiah! The Lord has not sent you, and you have made this people trust in falsehood.” ¹⁶ Therefore, this is what the Lord says: ‘Behold, I am about to remove you from the face of the earth. This year you will die, because you have preached rebellion against the Lord.’” ¹⁷ So Hananiah the prophet died in the seventh month of that same year.

Jeremiah

29 These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders of the exile, the priests, the prophets, and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. ² (This happened after King Jeconiah and the queen mother, the court officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the artisans had left Jerusalem.) ³ The letter was given to Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiyah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. It stated: ⁴ This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says to all the exiles whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵ “Build houses and dwell in them; plant gardens and consume their produce. ⁶ Take wives and have sons and daughters; find wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, so that they too may have sons and daughters. Multiply there and do not diminish. ⁷ Seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf; for in its welfare you will find your welfare.” ⁸ For thus says the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel: “Do not be deceived by the prophets and diviners who are among you, and do not heed the dreams you cause them to dream. ⁹ They are prophesying falsely to you in My name. I have not sent them,” declares the Lord. ¹⁰ For thus says the Lord: “When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will visit you and fulfil My good promise to return you to this place. ¹¹ For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and keep you from harm, to give you a future and a hope. ¹² Then you will call upon Me, come to me and pray, and I will listen to you. ¹³ You will seek Me, and you shall find Me, when you choose to search for Me with all your heart. ¹⁴ I will let Myself be found by you,” declares the Lord, “and I will restore your fortunes and gather you from all the nations and places where I have driven you,” declares the Lord, “and will bring you back to the place from which I sent you into exile.” ¹⁵ Because you have indeed said: “The Lord has raised up prophets for us in Babylon”— ¹⁶ this is what the Lord says concerning the king who sits on David’s throne and all the people who remain in this city, your fellow citizens who did not go with you into exile— ¹⁷ this is what the Lord of Hosts says: “Behold, I am sending the sword, famine, and plague against them, and I will make them like figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten. ¹⁸ I will pursue them with the sword, famine, and plague, and will make them an object of terror to all the kingdoms of the earth, a curse and a horror, a hissing and a reproach, among all the nations where I have driven them, ¹⁹ because they have not listened to My words,” declares the Lord, “words that I sent to them again and again by My servants the prophets; and you exiles have not listened either,” declares the Lord. ²⁰ So, listen to the word of the Lord, all you exiles whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²¹ This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says concerning Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying falsehoods to you in My name: “Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will slay them before your eyes. ²² Because of them, this curse will be used by all the exiles from Judah in Babylon: ‘May the Lord make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire,’ ²³ for they have committed an outrage in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours’ wives, and have spoken lies in My name, which I did not command. I am the one who knows and am a witness,” declares the Lord. ²⁴ Speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, ²⁵ This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: “Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, and to all the priests, saying, ²⁶ ‘The Lord has made you priest instead of Jehoiada, to be the overseer in the house of the Lord, to put any madman who prophesies into the stocks and neck-irons.²⁷ So why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who poses as a prophet among you?²⁸ For he has sent this message to us in Babylon: "The exile will be long; build houses and dwell in them, and plant gardens and eat their produce."²⁹ Zephaniah the priest, however, read this letter to Jeremiah the prophet.³⁰ Then the message from the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,³¹ "Send this message to all the exiles: 'This is what the Lord says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: "Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, though I did not send him, and has led you to trust in lies,"³² therefore this is what the Lord says: "Behold, I am going to punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants; he will have no one remaining among this people, nor will he see the good that I will do for My people," declares the Lord, "because he has preached rebellion against Me."³³

Jeremiah

30 The message of the Lord was given to Jeremiah, saying:² "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'Record all the words I have spoken to you in a book.'³ For behold, the days are coming,' declares the Lord, 'when I will restore the fortunes of My people, Israel and Judah. I will also bring them back to the land I gave to their ancestors, and they shall possess it,' says the Lord."⁴ This is what the Lord communicated about Israel and Judah:⁵ "For this is what the Lord says: 'I have heard cries of terror, of fear, and not of peace.'⁶ Ask now, and see: Can a man give birth? Why then do I see every man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labour, and why have all faces turned pale?⁷ Alas, how dreadful that day will be! There is none like it. It is the time of Jacob's trouble, yet he will be saved from it.'⁸ 'On that day,' declares the Lord of Hosts, 'I will break the yoke from their necks and tear off their bonds; foreigners will no longer enslave them.'⁹ They will instead serve the Lord their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

¹⁰ 'So do not fear, Jacob My servant,' declares the Lord, 'and do not be dismayed, Israel; for I will save you from afar, and your descendants from the land of their captivity. Jacob will return and be at peace, without anxiety, and no one will make him afraid.'¹¹ For I am with you,' declares the Lord, 'to save you.

Though I will completely destroy all the nations where I have scattered you, I will not destroy you completely. I will discipline you justly, yet I will not leave you unpunished.'¹² "For this is what the Lord says: 'Your wound is incurable, your injury beyond healing.'¹³ There is no one to advocate for you, no remedy for your sore, no healing for you.'¹⁴ All your lovers have forgotten you; they do not seek you. I have wounded you as an enemy would, with the punishment of a cruel one, because your guilt is great and your sins are numerous.'¹⁵ Why do you cry out over your wound, your pain that has no cure? Because your wrongdoing is great and your sins are many, I have done these things to you.'¹⁶ Therefore, all who devour you will be devoured; all your adversaries, every one of them, will go into captivity; those who plunder you will become plunder, and all who make spoil of you I will despoil.'¹⁷ However, I will restore you to health and heal your wounds,' declares the Lord, 'because you are called an outcast, Zion for whom no one cares.'¹⁸ "This is what the Lord says: 'Behold, I will restore the fortunes of Jacob's tents and have compassion on his dwellings; the city will be rebuilt on its ruins, and the palace will stand in its rightful place.'¹⁹ From them will come songs of thanksgiving and the sound of rejoicing. I will multiply them, and they will not be diminished; I will honour them, and they will not be disdained.'²⁰ Their children will thrive as in days of old, and their community will be established before Me; I will punish all who oppress them.'²¹ Their leader will be one of their own, and their ruler will come from their midst. I will bring him near, and he will approach Me— for who would dare to risk his life to approach Me?' declares the Lord.²² 'Thus you shall be My people, and I shall be your God.'²³ Behold, the storm of the Lord! Wrath has gone forth, a sweeping tempest; it will whirl upon the heads of the wicked.'²⁴ The fierce anger of the Lord will not turn back until He has performed and accomplished the purposes of His heart. In the latter days you will understand this.

31 "In those days," declares the Lord, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people."² This is what the Lord says: "The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness; I came to give rest to Israel."³ The Lord appeared to us long ago, saying, "I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore

Jeremiah

I have drawn you with unfailing kindness.”⁴ “I will build you up again, and you, Virgin of Israel, will be rebuilt. You will take up your tambourines again and go out to dance with the joyful.”⁵ “Again you will plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria; the farmers will plant them and enjoy the fruit.”⁶ “For there will be a day when watchmen cry out on the hills of Ephraim, ‘Arise, let us go up to Zion, to the Lord our God.’”⁷ This is what the Lord says: “Sing with joy for Jacob; shout for the foremost of the nations. Proclaim, give praise, and say, ‘Lord, save your people, the remnant of Israel.’”⁸ “Behold, I will bring them from the land of the north and gather them from the ends of the earth. Among them will be the blind and the lame, pregnant women and those in labour; a great assembly will return.”⁹ “They will come with weeping; by pleading I will bring them. I will lead them beside streams of water on a straight path where they will not stumble, for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.”¹⁰ “Listen to the word of the Lord, you nations; announce it in distant coastlands: ‘He who scattered Israel will gather them and will watch over his flock like a shepherd.’”¹¹ “For the Lord will ransom Jacob and redeem them from the hand of those stronger than they.”¹² “They will come and shout for joy on the heights of Zion; they will be radiant over the bounty of the Lord—over the grain, the new wine and the oil, and over the young of the flocks and herds. Their life will be like a well-watered garden, and they will never languish again.”¹³ “Then young women will rejoice in the dance, and young men and old as well. I will turn their mourning into joy; I will comfort them and give them joy instead of sorrow.”¹⁴ “I will provide the priests with plenty, and my people will be filled with my goodness,” declares the Lord.¹⁵ This is what the Lord says: “A voice is heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more.”¹⁶ This is what the Lord says: “Hold back your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears, for your work will be rewarded,” declares the Lord. “They will return from the land of the enemy.”¹⁷ “So there is hope for your future,” declares the Lord. “Your children will return to their own land.”¹⁸ “I have surely heard Ephraim grieving, ‘You disciplined me like an unruly calf, and I have been corrected. Restore me, and I will return, for you are the Lord my God.’”¹⁹ “After I strayed, I repented; after I was instructed, I slapped my thigh. I was ashamed and humiliated because I bore the disgrace of my youth.”²⁰ “Is not Ephraim my dear son, the child in whom I delight? Though I often speak against him, I still remember him. Therefore my heart yearns for him; I will surely have mercy on him,” declares the Lord.²¹ “Set up road signs; put up guideposts. Direct your mind to the highway, the way by which you went. Return, Virgin Israel, return to your towns.”²² “How long will you wander, unfaithful daughter Israel? For the Lord has created a new thing on earth—a woman will shelter a man.”²³ This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “When I restore their fortunes, the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: ‘The Lord bless you, O place of righteousness, O holy hill!’”²⁴ “The inhabitants of Judah and all its towns will live together—farmers and those who move about with their flocks.”²⁵ “For I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint.”²⁶ At this point, I awoke and looked around, and my sleep had been pleasant to me.²⁷ “Behold, the days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of people and animals.”²⁸ “Just as I watched over them to uproot and tear down, to overthrow, destroy and bring disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant,” declares the Lord.²⁹ “In those days, it will no longer be said, ‘The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’”³⁰ “Instead, each person will die for their own sin; whoever eats sour grapes—their own teeth will be set on edge.”³¹ “Behold, the days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.”³² “It will not resemble the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they broke my covenant, though I was like a husband to them,” declares the Lord.³³ “For this is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days,” declares the Lord: “I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.”³⁴ “No longer will they teach their neighbour, or say to one another, ‘Know the Lord,’ for they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest,” declares the Lord. “For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.”³⁵ This is what the Lord says, he who appoints the sun to shine by day, who decrees the moon and stars to shine by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—the Lord Almighty is his name: ³⁶ “Only if these decrees vanish from my sight,” declares the Lord, “will the descendants of Israel ever cease to be a nation before me.” ³⁷ This is what the Lord says: “Only if the heavens above can be measured and the foundations of the earth below be explored will I reject all the descendants of Israel because of all they have done,” declares the Lord. ³⁸ “Behold, the days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when the city will be rebuilt for the Lord from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.” ³⁹ “The measuring line will go out straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to Goah.” ⁴⁰ “The entire valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown, and all the terraces out to the Kidron Valley on the east as far as the corner of the Horse Gate, will be holy to the Lord. The city will never again be uprooted or demolished.”

Jeremiah

32 The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah during the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. ² At that time, the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was confined in the courtyard of the guard at the royal palace of Judah. ³ Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him, saying, “Why do you prophesy, saying, ‘This is what the Lord says: Behold, I am about to give this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it; ⁴ and Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the Babylonians but will certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon, and will speak with him face to face and see him eye to eye. ⁵ He will lead Zedekiah to Babylon, where he will stay until I attend to him, declares the Lord. If you fight against the Babylonians, you will not succeed.’” ⁶ Jeremiah said, “The message from the Lord came to me, saying, ⁷ ‘Behold, Hanamel son of Shallum your uncle is going to come to you and say, “Buy my field at Anathoth, because as nearest relative it is your right of redemption to buy it.”’ ⁸ Then, just as the Lord had said, my cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard and said, ‘Please buy my field at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. Since it is your right to redeem it and possess it, buy it for yourself.’ Then I knew that this was the word of the Lord. ⁹ So I purchased the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel and weighed out for him seventeen shekels of silver. ¹⁰ I signed and sealed the deed, had it witnessed, and weighed the silver on the scales. ¹¹ I took the deed of purchase—the sealed copy containing the terms and conditions, as well as the open copy— ¹² and I gave this deed to Baruch son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel and of the witnesses who had signed the deed, as well as all the Jews sitting in the courtyard of the guard. ¹³ In their presence, I instructed Baruch, saying, ¹⁴ ‘This is what the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Take these documents, both the sealed and open copies of the deed of purchase, and put them in a clay jar so they will last a long time. ¹⁵ For this is what the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Houses, fields, and vineyards will once more be acquired in this land.’ ¹⁶ Once I had handed the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the Lord, saying, ¹⁷ ‘Ah, Sovereign Lord, You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm. Nothing is too difficult for You, ¹⁸ who shows love to thousands but repays the wrongdoing of fathers into the laps of their children after them. Great and mighty God, whose name is the Lord of hosts, ¹⁹ great in counsel and mighty in deed, whose eyes are open to all the ways of mankind; You reward each person according to their conduct and as their deeds deserve. ²⁰ You performed signs and wonders in Egypt and have continued them to this day, in Israel and among all mankind, and have gained the renown that remains Yours. ²¹ You delivered Your people Israel from Egypt with miraculous signs and wonders, by Your powerful hand and outstretched arm, and with awe-inspiring acts. ²² You gave them this land You had promised to their ancestors, a land rich and abundant. ²³ They came in and took possession of it, but they did not obey Your voice or follow Your law; they did not do what You commanded them to do. So You brought all this disaster upon them. ²⁴ See how the siege ramps are built up to take the city. Because of the sword, famine, and plague, the city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians who are attacking it. What You have spoken has come to pass, as You now see. ²⁵ Yet You have said to me, Sovereign Lord, ‘Buy the field with silver and have the transaction witnessed,’ although the city has been handed over to the Babylonians.” ²⁶ Afterwards, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁷ “I am the Lord, the God of all mankind. Is anything too difficult for Me? ²⁸ Therefore this is what the Lord says: Behold, I am about to give this city into the hands of the Babylonians and to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will capture it. ²⁹ The Babylonians who are fighting against this city will come in and set it on fire; they will burn it down, along with the houses where the people have aroused My anger by burning incense on the roofs to Baal and by pouring out drink offerings to other gods. ³⁰ The people of Israel and Judah have done nothing but evil in My sight from their youth; indeed, the people of Israel have done nothing but provoke Me to anger with the work of their hands, declares the Lord. ³¹ From the day it was built until now, this city has so provoked My anger and wrath that I must remove it from My sight. ³² The people of Israel and Judah have stirred My anger by all the evil they have done—they, their kings and officials, their priests and prophets, the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem. ³³ They have turned their backs to Me and not their faces; though I taught them again and again, they would not listen or respond to discipline. ³⁴ They set up their detestable images in the house that bears My Name and defiled it. ³⁵ They constructed high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to offer their sons and daughters to Molek, though I never commanded—nor did it enter My mind—that they should commit such an abomination and thus lead Judah into sin. ³⁶ Now therefore, this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says concerning this city of which you say, ‘It has been handed over to the king of Babylon by sword, famine, and plague’: ³⁷ Behold, I will surely gather them from all the lands where I have driven them in My furious anger and great wrath; I will bring them back to this place and let them live in safety. ³⁸ They shall be My people, and I will be their God. ³⁹ I will give them one heart and one way, so that they will always fear Me, for their own good and for the good of their children after them. ⁴⁰ I will establish an everlasting covenant with them: I will never cease doing good to them, and I will inspire them to fear Me, so that they will never turn away from Me. ⁴¹ I will take joy in doing them good and will assuredly plant them in this land with all My heart and soul. ⁴² For this is what the Lord says: Just as I have brought all this great calamity on this people, so I will give them all the prosperity I have promised them. ⁴³ Fields will once more be bought in this land of which you say, ‘It is a desolate waste, without people or animals, for it has been given into the hands of the Babylonians.’ ⁴⁴ Fields will be bought for silver, and deeds will be signed, sealed, and witnessed in the territory of Benjamin, in the areas surrounding Jerusalem, in the towns of Judah, in the towns of the hill country, in the towns of the western foothills, and in the towns of the Negev, because I will restore their fortunes, declares the Lord.”

Jeremiah

33 The message from the Lord came to Jeremiah a second time while he was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, saying, ² “This is what the Lord says, He who made the earth, the Lord who formed it and established it—His name is the Lord: ³ ‘Call to Me and I will answer you, and I will show you great and unsearchable things you do not know.’ ⁴ For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says concerning the houses of this city and the royal palaces of Judah that have been torn down to defend against the siege ramps and the sword: ⁵ ‘While they come to fight the Babylonians, they will fill the houses with the bodies of those I have slain in My anger and wrath. I have hidden My face from this city because of all its wickedness. ⁶ Nevertheless, I will bring health and healing to it; I will heal My people and will reveal to them an abundance of peace and truth. ⁷ I will restore the fortunes of Judah and Israel and rebuild them as they were at first. ⁸ I will cleanse them from all the sins they have committed against Me and will forgive all their sins of rebellion against Me. ⁹ Then this city will bring Me joy, praise, and honour before all nations on earth that hear of all the good I do for it; and they will be in awe and tremble at the abundant prosperity and peace I provide for it.’ ¹⁰ “This is what the Lord says: ‘In this place, of which you say, “It is a desolate waste, without people or animals,” in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are deserted, without people or animals, there will again be heard ¹¹ the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of the bride and bridegroom, and the voices of those who bring thank offerings to the house of the Lord, saying, “Give thanks to the Lord Almighty, for the Lord is good; His love endures forever.” For I will restore the fortunes of the land as they were before,’ says the Lord. ¹² “This is what the Lord Almighty says: ‘In this place, which is desolate and without people or animals, in all its towns there will again be pastures for shepherds to rest their flocks.¹³ In the towns of the hill country, the western foothills, and the Negev, in the territory of Benjamin, in the villages around Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah, flocks will once more pass under the care of the one who counts them,' says the Lord.¹⁴ 'The time is coming,' declares the Lord, 'when I will fulfill the good promise I made to the people of Israel and Judah.¹⁵ During those days and at that time, I will cause a righteous Branch to emerge from David's line; He will execute justice and righteousness in the land.¹⁶ In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. This is the name by which it will be called: The Lord Our Righteousness.'¹⁷ For this is what the Lord says: 'David will never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel,¹⁸ nor will the Levitical priests ever lack a man to stand before Me to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings, and to present sacrifices continually.'¹⁹ The Lord's message came to Jeremiah, saying,²⁰ "This is what the Lord says: 'If you can break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night, so that day and night do not occur at their appointed times,²¹ then My covenant with David My servant—and My covenant with the Levites who are priests ministering before Me—can be broken, so that David will no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne.²² I will make the descendants of David My servant and the Levites who minister before Me as numerous as the stars in the sky and as immeasurable as the sand on the seashore.'²³ The word from the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,²⁴ "Have you not noticed what these people are saying, 'The Lord has rejected the two families He chose'? So they despise My people and no longer regard them as a nation.²⁵ This is what the Lord says: 'If I have not set My covenant with day and night and established the laws of heaven and earth,²⁶ then I will disregard the descendants of Jacob and David My servant and will not choose one of his sons to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and have compassion on them.'"

Jeremiah

34

The message came to Jeremiah from the Lord while Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and all his army, along with all the kingdoms and peoples under his dominion, were waging war against Jerusalem and all its towns:² "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Go to

Zedekiah, king of Judah, and tell him, 'This is what the Lord says: Behold, I am about to deliver this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will set it ablaze.³ You will not escape from his grasp but will certainly be captured and handed over to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes, and he will converse with you face to face, and you will be taken to Babylon.⁴ However, listen to the word of the Lord, Zedekiah king of Judah! The Lord has spoken concerning you: You will not meet your end by the sword;⁵ you will die peacefully. As spices were burned for your ancestors, the former kings before you, so they will burn spices for you and lament, "Alas, my lord!" I have spoken this word, declares the Lord.'⁶ Then Jeremiah the prophet relayed all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah, in Jerusalem,⁷ while the army of the king of Babylon was engaged in battle against Jerusalem and the remaining cities of Judah, namely Lachish and Azekah, as these were the only fortified cities left in Judah.⁸ The word came to Jeremiah from the Lord after King Zedekiah had established a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to proclaim liberty for the slaves.⁹ Each person was to free their Hebrew slaves, both male and female, so that no one would hold a fellow Hebrew in servitude.¹⁰ All the officials and people who had entered into this covenant agreed to release their male and female slaves and no longer keep them in bondage. They complied and set them free.¹¹ However, they later changed their minds and took back the slaves they had liberated, forcing them into servitude once more.¹² Subsequently, the word of the Lord was delivered to Jeremiah:¹³ "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying,¹⁴ 'At the end of seven years, each of you must free any fellow Hebrews who have sold themselves to you. After they have served you for six years, you must release them.' But your ancestors did not listen to me or pay heed.¹⁵ Recently, you turned and did what was right in my sight: Each of you proclaimed freedom to your neighbour, and you made a covenant before me in the house that bears my Name.¹⁶ But now you have turned and profaned my name; each of you has taken back the male and female slaves you had set free to go as they pleased. You have brought them back into subjection as your slaves.¹⁷ Therefore, this is what the Lord says: You have not obeyed me by proclaiming liberty, each to his brother and neighbour. So now I proclaim 'liberty' for you, declares the Lord—"liberty" to the sword, to plague, and to famine. I will make you a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.¹⁸ Those who have violated my covenant and have not fulfilled the terms of the covenant they made before me, I will treat like the calf they cut in two and then passed between its parts.¹⁹ The leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf,²⁰ I will deliver into the hands of their enemies who seek their lives. Their corpses will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth.²¹ I will hand over Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials to their enemies who seek their lives, to the army of the king of Babylon, which has withdrawn from you.²² Behold, I am going to give the command, declares the Lord, and I will bring them back to this city. They will fight against it, capture it, and set it on fire; and I will make the towns of Judah desolate, without inhabitant."

Jeremiah

35 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord during the reign of Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, king of Judah: ² "Go to the house of the Rekabites and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the Lord, into one of the side rooms, and offer them wine to drink."³ So I took Jaazaniah, son of Jeremiah, son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons, the entire household of the Rekabites,⁴ and brought them into the house of the Lord, into the room of the sons of Hanan, son of Igdaiah, the man of God, which was beside the room of the officials, above the room of Maaseiah, son of Shallum, the doorkeeper.⁵ Then I set before the men of the house of the Rekabites bowls full of wine and cups, and said to them, "Drink wine."⁶ But they replied, "We will not drink wine, for Jonadab, son of Rekab, our forefather, commanded us, 'You must not drink wine, neither you nor your descendants, forever.'⁷ You shall not build houses, sow seed, or plant vineyards, nor own any; but you must live in tents all your days, so that you may live long in the land where you are wanderers."⁸ We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab, son of Rekab, our forefather, in all he commanded us, not to drink wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters,⁹ nor to build houses to live in, nor do we have vineyards, fields, or crops.¹⁰ We have lived in tents and have obeyed and done all that our forefather Jonadab commanded us.¹¹ But when Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, invaded the land, we said, 'Come, let us go to Jerusalem to escape the armies of the Chaldeans and the Arameans.' So we have remained in Jerusalem."¹² The word of the Lord then came to Jeremiah, saying,¹³ "This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Go and tell the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not learn a lesson and listen to my words?" declares the Lord.¹⁴ 'The words of Jonadab, son of Rekab, which he commanded his descendants, not to drink wine, have been observed. To this day they do not drink wine, because they obey their ancestor's command. But I have spoken to you persistently, yet you have not listened to me.¹⁵ I have sent all my servants the prophets to you, again and again, saying: "Each of you must turn from your evil ways and amend your deeds; do not follow other gods to serve them. Then you will dwell in the land I have given to you and your ancestors." But you have not inclined your ear or listened to me.¹⁶ The descendants of Jonadab, son of Rekab, have carried out the command their forefather gave them, but this people have not listened to me.'¹⁷ Therefore, this is what the Lord, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Behold, I am bringing upon Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the disaster I pronounced against them, because I spoke to them, but they did not listen; I called to them, but they did not answer.'¹⁸ Then Jeremiah said to the house of the Rekabites, "This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Because you have obeyed the command of Jonadab your forefather, and have kept all his instructions and done all he ordered you,¹⁹ therefore this is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Jonadab, son of Rekab, will never lack a descendant to stand before me always.'"

36 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this message came to Jeremiah from the Lord: ² "Take a scroll and inscribe on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah, and all the nations, from the time I first spoke to you during the reign of Josiah up to this day.³ Perhaps the people of Judah will hear of all the calamity I intend to bring upon them, and each one will turn from his evil path; then I will forgive their iniquity and their sin."⁴ Jeremiah then summoned Baruch son of Neriah, and as

Jeremiah

Jeremiah dictated all the words the Lord had spoken to him, Baruch wrote them on the scroll.⁵ Jeremiah instructed Baruch, saying, "I am restricted; I cannot enter the house of the Lord."⁶ Therefore, you go and read from the scroll, which you have inscribed at my dictation, the words of the Lord to the people in the Lord's house on a day of fasting. Also, read them to all the people of Judah who come from their towns.⁷ Perhaps their plea will come before the Lord, and every one of them will turn from his evil way, for great is the anger and wrath that the Lord has pronounced against this people."⁸ Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet commanded him; he read from the scroll the words of the Lord in the house of the Lord.⁹ In the ninth month of the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, a fast before the Lord was proclaimed for all the people in Jerusalem and those who came from the towns of Judah.¹⁰ Then Baruch read from the scroll the words of Jeremiah to all the people in the house of the Lord, in the chamber of Gemariah son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper courtyard, at the entrance of the New Gate of the Lord's house.¹¹ When Micaiah son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words from the scroll,¹² he went down to the scribe's chamber in the royal palace, where all the officials were sitting: Elishama the scribe, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Akbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials.¹³ Micaiah reported to them all the words he had heard when Baruch read from the scroll to the people.¹⁴ Then all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Bring the scroll from which you have read to the people and come." So Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and went to them.¹⁵ They said to him, "Please sit down and read it to us." So Baruch read it to them.¹⁶ When they heard all these words, they looked at each other in fear and said to Baruch, "We must inform the king of all these words."¹⁷ They then asked Baruch, "Tell us, how did you come to write all this? Was it at Jeremiah's dictation?"¹⁸ "Yes," Baruch replied, "he dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them with ink on the scroll."¹⁹ Then the officials advised Baruch, "You and Jeremiah should find a safe place. Do not let anyone know where you are."²⁰ They placed the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe and went to the king in the courtyard, reporting everything to him.²¹ The king sent Jehudi to fetch the scroll, and Jehudi brought it from the chamber of Elishama the scribe and read it to the king and all the officials standing beside him.²² It was the ninth month, and the king was sitting in the winter house, with a fire burning in the brazier before him.²³ As Jehudi read three or four columns, the king cut them off with a scribe's knife and threw them into the brazier, until the entire scroll was consumed in the fire.²⁴ The king and all his servants who heard all these words did not show fear, nor did they tear their garments.²⁵ Although Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah implored the king not to burn the scroll, he refused to heed their words.²⁶ Instead, the king commanded Jerahmeel, a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the Lord hid them.²⁷ After the king burned the scroll with the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:²⁸ "Take another scroll and write on it all the words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah burned."²⁹ Concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah, you shall say, 'This is what the Lord says: You burned that scroll and said, "Why did you write on it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land and make it desolate of both man and beast?"'³⁰ Therefore, this is what the Lord says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on the throne of David; his corpse will be exposed to the heat by day and the frost by night.³¹ I will punish him, his descendants, and his servants for their iniquity. I will bring upon them and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the people of Judah all the disaster I have pronounced against them, because they have not listened."³² Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah, and as Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote on it all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire, and many similar words were added to them.

37 Zedekiah, son of Josiah, was appointed king of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, succeeding Jehoiachin, son of Jehoiakim.² Yet neither he, nor his officials, nor the people of the land heeded the words of the Lord spoken through Jeremiah the prophet.³ However, King Zedekiah sent Jehucal, son of Shelemiah, and the priest Zephaniah, son of Maaseiah, to Jeremiah the prophet, requesting, "Please pray to the Lord our God for us." ⁴ At this time, Jeremiah was free to move among the people, as he had not yet been imprisoned. ⁵ Pharaoh's army had set out from Egypt, and when the Babylonians besieging Jerusalem heard the news about them, they withdrew from Jerusalem. ⁶ The message from the Lord then came to Jeremiah the prophet: ⁷ "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of me, 'Behold, Pharaoh's army, which set out to assist you, will return to its own land, Egypt.' ⁸ Then the Babylonians will return and fight against this city; they will capture it and set it ablaze.' ⁹ This is what the Lord says: 'Do not deceive yourselves, thinking, "The Babylonians will certainly leave us." They will not! ¹⁰ Even if you were to defeat the entire Babylonian army that is attacking you and only the wounded remained in their tents, they would rise up and set this city on fire.'" ¹¹ When the Babylonian army had withdrawn from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh's army, ¹² Jeremiah set out from Jerusalem to go to the territory of Benjamin to claim his share of property among the people there. ¹³ But upon reaching the Benjamin Gate, the captain of the guard, Irijah, son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, arrested him, claiming, "You are deserting to the Babylonians!" ¹⁴ "That is false!" Jeremiah replied. "I am not deserting to the Babylonians." But Irijah did not listen and arrested Jeremiah, bringing him to the officials. ¹⁵ The officials were angry with Jeremiah, had him beaten, and imprisoned him in the house of Jonathan the scribe, which had been converted into a prison. ¹⁶ Jeremiah was placed in a vaulted cell in a dungeon, where he remained for many days. ¹⁷ Then King Zedekiah sent for him and secretly questioned him in the palace, "Is there any word from the Lord?" "Yes," Jeremiah answered, "you will be handed over to the king of Babylon." ¹⁸ Jeremiah also said to King Zedekiah, "What offence have I committed against you, your officials, or this people, that you have imprisoned me? ¹⁹ Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, 'The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land'? ²⁰ But now, my lord the king, please listen to my plea: do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the scribe, or I will die there." ²¹ Then King Zedekiah commanded that Jeremiah be placed in the courtyard of the guard and provided with a loaf of bread daily from the street of the bakers, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Jeremiah

38 Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehukal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malchijah heard the words that Jeremiah was speaking to all the people, saying, ² "This is what the Lord says: 'Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, or plague, but whoever surrenders to the Chaldeans will live. They will escape with their lives and will live.' ³ This is what the Lord says: 'This city will certainly be given into the hands of the army of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.'" ⁴ Then the officials said to the king, "This man should be put to death, for he is discouraging the soldiers who remain in this city, as well as all the people, by speaking these words to them. This man is not seeking the well-being of this people, but rather their harm." ⁵ King Zedekiah said, "Behold, he is in your hands; the king can do nothing to oppose you." ⁶ So they took Jeremiah and put him into the cistern of Malchijah, the king's son, which was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah by ropes into the cistern; it had no water in it, only mud, and Jeremiah sank into the mud. ⁷ But Ebed-Melek, a Cushite, an official in the royal palace, heard that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern. Now the king was sitting at the Benjamin Gate; ⁸ Ebed-Melek went out from the palace and spoke to the king, saying, ⁹ "My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all they have done to Jeremiah the prophet. They have thrown him into a cistern, where he will die because of the famine, for there is no more bread in the city." ¹⁰ Then the king instructed Ebed-Melek the Cushite, "Take thirty men from here with you and bring Jeremiah the prophet up from the cistern before he perishes." ¹¹ So Ebed-Melek took the men with him and went to a room under the treasury in the palace. He took some worn-out clothes and rags from there and let them down with ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. ¹² Ebed-Melek the Cushite said to Jeremiah, "Put these worn-out clothes and rags under your arms to pad the ropes." And Jeremiah did so, ¹³ and they pulled him up with the ropes and brought him out of the cistern. Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard. ¹⁴ Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and had him brought to the third entrance to the house of the Lord. The king said to Jeremiah, "I am going to ask you something; do not hide anything from me.”¹⁵ Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I tell you, will you not certainly put me to death? Even if I give you advice, you will not listen to me.”¹⁶ But King Zedekiah swore this oath secretly to Jeremiah: “As surely as the Lord lives, who has given us life, I will neither kill you nor hand you over to those who want to kill you.”¹⁷ Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “This is what the Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘If you surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, your life will be spared and this city will not be burned; you and your family will live.’¹⁸ But if you do not surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, this city will be given into the hands of the Chaldeans and they will burn it down; you yourself will not escape from them.”¹⁹ King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am afraid of the Jews who have gone over to the Chaldeans, for they may hand me over to them and they will mistreat me.”²⁰ Jeremiah replied, “They will not hand you over. Obey the Lord by doing what I tell you, so that it may go well with you and you may live.”²¹ However, if you choose not to surrender, the Lord has shown me this:²² ‘Behold, all the women left in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. Those women will say to you: “Your close friends have misled and overpowered you. Your feet are sunk in the mud; they have deserted you.”’²³ “All your wives and children will be brought out to the Chaldeans. You yourself will not escape from their hands, but will be captured by the king of Babylon; and this city will be burned down.”²⁴ Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Do not let anyone know about this conversation, or you may be at risk.”²⁵ If the officials hear that I talked with you and come to you and say, ‘Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you; do not hide it from us or we will kill you,’²⁶ then say to them, ‘I was requesting the king not to send me back to Jonathan’s house to die there.’”²⁷ All the officials did come to Jeremiah and questioned him, and he reported to them in accordance with all these words which the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him, for no one had overheard the conversation.²⁸ And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

Jeremiah

39 In the ninth year of Zedekiah, king of Judah, during the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, along with his entire army, advanced upon Jerusalem and laid siege to it.² By the ninth day of the fourth month in Zedekiah’s eleventh year, the wall of the city was breached.³ Then all the officials of the Babylonian king entered and took their seats at the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer of Samgar, Nebo-Sarsekim the chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer the high official, and all the other officials of the Babylonian king.⁴ When Zedekiah, king of Judah, and all the soldiers saw them, they fled the city by night through the king’s garden, via the gate between the two walls, and headed towards the Arabah.⁵ However, the Chaldean army pursued them and caught up with Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They captured him and brought him to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgement upon him.⁶ At Riblah, the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes and also executed all the nobles of Judah.⁷ He then blinded Zedekiah and bound him with bronze shackles to carry him off to Babylon.⁸ The Chaldeans set fire to the royal palace and the houses of the people, and they demolished the walls of Jerusalem.⁹ Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guard, exiled to Babylon the remaining people in the city, along with those who had defected to him, and the rest of the populace.¹⁰ Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guard, left behind in the land of Judah some of the poorest people, who owned nothing, and at that time he gave them vineyards and fields.¹¹ Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, had issued orders concerning Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guard:¹² “Take him and look after him; do not harm him, but do for him whatever he requests.”¹³ So Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guard, along with Nebushazban, the chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer, the high official, and all the leading officers of the Babylonian king,¹⁴ sent and had Jeremiah brought out of the courtyard of the guard. They entrusted him to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to take him home. Thus he remained among his own people.¹⁵ While Jeremiah was confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the Lord came to him:¹⁶ “Go and tell Ebed-Melech the Cushite, ‘This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am about to bring my words upon this city—words of disaster, not prosperity. They will be fulfilled before your eyes.’¹⁷ But I will rescue you on that day, declares the Lord; you will not be handed over to those you fear. ¹⁸ I will surely save you; you will not fall by the sword but will escape with your life, because you have trusted in me, declares the Lord.”

Jeremiah

40 The message that came to Jeremiah from the Lord after Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guard, released him at Ramah. He found Jeremiah bound in chains among all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah who were being taken to Babylon. ² The commander of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, “The Lord your God pronounced this disaster upon this place; ³ and now the Lord has brought it about, just as He said He would. This has happened because you people sinned against the Lord and did not listen to His voice. ⁴ But today, I am freeing you from the chains on your hands. If you wish to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will take care of you; but if you prefer not to come, then do not come. Look, the whole land is before you; go wherever it seems good and right for you to go.” ⁵ While Jeremiah had not yet turned to go, Nebuzaradan added, “Go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the towns of Judah, and stay with him among the people, or go wherever it seems right for you to go.” Then the commander gave him provisions and a gift and let him go. ⁶ So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah and stayed with him among the people who were left in the land. ⁷ When all the commanders of the forces in the open country and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor over the land, and had put him in charge of the men, women, and children, those of the poorest in the land who had not been exiled to Babylon, ⁸ they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—along with Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maakathite, and their men. ⁹ Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, assured them and their men, saying, “Do not be afraid to serve the Babylonians; settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you. ¹⁰ As for me, I will stay at Mizpah to represent you before the Babylonians who come to us, but you are to gather wine, summer fruit, and olive oil, and store them in your jars, and live in the towns you have taken over.”

¹¹ When the Jews who were in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and all the surrounding countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, as governor over them, ¹² they all returned to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, from all the countries where they had been scattered. And they gathered an abundance of wine and summer fruit. ¹³ Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces still in the field came to Gedaliah at Mizpah ¹⁴ and said to him, “Are you aware that Baalis king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to take your life?” But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them. ¹⁵ Then Johanan son of Kareah spoke privately to Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, “Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he take your life, causing all the Jews gathered around you to be scattered and the remnant of Judah to perish?” ¹⁶ But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “Do not do such a thing! What you are saying about Ishmael is not true.”

41 In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal lineage and one of the king's officers, came to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah with ten men. While they were eating bread together there, ² Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the ten men with him rose up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, killing the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land. ³ Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Chaldean soldiers who were there. ⁴ The day after Gedaliah's assassination, before anyone knew of it, ⁵ eighty men came from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria with their beards shaved, clothes torn, and bodies gashed, bringing grain offerings and incense to the house of the Lord. ⁶ Ishmael son of Nethaniah departed from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he approached. Upon meeting them, he said, “Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam.” ⁷ As soon as they entered the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men with him slaughtered them and threw them into a cistern. ⁸ But ten of them said to Ishmael, “Do not kill us! We have wheat, barley, oil, and honey hidden in the field.” So he refrained and did not kill them with the others. ⁹ Now the cistern where Ishmael had thrown all the bodies of the men he had killed because of Gedaliah was the one King Asa had constructed as a defence against Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with the dead.¹⁰ Ishmael took captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah—the king's daughters and all the others left there, whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had placed under the care of Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to go to the Ammonites.¹¹ When Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces with him heard about all the evil Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done,¹² they took all their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They found him near the great pool in Gibeon.¹³ When all the people with Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and the commanders of the forces with him, they were overjoyed.¹⁴ All the people whom Ishmael had taken captive from Mizpah turned and went over to Johanan son of Kareah.¹⁵ However, Ishmael son of Nethaniah managed to escape from Johanan with eight men and fled to the Ammonites.¹⁶ Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces with him took from Mizpah all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah, after he had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam—the soldiers, women, children, and court officials whom he had brought back from Gibeon.¹⁷ And they went and stayed at Geruth Kimham near Bethlehem, intending to go to Egypt¹⁸ to escape the Chaldeans. They were afraid of them because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land.

Jeremiah

42 Then all the commanders of the forces, including Johanan son of Kareah and Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah, along with all the people from the least to the greatest, approached² and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please let our plea be heard, and pray to the Lord your God for this entire remnant. As you can see, we are left only a few out of many."³ Pray that the Lord your God will show us the way we should walk and what we should do."⁴ Jeremiah the prophet replied, "I have heard you. I will pray to the Lord your God as you have requested, and I will convey to you the whole message the Lord gives me, without holding anything back."⁵ Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the Lord be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act according to every word the Lord your God sends you to tell us."⁶ Whether it is favourable or unfavourable, we will listen to the voice of the Lord our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it may go well with us when we obey the voice of the Lord our God."⁷ After ten days, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah.⁸ So he called Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least to the greatest.⁹ He said to them, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your plea, says:¹⁰ 'If you remain in this land, I will build you up and not tear you down; I will plant you and not uproot you, for I have relented concerning the disaster I have brought upon you.'¹¹ Do not fear the king of Babylon, whom you now fear. Do not be afraid of him, declares the Lord, for I am with you to save you and deliver you from his hand.¹² I will show you compassion so that he will have mercy on you and restore you to your own land.'¹³ But if you say, 'We will not stay in this land,' thereby disobeying the voice of the Lord your God,¹⁴ and if you say, 'No, we will go to Egypt, where we will not see war, hear the sound of the trumpet, or hunger for bread,'¹⁵ then listen to the word of the Lord, you remnant of Judah. This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'If you are determined to go to Egypt and settle there,¹⁶ then the sword you fear will find you there, and the famine you dread will reach you in Egypt, and there you will perish.'¹⁷ Indeed, all who are resolved to go to Egypt to reside there will die by the sword, famine, and plague; not one will survive or escape the disaster I will bring upon them.'¹⁸ This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'As my anger and wrath have been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so my wrath will be poured out on you when you enter Egypt. You will become a curse, an object of horror, an imprecation, and a disgrace; you will never see this place again.'¹⁹ The Lord has spoken to you, remnant of Judah, 'Do not go to Egypt! Be certain of this: I have warned you today.'²⁰ You have deceived yourselves, for you sent me to the Lord your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the Lord our God; tell us all that the Lord our God says, and we will do it.'²¹ I have told you today, but you have not obeyed the Lord your God in all that he sent me to tell you.²² So now, be assured of this: You will die by the sword, famine, and plague in the place where you desire to go and settle."

Jeremiah

43 When Jeremiah, whom the Lord their God had sent, had finished conveying all the words of the Lord their God to the people—all these words—² Azariah son of Hoshaiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, "You are lying! The Lord our God has not sent you to tell us, 'You must not go to Egypt to reside there.'"³ But Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to deliver us into the hands of the Babylonians, so they may kill us or exile us to Babylon."⁴ Thus Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces, along with all the people, did not obey the Lord's command to remain in the land of Judah.⁵ Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces took the entire remnant of Judah who had returned from all the nations where they had been scattered, to reside in the land of Judah—⁶ the men, the women, the children, the king's daughters, and everyone whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, along with Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah—⁷ and they entered Egypt, disobeying the voice of the Lord, and went as far as Tahpanhes.⁸ In Tahpanhes, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,⁹ "Take some large stones in your hands and bury them in the clay in the brick terrace at the entrance to Pharaoh's palace in Tahpanhes, in the sight of some of the Jews;¹⁰ and say to them, 'This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will send for my servant Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and I will set his throne over these stones I have hidden; he will spread his royal canopy over them.'¹¹ He will come and strike the land of Egypt, delivering those destined for death to death, those for captivity to captivity, and those for the sword to the sword.¹² He will set fire to the temples of the gods of Egypt; he will burn them and take their gods captive. As a shepherd wraps himself with his garment, so he will wrap himself with Egypt and depart safely.¹³ He will also demolish the obelisks of Heliopolis in the land of Egypt, and the temples of the gods of Egypt he will burn with fire."

44 The message that came to Jeremiah for all the Jews residing in the land of Egypt, those dwelling in Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and the region of Pathros, saying,² "This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, declares: You yourselves have witnessed the disaster I brought upon Jerusalem and all the towns of Judah; they are now desolate and uninhabited,³ because of their evil deeds which provoked Me to anger by burning sacrifices and serving other gods whom neither they, you, nor your ancestors knew."⁴ I sent all My servants the prophets to you repeatedly, saying, 'Do not commit this abominable act that I detest.'⁵ But you did not listen or incline your ears to turn from your wickedness, to cease burning sacrifices to other gods.⁶ Therefore, My wrath and anger were poured out and burned in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, leaving them in ruins and desolation as they are today.⁷ Now, this is what the Lord God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Why are you bringing such great harm upon yourselves, cutting off from Judah man and woman, child and infant, leaving yourselves without a remnant?⁸ Why do you provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands, burning sacrifices to other gods in the land of Egypt where you reside, so that you may be destroyed and become a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?⁹ Have you forgotten the wickedness of your ancestors, the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives, your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem?¹⁰ To this day, they have not humbled themselves or shown reverence, nor have they followed My law and decrees that I set before you and your ancestors.¹¹ Therefore, this is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to bring disaster upon you and to eliminate all of Judah.¹² I will take away the remnant of Judah who have set their minds on entering Egypt to reside there, and they will all meet their end in Egypt; they will fall by the sword or perish by famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by the sword and famine, becoming a curse, an object of horror, an imprecation, and a disgrace.¹³ I will punish those who live in Egypt with the sword, famine, and plague, just as I punished Jerusalem.¹⁴ None of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, to which they long to return and live; none will return except a few refugees.¹⁵ Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning sacrifices to other gods, along with all the women standing by—a large assembly—and all the people living in Pathros in the land of Egypt, responded to Jeremiah, ¹⁶ “We will not heed the message you have spoken to us in the name of the Lord! ¹⁷ We will certainly carry out every word that has proceeded from our mouths, by burning sacrifices to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, just as we, our ancestors, our kings, and our leaders did in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. At that time, we had plenty of food, were well off, and saw no misfortune. ¹⁸ But since we stopped burning sacrifices to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have been perishing by sword and famine.” ¹⁹ The women added, “When we burned sacrifices to the queen of heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, was it without our husbands that we made cakes in her image and poured out drink offerings to her?” ²⁰ Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, who were giving him this answer, ²¹ “Did not the Lord remember and call to mind the sacrifices burned in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem by you and your ancestors, your kings and your leaders, and the people of the land? ²² The Lord could no longer endure your wicked actions and the detestable things you did, so your land became a curse and a desolate waste without inhabitants, as it is today. ²³ Because you have burned sacrifices and sinned against the Lord and have not obeyed Him or followed His law, His statutes, or His testimonies, this disaster has come upon you, as you now see.” ²⁴ Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including all the women, “Listen to the word of the Lord, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt. ²⁵ This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: You and your wives have spoken with your mouths and fulfilled it with your hands, saying, ‘We will certainly perform our vows to burn sacrifices to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her.’ By all means, fulfill your vows and perform them! ²⁶ But hear the word of the Lord, all Judah living in the land of Egypt: ‘I have sworn by My great name,’ says the Lord, ‘that My name shall never again be invoked by the mouth of any of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, “As the Lord God lives.”’ ²⁷ For I am watching over them for harm and not for good; all the people of Judah who are in the land of Egypt will meet their end by the sword or by famine until they are completely gone. ²⁸ Those who escape the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah few in number. Then all the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will know whose word will stand—Mine or theirs. ²⁹ This will be the sign to you,’ declares the Lord, ‘that I am going to punish you in this place, so that you may know that My words will assuredly stand against you for harm.’ ³⁰ This is what the Lord says: ‘I am going to hand Pharaoh Hophra, king of Egypt, over to his enemies, to those who seek his life, just as I handed Zedekiah, king of Judah, over to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, who was his enemy and sought his life.’”

Jeremiah

45 This is the message that Jeremiah the prophet delivered to Baruch son of Neriah, when he had inscribed these words in a scroll at Jeremiah’s dictation, during the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: ² “The Lord, the God of Israel, speaks this message to you, Baruch: ³ ‘You have said, “Woe is me! The Lord has added sorrow to my pain; I am exhausted from groaning and find no rest.”’ ⁴ This is what you are to say to him: ‘This is what the Lord says: “See, what I have built I will demolish, and what I have planted I will uproot, concerning the whole land.”’ ⁵ But you, are you seeking great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for I am going to bring calamity upon all people,’ declares the Lord, ‘but wherever you go, I will grant you your life as a prize.’”

46 This is the word of the Lord that reached Jeremiah the prophet regarding the nations: ² Concerning Egypt: This is the message about the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was defeated at Carchemish on the Euphrates River by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: ³ “Prepare the buckler and shield, and advance to the battle! ⁴ Harness the horses, and mount the steeds! Take your positions with helmets on! Polish the spears, put on the coats of armour! ⁵ Why do I see them terrified, retreating, with their warriors defeated? They flee in haste without looking back, and there is terror on every side,” declares the Lord. ⁶ “The swift cannot flee nor the warrior escape. In the north by the River Euphrates they have stumbled and fallen. ⁷ Who is this that rises like the Nile, like rivers of turbulent waters? ⁸ Egypt rises like the Nile, like rivers whose waters surge. She says, 'I will rise and cover the earth; I will destroy cities and their inhabitants.' ⁹ Charge, you horses! Drive wildly, you charioteers! March on, you warriors—men of Cush and Put who carry shields, men of Lydia who draw the bow. ¹⁰ For that day belongs to the Lord, the Lord Almighty—a day of vengeance, to avenge Himself on His foes. The sword will devour and be satisfied, and drink its fill of blood. For the Lord, the Lord Almighty, will offer sacrifice in the land of the north by the River Euphrates. ¹¹ "Go up to Gilead and get balm, Virgin Daughter Egypt. You have used many remedies in vain; there is no healing for you. ¹² The nations have heard of your shame; your cries fill the earth. One warrior has stumbled over another; both have fallen down together." ¹³ This is the word the Lord gave to Jeremiah the prophet about the arrival of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to attack Egypt: ¹⁴ "Announce this in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol; declare it also in Memphis and Tahpanhes: 'Take your positions and prepare, for the sword devours those around you.' ¹⁵ Why have your warriors been laid low? They cannot stand, for the Lord has thrust them down. ¹⁶ They will stumble repeatedly; indeed, they will fall over each other. They will say, 'Get up, let us go back to our own people and our native lands, away from the sword of the oppressor.' ¹⁷ There they will exclaim, 'Pharaoh king of Egypt is nothing but a loud noise; he has missed his opportunity.' ¹⁸ "As surely as I live," declares the King, whose name is the Lord of Hosts, "one will come who is like Tabor among the mountains, or like Carmel by the sea. ¹⁹ Pack your belongings for exile, you who live in Egypt, for Memphis will become a desolation, laid waste without inhabitant. ²⁰ Egypt is like a beautiful heifer, but a gadfly is coming against her from the north. ²¹ The mercenaries in her ranks are like well-fed calves. They too will turn and flee together, they will not stand their ground, for the day of disaster is coming upon them, the time for them to be punished. ²² Her sound will move along like a fleeing serpent as the enemy advances in force; they will come against her with axes, like men who cut down trees. ²³ They will fell her forest," says the Lord, "dense though it be. They are more numerous than locusts, they cannot be counted. ²⁴ Daughter Egypt will be put to shame, delivered into the hands of the people of the north." ²⁵ The Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: "I am about to bring judgment on Amon god of Thebes, on Pharaoh, on Egypt and her gods and her kings, and on those who rely on Pharaoh. ²⁶ I will give them into the hands of those who seek their lives—Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his officers. Later, however, Egypt will be inhabited as in times past," declares the Lord. ²⁷ "But as for you, Jacob my servant, do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, Israel. I will surely save you from far away, and your descendants from the land of their captivity. Jacob will return and have peace and security, with no one making him afraid. ²⁸ Do not fear, Jacob my servant, for I am with you," declares the Lord. "Though I completely destroy all the nations among which I scatter you, I will not completely destroy you. I will discipline you but only in due measure; I will not let you go entirely unpunished."

Jeremiah

47 The word of the Lord that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines before Pharaoh attacked Gaza. ² Thus says the Lord of armies: "Behold, waters are coming up from the north— they will become an overflowing flood, and will overflow the land and all that fills it; The city, and those who dwell in it, will go down; fighters will cry out in that day. ³ The noise of the buckler and the shield, The noise of the battle cry! For the Lord is destroying the land of the Philistines and wiping out the inhabitants of the coasts. ⁴ Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off completely; Orem and Gaza will be ashamed; They have left their confidence; The king and his princes have departed together. ⁵ O remnant of the coastland, How long will you gash yourself? The Lord has created you; He will punish you severely, and restore you to health. ⁶ For the Lord of armies says: "Behold, disaster is coming on the coastland— on the Philistines—and great destruction. ⁷ Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off completely; Orem and Gaza are ashamed; They have gone into captivity together."

48 Concerning Moab. This is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Woe to Nebo, for it will be destroyed; Kiriathaim will be put to shame and captured; the stronghold will be disgraced and shattered. ² Moab will no longer be praised; in Heshbon they plot her downfall: 'Come, let us cut her off from being a nation.' You too, people of Madmen, will be silenced; the sword will pursue you.³ A cry of anguish arises from Horonaim, 'Devastation and great destruction!' ⁴ Moab is broken; her little ones have cried out in distress. ⁵ They ascend the hill to Luhith, weeping bitterly as they go; at the descent to Horonaim they hear anguished cries of destruction. ⁶ Flee! Save your lives; become like a bush in the wilderness. ⁷ Because you trust in your deeds and riches, you too will be captured, and Chemosh will go into exile, together with his priests and officials. ⁸ The destroyer will come to every town, and not a town will escape. The valley will be ruined and the plateau destroyed, as the Lord has spoken. ⁹ Give wings to Moab, for she will be laid waste; her towns will become desolate, with no inhabitants. ¹⁰ Cursed is anyone who does the Lord's work negligently! Cursed is anyone who holds back their sword from bloodshed! ¹¹ "Moab has been at ease from youth, like wine settled on its dregs, not poured from vessel to vessel— she has not gone into exile. So she retains her flavour, and her aroma is unchanged. ¹² But days are coming," declares the Lord, "when I will send those who tip vessels, and they will tip her over; they will empty her jars and smash them. ¹³ Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed when they trusted in Bethel. ¹⁴ How can you claim, 'We are warriors, men valiant in battle'? ¹⁵ Moab will be destroyed and her towns invaded; her finest young men will go down in the slaughter," declares the King, whose name is the Lord of Hosts. ¹⁶ "The disaster of Moab is near at hand; her calamity will come quickly. ¹⁷ Mourn for her, all who live around her, all who know her name; say, 'How broken is the mighty sceptre, how broken the glorious staff!' ¹⁸ Come down from your glory and sit on the parched ground, you inhabitants of Daughter Dibon, for the destroyer of Moab will come up against you and ruin your fortified cities. ¹⁹ Stand by the road and watch, you who live in Aroer. Ask the man fleeing and the woman escaping, 'What has happened?' ²⁰ Moab is disgraced, for she is shattered. Wail and cry out! Proclaim by the Arnon that Moab is destroyed. ²¹ Judgement has come to the plateau— to Holon, Jahzah and Mephaath, ²² to the cities of Dibon, Nebo and Beth Diblathaim, ²³ to the towns of Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul and Beth Meon, ²⁴ to Kerioth and Bozrah— to all the towns of Moab, both near and far. ²⁵ Moab's strength is cut off; her power is broken," declares the Lord. ²⁶ "Make her drunk, for she has defied the Lord. Let Moab wallow in her vomit; let her become a laughingstock. ²⁷ Was not Israel a laughingstock to you? Was she caught among thieves, that you shake your head in scorn whenever you speak of her? ²⁸ Leave the towns and dwell among the rocks, you who live in Moab. Be like a dove that nests at the mouth of a cave. ²⁹ We have heard of Moab's pride—how great is her arrogance!— of her insolence, her pride, her conceit and the haughtiness of her heart. ³⁰ I know her insolence," declares the Lord, "but it is futile; her boasts accomplish nothing. ³¹ Therefore I lament over Moab, for all Moab I cry out, I moan for the people of Kir Hareseth. ³² I weep for you, as Jazer weeps, you vines of Sibmah. Your branches spread across the sea; they reached as far as Jazer. The destroyer has fallen on your ripened fruit and grapes. ³³ Joy and gladness have vanished from the orchards and fields of Moab. I have stopped the flow of wine from the presses; no one treads them with shouts of joy. Although there are shouts, they are not shouts of joy. ³⁴ The lamentation echoes from Heshbon to Elealeh and Jahaz, from Zoar as far as Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah, for even the waters of Nimrim are dried up. ³⁵ In Moab I will bring an end to those who make offerings on the high places and burn incense to their gods," declares the Lord. ³⁶ "So my heart laments for Moab like the music of flutes; it laments like a pipe for the people of Kir Hareseth. The wealth they acquired is gone. ³⁷ Every head is shaved and every beard cut off; there are gashes on all the hands and sackcloth around the waists. ³⁸ On all the roofs in Moab and in the public squares there is nothing but mourning, for I have shattered Moab like a jar that no one desires," declares the Lord. ³⁹ "How shattered she is! How they wail! How Moab turns her back in shame! Moab has become a laughingstock, an object of horror to all those around her." ⁴⁰ This is what the Lord says: "Behold, an eagle is swooping down, spreading its wings over Moab. ⁴¹ Kerioth will be seized and the strongholds overtaken. In that day the hearts of Moab's warriors will be as anxious as a woman in labour. ⁴² Moab will be brought to ruin as a nation because she defied the Lord. ⁴³ Terror, pit, and snare await you, people of Moab," declares the Lord. ⁴⁴ "Whoever flees from the terror will fall into a pit, and whoever climbs out of the pit will be caught in a snare; for I will bring on Moab the year of her punishment," declares the Lord. ⁴⁵ "In the shadow of Heshbon the fugitives stand helpless, for a fire has gone out from Heshbon, a blaze from the midst of Sihon; it burns the foreheads of Moab, the skulls of the loud boasters. ⁴⁶ Alas for you, Moab! The people of Chemosh are destroyed; your sons are taken into exile and your daughters into captivity. ⁴⁷ "Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab in the latter days," declares the Lord. Here ends the judgement on Moab.

Jeremiah

Jeremiah

49 Concerning the Ammonites: This is what the Lord says: "Does Israel have no sons? Does he have no heir? Why then has Malcam taken possession of Gad, and his people settled in its cities? ² Therefore behold, the days are coming," declares the Lord, "when I will sound the battle cry against Rabbah of the Ammonites; it will become a desolate heap, and its surrounding towns will be set on fire. Then Israel will take possession of those who dispossessed her," says the Lord. ³ "Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is destroyed! Cry out, you inhabitants of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth and mourn; move about inside the walls, for Malcam will go into exile, together with his priests and leaders. ⁴ Why do you boast of your valleys, your valley so fruitful? Backsliding Daughter Ammon, you trust in your treasures and say, 'Who will attack me?' ⁵ Behold, I am going to bring terror upon you," declares the Lord, the God of armies, "from all those around you; every one of you will be driven away, and no one will gather the fugitives. ⁶ "Yet afterward, I will bring back the prosperity of the Ammonites," declares the Lord. ⁷ Concerning Edom: This is what the Lord of armies says: "Is there no longer wisdom in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom decayed? ⁸ Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, you inhabitants of Dedan, for I will bring disaster on Esau at the time when I punish him. ⁹ If grape pickers came to you, would they not leave some gleanings? If thieves came by night, would they not steal only as much as they wanted? ¹⁰ But I will strip Esau bare; I will uncover his hiding places, so that he cannot conceal himself. His offspring and his brothers are destroyed, and he is no more. ¹¹ Leave your orphans; I will keep them alive. Your widows too can trust in me." ¹² For this is what the Lord says: "If those who were not sentenced to drink the cup must drink it, why should you go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but must drink it. ¹³ I have sworn by myself," declares the Lord, "that Bozrah will become a ruin, a disgrace, a wasteland, and a curse; and all its towns will be in ruins forever." ¹⁴ I have heard a message from the Lord; an envoy was sent to the nations to say, "Assemble yourselves and come against her! Rise up for battle!" ¹⁵ "For behold, I have made you insignificant among the nations, looked down upon by people. ¹⁶ The terror you inspire and the arrogance of your heart have deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rocks, who occupy the heights of the hill. Though you build your nest as high as the eagle's, from there I will bring you down," declares the Lord. ¹⁷ "Edom will become a place of dread; all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff because of all its wounds. ¹⁸ As Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbouring towns were overthrown," says the Lord, "so no one will reside there; no people will settle in it. ¹⁹ "Like a lion coming up from the thickets of the Jordan to a rich pastureland, I will chase Edom from its land in an instant. Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this? Who is like me and who can summon me into court? And what shepherd can stand against me?" ²⁰ Therefore, hear what the Lord has planned against Edom, what he has purposed against those who live in Teman: the young of the flock will be dragged away; their pasture will be shocked at their fate. ²¹ At the sound of their fall the earth will tremble; their cry will echo to the Red Sea. ²² Behold, an eagle will soar and swoop down, spreading its wings over Bozrah. In that day the hearts of Edom's warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labour. ²³ Concerning Damascus: "Hamath and Arpad are dismayed, for they have heard distressing news. They are disheartened, troubled like the restless sea. ²⁴ Damascus has become feeble; she has turned to flee and panic has gripped her; anguish and pain have seized her, pain like that of a woman in childbirth. ²⁵ How has the city of renown not been abandoned, the town in which I delight? ²⁶ Surely, her young men will fall in her streets; all her soldiers will be silenced in that day," declares the Lord of armies. ²⁷ "I will set fire to the walls of Damascus; it will consume the strongholds of Ben-Hadad." ²⁸ Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked: This is what the Lord says: "Arise, and attack Kedar and devastate the people of the East. ²⁹ Their tents and their flocks will be taken; their shelters will be carried off with all their goods and camels. People will cry out to them, 'Terror all around!' ³⁰ "Flee quickly away! Stay in deep caves, you inhabitants of Hazor," declares the Lord. "Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has plotted against you; he has devised a plan against you. ³¹ "Arise and attack a nation at ease, which lives in security," declares the Lord, "a nation that has neither gates nor bars; its people live far from danger. ³² Their camels will become plunder, and their large herds will be spoils of war. I will scatter to the winds those who cut the corners of their hair and will bring disaster on them from every side," declares the Lord. ³³ "Hazor will become a haunt of jackals, a desolate place forever. No one will reside there; no people will settle in it." ³⁴ The word of the Lord that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah: ³⁵ This is what the Lord of armies says: "See, I will break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might. ³⁶ I will bring against Elam the four winds from every direction; I will scatter them to the winds, and there will not be a nation where Elam's exiles do not go. ³⁷ I will shatter Elam before their foes, before those who seek their lives; I will bring disaster on them, even my fierce anger," declares the Lord. "I will pursue them with the sword until I have made an end of them. ³⁸ I will establish my throne in Elam and destroy her king and officials," declares the Lord. ³⁹ "Yet I will bring back the prosperity of Elam in the last days," declares the Lord.

Jeremiah

50 The message which the Lord communicated through Jeremiah the prophet concerning Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans: ² "Declare it among the nations and make it known; raise a banner and do not conceal it. Say, 'Babylon has been seized; Bel is put to shame, Marduk is dismayed. Her idols are disgraced, her images are shattered.' ³ For a nation from the north will come against her, making her land desolate, so that no one will dwell in it. Both people and animals have fled. ⁴ "In those days and at that time," says the Lord, "the people of Israel and the people of Judah will come together, weeping as they go, to seek the Lord their God. ⁵ They will ask for the way to Zion, turning their faces towards it; they will come and bind themselves to the Lord in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten. ⁶ "My people have become lost sheep; their shepherds have misled them, causing them to wander on the mountains. They have roamed from mountain to hill and forgotten their resting place. ⁷ All who found them devoured them; and their adversaries said, 'We are not guilty, for they have sinned against the Lord, their true pasture, the hope of their ancestors.' ⁸ "Flee from the midst of Babylon and leave the land of the Chaldeans; be like the goats that lead the flock. ⁹ For I am stirring up and bringing against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north. They will set themselves in array against her, and from there she will be captured. Their arrows will be like those of a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed. ¹⁰ Chaldea will be plundered; all who plunder her will have their fill," declares the Lord. ¹¹ "Because you rejoice and are jubilant, you who plunder my inheritance, because you frolic like a threshing heifer and neigh like stallions, ¹² your mother will be greatly ashamed; she who bore you will be humiliated. She will become the least of the nations, a wilderness, a parched land, a desert. ¹³ Because of the Lord's wrath she will not be inhabited but will be utterly desolate. Everyone who passes by Babylon will be appalled and will scoff at all her wounds. ¹⁴ "Encircle Babylon, all you who draw the bow. Shoot at her, do not hold back your arrows, for she has sinned against the Lord. ¹⁵ Raise a shout against her on every side! She has surrendered, her towers have fallen, her walls have been torn down. This is the Lord's vengeance; take vengeance on her; do to her as she has done to others. ¹⁶ Cut off the sower from Babylon, and the one who wields the sickle at harvest time. Because of the oppressor's sword, everyone will return to their own people, each fleeing to their own land. ¹⁷ "Israel is a scattered flock, driven away by lions. The first to devour them was the king of Assyria; the last to gnaw their bones was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon." ¹⁸ Therefore, this is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "I will punish the king of Babylon and his land as I punished the king of Assyria. ¹⁹ And I will bring Israel back to their pasture, and they will graze on Carmel and Bashan; their appetite will be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead. ²⁰ In those days and at that time," declares the Lord, "search will be made for Israel's guilt, but there will be none, and for the sins of Judah, but none will be found, for I will forgive the remnant I spare. ²¹ "Advance against the land of Merathaim and those who live in Pekod.

Jeremiah

Pursue, strike, and completely destroy them," declares the Lord. "Carry out everything I have commanded you. ²² The sound of battle is in the land, the sound of great destruction! ²³ How the mighty hammer of the whole earth has been cut off and broken! How Babylon has become a horror among the nations! ²⁴ I laid a snare for you, Babylon, and you were caught before you knew it; you were found and captured because you opposed the Lord. ²⁵ The Lord has opened His armoury and brought out the weapons of His wrath, for the Sovereign Lord of Hosts has work to do in the land of the Chaldeans. ²⁶ Come against her from the farthest border. Open her storehouses; pile her up like heaps of grain and completely destroy her, leaving no remnant. ²⁷ Put all her young bulls to the sword; let them go down to the slaughter! Woe to them, for their day has come, the time for them to be punished. ²⁸ Hear the fugitives and refugees from Babylon proclaiming in Zion how the Lord our God has taken vengeance, vengeance for His temple. ²⁹ "Summon archers against Babylon, all those who draw the bow. Encamp all around her; let no one escape. Repay her according to her deeds; do to her as she has done. For she has defied the Lord, the Holy One of Israel. ³⁰ Therefore, her young men will fall in her streets; all her soldiers will be silenced in that day," declares the Lord. ³¹ "Behold, I am against you, you arrogant one," declares the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, "for your day has come, the time when I will punish you. ³² The arrogant one will stumble and fall with no one to raise her up; I will kindle a fire in her towns that will consume all her surroundings." ³³ This is what the Lord of Hosts says: "The people of Israel are oppressed, and the people of Judah as well. All their captors hold them fast, refusing to let them go. ³⁴ Yet their Redeemer is strong; the Lord of Hosts is His name. He will vigorously defend their cause so that He may bring rest to their land, but unrest to those who live in Babylon. ³⁵ "A sword against the Chaldeans!" declares the Lord—"against those who live in Babylon and against her officials and wise men! ³⁶ A sword against her oracle priests! They will become fools. A sword against her warriors! They will be filled with terror. ³⁷ A sword against her horses and chariots and all the foreigners in her ranks! They will become feeble. A sword against her treasures! They will be plundered. ³⁸ A drought on her waters! They will dry up. For it is a land of idols, and they go mad with terror. ³⁹ "So desert creatures and jackals will live there, and there the ostriches will dwell. It will never again be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation. ⁴⁰ As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah with their neighbouring towns," declares the Lord, "so no one will live there; no people will dwell in it. ⁴¹ "Behold! A people is coming from the north; a great nation and many kings are being stirred up from the ends of the earth. ⁴² They are armed with bows and javelins; they are cruel and without mercy. Their voice roars like the sea as they ride on horses; they come like men in battle formation against you, Daughter Babylon. ⁴³ The king of Babylon has heard the report about them, and his hands hang limp. Anguish has gripped him, pain like that of a woman in labour. ⁴⁴ "Behold, one will come up like a lion from the thickets of the Jordan to a rich pastureland; for in an instant I will chase them away from it, and I will appoint over it whoever is chosen. For who is like Me, and who can challenge Me? And what shepherd can stand against Me?" ⁴⁵ Therefore, hear what the Lord has planned against Babylon, what He has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: The young of the flock will be dragged away; their pasture will be appalled at their fate. ⁴⁶ At the sound of Babylon's capture, the earth will tremble; its outcry will be heard among the nations.

51 "This is the Lord's message concerning Babylon, about the land of the Babylonians, by Jeremiah the prophet: ² "Declare and proclaim among the nations, lift up a standard; proclaim it and do not conceal it, say: "Babylon has been captured, Bel has been put to shame, Marduk has been shattered; her images have been put to shame, her idols have been shattered." ³ For a nation from the north has come up against her; it will make her land a desolation, a boastful horde; her inhabitants will be driven away, both man and beast. ⁴ "In those days and at that time," declares the Lord, "the sounds of rustling wings will be heard in the land of the Babylonians, for I am bringing destruction on them from the land of the north. ⁵ "To Babylon the inhabitant, to the land of the Chaldeans, whose former glory has perished— Speak, and say, "The young men are struck down in the streets, and their garments are left in shame. ⁶ "Prepare for war against her! Let all who handle the plow turn back and pass by in full armour. ⁷ "Why put on the finest garments, seeking to be distinguished? You who handle the bow, put on your helmet! Do not spare the sword; hold back no arrows! A nation is coming from the north, And a great king will arise from the remote parts of the earth. ⁸ He has pitched the tents of his command, Covered his gathering places, He has gone up to her, and her young men have fallen in her streets. ⁹ "O bow of the mighty shall be broken, and those fleeing shall walk wounded; For the Lord "a judgment has devised against Babylon, To destroy the land of the Chaldeans; And the land will become an object of desolation, without inhabitant." ¹⁰ O you who dwell by many waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, The measure of your destruction. ¹¹ "The Lord of armies has sworn by Himself: "Surely, I will fill you with men like locusts, And with such a multitude of people that the noise of them will amaze you. ¹² You will be eating, be satisfied, and praise the Lord your God, Because He has given you your heart's desire." He enlarges your domain, And gives you freedom to the glory of your name. ¹³ "For the Lord says, "Behold, I will defend your cause And take vengeance for you. I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry. ¹⁴ "And Babylon shall become a heap, a dwelling place for jackals, a desolation. ¹⁵ Like villages that are not inhabited, a dry land and desert. ¹⁶ "I will drive out from her those who rejoice in her strength, And her peoples will be weighed down with folly; Her officials and her wise men will become fools. ¹⁷ Then I will set foreigners over her, And the wicked will be in her midst; I will bring their evil to an end, And the sound of their songs will be heard no more. ¹⁸ I will make Babylon a possession for the hedgehog, And pools of water, I will sweep her with the broom of destruction,' Says the Lord of armies. ¹⁹ "The sea has come up on Babylon; She has been covered with its roaring waves. ²⁰ "Go out of her midst, My people! And every one save his life from the fierce anger of the Lord. ²¹ "Lift up a standard on the walls of Babylon! Reinforce the guard, Place the lookout, Send the ambassadors, Do not stop! Advance the horses, Mount the steeds! Gather the mighty! ²² "Send out the archers! Hasten and set yourself against her all around; Do not let one escape! Repay her in accordance with her work; Do to her exactly as she has done. ²³ "Cut off the breath of her outstretched arm; Let the Lord return her iniquity to her. ²⁴ "I will scatter her sons and daughters To the people of every quarter; I will give Babylon A plague of the heart, of sorrows, and of lamentations. ²⁵ "I am against you, O destroying mountain, Who destroys all the earth," says the Lord; "And I will stretch out My hand against you, And roll you down from the cliffs, And will make you a burnt mountain. ²⁶ Then no stone will be taken From you for a memorial, Nor will you be raised up again, For I will make Babylon a desolation forever." ²⁷ "Lift up a standard in the land! Blow the trumpet among the peoples! Prepare the nations for battle against her! Summon against her the kingdoms, the Arameans, the Gebalites, The Ammonites, and the Moabites, against her, The people of whobbeth and Thammuz, Against her, the nations of all the face of the land. ²⁸ "Yes, gather together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz; Appoint an archers against her; Give the command to destroy her! Send the horses, set them in motion! Go up, warriors, and wrap yourselves with your shame! ²⁹ "The Lord has raised a spirit of the kings of the Medes; Out of a distant land they have come, and I will make them move against her; No one will regard silver, nor delight in gold. ³⁰ Their bows will slaughter the young men; They will have no mercy on the fruit of the womb; Their eye will not pity children. ³¹ "And Babylon shall become a heap in the desolate land, A prey and a dilemma to the nations. ³² The sea has come up on Babylon; She is covered with its roaring waves. ³³ "Her towns have become a desolation, A dry land and desert, a land in which no one dwells, Nor does anyone of mankind pass by. ³⁴ "And I will punish Bel in Babylon, And I will bring out the carved image of Marduk, and the idolatrous priests, Along with those who worship them at the same time, That they may become foolishness and a captured prey. ³⁵ "O you who dwell by many waters, abundant in treasures, Your end has come, the measure of your destruction. ³⁶ "The Lord has spoken: "Surely, I will fill you with men Like locusts, and they will lift up a shout of battle Against you. ³⁷ "They will take up a shout against you, As one who lifts up a threatening battle cry on the mountains; Because the Lord has taken you And troubled you with the sound of your arrow. ³⁸ "But her young men will fall in her streets, And all her warriors will be destroyed on that day,' Declares the Lord. ³⁹ "Behold, I am against you, you arrogant one,' Declares the Lord God of armies, "For your day has come, the time when I will punish you.

Jeremiah

Jeremiah

⁴⁰ The arrogant will stumble and fall With no one to raise him up, And I will set fire to his cities, And they will be burned. ⁴¹ ““I will bring vengeance; I will not show mercy; And their own eyes will have satanic glare at the execution.”” ⁴² ““Set yourselves in array against Babylon on every side, All who bend the bow, shoot at her; Do not spare your arrows! For she has sinned against the Lord. ⁴³ ““Behold, the Lord brings upon her those who rise up as the north wind; And they will drive her away like the tempest. ⁴⁴ High gates and bronze bars will be smashed! The king and princes will sit there in shame; They will shut themselves in and climb the walls, But I will kindle a fire in their chins, And it will consume them.”” ⁴⁵ ““Go out of her midst, My people! Let everyone save his life from the fierce anger of the Lord. ⁴⁶ ““Incline your ear and come to me; Listen, and your life will be preserved. ⁴⁷ Behold, I am going to stir up and bring against Babylon An assembly of great nations from the land of the north— ⁴⁸ They will set their camp against her; They will have wall and ramp, and shoot at her with arrows from the ground. ⁴⁹ They will raise a siege ramp, They will build a wall, They will go in through her gates, Like men breaking into a city. ⁵⁰ But they will be captured, their arrow will not be turned back, And the bowstring will be broken, For the Lord is a God of recompense; He will repay in full. ⁵¹ ““Behold, I am stirring up against them The Medes, who have no regard for silver; As for gold, they have no delight in it. ⁵² Their bows will slaughter the young men; They will have no mercy on the fruit of the womb; Their eye will not pity children. ⁵³ ““And Babylon shall become a heap in the desert, A dry land and a wilderness, A land in which no man lives or passes through. ⁵⁴ ““I will pay recompense to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea For all their evil which they have done in Zion in your sight,” Declares the Lord. ⁵⁵ You who have escaped the sword of the Chaldeans, Set sail away to inhabit them, And bury in the earth your garment, Hide it from the face of the oppressor. ⁵⁶ For the Lord has appointed a day Of vengeance—He has indignation on Babylon; And the power of her slain will fall in the midst of her. ⁵⁷ And all the earth will quake at the sound of her fall, At the sound of a cry, at the sound of a roar; “For her voice has sounded like the sea; For she has spoken like the dragon, Shouting against Zion, Hurling threats, fiercely raising her voice. ⁵⁸ Therefore the slain of the Lord will fall in that day

From one end of the earth even to the other; They will not be lamented, Nor gathered, Nor buried; They will be dung on the ground. ⁵⁹ “Moreover, the word that Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign was: ⁶⁰ For thus said the Lord to Jeremiah: ‘Take a large scroll and write on it all the words that I have spoken against Babylon and against all the nations, from the day I first spoke concerning them, even to this day.’ ⁶¹ Moreover, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates River, ⁶² and say, “Thus Babylon will sink and not rise again, because of the disaster which I am bringing on her. And if they ask you, ‘Why have you done so?’ then you shall say to them, ‘Because the Lord has spoken and promised to do these things.’ ⁶³ “And when you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates River, ⁶⁴ and say, ‘Thus Babylon will sink and not rise again Because of the disaster which I am bringing on her,’” Declares the Lord.

52 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. ² He did evil in the sight of the Lord, similar to all that Jehoiakim had done. ³ Due to the Lord's anger, this occurred to Jerusalem and Judah, until He cast them out from His presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. ⁴ In the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came with his entire army against Jerusalem. They encamped against it and built siege works all around. ⁵ The city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. ⁶ By the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine in the city was so severe that there was no food for the people of the land. ⁷ Then the city wall was breached, and all the warriors fled. They left the city by night through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans surrounded the city. They fled towards the Arabah. ⁸ But the Chaldean army pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his soldiers were scattered from him. ⁹ They captured the king and took him to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgement upon him. ¹⁰ The king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and he also killed all the officials of Judah at Riblah. ¹¹ Then he blinded Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with bronze shackles, and took him to Babylon, where he remained in prison until the day of his death. ¹² On the tenth day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. ¹³ He set fire to the house of the Lord, the royal palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every large house he burned down. ¹⁴ The entire Chaldean army, under the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls surrounding Jerusalem. ¹⁵ Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, carried into exile some of the poorest people, those remaining in the city, the deserters who had gone over to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen. ¹⁶ But Nebuzaradan left behind some of the poorest people of the land to be vinedressers and farmers. ¹⁷ The Chaldeans broke up the bronze pillars, the stands, and the bronze sea that were in the house of the Lord, and they carried all the bronze to Babylon. ¹⁸ They also took away the pots, shovels, snuffers, basins, pans, and all the bronze vessels used in temple service. ¹⁹ The captain of the guard took the bowls, firepans, basins, pots, lampstands, pans, and drink offering bowls—whatever was made of fine gold or silver. ²⁰ The bronze from the two pillars, the sea, the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the stands, which King Solomon had made for the house of the Lord, was beyond measure. ²¹ Each pillar was eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits around; each was four fingers thick and hollow. ²² A bronze capital was on top of each pillar; each capital was five cubits high, with latticework and pomegranates of bronze all around.

Jeremiah

The second pillar was similar, with pomegranates. ²³ There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; in total, there were a hundred pomegranates above the surrounding latticework. ²⁴ The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, along with the three doorkeepers. ²⁵ He also took from the city an officer in charge of the warriors, seven royal advisers, the scribe of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men found in the city. ²⁶ Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, seized them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²⁷ The king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah went into exile from its land. ²⁸ This is the number of people Nebuchadnezzar carried into exile: in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews; ²⁹ in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, 832 individuals from Jerusalem; ³⁰ in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took into exile 745 Jewish people; the total was 4,600 people. ³¹ In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, showed favour to Jehoiachin king of Judah and released him from prison. ³² He treated him with kindness and set his throne above the thrones of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³ So Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes and dined regularly in the presence of the king for the rest of his life. ³⁴ Day by day, a regular allowance was given to him by the king of Babylon, a portion for each day, until the day of his death.

Lamentations

1 How lonely sits the city, once teeming with people! She has become like a widow, once great among the nations. She who was a princess among the provinces has become a servant. ² She weeps bitterly in the night, her tears upon her cheeks. She has no one to comfort her among all her lovers. All her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they have turned into her enemies. ³ Judah has gone into exile, suffering affliction and harsh servitude. She dwells among the nations but finds no resting place. All her pursuers have overtaken her in the midst of her distress. ⁴ The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to her appointed feasts. All her gates are desolate; her priests groan, her young women are troubled, and she herself is in bitter anguish. ⁵ Her adversaries have become her masters, her enemies live in ease. The Lord has brought her grief because of her many wrongdoings. Her children have gone into captivity, led away by the enemy. ⁶ All the splendour has departed from Daughter Zion. Her leaders are like deer that find no pasture; they have fled without strength before the pursuer. ⁷ In the days of her affliction and homelessness, Jerusalem remembers all the treasures that were hers in days of old. When her people fell into enemy hands, there was no one to help her. Her adversaries saw her and laughed at her downfall. ⁸ Jerusalem has sinned greatly and has become unclean. All who honoured her despise her, for they have seen her nakedness; she herself groans and turns away. ⁹ Her uncleanness clings to her garments; she did not consider her future. Her fall was astounding; there was no one to comfort her. "Look, Lord, on my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed." ¹⁰ The adversary has laid hands on all her precious things; she has seen the nations enter her sanctuary—those You forbade to enter Your assembly. ¹¹ All her people groan as they search for bread; they have traded their treasures for food to stay alive. "Look, Lord, and consider, for I am despised."

¹² "Is it nothing to you, all who pass by? Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which the Lord has inflicted on me in the day of His fierce anger. ¹³ From on high He sent fire into my bones, and it prevailed over them. He spread a net for my feet and turned me back. He has made me desolate, faint all day long. ¹⁴ The yoke of my transgressions is bound by His hand; they are woven together. They have come upon my neck; He has sapped my strength. The Lord has handed me over to those I cannot withstand. ¹⁵ The Lord has rejected all my mighty men; He has summoned an army against me to crush my young men. The Lord has trodden as in a winepress the Virgin Daughter of Judah. ¹⁶ For these things I weep; my eyes overflow with tears. There is no one near to comfort me, no one to restore my spirit. My children are destitute because the enemy has prevailed." ¹⁷ Zion stretches out her hands, but there is no one to comfort her. The Lord has commanded concerning Jacob that his neighbours become his adversaries; Jerusalem has become a filthy thing among them. ¹⁸ "The Lord is righteous, yet I have rebelled against His command. Listen, all you peoples; look upon my suffering. My young men and young women have gone into captivity. ¹⁹ I called to my allies, but they betrayed me. My priests and elders perished in the city while they sought food to sustain their lives. ²⁰ See, Lord, how distressed I am! I am in torment within, and my heart is overturned, for I have been very rebellious. Outside, the sword bereaves; inside, it is like death. ²¹ My groaning is known to all, but there is no one to comfort me. All my enemies are aware of my distress; they rejoice at what You have done. May You bring the day You have announced so they may become like me. ²² Let all their wickedness come before You; deal with them as You have dealt with me for all my transgressions. My groans are many, and my heart is faint."

2 How the Lord has enveloped Daughter Zion with a cloud in his anger! He has cast down the glory of Israel from heaven to earth, and has not remembered his footstool in the day of his wrath. ² The Lord has laid waste without mercy all the dwellings of Jacob; in his fury he has demolished the strongholds of Daughter Judah. He has brought her kingdom and its leaders down to the ground in disgrace. ³ In fierce anger he has severed all the strength of Israel. He has withdrawn his right hand at the approach of the enemy, and has blazed in Jacob like a consuming fire on every side. ⁴ He has bent his bow like an enemy; his right hand is poised like an adversary. He has slain all that was delightful to the eye; in the tent of Daughter Zion he has poured out his wrath like fire. ⁵ The Lord has become like an enemy; he has devoured Israel. He has swallowed up all her palaces and destroyed her fortresses, and has multiplied mourning and lamentation for Daughter Judah. ⁶ He has laid waste his tabernacle like a despised garden; he has destroyed his place of meeting. The Lord has made Zion forget her appointed festivals and Sabbaths, and in his fierce anger has spurned both king and priest. ⁷ The Lord has rejected his altar and abandoned his sanctuary. He has delivered the walls of her palaces into the hands of the enemy; they have raised a tumult in the house of the Lord as on the day of a festival. ⁸ The Lord resolved to destroy the wall of Daughter Zion. He stretched out a measuring line and did not withhold his hand from bringing ruin. He made ramparts and walls lament; they wasted away together. ⁹ Her gates have sunk into the ground; he has shattered and broken her bars. Her king and her princes are exiled among the nations; the law is no more, and her prophets receive no visions from the Lord. ¹⁰ The elders of Daughter Zion sit on the ground in silence; they have sprinkled dust on their heads and donned sackcloth. The young women of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground. ¹¹ My eyes fail from tears, my spirit is deeply troubled; my heart is poured out on the ground because of the destruction of my people, as children and infants collapse in the streets of the city. ¹² They cry to their mothers, "Where is bread and wine?" as they faint like the wounded in the streets of the city, as their lives ebb away in their mothers' arms.

Lamentations

¹³ What can I say for you? With what can I compare you, Daughter Jerusalem? To what can I liken you that I may comfort you, Virgin Daughter Zion? Your ruin is as vast as the sea. Who can heal you? ¹⁴ The visions of your prophets were false and deceptive; they did not expose your wrongdoing to ward off your captivity. The prophecies they gave you were misleading and worthless. ¹⁵ All who pass by clap their hands at you; they scoff and shake their heads at Daughter Jerusalem: "Is this the city that was called the perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth?" ¹⁶ All your enemies open their mouths wide against you; they hiss and gnash their teeth, saying, "We have devoured her. This is the day we have waited for; we have lived to see it." ¹⁷ The Lord has done what he planned; he has fulfilled his word which he decreed long ago. He has torn you down without mercy, he has allowed the enemy to exult over you, he has exalted the power of your foes. ¹⁸ The hearts of the people cry out to the Lord. O wall of Daughter Zion, let your tears flow like a river day and night; give yourself no relief, let your eyes have no rest. ¹⁹ Arise, cry out in the night, at the start of the night watches; pour out your heart like water in the presence of the Lord. Lift up your hands to him for the lives of your children, who faint from hunger at every street corner. ²⁰ Look, Lord, and consider: Whom have you ever treated like this? Should women eat their offspring, the children they have nurtured? Should priest and prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord? ²¹ Young and old lie together in the dust of the streets; my young men and young women have fallen by the sword. You have slain them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered them without mercy. ²² As if on a feast day, you summoned terrors against me on every side; in the day of the Lord's anger no one escaped or survived; those I cared for and reared my enemy has destroyed.

3 I am the man who has witnessed affliction under the rod of His wrath. ² He has driven me away and made me walk in darkness, not light; ³ Indeed, He has turned His hand against me repeatedly throughout the day. ⁴ He has caused my skin and my flesh to age, and has shattered my bones. ⁵ He has besieged me and encircled me with bitterness and hardship. ⁶ He has made me dwell in darkness, like those long deceased. ⁷ He has walled me in so I cannot escape; He has burdened me with chains. ⁸ Even when I cry out and call for help, my prayer is not heard. ⁹ He has obstructed my way with blocks of stone; He has twisted my paths. ¹⁰ He is like a bear lying in wait, like a lion in hiding. ¹¹ He has led me off the path and torn me to pieces, leaving me desolate. ¹² He bent His bow and set me as the target for His arrows. ¹³ He has pierced my heart with arrows from His quiver. ¹⁴ I have become the laughingstock of all my people; they mock me in song all day long. ¹⁵ He has filled me with bitterness and given me wormwood to drink. ¹⁶ He has broken my teeth with gravel; He has pressed me into the dust. ¹⁷ My soul does not know any peace; and I have forgotten what happiness is. ¹⁸ So I say, "My splendour has perished, and so has my hope from the Lord."

¹⁹ Remember my affliction and my homelessness, the bitterness and the gall. ²⁰ My soul remembers them well and is downcast within me. ²¹ Yet I recall

Lamentations

this to mind, and therefore I have hope: ²² The Lord's mercies are indeed unending, for His compassions never fail. ²³ They are renewed every morning; Your faithfulness is great. ²⁴ "The Lord is my portion," my soul declares, "therefore I will wait for Him." ²⁵ The Lord shows goodness to those who place their hope in Him, to the person who seeks Him. ²⁶ It is beneficial to wait quietly for the Lord's salvation. ²⁷ It is advantageous for a man to bear the yoke in his youth. ²⁸ Let him sit alone in silence, for the Lord has laid it upon him. ²⁹ Let him bury his face in the dust—perhaps there is hope. ³⁰ Let him offer his cheek to the one who strikes him, and let him be filled with disgrace. ³¹ But it is not the Lords will to reject forever. ³² Though He causes grief, He will show compassion, according to His abundant mercy. ³³ For He does not bring affliction or grief willingly to the children of men. ³⁴ To crush underfoot all the prisoners of the land, ³⁵ To deny a person justice before the Most High, ³⁶ To defraud someone in their lawsuit—these things the Lord does not approve. ³⁷ Who can speak and have it happen unless the Lord has commanded it? ³⁸ Does not both adversity and good come from the mouth of the Most High? ³⁹ Why should any living person complain when punished for their sins? ⁴⁰ Let us examine and test our ways, and let us return to the Lord. ⁴¹ Let us lift up our hearts and lift up our hands to God in heaven; ⁴² We have sinned and rebelled, and You have withheld forgiveness. ⁴³ You have enveloped Yourself with anger and pursued us; You have slain without mercy. ⁴⁴ You have hidden Yourself with a cloud so that no prayer can pass through. ⁴⁵ You have made us scum and refuse among the peoples. ⁴⁶ All our enemies have spoken against us with open mouths. ⁴⁷ We have encountered panic and pitfalls, devastation and destruction. ⁴⁸ Streams of tears flow from my eyes because of the destruction of the daughter of my people. ⁴⁹ My eyes will flow unceasingly, without pause, ⁵⁰ Until the Lord looks and sees from heaven. ⁵¹ What I see brings grief to my soul because of all the daughters of my city. ⁵² Those who were my enemies without cause pursued me like a bird. ⁵³ They tried to end my life in a pit and hurled stones at me; ⁵⁴ The waters closed over my head, and I thought I was cut off. ⁵⁵ I called upon Your name, Lord, from the depths of the pit. ⁵⁶ You heard my plea: "Do not turn a deaf ear to my cry for relief." ⁵⁷ You drew near when I called upon You, and You reassured me, "Do not fear." ⁵⁸ You, Lord, took up my case; You restored my life. ⁵⁹ Lord, You have seen the wrong done to me. Support my cause! ⁶⁰ You have observed all their vengeance, all their schemes against me. ⁶¹ Lord, You have been aware of their insults, all their plots against me— ⁶² The lips of my assailants and their whisperings are against me all day long. ⁶³ Observe their sitting and rising; I am their mocking song. ⁶⁴ Repay them, Lord, according to the work of their hands. ⁶⁵ Place a veil over their hearts, and may Your curse be upon them! ⁶⁶ Pursue them in anger and eliminate them from under the heavens of the Lord.

4 How the gold has dimmed, how the pure gold has changed! The sacred stones are scattered at the corner of every street. ² The precious children of Zion, once valued as pure gold, are now regarded as earthenware pots, the work of a potter's hands. ³ Even jackals offer their breasts to nurse their young, but my people have become cruel like ostriches in the wilderness. ⁴ The tongue of the infant clings to the roof of its mouth due to thirst; the children ask for bread, but no one gives it to them. ⁵ Those who once feasted on delicacies now tremble in the streets; those nurtured in crimson now lie on ash heaps. ⁶ The punishment of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, which was overthrown in an instant without a hand turned to help her. ⁷ Their princes were purer than snow, whiter than milk, more ruddy in body than rubies, their appearance like lapis lazuli. ⁸ Now they are darker than soot; they are not recognised in the streets. Their skin has shrivelled on their bones; it has become as dry as wood. ⁹ Better are those slain by the sword than those who die of hunger; they waste away, stricken by the lack of produce from the field. ¹⁰ Compassionate women have boiled their own children; they became food for them during the destruction of my people. ¹¹ The Lord has exhausted His wrath, He has poured out His fierce anger. He kindled a fire in Zion that consumed its foundations. ¹² Neither the kings of the earth nor any of the world's inhabitants believed that the adversary and the enemy could enter the gates of Jerusalem. ¹³ This happened due to the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed the blood of the righteous within her. ¹⁴ They wandered blindly in the streets; they were so defiled with blood that no one dared to touch their garments. ¹⁵ "Away! Unclean!" people cried to them.

Lamentations

"Away! Away! Do not touch us!" When they fled and wandered, people among the nations said, "They cannot stay here any longer." ¹⁶ The Lord Himself has scattered them; He no longer watches over them. The priests receive no honour, the elders no favour. ¹⁷ Our eyes failed, looking in vain for help; from our watchtower we looked for a nation that could not save us. ¹⁸ They hunted our steps so that we could not walk in our streets. Our end was near, our days were numbered, for our end had come. ¹⁹ Our pursuers were swifter than eagles in the sky; they chased us over the mountains and lay in wait for us in the wilderness. ²⁰ The breath of our nostrils, the Lord's anointed, was caught in their traps. We thought that under his shadow we would live among the nations. ²¹ Rejoice and be glad, Daughter Edom, you who dwell in the land of Uz. But the cup will pass to you as well; you will become drunk and expose yourself. ²² Your punishment is complete, Daughter Zion; He will not prolong your exile. But He will punish your sin, Daughter Edom, and expose your wickedness.

5 Remember, O Lord, what has befallen us; observe, and behold our disgrace. ² Our inheritance has been given to strangers, our homes to foreigners. ³ We have become like orphans, fatherless; our mothers are akin to widows.

⁴ We must pay for the water we drink; our wood is obtained at a cost. ⁵ Our pursuers are close behind us; we are exhausted and find no rest. ⁶ We have submitted to Egypt and Assyria to secure enough bread. ⁷ Our forefathers sinned and are no longer here, but we bear the consequences of their wrongs. ⁸ Servants rule over us; there is no one to deliver us from their grasp. ⁹ We obtain our bread at the peril of our lives due to the sword in the wilderness. ¹⁰ Our skin is as hot as an oven, feverish from the ravages of hunger. ¹¹ Women have been violated in Zion, and maidens in the towns of Judah. ¹² Leaders have been hung by their hands; elders receive no respect. ¹³ Young men labour at the millstones; boys stagger under burdens of wood. ¹⁴ Elders are absent from the city gate; young men have ceased their music. ¹⁵ The joy of our hearts has vanished; our dancing has turned into mourning. ¹⁶ The crown has tumbled from our head. Alas for us, for we have sinned! ¹⁷ For this reason, our hearts are weak; and because of these events, our eyes grow dim; ¹⁸ for Mount Zion is desolate, with wild animals roaming over it. ¹⁹ You, O Lord, reign forever; your throne endures through all generations. ²⁰ Why do you forget us perpetually? Why do you forsake us for so long? ²¹ Bring us back to you, O Lord, so we may return; renew our days as they once were, ²² unless you have completely rejected us and remain in anger towards us.

Ezekiel

1 In the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth month, while I was among the exiles by the River Kebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. ² On the fifth day of the month, during the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's exile, ³ the word of the Lord came to Ezekiel the priest, son of Buzi, by the River Kebar in the land of the Chaldeans. There the hand of the Lord was upon him. ⁴ As I looked, I saw a stormy wind coming from the north, a great cloud with lightning flashing and a bright light surrounding it. In the centre of the fire was something like glowing metal. ⁵ In the fire were figures resembling four living creatures, and they had a human-like form. ⁶ Each had four faces and four wings. ⁷ Their legs were straight, and their feet were like those of a calf, shining like polished bronze. ⁸ Under their wings on their four sides were human hands. All four had faces and wings. ⁹ Their wings touched one another; they did not turn as they moved, each went straight forward. ¹⁰ Their faces were like this: each had a human face, a lion's face on the right, an ox's face on the left, and an eagle's face. ¹¹ Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above; each had two wings touching another creature and two covering their bodies. ¹² Each went straight forward; wherever the spirit would go, they would go, without turning as they went. ¹³ The appearance of the living creatures was like burning coals of fire, like torches. Fire moved among the creatures, and lightning flashed from it. ¹⁴ The creatures darted back and forth like flashes of lightning. ¹⁵ As I observed the living creatures, I noticed a wheel on the ground beside each creature with its four faces. ¹⁶ The appearance of the wheels was like sparkling topaz, and all four looked alike. They seemed to be made like a wheel within a wheel. ¹⁷ When they moved, they went in any of the four directions without needing to turn as they moved. ¹⁸ Their rims were high and awesome, and the rims of all four were full of eyes all around. ¹⁹ When the living creatures moved, the wheels beside them moved; and when the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose also. ²⁰ Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, and the wheels would rise along with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. ²¹ When the creatures moved, the wheels moved; when they stood still, the wheels stood still; and when they rose from the ground, the wheels rose with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. ²² Above the heads of the living creatures was what looked like an expanse, sparkling like crystal, spread out over their heads. ²³ Under the expanse, their wings were stretched out straight, one toward the other; each had two wings covering its body. ²⁴ When the creatures moved, I heard the sound of their wings, like the roar of rushing waters, like the voice of the Almighty, like the noise of an army. When they stood still, they lowered their wings. ²⁵ Then there came a voice from above the expanse over their heads as they stood with lowered wings. ²⁶ Above the expanse over their heads was something like a throne, resembling lapis lazuli, and on the throne high above was a figure like that of a man. ²⁷ I saw that from what appeared to be his waist up he looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire, and from there down he looked like fire, and brilliant light surrounded him. ²⁸ The radiance around him was like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. When I saw it, I fell facedown, and I heard the voice of one speaking.

2 He then said to me, "Son of man, stand upon your feet, and I shall speak with you." ² As He spoke, the Spirit entered into me and set me upon my feet, and I heard Him speaking to me. ³ He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, a rebellious nation that has rebelled against Me; they and their forefathers have revolted against Me to this very day. ⁴ I am sending you to a people who are impudent and stubborn, and you shall say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says.' ⁵ Whether they listen or not—for they are a rebellious house—they will know that a prophet has been among them. ⁶ As for you, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words. Do not fear, even though thistles and thorns surround you and you dwell among scorpions. Do not be dismayed by their words or their presence, for they are a rebellious house. ⁷ You are to deliver My message to them, regardless of whether they choose to listen, for they are rebellious. ⁸ But you, son of man, hear what I say to you; do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I provide for you." ⁹ Then I looked, and behold, a hand was extended towards me, and in it was a scroll. ¹⁰ He spread it out before me, and it was written on both sides, with words of lament, mourning, and woe.

3 Then He said to me, "Son of man, consume what you find here; eat this scroll, and then go and speak to the house of Israel."² So I opened my mouth, and He gave me the scroll to consume.³ And He said to me, "Son of man, fill your stomach and your body with this scroll I am giving you." So I ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.⁴ Then He said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and deliver My words to them."⁵ For you are not being sent to a people of incomprehensible speech or difficult language, but to the house of Israel—⁶ not to many peoples of incomprehensible speech or difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you.⁷ But the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to Me; all the Israelites are stubborn and obstinate.⁸ See, I have made your face as unyielding as theirs, and your forehead as unyielding as theirs.⁹ Like the hardest stone, harder than flint, I have made your forehead. Do not be afraid of them or be dismayed by them, though they are a rebellious house."¹⁰ Moreover, He said to me, "Son of man, take into your heart all the words I shall speak to you and listen attentively."¹¹ Go now to your people in exile and speak to them. Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says,' whether they listen or not."¹² Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard a great rumbling sound behind me: "May the glory of the Lord be praised from His place!"¹³ It was the sound of the wings of the living creatures touching one another and the sound of the wheels beside them, a great rumbling sound.¹⁴ So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness and in the anger of my spirit, with the strong hand of the Lord upon me.¹⁵ I came to the exiles who lived by the Kebar River at Tel-abib, and I sat among them for seven days, deeply distressed.¹⁶ After seven days, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,¹⁷ "Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from Me."¹⁸ When I declare to a wicked person, 'You are destined to die,' and you do not warn them or speak out to turn them from their evil ways to save their life, that wicked person will die for their sin, and I will hold you accountable for their blood.¹⁹ But if you do warn the wicked person and they do not turn from their wickedness or from their evil ways, they will die for their sin; yet you will have rescued yourself."²⁰ Again, when a righteous person turns from their righteousness and does evil, and I place an obstacle before them, they will die. Since you did not warn them, they will die for their sin, and their righteous deeds will not be remembered, but I will hold you accountable for their blood.²¹ However, if you do warn the righteous person not to sin and they do not sin, they will surely live because they took warning, and you will have saved yourself."²² Now the hand of the Lord was upon me there, and He said to me, "Get up, go out to the plain, and there I will speak to you."²³ So I got up and went out to the plain, and behold, the glory of the Lord was standing there, like the glory I had seen by the Kebar River, and I fell on my face.²⁴ Then the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet. He spoke with me and said, "Go, shut yourself inside your house."²⁵ And as for you, son of man, they will bind you with ropes so that you cannot go out among the people.²⁶ Moreover, I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you will be silent and unable to rebuke them, for they are a rebellious house.²⁷ But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth and you shall say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says.' Whoever will listen, let them listen, and whoever will refuse, let them refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

4 "Now, son of man, take a brick and set it before you, and inscribe upon it a city—Jerusalem."² Then lay siege against it: construct a siege wall, build a ramp, set up camps, and place battering rams all around it.³ Then take an iron plate and set it up as an iron wall between yourself and the city, and direct your face toward it. It shall be under siege, and you shall besiege it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.⁴ "Lie on your left side and place the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it. You shall bear their iniquity for the number of days you lie on it."⁵ I have assigned you the same number of days as the years of their iniquity, 390 days; thus you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.⁶ When you have completed these days, lie down again, this time on your right side, and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah. I have assigned you forty days, a day for each year.⁷ Direct your face toward the siege of Jerusalem and with bared arm prophesy against it.⁸ I will bind you with ropes so that you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have completed the days of your siege. ⁹ "Take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; place them in a single vessel and make them into bread for yourself. You shall eat it according to the number of days you lie on your side, 390 days. ¹⁰ The food you eat shall be weighed, twenty shekels a day; you shall eat it at set times. ¹¹ The water you drink shall be a sixth of a hin by measure; you shall drink it at set times. ¹² You shall eat it as a barley cake, having baked it in their sight over an unusual fuel." ¹³ The Lord said, "In this manner the sons of Israel will eat their bread defiled among the nations where I will scatter them." ¹⁴ Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! I have never been defiled; from my youth until now I have not eaten anything that died of itself or was torn by animals, nor has any unclean meat entered my mouth." ¹⁵ He said to me, "See, I will give you cow dung instead of human dung, so that you may prepare your bread over it." ¹⁶ He then said to me: "Son of man, behold, I am about to break the staff of bread in Jerusalem. They shall eat bread by weight and with anxiety, and drink water by measure and in dismay, ¹⁷ because food and water will be scarce. They will look at one another in horror and waste away in their guilt.

Ezekiel

5 "Son of man, take a sharp sword and use it as a barber's razor to shave your head and beard. Then take scales for weighing and divide the hair. ² A third of the hair you shall burn in the fire in the midst of the city when the siege days are completed. Take another third and strike it with the sword around the city, and scatter the final third to the wind; for I will pursue them with an unsheathed sword. ³ Take a few hairs from them and bind them in the hems of your garment. ⁴ Take some of these again and throw them into the fire and burn them; from there, a fire will spread to all the house of Israel. ⁵ "This is what the Sovereign Lord says: This is Jerusalem, which I have placed at the centre of the nations, with lands surrounding her. ⁶ Yet she has rebelled against my ordinances more wickedly than the nations, and against my statutes more than the lands around her; for they have rejected my laws and not followed my decrees. ⁷ Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: Because you have been more unruly than the nations around you and have not followed my statutes or kept my laws, nor even conformed to the standards of the nations around you, ⁸ therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: Behold, I am against you, Jerusalem, and I will execute judgements upon you in the sight of the nations. ⁹ Because of all your abominations, I will do among you what I have not done before and will never do again. ¹⁰ Therefore, parents will eat their children among you, and children will eat their parents. I will execute judgements on you and scatter all your survivors to every wind. ¹¹ Therefore, as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign Lord, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable idols and abominations, I will withdraw, and my eye will not spare, nor will I have pity. ¹² A third of your people will die by plague or perish by famine within you; a third will fall by the sword around you; and a third I will scatter to every wind and pursue with an unsheathed sword. ¹³ Then my anger will be spent, and I will satisfy my wrath upon them, and I will be appeased. They will know that I, the Lord, have spoken in my zeal when I have spent my wrath upon them. ¹⁴ I will make you a ruin and a disgrace among the nations around you, in the sight of all who pass by. ¹⁵ You will be a disgrace, an object of abuse, a warning, and a horror to the nations around you when I execute judgements against you in anger, wrath, and fierce rebukes. I, the Lord, have spoken. ¹⁶ When I unleash against you the deadly arrows of famine, which are meant for destruction, I will increase the famine upon you and cut off your supply of bread. ¹⁷ I will send famine and wild beasts against you, and they will bereave you of children. Plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I will bring the sword upon you. I, the Lord, have spoken."

6 The message from the Lord reached me: ² "Son of man, turn your face towards the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them. ³ Say: 'Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign Lord. This is what the Sovereign Lord says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: Behold, I am going to bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places. ⁴ Your altars will be laid waste and your incense altars will be shattered; I will cause your slain to fall in front of your idols. ⁵ I will lay the corpses of the Israelites before their idols, and I will scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶ Wherever you dwell, your cities will become ruins and your high places will be desolate, so that your altars will lie in ruins and be devastated, your idols will be broken and brought to an end, your incense altars will be cut down, and your works wiped out. ⁷ Those who are slain will fall among you, and you will come to know that I am the Lord. ⁸ “Yet I will leave a remnant, for some of you will escape the sword when you are scattered among the nations. ⁹ Then, among the nations where they have been taken captive, those who escape will remember me—how I was grieved by their adulterous hearts that turned away from me, and by their eyes that lusted after their idols. They will loathe themselves for the evil they have done and for all their detestable practices. ¹⁰ And they will know that I am the Lord; I did not speak in vain that I would bring this disaster upon them. ¹¹ “This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Clap your hands, stamp your feet and cry out “Alas!” because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel, for they will fall by the sword, famine, and plague. ¹² Those who are far off will die of plague, those who are near will fall by the sword, and those who survive and are spared will die of famine. Thus will I expend my wrath upon them. ¹³ And you will know that I am the Lord, when their slain lie among their idols around their altars, on every high hill and on all the mountain tops, under every spreading tree and every leafy oak—the places where they offered fragrant incense to all their idols. ¹⁴ I will stretch out my hand against them and make the land a desolate waste from the wilderness to Diblah—wherever they dwell. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Ezekiel

7 Furthermore, the word of the Lord came to me, saying: ² “And you, son of man, this is what the Sovereign Lord says to the land of Israel: ‘The end! The end is coming upon the four corners of the land. ³ Now the end is upon you, and I will unleash My anger against you; I will judge you according to your ways and bring upon you all your abominations. ⁴ My eye will not show pity, nor will I spare you. I will repay you for your ways, and your abominations will be among you. Then you will know that I am the Lord.’ ⁵ This is what the Sovereign Lord says: ‘Disaster! A unique disaster! Behold, it is coming! ⁶ The end has come! The end has come! It has awakened against you; behold, it is coming! ⁷ Doom has come upon you, you who dwell in the land. The time has come, the day is near—panic rather than joyful shouting on the mountains. ⁸ Now I will shortly pour out My wrath upon you and expend My anger against you. I will judge you according to your ways and bring upon you all your abominations. ⁹ My eye will not show pity, nor will I spare you. I will repay you according to your ways, while your abominations are in your midst. Then you will know that it is I, the Lord, who strikes. ¹⁰ ‘Behold, the day! Behold, it is coming! Doom has burst forth; the rod has budded, arrogance has blossomed. ¹¹ Violence has arisen, a rod to punish the wicked. None of them shall remain, none of their multitude, none of their wealth, nor anything of value. ¹² The moment has arrived, and the day is here. Let neither the buyer rejoice nor the seller grieve, for wrath is upon all their multitude. ¹³ Indeed, the seller will not regain what he sold during their lifetime; for the vision concerning all their multitude will not be averted, nor will any of them preserve his life by his wrongdoing. ¹⁴ ‘They have blown the trumpet and made everything ready, but no one will go to battle, for My wrath is against all their multitude. ¹⁵ The sword is outside the city, and plague and famine are within. Those in the field will die by the sword, while famine and plague will consume those in the city. ¹⁶ Even when their survivors escape, they will flee to the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, each for his own wrongdoing. ¹⁷ All hands will hang limp, and every knee will be wet with urine. ¹⁸ They will put on sackcloth, and shuddering will overwhelm them. Shame will be on all faces, and a bald patch on all their heads. ¹⁹ They will fling their silver into the streets, and their gold will become an abhorrent thing. Their silver and gold will not be able to save them on the day of the Lord’s wrath. They cannot satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs, for their wrongdoing has become a cause of stumbling. ²⁰ They took pride in their beautiful jewellery and used it to make their detestable idols. They made it into vile images; therefore I will make it an abhorrent thing to them. ²¹ And I will hand it over to the foreigners as plunder, and to the wicked of the earth as spoils; and they will defile it. ²² I will turn My face away from them, and they will profane My treasure; robbers will enter and desecrate it. ²³ ‘Prepare restraints! For the land is filled with bloodshed, and the city is full of violence. ²⁴ Therefore, I will bring the most wicked of nations to take possession of their houses. I will put an end to the pride of the mighty, and their sanctuaries will be desecrated. ²⁵ When terror comes, they will seek peace, but it will not be found. ²⁶ Calamity upon calamity will come, and rumour upon rumour. They will seek a vision from a prophet, but the law will be lost from the priest, and counsel from the elders. ²⁷ The king will lament, the prince will be enveloped in despair, and the hands of the people of the land will tremble. I will deal with them according to their conduct, and by their own standards I will judge them. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Ezekiel

8 In the sixth year, on the fifth day of the sixth month, as I was sitting in my house with the elders of Judah before me, the hand of the Sovereign Lord came upon me there. ² I looked, and there was something resembling the appearance of a man. From his waist downwards, he appeared like fire, and from his waist upwards, he had the appearance of glowing, gleaming metal. ³ He stretched out what looked like a hand and took me by the hair of my head. The Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the inner court, where the idol that provokes jealousy was situated. ⁴ And there was the glory of the God of Israel, like the vision I had seen in the plain. ⁵ Then he said to me, “Son of man, look towards the north.” So I looked towards the north, and there, north of the altar gate, was this idol of jealousy at the entrance. ⁶ And he said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing—the utterly detestable things the house of Israel are committing here, things that will drive me far from my sanctuary? But you will see even greater abominations.” ⁷ Then he brought me to the entrance of the court, and I looked and saw a hole in the wall. ⁸ He said to me, “Son of man, now dig through the wall.” So I dug through the wall and found an entrance. ⁹ And he said to me, “Enter and observe the wicked and detestable acts they are committing here.” ¹⁰ So I went in and looked, and I saw portrayed all over the walls all kinds of crawling things and unclean animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel. ¹¹ In front of them stood seventy elders of the house of Israel, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was among them. Each had a censer in his hand, and the fragrance of the cloud of incense was rising. ¹² He said to me, “Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness, each at the shrine of his own idol? They say, ‘The Lord does not see us; the Lord has forsaken the land.’” ¹³ Again, he said, “You will see them doing even greater abominations.” ¹⁴ Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the house of the Lord, and I saw women sitting there, mourning for Tammuz. ¹⁵ He said to me, “Do you see this, son of man? You will see even greater abominations than these.” ¹⁶ He then led me into the inner court of the house of the Lord, and there at the entrance to the temple, between the portico and the altar, were about twenty-five men. With their backs turned to the temple of the Lord and their faces towards the east, they were bowing down to the sun in the east. ¹⁷ He said to me, “Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a trivial matter for the house of Judah to commit the detestable things they are doing here? Must they also fill the land with violence and continually provoke me to anger? Look at them putting the branch to their nose! ¹⁸ Therefore I will deal with them in wrath; I will not look on them with pity or spare them. Although they cry out in my ears with a loud voice, I will not listen to them.”

9 Then I heard a loud voice calling out in my presence, “Bring forward those who are appointed to execute judgement on the city, each with a weapon of destruction in his hand.” ² And I saw six men coming from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each holding a deadly weapon. Among them was a man clothed in linen with a scribe’s kit at his waist. They came in and stood beside the bronze altar. ³ Now the glory of the God of Israel ascended from the cherubim, where it had been, to the threshold of the temple. Then He called to the man clothed in linen who had the scribe’s kit at his waist. ⁴ And the Lord said to him, “Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and mark the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all the abominations committed in it.” ⁵ To the others He said in my hearing, “Follow him through the city and strike; let your eye show no pity and do not spare. ⁶ Slaughter the old men, the young men, the maidens, the children, and the women, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary.” So they began with the elders who were before the temple. ⁷ Then He said to them, “Defile the temple and fill the courtyards with the slain. Go out!” So they went out and struck the people in the city. ⁸ As they were striking the people and I alone was left, I fell on my face and cried out, saying, “Oh, Lord God! Are You going to destroy the entire remnant of Israel by pouring out Your wrath on Jerusalem?” ⁹ Then He said to me, “The guilt of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of bloodshed, and the city is full of perversion; for they say, 'The Lord has abandoned the land, and the Lord does not see!' ¹⁰ Yet I will not show pity nor will I spare them, for I will bring their actions upon their own heads." ¹¹ Then behold, the man clothed in linen, with the scribe's kit at his waist, reported, saying, "I have carried out all that You commanded me."

Ezekiel

10 I looked, and there appeared above the heads of the cherubim something like a throne made of sapphire stone, resembling a throne in the expanse above them. ² And the Lord spoke to the man clothed in linen, saying, "Go in among the wheels beneath the cherubim, and fill your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim, and scatter them over the city." And he went in as I watched. ³ The cherubim were positioned on the right side of the temple as the man entered, and the cloud filled the inner court. ⁴ Then the glory of the Lord rose from above the cherubim to the threshold of the temple. The temple was filled with the cloud, and the courtyard was filled with the brightness of the glory of the Lord. ⁵ The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard as far as the outer courtyard, like the voice of God Almighty when He speaks. ⁶ When the Lord instructed the man in linen, "Take fire from among the wheels, from among the cherubim," he entered and stood beside a wheel. ⁷ One of the cherubim reached out his hand to the fire among them, took some coals, and placed them into the hands of the man in linen, who took them and went out. ⁸ Under the wings of the cherubim, there appeared to be something like human hands. ⁹ I looked, and there were four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside each cherub; the wheels sparkled like a Tarshish stone. ¹⁰ As for their appearance, the four of them looked alike, as if one wheel were within another wheel. ¹¹ As they moved, they went in any of the four directions without turning as they went; they moved in the direction they faced, without turning. ¹² Their entire bodies, including their backs, their hands, their wings, and the wheels, were covered with eyes all around. ¹³ I heard the wheels being referred to as "the whirling wheels." ¹⁴ Each of the cherubim had four faces: the first was the face of a cherub, the second the face of a human, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. ¹⁵ Then the cherubim rose upwards. These were the living creatures I had seen by the river Kebar. ¹⁶ When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved beside them; and when the cherubim lifted their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels stayed beside them. ¹⁷ When the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still; and when they rose, the wheels rose with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in them. ¹⁸ Then the glory of the Lord departed from the threshold of the temple and stood above the cherubim. ¹⁹ While I watched, the cherubim spread their wings and rose from the ground, with the wheels beside them, and they stood at the entrance of the east gate of the Lord's house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them. ²⁰ These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the river Kebar, and I realised they were cherubim. ²¹ Each had four faces and four wings, and under their wings was the form of human hands. ²² Their faces were the same as those I had seen by the river Kebar. Each one moved straight ahead.

11 The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the house of the Lord, which faces east. There, at the entrance of the gate, were twenty-five men, and among them I noticed Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people. ² He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise evil and offer wicked advice in this city. ³ They say, 'Is it not time to build houses? This city is the pot, and we are the meat within it.' ⁴ Thus, speak prophesies against them; prophecy, son of man." ⁵ Then the Spirit of the Lord came upon me, and He instructed me to say: "This is what the Lord says: This is what you are thinking, house of Israel, but I know your thoughts. ⁶ You have slain many in this city and filled its streets with the dead. ⁷ Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: The bodies you have laid in the city are the meat and this city is the pot, but I will bring you out of it. ⁸ You fear the sword, and the sword is what I will bring upon you, declares the Sovereign Lord. ⁹ I will bring you out of the city and hand you over to foreigners, and execute judgments against you. ¹⁰ You will fall by the sword, and I will judge you at the borders of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord. ¹¹ This city will not be a pot for you, nor will you be the meat inside it; I will judge you at the borders of Israel. ¹² And you will know that I am the Lord, for you have not followed my statutes or kept my laws but have conformed to the customs of the nations around you.”¹³ As I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. I fell facedown and cried out in a loud voice, “Alas, Sovereign Lord! Will you completely destroy the remnant of Israel?”¹⁴ Then a message from the Lord reached me:¹⁵ “Son of man, your brothers, your relatives, your fellow exiles, and the entire house of Israel, all of them, are the ones about whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, ‘Keep far from the Lord; this land has been given to us as our possession.’”¹⁶ Therefore say: ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Although I have sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, I have been a sanctuary for them for a little while in the countries where they have gone.’”¹⁷ Therefore say: ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: I will gather you from the peoples and bring you back from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.’”¹⁸ When they return, they will remove all its detestable things and abominations.¹⁹ I will give them a unified heart and put a new spirit within them; I will remove their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh.²⁰ Then they will follow my statutes and be careful to observe my ordinances. They will be my people, and I will be their God.”²¹ But for those whose hearts pursue their detestable things and abominations, I will bring their conduct down on their own heads, declares the Sovereign Lord.”²² At that moment, the cherubim, with the wheels beside them, extended their wings, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.²³ The glory of the Lord rose from within the city and stood over the mountain east of it.²⁴ The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the exiles in Chaldea, in the vision given by the Spirit of God. Then the vision I had seen departed from me,²⁵ and I recounted to the exiles all the things that the Lord had revealed.

Ezekiel

12 A message from the Lord reached me,² “Son of man, you are living in the midst of a rebellious house. They have eyes to see but do not see, and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious house.”³ Therefore, son of man, prepare your belongings for exile and go into exile by day in their sight. Move from your place to another place in their sight; perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious house.”⁴ Bring out your belongings by day in their sight, as baggage for exile. Then you shall go out at evening in their sight, as those going into exile.”⁵ In their presence, dig through the wall and take your belongings out through it.”⁶ Load your belongings on your shoulder in their sight and carry them out in the dark. Cover your face so that you cannot see the land, for I have made you a sign to the house of Israel.”⁷ So I did as I was commanded. By day I brought out my belongings, packed for exile. Then in the evening I dug through the wall with my hands. I went out in the dark, carrying my belongings on my shoulder while they watched.”⁸ In the morning, another message from the Lord reached me,⁹ “Son of man, has not the house of Israel, that rebellious house, said to you, ‘What are you doing?’”¹⁰ Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: This prophecy concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are there.’”¹¹ Say to them, ‘I am a sign to you.’ Just as I have done, so it will be done to them; they will go into exile, into captivity.”¹² The prince among them will load his belongings on his shoulder in the dark and go out. A hole will be dug in the wall for him to go through. He will cover his face so that he cannot see the land.”¹³ I will spread my net for him, and he will be caught in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon in the land of the Chaldeans, yet he will not see it, and there he will die.”¹⁴ I will scatter to the winds all who are around him—his staff and all his troops—and I will pursue them with a drawn sword.”¹⁵ They will Recognise that I am the Lord when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries.”¹⁶ But I will spare a few of them from the sword, famine, and plague, so that they may tell of all their detestable practices among the nations where they go, and they will know that I am the Lord.”¹⁷ Moreover, another message from the Lord reached me,¹⁸ “Son of man, consume your bread with trembling and drink your water with quivering and anxiety.”¹⁹ Then say to the people of the land, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says about the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the land of Israel: They will eat their bread with anxiety and drink their water with horror, because their land will be stripped of its fullness due to the violence of all who live there.’”²⁰ The inhabited towns will be laid waste, and the land will become desolate. Then you will know that I am the Lord.””²¹ Then another message from the Lord reached me,²² “Son of man, what is this proverb you have in the land of Israel, saying, ‘The days go by and every vision comes to nothing?' ²³ Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: I will put an end to this proverb, and they will no longer quote it in Israel.' Tell them, 'The days are near when every vision will be fulfilled. ²⁴ For there will be no more false visions or deceptive divinations among the house of Israel. ²⁵ For I, the Lord, will speak whatever word I speak, and it will be fulfilled without delay. For in your days, you rebellious house, I will speak the word and perform it,' declares the Sovereign Lord." ²⁶ Additionally, another message from the Lord reached me, ²⁷ "Son of man, behold, the house of Israel is saying, 'The vision he sees is for many years from now, and he prophesies about the distant future.' ²⁸ Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: None of my words will be delayed any longer. Whatever word I speak will be performed,' declares the Sovereign Lord."

13 The word of the Lord came to me, saying: ² "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are prophesying. Say to those who prophesy from their own inspiration: 'Listen to the word of the Lord! ³ This is what the Sovereign Lord declares: Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing! ⁴ Your prophets, Israel, are like jackals among the ruins. ⁵ You have not gone up to the breaches in the wall, nor built a wall around the house of Israel to stand firm in the battle on the day of the Lord. ⁶ Their visions are deceitful and their divinations a lie. They say, "The Lord declares," when the Lord has not sent them, yet they expect their words to be fulfilled. ⁷ Have you not witnessed false visions and spoken lying divinations when you say, "The Lord declares," though I have not spoken? ⁸ Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says: Because you have spoken falsely and seen lies, I am against you, declares the Sovereign Lord. ⁹ My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and utter lying divinations. They will not be part of the council of my people, nor will they be recorded in the register of the house of Israel, nor will they enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁰ Because they have led my people astray, saying, "Peace," when there is no peace, and when a wall is built, they cover it with whitewash; ¹¹ therefore tell those who cover it with whitewash that it will fall. Torrential rain will come, and I will send hailstones hurtling down, and a violent wind will break out. ¹²

When the wall collapses, will people not inquire, "Where is the whitewash you covered it with?" ¹³ Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord declares: In my wrath I will unleash a violent wind, and in my anger hailstones and torrents of rain will fall with destructive fury. ¹⁴ I will tear down the wall you have covered with whitewash and level it to the ground so that its foundation will be exposed. When it falls, you will perish within it; and you will know that I am the Lord. ¹⁵ So I will expend my wrath against the wall and against those who covered it with whitewash. I will say to you, "The wall is gone and so are those who whitewashed it, ¹⁶ those prophets of Israel who spoke of peace for Jerusalem when there was no peace," declares the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁷ Now, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy from their own imagination. Prophesy against them ¹⁸ and say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord declares: Woe to the women who sew magic charms on all wrists and make veils for heads of every height to ensnare souls. Will you ensnare the lives of my people but preserve your own? ¹⁹ For a few handfuls of barley and scraps of bread, you have profaned me among my people, putting to death those who should not die and keeping alive those who should not live, by lying to my people who listen to lies. ²⁰ Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord declares: I am against your magic charms with which you ensnare people like birds, and I will tear them from your arms; I will set free the people that you ensnare like birds. ²¹ I will remove your veils and rescue my people from your hands, and they will no longer fall prey to your power. Then you will know that I am the Lord. ²² Because you have disheartened the righteous with your lies, when I had brought them no grief, and because you have encouraged the wicked not to turn from their evil ways and save their lives, ²³ therefore you will no longer see false visions or practice divination. I will save my people from your hands. Then you will know that I am the Lord."

14 Some elders of Israel approached me and sat down before me. ² And the message from the Lord was given to me: ³ "Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and placed a stumbling block of wrongdoing before their faces. Should I allow them to consult me at all? ⁴ Therefore speak to them and say, 'This is what the Lord God says: When any of the house of Israel sets up idols in their heart and places a stumbling block of wrongdoing before their face, and then comes to the prophet, I the Lord will answer them in accordance with their idolatry. ⁵ I will do this to reclaim the hearts of the house of Israel, who have all turned away from me for their idols.' ⁶ "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Lord God says: Repent and turn away from your idols, and renounce all your detestable practices! ⁷ When any of the Israelites or any foreigner residing in Israel separates themselves from me, sets up idols in their hearts, and places a stumbling block of wrongdoing before their faces, and then comes to a prophet to inquire of me, I the Lord will answer them myself. ⁸ I will set my face against that person and make them a sign and a proverb, and I will remove them from my people. Then you will know that I am the Lord. ⁹ And if the prophet is enticed to speak a word, it is I, the Lord, who have enticed that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand against him and eliminate him from among my people Israel. ¹⁰ They will bear their punishment—the prophet will be as guilty as the one who consults him. ¹¹ Then the house of Israel will no longer stray from me, nor will they defile themselves with all their offences. They will be my people, and I will be their God, declares the Lord God." ¹² And the message from the Lord was given to me: ¹³ "Son of man, if a country sins against me by being unfaithful and I stretch out my hand against it to destroy its food supply and send famine upon it and eliminate both human and animal life, ¹⁴ even if these three men—Noah, Daniel, and Job—were in it, they could save only themselves by their righteousness, declares the Lord God. ¹⁵ If I were to send wild beasts through the land and they depopulate it, making it desolate so that no one can pass through it because of the beasts, ¹⁶ as surely as I live, declares the Lord God, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their sons or daughters. They alone would be saved, but the land would be desolate. ¹⁷ Or if I bring a sword against that country and say, 'Let the sword pass throughout the land,' and I eliminate human and animal life from it, ¹⁸ as surely as I live, declares the Lord God, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their sons or daughters. They alone would be saved. ¹⁹ Or if I send a plague into that land and pour out my wrath on it through bloodshed, eliminating human and animal life, ²⁰ as surely as I live, declares the Lord God, even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, they could not save their sons or daughters. They would save only themselves by their righteousness. ²¹ For this is what the Lord God says: How much worse will it be when I send my four severe judgments against Jerusalem—sword, famine, wild beasts, and plague—to eliminate human and animal life! ²² Yet there will be some survivors—sons and daughters who will be brought out. They will come to you, and when you see their conduct and actions, you will be comforted regarding the disaster I have brought upon Jerusalem—every disaster I have brought upon it. ²³ You will be comforted when you see their conduct and actions, for you will know that I have done nothing in it without cause, declares the Lord God."

Ezekiel

15 The word of the Lord came to me, saying: ² "Son of man, how is the wood of a vine superior to any branch from the trees in the forest? ³ Can wood be taken from it to make anything useful? Can even a peg be made from it to hang any item upon? ⁴ If it is cast into the fire for fuel, and the fire devours both ends and chars the middle, is it then useful for anything? ⁵ While it was whole, it was not made into anything. How much less can it be used for anything once it is consumed by fire and charred? ⁶ Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: Just as the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest is given to the fire for fuel, so will I treat the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ⁷ I will set my face against them. Though they have come out of the fire, the fire will still consume them. And you will know that I am the Lord when I set my face against them. ⁸ I will make the land desolate because they have acted unfaithfully, declares the Sovereign Lord."

16 A message from the Lord came to me: ² "Human, inform Jerusalem of her detestable actions. ³ and say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says to Jerusalem: Your origin and birth were in the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. ⁴ On the day you were born, your cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water to cleanse you; you were not rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths. ⁵ No one looked on you with pity or had compassion to do any of these things for you. Rather, you were thrown out into the open field, for you were despised on the day you were born. ⁶ "Then I passed by and saw you squirring in your blood, and I said to you in your blood, "Live!" ⁷ I made you grow like a plant of the field. You grew up and developed, reaching the age for fine adornments; your breasts were formed and your hair had grown, but you were naked and bare. ⁸ "Later I passed by, and when I saw you, you were at the age for love. I spread the corner of my garment over you and covered your nakedness. I gave you my solemn oath and entered into a covenant with you, declares the Sovereign Lord, and you became mine. ⁹ "I bathed you with water and washed the blood from you and anointed you with oil. ¹⁰ I clothed you with embroidered garments and put sandals of fine leather on you. I wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk. ¹¹ I adorned you with jewellery: I put bracelets on your wrists and a necklace around your neck, ¹² and I placed a ring on your nose, earrings on your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. ¹³ Thus you were adorned with gold and silver; your clothes were of fine linen, silk, and embroidered cloth. Your food was fine flour, honey, and olive oil. You became exceedingly beautiful and advanced to royalty. ¹⁴ Your fame spread among the nations on account of your beauty, for it was perfect because of the splendour I had bestowed on you, declares the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁵ "But you trusted in your beauty and became unfaithful because of your fame. You lavished your favours on anyone who passed by, and your beauty became his. ¹⁶ You took some of your garments to make gaudy high places, where you carried on your prostitution. Such things should not happen, nor should they occur. ¹⁷ You also took the fine jewellery I gave you, made of my gold and silver, and you made male images and engaged in prostitution with them. ¹⁸ And you took your embroidered clothes to adorn them, and you offered my oil and incense before them. ¹⁹ Also the food I provided for you—the fine flour, olive oil, and honey I gave you to eat—you offered as a soothing aroma before them. That is what happened, declares the Sovereign Lord. ²⁰ "Moreover, you took your sons and daughters whom you bore to me and sacrificed them to idols to be consumed. Were your obscene practices not enough? ²¹ You put my children to death and offered them to idols by passing them through the fire. ²² In all your abominable practices and your prostitution, you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, squirming in your blood. ²³ "Woe! Woe to you, declares the Sovereign Lord. In addition to all your wickedness, ²⁴ you built a mound for yourself and made a high place in every public square. ²⁵ At every street corner, you built your high places and degraded your beauty, spreading your legs with increasing promiscuity to every passer-by. ²⁶ You engaged in prostitution with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbours, and provoked me to anger with your increasing promiscuity. ²⁷ So I stretched out my hand against you and reduced your territory; I gave you over to the greed of your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd conduct. ²⁸ You also acted immorally with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; and even after that, you still were not satisfied. ²⁹ Then you expanded your promiscuity to include Babylonia, a land of merchants, but even with this, you were not content. ³⁰ "How feverish is your heart, declares the Sovereign Lord, when you do all these things, acting like a brazen prostitute! ³¹ When you built your mounds at every street corner and made your high places in every public square, you were unlike a prostitute because you scorned payment. ³² "You adulterous wife, who prefers strangers to her own husband! ³³ All prostitutes receive gifts, but you give gifts to all your lovers, bribing them to come to you from everywhere for your obscene practices. ³⁴ So in your prostitution, you are unlike others; no one runs after you for your favours. You are the very opposite, for you give payment and none is given to you. ³⁵ "Therefore, hear the word of the Lord, you who have acted as a prostitute! ³⁶ This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Because your lewdness was poured out and your nakedness exposed in your promiscuity with your lovers and with all your detestable idols, and because of the blood of your children you gave to them, ³⁷ therefore I am going to gather all your lovers, with whom you found pleasure, those you loved as well as those you hated. I will gather them against you from every direction and will expose your nakedness to them, so they may see all your nakedness. ³⁸ I will judge you as women who commit adultery and shed blood are judged; I will bring upon you the blood vengeance of my wrath and jealousy. ³⁹ Then I will deliver you into the hands of your lovers, and they will tear down your mounds and destroy your high places. They will strip you of your clothes and take your fine jewellery and leave you naked and bare. ⁴⁰ They will incite a mob against you, who will stone you and hack you to pieces with their swords. ⁴¹ They will burn down your houses and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women. I will put an end to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay your lovers. ⁴² Then my wrath against you will subside, and my jealousy will turn away from you; I will be calm and no longer angry. ⁴³ “Because you did not remember the days of your youth but enraged me with all these things, I will surely bring down on your head what you have done, declares the Sovereign Lord. Did you not add lewdness to all your other abominable practices? ⁴⁴ “Everyone who quotes proverbs will say this about you: “Like mother, like daughter.” ⁴⁵ You are the daughter of your mother, who loathed her husband and children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite. ⁴⁶ Your elder sister was Samaria, she lived to the north with her daughters; and your younger sister, who lived to the south with her daughters, was Sodom. ⁴⁷ You not only followed their ways and committed their abominations, but in all your ways you soon became more depraved than they. ⁴⁸ Surely as I live, declares the Sovereign Lord: your sister Sodom and her daughters never did what you and your daughters have done. ⁴⁹ “This was the sin of your sister Sodom: She and her daughters were arrogant, care-free, living under too much comfort; they did not help the poor and needy. ⁵⁰ They were proud and did detestable things before me. Therefore I did away with them as you have seen. ⁵¹ Samaria did not commit half the sins you did. You have done more abominable things than they, and have made your sisters seem righteous by all these things you have done. ⁵² Bear your shame, for you have provided some justification for your sisters. Because your sins were more vile than theirs, they appear more righteous than you. So then, be ashamed and bear your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous. ⁵³ “Nevertheless, I will restore the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and of Samaria and her daughters, and your fortunes along with them, ⁵⁴ so that you may bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all you have done in offering them solace. ⁵⁵ And your sisters, Sodom with her daughters and Samaria with her daughters, will return to their former state; and you and your daughters will return to your former state. ⁵⁶ You would not even mention your sister Sodom in the time of your pride, ⁵⁷ before your wickedness was uncovered. So now you are scorned by the daughters of Edom and all her neighbours and the daughters of the Philistines—all those around you who despise you. ⁵⁸ You will bear the consequences of your lewdness and your abominable practices, declares the Lord. ⁵⁹ “This is what the Sovereign Lord says: I will deal with you according to your actions, because you have despised my oath by breaking the covenant. ⁶⁰ Yet I will remember the covenant I made with you in your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. ⁶¹ Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your sisters, both those who are older than you and those who are younger. I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of my covenant with you. ⁶² So I will establish my covenant with you, so that you will know that I am the Lord. ⁶³ Then, when I have made atonement for you for all you have done, you will remember and be ashamed and never again open your mouth because of your humiliation, declares the Sovereign Lord.”

Ezekiel

17 A message from the Lord came to me: ² “Son of man, pose a riddle and present it as a parable to the Israelites. ³ Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: A mighty eagle with large wings, long feathers, and a full plumage of diverse colours came to Lebanon and took the top of a cedar. ⁴ He snapped off the topmost of its young twigs and carried it to a land of merchants; he planted it in a city of traders. ⁵ He also took a seedling from the land and placed it in fertile soil, a meadow by abundant waters; he set it like a willow. ⁶ It sprouted and became a low, spreading vine. Its branches turned towards him, but its roots remained beneath it. Thus it became a vine, producing branches and sending out leafy boughs. ⁷ But there was another great eagle with large wings and much plumage. The vine now sent out its roots towards him and stretched its branches towards him from the bed where it was planted, seeking water. ⁸ It had been planted in good soil by abundant waters, so that it might produce branches, bear fruit, and become a splendid vine.’ ⁹ Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Will it thrive? Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit so that it withers? All its new growth will wither. It will not require a strong arm or many people to pull it up by the roots.

¹⁰ Though it is planted, will it thrive? Will it not completely wither when the east wind strikes it—wither in the bed where it grew?” ¹¹ Later, a message from the Lord came to me: ¹² “Say to this rebellious house, ‘Do you not know what these things mean?’ Say: ‘The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and took its king and nobles, bringing them to Babylon. ¹³ He took a member of the royal family and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath. He also carried away the leading men of the land, ¹⁴ so that the kingdom would be humbled, not exalting itself, but maintaining the covenant to survive. ¹⁵ But he rebelled against him by sending his envoys to Egypt for horses and a large army. Will he succeed? Can he break the covenant and escape?’ ¹⁶ As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign Lord, he shall die in Babylon, in the land of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke. ¹⁷ Pharaoh with his mighty army and great horde will not assist him in war, when ramps are built and siege works erected to destroy many lives. ¹⁸ He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. Despite giving his hand in pledge, he did all these things; he shall not escape. ¹⁹ Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord declares: As surely as I live, I will repay him for disregarding my oath and breaking my covenant. ²⁰ I will spread my net for him, and he will be ensnared in my trap. I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment on him there for being unfaithful to me. ²¹ All his choice troops will fall by the sword, and the survivors will be scattered to every wind. Then you will know that I, the Lord, have spoken. ²² This is what the Sovereign Lord says: I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar and plant it; I will break off a tender shoot from its topmost branches and plant it on a high and lofty mountain. ²³ On the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it, so that it may produce branches and bear fruit and become a magnificent cedar. Birds of every kind will nest under it; they will find shelter in the shade of its branches. ²⁴ All the trees of the field will know that I, the Lord, bring down the tall tree and make the low tree grow tall. I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it.”

18 The message from the Lord came to me, saying: ² “What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel: ‘The fathers eat sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge?’ ³ As surely as I live,” declares the Lord God, “you shall no longer use this proverb in Israel. ⁴ Behold, all souls are mine; the soul of the father as well as the soul of the son is mine. The soul who sins is the one who will die. ⁵ “But if a man is righteous and does what is just and right— ⁶ if he does not eat at the mountain shrines or lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, does not defile his neighbour’s wife or approach a woman during her menstrual impurity— ⁷ if he does not oppress anyone, but restores to the debtor his pledge, does not commit robbery, but gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing, ⁸ if he does not lend at interest or take any profit, withholds his hand from injustice and executes true justice between one person and another, ⁹ if he walks in my statutes and keeps my ordinances by acting faithfully—he is righteous; he shall surely live,” declares the Lord God. ¹⁰ “If he has a son who is violent, one who sheds blood, and does any of these things— ¹¹ though he himself did none of these things—who even eats at the mountain shrines, defiles his neighbour’s wife, ¹² he oppresses those in need, commits robbery, fails to return what was pledged, looks to idols, engages in detestable acts, ¹³ lends at interest and takes profit; shall he then live? He shall not live! He has done all these abominations; he shall surely be put to death; his blood shall be upon himself. ¹⁴ “Now suppose this man has a son who sees all the sins that his father has done; he sees, and does not do likewise: ¹⁵ he does not eat at the mountain shrines or lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, does not defile his neighbour’s wife, ¹⁶ does not oppress anyone, exacts no pledge, does not commit robbery, but gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing, ¹⁷ withholds his hand from wrong, takes no interest or profit, obeys my statutes and walks in my ordinances; he shall not die for his father’s iniquity; he shall surely live. ¹⁸ As for his father, because he engaged in extortion, robbed his brother, and acted unjustly among his people, he shall die for his wrongdoing. ¹⁹ “Yet you say, ‘Why should not the son suffer for the iniquity of the father?’ When the son has done what is just and right, and has kept all my statutes and observed them, he shall surely live. ²⁰ The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, nor shall the father bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself. ²¹ "But if a wicked person turns away from all his sins and keeps all my statutes and does what is just and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. ²² None of the transgressions he has committed will be remembered against him; for the righteousness he has done, he shall live. ²³ Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked," declares the Lord God, "rather than that he should turn from his ways and live? ²⁴ "But when a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity and does the same abominations that the wicked person does, shall he live? None of the righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered; for the treachery of which he is guilty and the sin he has committed, for them he shall die. ²⁵ "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Hear now, O house of Israel: Are my ways not right? Is it not your ways that are unfair? ²⁶ When a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he shall die for it; for the iniquity that he has committed he shall die. ²⁷ When a wicked person turns away from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he shall save his life. ²⁸ Because he considered and turned away from all the transgressions he had committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die. ²⁹ Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Hear O house of Israel, Are my ways not right? Is it not your ways that are unfair? ³⁰ "Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, each one according to his ways," declares the Lord God. "Repent and turn from all your transgressions, so that iniquity will not be your downfall. ³¹ Rid yourselves of all the transgressions you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? ³² For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone," declares the Lord God. "So turn, and live."

19 "Raise a lamentation for the rulers of Israel ² and say: 'How like a lioness was your mother among the lions! She lay down among the young lions and reared her cubs. ³ She brought up one of her cubs, and he became a young lion. He learned to tear prey and devoured people. ⁴ The nations heard of him, and he was caught in their trap. They led him away with hooks to the land of Egypt. ⁵ When she saw her hope was lost, her expectation gone, she took another of her cubs and made him a young lion. ⁶ He roamed among the lions; he became a young lion. He learned to tear prey and devoured people. ⁷ He demolished their fortresses and laid waste their cities. The land and all its inhabitants were appalled at his roaring. ⁸ Then the nations set against him from all around. They spread their net over him, and he was caught in their trap. ⁹ They put him in a cage with hooks and brought him to the king of Babylon, so his voice would no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁰ Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard, planted by the waters; it was fruitful and full of branches due to abundant waters. ¹¹ Its branches were strong, fit for a ruler's sceptre. It towered high above the thick foliage, noticeable for its height and its many branches. ¹² But it was uprooted in fury and thrown to the ground. The east wind dried up its fruit; its strong branches were broken and withered, and fire consumed them. ¹³ It is now situated in the wilderness, in a parched and thirsty land. ¹⁴ Fire has emerged from its main branch and consumed its shoots and fruit. No strong branch is left in it, fit for a ruler's sceptre.' This is a lamentation and is to be used as a lamentation.

20 In the seventh year, in the fifth month on the tenth day, some of the elders of Israel came to seek the Lord, and they sat before me. ² Then the message from the Lord came to me, saying: ³ "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, 'This is what the Lord God says: Have you come to inquire of me? As I live, declares the Lord God, I will not let you inquire of me.' ⁴ "Will you judge them, son of man? Make known to them the abominations of their ancestors. ⁵ and say to them: 'This is what the Lord God says: On the day I chose Israel, I swore to the descendants of Jacob and revealed myself to them in Egypt, saying, "I am the Lord your God." ⁶ On that day I swore to bring them out of Egypt into a land I had selected for them, flowing with milk and honey, the most glorious of all lands. ⁷ And I said to them, "Each of you, cast away the detestable things your eyes feast on, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the Lord your God." ⁸ But they rebelled against me and were unwilling to listen; they did not cast away the detestable things their eyes feasted on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. So I resolved to pour out my wrath on them and unleash my anger against them in Egypt. ⁹ But for the sake of my name, I acted to prevent it from being profaned in the sight of the nations among whom they lived, and in whose sight I had revealed myself to the Israelites. ¹⁰ So I led them out of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹ I gave them my statutes and informed them of my ordinances, by which a person shall live if they obey them. ¹² I also gave them my Sabbaths as a sign between us, so they would know that I, the Lord, sanctify them. ¹³ Yet the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not follow my statutes and rejected my ordinances—by which a person shall live if they obey them—and they greatly profaned my Sabbaths. So I resolved to pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to destroy them. ¹⁴ But I acted for the sake of my name, to prevent it from being profaned in the sight of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. ¹⁵ Also, I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land I had given them—a land flowing with milk and honey, the most glorious of all lands— ¹⁶ because they rejected my ordinances, did not follow my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths, for their hearts were devoted to their idols. ¹⁷ Yet I looked on them with pity and did not destroy them or bring about their annihilation in the wilderness. ¹⁸ I said to their children in the wilderness, “Do not follow the statutes of your parents or keep their ordinances or defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹ I am the Lord your God; follow my statutes and be careful to keep my ordinances. ²⁰ Sanctify my Sabbaths, and they shall be a sign between us, so that you may know that I am the Lord your God.” ²¹ But the children rebelled against me: they did not follow my statutes, nor were they careful to keep my ordinances, by which a person shall live if they obey them, and they profaned my Sabbaths. So I resolved to pour out my wrath on them and unleash my anger against them in the wilderness. ²² But I withdrew my hand and acted for the sake of my name, to prevent it from being profaned in the sight of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. ²³ Also, I swore to them in the wilderness that I would disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries, ²⁴ because they had not obeyed my ordinances but had rejected my statutes and profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes lusted after their parents’ idols. ²⁵ So I allowed them to follow statutes that were not beneficial and ordinances by which they could not thrive; ²⁶ I let them be defiled through their gifts—the sacrifice of every firstborn—that they might be filled with horror so they would know that I am the Lord.’ ²⁷ “Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, ‘This is what the Lord God says: In this also your ancestors blasphemed me by being unfaithful to me: ²⁸ When I brought them into the land I had sworn to give them, they saw every high hill and leafy tree, and there they offered their sacrifices and presented their provoking offerings. There they made their soothing aroma and poured out their drink offerings. ²⁹ Then I said to them: What is this elevated place you go to?’” (It is called Bamah to this day.) ³⁰ “Therefore say to the house of Israel: ‘This is what the Lord God says: Will you defile yourselves in the manner of your ancestors and pursue their detestable things? ³¹ When you offer your gifts, when you make your children pass through the fire, you continue to defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. Shall I be inquired of by you, house of Israel? As I live, declares the Lord God, I will not be inquired of by you. ³² And whatever you have in mind will never happen, when you say, “We will be like the nations, like the peoples of the world, serving wood and stone.” ³³ As I live, declares the Lord God, with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with wrath poured out, I will reign over you. ³⁴ I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you from the lands where you have been scattered, with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with wrath poured out. ³⁵ I will bring you into the wilderness of the nations, and there I will enter into judgment with you directly. ³⁶ As I judged your ancestors in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will judge you, declares the Lord God. ³⁷ I will make you pass under the shepherd’s staff, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. ³⁸ I will purge from you the rebels and those who revolt against me. Although I will bring them out of the land where they reside, they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord. ³⁹ “As for you, house of Israel, this is what the Lord God says: Go, serve each of you your idols; but later you will surely listen to me, and my holy name you will no longer defile with your gifts and idols. ⁴⁰ For on my holy mountain, the high mountain of Israel, declares the Lord God, there the entire house of Israel will serve me in the land; there I will accept them and there I will require your offerings and the choicest of your gifts, with all your holy things.⁴¹ As a soothing aroma I will accept you when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you from the lands where you are scattered, and I will show myself to be holy among you in the sight of the nations.⁴² Then you will know that I am the Lord, when I bring you into the land of Israel, the land I had sworn to give to your ancestors.⁴³ There you will remember your ways and all the deeds by which you have defiled yourselves, and you will loathe yourselves for all the evils you have committed.⁴⁴ You will know that I am the Lord, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways or your corrupt deeds, house of Israel, declares the Lord God."⁴⁵ Then the message from the Lord came to me, saying:⁴⁶ "Son of man, set your face toward the south; preach against the south and prophesy against the forest land of the Negev."⁴⁷ Say to the forest of the Negev: 'Hear the word of the Lord. This is what the Lord God says: Behold, I am about to kindle a fire in you, and it will consume every green tree and every dry tree; the blazing flame will not be quenched, and every face from south to north will be scorched by it.'⁴⁸ And all mankind will see that I, the Lord, have kindled it; it will not be quenched.'⁴⁹ Then I said, "Oh, Lord God! They are saying of me, 'Is he not just speaking in parables?'"

Ezekiel

21 The message from the Lord came to me:² "Son of man, turn your face towards Jerusalem and prophesy against the sanctuaries; prophesy against the land of Israel,³ and say to the land of Israel: 'This is what the Lord declares: Behold, I am against you, and I will draw my sword from its sheath and cut off both the righteous and the wicked from you.'⁴ Since I am going to cut off both the righteous and the wicked, my sword will be drawn against everyone from south to north.'⁵ Then all flesh will know that I, the Lord, have drawn my sword from its sheath; it will not return again.'⁶ Therefore, son of man, groan with a broken heart and bitter grief; groan in their presence.'⁷ And when they ask you, 'Why are you groaning?' you shall say, 'Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt, all hands will become weak, every spirit will faint, and all knees will become as water. Behold, it is coming, and it will happen,' declares the Sovereign Lord."⁸ The message from the Lord came to me:⁹ "Son of man, prophesy and declare, 'This is what the Lord declares: A sword, a sword, sharpened and polished—¹⁰ sharpened for slaughter, polished to flash like lightning! Shall we rejoice in the sceptre of my son? The sword despises every such rod.'¹¹ The sword is appointed to be polished, to be grasped with the hand; it is sharpened and polished, ready for the hand of the slayer.'¹² Cry out and wail, son of man, for it is against my people; it is against all the princes of Israel. They are delivered to the sword with my people. Therefore, strike your thigh.'¹³ For there is a testing; and what if even the sceptre which the sword despises does not continue? declares the Sovereign Lord.'¹⁴ "So then, son of man, prophesy and clap your hands. Let the sword strike twice, even thrice. It is a sword for slaughter, a sword for great slaughter, encircling them.'¹⁵ So that hearts may waver and many fall at all their gates, I have stationed the sword for slaughter. Ah! It is made to flash like lightning, it is sharpened for slaughter.'¹⁶ Turn to the right, you sword; then turn to the left, wherever your blade is directed.'¹⁷ I too will clap my hands, and I will satisfy my wrath. I, the Lord, have spoken."¹⁸ The message from the Lord came to me:¹⁹ "Son of man, mark out two paths for the sword of the king of Babylon to take, both starting from the same land. Make a signpost at the head of the road to the city.'²⁰ Mark a path for the sword to come to Rabbah of the Ammonites and to Judah into fortified Jerusalem.'²¹ For the king of Babylon stands at the parting of the road, at the head of the two roads, to seek an omen: he shakes the arrows, he consults the idols, he examines the liver.'²² Into his right hand comes the lot for Jerusalem, to set up battering rams, to give the command to slaughter, to raise the battle cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to build a ramp and to erect siege works.'²³ It will seem like a false divination to those who have sworn oaths to him, but he will remind them of their guilt and capture them.'²⁴ "Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: 'Because you have brought to mind your guilt by your open rebellion, revealing your sins in all that you do—because you have come to mind, you will be captured.'²⁵ And you, profane and wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come, at the time of the final punishment,²⁶ this is what the Sovereign Lord says: Remove the turban and take off the crown. It will not be as it was: the lowly will be exalted and the exalted will be brought low.'²⁷ A ruin, a ruin, a ruin I will make it! This will not be restored until he comes to whom it rightfully belongs; to him I will give it.' ²⁸ "And you, son of man, prophesy and declare, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says concerning the Ammonites and their insults: A sword, a sword, drawn for slaughter, polished to consume and flash like lightning— ²⁹ while they see false visions for you, while they divine lies for you—to place you on the necks of the wicked who are to be slain, whose day has come, at the time of the final punishment. ³⁰ Return the sword to its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your origin, I will judge you. ³¹ I will pour out my wrath on you and breathe my fiery anger against you; I will deliver you into the hands of brutal men, skilled in destruction. ³² You will be fuel for the fire; your blood will be shed in your land, you will not be remembered, for I, the Lord, have spoken."

22 The message from the Lord came to me, saying, ² "Son of man, will you judge, will you judge the city of bloodshed? Then inform her of all her abominations. ³ And say: 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: A city that brings upon herself doom by shedding blood in her midst and defiles herself with idols, contrary to her own good. ⁴ You have become guilty by the blood you have shed and defiled by the idols you have made. You have brought your days near and have come to the end of your years. Therefore, I will make you a disgrace to the nations and a laughingstock to all the lands. ⁵ Those who are near and those who are far off will mock you, you city of ill reputation, full of turmoil. ⁶ "Observe how each of the princes of Israel within you uses his power to shed blood. ⁷ In you they have treated father and mother with contempt; they have oppressed the foreigner, and mistreated the fatherless and the widow. ⁸ You have shown disdain for the holy things and violated my Sabbaths. ⁹ In you are slanderers bent on shedding blood; in you are those who eat at the mountain shrines and commit outrageous acts. ¹⁰ In you are those who uncover their father's nakedness; in you are those who violate women during their period, when they are ceremonially unclean. ¹¹ In you one man commits abomination with his neighbour's wife, another shamefully defiles his daughter-in-law, and another violates his sister, his own father's daughter. ¹² In you are people who accept bribes to commit violence; you take interest and make a profit from the poor. You extort unjust gain from your neighbours. And you have forgotten me, declares the Sovereign Lord. ¹³ "Behold, I will strike my hands together at your dishonest gain and the bloodshed in your midst. ¹⁴ Will your heart endure, or will your hands be strong in the days I deal with you? I, the Lord, have spoken and will act. ¹⁵ I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you through the lands; and I will cleanse you of your uncleanness. ¹⁶ When you have been defiled in the sight of the nations, you will know that I am the Lord." ¹⁷ Then the message from the Lord came to me, saying, ¹⁸ "Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me; all of them are bronze, tin, iron, and lead left in the furnace. They are but the dross of silver. ¹⁹ Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: 'Because you have all become dross, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. ²⁰ As silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin are gathered into a furnace to be melted with a fiery blast, so will I gather you in my anger and wrath and put you inside the city and melt you. ²¹ I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you will be melted inside her. ²² Just as silver is melted in a furnace, so you will be melted inside her, and you will Recognise that I, the Lord, have poured out my wrath on you." ²³ Again the message from the Lord came to me, saying, ²⁴ "Son of man, declare to the land, 'You are a land that has not been cleansed or rained on in the day of wrath.' ²⁵ There is a conspiracy of her princes within her like a roaring lion tearing its prey; they devour lives, take treasures and precious things, and make many widows within her. ²⁶ Her priests have done violence to my law and profaned my holy things; they do not distinguish between the holy and the common; they have not taught the difference between the unclean and the clean; and they have shut their eyes to the keeping of my Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them. ²⁷ Her officials within her are like wolves tearing their prey; they shed blood and destroy lives to make dishonest gain. ²⁸ Her prophets cover up these deeds for them by false visions and deceptive divinations. They claim, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says'—when the Lord has not spoken. ²⁹ The people of the land engage in extortion and commit robbery; they oppress the poor and needy and mistreat the foreigner, denying them justice. ³⁰ I searched for someone among them who would build up the wall and stand before me in the gap on behalf of the land so I would not have to destroy it, but I found no one.

³¹ Therefore, I will pour out my wrath on them and consume them with my fiery anger, bringing down on their own heads all they have done, declares the Sovereign Lord."

23 The word of the Lord came to me once more, saying, ² "Son of man, there were two sisters, from the same mother; ³ they engaged in prostitution in Egypt. They prostituted themselves from their youth; there their breasts were fondled and their virgin bosoms were caressed. ⁴ The elder was named Oholah, and her sister was Oholibah. They belonged to me and bore sons and daughters. Oholah represents Samaria, and Oholibah represents Jerusalem. ⁵ "Oholah engaged in prostitution while she was still mine; she lusted after her lovers, the Assyrians, her neighbours, ⁶ clothed in blue, governors and commanders, all of them handsome young men, riding on horses. ⁷ She bestowed her obscene practices upon them, all the elite of the Assyrians, and defiled herself with all their idols, with whom she lusted. ⁸ She did not abandon the prostitution she began in Egypt; in her youth men slept with her, caressed her virgin bosom and poured out their lust upon her. ⁹ Therefore, I handed her over to her lovers, the Assyrians, for whom she lusted. ¹⁰ They uncovered her nakedness, took away her sons and daughters, and killed her with the sword. She became a byword among women, and judgments were executed upon her. ¹¹ "Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet she was more depraved in her lust and prostitution than her sister. ¹² She too lusted after the Assyrians—governors and commanders, opulently dressed, horsemen riding on horses, all handsome young men. ¹³ And I saw that she too defiled herself; both of them followed the same path. ¹⁴ But she carried her prostitution further. She saw men portrayed on a wall, images of Chaldeans drawn in bright red, ¹⁵ with belts around their waists and flowing turbans on their heads; all of them looked like Babylonian officers, natives of Chaldea. ¹⁶ When she saw them, she desired them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea. ¹⁷ Then the Babylonians came to her, and in their desire they defiled her. After she had been defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust. ¹⁸ She exposed her obscene practices and her nakedness; therefore, I turned away from her in disgust, just as I had turned away from her sister. ¹⁹ Yet she multiplied her obscene practices, recalling the days of her youth, when she prostituted herself in Egypt. ²⁰ She lusted after her lovers, whose flesh was like that of donkeys and whose emission was like that of horses. ²¹ Thus, you yearned for the immorality of your youth, when in Egypt your bosom was caressed and your young breasts fondled. ²² "Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I will incite your lovers against you, those you turned away from in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side— ²³ the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, the men of Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, all of them governors and commanders, chariot officers and men of high rank, all mounted on horses. ²⁴ They will come against you with weapons, chariots and wagons, and with a multitude of people; they will set themselves against you on every side with large and small shields and with helmets. I will commit judgment to them, and they will judge you according to their customs. ²⁵ I will direct my jealous anger against you, and they will deal with you in wrath. They will cut off your noses and your ears, and those who remain will fall by the sword. They will take away your sons and daughters, and those who remain will be consumed by fire. ²⁶ They will also take away your garments and seize your fine jewellery. ²⁷ So I will put an end to your lewdness and prostitution brought from Egypt. You will not look on these things with longing or remember Egypt anymore. ²⁸ For this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I am about to hand you over to those you despise, to those you turned away from in disgust. ²⁹ They will deal with you in hatred, take all your possessions, and leave you naked and bare. The shame of your prostitution will be exposed, and your lewdness and obscene practices ³⁰ have brought this upon you, because you lusted after the nations and defiled yourself with their idols. ³¹ You have followed the way of your sister; therefore, I will place her cup into your hand. ³² This is what the Sovereign Lord says: You will drink your sister's cup, a cup deep and wide; it will bring scorn and derision, for it holds much. ³³ You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, a cup of ruin and desolation, the cup of your sister Samaria. ³⁴ You will drink it and drain it dry; you will gnaw on its fragments and tear your breasts. I have spoken, declares the Sovereign Lord. ³⁵ Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says:

Because you have forgotten me and cast me behind your back, you must bear the consequences of your lewdness and obscene practices.”³⁶ Moreover, the Lord said to me: “Human being, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then confront them with their detestable practices,³⁷ for they have committed adultery and blood is on their hands. They were unfaithful with their idols; they even sacrificed their children, whom they bore to me, as food for them.”³⁸ They have also done this to me: At that same time, they defiled my sanctuary and violated my Sabbaths.³⁹ On the very day they sacrificed their children to their idols, they entered my sanctuary and violated it. That is what they did in my house.⁴⁰ Furthermore, they sent messengers for men who came from afar, and when they arrived, you bathed yourself for them, applied eye makeup and adorned yourself with jewellery.⁴¹ You sat on a splendid couch, with a table spread before it on which you had placed my incense and my oil.⁴² The noise of a carefree crowd was around her; drunkards were brought from the wilderness along with men from the rabble, and they put bracelets on the wrists of the woman and her sister and beautiful crowns on their heads.⁴³ Then I said concerning the one worn out by adultery, ‘Now let them use her as a prostitute, for that is all she is.’⁴⁴ And they went in to her as men go in to a prostitute. So they went in to Oholah and Oholibah, the lewd women.⁴⁵ But righteous judges will sentence them to the punishment of women who commit adultery and shed blood, because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.⁴⁶ For this is what the Sovereign Lord says: Bring a mob against them and give them over to terror and plunder.⁴⁷ The mob will stone them and cut them down with their swords; they will kill their sons and daughters and burn their houses.⁴⁸ Thus, I will bring an end to lewdness in the land, that all women may take warning and not imitate you.⁴⁹ You will bear the penalty for your lewdness and the consequences of your idolatrous acts. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign Lord.”

24 In the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day, a message from the Lord reached me:² “Son of man, write down the name of this day, this very day, for the king of Babylon has begun his siege against Jerusalem this very day.”³ Speak a parable to this rebellious house and say to them: ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says:

“Set the pot on the fire, put it on, and pour water into it.”⁴ Place into it the pieces of meat, every good piece— the thigh and the shoulder. Fill it with the best bones;⁵ select the choicest of the flock. Pile wood beneath it; make it boil well, and let the bones be cooked in it.

⁶ ‘For thus says the Sovereign Lord:

“Woe to the city of bloodshed, to the pot now encrusted, whose filth will not depart! Remove the meat piece by piece, without selecting it.”⁷ For the blood she spilled remains within her; she spilled it upon the bare rock; and did not pour it on the ground nor cover it with dust.⁸ To arouse my wrath and take vengeance, I have placed her blood on the bare rock, so it will not be covered.⁹ Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: “Woe to the city of bloodshed! I will make the wood pile great.¹⁰ Heap on the wood, kindle the fire, cook the meat thoroughly, mix in the spices, and let the bones be charred.¹¹ Then set the empty pot on the coals so it becomes hot and its copper glows, that its impurities may melt and its filth be consumed.¹² It has wearied me with its efforts; its heavy filth has not been removed, not even by fire.

¹³ Your impurity is lewdness. Because I sought to cleanse you, but you would not be cleansed from your impurity, you will not be clean again until my fury against you is spent.¹⁴ I, the Lord, have spoken. The time has come for me to act. I will not hold back; I will not have pity, nor will I relent. You will be judged according to your ways and your deeds, declares the Sovereign Lord.”¹⁵ Another message from the Lord reached me:¹⁶ “Son of man, behold, I am about to take away from you the delight of your eyes with a single blow; yet you shall not mourn or weep, nor shall your tears flow.¹⁷ Groan silently; do not mourn for the dead. Keep your turban fastened and your sandals on your feet; do not cover your moustache and beard or eat the bread of mourners.”¹⁸ So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I was commanded.¹⁹ Then the people asked me, “Will you not tell us what these things mean for us, that you are doing?”²⁰ So I explained to them, “A message from the Lord reached me:²¹ Say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: I am about to desecrate my sanctuary—the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, the longing of your soul. The sons and daughters you left behind will fall by the sword.²² And you will do as I have done. You will not cover your moustache and beard or eat the bread of mourners.²³ You will keep your turbans on your heads and your sandals on your feet. You will not mourn or weep but will waste away because of your iniquities and groan among yourselves.²⁴ Ezekiel will serve as a sign to you; you will act just as he has acted. When this occurs, you will recognise that I am the Sovereign Lord.²⁵ “As for you, son of man, on the day I take away from them their stronghold, the joy of their splendour, the delight of their eyes, their heart’s desire, and their sons and daughters as well—²⁶ on that day, a fugitive will come to you to report the news.²⁷ On that day, your mouth will be opened to the one who escapes, and you will speak and no longer be silent. Thus, you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the Lord.”

Ezekiel

25 The message from the Lord reached me:² “Son of man, turn towards the Ammonites and prophesy this against them,³ say to them: ‘Hear the word of the Lord God. This is what the Lord God says: Because you said “Aha!” over my sanctuary when it was desecrated, and over the land of Israel when it was laid waste, and over the people of Judah when they went into exile,⁴ therefore, behold, I am going to hand you over to the people of the East as a possession. They will set up their camps among you and make their dwellings among you; they will eat your fruit and drink your milk.⁵ I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and Ammon a resting place for flocks. Then you will know that I am the Lord.⁶ For this is what the Lord God says: Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet, and rejoiced with all the malice in your heart against the land of Israel,⁷ therefore, behold, I will stretch out my hand against you and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and eliminate you from the lands. I will destroy you, and you will know that I am the Lord.”

⁸ “This is what the Lord God says: ‘Because Moab and Seir said, “Behold, the house of Judah is like all the other nations,”⁹ therefore, behold, I will expose the flank of Moab, beginning with its frontier towns—Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim—the glory of the land.¹⁰ I will deliver Moab along with the Ammonites to the people of the East as a possession, ensuring that the Ammonites are forgotten among the nations;¹¹ and I will execute judgments on Moab. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

¹² “This is what the Lord God says: ‘Because Edom acted in vengeance against the house of Judah and incurred great guilt by doing so,¹³ therefore this is what the Lord God says: I will stretch out my hand against Edom and eliminate both man and beast. I will lay it waste, and from Teman to Dedan they will fall by the sword.¹⁴ I will take my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they will deal with Edom according to my anger and my wrath; they will know my vengeance, declares the Lord God.”¹⁵ “This is what the Lord God says: ‘Because the Philistines acted in revenge and took vengeance with malice in their hearts, and with ancient hostility sought to destroy Judah,¹⁶ therefore this is what the Lord God says: Behold, I am about to stretch out my hand against the Philistines and eliminate the Cherethites; and I will destroy the remnant along the coast.¹⁷ I will carry out great vengeance on them with furious rebukes; and they will know that I am the Lord, when I bring my vengeance upon them.”

26 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the message from the Lord came to me:² “Son of man, because Tyre has said regarding Jerusalem, ‘Aha! The gateway of the nations is broken; it has opened to me. Now that she is in ruins, I shall prosper,’³ therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says: Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and I will bring many nations against you, as the sea brings up its waves.⁴ They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down her towers; I will sweep away her debris and make her a bare rock.⁵ Out in the sea she will become a place for the spreading of nets, for I have spoken, declares the Sovereign Lord. She will become plunder for the nations,⁶ and her settlements on the mainland will be slain by the sword. Then they will know that I am the Lord.⁷ For this is what the Sovereign Lord says: Behold, I am going to bring against Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses, chariots, cavalry, and a great army.⁸ He will ravage your settlements on the mainland with the sword; he will set up siege works against you, build a ramp up to your walls and raise a large shield against you.⁹ He will strike your walls with his battering rams and demolish your towers with his weapons. ¹⁰ Because of the multitude of his horses, the dust raised by them will cover you; your walls will tremble at the noise of the cavalry, wagons, and chariots when he enters your gates as men enter a city whose walls have been breached. ¹¹ With the hooves of his horses he will trample all your streets; he will kill your people with the sword, and your strong pillars will fall to the ground. ¹² They will plunder your wealth and loot your merchandise; they will tear down your walls and demolish your fine houses and throw your stones, timber, and rubble into the sea. ¹³ I will put an end to your noisy songs, and the sound of your harps will be heard no more. ¹⁴ I will make you into a barren rock, and you will become a place for spreading fishing nets. You shall not be rebuilt, for I, the Lord, have spoken, declares the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁵ This is what the Sovereign Lord says to Tyre: Will not the coastlands tremble at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan and the slaughter takes place in your midst? ¹⁶ Then all the princes of the sea will descend from their thrones, remove their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments. Clothed with terror, they will sit on the ground, trembling every moment, appalled at you. ¹⁷ They will take up a lament concerning you and say to you:

Ezekiel

‘How you are destroyed, city of renown, peopled by men of the sea! You were a power on the seas, you and your citizens; you put your terror on all who lived there. ¹⁸ The coastlands now shudder on the day of your downfall; the islands in the sea are in terror at your collapse.’

¹⁹ For this is what the Sovereign Lord says: When I make you a desolate city, like cities no longer inhabited, and when I bring the ocean depths over you and its vast waters cover you, ²⁰ then I will bring you down with those who go down to the pit, to the people of old. I will make you dwell in the lower parts of the earth, as in ancient ruins, with those who go down to the pit, so that you will not return or take your place in the land of the living. ²¹ I will bring you to a dreadful end, and you will be no more. You will be sought, but you will never again be found, declares the Sovereign Lord.

27 A message from the Lord came to me: ² “Son of man, raise a lamentation over Tyre. ³ Say to Tyre, who sits at the gateway to the sea, merchant of peoples to many coasts, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says:

“You have declared, Tyre, “I am perfect in beauty.”

⁴ Your domain is in the heart of the seas; your builders have perfected your beauty. ⁵ They made all your timbers of juniper from Senir; a cedar from Lebanon was taken to make a mast for you. ⁶ Of oaks from Bashan they made your oars; your deck was inlaid with ivory from boxwood from the coasts of Cyprus. ⁷ Your sail was of finely embroidered linen from Egypt, serving as your ensign; your awnings were of blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah. ⁸ The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen; your wise men, Tyre, were aboard as your sailors. ⁹ The elders of Gebal and their skilled men were with you, caulking your seams. All the ships of the sea and their sailors were with you to trade for your merchandise. ¹⁰ “Men of Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army, your warriors. They hung their shields and helmets on your walls, bringing you splendour. ¹¹ The men of Arvad and your army were upon your walls all around, and the Gammadim were in your towers. They hung their shields on your walls all around; they perfected your beauty.

¹² “Tarshish traded with you because of your vast wealth of goods; they exchanged silver, iron, tin, and lead for your merchandise. ¹³ “Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your merchants; they traded human lives and vessels of bronze for your wares. ¹⁴ “Men of Beth Togarmah exchanged horses, war horses, and mules for your merchandise. ¹⁵ “The men of Dedan were your traders; many coastlands were your market, and they paid you with ivory tusks and ebony. ¹⁶ “Aram was your customer because of the abundance of your goods; they exchanged emeralds, purple fabric, embroidered cloth, fine linen, coral, and rubies for your wares. ¹⁷ “Judah and Israel traded with you; they exchanged wheat from Minnith, cakes, honey, oil, and balm for your merchandise. ¹⁸ “Damascus traded with you because of your many products and great wealth of goods, offering wine from Helbon and wool from Zahar. ¹⁹ Vedan and Javan from Uzal exchanged wrought iron, cassia, and calamus for your wares. ²⁰ “Dedan traded in saddlecloths with you. ²¹ “Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your customers, trading in lambs, rams, and goats. ²² “The merchants of Sheba and

Ezekiel

Raamah traded with you; for your merchandise they exchanged the finest of all spices, precious stones, and gold. ²³ “Haran, Canneh, and Eden, and the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad traded with you. ²⁴ In your marketplace they traded with you in choice garments, blue fabric, embroidered work, and multicoloured rugs with tightly twisted cords.

²⁵ “The ships of Tarshish were your carriers for your merchandise. You were filled with heavy cargo and were glorious in the heart of the seas. ²⁶ Your rowers have brought you into the great waters; the east wind has broken you to pieces in the heart of the seas. ²⁷ Your wealth, merchandise, and wares, your mariners, sailors, and shipwrights, your merchants and all your warriors, and all who are in you, will fall into the heart of the seas on the day of your shipwreck. ²⁸ At the sound of the cry of your sailors, the shorelands will shake. ²⁹ All those who manage the oars will abandon their ships; the mariners and all the sailors will stand on the shore. ³⁰ They will raise their voices and cry out bitterly over you; they will throw dust on their heads and roll in ashes. ³¹ They will shave their heads because of you and put on sackcloth. They will weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning. ³² As they wail and mourn over you, they will take up a lament for you and sing: ‘Who is like Tyre, now silent in the midst of the sea?’” ³³ When your merchandise sailed across the seas, you brought great trade to many nations; with your great wealth and your wares you brought prosperity to the kings of the earth. ³⁴ Now you are shattered by the seas in the depths of the waters; your wares and all your company have gone down with you. ³⁵ All who live in the coastlands are appalled at you; their kings shudder with horror, their faces distorted with fear. ³⁶ The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you have come to a dreadful end and will be no more.”

28 A message from the Lord came to me, ² “Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: “In the arrogance of your heart you proclaim, ‘I am a god; I occupy the seat of gods in the heart of the seas.’ Yet you are a mortal and not a god, though you imagine yourself as wise as a god. ³ Behold, are you wiser than Daniel? Is no secret too hidden for you? ⁴ By your wisdom and understanding you have acquired wealth for yourself and gathered gold and silver into your treasuries. ⁵ By your great skill in trading you have increased your riches, and your heart has become proud because of your wealth. ⁶ “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says:

‘Because you have made your heart like the heart of a god, ⁷ therefore, behold, I will bring foreigners against you, the most ruthless of nations; they will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom and defile your splendour. ⁸ They will bring you down to the depths, and you will die violently in the heart of the seas. ⁹ Will you still say, ‘I am a god,’ in the presence of those who slay you? You will be a mortal, not a god, in the hands of those who wound you. ¹⁰ You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hands of foreigners.

I have spoken, declares the Sovereign Lord.” ¹¹ Once more, a message from the Lord came to me, ¹² “Son of man, raise a lamentation over the king of Tyre and say to him: ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says:

“You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. ¹³ You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering: carnelian, topaz, and diamond, beryl, onyx, and jasper, lapis lazuli, turquoise, and emerald. Your settings and mountings were crafted in gold; on the day you were created they were prepared. ¹⁴ You were the anointed cherub who covers, and I placed you on the holy mountain of God; you walked among the stones of fire. ¹⁵ You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created until wickedness was found in you. ¹⁶ Through the abundance of your trade you were filled with violence, and you sinned. So I cast you as profane from the mountain of God, and I destroyed you, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. ¹⁷ Your heart was proud because of your beauty; you corrupted your wisdom due to your splendour. I cast you to the ground; I exposed you before kings, that they might gaze at you. ¹⁸ By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your trade, you profaned your sanctuaries. So I brought forth a fire from within you; it consumed you, and I turned you to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all who beheld you. ¹⁹ All the nations who knew you are appalled at you; you have become a horror and shall be no more forever.””

Ezekiel

²⁰ A message from the Lord came to me, ²¹ “Son of man, set your face against Sidon, and prophesy against her ²² and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says:

“Behold, I am against you, Sidon, and I will be glorified in your midst. Then they will know that I am the Lord, when I execute judgments against her and reveal My holiness in her. ²³ For I will send a plague upon her and blood into her streets; the slain will fall in her midst by the sword on every side. Then they will know that I am the Lord.

²⁴ And there will no longer be for the house of Israel a painful brier or a prickling thorn from any around them who despised them. Then they will know that I am the Sovereign Lord. ²⁵ ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and show Myself holy among them in the sight of the nations, then they will dwell in their own land which I gave to My servant Jacob. ²⁶ They will live there securely; they will build houses and plant vineyards, and live securely when I execute judgments upon all their neighbours who despised them. Then they will know that I am the Lord their God.””

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on it's twelfth day, the word of the Lord was given to me: ² “Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and all of Egypt. ³ Speak and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says:

“I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, you great monster lying in the midst of your rivers. You have said, ‘The Nile is mine; I made it for myself.’ ⁴ I will put hooks in your jaws and make the fish of your rivers cling to your scales. I will draw you up from your rivers, with all the fish clinging to your scales. ⁵ I will abandon you in the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You will fall on the open field, not gathered or picked up. I have given you as food to the beasts of the earth and the birds of the sky.

⁶ Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am the Lord. You have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. ⁷ When they grasped you with their hands, you splintered and tore open their shoulders; when they leaned on you, you broke and made all their backs shake. ⁸ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I will bring a sword against you and cut off both man and beast. ⁹ The land of Egypt will become a desolate wasteland. Then they will know that I am the Lord. Because you said, ‘The Nile is mine; I made it,’ ¹⁰ therefore I am against you and your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt a ruin and a desolate waste from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Cush. ¹¹ No human foot will pass through it, nor will the foot of an animal pass through it, and it will be uninhabited for forty years. ¹² I will make the land of Egypt desolate among devastated lands, and her cities will lie desolate for forty years among ruined cities. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries. ¹³ ‘For this is what the Sovereign Lord says: At the end of forty years, I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered. ¹⁴ I will restore the fortunes of Egypt and bring them back to the land of Pathros, the land of their ancestry, and there they will be a lowly kingdom. ¹⁵ It will be the lowest of the kingdoms and will never again exalt itself above the other nations. I will make it so weak that it will never again rule over the nations. ¹⁶ Egypt will no longer be a source of confidence for the house of Israel, bringing to mind their guilt in turning to her for help. Then they will know that I am the Sovereign Lord.”” ¹⁷ In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on it's first day, the word of the Lord was given to me: ¹⁸ “Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made his army labour hard against Tyre; every head was rubbed bare and every shoulder made raw. Yet he and his army received no reward from the campaign he led against Tyre. ¹⁹ Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I am going to give Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will carry off its wealth. He will loot and plunder the land as wages for his army. ²⁰ I have given him Egypt as a reward for his efforts because he and his army acted for me, declares the Sovereign Lord. ²¹ “On that day, I will cause strength to arise for the house of Israel, and I will enable you to speak among them. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

30 The message from the Lord reached me: ² “Son of man, prophesy and declare: ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says:

Ezekiel

"Wail, 'Alas for that day!' ³ For the day is near, indeed, the day of the Lord is near; a day of clouds, a time of doom for the nations. ⁴ A sword will come upon Egypt, and there will be anguish in Cush. When the slain fall in Egypt, her wealth will be carried away, and her foundations will be torn down.

⁵ Cush, Put, Lud, all Arabia, Libya, and the people of the covenant land will fall by the sword along with Egypt. ⁶ This is what the Lord says:

"The allies of Egypt will fall and the pride of her power will be brought down. From Migdol to Syene they will fall by the sword within her," declares the Sovereign Lord. ⁷ "They will be desolate among desolate lands, and their cities will lie among devastated cities. ⁸ Then they will know that I am the Lord, when I set fire to Egypt and all her helpers are broken.

⁹ On that day messengers will go out from me in ships to frighten Cush out of her complacency; trembling will seize them on the day of Egypt's doom, for it is surely coming. ¹⁰ This is what the Sovereign Lord declares:

"I will bring an end to the Egyptian multitude and I will use Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon's, hand. ¹¹ He and his people with him, the most ruthless of nations, will be brought in to destroy the land. They will draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain. ¹² I will dry up the waters of the Nile and sell the land into the hands of evil men; by the hand of foreigners I will lay waste the land and all that is in it.

I the Lord have spoken. ¹³ This is what the Sovereign Lord says:

"I will destroy the idols and put an end to the images in Memphis. There will no longer be a prince in Egypt, and I will spread fear throughout the land. ¹⁴ I will lay waste Pathros, set fire to Zoan, and inflict punishment on Thebes. ¹⁵ I will pour out my wrath on Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt, and eliminate the hordes of Thebes. ¹⁶ I will set fire to Egypt; Pelusium will writhe in agony, Thebes will be breached, and Memphis will be in constant distress. ¹⁷ The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword, and the women will be taken into captivity. ¹⁸ Dark will be the day at Tahpanhes when I break the yoke of Egypt; there her proud strength will come to an end. She will be covered with clouds, and her daughters will go into captivity. ¹⁹ Thus I will bring judgments upon Egypt, and they will know that I am the Lord."

²⁰ In the eleventh year, in the first month on the seventh day, the message from the Lord reached me: ²¹ "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. It has not been bound up for healing or wrapped with a bandage, so that it may be strong enough to wield the sword. ²² Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says: 'Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and I will break both his arms, the strong one as well as the broken one, and make the sword fall from his hand. ²³ I will cause the Egyptians to be scattered among the nations and I will disperse them throughout the lands. ²⁴ I will empower the king of Babylon and place my sword in his hand, but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he will groan before him as one who is gravely wounded. ²⁵ I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall limp. Then they will know that I am the Lord, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he brandishes it against the land of Egypt. ²⁶ When I scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the lands, then they will know that I am the Lord."

31

In the eleventh year, during the third month, on the first day, the message from the Lord came to me: ² "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitudes,

'Who can be likened to you in your greatness? ³ Behold, Assyria was like a cedar in Lebanon, with lovely branches providing shade to the forest, and towering high, its top among the clouds. ⁴ The waters nourished it, the deep springs made it grow tall. Its streams flowed around its planting place and sent channels to all the trees of the field. ⁵ Thus it rose higher than all the trees of the field; its boughs multiplied and its branches extended long due to the plentiful waters as it spread them out. ⁶ All the birds of the sky nested in its boughs, and under its branches all the animals of the field gave birth; all the great nations dwelt under its shade. ⁷ It was magnificent in its greatness, with its extensive branches; for its roots reached to abundant waters. ⁸ The cedars in God's garden could not rival it, nor could the junipers match its boughs, nor could the plane trees compare with its branches— no tree in God's garden could equal its beauty. ⁹ I made it beautiful with the multitude of its branches, and all the trees of Eden in the garden of God envied it.

¹⁰ “Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says: Because it was exalted in height, and set its top among the clouds, and its heart became proud in its loftiness, ¹¹ I handed it over to the ruler of the nations, for him to deal with it according to its wickedness. I cast it away. ¹² Foreign tyrants of the nations cut it down and left it; its branches fell on the mountains and in all the valleys, its boughs lay broken in all the ravines of the land. All the peoples of the earth departed from its shade and abandoned it. ¹³ All the birds of the sky settled on its fallen trunk, and all the animals of the field took shelter among its branches. ¹⁴ Thus no other trees by the waters will ever tower proudly in height, nor set their tops among the clouds, nor will their well-watered mighty ones stand tall in their height. For they are all consigned to death, to the earth below, among mortals who descend to the pit. ¹⁵ “This is what the Sovereign Lord says: On the day it descended to Sheol, I brought mourning over it; I covered the deep springs for it, and held back its streams. Its abundant waters were restrained, and I made Lebanon mourn for it, and all the trees of the field withered away. ¹⁶ I made the nations tremble at the sound of its fall when I brought it down to Sheol with those who descend to the pit. Then all the well-watered trees of Eden, the choicest and best of Lebanon, were consoled in the earth below. ¹⁷ They too went down to Sheol with it, to those slain by the sword, along with those who were its strength, who lived in its shade among the nations. ¹⁸ “To which among the trees of Eden can you be compared in glory and greatness? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the earth below; you will lie among the uncircumcised, with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his hordes, declares the Sovereign Lord.”

32 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the message from the Lord came to me, saying, ² “Son of man, raise a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him: ‘You likened yourself to a lion among the nations, yet you are like a monster in the seas; you thrash about in your rivers, muddying the waters with your feet and fouling their streams.’ ³ This is what the Sovereign Lord says:

‘I will spread my net over you with a multitude of peoples, and they will haul you up in my net. ⁴ I will throw you on the land and cast you on the open field. I will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you, and all the wild animals to gorge themselves on you. ⁵ I will lay your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your remains. ⁶ I will drench the land with your flowing blood as far as the mountains, and the ravines will be filled with your flesh. ⁷ When I extinguish you, I will cover the heavens and darken their stars; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give its light. ⁸ All the shining lights in the heavens I will darken over you, and I will bring darkness over your land,’ declares the Sovereign Lord. ⁹ ‘I will trouble the hearts of many peoples when I bring about your destruction among the nations, into lands you have not known. ¹⁰ I will make many peoples appalled at you, and their kings will shudder with horror because of you when I brandish my sword before them. On the day of your downfall, each of them will tremble > every moment for his life.’

¹¹ This is what the Sovereign Lord declares:

‘The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you. ¹² I will cause your hordes to fall by the swords of mighty warriors, the most ruthless of nations. They will shatter the pride of Egypt, and all her hordes will be overthrown. ¹³ I will destroy all her cattle from beside many waters, so that neither man's foot nor the hoofs of animals will muddy them anymore. ¹⁴ Then I will allow her waters to become calm and make her streams flow smoothly,’ declares the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁵ ‘When I make the land of Egypt desolate and strip it of all that fills it, > when I strike down all who dwell there, then they will know that I am the Lord.’

¹⁶ This is the lament they will chant for her. The daughters of the nations will chant it; over Egypt and all her hordes they will chant it,’ declares the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁷ In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the message from the Lord came to me, saying, ¹⁸ “Son of man, wail for the hordes of Egypt and consign them to the earth below, her and the daughters of mighty nations, with those who go down to the pit. ¹⁹ Say to them, 'Whom do you surpass in beauty? Go down and be laid with the uncircumcised.' ²⁰ They will be counted among those slain by the sword. The sword is drawn; let her be taken away with all her hordes. ²¹ The mighty leaders will speak of Egypt and her allies from within the realm of the dead: 'They have come down and lie with the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword.' ²² 'Assyria is there with her entire army; she is surrounded by the graves of all her slain, all who have fallen by the sword. ²³ Their graves are deep within the pit, and her army lies around her grave. All who had spread terror in the land of the living have been slain, fallen by the sword. ²⁴ 'Elam is there, with all her hordes around her grave. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword. All who had spread terror in the land of the living descended uncircumcised to the earth below. They bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. ²⁵ A resting place is made for her among the slain, with all her hordes around her grave. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword. Because their terror had spread in the land of the living, they bear their shame with those who go down to the pit; they are laid among the slain. ²⁶ 'Meshech and Tubal are there, with all their hordes around their graves. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword because they spread their terror in the land of the living. ²⁷ But they do not lie with the fallen warriors of old, who went down to the realm of the dead with their weapons of war—their swords placed under their heads and their shields resting on their bones—though these warriors also had terrorised the land of the living. ²⁸ You too, Pharaoh, will be humbled and will rest among the uncircumcised, with those slain by the sword. ²⁹ 'Edom is there, her kings and all her princes; despite their power, they are placed with those slain by the sword. They rest with the uncircumcised, with those who descend to the pit. ³⁰ 'All the princes of the north and all the Sidonians are there; they went down with the slain in disgrace despite the terror caused by their power. They rest uncircumcised with those slain by the sword and bear their shame with those who descend to the pit. ³¹ 'Pharaoh will see them and he will be consoled for all his hordes that were killed by the sword, declares the Sovereign Lord. ³² Though I had him spread terror in the land of the living, Pharaoh and all his hordes will be laid among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword, declares the Sovereign Lord.

33 The message from the Lord came to me, saying: ² "Son of man, speak to the sons of your people and say to them: 'If I bring a sword upon a land, and the people of the land select one man from among them and appoint him as their watchman, ³ and he sees the sword coming upon the land and blows the trumpet to warn the people, ⁴ then if anyone hears the sound of the trumpet but does not take warning, and the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. ⁵ He heard the sound of the trumpet but did not heed the warning; his blood will be on himself. If he had heeded the warning, he would have saved his life. ⁶ But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes a person away, he is taken away for his wrongdoing, but I will hold the watchman accountable for his blood.' ⁷ "Now as for you, son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them a warning from Me. ⁸ When I say to the wicked, 'You wicked person, you will surely die,' and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked person shall die for his sin, but I will hold you accountable for his blood. ⁹ But if you do warn the wicked person to turn from his ways and he does not do so, he will die for his sin, but you will have saved your life. ¹⁰ "Now as for you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, 'This is what you are saying: "Our offences and sins weigh us down, and we are wasting away in them. How then can we survive?"' ¹¹ Say to them, 'As I live, declares the Sovereign Lord, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from his ways and live. Turn back, turn back from your evil ways! Why will you die, house of Israel?' ¹² "Therefore, son of man, say to your fellow citizens, 'The righteousness of a righteous person will not save him on the day of his offence, and as for the wickedness of a wicked person, he will not fall because of it on the day he turns from his wickedness; nor will a righteous person be able to live by his righteousness on the day he commits sin.' ¹³ When I say to the righteous that he will surely live, and he trusts in his righteousness and commits injustice, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered; he will die for the injustice he has committed.¹⁴ But when I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die,' and he turns away from his sin and does what is just and right—¹⁵ if he returns what he took in pledge for a loan, pays back what he has stolen, follows the statutes that ensure life, and does no injustice, he will surely live; he will not die.¹⁶ None of the sins he has committed will be remembered against him. He has done what is just and right; he will surely live.¹⁷ "However, your fellow citizens claim, 'The way of the Lord is not right,' when it is their own way that is not right."¹⁸ If a righteous person turns from his righteousness and does wrong, he will die for it.¹⁹ But when a wicked person turns away from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will live by doing so.²⁰ Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not right.' I will judge each of you according to your own ways, house of Israel."²¹ Now in the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth day of the tenth month, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me, saying, "The city has been taken."²² Now the hand of the Lord had been upon me in the evening before the man arrived, and He opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer silent.²³ Then the message from the Lord came to me, saying:²⁴ "Son of man, those living in the ruins in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one man, yet he possessed the land. But we are many; surely the land has been given to us as a possession.'²⁵ Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Since you eat meat with the blood still in it, raise your eyes to your idols and shed blood, should you then possess the land?'²⁶ You rely on your sword, you commit abominations, and each of you defiles his neighbour's wife. Should you then possess the land?'²⁷ You shall say this to them: 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: As I live, those who are in the ruins will fall by the sword, and those in the open field I will give to the wild animals to be devoured, and those in strongholds and caves will die of plague.²⁸ I will make the land a desolate waste, and her proud strength will come to an end, and the mountains of Israel will be desolate so that no one will pass through.²⁹ Then they will know that I am the Lord, when I have made the land a desolate waste because of all the abominations they have committed.'³⁰ "But as for you, son of man, your fellow citizens who talk with one another about you by the walls and in the doorways of the houses, say to each other, 'Come and hear the message that has come from the Lord.'³¹ And they come to you as people come, and sit before you as My people and hear your words, but they do not put them into practice. Their mouths speak of love, but their hearts pursue unjust gain.³² Indeed, to them you are like one who sings love songs with a beautiful voice and plays an instrument well, for they hear your words but do not put them into practice.³³ So when it comes to pass—as it surely will—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

Ezekiel

34 A message from the Lord came to me:² "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel; prophesy and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who have been feeding themselves! Should not the shepherds care for the flock?'³ You consume the fat, clothe yourselves with the wool, and slaughter the best animals, but you do not care for the flock.⁴ You have not strengthened the weak, healed the sick, or bound up the injured. You have not brought back the strays or searched for the lost. Instead, you have ruled them with force and harshness.⁵ So they were scattered for lack of a shepherd, and when they were scattered, they became food for all the wild animals.⁶ My flock wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill; they were scattered over the whole earth, and no one searched or looked for them.⁷ Thus, you shepherds, listen to the word of the Lord:⁸ As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign Lord, because my flock has become plunder and food for all the wild animals, and because my shepherds did not search for my flock but cared for themselves rather than my flock,⁹ So, you shepherds, pay attention to the word of the Lord:¹⁰ This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Behold, I am against the shepherds and will hold them accountable for my flock. I will remove them from tending the flock so that they can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue my flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them.¹¹ For this is what the Sovereign Lord says: Behold, I will personally search for my sheep and care for them.¹² As a shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so I will care for my sheep and rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness.¹³ I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries and bring them into their own land. I will pasture them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams, and in all the inhabited places of the land. ¹⁴ I will tend them in a good pasture, and their grazing land will be on the mountain heights of Israel. There they will lie down in a good grazing land and feed in a rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵ I will personally care for my sheep and have them lie down, says the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁶ I will seek out the lost and bring back the strays. I will bind up the injured and strengthen the weak, but I will deal with the sleek and the strong. I will shepherd the flock with fairness. ¹⁷ As for you, my flock, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I will make distinctions between one sheep and another, and between rams and goats. ¹⁸ Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you trample the rest of your pasture with your feet? Is it not enough for you to drink the clear water? Must you muddy the rest with your feet? ¹⁹ Must my flock eat what you have trampled with your feet and drink what you have muddied with your feet? ²⁰ Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says to them: Behold, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹ Because you shove with flank and shoulder, butting all the weak sheep with your horns until you have scattered them, ²² I will rescue my flock, and they will no longer be plundered. I will make distinctions between one sheep and another. ²³ I will appoint over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will tend them; he will tend them and be their shepherd. ²⁴ I, the Lord, will be their God, and my servant David will be a leader among them. I, the Lord, have spoken. ²⁵ I will make a covenant of peace with them and rid the land of savage beasts so that they may live securely in the wilderness and sleep in the forests. ²⁶ I will make them and the places surrounding my hill a source of blessing. I will send down showers in season; there will be abundant showers of blessing. ²⁷ The trees will yield their fruit and the ground will yield its crops; the people will be secure in their land. They will Recognise that I am the Lord, when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the hands of those who enslaved them. ²⁸ They will no longer be plundered by the nations, nor will wild animals devour them. They will live securely, and no one will make them afraid. ²⁹ I will provide for them a land renowned for its crops, and they will no longer suffer from famine in the land or bear the scorn of the nations. ³⁰ Then they will know that I, the Lord their God, am with them and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, declares the Sovereign Lord. ³¹ You are my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, and I am your God, says the Sovereign Lord."

Ezekiel

35 The message from the Lord was given to me: ² "Son of man, direct yourself towards Mount Seir and prophecy against it, ³ and say: 'This is what the Lord God says: Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you and make you a desolate waste. ⁴ I will turn your towns into ruins, and you will become a desolation. Then you will know that I am the Lord. ⁵ Because you have harboured an ancient hostility and handed the Israelites over to the sword at the time of their calamity, when their punishment reached its climax, ⁶ therefore, as surely as I live, declares the Lord God, I will doom you to bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you. ⁷ I will make Mount Seir a desolate waste and cut off from it all who pass through and return. ⁸ I will fill your mountains with the slain; those killed by the sword will fall on your hills, in your valleys, and in all your ravines. ⁹ I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your towns will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the Lord. ¹⁰ Because you have said, "These two nations and these two lands will be ours, and we will take possession of them," even though the Lord was there, ¹¹ therefore, as surely as I live, declares the Lord God, I will deal with you according to the anger and envy you showed in your hatred of them, and I will make myself known among them when I judge you. ¹² Then you will know that I, the Lord, have heard all the insults you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, "They have been laid waste and given to us to devour." ¹³ You have spoken arrogantly against me and multiplied your words against me; I have heard it. ¹⁴ This is what the Lord God says: As the whole earth rejoices, I will make you a desolation. ¹⁵ As you rejoiced when the inheritance of the house of Israel became desolate, so I will do to you. You will be a desolation, Mount Seir, and all of Edom, all of it. Then they will know that I am the Lord."

"Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and declare, 'O mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord.' ² This is what the Lord God says: The enemy has said of you, 'Aha! The ancient heights have now become ours.'" ³ Therefore, prophesy and say, 'This is what the Lord God says: Because they have made you desolate and harassed you from every side, you have become a possession of the remaining nations and a subject of malicious talk and slander. ⁴ Therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God: This is what the Lord God says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and deserted towns that have been plundered and mocked by the nations around you—' ⁵ therefore, this is what the Lord God says: In the fire of My jealousy I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who have taken My land as their own with joy and contempt, in order to plunder its pastureland.' ⁶ Therefore, prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: 'This is what the Lord God says: I have spoken in My jealous wrath because you have endured the insults of the nations. ⁷ Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: I have sworn that the nations around you will also endure their own insults. ⁸ But you, O mountains of Israel, will produce branches and bear fruit for My people Israel, for they are soon to return. ⁹ For indeed, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you will be tilled and sown. ¹⁰ I will multiply the number of people upon you, the whole house of Israel, all of it; the cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt. ¹¹ I will increase the number of people and animals upon you, and they will be fruitful and multiply. I will settle people on you as in former times and make you prosper more than before. Then you will know that I am the Lord. ¹² I will cause My people Israel to walk upon you; they will possess you, and you will be their inheritance; you will no longer bereave them of children. ¹³ This is what the Lord God says: Because people say to you, 'You devour people and bereave your nation of children,' ¹⁴ therefore, you will no longer devour people or bereave your nation of children, declares the Lord God. ¹⁵ I will not let you hear the insults of the nations any longer, nor will you suffer the scorn of the peoples or cause your nation to stumble again, declares the Lord God.'" ¹⁶ The word of the Lord came to me again, saying, ¹⁷

"Son of man, when the house of Israel was dwelling in their own land, they defiled it by their conduct and actions; their way was like the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity before Me. ¹⁸ So I poured out My wrath upon them for the blood they had shed in the land and because they had defiled it with their idols. ¹⁹ I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries; I judged them according to their conduct and actions. ²⁰ And wherever they went among the nations, they profaned My holy name, for it was said of them, 'These are the Lord's people, yet they had to leave His land.' ²¹ But I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations where they had gone. ²² Therefore, say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Lord God says: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for My holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you have gone. ²³ I will sanctify My great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am the Lord, declares the Lord God, when I am sanctified through you before their eyes. ²⁴ For I will take you from among the nations, gather you from all the lands, and bring you back into your own land. ²⁵ I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your impurities and from all your idols. ²⁶ I will grant you a renewed heart and instill a fresh spirit within you; I will take away your unyielding heart and provide you with a responsive heart. ²⁷ And I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to follow My decrees and be careful to observe My laws. ²⁸ Then you will dwell in the land I gave to your forefathers; you will be My people, and I will be your God. ²⁹ I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain and make it abundant, and will not bring famine upon you. ³⁰ I will increase the fruit of the trees and the produce of the fields, so that you will no longer suffer disgrace among the nations because of famine. ³¹ Then you will remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good, and you will loathe yourselves for your sins and detestable practices. ³² I want you to know that I am not doing this for your sake, declares the Lord God. Be ashamed and disgraced for your conduct, O house of Israel! ³³ This is what the Lord God says: On the day I cleanse you from all your sins, I will resettle your towns, and the ruins will be rebuilt. ³⁴ The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass by. ³⁵ They will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the Garden of Eden; the cities that were ruined, desolate, and destroyed are now fortified and inhabited.' ³⁶ Then the nations around you that remain will know that I, the Lord, have rebuilt what was destroyed and replanted what was desolate. I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it.' ³⁷ This is what the Lord God says: I will once again respond to the plea of the house of Israel and do this for them: I will increase their people like a flock. ³⁸ Like the flocks for sacrifices, like the flocks at Jerusalem during her appointed festivals, so will the waste cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the Lord."

37 The hand of the Lord was upon me, and He brought me out by the Spirit of the Lord and placed me in the centre of a valley; it was filled with bones. ² He led me around among them, and I observed a large number of bones on the surface of the valley; indeed, they were very dry. ³ He asked me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I replied, "Sovereign Lord, only You know." ⁴ Then He instructed me, "Prophecy over these bones and tell them, 'Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord.' ⁵ This is what the Sovereign Lord says to these bones: 'I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. ⁶ I will attach tendons to you, grow flesh upon you, cover you with skin, and put breath in you so that you may live. Then you will know that I am the Lord.'" ⁷ So I prophesied as I was commanded. As I was prophesying, there was a sound, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone. ⁸ I observed that tendons and flesh formed on them, and skin covered them; however, there was still no breath in them. ⁹ Then He said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophecy, son of man, and say to it, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe into these slain, that they may live.'" ¹⁰ So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood on their feet, an exceedingly great army. ¹¹ Then He said to me, "Son of man, these bones represent the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up, our hope is lost; we are completely cut off.' ¹² Therefore prophecy and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: My people, I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them; I will return you to the land of Israel. ¹³ Then you will Recognise that I am the Lord, when I open your graves and bring you up from them. ¹⁴ I will put my Spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I, the Lord, have spoken and have done it,' declares the Lord." ¹⁵ The word of the Lord came to me again: ¹⁶ "Son of man, take a stick and write on it, 'For Judah and the Israelites associated with him.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and all the house of Israel associated with him.' ¹⁷ Join them together into one stick so that they become one in your hand. ¹⁸ When your people ask you, 'Will you not tell us what you mean by this?' ¹⁹ say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph, which is in Ephraim's hand, and the tribes of Israel associated with him, and join it with the stick of Judah. I will make them one stick, and they will be one in My hand.' ²⁰ Hold the sticks on which you have written before their eyes. ²¹ And say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: I will take the Israelites from among the nations where they have gone, and I will gather them from every side and bring them back to their own land. ²² I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and there will be one king over all of them. They will no longer be two nations, nor will they be divided into two kingdoms. ²³ They will no longer defile themselves with their idols, or with their detestable things, or with any of their sins. I will save them from all their backslidings in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. They will be My people, and I will be their God. ²⁴ "My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd. They will follow My laws and be diligent in keeping My decrees. ²⁵ They will dwell in the land I gave to My servant Jacob, where your ancestors lived. They, their children, and their children's children will live there forever, and My servant David will be their prince forever. ²⁶ I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant. I will establish them and multiply them, and I will set My sanctuary among them forever. ²⁷ I will live among them; I will be their God, and they will be My people. ²⁸ Then the nations will understand that I, the Lord, make Israel holy, when My sanctuary is among them forever."

38 The message from the Lord came to me, saying, ² “Son of man, set your face against Gog of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshek and Tubal, and prophesy against him, ³ and declare: ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Behold, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshek and Tubal. ⁴ I will turn you around, put hooks into your jaws, and bring you out with your entire army—your horses and horsemen, all splendidly attired, a vast multitude with shield and buckler, all wielding swords. ⁵ Persia, Cush, and Put will be with them, all of them equipped with shield and helmet; ⁶ Gomer with all its troops, and Beth Togarmah from the distant north with all its troops—many nations with you. ⁷ “Prepare yourself; be ready, you and all your assembled hordes, and take command of them. ⁸ After many days you will be summoned. In the latter years, you will come into a land restored from war, whose people have been gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had long been in ruins. They were brought out from the nations, and now they dwell securely. ⁹ You and all your troops and the many nations with you will advance, coming like a storm; you will be like a cloud covering the land. ¹⁰ ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: On that day, thoughts will arise in your mind, and you will devise an evil plan. ¹¹ You will say, “I will invade a land of unwallied villages; I will attack a peaceful and unsuspecting people—all of them living without walls, bars, or gates. ¹² I will plunder and loot, turning my hand against the resettled ruins and the people gathered from the nations, who have acquired livestock and goods, dwelling at the centre of the world.” ¹³ Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish with all her villages will ask you, “Have you come to plunder? Have you gathered your hordes to loot, to carry off silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, and to seize much plunder?”” ¹⁴ “Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog: ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: On that day when my people Israel are living securely, will you not be aware of it? ¹⁵ You will come from your place in the distant north, you and many nations with you, all riding on horses, a vast assembly, a mighty army. ¹⁶ You will advance against my people Israel like a cloud covering the land. It will come to pass in the last days that I will bring you against my land, so that the nations may acknowledge me when I am shown holy through you before their eyes, Gog.

¹⁷ ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Are you the one I spoke of in former days through my servants the prophets of Israel? At that time, they prophesied for many years that I would bring you against them. ¹⁸ This is what will occur on that day: When Gog attacks the land of Israel, my fury will rise in my anger, declares the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁹ In my zeal and blazing wrath, I declare that on that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. ²⁰ The fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, the beasts of the field, every creature that moves along the ground, and all humanity on the face of the earth will tremble at my presence. The mountains will be overturned, the cliffs will crumble, and every wall will collapse to the ground. ²¹ I will call for a sword against Gog on all my mountains, declares the Sovereign Lord. Every man's sword will be against his brother. ²² I will execute judgment upon him with plague and bloodshed; I will pour down torrents of rain, hailstones, and burning sulphur on him and his troops and the many nations with him. ²³ Thus, I will show my greatness and my holiness, and I will make myself known in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I am the Lord.’

39 “And you, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say: ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Behold, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshek and Tubal. ² I will turn you around and lead you on a rope, bringing you up from the far north and against the mountains of Israel. ³ I will strike your bow from your left hand and cause your arrows to fall from your right hand. ⁴ You will fall on the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the nations with you. I will give you as food to every kind of carrion bird and wild animal. ⁵ You will fall in the open field, for I have declared it, says the Sovereign Lord. ⁶ I will send fire on Magog and on those dwelling securely in the coastlands, and they will recognise that I am the Lord. ⁷ I will make my holy name known among my people Israel and will no longer allow my holy name to be profaned. The nations will know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸ It is coming! It will surely take place, says the Sovereign Lord. This is the day I have spoken of. ⁹ Then those residing in the towns of Israel will go out and use the weapons for fuel and burn them up—the small and large shields, the bows and arrows, the war clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them for fuel. ¹⁰ They will not need to gather wood from the fields or cut it from the forests, because they will use the weapons for fuel. They will plunder those who plundered them and loot those who looted them, declares the Sovereign Lord. ¹¹ On that day I will provide Gog a burial place in Israel, in the valley of those who travel east of the sea. It will block the way of travellers, because Gog and all his hordes will be buried there. So it will be called the Valley of Hamon Gog. ¹² For a period of seven months, the house of Israel will bury them to purify the land. ¹³ All the people of the land will bury them, and the day I display my glory will be a memorable day for them, says the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁴ They will appoint men to continually pass through the land, burying those who remain on the surface of the ground, in order to cleanse it. After the seven months they will conduct a search. ¹⁵ As they pass through the land, anyone who sees a human bone will set up a marker beside it until the gravediggers bury it in the Valley of Hamon Gog, ¹⁶ near a town called Hamonah. Thus they will cleanse the land. ¹⁷ "Son of man, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: Call out to every kind of bird and all the wild animals: 'Gather and come together from all around to the sacrifice I am preparing for you, the great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. There you will eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸ You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth as if they were rams and lambs, goats and bulls—all of them fattened livestock from Bashan. ¹⁹ At the sacrifice I am preparing for you, you will eat fat until you are full and drink blood until you are drunk. ²⁰ At my table you will eat your fill of horses and riders, mighty men and soldiers of every kind,' says the Sovereign Lord. ²¹ I will display my glory among the nations, and all the nations will see the judgement I execute and the hand I lay on them. ²² From that day forward, the house of Israel will recognise that I am the Lord, their God. ²³ And the nations will understand that the house of Israel went into exile for their wrongdoing, because they were unfaithful to me. So I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies, and they all fell by the sword. ²⁴ I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their offences, and I turned my face away from them. ²⁵ Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I will now restore the fortunes of Jacob and have compassion on all the house of Israel, and I will be zealous for my holy name. ²⁶

Ezekiel

They will no longer recall their disgrace and all the unfaithfulness they showed towards me when they lived securely in their land with no one to cause them fear. ²⁷ When I have brought them back from the nations and gathered them from the lands of their enemies, I will be proved holy through them in the sight of many nations. ²⁸ Then they will realise that I am the Lord their God, for although I sent them into exile among the nations, I will gather them to their own land, ensuring none are left behind. ²⁹ I will no longer hide my face from them, for I will pour out my Spirit on the house of Israel, declares the Sovereign Lord."

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the start of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was captured, on this exact day the hand of the Lord was upon me, and He brought me there. ² In the visions of God, He brought me to the land of Israel and set me upon a very high mountain, and on the south side, there was something resembling a city structure. ³ He brought me there, and behold, there was a man whose appearance was like bronze, with a linen cord and a measuring rod in his hand, and he was standing in the gateway. ⁴ The man said to me, "Son of man, observe with your eyes, listen with your ears, and pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for you have been brought here so that I can show it to you. Report to the house of Israel all that you see." ⁵ And behold, there was a wall surrounding the temple area, and the measuring rod in the man's hand was six cubits long, each cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth. He measured the wall; it was one rod thick and one rod high. ⁶ Then he went to the east-facing gate, went up its steps, and measured the threshold of the gate; it was one rod deep. ⁷ The guardrooms were one rod long and one rod wide, and there were five cubits between the guardrooms. The threshold of the gate next to the portico facing inward was one rod. ⁸ He then measured the portico of the gateway facing inward; ⁹ it was eight cubits deep, and its jambs were two cubits thick. The portico of the gateway faced inward. ¹⁰ The east gate had three guardrooms on each side; they all had the same measurements, and the faces of the projecting walls on each side had the same measurements. ¹¹ He measured the width of the gateway entrance; it was ten cubits, and its length was thirteen cubits. ¹² In front of each guardroom was a barrier wall one cubit high, and the guardrooms were six cubits square.¹³ He measured the gateway from the roof of one guardroom to the roof of the opposite one; the distance was twenty-five cubits from one door to the opposite door.¹⁴ He measured the side pillars sixty cubits high; the gateway extended all around to the side pillar of the courtyard.¹⁵ The distance from the entrance of the gateway to the far end of its inner portico was fifty cubits.¹⁶ There were shuttered windows in the guardrooms and their side pillars within the gateway all around, as well as in the portico. The openings all around faced inward, and the faces of the projecting walls were decorated with palm trees.¹⁷ Then he brought me into the outer court. There were chambers and a pavement constructed all around the court; thirty chambers faced the pavement.¹⁸ The pavement, which was the lower pavement, was by the sides of the gateways and corresponded to the length of the gateways.¹⁹ Then he measured the distance from the front of the lower gateway to the front of the exterior of the inner court; it was a hundred cubits on both the east and north sides.²⁰ Then he measured the length and width of the north gate leading into the outer court.²¹ Its guardrooms—three on each side—its side pillars and its portico had the same measurements as those of the first gateway. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.²² Its windows, its portico, and its palm tree decorations had the same measurements as those of the gate facing east. Seven steps led up to it, with its portico in front of them.²³ A gate to the inner court faced the north gate, similar to the one on the east. He measured from one gate to the opposite one; it was a hundred cubits.²⁴ Then he led me to the south side, and behold, there was a gate facing south. He measured its side pillars and its portico, and they had the same measurements as the others.²⁵ The gateway and its portico had windows all around, like the other windows. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.²⁶ There were seven steps leading up to it, and its portico was in front of them; it had palm tree decorations on its side pillars, one on each side.²⁷ The inner court also had a gate facing south, and he measured from this gate to the outer gate on the south side; the distance was a hundred cubits.²⁸ Then he brought me to the inner court through the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it had the same measurements as the others.²⁹ Its guardrooms, its side pillars, and its portico had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its portico had windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.³⁰ The porticoes of the gateways around the inner court measured twenty-five cubits wide and five cubits deep.³¹ Its portico faced the outer court; palm trees decorated its side pillars, and eight steps led up to it.³² Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gateway; it had the same dimensions as the others.³³ Its guardrooms, its side pillars, and its portico had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its portico had windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.³⁴ Its portico faced the outer court; palm trees decorated the side pillars on each side, and eight steps led up to it.³⁵ Then he brought me to the north gate and measured it. It had the same dimensions as the others,³⁶ as did its guardrooms, its side pillars, and its portico, and it had windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.³⁷ Its portico faced the outer court; palm trees decorated the side pillars on each side, and eight steps led up to it.³⁸ A chamber with a doorway was by the side pillars at the gates, where they rinsed the burnt offerings.³⁹ In the portico of the gateway were two tables on each side, used for the slaughter of burnt offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings.⁴⁰ On the outer side, as one went up to the entrance of the north gateway, were two tables, and on the other side of the portico of the gate were two tables.⁴¹ So there were four tables on one side of the gateway and four on the other—eight tables in total—on which the sacrifices were slaughtered.⁴² There were also four tables of dressed stone for the burnt offerings, each a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit high. On them were placed the utensils for preparing the burnt offerings and the other sacrifices.⁴³ The double-pronged hooks, each a handbreadth long, were attached to the wall all around. The tables were for the flesh of the offerings.⁴⁴ Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, there were chambers for the singers, one of which was at the side of the north gate facing south, and another at the side of the south gate facing north.⁴⁵ He said to me, “The chamber facing south is for the priests who are responsible for the temple,⁴⁶ and the chamber facing north is for the priests who are responsible for the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who are the only Levites who may draw near to the Lord to minister before Him.”⁴⁷ He measured the courtyard; it was a perfect square, a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide. And the altar was in front of the temple.⁴⁸ He brought me to the portico of the temple and measured the jambs of the portico; they were five cubits wide on each side. The width of the entrance was fourteen cubits, and its projecting walls were three cubits wide on each side.⁴⁹ The portico was twenty cubits wide and eleven cubits from front to back. It was reached by a flight of stairs, and there were columns on each side of the jambs.

Ezekiel

Ezekiel

41 Then the man led me to the sanctuary, and he measured the side pillars; each side pillar was six cubits wide.² The entrance was ten cubits wide, with sides of five cubits each. He measured the sanctuary, which was forty cubits long and twenty cubits wide.³ He then moved into the inner area and measured the door jambs, each two cubits wide. The entrance was six cubits wide, and the projecting walls were seven cubits wide.⁴ He measured the inner sanctuary, which was twenty cubits long and twenty cubits wide, in front of the main hall. He said to me, “This is the Most Holy Place.”⁵ He measured the temple wall, which was six cubits thick, and the side rooms, which were four cubits wide all around the temple.⁶ The side rooms were arranged in three levels, with thirty rooms on each level. They were supported by ledges on the temple wall, but the supports did not penetrate the temple wall itself.⁷ The side rooms became wider with each ascending level. The structure was built in stages, allowing the rooms to widen as one ascended. A staircase led from the lowest to the highest level via the middle level.⁸ I observed that the temple had a raised base surrounding it, forming the foundation of the side rooms; this base was a full rod of six long cubits in height.⁹ The outer wall of the side rooms was five cubits thick. The open space between the temple side rooms¹⁰ and the outer chambers was twenty cubits wide all around the temple.¹¹ There were doorways to the side rooms from the open space, one facing north and another facing south; the width of the open space was five cubits all around.¹² The building facing the temple courtyard on the west side was seventy cubits wide, with a wall five cubits thick and a length of ninety cubits.¹³ He measured the temple, which was a hundred cubits long, and the courtyard and building with its walls were also a hundred cubits long.¹⁴ The eastern side of the temple courtyard, including the front of the temple, measured a hundred cubits.¹⁵ He measured the length of the building facing the courtyard at the rear of the temple, including its galleries on each side; it was a hundred cubits. This included the main hall, the inner sanctuary, and the portico facing the courtyard.¹⁶ The thresholds, narrow windows, and galleries around the three of them were panelled with wood from the ground to the windows, which were covered.¹⁷ Above the entrance to the inner sanctuary and on the walls, both inside and outside, at regular intervals, were measured carvings.¹⁸ Cherubim and palm trees were carved, with a palm tree between each cherub. Each cherub had two faces:¹⁹ A human face looked toward the palm tree on one side, and a lion’s face looked toward the palm tree on the other side. These were carved all around the temple.²⁰ From the floor to above the entrance, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the walls of the sanctuary.²¹ The doorposts of the sanctuary were square, and the appearance of the doorposts of the Most Holy Place was similar.²² There was a wooden altar three cubits high and two cubits square; its corners, base, and sides were of wood. He said to me, “This is the table that is before the Lord.”²³ Both the sanctuary and the Most Holy Place had double doors.²⁴ Each door had two leaves, two hinged leaves for each door.²⁵ Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the main hall, similar to those on the walls, and there was a wooden overhang at the front of the portico.²⁶ Latticed windows and palm trees adorned the sidewalls of the portico on each side, as well as on the side chambers of the temple and the thresholds.

42 Then he led me out into the outer court, towards the north, and brought me to the chambers opposite the separate area and the building on the north side.² The building was a hundred cubits long with its entrance facing north, and it was fifty cubits wide.³ Facing the twenty cubits of the inner court and opposite the pavement of the outer court, gallery faced gallery on three levels.⁴ In front of the chambers was an inner passageway ten cubits wide and a hundred cubits long, with entrances on the north.⁵ The upper

chambers were narrower than the ones below, as the galleries took more space from them than from the lower and middle levels. ⁶ The upper rooms were set back more than the lower and middle ones, as they had no pillars like the courts, making them smaller in floor space. ⁷ There was an outer wall parallel to the chambers and the outer court, extending fifty cubits in front of the chambers. ⁸ The length of the chambers facing the outer court was fifty cubits, while those facing the sanctuary were a hundred cubits long. ⁹ There was an entrance on the east side, beneath these chambers, as one entered from the outer court. ¹⁰ On the south side, along the length of the courtyard wall, opposite the separate area and the building, there were chambers. ¹¹ The passage in front of them was similar to the chambers on the north, with the same length, width, exits, and dimensions. ¹² The doorways of the chambers on the south corresponded to those on the north, with an entrance at the start of the passageway parallel to the wall extending eastward. ¹³ Then he said to me, "The north and south chambers facing the separate area are holy chambers where the priests who approach the Lord will eat the most holy offerings. There they will place the most holy offerings—the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings—for the place is holy. ¹⁴ When the priests enter the holy precincts, they must not go into the outer court without leaving behind the garments in which they minister, for these are holy. They must put on other garments before approaching the places for the people." ¹⁵ When he had finished measuring the inner area of the temple, he led me out through the east gate and measured the area all around. ¹⁶ He measured the east side with the measuring rod, and it was five hundred cubits. ¹⁷ He measured the north side, and it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod. ¹⁸ He measured the south side, and it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod. ¹⁹ He turned to the west side and measured it, and it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod. ²⁰ Thus he measured the area on all four sides. It had a wall surrounding it, five hundred cubits long and five hundred cubits wide, to separate the holy from the common.

43 Then he led me to the gate that faces east. ² And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east. His voice was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone with His glory. ³ The vision I saw was like the vision I had seen when He came to destroy the city, and like the visions I had seen by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. ⁴ And the glory of the Lord entered the temple through the gate facing east. ⁵ The Spirit carried me into the inner court, and behold, the glory of the Lord filled the temple. ⁶ Then I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple, while the man was standing beside me. ⁷ He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place for the soles of My feet, where I will dwell among the Israelites forever. The house of Israel will no longer defile My holy name, neither they nor their kings, by their prostitution or by the corpses of their kings at their death. ⁸ By placing their threshold next to My threshold and their doorposts beside My doorposts, with only a wall between Me and them, they defiled My holy name by their abominations. So I consumed them in My anger. ⁹ Let them put away their acts of unfaithfulness and the remains of their kings far from Me, and I will dwell among them forever. ¹⁰ "As for you, son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, so that they may be ashamed of their sins, and let them measure the plan. ¹¹ If they are ashamed of all they have done, make known to them the design of the temple—its layout, its exits and entrances, its entire design, all its statutes and laws. Write these down in their sight, so that they may observe its complete design and follow all its statutes. ¹² This is the law of the temple: the entire area on top of the mountain all around shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the temple. ¹³ "These are the measurements of the altar in long cubits (a cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth): the base shall be a cubit deep and a cubit wide, with a border of one span around its edge. This is the height of the altar: ¹⁴ From the base on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits high, and the ledge shall be a cubit wide. From the smaller ledge to the larger ledge shall be four cubits high, and the ledge shall also be a cubit wide. ¹⁵ The altar hearth shall be four cubits high, and four horns shall project upward from the hearth. ¹⁶ The altar hearth shall be square, twelve cubits long and twelve cubits wide. ¹⁷ The upper ledge shall also be square, fourteen cubits long and fourteen cubits wide. All around the altar is a gutter of one cubit with a rim of half a cubit. The steps of the altar shall face east." ¹⁸ Then He said to me, "Son of man, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: 'These are the regulations for the altar on the day it is built, to offer burnt offerings on it and to sprinkle blood against it. ¹⁹ You shall give a young bull as a sin offering to the Levitical priests of the family of Zadok, who come near to minister before Me,' declares the Sovereign Lord. ²⁰ You shall take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar and on the four corners of the ledge and all around the rim, and so purify the altar and make atonement for it. ²¹ You shall take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the designated part of the temple area outside the sanctuary. ²² 'On the second day you shall offer a male goat without defect as a sin offering, and the altar shall be purified as it was purified with the bull. ²³ When you have finished purifying it, you shall offer a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without defect. ²⁴ You shall offer them before the Lord, and the priests shall sprinkle salt on them and offer them up as a burnt offering to the Lord. ²⁵ For seven days you shall provide a male goat daily for a sin offering; you shall also provide a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without defect. ²⁶ For seven days they shall make atonement for the altar and cleanse it; thus they shall consecrate it. ²⁷ At the end of these days, from the eighth day onward, the priests shall present your burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar; and I will accept you,' declares the Sovereign Lord."

44 Then he brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, the one facing east; and it was closed. ² The Lord said to me, "This gate shall remain closed; it shall not be opened, and no one shall enter through it, for the Lord, the God of Israel, has entered through it; therefore, it shall remain shut. ³ The prince, he is the only one who may sit in the gateway to eat bread in the presence of the Lord; he shall enter by way of the portico of the gate and go out by the same way." ⁴ Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the house, and I saw the glory of the Lord filling the house of the Lord, and I fell on my face. ⁵ The Lord said to me, "Son of man, observe closely, see with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the statutes of the house of the Lord and all its laws; pay attention to the entrance of the house and all the exits of the sanctuary. ⁶ Say to the rebellious house of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Enough of all your abominations, O house of Israel! ⁷ In addition to all your other abominations, you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, to be in my sanctuary, thus profaning it, my house, while you offered my food, the fat and the blood, and they broke my covenant. ⁸ Instead of taking responsibility for my holy things, you appointed foreigners to take charge of my sanctuary. ⁹ This is what the Sovereign Lord says: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, shall enter my sanctuary, not even the foreigners who live among the Israelites. ¹⁰ But the Levites who went far from me when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, shall bear the punishment for their wrongdoing. ¹¹ They may serve in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house and ministering in the house; they may slaughter the burnt offerings and sacrifices for the people and stand before them to minister to them. ¹² Because they ministered to them before their idols and caused the house of Israel to fall into sin, therefore I have sworn against them, declares the Sovereign Lord, that they shall bear the punishment for their wrongdoing. ¹³ They shall not come near to serve me as priests, nor come near any of my holy things or my most holy offerings; they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed. ¹⁴ Nevertheless, I will appoint them to take responsibility for the house, for all its service and for everything that is to be done in it. ¹⁵ But the Levitical priests, the descendants of Zadok, who took responsibility for my sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from me, shall come near to minister before me; they shall stand before me to offer me the fat and the blood, declares the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁶ They alone shall enter my sanctuary; they alone shall come near my table to minister before me and serve me. ¹⁷ When they enter the gates of the inner court, they shall wear linen garments; they must not wear any woollen garment while ministering at the gates of the inner court or inside the house. ¹⁸ They shall wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments around their waists; they must not wear anything that makes them perspire. ¹⁹ When they go out into the outer court to the people, they shall take off the garments they have been ministering in and leave them in the sacred rooms, and put on other clothes, so that they do not transfer holiness to the people with their garments. ²⁰ They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long, but must keep their hair neatly trimmed. ²¹ Priests are not to consume wine when they enter the inner court. ²² They shall not marry a widow or a divorced woman; they may marry only virgins from the descendants of Israel or a widow who is the widow of a priest. ²³ They are to instruct my people on the distinction between the sacred and the ordinary, and guide them in recognizing the difference between the unclean and the clean. ²⁴ In any dispute, the priests are to serve as judges and decide it according to my ordinances. They are to keep my laws and my statutes for all my appointed festivals, and they are to keep my Sabbaths holy. ²⁵ A priest must not defile himself by going near a dead person; however, if the dead person was his father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or unmarried sister, then he may defile himself. ²⁶ After his purification, he must wait seven days. ²⁷ On the day he goes into the sanctuary, to the inner court to minister in the sanctuary, he is to offer a sin offering for himself, declares the Sovereign Lord. ²⁸ I am to be their only inheritance; you shall give them no property in Israel—I am their possession. ²⁹ They shall eat the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings; and everything in Israel devoted to the Lord shall belong to them. ³⁰ The best of all the firstfruits and of all your special gifts shall belong to the priests. You are to give them the first portion of your ground meal so that a blessing may rest on your household. ³¹ The priests shall not eat anything, whether bird or animal, found dead or torn by wild animals.

45 “When you divide the land by lot for inheritance, you shall present a portion to the Lord, a holy district of the land; it shall be 25,000 cubits in length and 20,000 cubits in width, and the entire area will be holy. ² From this, a section measuring 500 cubits square is to be for the sanctuary, with an open space of 50 cubits around it. ³ In this sacred district, you shall measure a section 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. Within it shall be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place. ⁴ This will be the holy portion of the land for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who draw near to serve the Lord. It will be a place for their houses, as well as a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵ An area 25,000 cubits in length and 10,000 cubits in width shall belong to the Levites, the ministers of the temple, as their possession for towns to live in. ⁶

“You shall allocate the city an area 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long, adjoining the holy portion; it will belong to all the house of Israel. ⁷ “The prince shall have land on either side of the holy district and the city's property, extending westward and eastward, parallel to one of the tribal portions, from the western to the eastern border. ⁸ This land shall be his possession in Israel, and my princes shall no longer oppress my people, but they shall allow the house of Israel to possess the land according to their tribes. ⁹ “This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Enough, you princes of Israel! Put away violence and oppression and practise justice and righteousness. Stop evicting my people, declares the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁰ You shall have accurate scales, an accurate ephah, and an accurate bath. ¹¹ The ephah and the bath shall be of the same measure, a tenth of a homer, with the homer as the standard measure. ¹² The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall make up your mina. ¹³ “This is the offering you shall present: a sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat and a sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley. ¹⁴ The prescribed portion of oil, measured by the bath, shall be a tenth of a bath from each cor (which is ten baths or one homer, for ten baths are equivalent to a homer). ¹⁵ And one sheep from every flock of two hundred from the well-watered pastures of Israel, for a grain offering, a burnt offering, and peace offerings, to make atonement for them, declares the Sovereign Lord. ¹⁶ All the people of the land shall be required to give this special offering to the prince in Israel. ¹⁷ It shall be the duty of the prince to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings at the festivals, the New Moons, and the Sabbaths—at all the appointed festivals of the house of Israel. He shall provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings to make atonement for the Israelites. ¹⁸ “This is what the Sovereign Lord says: In the first month, on the first day, you shall take a young bull without defect and purify the sanctuary. ¹⁹ The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the upper ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the inner court. ²⁰ You shall do the same on the seventh day of the month for anyone who sins unintentionally or through ignorance; so you shall make atonement for the temple. ²¹ “In the first month, on the fourteenth day, you shall observe the Passover, a festival lasting seven days, during which you shall eat unleavened bread. ²² On that day the prince shall provide a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land. ²³ During the seven days of the festival, he shall provide seven bulls and seven rams without defect as a burnt offering to the Lord, and a male goat for a sin offering each day. ²⁴ He shall provide as a grain offering an ephah for each bull and an ephah for each ram, along with a hin of olive oil for each ephah. ²⁵ “During the seven days of the festival, which begins in the seventh month on the fifteenth day, he shall make the same provision for sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and oil.

46 ¹ This is what the Sovereign Lord says: The gate of the inner courtyard facing east shall be closed on the six working days, but it shall be opened on the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon. ² The prince shall enter by the porch of the gate from outside and stand by the gatepost. The priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings. He shall bow in worship at the threshold of the gate and then go out, but the gate shall not be closed until evening. ³ The people of the land shall worship at the entrance of that gate before the Lord on the Sabbaths and New Moons. ⁴ The burnt offering that the prince brings to the Lord on the Sabbath day shall be six lambs and a ram, all without defect. ⁵ The grain offering with the ram shall be an ephah, and the grain offering with the lambs shall be as much as he wishes to give, along with a hin of olive oil for each ephah. ⁶ On the day of the New Moon, he shall offer a young bull, six lambs, and a ram, all without defect. ⁷ He shall provide a grain offering of one ephah with the bull, one ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he desires, along with a hin of oil for each ephah. ⁸ When the prince enters, he shall go in by the porch of the gate, and he shall exit the same way. ⁹ When the people of the land come before the Lord at the appointed festivals, whoever enters by the north gate to worship shall exit by the south gate, and whoever enters by the south gate shall exit by the north gate. No one shall return through the gate by which they entered, but each shall go out the opposite gate. ¹⁰ The prince shall be among them, going in when they go in and going out when they go out. ¹¹ At the feasts and appointed festivals, the grain offering shall be an ephah with a bull, an ephah with a ram, and with the lambs as much as one wishes to give, along with a hin of oil for each ephah. ¹² When the prince provides a freewill offering to the Lord—whether a burnt offering or fellowship offerings—the gate facing east shall be opened for him. He shall offer his burnt offering or his fellowship offerings as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he has gone out, the gate shall be shut. ¹³ Every day you shall provide a year-old lamb without defect for a burnt offering to the Lord; morning by morning you shall provide it. ¹⁴ You shall also provide with it morning by morning a grain offering, consisting of a sixth of an ephah with a third of a hin of oil to moisten the flour. This grain offering to the Lord is a lasting ordinance. ¹⁵ Thus the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil shall be provided morning by morning for a regular burnt offering. ¹⁶ This is what the Sovereign Lord says: If the prince gives a gift from his inheritance to any of his sons, it shall belong to his descendants; it is to be their property by inheritance. ¹⁷ But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, it shall be his until the year of release; then it shall revert to the prince. His inheritance belongs to his sons only; it is theirs. ¹⁸ The prince must not take any of the inheritance of the people, driving them off their property. He shall give his sons their inheritance from his own property, so that none of my people will be separated from their property.’ ¹⁹ Then he brought me through the entrance at the side of the gate to the holy chambers facing north, which belonged to the priests, and showed me a place at the western end. ²⁰ He said to me, “This is the place where the priests shall cook the guilt offering and the sin offering and bake the grain offering, to avoid bringing them into the outer court and consecrating the people.” ²¹ Then he brought me to the outer court and led me around to its four corners, and I saw in each corner another court. ²² In each of the four corners of the outer court were enclosed courts, each measuring forty cubits long and thirty cubits wide; all the courts in the four corners were of equal size. ²³ Within each of the four courts was a stone ledge, with places for fire constructed all around beneath the ledge. ²⁴ He said to me, “These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple shall cook the sacrifices of the people.”

47 The man then brought me back to the entrance of the house, and I noticed water flowing from beneath the threshold of the house towards the east, as the house faced east. The water was coming down from the right side of the house, south of the altar. ² He led me out through the north gate and took me around the outside to the outer gate facing east, and there was water trickling from the south side. ³ As the man proceeded eastward with a measuring line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits and led me through water that reached the ankles. ⁴ He measured another thousand cubits and led me through water reaching the knees. He measured another thousand and led me through water reaching the waist. ⁵ He measured another thousand, and it had become a river that I could not cross, for the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in—a river that could not be crossed. ⁶ He asked me, “Son of man, have you seen this?” Then he brought me back to the bank of the river. ⁷ Upon my return, I saw a great number of trees on either side of the riverbank. ⁸ He said to me, “These waters flow towards the eastern region and descend into the Arabah, where they enter the sea. When they flow into the sea, the salty water there becomes fresh. ⁹ Every living creature that swarms wherever the river flows will live. There will be a great abundance of fish, for these waters go there and make the salt water fresh; so everything will live wherever the river goes. ¹⁰ Fishermen will stand along the shore; from En Gedi to En Eglaim there will be places for spreading nets. The fish will be of many kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea. ¹¹ However, the swamps and marshes will remain salty; they will be reserved for salt. ¹² On the banks of the river, on both sides, will grow all kinds of trees for food. Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit fail. They will bear fruit every month because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will be for food and their leaves for healing.” ¹³ This is what the Sovereign Lord says: “These are the boundaries by which you will divide the land among the twelve tribes of Israel, with Joseph receiving two portions. ¹⁴ You are to divide it equally among them, for I swore to give it to your ancestors, and this land will become your inheritance. ¹⁵ “This is to be the boundary of the land: on the north side, it will run from the Great Sea by the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Zedad, ¹⁶

Hamath, Berothah, Sibram, which is between the borders of Damascus and Hamath, as far as Hazer Hattikon, which is on the border of Hauran. ¹⁷ The boundary will extend from the sea to Hazer Enan, at the border of Damascus, with the border of Hamath to the north. This is the northern boundary. ¹⁸ “On the east side, the boundary will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the eastern sea and as far as Tamar. This is the eastern boundary. ¹⁹ “On the south side, it will run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi of Egypt to the Great Sea. This is the southern boundary. ²⁰ “On the west side, the Great Sea will be the boundary to a point opposite Lebo Hamath. This is the western boundary. ²¹ “You are to allocate this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. ²² You are to allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners residing among you who have children. You are to consider them as native-born Israelites; they shall share an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. ²³ In whichever tribe a foreigner resides, there you are to grant them their inheritance,” declares the Sovereign Lord.

48 “These are the names of the tribes: At the northern extremity, along the road of Hethlon to Lebo Hamath, as far as Hazer Enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath, and extending from the east to the west, Dan shall have one portion. ² “Beside the territory of Dan, from east to west, Asher shall have one portion. ³ “Beside the territory of Asher, from east to west, Naphtali shall have one portion. ⁴ “Beside the territory of Naphtali, from east to west, Manasseh shall have one portion. ⁵ “Beside the territory of Manasseh, from east to west, Ephraim shall have one portion. ⁶ “Beside the territory of Ephraim, from east to west, Reuben shall have one portion. ⁷ “Beside the territory of Reuben, from east to west, Judah shall have one portion. ⁸ “Beside the territory of Judah, from east to west, shall be the portion you are to set apart, twenty-five thousand cubits wide, and its length shall be like one of the tribal portions from east to west; the sanctuary shall be in the centre of it. ⁹ “The portion you shall offer to the Lord shall be twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide. ¹⁰ “This sacred portion shall be for the priests, twenty-five thousand cubits long on the north side, ten thousand cubits wide on the west side, ten thousand cubits wide on the east side, and twenty-five thousand cubits long on the south side; the sanctuary of the Lord shall be in the middle of it.

Ezekiel

¹¹ "It shall be for the consecrated priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept my charge and did not go astray as the Levites did when the Israelites went astray. ¹² "It shall be a special gift to them from the sacred portion of the land, a most holy portion, next to the border of the Levites. ¹³ "Alongside the border of the priests, the Levites shall have an allotment twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide. The total length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits and the width ten thousand cubits. ¹⁴ "They shall not sell or exchange any of it, nor allow this choice portion of land to pass into other hands; for it is holy to the Lord. ¹⁵ "The remaining area, five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand cubits long, shall be for common use for the city, for houses and for pastureland; the city shall be in the centre of it. ¹⁶ "These shall be its measurements: the north side, four thousand five hundred cubits; the south side, four thousand five hundred cubits; the east side, four thousand five hundred cubits; and the west side, four thousand five hundred cubits. ¹⁷ "The city shall have open spaces: on the north, two hundred and fifty cubits; on the south, two hundred and fifty cubits; on the east, two hundred and fifty cubits; and on the west, two hundred and fifty cubits. ¹⁸ "The remainder of the length alongside the sacred portion shall be ten thousand cubits toward the east and ten thousand toward the west; its produce shall supply food for the workers of the city. ¹⁹ "The city's labourers, those drawn from all the tribes of Israel, shall tend to it. ²⁰ "The whole portion shall be a square, twenty-five thousand cubits by twenty-five thousand cubits; you shall set apart the sacred portion, along with the property of the city. ²¹ "The remainder shall belong to the prince, on each side of the sacred portion and of the property of the city; extending eastward from the twenty-five thousand cubits of the sacred portion to the eastern border, and westward from the twenty-five thousand cubits to the western border, alongside the tribal portions. The sacred portion with the sanctuary of the house shall be in the centre of it. ²² "Exclusive of the property of the Levites and the property of the city, which are in the centre of that which belongs to the prince, everything between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin shall belong to the prince. ²³ "For the remaining tribes, from the east side to the west side, Benjamin shall have one portion. ²⁴ "Beside the territory of Benjamin, from east to west, Simeon shall have one portion. ²⁵ "Beside the territory of Simeon, from east to west, Issachar shall have one portion. ²⁶ "Beside the territory of Issachar, from east to west, Zebulun shall have one portion. ²⁷ "Beside the territory of Zebulun, from east to west, Gad shall have one portion. ²⁸ "And beside the territory of Gad, the southern boundary shall run south from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi of Egypt to the Great Sea. ²⁹ "This is the land you shall allot as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel, and these shall be their portions," declares the Sovereign Lord. ³⁰ "These shall be the exits of the city: on the north side, four thousand five hundred cubits by measurement, ³¹ "the gates of the city shall be named after the tribes of Israel. The three gates on the north side shall be the gate of Reuben, the gate of Judah, and the gate of Levi. ³² "On the east side, four thousand five hundred cubits, shall be three gates: the gate of Joseph, the gate of Benjamin, and the gate of Dan. ³³ "On the south side, four thousand five hundred cubits by measurement, shall be three gates: the gate of Simeon, the gate of Issachar, and the gate of Zebulun. ³⁴ "On the west side, four thousand five hundred cubits, shall be three gates: the gate of Gad, the gate of Asher, and the gate of Naphtali. ³⁵ "The city shall be eighteen thousand cubits all around; and the name of the city from that time shall be: 'The Lord is there.'"

Daniel

1 During the third year of Jehoiakim's reign as king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem and besieged it. ² And the Lord handed over Jehoiakim king of Judah to him, along with some of the items from the house of God. He brought these to the land of Shinar, to the house of his god, and placed the items in the treasury of his god. ³ Then the king commanded Ashpenaz, chief of his officials, to bring some of the sons of Israel, including those of the royal family and the nobility, ⁴ young men without physical defect, handsome, skilled in all wisdom, endowed with knowledge, quick to understand, and qualified to serve in the king's palace. He was to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans. ⁵ The king assigned them a daily portion of the king's choice food and wine. They were to be educated for three years, after which they would enter the king's service. ⁶ Among these were some from the sons of Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. ⁷ The chief official assigned them new names: to Daniel, Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego. ⁸ But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the king's choice food or wine, and sought permission from the chief official not to defile himself in this way. ⁹ Now God granted Daniel favour and compassion in the sight of the chief official. ¹⁰ The official said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your food and drink. Why should he see you looking worse than the other young men your age? The king would have my head because of you." ¹¹ Daniel then spoke to the guard appointed by the chief official over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, ¹² "Please test your servants for ten days: provide us with only vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³ Then compare our appearance with that of the youths who eat the king's choice food, and deal with your servants according to what you see." ¹⁴ So he consented to this and tested them for ten days. ¹⁵ At the end of the ten days they appeared healthier and better nourished than any of the young men who ate the king's choice food. ¹⁶ So the guard continued to withhold their choice food and wine, and gave them vegetables instead. ¹⁷ To these four young men God gave knowledge and understanding in all kinds of literature and learning; Daniel also understood all kinds of visions and dreams. ¹⁸ At the end of the time set by the king to bring them into his service, the chief official presented them before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹ The king conversed with them, and among them all, none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; so they entered the king's service. ²⁰ In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his entire kingdom. ²¹ And Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus's reign.

2 In the second year of King Nebuchadnezzar's reign, he had dreams that troubled his spirit, and he was unable to sleep. ² The king commanded to summon the magicians, enchanters, sorcerers, and astrologers to tell him his dreams. They came and stood before the king. ³ He said to them, "I have had a dream that has disturbed me, and I wish to understand it." ⁴ The astrologers spoke to the king in Aramaic, "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will interpret it." ⁵ The king answered the astrologers, "My decision is firm: if you do not tell me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be torn limb from limb, and your houses will become ruins. ⁶ But if you reveal the dream and its meaning, you shall receive gifts, rewards, and great honour from me. Therefore, tell me the dream and its interpretation." ⁷ They replied again, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will interpret it." ⁸ The king responded, "I am certain you are trying to gain time because you see that my decision is firm: ⁹ If you do not reveal the dream to me, there is but one decree for you. You have conspired to speak misleading and corrupt words before me until the situation changes. Therefore, tell me the dream, so I will know you can interpret it." ¹⁰ The astrologers answered the king, "There is no one on earth who can do what the king asks. No great king or ruler has ever demanded such a thing from any magician, enchanter, or astrologer. ¹¹ What the king asks is too difficult. No one can reveal it to the king except the gods, and they do not dwell among mortals." ¹² This response made the king so angry and furious that he ordered the execution of all the wise men of Babylon. ¹³ So the decree was issued to put the wise men to death, and they sought Daniel and his companions to execute them. ¹⁴ Then Daniel spoke with wisdom and discretion to Arioch, the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to execute the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁵ He asked Arioch, the king's officer, “Why is the decree from the king so harsh?” Arioch explained the situation to Daniel.¹⁶ Upon hearing this, Daniel went in to the king and requested time, so that he might interpret the dream for him.¹⁷ Daniel returned to his house and informed his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah about the matter,¹⁸ urging them to seek mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that he and his friends might not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.¹⁹ In a vision during the night, the mystery was made known to Daniel. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven²⁰ and said: “Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for wisdom and power belong to Him.²¹ He changes times and seasons; He removes kings and establishes them. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.²² He uncovers profound and hidden things; He knows what is in the darkness, and light is with Him.²³ I thank and praise You, God of my ancestors: You have given me wisdom and power, and You have made known to me what we asked of You; You have made known to us the king’s matter.”²⁴ Then Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to execute the wise men of Babylon, and said, “Do not execute the wise men of Babylon. Take me to the king, and I will interpret his dream for him.”²⁵ Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king and said, “I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who can explain the king’s dream.”²⁶ The king asked Daniel, who was also called Belteshazzar, “Are you able to tell me what I saw in my dream and interpret it?”²⁷ Daniel answered the king, “No wise man, enchanter, magician, or diviner can explain to the king the mystery he has asked about,²⁸ but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. He has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the latter days. Your dream and the visions that passed through your mind as you lay in bed are these:²⁹ As Your Majesty lay there, your mind turned to things to come, and the revealer of mysteries showed you what is going to happen.³⁰ As for me, this mystery has been revealed to me not because I have greater wisdom than anyone else alive, but so that Your Majesty may know the interpretation and understand the thoughts of your mind.³¹ Your Majesty observed, and there before you stood a large statue—an enormous, dazzling statue, impressive in appearance.³² The head of the statue was made of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze,³³ its legs of iron, and its feet a combination of iron and clay.³⁴ While you were watching, a stone was cut out, but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and crushed them.³⁵ Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were broken to pieces and became like chaff on a summer threshing floor. The wind swept them away without leaving a trace. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.³⁶ This was the dream, and now we will explain it to the king.³⁷ Your Majesty, you are the king of kings. The God of heaven has given you dominion, power, strength, and glory;³⁸ He has placed all people, the beasts of the field, and the birds of the sky under your authority. Wherever they dwell, He has made you ruler over them all. You are that head of gold.³⁹ Following you, another kingdom will arise, inferior to yours. Then, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule over the whole earth.⁴⁰ Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron—for iron breaks and smashes everything—and as iron crushes all things, so it will crush and break all the others.⁴¹ Just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly of clay and partly of iron, so this will be a divided kingdom; yet it will have some of the strength of iron in it, even as you saw iron mixed with clay.⁴² As the toes were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly fragile.⁴³ And just as you saw the iron mixed with clay, so the people will be a mixture and will not remain united, any more than iron mixes with clay.⁴⁴ During the reign of those kings, the God of heaven will establish a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be left to another people. It will crush all those kingdoms and bring them to an end, but it will itself endure forever.⁴⁵ This is the meaning of the vision of the stone cut out of a mountain, but not by human hands—a stone that broke the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold to pieces. The great God has shown the king what will take place in the future. The dream is true, and its interpretation is reliable.”

Daniel

⁴⁶ Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell prostrate before Daniel and honoured him, and he ordered that an offering and incense be presented to him.⁴⁷ The king said to Daniel, “Truly, your God is the God of gods and the Lord of kings and a revealer of mysteries, for you were able to disclose this mystery.”⁴⁸ Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many great gifts. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and placed him in charge of all its wise men.⁴⁹ Moreover, at Daniel's request, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego administrators over the province of Babylon, while Daniel remained at the royal court.

Daniel

3 King Nebuchadnezzar constructed a golden image, sixty cubits high and six cubits wide, and erected it on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.² The king then called together the satraps, the prefects, the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the provincial officials to attend the dedication of the image he had set up.³ So the satraps, the prefects, the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the provincial officials gathered for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up, and they stood before it.⁴ The herald proclaimed loudly, "To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages,⁵ that when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you are to fall down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.⁶ Whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be cast into a furnace of blazing fire."⁷ Therefore, as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and worshipped the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.⁸ At that time, certain Chaldeans came forward and accused the Jews.⁹ They addressed King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever!¹⁰ You, O king, have issued a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and all kinds of music must fall down and worship the golden image,¹¹ and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be thrown into the midst of a blazing furnace.¹² There are some Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon, namely Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who pay no heed to you, O king. They do not serve your gods or worship the golden image you have set up."¹³ In furious rage, Nebuchadnezzar ordered that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought before him.¹⁴ Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden image I have set up?"¹⁵ Now, if you are ready, when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, to fall down and worship the image I have made, very well. But if you do not worship, you shall be immediately cast into a blazing furnace. And what god will be able to deliver you from my hands?"¹⁶ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves in this matter.¹⁷ If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to deliver us from it, and he will deliver us from your hand, O king.¹⁸ But even if he does not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image you have set up."¹⁹ Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with fury, and the expression on his face changed towards Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He ordered the furnace to be heated seven times more than usual.²⁰ He commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the blazing furnace.²¹ So these men, wearing their trousers, robes, turbans, and other garments, were bound and thrown into the blazing furnace.²² The king's command was so pressing and the furnace so hot that the flames of the fire killed the soldiers who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego,²³ and these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell bound into the blazing furnace.²⁴ Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and rose up in haste. He asked his counsellors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the fire?" They answered, "Certainly, O king."²⁵ He said, "Look! I see four men, unbound, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are unharmed, and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods."²⁶ Nebuchadnezzar then approached the opening of the blazing furnace and called out, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out and come here!" So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out from the fire.²⁷ The satraps, prefects, governors, and king's counsellors gathered around and saw that the fire had no effect on the bodies of these men. Not a hair of their heads was singed, their trousers were not scorched, and there was no smell of fire on them.²⁸ Nebuchadnezzar declared, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants who trusted in him. They defied the king's command and were willing to give up their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. ²⁹ Therefore I decree that any people, nation, or language that speaks anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego shall be torn limb from limb and their houses laid in ruins, for there is no other god who can save in this way.” ³⁰ Thus, the king elevated Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to high positions in the province of Babylon.

Daniel

4 King Nebuchadnezzar, to all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth: May your peace be abundant! ² I am delighted to recount the signs and wonders that the Most High God has accomplished for me. ³ How great are His signs, and how mighty are His wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His dominion endures from generation to generation. ⁴ I, Nebuchadnezzar, was content in my home and I prospered in my palace. ⁵ I had a dream that alarmed me; the visions in my mind as I lay on my bed terrified me. ⁶ Therefore, I issued a decree to summon all the wise men of Babylon to interpret the dream for me. ⁷ Then the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and diviners came in, and I related the dream to them, but they could not reveal its interpretation to me. ⁸ At last, Daniel came before me, whose name is Belteshazzar according to the name of my god, and in whom is a spirit of the holy gods; I told him the dream. ⁹ “Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and no mystery is too difficult for you. Here is the dream that I saw; interpret it for me. ¹⁰ These were the visions I saw as I lay on my bed: I looked, and there was a tree in the midst of the earth, and its height was great. ¹¹ The tree grew and became strong, and its height reached to the heavens, and it was visible to the ends of the earth. ¹² Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and in it was food for all. The beasts of the field found shade under it, and the birds of the heavens dwelt in its branches, and all living creatures were fed from it. ¹³ In the visions of my mind as I lay on my bed, I saw a watcher, a holy one, descending from heaven. ¹⁴ He proclaimed aloud and said thus: ‘Hew down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the beasts flee from under it and the birds from its branches. ¹⁵ Nevertheless, leave the stump with its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field. Let him be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his lot be with the beasts in the grass of the earth. ¹⁶ Let his mind be changed from that of a man, and let a beast’s mind be given to him, until seven times pass over him. ¹⁷ This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones, to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomsoever He will, and sets up over it the basest of men.’ ¹⁸ This dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, have seen. Now you, Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, for all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation, but you can, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.” ¹⁹ Then Daniel, whose name is Belteshazzar, was dismayed for a moment, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spoke and said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation trouble you.” Belteshazzar answered, “My lord, if only the dream applied to your enemies and its interpretation to your adversaries! ²⁰ The tree you observed, which grew and became strong, reaching the heavens and visible across the earth, ²¹ whose leaves were beautiful and its fruit abundant, and in which was food for all, under which the beasts of the field dwelt and upon whose branches the birds of the heavens had their habitation— ²² it is you, O king; for you have grown and become strong. Your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, and your dominion to the end of the earth. ²³ And inasmuch as the king saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Hew down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump with its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field; let him be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him,’ ²⁴ this is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High that has come upon my lord the king: ²⁵ You shall be driven from among men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. You shall be made to eat grass like oxen, and you shall be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you, till you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men and gives it to whomsoever He will. ²⁶ And inasmuch as they commanded to leave the stump of the tree with its roots, your kingdom shall be assured to you, after you come to know that Heaven rules. ²⁷ Therefore, O

Daniel

king, let my counsel be acceptable to you: break off your sins by practising righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; perhaps there may be a lengthening of your tranquillity.”²⁸ All these things befell King Nebuchadnezzar.²⁹ A year later, he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon.³⁰ The king spoke, saying, “Is not this great Babylon, which I have built as a royal residence by my mighty power and for the honour of my majesty?”³¹ While the word was in the king’s mouth, a voice fell from heaven: “King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: the kingdom has departed from you.”³² You shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. You shall eat grass like oxen, and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men and gives it to whomsoever He will.”³³ Immediately the word concerning Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled. He was driven from men and ate grass like oxen; his body was wet with the dew of heaven till his hair grew as long as eagles’ feathers and his nails like birds’ claws.³⁴ At the end of the days, I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High and praised and honoured Him who lives forever, for His dominion is an everlasting dominion, and His kingdom endures from generation to generation.³⁵ All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; He does according to His will in the army of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth. No one can stay His hand or say to Him, “What have You done?”³⁶ At the same time my reason returned to me, and for the glory of my kingdom, my honour and splendour returned to me. My counsellors and nobles sought me out, and I was restored to my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added to me.³⁷ Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, for all His works are truth, and His ways justice; and those who walk in pride He is able to abase.

5 King Belshazzar hosted a grand feast for a thousand of his nobles, and he drank wine in their presence.² While tasting the wine, Belshazzar commanded to bring the gold and silver vessels that Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king, his nobles, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them.³ Thus, they brought the gold vessels that had been taken from the temple of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, his wives, and his concubines drank from them.⁴ As they drank the wine, they offered praise to the gods of gold and silver, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone.⁵ Suddenly, the fingers of a human hand appeared and began writing on the plaster of the wall, near the lampstand in the king’s palace, and the king saw the hand as it wrote.⁶ The king’s face turned pale, and his thoughts alarmed him; his legs gave way and his knees knocked together.⁷ The king called out to bring in the enchanters, Chaldeans, and diviners. He declared to the wise men of Babylon, “Whoever reads this writing and explains its meaning will be clothed in purple, have a gold chain around his neck, and be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”⁸ Then all the king’s wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or explain its meaning to the king.⁹ This made King Belshazzar even more terrified, and his face grew paler. His nobles were perplexed.¹⁰ The queen, because of the words of the king and his nobles, entered the banquet hall. She said, “O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts alarm you or your face look pale.”¹¹ There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your father, he was found to have illumination, insight, and wisdom like that of the gods. King Nebuchadnezzar, your father, appointed him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and diviners.¹² This was because Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, was found to have an extraordinary spirit, knowledge, insight, the ability to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve difficult problems. Call for Daniel, and he will reveal the interpretation.”¹³ So Daniel was brought before the king, and the king said to him, “Are you Daniel, one of the exiles from Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah?”¹⁴ I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you and that you have illumination, insight, and extraordinary wisdom.¹⁵ The wise men and enchanters were brought before me to read this writing and tell me its meaning, but they could not explain it.¹⁶ But I have heard that you can give interpretations and solve difficult problems. If you can read this writing and tell me its meaning, you will be clothed in purple, have a gold chain around your neck, and be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”¹⁷ Then Daniel answered the king, “You may keep your gifts for yourself or give your rewards to someone else. Nevertheless, I will read the writing for the king and tell him its meaning. ¹⁸ O king, the Most High God granted sovereignty, greatness, glory, and majesty to Nebuchadnezzar your father. ¹⁹ Because of the greatness He gave him, all peoples, nations, and men of every language dreaded and feared him. Whomever he wished, he put to death; whomever he wished, he spared; whomever he wished, he promoted; and whomever he wished, he humbled. ²⁰ But when his heart became arrogant and his spirit hardened with pride, he was deposed from his royal throne and stripped of his glory. ²¹ He was driven away from people and given the mind of an animal; he lived with the wild donkeys and ate grass like cattle; his body was drenched with the dew of heaven until he acknowledged that the Most High God is sovereign over the kingdoms of men and sets over them anyone He wishes. ²² But you, Belshazzar, his son, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this. ²³ Instead, you have set yourself against the Lord of heaven. You had the vessels from His temple brought to you, and you and your nobles, your wives, and your concubines drank wine from them. You praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which cannot see or hear or understand. But you did not honour the God who holds in His hand your life and all your ways. ²⁴ Thus, He sent the hand that inscribed the message. ²⁵ Here is the message that was inscribed: Mene, Mene, Tekel, Parsin. ²⁶ This is what these words mean: Mene: God has numbered your kingdom and brought it to an end. ²⁷ Tekel: You have been weighed and measured on the scales and found wanting. ²⁸ Peres: Your kingdom is divided and handed over to the Medes and Persians. ²⁹ Following Belshazzar's command, Daniel was adorned in purple, a gold chain was placed around his neck, and he was declared the third highest ruler in the kingdom. ³⁰ That very night, Belshazzar, the Chaldean king, met his end. ³¹ And Darius the Mede assumed control of the kingdom, at the age of sixty-two.

Daniel

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom 120 satraps, to be in charge throughout the whole realm, ² and over them three administrators, one of whom was Daniel, so that the satraps might be accountable to them and the king would not suffer loss. ³ Daniel distinguished himself among the administrators and satraps by his exceptional spirit, and the king planned to set him over the entire kingdom. ⁴ At this, the administrators and satraps sought to find grounds for charges against Daniel concerning the kingdom, but they could find no corruption or negligence in him, for he was trustworthy. ⁵ Finally, these men said, "We shall not find any ground for accusation against this Daniel unless it is in connection with the law of his God." ⁶ So the administrators and satraps went as a group to the king and said: "May King Darius live forever! ⁷ The royal administrators, prefects, satraps, advisers, and governors have all agreed that the king should establish a decree and enforce an edict that anyone who prays to any god or human being except to you, O king, for thirty days, shall be cast into the lions' den. ⁸ Now, O king, issue the decree and sign it so that it cannot be altered, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed." ⁹ Thus, King Darius put his signature on the written decree. ¹⁰ When Daniel knew that the decree had been signed, he went to his house, where he had windows in his upper room open towards Jerusalem. He knelt down three times a day, praying and giving thanks before his God, as he had done previously. ¹¹ Then these men came as a group and found Daniel praying and seeking favour from his God. ¹² So they approached the king and spoke concerning the king's decree: "Did you not sign an edict that any person who prays to any god or human being except to you, O king, for thirty days, shall be thrown into the lions' den?" The king answered, "The decree stands, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be revoked." ¹³ Then they said to the king, "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no heed to you, O king, or to the decree you have signed, but continues to pray three times a day." ¹⁴ When the king heard this, he was greatly distressed and set his mind to rescue Daniel; he laboured until sunset to deliver him. ¹⁵ Then these men came as a group to the king and said, "Remember, O king, that according to the law of the Medes and Persians, no decree or edict which the king establishes can be changed." ¹⁶ So the king gave the order, and Daniel was brought and cast into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, deliver you!" ¹⁷ A stone was brought and laid over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet and with the signets of his nobles, so that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. ¹⁸ The king returned to his palace and spent the night fasting; he refused any entertainment, and even sleep eluded him. ¹⁹ At the break of day, the king arose and went in haste to the lions' den. ²⁰ When he came near the den, he cried out with a voice of anguish, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?"

Daniel

²¹ Daniel then addressed the king, "O king, may you live forever! ²² My God sent His angel and shut the lions' mouths, so they have not harmed me, because I was found innocent before Him; nor have I done any wrong before you, O king." ²³ The king was exceedingly glad and commanded that Daniel be lifted out of the den. And no injury was found on him, because he had trusted in his God. ²⁴ At the king's command, those men who had maliciously accused Daniel were brought and cast into the lions' den, along with their children and wives; and before they reached the bottom of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones. ²⁵ Then King Darius wrote to all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth: "May your peace be multiplied! ²⁶ I make a decree that in every dominion of my kingdom, people must tremble and fear before the God of Daniel. For He is the living God, enduring forever; His kingdom shall not be destroyed, and His dominion shall be without end. ²⁷ He delivers and rescues, He works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth, He who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions." ²⁸ Thus, Daniel thrived during the reign of Darius and the rule of Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the first year of Belshazzar, king of Babylon, Daniel experienced a dream and visions in his mind as he lay on his bed. He recorded the essence of his dream. ² Daniel declared, "In my night vision, I saw the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea. ³ Four mighty beasts emerged from the sea, each distinct from the others. ⁴ The first beast was like a lion and had the wings of an eagle. I watched until its wings were removed, and it was lifted from the ground to stand on two feet like a man, and it was given a human mind. ⁵ Then I saw a second beast, resembling a bear. It was raised on one side, and it held three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was commanded, 'Arise, consume much flesh!' ⁶ After this, I continued watching, and there was another beast, like a leopard, with four wings like those of a bird on its back. This beast had four heads, and it was granted dominion. ⁷ In my night vision, I then saw a fourth beast, dreadful, terrifying, and exceedingly strong. It had large iron teeth, and it devoured, crushed, and trampled whatever remained. It was different from all the previous beasts, and it had ten horns. ⁸ While contemplating the horns, another smaller horn emerged among them, and three of the earlier horns were uprooted before it. This horn had eyes like human eyes and a mouth speaking arrogantly. ⁹ As I watched, thrones were established, and the Ancient of Days took His seat. His clothing was white as snow, and the hair of His head was like pure wool. His throne was ablaze with flames, and its wheels were burning fire. ¹⁰ A river of fire flowed out from before Him. Thousands upon thousands served Him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him. The court sat in judgement, and the books were opened. ¹¹ I continued to observe because of the arrogant words the horn was speaking. I watched until the beast was slain, and its body destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire. ¹² As for the other beasts, their dominion was removed, yet they were allowed to live for a certain period of time. ¹³ In my night vision, I saw one like a son of man coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was presented before Him. ¹⁴ He was given dominion, glory, and a kingdom, so that all peoples, nations, and languages might serve Him. His dominion is everlasting and will not pass away, and His kingdom will never be destroyed. ¹⁵ I, Daniel, was troubled in spirit, and the visions in my mind alarmed me. ¹⁶ I approached one of those standing by and asked for the interpretation of all this. He explained and made known to me the interpretation of these matters: ¹⁷ 'The four great beasts are four kings that will arise from the earth. ¹⁸ But the holy ones of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will possess it forever—indeed, forever and ever.' ¹⁹ Then I desired to understand the meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others and exceedingly dreadful, with its iron teeth and bronze claws, which devoured, crushed, and trampled what was left with its feet. ²⁰ I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and the other horn that came up, before which three fell—the horn that had eyes and a mouth speaking arrogantly, and which appeared more imposing than the others. ²¹ As I watched, this horn was waging war against the holy ones and prevailing against them,²² until the Ancient of Days came and judgement was rendered in favour of the holy ones of the Most High, and the time arrived for them to possess the kingdom.²³ He gave me this explanation: 'The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on the earth, different from all other kingdoms, and it will devour the whole earth, trampling it down and crushing it.'²⁴ The ten horns are ten kings who will arise from this kingdom. Another king will arise after them, different from the previous ones, and he will subdue three kings.²⁵ He will speak against the Most High and oppress His holy ones, and will intend to change the set times and laws. The holy ones will be delivered into his hand for a time, times, and half a time.²⁶ But the court will sit in judgement, and his dominion will be taken away, annihilated and destroyed forever.²⁷ Then the sovereignty, dominion, and greatness of all the kingdoms under heaven will be given to the people of the holy ones of the Most High. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will serve and obey Him.'²⁸ This is the conclusion of the matter. I, Daniel, was greatly troubled by my thoughts, and my face turned pale, but I kept the matter to myself.

Daniel

8 In the third year of King Belshazzar's reign, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, following the one that had previously appeared to me.² In my vision, I found myself in the citadel of Susa, in the province of Elam, and I was beside the Ulai Canal.³ I lifted my eyes and saw a ram with two horns standing by the canal. The horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one grew later.⁴ I watched the ram charging westward, northward, and southward. No beast could withstand it, and none could rescue from its power. It did as it wished and became great.⁵ As I was considering this, suddenly a goat with a conspicuous horn between its eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground.⁶ It approached the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and attacked it with furious power.⁷ I saw it strike the ram, breaking its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against it; the goat hurled it to the ground and trampled on it, with no one to rescue the ram from its power.⁸ The goat became exceedingly great, but when it was at the height of its power, the large horn was broken, and in its place, four prominent horns grew toward the four winds of heaven.⁹ Out of one of them came a small horn, which grew exceedingly great toward the south, the east, and the Beautiful Land.¹⁰ It grew up to the host of heaven, and it cast some of the stars down to the earth and trampled them.¹¹ It exalted itself to be as great as the commander of the Lord's army; it removed the daily sacrifice from the Lord, and His sanctuary was overthrown.¹² Because of rebellion, the host and the daily sacrifice were given over to it. It cast truth to the ground and succeeded in what it did.¹³ Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one asked, "How long will the vision last concerning the daily sacrifice, the desolation caused by rebellion, and the trampling of the sanctuary and the host?"¹⁴ He said to me, "It will last for 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be restored."¹⁵ As I, Daniel, was watching the vision and seeking to understand it, there stood before me one who appeared like a man.¹⁶ And I heard a man's voice from the Ulai, calling, "Gabriel, explain the vision to this man."¹⁷ As he approached where I was standing, I was terrified and fell on my face. He said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision pertains to the time of the end."¹⁸ While he was speaking to me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground, but he touched me and made me stand upright.¹⁹ He said, "I will inform you of what will happen in the latter time of wrath, for the vision pertains to the appointed time of the end."²⁰ The ram you saw with the two horns represents the kings of Media and Persia.²¹ The goat with a prominent horn between its eyes symbolizes the king of Greece, and the notable horn is the first king.²² The broken horn and the four horns that arose in its place represent four kingdoms that will emerge from his nation but will not have the same power.²³ In the latter period of their reign, when transgressors have reached their fullness, a king of fierce countenance, skilled in intrigue, will arise.²⁴ His power will be mighty, but not by his own strength. He will cause extraordinary destruction and succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy the mighty and the holy people.²⁵ Through his cunning, he will cause deceit to prosper under his hand, and he will magnify himself in his heart. When they feel secure, he will destroy many and stand against the Prince of princes. Yet he will be broken, but not by human power.²⁶ The vision of the evenings and mornings that has been told is true. But seal up the vision, for it pertains to many days in the future. ²⁷ I, Daniel, was exhausted and lay sick for several days. Then I rose and went about the king's business. I was appalled by the vision; it was beyond understanding.

Daniel

9 In the first year of Darius son of Ahasuerus, of Median descent, who was made king over the kingdom of the Chaldeans— ² in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, discerned from the books the number of years that, according to the word of the Lord given to Jeremiah the prophet, the desolation of Jerusalem would last, namely seventy years. ³ So I turned my attention to the Lord God, seeking Him by prayer and supplication, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes. ⁴ I prayed to the Lord my God and confessed: “O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant of love with those who love Him and keep His commandments, ⁵ we have sinned and done wrong. We have acted wickedly and rebelled, turning aside from Your commandments and ordinances. ⁶ We have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, our leaders, our ancestors, and all the people of the land. ⁷ “Righteousness belongs to You, Lord, but to us belongs open shame, as it is this day—to the people of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and all Israel, those near and those far away, in all the countries where You have driven them, because of their unfaithfulness to You. ⁸ Open shame belongs to us, Lord, to our kings, our leaders, and our ancestors, because we have sinned against You. ⁹ Mercy and forgiveness are with the Lord our God, for we have rebelled against Him; ¹⁰ and we have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in His teachings set before us through His servants the prophets. ¹¹ Indeed, all Israel has transgressed Your law and turned aside, refusing to obey Your voice. Therefore the curses and sworn judgments written in the Law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against Him. ¹² He has confirmed His words, which He spoke against us and against our rulers, by bringing upon us great disaster; for under the whole heaven nothing has been done like what has been done to Jerusalem. ¹³ As it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us, yet we have not sought the favour of the Lord our God by turning from our sins and giving attention to Your truth. ¹⁴ Therefore the Lord has kept the disaster in store and brought it upon us, for the Lord our God is righteous in all His deeds, yet we have not obeyed His voice. ¹⁵ “And now, Lord our God, who brought Your people out of Egypt with a mighty hand and made for Yourself a name that endures to this day, we have sinned, we have acted wickedly. ¹⁶ Lord, in accordance with all Your righteous acts, let Your anger and Your wrath turn away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain. Because of our sins and the iniquities of our ancestors, Jerusalem and Your people have become a byword among all those around us. ¹⁷ “So now, our God, hear the prayer of Your servant and his supplications, and for Your sake, Lord, let Your face shine upon Your desolate sanctuary. ¹⁸ Incline Your ear, my God, and hear; open Your eyes and see the desolations of the city that bears Your name. We do not present our pleas before You because of our own righteousness, but because of Your great compassion. ¹⁹ Lord, hear! Lord, forgive! Lord, listen and act! For Your own sake, my God, do not delay, because Your city and Your people bear Your name.” ²⁰ While I was speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my plea before the Lord my God for the holy mountain of my God— ²¹ while I was still speaking in prayer, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the earlier vision, came to me swiftly at the time of the evening offering. ²² He gave me instruction and said, “Daniel, I have now come to provide you with insight and understanding. ²³ At the beginning of your supplications, a command was issued, and I have come to tell you, for you are highly esteemed. Therefore, consider the message and gain understanding of the vision: ²⁴ “Seventy ‘sevens’ have been decreed for your people and your holy city to finish transgression, to put an end to sin, to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy Place. ²⁵ Know and understand this: From the issuing of the decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the Anointed One, the ruler, comes, there will be seven ‘sevens’ and sixty-two ‘sevens.’ It will be rebuilt with streets and a trench, but in times of trouble. ²⁶ After the sixty-two ‘sevens,’ the Anointed One will be cut off and will have nothing. The people of the ruler who is to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come with a flood; war will continue until the end, and desolations have been decreed. ²⁷ He will make a firm agreement with many for one 'seven.' In the middle of the 'seven,' he will bring an end to sacrifice and offering. And at the temple, he will establish an abomination that causes desolation, until the end that is decreed is poured out on him.

Daniel

10 In the third year of Cyrus, king of Persia, a revelation was imparted to Daniel, who was also known as Belteshazzar. The message was true and concerned a significant conflict. He comprehended the message and had insight into the vision. ² During that period, I, Daniel, mourned for a full three weeks. ³ I refrained from consuming any rich food; neither meat nor wine entered my mouth, and I did not apply any ointments until the three weeks had passed. ⁴ On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I stood by the bank of the great river, the Tigris, ⁵ I lifted my eyes and saw a man clothed in linen, with a belt of pure gold from Uphaz around his waist. ⁶ His body was like topaz, his face shone like lightning, his eyes were like blazing torches, his arms and feet gleamed like polished bronze, and his voice was like the sound of a multitude. ⁷ I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision; the men with me did not see it, but a great fear fell upon them, and they fled to hide themselves. ⁸ Thus, I was left alone, gazing at this great vision; my strength deserted me, my complexion turned deathly pale, and I was left powerless. ⁹ Then I heard the sound of his words, and as I listened, I fell into a deep sleep, with my face to the ground. ¹⁰ Suddenly, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. ¹¹ He spoke to me, saying, "Daniel, you who are highly valued, pay attention to the words I am about to speak to you. Stand up, for I have now been sent to you." When he spoke this to me, I stood up trembling. ¹² He continued, "Do not fear, Daniel. From the first day you set your heart on understanding and humbled yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them. ¹³ However, the prince of the Persian kingdom opposed me for twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to assist me, for I had been detained there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴ I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the days to come, for the vision pertains to a future time." ¹⁵ As he spoke these words to me, I bowed my face to the ground and was speechless. ¹⁶ Then one resembling a human touched my lips, and I opened my mouth to speak. I said to the one standing before me, "My lord, I am overwhelmed with anguish because of the vision, and I feel very weak. ¹⁷ How can I, your servant, converse with you, my lord? My strength is gone, and I can barely breathe." ¹⁸ Again, the one with the appearance of a man touched me and strengthened me. ¹⁹ He said, "Do not be afraid, you who are highly esteemed. Peace be with you; be strong now, be strong." As he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have given me strength." ²⁰ Then he said, "Do you understand why I have come to you? I must soon return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I leave, the prince of Greece will come; ²¹ but first I will tell you what is inscribed in the Book of Truth. No one supports me against these forces except Michael, your prince.

11 In the first year of Darius the Mede, I arose to support and protect him. ² Now I will tell you the truth: Three more kings will arise in Persia, and then a fourth, who will be far richer than all of them. As soon as he becomes strong through his wealth, he will stir up the whole empire against the kingdom of Greece. ³ Then a powerful king will emerge, who will govern with significant authority and act according to his own desires. ⁴ After he has arisen, his kingdom will be broken and divided towards the four winds of heaven, but not to his descendants, nor with the authority he wielded, because his sovereignty will be uprooted and given to others. ⁵ The king of the South will grow strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he and will rule his own kingdom with great power. ⁶ After some years, they will form an alliance. The daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to make an agreement, but she will not retain her power, nor will he endure; she will be given up, along with those who brought her and her father and the one who supported her. ⁷ One from her family line will arise to take her place. He will attack the forces of the king of the North and enter his fortress; he will fight against them and prevail. ⁸ He will also seize their gods, their metal images, and their precious articles of silver and gold and carry them off to Egypt. For some years he will refrain from attacking the king of the North. ⁹ Then the king of the North will invade the realm of the king of the South but will return to his own land. ¹⁰

Daniel

His descendants will prepare for war and gather a great army, which will advance like an unstoppable flood and carry the battle as far as his fortress.¹¹ Then the king of the South will march out in a rage and fight against the king of the North, who will raise a large multitude, but it will be handed over to the king of the South.¹² When the multitude is carried away, the king of the South will be filled with pride and will slaughter tens of thousands, yet he will not remain triumphant.¹³ For the king of the North will muster another army, larger than the first; and after several years, he will advance with a great army and much equipment.¹⁴ In those times many will rise against the king of the South. The violent ones among your people will rebel in fulfilment of the vision, but they will fall.¹⁵ Then the king of the North will come and build up siege ramps and capture a well-fortified city. The forces of the South will be powerless to resist; even their best troops will not have the strength to stand.¹⁶ The invader will do as he pleases; no one will be able to withstand him. He will establish himself in the Beautiful Land and will have the power to destroy it.¹⁷ He will set his mind on coming with the might of his entire kingdom and will make an alliance with the king of the South. He will give him a daughter in marriage to overthrow the kingdom, but his plans will not succeed or help him.¹⁸ Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and will capture many of them, but a commander will put an end to his insolence and will turn his insolence back on him.¹⁹ After this, he will turn back towards the fortresses of his own land but will stumble and fall, and will not be found.²⁰ His successor will send out an official to collect taxes to maintain the royal splendour. In a few years, however, he will be destroyed, yet not in anger or in battle.²¹ He will be succeeded by a person of low esteem who has not been granted the honour of royalty. He will invade the kingdom when its people feel secure, and he will seize it through cunning.²² Then an overwhelming force will be swept away before him; both it and a prince of the covenant will be destroyed.²³ After an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully, and with only a few people he will rise to power.²⁴ When the richest provinces feel secure, he will invade them and will achieve what neither his fathers nor his ancestors did. He will distribute plunder, spoils, and possessions among his followers. He will plot the overthrow of fortresses—but only for a time.²⁵ With a large army he will muster his strength and courage against the king of the South. The king of the South will engage in battle with a large and very powerful army, but he will not be able to stand because of the plots devised against him.²⁶ Those who share the king's provisions will seek to destroy him; his army will be swept away, and many will fall in battle.²⁷ The two kings, with their hearts bent on evil, will sit at the same table and lie to each other, but to no avail, because the end will still come at the appointed time.²⁸ The king of the North will return to his own country with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the sacred covenant. He will take action against it and then return to his own country.²⁹ At the appointed time he will invade the South again, but this time the outcome will differ from what it was before.³⁰ Ships from the western regions will oppose him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and vent his fury against the sacred covenant. He will return and show favour to those who forsake the sacred covenant.³¹ His armed forces will rise up to defile the temple fortress and will abolish the daily sacrifice. Then they will set up the abomination that causes desolation.³² Through smooth words, he will lead astray those who have violated the covenant, but the people who know their God will stand firm and resist him.³³ The wise among the people will impart knowledge to many, though for a time they will fall by the sword or be burned or captured or plundered.³⁴ When they fall, they will receive some assistance, and many who are not sincere will join them.³⁵ Some of the wise will falter, so that they may be refined, purified, and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.³⁶ The king will act according to his own desires. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god and will say unheard-of things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been determined must take place.³⁷ He will show no regard for the deities of his ancestors or for the one cherished by women, nor will he regard any god, but will exalt himself above them all.³⁸ Instead of them, he will honour a god of fortresses; a deity unknown to his ancestors he will honour with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts.³⁹ He will attack the mightiest fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honour those who acknowledge him.

Daniel

He will make them rulers over many people and will distribute the land at a cost. ⁴⁰ At the time of the end, the king of the South will engage him in battle, but the king of the North will storm out against him with chariots and cavalry and a mighty fleet of ships. He will invade many countries sweeping through them like a flood. ⁴¹ He will also invade the Beautiful Land. Many countries will fall, but Edom, Moab, and the leaders of Ammon will escape his grasp. ⁴² He shall extend his power over many countries; Egypt will not escape. ⁴³ He will gain control of the treasures of gold and silver and all the riches of Egypt, with the Libyans and Cushites following in submission. ⁴⁴ But the reports from the east and the north will alarm him, instead he will set out in fury: to destroy and annihilate many. ⁴⁵ He will pitch his royal tents between the seas at the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he will come to his end, and no one will assist him.

12 "At that time Michael, the great prince who stands guard over your people, will arise.

There will be a time of distress such as has never occurred since nations began until that time. But at that time your people, everyone whose name is found written in the book, will be delivered. ² And many who sleep in the dust of the earth will awaken, some to everlasting life, others to disgrace and everlasting contempt. ³ Those who have insight will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever. ⁴ But you, Daniel, keep these words secret and seal the book until the end of time. Many will roam about, and knowledge will increase." ⁵ Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others were standing, one on this bank of the river and the other on the opposite bank. ⁶ And one of them said to the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long will it be until these astonishing things are fulfilled?" ⁷ And I heard the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, lift his right hand and his left hand toward heaven, and swear by Him who lives forever, saying, "It will be for a time, times, and half a time. When the power of the holy people has been finally broken, all these things will be completed." ⁸ I heard, but I did not understand. So I said, "My lord, what will be the outcome of these events?" ⁹ And he said, "Go your way, Daniel, for these words are kept secret and sealed until the end time. ¹⁰ Many will be purified, cleansed, and refined, but the wicked will continue to act wickedly. None of the wicked will understand, but those who have insight will understand. ¹¹ From the time that the regular sacrifice is abolished and the abomination that causes desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. ¹² Fortunate is the one who perseveres and reaches the conclusion of the 1,335 days. ¹³ But as for you, go your way until the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days you will rise to receive your allotted inheritance."

Hosea

1 The word of the Lord that came to Hosea son of Beeri during the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and during the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel. ² When the Lord began to speak through Hosea, He said to him, “Go, take for yourself a wife of infidelity and have children of infidelity, for the land is guilty of unfaithfulness in departing from the Lord.” ³ So Hosea went and married Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son. ⁴ Then the Lord said to him, “Call him Jezreel, for soon I will punish the house of Jehu for the bloodshed at Jezreel, and I will bring an end to the kingdom of Israel. ⁵ On that day I will break Israel’s bow in the Valley of Jezreel.” ⁶ Gomer conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. And the Lord said to him, “Name her Lo-Ruhamah, for I will no longer show love to the house of Israel, that I should forgive them. ⁷ But I will show love to the house of Judah and save them by the Lord their God, not by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen.” ⁸ After she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, Gomer conceived and bore another son. ⁹ Then the Lord said, “Call him Lo-Ammi, for you are not My people, and I am not your God.” ¹⁰ Yet the number of the Israelites will be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or counted. In the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not My people,’ they will be called ‘children of the living God.’ ¹¹ The people of Judah and the people of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint one leader and come up from the land, for great will be the day of Jezreel.

2 Speak to your brothers, “My people,” and to your sisters, “My beloved.” ² “Contend with your mother, contend, for she is not my wife, and I am not her husband. Let her remove her infidelity from her face and her adultery from between her breasts. ³ Otherwise, I will strip her bare and expose her as on the day she was born. I will make her like a desert, turn her into parched land, and slay her with thirst. ⁴ I will not show pity to her children, because they are children of adultery. ⁵ Their mother has been unfaithful and has conceived them in disgrace. She said, ‘I will pursue my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.’ ⁶ Therefore, I will block her path with thorns and wall her in so she cannot find her way. ⁷ She will chase after her lovers but not catch them; she will seek them but not find them. Then she will say, ‘I will return to my first husband, for it was better for me then than now.’ ⁸ She has not acknowledged that I was the one who gave her the grain, the new wine and the oil, and lavished on her silver and gold, which they used for Baal. ⁹ Therefore, I will take back my grain in its time and my new wine in its season. I will also take away my wool and my flax intended to cover her nakedness. ¹⁰ Now I will expose her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will rescue her from my hand. ¹¹ I will put an end to all her celebrations: her feasts, her New Moons, her Sabbaths—all her appointed festivals. ¹² I will destroy her vines and fig trees, of which she said, ‘These are my wages from my lovers.’ I will turn them into a thicket, and wild animals will devour them. ¹³ I will punish her for the days she burned incense to the Baals; she adorned herself with rings and jewellery, and went after her lovers, but forgot me,” declares the Lord. ¹⁴ “Therefore, I will allure her, bring her into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her. ¹⁵ There I will give her back her vineyards, and make the Valley of Achor a door of hope. There she will respond as in the days of her youth, as in the day she came up from the land of Egypt. ¹⁶ “At that time,” declares the Lord, “you will call me ‘my husband’; you will no longer call me ‘my master.’ ¹⁷ I will remove the names of the Baals from her lips; they will no longer be mentioned by their names. ¹⁸ On that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, the birds of the sky, and the creatures that move along the ground. I will abolish bow, sword, and war from the land, so that all may lie down in safety. ¹⁹ I will pledge you to me forever; I will pledge you in righteousness and justice, in love and compassion. ²⁰ I will pledge you in faithfulness, and you will know the Lord. ²¹ “At that time I will respond,” declares the Lord— “I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth; ²² and the earth will respond to the grain, the new wine and the oil, and they will respond to Jezreel. ²³ I will plant her for myself in the land; I will show compassion to the one I called ‘Not my loved one.’ I will say to those called ‘Not my people,’ ‘You are my people’; and they will say, ‘You are my God.’”

3 The Lord spoke to me, “Go once more and show love to a woman who is loved by another and is unfaithful, just as the Lord loves the people of Israel, even though they turn to other gods and delight in raisin cakes.” ² So I acquired her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver and a homer and a lethek of barley. ³ I said to her, "You must stay with me for many days. You shall not be a prostitute or be with any other man, and I will act the same towards you." ⁴ For the people of Israel will remain for many days without a king or prince, without sacrifice or memorial stones, and without ephod or household idols. ⁵ Afterwards, the people of Israel will return and seek the Lord their God and David their king. They will approach the Lord with reverence and seek His blessings in the latter days.

Hosea

4 Hear the word of the Lord, O children of Israel, for the Lord has a complaint against the residents of the land: there is neither truth nor loyalty, nor knowledge of God in the land. ² There is cursing, deceit, murder, theft, and adultery; they resort to violence, and bloodshed follows bloodshed. ³ Because of this, the land mourns, and all who dwell in it languish; the beasts of the field, the birds of the air, and even the fish of the sea are taken away. ⁴ But let no one accuse, let no one rebuke another, for your people are like those who contend with a priest. ⁵ You will stumble by day, and the prophet will also stumble with you by night; and I will destroy your mother. ⁶ My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you from being my priests; because you have forgotten the law of your God, I will also forget your children. ⁷ The more they increased, the more they sinned against me; I will turn their glory into shame. ⁸ They feed on the sin of my people and desire their iniquity. ⁹ And it shall be: as the people are, so the priest will be. I will hold them accountable for their wicked ways and repay them for their deeds. ¹⁰ They shall eat, but not be satisfied; they shall engage in prostitution, but not multiply, because they have ceased devoting themselves to the Lord. ¹¹ Infidelity, wine, and new wine take away their understanding. ¹² My people consult their wooden idol, and their diviner's rod speaks to them; a spirit of infidelity has led them astray, and they have been unfaithful to their God. ¹³ They sacrifice on the mountain tops and burn incense on the hills, under oak, poplar, and terebinth, because their shade is good. Therefore, your daughters turn to prostitution and your daughters-in-law to adultery. ¹⁴ I will not hold your daughters accountable when they turn to prostitution, nor your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery, because the men themselves consort with harlots and sacrifice with shrine prostitutes; a people lacking understanding will come to ruin. ¹⁵ Though you, Israel, commit adultery, let not Judah become guilty. Do not go to Gilgal, nor go up to Beth Aven, and do not swear, 'As surely as the Lord lives!' ¹⁶ For Israel is stubborn, like a stubborn heifer. How then can the Lord pasture them like lambs in a broad meadow? ¹⁷ Ephraim is deeply involved with idols; do not join with him. ¹⁸ Even when their drink is gone, they continue their prostitution; their rulers love shameful ways. ¹⁹ A whirlwind will wrap them in its wings, and they will be put to shame because of their sacrifices.

5 Hear this, you priests! Listen, house of Israel! Pay attention, house of the king! For the judgment applies to you, Because you have been a trap at Mizpah And a net spread out on Tabor. ² The rebels have gone deep in depravity, But I will discipline all of them. ³ I know Ephraim, And Israel is not hidden from Me; For now, Ephraim, you have acted promiscuously, Israel has defiled itself. ⁴ Their deeds will not allow them To return to their God. For a spirit of prostitution is within them, And they do not know the Lord. ⁵ Moreover, the pride of Israel testifies against him, And Israel and Ephraim stumble in their guilt; Judah also has stumbled with them. ⁶ They will take their flocks and herds To seek the Lord, yet they will not find Him; For he has distanced Himself from them. ⁷ They have acted treacherously against the Lord, For they have given birth to illegitimate children. Now the new moon will devour them with their land. ⁸ Sound the horn in Gibeah, The trumpet in Ramah. Raise an alarm at Beth-aven: "Watch out, Benjamin!" ⁹ Ephraim will become a desolation on the day of rebuke; Among the tribes of Israel I make known what is certain. ¹⁰ The leaders of Judah have become like those who move a boundary; On them I will pour out My wrath like water. ¹¹ Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment, Because he was determined to follow human directives. ¹² Therefore I am like decay to Ephraim, And like corrosion to the house of Judah. ¹³ When Ephraim saw his sickness, And Judah his wound, Then Ephraim went to Assyria And sent word to King Jareb. But he is unable to heal you, Or to cure your wound. ¹⁴ For I will be like a fierce lion to Ephraim, And like a young lion to the house of Judah. I, yes I, will tear to pieces and depart, I will carry away, and there will be no one to deliver. ¹⁵ I will go away and return to My place Until they acknowledge their guilt and seek My face; In their distress they will earnestly seek Me.

Hosea

6 "Come, let us return to the Lord. For though He has torn us, He will heal us; Though He has wounded us, He will bind up our wounds. ² He will restore us after two days; On the third day, He will raise us up, So that we may live in His presence. ³ So let us know, let us press on to know the Lord. His appearance is as sure as the dawn; And He will come to us like the rain, Like the spring rain watering the earth." ⁴ What am I to do with you, Ephraim? What am I to do with you, Judah? For your loyalty is like a morning cloud, And like the dew that vanishes early. ⁵ Therefore I have cut them in pieces by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of My mouth; And the judgments on you are like the light that goes forth. ⁶ For I desire mercy rather than sacrifice, And the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings. ⁷ But like Adam, they have broken the covenant; There they have acted treacherously against Me. ⁸ Gilead is a city filled with wrongdoers, Marked by traces of blood. ⁹ And as raiders lie in wait for a person, So a band of priests murder on the way to Shechem; Certainly they have committed an act of infamy. ¹⁰ In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing: Ephraim's promiscuity is there, Israel has defiled itself. ¹¹ And you, Judah, a harvest is appointed for you, When I restore the fortunes of My people.

7 When I would heal Israel, The guilt of Ephraim is uncovered, And the evil deeds of Samaria, For they practice deception; The thief enters, A band of robbers attack outside, ² And they do not consider in their hearts That I am aware of all their wickedness. Now their deeds are all around them; They are before My eyes. ³ Through their wickedness they please the king, And the officials are pleased with their deceit. ⁴ They are all adulterers, Like an oven heated by the baker, Who stops stirring the fire From the kneading of the dough until it is leavened. ⁵ On the day of our king, the officials became sick with the heat of wine; He extended his hand to scoffers, ⁶ For their hearts are like an oven As they approach their plotting; Their anger smoulders all night, In the morning it burns like a flaming fire. ⁷ All of them are inflamed like an oven, And they consume their rulers; All their kings have fallen. None of them seeks Me. ⁸ Ephraim mixes himself with the peoples; Ephraim has become a flat cake not turned over. ⁹ Strangers devour his strength, Yet he does not know it; Grey hairs also are sprinkled on him, Yet he does not know it. ¹⁰ Although Israel's pride testifies against him, They have still not returned to the Lord their God, Nor have they sought Him, despite everything.

¹¹ So Ephraim has become like a naive dove, lacking sense; They call to Egypt, they go to Assyria. ¹² When they go, I will spread My net over them; I will bring them down like the birds of the sky. I will discipline them in accordance with the news to their assembly. ¹³ Woe to them, for they have wandered from Me! Destruction is theirs, for they have rebelled against Me! I would redeem them, but they have spoken falsehoods against Me. ¹⁴ And they do not cry to Me from their heart When they wail on their beds; For the sake of grain and new wine they gather themselves, They turn away from Me. ¹⁵ Although I trained and strengthened their arms, Yet they plot evil against Me. ¹⁶ They turn, but not upward, They are like a deceitful bow; Their officials will fall by the sword Because of the insolence of their tongue. This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.

8 Sound the trumpet! Like an eagle, the enemy comes against the house of the Lord, Because they have broken My covenant And defied My Law. ² They call out to Me, "O God, we of Israel recognise You!" ³ Israel has turned away from what is good; The enemy will chase him. ⁴ They have set up kings, but not by My authority; They have appointed officials, but I was not consulted. With their silver and gold, they have crafted idols for themselves, So that they will be removed. ⁵ He has rejected your calf, Samaria, declaring, "My anger burns against them!" How long will they be unable to remain innocent? ⁶ For from Israel comes even this! A craftsman made it, so it is not God; Surely the calf of Samaria will be shattered. ⁷ For they sow the wind And they reap the whirlwind. The standing grain has no kernels; It yields no grain. If it were to yield, strangers would consume it. ⁸ Israel has been consumed; They are now among the nations Like a vessel in which no one takes pleasure. ⁹ For they have gone up to Assyria, Like a solitary wild donkey; Ephraim has hired lovers. ¹⁰ Even though they hire allies among the nations, I will gather them now; And they will begin to diminish Because of the burden of the king of officials. ¹¹ As Ephraim has increased altars for sin, They have become altars of sin for him. ¹² Though I wrote for him countless teachings of My Law, They are viewed as something foreign. ¹³ As for My sacrificial gifts, They sacrifice the meat and eat it, But the Lord does not accept them. Now He will remember their guilt And punish them for their sins; They will return to Egypt. ¹⁴ For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces; And Judah has multiplied fortified cities, But I will send fire on its cities, And it will consume its citadels.

9 Do not rejoice, Israel, with jubilation like the nations! For you have been unfaithful to your God; You have loved the earnings of a prostitute on every threshing floor. ² The threshing floor and wine press will not sustain them, And the new wine will disappoint them. ³ They will not dwell in the Lord's land, But Ephraim will return to Egypt, And in Assyria, they will consume impure food. ⁴ They will not pour out drink offerings of wine to the Lord, Nor will their sacrifices please Him. Their bread will be like mourners' bread; All who eat it will be defiled, Because their bread will be for themselves alone; It will not enter the house of the Lord. ⁵ How will you fare on the day of the appointed festival And on the day of the feast of the Lord? ⁶ For behold, they will flee because of destruction; Egypt will take them in, Memphis will bury them. Weeds will take possession of their treasures of silver; Thorns will be in their tents. ⁷ The days of punishment have come, The days of retribution have come; Let Israel know this! The prophet is considered a fool, The inspired person a maniac, Because of the grossness of your wrongdoing, And because your hostility is so great. ⁸ Ephraim was a watchman with my God, a prophet, Yet a snare of a bird catcher is in all his ways, And there is only hostility in the house of his God. ⁹ They have gone as far as the depths of depravity, As in the days of Gibeah; He will remember their guilt, He will punish their sins. ¹⁰ I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I valued your forefathers as the earliest fruit on the fig tree in its first season. But they went to Baal-peor to devote themselves to disgrace, And they became as detestable to me as all they cherished there. ¹¹ As for Ephraim, their splendour will vanish like a bird—No birth, no pregnancy, and no conception! ¹² Though they bring up their children, Yet I will bereave them until not one is left. Woe to them indeed when I depart from them! ¹³ Ephraim, as I have seen, Is planted in a pasture like Tyre; But Ephraim is destined to bring out his children for destruction. ¹⁴ Give them, Lord—what will You give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dried-up breasts. ¹⁵ All their wickedness is at Gilgal; Indeed, I came to despise them there! Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of My house! I will no longer cherish them; All their leaders are rebels. ¹⁶ Ephraim is stricken, their root is dried up, They will produce no fruit. Even though they give birth, I will put to death the precious ones of their wombs. ¹⁷ My God will reject them Because they have not listened to Him; And they will become wanderers among the nations.

10 Israel is a flourishing vine; He yields fruit for himself. The more abundant his fruit, The more altars he constructed; The more prosperous his land, The more he improved the memorial stones. ² Their heart is deceitful; Now they must bear the consequences of their guilt. The Lord will dismantle their altars And demolish their memorial stones. ³ Certainly now they will say, "We have no king, For we do not honour the Lord. As for the king, what can he accomplish for us?" ⁴ They speak empty words, With insincere oaths they make covenants; And judgment springs up like harmful weeds in the furrows of the field. ⁵ The inhabitants of Samaria will fear For the calf of Beth-aven. Indeed, its people will mourn for it, And so will its idolatrous priests, Who rejoiced over it and over its glory, Since it has departed from it. ⁶ The object itself will be taken to Assyria As a tribute gift to King Jareb; Ephraim will be overwhelmed with shame, And Israel will be embarrassed by its own scheme. ⁷ Samaria and her king will perish, Like a twig on the surface of the water. ⁸ Moreover, the high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed; Thorns and thistles will grow on their altars. Then they will say to the mountains, "Cover us!" And to the hills, "Fall on us!" ⁹ Since the days of Gibeah you have sinned, Israel; There they remain! Will the battle against the sons of injustice not overtake them in Gibeah? ¹⁰ When it is My desire, I will discipline them; And peoples will be gathered against them When they are bound for their double guilt. ¹¹ Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh, And I passed over her lovely neck; I will harness Ephraim, Judah will plough, Jacob will harrow for himself. ¹² Sow for yourselves in righteousness, Reap in accordance with kindness; Break up your uncultivated ground, For it is time to seek the Lord Until He comes and rains righteousness on you. ¹³ You have ploughed wickedness, you have harvested injustice, You have eaten the fruit of lies. Because you have trusted in your way, in your many warriors, ¹⁴ An uproar will arise among your people, And all your fortresses will be destroyed, As Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel on the day of battle, When mothers were dashed to pieces with their children. ¹⁵ Thus it will be done to you at Bethel because of your great wickedness; At dawn the king of Israel will be utterly destroyed.

Hosea

11 When Israel was young, I cherished him, And from Egypt, I summoned My son. ² The more they were called, The further they strayed from them; They continued sacrificing to the Baals And offering incense to idols. ³ Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk, I held them in My arms; But they did not realise that I healed them. ⁴ I led them with the cords of man, With bonds of love, I eased the yoke from their jaws; And I stooped down and fed them. ⁵ They shall not return to the land of Egypt; But Assyria will be their king Because they refused to come back to Me. ⁶ And the sword will whirl against their cities, And will destroy their oracle priests, And will consume them because of their counsels. ⁷ So My people are resolute in turning away from Me. Though they call upon the One on high, None truly exalts Him. ⁸ How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I surrender you, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I treat you like Zeboiim? My heart is stirred within Me, My compassion is overflowing. ⁹ I will not unleash My fierce anger; I will not destroy Ephraim again. For I am God and not a mortal, I am the The Holy One among you, And I will not come in fury. ¹⁰ They will follow the Lord, He will roar like a lion; Indeed He will roar, And His children will come trembling from the west. ¹¹ They will come trembling like birds from Egypt, And like doves from the land of Assyria; And I will settle them in their homes, declares the Lord. ¹² Ephraim surrounds Me with lies, And the house of Israel with deceit; Judah is also defiant against God, Even as I remain the Holy One who is faithful.

12 Ephraim feeds on wind, And pursues the east wind continually; He multiplies lies and violence. Moreover, they make a covenant with Assyria, And oil is brought to Egypt. ² The Lord also has a dispute with Judah, And will punish Jacob in accordance with his ways; He will repay him in accordance with his deeds. ³ Even from the womb, he grasped his brother's heel, And as an adult, he struggled with God. ⁴ Yes, he wrestled with the angel and prevailed; He wept and implored His favour. He found Him at Bethel, And there He spoke with us, ⁵ That is, the Lord God of armies, The Lord is His name. ⁶ So you, return to your God, Maintain kindness and justice, And wait for your God continually. ⁷ A trader, who uses dishonest scales, Delights in cheating. ⁸ And Ephraim said, "I have certainly become rich, I have found wealth for myself; In all my labours they will find in me No wrongdoing, which would be sin." ⁹ But I have been the Lord your God since the land of Egypt; I will make you live in tents again, As on the days of the appointed festival. ¹⁰ I have also communicated with the prophets, And granted many visions, And through the prophets I conveyed messages. ¹¹ Is there wrongdoing in Gilead? Surely they are of no value. In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls, Yes, their altars are like stone heaps Beside the furrows of a field. ¹² Now Jacob fled to the territory of Aram, And Israel worked for a wife, And for a wife he kept sheep. ¹³ Yet it was through a prophet that the Lord led Israel up from Egypt, And by a prophet he was safeguarded. ¹⁴ Ephraim has provoked God to bitter anger; So his Lord will leave his bloodguilt on him And bring his disgrace back to him.

13 When Ephraim spoke, there was fear. He raised himself up in Israel, But he became guilty through Baal, and perished. ² And now they continue to sin more and more, And make for themselves cast metal images, Idols skillfully made from their silver, All of them the work of craftsmen. They say of them, "Let the people who sacrifice kiss the calves!" ³ Therefore they will be like the morning mist And like dew which soon vanishes, Like chaff which is blown away from the threshing floor, And like smoke from a chimney. ⁴ Yet I have been the Lord your God Since the land of Egypt; And you were not to know any god except Me, For there is no saviour besides Me. ⁵ I tended to you in the wilderness, In the land of drought. ⁶ As they had their pasture, they became content, And being content, their heart grew proud; Therefore they forgot Me. ⁷ So I will be like a lion to them; Like a leopard I will watch by the wayside. ⁸ I will encounter them like a bear deprived of her cubs, And I will tear open their chests. I will also devour them there like a lioness, As a wild animal would tear them to pieces. ⁹ It is to your destruction, Israel, That you are against Me, against your help. ¹⁰ Where then is your king, That he may save you in all your cities, And your judges of whom you said, "Give me a king and leaders"? ¹¹ I granted you a king in My anger, And removed him in My wrath. ¹² The wrongdoing of Ephraim is wrapped up; His sin is stored up. ¹³ He is like a son who lacks wisdom, For he delays when it is time to be born. ¹⁴ Shall I rescue them from the power of Sheol? Shall I redeem them from death? Death, where are your thorns? Sheol, where is your sting? Compassion will be hidden from My sight. ¹⁵ Though he thrives among the reeds, An east wind will come, The wind of the Lord coming up from the wilderness; And his fountain will become dry, And his spring will dry up; It will plunder his treasury of every precious article. ¹⁶ Samaria will pay the penalty for her guilt, Because she has rebelled against her God. They will fall by the sword, Their children will be dashed to pieces, And their pregnant women ripped open.

Hosea

14 Return, Israel, to the Lord your God, For you have stumbled because of your guilt. ² Take words with you and return to the Lord. Say to Him, "Forgive all our guilt And receive us graciously, So that we may present the fruit of our lips. ³ Assyria cannot deliver us, We shall not rely on horses; Nor will we call the work of our hands, 'Our god'; For in You the orphan finds compassion." ⁴ I will restore their faithfulness, I will love them without restraint, For My anger has departed from them. ⁵ I will be like the morning dew to Israel; He will flourish like the lily, Establishing roots like the cedars of Lebanon. ⁶ His branches will spread, And his splendour will be like the olive tree, And his scent like the cedars of Lebanon. ⁷ Those who dwell in his shade Will once more cultivate grain, And they will flourish like the vine. His fame will be like the wine of Lebanon. ⁸ Ephraim, what more have I to do with idols? It is I who have answered and watched over you. I am like a luxuriant juniper; From Me comes your fruit. ⁹ Whoever is wise, let him know these things; Whoever is discerning, let him recognise them. For the ways of the Lord are just, And the righteous will walk in them, But wrongdoers will stumble in them.

1 Then the word of the Lord came to Joel, son of Pethuel.

² Hear this, you elders, and listen, all who dwell in the land. Has anything like this happened in your days or in the days of your forefathers? ³ Repeat this with your children, and let them tell it to their children, and their descendants with the following generation. ⁴ What the gnawing locust left, the swarming locust has eaten; what the swarming locust left, the creeping locust has eaten; what the creeping locust left, the stripping locust has eaten. ⁵ Awake, you drunkards, and weep! Wail, all you wine drinkers, because of the sweet wine, for it has been taken from your lips. ⁶ For a nation has invaded my land, powerful and beyond number; it has the teeth of a lion and the fangs of a lioness. ⁷ It has laid waste my vine and turned my fig tree into a stump. It has stripped off their bark and cast it away, leaving their branches white. ⁸ Mourn like a young woman in sackcloth grieving for the husband of her youth. ⁹ The grain offerings and drink offerings are cut off from the house of the Lord. The priests mourn, those who minister before the Lord. ¹⁰ The fields are devastated, the land mourns; for the grain is destroyed, the new wine has dried up, and the olive oil fails. ¹¹ Despair, you farmers, wail, you vinedressers, for the wheat and the barley, because the harvest of the field is ruined. ¹² The vine is dried up and the fig tree withered; the pomegranate, the palm, and the apple tree— all the trees of the field—are dried up. Indeed, the joy of mankind has withered away. ¹³ Put on sackcloth and lament, you priests; wail, you who minister at the altar. Come, spend the night in sackcloth, you who minister to my God, for the grain offerings and drink offerings are withheld from the house of your God. ¹⁴ Declare a holy fast; call a sacred assembly. Gather the elders and all who live in the land to the house of the Lord your God, and cry out to the Lord. ¹⁵ Alas for the day! For the day of the Lord is near; it will come as destruction from the Almighty. ¹⁶ Is not the food cut off from us, before our eyes, and joy and gladness cut off, from the house of our God? ¹⁷ The seeds lie shrivelled beneath the soil; the storehouses are in ruins, the granaries have been broken down, for the grain has dried up. ¹⁸ How the cattle moan! The herds wander aimlessly because they have no pasture; even the flocks of sheep suffer. ¹⁹ To you, Lord, I call, for fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness and flames have burned up all the trees of the field. ²⁰ Even the wild animals pant for you; the streams of water have dried up, and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

2 Sound the trumpet in Zion; raise the alarm on my holy mountain. Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the Lord is coming; indeed, it is near— ² a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness. As dawn spreads over the mountains, a great and mighty people arises; there has never been anything like it, nor will there be again for many generations. ³ Before them fire consumes, and behind them a flame devours. The land before them is like the Garden of Eden, but behind them a desolate wilderness —nothing escapes them. ⁴ Their appearance is like that of horses; they gallop like war horses. ⁵ With a noise like chariots, they leap over the mountaintops, like the crackling of a flame consuming stubble, like a mighty army drawn up for battle. ⁶ At their presence, nations are in anguish; every face turns pale. ⁷ They charge like warriors, they scale walls like soldiers. Each marches in line, not swerving from their path. ⁸ They do not jostle each other; each proceeds straight ahead. They burst through defences without breaking ranks. ⁹ They storm the city, they run along the wall; they climb into the houses, entering through the windows like thieves. ¹⁰ Before them the earth shakes, the heavens tremble, the sun and moon are darkened, and the stars lose their brightness. ¹¹ The Lord thunders at the head of his army; his camp is exceedingly great, for mighty is the one who executes his word. The day of the Lord is great and very awesome; who can endure it? ¹² “Yet even now,” declares the Lord, “return to me with all your heart, with fasting, weeping, and mourning.” ¹³ Tear your heart and not your garments. Return to the Lord your God, for he is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love, and he relents from sending calamity. ¹⁴ Who knows? He may turn and relent and leave a blessing behind—a grain offering and a drink offering for the Lord your God. ¹⁵ Sound the trumpet in Zion, consecrate a fast, call a sacred assembly. ¹⁶ Gather the people, sanctify the congregation; assemble the elders, gather the children and those nursing at the breast. Let the bridegroom leave his room and the bride her chamber. ¹⁷ Let the priests, who minister before the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar. Let them say, "Spare your people, Lord. Do not make your inheritance a disgrace, a byword among the nations. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their God?'"

¹⁸ Then the Lord was zealous for his land and had compassion on his people. ¹⁹ The Lord replied to his people:

"I am sending you grain, new wine, and oil, enough to satisfy you fully; never again will I make you a disgrace among the nations. ²⁰ "I will drive the northern army far from you, pushing it into a dry and desolate land; its advance guard into the eastern sea and its rear guard into the western sea. Its stench will go up, its smell will rise." Surely he has done great things! ²¹ Do not fear, land of Judah; be glad and rejoice, for the Lord has done great things! ²² Do not fear, you animals of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are becoming green. The trees bear their fruit; the fig tree and the vine yield their riches. ²³ Be glad, people of Zion, rejoice in the Lord your God, for he has given you the early rains in his faithfulness. He sends you abundant showers, both the early and latter rains as before. ²⁴ The threshing floors will be brimming with grain; the vats will be overflowing with new wine and oil. ²⁵ "I will repay you for the years the locusts have eaten—the great locust, the young locust, the other locusts, and the locust swarm—my great army that I sent among you. ²⁶ You will have plenty to eat, until you are full, and you will praise the name of the Lord your God, who has worked wonders for you; never again will my people be put to shame. ²⁷ Then you will know that I am in the midst of Israel, that I am the Lord your God, and there is no other; never again will my people be put to shame. ²⁸ "And after this, I will pour out my Spirit upon all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. ²⁹ Even upon my servants, both male and female, I will pour out my Spirit in those days. ³⁰ I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. ³¹ The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and awesome day of the Lord. ³² And all who call on the name of the Lord will be saved; for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance, as the Lord has said, even among the survivors whom the Lord calls.

3 "In that period, when I bring back the prosperity of Judah and Jerusalem, ² I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat. There I will enter into judgement with them on behalf of my people and my inheritance, Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations and divided my land. ³ They cast lots for my people, traded a boy for a prostitute, and sold a girl for wine to drink.

⁴ "Now what are you to me, Tyre, Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you repaying me for something? If you are paying me back, I will swiftly and speedily return your retribution on your own heads. ⁵ For you took my silver and my gold and brought my finest treasures to your temples. ⁶ You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, to remove them far from their homeland. ⁷ "See, I am going to rouse them from the places where you sold them, and return your retribution on your own heads. ⁸ I will sell your sons and daughters into the hands of the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, a nation far away," for the Lord has spoken.

⁹ Proclaim this among the nations: Prepare for war! Stir up the warriors! Let all the soldiers come forward and attack. ¹⁰ Beat your ploughshares into swords and your pruning hooks into spears. Let the weak now say, "I am strong!" ¹¹ Come quickly, all you surrounding nations, and gather yourselves there. Bring down, Lord, your warriors. ¹² Let the nations be awakened and advance to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations. ¹³ Swing the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, trample the grapes, for the winepress is full and the vats overflow—so great is their wickedness! ¹⁴ Crowds upon crowds congregate in the valley of decision! For the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision. ¹⁵ The sun and moon will be darkened, and the stars will lose their brightness. ¹⁶ The Lord will roar from Zion and thunder from Jerusalem; the heavens and the earth will tremble. But the Lord will be a refuge for his people, a stronghold for the sons of Israel. ¹⁷ "Then you will know that I am the Lord your God, dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain. Jerusalem will be holy; never again will strangers pass through her. ¹⁸ "In that day the mountains will drip with sweet wine, and the hills will flow with milk; all the brooks of Judah will run with water. A fountain will flow out of the Lord's house and will water the Valley of Shittim. ¹⁹ But Egypt will become a wasteland, and Edom a desolate wilderness, because of the violence done to the people of Judah, in whose land they shed innocent blood. ²⁰ But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem through all generations. ²¹ Shall I leave their innocent blood unavenged? No, I will not."

Joel

For the Lord dwells in Zion!

Amos

1 The words of Amos, who was among the shepherds of Tekoa, the vision he saw concerning Israel during the reign of Uzziah, king of Judah, and Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. ² And he said:

"The Lord roars from Zion and thunders from Jerusalem; the pastures of the shepherds mourn, and the summit of Carmel dries up."

³ This is what the Lord says:

"For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment. Because they threshed Gilead with sledges of iron, ⁴ I will send fire upon the house of Hazael, and it will consume the fortresses of Ben-Hadad. ⁵ I will break the gate bar of Damascus; I will eliminate the ruler from the Valley of Aven and the one who holds the sceptre from Beth Eden. The people of Aram will go into exile to Kir," says the Lord. ⁶ This is what the Lord says:

"For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment. Because they took captive whole communities and handed them over to Edom, ⁷ I will send fire on the walls of Gaza, and it will consume her fortresses. ⁸ I will eliminate the ruler from Ashdod and the one who holds the sceptre from Ashkelon. I will turn my hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines will perish," says the Sovereign Lord. ⁹ This is what the Lord says:

"For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment. Because they delivered entire communities to Edom, disregarding the covenant of brotherhood, ¹⁰ I will send fire on the walls of Tyre, and it will consume her fortresses."

¹¹ This is what the Lord says:

"For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment. Because he pursued his brother with the sword and stifled his compassion; his anger raged continually, and his fury burned unchecked, ¹² I will send fire upon Teman, and it will consume the fortresses of Bozrah."

¹³ This is what the Lord says:

"For three transgressions of the sons of Ammon, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment. Because they ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead in order to enlarge their borders, ¹⁴ I will kindle a fire on the walls of Rabbah, and it will consume her fortresses amid war cries on the day of battle, amid a storm on the day of tempest. ¹⁵ Their king will go into exile, he and his officials together," says the Lord.

2 This is what the Lord says:

"For three offences of Moab, and for four, I will not revoke its punishment, Because he burned the bones of the king of Edom to lime. ² So I will send fire upon Moab, And it will consume the citadels of Kerioth; And Moab will die amid the panic, With war cries and the sound of a trumpet. ³ I will remove the judge from among them And put an end to all her leaders with him," Says the Lord.

⁴ This is what the Lord says:

"For three offences of Judah, and for four, I will not revoke its punishment, Because they rejected the Law of the Lord, And have not kept His statutes; Their lies also have led them astray, Those which their fathers followed. ⁵ Therefore, I will send fire upon Judah, And it will devour the fortresses of Jerusalem."

⁶ This is what the Lord says:

"For three offences of Israel, and for four, I will not revoke its punishment, Because they sell the righteous for money, And the needy for a pair of sandals. ⁷ These who trample the head of the poor Into the dust of the earth And push the afflicted out of the way; A man and his father have sexual relations with the same girl, So that My holy name is profaned. ⁸ And on garments taken as security they recline beside every altar, And in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who have been penalised. ⁹ Yet it was I who removed the Amorite before them, Though his stature was like that of cedars, And he was as strong as the oaks; I also destroyed his fruit above and his roots below. ¹⁰ And it was I who brought you up from the land of Egypt, And guided you in the wilderness for forty years, So that you might take possession of the land of the Amorite. ¹¹ Then I appointed some of your sons to be prophets, And some of your young men to be Nazirites. Is this not so, you sons of Israel?" Declares the Lord. ¹² "But you caused the Nazirites to drink wine, And you commanded the prophets, saying, 'You shall not prophesy!' ¹³ Behold, I am pressing down upon you, Just as a wagon is pressed down when filled with sheaves. ¹⁴ Escape will fail the swift, And the strong will not strengthen his power, Nor the warrior save his life. ¹⁵ The archer will not stand firm, The swift of foot will not escape, Nor will the horseman save his life. ¹⁶ Even the most courageous among the warriors will flee unclothed on that day," Declares the Lord.

Amos

3 Hear this word that the Lord has spoken against you, O people of Israel, against the whole family that He brought up from the land of Egypt:

² "You alone have I acknowledged among all the families of the earth; therefore, I will punish you for all your iniquities." ³ Can two walk together unless they have agreed to meet? ⁴ Does a lion roar in the forest when it has no prey? Does a young lion growl from its den unless it has captured something? ⁵ Does a bird fall into a snare on the ground when there is no bait for it? Does a trap spring up from the ground when it has caught nothing? ⁶ If a trumpet is sounded in a city, do not the people tremble? If calamity befalls a city, has not the Lord caused it? ⁷ Surely the Lord God does nothing without revealing His secret plan to His servants the prophets. ⁸ The lion has roared—who will not fear? The Lord God has spoken—who can but prophesy? ⁹ Proclaim to the strongholds in Ashdod and to the strongholds in the land of Egypt: "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria and behold the great turmoil within her and the oppression in her midst." ¹⁰ "They do not know how to do what is right," declares the Lord, "those who store up violence and devastation in their strongholds."

¹¹ Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says:

"An adversary shall surround the land and bring down your defences, and your strongholds shall be plundered."

¹² This is what the Lord says:

"As a shepherd rescues from the lion's mouth two legs or a piece of an ear, so shall the Israelites in Samaria be rescued, with only the corner of a bed and a piece of fabric from a couch." ¹³ "Listen and bear witness against the house of Jacob," says the Lord God, the God of hosts. ¹⁴ "For on the day I punish Israel for her transgressions, I will also destroy the altars of Bethel; the horns of the altar shall be cut off and fall to the ground. ¹⁵ I will demolish the winter house along with the summer house; the houses adorned with ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall come to an end," declares the Lord.

4 Listen to this message, you well-fed women of Bashan who are on the mountain of Samaria, Who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, Who say to their husbands, "Bring now, that we may drink!" ² The Lord God has sworn by His holiness, "Behold, days are coming upon you When they will take you away with meat hooks, And the last of you with fish hooks. ³ You will go out through breaches in the walls, Each one straight ahead of her, And you will be thrown to Harmon," Declares the Lord. ⁴ "Go to Bethel and commit transgressions, In Gilgal increase your transgressions! Bring your sacrifices every morning, Your tithes every three days. ⁵ Present a thanksgiving offering also from that which is leavened, And proclaim voluntary offerings, make them known. For this is what you love to do, you sons of Israel," Declares the Lord God. ⁶ "But I also gave you empty stomachs in all your cities, And lack of bread in all your places, Yet you have not returned to Me," declares the Lord. ⁷ "Moreover, I held back the rain from you Even though there were still three months until harvest. I would send rain on one city, While another city would not receive rain; One part would be watered, While the part without rain would dry up. ⁸ So two or three cities would wander to another city to drink water, But would not be satisfied; Yet you have not returned to Me," declares the Lord. ⁹ "I afflicted you with scorching wind and mildew; The caterpillar consumed Your many gardens and vineyards, fig trees and olive trees; Yet you have not returned to Me," declares the Lord. ¹⁰ "I sent a plague among you as in Egypt; I struck down your young men with the sword, Along with your captured horses, And I caused the stench of your camp to rise up in your nostrils; Yet you have not returned to Me,” declares the Lord. ¹¹ “I brought destruction upon you, as God did to Sodom and Gomorrah, And you were like a brand plucked from the fire; Yet you have not returned to Me,” declares the Lord. ¹² “Therefore this is what I will do to you, Israel; Because I will do this to you, Prepare to meet your God, Israel.” ¹³ For behold, He who forms mountains and creates the wind, And reveals to a person what are His thoughts, He who makes dawn into darkness And treads on the high places of the earth, The Lord God of hosts is His name.

Amos

5 Hear this word, O house of Israel, this lament I raise against you:

² “Fallen is Virgin Israel, she shall rise no more. She lies forsaken on her land; there is no one to lift her up.” ³ For this is what the Sovereign Lord says to Israel: “The city that sends out a thousand will have a hundred left, and the one that sends out a hundred will have ten left.”

⁴ For this is what the Lord says to the house of Israel:

“Seek me, and you shall live. ⁵ Do not seek Bethel, do not go to Gilgal, and do not cross over to Beersheba; for Gilgal shall surely go into exile, and Bethel shall be reduced to nothing.” ⁶ Seek the Lord, and live, lest He unleash a fire upon the house of Joseph, consuming it with no one to extinguish it for Bethel. ⁷ There are those who transform justice into bitterness and throw righteousness to the ground. ⁸ He who made the Pleiades and Orion, who turns deep darkness into morning and darkens day into night, who summons the waters of the sea and pours them out over the face of the earth — the Lord is his name. ⁹ He brings sudden destruction upon the stronghold, and ruin comes upon the fortified city. ¹⁰ They hate the one who reproves in the gate and despise the one who speaks the truth. ¹¹ Therefore, because you impose heavy rent on the poor and take a levy of grain from them, though you have built houses of hewn stone, you shall not dwell in them; though you have planted delightful vineyards, you shall not drink their wine. ¹² For I know how numerous your offences are and how great your sins. You oppress the righteous, accept bribes, and turn aside the needy in the gate. ¹³ Therefore, the prudent keep silent at such a time, for it is an evil time. ¹⁴ Seek good and not evil, that you may live; and so the Lord God Almighty will be with you, just as you say. ¹⁵ Hate evil, love good, and establish justice in the gate. Perhaps the Lord God Almighty will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

¹⁶ Therefore, this is what the Lord, the Lord God Almighty, says:

“There will be wailing in all the streets and cries of anguish in every public square. The farmers will be called to mourn, and the professional mourners to lamentation. ¹⁷ There will be lamentation in all the vineyards, for I shall pass through your midst,” says the Lord. ¹⁸ Woe to you who long for the day of the Lord! Why do you desire the day of the Lord? It will be darkness, not light. ¹⁹ It will be as if a man fled from a lion only to meet a bear, or as if he entered his house and leaned his hand on the wall only to be bitten by a snake. ²⁰ Will not the day of the Lord be darkness, not light— pitch-dark, without a glimmer of brightness? ²¹ “I hate, I despise your festivals; your assemblies are a stench to me. ²² Even though you bring me burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. I will not regard the peace offerings of your fattened animals. ²³ Remove from me the noise of your songs; I will not listen to the melody of your harps. ²⁴ But let justice roll on like a river, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream. ²⁵ “Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings during the forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?” ²⁶ You have carried Sikkuth your king and Kiyyun your idols, the star of your gods that you made for yourselves. ²⁷ Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Damascus,” declares the Lord, whose name is God Almighty.

6 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria, the prominent men of the foremost nation, to whom the house of Israel comes. ² Cross over to Calneh and see, and go from there to great Hamath, then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are they better than your kingdoms, or is their territory greater than yours? ³ You who delay the day of calamity and bring near the seat of violence.

⁴ Those who lie on beds inlaid with ivory and sprawl on their couches, who eat lambs from the flock and calves from the midst of the stall, ⁵ who strum on the harp like David and invent for themselves instruments of music, ⁶ who drink wine from bowls and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but have not grieved over the downfall of Joseph. ⁷ Therefore, they will be the first to go into exile, and the revelry of those who sprawl will cease.

Amos

⁸ The Lord God has sworn by Himself, declares the Lord God of hosts:

"I abhor the pride of Jacob and detest his strongholds; therefore I will deliver up the city and all that is in it."

⁹ And it shall come to pass, if ten men remain in one house, they shall die. ¹⁰ And when a relative or undertaker comes to carry the bones out of the house, and says to one in the innermost parts of the house, "Is anyone else with you?" and he says, "No," he will respond, "Hush! We must not mention the name of the Lord."

¹¹ For behold, the Lord has given the command, and He will smash the great house to pieces and the small house to rubble. ¹² Do horses run on rocky crags? Does one plough the sea with oxen? Yet you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness— ¹³ you who rejoice in Lo Debar and say, "Did we not capture Karnaïm by our own strength?" ¹⁴ "For behold, I will raise up a nation against you, O house of Israel," declares the Lord God of hosts, "and they will oppress you from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of the Arabah."

7 This is what the Lord God showed me: He was forming a swarm of locusts just after the king's harvest and as the late crops were sprouting. ²

When they had consumed the vegetation of the land, I pleaded, "Lord God, forgive! How can Jacob endure? He is so small!" ³ The Lord changed His mind about this. "It shall not happen," said the Lord.

⁴ This is what the Lord God showed me: He was calling for judgment by fire, which dried up the great deep and began to devour the land. ⁵ Then I implored, "Lord God, cease! How can Jacob endure? He is so small!" ⁶ The Lord changed His mind about this. "This too shall not happen," said the Lord God. ⁷ This is what He showed me: The Lord was standing by a wall built true to plumb, with a plumb line in His hand. ⁸ And the Lord asked me, "What do you see, Amos?" I replied, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "Behold, I am setting a plumb line among My people Israel; I will spare them no longer.

⁹ The high places of Isaac will be laid waste, and the sanctuaries of Israel will be ruined; I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

¹⁰ Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent a message to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos is conspiring against you in the heart of Israel. The land cannot bear all his words. ¹¹ For this is what Amos says:

'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go into exile, away from their land.'"

¹² Then Amaziah said to Amos, "Go away, seer! Flee to the land of Judah; earn your bread there and do your prophesying there. ¹³ But refrain from prophesying any longer at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple." ¹⁴ Amos replied to Amaziah, "I was not a prophet nor the son of a prophet, but a herdsman and a dresser of sycamore figs. ¹⁵ However, the Lord called me away from tending the flock and instructed me, 'Go, prophesy to My people Israel.' ¹⁶ Now then, hear the word of the Lord.

You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not preach against the house of Isaac.'

¹⁷ Therefore this is what the Lord says:

"Your wife will become a prostitute in the city, your sons and daughters will fall by the sword, your land will be divided up with a measuring line, and you yourself will die on unclean soil. And Israel will surely go into exile, away from its land."

8 This is what the Lord God revealed to me: a basket of summer fruit. ² And He asked, "What do you see, Amos?" I replied, "A basket of summer fruit." Then the Lord said, "The end has come for My people Israel; I will spare them no longer. ³ "In that day," declares the Lord God, "the songs in the temple will turn to wailing. Many bodies will be flung everywhere! Silence!"

⁴ Listen to this, you who trample the needy and eliminate the humble of the land, ⁵ "When will the New Moon be over so that we may sell grain, and the Sabbath be ended so we may market wheat?" — reducing the measure, inflating the price, and cheating with dishonest scales, ⁶ buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling even the refuse of the wheat.

Amos

⁷ The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob: "I will never forget any of their deeds.

⁸ Will not the land tremble because of this, and all who dwell in it mourn? The whole land will rise like the Nile; it will be stirred up and then subside like the river of Egypt.

⁹ "And it shall come to pass on that day," declares the Lord God,

"that I will make the sun set at noon and darken the earth in broad daylight. ¹⁰ I will turn your festivals into mourning and all your singing into lamentation. I will make everyone wear sackcloth and shave their heads. I will make it like mourning for an only son and its end like a bitter day. ¹¹ "Behold, the days are coming," declares the Lord God, "when I will send a famine through the land — not a famine of bread or a thirst for water, but a famine of hearing the words of the Lord. ¹² People will roam from sea to sea and journey from north to east, seeking the word of the Lord, but they will not find it.

¹³ On that day

the beautiful young women and strong young men will faint from thirst. ¹⁴ Those who swear by the guilt of Samaria, who say, 'As surely as your god lives, Dan,' or, 'As the way of Beersheba lives,' they will fall, never to rise again."

9 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and He said,

"Strike the pillar capitals so that the thresholds will shake, And break them on the heads of them all! Then I will put the rest of them to the sword; They will not have a fugitive who will flee, Nor a survivor who will escape. ² Though they dig into Sheol, From there My hand will take them; And though they climb up to heaven, From there I will bring them down. ³ Though they hide on the summit of Carmel, I will track them down and take them from there; And though they hide from My sight on the bottom of the sea, I will command the serpent from there, and it will bite them. ⁴ Even if they are led into captivity by their enemies, From there I will command the sword to bring about their end, And I will set My eyes against them for adversity and not for good." ⁵ And the Lord God of armies, The One who touches the land so that it quakes, And all those who live in it mourn, And all of it rises up like the Nile And subsides like the Nile of Egypt; ⁶ The One who makes His upper chambers in the heavens And establishes His arch over the earth, He who summons the waters of the sea And pours them out upon the surface of the earth, The Lord is His name. ⁷ "Are you not as the sons of Ethiopia to Me, You sons of Israel?" declares the Lord. "Have I not brought Israel up from the land of Egypt, And the Philistines from Caphtor and the Arameans from Kir? ⁸ Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are on the sinful kingdom, And I will eliminate it from the face of the earth; Nevertheless, I will not totally destroy the house of Jacob," Declares the Lord. ⁹ "For behold, I am commanding, And I will shake the house of Israel among all the nations As grain is shaken in a sieve, But not a pebble will fall to the ground. ¹⁰ All the sinners among My people will perish by the sword, Those who say, 'The disaster will not overtake nor confront us.'

¹¹ In that day, I will restore the fallen shelter of David,

And repair its breaches; I will also restore its ruins And rebuild it as in the days of old; ¹² So that they may inherit the remnant of Edom And all the nations who bear My name," Declares the Lord who accomplishes this.

¹³ "Behold, days are coming," declares the Lord,

"When the ploughman will overtake the reaper, And the one who treads grapes will overtake the one who sows the seed; When the mountains will drip with sweet wine, And all the hills will come apart. ¹⁴ I will also bring back the fortunes of My people Israel, And they will rebuild the desolated cities and inhabit them; They will also plant vineyards and drink their wine, And make gardens and eat their fruit. ¹⁵ I will also establish them in their land, And they shall not be removed again from the land Which I have given them,"

Says the Lord your God.

Amos

Obadiah

1 The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Lord God says concerning Edom—

We have heard a report from the Lord, And an envoy has been sent among the nations saying, "Arise, and let us go against her for battle"— ² "Behold, I will make you insignificant among the nations; You are held in great contempt." ³ The pride of your heart has led you astray, You who dwell in the crevices of the rock, In the height of your abode, Who say in your heart, "Who can bring me down to the ground?" ⁴ Though you make your nest as high as an eagle, Though you set it among the stars, From there I will bring you down," declares the Lord. ⁵ "If thieves came to you, If robbers by night— Oh how you will be ruined!— Would they not steal only until they had enough? If grape-gatherers came to you, Would they not leave some gleanings?" ⁶ Oh how Esau will be searched, And his hidden treasures ransacked! ⁷ All the people allied with you Will send you to the border, And the people at peace with you Will deceive you and overpower you. Those who eat your bread Will set an ambush for you. (There is no understanding in him.) ⁸ On that day," declares the Lord, "I will remove wise men from Edom, And understanding from the mountain of Esau." ⁹ Then your warriors will be terrified, Teman, So that everyone may be eliminated From the mountain of Esau by murder. ¹⁰ Because of your violence against your brother Jacob, Shame will cover you, And you will be cut off forever. ¹¹ On the day that you stood aloof, On the day that strangers took his wealth, And foreigners entered his gate And cast lots for Jerusalem— You too were as one of them. ¹² Do not exult over your brother's day, The day of his misfortune. And do not rejoice over the sons of Judah On the day of their destruction; Yes, do not boast On the day of their distress. ¹³ Do not enter the gate of My people On the day of their disaster. Yes, you, do not gloat over their misery On the day of their disaster. And do not loot their wealth On the day of their disaster. ¹⁴ Do not stand at the crossroads To cut down their survivors; And do not hand over their refugees On the day of their distress. ¹⁵ For the day of the Lord is near For all the nations! As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head. ¹⁶ For just as you drank on My holy mountain, All the nations will drink continually. They will drink and swallow, And become as if they had never existed. ¹⁷ But on Mount Zion there will be those who escape, And it will be holy. And the house of Jacob will take possession Of their possessions. ¹⁸ Then the house of Jacob will be a fire, And the house of Joseph a flame; But the house of Esau will be like stubble. And they will set them ablaze and consume them, So that there will be no survivor Of the house of Esau," For the Lord has spoken. ¹⁹ Then those of the Negev will possess the mountain of Esau, And those of the Shephelah the Philistine Plain; They will also possess the territory of Ephraim and the territory of Samaria, And Benjamin will possess Gilead. ²⁰ And the exiles of this army of the Israelites, Who are among the Canaanites as far as Zarephath, And the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad, Will take over the cities of the Negev. ²¹ The deliverers will ascend Mount Zion To judge the mountain of Esau, And the kingdom will belong to the Lord.

Jonah

1 The word of the Lord came to Jonah son of Amittai, saying,

² “Arise, go to the great city of Nineveh and proclaim against it, for their wickedness has come up before me.”

³ But Jonah set out to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the Lord. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. After paying the fare, he boarded it to sail with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the Lord. ⁴ But the Lord sent a mighty wind upon the sea, and there was a violent storm on the sea, so that the ship was in danger of breaking apart. ⁵ The sailors were afraid and each cried out to his own god. They threw the cargo into the sea to lighten the ship. Meanwhile, Jonah had gone down into the stern of the ship, where he lay down and fell into a deep sleep. ⁶ The captain went to him and said, “How can you sleep? Get up, call on your god! Perhaps your god will notice us so that we will not perish.” ⁷ The sailors said to each other, “Come, let us cast lots to discover who is responsible for this calamity.” They cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. ⁸ So they asked him, “Tell us, who is responsible for this disaster? What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? From what people are you?” ⁹ He replied, “I am a Hebrew and I fear the Lord, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.” ¹⁰ This terrified them, and they asked, “What have you done?” For they knew he was fleeing from the presence of the Lord, because he had told them. ¹¹ The sea was growing more tempestuous. So they asked him, “What should we do to you to make the sea calm down for us?” ¹² He answered, “Pick me up and throw me into the sea, and it will become calm. I know that it is because of me this great storm has come upon you.” ¹³ Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to return to land, but they could not, for the sea grew even more tempestuous against them. ¹⁴ Then they cried out to the Lord, “We beseech you, O Lord, do not let us perish for this man’s life, and do not hold us accountable for innocent blood; for you, Lord, have done as you pleased.” ¹⁵ So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea ceased its raging. ¹⁶ Then the men were filled with a profound reverence for the Lord, and they offered a sacrifice to Him and made vows. ¹⁷ The Lord appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish for three days and three nights.

2 Jonah prayed to the Lord his God from within the belly of the fish, ² saying,

“In my distress I called to the Lord, and He responded to me. From the depths of Sheol I cried for help, and You heard my voice. ³ You cast me into the deep, into the heart of the seas, and the currents surrounded me; all Your waves and breakers swept over me. ⁴ I thought, ‘I am driven away from Your sight; yet I will look once more toward Your holy temple.’ ⁵ The waters engulfed me to the brink of death, the deep encircled me; seaweed was wrapped around my head. ⁶ I sank to the roots of the mountains; the earth with its bars closed upon me forever. Yet You, Lord my God, brought my life up from the pit. ⁷ As my life was fading away, I remembered the Lord, and my prayer reached You, into Your holy temple. ⁸ Those who cling to worthless idols forsake their loyalty, ⁹ but I, with a voice of thanksgiving, will sacrifice to You. What I have vowed I will fulfil. Salvation is from the Lord.”

¹⁰ Then the Lord spoke to the fish, and it released Jonah onto dry land.

3 The message from the Lord reached Jonah once more, ² “Arise, go to the great city of Nineveh and deliver to it the message that I will give you.” ³ Jonah arose and went to Nineveh in accordance with the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, requiring three days to traverse it. ⁴ Jonah began to enter the city, travelling a day’s journey, and he proclaimed, “In forty days Nineveh will be overthrown.” ⁵ The people of Nineveh believed God. They proclaimed a fast and donned sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least. ⁶ When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, removed his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in the dust. ⁷ He issued a proclamation in Nineveh: “By the decree of the king and his nobles: No person or animal, herd or flock, is to taste anything; they must not eat or drink. ⁸ But let every person and animal be covered with sackcloth, and let everyone call upon God earnestly. Let them turn from their evil ways and the violence in their hands. ⁹ Who knows? God may turn and relent, and withdraw His fierce anger, so that we do not perish.” ¹⁰ When God saw their actions, how they turned from their evil ways, He relented and did not bring upon them the disaster He had threatened.

Jonah

4 But Jonah found this very displeasing, and he became angry. ² He prayed to the Lord, “Is this not what I said, Lord, when I was still in my own country? That is why I tried to prevent it by fleeing to Tarshish. I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and rich in love, a God who relents from sending disaster. ³ Now, Lord, please take my life from me, for I would rather die than live.” ⁴ But the Lord asked, “Is it right for you to be angry?” ⁵ Jonah went out and sat down at a place east of the city. There he made himself a shelter, sat in its shade, and waited to see what would happen to the city. ⁶ Then the Lord God provided a plant, and it grew up over Jonah to give shade for his head to ease his discomfort, and Jonah was delighted with the plant. ⁷ But at dawn the next day, God provided a worm, which attacked the plant so that it withered. ⁸ When the sun rose, God provided a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah’s head so that he became faint. He wished to die, saying, “I would rather die than live.” ⁹ But God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?” “It is,” he replied. “I am so angry I could die.” ¹⁰ But the Lord said, “You have been concerned about this plant, though you did not labour for it or make it grow. It sprang up overnight and perished overnight. ¹¹ And should I not have concern for the great city of Nineveh, where there are more than 120,000 people who cannot tell their right hand from their left, and also many animals?”

Micah

1 The word of the Lord which came to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw regarding Samaria and Jerusalem.

² Listen, all you peoples; Pay attention, earth and everything within it, And let the Lord God testify against you, The Lord from His sacred temple. ³ For see, the Lord is leaving His dwelling. He will descend and walk upon the high places of the earth. ⁴ The mountains will melt under Him, And the valleys will split like wax before the fire, Like water poured down a steep place. ⁵ All this is because of the transgression of Jacob And the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? What is the high place of Judah? Is it not Jerusalem? ⁶ For I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the open country, Planting places for a vineyard. And I will hurl her stones into the valley, And lay bare her foundations. ⁷ All of her idols will be smashed, All of her earnings will be burned with fire, And all of her images I will make desolate; For she collected them from a prostitute's earnings, And to the earnings of a prostitute they will return. ⁸ Because of this I must mourn and wail, I must go barefoot and naked; I must do mourning like the jackals, And a mourning like ostriches. ⁹ For her wounds are incurable, For it has come to Judah; It has reached the gate of My people, Even to Jerusalem. ¹⁰ Do not tell it in Gath, Do not weep at all. At Beth-le-aphrah roll yourself in the dust. ¹¹ Go on your way, inhabitant of Shaphir, in shameful nakedness. The inhabitant of Zaanan does not escape. The mourning of Beth-ezel: "He will take its support from you." ¹² For the inhabitant of Maroth Waits for good, but disaster has come down from the Lord To the gate of Jerusalem. ¹³ Prepare the chariot, you resident of Lachish— She was the start of sin To the daughter of Zion— Because in you were found The rebellious deeds of Israel. ¹⁴ Therefore you will send farewell gifts For Moresheth-gath; The houses of Achzib will prove deceptive To the kings of Israel. ¹⁵ Furthermore, I will bring upon you The one who will take possession, You inhabitant of Mareshah. The glory of Israel will arrive at Adullam. ¹⁶ Shave yourself bald, cut off your hair, For the children of your delight; Extend your baldness like the eagle, For they will go from you into exile.

2 Alas for those who plan mischief, Who plot evil while in bed! When dawn arrives, they carry it out, Because it is within their power to do so. ² They covet fields and then seize them, And houses, and take them; They exploit a man and his house, A person and his inheritance. ³ Therefore, this is what the Lord says: "Behold, I am planning against this family a disaster From which you cannot remove your necks; And you will not walk with haughtiness, For it will be an evil time. ⁴ On that day they will take up against you a song of mocking And utter a song of mourning and say, 'We are completely destroyed! He exchanges the portion of my people; How He removes it from me! To the apostate He apportions our fields.' ⁵ Therefore you will have no one who apportions land by lot In the assembly of the Lord. ⁶ 'Do not prophesy,' they say. Yet if they refrain from prophesying about these matters, Your disgrace will not be turned back." ⁷ Is it being said, house of Jacob: "Is the Spirit of the Lord impatient? Are these His deeds?" Do My words not do good For the one walking rightly? ⁸ Lately, My people have risen as enemies— You strip the robe from the clothes Of unsuspecting passers-by, From those returned from war. ⁹ You evict the women of My people From their pleasant houses. From their children you take My splendour Forever. ¹⁰ Arise and go, For this is no place of rest Because of the uncleanness that brings destruction, A painful destruction. ¹¹ If someone walking after the wind, were to lie and say, "I will prophesy to you about wine and strong drink," He would become a prophet to this people. ¹² I will certainly gather all of you, Jacob, I will certainly gather the remnant of Israel. I will put them together like sheep in the fold; Like a flock in the midst of its pasture They will be noisy with people. ¹³ The one who opens the way goes up before them; They break through, pass through the gate, and go out by it. So their king advances before them, And the Lord leads them."

3 And I said, "Hear now, you heads of Jacob And rulers of the house of Israel. Is it not for you to know justice? ² You who hate goodness and love wickedness, Who tear away their skin And their flesh from their bones, ³ Who eat the flesh of my people, Strip off their skin from them, Crush their bones, And chop them up as for the pot And as meat in a cauldron!" ⁴ Then they will call out to the Lord, But He will not respond to them. Instead, He will turn His face away from them at that time Because they have engaged in evil actions. ⁵ This is what the Lord says concerning the prophets who lead my people astray: When they have something to bite with their teeth, They call out, "Peace," But against the one who does not put anything in their mouths They declare holy war. ⁶ Therefore it will be night for you—without vision, And darkness for you—without divination. The sun will set on the prophets, And the day will become dark over them. ⁷ The seers will be put to shame, And the diviners will be ashamed. Indeed, they will all cover their mouths Because there is no answer from God. ⁸ On the other hand, I am filled with power— With the Spirit of the Lord— And with justice and courage To declare to Jacob his wrongdoing, And to Israel his sin. ⁹ Now listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacob And rulers of the house of Israel, Who scorn justice And distort what is upright, ¹⁰ Who construct Zion with violence, And Jerusalem with iniquity. ¹¹ Her leaders pronounce judgement for a bribe, Her priests teach for pay, And her prophets divine for money. Yet they lean on the Lord, saying, "Is the Lord not in our midst? Catastrophe will not come upon us." ¹² Therefore, on account of you Zion will be ploughed like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of ruins, And the mountain of the temple will become high places of a forest.

Micah

4 And it shall come to pass in the latter days That the mountain of the house of the Lord Will be established as the foremost of the mountains. It will be elevated above the hills, And the peoples will flow to it.

² And many nations will come and say,

"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord And to the house of the God of Jacob, So that He may teach us about His ways, And that we may walk in His paths." For from Zion will go forth the law, And the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. ³ And He will judge between many peoples And render decisions for mighty, distant nations. Then they will beat their swords into ploughshares, And their spears into pruning hooks; Nation will not lift up a sword against nation, And never again will they train for war. ⁴ Each one will sit under their vine And under their fig tree, With no one to make them afraid, For the mouth of the Lord of hosts has spoken. ⁵ Although all the peoples walk, Each in the name of their own god, We will walk In the name of the Lord our God forever and ever.

⁶ "At that time," declares the Lord,

"I will gather those who are lame And collect the dispersed, Those whom I have brought low. ⁷ I will make those who are lame a remnant, And those who have wandered a mighty nation, And the Lord will reign over them on Mount Zion From this time forth and forevermore. ⁸ As for you, tower of the flock, Hill of the daughter of Zion, To you it shall come— Indeed, the former dominion will return, The kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem. ⁹ Now, why do you cry out loudly? Is there no king among you, Or has your counsellor perished, That agony has gripped you like a woman in childbirth? ¹⁰ Writhe and cry out, daughter of Zion, Like a woman in childbirth; For now you will leave the city, Dwell in the field, And go to Babylon. There you will be delivered, There the Lord will redeem you From the hand of your enemies. ¹¹ And now many nations have gathered against you Who say, "Let her be defiled, And let our eyes gloat over Zion!" ¹² But they do not know the mind of the Lord, And they do not understand His purpose; For He has gathered them together like sheaves to the threshing floor. ¹³ Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion, For I will make your horn iron, And I will make your hooves bronze, So that you may crush many peoples, And dedicate to the Lord their unjust gain, And their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

5 Now gather yourselves in troops, daughter of warriors; They have besieged us; With a rod they will strike the judge of Israel On the cheek.

² "And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for out of you will come a ruler who will shepherd My people Israel. His times of coming forth are from long ago, From the days of eternity." ³ Therefore He will give them up until the time When she who is in labour has given birth. Then the remainder of His kinsmen Will return to the sons of Israel. ⁴ And He will stand to shepherd His flock In the strength of the Lord, In the majesty of the name of the Lord His God. And they will dwell securely, Because at that time He will be renowned To the ends of the earth. ⁵ And this One will be our peace. When the Assyrian invades our land, When he tramples on our citadels, Then we will raise against him Seven shepherds and eight leaders of people. ⁶ And they will shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, The land of Nimrod at its entrances; And He will rescue us from the Assyrian When he invades our land And tramples our territory. ⁷ Then the remnant of Jacob Will be among many peoples Like dew sent by the Lord, Like showers upon the vegetation That do not wait for man, Or delay for mankind. ⁸ The remnant of Jacob Will be among the nations, Among many peoples Like a lion among the animals of the forest, Like a young lion among flocks of sheep, Which, if he passes through, Tramples and tears, And there is no rescuer. ⁹ Your hand will be raised against your adversaries, And all your enemies will be eliminated.

Micah

¹⁰ "And on that day," declares the Lord,

"I will remove your horses from among you And destroy your chariots. ¹¹ I will also eliminate the cities of your land And tear down all your fortresses. ¹² I will remove sorceries from your hand, And you will have no fortune-tellers. ¹³ I will remove your carved images And your memorial stones from among you, So that you will no longer bow down To the work of your hands. ¹⁴ I will uproot your sacred poles from among you And lay waste to your cities. ¹⁵ And I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath On the nations that have not obeyed."

6 Hear now what the Lord is saying:

"Arise, plead your case before the mountains, And have the hills hear your voice." ² Pay attention, you mountains, to the Lord's charge, And you everlasting foundations of the earth, For the Lord has a grievance with His people, And He will contend with Israel. ³ My people, what have I done to you, And in what way have I burdened you? Respond to Me. ⁴ Truly, I brought you up from the land of Egypt, I freed you from the house of bondage, And I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. ⁵ My people, remember What Balak king of Moab planned, And how Balaam son of Beor answered to him, And all that occurred from Shittim to Gilgal, So that you might know the righteous deeds of the Lord." ⁶ With what shall I come to the Lord And bow myself before the God on high? Shall I bring Him burnt offerings, With year-old calves? ⁷ Does the Lord delight in thousands of rams, In ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I offer my firstborn for my sin, The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? ⁸ He has shown you, mortal one, what is good; And what does the Lord ask of you Only to act justly, to love mercy, And to walk humbly with your God. ⁹ The voice of the Lord will call to the city— And it is wise to revere Your name: "Listen, you tribe. Who has appointed its time? ¹⁰ Is there still someone in the wicked house, With treasures of iniquity, And a short measure that is cursed? ¹¹ Can I tolerate dishonest scales, And a bag of deceitful weights? ¹² For the wealthy of the city are full of violence, Her inhabitants lie, And their tongue is deceitful in their mouth. ¹³ Therefore I will make you ill, striking you down, Rendering you desolate because of your sins. ¹⁴ You will eat, yet you will not be satisfied, And your filth will remain within you. When try to secure valuables, You will not save them all, And what you do save I will hand over to the sword. ¹⁵ You will sow, but you will not reap. You will tread the olive press, but will not anoint yourself with oil; And tread grapes, but you will not drink wine. ¹⁶ The statutes of Omri And all the practices of the house of Ahab are upheld, And you follow their counsels. Therefore I will deliver you to ruin, And your inhabitants to scorn, And you will endure the mockery of My people."

7 Woe to me! For I am Like harvests of summer fruit, like gleanings of the grape harvest: There is not a cluster of grapes to eat, Nor a ripe fig that I crave. ² The godly person has perished from the land, And there is no one upright among mankind. All of them lie in wait for bloodshed; Each of them hunts the other with a net. ³ As for evil, both hands do it well. The leader asks for a bribe, Also the judge, and the great man speaks the desire of his soul— So they plot it together. ⁴ The finest among them is like a thorn bush, The most righteous like a thorn hedge. The day you appoint your watchmen, Your punishment is approaching. Then their bewilderment will arise. ⁵ Do not trust in a neighbour; Do not have confidence in a close friend. Guard the doors of your mouth From her who lies in your arms. ⁶ To set a son against his father, a daughter against her mother, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; A person's enemies are the people of his own household. ⁷ Yet as for me, I will look eagerly for the Lord; I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will listen to me. ⁸ Do not celebrate over me, my adversary. Though I fall, I will rise again; Though I dwell in darkness, the Lord is my light. ⁹ I will endure the indignation of the Lord Because I have sinned against Him, Until He pleads my case and executes justice for me. He will bring me out to the light, And I will look at His righteousness. ¹⁰ Then my adversary will see, And shame will cover her who said to me, "Where is the Lord your God?" My eyes will look at her; At that time she will be trodden down Like mud in the streets. ¹¹ It will be a time for constructing your walls. On that day your borders will be expanded. ¹² It will be a day when people will come to you From Assyria and the cities of Egypt, From Egypt even to the Euphrates, Even from sea to sea and mountain to mountain. ¹³ And the earth will become desolate because of its inhabitants, On account of their evil deeds ¹⁴

Micah

Shepherd Your people with Your sceptre, The flock of Your possession Which lives by itself in the woodland, In the midst of a fruitful field. Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead As in the days of old. ¹⁵ Yet just as when you came out from the land of Egypt, So I will display my wonders to you. ¹⁶ Nations will see and be ashamed Of all their might. They will put their hand on their mouth, Their ears will become deaf. ¹⁷ They will lick the dust like a snake, Like reptiles of the earth. They will come trembling out of their fortresses; To the Lord our God they will come in trepidation, And they will be afraid of You. ¹⁸ Who is a God like You, Who forgives wrongdoing And overlooks the rebellious acts of the remnant of His possession? He does not hold onto His anger forever, Because He delights in mercy. ¹⁹ He will again show compassion to us; He will subdue our wrongdoings. Yes, You will cast all their sins Into the depths of the sea. ²⁰ You will give truth to Jacob And favour to Abraham, Which You swore to our forefathers From the days of old.

Nahum

1 A pronouncement regarding Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

² The Lord is a jealous and avenging God; He is filled with wrath and takes vengeance on His adversaries. The Lord reserves His wrath for His enemies. ³ The Lord is slow to anger and mighty in power; He will not leave the guilty unpunished. His path is in the whirlwind and storm, and clouds are the dust beneath His feet. ⁴ He rebukes the sea and dries it up; He dries up all the rivers. Bashan and Carmel wither, and the blossoms of Lebanon fade. ⁵ The mountains quake before Him, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at His presence, the world and all its inhabitants. ⁶ Who can withstand His indignation? Who can endure the burning of His anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are shattered before Him. ⁷ The Lord is good, a stronghold in times of trouble; He knows those who seek refuge in Him. ⁸ But with an overwhelming flood, He will make an end of its place and pursue His foes into darkness. ⁹ Whatever is devised against the Lord, He will bring to an end; distress will not arise a second time. ¹⁰ They will be caught in a tangle of thorns and overcome by their drink; they will be devoured like dry stubble. ¹¹ From you, Nineveh, has come forth one who plots evil against the Lord, a wicked counsellor.

¹² This is what the Lord says:

"Though they are at full strength and numerous, they will be cut off and pass away. Though I have afflicted you, Judah, I will afflict you no more. ¹³ Now I will break their yoke from your neck and tear your shackles apart." ¹⁴ The Lord has given a command concerning you, Nineveh: "Your name will no longer be perpetuated. I will destroy the carved images and idols in the temple of your gods. I will prepare your grave, for you are contemptible." ¹⁵ Behold, on the mountains, the feet of one who brings good news, who proclaims peace! Celebrate your festivals, Judah, and fulfil your vows. Never again will the wicked invade you; they are completely destroyed.

2 The one who scatters has come up against you. Keep watch over the fortress, Watch the road; Strengthen your back, Summon all your strength. ² For the Lord will restore the splendour of Jacob Like the splendour of Israel, Even though destroyers have laid waste to them And ruined their vines. ³ The shields of his warriors are crimson, The soldiers are clothed in scarlet, The chariots gleam with flashing metal As he prepares to advance, And the spears of juniper are brandished. ⁴ The chariots race madly in the streets, They rush wildly in the public squares; Their appearance is like torches, They dash to and fro like lightning flashes. ⁵ He remembers his nobles; They stumble in their march, They hurry to her wall, And the mantelet is prepared. ⁶ The river gates are thrown open, And the palace trembles. ⁷ It is determined: She has been stripped, she has been carried away, And her slave women are moaning like the sound of doves, Beating their breasts. ⁸ Although Nineveh was like a pool of water in her days, Now they are fleeing; "Stop, stop," But no one turns back. ⁹ Seize the silver, Seize the gold! For there is no end to the treasure— Riches from every kind of desirable object. ¹⁰ She is emptied! Yes, she is desolate and waste! Hearts are melting and knees are wobbling! Trembling is in all loins! All faces have turned pale! ¹¹ Where is the lions' den And the feeding ground of the young lions, Where the lion, lioness, and lion's cub roamed, With nothing to disturb them? ¹² The lion tore enough for his cubs, Killed sufficiently for his lionesses, And filled his lairs with prey And his dens with torn flesh. ¹³ "Behold, I am against you," declares the Lord of armies. "I will burn up her chariots in smoke, A sword will devour your young lions; I will eliminate your prey from the land, And no longer will the voice of your messengers be heard."

3 Alas for the city of bloodshed, filled with deceit and plunder; Her prey never departs. ² The sound of the whip, The sound of the roaring of the wheel, Galloping horses And bounding chariots! ³ Horsemen charging, Swords flashing, spears gleaming, Many slain, a mass of corpses, And there is no end to the dead bodies— They stumble over the dead bodies! ⁴ All because of the many acts of prostitution of the prostitute, The charming one, the mistress of sorceries, Who sells nations by her prostitution, And families by her sorceries. ⁵ "Behold, I am against you," declares the Lord of armies; "And I will lift up your skirts over your face, And display your nakedness to the nations, And your shame to the kingdoms. ⁶ I will heap disgrace upon you And make you contemptible, And set you up as a spectacle. ⁷ And it will come about that all who see you Will shrink from you and say, 'Nineveh is devastated! Who will show sympathy to her?' Where shall I seek comforters for you?" ⁸ Are you better than No-amon, Which was situated by the canals of the Nile, Surrounded by waters, Whose rampart was the sea, Whose wall consisted of the sea? ⁹ Cush was her strength, also Egypt without limits. Put and Lubim were among her helpers. ¹⁰ Yet she became an exile, She went into captivity; Also her small children were smashed to pieces At the head of every street; They cast lots for her honourable men, And all her great men were bound with shackles. ¹¹ You too will be overcome, You will be concealed. You too will seek shelter from the enemy. ¹² All your fortifications are like fig trees with ripe fruit— When shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. ¹³ Behold, your soldiers are like women! The gates of your land are opened wide to your enemies; Fire consumes your gate bars. ¹⁴ Draw water for yourself for the siege! Strengthen your fortifications! Go into the clay and tread the mortar! Take hold of the brick mould! ¹⁵ There fire will consume you, The sword will cut you down; It will consume you like the locust. Multiply yourself like the creeping locust, Multiply yourself like the migratory locust. ¹⁶ You have made your traders more numerous than the stars of the sky— The creeping locust sheds its skin and flies away. ¹⁷ Your courtiers are like the locusts, Your officials like the swarm of locusts That encamp in the stone walls on a cold day— The sun rises, and they flee, And the place where they are is not known. ¹⁸ Your shepherds are sleeping, king of Assyria; Your nobles are lying down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, And there is no one to gather them. ¹⁹ There is no relief for your collapse, Your wound is incurable. All who hear about you Will clap their hands over you, For upon whom has your evil not passed continually?

Nahum

Habakkuk

1 The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk witnessed.

² How long, O Lord, shall I cry for help, and you do not hear? I shout to you, "Violence!" but you do not save. ³ Why do you force me to look upon iniquity, and why do you passively observe evil? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and contention arise. ⁴ Therefore the law is ineffective, and justice never emerges. The wicked encircle the righteous, so justice is distorted. ⁵ "Look among the nations, observe, and be astounded. For I am doing a work in your days that you would not believe if told." ⁶ For behold, I am raising up the Babylonians, that fierce and impetuous nation, who march through the breadth of the earth to seize dwellings not their own. ⁷ They are dreadful and fearsome; their justice and dignity proceed from themselves. ⁸ Their horses are swifter than leopards, more fierce than the evening wolves. Their horsemen press on proudly; their horsemen come from afar. They fly like an eagle hastening to devour. ⁹ They all come for violence, their faces set forward. They gather captives like sand. ¹⁰ They scoff at kings and make princes a laughingstock. They laugh at every stronghold, for they heap up earth and take it. ¹¹ Then they sweep by like the wind and pass on. But they are guilty men, whose own might is their god." ¹² Are you not from eternity, O Lord my God, my Holy One? You shall not perish. O Lord, you have appointed them for judgement, and you, O Rock, have established them for correction. ¹³ Your eyes are too pure to behold evil, and you cannot look on wrong with favour. Why do you regard those who deal treacherously? Why are you silent when the wicked swallow up those more righteous than they? ¹⁴ You have made mankind like the fish of the sea, like creeping things that have no ruler. ¹⁵ The foe brings all of them up with a hook, he drags them out with his net, he gathers them in his dragnet; so he rejoices and is glad. ¹⁶ Therefore he offers sacrifices to his net and makes offerings to his dragnet; for by them he enjoys abundance, and his food is plentiful. ¹⁷ Is he then to keep on emptying his net, and mercilessly slaying nations forever?

2 I will take my stand at my guard post And position myself on the watchtower; I will watch to see what He will say to me, And how I should respond when I am corrected.

² Then the Lord replied to me and said,

"Write down this vision Scribe it clearly on tablets, So that anyone who reads it may run. ³ For the vision will come to pass in its appointed time; It hastens toward the goal and will not fail. Though it may delay, wait for it; For it will surely come, it will not be late. ⁴ "Behold, as for the proud one, His soul is not upright within him; But the righteous will live by his faith. ⁵ Moreover, wine deceives a proud man, So that he does not reach his goal. He enlarges his appetite like Sheol, And he is like death, never content. He also gathers to himself all the nations And amasses to himself all the peoples.

⁶ Will all of these not take up a song of ridicule against him,

Even a saying and insinuation against him and say, "Woe to him who increases what is not his— For how long— And makes himself rich with debts!" ⁷ Will those to whom you owe not rise up suddenly, And those who collect from you awaken? Indeed, you will become plunder for them. ⁸ Since you have plundered many nations, All the remaining peoples will plunder you— Because of human bloodshed and violence done to the land, To the town and all its inhabitants. ⁹ Woe to him who gains unjust profit for his household, To set his nest on high, To escape from the reach of disaster! ¹⁰ You have devised a disgraceful plan for your house By bringing many peoples to ruin; So you are sinning against yourself. ¹¹ For the stone will cry out from the wall, And the beam will answer it from the framework. ¹² Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed, And establishes a town with violence! ¹³ Is it not indeed from the Lord of hosts That peoples labour merely for fire, And nations become weary for nothing? ¹⁴ For the earth will be filled With the awareness of the Lord's glory, As the waters cover the sea. ¹⁵ Woe to him who makes his neighbour drink; To you who mix in your poison, Even to make your neighbours drunk So as to gaze upon their nakedness! ¹⁶ You will be filled with shame instead of honour. Drink, you yourself, and expose your own nakedness! The cup in the Lord's right hand will come around to you, And utter disgrace will come upon your glory. ¹⁷ For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, And the destruction of its animals by which you terrified them, Because of human bloodshed and violence done to the land, To the town and all its inhabitants. ¹⁸ What value is a carved image when its maker has carved it, A cast metal image, a teacher of falsehood? For its maker trusts in his own handiwork When he fashions speechless idols. ¹⁹ Woe to him who says to a piece of wood, 'Awake!' To a mute stone, 'Arise!' Can that be your teacher? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, Yet there is no breath at all inside it. ²⁰ But the Lord resides in His holy temple. Let all the earth be still before Him."

Habakkuk

3 The prayer of supplication by Habakkuk the prophet, set to Shigionoth.

² Lord, I have heard of Your renown, and I am in awe of Your deeds, Lord. Revive them in our time, in our days make them known; in Your wrath remember mercy. ³ God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah His glory covered the heavens, and His praise filled the earth. ⁴ His radiance was like the sunlight; rays flashed from His hand, where His power was hidden. ⁵ Plague went before Him, and pestilence followed His steps. ⁶ He stood, and the earth shook; He looked, and the nations trembled. The everlasting mountains were shattered, the ancient hills collapsed. His paths are eternal. ⁷ I saw the tents of Cushan in distress, and the tent curtains of Midian were trembling. ⁸ Was the Lord angry with the rivers? Was Your wrath against the streams?

Did You rage against the sea when You rode on Your horses and Your chariots of salvation? ⁹ You uncovered Your bow, and called for many arrows. Selah You split the earth with rivers. ¹⁰ The mountains saw You and writhed; torrents of water swept by. The deep raised its voice, and lifted its waves on high. ¹¹ Sun and moon stood still in their places at the light of Your flying arrows, at the brightness of Your flashing spear. ¹² In wrath You marched through the earth; in anger You threshed the nations. ¹³ You went forth for the salvation of Your people, to save Your anointed one. You crushed the head of the house of wickedness, laying him bare from foot to neck. Selah ¹⁴ With his own spear You pierced the head of his warriors. They stormed out to scatter us, gloating as if to devour the oppressed in secret. ¹⁵ You rode over the sea with Your horses, stirring the mighty waters. ¹⁶ I heard, and my heart pounded; my lips quivered at the sound. Decay crept into my bones, and my legs trembled. Yet I will wait quietly for the day of distress to come upon the people who invade us. ¹⁷ Though the fig tree does not blossom, and there are no grapes on the vines; though the olive crop fails, and the fields produce no food; though the flock disappears from the fold, and there are no cattle in the stalls, ¹⁸ yet, I will find joy in the Lord, I will delight in God my Saviour. ¹⁹ The Sovereign Lord is my strength; He makes my feet like the feet of a deer, and enables me to tread on the heights.

For the choir director, on my stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

1 The word of the Lord that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the time of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah:

² "I shall completely sweep away everything from the face of the earth," declares the Lord. ³ "I will sweep away both man and beast; I will remove the birds of the sky and the fish of the sea, and the ruins along with the wicked. I will cut off mankind from the face of the earth," declares the Lord. ⁴ "I will stretch out my hand against Judah and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off every remnant of Baal from this place, and the names of the idolatrous priests along with the other priests. ⁵ Those who bow down on the rooftops to the starry host, and those who bow down and swear by the Lord and also swear by Milcom, ⁶ those who have turned away from following the Lord and have neither sought the Lord nor inquired of him," ⁷ Be silent before the Sovereign Lord, for the day of the Lord is near. The Lord has prepared a sacrifice; he has consecrated his guests. ⁸ "On the day of the Lord's sacrifice, I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all who wear foreign clothing. ⁹ On that day I will punish all who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit. ¹⁰ "On that day," declares the Lord, "a cry will be heard from the Fish Gate, wailing from the Second Quarter, and a loud crash from the hills. ¹¹ Wail, you who live in the market district, for all your merchants will be wiped out; all who weigh out silver will be cut off. ¹² At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish those who are complacent, who are like wine left on its dregs, who say in their hearts, 'The Lord will do nothing, either good or bad.' ¹³ Their wealth will be plundered, their houses laid waste. Though they build houses, they will not dwell in them; though they plant vineyards, they will not drink the wine thereof." ¹⁴ The great day of the Lord is near —near and coming swiftly. The cry on the day of the Lord is bitter; the warrior shouts his battle cry. ¹⁵ That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and desolation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness, ¹⁶ a day of trumpet and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the high corner towers. ¹⁷ "I will bring distress on mankind, so that they will walk like the blind, because they have sinned against the Lord. Their blood will be poured out like dust and their flesh like dung. ¹⁸ Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the Lord's wrath. In the fire of his jealousy, the whole earth will be consumed, for he will make a complete end, indeed a terrifying one, of all the inhabitants of the earth.

2 Gather yourselves, yes, come together, You nation without shame, ² Before the decree is fulfilled— The day passes like chaff— Before the fierce anger of the Lord comes upon you, Before the day of the Lord's wrath comes upon you. ³ Seek the Lord, All you humble of the earth Who have practised His ordinances; Seek righteousness, seek humility. Perhaps you will remain hidden On the day of the Lord's anger.

⁴ For Gaza will be abandoned, And Ashkelon will become a desolation; Ashdod will be driven out at noon, And Ekron will be uprooted. ⁵ Alas for the inhabitants of the seacoast, The nation of the Cherethites! The word of the Lord is against you, Canaan, land of the Philistines; And I will remove you So that there will be no inhabitant. ⁶ Thus, the seacoast will become grazing lands, With pastures for shepherds and folds for flocks. ⁷ And the coast will be For the remnant of the house of Judah, They will drive flocks there; In the houses of Ashkelon they will lie down at evening, For the Lord their God will care for them And restore their fortunes.

⁸ "I have heard the insults of Moab And the mocking words of the sons of Ammon, With which they have reviled My people And boasted against their territory. ⁹ Therefore, as I live," declares the Lord of armies, The God of Israel, "Moab will assuredly be like Sodom, And the sons of Ammon like Gomorrah— A place possessed by weeds and salt mines, And a permanent desolation. The remnant of My people will plunder them, And the remainder of My nation will inherit them." ¹⁰ This they will have in return for their arrogance, Because they have reviled and boasted Against the people of the Lord of armies. ¹¹ The Lord will be terrifying to them, For He will reduce all the gods of the earth; And all the coastlands of the nations will bow down to Him, Everyone from his own place.

Zephaniah

¹² "You also, Cushites, Will be slain by My sword."

¹³ And He will stretch out His hand against the north And bring down Assyria, And He will make Nineveh a desolation, Parched like the wilderness.

¹⁴ Flocks will lie down in her midst, All animals that range in herds; Both the pelican and the hedgehog Will spend the night in the tops of her pillars; Birds will sing in the window, Devastation will be on the threshold; For He has uncovered the cedar work. ¹⁵ This is the presumptuous city That dwells securely, Who says in her heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me." How she has become a desolation, A resting place for animals! Everyone who passes by her will whistle And wave his hand in contempt.

3 Alas for her who is rebellious and unclean, The oppressive city! ² She listened to no voice, She accepted no correction. She did not place her trust in the Lord, She did not draw near to her God. ³ Her officials within her are roaring lions, Her judges are wolves at evening; They leave nothing for the morning. ⁴ Her prophets are arrogant, deceitful men; Her priests have desecrated the sanctuary, They have violated the Law. ⁵ The Lord is righteous in her midst; He will do no injustice. Every morning He brings His justice to light; He does not fail. But the unjust knows no shame.

⁶ "I have removed nations; Their corner towers stand abandoned. I have devastated their streets, With no one passing by; Their cities lie in ruins, Without a person, without an inhabitant. ⁷ I said, 'You will surely fear Me, You will accept correction.' So her dwelling place will not be destroyed In accordance with everything I have appointed for her. Instead, they were eager to corrupt all their deeds. ⁸ Therefore wait for Me," declares the Lord, "For the day when I rise up as a witness. Indeed, My decision is to gather nations, To assemble kingdoms, To pour out on them My indignation, All

My burning anger; For all the earth will be consumed By the fire of My zeal.

⁹ For then I will grant to the peoples Pure speech, So that all of them may call on the name of the Lord, To serve Him together. ¹⁰ From beyond the rivers of Cush My worshippers, the daughter of My dispersed people, Will bring My offerings. ¹¹ On that day you will feel no shame Because of all your deeds By which you have rebelled against Me; For then I will remove from among you Those who celebrate in pride, And you will never again be arrogant on My holy mountain. ¹² But I will leave among you A humble and lowly people, And they will find refuge in the name of the Lord. ¹³ The remnant of Israel will do no wrong Nor tell lies, Nor will a deceitful tongue Be found in their mouths; For they will feed and lie down With no one to make them afraid." ¹⁴ Sing for joy, daughter of Zion! Shout in triumph, Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, Daughter of Jerusalem! ¹⁵ The Lord has lifted His judgments against you, He has driven away your enemies. The King of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; You will no longer fear disaster. ¹⁶ On that day it will be said to Jerusalem: "Do not be afraid, Zion; Do not let your hands grow weak. ¹⁷ The Lord your God is in your midst, A mighty warrior who saves. He will rejoice over you with gladness, He will be quiet in His love, He will exult over you with joyful singing. ¹⁸ I will gather those who grieve about the appointed feasts— They came from you, Zion; The disgrace of exile is a burden on them. ¹⁹ Behold, I am going to act at that time Against all your oppressors; I will save those who are lame And gather the scattered, And I will transform their shame into praise and renown In all the earth. ²⁰ At that time I will bring you in, Even at the time when I gather you together; Indeed, I will make you renowned and praised Among all the peoples of the earth, When I restore your fortunes before your eyes," Says the Lord.

Haggai

1 In the second year of King Darius, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the Lord came through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, ² "This is what the Lord of Hosts says:

"These people say, 'The time has not yet come to rebuild the house of the Lord.'"

³ Then the word of the Lord came through Haggai the prophet, saying,

⁴ "Is it a time for you to dwell in your panelled houses, while this house lies in ruins?"

⁵ This is what the Lord of Hosts says:

"Consider your ways. ⁶ You have sown much, but harvested little. You eat, but never have enough. You drink, but never have your fill. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm. And he who earns wages does so to put them into a bag with holes."

⁷ The Lord of Hosts says this:

"Consider your ways. ⁸ Go up into the mountains, bring down timber, and build the temple, that I may take pleasure in it and be honoured," says the Lord. ⁹ "You looked for much, and behold, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" declares the Lord of Hosts. "Because of my house, which remains in ruins, while each of you is busy with his own house. ¹⁰ Therefore, because of you the heavens have withheld their dew and the earth its produce. ¹¹ I called for a drought on the land and the mountains, on the grain, the new wine, the oil, and on all that the ground produces, on people and livestock, and on all the labour of your hands."

¹² Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the Lord their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the Lord their God had sent him. And the people feared the Lord. ¹³ Then Haggai, the Lord's messenger, delivered the Lord's message to the people, saying,

"I am with you,"

declares the Lord." ¹⁴ So the Lord stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and began work on the house of the Lord of Hosts, their God, ¹⁵ on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, during the second year of King Darius.

2 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of the Lord came through the prophet Haggai, saying,

² "Speak to Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, ³ 'Who among you is left who saw this house in its former glory? How does it appear to you now? Does it not seem like nothing in comparison? ⁴ But now be strong, Zerubbabel,' declares the Lord. 'Be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,' declares the Lord, 'and work; for I am with you,' declares the Lord of hosts. ⁵ 'This is the promise I made to you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains among you; do not fear.' ⁶ For thus says the Lord of hosts: 'In a little while, I will once more shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. ⁷ I will shake all nations, and the treasures of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,' says the Lord of hosts. ⁸ 'The silver and the gold belong to me,' declares the Lord of hosts. ⁹ 'The glory of this latter house will be greater than the former,' says the Lord of hosts. 'And in this place I will grant peace,' declares the Lord of hosts."

¹⁰ On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to Haggai the prophet, saying,

¹¹ "This is what the Lord of hosts says: 'Consult the priests for guidance: ¹² If someone carries consecrated meat in the fold of their garment, and touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any other food, does it become consecrated?"

The priests answered, "No." ¹³ Then Haggai said,

"If someone defiled by contact with a corpse touches any of these things, does it become defiled?"

And the priests answered,

"Yes, it becomes defiled."

Haggai

¹⁴ Then Haggai said,

“So it is with this people and this nation in my sight,” declares the Lord. “Whatever they do and whatever they offer is defiled. ¹⁵ Now give careful thought to this from this day onward: consider how things were before one stone was laid upon another in the Lord’s temple. ¹⁶ When anyone came to a heap expecting twenty measures, there were only ten. When anyone went to a wine vat to draw fifty measures, there were only twenty. ¹⁷ I afflicted all the work of your hands with blight, mildew, and hail, yet you did not return to me,” declares the Lord. ¹⁸ “From this day on, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, give careful thought to the day when the foundation of the Lord’s temple was laid.

Consider:

¹⁹ Is there any seed left in the barn? Until now, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not borne fruit. But from this day on I will bless you.”

²⁰ The word of the Lord came to Haggai a second time on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying,

²¹ “Address Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, with this message: ‘I am soon to shake the heavens and the earth. ²² I will overthrow the thrones of kingdoms and destroy the power of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow chariots and their riders; horses and their riders will fall, each by the sword of his brother. ²³ ‘On that day,’ declares the Lord of hosts, ‘I will take you, my servant Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel,’ declares the Lord, ‘and I will make you like my signet ring, for I have chosen you,’ declares the Lord of hosts.”

Zechariah

1 In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to the prophet Zechariah, son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, saying: ² "The Lord was exceedingly angry with your forefathers. ³ Therefore, say to them: This is what the Lord of Hosts says: 'Return to Me,' declares the Lord of Hosts, 'and I will return to you,' says the Lord of Hosts. ⁴ Do not be like your forefathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed: This is what the Lord of Hosts says: 'Turn from your evil ways and your evil deeds.' But they did not listen or heed Me," declares the Lord. ⁵ "Your forefathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? ⁶ But did not My words and My statutes, which I commanded My servants the prophets, overtake your forefathers? Then they repented and said, 'As the Lord of Hosts has determined to do to us according to our ways and deeds, so He has dealt with us.'" ⁷ On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to the prophet Zechariah, son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, as follows: ⁸ I saw during the night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse, standing among the myrtle trees in the ravine, with red, sorrel, and white horses behind him. ⁹ Then I said, "What are these, my lord?" And the angel who was speaking with me said, "I will show you what these are." ¹⁰ The man standing among the myrtle trees answered, "These are the ones the Lord has sent to patrol the earth." ¹¹ And they reported to the angel of the Lord who was standing among the myrtle trees, "We have patrolled the earth, and behold, all the earth is still and quiet." ¹² Then the angel of the Lord said, "Lord of Hosts, how long will You withhold mercy from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, with which You have been angry these seventy years?" ¹³ And the Lord responded to the angel who was speaking with me with gracious and comforting words. ¹⁴ So the angel who was speaking with me said, "Proclaim, saying: This is what the Lord of Hosts says: 'I am very jealous for Jerusalem and Zion, ¹⁵ and I am exceedingly angry with the nations that are at ease; for while I was only a little angry, they furthered the disaster.' ¹⁶ Therefore, this is what the Lord says: 'I will return to Jerusalem with compassion; My house will be rebuilt in it,' declares the Lord of Hosts, 'and a measuring line will be stretched over Jerusalem.'" ¹⁷ Proclaim further, saying: This is what the Lord of Hosts says: 'My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and the Lord will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem.'" ¹⁸ Then I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, there were four horns. ¹⁹ So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these?" And he said, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem." ²⁰ And the Lord showed me four craftsmen. ²¹ I asked, "What are these coming to do?" And he said, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah so that no one raises his head; but the craftsmen have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations who have lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter it."

2 Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, there was a man with a measuring line in his hand. ² I asked, "Where are you going?" He replied, "To measure Jerusalem, to determine how wide and how long it is." ³ And behold, the angel who was speaking with me was departing, and another angel came to meet him. ⁴ He said to him, "Run, tell that young man, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited as a city without walls because of the multitude of people and livestock in it. ⁵ For I,' declares the Lord, 'will be a wall of fire around her, and I will be her glory within.'" ⁶ "Come! Flee from the land of the north," declares the Lord, "for I have scattered you to the four winds of the heavens," declares the Lord. ⁷ "Come, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with Daughter Babylon!" ⁸ For this is what the Lord of Hosts says: "After glory has sent me against the nations that have plundered you—for whoever touches you touches the apple of His eye— ⁹ I will surely wave my hand over them so that their slaves will plunder them. Then you will know that the Lord of Hosts has sent me. ¹⁰ 'Shout for joy and be glad, Daughter Zion. For behold, I am coming, and I will dwell among you,' declares the Lord. ¹¹ "Many nations will join themselves to the Lord on that day and will become my people. I will dwell among you, and you will know that the Lord of Hosts has sent me to you. ¹² The Lord will take possession of Judah as His share in the holy land and will once more choose Jerusalem. ¹³ Be silent before the Lord, all mankind, for He has roused Himself from His holy dwelling."

3 Then he revealed to me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord, with Satan positioned at his right side to bring accusations against him. ² The Lord said to Satan, "The Lord rebuke you, Satan! The Lord, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?" ³ Now Joshua was dressed in filthy garments as he stood before the angel. ⁴ The angel said to those who were standing before him, "Remove his filthy garments." Then he said to Joshua, "See, I have taken away your iniquity, and I will clothe you with rich robes." ⁵ Then I said, "Place a clean turban on his head." So they placed a clean turban on his head and clothed him, while the angel of the Lord stood by. ⁶ The angel of the Lord delivered this command to Joshua: ⁷ "This is what the Lord of hosts says: 'If you will walk in my ways and keep my charge, then you will govern my house and have charge of my courts, and I will give you access among these who stand here.' ⁸ "Listen, High Priest Joshua, you and your companions seated before you, who are men symbolic of things to come: I am going to bring my servant, the Branch. ⁹ See, the stone I have set before Joshua! On that one stone are seven eyes, and I will engrave an inscription on it," says the Lord of hosts, "and I will remove the iniquity of this land in a single day. ¹⁰ "In that day," declares the Lord of hosts, "each of you will invite your neighbour to sit under his vine and fig tree."

Zechariah

4 Then the angel who had been conversing with me returned and roused me, as one who is awakened from sleep. ² He asked me, "What do you see?" I replied, "I see a lampstand made entirely of gold with a bowl on its top and seven lamps on it, with seven channels for the lamps on the top. ³ Also, there are two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on its left." ⁴ I inquired of the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these, my lord?" ⁵ The angel who was speaking with me responded, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." ⁶ So he said to me, "This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel: 'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,' declares the Lord of Hosts. ⁷ 'What are you, mighty mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become level ground. He will bring forth the capstone with shouts of "Grace, grace to it!"' ⁸ The message from the Lord came to me, saying, ⁹ "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands will also complete it. Then you will know that the Lord of Hosts has sent me to you. ¹⁰ For who has despised the day of small things? These seven will rejoice when they see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel—they are the eyes of the Lord which range throughout the earth." ¹¹ Then I asked him, "What are these two olive trees on the right and left of the lampstand?" ¹² And I asked again, "What are these two olive branches beside the two golden pipes that pour out the golden oil?" ¹³ He replied, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." ¹⁴ Then he explained, "These are the two anointed ones who stand in the presence of the Lord of all the earth."

5 I lifted my eyes once more and saw, and behold, there was a flying scroll. ² And he said to me, "What do you see?" I replied, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits and its width ten cubits." ³ Then he said to me, "This is the curse that is going out over the entire land; for everyone who steals will be removed according to the writing on one side, and everyone who swears falsely will be removed according to the writing on the other side. ⁴ 'I will send it forth,' declares the Lord of Hosts, 'and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one who swears falsely by my name. It will remain in that house and destroy it with its timber and stones.'" ⁵ Then the angel who was speaking with me came forward and said, "Lift your eyes now and see what this is that is going forth." ⁶ And I asked, "What is it?" He replied, "This is the basket going forth." And he added, "This is their iniquity throughout the land." ⁷ And behold, a lead cover was lifted up, and there was a woman sitting inside the basket. ⁸ He said, "This is Wickedness," and he pushed her back into the basket and cast the lead weight over its opening. ⁹ Then I looked up and saw two women coming out with the wind in their wings; they had wings like those of a stork, and they lifted the basket between the earth and the heavens. ¹⁰ I inquired of the angel who was speaking with me, "Where are they carrying the basket?" ¹¹ He replied, "To build a house for it in the land of Shinar; and when it is ready, it will be set there on its own base."

6 I lifted my eyes once more and saw four chariots emerging from between two mountains—mountains made of bronze. ² The first chariot was drawn by red horses, the second by black horses, ³ the third by white horses, and the fourth by strong dappled horses. ⁴ I inquired of the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these, my lord?" ⁵ The angel replied, "These are the four spirits of heaven, setting out after standing before the Lord of all the earth." ⁶ The chariot with the black horses is going towards the north country, the white ones follow them, and the dappled ones head towards the south." ⁷ When these strong horses went out, they were eager to patrol the earth. And He said, "Go, patrol the earth." So they patrolled the earth. ⁸ Then He called out to me, "Look, those heading to the north country have appeased My Spirit in the land of the north." ⁹ The word of the Lord then came to me, saying: ¹⁰ "Take silver and gold from the exiles, Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon, and go the same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. ¹¹ Make a crown from the silver and gold, and place it on the head of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. ¹² Say to him, 'This is what the Lord of Hosts says: "Behold, the man whose name is the Branch, for he will branch out from his place and build the temple of the Lord. ¹³ Indeed, he will build the temple of the Lord, and he will be clothed with majesty and sit and rule on his throne. He will be a priest on his throne, and there will be harmony between the two offices.'" ¹⁴ The crown will serve as a memorial in the temple of the Lord for Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen son of Zephaniah. ¹⁵ Those who are far off will come and build the temple of the Lord, and you will know that the Lord of Hosts has sent me to you. This will occur if you diligently obey the Lord your God.

Zechariah

7 During the fourth year of King Darius, a message from the Lord came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, known as Kislev. ² The people of Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem-Melek, along with their men, to seek the favour of the Lord, ³ by speaking to the priests of the house of the Lord Almighty and the prophets, asking, "Should I mourn and fast in the fifth month, as I have done for so many years?" ⁴ Then the word of the Lord Almighty came to me, saying, ⁵ "Tell all the people of the land and the priests, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months for these seventy years, was it truly for me that you fasted? ⁶ And when you eat and drink, do you not eat and drink for yourselves?' ⁷ Are these not the words the Lord proclaimed through the former prophets, when Jerusalem and its surrounding towns were inhabited and prosperous, and the Negev and the foothills were settled?" ⁸ And the word of the Lord came again to Zechariah, saying, ⁹ "This is what the Lord Almighty says: 'Administer true justice; show kindness and compassion to one another. ¹⁰ Do not oppress the widow or the orphan, the foreigner or the poor. Do not plot evil against each other in your hearts.' ¹¹ But they refused to listen; they turned a stubborn shoulder and stopped their ears from hearing. ¹² They made their hearts as hard as stone, so they would not hear the law or the words that the Lord Almighty had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore, great wrath came from the Lord Almighty. ¹³ "When I called, they did not listen; therefore, when they called, I did not respond,' says the Lord Almighty. ¹⁴ 'I scattered them with a storm wind among all the nations they did not know. The land they left behind was so desolate that no one travelled through it. This is how they made the pleasant land desolate.'"

8 A message from the Lord of hosts was given to me: ² This is what the Lord of hosts says: "I am exceedingly jealous for Zion; I am burning with great jealousy for her." ³ This is what the Lord says: "I will return to Zion and dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of the Lord of hosts will be called the Holy Mountain." ⁴ This is what the Lord of hosts says: "Once again, old men and women will sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with a staff in hand because of their age. ⁵ And the city squares will be filled with boys and girls playing there." ⁶ This is what the Lord of hosts says: "If it seems marvellous to the remnant of this people in those days, will it also seem marvellous to me?" declares the Lord of hosts. ⁷ This is what the Lord of hosts says: "I will save my people from the lands of the east and the west. ⁸ I will bring them back to live in Jerusalem; they will be my people, and I will be their God in truth and righteousness." ⁹ This is what the Lord of hosts says: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear these words spoken by the prophets who were present when the foundation of the house of the Lord of hosts was laid, so that the temple might be built. ¹⁰ Before those days, there were no wages for people or hire for animals. No one could go about their business safely because of their enemies, for I had set everyone against their neighbour. ¹¹ However, I will now treat the remnant of this people differently than in the past," declares the Lord of hosts. ¹² "For the seed will be prosperous: the vine will yield its fruit, the land will produce its crops, and the heavens will give their dew. I will give all these things as an inheritance to the remnant of this people. ¹³ Just as you have been a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you will be a blessing. Do not fear, but let your hands be strong.” ¹⁴ This is what the Lord of hosts says: “Just as I had determined to bring disaster upon you when your ancestors provoked me to anger,” says the Lord of hosts, ¹⁵ “so I have determined to do good again to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear. ¹⁶ These are the things you shall do: speak the truth to each other, and render true and sound judgement in your gates; ¹⁷ do not plot evil against each other, and do not love perjury. I hate all these things,” declares the Lord. ¹⁸ A message from the Lord of hosts was given to me: ¹⁹ This is what the Lord of hosts says: “The fasts of the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months will become joyful and glad occasions and happy festivals for the house of Judah. Therefore, love truth and peace.” ²⁰ This is what the Lord of hosts says: “Many peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come, ²¹ and the inhabitants of one city will go to another, saying, ‘Let us go at once to entreat the favour of the Lord and to seek the Lord of hosts. I myself am going.’” ²² So many peoples and mighty nations will come to Jerusalem to seek the Lord of hosts and to entreat his favour.” ²³ This is what the Lord of hosts says: “In those days, ten people from all languages and nations will take firm hold of one Jew by the hem of his garment and say, ‘Let us go with you, because we have heard that God is with you.’”

Zechariah

9 The message

The word of the Lord is directed towards the land of Hadrach, with Damascus as its resting place— For the eyes of humanity, especially all the tribes of Israel, are upon the Lord— ² And Hamath also, which borders on it; Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise. ³ For Tyre constructed a stronghold for herself, And amassed silver like dust, And gold like the mud of the streets. ⁴ Behold, the Lord will strip her of possessions And cast her wealth into the sea; And she will be devoured by fire. ⁵ Ashkelon will see it and be afraid. Gaza too will writhe in great distress, Also Ekron, because her hope has been shattered.

Moreover, the king will perish from Gaza, And Ashkelon will not be inhabited. ⁶ And a diverse people will dwell in Ashdod, And I will remove the arrogance of the Philistines. ⁷ And I will take away their blood from their mouth And their abominations from between their teeth. Then they too will belong to our God, And be like a family in Judah, And Ekron like a Jebusite. ⁸ But I will encamp around My house because of an army, Because of one who passes by and returns; And no oppressor will pass over them anymore, For now I have seen with My eyes. ⁹ Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion! Shout in triumph, daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you; He is righteous and victorious, Humble, and riding on a donkey, Even on a colt, the foal of a donkey. ¹⁰ And I will remove the chariot from Ephraim And the horse from Jerusalem; And the bow of war will be broken. And He will proclaim peace to the nations; And His rule will extend from sea to sea, And from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth. ¹¹ As for you also, due to the blood of My covenant with you, I have released your prisoners from the waterless pit. ¹² Return to the stronghold, you prisoners filled with hope; This very day I am declaring that I will restore double to you. ¹³ For I will bend Judah as My bow, I will fill the bow with Ephraim. And I will rouse your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece; And I will make you like a warrior's sword. ¹⁴ Then the Lord will appear over them, And His arrow will shoot forth like lightning; And the Lord God will sound the trumpet, And advance in the storm winds of the south. ¹⁵ The Lord of hosts will protect them. And they will devour and trample the slingstones; And they will drink and be exuberant as with wine; And they will be filled like a sacrificial basin, Drenched like the corners of the altar. ¹⁶ And the Lord their God will deliver them on that day As the flock of His people; For they are like the precious stones of a crown, Sparkling on His land. ¹⁷ For how great is His goodness, And how great is His beauty! Grain will make the young men flourish, And new wine, the maidens.

10 Ask for rain from the Lord during the springtime— The Lord who creates the storm winds; And He will provide them with showers of rain, vegetation in the field for each person. ² For the teraphim speak deception, And the diviners see an illusion And tell deceitful dreams; They comfort in vain. Therefore the people wander like sheep, They are afflicted, because there is no shepherd. ³ "My wrath is aroused against the shepherds, And I will punish the male goats; For the Lord of hosts has visited His flock, the house of Judah, And will transform them like His majestic horse in battle. ⁴ From them will arise the cornerstone, From them the tent peg, From them the bow of battle, From them every ruler, all of them together. ⁵ And they will resemble warriors, Trampling down the enemy in the mud of the streets in battle; And they will fight, for the Lord will be with them; And the riders on horses will be put to shame. ⁶ And I will fortify the house of Judah, And I will deliver the house of Joseph, And I will restore them, Because I have shown compassion on them; And they will be as though I had not cast them off, For I am the Lord their God and I will respond to them. ⁷ And Ephraim will be like a warrior, And their heart will be joyful as if from wine; Indeed, their children will see it and be joyful, Their heart will rejoice in the Lord. ⁸ I will signal for them and gather them together, For I have redeemed them; And they will be as numerous as they were before. ⁹ When I disperse them among the peoples, They will remember Me in distant countries, And they with their children will live and return. ¹⁰ I will bring them back from the land of Egypt And gather them from Assyria; And I will bring them to the land of Gilead and Lebanon Until no room can be found for them. ¹¹ And they will pass through the sea of distress, And He will strike the waves in the sea So that all the depths of the Nile will dry up; And the pride of Assyria will be brought down, And the sceptre of Egypt will depart. ¹² And I will empower them in the Lord, And in His name they will walk," declares the Lord.

Zechariah

11 Open your doors, Lebanon, so that fire may consume your cedars. ² Wail, juniper, for the cedar has fallen; the majestic trees are destroyed! Wail, oaks of Bashan, for the dense forest has been brought down! ³ Hear the wailing of the shepherds, for their glorious pastures are ruined! Listen to the roaring of the young lions, for the pride of the Jordan is devastated!

⁴ This is what the Lord my God says: "Tend the flock destined for slaughter. ⁵ Their buyers slaughter them and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the Lord, for I have become wealthy!' Their own shepherds show them no mercy. ⁶ For I will no longer have compassion for the people of the land," declares the Lord. "I will hand everyone over to their neighbours and their king. They will crush the land, and I will not deliver them from their hands." ⁷ So I tended the flock destined for slaughter, particularly the afflicted of the flock. I took two staffs, calling one Favour and the other Union, and I tended the flock. ⁸ In one month I removed the three shepherds. My soul grew weary of them, and they also detested me. ⁹ So I said, "I will not tend you any longer. Let those who are dying die, and those who are perishing perish. Let those who remain devour each other's flesh." ¹⁰ Then I took my staff called Favour and broke it, annulling the covenant I had made with all the peoples. ¹¹ It was annulled on that day, and thus the afflicted of the flock who were watching me knew it was the word of the Lord. ¹² I said to them, "If you see fit, give me my wages; if not, keep them." So they weighed out thirty pieces of silver as my wages. ¹³ And the Lord said to me, "Throw it to the potter—the splendid price at which they valued me!" So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them to the potter in the house of the Lord. ¹⁴ Then I broke my second staff called Union, breaking the brotherhood between Judah and Israel. ¹⁵ Then the Lord said to me, "Take up once more the equipment of a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶ For I am about to raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for those who are perishing, nor seek the scattered, nor heal the injured, nor nourish the healthy, but will devour the flesh of the fat sheep, tearing off their hooves.

¹⁷ Woe to the worthless shepherd who abandons the flock! May the sword strike his arm and his right eye! May his arm be completely withered, and his right eye utterly blinded!"

12 A declaration: The word of the Lord concerning Israel. The Lord, who stretches out the heavens, who lays the foundation of the earth, and who forms the spirit of a person within him, proclaims: ² "Behold, I am going to make Jerusalem a cup that causes all the surrounding peoples to stagger. Judah will also be besieged alongside Jerusalem. ³ On that day, when all the nations of the earth are gathered against her, I will make Jerusalem an immovable stone for all the peoples. All who attempt to lift it will severely injure themselves. ⁴ On that day," declares the Lord, "I will strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness. I will keep a watchful eye over the house of Judah, while I blind every horse of the nations. ⁵ Then the clans of Judah will say in their hearts, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are strong through the Lord Almighty, their God.' ⁶ "On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a firepot among wood, like a flaming torch among sheaves. They will consume all the surrounding peoples on the right and on the left, while the inhabitants of Jerusalem remain in their place in Jerusalem. ⁷ The Lord will save the dwellings of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not surpass that of Judah. ⁸ On that day the Lord will protect the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the feeblest among them will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of the Lord before them. ⁹ On that day I will set out to destroy all the nations that rise against Jerusalem. ¹⁰ "And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and supplication. They will look upon me whom they have pierced, and they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only child, and grieve bitterly for him as one grieves for a firstborn. ¹¹ On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning of Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. ¹² The land will mourn, every family by itself, with their wives by themselves: the family of the house of David by itself and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself and their wives by themselves; ¹³ the descendants of Levi will mourn separately, each family and their wives apart; the descendants of Shimeï will also mourn separately, each family and their wives apart; ¹⁴ and all the remaining families, every family by itself, and their wives by themselves.

Zechariah

13 "On that day a fountain will be opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to cleanse them from sin and defilement. ² "And on that day," declares the Lord of Hosts, "I will remove the names of the idols from the land, and they shall be remembered no more; I will also remove the prophets and the spirit of impurity from the land. ³ And if anyone still prophesies, their father and mother who bore them will say, 'You shall not live, for you have spoken lies in the name of the Lord.' Then their own parents will pierce them through when they prophesy. ⁴ On that day, every prophet will be ashamed of their vision when they prophesy, and they will not wear a hairy garment to deceive. ⁵ Each will say, 'I am not a prophet; I am a tiller of the soil, for I have been a labourer since my youth.' ⁶ And if someone asks, 'What are these wounds on your body?' they will reply, 'The wounds I received in the house of my friends.'

⁷ "Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is my companion!" declares the Lord of Hosts. "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered, and I will turn my hand against the little ones. ⁸ And throughout the land," declares the Lord, "two-thirds will be cut off and perish, but a third will be left in it. ⁹ This third I will bring through the fire; I will refine them as silver is refined and test them as gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will answer them; I will say, 'They are my people,' and they will say, 'The Lord is our God.'"

14 Behold, a day is approaching for the Lord when your possessions will be plundered and divided within your midst. ² I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle; the city will be captured, the houses looted, and the women violated. Half of the city will go into exile, but the remainder of the people will not be removed from the city. ³ Then the Lord will go forth and fight against those nations, as He fights on a day of battle. ⁴ On that day, His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a vast valley, with one half of the mountain moving north and the other half moving south. ⁵ You will flee through My mountain valley, for it will extend to Azel. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the Lord my God will come, and all the holy ones with Him. ⁶ On that day, there will be no light; the luminaries will dwindle. ⁷ It will be a unique day, known only to the Lord, without distinction between day and night. When evening comes, there will be light. ⁸ On that day, living waters will flow out from Jerusalem, half towards the eastern sea and half towards the western sea, in both summer and winter. ⁹ The Lord will be king over the whole earth. On that day, the Lord will be the only one, and His name the only one.

Zechariah

¹⁰ The whole land will be transformed into a plain from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem. But Jerusalem will be elevated and remain on its site from Benjamin's Gate to the site of the First Gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. ¹¹ It will be inhabited, and there will be no more destruction; Jerusalem will dwell in security. ¹² This will be the plague with which the Lord will strike all the peoples who fought against Jerusalem: their flesh will rot while they stand on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. ¹³ On that day, a great panic from the Lord will fall upon them. They will seize each other by the hand and raise their hands against one another. ¹⁴ Judah too will fight in Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered—gold, silver, and garments in great abundance. ¹⁵ A similar plague will strike the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the animals in those camps. ¹⁶ Then the survivors from all the nations that attacked Jerusalem will go up year after year to worship the King, the Lord of Hosts, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. ¹⁷ If any of the families of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord of Hosts, they will have no rain. ¹⁸ If the family of Egypt does not go up and enter, they will receive no rain. This will be the plague with which the Lord strikes the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. ¹⁹ This will be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. ²⁰ On that day, "Holy to the Lord" will be inscribed on the bells of the horses, and the cooking pots in the Lord's house will be like the sacred bowls before the altar. ²¹ Every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the Lord of Hosts, and all who come to sacrifice will take some of them and cook in them. On that day, there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the Lord of Hosts.

Malachi

1 The message of the Lord's word to Israel through Malachi: ² "I have loved you," says the Lord. But you question, "How have you loved us?" "Was Esau not Jacob's brother?" declares the Lord. "Yet I have loved Jacob; ³ but Esau I have hated, and I have made his mountains a desolation and given his inheritance to the jackals of the wilderness." ⁴ Edom may say, "We have been beaten down, but we will return and build the ruins." But this is what the Lord of hosts says: "They may build, but I will tear down. They will be called the territory of wickedness, and the people with whom the Lord is indignant forever." ⁵ Your eyes will see this, and you will say, "Great is the Lord—even beyond the borders of Israel!" ⁶ "A son honours his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, where is my honour? And if I am a master, where is my respect?" says the Lord of hosts to you, the priests who despise my name. But you ask, "How have we despised your name?" ⁷ By presenting defiled food on my altar. But you ask, "How have we defiled you?" By saying, "The table of the Lord is contemptible." ⁸ When you offer blind animals for sacrifice, is that not wrong? Or when you present lame or sick animals, is that not wrong? Try offering them to your governor! Would he be pleased with you? Would he accept you?" says the Lord of hosts. ⁹ "But now, plead for God's favour, so that he will be gracious to us. With such offerings from your hands, will he accept any of you?" says the Lord of hosts. ¹⁰ "If only one of you would shut the temple doors, so that you would not kindle fire on my altar for nothing! I am not pleased with you," says the Lord of hosts, "nor will I accept an offering from your hand." ¹¹ For from the rising of the sun to its setting, my name will be great among the nations, and in every place incense and pure offerings will be brought to my name, for my name will be great among the nations," says the Lord of hosts. ¹² "But you are profaning it by saying, 'The table of the Lord is defiled, and its food is contemptible.' ¹³ And you say, 'What a burden!' and you sniff at it contemptuously," says the Lord of hosts. "When you bring what is taken by robbery, or lame or sick animals, and offer them as sacrifices, should I accept them from your hand?" says the Lord. ¹⁴ "But cursed is the deceiver who has an acceptable male in his flock and vows to give it, but then sacrifices a blemished animal to the Lord. For I am a great king," says the Lord of hosts, "and my name is to be feared among the nations."

2 "And now, this admonition is for you, priests. ² If you do not listen, and if you do not take it to heart to honour my name," says the Lord of Hosts, "I will send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have already cursed them, because you are not taking it to heart. ³ Behold, I will rebuke your descendants, and I will spread dung on your faces, the dung of your festival sacrifices, and you will be carried away with it. ⁴ Then you will know that I have sent you this command so that my covenant with Levi may continue," says the Lord of Hosts. ⁵ "My covenant with him was one of life and peace, and I granted them to him as a sign of reverence; thus he revered me and stood in awe of my name. ⁶ True instruction was in his mouth, and no injustice was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many from wrongdoing. ⁷ For the lips of a priest should preserve knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is the messenger of the Lord of Hosts. ⁸ But you have turned aside from the way and by your instruction have caused many to stumble; you have violated the covenant with Levi," says the Lord of Hosts. ⁹ "So I have made you despised and humiliated before all the people, because you have not kept my ways but have shown partiality in matters of the law." ¹⁰ Do we not all have one Father? Did not one God create us? Why do we deal treacherously with one another, profaning the covenant of our ancestors? ¹¹ Judah has been unfaithful, and an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: Judah has desecrated the sanctuary the Lord loves by marrying the daughter of a foreign god. ¹² As for the man who does this, may the Lord remove him from the tents of Jacob—even though he brings an offering to the Lord of Hosts. ¹³ And this is another thing you do: you flood the Lord's altar with tears, weeping and wailing because he no longer regards your offerings or accepts them with favour from your hands. ¹⁴ You ask, "Why?" It is because the Lord is a witness between you and the wife of your youth. You have been unfaithful to her, though she is your partner, the wife of your marriage covenant. ¹⁵ Did not the one God create you? You belong to him in body and spirit. And what does the one God desire? Godly offspring. So be on your guard, and do not be unfaithful to the wife of your youth. ¹⁶ "For I hate divorce," says the Lord, the God of Israel, "and the one who covers his garment with violence," says the Lord of Hosts. So be on your guard, and do not be unfaithful. ¹⁷ You have wearied the Lord with your words. Yet you say, "How have we wearied him?" By saying, "All who do evil are good in the sight of the Lord, and he is pleased with them," or, "Where is the God of justice?"

Malachi

3 "Behold, I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before me.

Suddenly the Lord whom you seek shall come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight, behold, he is coming," says the Lord of Hosts. ² "But who may endure the day of his coming? And who shall stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like a fuller's soap. ³ He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi and refine them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness. ⁴ Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord, as it was in ancient times and in former years. ⁵ "And I will come near to you for judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against false swearers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me," says the Lord of Hosts. ⁶ "For I am the Lord, I change not; therefore you sons of Jacob are not consumed. ⁷ From the days of your fathers you have turned away from my ordinances and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you," says the Lord of Hosts. "But you say, 'Wherein shall we return?' ⁸ "Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed me. But you say, 'Wherein have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings. ⁹ You are under a curse, for you have robbed me, even this whole nation. ¹⁰ Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and prove me now herewith," says the Lord of Hosts, "if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. ¹¹ And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field," says the Lord of Hosts. ¹² "And all nations shall call you blessed, for you shall be a delightful land," says the Lord of Hosts. ¹³ "Your words have been stout against me," says the Lord. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken so much against you?' ¹⁴ You have said, 'It is vain to serve God, and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance and that we have walked mournfully before the Lord of Hosts?' ¹⁵ And now we consider the proud to be fortunate; indeed, those who do evil are exalted, and those who challenge God escape." ¹⁶ Then those who feared the Lord spoke often one to another, and the Lord hearkened and heard, and a book of remembrance was written before him for those who feared the Lord and thought upon his name. ¹⁷ "And they shall be mine," says the Lord of Hosts, "in that day when I make up my jewels, and I will spare them as a man spares his own son that serves him." ¹⁸ Then shall you return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serves God and him that serves him not.

4 "Indeed, the day is coming, burning like a furnace; all the arrogant and every evildoer will be like stubble, and the day that is coming will set them ablaze," says the Lord of Hosts, "leaving them neither root nor branch." ² But for those who revere my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings, and you will go out and frolic like well-fed calves. ³ Then you will trample the wicked underfoot; they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day I act," says the Lord of Hosts. ⁴ "Remember the law of Moses, my servant, the decrees and ordinances I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel. ⁵ "Behold, I will send the prophet Elijah to you before the great and dreadful day of the Lord arrives. ⁶ He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers; otherwise, I will come and strike the land with utter destruction."

Matthew

1 This is the account of the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah, the son of David, the son of Abraham: ² Abraham begat Isaac, Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat Judah and his brothers, ³ Judah begat Perez and Zerah, whose mother was Tamar; Perez begat Hezron, and Hezron begat Ram, ⁴ Ram begat Amminadab, Amminadab begat Nahshon, and Nahshon begat Salmon, ⁵ Salmon begat Boaz, whose mother was Rahab; Boaz begat Obed, whose mother was Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse, ⁶ and Jesse begat King David. David begat Solomon, whose mother had been the wife of Uriah, ⁷ Solomon begat Rehoboam, Rehoboam begat Abijah, and Abijah begat Asa, ⁸ Asa begat Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat begat Joram, and Joram begat Uzziah, ⁹ Uzziah begat Jotham, Jotham begat Ahaz, and Ahaz begat Hezekiah, ¹⁰ Hezekiah begat Manasseh, Manasseh begat Amon, and Amon begat Josiah, ¹¹ and Josiah begat Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon. ¹² After the exile to Babylon: Jeconiah begat Shealtiel, and Shealtiel begat Zerubbabel, ¹³ Zerubbabel begat Abihud, Abihud begat Eliakim, and Eliakim begat Azor, ¹⁴ Azor begat Zadok, Zadok begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud, ¹⁵ Eliud begat Eleazar, Eleazar begat Matthan, and Matthan begat Jacob, ¹⁶ and Jacob begat Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born, who is called the Messiah. ¹⁷ So all the generations from Abraham to David were fourteen generations; from David to the exile to Babylon, fourteen generations; and from the exile to the Messiah, fourteen generations. ¹⁸ Now the birth of Jesus the Messiah occurred in this manner: When His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹ Joseph, her husband, being a righteous man and not wishing to disgrace her, resolved to divorce her quietly. ²⁰ But as he considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. ²¹ She will bear a son, and you shall name Him Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins." ²² All this happened to fulfil what the Lord had spoken through the prophet: ²³ "Behold, the young virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel," which means "God with us." ²⁴ When Joseph awoke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took Mary as his wife, ²⁵ but did not consummate their marriage until she bore a son; and he named Him Jesus.

2 After Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea during the reign of King Herod, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, ² asking, "Where is the one who has been born King of the Jews? We saw His star at its rising and have come to worship Him." ³ When King Herod heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴ He gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people and inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. ⁵ They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for this is what the prophet has written: ⁶ 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for out of you will come a ruler who will shepherd My people Israel.'" ⁷ Then Herod secretly called the magi and found out from them the exact time the star had appeared. ⁸ He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found Him, report to me, so that I too may go and worship Him." ⁹ After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and the star they had seen at its rising went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was. ¹⁰ When they saw the star, they rejoiced with great joy. ¹¹ Upon entering the house, they saw the child with His mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshipped Him. Then they opened their treasures and presented Him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. ¹² And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed to their own country by another route. ¹³ After they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Get up, take the child and His mother, and flee to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod is going to search for the child to destroy Him." ¹⁴ So Joseph got up, took the child and His mother by night, and departed for Egypt, ¹⁵ where he stayed until the death of Herod. This was to fulfil what the Lord had spoken through the prophet: "Out of Egypt I called My Son."

¹⁶ When Herod realised that he had been deceived by the magi, he was furious, and he sent orders to kill all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity who were two years old and under, according to the time he had learned from the magi. ¹⁷ Then what was spoken through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

Matthew

¹⁸ “A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and deep mourning, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no longer present.”

¹⁹ Following Herod's death, an angel of the Lord came to Joseph in a dream while he was in Egypt, ²⁰ saying, “Get up, take the child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child's life are dead.” ²¹ So Joseph got up, took the child and His mother, and went to the land of Israel. ²² But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Having been warned in a dream, he withdrew to the region of Galilee, ²³ and went and lived in a town called Nazareth. This was to fulfil what was spoken through the prophets: “He will be called a Nazarene.”

3 In those days, John the Baptist appeared, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, ² and proclaiming, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near.” ³ This is the one mentioned by the prophet Isaiah: “A voice of one calling in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.’” ⁴ John wore clothing made of camel's hair and had a leather belt around his waist. His diet consisted of locusts and wild honey. ⁵ People from Jerusalem, all of Judea, and the entire region around the Jordan went out to him, ⁶ and they were baptised by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. ⁷ When he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸ Produce fruit in accordance with repentance. ⁹ And do not presume to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I tell you that God can raise up children for Abraham from these stones. ¹⁰ The axe is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire. ¹¹ “I baptise you with water as a sign of repentance. But after me comes one who is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹² His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly clear his threshing floor, gathering his wheat into the barn and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

¹³ At that time, Jesus travelled from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptised by John. ¹⁴ But John tried to prevent him, saying, “I need to be baptised by you, and do you come to me?” ¹⁵ Jesus answered him, “Let it be so now; it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness in this way.” Then John consented. ¹⁶ As soon as Jesus was baptised, he came up from the water. At that moment, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and settling on him. ¹⁷ And a voice from heaven said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

4 Then Jesus was guided by the Spirit into the wilderness to face temptation by the devil. ² After fasting for forty days and forty nights, he became hungry. ³ The tempter approached him and said, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become bread.” ⁴ But Jesus replied, “It is written: ‘Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of the Lord.’” ⁵ Then the devil took him to the holy city and had him stand on the pinnacle of the temple. ⁶ He said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written: ‘He will command his angels concerning you, and they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.’” ⁷ Jesus responded, “It is also written: ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’” ⁸ Once more, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour. ⁹ He said to him, “I will give you all these things if you will fall down and worship me.” ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to him, “Depart from me, Satan! For it is written: ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve Him only.’” ¹¹ At that moment, the devil left him, and behold, angels came and attended to him.

¹² When Jesus heard that John had been taken into custody, he withdrew to Galilee. ¹³ Leaving Nazareth, he went and settled in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali— ¹⁴ to fulfil what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah: ¹⁵ “The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, the region along the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles— ¹⁶ the people dwelling in darkness have seen a great light; on those dwelling in the land of the shadow of death, a light has dawned.”

Matthew

¹⁷ From that time, Jesus began to preach, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near." ¹⁸ As Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹ And Jesus said to them, "Come, follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." ²⁰ Then without delay, they left their nets and followed him.

²¹ Continuing on, he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets; and he called them. ²² Then without delay, they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

²³ Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people. ²⁴ News about him spread throughout Syria, and they brought to him all who were ill, those suffering from various diseases and severe pain, the demon-possessed, those with epilepsy, and the paralysed; and he healed them. ²⁵ Large multitudes came after him from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

5 When Jesus saw the crowds, He ascended a mountainside and sat down. His disciples approached Him, ² and He began to instruct them, saying:

³ "Blessed are those who are poor in spirit, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to them. ⁴ Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall receive comfort. ⁵ Blessed are the meek, they shall inherit the earth. ⁶ Blessed are those who long for righteousness, for they shall be fulfilled. ⁷ Blessed are those who show mercy, for they shall be shown mercy. ⁸ Blessed are those with a pure heart, for they shall see God. ⁹ Blessed are those who are peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God. ¹⁰ Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

¹¹ Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you, and falsely speak all kinds of evil against you because of Me. ¹² Be joyful and glad, for your reward in heaven is great; for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

¹³ You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its flavour, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by others. ¹⁴ You are the light of the whole world. A city stood on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵ Nor do people light a lamp and place it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶ In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.

¹⁷ Do not think that I have come to do away with the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to do away with them but to complete them. ¹⁸ For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. ¹⁹ Therefore, whoever sets aside one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I say to you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

²¹ You have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not murder, and anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.' ²² But I say to you, anyone who is angry with a brother or sister will be subject to judgment. Again, anyone who says to a brother or sister, 'Raca,' will be answerable to the court. And anyone who says, 'You fool!' will be in danger of the fiery hell. ²³ Therefore, if you are presenting your offering at the altar and there remember that your brother or sister has something against you, ²⁴ leave your offering there in front of the altar. First, be reconciled to them; then come and present your offering. ²⁵ Settle matters quickly with your adversary who is taking you to court. Do it while you are still on the way, or your adversary may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison. ²⁶ Truly I say to you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.

²⁷ You have heard it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.' ²⁸ But I say to you, anyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. ²⁹ If your right eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. ³⁹ And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.

Matthew

³¹ It has been said, 'Anyone who divorces his wife must provide her with a certificate of divorce.' ³² But I say to you, anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery, and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

³³ Again, you have heard that it was said to those of old, 'Do not break your oath, but fulfil your vows to the Lord.' ³⁴ But I tell you, do not make any oaths: not by heaven, for it is God's throne; ³⁵ nor by the earth, for it is His resting place; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. ³⁶ And do not make an oath by your head, for you cannot make even one hair white or black. ³⁷ Let your statement be, 'Yes, yes' or 'No, no'; anything beyond this is from the evil one.

³⁸ You have heard the teaching, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.' ³⁹ But I say to you, do not resist an evil person. If anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to them the other cheek also. ⁴⁰ And if anyone wants to sue you and take your shirt, let them have your coat as well. ⁴¹ If anyone compels you to go one mile, go with them two miles. ⁴² Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wishes to borrow from you.

⁴³ You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbour and hate your adversary.' ⁴⁴ But I say to you, demonstrate love to your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵ so that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes His sun to rise on both the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. ⁴⁶ If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? ⁴⁷ And if you greet only your own people, what are you doing more than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? ⁴⁸ Therefore, strive to be as perfect just as your heavenly Father is perfect.

6 "Be cautious not to display your righteousness before others to be noticed by them; otherwise, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven. ² "So when you give to the poor, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be praised by others. Truly, I tell you, they have received their reward in full. ³ But when you give to those in need, do so discreetly, without drawing attention to yourself, ⁴ so that your giving may remain private. Then your Father, who observes what is done quietly, will reward you.

⁵ "And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by others. Truly, I tell you, they have their reward in full. ⁶ But when you pray, go into your room, close the door, and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who observes what is done quietly, will reward you. ⁷ And when you pray, do not use thoughtless repetition like the pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. ⁸ Do not imitate them: your Father is aware of your needs even before you ask Him.

⁹ "Pray in this way:

'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name, ¹⁰ Let Your kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. ¹¹ Give us this day our daily bread. ¹² And forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. ¹³ And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.' For Yours is the kingdom, the power, the glory, for ever. Amen

¹⁴ For if you forgive others when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. ¹⁵ But if you do not forgive others, your Father will not forgive you either.

¹⁶ "When you fast, do not look gloomy as the hypocrites do, for they distort their faces to show others they are fasting. Truly, I tell you, they have received their reward in full. ¹⁷ But when you fast, take care of your appearance by anointing your head and washing your face, ¹⁸ so that your fasting is not obvious to others, but only to your Father, who is unseen; and your Father, who observes what is done quietly, will reward you.

¹⁹ "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. ²⁰ Instead, gather treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. ²¹ For wherever your treasure is, there your heart will be as well.

Matthew

²² “The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are clear, your whole body will be full of light. ²³ But if your eyes are not clear, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness! ²⁴ “No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and wealth.

²⁵ “That is why I say to you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? ²⁶ Observe the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? ²⁷ Can any of you, by worrying, extend your life by even a single hour? ²⁸ “And why do you worry about clothing? Consider how the flowers of the field grow. They do not labour or spin, ²⁹ yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendour was dressed like one of these. ³⁰ If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is cast into the fire, will He not much more clothe you—you of little faith?

³¹ So do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ ³² For the pagans eagerly seek all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. ³³ But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be provided to you as well. ³⁴ Therefore, do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will take care of itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

7 “Do not judge, lest you too be judged. ² For in the manner you judge others, you will be judged, and by the measure you use, it will be measured to you. ³ Why do you observe the speck in your brother’s eye, but fail to notice the plank in your own eye? ⁴ How can you say to your brother, ‘Let me remove the speck from your eye,’ while there is a plank in your own eye? ⁵ You hypocrite, first remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye. ⁶ “Do not give what is holy to dogs, and do not cast your pearls before pigs, or they may trample them underfoot, and turn and tear you apart.

⁷ “Ask, and it shall be given to you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and the door shall be opened to you. ⁸ For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, it will be opened. ⁹ Which of you, if your son asks for bread, would give him a stone? ¹⁰ Or if he asks for a fish, would give him a snake? ¹¹ If you, then, though flawed, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!

¹² Therefore, in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this is the Law and the Prophets. ¹³ “Enter through the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the path that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. ¹⁴ But small is the gate and narrow the path that leads to life, and only a few find it.

¹⁵ “Be cautious of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing, but are inwardly ravenous wolves. ¹⁶ By their fruits you will recognise them. Do people gather grapes from thorn bushes, or figs from thistles? ¹⁷ Similarly, a good tree produces good fruit, but a bad tree produces bad fruit. ¹⁸ A good tree does not produce bad fruit, nor can a bad tree give good fruit. ¹⁹ Every tree that fails to produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. ²⁰ Thus, by their fruits you will recognise them.

²¹ “Not everyone who calls out to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only those who do the will of my Father who is in heaven. ²² On that day, many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, drive out demons, and perform many miracles in your name?’ ²³ Then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from me, you who practise lawlessness.’

²⁴ “Therefore, everyone who hears these words of mine and acts on them is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. ²⁵ The rain fell, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it was founded on the rock. ²⁶ But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not act on them is like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. ²⁷ The rain fell, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash.”

Matthew

²⁸ When Jesus had finished these sayings, the crowds were amazed at his teaching; ²⁹ for he taught as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

8 When Jesus descended from the mountain, large crowds followed Him. ² A man afflicted with leprosy approached Him, bowed before Him, and said, "Lord, if You are willing, You can cleanse me." ³ Jesus extended His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be clean." Instantly, his leprosy was cleansed. ⁴ Jesus instructed him, "See that you tell no one; but go, show yourself to the priest and present the offering that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

⁵ Upon entering Capernaum, a centurion approached Him, seeking assistance. ⁶ "Lord," he said, "my servant lies paralysed at home, suffering terribly." ⁷ Jesus responded to him, "I will come to him and heal him." ⁸ The centurion answered, "Lord, I am not worthy for You to enter under my roof, but only say the word, and my servant will be healed. ⁹ For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." ¹⁰ When Jesus heard this, He was amazed and said to those following Him, "Truly I tell you, I have not found such great faith in anyone in Israel. ¹¹ I say to you that many will come from the east and west and will recline at the table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven; ¹² but those who were originally intended for the kingdom will be cast into the outer darkness; in that place, there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." ¹³ Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go; it shall be done for you as you have believed." And the servant was healed at that very moment.

¹⁴ When Jesus arrived at Peter's house, He saw Peter's mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever. ¹⁵ He touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose and began to serve Him. ¹⁶ As evening approached, they brought to Him many who were troubled by demons, and He cast out the spirits with a word and healed all who were ill. ¹⁷ This was to fulfil the words spoken by the prophet Isaiah:

"He took up our infirmities and bore our diseases."

¹⁸ When Jesus saw the crowd around Him, He gave orders to cross to the other side of the sea. ¹⁹ Then a scribe approached Him and said, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go." ²⁰ Jesus replied, "Foxes have dens and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head." ²¹ Another disciple said to Him, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father." ²² But Jesus replied to him, "Follow Me, and let the dead take care of their own dead."

²³ As He entered the boat, His disciples accompanied Him. ²⁴ Suddenly, a violent storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves; but Jesus was asleep. ²⁵ The disciples came to Him and woke Him, saying, "Save us, Lord; we are perishing!" ²⁶ He said to them, "Why are you afraid, you of little faith?" Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it became perfectly calm. ²⁷ The men were amazed and said, "What kind of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?"

²⁸ When He arrived at the other side in the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men confronted Him as they came out of the tombs. They were so violent that no one could pass that way. ²⁹ They cried out, "What do You want with us, Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the appointed time?" ³⁰ Not far from them, a large herd of pigs was feeding. ³¹ The demons begged Him, "If You cast us out, send us into the herd of pigs." ³² He said to them, "Go!" So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and perished in the waters. ³³ The herdsmen fled, went into the city and reported everything, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men. ³⁴ Then the whole city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw Him, they pleaded with Him to leave their region.

9 Jesus entered a boat, crossed over the Sea of Galilee, and came to his own city. ² Some men brought to him a paralysed man on a stretcher. Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralysed man, "Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven." ³ At this, some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man is blaspheming!" ⁴ But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you harbour evil thoughts in your hearts? ⁵ What is simpler: to declare, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, Get up and walk?" ⁶ But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins—he then said to the paralysed man, "Get up, take your stretcher and go home." ⁷

Matthew

The man arose and returned to his house. ⁸ When the crowds saw this, they were filled with awe and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

⁹ As Jesus moved on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector's booth. He said to him, "Follow me," and Matthew got up and followed him. ¹⁰ Later, as Jesus was reclining at the table in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and dined with him and his disciples. ¹¹ Observing this, the Pharisees questioned his disciples, "Why does your teacher share meals with tax collectors and sinners?" ¹² Upon hearing this, Jesus remarked, "It is not those who are well who need a doctor, but those who are unwell. ¹³ Now go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

¹⁴ Then John's disciples came to him and asked, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast?" ¹⁵ Jesus replied, "Can the guests of the bridegroom mourn while he is with them? The time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and then they will fast. ¹⁶ "No one patches an old garment with unshrunk cloth, for the patch will pull away from the garment, making the tear worse. ¹⁷ Nor do people pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst, the wine will spill, and the wineskins will be ruined. Instead, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

¹⁸ While he was speaking, a synagogue leader approached and knelt before him, saying, "My daughter has just died. But come and lay your hand on her, and she will live." ¹⁹ Jesus got up and went with him, along with his disciples. ²⁰ Just then, a woman who had suffered from bleeding for twelve years came up behind him and touched the edge of his cloak. ²¹ She thought to herself, "If I only touch his cloak, I will be healed." ²² Turning and seeing her, Jesus said, "Take heart, daughter; your faith has healed you." And the woman was healed at that moment. ²³ When Jesus arrived at the synagogue leader's house and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd, ²⁴ he said, "Go away; the girl is not dead but asleep." And they laughed at him. ²⁵ Once the crowd had been sent outside, he went in, took the girl by the hand, and she arose. ²⁶ News of this spread throughout that region.

²⁷ As Jesus left that place, two blind men followed him, shouting, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!" ²⁸ When he had gone indoors, the blind men came to him, and he asked them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They replied, "Yes, Lord." ²⁹ So he touched their eyes and said, "Let it be done for you, in accordance with your faith"; ³⁰ and their sight was restored. Jesus sternly warned them, "See that no one knows about this." ³¹ However, they went out and spread the news about him throughout that region.

³² As they were leaving, a man who was demon-possessed and unable to speak was brought to Jesus. ³³ When the demon was driven out, the mute man spoke. The crowds were amazed and said, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel." ³⁴ But the Pharisees remarked, "He drives out demons by the ruler of demons."

³⁵ Jesus travelled through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness. ³⁶ When he saw the crowds, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were troubled and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷ Then he told his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. ³⁸ Therefore, ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest field."

10 Jesus called together his twelve disciples and granted them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and sickness. ² These are the twelve apostles: first, Simon, known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James, son of Zebedee, and his brother John; ³ Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew, who was a tax collector; James, son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; ⁴ Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who later betrayed him.

⁵ These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Do not go on a road to the Gentiles, and do not enter a city of the Samaritans; ⁶ but instead, go to the lost sheep of Israel. ⁷ As you go, proclaim this message: 'The kingdom of heaven is near.' ⁸ Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those with leprosy, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give. ⁹ Do not acquire gold, silver, or copper for your money belts— ¹⁰ nor a bag for the journey, nor an extra tunic, nor sandals, nor a staff; for the worker is worthy of his sustenance.

Matthew

¹¹ Whatever town or village you enter, search for someone worthy and stay at their house until you leave. ¹² As you enter the house, offer your greeting. ¹³ If the house is deserving, let your peace rest upon it; if it is not, let your peace return to you. ¹⁴ If anyone does not welcome you or listen to your words, leave that house or town and shake the dust off your feet. ¹⁵ Truly I tell you, it will be more bearable for Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgement than for that town.

¹⁶ "Behold, I am sending you out like sheep among wolves; therefore be as shrewd as serpents and as innocent as doves. ¹⁷ Be on your guard against people; they will hand you over to the local councils and flog you in their synagogues. ¹⁸ You will be brought before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. ¹⁹ But when they arrest you, do not worry about how or what you should say; for what you should say will be given to you at that time. ²⁰ For it will not be you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father will speak through you.

²¹ "Brother will turn against brother to death, and a father against his child; children will rise up against parents and have them put to death. ²² You will be hated by everyone because of my name, but the one who stands firm to the end will be saved. ²³ When you face persecution in one place, move to another. Truly I tell you, you will not finish going through the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

²⁴ "A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a servant above his master. ²⁵ It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If they have called the head of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign the members of his household!

²⁶ "So do not be afraid of them, for there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. ²⁷ What I tell you in the dark, speak in the light; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the rooftops. ²⁸ Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, fear Him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. ²⁹ Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. ³⁰ And even the very hairs of your head are all counted. ³¹ So do not be afraid; you are more valuable than many sparrows.

³² "Whoever acknowledges me before others, I will acknowledge before my Father in heaven. ³³ But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my Father in heaven.

³⁴ "Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. ³⁵ For I have come to set a son against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; ³⁶ and a person's enemies will be the members of his own household.

³⁷ "If anyone loves their father or mother more than me, they are not deserving of me; if anyone loves their son or daughter more than me, they are not deserving of me. ³⁸ Whoever does not take up their cross and follow me is not fit for me. ³⁹ Whoever seeks to preserve their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life for my sake will find it.

⁴⁰ "Anyone who receives you receives me, and anyone who receives me receives the one who sent me. ⁴¹ Whoever receives a prophet because they are a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous person because they are righteous will receive a righteous person's reward. ⁴² And if anyone offers even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones who is my disciple, truly I tell you, that person will certainly not miss their reward."

11 After Jesus had completed instructing his twelve disciples, he moved on from there to teach and preach in their towns.

² While John was in prison, he heard about the works of Christ, and sent his disciples ³ to ask him, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?" ⁴ Jesus responded, "Go back and report to John what you hear and see: ⁵ The blind receive their sight, the lame walk, those with leprosy are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is announced to the poor. ⁶ Blessed is anyone who does not take offence at me."

⁷ As John's disciples were departing, Jesus began to address the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swayed by the wind? ⁸ If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? No, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' palaces. ⁹ But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. ¹⁰ This is the one spoken of in the scriptures: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.' ¹¹ Truly I tell you, among those born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. ¹² From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been subjected to violence, and violent people take it by force. ¹³ For all the Prophets and the Law spoke of what was to come until John. ¹⁴ And if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who was to come. ¹⁵ Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear. ¹⁶ "To what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, calling out to others:

Matthew

¹⁷ 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a mournful song, yet you did not lament.'

¹⁸ For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He is possessed by a demon.' ¹⁹ The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.' Yet wisdom is justified by her deeds."

²⁰ Then Jesus began to denounce the towns where most of his miracles had been performed, because they did not repent. ²¹ "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²² But I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgement than for you. ²³ And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to the heavens? No, you will go down to Hades. For if the miracles that were performed in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. ²⁴ But I tell you that it will be more tolerable for Sodom on the day of judgement than for you."

²⁵ At that time Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent, and revealed them to little children. ²⁶ Yes, Father, for this was well pleasing in your sight. ²⁷ All things have been entrusted to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

²⁸ "Come to me, all who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ Take up my yoke and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰ For my yoke is easy, my burden is light."

12 At that time, Jesus was walking through the grainfields on the Sabbath, and His disciples, feeling hungry, began to pluck some heads of grain and eat them. ² When the Pharisees observed this, they said to Him, "Look, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath." ³ He responded, "Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? ⁴ He went into the house of God, and they ate the consecrated bread, which was not lawful for him or his companions to eat, but only for the priests. ⁵ Or have you not read in the Law that the priests in the temple desecrate the Sabbath, yet remain innocent? ⁶ However, I say to you, something greater than the temple is present. ⁷ If you had understood what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the innocent. ⁸ For the Son of Man holds authority over the Sabbath."

⁹ Departing from there, He entered their synagogue.

¹⁰ Inside was a man with a withered hand. They asked Jesus, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" so they might accuse Him. ¹¹ He asked them, "If any of you has a sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, wouldn't you take hold of it and lift it out? ¹² How much more valuable is a person than a sheep! Therefore, doing good on the Sabbath is lawful." ¹³ Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and it was restored, just as sound as the other. ¹⁴ But the Pharisees went out and conspired against Him, considering how they might destroy Him.

¹⁵ Aware of this, Jesus withdrew from there. Many followed Him, and He healed them all, ¹⁶ and He warned them not to reveal who He was. ¹⁷ This was done to accomplish what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁸ "Behold, My Servant whom I have chosen, My beloved chosen one in whom My soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him, he shall bring forth justice to the nations.¹⁹ He will not quarrel nor cry out; no one will hear His voice in the streets.²⁰ A bruised reed He will not break, and a smouldering wick He will not snuff out, until He leads justice to victory.²¹ In His name, the nations will place their hope."

Matthew

²² Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute was brought to Jesus, and He healed him, so that the man could both speak and see. ²³ All the people were amazed and said, "Could this be the Son of David?" ²⁴ But when the Pharisees heard this, they said, "This man drives out demons only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons." ²⁵ Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. ²⁶ If Satan is casting out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then can his kingdom stand? ²⁷ And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? Therefore, they will be your judges. ²⁸ But if I expel demons by the Spirit of God, then indeed the kingdom of God has come upon you. ²⁹ Or how can anyone enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can plunder his house. ³⁰ Whoever is not with Me is against Me, and whoever will not gather with Me scatters.

³¹ Therefore I tell you, every kind of sin and blasphemy can be forgiven, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. ³² Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, neither in this age nor in the one to come.

³³ Cultivate a tree to be good, and its fruit will be good; or let a tree be bad, and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognised by its fruit. ³⁴ You brood of vipers, how can you, being evil, say anything good? For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of. ³⁵ A good person brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and an evil person brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. ³⁶ But I tell you that everyone will have to give account on the day of judgement for every careless word they have spoken. ³⁷ For by your words you will be judged innocent, and by your words you will be condemned."

³⁸ Then some of the scribes and Pharisees approached Him, saying, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You." ³⁹ He replied, "A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a sign! But none will be given except the sign of the prophet Jonah. ⁴⁰ For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a huge fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. ⁴¹ The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgement with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now something greater than Jonah is here. ⁴² The Queen of the South will rise at the judgement with this generation and condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon's wisdom, and now something greater than Solomon is here.

⁴³ When an unclean spirit comes out of a person, it passes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. ⁴⁴ Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean, and put in order. ⁴⁵ Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they enter and dwell there. And the final condition of that person is worse than the first. This is how it will be with this wicked generation."

⁴⁶ While He was still speaking to the crowd, His mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to Him. ⁴⁷ Someone informed Him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to You." ⁴⁸ He replied to the one who told Him, "Who is My mother, and who are My brothers?" ⁴⁹ Gesturing towards His disciples, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers. ⁵⁰ For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is truly My brother, sister, and mother."

13 On that same day, Jesus left the house and sat by the sea. ² Large crowds gathered around him, so he got into a boat and sat down, while the crowd stood on the shore. ³ He spoke many things to them in parables, saying: "Consider the sower who went out to sow. ⁴ As he sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them. ⁵ Some fell on rocky places, where there was not much soil. They sprang up quickly because the soil was shallow. ⁶ But when the sun rose, they were scorched, and lacking roots, they withered away. ⁷ Other seeds fell among thorns, which grew up and suffocated them.⁸ But others fell on good soil and yielded a crop, some a hundred, some sixty, and some thirty times what was sown.⁹ To he who has ears: let him listen.”

Matthew

¹⁰ The disciples approached him and inquired, “Why do you use parables when speaking to the people?”

¹¹ He answered, “To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.¹² For whoever has, more will be given, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken away.¹³ The reason I speak to them in parables is that although they look, they do not see; although they hear, they do not listen; nor do they understand.

¹⁴ In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah:

‘You will keep on hearing, but never understand; you will keep on seeing, but never perceive.¹⁵ For this people’s heart has grown dull; with their ears they scarcely hear, and they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them.’

¹⁶ But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and blessed are your ears, for they hear.¹⁷ For I assure you, many prophets and righteous people desired to see what you see and did not see it, and to hear what you hear and did not hear it.

¹⁸ “Now hear the explanation of the parable of the sower.¹⁹ When anyone hears the message of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in their heart. This is the seed sown along the path.²⁰ The seed sown on rocky ground is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy.²¹ Yet they have no root in themselves, but endure only for a while. When trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, they quickly fall away.²² The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word, but the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word, making it unfruitful.²³ But the seed sown on good soil is the one who hears the word and understands it. They indeed bear fruit and produce, some a hundred, some sixty, some thirty times what was sown.”

²⁴ He presented another parable to them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field.²⁵ But while everyone was asleep, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away.²⁶ When the wheat sprouted and formed grain, then the weeds also appeared.²⁷ The servants of the landowner came and said to him, ‘Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have weeds?’²⁸ He said to them, ‘An enemy has done this!’ The servants asked him, ‘Do you want us to go and gather them up?’²⁹ But he said, ‘No, lest while you gather up the weeds, you also uproot the wheat with them.³⁰ Let both grow together until the harvest. At the time of harvest, I will say to the reapers, “First gather the weeds and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn.”’”

³¹ He shared with them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field.³² Though it is the smallest of all seeds, when it grows, it is larger than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches.”

³³ He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour until it was all leavened.”

³⁴ Jesus spoke all these things to the crowds in parables; he did not speak to them without using a parable.³⁵ This was to fulfil what was spoken through the prophet: “I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden since the foundation of the world.”

³⁶ Then he left the crowds and went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.”³⁷ He replied, “The one who plants the good seed is the Son of Man,³⁸ and the field is the world; the good seed stands for the children of the kingdom, and the weeds are the children of the evil one.³⁹ The enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.⁴⁰ As the weeds are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age.⁴¹ The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all that causes sin and all who do evil.⁴² They will cast them into the blazing furnace, where there will be sorrow and grinding of teeth.⁴³ Then the righteous will shine brightly like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let those who have ears listen. ⁴⁴ "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid again; and in his joy, he went and sold all he had and bought that field. ⁴⁵ "Similarly, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking fine pearls. ⁴⁶ When he found one pearl of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it. ⁴⁷ "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. ⁴⁸ When it was full, they pulled it up on the shore, and sat down and collected the good fish into baskets, but threw the bad away. ⁴⁹ This is what will occur at the end of the age. The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous ⁵⁰ and cast them into the furnace of fire, where there will be sorrow and grinding of teeth.

Matthew

⁵¹ "Have you understood all these things?" Jesus asked. They said to him, "Yes." ⁵² And he said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple in the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings out of his storeroom new treasures as well as old."

⁵³ After Jesus had finished these parables, he moved on from there. ⁵⁴ Coming to his hometown, he began teaching the people in their synagogue, and they were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers?" ⁵⁵ "Is this not the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas? ⁵⁶ And are not all his sisters among us? So where did this man acquire all these things?" ⁵⁷ And they took offence at him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honour except in his hometown and in his own household." ⁵⁸ And he did not perform many miracles there due to their lack of faith.

14 During that period, Herod the tetrarch became aware of the news concerning Jesus, ² and he said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he has been raised from the dead, and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him."

³ For Herod had taken John into custody, bound him, and placed him in prison due to Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip. ⁴ For John had been telling him,

"It is against the law for you to have her." ⁵ Herod wanted to put John to death, but he feared the people, because they regarded John as a prophet.

⁶ But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced before the guests and pleased Herod so much ⁷ that he vowed to give her whatever she requested. ⁸ Encouraged by her mother, she said, "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist." ⁹ The king was distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he commanded it to be given. ¹⁰ He sent orders and had John beheaded in the prison. ¹¹ John's head was presented on a platter and given to the girl, who then took it to her mother. ¹² John's disciples came, took away the body, and buried it; then they went and told Jesus.

¹³ When Jesus heard about John, He withdrew by boat to a secluded place by Himself. But when the crowds heard of this, they followed Him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴ When He came ashore, He saw a large crowd, felt compassion for them, and healed their sick.

¹⁵ As evening approached, the disciples came to Him and said, "This is a remote place, and it's already late. Send the crowds away, so they can go to the villages and buy themselves some food." ¹⁶ But Jesus replied, "There is no need for them to leave; you should give them something to eat." ¹⁷ They responded, "We have here only five loaves and two fish." ¹⁸ And He instructed, "Bring them to Me." ¹⁹ He directed the people to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to heaven, gave thanks, and broke the loaves. Then He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people. ²⁰ They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve baskets full of broken pieces that were left over. ²¹ Those who ate were about five thousand men, in addition to women and children.

²² Immediately Jesus instructed the disciples to get into the boat and go on ahead of Him to the other side, while He dismissed the crowd. ²³ After He had dismissed them, He went up on the mountainside by Himself to pray. When evening came, He was there alone, ²⁴ but the boat was already a considerable distance from land, battered by the waves because the wind was against it. ²⁵ In the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went out to them, walking on the sea. ²⁶

Matthew

When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified, and said, "It is a ghost!" and cried out in fear. ²⁷ But Jesus immediately reassured them, saying, "Take courage! It is I; do not be afraid." ²⁸ Peter replied to Him, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water." ²⁹ And He said, "Come." Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water, and came toward Jesus. ³⁰ But when he noticed the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!" ³¹ Jesus immediately reached out His hand and caught him. "You of little faith," He said, "why did you doubt?" ³² When they climbed into the boat, the wind ceased. ³³ Then those who were in the boat honoured Him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

³⁴ Once they had crossed over, they arrived at Gennesaret. ³⁵ And when the men of that place recognised Him, they sent word to all the surrounding region and brought to Him all who were sick; ³⁶ and they begged Him to let the sick just touch the edge of His cloak, and all who touched it were healed.

15 Then some Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem and asked, ² "Why do your disciples disregard the tradition of the elders? They do not wash their hands before they eat." ³ Jesus replied, "And why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? ⁴ For God said, 'Honour your father and mother,' and, 'Anyone who speaks evil of their father or mother must be put to death.' ⁵ But you say that if anyone declares to their father or mother, 'Whatever help you might have received from me is a gift to God,' ⁶ they are not to fulfill their duty to their father or mother with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition. ⁷ You pretenders! Isaiah was correct when he prophesied about you:

⁸ 'These people honour me with their lips, but their hearts are distant from me. ⁹ Their worship is in vain; their teachings are nothing more than a man's instructions.'

¹⁰ Jesus gathered the crowd and said, "Listen and understand. ¹¹ It is not what enters the mouth that defiles a person, but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles them."

¹² Then the disciples came to him and said, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?" ¹³ He replied, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. ¹⁴ Let them be; they are blind guides. If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit."

¹⁵ Peter said, "Help us understand the parable." ¹⁶ "Are you still lacking in understanding?" Jesus asked them. ¹⁷ "Do you not see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then is eliminated? ¹⁸ But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and these defile a person. ¹⁹ For out of the heart come evil thoughts—acts of murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander. ²⁰ These are what truly defile a person; however, eating with unwashed hands does not make them unclean."

²¹ Jesus left that place and withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. ²² A Canaanite woman from that region came to him, crying out, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on me! My daughter is severely demon-possessed." ²³ But Jesus did not answer her a word. So his disciples came to him and urged him, "Send her away, for she keeps crying out after us." ²⁴ He responded, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of Israel." ²⁵ The woman came and bowed before him. "Lord, help me!" she said. ²⁶ He replied, "It is not right to take the children's bread and give it to the dogs." ²⁷ "Yes, Lord," she said, "but even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table." ²⁸ Then Jesus said to her, "Woman, your faith is great! Your request is granted." And her daughter was healed at that moment.

²⁹ Jesus departed from there and travelled along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up on a mountainside and sat down. ³⁰ Large crowds came to him, bringing the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute, and many others, and laid them at his feet; and he healed them. ³¹ The people were amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled made well, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.

³² Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "I have compassion for these people; they have already been with me three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry, or they may faint on the way." ³³ His disciples answered, "Where could we get enough bread in this desolate place to feed such a crowd?" ³⁴ "What quantity of loaves do you have?" Jesus asked. "Seven," they replied, "and a few small fish." ³⁵ He directed the crowd to be seated on the ground. ³⁶ Then he took the seven loaves and the fish, and after giving thanks, he broke them and gave them to the disciples, and they in turn to the people. ³⁷ Everyone ate and was satisfied. Afterward, the disciples collected seven basketfuls of leftover pieces. ³⁸ Those who ate numbered four thousand men, along with women and children. ³⁹ After sending the crowds away, Jesus got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

Matthew

16 The Pharisees and Sadducees approached Jesus, testing Him by requesting a sign from heaven. ² He responded, "In the evening you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red,' ³ and in the morning, 'Today it will be stormy, for the sky is red and threatening.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but can you not discern the signs of the times? ⁴ A wicked and adulterous generation seeks a sign, but none shall be given except the sign of Jonah." And He left them and went away.

⁵ As the disciples went across to the other side of the sea, they realised they had forgotten to bring bread. ⁶ Jesus cautioned them, "Be careful and stay alert against the influence of the Pharisees and Sadducees." ⁷ They discussed this among themselves, saying, "It is because we did not bring any bread." ⁸ Aware of their discussion, Jesus said, "You of little faith, why are you talking among yourselves about having no bread? ⁹ Do you not yet understand? Do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you collected? ¹⁰ Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many large baskets you gathered? ¹¹ How is it that you do not understand that I was not speaking to you about bread? But be on your guard against the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." ¹² Then they understood that He was not telling them to beware of the leaven used in bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

¹³ When Jesus arrived in the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?" ¹⁴ They answered, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets." ¹⁵ He said to them, "But what about you? Who do you say I am?" ¹⁶

Simon Peter replied, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." ¹⁷ Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by human means, but by My Father in heaven. ¹⁸ And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. ¹⁹ I will entrust you with the authority of the kingdom of heaven; what you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and what you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." ²⁰ Then He ordered His disciples not to tell anyone that He was the Christ.

²¹ From that time on, Jesus began to explain to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and that He must be killed and on the third day be raised to life. ²² Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. "God forbid it, Lord!" he said. "This shall never happen to You!" ²³ But Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; you do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns."

²⁴ Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone wants to follow Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me. ²⁵ For whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever gives up his life for My sake will discover it. ²⁶ What good will it be for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? Or what can anyone give in exchange for his soul? ²⁷ For the Son of Man is going to come in His Father's glory with His angels, and then He will reward each person according to their deeds. ²⁸ "Truly I tell you, some who are standing here will not experience death before they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

17 After six days, Jesus took Peter, James, and John the brother of James, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. ² He was transfigured before them; His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as light. ³ Suddenly, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with Jesus. ⁴ Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will set up three shelters: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." ⁵ While he was still speaking, a bright cloud enveloped them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to Him!" ⁶ Upon hearing this, the disciples were so afraid that they fell to the ground. ⁷ Then Jesus approached them, touched them, and said, "Rise, and do not be afraid." ⁸ When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus Himself.

Matthew

⁹ As they were descending the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Do not tell anyone about the vision until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

¹⁰ The disciples asked Him, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?" ¹¹ Jesus replied, "Indeed, Elijah is coming and will restore all things."

¹² But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they did not recognise him, but did to him whatever they wished. In the same way, the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands." ¹³ Then the disciples realised He was speaking to them about John the Baptist.

¹⁴ When they reached the crowd, a man approached Jesus, kneeling before Him. ¹⁵ "Lord, have mercy on my son," he said. "He has seizures and suffers terribly; he often falls into the fire or into the water."

¹⁶ I brought him to your disciples, but they were unable to heal him." ¹⁷ Jesus answered, "You unbelieving and perverse generation, how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring the boy here to Me." ¹⁸ Jesus commanded the demon to leave, and it departed from the boy, who was healed instantly.

¹⁹ Later, the disciples approached Jesus in private and asked, "Why were we unable to drive it out?" ²⁰ He said to them, "Because of your little faith. Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; nothing will be impossible for you." ²¹ [This kind can only be driven out by prayer and fasting.]

²² While they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men; ²³ They will put Him to death, and on the third day He will rise again." And the disciples were deeply saddened.

²⁴ When they arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the two-drachma temple tax came to Peter and asked, "Does your teacher not pay the temple tax?"

²⁵ "Yes, He does," Peter replied. When he entered the house, Jesus spoke first, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth collect duties and taxes—from their own children or from others?" ²⁶ Peter answered, "From others." Jesus said to him, "Then the children are exempt. ²⁷ But so that we may not cause offence, go to the sea and cast a line. Take the first fish you catch; open its mouth and you will find a four-drachma coin. Take it and give it to them for my tax and yours."

18 At that time, the disciples approached Jesus and asked, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" ² He called a child to Himself and placed the child among them. ³ And He said, "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Therefore, whoever humbles themselves like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. ⁵ And whoever receives a child like this in My name, receives Me. ⁶ But if anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for them to have a heavy millstone hung around their neck and be drowned in the depths of the sea.

⁷ "Woe to the world because of the things that cause people to stumble! Such things are bound to come, but woe to the person through whom they come! ⁸ If your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life maimed or crippled than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire. ⁹ And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.

¹⁰ "Be careful not to look down on one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of My Father in heaven. ¹¹ [For the Son of Man has come to save the lost.] ¹² "What do you think? If a man owns a hundred sheep and one of them goes astray, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go to look for the one that is lost? ¹³ And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices over that one sheep more than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray. ¹⁴ In the same way, it is not the will of your Father in heaven that any of these little ones should perish.

¹⁵ "If your brother or sister sins, go and show them their fault in private; if they listen to you, you have won them over. ¹⁶ But if they do not listen, take one or two others along, so that every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses. ¹⁷ If they refuse to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if they refuse to listen even to the church, treat them as you would a Gentile or a tax collector. ¹⁸ "Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound for you in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed for you in heaven. ¹⁹ "Furthermore, truly I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything they ask for, it will be granted to them by My Father in heaven. ²⁰ For where two or three gather in My name, I am there with them."

Matthew

²¹ Then Peter approached Jesus and asked, "Lord, how many times should I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? Up to seven times?" ²² Jesus replied, "I tell you, not just seven times, but seventy-seven times."

²³ "For this reason, the kingdom of heaven is like a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. ²⁴ As he began the settlement, a man who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him.

²⁵ Since he was unable to pay, the master ordered that he, his wife, his children, and all he had be sold to repay the debt. ²⁶ The servant fell to his knees before him. 'Please be patient with me,' he pleaded, 'and I will repay everything.' ²⁷ The master of that servant took pity on him, cancelled the debt and let him go. ²⁸ But when that servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii. He seized him and began to choke him. 'Pay back what you owe me!' he demanded. ²⁹ His fellow servant fell to his knees and pleaded with him, 'Please be patient with me, and I will repay it.' ³⁰ But he refused. Instead, he went off and had the man thrown into prison until he could settle the debt. ³¹ When the other servants saw what had occurred, they were outraged and went and informed their master of everything that had taken place. ³² Then the master called the servant in. 'You wicked servant,' he said, 'I cancelled all that debt of yours because you pleaded with me. ³³ Shouldn't you have shown mercy to your fellow servant just as I showed to you?' ³⁴ In his anger, the master handed him over to the jailers to be tortured until he could repay all he owed. ³⁵ "In the same way, My heavenly Father will deal with each of you unless you forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

great number of people followed him, and he gave healing to them there.

³ Some Pharisees approached him, testing him and asking, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?" ⁴ He answered, "Have you not read that at the beginning the Creator made them male and female, ⁵ and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? ⁶ Thus, they are no longer two, but now one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined, let no one divide." ⁷ They asked him, "Why then did Moses command that a man give his wife a certificate of divorce and send her away?" ⁸ He replied, "Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of your hardness of heart, but it was not this way from the beginning. ⁹ I say to you, anyone who divorces his wife, except for unfaithfulness, and marries another, commits adultery."

¹⁰ The disciples said to him, "If this is the situation between a man and his wife, it is better not to marry." ¹¹ He said to them, "Not everyone can accept this word, but only those to whom it has been given. ¹² For there are eunuchs who were born that way, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by others, and there are those who choose to live like eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let anyone accept this who can."

¹³ Then children were brought to him for him to place his hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴ Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." ¹⁵ After placing his hands on them, he departed from there.

¹⁶ And someone came to him and asked, "Teacher, what good thing must I do to obtain eternal life?" ¹⁷ He replied, "Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only One who is good. If you want to enter life, keep the commandments." ¹⁸ "Which ones?" he inquired. Jesus answered, "You shall not murder, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not steal, you shall not give false testimony, ¹⁹ respect your father and mother, and care for your neighbour as yourself." ²⁰ The young man said to him, "I have observed all these. What do I still lack?" ²¹ Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have

19 When Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee and went into the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. ² A treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”²² When the young man heard this, he went away grieving, for he had great wealth.

Matthew

²³ Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Truly I tell you, it is hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven.”²⁴ Moreover, it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”²⁵ When the disciples heard this, they were utterly amazed and asked, “Who then can be saved?”²⁶ Jesus looked at them and said, “For humans this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

²⁷ Peter responded, “We have left everything to follow you! What then will there be for us?”²⁸ Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, in the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, governing the twelve tribes of Israel.

²⁹ And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields for my sake will receive many times as much and will inherit eternal life.”³⁰ Many who are first will become last, and many who are last will become first.

20 “For the kingdom of heaven can be compared to a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.² After agreeing with the labourers for a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard.³ Around the third hour he went out and saw others standing idle in the marketplace.⁴ He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ So they went.⁵ He went out again about the sixth and the ninth hour and did the same.⁶ And around the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing around. He asked them, ‘Why have you been standing here idle all day?’⁷ They replied, ‘Because no one has hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard.’

⁸ When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the labourers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last and ending with the first.’⁹ The workers who were hired about the eleventh hour came and each received a denarius.¹⁰ When those hired first came, they expected to receive more, but each of them also received a denarius.¹¹ Upon receiving it, they began to grumble against the landowner.¹² They said, ‘These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.’¹³ But he replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I am not being unfair to you. Did you not agree with me for a denarius?’¹⁴ Take what is yours and go. I wish to give to this last one the same as I gave to you.¹⁵ Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with my own money? Or is your eye envious because I am generous?’¹⁶ In this way, those who are last will be first, and those who are first will be last.”

¹⁷ As Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside and said to them,¹⁸ “We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death.¹⁹ They will hand him over to the Gentiles to mock, flog, and crucify him, and on the third day he will be raised to life.”

²⁰ Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee approached Jesus with her sons, kneeling down and making a request of him.²¹ He asked her, “What do you wish?” She replied, “Grant that these two sons of mine may sit, one at your right and one at your left, in your kingdom.”²² Jesus responded, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?” They said to him, “We are able.”²³ He said to them, “You will indeed drink from my cup, but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places are for those for whom they have been prepared by my Father.”²⁴ When the ten heard about this, they were upset with the two brothers.²⁵ Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles domineer over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them.²⁶ It shall not be so among you. Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant,²⁷ and whoever wants to be first must be your servant—²⁸ for the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to offer his life as a ransom for many.”

²⁹ As they departed from Jericho, a large crowd accompanied him.³⁰ Two blind men were sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”³¹ The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the more, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”³² Jesus stopped and called them over. “What do you want me to do for you?" he asked. ³³ They said to him, "Lord, we want our sight." ³⁴ Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes, and immediately they received their sight and followed him.

Matthew

21 As they neared Jerusalem and arrived at Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, ² instructing them, "Go into the village in front of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, with a colt beside her. Untie them and bring them to me. ³ If anyone questions you, say, 'The Lord requires them,' and he will send them without delay." ⁴ This happened to fulfil what was spoken through the prophet: ⁵ "Tell the daughter of Zion, 'Behold, your king comes to you, gentle and mounted on a donkey, even on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'" ⁶ The disciples went and did just as Jesus had directed them. ⁷ They brought the donkey and the colt and placed their cloaks on them, and Jesus sat on them. ⁸ A large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and laid them on the road. ⁹ The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed were shouting, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!" ¹⁰ When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the entire city was stirred, asking, "Who is this?" ¹¹ The crowds replied, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee."

¹² Jesus entered the temple courts and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling doves. ¹³ And he told them, "It is written: 'My house will be called a house of prayer,' but you have made it a 'den of robbers.'" ¹⁴ Those who were blind and those who were lame approached him in the temple, and he healed them. ¹⁵ But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things he did, and the children shouting in the temple courts, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they became indignant. ¹⁶ "Do you hear what these children are saying?" they asked him. "Yes," replied Jesus, "have you never read, 'From the mouths of infants and nursing babies you have prepared praise for yourself?'" ¹⁷ Afterwards, he departed from them and went out of the city to Bethany, where he stayed overnight.

¹⁸ Early in the morning, as Jesus was returning to the city, he became hungry. ¹⁹ Seeing a fig tree by the road, he approached it but found nothing on it except leaves. He said to it, "May you never bear fruit again!" Immediately the tree withered. ²⁰ When the disciples saw this, they were amazed and asked, "How did the fig tree wither so quickly?" ²¹ Jesus answered, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and cast into the sea,' it will happen. ²² And whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

²³ When Jesus entered the temple courts, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching and asked, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?" ²⁴ Jesus replied, "I will also ask you one question. If you answer me, I will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵ The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from men?" They discussed it among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask, 'Then why did you not believe him?'" ²⁶ But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the people, for they all consider John a prophet." ²⁷ So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." Then he said, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

²⁸ "What do you think? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work today in the vineyard.' ²⁹ 'I will not,' he answered, but afterward he reconsidered and went. ³⁰ The father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered, 'I will, sir,' but he did not go. ³¹ Which of the two did what his father wanted?" "The first," they answered. Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. ³² For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes did. And even after seeing this, you did not change your minds and believe him."

³³ "Listen to another parable: There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and went on a journey. ³⁴ When the time for harvest approached, he sent his servants to the tenants to gather his share of the produce. ³⁵ The tenants seized his servants; they mistreated one, killed another, and stoned a third. ³⁶ He sent other servants, more than the first time, and the tenants treated them the same way. ³⁷ Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will show respect to my son.' ³⁸ But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.' ³⁹ So they took him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. ⁴⁰ So, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" ⁴¹ They answered, "He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants, who will give him his share of the crop at harvest time." ⁴² Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures: 'The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; the Lord has done this, and it is wonderful in our eyes'? ⁴³ Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will yield its produce. ⁴⁴ Anyone who stumbles over this stone will be broken, and anyone it falls upon will be crushed." ⁴⁵ When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard Jesus' parables, they realised he was speaking about them. ⁴⁶ They looked for a way to arrest him, but they were afraid of the crowds, because the people regarded him as a prophet.

Matthew

22 Jesus addressed them once more using parables, saying: ² "The kingdom of heaven is like a king who arranged a wedding feast for his son. ³ He sent his servants to call those who had been invited to the banquet, but they were unwilling to come. ⁴ Once more he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those who have been invited: Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fattened cattle are butchered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast.' ⁵ But they paid no attention and went away, one to his field, another to his business. ⁶ The others seized his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. ⁷ The king was furious. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. ⁸ Then he informed his servants, 'The wedding feast is prepared, but those who were invited did not deserve it. ⁹ Go therefore to the main roads and invite to the feast as many as you find.' ¹⁰ So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, both bad and good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹ However, when the king entered to see the guests, he observed a man there who was not dressed in wedding attire. ¹² He asked, 'Friend, how did you get in here without wedding clothes?' The man was speechless. ¹³ Then the king told the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' ¹⁴ For many receive the call, but few are chosen.

¹⁵ Then the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might trap him in his words. ¹⁶ They sent their disciples to him along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful and teach the way of God in truth, and you do not care about anyone's opinion, for you are not swayed by appearances. ¹⁷ Tell us then, what is your opinion? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?" ¹⁸ But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? ¹⁹ Present to me the coin used for the tax." They brought him a denarius, ²⁰ and he asked them, "Whose image and inscription is this?" ²¹ "Caesar's," they replied. Then he said to them, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." ²² Upon hearing this, they were astonished, and they left him and went away.

²³ On that same day, the Sadducees, who deny the resurrection, approached him with a question. ²⁴ "Teacher," they said, "Moses said, 'If a man dies without having children, his brother must marry the widow and raise up offspring for him.' ²⁵ Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died, and having no children, left his wife to his brother. ²⁶ The same happened with the second and third brother, down to the seventh. ²⁷ Eventually, the woman died. ²⁸ In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven, since all of them were married to her?" ²⁹ Jesus replied, "You are mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures nor the power of God. ³⁰ For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like the angels in heaven. ³¹ But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what God said to you, ³² 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is the God of the living, not the dead." ³³ The crowds heard this and were amazed at his teaching.

Matthew

³⁴ When the Pharisees learned that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together. ³⁵ One of them, a scholar of the law, tested him with this question: ³⁶ “Teacher, which commandment is the greatest in the Law?” ³⁷ Jesus replied, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.” ³⁸ This is the foremost and greatest commandment. ³⁹ And the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbour as yourself.’ ⁴⁰ These two commandments are the foundation of all the Law and the Prophets.”

⁴¹ As the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, ⁴² “What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?” They replied, “The son of David.” ⁴³ He said to them, “Then how is it that David, inspired by the Spirit, calls him ‘Lord’? For he says,

⁴⁴ ‘The Lord said to my Lord: “Sit by my right hand until I place your enemies under your feet.”’

⁴⁵ If David calls him ‘Lord,’ in what way can he be his son?” ⁴⁶ No one could respond with a word, and from that day on no one dared to question him further.

23 Then Jesus addressed the crowds and his disciples, ² saying: “The scribes and the Pharisees have taken their seat in Moses’ chair. ³ Therefore, do and observe everything they tell you, but do not follow their example, for they do not practise what they preach. ⁴ They bundle up heavy burdens and lay them on people’s shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them. ⁵ All their actions are done to be seen by others: they make their phylacteries broad and the tassels on their garments long; ⁶ they delight in the places of distinction at banquets and the best seats in the synagogues; ⁷ they enjoy greetings in the marketplaces and being called ‘Rabbi’ by others. ⁸ But you are not to be called ‘Rabbi,’ for you have one Teacher, and you are all siblings. ⁹ And do not call anyone on earth ‘father,’ for you have one Father, who is in heaven. ¹⁰ Nor are you to be called leaders, for you have one Leader, the Christ. ¹¹ The one who is greatest among you shall be your servant. ¹² For whoever exalts themselves will be humbled, and whoever humbles themselves will be exalted.

¹³ “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You shut the door of the kingdom of heaven in people’s faces. You do not enter yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in. ¹⁴ [14] ¹⁵ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to make a single convert, and when they become one, you make them twice as much a child of hell as you are. ¹⁶ “Woe to you, blind guides! You say, ‘If anyone swears by the temple, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, they are bound by that oath.’ ¹⁷ You blind fools! Which is more important: the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold? ¹⁸ And you say, ‘If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gift on the altar, they are bound by that oath.’ ¹⁹ You blind men! Which is more important: the gift, or the altar that makes the gift sacred? ²⁰ Therefore, anyone who swears by the altar is swearing by it and by everything on it. ²¹ And anyone who swears by the temple swears by it and by him who dwells in it. ²² And anyone who swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by him who sits upon it.

²³ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You give a tenth of your spices—mint, dill, and cumin. But you have neglected the weightier matters of the law—justice, mercy, and faithfulness. You should have practised these, without neglecting the others. ²⁴ You blind guides! You filter out a gnat while you swallow a camel. ²⁵ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. ²⁶ Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside will also be clean. ²⁷ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of the bones of the dead and all uncleanness. ²⁸ In the same way, on the outside you appear to people as righteous but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. ²⁹ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You build the tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous. ³⁰ And you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have been partners with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’ ³¹ In saying this, you acknowledge that you are descendants of those who murdered the prophets. ³² So then, fulfill what your ancestors began! ³³ You serpents! You brood of vipers! How will you escape being sentenced to hell? ³⁴ Therefore, I am sending you prophets, sages, and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify; others you will flog in your synagogues and persecute from town to town. ³⁵ And so upon you will come all the righteous blood that has been shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berekiah, whom you killed between the temple and the altar. ³⁶ Truly, I tell you, all this will fall upon this generation.

Matthew

³⁷ “Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have desired to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing. ³⁸ Behold, your house is left to you desolate. ³⁹ For I tell you, you will only see me again when you proclaim, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.’”

24 Jesus departed from the temple and was on His way when His disciples approached to point out the temple buildings to Him. ² He replied to them, “Do you see all these things? Truly I tell you, not one stone here will be left upon another; every one will be thrown down.”

³ As He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, asking, “Tell us, when will these things happen, and what will be the sign of Your coming and of the end of the age?” ⁴ Jesus answered them, “Be careful that no one deceives you. ⁵ For many will come in My name, asserting, ‘I am the Messiah,’ and will deceive many. ⁶ You will hear of wars and rumours of wars; see that you are not alarmed. Such things must occur, but the end is not yet. ⁷ Nations will rise against each other, and kingdoms will clash. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. ⁸ All these are merely the beginning of birth pains.

⁹ “Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and killed, and you will be hated by all nations because of My name. ¹⁰ At that time many will fall away from the faith and will betray and hate one another, ¹¹ and many false prophets will arise and deceive many. ¹² Because of the increase of lawlessness, the love of most will grow cold, ¹³ but whoever endures to the end will find salvation. ¹⁴ And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

¹⁵ “So when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of through the prophet Daniel, standing in the holy place—let the reader understand— ¹⁶ at that time those who are in Judea should escape to the mountains. ¹⁷ Those on the housetop should not go down to take anything out of the house. ¹⁸ Those in the field should not go back to get their cloak. ¹⁹ It will be distressing in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers! ²⁰ Pray that your flight will not take place in winter or on a Sabbath. ²¹ For then there will be great tribulation, unequalled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equalled again. ²² If those days had not been shortened, no one would survive, but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened.

²³ At that moment, if anyone claims, ‘Look, here is the Messiah!’ or, ‘There He is!’ do not believe it. ²⁴ For impostors claiming to be the Messiah and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. ²⁵ Remember, I have told you beforehand. ²⁶ Therefore, if anyone tells you, ‘He is in the wilderness,’ do not go out; or, ‘He is in the inner rooms,’ do not believe it. ²⁷ For just as lightning comes from the east and is visible even in the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ²⁸ Wherever there is a corpse, there the vultures will gather.

²⁹ “Immediately after the tribulation of those days

‘the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly bodies will be shaken.’

³⁰ Then will appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven. Then all the peoples of the earth will mourn when they see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. ³¹ And He will send His angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather His chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

³² “Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its branch becomes tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. ³³ In the same way, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door. ³⁴ Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have occurred. ³⁵ Heaven and earth will pass away, yet My words will never pass away.

Matthew

³⁶ “But concerning that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. ³⁷ Just as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸ For in the days leading up to the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark; ³⁹ and they were unaware of what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰ Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left behind. ⁴¹ Two women will be grinding with a hand mill; one will be taken and the other left behind.

⁴² “Therefore remain vigilant, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come. ⁴³ But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and not allowed his house to be broken into. ⁴⁴ So you also must be prepared, because the Son of Man will arrive at an hour when you do not expect Him.

⁴⁵ “Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to provide them their food at the proper time? ⁴⁶ Blessed is that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns. ⁴⁷ Truly I tell you, he will appoint him over all his possessions. ⁴⁸ But suppose that servant is wicked and says to himself, ‘My master is delayed,’ ⁴⁹ and he then begins to mistreat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards. ⁵⁰ The master of that servant will arrive on a day when he is not expected and at an hour of which he is unaware. ⁵¹ He will punish him severely and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25 “At that time, the kingdom of heaven will be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. ² Five of them acted unwisely, and five acted wisely. ³ The foolish ones took their lamps but did not bring any additional oil with them. ⁴ The wise ones, however, took oil in flasks along with their lamps. ⁵ The bridegroom was delayed, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep. ⁶ At midnight there was a shout: ‘Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’ ⁷ Then all the virgins rose and prepared their lamps. ⁸ The foolish ones said to the wise, ‘Share some of your oil with us, for our lamps are going out.’

⁹ But the wise replied, ‘No, there might not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.’ ¹⁰ While they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet, and the door was shut. ¹¹ Later, the other virgins also came, saying, ‘Lord, Lord, open the door for us.’ ¹² But he replied, ‘Truly, I tell you, I do not recognise you.’ ¹³ Therefore, stay alert, because you do not know the day or the hour.

¹⁴ “For it is like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his wealth to them. ¹⁵ To one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey. ¹⁶ The one who had received five talents went at once and traded with them, and gained five more. ¹⁷ In the same way, the one with two talents gained two more. ¹⁸ But the one who had received one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master’s money. ¹⁹ After a significant period, the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. ²⁰ The one who had received five talents came forward, bringing five more, saying, ‘Master, you entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more.’ ²¹ His master replied, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Enter into the joy of your master.’ ²² The one with two talents also came forward and said, ‘Master, you entrusted me with two talents; see, I have gained two more.’ ²³ His master replied, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Enter into the joy of your master.’ ²⁴ Then the one who had received one talent also came forward and said, ‘Master, I knew that you are a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. ²⁵ So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.’ ²⁶ His master replied, ‘You wicked, lazy servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? ²⁷ Then you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned, I would have received it back with interest. ²⁸ Therefore, take the talent from him and give it to the one who has ten talents. ²⁹ For whoever possesses will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not possess, even what they have will be taken from them. ³⁰ And cast that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

Matthew

³¹ When the Son of Man arrives in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his majestic throne. ³² All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd divides the sheep from the goats. ³³ He will place the sheep on his right side and the goats on his left. ³⁴ Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father; inherit the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. ³⁵ For when I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, when I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, and when I was a stranger and you welcomed me, ³⁶ I needed clothes and you provided for me, I was sick and you cared for me, I was in prison and you visited me.' ³⁷ Yet the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? ³⁸ When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or lacking clothes and provide for you? ³⁹ When did we see you unwell or in prison and visit you?' ⁴⁰ The King will reply, 'Truly I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.' ⁴¹ Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you who are accursed, and enter the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels. ⁴² For when I was hungry you gave me nothing to eat, when I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, ⁴³ When I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, when I needed clothes and you did not provide for me, when I was sick and in prison and you did not care for me.' ⁴⁴ They also will answer, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or lacking clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?' ⁴⁵ He will reply, 'Truly I say to you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.' ⁴⁶ Then they will go away to everlasting punishment, but the righteous to everlasting life."

26 When Jesus had finished all these sayings, he spoke to his disciples, ² "You know that in two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified."

³ At that time, the chief priests and the elders of the people gathered in the courtyard of the high priest, named Caiaphas, ⁴ and they plotted together to arrest Jesus secretly and put him to death. ⁵ But they said, "Not during the festival, otherwise there might be a riot among the people."

⁶ While Jesus was in Bethany, at the home of Simon, known as the leper, ⁷ a woman approached him with an alabaster jar of very costly perfume, and she poured it on his head as he reclined at the table. ⁸ When the disciples saw this, they were upset and asked, "Why this waste? ⁹ This perfume could have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor." ¹⁰ But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, "Why are you troubling the woman? She has done a good deed for me. ¹¹ For you will always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me. ¹² By pouring this perfume on my body, she has done it in preparation for my burial. ¹³ Truly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is proclaimed throughout the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

¹⁴ Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests ¹⁵ and said, "What are you willing to give me to betray him to you?" And they counted out thirty pieces of silver for him. ¹⁶ From that moment, he sought a good opportunity to betray Jesus.

¹⁷ On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?" ¹⁸ He instructed them, "Go into the city and find a certain man. Tell him, 'The Teacher says: My time is near; I am to share the Passover at your house with my disciples.'" ¹⁹ The disciples did as Jesus had instructed them and prepared the Passover.

²⁰ When evening arrived, Jesus was at the table with the twelve disciples. ²¹ And during the meal, he said, "Truly, I tell you, one of you will betray me." ²² They were deeply grieved and began to say to him, one after another, "Surely it is not I, Lord?" ²³ He answered, "He who has dipped his hand with me in the bowl is the one who will betray me. ²⁴ The Son of Man is going just as it is written about him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for him if he had not been born." ²⁵ Judas, who was betraying him, said, "Surely it is not I, Rabbi?" Jesus said to him, "You have said it yourself."

Matthew

²⁶ While they were eating, Jesus took some bread, and after blessing it, he broke it and gave it to the disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my body." ²⁷ And he took a cup, and after giving thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; ²⁸ for this represents my blood of the covenant, which is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins. ²⁹ But I tell you, I will not drink from this fruit of the vine again until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father's kingdom." ³⁰ After they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

³¹ Then Jesus said to them, "This night you will all fall away because of me, for it is written:

'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

³² However, once I have risen, I will go ahead of you to Galilee." ³³ Peter replied to him, "Even if all fall away because of you, I will never fall away!" ³⁴ Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." ³⁵ Peter said to him, "Even if I have to die with you, I will not deny you!" All the disciples said the same thing.

³⁶ Then Jesus arrived with them at a place called Gethsemane, and told his disciples, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." ³⁷ He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee with him, and began to be sorrowful and troubled. ³⁸ Then he said to them, "My soul is deeply grieved, to the point of death; stay here and keep watch with me." ³⁹ He went a little farther, fell on his face, and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet not as I will, but as you will." ⁴⁰ He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "So, you could not keep watch with me for one hour? ⁴¹ Keep watching and praying, so that you do not fall into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." ⁴² He went away again a second time and prayed, "My Father, if this cup cannot pass away unless I drink it, your will be done." ⁴³ Once more, he returned and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. ⁴⁴ He left them again, went away, and prayed a third time, saying the same thing once more. ⁴⁵ Then he returned to the disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶ Get up, let us go; see, the one who is betraying me is near!"

⁴⁷ While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived, accompanied by a large crowd with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people. ⁴⁸ Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "The one I kiss is the man; arrest him." ⁴⁹ Immediately Judas went up to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed him. ⁵⁰ Jesus said to him, "Friend, do what you have come for." Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and arrested him. ⁵¹ And behold, one of those with Jesus reached for his sword, drew it, and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear. ⁵² Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back in its place; for all who take up the sword will perish by the sword. ⁵³ Do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father, and he will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels? ⁵⁴ If it were not so, how would the Scriptures be fulfilled, which say that it must happen this way?" ⁵⁵ At that time Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me as if I were leading a rebellion? Every day I sat in the temple courts teaching, and you did not arrest me. ⁵⁶ But all this has occurred so that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples left him and fled.

⁵⁷ Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. ⁵⁸ But Peter followed him at a distance, right up to the courtyard of the high priest, and went inside and sat down with the guards to see the outcome. ⁵⁹ The chief priests and the whole council were seeking false testimony against Jesus so that they could put him to death. ⁶⁰ They did not find any, even though many false witnesses came forward. Finally, two came forward ⁶¹ and declared, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.'" ⁶² The high priest stood up and said to Jesus, "Do you not answer? What is it that these men are testifying against you?" ⁶³ But Jesus remained silent. The high priest said to him, "I charge you under oath by the living God, to tell us whether you are the Messiah, the Son of God." ⁶⁴ Jesus said to him, "You have said it yourself. But I say to all of you: From now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of heaven." ⁶⁵ Then the high priest tore his robes and said, "He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy;" ⁶⁶ what do you think?" They answered, "He is worthy of death!" ⁶⁷ Then they spat in his face, struck him with their fists, and others slapped him ⁶⁸ and said, "Prophecy to us, Messiah; who is the one who hit you?"

Matthew

⁶⁹ Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant girl came to him and said, "You also were with Jesus the Galilean." ⁷⁰ But he denied it in front of everyone, saying, "I do not know what you mean." ⁷¹ When he had gone out to the gateway, another servant girl saw him and said to those there, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth." ⁷² And once more he denied it, swearing: "I do not know the man." ⁷³ A little later, the bystanders came up and said to Peter, "Surely you are one of them; your accent gives you away." ⁷⁴ Then he began to curse and swear, "I do not know the man!" Immediately a rooster crowed. ⁷⁵ And Peter recalled the words Jesus had spoken: "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." And he went outside and wept bitterly.

27 When morning arrived, all the chief priests and the elders of the people gathered to plan against Jesus to have Him put to death. ² They tied Him with bonds, took Him away, and delivered Him to Pilate, the governor.

³ Judas, who had betrayed Him, saw that Jesus was condemned and was filled with remorse. He returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders. ⁴ He said, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." They replied, "What is that to us? That is your responsibility." ⁵ Judas threw the silver into the temple and left. He then went away and hanged himself. ⁶ The chief priests collected the silver and said, "It is not lawful to put it into the treasury, as it is blood money." ⁷ They decided to use the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for foreigners. ⁸ Therefore, that field has been known as the Field of Blood to this day. ⁹ Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: "They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price set on Him by the sons of Israel, ¹⁰ and they used them to buy the potter's field, as the Lord directed me."

¹¹ Jesus stood before the governor, who asked Him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus replied, "You say so." ¹² When accused by the chief priests and elders, He gave no answer. ¹³ Then Pilate said to Him, "Do you not hear the many charges they bring against you?" ¹⁴ But Jesus made no reply, not even to a single charge, greatly astonishing the governor.

¹⁵ At the festival, it was the governor's custom to release a prisoner chosen by the crowd. ¹⁶ At that time, they had a notorious prisoner named Barabbas. ¹⁷ When the crowd had gathered, Pilate asked them, "Whom do you want me to release to you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called the Messiah?" ¹⁸ He knew it was out of envy that they had handed Jesus over to him. ¹⁹ While Pilate was sitting on the judgement seat, his wife sent him a message: "Do not have anything to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered greatly today in a dream because of Him." ²⁰ However, the chief priests and the elders convinced the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to demand Jesus' execution. ²¹ The governor asked, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They replied, "Barabbas." ²² Pilate asked, "What shall I do then with Jesus who is called the Messiah?" They all answered, "Crucify Him!" ²³ "Why, what crime has He committed?" asked Pilate. But they shouted even louder, "Crucify Him!" ²⁴ When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that a riot was beginning, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of this man's blood. It is your responsibility!" ²⁵ All the people answered, "Let His blood be on us and on our children!" ²⁶ Then he released Barabbas to them. He had Jesus scourged and handed Him over to be crucified.

²⁷ The governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole company of soldiers around Him. ²⁸ They stripped His garments and placed a scarlet robe upon Him. ²⁹ They twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on His head. They put a staff in His right hand and knelt in front of Him, mocking Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" ³⁰ They spat on Him and took the staff, striking Him on the head repeatedly. ³¹ After mocking Him, they took off the robe and put His own clothes on Him. Then they led Him away to be crucified.

³² As they were going out, they found a man from Cyrene named Simon, whom they forced to carry the cross. ³³ They arrived at a place called Golgotha, which is translated as "The Place of the Skull." ³⁴ There they offered Jesus wine mixed with gall to drink; but after tasting it, He refused to drink it. ³⁵ After they had crucified Him, they divided His clothes by casting lots. ³⁶ And sitting down, they kept watch over Him. ³⁷ Above Him, they placed the written accusation: THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

Matthew

³⁸ Two criminals were crucified with Him, one on His right and one on His left. ³⁹ Those who passed by insulted Him, shaking their heads ⁴⁰ and saying, "You who claim to destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross!" ⁴¹ In the same way, the chief priests, along with the scribes and elders, mocked Him. ⁴² "He saved others," they said, "but He cannot save Himself! He is the King of Israel; let Him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in Him." ⁴³ He trusts in God; let God rescue Him now if He takes pleasure in Him, for He said, 'I am the Son of God.'" ⁴⁴ In the same way, the criminals who were crucified with Him also insulted Him.

⁴⁵ From noon until three in the afternoon, darkness covered all the land. ⁴⁶ Around three in the afternoon, Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" ⁴⁷ When some of those standing there heard this, they said, "He is calling Elijah." ⁴⁸ Immediately, one of them ran and got a sponge, filled it with wine vinegar, put it on a staff, and offered it to Jesus to drink. ⁴⁹ The rest said, "Leave Him alone. Let us see if Elijah comes to save Him." ⁵⁰ And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, He surrendered His spirit.

⁵¹ At that moment, the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook, and the rocks split. ⁵² The tombs broke open, and the bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life. ⁵³ They emerged from the tombs after Jesus' resurrection and went into the holy city, appearing to many people. ⁵⁴ When the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified and exclaimed, "Truly, He was the Son of God!"

⁵⁵ Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for Him. ⁵⁶ Among their number were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

⁵⁷ As evening approached, a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had become a disciple of Jesus, came. ⁵⁸ He went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him. ⁵⁹ Joseph took possession of the body, wrapping it in a clean linen cloth, ⁶⁰ and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a large stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away. ⁶¹ Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were seated there opposite the tomb.

⁶² The following day, after the Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate. ⁶³ They said, "Sir, we remember that while He was still alive, that deceiver said, 'After three days I will rise again.'" ⁶⁴ So please order the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, His disciples may come and steal the body and tell the people that He has been raised from the dead. This last deception will be worse than the first." ⁶⁵ Pilate said to them, "Take a guard; go, make the tomb as secure as you know how." ⁶⁶ So they went and secured the tomb by putting a seal on the stone and posting the guard.

28 After the Sabbath, as dawn approached on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to view the tomb. ² Behold, a severe earthquake occurred, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, rolled away the stone, and sat upon it. ³ His appearance was dazzling like lightning, and his clothing was as bright as snow. ⁴ The guards were so terrified of him that they trembled and appeared lifeless.

⁵ The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. ⁶ He is not here; He has risen, just as He said. Come, see the place where He lay. ⁷ Then go quickly and tell His disciples, 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him.' Behold, I have told you." ⁸ So they quickly left the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell His disciples.

⁹ Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" They approached Him, took hold of His feet, and worshipped Him. ¹⁰ Jesus reassured them, "Do not be afraid. Go and inform My brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see Me."

Matthew

¹¹ While they were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests all that had happened. ¹² When the chief priests had met with the elders and devised a plan, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, ¹³ instructing them, "You are to say, 'His disciples came during the night and stole Him away while we were asleep.' ¹⁴ If this reaches the governor's ears, we will appease him and keep you out of trouble." ¹⁵ So they took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story has been widely circulated among the Jews to this day.

¹⁶ Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷ When they saw Him, they worshipped Him, though some still doubted. ¹⁸ Then Jesus approached and spoke to them, saying, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. ¹⁹ Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Mark

1 The beginning of the gospel about Jesus Christ, the Son of God, ² as it is written in the prophet Isaiah:

"Behold, I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare Your way; ³ A voice of one calling in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way for the Lord; make straight in the desert a highway for our God'"

⁴ John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁵ The entire Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. Confessing their sins, they were baptised by him in the River Jordan. ⁶ John was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. ⁷ And he proclaimed, "After me comes one more powerful than I, whose sandal straps I am not worthy to stoop down and untie. ⁸ I baptise you with water, but he will immerse you in the Holy Spirit."

⁹ During that time, Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptised by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰ As soon as Jesus came up out of the water, he saw the heavens being opened and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. ¹¹ And a voice from heaven said, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

¹² Immediately the Spirit sent him out into the wilderness, ¹³ and he was in the wilderness for forty days, facing temptations from Satan. He was with the wild animals, and angels attended him.

¹⁴ After John was arrested, Jesus went into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God. ¹⁵ "The time is complete," he said. "The kingdom of God is near. Turn and believe in the gospel!"

¹⁶ As Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁷ "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of people." ¹⁸ Without hesitation, they immediately left their nets and followed him. ¹⁹ When he had gone a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John in a boat, mending their nets. ²⁰ He called them without delay, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed him.

²¹ They went to Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and began to teach. ²² The people were amazed at his teaching, because he taught them as one who had authority, not as the scribes. ²³ Just then a man in their synagogue who was possessed by an unclean spirit cried out, ²⁴ "What do you have to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know you—you are the Holy One of God!" ²⁵ Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet! Come out of him!" ²⁶ The unclean spirit shook the man violently and came out of him with a loud cry. ²⁷ The people were all so amazed that they asked each other, "What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He even commands unclean spirits, and they obey him." ²⁸ Immediately the news about him spread throughout the whole region of Galilee.

²⁹ Upon leaving the synagogue, they went with James and John to the home of Simon and Andrew. ³⁰ Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they promptly informed Jesus about her. ³¹ So he went to her, took her by the hand and helped her up. The fever left her, and she began to wait on them.

³² That evening, after sunset, the people brought to Jesus all who were sick and those possessed by demons. ³³ A large gathering of the town assembled at the door, ³⁴ and Jesus healed many who had various diseases. He also drove out many demons, but he would not let the demons speak because they recognised him.

³⁵ Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went to a solitary place, where he prayed. ³⁶ Simon and his companions went looking for him, ³⁷ and when they found him, they said, "Everyone is searching for you!"

³⁸ Jesus replied, "Let us go to another place—to the nearby villages—so I can preach there also. That is why I have come." ³⁹ So he journeyed throughout Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out demons.

⁴⁰ A man with leprosy approached him and pleaded on his knees, "If you are willing, you can make me clean." ⁴¹ Filled with compassion, Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. "I am willing," he said. "Be clean!" ⁴² At once the leprosy left him, and he was cleansed. ⁴³ Jesus sent him away at once with a stern warning: ⁴⁴ “Ensure that you tell no one about this. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.” ⁴⁵ However, he went out and began to talk freely, spreading the news. As a result, Jesus could no longer enter a town openly but stayed outside in secluded places. Yet the people still came to him from everywhere.

Mark

2 A few days later, when Jesus returned to Capernaum, it was reported that he was at home. ² A large crowd gathered, so much so that there was no room left, not even near the door, and he was speaking the word to them. ³ Some people came, bringing a paralysed man, carried by four of them, to Jesus. ⁴ Since they could not bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him, and after making an opening, they lowered the mat on which the paralysed man was lying. ⁵ When Jesus observed their faith, he said to the paralysed man, “Son, your sins are forgiven.” ⁶ But some of the teachers of the law were sitting there, thinking to themselves, ⁷ “Why does he speak in this manner? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?” ⁸ Immediately Jesus, aware in his spirit that they were thinking this way within themselves, said to them, “Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? ⁹ Which do you think is simpler: to say to this paralysed man, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, take your mat and walk’? ¹⁰ But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he said to the paralysed man, ¹¹ “I say to you, get up, take your mat and go home.” ¹² And he got up, took his mat, and walked out in full view of them all. This amazed everyone, and they praised God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

¹³ Once again Jesus went out by the lakeside. A large crowd came to him, and he began to teach them. ¹⁴ As he passed by, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector’s booth. “Follow me,” Jesus told him, and Levi got up and followed him.

¹⁵ While Jesus was reclining at the table in Levi’s house, many tax collectors and sinners were dining with him and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. ¹⁶ When the teachers of the law who were Pharisees saw him eating with those considered sinners and tax collectors, they asked his disciples, “Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?” ¹⁷ On hearing this, Jesus said to them, “It is not those who are well who need a doctor, but those who are sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

¹⁸ Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. Some people came and asked Jesus, “Why do John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not?” ¹⁹ Jesus answered, “Can the guests of the bridegroom fast while he is with them? As long as they have him with them, they cannot fast. ²⁰ But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and then they will fast on that day. ²¹ “No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. Otherwise, the new piece will pull away from the old, worsening the tear. ²² And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the wineskins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into fresh wineskins.”

²³ And it happened that Jesus was going through the grainfields on the Sabbath, and his disciples began to pick some heads of grain as they walked along. ²⁴ The Pharisees questioned him, Tell us, why are they doing what is considered unlawful on the Sabbath?”

²⁵ He said to them, “Have you never read what David did when he was in need and his companions were hungry; ²⁶ how he entered the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest and ate the consecrated bread, which is lawful only for priests to eat, and he also gave some to his companions?” ²⁷ Finally he replied, “The Sabbath was created for man, not man for the Sabbath. ²⁸ So, the Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath.”

3 Jesus entered the synagogue once more, and there was a man present with a withered hand.

² They were observing Him closely to see if He would heal the man on the Sabbath, intending to accuse Him. ³ Jesus said to the man with the withered hand, “Stand up here in front of everyone.”

⁴ He then asked them, “Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it?” But they remained silent. ⁵ Looking around at them with anger, and grieved by their hard hearts, He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. ⁶ The Pharisees went out and immediately began to conspire with the Herodians against Him, considering how to destroy Him.

Mark

⁷ Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea, and a large crowd from Galilee followed Him. ⁸ When they heard about all He was doing, a great number of people came to Him from Judea, Jerusalem, Idumea, beyond the Jordan, and the vicinity of Tyre and Sidon. ⁹ He told His disciples to have a small boat ready for Him because of the crowd, to prevent them from crushing Him. ¹⁰ For He had healed many, so that those with diseases were pressing forward to touch Him. ¹¹ Whenever the unclean spirits saw Him, they would fall down before Him and exclaim, "You are the Son of God." ¹² But He firmly instructed them not to reveal His identity.

¹³ He went up on a mountainside and called to Him those He wanted, and they came to Him. ¹⁴ He appointed twelve, so that they might be with Him and that He might send them out to preach ¹⁵ and to have full authority to drive out demons. ¹⁶ These are the twelve He chose: Simon (to whom He gave the name Peter), ¹⁷ James, the son of Zebedee, and John, the brother of James (to whom He gave the name Boanerges, meaning "sons of thunder"), ¹⁸ Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James, the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, and Simon the Zealot, ¹⁹ and Judas Iscariot, who would later betray Him.

²⁰ Then He went home, and once again a crowd gathered, so that He and His disciples could not even eat. ²¹ When His family heard about this, they sought to take charge of Him, saying, "He is out of His mind."

²² And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul! By the prince of demons He drives out demons." ²³ So He called them to Himself and began to speak to them in parables: "How can Satan drive out Satan? ²⁴ If any kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵ If a household is divided against itself, that house cannot last. ²⁶ And if Satan is in conflict with himself and is divided, he cannot endure; his end has come. ²⁷ No one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods unless he first binds the strong man. Then he can plunder his house. ²⁸ Truly I tell you, people can be forgiven all their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter, ²⁹

but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven; they are guilty of an unending sin." ³⁰ He said this because they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit."

³¹ Then His mother and His brothers arrived. Standing outside, they sent someone in to call Him.

³² A crowd was sitting around Him, and they said to Him, "Your mother and brothers are outside looking for You." ³³ "Who are considered My mother and My brothers?" He asked. ³⁴ Looking at those seated in a circle around Him, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! ³⁵ Whoever does the will of God is My brother, sister, and mother."

4 Once more, Jesus began to teach by the sea. A very large crowd gathered around Him, so He got into a boat on the sea and sat down, while the entire crowd was on the shore by the water's edge. ² He taught them many things using parables, and in His teaching, He said to them: ³ "Listen! A sower went out to sow his seed. ⁴ As he was sowing, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured it. ⁵ Other seed fell on rocky ground where there was not much soil, and it sprang up quickly because the soil was shallow. ⁶ But when the sun rose, it was scorched, and since it had no root, it withered away. ⁷ Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, so it yielded no crop. ⁸ Still other seed fell on good soil. It grew, increased, and produced a crop, yielding thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold." ⁹ Then He said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let them listen."

¹⁰ When He was alone, those around Him, along with the Twelve, asked Him about the parables. ¹¹ He said to them, "The mystery of the kingdom of God has been given to you, but to those outside, everything is said in parables, ¹² so that,

"they may see but not perceive, and hear but not understand; otherwise they might turn and be forgiven."

¹³ Then He said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand any parable?

¹⁴ The sower spreads the word. ¹⁵ Some are like seed along the path where the word is sown. As soon as they hear it, the adversary comes and takes away the word that was sown in them. ¹⁶ Others, like seed sown on rocky places, hear the word and immediately receive it with joy; ¹⁷ but they have no root in themselves and are short-lived. When trouble or persecution arises because of the word, they quickly fall away. ¹⁸ Others are like seed sown among thorns; they hear the word, ¹⁹ but the cares of the world, the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. ²⁰ But others are like seed sown on good soil; they hear the word, accept it, and bear fruit—thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold.”

Mark

²¹ He said to them, “Is a lamp brought in to be put under a basket or under a bed? Is it not to be placed on a lampstand? ²² For whatever is hidden is meant to be revealed, and whatever is concealed is meant to come to light. ²³ If anyone has ears to hear, let them listen.” ²⁴ He continued, “Consider carefully what you hear. With the measure you use, it will be measured to you—and even more will be added. ²⁵ For whoever has will be given more; whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken away.”

²⁶ He also said, “The kingdom of God is like a man scattering seed on the ground. ²⁷ He sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how. ²⁸ The earth produces crops by itself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. ²⁹ But when the crop is ready, he immediately puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.”

³⁰ Again He said, “To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable shall we use to describe it? ³¹ It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown on the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth. ³² Yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden plants, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can nest in its shade.”

³³ With many such parables, He spoke the word to them, as much as they could understand. ³⁴ He did not speak to them without a parable, but privately He explained everything to His own disciples.

³⁵ On that day, when evening came, He said to His disciples, “Let us cross over to the other side.” ³⁶ Leaving the crowd behind, they took Him along in the boat, just as He was. Other boats were also with Him. ³⁷ A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling. ³⁸ But He was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke Him and said to Him, “Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?” ³⁹ He got up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” Then the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. ⁴⁰ He said to them, “Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?” ⁴¹ They were filled with great fear and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?”

5 They crossed over to the other side of the sea, into the region of the Gerasenes. ² As Jesus got out of the boat, a man with an unclean spirit immediately came from the tombs to meet Him. ³ This man lived among the tombs, and no one could bind him anymore, not even with chains. ⁴ For he had often been bound with shackles and chains, but he tore the chains apart and broke the shackles; no one was strong enough to subdue him. ⁵ Day and night among the tombs and in the hills, he would cry out and harm himself with stones.

⁶ When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and bowed down before Him. ⁷ He shouted with a loud voice, “What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore you by God, do not torment me!” ⁸ For Jesus had been saying to him, “Come out of this man, you unclean spirit!” ⁹ Then Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” And he replied, “My name is Legion, for we are many.” ¹⁰ And he begged Jesus repeatedly not to send them out of the region.

¹¹ A large group of pigs was feeding on the nearby hillside. ¹² The demons pleaded with Jesus, “Send us into the pigs so that we may enter them.” ¹³ He gave them permission, and the unclean spirits came out and went into the pigs. The herd, about two thousand in number, rushed down the steep bank into the sea and were drowned.

¹⁴ Those tending the pigs ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, and the people came to see what had happened. ¹⁵ When they came to Jesus, they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons, sitting there, clothed and in his right mind; and they were filled with awe. ¹⁶ Those who had seen it described to the people what had happened to the demon-possessed man and about the pigs. ¹⁷ Then the people began to urge Jesus to leave their region.

¹⁸ As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been freed from the demons begged to go with Him. ¹⁹ Jesus did not let him, but said, “Go home to your own people and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had mercy on you.” ²⁰ So the man went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis what great things Jesus had done for him. And all the people were amazed.

Mark

²¹ After Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him while He was by the sea. ²² Then one of the synagogue leaders, named Jairus, approached, and when he saw Jesus, he fell at His feet. ²³ He pleaded earnestly with Him, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay Your hands on her so that she will be healed and live.” ²⁴ Thus, Jesus accompanied him. A large crowd followed closely and surrounded Him.

²⁵ And there was a woman who had been suffering from bleeding for twelve years. ²⁶ She had endured much under many doctors and had spent all she had, yet instead of improving, she grew worse. ²⁷ When she heard about Jesus, she approached Him from behind in the crowd and touched His cloak, ²⁸ thinking, “If I merely touch His clothes, I will be healed.” ²⁹ Instantly, her bleeding ceased and she felt in her body that she was relieved from her suffering. ³⁰ At once Jesus realised that power had gone out from Him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who touched My clothes?” ³¹ “You see the people pressing against You,” His disciples answered, “and yet You can ask, ‘Who touched Me?’” ³² But Jesus continued to look around to identify who had done it. ³³ Then the woman, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell at His feet and, trembling with fear, told Him the whole truth. ³⁴ He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace and be freed from your suffering.”

³⁵ While Jesus was still speaking, some people came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue leader. “Your daughter is dead,” they said. “Why trouble the Teacher any further?” ³⁶ Overhearing what they said, Jesus told him, “Do not be afraid; just believe.” ³⁷ He did not permit anyone to follow Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. ³⁸ When they arrived at the home of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw a commotion, with people crying and wailing loudly. ³⁹ He entered and said to them, “Why all this commotion and wailing? The child is not dead but asleep.” ⁴⁰ But they laughed at Him. After He sent them all out, He took the child’s father and mother and the disciples who were with Him, and went in where the child was. ⁴¹ He took her by the hand and said to her, “Talitha koum!” (which means, “Little girl, I say to you, arise!”). ⁴² Immediately the girl stood up and began to walk around (she was twelve years old). At this they were utterly amazed. ⁴³ He gave strict orders not to let anyone know about this, and instructed them to give her something to eat.

6 Jesus departed from there and arrived in his hometown, with his disciples following him. ²

When the Sabbath came, he began teaching in the synagogue, and many who listened were astonished. They asked, “Where did this man acquire these things? What is this wisdom that has been given to him, and what are these remarkable miracles performed by his hands?” ³ Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? Are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offence at him. ⁴ Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honour except in his hometown, among his relatives, and in his own household.” ⁵ He could not perform any miracles there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them. ⁶ He was taken aback by their lack of faith. Then he continued teaching throughout the villages.

⁷ He called the twelve to him and began to send them out in pairs, giving them authority over unclean spirits. ⁸ He instructed them to take nothing for their journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in their belts— ⁹ they were permitted to wear sandals but were not to put on two tunics. ¹⁰ He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that place. ¹¹ If any place does not welcome you or listen to you, as you leave, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.” ¹² They went out and proclaimed that people should change their ways. ¹³ They cast out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil, healing them.

¹⁴ King Herod heard of this, for Jesus’ name had become well known. Some were saying, “John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that is why these miraculous powers are at work in him.” ¹⁵ Others said, “He is Elijah.” Still others claimed, “He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.” ¹⁶ But when Herod heard this, he said, “John, whom I beheaded, has been raised!”

Mark

¹⁷ Herod himself had ordered John's arrest and had him bound and imprisoned because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, whom he had married. ¹⁸ For John had been saying to Herod, "It is against the law for you to have your brother's wife." ¹⁹ Herodias held a grudge against him and wanted to kill him, but she could not, ²⁰ because Herod feared John and protected him, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man. When Herod listened to him, he was greatly perplexed, yet he enjoyed hearing him.

²¹ An opportune day came when Herod, on his birthday, gave a banquet for his nobles, military commanders, and the leading men of Galilee. ²² When the daughter of Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests. The king said to the girl, "Ask me for anything you want, and I will give it to you." ²³ He swore to her, "Whatever you ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom." ²⁴ She went out and asked her mother, "What shall I request?" Her mother replied, "The head of John the Baptist." ²⁵ Immediately she hurried to the king and requested, "I want you to give me the head of John the Baptist on a platter right now." ²⁶ The king was deeply grieved, but because of his oaths and his guests, he did not want to refuse her. ²⁷ So he sent an executioner immediately with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded John in the prison, ²⁸ and brought his head on a platter, presenting it to the girl, and she gave it to her mother. ²⁹ When John's disciples heard of this, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

³⁰ The apostles gathered around Jesus and shared with him all they had done and taught. ³¹ Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have time to eat, he said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a quiet place and rest a while." ³² So they departed by themselves in a boat to a secluded area. ³³ But many saw them leaving and recognised them, and they ran on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. ³⁴ When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he felt compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began to teach them many things.

³⁵ By this time it was late in the day, so his disciples came to him and said, "This is a remote place, and it is already very late. ³⁶ Send the people away so they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages to buy themselves something to eat." ³⁷ But he replied, "You give them something to eat." They said to him, "Should we go and spend two hundred denarii on bread and give it to them to eat?" ³⁸ He asked them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and find out." When they found out, they said, "Five, and two fish." ³⁹ Then he directed them to have all the people sit down in groups on the green grass. ⁴⁰ So they sat down in organised groups. ⁴¹ Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed the food, broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to distribute to the people. He also divided the two fish among them all. ⁴² They all ate and were fully nourished, ⁴³ and the disciples picked up twelve baskets full of broken pieces of bread and fish. ⁴⁴ The number of men who ate the loaves was five thousand.

⁴⁵ Immediately, Jesus made his disciples get into the boat and go ahead of him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd. ⁴⁶ After sending them away, he went up on a mountainside to pray. ⁴⁷ As evening approached, the boat was in the middle of the sea, while he remained alone on the shore. ⁴⁸ Seeing them straining at the oars, because the wind was against them, shortly before dawn he went out to them, walking on the sea, intending to pass by them. ⁴⁹ But when they observed him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost and cried out, ⁵⁰ because they all saw him and were terrified. Immediately he spoke to them and said, "Take courage; it is I. Do not be afraid." ⁵¹ Then he got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. They were utterly astonished, ⁵² for they had not grasped the significance of the loaves; their hearts were hardened.

⁵³ When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and anchored there. ⁵⁴ Upon disembarking, people immediately recognised Jesus.

⁵⁵ They ran throughout the whole region and brought the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. ⁵⁶ And wherever he went—into villages, towns, or the countryside—they placed the sick in the marketplaces and begged him to let them touch even the edge of his cloak, and all who touched it were healed.

7 The Pharisees and some of the scribes gathered around Jesus after they had come from Jerusalem, ² and noticed that some of His disciples were eating with hands that were considered unclean, that is, unwashed. ³ (For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they perform a ceremonial washing of their hands, adhering to the tradition of the elders; ⁴ and when they return from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. They also observe many other traditions, such as the washing of cups, pitchers, and copper vessels.) ⁵ So the Pharisees and the scribes asked Him, "Why do Your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders, but eat with unclean hands?" ⁶ He responded, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites, as it is written:

"These people honour Me with their lips, but their hearts are far from Me. ⁷ They worship Me in vain; their teachings are merely human commandments."

⁸ You have set aside the command of God and hold to human traditions." ⁹ And He continued, "You have a clever way of rejecting the command of God in order to keep your own tradition! ¹⁰ For Moses said, 'Honour your father and your mother,' and, 'Anyone who curses their father or mother must be put to death.' ¹¹ But you say that if someone declares that what might have been used to help their father or mother is Corban (that is, dedicated to God)— ¹² then you no longer allow them to do anything for their father or mother. ¹³ In this way, you make void the word of God by your tradition that you have passed down. And you engage in many similar practices."

¹⁴ Then Jesus called the crowd to Him again and said, "Listen to Me, all of you, and understand: ¹⁵ Nothing external to a person can defile them by entering them. Rather, it is what emerges from a person that defiles them." ¹⁶ [Rhosé who have ears to hear, let them hear.]

¹⁷ After leaving the crowd and entering the house, His disciples asked Him about the parable. ¹⁸ He said to them, "Are you also lacking in understanding? Do you not see that whatever enters a person from outside cannot defile them, ¹⁹ because it does not go into their heart but into their stomach, and then is expelled?" (In saying this, Jesus declared all foods clean.) ²⁰ He went on to say, "What comes out of a person is what defiles them. ²¹ For from within, out of the heart of men, come evil thoughts: sexual immorality, theft, murder, ²² adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, sensuality, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness. ²³ All these harmful things come from within and defile a person."

²⁴ Jesus left that place and went to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know it, yet He could not remain hidden. ²⁵ But a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him and came and fell at His feet. ²⁶ The woman was a Gentile, of Syrophoenician origin. She begged Him to drive the demon out of her daughter. ²⁷ He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." ²⁸ But she replied, "Yes, Lord, but even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." ²⁹ Then He said to her, "For this answer, you may go; the demon has left your daughter." ³⁰ She went home and found her child lying on the bed, and the demon had departed.

³¹ Jesus left the region of Tyre and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, into the region of the Decapolis. ³² There some people brought to Him a man who was deaf and could hardly talk, and they begged Him to lay His hand on him. ³³ Jesus took him aside, away from the crowd, and put His fingers into the man's ears. Then He spat and touched the man's tongue. ³⁴ He looked upward, sighed deeply, and said to him, "Ephphatha!" (which means "Be opened!"). ³⁵ At this, the man's ears were opened, his tongue was loosened, and he began to speak clearly. ³⁶ Jesus commanded them not to tell anyone. But the more He did so, the more they kept spreading the news. ³⁷ People were utterly amazed and said, "He has done everything well; He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

8 In those days, when there was once more a large crowd and they had nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, ² "I have compassion for these people, because they have been with Me for three days now and have nothing to eat. ³ If I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come from a long distance." ⁴ His disciples answered Him, "Where can anyone find enough bread here in this desolate place to feed them?" ⁵ He inquired of them, "What is the number of loaves you possess?" They said, "Seven." ⁶ He directed the crowd to sit down on the ground. Taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to His disciples to distribute to the people, and they did so.⁷ They also had a few small fish; He blessed them and instructed the disciples to distribute these as well.⁸ The people ate and were satisfied, and they picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.⁹ There were about four thousand people present. After dismissing them,¹⁰ He boarded the boat with His disciples and travelled to the region of Dalmanutha.

Mark

¹¹ The Pharisees approached and began to question Him, seeking a sign from heaven to challenge Him.¹² Sighing deeply in His spirit, He said, "Why does this generation ask for a sign? Truly I tell you, no sign will be given to it."¹³ Then He left them, re-entered the boat, and crossed to the other side.

¹⁴ The disciples had forgotten to take bread, except for one loaf they had with them in the boat.¹⁵ He cautioned them, saying, "Watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."¹⁶ They talked among themselves and concluded, "It is because we have no bread."¹⁷ Aware of their discussion, Jesus said to them, "Why are you talking about having no bread? Do you still not understand or comprehend? Are your hearts hardened?¹⁸ Do you have eyes but fail to see, and ears but fail to hear? And do you not remember?¹⁹ When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you pick up?" They said, "Twelve."²⁰ "And when I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you pick up?" They replied, "Seven."²¹ He asked them, "Are you still without understanding?"

²² They came to Bethsaida, and some people brought a blind man to Jesus and begged Him to touch him.²³ He took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. After spitting on the man's eyes and laying His hands on him, He asked, "Do you see anything?"²⁴ He looked up and said, "I see people; they appear like trees walking around."²⁵ Jesus placed His hands on the man's eyes again. Then his eyes were opened, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly.²⁶ Jesus sent him home, saying, "Do not even enter the village."

²⁷ Jesus went out with His disciples to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way, He asked them, "Who do people say I am?"²⁸ They answered,

"Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets."²⁹ "But what about you?" He asked. "Who do you say I am?" Peter answered, "You are the Christ."³⁰ He warned them not to tell anyone about Him.

³¹ He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.³² He spoke openly about this, and Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.³³ But turning and seeing His disciples, He rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind Me, Satan! You do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns."

³⁴ Then He called the crowd to Him along with His disciples and said, "If anyone wants to be My disciple, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me.³⁵ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and for the gospel will save it.³⁶ What benefit is it for someone to gain the whole world, yet lose their soul?³⁷ Or what can anyone offer in exchange for their soul?³⁸ If anyone is ashamed of Me and My words in this unfaithful and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of them when He comes in His Father's glory with the holy angels."

9 And Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not experience death before they see the kingdom of God arriving with power."

² Six days later, Jesus took Peter, James, and John with him and led them up a high mountain by themselves. There he was transformed before them.

³ His clothing became radiant, exceedingly white, beyond what any launderer on earth could achieve.⁴ Elijah and Moses appeared before them, conversing with Jesus.⁵ Peter spoke to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us construct three shelters: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."⁶ Peter was at a loss for words, for they were filled with fear.

⁷ A cloud formed, overshadowing them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is my beloved Son; listen to him!"⁸ Suddenly, when they looked around, they saw no one with them anymore, except Jesus alone.

⁹ As they were descending the mountain, Jesus instructed them not to tell anyone what they had witnessed until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. ¹⁰ They kept this matter to themselves, discussing what “rising from the dead” might mean.

Mark

¹¹ They questioned him, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?” ¹² Jesus replied, “Indeed, Elijah does come first and restores all things. Yet why is it written that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected?” ¹³ But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, as it is written about him.”

¹⁴ When they returned to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd surrounding them, with scribes arguing with them. ¹⁵ As soon as the crowd saw Jesus, they were filled with wonder and ran to greet him. ¹⁶ He inquired of them, “What is the dispute you are having with them?” ¹⁷ One man from the crowd answered, “Teacher, I brought you my son, who is possessed by a spirit that renders him mute. ¹⁸ Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes rigid. I asked your disciples to drive out the spirit, but they could not.” ¹⁹ Jesus responded, “O unbelieving generation, how long shall I remain with you? How long shall I endure you? Bring the boy to me.” ²⁰ They brought the boy to Jesus. When the spirit saw him, it immediately threw the boy into convulsions. He fell to the ground, rolling and foaming at the mouth. ²¹ Jesus asked the boy’s father, “How long has he been like this?” He replied, “From childhood. ²² It has often thrown him into fire or water to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.” ²³ Jesus said to him, “If you can? Everything is possible for one who believes.” ²⁴ Immediately, the boy’s father cried out, “I do believe; help my unbelief!” ²⁵ When Jesus saw a crowd rapidly gathering, he rebuked the impure spirit, saying, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again.” ²⁶ The spirit shrieked, convulsed him violently, and departed. The boy appeared so much like a corpse that many said, “He is dead.” ²⁷ But Jesus, taking him by the hand, helped him to his feet, and he stood up. ²⁸ After Jesus had gone indoors, his disciples asked him privately, “Why were we unable to drive it out?” ²⁹ He replied, “This kind can come out only through prayer.”

³⁰ They departed from there and passed through Galilee, and Jesus did not want anyone to know. ³¹ For he was instructing his disciples, saying, “The Son of Man is to be delivered into the hands of men. They will kill him, and after three days he will rise.” ³² But they did not comprehend this statement and were afraid to ask him.

³³ They arrived at Capernaum. When he was in the house, he asked them, “What were you discussing on the way?” ³⁴ But they remained silent, for on the way they had argued about who was the greatest. ³⁵ Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, “If anyone desires to be first, he must be the last of all and the servant of all.” ³⁶ He took a child, placed him among them, and taking him in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷ “Whoever receives one of these little children in my name receives me; and whoever receives me does not receive me but the one who sent me.”

³⁸ John said to him, “Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him because he was not one of us.” ³⁹ But Jesus said, “Do not stop him, for no one who does a miracle in my name can soon afterwards speak evil of me. ⁴⁰ For anyone who is not against us, is for us. ⁴¹ Truly I tell you, anyone who gives you a cup of water in my name because you belong to Christ will certainly not lose their reward.

⁴² “If anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for them if a large millstone were hung around their neck and they were thrown into the sea. ⁴³ If your hand leads you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life maimed than with two hands to go into hell, where the fire never goes out. ⁴⁴ [where their worm does not die, and the fire is not extinguished.] ⁴⁵ And if your foot leads you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life crippled than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. ⁴⁶ [where their worm does not die, and the fire is not extinguished.] ⁴⁷ And if your eye leads you to stumble, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, ⁴⁸ where their worm does not die, and the fire is never put out.

⁴⁹ For everyone will be refined with fire. ⁵⁰ Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? Have salt among yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

10 Jesus departed from there and travelled to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan.

Crowds gathered around Him once more, and, as was His custom, He began to teach them again. ² Some Pharisees approached Him, testing Him by asking whether it was lawful for a man to divorce his wife. ³ He responded, "What did Moses command you?" ⁴ They replied, "Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of divorce and send her away." ⁵ Jesus said to them, "It was due to the hardness of your hearts that he wrote you this commandment. ⁶ Yet, from the beginning of creation, God created them as male and female. ⁷ Because of this, a man shall leave his father and mother and be united with his wife, ⁸ and the two shall become one flesh; thus they are no longer two, but one. ⁹ Therefore, what God has set together, let no one divide."

¹⁰ When they were back in the house, the disciples questioned Him about this matter. ¹¹ He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her; ¹² and if a woman separates from her husband and marries another man, she is considered to have committed adultery."

¹³ People were bringing little children to Jesus for Him to touch them, but the disciples rebuked them.

¹⁴ When Jesus saw this, He was indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to Me; do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁵ I assure you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God with the heart of a child will never enter it." ¹⁶ And He embraced the children, placed His hands on them, and blessed them.

¹⁷ As He set out on a journey, a man ran up to Him, knelt before Him, and asked, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" ¹⁸ Jesus replied, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good except God alone. ¹⁹ You know the commandments: 'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honour your father and mother.'" ²⁰ He said to Him, "Teacher, I have observed all these from my youth." ²¹ Looking at him, Jesus loved him and said, "One thing you lack: go, sell all you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow Me." ²² At this, the man's face fell, and he went away grieving, for he had great wealth.

²³ Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How difficult it is for those who are wealthy to enter the kingdom of God!" ²⁴ The disciples were amazed at His words. But Jesus said again, "Children, how challenging it is to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God." ²⁶ They were even more astonished and said to one another, "Who then is able to be saved?" ²⁷ Jesus looked at them and said, "With man it is impossible, but not with God; for with God, all things are possible."

²⁸ Peter began to say to Him, "We have left everything to follow You!" ²⁹ Jesus replied, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for My sake and for the gospel ³⁰ who will not receive a hundred times as much in this present age: homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and fields—along with persecutions—and in the age to come, eternal life. ³¹ But many who are first will become last, and the last will become first."

³² They were on the road going up to Jerusalem, with Jesus leading the way, and the disciples were astonished, while those who followed were afraid. Again He took the Twelve aside and began to tell them what was going to happen to Him. ³³ "We are going up to Jerusalem," He said, "and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn Him to death and hand Him over to the Gentiles, ³⁴ who will mock Him, spit on Him, flog Him, and kill Him. Three days later He will rise."

³⁵ Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Him and said, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask." ³⁶ "What is it that you wish Me to do for you?" He asked. ³⁷ They replied, "Allow one of us to sit at Your right and the other at Your left in Your glory." ³⁸ Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup I drink or be baptised with the baptism I am baptised with?" ³⁹ "We can," they answered. Jesus said to them, "You will indeed drink the cup I drink and be baptised with the baptism I am baptised with, ⁴⁰ but to sit at My right or left is not for Me to grant. These places are reserved for those for whom they have been prepared."

Mark

⁴¹ When the ten heard about this, they became upset with James and John. ⁴² Jesus called them together and said, "You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles dominate them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. ⁴³ But it shall not be so among you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, ⁴⁴ and whoever wants to be first must be the slave of all. ⁴⁵ For even the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to offer His life as a ransom for many."

⁴⁶ Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus and His disciples, together with a large crowd, were leaving the city, a blind man named Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, was sitting by the roadside begging. ⁴⁷ Upon hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁸ Many rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he cried out even more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁹ Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called to the blind man, "Take courage, get up! He is calling you." ⁵⁰ Casting aside his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. ⁵¹ "What is it you wish Me to do for you?" Jesus asked him. The blind man said, "Rabbi, I wish to see." ⁵² Jesus said to him, "Go, your faith has healed you." Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus along the road.

11 As they approached Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany near the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples, ² and said to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden; untie it and bring it here. ³ If anyone questions you about this, say, 'The Lord needs it and will return it soon.'" ⁴ They went and found a colt tied at a doorway, outside in the street; and they untied it. ⁵ Some bystanders said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" ⁶ They answered them just as Jesus had instructed, and the people allowed them to go. ⁷ They brought the colt to Jesus and placed their cloaks on it, and he sat on it. ⁸ Many spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread leafy branches they had cut from the fields. ⁹ Those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting,

"Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" ¹⁰ "Blessed is the coming of the kingdom of David! Hosanna in the highest!"

¹¹ Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple courts. After looking around at everything, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve, as it was already late.

¹² The following day, as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus felt hungry. ¹³ Seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he might find anything on it. When he reached it, he found nothing but leaves, as it was not the season for figs. ¹⁴ He said to the tree, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard him say it.

¹⁵ Upon arriving in Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple courts and began to drive out those who were buying and selling. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves, ¹⁶ and he did not allow anyone to carry goods through the temple courts. ¹⁷ As he taught them, he said, "Is it not written: 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations'? But you have made it a den of robbers." ¹⁸ The chief priests and the teachers of the law heard this and began seeking a way to eliminate him, for they feared him, because the whole crowd was amazed at his teaching. ¹⁹ When evening arrived, they left the city.

²⁰ In the morning, as they went along, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots up. ²¹ Peter remembered and said to Jesus, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree you spoke against has withered!" ²² Jesus said, "Place your trust in God." ²³ "Truly I tell you, if anyone says to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in their heart but believes that what they say will happen, it will be done for them. ²⁴ Therefore I tell you, whatever you request in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. ²⁵ And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive them, so that your Father in heaven may also forgive your sins." ²⁶ [But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your sins.]

²⁷ They came again to Jerusalem, and as Jesus was walking in the temple courts, the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders came to him, ²⁸ and asked, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?" ²⁹ Jesus responded, "I will pose one question to you. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. ³⁰ Was John's baptism from heaven, or of human origin? Tell me!" ³¹ They conferred among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask, 'Then why didn't you believe him?' ³² But if we say, 'Of human origin'..." They were afraid of the people, for everyone was convinced that John truly was a prophet. ³³ So they answered Jesus, "We don't know." And Jesus said, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

Mark

12 Jesus began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard. He put a fence around it, dug a pit for the winepress, and built a tower. Then he leased it to some farmers and went on a journey. ² When the time came for the harvest, he sent a servant to the tenants to gather some of the vineyard's fruit from them. ³ But they seized him, beat him, and sent him away with nothing. ⁴ Then he sent another servant to them; they struck him on the head and treated him shamefully. ⁵ He sent another, and that one they killed. He sent many others; some they beat, others they killed. ⁶ He had one left to send, a beloved son. He sent him last of all, saying, 'They will respect my son.' ⁷ But the tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' ⁸ So they took him, ended his life, and cast him out of the vineyard. ⁹ What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and put the tenants to death and give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰ Have you not read this passage of Scripture: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; ¹¹ the Lord has done this, and it is wonderful in our eyes?' ¹² Then the chief priests, the teachers of the law, and the elders looked for a way to arrest him, because they knew he had spoken the parable against them. But they feared the people, so they left him and went away.

¹³ Later they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Jesus to try to trap him in his words. ¹⁴ They came and said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are a man of integrity and are not swayed by others, because you do not show partiality, but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. Is it right to pay the imperial tax to Caesar or not? ¹⁵ Should we pay or shouldn't we?" But Jesus, knowing their hypocrisy, said, "Why are you trying to trap me? Bring me a denarius to look at." ¹⁶ They presented the coin, and he asked them, "Whose likeness is this? And whose inscription?" "Caesar's," they replied. ¹⁷ Then Jesus said to them, "Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." And they were amazed at him.

¹⁸ Then some Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him with a question. ¹⁹ "Teacher," they said, "Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother passes away and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and raise up offspring for his brother. ²⁰ There were seven brothers. The first one married and died without leaving any children. ²¹ The second one married the widow, but he also died, leaving no child. The same happened with the third. ²² Indeed, none of the seven left any children. Last of all, the woman died too. ²³ In the resurrection, whose wife will she be, since all seven were married to her?" ²⁴ Jesus replied, "Are you not mistaken because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God? ²⁵ When the dead are raised, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage; they will be like the angels in heaven. ²⁶ Now concerning the rising of the dead—have you not read in the Book of Moses, in the account of the burning bush, how God said to him, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? ²⁷ He is the God of the living, not of the dead. You are indeed mistaken!"

²⁸ One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a wise answer, he asked him, "Of all the commandments, which is the most important?" ²⁹ "The foremost one," answered Jesus, "is this: 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord. ³⁰ Love the Lord your God with all of your heart, with all of your soul, with all of your mind, and with all of your strength.' ³¹ The second is: 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' No other commandments are greater than these." ³² "Well said, teacher," the man agreed. "For you are indeed right to say that God is one and there is no other but him. ³³ You are right to say love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, and with all your strength, and you are right to say loving your neighbour as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices." ³⁴ When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And from that time on, no one dared ask him any more questions.

³⁵ While he was teaching in the temple courts, Jesus asked, "Why is it the teachers of the law say that the Messiah is the son of David? ³⁶ David, speaking by the Holy Spirit, said:

Mark

‘The Lord said to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies under your feet.”’

³⁷ If David himself calls him ‘Lord.’ How then can he be his son?” The large crowd listened to him delighted. ³⁸ As he taught, Jesus said, “Watch out for the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in long robes and be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, ³⁹ and have the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets. ⁴⁰ They consume widows’ houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. These men will be punished most severely.” ⁴¹ Jesus sat down opposite the place where the offerings were put and observed the crowd putting their money into the temple treasury. Many rich people contributed large amounts. ⁴² But a poor widow came and placed in two very small copper coins, worth only a few pence. ⁴³ Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has contributed more to the treasury than all the others. ⁴⁴ They all gave out of their abundance; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything—all she had to live on.”

13 As Jesus was departing from the temple, one of His disciples remarked to Him, “Teacher, behold the impressive stones and splendid buildings!” ² Jesus responded, “Do you observe these magnificent buildings? Not a single stone will remain upon another; every one will be demolished.”

³ While He was seated on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew inquired of Him privately, ⁴ “Tell us, when will these events occur, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?”

⁵ Jesus began to say to them, “Ensure that no one leads you astray. ⁶ Many will come in My name, asserting, ‘I am He,’ and will deceive many. ⁷ When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be disturbed; such things must transpire, but the end is not yet. ⁸ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and famines. These are merely the beginning of birth pains.

⁹ “Be on your guard; you will be delivered to local councils and flogged in synagogues. You will stand before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them. ¹⁰ And the good news must first reach all nations. ¹¹ When they arrest you and hand you over, do not fret beforehand about what to speak; speak whatever is given to you at that moment, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. ¹² Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise against parents and cause them to be put to death. ¹³ You will be hated by all because of My name, but the one who endures to the end will be saved.

¹⁴ “When you see ‘the abomination that causes desolation’ standing where it ought not—let the reader understand—then let those in Judea flee to the mountains. ¹⁵ Let no one on the housetop descend or enter the house to retrieve anything. ¹⁶ Let no one in the field return to fetch their cloak. ¹⁷ How dreadful it will be for those who are pregnant and nursing infants in those days! ¹⁸ Pray that it does not occur in winter, ¹⁹ for those will be days of tribulation unmatched from the beginning of creation, which God created, until now, and never to be equalled again. ²⁰ If the Lord had not curtailed those days, no life would be saved; but for the sake of the elect, whom He has chosen, He has shortened them.

²¹ If anyone tells you during that time, ‘Look, here is the Messiah!’ or, ‘Look, there He is!’ do not believe it. ²² For false messiahs and false prophets will arise and perform signs and wonders to mislead, if possible, even the elect. ²³ So be vigilant; I have forewarned you of everything.

²⁴ “But in those days, following that tribulation,

the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not shed its light; ²⁵ the stars will fall from the sky, and the celestial powers will be shaken.

²⁶ Then they will witness the Son of Man arriving in clouds with great power and glory. ²⁷ And He will send His angels to gather His elect from the four winds, from the extremities of the earth to the extremities of heaven.

²⁸ “Learn this lesson from the fig tree: as soon as its branches become tender and sprout leaves, you know that summer is near. ²⁹ In the same way, when you see these things happening, recognise that it is near, right at the door. ³⁰ Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have occurred. ³¹ Though heaven and earth may pass away, My words will never pass away.

Mark

³² But concerning that day or hour, no one knows—neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. ³³ Be vigilant! Stay alert! For you do not know when that time will come. ³⁴ It is like a man going on a journey, who leaves his house and puts his servants in charge, each with their task, and instructs the doorkeeper to keep watch. ³⁵ Therefore, keep watch, for you do not know when the master of the house will return—whether in the evening, at midnight, when the rooster crows, or at dawn. ³⁶ If he arrives suddenly, do not let him find you sleeping. ³⁷ What I say to you, I say to everyone: ‘Stay alert!’

14 Now the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread were approaching, and the chief priests and the teachers of the law were plotting to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him; ² “Not during the festival,” they said, “otherwise the people may riot.”

³ While Jesus was in Bethany, reclining at the table in the house of Simon the Leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very costly perfume, made of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured the perfume on his head. ⁴ Some of those present were indignant and said to one another, “Why this waste of perfume? ⁵ It could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor.” And they scolded her harshly. ⁶ But Jesus said, “Let her be. Why are you troubling her? She has done a kind act for me. ⁷ You will always have the poor with you, and you can help them whenever you wish. But you will not always have me. ⁸ She has done what she could; she has anointed my body in preparation for burial. ⁹ Truly I say to you, wherever the gospel is proclaimed throughout the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”

¹⁰ Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests to hand Jesus over to them. ¹¹ They were pleased to hear this and promised to give him money. So he began seeking an opportunity to hand him over.

¹² On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, when it was customary to sacrifice the Passover lamb, Jesus’ disciples asked him, “Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?” ¹³ So he instructed two of his disciples, saying to them, “Go into the city, and you will meet a man carrying a jar of water; follow him. ¹⁴ Say to the owner of the house he enters, ‘The Teacher asks: Where is my guest room, where I may share the Passover meal with my disciples?’” ¹⁵ He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Prepare for us there.” ¹⁶ The disciples left, went into the city and found everything just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover meal.

¹⁷ When evening came, Jesus arrived with the group of twelve. ¹⁸ While they were reclining at the table eating, Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me—one who is eating with me.” ¹⁹ They were saddened, and one by one they said to him, “Surely it is not I?” ²⁰ “It is one of the Twelve,” he replied, “one who shares the bowl with me. ²¹ The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would have been better for him if he had not been born.”

²² While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take it; this symbolises my body.” ²³ Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks, he offered it to them, and they all drank from it. ²⁴ “This represents my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many,” he said to them. ²⁵ “Truly I tell you, I will not partake of the fruit of the vine again until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God.” ²⁶ After singing a hymn, they proceeded to the Mount of Olives.

²⁷ “You will all stumble,” Jesus told them, “for it is written:

‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’

²⁸ But after I have risen, I shall go before you into Galilee.” ²⁹ Peter declared, “Even if everyone else falls away, I will not.” ³⁰ “Truly I tell you,” Jesus answered, “today—yes, tonight—before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.” ³¹ But Peter insisted emphatically, “Even if I must die with you, I will never disown you.” And all the others said the same.

³² They arrived at a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus instructed his disciples, “Sit here while I pray.”

³³ He took Peter, James, and John with him, and he began to feel deeply distressed and troubled. ³⁴ “My soul is deeply grieved, even to the point of death,” he said to them. “Stay here and keep watch.” ³⁵ Going on a little further, he fell to the ground and prayed, so that if possible, the hour might pass from him. ³⁶ “Abba, Father,” he said, “all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me. Yet not what I desire, but what you desire.” ³⁷ Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. “Simon,” he said to Peter, “are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour? ³⁸ Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the body is weak.” ³⁹ Once more he went away and prayed in the same manner. ⁴⁰ When he came back, he again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. They were at a loss for words. ⁴¹ Returning the third time, he said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is handed over to sinners. ⁴² Arise! Let us go! Here comes my betrayer!”

Mark

⁴³ Just as he was speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, appeared. With him was a crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent by the chief priests, the teachers of the law, and the elders. ⁴⁴ The betrayer had arranged a signal with them: “The one I kiss is the man; arrest him and lead him away under guard.” ⁴⁵ Going directly to Jesus, Judas said, “Rabbi!” and kissed him. ⁴⁶ The men seized Jesus and took him into custody. ⁴⁷ Then one of those standing near drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, injuring his ear. ⁴⁸ “Am I leading a revolt,” said Jesus, “that you have come out with swords and clubs to arrest me? ⁴⁹ When I was with you every day, teaching in the temple courts, you did not arrest me. Yet the Scriptures must be fulfilled.” ⁵⁰ At that moment, all his followers left him and fled.

⁵¹ A young man, wearing only a linen garment, was following Jesus. When they seized him, ⁵² he fled without his garment, leaving it behind.

⁵³ They took Jesus to the high priest, and all the chief priests, the elders, and the teachers of the law gathered together. ⁵⁴ Peter followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. There he sat with the guards and warmed himself by the fire.

⁵⁵ The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were seeking evidence against Jesus to put him to death, but they did not find any. ⁵⁶ Many bore false witness against him, but their testimonies did not align. ⁵⁷ Then some stood up and presented this false testimony against him: ⁵⁸ “We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this temple made with human hands and in three days will build another, that will not made with human hands.’” ⁵⁹ Yet even then their testimonies could not agree. ⁶⁰ Then the high priest stood up to interrogate Jesus, “Are you not going to respond? What of this testimony these men are bringing against you?” ⁶¹ But Jesus remained silent and did not reply. Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?” ⁶² “I am,” said Jesus. “And you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven.” ⁶³ At this, the high priest tore his garments. “Why do we need any more witnesses?” he asked. ⁶⁴ “You have heard the blasphemy. What is your decision?” They all condemned him as deserving of death. ⁶⁵ Then some among them spat at him; then they blindfolded him, struck him with their fists, and said, “Prophecy!” And the guards took him and beat him.

⁶⁶ While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the high priest's servant girls came by. ⁶⁷ When she saw Peter warming himself by the fire, she stared at him. “You also were with that Nazarene, Jesus,” she said. ⁶⁸ But he denied it. “I neither know nor understand what you are talking about,” he said, and went out into the entryway. ⁶⁹ When the servant girl saw him there, she said again to those standing around, “This man is one of them.” ⁷⁰ Again Peter denied it. Only a little while later, those standing amongst him said to him, “Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean.” ⁷¹ He began to call down curses, and he swore to them, “I do not know this man you are talking about.” ⁷² Immediately the rooster crowed the second time. Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken to him: “Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.” And he broke down and wept.

15 Early in the morning, the chief priests, along with the elders, scribes, and the whole Council, held a consultation. They bound Jesus, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate.

² Pilate questioned Him, “Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus replied, "You have said it." ³ The chief priests began to bring numerous accusations against Him. ⁴ Pilate questioned Him again, "Do you not answer? See how many charges they bring against you." ⁵ But Jesus gave no further response, leaving Pilate amazed.

Mark

⁶ At the festival, it was customary to release a prisoner requested by the people. ⁷ A man named Barabbas was imprisoned with rebels who had committed murder during the insurrection. ⁸ The crowd approached and asked Pilate to do as he usually did for them. ⁹ Pilate asked them, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" ¹⁰ He knew it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over. ¹¹ However, the chief priests influenced the crowd to have Pilate release Barabbas instead. ¹² Pilate asked them again, "What shall I do with the one you call the King of the Jews?" ¹³ They cried out, "Crucify Him!" ¹⁴ Pilate questioned, "Why, what crime has He committed?" But they shouted even louder, "Crucify Him!" ¹⁵ To satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. After having Jesus flogged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

¹⁶ The soldiers took Jesus into the palace, known as the Praetorium, and gathered the whole company of soldiers. ¹⁷ They dressed Him in a purple robe, and after twisting together a crown of thorns, they placed it on Him. ¹⁸ They began to salute Him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" ¹⁹ They repeatedly struck His head with a reed and spat on Him. Falling on their knees, they paid homage to Him. ²⁰ After mocking Him, they took off the purple robe and put His own clothes on Him. Then they led Him out to crucify Him.

²¹ They compelled a passer-by, Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, who was coming in from the country, to carry His cross. ²² They brought Him to the place called Golgotha, which is translated as the Place of a Skull. ²³ They offered Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He did not take it. ²⁴ They crucified Him and divided His garments, casting lots to decide what each should take. ²⁵ It was about the third hour when they crucified Him. ²⁶ Above Him was written the charge against Him: THE KING OF THE JEWS. ²⁷ They crucified two rebels alongside Him, one on His right and one on His left. ²⁸ [This fulfilled the Scripture that says, "And He was counted among the lawless."] ²⁹ Those passing by hurled insults at Him, shaking their heads and saying, "Ah! You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, ³⁰ you should save Yourself, and come down from the cross!" ³¹ Similarly, the chief priests and scribes mocked Him among themselves, saying, "He saved others, but He cannot save Himself! ³² Let this Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe." Those crucified with Him also insulted Him.

³³ When it was the sixth hour, darkness covered the whole land until the ninth hour. ³⁴ At the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" ³⁵ Some of the bystanders heard Him and said, "Listen, He is calling for Elijah." ³⁶ Someone ran, filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink, saying, "Let us see if Elijah comes to take Him down." ³⁷ With a loud cry, Jesus released His spirit. ³⁸ The curtain of the temple was split in two from top to bottom. ³⁹ When the centurion, who was standing in front of Him, saw how He died, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"

⁴⁰ Some women were watching from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome. ⁴¹ These women had followed Him and provided for Him while in Galilee. Many other women who had accompanied Him to Jerusalem were also there. ⁴² It was Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath. As evening approached, ⁴³ Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent member of the Council, who was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, gathered courage and went to Pilate to ask for Jesus' body. ⁴⁴ Pilate was surprised to hear that He was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked whether Jesus had already died. ⁴⁵ After confirming with the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. ⁴⁶ Joseph bought a linen cloth, took Him down, wrapped Him in the linen, and laid Him in a tomb cut out of rock. He rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. ⁴⁷ Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses observed the place where He was laid.

16 When the Sabbath had ended, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome purchased spices to go and anoint Him. ² Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb just after the sun had risen. ³ They were discussing among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the tomb's entrance for us?" ⁴ Upon looking up, they observed that the stone, which was exceedingly large, had already been rolled away. ⁵ Entering the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were astonished. ⁶ He said to them, "Do not be astonished. You seek Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen; He is not here. Look at the place where they laid Him. ⁷ But go, tell His disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will meet Him, just as He told you.'" ⁸ They went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Mark

The earliest manuscripts and some other ancient witnesses do not have verses 9–20.

⁹ [The earliest manuscripts and some other ancient witnesses do not have verses 9–20.] Now after He had risen early on the first day of the week, He first appeared to Mary Magdalene, from whom He had expelled seven demons. ¹⁰ She went and informed those who had been with Him, while they were mourning and weeping. ¹¹ When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not accept it as true.

¹² After this, He appeared in a different form to two of them as they were walking in the countryside. ¹³ They returned and reported it to the others, but they did not believe them either.

¹⁴ Later, He appeared to the eleven disciples as they were reclining at the table; He rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had risen. ¹⁵ And He said to them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to all creation. ¹⁶ Those who believe and are baptised will be saved, but those who do not believe will face judgment. ¹⁷ These signs will accompany those who believe: in My name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; ¹⁸ they will handle serpents, and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not harm them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

¹⁹ After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, He was taken up into heaven and sat at the right hand of God. ²⁰ And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word by the signs that followed. [[They promptly reported all these instructions to Peter and his companions. After that, Jesus Himself sent out through them from east to west the sacred and imperishable proclamation of eternal salvation.]]

Luke

1 Many have undertaken to compile an account of the things fulfilled among us, ² as they were passed down to us by those who were eyewitnesses and servants of the word from the beginning. ³ Therefore, having investigated everything carefully from the start, it seemed fitting to me also to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴ so that you may have certainty concerning the things you have been taught.

⁵ In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, of the division of Abijah; and he had a wife from the daughters of Aaron, named Elizabeth. ⁶ They were both righteous in the sight of God, walking blamelessly in all the Lord's commandments and decrees. ⁷ But they were childless, as Elizabeth was unable to conceive, and they were both advanced in years.

⁸ Now it came about that while he was performing his priestly duties before God in the order of his division, ⁹ in accordance with the custom of the priesthood, he was chosen by lot to enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰ And the whole assembly of the people were in prayer outside at the hour of incense. ¹¹ Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, positioned at the right side of the altar of incense. ¹² Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear gripped him. ¹³ But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah; your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to name him John. ¹⁴ He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice at his birth. ¹⁵ For he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He shall drink neither wine nor strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb. ¹⁶ He will turn many of the children of Israel back to the Lord their God. ¹⁷ And he will go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

¹⁸ Zechariah said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well along in years." ¹⁹ The angel answered, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and bring you this good news. ²⁰ And now you will be silent and unable to speak until the day these things happen, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled at their proper time." ²¹ Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering about his delay in the temple. ²² When he came out, he could not speak to them. They realised he had seen a vision in the temple, for he kept making signs to them but remained speechless. ²³ When his period of service was completed, he returned home. ²⁴ After these days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and she kept herself in seclusion for five months, saying, ²⁵ "The Lord has done this for me. In these days he has shown his favour and taken away my disgrace among the people."

²⁶ In the sixth month, God sent the angel Gabriel to a city in Galilee named Nazareth, ²⁷ to a young woman engaged to a man named Joseph, of the house of David. The young woman's name was Mary.

²⁸ The angel approached her and said, "Greetings, you who are greatly favoured! The Lord is with you."

²⁹ But she was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. ³⁰ The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary; you have found favour with God. ³¹ You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you shall call him Jesus. ³² He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David, ³³ and he will reign over Jacob's descendants forever; his kingdom will have no end."

³⁴ "How will this happen," Mary asked the angel, "since I am a virgin?" ³⁵ The angel answered, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, the holy one to be born will be called the Son of God. ³⁶ Even Elizabeth your relative is going to have a child in her old age, and she who was said to be barren is now in her sixth month. ³⁷ For with God, nothing remains impossible." ³⁸ Mary said, "I am the Lord's servant. May it be to me as you have said." Then the angel departed from her.

³⁹ At that time Mary set out and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judea, ⁴⁰ where she entered the home of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹ Upon hearing Mary's greeting, the baby moved within her, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. ⁴² With a loud voice she exclaimed, "You are blessed among women, and blessed is the child you will bear! ⁴³ But why am I so honoured, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? ⁴⁴ For as soon as your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. ⁴⁵ Blessed is she who believed that the Lord would fulfil his promises to her!"

⁴⁶ And Mary said, "My soul magnifies and glorifies the Lord, ⁴⁷ and my spirit is glad in God my Saviour, ⁴⁸ for he has noticed the humble state of his servant. From now on all generations will call me blessed, ⁴⁹ for the Mighty One has done great things for me—holy is his name. ⁵⁰ His mercy is upon those who fear him, from generation to generation. ⁵¹ He has shown strength with his arm; he has scattered those who are proud in their inmost thoughts. ⁵² He has deposed the mighty from their thrones and has exalted the humble. ⁵³ He has satisfied the hungry with good things and sent the rich away empty-handed. ⁵⁴ He has come to the aid of his servant Israel, and remembered his mercy ⁵⁵ to Abraham and his descendants forever, just as he promised our forefathers."

⁵⁶ Mary remained with Elizabeth for about three months and then returned to her own home.

⁵⁷ When the time arrived for Elizabeth to have her baby, she gave birth to a son. ⁵⁸ Her neighbours and relatives heard that the Lord had shown her great mercy, and they joined in her joy. ⁵⁹ On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were intending to name him after his father Zechariah, ⁶⁰ but his mother responded, "No! He is to be called John." ⁶¹ They said to her, "But none of your relatives have that name." ⁶² Then they gestured to his father, to find out what he would like to name the child. ⁶³ He asked for a writing tablet, and to everyone's surprise he wrote, "His name is John." ⁶⁴ At once his mouth was opened and his speech restored, and he began to speak, praising God. ⁶⁵ All the neighbours were filled with awe, and throughout the hill country of Judea people were discussing all these things. ⁶⁶ Everyone who heard this wondered about it, asking, "What then is this child destined to be?" For the Lord's hand was with him.

⁶⁷ Zechariah, his father, was filled with the Holy Spirit and began to prophesy:

⁶⁸ "Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel, for he has come to his people and brought them redemption. ⁶⁹ He has raised a mighty saviour for us in the house of his servant David, ⁷⁰ just as he spoke through his holy prophets of long ago, ⁷¹ to save us from our enemies from the hand of all who detest us— ⁷² to show kindness to our ancestors and to remember his sacred covenant, ⁷³ the promise he made to our father Abraham: ⁷⁴ to save us from the hand of our enemies, so we may serve him without fear ⁷⁵ in holiness and righteousness before him, throughout all the days of our lives. ⁷⁶ And you, my child, will be called a prophet of the Most High; for you will go on ahead of the Lord to prepare his way, ⁷⁷ to give his people the understanding of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins, ⁷⁸ because of the tender mercy of our God, by which the dawn from heaven will visit us ⁷⁹ to shine on those dwelling in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace."

⁸⁰ And the child grew and became strong in spirit; and he lived in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

2 In those days, a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that a census should be conducted of the whole inhabited earth. ² For this was the first census conducted during the time of Quirinius the governor of Syria. ³ And everyone went to register, each to their own city. ⁴ Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, ⁵ to register with Mary, who was betrothed to him and was expecting a child. ⁶ While they were there, the time arrived for her to deliver her child. ⁷ And she gave birth to her firstborn son, wrapped him in cloths, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

⁸ In the same region, there were shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flocks by night. ⁹ An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly afraid. ¹⁰ But the angel reassured them, "Fear not, for I bring you good news of great joy for all people. ¹¹ For today, in the city of David, a Saviour has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. ¹² This will be your sign: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger." ¹³ And suddenly, along with the angel, there was a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying,

Luke

¹⁴ "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased."

¹⁵ When the angels had gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." ¹⁶ So they hurried and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger. ¹⁷ When they had seen him, they spread the word about what had been told them concerning this child. ¹⁸ And all who heard it were astonished at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹ But Mary kept all these things in her heart, reflecting on them. ²⁰ The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as they had been told.

²¹ When eight days were completed for the circumcision of the child, he was named Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived.

²² When the days for their purification according to the Law of Moses were completed, they brought him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord ²³ (as it is written in the Law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be consecrated to the Lord"), ²⁴ and to make an offering as required by the Law of the Lord: "a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons."

²⁵ Now there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon, who was righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. ²⁶ It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Christ. ²⁷ Guided by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the custom of the Law required, ²⁸ Simeon embraced him and praised God, saying,

²⁹ "Lord, now you allow your servant to depart in peace, in accordance with your promise; ³⁰ for my own eyes have seen your salvation, ³¹ which you have prepared in the sight of all peoples: ³² a light to reveal your truth to the nations, and the glory of your people Israel."

³³ The child's parents were in awe of what was spoken about him. ³⁴ Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother, "This child is destined to cause the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed, ³⁵ so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own soul as well."

³⁶ There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old; she had lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage, ³⁷ and then had been a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped night and day, fasting and praying. ³⁸ Approaching them at that very moment, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were anticipating the redemption of Jerusalem.

³⁹ When they had completed everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city of Nazareth. ⁴⁰ And the child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him.

⁴¹ Every year, his parents went to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover. ⁴² When he was twelve years old, they went up to the festival as was their custom.

⁴³ After the festival concluded, while his parents were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but they were unaware of it. ⁴⁴ Thinking he was in their company, they travelled for a day and then began looking for him among their relatives and friends. ⁴⁵ When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. ⁴⁶ After three days, they discovered him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. ⁴⁷ All who heard him were impressed by his understanding and his answers. ⁴⁸ When his parents saw him, they were amazed. His mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for you." ⁴⁹ He replied, "Why were you searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" ⁵⁰ Yet they did not comprehend what he was saying to them. ⁵¹ Then he went down to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. Meanwhile, his mother kept all these things in her heart. ⁵² And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and people.

3 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene, ² at the time when Annas and Caiaphas were high priests, the word of God came to John, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. ³ He went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁴ As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet:

Luke

"A voice of one calling out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way for the Lord; make straight in the desert a highway for our God.' ⁵ Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill made low. the uneven ground shall become level, and the rugged terrain a plain. ⁶ And all of mankind shall witness the salvation of God."

⁷ John said to the crowds coming out to be baptised by him, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?" ⁸ Produce fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you that God can raise up children for Abraham from these stones. ⁹ The axe is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

¹⁰ The crowd asked, "What should we do?" ¹¹ John answered, "Anyone who has two tunics should share with the one who has none, and anyone who has food should do likewise." ¹² Tax collectors also came to be baptised. "Teacher," they asked, "what should we do?" ¹³ "Do not collect any more than you are required to," he told them. ¹⁴ Then some soldiers asked him, "And what should we do?" He replied, "Do not extort money from anyone, nor accuse people falsely—be content with your wages."

¹⁵ The people were in expectation, and all were wondering in their hearts whether John might possibly be the Christ. ¹⁶ John answered them all, "I baptise you with water. But one who is mightier than I is coming, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹⁷ With His winnowing fork in hand, He will thoroughly clear His threshing floor, gathering the wheat into His barn, while the chaff will be burned with unquenchable fire." ¹⁸ And with many other exhortations, John preached the good news to the people.

¹⁹ But when Herod the tetrarch was rebuked by John because of Herodias, his brother's wife, and for all the other evil things he had done, ²⁰ Herod added this to his wrongdoings: he locked John up in prison.

²¹ When all the people were being baptised, Jesus was baptised as well. And as He was praying, heaven was opened, ²² and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in a bodily form resembling a dove. A voice came from heaven, saying, "You are My beloved Son; in You I find delight."

²³ Now Jesus Himself was about thirty years old when He began His ministry. He was, as was supposed, the son of Joseph, whose father was Heli, ²⁴ the son of Matthat, whose father was Levi, the son of Melchi, whose father was Jannai, whose father was Joseph, ²⁵ whose father was Mattathias, whose father was Amos, whose father was Nahum, whose father was Esli, whose father was Naggai, ²⁶ whose father was Maath, whose father was Mattathias, whose father was Semein, whose father was Josech, whose father was Joda, ²⁷ whose father was Joanan, whose father was Rhesa, whose father was Zerubbabel, whose father was Shealtiel, whose father was Neri, ²⁸ whose father was Melchi, whose father was Addi, whose father was Cosam, whose father was Elmadam, whose father was Er, ²⁹ whose father was Joshua, whose father was Eliezer, whose father was Jorim, whose father was Matthat, whose father was Levi, ³⁰ whose father was Simeon, whose father was Judah, whose father was Joseph, whose father was Jonam, whose father was Eliakim, ³¹ whose father was Melea, whose father was Menna, whose father was Mattatha, whose father was Nathan, whose father was David, ³² whose father was Jesse, whose father was Obed, whose father was Boaz, whose father was Salmon, whose father was Nahshon, ³³ whose father was Amminadab, whose father was Admin, whose father was Ram, whose father was Hezron, whose father was Perez, whose father was Judah, ³⁴ whose father was Jacob, whose father was Isaac, whose father was Abraham, whose father was Terah, whose father was Nahor, ³⁵ whose father was Serug, whose father was Reu, whose father was Peleg, whose father was Eber, whose father was Shelah, ³⁶ whose father was Cainan, whose father was Arphaxad, whose father was Shem, whose father was Noah, whose father was Lamech, ³⁷ whose father was Methuselah, whose father was Enoch, whose father was Jared, whose father was Mahalaleel, whose father was Kenan, ³⁸ whose father was Enosh, whose father was Seth, whose father was Adam, whose father was God.

4 Jesus, filled with the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was guided by the Spirit into the wilderness, ² where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they had ended, he was hungry. ³ The devil challenged him, "If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to turn into bread." ⁴ Jesus replied, "It is written: 'Man shall not live by bread alone.'"

⁵ The devil took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. ⁶ And he said to him, "I will give you all their authority and splendour; it has been handed over to me, and I can give it to anyone I choose. ⁷ If you bow down to me, everything will be yours." ⁸ Jesus responded, "It is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve Him only.'"

⁹ The devil brought him to Jerusalem and had him stand on the pinnacle of the temple. "If you are the Son of God," he said, "throw yourself down from here; ¹⁰ because it is written: 'He will command his angels to watch over you,' ¹¹ and, 'They will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.'" ¹² Jesus replied, "It is said: 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" ¹³ When the devil had finished all the temptations, he departed from him until a more suitable time.

¹⁴ Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about him spread through all the surrounding region. ¹⁵ He taught in their synagogues, and everyone praised him.

¹⁶ He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath he entered the synagogue, as was his custom. He stood up to read, ¹⁷ and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. Unrolling it, he located the place where it is written:

¹⁸ "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set the oppressed free, ¹⁹ to proclaim the favourable year of the Lord."

²⁰ Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on him. ²¹ He began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled as you listen." ²² Everyone spoke well of him and marvelled at the gracious words that came from his lips. "Isn't this Joseph's son?" they asked. ²³ Jesus said to them, "Surely you will quote this proverb to me: 'Physician, heal yourself!' And you will say, 'Do here in your hometown what we have heard you did in Capernaum.'" ²⁴ "Truly I tell you," he continued, "no prophet is accepted in his own town. ²⁵ I assure you that there were many widows in Israel in Elijah's time, when the sky was shut for three years and six months and there was a severe famine throughout the land. ²⁶ Yet Elijah was sent to none of them, but to a widow in Zarephath in the region of Sidon. ²⁷ And there were many in Israel with leprosy in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet none of them was cleansed—only Naaman the Syrian." ²⁸ All the people in the synagogue were enraged when they heard this. ²⁹ They got up, drove him out of the town, and took him to the edge of the hill on which the town was built, intending to throw him off the cliff. ³⁰ But he moved through the crowd and continued on his way.

³¹ Then he travelled to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and on the Sabbath he taught the people. ³² They were amazed at his teaching, because his message was delivered with authority. ³³ In the synagogue there was a man possessed by a demon, an impure spirit. He cried out loudly, ³⁴ "Let us be! What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" ³⁵ Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet and come out of him!" Then the demon threw the man down before them all and came out without injuring him. ³⁶ All the people were amazed and said to each other, "What words these are! With authority and power he commands impure spirits and they come out!" ³⁷ And the news about him spread throughout the nearby region.

³⁸ Jesus left the synagogue and went to the home of Simon. Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they requested Jesus to help her. ³⁹ So he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. She got up at once and began to serve them. ⁴⁰ At sunset, all those who had any who were sick with various diseases brought them to him; and laying his hands on each one, he healed them. ⁴¹ Demons also came out of many people, shouting,

Luke

"You are the Son of God!" But he rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew he was the Messiah.

⁴² At daybreak, Jesus went out to a solitary place. The people were searching for him and when they came to where he was, they tried to prevent him from leaving them. ⁴³ But he said, "I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns as well, because that is why I was sent." ⁴⁴ And he continued preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

5 On one occasion, as Jesus stood by the Lake of Gennesaret, the crowd was pressing around him, eager to hear the word of God. ² He noticed two boats at the water's edge; the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. ³ Jesus entered one of the boats, which belonged to Simon, and asked him to move it a little from the shore. He sat down and taught the people from the boat. ⁴ After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." ⁵ Simon replied, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing, but at your word, I will let down the nets." ⁶ When they did this, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to tear. ⁷ They signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and assist them. They came and filled both boats so full that they started to sink. ⁸ When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' knees and said, "Depart from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!" ⁹ For he and all his companions were amazed at the catch of fish they had taken, ¹⁰ and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will catch people." ¹¹ So they brought their boats to land, left everything behind, and followed him.

¹² While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man covered with leprosy approached him. Seeing Jesus, he fell on his face and implored, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean." ¹³ Jesus reached out his hand, touched the man, and said, "I am willing; be clean." Immediately the leprosy left him. ¹⁴ Jesus instructed him, "Tell no one, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them." ¹⁵ Yet the news about him spread even more, and large crowds gathered to hear him and to be healed of their ailments. ¹⁶ But Jesus often withdrew to solitary places to pray.

¹⁷ One day, as he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there. They had come from every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem, and the power of the Lord was present for him to heal the sick. ¹⁸ Some men brought a paralysed man on a mat and tried to lay him before Jesus. ¹⁹ Unable to find a way through the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him on his mat through the tiles into the centre of the crowd, right in front of Jesus. ²⁰ Observing their faith, Jesus said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven." ²¹ The Pharisees and the teachers of the law began to think, "Who is this man who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?" ²² Jesus, knowing their thoughts, asked, "Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? ²³ Which do you think is simpler: to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? ²⁴ But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins," he said to the paralysed man, "I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home." ²⁵ Immediately, he stood up before them, took what he had been lying on, and went home glorifying God. ²⁶ Everyone was amazed and gave praise to God. They were filled with awe and said, "We have seen extraordinary things today."

²⁷ After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at his tax booth. "Follow me," Jesus said to him, ²⁸ and Levi arose, left everything behind, and followed him. ²⁹ Levi held a great banquet for Jesus at his house, and a large crowd of tax collectors and others were reclining at the table with them. ³⁰ The Pharisees and their scribes grumbled to his disciples, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" ³¹ Jesus answered them, "It is not those who are well who need a doctor, but those who are sick. ³² I have come, not to call the righteous, but to call sinners to repent."

³³ They said to him, "John's disciples often fast and pray, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink." ³⁴ Jesus replied, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast while he is with them? ³⁵ But the time will come when the bridegroom is taken from them; in those days they will fast." ³⁶ He told them this parable: "No one tears a piece from a new garment to patch an old one. Otherwise, they will have torn the new garment, and the patch from the new will not match the old.³⁷ And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins; the wine will spill out and the skins will be ruined.³⁸ Instead, new wine must be placed into fresh wineskins.³⁹ And no one after drinking old wine desires the new, for they say, 'The old is better.'"

Luke

6 On a Sabbath, Jesus was passing through some grainfields, and His disciples began to pick the heads of grain, rub them in their hands, and eat the kernels.² Some of the Pharisees questioned, "Why are you doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?"³ Jesus replied to them, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?⁴ He entered the house of God, took the consecrated bread, and ate what is only lawful for priests to eat, and he also gave some to his companions."⁵ And He told them, "The Son of Man is master of the Sabbath."

⁶ On another Sabbath, He went into the synagogue and was teaching, and there was a man there whose right hand was withered.⁷ The scribes and Pharisees were watching Him closely to see if He would heal on the Sabbath, so they might find a reason to accuse Him.⁸ But He knew their thoughts and said to the man with the withered hand, "Get up and stand in front of everyone." So he got up and stood there.⁹ Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save a life or to destroy it?"¹⁰ After looking around at them all, He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and his hand was restored.¹¹ But they were filled with rage and began to discuss with one another what they might do to Jesus.

¹² At that time, Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the whole night in prayer to God.¹³ When morning came, He called His disciples to Him and chose twelve of them, whom He also named apostles:¹⁴ Simon (whom He called Peter), his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew,¹⁵ Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Simon known as the Zealot,¹⁶ Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who later betrayed Him.

¹⁷ He went down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of His disciples was there, and a great multitude of people from all Judea, from Jerusalem, and from the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon,¹⁸ who had come to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases. Those troubled by unclean spirits were cured,¹⁹ and everyone was trying to touch Him, because power was coming from Him and healing them all.

²⁰ Turning to His disciples, He said:

"Blessed are you who are in poor, because yours is the kingdom of God.²¹ Fortunate are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Fortunate are you who weep now, for you will find joy.²² Blessed are you when people hate you, exclude you, insult you, and scorn your name as evil, on account of the Son of Man.

²³ Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven. For that is how their ancestors treated the prophets.

²⁴ But woe to you who have wealth, for you have already received your comfort.²⁵ Woe to you who are well-fed now, for you will go hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep.²⁶ Woe to you when everyone speaks highly of you, for that is how their ancestors treated the false prophets.

²⁷ "But to those of you who are listening, I say: Love your enemies, and do good to those who hate you,²⁸ speak well of those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you.²⁹ If someone strikes you on one cheek, offer them the other also. If someone takes your coat, do not withhold your shirt from them.³⁰ Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not insist on getting it back.³¹ Do to others as you would want them to do to you.

³² If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even those who are not righteous love those who love them.³³ And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even those who are not righteous do the same.³⁴ And if you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even those who are not righteous lend to others like themselves, expecting to be repaid in full.³⁵ But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because He is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. ³⁶ Therefore show mercy, just as your Father shows mercy.

Luke

³⁷ "Refrain from judging, and you will not be judged. Refrain from condemning, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. ³⁸ Give, and it will be given to you. A generous measure, pressed down, shaken together, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you."

³⁹ He also shared this parable with them: "Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into a pit? ⁴⁰ The student is not above the teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will become like their teacher. ⁴¹ Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? ⁴² How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take the speck out of your eye,' when you yourself do not notice the plank in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

⁴³ A healthy tree does not yield poor fruit, nor does a diseased tree yield good fruit. ⁴⁴ Each tree is recognised by its own fruit. People do not pick figs from thornbushes, nor do they gather grapes from briars. ⁴⁵ A good person brings good things out of the good stored up in their heart, and an evil person brings evil things out of the evil stored up in their heart. For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of.

⁴⁶ "Why do you address me as 'Lord, Lord,' and yet do not follow my instructions? ⁴⁷ Everyone who comes to me and hears my words and puts them into practice, I will show you what they are like: ⁴⁸ They are like a person building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on rock. When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. ⁴⁹ But the one who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a person who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete."

7 When Jesus had completed all His teachings in the hearing of the people, He went into Capernaum. ² There was a centurion's servant, highly valued by him, who was ill and on the verge of death. ³ The centurion, having heard about Jesus, sent some Jewish elders to Him, asking Him to come and heal his servant. ⁴ When they reached Jesus, they earnestly urged Him, saying, "He is worthy for You to do this for him, ⁵ for he loves our nation and has built our synagogue." ⁶ So Jesus went with them. He was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to say to Him, "Lord, do not trouble Yourself further, for I am not worthy to have You come under my roof. ⁷ That is why I did not even consider myself worthy to come to You. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed. ⁸ For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." ⁹ When Jesus heard this, He was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following Him, He said, "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith." ¹⁰ When the messengers returned to the house, they found the servant restored to health.

¹¹ Soon afterwards, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and His disciples and a large crowd went with Him.

¹² As He approached the town gate, a dead man was being carried out—the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. A large crowd from the town was with her. ¹³ When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said, "Do not weep." ¹⁴ Then He went up and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise!"

¹⁵ The man who had died sat up and began to speak, and Jesus returned him to his mother. ¹⁶ They were all filled with awe and glorified God. "A great prophet has appeared among us," they said. "God has visited His people." ¹⁷ This account of Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding region.

¹⁸ John's disciples reported to him about all these things. Summoning two of them, ¹⁹ he sent them to the Lord to ask, "Are You the one who is to come, or should we expect another?" ²⁰ When the men came to Jesus, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to You to ask, 'Are You the one who is to come, or should we expect another?'" ²¹ At that time, Jesus cured many people of diseases, afflictions, and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind. ²² So He replied to the messengers, "Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive sight, the lame walk, those with leprosy are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is proclaimed to the poor. ²³ Blessed is anyone who does not stumble because of Me.”

Luke

²⁴ After John’s messengers had left, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swayed by the wind? ²⁵ If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear splendid clothing and live in luxury are in palaces. ²⁶ But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and even more than a prophet. ²⁷ This is the one about whom it is written:

‘Behold, I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.’

²⁸ I tell you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John; yet even the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.” ²⁹ (All the people, including the tax collectors, when they heard Jesus’ words, acknowledged God’s justice, having been baptised by John. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and the experts in the law rejected God’s purpose for themselves, not having been baptised by John.)

³¹ “To what then can I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like? ³² They are just like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to each other:

‘We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not weep.’

³³ For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, ‘He is possessed.’ ³⁴ The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.’ ³⁵ Yet wisdom is proven right by all her children.”

³⁶ One of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with him, and He went to the Pharisee’s house and reclined at the table. ³⁷ A woman in the town who was a sinner learned that He was eating at the Pharisee’s house, so she brought an alabaster jar of perfume. ³⁸ Standing behind Him at His feet weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them, and poured perfume on them. ³⁹ When the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he thought to himself, “If this man were a prophet, He would know who is touching Him and what kind of woman she is—that she is a sinner.” ⁴⁰ Jesus responded to him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” “Say it, Teacher,” he replied. ⁴¹ “A moneylender had two debtors. One owed him five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. ⁴² When they were unable to repay, he forgave the debts of both. Now which of them will love him more?” ⁴³ Simon answered, “I suppose the one who had the larger debt forgiven.” “You have judged correctly,” Jesus said. ⁴⁴ Then turning towards the woman, He said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you provided no water for My feet, but she has wet My feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. ⁴⁵ You did not give Me a kiss, but she has not stopped kissing My feet since I came in. ⁴⁶ You did not anoint My head with oil, but she has poured perfume on My feet. ⁴⁷ Therefore, I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven, as her great love has shown. But whoever has been forgiven little loves little.” ⁴⁸ Then Jesus assured her, “Your sins are forgiven.” ⁴⁹ The other guests began to wonder among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?” ⁵⁰ And He told the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go forth in peace.”

8 Shortly after, Jesus went around from one city and village to another, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with him, ² and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and illnesses: Mary called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had come out, ³ Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod’s steward; Susanna; and many others who were supporting them out of their own resources.

⁴ As a large crowd was gathering and people from various towns were coming to Jesus, he spoke to them in a parable: ⁵ “A sower went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the path; it was trampled underfoot, and the birds of the air ate it up.

⁶ Some fell on rocky ground, and when it sprang up, it withered because it lacked moisture. ⁷ Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up with it and choked it. ⁸ Still other seed fell on good soil. It grew up and produced a crop a hundred times more than was sown.” As he said this, he called out, “Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear.”

⁹ His disciples inquired about the meaning of this parable. ¹⁰ He replied, “To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God, but to others I speak in parables, so that,

Luke

‘though seeing, they may not see; though hearing, they may not understand.’

¹¹ “The parable’s meaning is this: The seed represents the word of God. ¹² Those along the path are those who hear, and then the adversary comes and removes the word from their hearts, preventing them from believing and being saved. ¹³ Those on rocky ground are the ones who receive the word with joy when they hear it, but they have no root. They believe for a while, but in a time of testing they fall away. ¹⁴ The seed that fell among thorns represents those who hear, but as they continue on their way, they are overwhelmed by life’s worries, riches, and pleasures, and they do not mature. ¹⁵ But the seed on good soil represents those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, retain it, and through perseverance produce a crop.

¹⁶ “No one lights a lamp and covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed. Instead, they put it on a lampstand, so that those who come in can see the light. ¹⁷ For there is nothing hidden that will not be disclosed, and nothing concealed that will not be known and brought to light. ¹⁸ Therefore, be mindful of how you listen. Whoever has will be given more; whoever does not have, even what they think they possess will be taken from them.”

¹⁹ Now Jesus’ mother and brothers came to see him, but they could not get near him because of the crowd. ²⁰ Someone informed him, “Your mother and brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you.”

²¹ He replied, “My mother and brothers are those who hear God’s word and do it.”

²² On a certain day, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let us cross to the other side of the lake.” So they got into a boat and set out. ²³ As they sailed, he fell asleep. A squall came down on the lake, so that the boat was being swamped, and they were in danger.

²⁴ The disciples approached him and woke him, saying, “Master, Master, we’re in peril!” He arose and rebuked the wind and the turbulent waters; the storm subsided, and all was calm. ²⁵ “Where is your faith?” he asked his disciples. Filled with awe and wonder, they questioned one another, “Who is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him.”

²⁶ They travelled to the region of the Gerasenes, which is across the lake from Galilee. ²⁷ When Jesus

stepped ashore, he was met by a man possessed by demons from the town. For a long time, this man had not worn clothes or lived in a house, but had lived in the tombs. ²⁸ When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell at his feet, shouting loudly, “What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don’t torment me!” ²⁹ For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was chained hand and foot and kept under guard, he had broken his chains and had been driven by the demon into solitary places. ³⁰ Jesus inquired of him, “What is your name?” “Legion,” he responded, for many demons had entered him. ³¹ And they pleaded with Jesus repeatedly not to send them into the Abyss. ³² A large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside. The demons begged Jesus to let them go into the pigs, and he allowed them. ³³ When the demons left the man, they entered the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and perished.

³⁴ When those tending the pigs observed what had occurred, they ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, ³⁵ and the people went out to see what had happened. When they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had departed, sitting at Jesus’ feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. ³⁶ Those who had witnessed it informed the people how the man possessed by demons had been healed. ³⁷ Then all the people of the region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them, because they were overwhelmed with fear. So he got into the boat and left. ³⁸ The man from whom the demons had departed pleaded to accompany him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, ³⁹ “Return home and tell how much God has done for you.” So the man went away and proclaimed throughout the town how much Jesus had done for him.

⁴⁰ Upon Jesus’ return, a crowd welcomed him, for they were all anticipating his arrival. ⁴¹ Then a man named Jairus, a synagogue leader, approached and fell at Jesus’ feet, earnestly requesting him to come to his house ⁴² because his only daughter, a girl of about twelve, was dying. As Jesus was on his way, the crowds nearly crushed him. ⁴³ And a woman was there who had been suffering from bleeding for twelve years, but no one could heal her. ⁴⁴ She approached from behind and touched the edge of his cloak, and immediately her bleeding ceased.⁴⁵ “Who touched me?” Jesus inquired. When they all denied it, Peter remarked, “Master, the people are crowding and pressing against you.”⁴⁶ But Jesus said, “Someone has touched me; I know that power has gone out from me.”⁴⁷ Then the woman, realising she could not remain unnoticed, came trembling and fell at his feet. In the presence of all the people, she explained why she had touched him and how she had been instantly healed.⁴⁸ Then he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace.”

Luke

⁴⁹ While Jesus was still speaking, someone came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue leader. “Your daughter is dead,” he said. “Don’t trouble the teacher anymore.”⁵⁰ Hearing this, Jesus said to Jairus, “Do not fear; just believe, and she will be healed.”⁵¹ When he arrived at the house of Jairus, he allowed only Peter, John, and James, along with the child’s father and mother, to enter with him.⁵² Meanwhile, all the people were lamenting and mourning for her. “Cease your weeping,” Jesus said. “She is not dead but asleep.”⁵³ They ridiculed him, being certain that she was dead.⁵⁴ But he took her by the hand and said, “My child, arise!”⁵⁵ Her spirit returned, and she immediately stood up. Then Jesus instructed them to give her something to eat.⁵⁶ Her parents were astonished, but he instructed them not to tell anyone what had happened.

9 When Jesus called the Twelve together, He bestowed upon them power and authority over all demons and to heal diseases.² He sent them to announce the kingdom of God and to cure the sick.³ He instructed them, “Take nothing for the journey—neither staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not have an extra tunic.”⁴ “Whatever house you enter, remain there until you depart from that place.”⁵ “If people do not welcome you, leave that town and shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.”⁶ So they departed and went through the villages, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.

⁷ Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening, and he was perplexed because some were saying that John had been raised from the dead,⁸ others that Elijah had appeared, and still others that one of the prophets of old had risen.⁹

Herod said, “I beheaded John. Who, then, is this about whom I hear such things?” And he sought to see Him.

¹⁰ When the apostles returned, they reported to Jesus all they had done. He took them with Him and withdrew privately to a town called Bethsaida.¹¹ But the crowds learned of it and followed Him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those in need of healing.¹² As the day was drawing to a close, the Twelve approached Him and said, “Send the crowd away so they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside to find lodging and food, for we are in a secluded place.”¹³ He replied, “You give them something to eat.” They answered, “We have only five loaves and two fish—unless we go and buy food for all this crowd.”¹⁴ (There were about five thousand men.) But He said to His disciples, “Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each.”¹⁵ The disciples complied, and everyone sat down.¹⁶ Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to distribute to the people.¹⁷ They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples collected twelve baskets full of broken pieces that were left over.

¹⁸ While Jesus was praying in private, and the disciples were with Him, He asked them, “Who do the crowds say I am?”¹⁹ They answered, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, that one of the prophets of old has come back to life.”²⁰ “But what about you?” He asked. “Who do you say I am?” Peter answered, “The Christ of God.”

²¹ Jesus strictly instructed them not to tell this to anyone.²² He said, “The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed and be raised on the third day.”

²³ Then He said to them all, “If anyone wishes to follow Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow Me.”²⁴ “For whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever gives up his life for My sake will find it.”²⁵ “What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, yet lose or forfeit their very self?”²⁶ “Whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of them when He comes in His glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.” ²⁷ “Truly I tell you, some who are standing here will not experience death before they see the kingdom of God.”

²⁸ About eight days after Jesus spoke these words, He took Peter, John, and James with Him and went up onto a mountain to pray. ²⁹ As He was praying, His face altered in appearance, and His clothes became brilliantly white. ³⁰ Two men, Moses and Elijah, appeared in radiant glory, conversing with Jesus. ³¹ They discussed His departure, which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. ³² Peter and his companions were quite sleepy, but when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men standing with Him. ³³ As the men were leaving Jesus, Peter said to Him, “Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” (He was unaware of what he was saying.) ³⁴ While he was speaking, a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. ³⁵ A voice came from the cloud, saying, “This is My Son, My Chosen One; listen to Him.” ³⁶ When the voice had spoken, they found Jesus was alone. The disciples kept this to themselves and did not disclose to anyone at that time what they had witnessed.

³⁷ The following day, as they descended from the mountain, a large crowd approached Him. ³⁸ A man in the crowd called out, “Teacher, I implore You to look at my son, for he is my only child.” ³⁹ “A spirit seizes him and he suddenly screams; it throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It scarcely ever leaves him and is harming him.” ⁴⁰ “I asked Your disciples to drive it out, but they could not.” ⁴¹ Jesus answered, “You unbelieving and perverse generation, how long shall I stay with you and put up with you? Bring your son here.” ⁴² Even while the boy was coming, the demon threw him to the ground in a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the impure spirit, healed the boy, and returned him to his father. ⁴³ And they were all in awe of the majesty of God. While everyone was marvelling at all that Jesus did, He addressed His disciples, ⁴⁴ “Pay close attention to what I am about to tell you: The Son of Man is going to be handed over to men.” ⁴⁵ But they did not understand what this meant. It was hidden from them, so they did not grasp it, and they were afraid to ask Him about it.

⁴⁶ A dispute arose among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest. ⁴⁷ Jesus, aware of their thoughts, took a little child and had him stand beside Him. ⁴⁸ Then He said to them, “Whoever receives this little child in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives the one who sent Me. For it is the one who is least among you all who is the greatest.”

⁴⁹ “Master,” said John, “we saw someone driving out demons in Your name and we tried to stop him, because he was not part of our group.” ⁵⁰ “Do not stop him,” Jesus said, “for whoever is not opposed to you is for you.”

⁵¹ As the time approached for Him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus steadfastly set out for Jerusalem. ⁵² He sent messengers on ahead, who went into a Samaritan village to prepare for Him; ⁵³ but the people there did not receive Him, because He was heading for Jerusalem. ⁵⁴ When the disciples James and John saw this, they asked, “Lord, do You want us to call fire down from heaven to consume them?” ⁵⁵ But Jesus turned to them and rebuked them. ⁵⁶ Then He and His disciples moved on to another village.

⁵⁷ As they were walking along the road, someone said to Him, “I will follow You wherever You go.” ⁵⁸ Jesus replied, “Foxes have dens and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest His head.” ⁵⁹ He said to another man, “Follow Me.” But he replied, “Lord, first let me go and lay my father to rest.” ⁶⁰ Jesus said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and announce the kingdom of God.” ⁶¹ Still another said, “I will follow You, Lord; but first let me go back and bid farewell to my family.” ⁶² Jesus replied, “No one who sets a hand to the plough and looks back is suitable for service in the kingdom of God.”

10 After this, the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them in pairs ahead of him to every city and place where he himself was about to go. ² He said to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore, ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest field. ³ Go! Behold, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. ⁴ Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals, and do not greet anyone along the road. ⁵ When you enter a house, begin by saying, ‘Peace be upon this house.’ ⁶ If a person of peace is there, your peace will rest on them; if not, it will return to you.⁷ Stay in that house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the worker deserves his wages. Do not move from house to house.⁸ When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is set before you.⁹ Heal the sick there and tell them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'¹⁰ However, if you enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and declare,¹¹ 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God has come near.'¹² I tell you, it will be more tolerable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

Luke

¹³ "Alas for you, Chorazin! Alas for you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.¹⁴ Yet, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you.¹⁵ And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted to the heavens? No, you will be brought down to Hades.¹⁶ "Those who listen to you are listening to me; those who reject you are rejecting me; and those who reject me are rejecting the one who sent me."

¹⁷ The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons obey us in your name."¹⁸ He said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.¹⁹ I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you."²⁰ Nevertheless, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

²¹ At that time, Jesus, full of joy through the Holy Spirit, said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was your good pleasure."²² "All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."²³ Then he turned to his disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that witness what you see."²⁴ For I tell you that many prophets and kings longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it."

²⁵ On one occasion, an expert in the law stood up to challenge Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"²⁶ "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you interpret it?"²⁷ He responded, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind"; and, 'Love your neighbour as yourself.'²⁸ "You have answered well," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."

²⁹ But seeking to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?"³⁰ In response, Jesus said: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead.³¹ By chance, a priest was going down that road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side.³² Similarly, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.³³ But a Samaritan, as he travelled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he felt compassion for him.³⁴ He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own animal, brought him to an inn and took care of him.³⁵ The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Take care of him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.'³⁶ "Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?"³⁷ The expert in the law replied, "The one who showed mercy on him." Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."

³⁸ As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home.³⁹ She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to his word.⁴⁰ But Martha was preoccupied with all the preparations that needed to be made. She came to him and asked, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do the work by myself? Tell her to help me!"⁴¹ "Martha, Martha," the Lord answered, "you are anxious and troubled about many things,⁴² but only one thing is needed. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her."

11 It came to pass that while Jesus was praying in a certain place, when He had concluded, one of His disciples approached Him, saying, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."² He responded, "When you pray, say:

Luke

'Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. ³ Give us today, our daily bread. ⁴ And forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sinned against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.'"

⁵ And He said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and goes to him at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; ⁶ because a friend of mine has arrived from a journey, and I have nothing to offer him.' ⁷ And suppose the one inside replies, 'Do not trouble me; the door is already shut, and my children and I are in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.' ⁸ I tell you, even if he will not rise and give him anything because he is his friend, yet due to his persistence, he will rise and give him as much as he needs. ⁹ "So I tell you: Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. ¹⁰ For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door shall be opened. ¹¹ Which of you fathers, if your son requests a fish, will hand him a snake instead? ¹² Or if he asks for an egg, will offer him a scorpion? ¹³ If you then, though you are flawed, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

¹⁴ And He was casting out a demon that was mute; when the demon had departed, the man who was mute spoke, and the crowds were astonished. ¹⁵ But some of them said, "He drives out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of demons." ¹⁶ Others, testing Him, sought a sign from heaven. ¹⁷ But He, knowing their thoughts, said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and a house divided against itself falls. ¹⁸ If Satan is divided against himself, how can his kingdom stand? I say this because you claim I drive out demons by Beelzebul. ¹⁹ If I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your followers drive them out? Therefore, they will be your judges. ²⁰ But if I expel demons by the power of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. ²¹ When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own house, his belongings are secure. ²² But when someone stronger attacks and overpowers him, he takes away the armour in which the man trusted and divides his spoils. ²³ For anyone who is not with Me is against Me, and anyone who does not gather with Me scatters.

²⁴ "When an unclean spirit departs from a person, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and not finding any, it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' ²⁵ When it arrives, it finds the house swept and put in order. ²⁶ Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they enter and dwell there; and the final condition of that person is worse than the first."

²⁷ As He was saying these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said, "Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts at which You nursed!" ²⁸ But He said, "Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it."

²⁹ As the crowds increased, He began to say, "This is a wicked generation. It seeks a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah. ³⁰ For just as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation. ³¹ The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, something greater than Solomon is here. ³² The people of Nineveh will stand at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.

³³ "No one lights a lamp and places it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a lampstand, so that those who enter may see the light. ³⁴ Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eyes are healthy, your whole body is full of light. But when they are unhealthy, your body is full of darkness. ³⁵ Therefore, be careful that the light within you is not darkness. ³⁶ If your whole body is full of light, with no part dark, it will be fully illuminated, as when a lamp shines its light upon you."

³⁷ When He had finished speaking, a Pharisee invited Him to dine with him; so He went in and reclined at the table. ³⁸ But the Pharisee was surprised to see that He did not first ceremonially wash before the meal. ³⁹ Then the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. ⁴⁰ You unwise ones! Did not He who made the outside make the inside also? ⁴¹ But give what is inside as a charitable gift, and then everything will be clean for you.

⁴² “Woe to you Pharisees, for you pay tithes of mint, rue, and every kind of garden herb, but neglect justice and the love of God. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others. ⁴³ Woe to you Pharisees, for you love the most important seats in the synagogues and respectful greetings in the marketplaces. ⁴⁴ Woe to you, for you are like unmarked graves, which people walk over without knowing it.”

⁴⁵ One of the experts in the law answered Him, “Teacher, by saying these things, You insult us also.”

⁴⁶ He replied, “Woe to you experts in the law, for you load people with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. ⁴⁷ Woe to you, for you build tombs for the prophets, and it was your ancestors who killed them.

⁴⁸ So you bear witness that you approve of the deeds of your ancestors; they killed the prophets, and you build their tombs. ⁴⁹ For this reason, the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and others they will persecute,’ ⁵⁰ so that the blood of all the prophets, shed since the foundation of the world, may be charged against this generation, ⁵¹ from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Truly, I tell you, it will be charged against this generation. ⁵² “Woe to you experts in the law, for you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter yourselves, and you obstructed those who were entering.”

⁵³ When He left that place, the scribes and the Pharisees began to oppose Him fiercely and to interrogate Him about many things, ⁵⁴ plotting to catch Him in something He might say.

12 In these circumstances, as a multitude of thousands had gathered, so that they were stepping on one another, He began to speak first to His disciples, saying, “Be wary of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. ² For there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed, nor hidden that will not be made known. ³ Therefore, what you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in the inner rooms will be proclaimed upon the rooftops.

⁴ “I say to you, My friends, do not fear those who kill the body and after that can do no more. ⁵ But I will show you whom you should fear: fear Him who, after

He has killed, has the power to cast into hell; yes, I tell you, fear Him. ⁶ Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten before God. ⁷ Indeed, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear; you are worth more than many sparrows.

⁸ “I tell you, everyone who acknowledges Me before others, the Son of Man will also acknowledge before the angels of God. ⁹ But he who disowns Me before others will be disowned before the angels of God. ¹⁰ And anyone who speaks against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. ¹¹ When you are brought before synagogues, rulers, and authorities, do not be anxious about how to defend yourselves or what you will say, ¹² for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that moment what you ought to say.”

¹³ A person in the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, instruct my brother to share the inheritance with me.” ¹⁴ But He replied, “Man, who appointed Me a judge or an arbitrator over you?” ¹⁵ Then He said to them, “Beware and be on your guard against every form of greed; for life is not about collecting an abundance of possessions.” ¹⁶ And He told them a parable, saying, “The land of a certain rich man was very productive. ¹⁷ And he thought to himself, ‘What shall I do, since I have no place to store my crops?’ ¹⁸ Then he said, ‘Here is what I will do: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. ¹⁹ And I will say to my soul, ‘You have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease, eat, drink, and be merry.’” ²⁰ But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you; and now who will own what you have prepared?’ ²¹ This is how it will be for anyone who stores up treasure for themselves but is not rich towards God.”

²² Then He said to His disciples, “For this reason I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; nor about your body, what you will wear. ²³ For life is not merely about food, nor the body solely about clothing. ²⁴ Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have no storeroom nor barn, yet God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than the birds! ²⁵ Which of you by worrying can add a single hour to your life’s span? ²⁶ If you cannot do even a very little thing, why do you worry about the rest? ²⁷ Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither labour nor spin; yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendour was clothed like one of these.²⁸ If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, how much more will He clothe you—O you of little faith!²⁹ And do not set your heart on what you will eat or drink; do not keep worrying.³⁰ For all these things the nations of the world eagerly seek; and your Father knows that you need them.³¹ Instead, strive for His kingdom, and these things will be provided to you as well.³² Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father delights in giving you the kingdom.³³ Sell your possessions and give to charity; provide purses for yourselves that do not wear out, a treasure in heaven that will never fail, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.³⁴ For wherever your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

³⁵ “Be ready for service and keep your lamps burning,³⁶ like servants waiting for their master to return from a wedding feast, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him.³⁷ Blessed are those servants whom the master finds watching when he comes. Truly I tell you, he will dress himself to serve, have them recline at the table, and will come and serve them.³⁸ It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready, whether he comes in the second watch, or even in the third watch.³⁹ But be sure of this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have allowed his house to be broken into.⁴⁰ You must also be prepared, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.”

⁴¹ Peter asked, “Lord, are You telling this parable to us, or to everyone else?”⁴² And the Lord replied, “Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom the master puts in charge of his servants, to give them their rations at the proper time?⁴³ Blessed is that servant whom his master finds doing so when he returns.⁴⁴ Truly I tell you, he will entrust him with all his possessions.⁴⁵ But if that servant says in his heart, ‘My master is delaying his coming,’ and begins to beat the other servants, both men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk,⁴⁶ the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will cut him in two, and assign him a place with the unbelievers.⁴⁷ “The servant who knows his master’s will and does not get ready or does not do what his master wants will be beaten with many blows.⁴⁸ But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows. From everyone who has been given much, much will be required; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, even more will be asked.

⁴⁹ “I have come to bring fire upon the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!⁵⁰ But I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is completed!⁵¹ Do you think I came to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.⁵² From now on there will be five in one household divided, three against two and two against three.⁵³ They will be set against each other: father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”

⁵⁴ He also said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, ‘A shower is coming,’ and it does.⁵⁵ And when you feel a south wind blowing, you say, ‘It will be hot,’ and it is.⁵⁶ You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how is it that you do not know how to interpret this present time?

⁵⁷ “And why do you not discern for yourselves what is right?⁵⁸ As you are going with your adversary to the magistrate, make an effort to be reconciled on the way, so that he does not drag you before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.⁵⁹ I tell you, you will not be released until you have paid the last penny.”

13 At that time, there were some present who informed Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.² Jesus replied, “Do you suppose that these Galileans were greater sinners than all the other Galileans because they suffered this fate?³ I assure you, they were not! However, unless you repent, you will all meet a similar end.⁴ Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower in Siloam fell on them—do you think they were more guilty than all the others living in Jerusalem?⁵ I assure you, they were not! However, unless you repent, you will all meet a similar end.”

⁶ And He told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it but found none. ⁷ So he said to the vineyard-keeper, 'For three years I have been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?' ⁸ But he answered, 'Sir, leave it alone for one more year, and I will dig around it and fertilise it. ⁹ If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, then cut it down.'"

¹⁰ One Sabbath, while Jesus was teaching in a synagogue, ¹¹ there was a woman who had been crippled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all. ¹² When Jesus saw her, He called her over and said, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity." ¹³ He laid His hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and glorified God. ¹⁴ But the synagogue leader, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the crowd, "There are six days for work. So come and be healed on those days, not on the Sabbath." ¹⁵ The Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie your ox or donkey from the stall and lead it to water?" ¹⁶ Then should not this woman, a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound for eighteen long years, be freed on the Sabbath day from what bound her?" ¹⁷ When He said this, all His opponents were put to shame, but the people rejoiced at all the glorious things He was doing.

¹⁸ Then Jesus asked, "What is the kingdom of God like? To what shall I compare it? ¹⁹ It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches."

²⁰ Again He asked, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? ²¹ It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into three measures of flour until it was all leavened."

²² And He went through the towns and villages, teaching as He made His way to Jerusalem. ²³ Someone inquired of Him, "Lord, will only a few be saved?" He responded to them, ²⁴ "Strive earnestly to enter through the narrow door, for I tell you many will try but not be able. ²⁵ Once the owner of the house gets up and shuts the door, you will stand outside knocking and pleading, 'Sir, open the door for us.' But He will answer, 'I do not know you or where you come from.' ²⁶ Then you will say, 'We shared meals with you, and you taught among us.' ²⁷ But He will reply, 'I do not know where you come from. Depart from me, all you evildoers!' ²⁸ There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves cast out. ²⁹ People will come from east and west, and from north and south, and will recline at the table in the kingdom of God. ³⁰ Indeed, there are those who are last who will be first, and those who are first who will be last."

³¹ At that time some Pharisees came to Jesus and said, "Leave this place and go elsewhere. Herod wants to kill you." ³² He replied, "Go tell that fox, 'I will keep on casting out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach my goal.' ³³ Nevertheless, I must continue my journey today, tomorrow, and the next day—for it is not possible for a prophet to perish outside of Jerusalem."

³⁴ O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who harm the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have desired to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing. ³⁵ Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me again until you declare, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

14 On a Sabbath, as Jesus went to dine at the house of a leader among the Pharisees, they were observing Him intently. ² In front of Him was a man afflicted with severe swelling. ³ Jesus posed a question to the Pharisees and legal experts, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?" ⁴ But they remained silent. So He took hold of the man, healed him, and sent him away. ⁵ And He said to them, "If any of you has a son or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day, will you not immediately pull him out?" ⁶ And they could not respond to this.

⁷ Observing how the guests chose the places of honour at the table, He told them a parable: ⁸ "When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honour, lest someone more distinguished than you has been invited. ⁹ The host

who invited both of you will then come and say, 'Give your place to this person,' and you will be embarrassed and take the least important place.¹⁰ But when you are invited, go and sit at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will be honoured in front of all the other guests.¹¹ For everyone who exalts themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

¹² Then Jesus said to His host, "When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your siblings, your relatives, or your wealthy neighbours, lest they also invite you in return and you are repaid.

¹³ But when you host a banquet, invite the poor, the disabled, the lame, and the blind,¹⁴ and you will be blessed. Though they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

¹⁵ When one of those reclining at the table with Him heard this, he said to Jesus, "Blessed is the one who will eat at the feast in the kingdom of God."¹⁶ Jesus replied, "A man was preparing a great banquet and invited many guests.¹⁷ At the time of the banquet, he sent his servant to say to those who had been invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.'¹⁸ But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said, 'I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please excuse me.'¹⁹ Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out. Please excuse me.'²⁰ Still another said, 'I have just married, so I cannot come.'²¹ The servant returned and reported this to his master. The owner of the house became angry and ordered his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and bring in the poor, the disabled, the blind, and the lame.'²² 'Master,' the servant said, 'what you ordered has been done, but there is still room.'²³ Then the master instructed his servant, 'Go out to the roads and country lanes and encourage them to come in, so that my house will be full.'²⁴ I tell you, none of those who were invited will taste my banquet."

²⁵ Large crowds were travelling with Jesus, and He turned and said to them:²⁶ "If anyone comes to Me and does not hate their father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even their own life—such a person cannot be My disciple.²⁷ And whoever does not carry their own cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.

²⁸ Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Will you not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if you have enough to complete it?²⁹ For if you lay the foundation and are unable to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule you,³⁰ saying, 'This person began to build and could not complete it.'³¹ Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Will he not first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand?³² If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still far off and will ask for terms of peace.³³ In the same way, those of you who do not relinquish all you possess cannot be My disciples.

³⁴ "Salt is good, but if it loses its flavour, how can it be made salty again?³⁵ It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure heap; it is thrown out. Let those who have ears to hear, listen."

15 Now the tax collectors and sinners were all approaching to listen to Jesus.² And the Pharisees and the scribes were complaining, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them."

³ Then He began to share this parable with them:⁴ "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open field and go after the one that is lost until he finds it?⁵ And when he finds it, he joyfully places it on his shoulders.⁶ And upon returning home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my lost sheep.'⁷ I tell you, in the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who do not need repentance.

⁸ "Or what woman, having ten silver coins and losing one, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search diligently until she finds it?⁹ And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbours together, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin I lost.'¹⁰ Likewise, I tell you, there is joy among the angels of God over even one sinner who repents."

¹¹ Then He shared, "There was a man who had two sons.¹² The younger son requested from his father, 'Father, give me my portion of the inheritance.' So he divided his property between them.¹³ Not long after, the younger son gathered all he had and journeyed to a distant country, where he squandered his wealth in reckless living.¹⁴ After he had spent everything, a severe famine arose in that country, and he began to be in want.¹⁵ So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs.¹⁶ He desired to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one provided him with anything.¹⁷ When he realised his situation, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have food to spare, and here I am perishing with hunger!¹⁸ I will arise and go to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.¹⁹ I am not worthy to be called your son any longer; treat me as one of your hired servants.'²⁰ So he arose and went to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him.²¹ The son addressed him, 'Father, I have done wrong against heaven and against you. I am not worthy to be called your son any longer.'²² But the father told his servants, 'Quickly, bring out the best robe and put it on him; place a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.'²³ Bring the fattened calf and slaughter it. Let us eat and celebrate.'²⁴ For this son of mine was as if dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' And they began to celebrate.

²⁵ Meanwhile, the older son was in the field, and as he approached the house, he heard music and dancing.²⁶ So he called one of the servants and asked what was happening.²⁷ 'Your brother has returned,' he replied, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'²⁸ The older brother was upset and would not go in. So his father went out and entreated him.²⁹ But he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I've been serving you and have never disobeyed your commands, yet you never gave me even a young goat to celebrate with my friends.'³⁰ But when this son of yours returns, who has squandered your property with prostitutes, you kill the fattened calf for him!' ³¹ 'Son,' the father said, 'you are always with me, and all that I have is yours.'³² But it was necessary to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was as if he was dead but now he is alive again; he was lost and is found.'

16 Jesus said to His disciples, "There was a wealthy man who had a steward, and this steward was reported to him for squandering his possessions.² So he called him and asked, 'What is this I hear about you? Provide an account of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward.'³ The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, since my master is taking the stewardship away from me? I am not strong enough to dig; I am too ashamed to beg.'⁴ I know what I shall do, so that when I am removed from the stewardship, people will welcome me into their homes.'⁵ So he summoned each of his master's debtors. He asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' ⁶ He replied, 'A hundred measures of oil.' The steward said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write fifty.'⁷ Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' He replied, 'A hundred measures of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'⁸ The master praised the dishonest steward because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than the children of light.⁹ And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of worldly wealth, so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into eternal dwellings.

¹⁰ Whoever is faithful with very little is also faithful with much; and whoever is dishonest with very little is also dishonest with much.¹¹ If you have not been faithful with worldly wealth, who will entrust true riches to you? ¹² And if you have not been trustworthy with what belongs to someone else, who will give you what is truly yours? ¹³ No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.

¹⁴ The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things and were sneering at Him.¹⁵ He said to them, "You are the ones who justify yourselves in the sight of others, but God knows your hearts; for what is highly esteemed among people is detestable in God's sight.

¹⁶ The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John; since then, the good news of the kingdom of God is being preached, and everyone is forcing their way into it.¹⁷ But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of a letter in the Law to fail. ¹⁸ Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and anyone who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.

¹⁹ There was a wealthy man who wore purple and fine linen, and enjoyed a luxurious life every day. ²⁰ At his gate was laid a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, ²¹ and desiring to eat what fell from the wealthy man's table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores. ²² The time came when the poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. ²³ In the place of the dead, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. ²⁴ So he called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in agony in this flame.' ²⁵ But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that during your life you received your good things, and Lazarus likewise bad things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. ²⁶ And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who want to cross from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross from there to us.' ²⁷ He said, 'Then I plead with you, father, to send him to my father's house— ²⁸ for I have five brothers—so that he may warn them, lest they also come to this place of torment.' ²⁹ But Abraham said, 'They have Moses and the Prophets; let them listen to them.' ³⁰ He said, 'No, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead visits them, they will repent.' ³¹ But he said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"

17 Jesus said to His disciples, "It is inevitable that stumbling blocks will come, but woe to the person through whom they come! ² It would be better for that person to have a millstone hung around their neck and be thrown into the sea than to cause one of these little ones to sin. ³ Be on your guard! If your brother or sister sins against you, rebuke them; and if they repent, forgive them. ⁴ Even if they sin against you seven times in a day and come back to you seven times saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive them."

⁵ The apostles implored the Lord, "Strengthen our faith!" ⁶ The Lord replied, "If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

⁷ "Suppose one of you has a servant ploughing or tending sheep. Would you say to the servant when he comes in from the field, 'Come now and sit down to eat'? ⁸ Would you not rather say, 'Prepare my supper, get yourself ready and serve me while I eat and drink; after that you may eat and drink'? ⁹ Would you thank the servant because he did what he was commanded to do? ¹⁰ So you also, when you have completed all that was instructed, should say, 'We are humble servants; we have only fulfilled our responsibility.'"

¹¹ While Jesus was on His way to Jerusalem, He travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. ¹² As He was entering a village, ten men with leprosy met Him. They stood at a distance ¹³ and called out in a loud voice, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" ¹⁴ When He noticed them, He instructed, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were cleansed. ¹⁵ One of them, upon realizing he was healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice. ¹⁶ He fell at Jesus' feet and expressed his gratitude—and he was a Samaritan. ¹⁷ Jesus inquired, "Were all ten not cleansed? Where are the other nine? ¹⁸ Is there no one here to honour God except this outsider?" ¹⁹ Then He told him, "Stand up and continue on your way; your faith has restored you."

²⁰ Once, being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus replied, "The arrival of the kingdom of God is not something that can be observed, ²¹ nor will people say, 'Here it is,' or 'There it is,' because the kingdom of God is among you."

²² Then He said to His disciples, "The days are coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it. ²³ People will say to you, 'Look, there he is!' or 'Here he is!' Do not go running off after them. ²⁴ For the Son of Man in His day will be like lightning, which flashes and illuminates the sky from one end to the other. ²⁵ But first He must endure many things and be rejected by this generation.

²⁶ Just as it was during the time of Noah, so it will be in the days of the Son of Man. ²⁷ People were eating, drinking, marrying, and being given in marriage until the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all. ²⁸ It was similar in the days of Lot. People were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building. ²⁹ Yet, on the day Lot departed from Sodom, fire and sulphur descended from heaven and destroyed them all. ³⁰ In the same way, it will be when the Son of Man is revealed.

³¹ On that day no one on the housetop, with possessions inside, should go down to get them. Likewise, no one in the field should go back for anything. ³² Do not forget the lesson of Lot's wife! ³³ Whoever seeks to preserve their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life will keep it.

³⁴ I tell you, on that night two people will be in one bed; one will be taken and the other left behind. ³⁵ Two women will be grinding grain together; one of them will be taken and the other will be left behind. ³⁶ [Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left.]

³⁷ "Where, Lord?" they asked. He replied, "Where there is a body, there the vultures will gather."

18 Then Jesus was telling them a parable to demonstrate that they should always pray and not become discouraged. ² He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected any person. ³ And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him with the plea, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.' ⁴ For a time he was unwilling, but later he said to himself, 'Even though I do not fear God nor respect any person, ⁵ yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will see that she gets justice, so that she will not eventually come and wear me out.'" ⁶ And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. ⁷ Will not God bring about justice for His chosen ones, who cry out to Him day and night? Will He keep delaying them? ⁸ I tell you, He will ensure they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?"

⁹ He also told this parable to some who were confident in their own righteousness and viewed others with contempt: ¹⁰ "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one being a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector. ¹¹ The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed: 'God, I thank You that I am not like other people—swindlers, evildoers, adulterers—or even like this tax collector. ¹² I fast twice a week and give a tenth of all I acquire.' ¹³ But the tax collector stood at a distance. He was unwilling to even raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his chest and said, 'God, have mercy on me, a sinner.' ¹⁴ I tell you, this man went home justified before God rather than the other. For everyone who exalts themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

¹⁵ People were also bringing infants to Him for Him to touch them. But when the disciples saw this, they rebuked them. ¹⁶ But Jesus called the children to Him and said, "Allow the little children to come to Me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁷ Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it."

¹⁸ A ruler approached Him with a question, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" ¹⁹ Jesus answered, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good except God alone. ²⁰ You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honour your father and mother.'" ²¹ And he said, "All these I have kept since my youth." ²² When Jesus heard this, He said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me." ²³ When he heard this, he became very sad, for he was extremely wealthy.

²⁴ Jesus looked at him and said, "How hard it is for the wealthy to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ Truly, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God." ²⁶ Those listening asked, "Who then can be saved?" ²⁷ Jesus replied, "The things that are impossible with people are possible with God."

²⁸ Peter said to Him, "We have left everything we had to follow You!" ²⁹ Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children for the sake of the kingdom of God ³⁰ who will fail to receive many times as much in this age, and in the age to come, eternal life."

³¹ Jesus took the Twelve aside and said to them, "We are going up to Jerusalem, and everything written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be fulfilled. ³² He will be delivered to the Gentiles. They will mock

Him, treat Him with contempt, and spit on Him; ³³ they will scourge Him and put Him to death. On the third day, He will be raised again.” ³⁴ The disciples understood none of these things. The meaning of this statement was hidden from them, and they did not comprehend what was said.

³⁵ As Jesus was approaching Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging. ³⁶ When he heard the crowd going by, he inquired what was happening. ³⁷ They informed him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.” ³⁸ He called out, “Jesus, Son of David, please have mercy on me!” ³⁹ Those who led the way sternly told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” ⁴⁰ Jesus stopped and instructed that the man be brought to Him. When he came near, Jesus asked him, ⁴¹ “What do you want Me to do for you?” He replied, “Lord, I want to regain my sight.” ⁴² Jesus said to him, “Regain your sight; your faith has made you well.” ⁴³ Immediately he regained his sight and followed Jesus, glorifying God. When all the people saw it, they gave praise to God.

19 Jesus came into Jericho and continued on his way through the city. ² There was a man named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy. ³ He was trying to see who Jesus was, but he could not because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. ⁴ So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, as Jesus was about to pass that way. ⁵ When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house.” ⁶ So he hurried down and received him joyfully. ⁷ When the people saw this, they all began to grumble, saying, “He has gone to be the guest of a sinner.” ⁸ But Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, “Look, Lord, I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will repay fourfold.” ⁹ Jesus responded, “Today, salvation has come to this house, for he also is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰ For the Son of Man came to seek and save the lost.”

¹¹ As they were listening to this, he went on to tell them a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and they thought the kingdom of God was going to appear immediately. ¹² He said, “A man of noble birth went to a distant country to receive for himself a kingdom and then return. ¹³ He called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas, and said, ‘Do business with this until I come back.’ ¹⁴ But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We do not want this man to be our king.’ ¹⁵ He was made king, however, and returned home. Then he summoned the servants to whom he had given the money, to find out what they had gained by trading. ¹⁶ The first came and said, ‘Master, your mina has earned ten more.’ ¹⁷ He replied, ‘Well done, good servant! Because you have been faithful in a very small matter, take charge of ten cities.’ ¹⁸ The second came and said, ‘Your mina, master, has earned five more.’ ¹⁹ And he said, ‘You take charge of five cities.’ ²⁰ Then another came and said, ‘Master, here is your mina; I kept it laid away in a cloth, ²¹ for I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man. You take out what you did not put in and reap what you did not sow.’ ²² His master answered, ‘I will judge you by your own words, you wicked servant! You knew, did you, that I am a hard man, taking out what I did not put in and reaping what I did not sow? ²³ Why then did you not put my money on deposit, so that when I returned, I could have collected it with interest?’ ²⁴ Then he instructed those standing by, ‘Take his mina away from him and give it to the one who has ten minas.’ ²⁵ They said to him, ‘Master, he already has ten minas.’ ²⁶ ‘I tell you, to everyone who has, more will be given, but from the one who does not have, even what they have will be taken away. ²⁷ But those enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them—bring them here and slay them in front of me.’”

²⁸ After saying this, Jesus went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. ²⁹ As he approached Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, ³⁰ saying, “Go to the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. ³¹ If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ respond, ‘The Lord needs it.’” ³² Those who were sent went and found it just as he had described to them. ³³ As they were untying the colt, the owners questioned them, “Why are you untying the colt?” ³⁴ They answered, “It is needed by the Lord.” ³⁵ They brought the colt to Jesus, placed their cloaks on it, and set Jesus on it. ³⁶ As he proceeded, people spread their cloaks on the road. ³⁷ When he came near the place where the road goes down the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began to praise God joyfully in loud voices for all the miracles they had seen, ³⁸ they proclaimed, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest heaven!" ³⁹ Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, instruct your disciples to be silent!" ⁴⁰ He replied, "I tell you, if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out."

⁴¹ As he drew near to Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it ⁴² and said, "If you, even you, had known on this day what would bring you peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes. ⁴³ The days will come upon you when your enemies will build a barricade against you and encircle you and hem you in on every side. ⁴⁴ They will bring you to the ground, you and the children within your walls. They will not leave one stone on another, because you did not recognise the time of God's visitation to you."

⁴⁵ Upon entering the temple courts, Jesus began to drive out those who were selling, ⁴⁶ saying to them, "It is written, 'My house will be a house of prayer'; but you have made it a den of robbers." ⁴⁷ Each day he was teaching at the temple. But the chief priests, the teachers of the law, and the leaders among the people were seeking to kill him. ⁴⁸ Yet they could not find any way to do it, because all the people were hanging on his words.

20 On a certain day, as Jesus was teaching the people in the temple courts and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes, along with the elders, approached Him. ² They spoke to Him, saying, "Tell us by what authority You are doing these things, or who is the one who gave You this authority?" ³ He responded to them, "I will also ask you something. Let me know: ⁴ Was John's baptism from heaven, or from men?" ⁵ They reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will ask, 'Why did you not believe him?' ⁶ However, if we claim, 'From men,' the people will stone us, for they are convinced that John was a prophet." ⁷ So they replied that they did not know where it was from. ⁸ Jesus replied, "Then neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

⁹ Then He began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard, leased it to some farmers, and went on a long journey. ¹⁰ At harvest time, he sent a servant to the tenants so that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ¹¹ He sent another servant, but they also beat him and treated him shamefully, sending him away empty-handed. ¹² He sent a third, and this one too they wounded and threw out. ¹³ Then the owner of the vineyard pondered, 'What shall I do? I will send my dear son; perhaps they will show him respect.' ¹⁴ But when the tenants saw him, they conferred among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir; let us kill him, so that the inheritance may be ours.' ¹⁵ So they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. What, then, will the owner of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶ He will come and deal with those tenants and give the vineyard to others." When the people heard this, they said, "May it never be!" ¹⁷ Jesus looked directly at them and said, "Then what is the meaning of that which is written:

'The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone?'

¹⁸ Everyone who stumbles over that stone will be broken; but on whomever it falls, it will crush him." ¹⁹ The scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on Him at that very hour, but they feared the people, for they understood that He had spoken this parable against them.

²⁰ So they kept a close watch on Him, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, in order to catch Him in some statement, so they could hand Him over to the jurisdiction and authority of the governor. ²¹ The spies questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, we know that You speak and teach rightly, and You do not show partiality, but teach the way of God in truth. ²² Is it then right for us to pay taxes to Caesar?" ²³ But He, aware of their cunning, said to them, ²⁴ "Show Me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?" They replied, "Caesar's." ²⁵ He replied, "Then give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God." ²⁶ They were unable to trap Him in what He said in public, and marvelling at His answer, they fell silent.

²⁷ Some of the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him with a question. ²⁸ "Teacher," they said, "Moses instructed us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and raise up offspring for his brother. ²⁹ Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a woman and died without children. ³⁰ Then the second married her, and died ³¹ and then the third married her, and died and so it was with all the other brothers, until all seven died, leaving no children. ³² Lastly, the woman, she also died. ³³ Now then, at the resurrection whose wife will she be, since all seven were married to her?" ³⁴ Jesus replied, "The people of this world marry and are given in marriage. ³⁵ But those who are considered worthy of taking part in the age to come and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, ³⁶ and they can no longer die; for they are like the angels. They are God's children, being children of the resurrection. ³⁷ But in the account of the burning bush, even Moses demonstrated that the dead rise, for he refers to the Lord as 'the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' ³⁸ He is the God not of the dead, but of the living, for in His sight all are alive." ³⁹ Some of the scribes responded, "Well said, Teacher!" ⁴⁰ And they did not dare to question Him any longer about anything.

⁴¹ Then He said to them, "Why is it said that the Messiah is the son of David?" ⁴² David himself states in the Book of Psalms: 'The Lord said to my Lord: "Sit at My right hand ⁴³ until I make Your enemies a footstool beneath Your feet."' ⁴⁴ David refers to Him as 'Lord.' How then can He be his son?"

⁴⁵ As all the people were listening, He said to His disciples, ⁴⁶ "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, and the best seats in the synagogues and places of honour at banquets. ⁴⁷ They devour widows' houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. These men will receive greater condemnation."

21 As Jesus looked up, he observed the wealthy placing their gifts into the temple treasury. ² He also noticed a poor widow putting in two small copper coins. ³ And he said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has contributed more than all the others; ⁴ for they all gave out of their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, put in all she had to live on."

⁵ Some of his disciples were speaking about how the temple was adorned with beautiful stones and dedicated gifts. But Jesus remarked, ⁶ "As for these things you are observing, the time will come when not one stone will be left upon another; every one will be torn down." ⁷ They questioned him, "Teacher, when will these things occur? And what will be the sign that they are about to happen?"

⁸ He replied, "See that you are not deceived; for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and, 'The time is near.' Do not follow them. ⁹ When you hear of wars and uprisings, do not be alarmed. These things must happen first, but the end will not come immediately." ¹⁰ He continued, "Nations will rise against each other, and kingdoms will clash. ¹¹ There will be great earthquakes, famines, and pestilences in various places, and terrifying events and great signs from heaven.

¹² "But before all this, they will lay hands on you and persecute you, delivering you to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors on account of my name. ¹³ This will lead to an opportunity for you to bear witness. ¹⁴ So resolve not to worry beforehand about how to defend yourselves.

¹⁵ For I will provide you with words and wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict. ¹⁶ You will be betrayed even by parents, siblings, relatives, and friends, and some of you will be put to death. ¹⁷ You will be despised by everyone because of my name. ¹⁸ Yet not a single hair on your head will be lost. ¹⁹ By remaining steadfast, you will secure your souls.

²⁰ "When you see armies surrounding Jerusalem, then understand that its devastation is near. ²¹ Then let those in Judea flee to the mountains, let those inside the city depart, and let those in the countryside not enter the city. ²² For these are the days of vengeance, to fulfil all that is written. ²³ How dreadful it will be for pregnant women and nursing mothers in those days! There will be great distress upon the land and wrath against this people. ²⁴ They will fall by the sword and be taken captive to all nations. Jerusalem will be trampled by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

²⁵ "There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars. On the earth, nations will be in distress and confusion at the roaring and surging of the sea. ²⁶ People will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ²⁷ At that time, they will witness the Son of Man arriving in a cloud with power and great glory.²⁸ When these things begin to happen, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

Luke

²⁹ He shared this parable with them: “Observe the fig tree and all the trees.³⁰ When they begin to sprout leaves, you can see for yourselves and know that summer is approaching.³¹ In the same way, when you see these things happening, recognise that the kingdom of God is near.³² Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have taken place.³³ Though heaven and earth may pass away, my words will never pass away.

³⁴ “Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with dissipation, drunkenness, and the worries of life, and that day will close on you suddenly like a trap.³⁵ For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth.³⁶ Be always on the watch, and pray that you may have the strength to escape all that is about to happen, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

³⁷ Each day, Jesus was teaching at the temple, and each evening he went out to spend the night on the hill known as the Mount of Olives,³⁸ and all the people would get up early in the morning to hear him at the temple.

22 Now the Festival of Unleavened Bread, known as the Passover, was drawing near.²

The chief priests and the scribes were seeking a way to put Jesus to death, for they feared the people.³ Then Satan influenced Judas, called Iscariot, who was one of the Twelve.⁴ Judas went and conferred with the chief priests and the temple officers about how he might betray Jesus to them.⁵ They were pleased and agreed to give him money.⁶ He accepted, and sought an opportunity to hand Jesus over to them away from the crowd.

⁷ Then came the day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.⁸ Jesus sent Peter and John, instructing them, “Go and prepare the Passover for us to eat.”⁹ They asked Him, “Where do you wish us to prepare it?”¹⁰ He replied, “As you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him to the house he enters,¹¹ and say to the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher inquires: Where is the guest room for me to eat the Passover with my disciples?’¹² He will show you a large, furnished room upstairs. Prepare it there.”¹³

They went and found everything just as He had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁴ When the hour came, He reclined at the table, and the apostles were with Him.¹⁵ He said to them, “I have longed to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.¹⁶ For I tell you, I will not partake of it again until it finds fulfillment in the kingdom of God.”¹⁷ After taking a cup and giving thanks, He said, “Take this and divide it among yourselves.¹⁸ For I tell you, I will not drink from the fruit of the vine again until the kingdom of God comes.”¹⁹ He took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body, given for you; do this in remembrance of me.”²⁰ In the same way, after supper, He took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

²¹ But see, the hand of the one betraying me is with mine on the table.²² The Son of Man will go as it has been decreed, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!”²³ They began to question among themselves which of them might do this.

²⁴ A dispute also arose among them as to which of them was considered the greatest.²⁵ Jesus said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and those in authority over them are called Benefactors.²⁶ But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the leader like the servant.²⁷ For who is greater, the one who reclines at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at the table? But I am among you as one who serves.²⁸ You are the ones who have remained with me in my trials.²⁹ And I confer upon you a kingdom, just as my Father has conferred one upon me,³⁰ so that you may dine at my table in my kingdom and take your places on thrones, overseeing the twelve tribes of Israel.

³¹ “Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has asked to sift you all like wheat.³² But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have returned, strengthen your brothers.”³³ But he replied, “Lord, I am ready to accompany you to prison and to death.”³⁴ Jesus replied, “I tell you, Peter, before the rooster crows today, you will deny three times that you know me.”

³⁵ Then Jesus asked them, “When I sent you without purse, bag, or sandals, did you lack anything?” They answered, “Nothing.” ³⁶ He said to them, “But now, if you have a purse, take it, and also a bag; and if you do not have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one.” ³⁷ For I tell you, this Scripture must be fulfilled in me: ‘And He was numbered with the transgressors’; for what is written about me is reaching its fulfillment.” ³⁸ The disciples said, “See, Lord, here are two swords.” He replied, “That’s enough!”

³⁹ Jesus went out as He usually did to the Mount of Olives, and His disciples followed Him. ⁴⁰ Upon reaching the place, He said to them, “Pray that you will not fall into temptation.” ⁴¹ He withdrew a short distance beyond them, knelt down, and prayed, ⁴² “Father, if it is your will, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done.” ⁴³ [He was visited by a heavenly messenger who gave Him strength.] ⁴⁴ And being in agony, He prayed more earnestly, and His sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground. ⁴⁵ When He rose from prayer and went back to the disciples, He found them asleep, overwhelmed with sorrow. ⁴⁶ “Why are you sleeping?” He asked them. “Rise and pray so that you will not fall into temptation.”

⁴⁷ While He was still speaking, a crowd came up, and the man called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them. He approached Jesus to kiss Him, ⁴⁸ but Jesus asked him, “Judas, do you come to betray the Son of Man with a kiss?” ⁴⁹ When those around Him saw what was going to happen, they said, “Lord, should we strike with our swords?” ⁵⁰ And one of them struck the servant of the high priest, severing his right ear. ⁵¹ But Jesus responded, “No more of this!” And He touched the man’s ear and healed him. ⁵² Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple guard, and the elders who had come for Him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as if I were leading a rebellion?” ⁵³ Every day I was with you in the temple courts, and you did not lay a hand on me. But this is your hour —when darkness has its way.”

⁵⁴ Then they seized Him, led Him away, and took Him into the house of the high priest. Peter followed at a distance. ⁵⁵ When a fire was kindled in the middle of the courtyard and they sat down together, Peter sat among them. ⁵⁶ A servant girl saw him seated there in the firelight. She looked at him intently and exclaimed, “This man was with Him.” ⁵⁷ But he replied, “I do not know Him, woman.” ⁵⁸ A little later someone else saw him and said, “You also are one of them.” “Sir, I am not!” Peter replied. ⁵⁹ About an hour later another insisted, “Certainly this fellow was with Him, for he is a Galilean.” ⁶⁰ Peter replied, “Sir, I do not know what you are talking about!” Just as he was speaking, the rooster crowed. ⁶¹ The Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word the Lord had spoken to him: “Before the rooster crows today, you will deny me three times.” ⁶² And he left to go outside, weeping bitterly. ⁶³ The men who were guarding Jesus began to mock and beat Him. ⁶⁴ They blindfolded Him and demanded, “Prophesy! Who struck you?” ⁶⁵ And they uttered many other offensive remarks to Him.

⁶⁶ At daybreak, the council of the elders of the people, both the chief priests and the scribes, assembled, and Jesus was led before them. ⁶⁷ “If you are the Messiah,” they said, “tell us.” Jesus answered, “If I tell you, you will not believe; ⁶⁸ and were I to inquire anything of you, you would not respond. ⁶⁹ However, from this time forward, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of God’s power.” ⁷⁰ They all asked, “Are you then the Son of God?” He replied, “You say so.” ⁷¹ Then they said, “Why do we need any further testimony? We have heard it from His own lips.”

23 Then the entire assembly arose and brought him to Pilate. ² They began to accuse him, saying, “We have found this man misleading our nation and opposing payment of taxes to Caesar, claiming to be Christ, a king.” ³ Pilate asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” Jesus replied, “It is as you say.” ⁴ Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, “I find no basis for a charge against this man.” ⁵ But they insisted, “He stirs up the people, teaching throughout Judea, starting from Galilee and coming here.”

⁶ Upon hearing this, Pilate inquired whether the man was a Galilean. ⁷ Upon learning that he was under Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. ⁸ Herod was delighted to see Jesus, as he had wanted to see him for a long time, having heard about him and hoping to see him perform a sign. ⁹ He questioned him at length, but Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰ The chief priests and the scribes stood there, vehemently accusing him. ¹¹ Herod, with his soldiers, treated him with contempt and mocked him. Dressing him in an elegant robe, they sent him back to Pilate.¹² That day Herod and Pilate became friends; previously, they had been enemies.

Luke

¹³ Pilate gathered the chief priests, the rulers, and the people,¹⁴ and said, "You brought me this man as one inciting the people to rebellion. I have examined him in your presence and found no basis for your charges against him.¹⁵ Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us; as you see, he has done nothing deserving death.¹⁶ Therefore, I will discipline him and then release him."¹⁷ [Now he was obliged to release one prisoner to them at the festival.]¹⁸ But the whole crowd shouted, "Remove this man! Release Barabbas to us!"¹⁹ (Barabbas had been thrown into prison for a rebellion in the city and for murder.)²⁰ Desiring to release Jesus, Pilate addressed them again.²¹ Yet they persisted, crying out, "Crucify him! Crucify him!"²² For the third time he spoke to them: "Why? What crime has this man committed? I find no grounds for a death sentence. Therefore, I will discipline him and release him."²³ But they were insistent, with loud shouts demanding that he be crucified, and their voices prevailed.²⁴ Thus, Pilate decided to grant their demand.²⁵ He released the man who had been imprisoned for insurrection and murder, the one they asked for, and handed Jesus over to their will.

²⁶ As they led him away, they seized Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the countryside, and placed the cross on him to carry behind Jesus.²⁷ A large crowd followed, including women who mourned and lamented for him.²⁸ Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep for yourselves and for your children.²⁹ For the time will come when you will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.'³⁰ At that time, they will call to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!'

³¹ For if people do these things when the tree is full of life, what will happen when it is withered?"

³² Two others, both criminals, were also led out with him to face execution.³³ Upon reaching the place known as the Skull, they crucified him there with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left.³⁴ Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they are unaware of their actions." And they divided up his clothes by casting lots.³⁵ The people stood watching, and the rulers sneered at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is God's Messiah, the Chosen One."³⁶ The soldiers also mocked him, offering him sour wine³⁷ and they joked, "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself."³⁸ Above him was a sign stating: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

³⁹ One of the criminals hanging there insulted him: "Aren't you the Messiah? Save yourself and us!"⁴⁰ But the other criminal admonished him. "Do you not fear God," he said, "since you are under the same sentence?"⁴¹ We are punished justly, for we are receiving what our deeds deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong."⁴² Then he pleaded, "Jesus, remember me when you enter your kingdom."⁴³ Jesus replied to him, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise."

⁴⁴ By about noon, darkness fell over the whole land until three in the afternoon,⁴⁵ for the sun ceased to shine. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two.

⁴⁶ Jesus called out loudly, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit." Having said this, he breathed his last.⁴⁷ The centurion, witnessing what had happened, praised God and said, "Surely this was a righteous man."⁴⁸ When all the people who had gathered to witness this event saw what took place, they beat their breasts and went away.⁴⁹ But all those who knew him, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, observing these things.

⁵⁰ Now there was a man named Joseph, a member of the Council, who was good and upright,⁵¹ who had not agreed with their decision and action. He came from the Judean town of Arimathea and was waiting for the kingdom of God.⁵² Approaching Pilate, he requested Jesus' body.⁵³ Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen cloth, and laid it in a tomb cut in the rock, one that had never been used.⁵⁴ It was the preparation day, and the Sabbath was drawing near.⁵⁵ The women who had accompanied Jesus from Galilee followed Joseph and saw the tomb and how his body was laid in it.⁵⁶ Then they went home and prepared spices and perfumes. But they rested on the Sabbath in accordance with the commandment.

24 On the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women came to the tomb bringing the spices they had prepared. ² They discovered the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³ yet upon entering, they could not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴ While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood near them. ⁵ In their fright, the women bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? ⁶ He is not here; He has risen! Remember how He spoke to you while He was still in Galilee, ⁷ saying that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified, and on the third day rise again." ⁸ At that moment, they recalled His words. ⁹ Upon returning from the tomb, they shared all these things with the eleven and with everyone else. ¹⁰ Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them conveyed this to the apostles. ¹¹ But their words seemed to them like nonsense, and they did not believe the women. ¹² However, Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping down, he saw the linen wrappings by themselves, and he went away, marvelling at what had happened.

¹³ That same day, two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about sixty stadia from Jerusalem. ¹⁴ They were talking with each other about all that had happened. ¹⁵ While they were discussing these things, Jesus Himself approached and began walking with them; ¹⁶ but their eyes were kept from recognising Him. ¹⁷ He asked them, "What are these matters you are discussing as you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. ¹⁸ One of them, named Cleopas, answered, "Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?" ¹⁹ "What things?" He asked. They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰ and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him up to be sentenced to death, and crucified Him. ²¹ But we had hoped that He was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And besides all this, it is the third day since these things happened. ²² Moreover, some women among us amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning ²³ and did not find His body. They came saying they had seen a vision of angels, who said He was alive. ²⁴ Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had described, but they did not see Him." ²⁵ He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶ Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and then enter into His glory?" ²⁷ And starting with Moses and all the Prophets, He clarified to them what was mentioned in all the Scriptures about Himself.

²⁸ As they approached the village to which they were going, He acted as if He were going farther. ²⁹ But they urged Him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So He went in to stay with them. ³⁰ While at the table with them, He took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and began to share it with them. ³¹ Then their eyes were opened and they recognised Him, and He vanished from their sight. ³² They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while He talked with us on the road and revealed the Scriptures to us?" ³³ They got up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem. There they found the eleven and those with them, assembled together ³⁴ and saying, "The Lord has truly risen and has appeared to Simon." ³⁵ Then the two recounted what had happened on the way, and how He was recognised by them in the breaking of the bread.

³⁶ While they were still talking about this, Jesus Himself stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." ³⁷ They were startled and frightened, thinking they saw a spirit. ³⁸ He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts come into your hearts? ³⁹ Look at My hands and My feet. It is I Myself! Touch Me and see; a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have." ⁴⁰ After speaking, He displayed His hands and His feet to them. ⁴¹ While they still did not believe it because of joy and amazement, He asked them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" ⁴² They offered Him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³ and He took it and ate the fish in their presence.

⁴⁴ He said to them, "These are My words which I spoke to you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about Me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms." ⁴⁵ Then He enabled them to comprehend the Scriptures. ⁴⁶ He told them, "This is what is written: The Messiah will endure suffering and rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷ and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be proclaimed in His name to all nations, starting at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ You bear witness to these things. ⁴⁹ Behold, I am sending the promise of My Father upon you; but stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high."

Luke

⁵⁰ When He had led them out as far as Bethany, He lifted up His hands and blessed them. ⁵¹ As He was blessing them, He departed from them and was carried up into heaven. ⁵² After worshipping Him, they returned to Jerusalem with great joy, ⁵³ and they remained continually at the temple, praising God.

John

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² He was with God in the beginning. ³ All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing was made that has been made. ⁴ In him was life, and that life was the light for all people. ⁵ The light shines so brightly in the darkness, that the darkness cannot overcome it.

⁶ A man was sent from God; his name was John. ⁷ He came as a witness to testify about the light, so that through him all might believe. ⁸ He himself was not the light; he came only to bear witness to the light.

⁹ The true light that gives light to every person was coming into the world. ¹⁰ He was in the world, and although the world was made through him, the world did not recognise him. ¹¹ He came to his own, but his own did not welcome him. ¹² Yet to all who accepted him, to those who had faith in his name, he granted the privilege to become children of God— ¹³ children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's desire, but born of God.

¹⁴ The Word became flesh and dwelt among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth. ¹⁵ John testified concerning him. He cried out, saying, "This is the one of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.'" ¹⁶ Out of his fullness we have all received grace upon grace. ¹⁷ For just as the law was delivered through Moses; grace and truth were delivered through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸ No one has ever seen God, but the only Son, who is himself God and is in closest relationship with the Father, has made him known.

¹⁹ This was John's testimony when the Jewish leaders sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" ²⁰ He confessed freely and did not deny, but confessed, "I am not the Messiah." ²¹ They inquired, "Then who are you? Are you Elijah?" He replied, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" He answered, "No." ²² Eventually they said, "Who are you? Provide us with an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?" ²³ John responded using the words of Isaiah the prophet, "I am the voice of one calling out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way for the Lord'"

²⁴ Now messengers had been sent from the Pharisees to enquire of John. ²⁵ They questioned him, "Why then do you baptise if you are not the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?" ²⁶ John answered, "I baptise with water, but among you stands one you do not know. ²⁷ He is the one who comes after me, whose sandals I am not worthy to untie." ²⁸ This happened at Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptising.

²⁹ The following day John saw Jesus coming towards him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!" ³⁰ This is the one I referred to when I said, 'After me comes a man who surpasses me, because he existed before me.' ³¹ I myself did not recognise him, but the reason I came baptising with water was that he might be revealed to Israel." ³² Then John gave this testimony: "I observed the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove and remaining on him. ³³ And I myself did not recognise him, but the one who sent me to baptise with water told me, 'The man on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who will baptise with the Holy Spirit.' ³⁴ I have seen and I testify that this is the Son of God."

³⁵ The subsequent day, John was present again with two of his disciples. ³⁶ When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" ³⁷ Upon hearing this, the two disciples followed Jesus. ³⁸ Turning around, Jesus saw them following and asked, "What do you seek?" They said, "Rabbi" (which means Teacher), "where are you staying?" ³⁹ "Come," he replied, "and you will see." So they went and saw where he was staying, and they spent that day with him. It was about the tenth hour. ⁴⁰ Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who heard what John had said and who followed Jesus. ⁴¹ The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated as Christ). ⁴² He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which, when translated, is Peter).

⁴³ The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. Finding Philip, he said to him, "Follow me." ⁴⁴ Philip, like Andrew and Peter, hailed from the town of Bethsaida. ⁴⁵ Philip found Nathanael and informed him, "We have discovered the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and about whom the prophets also spoke—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.”⁴⁶ “Nazareth! Can anything good come from there?” Nathanael questioned. “Come and see,” Philip replied.⁴⁷ When Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, he remarked, “Here truly is an Israelite in whom there is no deceit.”⁴⁸ “How do you know me?” Nathanael asked. Jesus replied, “I could see you while you were still under the fig tree, just before Philip called you.”⁴⁹ Then Nathanael proclaimed, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel.”⁵⁰ Jesus said, “You believe because I told you I saw you under the fig tree. You will witness greater things than that.”⁵¹ He then added, “Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.”

John

2 On the third day, a wedding took place in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was present.² Jesus, along with his disciples, was invited to the wedding.³ When the wine was depleted, Jesus' mother said to him, “They have no wine.”⁴ Jesus replied, “Woman, what does this have to do with me? My time has not yet arrived.”⁵ His mother instructed the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.”⁶ Nearby stood six stone water jars, used for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding two or three measures.⁷ Jesus instructed the servants, “Fill the jars with water,” and they filled them to the brim.⁸ Then he instructed them, “Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet.” And they did so.⁹ The master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine, not knowing where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. He called the bridegroom over¹⁰ and remarked, “Everyone serves the best wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then the inferior wine; but you have kept the best wine until now.”¹¹ This was the first of the signs Jesus performed in Cana of Galilee, revealing his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

¹² Following this, he travelled to Capernaum with his mother, brothers, and disciples, and they stayed there for a few days.

¹³ As the Jewish Passover approached, Jesus went up to Jerusalem.¹⁴ In the temple courts, he observed people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and others sitting at tables exchanging money.¹⁵ He made a whip of cords and drove them all out of the temple courts, along with the sheep and cattle; he scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.¹⁶ To those selling doves, he said, “Take these things away! Do not make my Father's house a place of commerce!”¹⁷ His disciples remembered the scripture: “Zeal for your house will consume me.”

¹⁸ The Jews then questioned him, “What sign can you show us to prove your authority to do these things?”

¹⁹ Jesus responded, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”²⁰ They responded, “It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you will raise it in three days?”²¹ However, he was referring to the temple of his body.²² After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the Scripture and the words Jesus had spoken.

²³ While he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Festival, many people saw the signs he was performing and believed in his name.²⁴ But Jesus did not entrust himself to them, for he knew all people.²⁵ He did not need anyone to testify about mankind, for he himself knew what was in each person.

3 Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a member of the Jewish ruling council.² He came to Jesus by night and said to Him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can perform these signs you are doing unless God is with him.”³ Jesus replied, “Truly, truly, I say to you, no one can see the kingdom of God unless they are born anew.”⁴ Nicodemus asked, “How can someone be born when they are old? Surely they cannot enter their mother's womb a second time to be born!”⁵ Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, they cannot enter the kingdom of God.⁶ Whatever is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.⁷ Do not be amazed that I said to you, ‘You must experience a new birth.’⁸ The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit.”

⁹ “How is this possible?” Nicodemus inquired.¹⁰ Jesus replied, “You are Israel's teacher, and do you not understand these things?”¹¹ Truly, truly, I say to you, we speak of what we know, and we testify to what we have seen, but you do not accept our testimony.¹² If I have spoken to you of earthly matters and you do not believe, how will you believe if I speak of heavenly matters?¹³ No one has gone up to heaven except the One who came down from heaven—the Son of Man.¹⁴ Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be elevated,¹⁵ so that everyone who believes may have eternal life through Him.

John

¹⁶ For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.¹⁷ For God did not send His Son into the world to pass judgement on the world, but to save the world through Him.¹⁸ Whoever believes in Him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's only Son.¹⁹ This is the judgement: Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil.²⁰ Those who do evil avoid the light, fearing their deeds will be revealed.²¹ But whoever practices the truth comes into the light, so that it may be evident that what they have done has been done in the sight of God.

²² After this, Jesus and His disciples went into the Judean countryside, where He spent some time with them and baptised.²³ Now John was also baptising at Aenon near Salim, because there was plenty of water, and people were coming and being baptised.²⁴ (This occurred before John was imprisoned.)

²⁵ An argument arose between some of John's disciples and a certain Jew over ceremonial washing.²⁶ They came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, that man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan, the one you testified about, look, He is baptising, and everyone is going to Him."²⁷ John replied, "A person can receive only what is given them from heaven.²⁸ You can confirm that I said, 'I am not the Messiah but am sent ahead of Him.'²⁹ The bride belongs to the bridegroom. The friend who attends the bridegroom waits and listens for him and is filled with joy when he hears the bridegroom's voice. That joy is mine, and it is now complete.³⁰ He must increase and become greater, while I must decrease.

³¹ The one who comes from above is supreme; the one who is from the earth belongs to the earth and speaks from an earthly perspective. The one who comes from heaven is supreme.³² He bears witness to what He has seen and heard, but His testimony is not accepted by anyone.³³ Whoever has accepted His testimony has certified that God is truthful.³⁴ For the one whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God gives the Spirit without measure.³⁵ The Father loves the Son and has entrusted everything to His hands.³⁶ Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, but whoever rejects the Son will not see life, for God's displeasure remains on them.

4 When Jesus became aware that the Pharisees had heard He was making and baptising more disciples than John—² although it was not Jesus Himself who baptised, but His disciples—³ He departed from Judea and returned once more to Galilee.⁴ He needed to pass through Samaria.⁵ So He arrived at a town in Samaria named Sychar, near the land Jacob gave to his son Joseph.⁶ Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, weary from His journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

⁷ A Samaritan woman approached to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Please give me a drink."⁸ (His disciples had gone into the town to buy provisions.)⁹ The Samaritan woman said to Him, "How can You, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)¹⁰ Jesus replied to her, "If you were aware of the gift of God and who it is that is asking you for a drink, you would have asked Him, and He would have provided you with living water."¹¹ The woman said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where then can You get this living water?"¹² Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, along with his sons and livestock?"¹³ Jesus replied, "Everyone who drinks this water will thirst again,¹⁴ but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life."¹⁵ The woman said to Him, "Sir, give me this water so that I will not get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water."

¹⁶ He instructed her, "Go, call your husband and return."¹⁷ "I have no husband," she replied. Jesus said to her, "You are correct when you say you have no husband.¹⁸ You have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have said is true.”¹⁹ Amazed, the woman said to Him, “Sir, I see that You are a prophet.”²⁰ Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you Jews say that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem.”²¹ Jesus said to her, “Believe me, woman, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.”²² You Samaritans worship what you do not understand; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews.”²³ Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for they are the kind of worshippers the Father seeks.”²⁴ God is spirit, and His worshippers must worship in spirit and truth.”²⁵ The woman said, “I know that the Messiah” (called Christ) “is coming. When He comes, He will explain everything to us.”²⁶ Then Jesus declared, “I, the one speaking to you — I am He.”

John

²⁷ At that moment His disciples returned and were surprised to find Him talking with a woman. But no one asked, “What do You want?” or “Why are You talking with her?”²⁸ The woman left her water jar and went back to the town, telling the people,²⁹ “Come, see a man who has told me everything I have ever done. Could this be the Messiah?”³⁰ They left the town and made their way towards Him.

³¹ Meanwhile His disciples urged Him, “Rabbi, please eat something.”³² But He responded to them, “I have food that you do not know about.”³³ Upon hearing this, His disciples wondered among themselves, “Could someone have brought Him food?”³⁴ “My food,” said Jesus, “is to do the will of the One who sent Me and to complete His work.”³⁵ Do you not say, ‘It’s still four months until harvest’? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest.”³⁶ Even now the one who reaps draws a wage and gathers fruit for eternal life, so that the sower and the reaper may be glad together.”³⁷ Thus the saying ‘One sows and another reaps’ holds true.”³⁸ I sent you to reap what you have not worked for. Others have done the hard work, and you have benefited from their labour.”

³⁹ Many of the Samaritans from that town came to believe in Him because of the woman’s testimony, “He told me everything I ever did.”⁴⁰ So when the Samaritans came to Him, they urged Him to stay with them, and He remained for two days.⁴¹ And through His words, many more came to believe.”⁴² They said to the woman, “We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man truly is the Saviour of the world.”

⁴³ After the two days, He set out for Galilee.”⁴⁴ For Jesus Himself had testified that a prophet has no honour in his own country.”⁴⁵ When He arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed Him, having seen all that He had done in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also had been there.

⁴⁶ Once more He visited Cana in Galilee, where He had turned the water into wine. And there was a royal official whose son lay sick at Capernaum.”⁴⁷ When this man heard that Jesus had arrived in Galilee from Judea, he went to Him and pleaded with Him to come and heal his son, who was close to death.”⁴⁸ Then Jesus said to him, “Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will never believe.”⁴⁹ The royal official implored, “Sir, come down before my child dies.”⁵⁰ Jesus said to him, “Go; your son will live.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and departed.”⁵¹ As he was on his way, his servants met him with the news that his boy was living.”⁵² He inquired of them the hour when his son got better, and they said to him, “Yesterday at one in the afternoon the fever left him.”⁵³ Then the father realised this was the precise moment Jesus had told him, “Your son will live.” So he and his entire household came to believe.”⁵⁴ This was the second miraculous sign Jesus performed after coming from Judea to Galilee.

5 After these events, there was a Jewish festival, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.”² In Jerusalem, by the Sheep Gate, there is a pool, which in Aramaic is called Bethesda, surrounded by five colonnades.”³ In these colonnades lay a multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralysed.”⁴ [4] ⁵ There was a man there who had been unable to walk for thirty-eight years.”⁶ When Jesus saw him lying there and knew he had been in that condition for a long time, he asked him, “Do you want to get well?”⁷ The sick man answered, “Sir, I have no one to help me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am trying to get in, someone else steps down before me.”⁸ Jesus instructed him, “Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk.”⁹

John

Immediately the man was healed; he picked up his mat and walked. Now that day was a Sabbath.

¹⁰ So the Jewish leaders said to the man who had been healed, "It is the Sabbath; it is not lawful for you to carry your mat." ¹¹ But he replied, "The one who healed me told me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'" ¹² They asked him, "Who is the person who instructed you to pick it up and walk?" ¹³ The man who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped away into the crowd.

¹⁴ Later Jesus found him at the temple and said, "Look, you are well again. Stop sinning or something worse may happen to you." ¹⁵ The man went away and informed the Jewish leaders that it was Jesus who had made him well. ¹⁶ For this reason, the Jewish leaders began to persecute Jesus, because he was doing these things on the Sabbath. ¹⁷ But Jesus answered them, "My Father is working until now, and I am working too." ¹⁸ For this reason, they sought all the more to kill him, because he was not only breaking the Sabbath but also calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God.

¹⁹ Therefore, Jesus responded, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can only do what he sees the Father doing, for whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise. ²⁰ For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does. He will show him even greater works than these, so that you will be amazed. ²¹ For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son gives life to whom he wishes. ²² Moreover, the Father judges no one, but has entrusted all judgement to the Son, ²³ so that all may honour the Son just as they honour the Father. Whoever does not honour the Son does not honour the Father who sent him.

²⁴ "Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be judged but has crossed over from death to life. ²⁵ Truly, truly, I say to you, a time is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. ²⁶ For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has also granted the Son to have life in himself. ²⁷ And he has given him the authority to carry out judgement, because he is the Son of Man. ²⁸ Do not be surprised at this, for a time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice ²⁹ and will come out—those who have done what is good will rise to live, and those who have done what is evil will rise to be condemned.

³⁰ By myself I can do nothing; I judge only as I hear, and my judgement is just, for I seek not to please myself but him who sent me. ³¹ "If I testify about myself, my testimony is not considered valid. ³² There is another who testifies in my favour, and I am confident that his testimony about me is true.

³³ You have sent messengers to John, and he has spoken to you of the truth. ³⁴ Not that I rely on human testimony, but I mention it so that you may be saved. ³⁵ John was a lamp that burned and gave light, and you chose for a time to enjoy his illumination. ³⁶ But I have a testimony greater than that of John. For the works that the Father has given me to complete—the very works I am doing—testify that the Father has sent me.

³⁷ And the Father who sent me has himself testified concerning me. You have neither heard his voice nor seen his form, ³⁸ nor does his word remain in you, as you do not believe the one he sent. ³⁹ You diligently study the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life. These are the very Scriptures that testify about me, ⁴⁰ yet you are unwilling to come to me to receive life.

⁴¹ I do not seek glory from people, ⁴² but I know you. I understand that you do not have the love of God within you. ⁴³ I have come in my Father's name, and you do not accept me. Yet if another comes in his own name, you will accept him. ⁴⁴ How can you believe, since you seek approval from one another but do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? ⁴⁵ Do not think I will accuse you before the Father. Your accuser is Moses, on whom your hopes are set. ⁴⁶ If you had faith in Moses, you would have faith in me, for he wrote about me. ⁴⁷ But if you do not believe what he wrote, how will you trust in what I say?

6 After this, Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also known as the Sea of Tiberias. ² A large crowd followed Him, because they witnessed the signs He performed on those who were ill. ³ Jesus went up onto a mountainside and sat down there with His disciples. ⁴ The Jewish festival of Passover was approaching. ⁵ When Jesus looked up and saw a large crowd coming towards Him, He said to Philip, "Where can we buy bread for these people to eat?" ⁶ He said this to test him, for He already knew what He was going to do. ⁷ Philip replied, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread wouldn't be enough for each one to have a little." ⁸ One of His disciples, Andrew, who was Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, ⁹ "There is a boy here with five barley loaves and two fish, but what are they among so many?" ¹⁰ Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." There was plenty of grass there, so they sat down, about five thousand men in number. ¹¹ Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were seated; He did the same with the fish, giving them as much as they wanted. ¹² When they had all eaten their fill, He said to His disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing may be wasted." ¹³ So they collected them and filled twelve baskets with the remaining pieces of the five barley loaves. ¹⁴ When the people saw the sign He had performed, they said, "This is truly the Prophet who is to come into the world."

John

¹⁵ Knowing that they intended to come and take Him by force to make Him king, Jesus withdrew again to the mountain by Himself. ¹⁶ As evening approached, His disciples went down to the sea, ¹⁷ got into a boat, and set off across the sea to Capernaum. It was already dark, and Jesus had not yet joined them. ¹⁸ The sea became turbulent due to a strong wind. ¹⁹ When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and approaching the boat, and they were frightened. ²⁰ But He reassured them, "It is I; do not be afraid." ²¹ Then they welcomed Him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the shore where they were heading.

²² The next day, the crowd that had stayed on the opposite shore realised that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not entered it with His disciples, who had gone away alone. ²³ Other boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had expressed gratitude. ²⁴ When the crowd realised neither Jesus nor His disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum in search of Jesus.

²⁵ When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they asked Him, "Rabbi, when did You arrive here?"

²⁶ Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you are looking for Me not because you saw the signs, but because you ate the loaves and were filled. ²⁷ Do not work for food that perishes, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on Him, God the Father has set His seal." ²⁸ Then they asked Him, "What must we do to perform the works God requires?" ²⁹ Jesus answered, "The work of God is to believe in the One He has sent."

³⁰ So they asked Him, "What sign will You give that we may see it and believe You? What work will You do?" ³¹ Our forefathers ate manna in the desert; as it is written: 'He provided them with bread from heaven to eat.'" ³² Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but My Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³ For the bread of God is that which descends from heaven and grants life to the world." ³⁴ They said to Him, "Lord, always give us this bread."

³⁵ Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me and believes in Me, shall not ever hunger, nor shall they thirst again. ³⁶ But as I told you, you have seen Me, and yet you do not believe. ³⁷ All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and whoever comes to Me I will never drive away. ³⁸ For I came down from heaven, not to do My own will, but to fulfil the will of Him who sent Me. ³⁹ And this is the purpose of Him who sent Me, that I shall not lose any of those He has given Me, but raise them up at the last day. ⁴⁰ For it is My Father's desire that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in Him shall have eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day."

⁴¹ At this, the Jews began to grumble about Him because He said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." ⁴² They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can He now say, 'I have come down from heaven?'" ⁴³ Jesus answered, "Cease your murmuring among yourselves. ⁴⁴ No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me, first calls them, and so I will raise them up at the last day. ⁴⁵ It is written in the Prophets: 'They will all be instructed by God.' Everyone who has heard the Father and learned from Him comes to Me. ⁴⁶ No one has seen the Father except the One who is from God; He alone has seen the Father. ⁴⁷ Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes possesses eternal life. ⁴⁸ I am the bread of life. ⁴⁹ Your forefathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. ⁵⁰ But here is the bread that descends from heaven, which anyone may eat and not die. ⁵¹ I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, they will live forever. This bread is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

John

⁵² Then the Jews began to argue intensely among themselves, "How can this man give us His flesh to eat?" ⁵³ Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you can have no life in you. ⁵⁴ Moreover, whoever eats of My flesh and drinks My blood gains eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day. ⁵⁵ For My flesh is the true food, and My blood is true drink. ⁵⁶ Those who eat of My flesh and drink of My blood will remain in Me, and I in them. ⁵⁷ Just as the living Father sent Me and I live because of the Father, so the one who partakes of Me will live because of Me. ⁵⁸ This is the bread that has come down from heaven. Your forefathers ate manna and died, but whoever feeds on this bread will live forever." ⁵⁹ He expressed these teachings while instructing in the synagogue in Capernaum.

⁶⁰ On hearing it, many of His disciples said, "This is a difficult teaching. Who can accept it?" ⁶¹ Aware that His disciples were murmuring about this, Jesus said to them, "Does this offend you? ⁶² What if you were to see the Son of Man ascend to where He was before? ⁶³ The Spirit gives life; the flesh counts for nothing. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and life. ⁶⁴ Yet there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who did not believe and who would betray Him. ⁶⁵ He continued, "This is why I told you that no one can come to Me unless the Father has enabled them."

⁶⁶ From this point, many of His disciples turned back and no longer followed Him. ⁶⁷ "You do not want to leave as well, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve. ⁶⁸ Simon Peter answered Him, "Lord, to whom shall we turn? You have the words of eternal life. ⁶⁹ We have come to believe and to understand that You are the Holy One of God." ⁷⁰ Then Jesus replied, "Did I not choose you, the Twelve? Yet one of you is a devil!" ⁷¹ He was referring to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, who, though one of the Twelve, was later to betray Him.

7 After this, Jesus was moving around in Galilee. He was reluctant to travel in Judea because the Jewish leaders were seeking to kill him. ² Now the Jewish Festival of Booths was approaching. ³ So his brothers said to him, "Depart from here and go into Judea, so that your disciples may also see the works you are doing. ⁴ For no one acts in secret if he desires to be known publicly. If you are doing these things, reveal yourself to the world." ⁵ Even his own brothers did not yet have faith in him. ⁶ Therefore Jesus told them, "My time has not yet come, but for you, any time is suitable. ⁷ The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify that its deeds are evil. ⁸ You go up to the festival; I am not going up to this festival, because my time has not yet fully come." ⁹ After he spoke these words, he stayed in Galilee.

¹⁰ But after his brothers had gone to the festival, he also went up, not openly, but as it were in secret. ¹¹ So the Jewish leaders were looking for him at the festival, asking, "Where is he?" ¹² Among the crowds there was much whispering about him. Some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "No, he is misleading the people." ¹³ Yet no one spoke openly about him for fear of the Jewish leaders.

¹⁴ But when it was now the middle of the festival, Jesus went up into the temple courts and began to teach. ¹⁵ The Jews were amazed, asking, "How did this man acquire such learning without formal education?" ¹⁶ Jesus answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but comes from him who sent me. ¹⁷ If anyone is willing to do God's will, he will know whether my teaching is from God or if I speak on my own. ¹⁸ He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of the one who sent him is truthful, and there is no falsehood in him.

¹⁹ Moses gave you the law, yet none of you keeps it. Why are you trying to kill me?" ²⁰ The crowd replied, "You have a demon! Who is trying to kill you?" ²¹ Jesus answered, "I performed one miracle, and you are all astonished. ²² Yet, because Moses gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the patriarchs), you circumcise a boy on the Sabbath. ²³ If a boy is circumcised on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses is not broken, why are you angry with me for healing a man's whole body on the Sabbath?" ²⁴ Do not judge by appearances, but judge with righteous judgment."

²⁵ Then some of the people of Jerusalem began to ask, "Isn't this the man they are trying to kill?" ²⁶ Yet here he is, speaking publicly, and they are saying nothing to him. Could it be that the authorities have really concluded that he is the Messiah? ²⁷ But we know where this man is from; when the Messiah comes, his origin will be unknown.” ²⁸ Then Jesus, still teaching in the temple courts, cried out, “Yes, you know me, and you know where I am from. I have not come on my own, but he who sent me is true. You do not know him, ²⁹ but I am acquainted with him because I am from him, and he sent me.” ³⁰ At this they tried to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him, for his time had not yet arrived. ³¹ Yet many in the crowd believed in him. They said, “When the Messiah comes, will he perform more signs than this man?”

³² The Pharisees heard the crowd whispering these things about Jesus, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him. ³³ Therefore Jesus said, “I am with you for only a short time, and then I am going to him who sent me. ³⁴ You will search for me, but you will not find me; and where I am, you are unable to come.” ³⁵ The Jews said to one another, “Where does this man intend to go that we cannot find him? Will he go to the Jews dispersed among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? ³⁶ What does he mean by saying, ‘You will search for me, but you will not find me,’ and ‘Where I am, you are unable to come?’”

³⁷ On the last and greatest day of the festival, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink. ³⁸ Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.” ³⁹ By this he referred to the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were later to receive. Up to that time, the Spirit had not been given, since Jesus had not yet been glorified.

⁴⁰ Upon hearing his words, some of the people remarked, “Surely this man is the Prophet.” ⁴¹ Others said, “He is the Messiah.” Yet some questioned, “How can the Messiah come from Galilee? ⁴² Does not Scripture say that the Messiah will come from David’s descendants and from Bethlehem, the village where David lived?” ⁴³ Thus the people were divided in their opinions about Jesus. ⁴⁴ Some wished to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him.

⁴⁵ Finally the officers went back to the chief priests and the Pharisees, who asked them, “Why didn’t you bring him in?” ⁴⁶ The officers answered, “No one ever

spoke the way this man does.” ⁴⁷ “Are you saying he has deceived you also?” the Pharisees retorted. ⁴⁸ “Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees put their faith in him? ⁴⁹ No! But this crowd that does not know the law is accursed.” ⁵⁰ Nicodemus, who had gone to Jesus earlier and who was one of their own number, said to them, ⁵¹ “Does our law condemn a man without first hearing him and finding out what he has been doing?” ⁵² They replied, “Are you from Galilee too? Look into it, and you will find that no prophet arises from Galilee.” Some early manuscripts do not have John 7:53 in this location, but do include it

⁵³ [And each one returned to his home.]

8

Some early manuscripts do not have John 8:1 - 8:11 in this location, but do include it

¹ Jesus went up to the Mount of Olives. ² At dawn, He appeared again in the temple courts, where all the people were gathering around Him, and He sat down to teach them. ³ The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman caught in adultery and placed her in the centre of the courtyard. ⁴ They addressed Him, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the act of adultery. ⁵ In the Law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. What then do You say?” ⁶ They were using this question to test Him, so they might have grounds for accusing Him. But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with His finger. ⁷ When they persisted in questioning Him, He straightened up and said to them, “Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” ⁸ Once more, He stooped down and wrote on the ground. ⁹ When they heard this, they began to leave one by one, starting with the older ones, until only Jesus was left, with the woman standing there. ¹⁰ Straightening up, Jesus asked her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?” ¹¹ “No one, Lord,” she replied. Then Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go now and sin no more.”

¹² Jesus spoke again to the people, saying, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows Me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.” ¹³ The Pharisees challenged Him, “You are testifying about Yourself; Your testimony is not valid.” ¹⁴ Jesus answered, “Even if I testify about Myself, My testimony is valid, for I know where I came from and where I am going. But you do not know where I come from or where I am going.¹⁵ You judge by the flesh, according to human standards; I do not judge anyone.¹⁶ But even if I do judge, My judgement is true, because I am not alone; I stand with the Father who sent Me.¹⁷ In your Law, it is stated that the testimony of two witnesses is true.¹⁸ I am one who bears witness about Myself; My other witness is the Father who sent Me.”¹⁹ Then they asked Him, “Where is Your Father?” Jesus replied, “You do not know Me or My Father. If you knew Me, you would know My Father also.”²⁰ He spoke these words while teaching in the temple courts near the place where the offerings were put. Yet no one seized Him, because His time had not yet come.

John

²¹ Again Jesus said to them, “I am going away, and you will look for Me, and you will die in your sin. Where I go, you cannot come.”²² This made the Jews ask, “Will He kill Himself, since He says, ‘Where I go, you cannot come?’”²³ But He continued, “You are from the earthly realm; I am from above. You belong to this world; I do not belong to this world.”²⁴ I told you that you would die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am He, you will indeed die in your sins.”²⁵ “Who are You?” they asked. “I am exactly who I have been telling you from the beginning,” Jesus replied.²⁶ “I have much to say in judgement of you. But He who sent Me is trustworthy, and what I have heard from Him I tell the world.”²⁷ They did not understand that He was speaking to them about His Father.²⁸ So Jesus said, “When the Father has lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know and understand that I am He - and that I do nothing on My own, but speak only what the Father has taught Me.”²⁹ The one who sent Me is with Me; He has not left Me alone, for I always do what is pleasing to Him.”³⁰ As He spoke, many came to believe in Him.

³¹ To the Jews who had believed Him, Jesus said, “If you hold to My teaching, you are truly My disciples.”³² Then you will come to know the truth, and the truth shall set you free.”³³ They responded, “We are Abraham’s descendants and have never been slaves of anyone. How can you say that we shall be set free?”³⁴ Jesus replied, “Truly, truly I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin.”³⁵ Now a slave does not have a permanent place in the family, but a son belongs to it forever.³⁶ So if the Son liberates you, you will be truly free.”³⁷ I know that you are Abraham’s descendants. Yet you are looking for a way to kill Me, because My word has no place in you.”³⁸ I am sharing with you what I have seen in the Father’s presence, and you are doing what you have heard from your father.”

³⁹ “Abraham is our father,” they answered. “If you were truly Abraham’s children,” said Jesus, “then you would do what Abraham did.”⁴⁰ As it is, you are seeking to kill Me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do such things.”⁴¹ You are following the ways of your own father.” “We are not illegitimate children,” they protested. “The only Father we have is God Himself.”⁴² Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I have come from God. I have not come on My own; God sent Me.”⁴³ Why is My language not clear to you? It is because you are unable to hear what I say.”⁴⁴ You belong to your father, the devil, and you wish to carry out your father’s desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies.”⁴⁵ Yet because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me!”⁴⁶ Can any of you prove Me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why do you not believe Me?”⁴⁷ Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason you do not hear is that you are not of God.”

⁴⁸ The Jews answered Him, “Aren’t we right in saying that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?”⁴⁹ “I am not under the influence of a demon,” said Jesus, “but I honour My Father and you dishonour Me.”⁵⁰ But I do not seek my own glory; because there is one who does seek it, and He is the judge.”⁵¹ Truly, truly I tell you, whoever obeys My word will never see death.”⁵² At this they exclaimed, “Now we know that you have a demon! Abraham died and so did the prophets, yet you say that whoever obeys your word will never taste death.”⁵³ Are you more important than our father Abraham? Even he passed away and died, and so did all the prophets. So who do you claim to be?”⁵⁴ Jesus replied, “If I glorify Myself, My glory means nothing. It is my Father, whom you claim as your God, who glorifies Me.”⁵⁵ Though you do not know Him, I know Him. If I said I did not, I would be untruthful like you, but I do know Him and I obey His word.”⁵⁶ Your father Abraham was overjoyed at the prospect of seeing My day; he saw it and was glad.”⁵⁷ “You are not even fifty years old,” they said to Him, “and say you have seen Abraham!”⁵⁸ “Truly, truly I tell you,” Jesus answered, “before Abraham was born, I am!”⁵⁹ At this, they picked up stones to throw at Him, but Jesus hid Himself, slipping away from the temple grounds.

John

9 As Jesus went along, He saw a man who had been blind from birth.² The disciples asked of Him, “Teacher, who was it that sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”³ Jesus replied, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned; but this happened so that the works of God might be displayed in him.”⁴ We must carry out the tasks of Him who sent Me while it is still day. Night is approaching, when no one can work.⁵ For while I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

⁶ After saying this, He spat on the ground, made some mud with the saliva, and applied it to the man’s eyes.⁷ He said to him, “Go, wash in the Pool of Siloam” (this word means “Sent”). So the man went and washed, and returned seeing.⁸ His neighbours and those who had previously seen him begging asked, “Isn’t this the same man who used to sit and beg?”⁹ Some said, “This is he.” Others said, “No, but he looks like him.” But he himself declared, “I am the man.”¹⁰ “How were your eyes opened?” they asked.¹¹ He answered, “The man they call Jesus made some mud and put it on my eyes. He told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed, and then I could see.”¹² They asked him, “Where is this man?” He said, “I do not know.”

¹³ They took the man who had been blind to the Pharisees.¹⁴ Now the day on which Jesus made the mud and opened the man’s eyes was a Sabbath.¹⁵ The Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said to them, “He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and now I see.”¹⁶ Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath.” But others asked, “How can a sinner perform such signs?” So there was division among them.¹⁷ They turned again to the blind man, “What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?” The man replied, “He is a prophet.”

¹⁸ The Jewish leaders did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight.¹⁹ They asked them, “Is this your son, who you claim was born blind? How is it that now he can see?”²⁰ His parents answered, “We know he is our son, and that he was born blind.”²¹ But how he can see now, or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him. He is of age; he will speak for himself.”²² His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders, who had already decided that anyone who acknowledged Jesus as the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue.²³ That is why his parents said, “He is of age; ask him.”

²⁴ For a second time they summoned the man who had been blind, and said to him, “Give glory to God by telling the truth. We know this man is a sinner.”²⁵ He replied, “Whether He is a sinner or not, I do not know. One thing I do know: I was blind, but now I see.”²⁶ Then they questioned him further, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?”²⁷ He answered, “I have told you already and you did not listen. Why do you wish to hear it again? Do you want to become His disciples too?”²⁸ They insulted him and said, “You are this fellow’s disciple! We are disciples of Moses!”²⁹ We know that God spoke to Moses, but as for this fellow, we do not know where He comes from.”³⁰ The man answered, “Now that is remarkable! You do not know where He comes from, yet He opened my eyes.”³¹ We understand that God does not listen to sinners. He listens to the devout person who does His will.³² It has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind.³³ If this man were not from God, He would be unable to do anything.”³⁴ To this they replied, “You were born entirely in sin; how dare you lecture us!” And they cast him out.

³⁵ Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and when He found him, He said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”³⁶ The man asked, “Who is He, sir? Please tell me, so that I may believe in Him.”³⁷ Jesus said, “You have now seen Him; indeed, He is the one speaking with you.”³⁸ The man responded, “Lord, I believe,” and he honoured Him.

³⁹ Jesus said, “I have come into this world for judgment, so that those who are blind will see and those who see will become blind.”⁴⁰ Some Pharisees who were with Him heard Him say this and asked, “What? Are we also blind?”⁴¹ Jesus said, “If you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin; but now that you assert you can see, your guilt remains.

10 “Truly, truly I say to you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a robber. ² But the one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. ³ The gatekeeper allows him to enter, and the sheep come then they hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and they follow him. ⁴ When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they recognise his voice. ⁵ They will not follow a stranger; instead, they will flee from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” ⁶ Jesus used this figure of speech, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

⁷ So Jesus said again, “Truly, truly I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸ All who came before me were like thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹ I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. ¹⁰ The thief comes only to steal, kill, and destroy; I have come so that they may have life and have it abundantly.

¹¹ “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd is willing to give his life for the sheep. ¹² The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches and scatters them. ¹³ He runs away because he is a hired hand and has no concern for the sheep. ¹⁴ “I am the good shepherd; I recognise my own sheep, and my own sheep recognise me— ¹⁵ just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I am willing to give my life for the sheep. ¹⁶ I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd. ¹⁷ This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life so that I may take it back. ¹⁸ No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have the authority to lay it down and the authority to take it back. This command I received from my Father.”

¹⁹ A division arose again among the Jews because of these words. ²⁰ Many of them said, “He has a demon and is mad. Why listen to him?” ²¹ Others said, “These are not the words of one who is demon-possessed. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

²² At that time, the Festival of Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, ²³ and Jesus was walking in the temple courts in Solomon’s Colonnade. ²⁴ The Jews gathered around him, saying, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.” ²⁵ Jesus answered, “I told you, and you do not believe. The works I do in my Father’s name testify about me, ²⁶ but you do not believe because you do not belong to my flock. ²⁷ For my sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. ²⁸ I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will take them from my hand. ²⁹ My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all; no one can take them from the Father’s hand. ³⁰ The Father and I are one.”

³¹ At this, the crowd picked up stones again to stone him. ³² Jesus said to them, “I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these are you stoning me?” ³³ The Jews answered, “We are not stoning you for any good work, but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God.” ³⁴ Jesus replied, “Is it not written in your Law, ‘I have said you are “gods”’? ³⁵ If he called them ‘gods,’ to whom the word of God came—and Scripture cannot be disregarded— ³⁶ what about the one whom the Father set apart and sent into the world? Why then do you accuse me of blasphemy because I said, ‘I am God’s Son’? ³⁷ If I cannot do the works of my Father, do not believe me. ³⁸ But if I do do them, even if you don’t believe me, believe in the works, so that you may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father.” ³⁹ Once more they tried to seize him, but he slipped away from their grasp.

⁴⁰ He went back across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptising earlier, and he stayed there. ⁴¹ Many people came to him and said, “Though John performed no sign, everything John said about this man was true.” ⁴² And in that place, many came to believe in Jesus.

11 There was a man named Lazarus who was sick. He was from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. ² (It was this Mary who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was ill.) ³ So the sisters sent word to Him, saying, “Lord, the one You love is ill.”⁴ When Jesus heard this, He said, “This illness will not lead to death. No, it is for God’s glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.”

John

⁵ Jesus had a deep affection for Martha, her sister, and Lazarus. ⁶ So when He heard that Lazarus was ill, He stayed where He was for two more days, ⁷ and then He said to His disciples, “Let us return to Judea.” ⁸ “But Teacher,” they said, “not long ago the people there tried to stone You, and yet You are going back?” ⁹ Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Anyone who walks in the daytime does not stumble, for they see by this world’s light. ¹⁰ It is when someone walks at night that they stumble, for they have no light.”

¹¹ After He had said this, He continued, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going there to awaken him.” ¹² His disciples replied, “Lord, if he sleeps, he will recover.” ¹³ Jesus had been speaking of his passing, but His disciples thought He referred to natural sleep. ¹⁴ So He told them clearly, “Lazarus has died, ¹⁵ and for your sake I am pleased I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.” ¹⁶ Then Thomas, also known as Didymus, said to the rest of the disciples, “Let us also go, that we may face death with Him.”

¹⁷ Upon His arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. ¹⁸ Bethany was only a short distance from Jerusalem, ¹⁹ and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother. ²⁰ When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet Him, while Mary remained at home. ²¹ “Lord,” Martha said to Jesus, “had You been here, I know my brother would not have died. ²² But I know that even now God will grant You whatever You ask.” ²³ Jesus assured her, “Your brother will be raised.” ²⁴ Martha replied, “I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.” ²⁵ Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in Me will live, even if they die; ²⁶ and whoever lives by having faith in Me will never truly die. Do you believe this?”

²⁷ “Yes, Lord,” she replied, “I believe that You are the Messiah, the Son of God, who was destined to come into the world.”

²⁸ After saying this, she went back and called her sister Mary aside. “The Teacher is here,” she said,

“and is asking for you.” ²⁹ Upon hearing this, Mary rose quickly and went to Him. ³⁰ Jesus had not yet entered the village, but remained at the place where Martha had met Him. ³¹ When the Jews who had been with Mary in the house, comforting her, noticed how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, thinking she was going to the tomb to mourn there. ³² When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw Him, she fell at His feet. “Lord”, she said “had You been here, I know my brother would not have died.”

³³ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, He was deeply moved in spirit and distressed. ³⁴ “Where have you placed him?” He asked. “Come and see, Lord,” they replied. ³⁵ Jesus wept. ³⁶ Then those present remarked, “Observe how He cared for him!” ³⁷ Yet others questioned, “Could not the one who gave sight to the blind man have prevented this man’s death?”

³⁸ Jesus, once again deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance. ³⁹ “Take away the stone,” He said. “But, Lord,” said Martha, the sister of the deceased, “by this time there is a bad odour, for he has been there four days.” ⁴⁰ Then Jesus said, “Did I not tell you that if you have faith, you will see the glory of God?” ⁴¹ Then they took away the stone. At this, Jesus looked up and said, “Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. ⁴² I know that You always hear Me, but I say this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe that You sent Me.” ⁴³ After saying this, Jesus called in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” ⁴⁴ The man who had died came out, his hands and feet wrapped with strips of linen, and a cloth around his face. Jesus said to them, “Take off the grave clothes and let him go.”

⁴⁵ As a result, many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary, and had seen what Jesus did, believed in Him. ⁴⁶ However, some of them went to the Pharisees and informed them about what Jesus had done.

⁴⁷ Then the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the Sanhedrin. “What are we achieving?” they asked. “Here is this man performing many signs. ⁴⁸ If we allow Him to continue, everyone will believe in Him, and then the Romans will come and take away both our temple and our nation.”⁴⁹ Then one of them, named Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, spoke up, “You are unaware of what is necessary!”⁵⁰ You do not understand that it is better for you that one man die for the people than that the whole nation perish.”⁵¹ He did not say this on his own, in fact, as high priest he had already prophesied that year that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation,⁵² and not only for that nation but also for the scattered children of God, to bring them together and unite them as one.⁵³ So from that day on they plotted to end His life.

⁵⁴ Consequently, Jesus no longer moved about publicly among the people of Judea. Instead, He withdrew to a region near the wilderness, to a village called Ephraim, where He stayed with His disciples.⁵⁵ When it was nearly time for the Jewish Passover, many went up from the countryside to Jerusalem for their ceremonial cleansing before the Passover.⁵⁶ They kept looking for Jesus, and as they stood in the temple courts they asked one another, “What do you think? Is He coming to the festival at all?”⁵⁷ But the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that anyone who found out where He was should report it so that they might arrest Him.

12 Six days before the Passover, Jesus arrived at Bethany where Lazarus was, the one whom Jesus had raised from the dead.² A dinner was prepared in Jesus' honour, and Martha served while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him.³ Mary took a pound of very costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.⁴ However, Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples who intended to betray him, remarked,⁵ “Why wasn't this perfume sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?”⁶ He said this not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief; as the keeper of the money bag, he used to take from what was put into it.⁷ Jesus replied, “Leave her alone. It was meant that she should keep this perfume for the day of my burial.⁸ You will always have those in need with you, but you will not always have me.”

⁹ A large crowd of Jews found out that Jesus was there, and they came not only because of him but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.¹⁰ Therefore, the chief priests also plotted to put Lazarus to death,¹¹ because on account of him many Jews were going over to Jesus and believing in him.

¹² The next day the great crowd that had come for the feast heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem.¹³ They took palm branches and went out to meet him, crying out, “Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the King of Israel!”

¹⁴ Jesus found a young donkey and sat upon it, fulfilling what was written:

“Do not fear, Daughter Zion; see, your king is coming, seated on a donkey's colt.”

¹⁶ At first, his disciples did not understand these things. Only after Jesus was glorified did they realise that these things had been written about him and that they had done these things to him.¹⁷ The crowd that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to testify.¹⁸ Many people, having heard about this miraculous sign, went out to meet him.¹⁹ So the Pharisees said to one another, “See, this is getting us nowhere. Look how everyone has gone after him!”

²⁰ Now there were some Greeks among those who went up to worship during the feast.²¹ They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, with a request, saying, “Sir, we would like to see Jesus.”²² Philip went to tell Andrew; Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.²³ Jesus answered, “The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.”²⁴ Truly, truly I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains a single seed; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.²⁵ Anyone who cherishes their life will lose it, while anyone who disregards their life in this world will keep it for eternal life.²⁶ If anyone serves me, they must follow me; and where I am, there my servant will be also. My Father will honour the one who serves me.

²⁷ “Now my soul is troubled, and what shall I say? ‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it was for this very purpose I came to this hour.”²⁸ Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it and will glorify it once more.”²⁹ The crowd that stood there and heard it said it had thundered; others said, “An angel has spoken to him.”³⁰ Jesus said, “This voice came for your benefit, not mine. ³¹ Now is the time for judgment on this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast out. ³² And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all people to me.” ³³ He said this to indicate the kind of death he was going to die.

John

³⁴ The crowd responded, “We have heard from the Law that the Messiah will remain forever, so how can you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this ‘Son of Man’?” ³⁵ Then Jesus said to them, “You are going to have the light just a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, before darkness overtakes you. Whoever walks in the dark does not know where they are going. ³⁶ Trust in the light while you have the light, so that you may become children of light.” When he had finished speaking, Jesus left and hid himself from them.

³⁷ Even though Jesus had performed so many signs in their presence, they still would not believe in him.

³⁸ This was to fulfil the words of Isaiah the prophet:

“Lord, who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”

³⁹ They were unable to believe for this reason, as Isaiah says elsewhere:

⁴⁰ “He blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, so they can not see with their eyes, nor understand with their hearts, nor turn —and I would heal them.”

⁴¹ Isaiah said this because he had seen Jesus’ glory and spoke about him.

⁴² Nevertheless, many even among the leaders believed in him. But because of the Pharisees, they would not openly acknowledge their faith for fear they would be put out of the synagogue; ⁴³ for they valued human praise more than praise from God.

⁴⁴ Then Jesus cried out, “Whoever believes in me does not believe in me alone, but in the one who sent me. ⁴⁵ You who sees me, sees the one who sent me. ⁴⁶ I have come into the world as a light, so that no one who believes in me should remain in darkness. ⁴⁷ “If anyone hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge that person. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save it. ⁴⁸ But there is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; the very words I have spoken will be their judge at the last day. ⁴⁹ For I did not speak on my own, but the Father who sent me instructed me to say all that I have spoken. ⁵⁰ I know that his command leads to eternal life. So whatever I say is precisely what the Father has told me to say.”

13 Before the Feast of the Passover, Jesus knew that His hour had come to depart from this world to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the very end. ² During the evening meal, the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray Him. ³ Jesus, aware that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was returning to God, ⁴ rose from the meal, laid aside His outer garments, and took a towel, tying it around His waist. ⁵ He then poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples’ feet, drying them with the towel wrapped around Him.

⁶ He approached Simon Peter, who asked Him, “Lord, do you intend to wash my feet?” ⁷ Jesus replied, “You do not understand now what I am doing, but you will understand later.” ⁸ Peter said to Him, “You shall never wash my feet!” Jesus answered, “If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me.” ⁹ Simon Peter said to Him, “Lord, wash not only my feet, but also my hands and my head!” ¹⁰ Jesus said, “He who has bathed needs only to wash his feet; he is completely clean. And you are clean, but not all of you.” ¹¹ For He knew who was going to betray Him; for this reason He said, “Not all of you are clean.”

¹² After washing their feet, He put on His garments and reclined at the table again. He said to them, “Do you understand what I have done for you? ¹³ You refer to Me as ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord’, and you are right, for that is what I am. ¹⁴ If I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. ¹⁵ I have provided you with an example, so that you should do as I have done for you. ¹⁶ Truly, truly I say to you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. ¹⁷ If you know these things, you will be blessed when you do them.

¹⁸ I am not speaking about all of you. I know whom I have chosen. But this is to fulfil the Scripture: ‘He who eats My bread has lifted up his heel against Me.’

¹⁹ I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen, you may believe that I am He.

²⁰ Truly, truly I say to you, whoever receives anyone I send receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me."

²¹ After saying this, Jesus was troubled in spirit and testified, "Truly, truly I say to you, one of you will betray Me." ²² The disciples looked at each other, unsure of whom He was referring to. ²³ One of His disciples, whom Jesus loved, was reclining next to Him. ²⁴ Simon Peter motioned to this disciple and said, "Ask Him who it is He means." ²⁵ Leaning back against Jesus, he asked, "Lord, who is it?" ²⁶ Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I will give this piece of bread after I have dipped it." Then, after dipping the piece of bread, He gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. ²⁷ After Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to him, "What you are about to do, do quickly." ²⁸ None of those at the meal understood why He said this to him. ²⁹ Some thought that, since Judas had the money box, Jesus was telling him to buy what was needed for the festival, or to give something to the poor. ³⁰ After receiving the piece of bread, Judas went out immediately. And it was night.

³¹ After he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him. ³² If God is honoured in Him, God will also honour Him in Himself, and will do so immediately. ³³ Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for Me, and just as I told the Jews, now I tell you: Where I am going, you cannot come. ³⁴ A new commandment I give to you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. ³⁵ It is by this, therefore, that everyone will know you are My disciples: that you have love for one another."

³⁶ Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, where are You going?" Jesus replied, "Where I am going, you cannot follow Me now, but you will follow later." ³⁷ Peter said to Him, "Lord, why can't I follow You now? I will lay down my life for You." ³⁸ Jesus replied, "Will you really lay down your life for Me? Truly, truly I say to you, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

14 "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. ² In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? ³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will return and take you to be with me so that you may also be where I am. ⁴ And you are aware of the path to the place I am going." ⁵ Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not understand where you are heading, so how can we know the way?" ⁶ Jesus replied, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. ⁷ If you really knew me, you would know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him."

⁸ Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will be sufficient for us." ⁹ Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you do not know me, Philip? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? ¹⁰ Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I speak to you are not from my own authority. Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work. ¹¹ Trust me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe because of the works themselves. ¹² Truly, truly I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. ¹³ And whatever you request in my name, I will do, so that the Father may be honoured in the Son. ¹⁴ If you ask me any request in my name, I will fulfil it.

¹⁵ "For if you love me, you will obey my commands. ¹⁶ And I will ask the Father, and he will provide you with another Helper, to be with you forever— ¹⁷ the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither perceives him nor recognises him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. ¹⁸ I will not leave you alone without provision; I will come to you. ¹⁹ In a little while, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. ²⁰ On that day you will understand that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. ²¹ Whoever has my commandments and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and reveal myself to them."

²² Then Judas (not Iscariot) said, "Lord, how is it that you are going to reveal yourself to us and not to the world?" ²³ Jesus replied, "If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching. My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. ²⁴ Anyone who does not love me will not obey my teaching. The words you hear are not my own; they belong to the Father who sent me.

John

²⁵ “I have shared these things with you while I am still with you. ²⁶ But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and remind you of everything I have said to you. ²⁷ Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, nor let them be afraid. ²⁸ You heard me say, ‘I am going away and I am returning to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. ²⁹ I have informed you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe. ³⁰ I will not say much more to you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me, ³¹ but he comes so that the world may understand that I love the Father and do exactly what my Father has commanded me. “Come now; let us leave.

15 “I am the true vine, and my Father tends it. ² He removes every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every branch that does bear fruit, he prunes so that it may be more fruitful. ³ You are made clean by of the word I have spoken to you. ⁴ Remain in me, and I will remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you unless you remain in me. ⁵ I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in them will bear much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. ⁶ If anyone does not remain in me, they are like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. ⁷ If you stay in me and my words stay in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. ⁸ By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and thus prove to be my disciples.

⁹ Just as the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Stay in my love. ¹⁰ If you follow my commandments, you will stay in my love, just as I have followed my Father’s commandments and stay in his love. ¹¹ I have spoken these things to you so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.

¹² For this is my command: that you love one another as I have loved you. ¹³ There is no greater love than this: to give up one’s life for one’s friends. ¹⁴ You are my friends when you do what I command. ¹⁵ I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know what his master is doing. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything I have learned from my Father I have made known to you. ¹⁶ You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit—fruit that will last—so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give you. ¹⁷ This is my command: love one another.

¹⁸ If the world hates you, remember that it hated me before it hated you. ¹⁹ If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own. But because you are not of the world, and I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. ²⁰ Remember the word I said to you: ‘A servant is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted me, they will persecute you as well; if they obeyed my word, they will obey yours also. ²¹ They will do all these things to you because of my name, as they do not know the one who sent me. ²² If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not know of their sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³ Whoever hates me detests my Father also. ²⁴ If I had not done the works which no other man has done among them, they would not know of their sin; but now they have seen they hate both me and my Father. ²⁵ This is to fulfil what is written in their Law: ‘They hated me without reason.’

²⁶ When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, he will testify about me. ²⁷ And you also must testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

16 “I have spoken these things to you so that you will not be led into sin. ² They will exclude you from the synagogue; indeed, a time is coming when anyone who kills you will think they are offering a service to God. ³ They will do these things because they have not recognised the Father or me. ⁴ I have informed you of this so that when their time comes, you will remember that I mentioned it to you. I did not tell you this from the beginning because I was with you.

⁵ However, I am now returning to the One who sent me, and none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’

⁶ Instead, because I have said these things, sorrow

John

has filled your hearts. ⁷ Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away. For if I do not go, the Helper will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. ⁸ And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin, righteousness, and judgement: ⁹ concerning sin, because they do not have faith in me; ¹⁰ concerning righteousness, because I am returning to the Father and you will no longer see me; ¹¹ and concerning judgement, because the ruler of this world is judged.

¹² "I have much more to share with you, but you cannot bear it now. ¹³ But when the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will disclose to you what is to come. ¹⁴ He will glorify me because he will take from what is mine and will disclose it to you. ¹⁵ All that belongs to the Father is mine. This is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and will disclose it to you.

¹⁶ "In a little while, you will no longer see me; and again, in a little while, you will see me." ¹⁷ At this, some of his disciples said to one another, "What does he mean by saying, 'In a little while, you will no longer see me; and again, in a little while, you will see me,' and 'because I am going to the Father'?" ¹⁸ They kept asking, "What does he mean by 'a little while'? We do not understand what he is saying."

¹⁹ Jesus knew they wanted to ask him about this, so he said to them, "Are you discussing among yourselves what I meant when I said, 'In a little while, you will no longer see me, and again, in a little while, you will see me'?" ²⁰ Truly, truly I say to you, you will weep and mourn while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy. ²¹ A woman in labour has pain because her time has come; but when her child is born, she forgets the anguish because of her joy that a child is born into the world. ²² So it is with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.

²³ In that day, you will no longer ask me anything. Truly, truly I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in my name, he will give you. ²⁴ Up to this point, you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask in my name and you will receive, that your joy may be fulfilled.

²⁵ "I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech; a time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father. ²⁶ On that day, you will ask in my name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf. ²⁷ The Father loves you, because you have loved me and believe that I came from God. ²⁸ I came from the Father and have come into the world; now I am departing from the world and returning to the Father."

²⁹ Then his disciples said, "Now you are speaking plainly and not using figures of speech. ³⁰ Now we see that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you. This makes us believe that you came from God." ³¹ Jesus responded, "Do you believe now?" ³² "Behold, a time is coming, and in fact has come, when you will be scattered, each to your own home. You will leave me all alone. Yet I am not alone, for my Father is with me. ³³ "I have told you these things so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have tribulation. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

17 After Jesus spoke these words, He lifted His eyes to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has arrived; glorify Your Son, so that the Son may glorify You. ² For You have granted Him authority over all humanity, that He might give eternal life to all those You have entrusted to Him. ³ And this is eternal life: to know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom You have sent. ⁴ I have honoured You on the earth by finishing the work You assigned to Me. ⁵ And now, Father, glorify Me in Your presence with the glory I had with You before the world existed.

⁶ "I have revealed Your name to those whom You gave Me out of the world. They were Yours; You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. ⁷ Now they understand that everything You have given Me comes from You. ⁸ For I have given them the words You gave Me, and they have received them. They have truly known that I came from You, and they have believed that You sent Me.

⁹ I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for those You have given Me, for they are Yours. ¹⁰ All that I have is Yours, and all that You have is Mine; and I have been glorified in them. ¹¹ I will no longer be in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name, the name You have given Me, so that they may be one as We are one. ¹² While I was with them, I kept them in Your name, which You have given Me. I protected them, and none of them was lost except the son of perdition, so that Scripture might be fulfilled.

John

¹³ But now I am coming to You, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have the full measure of My joy within them. ¹⁴ I have delivered Your word to them, and the world has despised them because they do not belong to the world, as I do not belong to the world. ¹⁵ I do not ask that You remove them from the world, but that You protect them from the evil one. ¹⁶ They do not belong to the world, as I do not belong to the world. ¹⁷ Make them holy through the truth; Your word is truth. ¹⁸ As You sent Me into the world, I have also sent them into the world. ¹⁹ And for their sake I sanctify Myself, so that they too may be truly sanctified.

²⁰ "I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in Me through their message, ²¹ that all of them may be united, Father, just as You are in Me and I am in You. May they also be in Us, so that the world may believe that You have sent Me. ²² I have given them the glory that You gave Me, so that they may be united as We are one— ²³ I in them and You in Me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that You sent Me and have loved them just as You have loved Me.

²⁴ "Father, I desire that those You have given Me may be with Me where I am, to see My glory, the glory You have given Me because You loved Me before the foundation of the world. ²⁵ "Righteous Father, though the world does not know You, I know You, and these know that You have sent Me. ²⁶ I have made Your name known to them, and will continue to make it known, so that the love You have for Me may be in them, and I in them."

18 After Jesus had finished speaking, He went with His disciples across the Kidron Valley, where there was a garden into which He and His disciples entered. ² Now Judas, who was betraying Him, also knew the place, because Jesus had frequently met there with His disciples. ³ So Judas, having procured a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. ⁴ Jesus, aware of all that was coming upon Him, went forward and asked them, "Whom are you seeking?" ⁵ They answered Him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am He." Judas, who was betraying Him, was also standing with them. ⁶ When Jesus declared, "I am He," they stepped back and fell to the ground. ⁷ He asked them again, "Whom are you seeking?" They said, "Jesus of Nazareth." ⁸ Jesus replied, "I told you that I am He. If you are looking for Me, then let these men go." ⁹ This occurred to fulfil the words He had spoken: "Of those You have given Me, I have lost not one." ¹⁰ Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, cutting off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. ¹¹ Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword back into its sheath. Shall I not drink the cup the Father has given Me?"

¹² Then the detachment of soldiers, along with their commander and the Jewish officials, arrested Jesus and bound Him. ¹³ They led Him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. ¹⁴ Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jewish leaders that it would be advantageous for one man to die for the people.

¹⁵ Simon Peter followed Jesus, along with another disciple. This disciple was known to the high priest and went with Jesus into the high priest's courtyard, ¹⁶ but Peter stood outside at the door. The other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the servant girl who kept the door, and brought Peter in. ¹⁷ The servant girl at the door asked Peter, "You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?" He said, "I am not." ¹⁸ It was cold, and the servants and officers stood around a charcoal fire they had made to keep warm. Peter was also with them, standing and warming himself.

¹⁹ The high priest inquired of Jesus regarding His disciples and His teachings. ²⁰ Jesus answered, "I have spoken openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all the Jews gather. I have said nothing in secret. ²¹ Why do you question Me? Ask those who have heard Me. Surely they know what I said." ²² When He said this, one of the officers standing nearby struck Jesus, saying, "Is that how You answer the high priest?" ²³ Jesus replied, "If I have spoken wrongly, testify to the wrong; but if rightly, why do you strike Me?" ²⁴ Annas then sent Him, still bound, to Caiaphas the high priest.

John

²⁵ Meanwhile, Simon Peter was still standing and warming himself. So they asked him, "You are not one of His disciples as well, are you?" He denied it, saying, "I am not." ²⁶ One of the high priest's servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the garden with Him?" ²⁷ Peter denied it again, and at that moment a rooster crowed.

²⁸ Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves did not enter the Praetorium to avoid ceremonial defilement, so that they might eat the Passover. ²⁹ Pilate therefore went out to them and asked, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" ³⁰ They answered, "If He were not guilty, we would not have handed Him over to you." ³¹ Pilate said, "Take Him yourselves and judge Him by your own law." The Jews said, "We are not permitted to execute anyone." ³² This happened to fulfil the word Jesus had spoken, indicating the kind of death He was going to die.

³³ Pilate then went back inside the Praetorium, summoned Jesus, and asked Him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" ³⁴ Jesus answered, "Is that your own idea, or have others spoken to you about Me?" ³⁵ Pilate replied, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed You over to me. What have You done?" ³⁶ Jesus said, "My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, My servants would fight to prevent My arrest by the Jewish leaders. But My kingdom is from another place." ³⁷ "You are a king, then!" said Pilate. Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I was born and came into the world: to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to My voice." ³⁸ Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?" With this he went out again to the Jews gathered there and said, "I find no basis for a charge against Him. ³⁹ But it is your custom for me to release one prisoner to you at the Passover. Do you want me to release 'the King of the Jews'?" ⁴⁰ They shouted back, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a rebel.

19 Pilate then took Jesus and had Him whipped. ² The soldiers twisted a crown of thorns and placed it on His head, and they clothed Him in a purple robe. ³ They approached Him repeatedly, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and slapped Him in the face. ⁴ Pilate went out again and said to them, "Behold, I am bringing Him out to you so that you may know I find no fault in Him." ⁵ Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Here is the man!" ⁶ When the chief priests and officers saw Him, they cried out, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate said, "Take Him yourselves and crucify Him, for I find no fault in Him." ⁷ The Jewish leaders answered, "We have a law, and by that law He ought to die, because He made Himself the Son of God." ⁸ Upon hearing this, Pilate became even more fearful. ⁹ He went back into the palace and asked Jesus, "Where are You from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰ Pilate said to Him, "Do You refuse to speak to me? Do You not know I have authority to release You and to crucify You?" ¹¹ Jesus answered, "You would have no authority over Me unless it had been given to you from above. Therefore, the one who handed Me over to you has the greater sin." ¹² From this point on, Pilate sought to release Him, but the Jews cried out, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend; anyone who claims to be a king opposes Caesar."

¹³ When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Pavement, in Hebrew, Gabbatha. ¹⁴ It was the day of Preparation for the Passover, about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, "Behold your King!" ¹⁵ They shouted, "Away with Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate asked, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."

¹⁶ So Pilate handed Him over to be crucified. The soldiers took charge of Jesus.

¹⁷ Carrying His own cross, He went out to the place called the Place of a Skull, in Hebrew, Golgotha. ¹⁸ There they crucified Him, and with Him two others, one on each side, with Jesus in the centre. ¹⁹ Pilate had an inscription written and placed on the cross. It read: "JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS." ²⁰ Many Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. ²¹ The chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but that He said, 'I am King of the Jews.'" ²² Pilate replied, "I have written, what I have written."

John

²³ When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took His garments and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier, with the tunic remaining. The tunic was seamless, woven in one piece. ²⁴ They said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots to decide whose it shall be." This was to fulfil the Scripture: "They divided My garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots." So the soldiers did these things.

²⁵ Standing near the cross of Jesus were His mother, His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶ When Jesus noticed His mother and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He said to His mother, "Dear woman, here is your son!" ²⁷ Then He said to the disciple, "Here is your mother!" From that hour, the disciple took her into his own home.

²⁸ After this, knowing that all was now accomplished, and to fulfil the Scripture, Jesus said, "I am thirsty." ²⁹ A jar full of sour wine was there; so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a branch of hyssop and brought it to His mouth. ³⁰ After receiving the sour wine, Jesus declared, "It is finished!" Then He bowed His head and surrendered His spirit.

³¹ Since it was the day of Preparation, to prevent the bodies from remaining on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. ³² The soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other who was crucified with Him. ³³ But, when they approached Jesus, on seeing that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. ³⁴ Instead, one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. ³⁵ He who saw it has testified, and his testimony is true; he knows that he tells the truth, so that you may also believe. ³⁶ These events occurred to fulfil the Scripture: "Not one of His bones will be broken." ³⁷ And again another Scripture says, "They will look on Him whom they pierced."

³⁸ After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate to take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate granted permission. So he came and took away His body. ³⁹ Nicodemus, who had first come to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred litras. ⁴⁰ They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, according to Jewish burial customs. ⁴¹ In the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. ⁴² Because it was the Jewish day of Preparation and the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

20 On the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. ² She ran to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have put him!" ³ Then Peter and the other disciple set out for the tomb. ⁴ They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and reached the tomb first. ⁵ He bent down and looked in at the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in. ⁶ Then Simon Peter came along behind him and went straight into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there, ⁷ and the cloth that had been around Jesus' head, not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself. ⁸ Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. ⁹ For they did not yet understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead. ¹⁰ Afterwards, the disciples went back to their own homes.

¹¹ But Mary stood outside the tomb weeping. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb ¹² and saw two angels in white, sitting where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot. ¹³ They asked her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She replied, "They have taken my Lord away, and I do not know where they have put him." ¹⁴ At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realise that it was Jesus. ¹⁵ He asked her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" Thinking he was the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will take him away." ¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned towards him and cried out in Hebrew, "Rabboni!" (which means "Teacher"). ¹⁷ Jesus said, "Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" ¹⁸ Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the message,

John

"I have seen the Lord!" And she told them what he had said to her.

¹⁹ On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked due to fear of the Jewish leaders, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" ²⁰ After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord. ²¹ Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you! Just as the Father has sent me, I am sending you." ²² With that, he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ If you forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven; if you withhold forgiveness from anyone, it is withheld."

²⁴ Now Thomas, also called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came.

²⁵ So the other disciples informed him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he replied, "Unless I see the marks of the nails in his hands and place my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

²⁶ A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" ²⁷ Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and place it into my side. Stop doubting and believe." ²⁸ Thomas cried out to him, "You are my Lord and my God!" ²⁹ Then Jesus told him, "You have believed because you have seen me; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

³⁰ Jesus did many other miraculous signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. ³¹ But these are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

21 After these events, Jesus manifested Himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias, and He did so in this manner: ² Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together. ³ Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They replied, "We will come with you." So they went out and boarded the boat, but that night they caught nothing. ⁴ As dawn was breaking, Jesus stood on the shore, yet the disciples did not recognise that it was Jesus. ⁵ Jesus called out to them, "Children, have you any fish?" They answered, "No." ⁶ He instructed them, "Cast your net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." They cast it, and were unable to haul it in due to the large quantity of fish. ⁷ Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard this, he put on his outer garment (for he was stripped for work) and plunged into the sea. ⁸ The other disciples followed in the little boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from land, about two hundred cubits. ⁹ Upon reaching land, they saw a charcoal fire with fish laid upon it, and bread. ¹⁰ Jesus instructed them, "Bring in those fish you have just caught." ¹¹ Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, 153 in total; and despite their number, the net was not torn. ¹² Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the disciples dared to ask Him, "Who are you?" knowing it was the Lord. ¹³ Jesus approached, took the bread, and distributed it to them, and likewise with the fish. ¹⁴ This was now the third occasion that Jesus appeared to the disciples after being raised from the dead.

¹⁵ After they had eaten, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He replied, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my lambs." ¹⁶ He asked him again, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Tend my sheep." ¹⁷ He asked him a third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was distressed because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep." ¹⁸ Truly, truly I say to you, when you were younger, you dressed yourself and went wherever you wished; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and take you where you do not wish to go." ¹⁹ He said this to signify the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. After saying this, He said to him, "Follow me!"

²⁰ Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them, the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper and asked, "Lord, who is going to betray you?" ²¹ Seeing him, Peter asked Jesus, "Lord, what about this man?" ²² Jesus replied, "If I want him to remain until I return, what is that to you? You must follow me.” ²³ Thus the rumour spread among the brothers that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but only, “If I want him to remain until I return, what is that to you?”

John

²⁴ This is the disciple who bears witness to these things and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true. ²⁵ There are many other things that Jesus did; if every one were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written.

Acts

1 In my previous account, Theophilus, I documented all that Jesus began to do and teach, ² up to the day he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen. ³ After his suffering, he presented himself alive to them with many convincing proofs, appearing over a period of forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. ⁴ On one occasion, while gathering them together, he instructed them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, “which,” he said, “you have heard me speak about; ⁵ for John baptised with water, but you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.”

⁶ So when they were assembled, they asked him, “Lord, is this the time you are going to restore the kingdom to Israel?” ⁷ He replied, “It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. ⁸ But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

⁹ After he said this, he was lifted up while they were watching, and a cloud hid him from their sight. ¹⁰ As they were gazing intently into the sky while he was going, suddenly two men in white clothing stood beside them. ¹¹ “Men of Galilee,” they said, “why do you stand looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will return in the same way you have seen him go into heaven.”

¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem from the hill called the Mount of Olives, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day’s journey away. ¹³ When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room where they were staying. Those present were Peter, John, James and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; James son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. ¹⁴ All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

¹⁵ In those days Peter stood up among the believers (a group numbering about 120 people) and said, ¹⁶ “Brothers and sisters, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke long ago through David concerning Judas, who served as a guide for those who arrested Jesus. ¹⁷ He was counted among us and shared in this ministry.” ¹⁸ (Now this man acquired a field with the payment he received for his wickedness, and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his intestines spilled out. ¹⁹ This became known to all the residents of Jerusalem, so they called that field in their own language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) ²⁰ “For,” said Peter, “it is written in the book of Psalms:

‘May his place be deserted; let there be no one to dwell in it,’

and,

‘May another take his office.’

²¹ Therefore it is necessary to choose one of the men who have been with us the whole time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, ²² beginning from John’s baptism to the day he was taken up from us. For one of these must become a witness with us of his resurrection.” ²³ So they proposed two men: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias. ²⁴ Then they prayed, “Lord, you who know the hearts of all, reveal to us which of these two you have chosen ²⁵ to take over this ministry and apostleship, which Judas left to go to his own place.” ²⁶ Then they cast lots, and Matthias was chosen; thus he was added to the eleven apostles.

2 When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all gathered together in one place. ² Suddenly, a sound like a strong rushing wind came from heaven and filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³ They saw what appeared to be tongues of fire that separated and settled on each of them. ⁴ They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to do so.

⁵ Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven residing in Jerusalem. ⁶ When they heard this sound, a crowd gathered in bewilderment, because each one heard them speaking in their own language. ⁷ They were utterly amazed and asked, “Aren’t all these who are speaking Galileans?” ⁸ How is it that each of us hears them in our native language? ⁹ People from Parthia, Media, and Elam; those living in Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism;¹¹ Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the mighty works of God in our own tongues!”¹² In amazement and confusion, they asked one another, “What could this mean?”¹³ But others ridiculed them and said, “They have had too much new wine.”

Acts

¹⁴ Then Peter stood with the Eleven, raised his voice, and addressed the crowd: “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen carefully to my words. ¹⁵ These people are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only the third hour of the day. ¹⁶ Instead, this is what was foretold through the prophet Joel:

¹⁷ ‘In the last days,’ says God, ‘I will pour out my Spirit on all people; your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams. ¹⁸ On my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. ¹⁹ I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and clouds of smoke. ²⁰ The sun will become dark and the moon will turn to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord. ²¹ And everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord will find salvation.’

²² “Men of Israel, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to you by miracles, wonders, and signs, which God performed among you through him, as you yourselves know. ²³ This man was handed over to you by God’s deliberate plan and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of lawless men, put him to death by nailing him to the cross. ²⁴ Yet God raised him from the dead, releasing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to maintain its hold on him. ²⁵ David spoke concerning him:

‘I saw the Lord always before me. Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken. ²⁶ Therefore my heart is joyful and my tongue exults; and my body will rest in hope, ²⁷ because you will not abandon me to the realm of the dead, nor will you let your Holy One see decay. ²⁸ You have revealed to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence.’

²⁹ “Brothers, I can confidently tell you that the patriarch David died and was buried, and his tomb is here to this day. ³⁰ But he was a prophet and understood that God had sworn to him with an oath to place one of his descendants on his throne. ³¹ Foreseeing this, he spoke of the Messiah’s resurrection, that he was not abandoned to the realm of the dead, nor did his body see decay. ³² God has brought this Jesus back to life, and we are all witnesses of this fact. ³³ Exalted to the right hand of God, he has received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit and has poured out what you now observe and hear. ³⁴ For David did not ascend to heaven, and yet he said,

‘The Lord declared to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand ³⁵ until I place your enemies under your feet.”’

³⁶ “Therefore let all the house of Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Messiah.”

³⁷ When the people heard this, they were deeply moved and said to Peter and the other apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?” ³⁸ Peter replied, “Turn back and be baptised, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹ This promise is for you and your children and for all who are distant—for all whom the Lord our God will call.” ⁴⁰ With many other words he warned them; and he urged them, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.” ⁴¹ Those who embraced his message were baptised, and about three thousand were added to their number that day.

⁴² They committed themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. ⁴³ Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs done by the apostles. ⁴⁴ All the believers were together and shared everything in common. ⁴⁵ They sold their property and possessions to provide for anyone who was in need. ⁴⁶ Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They shared meals in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, ⁴⁷ praising God and enjoying the goodwill of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

3 Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, which was the ninth hour. ² A man who had been lame from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was placed every day to beg for alms from those entering the temple courts. ³ Seeing Peter and John about to enter the temple courts, he asked them for alms. ⁴ Peter, together with John, fixed his gaze on him and said, "Look at us." ⁵ The man gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. ⁶ Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk." ⁷ Taking him by the right hand, he helped him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were strengthened. ⁸ He leapt to his feet and began to walk, and went with them into the temple courts, walking and leaping and praising God. ⁹ Everyone witnessed him walking about, praising God; ¹⁰ and they recognised him as the same man who used to sit begging at the temple gate called Beautiful, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Acts

¹¹ While he clung to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them at the place called Solomon's Colonnade, utterly astonished. ¹² When Peter saw this, he addressed the people, "Men of Israel, why are you surprised at this? Why do you stare at us as if by our own power or piety we had made him walk? ¹³ The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His servant Jesus, whom you handed over and disowned before Pilate, even though he had decided to release Him. ¹⁴ You disowned the Holy and Righteous One and asked for a murderer to be released to you. ¹⁵ You killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, and we are witnesses of this. ¹⁶ By faith in the name of Jesus, this man whom you see and know has been made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through Him that has given him this perfect health in the presence of you all.

¹⁷ "And now, brethren, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did your rulers. ¹⁸ But God has fulfilled what He foretold through all the prophets, that His Christ would suffer in this way. ¹⁹ Repent, therefore, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord, ²⁰ and that He may send the Messiah, who has been appointed for you, even Jesus. ²¹ Heaven must welcome Him until the time comes for God to restore everything, as He promised long ago through His holy prophets.

²² For Moses declared, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you must listen to everything He tells you.' ²³ Anyone who does not listen to that prophet will be completely cut off from among the people.' ²⁴ Truly, starting with Samuel, all the prophets who have spoken have announced these days. ²⁵ You are the heirs of the prophets and of the covenant God made with your fathers. He said to Abraham, 'Through your offspring all peoples on earth will be blessed.' ²⁶ When God raised up His servant, He sent Him to you, first, to bless you by turning each of you away from your sinful ways."

4 While they were addressing the people, the priests, the captain of the temple guard, and the Sadducees approached them, ² being greatly troubled because the apostles were instructing the people and proclaiming the resurrection of the dead through Jesus. ³ They apprehended Peter and John and, as it was already evening, placed them in custody until the following day. ⁴ However, many who heard the message believed, and the number of men who believed grew to about five thousand.

⁵ The next day, the rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem. ⁶ Annas the high priest was present, along with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and others of the high priestly lineage. ⁷ They had Peter and John brought before them and began to question them: "By what power or in what name have you done this?" ⁸ Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, addressed them: "Rulers and elders of the people, ⁹ if we are being examined today for a good deed done to a disabled man, as to how he has been healed, ¹⁰ let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified and whom God raised from the dead, this man stands before you healed. ¹¹ He is "the stone you builders rejected, which has become the chief cornerstone."

¹² And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mankind by which we can be saved."

¹³ When they observed the boldness of Peter and John and realised that they were uneducated and ordinary men, they were amazed and recognised them as having been with Jesus. ¹⁴ But seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they had nothing to say in opposition. ¹⁵ So they ordered them to leave the Council and conferred among themselves, ¹⁶ saying, "What shall we do with these men? For it is evident to all who dwell in Jerusalem that a notable miracle has occurred through them, and we cannot deny it. ¹⁷ But to prevent this from spreading further among the people, let us warn them not to speak any longer to anyone in this name." ¹⁸ And when they called them back, they commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. ¹⁹ But Peter and John answered them, "Judge for yourselves whether it is right in God's sight to listen to you rather than to God. ²⁰ For we are unable to stop telling everyone about what we have seen and heard." ²¹ After further threats, they released them, finding no way to punish them because all the people were glorifying God for what had happened. ²² For the man who had been healed was over forty years old.

Acts

²³ Upon their release, Peter and John returned to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. ²⁴ When they heard this, they raised their voices together to God and said, "Sovereign Lord, you made the heavens and the earth and the sea, and everything in them. ²⁵ You spoke through the Holy Spirit by the mouth of your servant, our father David:

'Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain? ²⁶ The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers gather together against the Lord and against his Anointed One.'

²⁷ Truly, Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, gathered in this city to act against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed. ²⁸ They carried out what your power and will had decided beforehand should happen. ²⁹ And now, Lord, take note of their threats and grant your servants the ability to speak your word with great boldness, ³⁰ while you stretch out your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus." ³¹ After they prayed, the place where they were gathered was shaken. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.

³² The congregation of believers were of one heart and soul. No one claimed any of their possessions as their own, but they shared everything they had. ³³ With great power, the apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and abundant grace was upon them all. ³⁴ There were no needy persons among them. From time to time, those who owned land or houses sold them, brought the proceeds ³⁵ and laid them at the apostles' feet, and they were distributed to anyone who had need. ³⁶ Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, known by the apostles as Barnabas (which translates to "son of encouragement"), ³⁷ sold a field he owned, brought the money, and placed it at the apostles' feet.

5 A man named Ananias, along with his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property. ² With full knowledge of his wife, he kept back part of the proceeds for himself, and brought a portion to lay at the apostles' feet. ³ Then Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the money from the land? ⁴ Did it not belong to you before it was sold? And after it was sold, was it not at your disposal? Why have you conceived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God." ⁵ Upon hearing these words, Ananias fell down and died; and great fear came upon all who heard of it. ⁶ The young men arose, wrapped him up, and carried him out to be buried.

⁷ About three hours later, his wife came in, unaware of what had happened. ⁸ Peter asked her, "Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias received for the land?" She replied, "Yes, that is the price." ⁹ Peter said to her, "How could you conspire to test the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also." ¹⁰ Immediately she fell down at his feet and died. The young men came in, found her dead, and carried her out to bury her beside her husband. ¹¹ A profound sense of awe came over the whole church and all who heard about these events.

¹² Many signs and wonders were performed by the apostles among the people, and all the believers used to meet together in Solomon's Colonnade. ¹³ No one else dared to join them, although the people held them in high esteem. ¹⁴ Nevertheless, more believers were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women. ¹⁵ As a result, people brought the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and mats so that at least Peter's shadow might fall on them as he passed by. ¹⁶ Crowds gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and all were healed.

Acts

¹⁷ Then the high priest and all his associates, who were members of the Sadducees, were filled with jealousy. ¹⁸ They arrested the apostles and put them in a public prison. ¹⁹ But during the night, an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and led them out. ²⁰ "Go, stand in the temple courts," he said, "and share with the people about this new life." ²¹ At daybreak, they entered the temple courts and began to teach. When the high priest and his associates arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin—the full assembly of the elders of Israel—and sent to the prison for the apostles. ²² But when the officers arrived, they did not find them in the prison, so they returned and reported, ²³ "We found the prison securely locked, with the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside." ²⁴ When the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard this, they were perplexed, wondering what might come of this. ²⁵ Then someone came and said, "Look! The men you put in prison are standing in the temple courts, teaching the people."

²⁶ At that, the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles back without force, for they feared the people might stone them. ²⁷ The apostles were brought in and presented before the Sanhedrin to be questioned by the high priest. ²⁸ "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name," he said. "Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and intend to bring this man's blood upon us." ²⁹ Peter and the other apostles replied, "We must follow God rather than human beings! ³⁰ The God of our ancestors raised Jesus from the dead, whom you killed by hanging on a cross. ³¹ God exalted him to his own right hand as Prince and Saviour, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. ³² We testify to these matters, as does the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

³³ When they heard this, they were enraged and wanted to put them to death. ³⁴ But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, respected by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered that the men be put outside for a little while.

³⁵ Then he addressed the Sanhedrin, "Men of Israel, consider carefully what you intend to do with these men. ³⁶ Some time ago Theudas appeared, claiming to be someone significant, and about four hundred men rallied to him. He was killed, all his followers were dispersed, and it all came to nothing. ³⁷ After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census and led a band of people in revolt. He too perished, and all his followers were scattered. ³⁸ Therefore, in the present situation, I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. ³⁹ But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop them; you may even find yourselves fighting against God."

⁴⁰ His speech persuaded them. They called the apostles in, flogged them, and ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and then released them.

⁴¹ The apostles left the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been counted worthy to suffer disgrace for the Name. ⁴² Day after day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they continued teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Messiah.

6 In those days, as the number of disciples was growing, a complaint arose from the Hellenistic Jews against the Hebraic Jews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution of food. ² So the Twelve called together the whole group of disciples and said, "It would not be appropriate for us to neglect the word of God in order to serve tables. ³ Therefore, brothers and sisters, select seven men from among you who are of good reputation, full of the Spirit and wisdom, whom we can appoint to this duty. ⁴ We will then dedicate ourselves to prayer and the ministry of the word." ⁵ This suggestion pleased the entire assembly. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, along with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas, a convert from Antioch. ⁶ These men were brought before the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

⁷ The word of God continued to spread, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly, and a large number of priests became obedient to the faith.

Acts

⁸ Stephen, endowed with grace and power, was accomplishing significant wonders and signs among the people. ⁹ However, opposition arose from members of the Synagogue of the Freedmen, which included Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and others from Cilicia and Asia, who began to dispute with Stephen. ¹⁰ Yet they could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke. ¹¹ Then they secretly persuaded some men to claim, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God." ¹² They incited the people, the elders, and the teachers of the law, and they seized Stephen and brought him before the Sanhedrin. ¹³ They set up false witnesses who testified, "This man never ceases to speak against this holy place and the law. ¹⁴ For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and alter the customs Moses handed down to us." ¹⁵ All who were seated in the Sanhedrin looked intently at Stephen, and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

7 The high priest then inquired of Stephen, "Are these accusations accurate?" ² Stephen responded, "Brothers and fathers, hear me! The God of glory appeared to our ancestor Abraham while he was in Mesopotamia, before he resided in Haran. ³ And He instructed him, 'Depart from your country and your kin, and proceed to the land I will reveal to you.' ⁴ So Abraham departed from the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. After his father's death, God moved him to this land where you now live. ⁵ He did not grant him any inheritance here, not even a foot of ground. Yet He promised to give it to him as a possession, and to his descendants after him, even though he had no child at that time. ⁶ God spoke thus: 'Your descendants will be strangers in a land not their own, and they will be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years. ⁷ But I will judge the nation they serve as slaves,' said God, 'and afterwards they will come out and worship Me in this place.' ⁸ Then He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs.

⁹ "The patriarchs, out of jealousy, sold Joseph into Egypt. But God was with him, ¹⁰ and delivered him from all his tribulations, granting him favour and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who appointed him governor over Egypt and his entire household. ¹¹ "Then a famine came upon all Egypt and Canaan, causing great affliction, and our ancestors could not find food. ¹² When Jacob learned there was grain in Egypt, he sent our forefathers on their first journey. ¹³ On their second visit, Joseph revealed his identity to his brothers, and Pharaoh came to know of Joseph's family. ¹⁴ Joseph then sent for his father Jacob and all his relatives, seventy-five in total. ¹⁵ Jacob went down to Egypt, where he and our ancestors died. ¹⁶ Their bodies were brought back to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham had purchased from the sons of Hamor in Shechem for a sum of money.

¹⁷ "As the time approached for God to fulfil His promise to Abraham, the population of our people in Egypt increased greatly. ¹⁸ Until a new king arose over Egypt who did not know Joseph. ¹⁹ This king exploited our people and oppressed our ancestors, forcing them to abandon their infants so they would not survive. ²⁰ "At that time Moses was born, and he was no ordinary child. He was cared for in his father's house for three months. ²¹ When he was set outside, Pharaoh's daughter took him and raised him as her own son. ²² Moses was taught in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was influential in his words and actions. ²³ "When he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the Israelites. ²⁴ Seeing one of them being wronged, he defended him and avenged the oppressed by striking down the Egyptian. ²⁵ He assumed his brethren would understand that God was granting them deliverance through him, but they did not. ²⁶ The next day, he came upon two Israelites fighting and tried to reconcile them, saying, 'Men, you are brothers; why do you wrong each other?' ²⁷ But the one who was injuring his neighbour pushed him aside, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and judge over us?' ²⁸ Are you planning to kill me as you did the Egyptian yesterday?' ²⁹ At this remark, Moses fled and became a foreigner in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

³⁰ "After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the flames of a burning bush in the desert near Mount Sinai. ³¹ When Moses saw it, he marvelled at the sight. As he approached to observe more closely, the voice of the Lord came to him: ³² 'I am the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look. ³³ Then the Lord instructed him, 'Remove your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.' ³⁴ I have indeed seen the oppression of My people in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning. I have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you back to Egypt.'

Acts

³⁵ "This Moses whom they rejected, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and judge?' is the one God sent as both ruler and deliverer, with the help of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶ He led them out, performing wonders and signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and for forty years in the wilderness. ³⁷ "This is the Moses who told the Israelites, 'God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people.' ³⁸ He was with the congregation in the wilderness, with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our ancestors; and he received living words to pass on to us. ³⁹ "But our ancestors refused to obey him. Instead, they rejected him and in their hearts longed to return to Egypt. ⁴⁰ They told Aaron, 'Make us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses who led us out of Egypt—we do not know what has happened to him!' ⁴¹ At that time they made an idol in the form of a calf. They brought sacrifices to it and rejoiced in what their own hands had made. ⁴² But God turned away from them and gave them over to the worship of the sun, moon, and stars. As it is written in the book of the prophets:

'Did you offer Me sacrifices and offerings for forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? ⁴³ You have taken up the tabernacle of Moloch and the star of your god Rephan, the idols you made to worship. Therefore, I will send you into exile beyond Babylon.'

⁴⁴ "Our ancestors had the tabernacle of the covenant law with them in the wilderness. It was made as God directed Moses, according to the pattern he had seen. ⁴⁵ Our ancestors received it and brought it with Joshua when they dispossessed the nations God drove out before them. It remained in the land until the time of David, ⁴⁶ who found favour with God and asked that he might provide a dwelling place for the God of Jacob. ⁴⁷ Yet it was Solomon who built a house for Him. ⁴⁸ Nevertheless, the Most High does not reside in structures made by human hands. As the prophet says:

⁴⁹ 'Heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool. What kind of house will you raise for Me?' says the Lord. 'Or where will My resting place be? ⁵⁰ Is it not My hand that made all these things?'

⁵¹ "You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit; you are just like your ancestors. ⁵² Which of the prophets did your ancestors ever fail to persecute? They killed those who announced the coming of the Righteous One, and now you have become His betrayers and murderers— ⁵³ you who received the law given through angels but have not kept it."

⁵⁴ When the members of the Sanhedrin heard this, they were enraged and gnashed their teeth at him. ⁵⁵ But Stephen, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁶ "Behold," he said, "I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God." ⁵⁷ At this, they cried out with loud voices, covered their ears, and rushed at him in unison. ⁵⁸ They dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. Meanwhile, the witnesses laid their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹ As they stoned Stephen, he called out, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" ⁶⁰ Then he fell on his knees and cried out, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." Having said this, he fell asleep.

8 And Saul consented to his death. On that day, a severe persecution arose against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were dispersed throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria. ² Faithful men laid Stephen to rest and mourned deeply for him. ³ But Saul was making havoc of the church, entering house after house, and dragging off men and women, committing them to prison.

⁴ Therefore, those who were scattered went about preaching the word. ⁵ Philip went down to a city of Samaria and began proclaiming the Christ to them. ⁶ The crowds paid close attention to what Philip said, as they heard him and saw the signs he performed. ⁷ For many who had unclean spirits, crying out with loud voices, were coming out of them; and many who were paralysed or lame were healed. ⁸ So as a result, there was great joy in that city.

Acts

⁹ Now there was a man named Simon, who had previously practised sorcery in the city and amazed the people of Samaria, claiming that he was someone great. ¹⁰ All the people, from the least to the greatest, paid attention to him, saying, "This man is the Great Power of God." ¹¹ They followed him because he had amazed them for a long time with his magic. ¹² But when they believed Philip as he preached the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptised, both men and women. ¹³ Even Simon himself believed and, after being baptised, continued with Philip. He was amazed as he observed the signs and great miracles.

¹⁴ When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. ¹⁵ When they arrived, they prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit. ¹⁶ For the Holy Spirit had not yet fallen upon any of them; they had only been baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁷ So Peter and John lay their hands upon them, and they received the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸ When Simon observed that the Spirit was given through the apostles' laying on of hands, he offered them money, ¹⁹ saying, "Give me this authority as well, so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit." ²⁰ But Peter said to him, "May your money perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! ²¹ You have no share in this ministry, for your heart is not right before God. ²² Therefore, repent of this wickedness of yours and pray to the Lord, that, if possible, the intention of your heart may be forgiven. ²³ For I see that you are filled with bitterness and held captive by sin." ²⁴ Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me, so that nothing of what you have said may happen to me."

²⁵ After they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many Samaritan villages.

²⁶ An angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise and go south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a desert road.) ²⁷ So he arose and went. There was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure. He had come to Jerusalem to worship, ²⁸ and was returning, sitting in his chariot, reading the prophet Isaiah. ²⁹ The Spirit said to Philip, "Go up and join this chariot." ³⁰ Philip ran up and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" ³¹ He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. ³² Now the passage of Scripture he was reading was this:

"He was led as a sheep to the slaughter, and as a lamb before its shearer is silent, so he does not open his mouth. ³³ In his humiliation, justice was denied him. Who can speak of his descendants? For his life was taken from the earth."

³⁴ The eunuch asked Philip, "Please tell me, of whom does the prophet say this? Of himself, or of someone else?" ³⁵ Then Philip began to speak, and starting from this Scripture, he shared the message of Jesus with him. ³⁶ As they travelled along the road, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water. What prevents me from being baptised?" ³⁷ [This verse is traditionally included in some manuscripts: "Philip said, 'If you believe with all your heart, you may.' And he answered, 'I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.'" ³⁸ And he commanded the chariot to stop. Both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and Philip baptised him. ³⁹ When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord took Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him again, but went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰ Philip, however, found himself at Azotus, and as he passed through, he preached the gospel in all the towns until he reached Caesarea.

9 Saul, still uttering threats and murder against the Lord's disciples, went to the high priest, ² and requested letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any belonging to the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. ³ As he travelled and approached Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven shone around him. ⁴ He fell to the ground and heard a voice calling to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" ⁵ He inquired, "Who are you, Lord?" and He replied, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. ⁶ Rise and enter the city, and there you will be informed of what you are to do." ⁷ The men travelling with Saul stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one. ⁸ Saul got up from the ground, but though his eyes were open, he could see nothing. So they led him by the hand into Damascus.

Acts

⁹ For three days he remained blinded and did not eat or drink.

¹⁰ In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord spoke to him in a vision, "Ananias." He answered, "Here I am, Lord." ¹¹ The Lord instructed him, "Go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying. ¹² He has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay hands on him to restore his sight." ¹³ Ananias replied, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much harm he has done to your saints in Jerusalem. ¹⁴ And he has come here with the authority from the chief priests to capture all who call upon your name." ¹⁵ But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is a chosen instrument of mine to bring my name to the Gentiles, to kings, and to the people of Israel; ¹⁶ I will reveal to him how much he is to endure for my name."

¹⁷ So Ananias went and entered the house, and laying his hands on him said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road you were travelling, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." ¹⁸ Immediately, something like scales fell from his eyes, and he regained his sight. He got up and was baptised, ¹⁹ and after taking food, he was strengthened. Saul spent several days with the disciples in Damascus. ²⁰ Without delay, he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, declaring, "He is the Son of God."

²¹ All who heard him were amazed and said, "Is this not the man who caused havoc in Jerusalem among those who called on this name, and has come here to take them bound to the chief priests?" ²² But Saul grew more powerful and confounded the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Messiah.

²³ After many days had passed, the Jews plotted to kill him, ²⁴ but their plot became known to Saul. They were watching the city gates day and night to kill him. ²⁵ However, his followers took him by night and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a basket.

²⁶ When he arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing he was a disciple. ²⁷ But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. He recounted to them how Saul had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly in Damascus in the name of Jesus.

²⁸ So Saul stayed with them, moving about freely in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.

²⁹ He conversed and debated with the Hellenistic Jews, but they sought to kill him. ³⁰ When the believers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him to Tarsus.

³¹ Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria enjoyed a time of peace and was strengthened. Living in reverence for the Lord and encouraged by the Holy Spirit, it grew in numbers.

³² As Peter travelled throughout the region, he came down to visit the saints who lived in Lydda. ³³ There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, as he was paralysed. ³⁴ "Aeneas," Peter said to him, "Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed." Immediately he got up.

³⁵ The people of Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

³⁶ In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which in Greek is Dorcas); she was always doing good and helping the poor. ³⁷ Around that time she became ill and died, and her body was washed and placed in an upstairs room. ³⁸ Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, having heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him, urging him, "Please come at once." ³⁹ Peter went with them, and when he arrived, he was taken upstairs to the room. All the widows stood around him, weeping and showing him the robes and garments Dorcas had made while she was with them. ⁴⁰ Peter sent them all out of the room, then knelt down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, arise." She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. ⁴¹ He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Then he called the saints and widows and presented her alive. ⁴² This became known throughout Joppa, and many came to believe in the Lord. ⁴³ Peter stayed in Joppa for many days with a tanner named Simon.

10 In Caesarea, there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was known as the Italian Regiment. ² He was a devout man who, along with his entire household, feared God. He gave generously to the Jewish people and prayed to God regularly. ³ Around three in the afternoon, he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God, who came to him and said, “Cornelius!”⁴ Cornelius looked at him intently and was filled with fear. “What is it, Lord?” he asked. The angel said, “Your prayers and gifts to the poor have ascended as a memorial offering before God.”⁵ Now send men to Joppa to bring back a man named Simon, who is also called Peter.⁶ He is lodging with Simon the tanner, whose house is located by the sea.”⁷ When the angel who spoke to him had departed, he summoned two of his servants and a devout soldier from among his attendants.⁸ After providing them with all the necessary details, he sent them to Joppa.

Acts

⁹ The following day, as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof about noon to pray.¹⁰ He felt hungry and desired something to eat, and while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance.¹¹ He saw the heavens opened and something resembling a large sheet being lowered to earth by its four corners.¹² In it were all kinds of four-footed animals, as well as reptiles and birds.¹³ Then a voice said to him, “Arise, Peter; kill and eat.”¹⁴ But Peter replied, “By no means, Lord! I have never eaten anything impure or unclean.”¹⁵ The voice spoke to him again, “What God has made clean, do not call impure.”¹⁶ This occurred three times, and immediately the sheet was taken back to heaven.

¹⁷ While Peter was wondering about the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius found Simon’s house and stood at the gate.¹⁸ They called out, asking if Simon, who was also known as Peter, was staying there.¹⁹ While Peter was still reflecting on the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Look, three men are searching for you.”²⁰ Get up, go downstairs, and accompany them without hesitation, for I have sent them.”

²¹ Peter went down to the men and said, “I am the one you are seeking. What is the reason for your visit?”²² They replied, “Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous and God-fearing man, well spoken of by the entire Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to summon you to his house to hear what you have to say.”²³ So Peter invited them in and gave them lodging. The next day, he got ready and went with them, accompanied by some of the believers from Joppa.

²⁴ The following day, he arrived in Caesarea. Cornelius was anticipating their arrival and had gathered his relatives and close friends.²⁵ As Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet in reverence.²⁶ But Peter helped him up, saying, “Stand up. I am merely a man myself.”²⁷ While conversing with him, Peter went inside and found a large gathering of people.²⁸ He said to them: “You are aware that it is against our law for a Jew to associate with or visit a Gentile. But God has shown me that I should not call anyone impure or unclean.”²⁹ So when I was sent for, I came without raising any objection. May I inquire as to the reason you sent for me?”

³⁰ Cornelius answered, “Four days ago, at this very hour, I was praying in my house at the ninth hour, and suddenly a man in shining clothes stood before me³¹ and said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your gifts to the poor have been remembered before God.’³² Send to Joppa for Simon, who is also called Peter. He is staying at the house of Simon the tanner, by the sea.”³³ So I sent for you immediately, and you have been kind enough to come. Now we are all here in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has commanded you to tell us.”

³⁴ Then Peter began to speak: “I now truly understand that God shows no partiality³⁵ but welcomes from every nation the one who fears Him and does what is right.³⁶ You are aware of the message God sent to the people of Israel, proclaiming the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.”³⁷ You know what has happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached—³⁸ how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power, and how He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him.³⁹ We are witnesses of everything He did in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed Him by hanging Him on a cross,⁴⁰ but God raised Him from the dead on the third day and allowed Him to be seen,⁴¹ not by all the people, but by witnesses whom God had already chosen—by us who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead.⁴² He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that He is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³ All the prophets bear witness about Him: they testify so that all who have faith in Him receive forgiveness of sins through His name."

Acts

⁴⁴ While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came upon all who were listening to the message. ⁴⁵ The Jewish believers who had come with Peter were amazed that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles. ⁴⁶ They heard them speaking in various languages and glorifying God. Then Peter said, ⁴⁷ "Surely no one can prevent these people from being baptised with water. They have received the Holy Spirit just as we have." ⁴⁸ So he directed that they be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked Peter to stay with them for a few days.

11 The apostles and the brothers and sisters throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. ² When Peter went up to Jerusalem, the Jewish believers took issue with him, ³ saying, "You went into the house of uncircumcised men and ate with them." ⁴ Peter began and explained everything to them in an orderly manner: ⁵ "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: something like a large sheet being let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came down to where I was. ⁶ I looked into it and saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, reptiles, and birds of the air. ⁷ Then I heard a voice instructing me, 'Arise, Peter; prepare and eat.' ⁸ But I said, 'Certainly not, Lord! Nothing impure or unclean has ever entered my mouth.' ⁹ The voice spoke from heaven again, 'Do not consider anything impure that God has made clean.' ¹⁰ This happened three times, and then it was all taken back to heaven. ¹¹ Right then, three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea arrived at the house where we were staying. ¹² The Spirit told me to go with them without hesitation. These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man's house. ¹³ He told us how he had seen an angel in his house, saying, 'Send to Joppa for Simon, who is called Peter. ¹⁴ He will bring you a message through which you and your entire household will find salvation.' ¹⁵ As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came upon them just as He had come upon us at the beginning. ¹⁶ Then I remembered what the Lord had said: 'John used water for baptism, but you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.' ¹⁷ So if God gave them the same gift He gave us who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to think that I could oppose God?" ¹⁸ When they heard this, they quieted down and glorified God, saying, "So then, God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance that leads to life."

¹⁹ Those who had been scattered by the persecution that arose in connection with Stephen travelled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, spreading the word only among Jews. ²⁰ But some of them, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, went to Antioch and began to speak to Greeks also, proclaiming the good news about the Lord Jesus. ²¹ The Lord's guidance was with them, and a large number of people believed and turned to the Lord. ²² Word of this reached the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. ²³ When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he was glad and encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with all their hearts. ²⁴ He was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and a considerable number of people were added to the Lord. ²⁵ Barnabas then travelled to Tarsus to find Saul, ²⁶ and when he found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year Barnabas and Saul met with the church and taught a large number of people. The disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

²⁷ At this time, some prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸ One of them, named Agabus, stood up and through the Spirit predicted that a severe famine would spread over the entire Roman world. This occurred during the reign of Claudius. ²⁹ The disciples, each according to their ability, decided to provide help for the brothers and sisters living in Judea. ³⁰ They did this, sending their gift to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

12 Around this time, King Herod laid hands on some members of the church, intending to harm them. ² He had James, the brother of John, executed with the sword. ³ Seeing that this pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter as well. This took place during the Festival of Unleavened Bread. ⁴ After arresting him, he put him in prison, assigning him to be guarded by four squads of soldiers. Herod planned to bring him out for public trial after the Passover. ⁵ Peter was kept in prison, but the church was fervently praying to God for him.

Acts

⁶ The night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, while guards stood at the entrance. ⁷ Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him, saying, "Get up quickly." The chains fell off Peter's wrists. ⁸ The angel instructed him, "Put on your belt and sandals." Peter did so. Then he said, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me." ⁹ Peter followed him out of the prison, but he did not realise that what was happening was real; he thought he was seeing a vision. ¹⁰ They passed the first and second guards and came to the iron gate leading to the city, which opened by itself. They went through it and walked along one street, and suddenly the angel left him.

¹¹ Peter came to himself and said, "Now I am certain that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from Herod's grasp and from all that the Jewish people were expecting." ¹² When he realised this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John, also called Mark, where many people had gathered and were praying. ¹³ Peter knocked at the outer entrance, and a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer. ¹⁴ Recognising Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed that she ran back without opening it and exclaimed, "Peter is at the door!" ¹⁵ They said to her, "You're out of your mind." But she kept insisting it was true. They said, "It must be his angel." ¹⁶ Peter continued knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished. ¹⁷ Peter motioned with his hand for them to be silent and explained how the Lord had brought him out of prison. "Tell these things to James and the brothers," he said, and then he left for another place.

¹⁸ In the morning, there was no small commotion among the soldiers regarding what had become of Peter. ¹⁹ When Herod had searched for him and did not find him, he examined the guards and ordered their execution. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there.

²⁰ He was in conflict with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They came to him in unity, and after securing the support of Blastus, the king's chamberlain, they sought peace because their region depended on the king's country for food. ²¹ On the appointed day, Herod, wearing his royal robes, sat on his throne and delivered a public address. ²² The people shouted,

"This is the voice of a god, not of a man." ²³ Immediately, because Herod did not give glory to God, an angel of the Lord struck him down, and he was eaten by worms and died.

²⁴ Yet, the message of God continued to grow and spread. ²⁵ Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem when they had completed their mission, taking with them John, who was also called Mark.

13 In the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen (who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch), and Saul. ² As they were worshipping and fasting, serving the Lord, the Holy Spirit spoke, "Set apart Barnabas and Saul for me, they are to do the work to which I have called them." ³ After they had fasted and prayed, they laid their hands on them and sent them on their way.

⁴ So, sent forth by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia and sailed from there to Cyprus. ⁵ Upon arriving at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. John was with them as their assistant. ⁶ They travelled through the whole island until they reached Paphos. There they encountered a Jewish sorcerer and false prophet named Bar-Jesus, ⁷ who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. The proconsul summoned Barnabas and Saul because he desired to hear the word of God. ⁸ But Elymas the sorcerer (for that is the translation of his name) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul away from the faith. ⁹ Then Saul, also known as Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him ¹⁰ and said, "You are full of deceit and fraud, a son of the devil, an enemy of all righteousness. Will you not stop perverting the straight ways of the Lord?" ¹¹ Now the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you will be blind, unable to see the sun for a time." Immediately mist and darkness fell upon him, and he went about seeking someone to lead him by the hand. ¹² When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, being amazed at the teaching of the Lord.

¹³ Paul and his companions set sail from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia, where John left them to return to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ From Perga they continued to Pisidian Antioch. On the Sabbath they went into the synagogue and sat down. ¹⁵ After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the synagogue leaders sent word to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have a word of encouragement for the people, please speak." ¹⁶ Paul stood up, motioned with his hand, and said: "Men of Israel and you who fear God, listen: ¹⁷ The God of the people of Israel chose our ancestors and made the people prosper during their stay in Egypt, and with an uplifted arm He led them out of it. ¹⁸ For about forty years, He cared for them in the wilderness. ¹⁹ He overthrew seven nations in Canaan, giving their land to His people as an inheritance. ²⁰ All this took about 450 years. After this, He gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet. ²¹ Then the people asked for a king, and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, who ruled for forty years. ²² After removing him, He raised up David to be their king. God testified concerning him: 'I have found David son of Jesse, a man after My own heart; he will do everything I want him to do.' ²³ From David's descendants, God brought forth Jesus as the Saviour for Israel, just as He had promised. ²⁴ Before the coming of Jesus, John preached a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. ²⁵ As John was completing his work, he said: 'Who do you suppose I am? I am not He. But there is one coming after me whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'

Acts

²⁶ "Brothers, children of Abraham's family, and you God-fearing Gentiles, it is to us that this message of salvation has been sent. ²⁷ The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognise Jesus, yet in condemning Him, they brought to fulfilment the words of the prophets that are read every Sabbath. ²⁸ Though they found no grounds for a death sentence, they requested Pilate to have Him executed. ²⁹ When they had completed all that was written about Him, they took Him down from the cross and laid Him in a tomb. ³⁰ Yet God resurrected Him, from the dead ³¹ and for many days He appeared to those who had accompanied Him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now His witnesses to our people. ³² "We bring you the good news: What God promised our ancestors ³³ He has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising Jesus. As it is written in the second Psalm:

'You are My Son; today I have become Your Father.'

³⁴ God raised Him from the dead, ensuring He would never be subject to decay. As God has said,

'I will grant you the holy and sure blessings promised to David.'

³⁵ So it is also stated elsewhere:

'You will not allow Your Holy One to ever decay.'

³⁶ "Now when David had served God's purpose in his own generation, he passed away; he was buried with his ancestors and his body decayed. ³⁷ But the one whom God raised from the dead did not experience decay. ³⁸ "Therefore, my friends, let it be known to you that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you. ³⁹ Through Him everyone who believes is set free from every sin, a justification you could not obtain under the law of Moses. ⁴⁰ Be careful that what the prophets have said does not happen to you:

⁴¹ 'Look, you scoffers, look in wonder and vanish, for I am going to do something in your days that you would never believe, even if someone told you.'"

⁴² As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people invited them to speak more about these things on the following Sabbath. ⁴³ When the congregation was dismissed, many of the Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke with them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴ On the following Sabbath, nearly the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. ⁴⁵ When the Jewish leaders saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy. They began to contradict what Paul was saying and spoke abusively against him. ⁴⁶ Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly: "It was necessary to speak the word of God to you first. Since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. ⁴⁷ For the Lord has instructed us:

'I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.'"

⁴⁸ When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and honoured the word of the Lord; and all who were destined for eternal life believed. ⁴⁹ The message of the Lord spread throughout the entire region. ⁵⁰ But the Jewish leaders incited the devout women of high standing and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region.⁵¹ So they shook the dust from their feet as a testimony against them and proceeded to Iconium.⁵² And the disciples were filled with joy and the presence of the Holy Spirit.

Acts

14 In Iconium, Paul and Barnabas entered the Jewish synagogue together, and spoke in such a manner that a large number of both Jews and Greeks came to believe.² However, the Jews who were not persuaded stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers.³ Consequently, Paul and Barnabas spent a significant amount of time there, speaking boldly with reliance on the Lord, who confirmed the message of his grace by allowing signs and wonders to be performed through them.⁴ The people of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews, while others sided with the apostles.⁵ When a plot was formed by both the Gentiles and Jews, along with their leaders, to mistreat and stone them,⁶ they learned of it and escaped to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, and Derbe, and the surrounding region.⁷ There, they continued to proclaim the gospel.

⁸ In Lystra, there was a man sitting who was lame. He had been disabled from birth and had never walked.⁹ This man listened to Paul as he spoke. Paul looked intently at him and saw that he had faith to be healed,¹⁰ and called out in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" At that, the man leapt up and began to walk.¹¹ When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices, saying in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in human form!"¹² They began calling Barnabas, Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, since he was the chief speaker.¹³ The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought bulls and garlands to the gates, intending to offer sacrifices with the crowd.

¹⁴ Upon hearing this, the apostles Barnabas and Paul tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting,¹⁵ "Men, why are you doing these things? We are also men, of the same nature as you, bringing you good news, that you should turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and everything in them.¹⁶ In past generations, he allowed all nations to go their own ways.¹⁷ Yet he did not leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness."¹⁸ Even with these words, they had difficulty restraining the crowd from offering sacrifices to them.

¹⁹ Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium, and having persuaded the crowds, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, thinking he was dead.²⁰ But while the disciples gathered around him, he got up and went back into the city. The next day, he departed with Barnabas for Derbe.

²¹ After they had preached the gospel in that city and gained a considerable number of disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch,²² strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain steadfast in the faith, saying, "We must endure many hardships to enter the kingdom of God."²³ Paul and Barnabas appointed elders for them in each church, and with prayer and fasting, they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

²⁴ They travelled through Pisidia and came into Pamphylia.²⁵ After proclaiming the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.²⁶ From there, they returned by sea to Antioch, where they had been entrusted to the grace of God for the work they had completed.²⁷ Upon their arrival, they gathered the church together and reported all that God had done through them and how he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles.²⁸ And they spent a considerable time there with the disciples.

15 Some individuals came down from Judea to Antioch and began instructing the believers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom taught by Moses, you cannot be saved."² This led to a sharp dispute and debate between Paul and Barnabas and these individuals. Consequently, Paul and Barnabas, along with some other believers, were appointed to go up to Jerusalem to consult the apostles and elders about this matter.³ The church sent them on their way, and as they travelled through Phoenicia and Samaria, they recounted in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, bringing great joy to all the believers.⁴ Upon their arrival in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church, the apostles, and the elders, and they reported all that God had accomplished through them.⁵ However, some believers from the sect of the Pharisees stood up and declared, "The Gentiles must be circumcised and instructed to keep the law of Moses."

Acts

⁶ The apostles and elders convened to deliberate on this issue. ⁷ After much discussion, Peter rose and addressed them: "Brothers, you know that some time ago God made a choice among you that the Gentiles might hear the message of the gospel from my lips and believe. ⁸ God, who knows the heart, testified by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He did to us. ⁹ He showed no partiality between us and them, purifying their hearts through faith. ¹⁰ So why are you testing God by placing on the necks of the disciples a yoke that neither our ancestors nor we have been able to bear? ¹¹ Indeed, we are convinced that it is through the grace of our Lord Jesus that we are saved, in the same way as they are."

¹² The entire assembly became silent as they listened to Barnabas and Paul describing the signs and wonders God had performed among the Gentiles through them. ¹³ When they finished, James spoke up: "Brothers, listen to me. ¹⁴ Simeon has explained how God first intervened to select a people for His name from among the Gentiles. ¹⁵ The message of the prophets aligns with this, as it is written:

¹⁶ 'After this, I will return and restore the fallen house of David. I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it up again, ¹⁷ so that the rest of mankind may seek the Lord, including all the Gentiles who bear my name,' ¹⁸ says the Lord, who has made these things known from long ago.

¹⁹ Therefore, it is my judgement that we should not trouble the Gentiles who are turning to God, ²⁰ but instead we should write to them, instructing them to abstain from food polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from the meat of strangled animals, and from blood. ²¹ For the law of Moses has been preached in every city from ancient times and is read in the synagogues on every Sabbath."

²² Then it seemed good to the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to choose some of their own men and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They selected Judas, called Barsabbas, and Silas, leading men among the believers. ²³ They sent the following letter with them: "The apostles and elders, your brothers, to the Gentile believers in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: Greetings. ²⁴ We have heard that some went out from us without our authorisation and have disturbed you, unsettling your minds by what they said. ²⁵ Thus, we all agreed to select some men and send them to you with our dear friends Barnabas and Paul— ²⁶ men who have already faced death for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷ Therefore, we are sending Judas and Silas to confirm verbally what we are writing. ²⁸ It seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us not to burden you with anything beyond these essential requirements: ²⁹ You are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality. If you keep yourselves from these things, you will do well. Farewell.

³⁰ So the men were dispatched and went down to Antioch, where they gathered the church together and delivered the letter. ³¹ The people read it and rejoiced for its encouraging message. ³² Judas and Silas, who were also prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the believers. ³³ After they had spent some time there, the believers sent them off with a blessing of peace to return to those who had sent them. ³⁴ [However, Silas decided to remain there.] ³⁵ But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, where they, along with many others, taught and preached the word of the Lord.

³⁶ Some time later, Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us return and visit the believers in all the towns where we preached the word of the Lord and see how they are doing." ³⁷ Barnabas was inclined to take John, also called Mark, with them. ³⁸ But Paul did not think it prudent to take him, because he had left them in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in the work. ³⁹ Their disagreement was so intense that they parted ways. Barnabas took Mark and sailed for Cyprus, ⁴⁰ but Paul chose Silas and departed, commended by the believers to the grace of the Lord. ⁴¹ He travelled through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

16 Paul travelled to Derbe and then to Lystra, where there was a disciple named Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman who was a believer, but his father was Greek. ² The believers in Lystra and Iconium spoke highly of him. ³ Paul desired to have him accompany them on the journey, so he circumcised him because of the Jews in those regions, for they all knew that his father was Greek. ⁴ As they journeyed through the cities, they delivered the decrees decided by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem for the people to observe.⁵ Thus the churches were strengthened in faith and increased in number daily.

Acts

⁶ Paul and his companions travelled throughout the Phrygian and Galatian region, having been prevented by the Holy Spirit from speaking the word in Asia.⁷ When they reached the border of Mysia, they attempted to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them.⁸ So, bypassing Mysia, they went down to Troas.⁹ During the night, Paul had a vision of a man from Macedonia standing and pleading with him, saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us."¹⁰ After seeing the vision, we immediately made efforts to go to Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to proclaim the gospel to them.

¹¹ Setting sail from Troas, we made a direct course to Samothrace, and the following day to Neapolis.¹² From there, we travelled to Philippi, a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony; we stayed in this city for several days.¹³ On the Sabbath, we went outside the city gate to the riverside, where we expected to find a place of prayer; we sat down and began to speak to the women who had gathered there.¹⁴ A woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira and a worshiper of God, was listening. The Lord opened her heart to respond to Paul's message.¹⁵ When she and her household were baptised, she urged us, saying, "If you consider me faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my house." She persuaded us.

¹⁶ As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a female slave who had a spirit of divination, bringing much profit to her owners through fortune-telling.¹⁷ She followed Paul and us, crying out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation."¹⁸ She continued doing this for many days. Paul, greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" And it left her at that moment.

¹⁹ When her owners saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities.²⁰ They brought them to the magistrates and said, "These men are Jews and are causing trouble in our city,²¹ advocating customs unlawful for us Romans to accept or practise."²² The crowd joined in the attack against them, and the magistrates tore off their garments and ordered them to be beaten with rods.²³ After inflicting many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to guard them securely.²⁴ Upon receiving such orders, he put them in the inner cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

²⁵ Around midnight, Paul and Silas were engaged in prayer and singing hymns to God, while the other prisoners listened to them.²⁶ Suddenly, there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's chains were unfastened.²⁷ When the jailer awoke and saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, thinking the prisoners had escaped.²⁸ But Paul called out in a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here!"

²⁹ The jailer called for lights, rushed in, and trembling with fear, fell before Paul and Silas.³⁰ He then brought them out and asked, "Gentlemen, what must I do to be saved?"³¹ They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household."³² They shared the message of the Lord with him and with all who were in his house.³³ At that hour of the night, he took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his household were baptised.³⁴ He brought them into his house, set food before them, and was filled with joy because he had come to believe in God—he and his whole household.

³⁵ When daylight came, the magistrates sent their officers with the order: "Release those men."³⁶ The jailer reported this to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent word that you may be released. Now therefore, come out and go in peace."³⁷ But Paul said to the officers, "They have beaten us publicly without a trial, men who are Roman citizens, and have thrown us into prison. Now, do they want to release us secretly? No indeed! Let them come themselves and escort us out."³⁸ The officers reported these words to the magistrates, and they were alarmed when they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens.³⁹ They came to placate them and escorted them from the prison, requesting them to leave the city. ⁴⁰ After leaving the prison, they went to Lydia's house, where they met with the brothers and sisters and encouraged them. Then they departed.

Acts

17 When Paul and his companions travelled through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they arrived at Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. ² According to his usual practice, Paul went into the synagogue, and for three Sabbaths he reasoned with them from the Scriptures, ³ explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise from the dead, saying, "This Jesus whom I am proclaiming to you is the Christ." ⁴ Some of the Jews were convinced and joined Paul and Silas, along with a large number of God-fearing Greeks and a considerable number of prominent women. ⁵ But the Jews, becoming envious, gathered some wicked men from the marketplace, formed a mob, and set the city in an uproar; they attacked Jason's house, seeking to bring them out to the people. ⁶ When they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some other believers before the city authorities, shouting, "These men who have caused trouble all over the world have now come here, ⁷ and Jason has welcomed them. They are all acting against Caesar's decrees, saying that there is another king, Jesus." ⁸ The crowd and the city officials were unsettled when they heard these things. ⁹ After they had taken security from Jason and the others, they released them.

¹⁰ That night, the believers immediately sent Paul and Silas away to Berea. Upon arrival, they went to the synagogue of the Jews. ¹¹ The Berean Jews were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures daily to see if what Paul said was true. ¹² Consequently, many of them believed, along with a significant number of prominent Greek women and men. ¹³ But when the Jews of Thessalonica learned that Paul was proclaiming the word of God in Berea as well, they came there too, agitating and stirring up the crowds. ¹⁴ The believers immediately sent Paul to the coast, while Silas and Timothy remained in Berea. ¹⁵ Those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens, and after receiving instructions for Silas and Timothy to join him as soon as possible, they departed.

¹⁶ While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he observed that the city was full of idols. ¹⁷ So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and God-fearing Greeks, and in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be present. ¹⁸ Some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also engaged him in discussion. Some said, "What is this babbler trying to say?" Others remarked, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign deities," because he was preaching Jesus and the resurrection. ¹⁹ Then they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting?" ²⁰ For you are bringing some strange ideas to our ears, and we want to know what they mean." ²¹ (All the Athenians and the foreigners living there spent their time doing nothing but talking about and listening to the latest ideas.)

²² Paul then stood in the midst of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in every way you are very religious. ²³ For as I walked around and examined your objects of worship, I found an altar with this inscription: 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' Therefore, what you worship in ignorance, this I proclaim to you. ²⁴ The God who made the world and everything in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made by human hands. ²⁵ Nor is he served by human hands, as if he needed anything, since he himself provides everyone with life and breath and all things. ²⁶ From one man he made every nation of mankind to inhabit the whole earth, having determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their dwelling places, ²⁷ so that they would seek God, if perhaps they might feel their way towards him and find him, though he is not far from any one of us. ²⁸ For through him we live, move, and have our being, as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we are indeed his offspring.' ²⁹ Therefore, since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the divine nature is like gold or silver or stone, an image made by human design and skill. ³⁰ In the past, God overlooked such ignorance, but now he calls all people everywhere to repent, ³¹ because he has set a day when he will judge the world with justice by the man he has appointed. He has given proof of this to everyone by raising him from the dead."

Acts

³² When they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some of them mocked, but others said, "We want to hear you again on this subject." ³³ With that, Paul departed from the Council. ³⁴ Some people joined him and believed, among whom were Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After these events, Paul departed from Athens and travelled to Corinth. ² There he encountered a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently arrived from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had decreed that all Jews should leave Rome. Paul approached them, ³ and since he shared their trade, he stayed with them, and they worked together, for they were tentmakers by profession. ⁴ Every Sabbath, Paul engaged in discussions in the synagogue, attempting to persuade both Jews and Greeks.

⁵ When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul dedicated himself fully to the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ. ⁶ However, when they opposed and reviled him, he shook out his garments and declared to them, "Your blood be upon your own heads! I am innocent. From now on I will turn to the Gentiles." ⁷ He then left the synagogue and went to the house of Titus Justus, a worshipper of God, whose house was adjacent to the synagogue. ⁸ Crispus, the synagogue leader, believed in the Lord with his entire household; and many of the Corinthians who heard Paul believed and were baptised.

⁹ One night, the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision: "Do not be afraid, but continue speaking and do not be silent; ¹⁰ for I am with you, and no one will attack you or harm you, for I have many people in this city." ¹¹ So Paul remained in Corinth for a year and six months, teaching them the word of God.

¹² While Gallio was the proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a concerted attack on Paul and brought him before the tribunal, ¹³ saying, "This man is persuading people to worship God in ways contrary to the law." ¹⁴ Just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio addressed the Jews, "If this were a matter of wrongdoing or a serious crime, O Jews, it would be reasonable for me to listen to you; ¹⁵ but since it concerns questions about words and names and your own law, see to it yourselves. I refuse to be a judge of such matters." ¹⁶ And with that, he sent them away from the tribunal. ¹⁷ Then they all seized Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the tribunal. But Gallio showed no concern for any of this.

¹⁸ Paul stayed on in Corinth for a considerable time. He then took leave of the brothers and sisters and set sail for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. Before setting sail, he had his hair cut at Cenchreae because of a vow he had taken. ¹⁹ They arrived at Ephesus, where he left Priscilla and Aquila. He himself entered the synagogue and engaged in discussions with the Jews. ²⁰ Although they requested him to remain longer, he chose not to stay, ²¹ but as he departed, he said, "I will return to you if God wills." Then he set sail from Ephesus.

²² Upon landing at Caesarea, he went up to Jerusalem and greeted the church, then went down to Antioch. ²³ After spending some time there, Paul departed and travelled through the regions of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

²⁴ Meanwhile, a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria and an eloquent man, arrived in Ephesus. He was well-versed in the Scriptures. ²⁵ He had received instruction in the teachings of the Lord and, being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John. ²⁶ He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained the way of God to him more accurately. ²⁷ When Apollos wished to cross over to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him. Upon his arrival, he greatly assisted those who had believed through grace, ²⁸ for he vigorously refuted the Jews in public debate, demonstrating through the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

19 While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul journeyed through the inland regions and arrived at Ephesus. There he encountered some disciples. ² He inquired of them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" They replied, "We have not even heard whether there is a Holy Spirit." ³ Paul then asked, "Into what then were you baptised?" They answered, "Into John's baptism." ⁴ Paul explained, "John performed a baptism of repentance, instructing the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus.”⁵ Upon hearing this, they were baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus.⁶ When Paul laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they began to speak in tongues and to prophesy.⁷ There were about twelve men in total.

Acts

⁸ Paul entered the synagogue and spoke boldly for three months, engaging in discussions and persuading them concerning the kingdom of God.⁹ However, when some became stubborn and refused to believe, speaking ill of the Way before the assembly, he departed from them and took the disciples with him, conducting daily discussions in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.¹⁰ This continued for two years, so that all the inhabitants of Asia, both Jews and Greeks, heard the word of the Lord.

¹¹ God performed extraordinary miracles through Paul,¹² so that even handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched his skin were brought to the sick, and their diseases left them and the evil spirits departed.

¹³ Some itinerant Jewish exorcists attempted to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those possessed by evil spirits, saying, “I adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches.”¹⁴ There were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, doing this.¹⁵ But the evil spirit responded, “Jesus I know, and Paul I am acquainted with, but who are you?”¹⁶ Then the man with the evil spirit leapt on them, overpowered them all, and assaulted them, so they fled from the house naked and wounded.¹⁷ This incident became known to all the residents of Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks, and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high esteem.¹⁸ Many believers came forward, confessing and disclosing their practices.¹⁹ A considerable number who practised sorcery brought their books together and burned them in public view; when they calculated the value of the books, it totalled fifty thousand pieces of silver.²⁰ Thus, the word of the Lord continued to grow and prevail mightily.

²¹ After these events, Paul resolved in the Spirit to travel to Jerusalem, passing through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, “After I have been there, I must also visit Rome.”²² He sent two of his assistants, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, while he remained in Asia for a time.

²³ Around that period, a significant disturbance arose concerning the Way.²⁴ A silversmith named Demetrius, who crafted silver shrines of Artemis, generated substantial business for the craftsmen.²⁵ He gathered them, along with the workers in related trades, and said, “Men, you know that our prosperity derives from this business.²⁶ And you observe and hear that not only in Ephesus but in nearly all of Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away a large number of people, asserting that gods made by human hands are not gods at all.²⁷ There is a danger not only that our trade will lose its good name, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be discredited, and she, whom all Asia and the world worship, will be deprived of her majesty.”

²⁸ When they heard this, they were filled with rage and began shouting, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”²⁹ The whole city was thrown into confusion, and they rushed together into the theatre, dragging along Gaius and Aristarchus, Paul’s travelling companions from Macedonia.³⁰ Paul wanted to go into the assembly, but the disciples would not allow him.³¹ Even some of the Asiarchs, who were friends of Paul, sent word to him, urging him not to venture into the theatre.³² The assembly was in chaos: some were shouting one thing, some another, and most of them did not know why they had gathered.³³ The Jews in the crowd pushed Alexander forward, and he motioned for silence, intending to make a defence before the people.³⁴ But when they recognised that he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison for about two hours, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

³⁵ The city clerk quieted the crowd and said, “Men of Ephesus, who does not know that the city of Ephesus is the guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of her image which fell from heaven?³⁶ Since these facts are undeniable, you ought to remain calm and not act rashly.³⁷ You have brought these men here, though they have neither desecrated temples nor spoken against our goddess.³⁸ If Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a grievance against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls; let them bring charges against one another.³⁹ If there is anything further you wish to address, it must be settled in a lawful assembly.⁴⁰ For we are in danger of being charged with rioting because of today's events, as there is no justification for this commotion, and we would be unable to account for this disorderly gathering.”⁴¹ Having spoken in this manner, he brought the assembly to a close.

Acts

20 After the uproar had subsided, Paul summoned the disciples, and after encouraging them, he said farewell and departed for Macedonia.² He journeyed through those regions, offering much encouragement to the people, and eventually arrived in Greece.³ He remained there for three months. However, when a plot was laid against him by the Jews as he was about to sail for Syria, he resolved to return through Macedonia.⁴ He travelled with Sopater, son of Pyrrhus from Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, Timothy, along with Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia.⁵ These men proceeded ahead and awaited our arrival at Troas.⁶ We sailed from Philippi after the Festival of Unleavened Bread, and five days later joined them at Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

⁷ On the first day of the week, we gathered to break bread. Paul spoke to the people, and because he intended to leave the next day, he continued his message until midnight.⁸ The upper room where we were assembled was well-lit with many lamps.⁹ A young man named Eutychus was sitting on the window sill, falling into a deep sleep as Paul prolonged his discourse. Overcome by sleep, he fell from the third storey and was picked up dead.¹⁰ Paul went down, threw himself upon him, and embracing him, said, “Do not be alarmed, for he is alive.”¹¹ Paul then went back upstairs, broke bread and ate. After conversing until daybreak, he departed.¹² The young man was taken home alive, and they were greatly comforted.

¹³ We went ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, intending to take Paul on board there, for he had arranged to travel by land.¹⁴ When he met us at Assos, we took him on board and proceeded to Mitylene.¹⁵ Sailing from there, we arrived the next day opposite Chios; the following day we crossed over to Samos, and the day after that we reached Miletus.¹⁶ Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus to avoid spending time in Asia, as he was hurrying to reach Jerusalem, if possible, by the day of Pentecost.

¹⁷ From Miletus, he sent to Ephesus and summoned the elders of the church.¹⁸ When they arrived, he said to them, “You know how I lived the entire time I was with you, from the first day I set foot in Asia.¹⁹ I served the Lord with great humility and with tears, enduring the trials that came upon me through the plots of the Jews.²⁰ I did not hesitate to proclaim anything that would be beneficial to you, teaching you publicly and from house to house.²¹ I solemnly testified to both Jews and Greeks about repentance towards God and faith in our Lord Jesus.

²² “And now, led by the Spirit, I am on my way to Jerusalem, uncertain of what will happen to me there,²³ except that the Holy Spirit warns me in every city that imprisonment and hardships await me.²⁴ However, I consider my life worth nothing to me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the ministry I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of God's grace.

²⁵ “Now I know that none of you among whom I have preached the kingdom will see my face again.²⁶ Therefore, I declare to you today that I am free from the responsibility for any of you.²⁷ For I did not hesitate to proclaim to you the entire plan of God.²⁸ Be on guard for yourselves and for all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Shepherd the church of God, which He purchased with His own blood.²⁹ I know that after I leave, fierce wolves will come in among you and will not spare the flock.³⁰ Even from among your own number, men will arise and distort the truth to draw away disciples after them.³¹ Therefore, be on your guard! Remember that for three years I never ceased to warn each of you night and day with tears.

³² “Now I entrust you to God and to the word of His grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.³³ I have not coveted anyone's silver, gold, or clothing.³⁴ You yourselves know that these hands have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions.³⁵ In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, who said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

³⁶ When Paul had finished speaking, he knelt down and prayed with them all.³⁷ They all wept as they embraced Paul and repeatedly kissed him.³⁸ Their greatest sorrow was his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

Acts

21 After we had parted from them, we set sail and made a direct course to Cos, and the following day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. ² We found a ship going across to Phoenicia, so we went aboard and set sail. ³ When we came in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on our left, we sailed on to Syria and landed at Tyre, where the ship was to unload its cargo. ⁴ We searched for the disciples and stayed there for seven days. Through the Spirit, they kept telling Paul not to go to Jerusalem. ⁵ When our time there was ended, we departed and continued our journey, and they all, with their wives and children, escorted us out of the city. On the beach, we knelt down to pray. ⁶ After saying farewell to each other, we boarded the ship, and they returned to their homes.

⁷ We completed our voyage from Tyre and arrived at Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and sisters and stayed with them for a day. ⁸ The next day we left and went to Caesarea, where we entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the Seven, and stayed with him. ⁹ He had four daughters who were not married, and they prophesied. ¹⁰ While we were staying there for some days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ¹¹ He came to us, took Paul's belt, and bound his own feet and hands, saying, "The Holy Spirit says, 'In this way the Jews in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and will deliver him to the Gentiles.'" ¹² When we heard this, we, along with the local residents, pleaded with Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³ Then Paul responded, "Why are you weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." ¹⁴ Since he would not be persuaded, we ceased and said, "The Lord's will be done."

¹⁵ After these days, we prepared and went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶ Some of the disciples from Caesarea also accompanied us, bringing us to the home of Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to stay.

¹⁷ Upon our arrival in Jerusalem, the brothers and sisters gave us a warm welcome. ¹⁸ The following day, Paul went with us to meet James, and all the elders were present. ¹⁹ After greeting them, Paul detailed one by one the things God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. ²⁰ When they heard this, they glorified God and said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews have believed, and they are all zealous for the law. ²¹ They have been informed that you teach all the Jews among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or follow our customs. ²² What should be done? They will certainly hear that you have come. ²³ Therefore, do as we advise you: There are four men with us who have taken a vow. ²⁴ Take them and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses so they may shave their heads. Thus everyone will know there is no truth in the reports about you, but that you yourself live in observance of the law. ²⁵ As for the Gentile believers, we have written to them our decision that they should abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from what is strangled, and from sexual immorality." ²⁶ The next day, Paul took the men and purified himself along with them. He went to the temple to give notice of the completion of the days of purification, until the offering was made for each of them.

²⁷ When the seven days were nearly completed, the Jews from Asia saw him in the temple and stirred up the crowd, laying hands on him, ²⁸ shouting, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against our people, the law, and this place. Moreover, he has brought Greeks into the temple and defiled this holy place." ²⁹ (They had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city and assumed Paul had brought him into the temple.) ³⁰ The whole city was stirred up, and the people rushed together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and immediately the gates were shut. ³¹ While they were trying to kill him, word reached the commander of the Roman cohort that all Jerusalem was in confusion. ³² He immediately took soldiers and centurions and ran down to the crowd. When they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. ³³ The commander came up, arrested him, and ordered him to be bound with two chains. He then asked who he was and what he had done. ³⁴ Some in the crowd shouted one thing and some another. Since the commander could not ascertain the truth because of the uproar, he ordered Paul to be brought into the barracks. ³⁵ When Paul reached the steps, the violence of the mob was so great that he had to be carried by the soldiers. ³⁶ The crowd followed, shouting, "Away with him!"

Acts

³⁷ As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he asked the commander, "May I say something to you?" He replied, "Do you speak Greek?" ³⁸ Then you are not the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a revolt and led four thousand men of the Assassins out into the wilderness?" ³⁹ Paul said, "I am a Jew from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, let me speak to the people." ⁴⁰ After receiving permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the people with his hand. When there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew dialect, saying,

22 "Brothers and fathers, hear my defence which I now offer to you." ² When they heard him speaking to them in the Hebrew dialect, they became even more quiet; and he said: ³ "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city. I was educated under Gamaliel, strictly according to the law of our ancestors, being zealous for God just as you all are today. ⁴ I pursued this Way relentlessly, binding and putting both men and women into prisons, ⁵ as the high priest and all the Council of the elders can testify. I also received letters from them to their associates in Damascus, and went there to bring even those who were there to Jerusalem as prisoners to be punished.

⁶ "But as I was on my journey, nearing Damascus around noon, a very bright light from heaven suddenly surrounded me, ⁷ then I fell to the ground and heard a voice that said, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' ⁸ I inquired, 'Who are you, Lord?' The reply came, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.' ⁹ Those who were with me saw the light, but did not understand the voice of the one who was speaking to me. ¹⁰ And I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told all that has been appointed for you to do.' ¹¹ Since I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me into Damascus.

¹² "Now a certain Ananias, a man who was devout by the law's standards and well spoken of by all the

Jews who lived there, ¹³ came to me, and standing nearby he said to me, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight!' And at that moment I looked up at him. ¹⁴ And he said, 'The God of our ancestors has appointed you to know his will and to see the Righteous One and to hear a message from his mouth. ¹⁵ For you will testify for him to all people about what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶ Now why do you delay? Get up, be baptised, and wash away your sins by calling on his name.'

¹⁷ "When I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I fell into a vision, ¹⁸ and I saw him saying to me, 'Hurry and leave Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about me.' ¹⁹ And I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that in one synagogue after another I used to imprison and beat those who believed in you. ²⁰ And when the blood of your martyr Stephen was being shed, I was there, giving my approval and watching over the garments of those who were executing him.' ²¹ Then he said to me, 'Go! For I am sending you far away to the Gentiles.'

²² They listened to him up to this point, and then they raised their voices and said, "Away with such a man from the earth, for he should not be allowed to live!" ²³ As they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks and tossing dust into the air, ²⁴ the commander ordered that he be brought into the barracks, saying that he was to be interrogated by flogging to find out the reason why they were shouting against him that way. ²⁵ But when they stretched him out with straps, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "Is it lawful for you to flog a Roman citizen who has not been condemned?" ²⁶ When the centurion heard this, he approached the commander and reported, "What are you about to do? This man is a Roman citizen." ²⁷ The commander came and asked Paul, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" And he said, "Yes." ²⁸ The commander replied, "I acquired this citizenship for a large sum of money." And Paul said, "But I was actually born a citizen." ²⁹ Therefore, those who were about to interrogate him immediately backed away from him; and the commander also became fearful when he realised that Paul was a Roman citizen and that he had put him in chains.

³⁰ On the next day, wanting to know for certain why Paul had been accused by the Jews, he released him and ordered the chief priests and all the Council to assemble, and he brought Paul down and placed him before them.

Acts

23 Paul, looking intently at the Council, said, "Brothers, I have conducted myself with a clear conscience before God up to this day."

² At this, the high priest Ananias commanded those standing near him to strike Paul on the mouth. ³ Paul responded, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! You sit there to judge me according to the law, yet in violation of the law, you order me to be struck!" ⁴ Those nearby said, "Do you dare to speak against God's high priest?" ⁵ Paul replied, "I was not aware, brothers, that he was the high priest; for it is written: 'You must not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'"

⁶ Perceiving that some were Sadducees and others Pharisees, Paul called out in the Council, "Brothers, I am a Pharisee, descended from Pharisees. I am on trial concerning the hope of the resurrection of the dead." ⁷ When he said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. ⁸ (The Sadducees say there is no resurrection, nor angels, nor spirits, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.) ⁹ A great uproar ensued, and some of the scribes of the Pharisaic party stood up and argued fiercely, saying, "We find nothing wrong with this man. Suppose a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?" ¹⁰ The dissension became so intense that the commander feared Paul might be torn apart by them. He ordered the troops to go down, take him by force, and bring him into the barracks.

¹¹ That night, the Lord appeared to Paul and said, "Be encouraged! Just as you have testified about me in Jerusalem, you must also testify in Rome."

¹² The following morning, a group of Jews devised a plan and took an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. ¹³ Over forty men participated in this scheme. ¹⁴ They went to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have taken a solemn oath not to eat anything until we have killed Paul. ¹⁵ Now you and the Council should petition the commander to bring him down to you, as if you were going to examine his case more thoroughly. We are ready to kill him before he arrives."

¹⁶ But when the son of Paul's sister heard of this ambush, he went into the barracks and informed Paul. ¹⁷ Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the commander; he has something to report to him." ¹⁸ So the centurion took him to the commander and said, "Paul, the prisoner, called me and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you." ¹⁹ The commander took him by the hand, drew him aside, and asked privately, "What do you have to report to me?" ²⁰ He said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the Council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire more thoroughly about him. ²¹ Do not be persuaded by them, for more than forty of them are lying in wait to ambush him. They have taken an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him. They are ready now, awaiting your consent." ²² The commander dismissed the young man with this instruction: "Do not tell anyone that you have reported this to me."

²³ Then he summoned two of his centurions and instructed them, "Prepare two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to go to Caesarea at the third hour of the night. ²⁴ Provide mounts for Paul so that he may be taken safely to Governor Felix."

²⁵ He wrote a letter with the following content: ²⁶ "From Claudius Lysias, to the esteemed Governor Felix: Greetings. ²⁷ This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them, but I intervened with the troops and rescued him, having learned that he is a Roman citizen. ²⁸ Wishing to ascertain the basis for the accusations against him, I brought him to their Council. ²⁹ I discovered that he was accused over questions of their law, but had no charge deserving death or imprisonment. ³⁰ When I was informed of a plot against him, I sent him to you at once, ordering his accusers to present their case against him before you."

³¹ So the soldiers, following their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. ³² The next day, they allowed the horsemen to continue with him, while they returned to the barracks. ³³ When the horsemen arrived in Caesarea, they delivered the letter to the governor and handed over Paul. ³⁴ The governor read the letter and inquired from which province Paul was. Upon learning that he was from Cilicia, ³⁵ he said, "I will hear your case when you accusers arrive.” Then he ordered that Paul be kept under guard in Herod’s Praetorium.

Acts

24 After five days, the high priest Ananias went down to Caesarea with some elders and a lawyer named Tertullus, and they presented their charges against Paul to the governor. ² When Paul was summoned, Tertullus began his accusation, saying to the governor, “We have enjoyed great peace under you, and your foresight has brought about reforms for this nation. ³ In every way and everywhere, most excellent Felix, we acknowledge this with all gratitude. ⁴ But, so as not to weary you further, I request that you hear us briefly, by your kindness. ⁵ We have found this man to be a public menace, stirring up dissensions among the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the Nazarene sect. ⁶ He even attempted to desecrate the temple, so we seized him. ⁷ [and we would have judged him according to our law] ⁸ By examining him yourself, you will be able to ascertain the truth about all these charges we are bringing against him.” ⁹ The other Jews joined in the accusation, affirming that these things were so.

¹⁰ When the governor nodded for him to speak, Paul replied: “I know that for many years you have been a judge over this nation; therefore, I gladly make my defence. ¹¹ You can verify that it was no more than twelve days ago that I went up to Jerusalem to worship. ¹² They did not find me arguing with anyone at the temple, or stirring up a crowd in the synagogues or anywhere else in the city. ¹³ Nor can they prove to you the charges they are now making against me. ¹⁴ However, I confess that I worship the God of our ancestors in accordance with the Way, which they call a sect. I believe everything that is in accordance with the Law and written in the Prophets, ¹⁵ and I share the hope in God that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked. ¹⁶ In view of this, I strive always to maintain a clear conscience before God and man.

¹⁷ After several years, I came to bring charitable gifts to my nation and to present offerings. ¹⁸ I was ceremonially clean when they found me in the temple courts doing this, without any crowd or disturbance. But there were some Jews from Asia— ¹⁹ who ought to be here before you and bring charges if they have anything against me. ²⁰ Or let these men here state what crime they found in me when I stood before the Council— ²¹ unless it was this one statement I shouted while standing among them: ‘It is concerning the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.’”

²² Then Felix, who had a rather accurate knowledge of the Way, adjourned the proceedings. “When Lysias the commander comes,” he said, “I will decide your case.” ²³ He ordered the centurion to keep Paul in custody but to allow him some freedom and not to prevent any of his friends from attending to his needs.

²⁴ Some days later, Felix arrived with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Paul and listened to him speak about faith in Christ Jesus. ²⁵ As Paul discussed righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix became frightened and said, “That is enough for now! You may leave. When I find it convenient, I will summon you.” ²⁶ At the same time, he was hoping that Paul would offer him money, so he sent for him frequently and talked with him. ²⁷ After two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, but because Felix wanted to grant a favour to the Jews, he left Paul imprisoned.

25 A few days after arriving in the province, Festus travelled to Jerusalem from Caesarea. ² The chief priests and the leaders of the Jews brought charges against Paul and pleaded with Festus. ³ They requested a favour against Paul, asking that he be brought to Jerusalem, while they were planning an ambush to kill him on the way. ⁴ Festus replied that Paul was being held in Caesarea, and that he himself was about to leave soon. ⁵ He said, “Let the influential men among you come with me, and if there is anything wrong about the man, let them bring charges against him there.”

⁶ After spending eight or ten days with them, Festus went down to Caesarea. The next day, he took his seat on the tribunal and ordered Paul to be brought before him. ⁷ When Paul arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many serious charges which they could not prove. ⁸ Paul defended himself, stating, “I have not done anything wrong against the Jewish law, the temple, or Caesar.” ⁹ Festus, wanting to do the Jews a favour, asked Paul, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and stand trial on these charges before me?" ¹⁰ Paul replied, "I am standing before Caesar's tribunal, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you know very well. ¹¹ If I am guilty and have done anything deserving death, I do not refuse to die; but if the charges against me are not true, no one has the right to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!" ¹² After conferring with his council, Festus declared, "You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you shall go."

Acts

¹³ Several days later, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived in Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus. ¹⁴ Since they were spending many days there, Festus discussed Paul's case with the king, saying, "There is a man who was left as a prisoner by Felix. ¹⁵ When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews brought charges against him, asking for a sentence of condemnation. ¹⁶ I told them that it is not the Roman custom to hand over anyone before they have faced their accusers and have had the opportunity to defend themselves against the charges. ¹⁷ When they came here with me, I did not delay, but convened the court the next day and ordered the man to be brought in. ¹⁸ When his accusers stood up, they did not charge him with any of the crimes I had expected. ¹⁹ Rather, they had some points of dispute with him about their own beliefs and about Jesus, who had died and whom Paul asserted was alive. ²⁰ Being at a loss on how to investigate such matters, I asked if he was willing to go to Jerusalem and stand trial there. ²¹ But when Paul appealed to be held for the Emperor's decision, I ordered him to be kept in custody until I could send him to Caesar." ²² Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear the man myself." Festus replied, "Tomorrow you shall hear him."

²³ The next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and entered the audience room with the high-ranking military officers and the prominent men of the city. At Festus's command, Paul was brought in. ²⁴ Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all who are present with us, you see this man about whom the whole Jewish community has appealed to me, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer. ²⁵ I found he had done nothing deserving death, but since he appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him to Rome. ²⁶ However, I have nothing definite to write to His Majesty about him. Therefore, I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this investigation, I may have something to write. ²⁷ For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner to Rome without specifying the charges against him."

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You are allowed to speak for yourself." So Paul gestured with his hand and began his defence: ² "King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate to make my defence before you today concerning all the charges brought against me by the Jews, ³ especially since you are well-versed in all Jewish customs and issues. Therefore, I ask you to listen to me patiently. ⁴ "All the Jews know about my way of life from my youth, which was spent from the beginning in my own nation and in Jerusalem. ⁵ They have known me for a long time, if they are willing to testify, that I lived according to the strictest sect of our religion, as a Pharisee. ⁶ And now I am on trial because of my hope in the promise that God made to our ancestors. ⁷ This is the promise our twelve tribes hope to attain as they earnestly serve God night and day. It is for this hope, O king, that I am accused by the Jews. ⁸ Why should any of you consider it unbelievable that God raises the dead?

⁹ "I too was convinced that I should do all I could to oppose the name of Jesus of Nazareth. ¹⁰ And that is exactly what I did in Jerusalem. With authority from the chief priests, I imprisoned many of the saints, and when they were condemned to death, I cast my vote against them. ¹¹ I frequently punished them in all the synagogues and tried to force them to blaspheme. In my extreme rage, I pursued them even to foreign cities.

¹² "While engaged in this, I was travelling to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests. ¹³ At midday, O king, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those travelling with me. ¹⁴ We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice speaking to me in Hebrew, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to resist the prods.' ¹⁵ I asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' And the Lord replied, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. ¹⁶ But rise and stand on your feet; for I have appeared to you to appoint you as a servant and a witness of what you have seen and what I will show you. ¹⁷ I will deliver you from your own people and from the Gentiles. I am sending you to them ¹⁸ to open their eyes and turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those sanctified by faith in me.'

Acts

¹⁹ "So then, King Agrippa, I was obedient to the vision from heaven. ²⁰ First to those in Damascus, then to those in Jerusalem and all Judea, and then to the Gentiles, I preached that they should repent and turn to God, demonstrating their repentance by their deeds. ²¹ This is why some Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me. ²² But God has helped me to this day, and so I stand here testifying to both small and great, saying nothing beyond what the prophets and Moses said would happen— ²³ that the Messiah would suffer and, being the first to rise from the dead, would proclaim light to both his own people and the Gentiles."

²⁴ At this point, Festus interrupted Paul's defence, shouting, "Paul, you are out of your mind! Your great learning is driving you insane." ²⁵ But Paul replied, "I am not insane, most excellent Festus, but speak words of truth and reason. ²⁶ The king is aware of these matters, and I speak to him with confidence, as I am convinced none of this has escaped his notice, since it was not done in a corner. ²⁷ King Agrippa, do you accept the words of the prophets? I am aware that you do." ²⁸ Then Agrippa said to Paul, "Do you think that in such a short time you can persuade me to become a Christian?" ²⁹ Paul replied, "Short time or long, I pray to God that not only you but all who are listening to me today may become what I am, except for these chains."

³⁰ The king stood up, along with the governor, Bernice, and those seated with them. ³¹ After they left the room, they began discussing among themselves, saying, "This man is not doing anything deserving death or imprisonment." ³² Agrippa remarked to Festus, "This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

27 When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to a centurion named Julius, who was part of the Augustan cohort. ² We embarked on a ship from Adramyttium that was set to sail to the ports along the coast of Asia, and we set out to sea, accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica. ³ The following day we arrived at Sidon; and Julius, showing kindness to Paul, allowed him to visit his friends to receive care. ⁴ From there we set sail again and travelled under the shelter of Cyprus, as the winds were against us. ⁵ After sailing across the sea along the coasts of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we arrived at Myra in Lycia. ⁶ There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship bound for Italy and transferred us onto it. ⁷ We made slow progress for many days and with difficulty reached a point off Cnidus. When the wind did not permit us to continue, we sailed under the shelter of Crete, off Salmone. ⁸ With difficulty, we sailed along the coast and came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

⁹ After much time had been lost and sailing had become hazardous, as it was now past the Day of Atonement, Paul began to warn them, ¹⁰ "Men, I perceive that this voyage will result in damage and great loss, not only to the cargo and the ship, but also to our lives." ¹¹ However, the centurion was more convinced by the pilot and the owner of the ship than by what Paul had said. ¹² Since the harbour was unsuitable for wintering, the majority decided to set sail, hoping to reach Phoenix, a harbour in Crete facing southwest and northwest, to spend the winter there.

¹³ When a gentle south wind began to blow, they thought they had obtained their goal, so they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to the shore. ¹⁴ But shortly afterwards, a fierce wind called the Northeaster swept down from the island. ¹⁵ The ship was caught by the storm and unable to head into the wind, so we gave way to it and were driven along. ¹⁶ As we passed under the shelter of a small island called Cauda, we were barely able to secure the ship's boat. ¹⁷ After hoisting it aboard, they used ropes to undergird the ship. Fearing they might run aground on the sandbars of Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor and let the ship be driven along. ¹⁸ The next day, as we were being violently tossed by the storm, they began to throw the cargo overboard. ¹⁹ On the third day, they discarded the ship's tackle with their own hands. ²⁰ When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the storm continued raging, we finally lost all hope of being saved.

Acts

²¹ After they had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up among them and said, "Men, you should have followed my advice not to sail from Crete; then you would have avoided this damage and loss. ²² But now I encourage you to take heart, because not one of you will be lost; only the ship will be destroyed. ²³ An angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve came to me during the night ²⁴ and said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand trial before Caesar, and God has graciously granted you the lives of all who sail with you.' ²⁵ So take heart, men, for I have faith in God that it will happen just as he told me. ²⁶ Nonetheless, we must run aground on some island."

²⁷ On the fourteenth night, as we were being driven across the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors sensed they were approaching land. ²⁸ They took soundings and found the water to be twenty fathoms deep. A short time later, they took soundings again and found it was fifteen fathoms deep. ²⁹ Fearing that we might run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight. ³⁰ The sailors attempted to escape from the ship and had lowered the ship's boat into the sea, pretending they were going to lay out anchors from the bow. ³¹ Then Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men remain with the ship, you cannot be saved." ³² So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the ship's boat and let it drift away.

³³ Just before dawn, Paul encouraged them all to eat. "For the last fourteen days," he said, "you have been in constant suspense and have gone without food—you haven't eaten anything. ³⁴ Now I urge you to take some food. It is necessary for your survival. Not one of you will lose even a single hair from your head." ³⁵ After saying this, he took some bread and offered thanks to God in front of them all. Then he broke it and began to eat. ³⁶ They all felt encouraged and also took some food. ³⁷ In total, there were 276 of us on board. ³⁸ When they had eaten as much as they wanted, they tightened the ship by throwing the wheat into the sea.

³⁹ When daylight came, they did not recognise the land, but they saw a bay with a sandy beach, where they planned to run the ship aground if they could. ⁴⁰ Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea and at the same time untied the ropes that held the rudders. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and made for the beach. ⁴¹ However, the ship struck a sandbar and became grounded. The bow stuck fast and would not move, and the stern was shattered by the pounding of the surf. ⁴² The soldiers intended to kill the prisoners to prevent any of them from swimming away and escaping. ⁴³ But the centurion, wanting to save Paul's life, prevented them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. ⁴⁴ The rest were to follow, some on planks and others on pieces of the ship. In this way, everyone reached land safely.

28 Once we had reached safety, we discovered that the island was named Malta. ² The islanders displayed remarkable kindness to us; they lit a fire and welcomed us all, as it was rainy and cold. ³ Paul gathered a bundle of sticks and placed them on the fire, and a viper, driven out by the heat, latched onto his hand. ⁴ When the islanders observed the snake hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "This man must indeed be a murderer; although he escaped the sea, justice has not permitted him to live." ⁵ Paul, however, shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no harm. ⁶ The people anticipated that he would swell up or suddenly fall dead, but after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and declared he was a god.

⁷ In the vicinity, there was an estate belonging to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us and showed us generous hospitality for three days. ⁸ Publius's father was bedridden, suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul visited him, and after praying, laid his hands on him and healed him. ⁹ Following this event, the rest of the island's sick came and were healed. ¹⁰ The islanders honoured us in many ways, and when we were ready to set sail, they provided us with the necessary supplies.

¹¹ After three months, we set sail on an Alexandrian ship that had wintered on the island, with the figurehead of the twin gods Castor and Pollux. ¹² We arrived at Syracuse and stayed there for three days.

¹³ From there, we sailed and reached Rhegium. A day later, a south wind arose, and on the following day, we arrived at Puteoli. ¹⁴ There, we found some brothers and sisters who invited us to stay with them for a week. And so we came to Rome. ¹⁵ The brothers and sisters there, having heard of our arrival, travelled as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. Upon seeing them, Paul thanked God and took courage.

Acts

¹⁶ When we arrived in Rome, Paul was permitted to live by himself, with a soldier to guard him.

¹⁷ Three days later, Paul called together the local Jewish leaders. When they had gathered, he said to them, "Brothers, although I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors, I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans. ¹⁸ They examined me and intended to release me, as I was not guilty of any crime deserving death. ¹⁹ But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not that I had any accusation against my nation. ²⁰ For this reason, I have requested to see you and speak with you, for it is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain." ²¹ They replied, "We have not received any letters from Judea about you, nor have any of the brothers who have come here reported or spoken anything bad about you. ²² But we wish to hear your views, for we know that people everywhere are speaking against this sect."

²³ They arranged to meet Paul on a certain day, and more people came to his lodging. He explained to them from morning till evening, testifying about the kingdom of God and trying to persuade them about Jesus from both the Law of Moses and the Prophets.

²⁴ Some were convinced by his words, but others refused to believe. ²⁵ They disagreed among themselves and began to leave after Paul made this final remark: "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah the prophet to your ancestors," ²⁶ saying,

'Go to this people and say, "You will be ever hearing but never understanding; you will be ever seeing but never perceiving." ²⁷ For the hearts of this people have grown dull; they scarcely hear with their ears, and they have shut their eyes. Otherwise, they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them.'

²⁸ "Therefore, understand that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen."

²⁹ [When he had said these things, the Jews left, having a great dispute among themselves.] ³⁰ Paul remained there for two full years in his own rented house and welcomed all who came to him, ³¹ proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, without hindrance.

Romans

1 Paul, a devoted follower of Christ Jesus, appointed as an apostle, designated for the gospel of God—² which he had promised long ago through his prophets in the holy Scriptures,³ concerning his Son, who was a descendant of David according to the flesh,⁴ and who was declared to be the Son of God with power according to the Spirit of holiness by the resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord.⁵ Through him we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles for his name's sake.⁶ And you also are among those who are called to belong to Jesus Christ.⁷ To all who are loved by God in Rome, called to be saints: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁸ First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being proclaimed throughout the world.⁹ For God, whom I serve in my spirit in the preaching of the gospel of his Son, is my witness as to how unceasingly I remember you¹⁰ always in my prayers, asking that now at last by God's will I may succeed in coming to you.¹¹ I am eager to see you so that I may share with you some spiritual gift to strengthen you—¹² so that we may encourage one another by our faith, yours and mine.¹³ I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that I have often planned to come to you (but have been prevented until now) so that I may have a harvest among you, just as I have had among the other Gentiles.¹⁴ I have a duty to both Greeks and non-Greeks, both to the wise and the foolish.¹⁵ That is why I am eager to preach the gospel also to you who are in Rome.

¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew, then to the Gentile.¹⁷ For in it the righteousness of God is revealed—a righteousness that is by faith from start to finish, as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith."

¹⁸ For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness of people, who suppress the truth by their wickedness,¹⁹ because what is known about God is plain to them, for God has made it plain to them.²⁰ For since the creation of the world, God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly perceived, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse.²¹ For

although they knew God, they neither honoured him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened.²² Though they claimed wisdom, they became foolish²³ and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles.

²⁴ Therefore God gave them over in the sinful desires of their hearts to impurity, to dishonour their bodies with one another.²⁵ They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served created things rather than the Creator—who is blessed forever. Amen.

²⁶ For this reason God gave them over to degrading passions. Even their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural ones.²⁷ In the same way, the men abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed shameful acts with other men and received in themselves the due penalty for their error.

²⁸ Furthermore, just as they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do what ought not to be done.²⁹ They have become filled with all manner of wickedness, evil, greed, and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, and malice. They are gossips,³⁰ slanderers, those who despise God, insolent, arrogant, and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents;³¹ they lack understanding, fidelity, love, and mercy.

³² Although they are aware of God's righteous decree that those who engage in such actions deserve death, they not only continue to do these very things but also approve of those who practice them.

2 Therefore, you have no excuse, whoever you are, when you pass judgment on others; for at the point where you judge another, you are condemning yourself, because you who judge are doing the same things.² And we know that God's judgment against those who do such things is according to truth.³ So when you, a mere human, pass judgment on them and yet do the same things, do you think you will escape God's judgment?⁴ Or do you disregard the riches of His kindness, forbearance, and patience, not realising that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?⁵ But because of your stubbornness and unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. ⁶ He will repay each person according to their deeds. ⁷ To those who by perseverance in doing good seek glory, honour, and immortality, He will give eternal life. ⁸ But for those who are self-seeking and reject the truth and follow unrighteousness, there will be wrath and indignation. ⁹ There will be trouble and distress for every human being who does evil: first for the Jew, then for the Greek; ¹⁰ but glory, honour, and peace for everyone who does good: first for the Jew, then for the Greek. ¹¹ For God shows no favouritism.

Romans

¹² Everyone who has sinned without the Law will also face destruction without the Law, and everyone who has sinned under the Law will be judged by the Law. ¹³ For it is not those who merely hear the Law who are righteous in God's sight, but those who act upon the Law will be justified. ¹⁴ Indeed, when Gentiles, who do not have the Law, do by nature things required by the Law, they are a law unto themselves, even though they do not have the Law. ¹⁵ They show that the requirements of the Law are written on their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts sometimes accusing them and at other times defending them. ¹⁶ This will take place on the day when God judges people's secrets through Christ Jesus, as my gospel declares.

¹⁷ Now if you identify as a Jew and rely on the Law and take pride in God, ¹⁸ if you understand His will and approve of what is superior because you are instructed by the Law, ¹⁹ if you are convinced that you are a guide for the blind, a light for those who are in darkness, ²⁰ an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of infants, because you have in the Law the embodiment of knowledge and truth— ²¹ you, then, who instruct others, do you not instruct yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal? ²² You who say that people should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who detest idols, do you rob temples? ²³ You who take pride in the Law, do you dishonour God by breaking the Law? ²⁴ As it is written: "Because of you, God's name is blasphemed among the Gentiles."

²⁵ Circumcision has value if you observe the Law, but if you break the Law, it is as if you had not been circumcised. ²⁶ So if those who are not circumcised

keep the Law's requirements, will they not be regarded as though they were circumcised? ²⁷ The person who is not physically circumcised and yet obeys the Law will judge you who, despite having the written code and circumcision, are a lawbreaker. ²⁸ A person is not a Jew who is one only outwardly, nor is circumcision only outward and physical. ²⁹ No, a person is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. Such a person's praise is not from others, but from God.

3 What advantage, then, does the Jew have? Or what is the benefit of circumcision? ² Much in every respect! First of all, they have been entrusted with the very words of God. ³ What if some did not believe? Will their lack of faith nullify God's faithfulness? ⁴ Certainly not! Let God be true, and every person a liar, just as it is stated:

"So that you may be justified in your words and prevail when you are judged."

⁵ But if our unrighteousness highlights God's righteousness, what shall we say? That God is unjust in bringing his wrath upon us? (I speak from a human perspective.) ⁶ Certainly not! For if that were the case, how could God judge the world? ⁷ But if through my falsehood God's truthfulness increases to his glory, why am I still judged as a sinner? ⁸ And why not say—as we are slanderously reported as saying—"Let us do evil that good may come"? Their condemnation is just. ⁹ What then? Are we any better off? Not at all! For we have already charged that both Jews and Greeks are all under the power of sin.

¹⁰ For it is written:

"There is no one righteous, not even one; ¹¹ there is no one who truly understands; there is no one who seeks after God. ¹² All have turned away, they have become worthless; there is no one who does good, not even one." ¹³ "Their throats are open graves; with their tongues they keep deceiving." "The poison of vipers is on their lips." ¹⁴ "Their mouths are filled with curses and bitterness." ¹⁵ "Their feet are quick to spill blood; ¹⁶ destruction and distress are in their paths, ¹⁷ and they have not understood nor known the way of peace." ¹⁸ "They do not have reverence for God before their eyes."

¹⁹ Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth

Romans

may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God. ²⁰ Therefore no one will be justified in his sight by the works of the law; for through the law comes knowledge of sin. ²¹ But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified to by the Law and the Prophets. ²² This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no distinction, ²³ for everyone has sinned and falls short of the glory of God, ²⁴ and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. ²⁵ God presented Christ as a sacrifice of atonement, through the shedding of his blood, to be received by faith. He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished— ²⁶ he did this to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. ²⁷ What place, then, is there for boasting? It is ruled out. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. ²⁸ For we hold that a person is justified by faith, independent of the works of the law. ²⁹ Or is God only the God of the Jews? Is he not also the God of the Gentiles? Indeed, of the Gentiles too, ³⁰ since there is only one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through the same faith. ³¹ Do we then nullify the law by this faith? Certainly not! On the contrary, we uphold the law.

4 What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has discovered in this matter? ² If indeed Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. ³ What does Scripture declare? “Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness.” ⁴ Now to the one who works, wages are not credited as a gift, but as something due. ⁵ However, to the one who does not work but believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, their faith is credited as righteousness. ⁶ Just as David also speaks of the blessedness of the person to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

⁷ “Blessed are those whose wrongdoings are forgiven, whose sins are covered. ⁸ Blessed is the one whose sin the Lord will not count against them.”

⁹ Is this blessedness only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? For we say that faith was credited to Abraham as righteousness. ¹⁰ Under what circumstances was it credited? Was it while he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? It was not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised. ¹¹ And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised, so that he might be the father of all who believe without being circumcised, that righteousness might be credited to them. ¹² And he is also the father of the circumcised who not only are circumcised but who also follow in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised. ¹³ It was not through the law that Abraham and his descendants received the promise that he would be heir of the world, but through the righteousness that comes by faith. ¹⁴ For if those who rely on the law are heirs, then faith is made void and the promise is nullified, ¹⁵ because the law results in wrath. And where there is no law, there is no transgression. ¹⁶ Therefore, the promise is based on faith, so that it may rest on grace and be assured to all Abraham’s offspring—not only to those who are of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all. ¹⁷ As it is written: “I have made you a father of many nations.” He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed—the God who gives life to the dead and calls into being things that do not exist. ¹⁸ Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as it had been said to him, “So shall your descendants be.” ¹⁹ Without weakening in his faith, he considered his own body, now as good as dead since he was about a hundred years old, and the deadness of Sarah’s womb. ²⁰ Yet he did not hesitate through unbelief regarding God’s promise, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, ²¹ being fully persuaded that God had the power to do what He had promised. ²² This is the reason “it was credited to him as righteousness.” ²³ The words “it was credited to him” were written not for his sake alone, ²⁴ but also for us, to whom it will be credited—for us who believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. ²⁵ He was handed over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

Romans

5 Thus, being justified by faith, we enjoy peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ² through whom we have also gained access by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. ³ Not only this, but we also rejoice in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; ⁴ and perseverance leads to proven character; and proven character fosters hope; ⁵ and hope does not put us to shame, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. ⁶ For while we were still powerless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷ Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might dare to die. ⁸ But God demonstrates His love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. ⁹ Much more then, now that we have been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from God's wrath through Him. ¹⁰ For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved by His life. ¹¹ And not only this, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation. ¹² Therefore, just as through one man sin entered the world, and death through sin, and in this way death spread to all people, because all sinned— ¹³ For before the law, sin was in the world, but sin is not counted against anyone when there is no law. ¹⁴ Nevertheless, death reigned from the time of Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin in the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a pattern of the one to come. ¹⁵ But the gift is not like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one man the many died, much more did the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, overflow to the many. ¹⁶ The gift is not like the result of the one man's sin; for the judgment followed one sin and brought condemnation, but the gift followed many trespasses and brought justification. ¹⁷ For if by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ. ¹⁸ So then, just as through one trespass the result was condemnation for all people, so also through one act of righteousness the result was justification and life for all people. ¹⁹ For just as through the disobedience of one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of one man the many will be made righteous. ²⁰ The law was introduced so that the trespass might increase; but where sin increased, grace increased all the more, ²¹ so that, just as sin reigned in death, grace might also reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 What shall we say then? Should we continue in sin so that grace may abound? ² Certainly not! We who have died to sin, how can we live in it any longer? ³ Or do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? ⁴ We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. ⁵ For if we have been united with him in the likeness of his death, we shall certainly also be united with him in the likeness of his resurrection. ⁶ Knowing this, that our old self was crucified with him, so that the body of sin might be rendered powerless, that we should no longer be slaves to sin. ⁷ For anyone who has died has been freed from sin. ⁸ If we have shared in Christ's death, we believe that we will also share in his life. ⁹ Knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, is never to die again; death no longer has dominion over him. ¹⁰ He died to sin once for all; but now he lives, and he lives to God. ¹¹ In the same way, consider yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus. ¹² Therefore, do not allow sin to rule in your mortal body, making you obey its desires. ¹³ Do not offer any part of yourself to sin as an instrument of unrighteousness, but rather offer yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and offer every part of yourself to him as an instrument of righteousness. ¹⁴ For sin shall not be your master, because you are not under law, but under grace. ¹⁵ What should we conclude? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Certainly not! ¹⁶ Do you not know that when you offer yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness? ¹⁷ But thanks be to God that, though you were slaves to sin, you have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted. ¹⁸ You have been liberated from sin and have become servants of righteousness. ¹⁹ I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. Just as you used to offer the parts of your body as slaves to impurity and to ever-increasing lawlessness, so now offer them as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification.²⁰ For when you were slaves to sin, you were free from the control of righteousness.²¹ What benefit did you reap at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? For the end of those things is death.²² But now that you have been set free from sin and have become servants of God, the benefit you reap leads to sanctification, and the result is eternal life.²³ For the wages of sin is death, but that gracious gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans

7 Do you not know, brothers and sisters (for I am addressing those who are familiar with the law), that the law has authority over a person only as long as they live? ² For instance, a married woman is legally bound to her husband while he is alive; but if her husband dies, she is released from the law that binds her to him. ³ So then, if she is with another man while her husband is still alive, she is called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from that law, so she is not an adulteress if she is with another man. ⁴ Therefore, my brothers and sisters, you also died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you might belong to another, to him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit for God. ⁵ For when we were in the realm of the flesh, the sinful passions, which were aroused by the law, were at work in us, so that we bore fruit for death. ⁶ But now, having died to what once bound us, we are released from the law so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code. ⁷ What shall we say then? Is the law sinful? Certainly not! On the contrary, I would not have known what sin was except through the law. For I would not have known what coveting was if the law had not said, "You shall not covet." ⁸ But sin, taking the opportunity afforded by the commandment, produced in me every kind of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead. ⁹ There was a time when I lived without the law; but when the commandment arrived, sin came alive and I died. ¹⁰ I found that the commandment, which was intended to bring life, actually brought death. ¹¹ For sin, taking the opportunity afforded by the commandment, deceived me, and through it, put me to death. ¹² Therefore, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous, and good. ¹³ Did that which is good, then, become death to me? By no means! Rather, it was sin, in order that it might be recognised as sin by bringing about my death through what is good, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful. ¹⁴ For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin. ¹⁵ I am confused by my actions. For I do not do what I want to do, but rather what I detest. ¹⁶ And if I act against my own desires, I acknowledge that the law is good. ¹⁷ As it stands, it is no longer I who act, but the sin residing in me. ¹⁸ For I know that good itself does not dwell in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. ¹⁹ For I fail to do the good I wish to do, but instead, I continue doing the evil I do not wish to do. ²⁰ Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but the sin residing in me that does it. ²¹ So I find this principle at work: Although I want to do good, evil is right there with me. ²² For deep within, I take joy in God's law; ²³ but I see another law at work in me, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within my body. ²⁴ What a troubled person I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is subject to death? ²⁵ Thanks be to God, who delivers me through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself in my mind am a slave to God's law, but in my flesh a slave to the law of sin.

8 Therefore, there is now no condemnation whatsoever for those who are in Christ Jesus. ² For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has liberated you from the law of sin and death. ³ For what the law was powerless to accomplish, weakened as it was by the flesh, God achieved by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh to be a sin offering, thus condemning sin in the flesh, ⁴ so that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not live according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. ⁵ Those who live according to the flesh have their minds set on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit have their minds set on the things of the Spirit. ⁶ For the mind governed by the flesh is death, but the mind governed by the Spirit is life and peace. ⁷ Because the mind set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. ⁸ Those who live by the flesh cannot please God. ⁹ However, you are not in the realm of the flesh but in the realm of the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. If anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, they do not belong to Him.¹⁰ But if Christ is in you, although the body is subject to death because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness.¹¹ And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.¹² Therefore, brothers and sisters, we have an obligation, but it is not to the flesh, to live according to it—¹³ for if you live by the flesh, you will face death; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the flesh, you will have life.¹⁴ For all who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God.¹⁵ For you did not receive a spirit of slavery leading to fear again, but you received a spirit of adoption as sons and daughters by which we cry out, “Abba, Father.”¹⁶ The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are God’s children.¹⁷ And if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in His sufferings in order that we may also share in His glory.¹⁸ I consider that our current sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.¹⁹ For the creation eagerly awaits the revealing of the children of God.²⁰ For the creation was subjected to futility, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope²¹ that the creation itself will be freed from its bondage to decay and brought into the freedom and glory of the children of God.²² We understand that the entire creation has been groaning in the pains of childbirth up to this very moment.²³ Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons and daughters, the redemption of our bodies.²⁴ For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is not hope at all. Who hopes for what they already see?²⁵ But if we hope for what we do not yet see, we wait for it with perseverance.²⁶ In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words.²⁷ And He who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God’s people in accordance with God’s will.²⁸ And we are assured that in all things God works for the benefit of those who love Him, who have been called according to His purpose.²⁹ For those God foreknew

Romans

He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters.³⁰ And those He predestined, He also called; those He called, He also justified; those He justified, He also honoured with glory.³¹ What then shall we say in response to these matters? If God is for us, who can be against us?³² He who did not withhold His own Son, but offered Him for us all—how will He not also, along with Him, graciously provide us with all things?³³ Who will bring any accusation against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies.³⁴ Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—and more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.³⁵ Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or trouble, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?³⁶ As the scripture says:

“For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

³⁷ No, in all these things we are made more than victorious through Him who loved us.³⁸ For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers,³⁹ neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is found in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I speak truthfully in Christ, I am not lying; my conscience bears witness with me in the Holy Spirit,² that I have immense sorrow and unending grief in my heart.³ For I could wish that I myself were accursed and separated from Christ for the sake of my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh,⁴ who are Israelites. Theirs is the adoption as sons and daughters, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the Law, the temple service, and the promises.⁵ Theirs are the patriarchs, and from them is traced the human ancestry of the Messiah, who is God over all, blessed forever. Amen.⁶ It is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel are truly Israel.⁷ Nor are they all children simply because they are Abraham’s descendants, but “through Isaac shall your descendants be named.”⁸ This means it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are considered descendants. ⁹ For this is how the promise was stated: "At the appointed time I will return, and Sarah will have a son." ¹⁰ And not only this, but also when Rebecca had conceived twins by one man, our father Isaac; ¹¹ for before the twins were born or had done anything good or bad, in order that God's purpose according to election might stand, ¹² not by works but by Him who calls, she was told, "The older will serve the younger." ¹³ As it is expressed in the Scriptures: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I did not favour." ¹⁴ What are we to conclude? Is there any injustice with God? Absolutely not! ¹⁵ For He declared to Moses,

Romans

"I will show mercy to whom I choose to show mercy, and I will show compassion to whom I choose to show compassion."

¹⁶ So it does not depend on human desire or effort, but on God's mercy. ¹⁷ For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "I raised you up for this very purpose, that I might show my power in you and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth." ¹⁸ Therefore, He has mercy on whom He wants to have mercy, and He hardens whom He wants to harden. ¹⁹ You might then ask, "Why does He still find fault? For who can oppose His will?" ²⁰ But who are you, a mere human, to talk back to God? Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?" ²¹ Does the potter not have the authority to shape from the same lump of clay some pottery for special purposes and some for common use? ²² What if God, willing to show His wrath and make His power known, bore with great patience the objects of His wrath prepared for destruction? ²³ What if He did this to make known the riches of His glory upon the objects of His mercy, whom He prepared in advance for glory, ²⁴ including us, whom He also called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles? ²⁵ As He says in Hosea:

"I will call them 'my people' who were not my people, and I will call her 'my loved one' who was not my loved one," ²⁶ and, "It shall be that in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' there they will be called 'children of the living God.'"

²⁷ Isaiah declares regarding Israel:

"Though the number of the Israelites be like the sand by the sea, only the remnant will be saved. ²⁸

For the Lord will carry out His word on the earth, thoroughly and quickly."

²⁹ And just as Isaiah said previously:

"Unless the Lord Almighty had left us descendants, we would have become like Sodom, and would have been like Gomorrah."

³⁰ What are we to conclude? That the Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have attained righteousness, a righteousness that is by faith; ³¹ but Israel, in pursuit of a law of righteousness, did not reach that law. ³² Why not? Because they pursued it not by faith, but as though it were by works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone, ³³ as Scripture says:

"See, I lay in Zion a stone that causes people to stumble and a rock that makes them fall, and the one who believes in Him will never be put to shame."

10 Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and my prayer to God for them is that they may attain salvation. ² For I can testify that they have a zeal for God, but it is not according to knowledge. ³ For, lacking awareness of God's righteousness and attempting to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. ⁴ For Christ is the fulfillment of the law so that righteousness may be available to everyone who believes. ⁵ Moses writes about the righteousness that is by the law: "The person who does these things will live by them." ⁶ But the righteousness that is by faith speaks thus: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down) ⁷ or "Who will go down into the depths?" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). ⁸ But what does it say? "The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart," that is, the word of faith we are proclaiming: ⁹ If you acknowledge with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and have faith in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰ For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one declares and is saved. ¹¹ For Scripture says, "Whoever believes in him will never be put to shame." ¹² For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, richly blessing all who call on him, ¹³ for "Everyone who invokes the name of the Lord will be saved." ¹⁴ How then can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one they have not heard about? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? ¹⁵ And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring glad tidings!" ¹⁶ But not all heeded the good news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?" ¹⁷ So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the message of Christ. ¹⁸ But I ask: Did they not hear? Indeed they did:

Romans

"Their voice has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world."

¹⁹ Again I ask: Did Israel not understand? First, Moses says,

"I will make you envious by those who are not a nation; I will make you angry by a nation that lacks understanding."

²⁰ And Isaiah confidently declares,

"I was found by those who did not seek me; I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me."

²¹ But regarding Israel, he states,

"All day long I have extended my hands to a disobedient and obstinate people."

11 I ask, then, has God cast away His people? Certainly not! For I too am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. ² God has not rejected His people whom He foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says in the story about Elijah, how he pleaded with God against Israel? ³ "Lord, they have killed Your prophets and demolished Your altars; I alone am left, and they are seeking my life." ⁴ But what was the divine response to him? "I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal." ⁵ In the same way, at the present time there is a remnant selected by grace. ⁶ And if by grace, then it is no longer based on works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace. ⁷ What then? What Israel sought so earnestly it did not obtain, but the elect did. The others were hardened, ⁸ as it is written:

"God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that do not see and ears that do not hear, down to this very day."

⁹ And David says,

"May their table become a trap and a snare, a stumbling block and a recompense for them. ¹⁰ May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see, and their backs be bent continually."

¹¹ I ask then, did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Certainly not! But because of their transgression, salvation has come to the Gentiles to make Israel envious. ¹² Now if their transgression means riches for the world, and their loss means riches for the Gentiles, how much greater riches will their full inclusion bring! ¹³ I am speaking to you Gentiles. Insofar as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry ¹⁴ if somehow I might provoke my own people to jealousy and save some of them.

¹⁵ For if their rejection led to the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead? ¹⁶ If the first piece of dough is holy, the whole batch is holy; if the root is holy, so are the branches.

¹⁷ If some of the branches were broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among them and now share in the nourishing sap from the olive root,

¹⁸ do not boast over those branches. If you do, remember that it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you. ¹⁹ You might say, "Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in."

²⁰ True enough. They were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but be afraid. ²¹ Because if God did not spare even the natural branches, He will not spare you either. ²²

Consider therefore the kindness and severity of God: severity to those who fell, but kindness to you, provided you continue in His kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off. ²³ And if they do not continue in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. ²⁴ For if you were cut from an olive tree that is wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree! ²⁵ I do not want you to be unaware of this mystery, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be conceited: Israel has experienced a partial hardening until the full number of the Gentiles has come in, ²⁶ and in this way all Israel will be saved. As it is written:

"The Deliverer will come from Zion; He will turn ungodliness away from Jacob. ²⁷ And this is My covenant with them when I remove their sins."

Romans

²⁸ As far as the gospel is concerned, they are adversaries for your benefit; but as far as election is concerned, they are loved on account of the patriarchs, ²⁹ for God's gifts and His call are unchangeable. ³⁰ Just as you who were once disobedient to God have now received mercy as a result of their disobedience, ³¹ so they too have now become disobedient so that they too may now receive mercy as a result of God's mercy to you. ³² For God has allowed everyone to be disobedient so that He may have mercy on them all.

³³ Oh, the depth of the riches of God's wisdom and knowledge! How unfathomable His judgments, and His paths beyond understanding! ³⁴ "Who has comprehended the mind of the Lord? Or who has been His advisor?" ³⁵ "Who has ever offered anything to God, that God should return it to them?" ³⁶ For all things are from Him, through Him, and for Him. To Him be the glory forever! Amen.

12 Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God—this is your true and spiritual act of worship. ² Do not be conformed to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. This way, you will be able to discern what God's will is—his good, acceptable, and perfect will. ³ For by the grace given to me, I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you should, but rather think with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has distributed to each of you. ⁴ Just as we have many parts in one body, and these parts do not all have the same function, ⁵ in the same way, we are united in Christ as one body, and each member is connected to all the others. ⁶ We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophecy, then prophesy in accordance with your faith; ⁷ if it is service, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; ⁸ if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, give generously; if it is to lead, do so with diligence; if it is to show mercy, do it with cheerfulness. ⁹ Love must be sincere and free of hypocrisy. Detest what is evil; cling to what is good. ¹⁰ Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honour one another above yourselves. ¹¹ Do not be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervour, serving the Lord. ¹² Rejoice in hope, be patient in affliction, and faithful in prayer. ¹³

Contribute to the needs of the saints and practise hospitality. ¹⁴ Bless those who persecute you; bless them and do not curse. ¹⁵ Share in the joy of those who rejoice; share in the sorrow of those who are sorrowful. ¹⁶ Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be wise in your own estimation. ¹⁷ Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the sight of everyone. ¹⁸ As much as it is within your power, strive to live at peace with everyone. ¹⁹ Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "Vengeance is mine; I will repay," says the Lord. ²⁰ Instead, if your enemy is hungry, provide him with food; if he is thirsty, offer him something to drink. By doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head.

²¹ Do not let evil defeat you, but instead overcome evil by doing good.

13 Every person should be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which is from God, and those that exist have been established by God. ² Therefore, whoever resists the authority is opposing what God has instituted, and those who do so will bring judgment upon themselves. ³ For rulers are not a cause of fear for those who do good, but for those who do evil. Do you wish to be free from fear of the authority? Do what is right and you will receive commendation. ⁴ For the authority is a servant of God for your benefit. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for it does not bear the sword in vain; it is a servant of God, an avenger to bring wrath upon the evildoer. ⁵ Therefore, it is necessary to submit to the authorities, not only to avoid wrath but also for the sake of conscience. ⁶ This is why you also pay taxes, for the authorities are servants of God, devoting themselves to this task. ⁷ Render to all what is due them: taxes to whom taxes are due; revenue to whom revenue is due; respect to whom respect is due; honour to whom honour is due. ⁸ Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another; for the one who loves others has fulfilled the law. ⁹ The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet," and any other commandment, are summed up in this saying: "Love your neighbour as yourself." ¹⁰ Love brings no harm to a neighbour; thus, love is the fulfilment of the law.¹¹ And do this, understanding the present time: the hour has come for you to wake up from your sleep, for our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed.¹² The night is almost over, and the day is near. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armour of light.¹³ Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in strife and jealousy.¹⁴ Instead, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the flesh.

Romans

14 Welcome the one who is weak in faith, but do not engage in disputes over differing opinions.² Some believe they may eat all things, while the one with a weaker faith eats only vegetables.³ The one who eats everything should not look down on the one who does not, and the one who refrains from eating should not judge the one who eats, for God has accepted them.⁴ Who are you to judge another's servant? To their own master they stand or fall. And they will stand, for the Lord is able to make them stand.⁵ Some consider one day more sacred than another, while others consider every day alike. Each person should be fully convinced in their own mind.⁶ Whoever regards a day as special does so for the Lord. Whoever eats, eats to the Lord, for they give thanks to God; and whoever abstains, does so for the Lord and gives thanks to God.⁷ For none of us lives solely for ourselves, and none of us dies solely for ourselves.⁸ If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. Therefore, in both life and death, we belong to the Lord.⁹ For this purpose, Christ died and returned to life, so that he might be the Lord of both the dead and the living.¹⁰ Why do you judge your brother or sister? Or why do you look down on them? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God.¹¹ As it is written:

"As surely as I live," says the Lord, "every knee will bow before me; every tongue will acknowledge God."

¹² So then, each of us will give a personal account to God.¹³ Therefore, let us stop judging one another. Instead, decide not to put any stumbling block or obstacle in the way of a brother or sister.¹⁴ I am convinced in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself. But if anyone regards something as unclean, then for that person it is unclean.¹⁵ If your brother or sister is distressed because of what you eat, you are no longer acting in love. Do not destroy by your eating someone for whom Christ died.¹⁶ To, ensure that your good actions are not called out by others as wrong.¹⁷ For the kingdom of God is not about eating and drinking, but about righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.¹⁸ For anyone who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and receives human approval.¹⁹ Let us therefore pursue what leads to peace and mutual edification.²⁰ Do not undo the work of God for the sake of food. All food is clean, but it is wrong for a person to eat anything that causes someone else to stumble.²¹ It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything else that will cause your brother or sister to fall.²² So whatever you believe about these things, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who does not condemn themselves by what they approve.²³ But whoever has doubts is condemned if they eat, because their eating is not from faith; and anything that does not come from faith is sin.

15 We who are strong ought to bear with the weaknesses of those without strength and not merely please ourselves.² Each of us should please our neighbour for their good, to build them up.³ For even Christ did not seek His own pleasure, but as it is written: "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me."⁴ For whatever was written in earlier times was written for our instruction, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.⁵ Now may the God who gives endurance and encouragement grant you to be of the same mind with one another, according to Christ Jesus,⁶ so that with unity of mind and voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.⁷ Therefore, accept one another, just as Christ accepted you, for the glory of God.⁸ For I say that Christ has become a servant of the Jews on behalf of God's truth, to confirm the promises made to the patriarchs,⁹ and so that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy. As it is written:

"Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles; I will sing praises to your name."

¹⁰ Furthermore, it is stated,

"Rejoice, you Gentiles, along with His people."

¹¹ And it is also declared,

Romans

"Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; let all the peoples extol Him."

¹² Moreover, Isaiah proclaims,

"The Root of Jesse will spring up, one who will arise to rule over the nations; in Him the Gentiles will hope."

¹³ Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in Him, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. ¹⁴ I myself am convinced, my brothers and sisters, that you are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge and able to instruct one another. ¹⁵ But I have written to you quite boldly on some points to remind you again, because of the grace given to me by God, ¹⁶ to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, ministering as a priest the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles may become acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁷ Therefore, in Christ Jesus I have found reason to take pride in things pertaining to God. ¹⁸ For I will not presume to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me in leading the Gentiles to obey God by word and deed, ¹⁹ through the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit; so from Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ. ²⁰ And in this way I aspired to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already recognised, so that I would not build on another person's foundation; ²¹ but as Scripture says:

"Those who were not informed about Him will see, and those who have not heard will understand."

²² This is why I have often been prevented from coming to you; ²³ but now, with no further place for me in these regions, and since I have longed for many years to visit you, ²⁴ I plan to do so when I go to Spain. I hope to see you while passing through and to be helped on my journey there by you, after I have enjoyed your company for a while. ²⁵ But now, I am on my way to Jerusalem, serving the saints. ²⁶ For Macedonia and Achaia were delighted to make a contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem. ²⁷ They were pleased to do so, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in the Jews' spiritual blessings, they owe it to the Jews to share with them their material blessings. ²⁸ Therefore, when I have completed this task and have put my seal on this fruit of theirs, I will go to Spain and visit you on the way. ²⁹ I am confident that when I come to you, I will arrive with the full blessing of Christ. ³⁰ I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me, ³¹ that I may be rescued from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may be favourably received by the saints; ³² so that I may come to you with joy by the will of God and be refreshed in your company. ³³ So now may the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

16 I introduce to you our sister Phoebe, a servant of the church at Cenchreae. ² I ask you to receive her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saints and to assist her in whatever matter she may require from you, for she has been a benefactor of many, including myself. ³ Extend greetings to Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus. ⁴ They risked their lives for me. Not only do I give thanks, but all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to them. ⁵ Greet also the church that meets at their house. Greet my dear friend Epenetus, who was the first convert to Christ in Asia. ⁶ Greet Mary, who has diligently laboured for you. ⁷ Greet Andronicus and Junia, my fellow Jews and fellow prisoners; they are esteemed among the apostles and were in Christ before I was. ⁸ Send greetings to Ampliatus, who is dearly loved in the Lord. ⁹ Extend greetings to Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys. ¹⁰ Greet Apelles, whose faithfulness in Christ has been proven. Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus. ¹¹ Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet those in the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord. ¹² Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, who work hard in the Lord. Greet my dear friend Persis, who has worked very hard in the Lord. ¹³ Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother, who has been a mother to me as well. ¹⁴ Extend greetings to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters with them. ¹⁵ Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints with them. ¹⁶ Greet one another with a sacred kiss. All the churches of Christ send their greetings. ¹⁷ I urge you, brothers and sisters, to be vigilant against those who create divisions and obstacles contrary to the teaching you have learned. Avoid them. ¹⁸ For such individuals are not serving our Lord Christ, but their own desires. By smooth talk and flattery, they deceive the minds of the unsuspecting. ¹⁹ Your obedience is known to all, and I rejoice over you; but I want you to be wise about what is good, and innocent about what is evil. ²⁰ The God of peace will soon bring Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you. ²¹ Timothy, my fellow worker, sends his greetings, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen. ²² I, Tertius, who have written this letter, send my greetings in the Lord. ²³ Gaius, who hosts me and the whole church, sends his greetings. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus send you their greetings. ²⁴ [May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.] ²⁵ Now to him who is able to establish you according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery hidden for long ages past, ²⁶ but now revealed and made known through the prophetic writings by the command of the eternal God, so that all nations might come to the obedience that comes from faith— ²⁷ To the one true God, wise and deserving of glory forever through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Romans

1 Corinthians

1 Paul, appointed as an apostle of Jesus Christ by God's will, and Sosthenes our brother, ² To the church of God which is in Corinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called as saints, with all who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours: ³ May you receive grace and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴ I continually thank my God for you because of the grace of God given to you in Christ Jesus, ⁵ That in every respect you were enriched in Him, in all speech and all knowledge, ⁶ Just as the testimony about Christ was confirmed among you, ⁷ So that you do not lack any spiritual gift as you eagerly await the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁸ Who will also sustain you to the end, blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ God, who is faithful, has called you into fellowship with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. ¹⁰ Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all agree and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be made complete in the same mind and in the same judgement. ¹¹ For I have been informed about you, my brothers and sisters, by Chloe's people, that there are quarrels among you. ¹² Now I mean this, that each one of you is saying, "I am with Paul," and "I am with Apollos," and "I am with Cephas," and "I am with Christ." ¹³ Has Christ been divided? Paul was not crucified for you, was he? Or were you baptised in the name of Paul? ¹⁴ I thank God that I baptised none of you except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵ So that no one would say you were baptised in my name. ¹⁶ But I did baptise the household of Stephanas also; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptised anyone else. ¹⁷ For Christ did not send me to baptise, but to preach the gospel, not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ would not be made void. ¹⁸ For the message of the cross seems like foolishness to the lost, but to us who are being saved, it is the power of God. ¹⁹ For scripture says:

"I will bring to nothing the wisdom of the wise, And the understanding of the discerning I will thwart."

²⁰ Where is the wise person? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has God not shown the wisdom of the world to be foolish? ²¹ For since in God's wisdom the world through its wisdom did not come to know God, God was pleased through the perceived foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe. ²² For indeed Jews ask for signs, and Greeks seek wisdom; ²³ But we declare Christ crucified, an obstacle to Jews and folly to Gentiles, ²⁴ But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power and wisdom of God. ²⁵ For what seems foolish in God is wiser than human wisdom, and what seems weak in God is stronger than human strength. ²⁶ For consider your calling, brothers and sisters, that there were not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble; ²⁷ But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to shame the things that are strong, ²⁸ And the insignificant things of the world and the despised God has chosen, the things that are not, so that He may nullify the things that are, ²⁹ So that no human may boast before God. ³⁰ But it is due to Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption, ³¹ Therefore, as scripture says: "Let he who boasts, boast in the Lord."

2 When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not arrive with superior speaking skills or wisdom, as I shared with you the testimony of God. ² For I decided to focus on nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified. ³ I also was with you in weakness, and fear, and in much trembling, ⁴ And my message and my preaching were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ⁵ So that your faith would not rely on human wisdom, but on the power of God. ⁶ Yet we do speak wisdom among those who are mature—a wisdom, however, not of this age nor of the rulers of this age, who are passing away; ⁷ But we speak of God's wisdom in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God determined before the ages for our glory; ⁸ This wisdom was not understood by any of the rulers of this age; for if they had comprehended it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹ But just as it is written:

"The eye has not seen, the ear has not heard, and the mind has not conceived, all that God has prepared for those who love Him."

¹⁰ For God revealed these things to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit explores all things, even the depths of God. ¹¹ For who among people knows the thoughts of a person except the spirit of the person within? In the same way, the thoughts of God are known by no one except the Spirit of God.¹² Now we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may understand the things freely given to us by God.¹³ We also express these things, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, uniting spiritual thoughts with spiritual words.¹⁴ But a natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they seem foolish to him; and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.¹⁵ But the one who is spiritual evaluates all things, yet he himself is evaluated by no one.¹⁶ For who can know the mind of the Lord, so as to instruct Him?

1 Corinthians

Yet we possess the mind of Christ.

3 And I, brothers and sisters, could not address you as spiritual individuals, but as those who are worldly, like infants in Christ.² I provided you with milk, not solid food, because you were not yet ready for it. Even now, you are still not ready,³ For you are still worldly. Since there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not worldly, behaving like ordinary people?⁴ For when one says, "I am with Paul," and another, "I am with Apollos," are you not acting like mere humans?⁵ What is Apollos? What is Paul? They are servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each.⁶ I planted, Apollos watered, but it was God who caused the growth.⁷ So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is of significance, but only God, who brings about the growth.⁸ Now the one who plants and the one who waters have one purpose, and each will be rewarded according to their own labour.⁹ For we are fellow workers in God's service; you are God's field, you are God's building.¹⁰ By the grace of God given to me, I laid a foundation as a wise builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care.¹¹ For no one can establish any foundation other than the one already established, which is Jesus Christ.¹² If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw,¹³ Their work will be revealed for what it truly is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be disclosed with fire, and the fire will assess the quality of each person's work.¹⁴ If what has been constructed endures, the builder will receive a reward.¹⁵ If it is consumed, the builder will suffer loss but will still be saved—though only as one escaping through the flames.¹⁶ Are you not aware that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit resides in you?¹⁷ If anyone harms God's temple, God will bring ruin upon that person; for God's temple is sacred, and you collectively are that temple.¹⁸ Let no one deceive themselves. If any of you think you are wise by the standards of this age, you should become "fools" so that you may become wise.¹⁹ For the wisdom of this world is seen as foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness";²⁰ Moreover, it is said, "The Lord is aware that the thoughts of the wise are in vain."²¹ So then, let there be no more boasting about human leaders! All things are yours,²² Whether it be Paul, Apollos, Cephas, the world, life, death, the present, or the future—all are yours,²³ And you belong to Christ, just as Christ belongs to God.

4 This is how one should regard us: as servants of Christ and caretakers of the mysteries of God.²

In this regard, it is expected of caretakers that they be found faithful.³ But to me it is of little importance that I am judged by you, or by any human court; indeed, I do not even judge myself.⁴ For I am not conscious of anything against myself; however, this does not justify me, but the one who judges me is the Lord.⁵ Therefore do not continue passing judgement before the time, but wait until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the things hidden in the darkness and disclose the motives of human hearts; and then praise will come to each person from God.⁶ Now these things, brothers and sisters, I have figuratively applied to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that in us you may learn not to exceed what is written, so that no one of you will become arrogant in favour of one against another.⁷ For who considers you as superior? And what do you have that you did not receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?⁸ You are already satisfied, you have already become wealthy, you have become rulers without us; and indeed, I wish that you had become rulers so that we also might reign with you.⁹ For, I think, God has displayed us, the apostles, last of all, as those destined to die, because we have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to humanity.¹⁰ We are fools for the sake of Christ, but you are wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are honoured, but we are without honour.

1 Corinthians

¹¹ Up to this present moment we are both hungry and thirsty, and are poorly clothed, mistreated, and homeless; ¹² And we labour, working with our own hands; when we are verbally abused, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it; ¹³ When we are slandered, we respond as friends; we have become like the refuse of the world, the dregs of all things, even until now. ¹⁴ I do not write these things to embarrass you, but to advise you as my beloved children. ¹⁵ For if you were to have countless guides in Christ, yet you would not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel. ¹⁶ Therefore I encourage you, be imitators of me. ¹⁷ For this reason I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, and he will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, just as I teach everywhere in every church. ¹⁸ Now some have become conceited, as though I were not coming to you. ¹⁹ But I will come to you soon, if the Lord allows, and I shall find out, not the words of those who are conceited, but their power. ²⁰ For the kingdom of God is not about mere words, but is demonstrated through power. ²¹ What do you prefer? That I come to you with a rod, or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and sexual immorality of such a kind as does not even exist among the Gentiles, namely, that someone has his father's wife. ² You have become proud and have not mourned instead, so that the one who has done this deed would be removed from your midst. ³ For I, on my part, though absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged him who has committed this, as though I were present. ⁴ By the authority of our Lord Jesus, when you are gathered together, and I am with you in spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, ⁵ I have decided to turn such a person over to Satan for the destruction of his flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord. ⁶ Your boasting is not beneficial. Do you not know that a little leaven affects the whole batch of dough? ⁷ Remove the old leaven so that you may be a new batch, just as you are in fact unleavened. For Christ our Passover also has been sacrificed. ⁸ Therefore, let us keep the festival, not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. ⁹ In my previous letter, I advised you not to associate with those who are sexually immoral; ¹⁰ I did not mean at all with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the greedy and swindlers, or with idolaters, for then you would have to leave the world. ¹¹ But actually, I wrote to you not to associate with any so-called brother if he is a sexually immoral person, or greedy, or an idolater, or verbally abusive, or a drunkard, or a swindler—not even to eat with such a person. ¹² For what concern is it of mine to judge those outside? Do you not judge those who are within the church? ¹³ But those who are outside, God will judge. Expel the wicked person from among yourselves.

6 Does any one of you, when he has a case against another, dare to go to law before the unrighteous and not before the saints? ² Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? If the world is judged by you, are you not competent to judge trivial cases? ³ Are you not aware that we will have authority over angels? How much more should we be able to handle matters of this life? ⁴ So if you have law cases dealing with matters of this life, do you appoint them as judges who are of no account in the church? ⁵ I say this to your shame. Is it really the case that there is not one wise person among you who will be able to decide between his brothers or sisters? ⁶ Yet, one brother takes another to court, and this before those who do not believe! ⁷ In fact, it is already a loss for you that you have lawsuits with one another. Would it not be better to be wronged? Would it not be better to be cheated? ⁸ Instead, you yourselves commit wrongs and cheat, and you do this to your own brothers and sisters! ⁹ Or do you not know that those who act unjustly will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be misled; neither those who are sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor those who engage in practices contrary to nature, ¹⁰ nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor those who are habitually drunk, nor those who speak abusively, nor swindlers, will inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹ Some of you were like this; but you were cleansed, you were made holy, you were declared righteous in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God. ¹² All things are permitted for me, but not all things are beneficial. All things are permitted for me, but I will not be mastered by anything. ¹³ Food is for the stomach and the stomach is for food, however God will do away with both of them. Yet the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. ¹⁴ God not only raised the Lord, but will also raise us up through His power. ¹⁵ Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take away the members of Christ and unite them with a prostitute? Certainly not! ¹⁶ Or are you not aware that the one who unites himself with a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, "The two shall become one flesh." ¹⁷ But the one who unites himself with the Lord is one spirit with Him. ¹⁸ Avoid sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the one who is sexually immoral sins against his own body. ¹⁹ Or are you not aware that your body is a sanctuary of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have received from God, and that you do not belong to yourself? ²⁰ For you have been bought at a price: therefore honour God with your body.

1 Corinthians

7 Now regarding the matters you wrote about: it is commendable for a man to refrain from intimate relations with a woman. ² But because of sexual immorality, each man is to have his own wife, and each woman is to have her own husband. ³ The husband should meet his obligations to his wife, and likewise the wife to her husband. ⁴ The wife does not have sole authority over her own body, but the husband shares it; and likewise, the husband does not have sole authority over his own body, but the wife shares it. ⁵ Do not withhold yourselves from one another, except by mutual consent for a time, so that you may dedicate yourselves to prayer, and then come together again so that Satan will not tempt you due to your lack of self-control. ⁶ I say this as a suggestion, not as a directive. ⁷ I wish that all people were as I am. However, each person has their own gift from God, one of one kind and one of another. ⁸ But I say to the unmarried and to widows that it is good for them if they remain as I am. ⁹ But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry; for it is better to marry than to be consumed with passion. ¹⁰ To the married, I give this instruction, not I, but the Lord: a wife should not separate from her husband ¹¹ (But if she does separate, she must remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband), and a husband should not divorce his wife. ¹² To the rest I say, not the Lord, that if any brother has a wife who is not a believer and she is willing to live with him, he should not divorce her. ¹³ And if any woman has a husband who is not a believer, and he is willing to live with her, she should not divorce her husband. ¹⁴ For the unbelieving husband is consecrated through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is consecrated through the believing husband; otherwise, your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. ¹⁵ If the unbelieving partner chooses to leave, let them do so; the brother or sister is not bound in such circumstances, but God has called us to live in peace. ¹⁶ For how can you be certain, wife, whether you will lead your husband to salvation? Or you, husband, whether you will lead your wife to the same? ¹⁷ Nevertheless, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each, let them live in this way. This is my rule in all the churches. ¹⁸ Was anyone called while circumcised? He should not seek to remove the marks of circumcision. Was anyone called while uncircumcised? He should not seek circumcision. ¹⁹ The physical state of circumcision or uncircumcision is of no consequence, but what truly matters is keeping the commandments of God. ²⁰ Each person should remain in the state in which they were called. ²¹ Were you called as a slave? Do not let it trouble you. But if you can gain your freedom, take the opportunity. ²² For the one who was called in the Lord while a slave is the Lord's freed person; similarly, the one who was called while free is Christ's servant. ²³ You were purchased at a cost; therefore, do not become enslaved by people. ²⁴ Brothers and sisters, each one should remain with God in the state in which they were called. ²⁵ Now regarding those who are unmarried, I have no command from the Lord, but I offer my opinion as one who, by the Lord's mercy, is trustworthy. ²⁶ I think, then, that it is good, in view of the present crisis, for a person to remain as they are. ²⁷ Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. ²⁸ But if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. However, such individuals will face difficulties in this life, and I wish to spare you that. ²⁹ But this I say, brothers and sisters: the time is short, so that from now on those who have wives should live as though they had none, ³⁰ And those who mourn, as though they did not mourn; and those who are joyful, as though they were not; and those who buy, as though they did not own anything; ³¹ And those who use the world, as though they did not fully engage with it; for the present form of this world is passing away.³² I want you to be free from concerns. The unmarried man is focused on the Lord's affairs, how he may please the Lord;³³ But the married man is concerned about worldly matters, how he may please his wife,³⁴ And his interests are divided. The unmarried woman, and the virgin, is focused on the Lord's affairs, that she may be holy in both body and spirit; but the married woman is concerned about worldly matters, how she may please her husband.³⁵ I say this for your own benefit, not to impose a restriction on you, but to promote what is proper and to secure undistracted devotion to the Lord.³⁶ But if anyone thinks he is not behaving properly towards his betrothed, if she is past the age of marriage and it seems necessary, let him do as he wishes, he is not sinning; they should marry.³⁷ But the one who stands firm in his heart, not under compulsion, but has control over his own will, and has decided in his own heart to keep his betrothed, will do well.³⁸ So then, the one who gives his betrothed in marriage does well, and the one who does not give her in marriage will do even better.³⁹ A wife is committed to her husband as long as he lives; but if her husband passes away, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, only in the Lord.⁴⁰ In my opinion, she is happier if she remains as she is; and I believe that I also have the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians

8 Now concerning food sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge makes one conceited, but love edifies.² If anyone believes he possesses knowledge, he does not yet know as he should;³ But whoever loves God, is known by Him.⁴ Therefore, regarding the eating of food offered to idols, we understand that an idol is insignificant in the world, and that there is no God but one.⁵ For even if there are those called 'gods', whether in heaven or on earth, as indeed there are many 'gods' and many 'lords',⁶ Yet for us there is only one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we exist through Him.⁷ Nevertheless, not everyone possesses this understanding; some, being accustomed to the idol until now, eat food as if it were offered to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.⁸ Food does not bring us closer to God; we are neither worse off if we do not eat, nor better if we do eat.⁹ But be careful that this freedom of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to those who are weak.¹⁰ For if someone sees you, the one who has knowledge, dining in an idol's temple, will his conscience, if he is weak, not be encouraged to eat things sacrificed to idols?¹¹ For through your knowledge the one who is weak is harmed, the brother or sister for whom Christ died.¹² Thus, by sinning against the brothers and sisters and injuring their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.¹³ Therefore, if food leads my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause my brother to fall.

9 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not beheld Jesus, our Lord? Are you not the result of my labour in the Lord?² Even if I am not recognised as an apostle by others, surely I am by you; for you are the proof of my apostleship in the Lord.³ My defence to those who examine me is this:⁴ Do we not have the liberty to eat and drink?⁵ Do we not have the right to take along a believing wife, even as the rest of the apostles, the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?⁶ Or is it only Barnabas and I who are without the right to refrain from working?⁷ Who at any time serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not consume the milk of the flock?⁸ I am not speaking these things according to human judgement, am I? Or does the Law not also say these things?⁹ For it is written in the Law of Moses: "You shall not muzzle the ox while it is threshing." Is God concerned only about oxen?¹⁰ Or is He speaking entirely for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because the ploughman ought to plough in hope, and the thresher to thresh in hope of sharing the crops.¹¹ If we have shared spiritual blessings with you, is it too much to expect material support from you?¹² If others share this right over you, do we not have even more? Nevertheless, we did not make use of this right, but we endure all things so that we will cause no hindrance to the gospel of Christ.¹³ Do you not know that those who perform sacred services eat the offerings of the temple, and those who attend regularly to the altar partake of what is offered on the altar?¹⁴ In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should earn their living from the gospel.¹⁵ But I have used none of these rights, and I am not writing these things so that it will be done so in my case; for it would be better for me to die than have anyone make my boast an empty one.¹⁶ For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast about, for I am compelled to do so; indeed, woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!¹⁷ For if I do this voluntarily, I have a reward; but if against my will, I have been entrusted with a commission.¹⁸ What, then, is my reward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may offer it without charge, so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.¹⁹ For though I am free from all people, I have made myself a servant to all, so that I may gain more.²⁰ To the Jews I became as a Jew, so that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the Law, as under the Law though not being under the Law myself, so that I might gain those who are under the Law;²¹ To those who are without the Law, as without the Law, though not being without the law of God but under the law of Christ, so that I might gain those who are without the Law.²² To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak; I have become all things to all people, so that I may by all means save some.²³ I do everything for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.²⁴ Do you not know that in a race all the runners compete, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win.²⁵ Everyone who competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. So they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we an imperishable.²⁶ Therefore I do not run aimlessly; Nor do I flail my arms like a boxer beating nothing but air.²⁷ Instead I strictly discipline my body and make it my slave, so that after I have preached to others, I don't become disqualified.

1 Corinthians

10 For I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea;² And they all were baptised into Moses in the cloud and in the sea;³ And they all partook of the same spiritual nourishment,⁴ And all drank the same spiritual drink, for they were drinking from a spiritual rock that accompanied them; and that rock was Christ.⁵ Yet, with most of them, God was not pleased; their bodies were scattered in the wilderness.⁶ Now these events occurred as examples for us, so that we would not desire harmful things as they did.⁷ Do not become idolaters, as some of them were; as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel."⁸ Nor should we engage in immorality, as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day.⁹ Nor should we test the Lord, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents.¹⁰ Nor should we complain, as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer.¹¹ These things happened to them as a warning, and they were recorded for our instruction, upon whom the culmination of the ages has come.¹² Therefore, let anyone who thinks they stand take heed lest they fall.¹³ No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation will also provide a way out, so that you can endure it.¹⁴ Thus, my dear friends, avoid idolatry.¹⁵ I address you as wise individuals; consider what I say.¹⁶ Is not the cup of blessing that we bless a participation in the blood of Christ? Is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ?¹⁷ Because there is one loaf, we who are many are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf.¹⁸ Reflect on the people of Israel; are not those who eat the sacrifices sharers in the altar?¹⁹ What am I implying then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?²⁰ No, but I say that what the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God; and I do not want you to be participants with demons.²¹ You cannot share in the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.²² Or will we provoke the Lord's patience? Surely, we are not stronger than Him.²³ "All things are permissible," but not all things are beneficial. "All things are permissible," but not all things build up.²⁴ Let no one seek their own good, but rather that of their neighbour.²⁵ Consume whatever is sold in the meat market without raising questions of conscience;²⁶ For the earth and everything in it belongs to the Lord.²⁷ If an unbeliever invites you and you wish to go, eat whatever is set before you without raising questions of conscience.²⁸ However, if someone tells you, "This has been offered in sacrifice," then do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience;²⁹ I do not mean your own conscience, but the other person's; for why should my freedom be judged by another's conscience?³⁰ If I partake with gratitude, why am I criticised for something I give thanks for?³¹ Therefore, whatever you do, whether eating or drinking, do it all for the glory of God.³² Give no offence to Jews or Greeks, or to the church of God;

1 Corinthians

³³ Just as I try to please everyone in all things, not seeking my own advantage but that of many, so that they may be saved.

11 Imitate me therefore, just as I imitate Christ. ² I commend you for remembering me in all things and for holding firmly to the traditions as I passed them on to you. ³ I wish for you to understand that Christ is the leader of every man, the man is the leader of a woman, and God is the leader of Christ. ⁴ Any man who covers his head while praying or prophesying brings dishonour to his head. ⁵ But any woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered brings dishonour to her head, for she is like one whose head is shaved. ⁶ For if a woman does not cover her head, she should also cut off her hair; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, she should cover her head. ⁷ A man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man. ⁸ For man does not come from woman, but woman comes from man; ⁹ For indeed man was not created for the benefit of woman, but woman for the benefit of man. ¹⁰ Therefore, a woman ought to have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels. ¹¹ However, in the Lord, woman is not separate from man, nor is man separate from woman. ¹² For just as the woman comes from the man, so also the man is born through the woman; and all things come from God. ¹³ Consider this for yourself: is it appropriate for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? ¹⁴ Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonour to him, ¹⁵ but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her as a covering. ¹⁶ But if anyone wishes to be argumentative, we have no other practice, nor do the churches of God. ¹⁷ In giving this next instruction, I cannot commend you, because your gatherings do more harm than good. ¹⁸ To begin with, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and to some extent, I believe it. ¹⁹ Indeed, there must be differences among you to show which of you have God's approval. ²⁰ When you gather together, it is not truly to eat the Lord's Supper, ²¹ for when you eat, each one goes ahead with their own meal; one remains hungry while another becomes drunk. ²² What! Do you not have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I commend you? In this matter, I do not commend you. ²³ For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: that the Lord Jesus, on the night He was betrayed, took bread; ²⁴ And after giving thanks, He broke it and said, "This is My body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of Me." ²⁵ Similarly, after the meal, He took the cup, saying, "This cup represents the new covenant in My blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of Me." ²⁶ For every time you eat this bread and drink from this cup, you announce the Lord's death until He returns. ²⁷ Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸ Each person should reflect on themselves before they partake of the bread and drink from the cup. ²⁹ For those who eat and drink without discerning the body of Christ eat and drink judgement on themselves. ³⁰ This is the reason many among you are weak and ill, and several have passed away. ³¹ But if we were more discerning with regard to ourselves, we would not come under such judgement. ³² Yet, when we are judged in this manner by the Lord, we are being corrected so that we will not be finally condemned with the world. ³³ Therefore, my brothers and sisters, when you gather to eat, you should all partake together. ³⁴ If anyone is hungry, they should eat at home, so that when you meet together it may not result in judgement. And when I come, I will give further directions.

12 Now, regarding spiritual gifts, dear friends, I do not want you to be uninformed. ² You are aware that when you were non-believers, you were misled to the silent idols, however you were guided. ³ Therefore, I declare to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus is cursed," and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. ⁴ Now there are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. ⁵ And there are different kinds of ministries, but the same Lord. ⁶ There are different kinds of workings, but it is the same God who accomplishes all things in everyone. ⁷ But to each person is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the benefit of all. ⁸ For to one is given the word of wisdom through the Spirit, and to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; ⁹ To another, faith through the same Spirit; and to another, gifts of healing through the one Spirit, ¹⁰ And to another the working of miracles, and to another prophecy, and to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of languages, and to another the interpretation of languages. ¹¹ But one and the same Spirit is active in all these, distributing to each person individually as He chooses. ¹² For just as the body is one and has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though numerous, are one body, so also is Christ. ¹³ For by one Spirit we were all baptised into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to partake of one Spirit. ¹⁴ For the body is not composed of one part, but of many. ¹⁵ If the foot says, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," it is not for this reason any less a part of the body. ¹⁶ And if the ear says, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," it is not for this reason any less a part of the body. ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, what would happen to the hearing? If the whole were hearing, what would become of the sense of smell? ¹⁸ But now God has placed the parts, each one of them in the body, just as He intended. ¹⁹ If all were a single part, where would the body be? ²⁰ Yet, as it stands, there are many parts, but one body. ²¹ And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I do not need you"; nor again can the head say to the feet, "I do not need you." ²² On the contrary, it is much more the case that the parts of the body which seem to be weaker are indispensable; ²³ And those parts of the body which we consider less honourable, on these we bestow greater honour, and our less presentable parts are treated with greater decorum, ²⁴ Whereas our more presentable parts have no need of it. But God has so composed the body, giving more abundant honour to that part which lacked, ²⁵ So that there may be no division in the body, but that the parts may have equal concern for one another. ²⁶ And if one part of the body suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if a part is honoured, all the parts rejoice with it. ²⁷ Now you are the body of Christ, and individually parts of it. ²⁸ And God has appointed in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helps, administrations, and various kinds of languages. ²⁹ All are not apostles, are they? All are not prophets, are they? All are not teachers? All are not workers of miracles? ³⁰ Not all have gifts of healing, do they? Not all speak in languages, do they? Not all interpret, do they? ³¹ But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And yet, I am going to show you a much better way.

1 Corinthians

13 If I speak in the languages of humans and angels, but lack love, I am like a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal. ² If I possess the gift of prophecy, understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have complete faith to move mountains, but lack love, I am nothing. ³ And if I give away all my possessions to charity, and if I surrender my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, it does me no good. ⁴ Love is patient and kind; it is not envious, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵ It is not rude, it is not self-seeking; it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs, ⁶ It does not delight in evil, but rejoices with the truth; ⁷ It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres. ⁸ Love never fails; yet where there are prophecies, they will come to an end; where there are tongues, they will be silenced; where there is knowledge, it will fade away. ⁹ For we know partially and prophesy partially; ¹⁰ But when completeness comes, what is partial will disappear. ¹¹ When I was a child, I spoke like a child, thought like a child, reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put away childish ways. ¹² For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror, then we shall see face to face; now I know in part, but then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. ¹³ And now these three endure: faith, hope, and love. Yet the greatest of these is love.

14 Pursue love and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy. ² For the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to people, but to God; for no one understands, but he speaks mysteries in his spirit. ³ But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouragement, and comfort. ⁴ The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies edifies the church. ⁵ Now I wish that you all spoke in tongues, but even more that you would prophesy; greater is the one who prophesies than the one who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets, so that the church may be built up. ⁶ But now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you unless I bring you some revelation, knowledge, prophecy, or teaching? ⁷ Yet even lifeless instruments, whether flute or harp, in producing a sound, if they do not produce a distinction in the

1 Corinthians

tones, how will it be known what is played on the flute or the harp? ⁸ For if the trumpet gives an unclear sound, who will prepare for battle? ⁹ So you too, unless you produce intelligible speech with the tongue, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will just be talking to the air. ¹⁰ There are, perhaps, a great many kinds of languages in the world, and none is without meaning. ¹¹ So if I do not know the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner to the one who speaks, and the one who speaks will be a foreigner to me. ¹² So you too, since you are eager for spiritual gifts, strive to excel in building up the church. ¹³ Therefore, one who speaks in a tongue should pray that they may interpret. ¹⁴ For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is not fruitful. ¹⁵ What is the outcome then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will also pray with the mind; I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing with the mind. ¹⁶ For otherwise, if you bless God in the spirit only, how will the one who occupies the place of the outsider say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you are saying? ¹⁷ For you are giving thanks well enough, but the other person is not built up. ¹⁸ I am grateful to God that I speak in tongues more than all of you; ¹⁹ Yet, in the church, I would rather speak five words with understanding, to instruct others as well, than ten thousand words in a tongue. ²⁰ Brothers and sisters, do not be children in your thinking; in regard to evil be infants, but in your thinking be mature. ²¹ In the Law it is written:

"By people of strange tongues and by the lips of foreigners I will speak to this people, and not even then will they listen to Me," says the Lord.

²² So then, tongues are a sign, not for those who believe but for unbelievers; but prophecy is not for unbelievers but for those who believe. ²³ Therefore if the whole church gathers together and everyone speaks in tongues, and outsiders or unbelievers enter, will they not say that you are out of your mind? ²⁴ But if everyone prophesies, and an unbeliever or outsider enters, they are convinced by all, they are called to account by all; ²⁵ The secrets of their heart are revealed; and so they will fall on their face and worship God, declaring that God is truly among you. ²⁶ What is the outcome then, brothers and sisters? When you assemble, each one has a psalm, a teaching, a revelation, a tongue, an interpretation. All things are to be done for building up. ²⁷ If anyone speaks in a tongue, it should be by two or at most three, and each in turn, and someone must interpret; ²⁸ But if there is no interpreter, they should remain silent in the church, and speak to themselves and to God. ²⁹ Have two or three prophets speak, and let the others evaluate. ³⁰ But if a revelation is made to another who is seated, the first one should remain silent. ³¹ For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be encouraged; ³² And the spirits of prophets are under the control of prophets; ³³ For God is a God of peace, not disorder. As in all the churches of the saints, ³⁴ The women should remain silent in the churches; for they are not permitted to speak, but should be in submission, as the Law also says. ³⁵ If they wish to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is improper for a woman to speak in church. ³⁶ Was it from you that the word of God originated? Or are you the only ones it has reached? ³⁷ If anyone considers themselves a prophet or spiritual, they should acknowledge that what I write to you is the Lord's command. ³⁸ But if anyone does not recognise this, they are not recognised. ³⁹ Therefore, my brothers and sisters, eagerly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. ⁴⁰ But everything should be conducted in a proper and orderly manner.

15 Now I declare to you, dear friends, the gospel I preached to you, which you accepted and in which you stand firm, ² Through which you are also saved, if you hold firmly to the message I preached to you, unless your belief was without purpose. ³ For I passed on to you as of utmost importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, ⁴ and that He was laid to rest, and on the third day He was raised, as foretold by the Scriptures, ⁵ For He appeared to Cephas, and then to the Twelve. ⁶ Following that, He appeared to more than five hundred believers at one time, most of whom are still living, though some have passed away; ⁷ Afterwards, He appeared to James, and then to all the apostles; ⁸ And finally, as to one born at the wrong time, He appeared to me as well. ⁹ For I am the least of the apostles, and unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰ But by the grace of God, I am what I am, and His grace towards me was not without effect; but I worked harder than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God with me. ¹¹ Whether then it was I or they, this is what we preach and this is what you believed.¹² Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?¹³ But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ Himself has not been raised;¹⁴ And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is without purpose, and your faith is also without purpose.¹⁵ Furthermore, we are even found to be false witnesses about God, because we have testified about God that He raised Christ, whom He did not raise if indeed the dead are not raised.¹⁶ For if the dead are not brought back to life, then not even Christ has been raised;¹⁷ And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is in vain; you remain in your sins.¹⁸ Then also those who have passed away in Christ have perished.¹⁹ If we have hoped in Christ only for this life, we are of all people most to be pitied.²⁰ But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have passed away.²¹ For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also comes through a human.²² For just as all die in Adam, so in Christ all will be brought to life.²³ But each in their own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who belong to Christ at His coming,²⁴ Then comes the end, when He hands over the kingdom to our God and Father, after He has abolished all rule and all authority and power.²⁵ For He must reign until He has placed all His enemies under His feet.²⁶ The final enemy to be abolished is death.²⁷ For He has put all things in subjection under His feet. But when He says, "All things are put in subjection," it is evident that this excludes the One who put all things in subjection to Him.²⁸ When all things are subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will also be subject to the One who subjected all things to Him, so that God may be all in all.²⁹ Otherwise, what will those do who are baptised for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptised for them?³⁰ Why do we face danger every hour?³¹ I declare, dear friends, by the pride I have in you in Christ Jesus our Lord, that I face death every day.³² If from human motives I fought with wild beasts at Ephesus, what benefit is it to me? If the dead are not raised,

1 Corinthians

"Let's eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."

³³ Do not be misled: "Bad company corrupts good morals."³⁴ Awaken to righteousness and cease sinning, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.³⁵ But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? And with what kind of body do they come?"³⁶ Foolish one! What you plant does not come to life unless it dies;³⁷ And what you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, perhaps of wheat or something else.³⁸ But God gives it a body as He desires, and to each of the seeds a body of its own.³⁹ Not all flesh is the same: there is one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.⁴⁰ There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the splendour of the heavenly is one kind, and the splendour of the earthly is another.⁴¹ There is one splendour of the sun, another splendour of the moon, and another splendour of the stars; for star differs from star in splendour.⁴² So it is with the resurrection of the dead. The body is planted perishable, it is raised imperishable;⁴³ Though it is planted without honour, it is raised in glory; though it is planted in weakness, it is raised in power;⁴⁴ Though it is planted as a natural body, it is raised as a spiritual body. If there exists a natural body, there too is a spiritual body.⁴⁵ As it is written: "The first man, Adam, became alive." and the last Adam became a life-giving spirit.⁴⁶ However, the spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and then the spiritual.⁴⁷ The first man was of the earth, formed from dust; the second man is of heaven.⁴⁸ As was the man of dust, so also are those who are of the dust; and as is the heavenly man, so also are those who are of heaven.⁴⁹ Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the heavenly man.⁵⁰ Now I declare this, dear friends, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.⁵¹ Listen, I tell you a mystery; we will not all sleep, but we will all be transformed,⁵² In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be transformed.⁵³ For this perishable must be clothed with the imperishable, and this mortal with immortality.⁵⁴ But when this perishable is clothed with the imperishable, and this mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory.

⁵⁵ O death, where is your triumph? O death, where is your sting?"

1 Corinthians

⁵⁶ For the sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the Law; ⁵⁷ So, thanks be to God, who grants us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁵⁸ Therefore, my beloved friends, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

16 Regarding the collection for the believers, as I instructed the churches of Galatia, you should do likewise. ² On the first day of every week, each of you is to set aside and save, as he may prosper, so that no collections need to be made when I come. ³ When I arrive, those whom you approve, I will send with letters to deliver your gift to Jerusalem; ⁴ And if it seems suitable for me to go also, they will accompany me. ⁵ I will come to you after passing through Macedonia, for I am travelling through Macedonia; ⁶ And it is possible that I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you may assist me on my journey, wherever I go. ⁷ For I do not wish to see you now only briefly; I hope to remain with you for some time, if the Lord allows. ⁸ However, I plan to remain in Ephesus until Pentecost; ⁹ For a great opportunity for effective work has opened to me, and there are many opponents. ¹⁰ Now if Timothy comes, ensure that he has nothing to fear while he is with you, for he is doing the Lord's work, as I also am. ¹¹ So do not look down on him. But send him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brothers. ¹² Now concerning our brother Apollos, I strongly encouraged him to come to you with the brothers; and it was not at all his desire to come now, but he will come when he has opportunity. ¹³ Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, be courageous, be strong. ¹⁴ Ensure everything you do is done in love. ¹⁵ Now I urge you, brothers and sisters: you know the household of Stephanas, that they are the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints, ¹⁶ That you also be in subjection to such people and to everyone who helps in the work and labours. ¹⁷ I am glad about the arrival of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, because they have supplied what was lacking on your part. ¹⁸ For they have refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore, recognise such individuals. ¹⁹ The churches of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Prisca warmly greet you in the Lord, along with the church that meets in their house. ²⁰ All the believers send you greetings. Embrace one another with a holy kiss. ²¹ See this greeting is written by me, Paul, by my own hand. ²² If anyone does not love the Lord, let them be under a curse. Maranatha! ²³ May the grace of the Lord Jesus remain with you. ²⁴ My love is with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 Corinthians

1 From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, and Timothy our brother, To the church of God in Corinth, together with all the saints throughout Achaia: ² May you receive grace and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³ Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the merciful Father and source of all comfort, ⁴ Who comforts us in all our troubles, enabling us to comfort those in trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God. ⁵ For just as we share abundantly in the sufferings of Christ, so through Christ our comfort overflows. ⁶ But if we face troubles, it is for your comfort and salvation; or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which helps you patiently endure the same sufferings we experience; ⁷ And our hope for you is unwavering, knowing that as you partake in our sufferings, so also you partake in our comfort. ⁸ For we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about the troubles we faced in Asia, where we were burdened beyond our ability to endure, so much so that we despaired even of life. ⁹ Indeed, we felt we had received the sentence of death, so that we might not rely on ourselves but on God, who raises the dead; ¹⁰ Who delivered us from such a perilous danger of death, and will continue to deliver us. On Him we have set our hope, and He will yet deliver us. ¹¹ If you also join in helping us through your prayers, so that thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf for the favour bestowed on us through the prayers of many. ¹² For our pride is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and godly sincerity, not in worldly wisdom but in the grace of God, we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you. ¹³ For we write nothing else to you than what you read and understand, and I hope you will understand fully, ¹⁴ Just as you also partially did understand us, that we are your reason for pride as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus. ¹⁵ In this confidence I initially intended to visit you, so that you might be blessed twice; ¹⁶ That is, to pass your way into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and by you to be helped on my way to Judea. ¹⁷ Therefore, I was not indecisive when I intended to do this, was I? Or what I plan, do I plan according to human standards, so that with me there will be both "Yes, yes" and "No, no"? ¹⁸ But as God is faithful, our message to you is not a mixture of "Yes and no." ¹⁹ For the Son of God, Christ Jesus, who was proclaimed among you by us—by me and Silvanus and Timothy—was not a mixture of "Yes and no," but has always been "Yes" in Him. ²⁰ For all the promises of God find their "Yes" in Him; therefore through Him we utter our "Amen" to the glory of God. ²¹ It is God who establishes both us and you in Christ. He has anointed us, ²² Who also set His seal of ownership on us and put His Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee. ²³ But I call God as my witness, that it was to spare you that I did not return to Corinth. ²⁴ Not that we have dominion over your faith, but we work with you for your joy; for by faith you stand firm.

2 But I resolved for my own sake, that I would not visit you in sorrow again. ² For if I bring you sorrow, who then will make me glad except the one who is saddened by me? ³ This is precisely what I wrote to you, so that when I arrived, I would not have sorrow from those who ought to bring me joy; having confidence in you all that my joy would be shared by you all. ⁴ For out of much distress and heartache, I wrote to you with many tears; not to cause you sorrow, but so that you might understand the love I have especially for you. ⁵ But if anyone has caused distress, he has not caused it for me, but to some extent—not to overstate it—for all of you. ⁶ Adequate for such a person is this penalty which was imposed by the majority, ⁷ So that on the contrary you should rather forgive and comfort him, otherwise such a person might be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. ⁸ Thus, I urge you to reaffirm your love for him. ⁹ For this purpose I also wrote, to test you, whether you are obedient in all things. ¹⁰ But anyone you forgive, I also forgive; for indeed what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did so for your benefit in the presence of Christ, ¹¹ So that we would not be outwitted by Satan, for we are aware of his schemes. ¹² Now when I came to Troas for the gospel of Christ and when an opportunity was opened for me in the Lord, ¹³ I found no rest for my spirit, not finding Titus my brother; so I bid them farewell and went on to Macedonia. ¹⁴ But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of Him in every place. ¹⁵ For we are a pleasing aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing: ¹⁶ To some, an aroma from death to death, to others, an aroma from life to life. And who is sufficient for these things? ¹⁷ For we are not like many, peddling the word of God, but as from sincerity, as from God, we speak in Christ in the sight of God.

2 Corinthians

3 Do we begin to praise ourselves again? Or do we require, as some do, letters of endorsement to you or from you? ² You are our letter, inscribed in our hearts, recognised and understood by everyone; ³ Revealing yourselves as a letter of Christ, delivered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts. ⁴ This is the assurance we have in God through Christ. ⁵ Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as originating from us, but our sufficiency is from God, ⁶ Who also made us competent as ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter brings death, but the Spirit imparts life. ⁷ But if the ministry that brought death, engraved in letters on stones, came with glory so that the sons of Israel could not gaze steadily at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, which was fading, ⁸ How will the ministry of the Spirit not be even more glorious? ⁹ For if the ministry that brought condemnation had glory, much more does the ministry that brings righteousness abound in glory. ¹⁰ For what was once glorious now has no glory in comparison to the surpassing glory. ¹¹ For if that which was fading away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory. ¹² Therefore, having such a hope, we speak with great boldness, ¹³ And we are not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel would not fix their gaze on what was fading away. ¹⁴ But their minds were hardened; for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains unlifted, because it is taken away in Christ. ¹⁵ Yet even now, whenever Moses is read, a veil covers their hearts; ¹⁶ But whenever someone turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. ¹⁷ The Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord resides, there is freedom. ¹⁸ But we all, with unveiled faces, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

4 Thus, since we have this ministry, through the mercy we have received, we do not lose heart, ² But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in deceit nor altering the word of God, but by openly declaring the truth, we commend ourselves to every person's conscience in the sight of God. ³ And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are lost, ⁴ In whose case the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, so they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. ⁵ For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. ⁶ For God, who said, "Light shall shine out of darkness," is the One who has illuminated our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. ⁷ But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the surpassing greatness of the power may be of God and not from ourselves; ⁸ We face troubles on every side, but are not crushed; we are sometimes confused, but do not despair; ⁹ Persecuted, but not forsaken; knocked down, but not destroyed; ¹⁰ Always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. ¹¹ For we who live are continually being delivered to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our mortal flesh. ¹² Thus, while death is at work in us, life is at work in you. ¹³ Yet having the same spirit of faith, according to what is written: "I believed, therefore I spoke," we also believe, and therefore we also speak, ¹⁴ Aware that the One who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and will present us together with you. ¹⁵ For all things are for your benefit, so that grace, having spread to more and more people, may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God. ¹⁶ Therefore we do not lose heart, for though our outer self is wasting away, so our inner self is renewed day by day. ¹⁷ For our momentary light affliction, is producing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond comparison, ¹⁸ While we look not on the things which are seen, but on the things which are unseen; for the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are unseen are eternal.

5 For we know that if our earthly dwelling, which is our home, is dismantled, we have a building from God, a home not crafted by human hands, eternal in heaven. ² For truly, in this dwelling we groan, yearning to be clothed with our heavenly abode, ³ Since indeed, once clothed, we will not be found without covering. ⁴ For truly, we who are in this dwelling groan, feeling burdened, because we do not wish to be without covering but to be clothed, so that what is mortal may be enveloped by life. ⁵ Now it is

2 Corinthians

God who has prepared us for this very purpose, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee. ⁶ Therefore, always being of good courage, and recognising that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord— ⁷ For we walk guided by faith, not by what we see— ⁸ Yet we are of good courage and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹ Therefore we also make it our aim, whether at home or away, to be pleasing to Him. ¹⁰ For we must all appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each one may receive compensation for his deeds done through the body, in accordance with what he has done, whether good or bad. ¹¹ Therefore, knowing the reverence of the Lord, we persuade people, but we are fully known to God; and I hope that we are also fully known in your consciences. ¹² We are not recommending ourselves to you again, but are providing you with an opportunity to be proud of us, so that you will have a response for those who take pride in outward appearance and not in the heart. ¹³ For if we appear to have lost our senses, it is for God; if we are of sound mind, it is for you. ¹⁴ For the love of Christ compels us, having concluded this: that one died for all, therefore all died; ¹⁵ And He died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died and rose again on their behalf. ¹⁶ Therefore from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know Him in this way no longer. ¹⁷ Therefore if anyone is in Christ, that person is a new creation; the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come. ¹⁸ Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and entrusted us with the ministry of reconciliation, ¹⁹ That is, God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their wrongdoings against them, and He has entrusted to us the message of reconciliation. ²⁰ Therefore, we are representatives for Christ, as though God were making an appeal through us; we implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. ²¹ He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

6 And as we work together with Him, we also encourage you not to receive the grace of God to no purpose— ² For He says,

“At a favourable time I listened to you, And on a day of salvation I helped you.” Behold, now is “a favourable time,” behold, now is “a day of salvation”—

³ Giving no reason for taking offence in anything, so that the ministry will not be discredited, ⁴ But in all things, we present ourselves as servants of God, with much endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in difficulties, ⁵ In beatings, in imprisonments, in mob attacks, in labours, in sleeplessness, in hunger, ⁶ With purity, with knowledge, with patience, with kindness, with the Holy Spirit, with sincere love, ⁷ With the word of truth, and with the power of God; by the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and the left, ⁸ By glory and dishonour, by evil report and good report; regarded as deceivers and yet true; ⁹ As unknown and yet well known, as dying and yet behold, we live; as punished and yet not put to death, ¹⁰ As sorrowful yet always finding joy, as poor yet bringing richness to many, as having nothing and yet possessing everything. ¹¹ Our mouth has spoken freely to you, Corinthians, our heart is opened wide. ¹² It is not us who limit you, but rather your own affections that constrain you. ¹³ Now in the same way in exchange—I am speaking as to children—open your hearts wide also. ¹⁴ Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers; for what do righteousness and lawlessness have in common, or what does light share with darkness? ¹⁵ Or what accord does Christ have with Belial, or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? ¹⁶ Or what agreement could be found between the temple of God and idols? We are the temple of the living God; as God has declared:

“I will dwell among them and walk among them; And I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

¹⁷ Therefore,

come out from among them and be separate,” says the Lord. “And do not touch what is impure; And I will receive you.

¹⁸ And

I will be a father to you, And you shall be My sons and daughters,” Declares the Lord Almighty.

2 Corinthians

7 Therefore, since we have these promises, dear friends, let us purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, striving for holiness out of reverence for God. ² Open your hearts to us. We have wronged no one, corrupted no one, and taken advantage of no one. ³ I am not saying this to condemn you, for I have mentioned before that you are in our hearts, to share both death and life together. ⁴ My confidence in you is great; my pride in you is immense. I am filled with comfort; I am overflowing with joy despite all our troubles. ⁵ For even when we arrived in Macedonia, we found no rest for our bodies, but we were troubled on every side: conflicts on the outside, fears within. ⁶ But God, who encourages the downcast, encouraged us by the coming of Titus; ⁷ And not only by his coming, but also by the encouragement he received from you, as he told us about your longing, your mourning, your enthusiasm for me; so that I was even more joyful. ⁸ For though I caused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it; though I did regret it—because I see that the letter caused you sorrow, though only for a while— ⁹ I now rejoice, not because you were made sorrowful, but because your sorrow led to repentance; for you were made sorrowful in a way that aligns with God's will, so that you suffered no loss from us. ¹⁰ For the sorrow that aligns with God's will brings a repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death. ¹¹ For behold what earnestness this very thing—this godly sorrow—has produced in you: what vindication of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what correction of wrong! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be innocent in the matter. ¹² So although I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the offender nor for the sake of the one offended, but so that your earnestness on our behalf would be revealed to you in the sight of God. ¹³ For this reason we have been comforted. And besides our own comfort, we rejoiced even much more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. ¹⁴ For if I have boasted to him about you in anything, I was not put to shame; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, so also our boasting before Titus proved to be the truth. ¹⁵ His affection for you grows all the more, as he remembers the obedience of you all, how you received him with respect and humility. ¹⁶ I am glad that in everything I have confidence in you.

8 Dear brothers and sisters, we wish to share with you the grace of God that has been bestowed upon the churches of Macedonia, ² That during a severe trial of affliction, their abundant joy and profound poverty overflowed into a wealth of generosity. ³ For I can testify that according to their means, and even beyond their means, they gave willingly, ⁴ Begging us with much urging for the favour of participation in the support of the saints, ⁵ And this, beyond what we had anticipated, for they first dedicated themselves to the Lord and to us in accordance with God's will. ⁶ So we encouraged Titus that as he had previously initiated this, he would also bring to completion this gracious work among you. ⁷ But just as you excel in everything—in faith, word, knowledge, in all earnestness, and in the love we inspired in you—see that you also excel in this gracious work. ⁸ I am not issuing this as a command, but as a means to test the sincerity of your love through the earnestness of others. ⁹ For you are aware of the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that although He was rich, for your benefit He embraced poverty, so that by His poverty you might become rich. ¹⁰ I offer my opinion in this matter, for it is to your benefit, you who were the first to begin a year ago not only to do this, but also to desire to do it. ¹¹ But now finish doing it also, so that just as there was the willingness to do it, so there may also be the completion of it by your ability. ¹² For if the willingness is there, it is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what they do not have. ¹³ For this is not intended to ease others and burden you, but as a matter of fairness— ¹⁴ At this present time your abundance will meet their need, so that their abundance may also meet your need, leading to fairness; ¹⁵ As the scripture says: "The one who collected much did not have too much, and the one who collected little did not have too little." ¹⁶ But thanks be to God who instills the same earnestness for you in the heart of Titus. ¹⁷ For he not only accepted our request, but being very earnest himself, he has gone to you willingly. ¹⁸ We have sent along with him the brother whose reputation in the matters of the gospel has spread throughout all the churches; ¹⁹ And not only that, but he has also been appointed by the churches to travel with us in this gracious work, which is being managed by us for the glory of the Lord Himself, and to demonstrate our readiness, ²⁰ Taking care so that no one will discredit us in our handling of this generous gift; ²¹ For we are concerned with what is honourable, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of people. ²² We have sent with them our brother, whom we have often tested and found diligent in many things, but now even more so due to his great confidence in you. ²³ Regarding Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker among you; as for our brothers, they are messengers of the churches, a glory to Christ. ²⁴ Therefore, before all the churches, demonstrate to them the evidence of your love and the reason for our pride in you.

2 Corinthians

9 For it is unnecessary for me to write to you about this service to the saints; ² For I am aware of your eagerness, which I have mentioned to the Macedonians, saying that Achaia has been ready since last year, and your enthusiasm has inspired most of them. ³ But I have sent the brothers, so that our boasting about you may not be made empty in this case, so that, as I was saying, you will be prepared; ⁴ Otherwise, if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we—not to mention you—would be put to shame in this confidence. ⁵ So I considered it necessary to urge the brothers that they go on ahead to you and arrange in advance your previously promised generous gift, so that it would be ready as a generous gift, and not as one grudgingly given due to greediness. ⁶ Now I say this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. ⁷ Each person should give as they have decided in their heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸ And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that, always having all sufficiency in everything, you may excel in every good deed; ⁹ As the scripture says:

“He scattered abroad, he gave to the poor, His righteousness endures forever.”

¹⁰ Now He who provides seed to the sower and bread for food will provide and multiply your seed for sowing and enhance the harvest of your righteousness; ¹¹ You will be enriched in every way for all generosity, which through us results in thanksgiving to God. ¹² For the ministry of this service is not only fully meeting the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing through many thanksgivings to God. ¹³ Because of the proof given by this ministry, they will glorify God for your obedience to your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for the generosity of your contribution to them and to all; ¹⁴ While they also, through prayer for you, long for you because of the extraordinary grace of God in you. ¹⁵ Praise be to God for His gift beyond words!

10 I, Paul, appeal to you with the humility and gentleness of Christ—I who am humble when present with you, but bold when away!

² I hope that when I am with you, I will not need to be as bold as I plan to be towards some who think we live by the standards of this world. ³ For though we live in the world, we do not fight as the world does, ⁴ since the weapons we use in our warfare are not of this world, but have divine power to demolish strongholds. ⁵ We dismantle arguments and every pretension that opposes the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive to make it obedient to Christ, ⁶ and we are prepared to punish every act of disobedience, once your obedience is complete. ⁷ You are making judgments based on appearances. If anyone is confident that they belong to Christ, they should reconsider that we belong to Christ just as much as they do. ⁸ Even if I boast somewhat freely about the authority the Lord gave us for building you up rather than tearing you down, I will not be ashamed of it, ⁹ so that I may not seem as if I am trying to frighten you with my letters. ¹⁰ For some say, “His letters are weighty and forceful, but in person he lacks presence and his speaking is of little account.” ¹¹ Such people should understand that what we are in our letters when absent, we will be in our actions when present. ¹² We do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves. When they measure themselves by their own standards and compare themselves with themselves, they lack wisdom. ¹³ We, however, will not boast beyond what is proper, we will limit our boasting to that which God himself has designated for us: and that also includes you. ¹⁴ We are not overstepping in our boasting, as would be the case if we had not come to you, for we did reach you with the gospel of Christ. ¹⁵ Neither do we exceed our limits by boasting of work done by others. Our hope is that, as your faith continues to grow, our sphere of activity among you will greatly expand, ¹⁶ so that we can preach the gospel in the regions beyond you. For we do not wish to boast about work already accomplished in someone else's territory. ¹⁷ But, "Let he who boasts, boast in the Lord." ¹⁸ For it is not the one who praises himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord praises.

2 Corinthians

11 I hope you will bear with me in a bit of foolishness; indeed, you are already doing so. ² For I am deeply concerned for you with a godly concern; for I have pledged you to one husband, to present you as a pure bride to Christ. ³ But I am afraid that, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds will be led astray from sincere and pure devotion to Christ. ⁴ For if one comes and preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a different gospel which you have not accepted, you tolerate this very well! ⁵ For I do not consider myself in any way inferior to these most eminent apostles. ⁶ But even if I lack skill in speaking, I am not lacking in knowledge; in fact, in every way we have made this clear to you in all things. ⁷ Or did I commit a wrong by lowering myself so that you might be elevated, because I preached the gospel of God to you free of charge? ⁸ I took support from other churches, accepting their aid to serve you; ⁹ And when I was with you and in need, I did not burden anyone; for when the brothers came from Macedonia, they fully supplied my need, and in everything I kept myself from being a burden to you, and will continue to do so. ¹⁰ With the truth of Christ within me, I declare that this boasting of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹ Is it because I do not love you? God knows the depth of my love for you. ¹² But what I am doing I will continue to do, so that I may eliminate the opportunity from those who want an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the matter about which they are boasting. ¹³ For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as apostles of Christ. ¹⁴ No wonder, for even Satan masquerades as an angel of light. ¹⁵ Therefore it is not surprising if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their deeds. ¹⁶ Again I say, let no one think me foolish; but if you do, accept me even as foolish, so that I also may boast a little. ¹⁷ What I am saying, I do not say as the Lord would, but rather in a spirit of foolishness, with this confidence of boasting. ¹⁸ Since many boast according to worldly standards, I will boast also. ¹⁹ For you, being so wise, endure the foolish gladly. ²⁰ For you tolerate it if anyone enslaves you, consumes you, takes advantage of you, exalts himself, or strikes you in the face. ²¹ To my regret, I must admit that we have been weak by comparison. But in whatever respect anyone else is bold—I am speaking in foolishness—I too am bold. ²² Are they Hebrews? I am as well. Are they Israelites? I am as well. Are they descendants of Abraham? I am as well. ²³ Are they servants of Christ?—I speak as if out of my mind—I more so: in far more labours, in far more imprisonments, beaten times without number, often in danger of death. ²⁴ Five times I received from the Jewish authorities the forty lashes minus one. ²⁵ On three occasions I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, and three times I was shipwrecked; I spent a night and a day adrift at sea. ²⁶ I have been on frequent journeys, in dangers from rivers, dangers from robbers, dangers from my own people, dangers from the Gentiles, dangers in the city, dangers in the wilderness, dangers at sea, dangers among false brothers; ²⁷ I have been in labour and hardship, through many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and exposure. ²⁸ Apart from such external matters, there is the daily pressure on me of concern for all the churches. ²⁹ Who is weak without my sharing in that weakness? Who is led into sin without my intense concern? ³⁰ If I must boast, I will boast of all the things that show my weakness. ³¹ The God and Father of our Lord Jesus, who is eternally blessed, knows that I am not lying. ³² In Damascus, the governor under King Aretas was guarding the city of the Damascenes to capture me, ³³ and I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and thus escaped his hands.

12 Though it is not beneficial, I must continue with visions and revelations of the Lord. ² I know of a man in Christ who, fourteen years ago—whether in the body or out of the body, I do not know, only God knows—was caught up to the third heaven. ³ And I know that this man—whether in the body or apart from the body, I do not know, only God knows—⁴ was taken up into Paradise and heard words beyond expression, which no one is allowed to speak. ⁵ On behalf of such a man, I will boast; but on my own behalf, I will not boast, except regarding my weaknesses. ⁶ If I choose to boast, I will not be foolish, for I would be speaking the truth; but I refrain, so that no one will credit me with more than what they see in me or hear from me. ⁷ Because of the extraordinary greatness of the revelations, to prevent me from becoming conceited, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan to torment me—to keep me from becoming conceited! ⁸ Regarding this, I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me. ⁹ And He has said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness.” Most gladly, therefore, I will boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. ¹⁰ Therefore, I take pleasure in weaknesses, in insults, in distresses, in persecutions, in difficulties, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong. ¹¹ I have become foolish; you compelled me. Indeed, I should have been commended by you, since I was in no way inferior to the most eminent apostles, even though I am nothing. ¹² The signs of a true apostle were performed among you with all perseverance, through signs, wonders, and miracles. ¹³ In what way were you treated as inferior to the other churches, except that I myself did not become a burden to you? Please forgive me for this wrong! ¹⁴ For the third time, I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not what is yours, but you. For children are not obligated to save up for their parents, but parents for their children. ¹⁵ I will most gladly spend and be expended for your souls. If I love you more, should I be loved less? ¹⁶ Even so, I did not burden you myself; nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you by trickery. ¹⁷ Surely, I have not taken advantage of you through any of those whom I have sent to you, have I? ¹⁸ I encouraged Titus to visit, and I sent the brother with him. Titus did not take any advantage of you, did he? Did we not conduct ourselves with the same spirit and follow the same path? ¹⁹ All this time, you have been thinking that we are defending ourselves to you. In truth, it is in the sight of God that we have been speaking in Christ; and all for your edification, beloved. ²⁰ For I fear that when I come, I may not find you as I wish, and you may not find me as you wish; that perhaps there will be strife, jealousy, angry tempers, selfishness, slander, gossip, arrogance, disturbances; ²¹ I fear that when I come again, my God may humble me before you, and I may mourn over many of those who have sinned in the past and not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality, and indecent behaviour which they have practiced.

2 Corinthians

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. Every matter is to be confirmed by the testimony of two or three witnesses. ² I previously said when present the second time, and though now absent I say in advance to those who have sinned in the past and to all the rest as well, that if I come again I will not spare anyone, ³ Since you are looking for evidence of Christ speaking through me, who is not weak among you, but powerful within you. ⁴ For indeed He was crucified in weakness, yet He lives by the power of God. We too are weak in Him, yet we will live with Him by the power of God directed toward you. ⁵ Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognise this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you—unless indeed you fail the test? ⁶ But I expect that you will realise that we ourselves do not fail the test. ⁷ Now we pray to God that you do nothing wrong; not so that we appear to have passed the test, but that you may do what is right, even though we may appear to have failed. ⁸ For we are unable to do anything against the truth, we only work for the truth. ⁹ For we rejoice when we ourselves are weak but you are strong; this we also pray for, that you become fully mature. ¹⁰ For this reason I am writing these things while absent, so that when present I need not be severe, in line with the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for tearing down. ¹¹ Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice, aim for restoration, be encouraged, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. ¹² Greet one another warmly with a holy kiss. ¹³ All the believers send their greetings to you. ¹⁴ May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all, evermore.

Galatians

1 Paul, an apostle—not sent from men nor through human means, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead—² and all the brothers with me, To the churches in Galatia: ³ Grace and peace to you from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴ who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, ⁵ to whom be glory for all eternity. Amen. ⁶ I am surprised that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you by the grace of Christ, for a different gospel—⁷ which is not really another gospel; but there are some who are unsettling you and wish to alter the gospel of Christ. ⁸ But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should proclaim a gospel contrary to the one we preached to you, let them be accursed! ⁹ As we have said before, so now I say again: if anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to what you received, let them be accursed! ¹⁰ Am I now seeking the approval of people, or of God? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Christ. ¹¹ I want you to understand, dear friends, that the gospel I proclaimed is not derived from human sources. ¹² I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it; rather, I received it through a revelation from Jesus Christ. ¹³ For you have heard of my former way of life in Judaism, how I intensely persecuted the church of God and tried to destroy it. ¹⁴ I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries among my people, being extremely zealous for the traditions of my ancestors. ¹⁵ But when he who set me apart from my mother's womb and called me by his grace was pleased ¹⁶ to reveal his Son in me so that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with any human being, ¹⁷ nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went into Arabia and later returned to Damascus. ¹⁸ Then after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to get acquainted with Cephas and stayed with him for fifteen days. ¹⁹ I met none of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother. ²⁰ I assure you before God that what I am writing to you is not a lie. ²¹ Afterwards, I travelled to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. ²² I remained unknown by face to the churches of Judea that are in Christ. ²³ They only heard the report: "The man who once persecuted us is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy."

²⁴ And they praised God because of what had happened through me.

2 After fourteen years, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along as well. ² I went up because of a revelation, and I presented to those of high reputation the gospel that I preach among the Gentiles, doing so privately, to ensure that I was not running or had not run in vain. ³ Yet not even Titus, who was with me and is a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. ⁴ This issue arose due to false brothers who had infiltrated our group to spy on the freedom we have in Christ Jesus, intending to bring us into bondage. ⁵ We did not yield to them for even a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with you. ⁶ Regarding those of high esteem—whatever they were makes no difference to me; God does not show partiality—they added nothing to my message. ⁷ Instead, they recognised that I had been given the responsibility of sharing the gospel with the uncircumcised, just as Peter was with the circumcised. ⁸ For the same God who worked through Peter as an apostle to the circumcised was also at work in me for the Gentiles. ⁹ Recognising the grace given to me, James, Cephas, and John, esteemed as pillars, extended the right hand of fellowship to me and Barnabas, agreeing that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised. ¹⁰ They only asked us to remember the poor, which was the very thing I was eager to do. ¹¹ However, when Cephas came to Antioch, I spoke to him openly, for he was clearly in the wrong. ¹² Before certain men came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But when they arrived, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those from the circumcision group. ¹³ The other Jews joined him in this hypocrisy, so much so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. ¹⁴ When I saw they were not acting in accordance with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of them all, "If you, a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you compel Gentiles to follow Jewish customs?" ¹⁵ "We are Jews by birth and not sinful Gentiles;" ¹⁶ yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law, but through faith in Jesus Christ. So we also have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified. ¹⁷ But if, while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves are found to be sinners, is Christ then a promoter of sin? Certainly not! ¹⁸ If I rebuild what I have destroyed, I prove myself to be a transgressor. ¹⁹ For by the law, I have died to the law, so that I might live for God. ²⁰ I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. ²¹ I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness could be gained through the law, then Christ died for no purpose.

Galatians

3 You senseless Galatians! Who has cast a spell on you? Before your eyes, Jesus Christ was vividly depicted as crucified. ² I would like to ask you only this: Did you receive the Spirit by observing the law, or by hearing with faith? ³ Are you so senseless? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now seeking completion by the flesh? ⁴ Have you undergone so much for nothing—if indeed it was for nothing? ⁵ So then, does He who supplies you with the Spirit and performs miracles among you do so by the works of the law, or by hearing with faith? ⁶ Just as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness. ⁷ Therefore, understand that those who are of faith are the children of Abraham. ⁸ Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, and proclaimed the gospel beforehand to Abraham: “All nations will be blessed through you.” ⁹ So then, those who have faith are blessed along with Abraham, who was a man of faith. ¹⁰ For all who rely on the works of the law are under a curse, as it is written: “Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things written in the Book of the Law, to do them.” ¹¹ It is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for “the righteous will live by faith.” ¹² The law is not of faith; rather, “The one who does them will live by them.” ¹³ Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree.” ¹⁴ He redeemed us so that the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles through Christ Jesus, so that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. ¹⁵ Brothers and sisters, I speak in human terms: even a human covenant, once ratified, cannot be set aside or added to. ¹⁶ The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. Scripture does not say “and to seeds,” meaning many, but “and to your seed,” meaning one, who is Christ. ¹⁷ What I am saying is this: the law, which came 430 years later, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to nullify the promise. ¹⁸ For if the inheritance is based on the law, it is no longer based on a promise; but God granted it to Abraham through a promise. ¹⁹ Why then was the law given? It was added because of transgressions, until the Seed to whom the promise was made would come, having been ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. ²⁰ Now a mediator implies more than one party, but God is one. ²¹ Is the law then contrary to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could impart life, then righteousness would indeed be based on law. ²² But Scripture has confined everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. ²³ Before this faith came, we were held in custody under the law, locked up until the faith that was to come would be revealed. ²⁴ Thus the law was our guardian until Christ came, that we might be justified by faith. ²⁵ But now that faith has arrived, we are no longer under a guardian. ²⁶ For you are all children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. ²⁷ For all of you who were baptised into Christ have embraced Christ. ²⁸ There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹ And if you are in Christ, then you are Abraham's seed, heirs according to the promise.

4 Now I say that as long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, even though he is the owner of everything. ² He is under guardians and trustees until the time appointed by his father. ³ In the same way, we also, when we were children, were in bondage under the basic principles of the world. ⁴ But when the time had fully come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, ⁵ to redeem those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons and daughters. ⁶ Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, “Abba, Father!” ⁷ Therefore, you are no longer a slave, but a child; and if a child, then an heir through God. ⁸ Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those who by nature are not gods. ⁹ But now that you know God, or rather are known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless principles? Do you wish to be enslaved by them once more? ¹⁰ You are meticulously observing particular days, months, seasons, and years. ¹¹ I am afraid for you, that perhaps I have laboured over you in vain. ¹² I entreat you, brothers and sisters, become like me, for I became like you. You have done me no wrong.¹³ You know that it was due to an illness that I first preached the gospel to you.¹⁴ Even though my condition was a trial to you, you did not despise or reject me, but you received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus himself.¹⁵ Where then is your sense of blessing? I testify that, if you could have done so, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me.¹⁶ Have I become your adversary by speaking the truth to you?¹⁷ They are zealous to win you over, but not for good. They want to isolate you, so that you may be zealous for them.¹⁸ It is good to be zealous, provided the purpose is good, and to be so always, not just when I am with you.¹⁹ My beloved children, for whom I am again in the pains of childbirth until Christ is formed in you,²⁰ how I wish I could be present with you now and change my tone, for I am perplexed about you.²¹ Tell me, you who want to be under the law, do you not hear the law?²² For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the servant woman and one by the free woman.²³ The son of the servant woman was born according to the flesh, but the son of the free woman was born through the promise.²⁴ These things are an allegory: the women represent two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar.²⁵ Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.²⁶ But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our spiritual mother.²⁷ For it is written:

Galatians

"Rejoice, barren woman, you who do not bear; break forth and shout, you who are not in labour; for more are the children of the desolate than of her who has a husband."

²⁸ Now you, brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children of the promise.²⁹ But just as then, the child born according to the flesh persecuted the one born according to the Spirit, so it is now.³⁰ But what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the servant woman and her son, for the son of the servant woman shall not share the inheritance with the son of the free woman."³¹ So then, brothers and sisters, we are not children of the servant woman, but of the free woman.

5 It is for freedom that Christ has set us free; therefore, stand firm and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.² Listen! I, Paul, say to you that if you choose to be circumcised, Christ will be of no advantage to you.³ And I repeat to every man who allows himself to be circumcised that he is required to keep the whole law.⁴ You who are seeking to be justified by the law have been cut off from Christ; you have fallen from grace.⁵ For through the Spirit, by faith, we eagerly await the hope of righteousness.⁶ In Christ Jesus, neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any significance. What matters is faith expressing itself through love.⁷ You were progressing well. Who hindered you from following the truth?⁸ This influence does not come from the one who calls you.⁹ A small amount of yeast affects the whole batch of dough.¹⁰ I have confidence in the Lord that you will not adopt any other view. But the one who is causing you confusion will bear the penalty, whoever he is.¹¹ Brothers and sisters, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case, the offence of the cross has been removed.¹² I wish those who are unsettling you would even go so far as to emasculate themselves!¹³ You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. However, do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; instead, serve one another in love.¹⁴ For the entire law is fulfilled in one command: "Love your neighbour as yourself."¹⁵ If you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another.¹⁶ So I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not fulfil the desires of the flesh.¹⁷ For the flesh desires what is against the Spirit, and the Spirit what is against the flesh; they are in opposition to each other, so that you are not to do whatever you wish.¹⁸ Yet if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.¹⁹ The deeds of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, and debauchery;²⁰ idolatry, witchcraft, enmities, strife, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions,²¹ envy, drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I have before, that those who engage in such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.²² For the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,²³ gentleness, and self-control. Against these things, there is no law.²⁴ Those who belong to Christ Jesus have put to death the flesh with its passions and desires.²⁵ Since we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit. ²⁶ Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying one another.

Galatians

6 Brothers and sisters, if anyone is caught in any wrongdoing, you who are guided by the Spirit should restore that person with a spirit of gentleness. But be careful, lest you too be tempted. ² Help carry each other's burdens, and in doing so, you will fulfill the law of Christ. ³ If anyone thinks they are something when they are nothing, they are deceiving themselves. ⁴ Each person should examine their own actions, and then they can take pride in themselves alone, without comparing themselves to others. ⁵ For each one must carry their own load. ⁶ The one who receives instruction in the word should share all good things with their instructor. ⁷ Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a person sows, that they will also reap. ⁸ For the one who sows to please their own flesh will reap destruction from the flesh, but the one who sows to please the Spirit will reap eternal life from the Spirit.

⁹ Let us not grow weary in doing good, for at the right time, we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. ¹⁰ Therefore, as we have the opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the household of faith. ¹¹ Notice the large letters I use as I write to you with my own hand! ¹² Those who want to make a good impression in the flesh are trying to compel you to be circumcised, only to avoid persecution for the cross of Christ. ¹³ For even those who are circumcised do not keep the law themselves, yet they want you to be circumcised so they can boast about your flesh. ¹⁴ However, I will never take pride in anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵ For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything; what matters is a new creation. ¹⁶ Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, and upon the Israel of God. ¹⁷ Henceforth, let no one trouble me, for I carry on my body the marks of Jesus. ¹⁸ May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, dear friends. Amen.

Ephesians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints in Ephesus, who are faithful in Christ Jesus: ² Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ. ³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms in Christ, ⁴ just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless in His sight. In love ⁵ He predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ, according to the pleasure of His will, ⁶ to the praise of the glory of His grace, which He has freely given us in the Beloved. ⁷ Through Him, we have redemption by His sacrifice, the forgiveness of sins, in line with the riches of His grace ⁸ which He lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight, ⁹ He revealed to us the mystery of His will, as it pleased Him, which He intended in Christ, ¹⁰ to be put into effect when the times reach their fulfillment—to bring unity to all things in heaven and on earth under Christ. ¹¹ In Him we have also obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things in accordance with the plan of His will, ¹² so that we, who were the first to place our hope in Christ, might be to the praise of His glory. ¹³ In Him, you also, when you heard the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and believed, you were sealed in Him with the promised Holy Spirit, ¹⁴ who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession, to the praise of His glory. ¹⁵ For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, ¹⁶ I have not ceased giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers. ¹⁷ I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know Him better. ¹⁸ I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you may know the hope to which He has called you, the riches of His glorious inheritance in His holy people, ¹⁹ and His exceedingly great power for us who believe. That power is the same as the mighty strength ²⁰ He exerted when He raised Christ from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹ far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every name that is invoked, not only in this age but also in the one to come. ²² And He placed all things under His feet and appointed Him to be head over everything for the church, ²³ which is His body, the completeness of Him who fills all in every way.

2 And you were spiritually lifeless in your transgressions and sins, ² in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the children of disobedience. ³ Among them we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. ⁴ Yet God, who is abundant in mercy, due to His great love for us, ⁵ even when we were spiritually lifeless in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ—by grace you have been saved— ⁶ and raised us up with Him and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, ⁷ so that in the ages to come He might display the immeasurable riches of His grace, expressed in His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. ⁸ For it is by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from yourselves; it is the gift of God— ⁹ not as a result of works, so that no one can boast. ¹⁰ For we are His craftsmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do. ¹¹ Therefore, remember that formerly you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called “the uncircumcised” by those who call themselves “the circumcised” (which is done in the body by human hands)— ¹² remember that you were at that time distanced from Christ, excluded from the commonwealth of Israel, and unfamiliar with the covenants of promise, without hope and without God in the world. ¹³ But now, through Christ Jesus, you who once were far away have been brought near by His blood as a sacrifice. ¹⁴ For He Himself is our peace, who has united us and has removed the barrier of hostility through His sacrifice, ¹⁵ by setting aside the law of commandments contained in regulations, that He might create in Himself one new humanity out of the two, thus establishing peace, ¹⁶ and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby putting an end to the hostility. ¹⁷ And He came and proclaimed peace to you who were distant and peace to those who were near. ¹⁸ For through Him we know we both have access to the Father by one Spirit. ¹⁹ Consequently, you are no longer outsiders and aliens, but are fellow citizens with the saints and members of God's household, ²⁰ established upon the foundation laid by the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus Himself as the cornerstone, ²¹ in whom the whole building, being joined together, rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. ²² In Him you also are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by His Spirit.

Ephesians

3 Because of this, I, Paul, who am held captive for Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles— ²

Surely you have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for you; ³ that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I have written briefly before. ⁴ In reading this, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, ⁵ which was not made known to people in past generations as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to His holy apostles and prophets. ⁶ This mystery is that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. ⁷ I became a minister of this gospel by the gift of God's grace given to me through the working of His power. ⁸ To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given: to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, ⁹ and to make plain to everyone the administration of this mystery, which for ages past was hidden in God, who created all things. ¹⁰ His purpose was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God would be revealed to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms, ¹¹ in accordance with the eternal purpose that He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. ¹² In Him and through faith in Him we may approach God with boldness and confidence. ¹³ Therefore I ask you not to be discouraged because of my sufferings for you, which are your glory. ¹⁴ Because of this, I kneel before the Father, ¹⁵ from whom every family in heaven and on earth gets their name, ¹⁶ I pray that from His glorious riches He may empower you with strength through His Spirit in your inner being, ¹⁷ so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; and I pray that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸ may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, ¹⁹ and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. ²⁰ Now to Him who is able to accomplish far more than all we ask or imagine, according to His power that is at work within us, ²¹ to Him be honour in the church and in Christ Jesus across all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.

4 As a prisoner of the Lord, I urge you to conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the calling you have received, ² with complete humility and gentleness, with patience, supporting one another in love. ³ Make every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. ⁴ There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to a single hope at the time of your calling; ⁵ one Lord, one faith, and one baptism; ⁶ one God and Father of all, who reigns over all, works through all, and is in all. ⁷ But to each one of us grace has been given according to the measure of Christ's gift. ⁸ Therefore it says:

"When he ascended on high, he led captives in his train and gave gifts to people."

⁹ (Now this, "he ascended," what does it mean but that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions? ¹⁰ He who descended is the very one who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things.) ¹¹ And he gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, ¹² to prepare God's people for service, for the strengthening of the body of Christ, ¹³ until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature adulthood, to the full measure of the stature of Christ. ¹⁴ Then we will no longer be children, tossed to and fro by waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by craftiness in deceitful scheming. ¹⁵ Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the head, that is, Christ. ¹⁶ From him the entire body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part fulfills its role. ¹⁷ So I say this, and affirm in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking. ¹⁸ They are darkened in their understanding and alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to the hardness of their hearts. ¹⁹ Having lost all sensitivity, they have given themselves over to sensuality, to indulge in every kind of impurity with greediness. ²⁰ But this is not the way you came to know Christ, ²¹ if indeed you heard him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus. ²² You were instructed, concerning your former way of life, to discard your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires;²³ to be renewed in the attitude of your minds;²⁴ and to embrace the new self, fashioned to reflect God's true righteousness and holiness.²⁵ Therefore, putting away falsehood, let each of you speak truthfully with his neighbour, for we are all members of one another.²⁶ "In your anger, do not sin": Do not let the sun set while you are still angry,²⁷ and do not allow the devil a foothold.²⁸ Anyone who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must labour, doing something useful with their own hands, so that they may have something to share with those in need.²⁹ Let no unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen.³⁰ And do not cause sorrow to the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.³¹ Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamour, and slander be put away from you, along with all malice.³² Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ forgave you.

Ephesians

5 Be imitators of God, therefore, as dearly loved children;² and walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved you and gave Himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.³ But among you there must not be even a hint of sexual immorality, or any kind of impurity, or greed, as is proper among God's holy people;⁴ nor should there be any obscenity, foolish talk, or coarse joking, which are out of place, but rather thanksgiving.⁵ For of this you can be certain: no immoral, impure, or greedy person—such a person is an idolater—has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.⁶ Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of such things the wrath of God comes upon the disobedient.⁷ Therefore, avoid being partners with them;⁸ for you were once in darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light,⁹ (for the fruit of the light is found in all that is good, righteous, and true),¹⁰ and try to learn what pleases the Lord.¹¹ Do not engage in the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them;¹² for it is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret.¹³ But everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that is illuminated becomes a light.¹⁴ This is why it is said:

"Wake up, you who are sleeping, And arise from the dead, for the light of Christ will shine on you."

¹⁵ Be very careful, then, how you live—acting wisely,¹⁶ making the most of every opportunity, because the times are challenging.¹⁷ Therefore, do not be foolish, but seek to understand what the Lord's will is.¹⁸ Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit,¹⁹ speaking to one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making music from your heart to the Lord,²⁰ always expressing gratitude to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.²¹ Show mutual submission out of reverence for Christ.²² Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord.²³ For the husband is the leader of the wife as Christ is the leader of the church, his body, of which He is the Saviour.²⁴ Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit to their husbands in all things.²⁵ Husbands, cherish your wives, just as Christ cherished the church and offered Himself for her,²⁶ to sanctify her, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word,²⁷ and to present her to Himself as a glorious church, free from stain, wrinkle, or any other blemish, but holy and blameless.²⁸ In this same way, husbands should love their wives as they love their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.²⁹ After all, no one ever hated their own body, but they feed and care for it, just as Christ does the church—³⁰ for we are parts of His body.³¹ "For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united with his wife, and the two will become one flesh."³² This is a profound mystery—but I am referring to Christ and the church.³³ However, each one of you must also love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

6 Children, obey your parents as is fitting in the Lord, for this is the right thing to do.² "Honour your father and mother"—this is the first commandment accompanied by a promise—³ "so that it may go well with you, and that you may have a long life on the earth."⁴ Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger; instead, raise them with the training and instruction of the Lord.⁵ Slaves, obey your earthly masters with respect and trembling, and with sincerity of heart, as you would obey Christ.⁶ Do this not only to win their favour when they are watching, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of

Ephesians

God from your heart. ⁷ Serve with goodwill, as if you were serving the Lord and not people, ⁸ knowing that any good anyone does will be rewarded by the Lord, whether they are slave or free. ⁹ And masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Refrain from threatening, knowing that both their Master and yours is in heaven, and He shows no partiality. ¹⁰ Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of His mighty power. ¹¹ Put on the full armour of God, so that you can stand firm against the devil's schemes. ¹² For our struggle is not against mere human opponents, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world, and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. ¹³ Therefore, take up the full armour of God, so that you may be able to resist on the evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. ¹⁴ Stand firm then, with the belt of truth fastened around your waist, and the breastplate of righteousness in place, ¹⁵ and with your feet prepared with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. ¹⁶ Besides all this, hold up the shield of faith, which enables you to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. ¹⁷ Receive the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. ¹⁸ Pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints. ¹⁹ Pray also for me, that whenever I speak, words may be given to me so that I will boldly make known the mystery of the gospel, ²⁰ for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak. ²¹ Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will inform you of everything, so that you may know about my circumstances and what I am doing. ²² I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know about us, and that he may comfort your hearts. ²³ May peace be with the brothers and sisters, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴ Grace be with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love.

Philippians

1 Paul and Timothy, bond-servants of Christ Jesus, To all God's holy people in Christ Jesus at Philippi, together with the overseers and deacons: ² May you receive grace and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³ I thank my God every time I think of you in prayer, ⁴ always offering prayer with joy in my every prayer for all of you, ⁵ due to your partnership in the gospel from the very first day until now, ⁶ being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion by the day of Christ Jesus. ⁷ It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart, whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me. ⁸ For God knows how much I long for all of you with the deep affection of Christ Jesus. ⁹ And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in real knowledge and depth of insight, ¹⁰ so that you may be able to discern what is truly important and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, ¹¹ filled with the harvest of righteousness through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. ¹² Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that my circumstances have actually served to advance the gospel. ¹³ As a result, it has become evident throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else that I am in chains for the cause of Christ. ¹⁴ And because of my chains, most of the brothers and sisters have become confident in the Lord and dare all the more to proclaim the word of God without fear. ¹⁵ Some indeed preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill. ¹⁶ The latter do so out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defence of the gospel. ¹⁷ The former preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing they can stir up trouble for me while I am in chains. ¹⁸ But what does it matter? The important thing is that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is proclaimed. And because of this I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice, ¹⁹ for I know that through your prayers and the provision of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, what has happened to me will turn out for my deliverance. ²⁰ I eagerly expect and hope that I will never be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be honoured in my body, whether by life or by death. ²¹ For to me, to live is Christ, and death is gain. ²² If I am to go on living in the flesh, this will mean fruitful labour for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know! ²³ I am caught between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better; ²⁴ but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the flesh. ²⁵ Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, ²⁶ so that through my being with you again your pride in Christ Jesus will abound on account of me. ²⁷ Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in one spirit, striving together as one for the faith of the gospel ²⁸ without being intimidated in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will face destruction, but that you will be saved—and that by God. ²⁹ For it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in Him, but also to endure hardships for Him, ³⁰ since you are experiencing the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear that I still have.

2 Therefore if there is any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship in the Spirit, if any affection and compassion, ² make my joy complete by being of one mind, sharing the same love, united in spirit, and focused on a single purpose. ³ Do nothing out of selfish ambition or empty conceit. Instead, in humility value others as more important than yourselves; ⁴ do not merely look out for your own interests, but also for the interests of others. ⁵ Have the same mindset among yourselves as was in Christ Jesus:

⁶ Who, existing in the form of God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped for his own advantage; ⁷ but emptied himself by taking the form of a servant, being made in human likeness. ⁸ And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. ⁹ Therefore God highly exalted him, and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, ¹⁰ so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in the heavenly realms, on earth, and beneath the earth, ¹¹ and every tongue should declare that Jesus Christ is Lord, bringing glory to God the Father.

¹² So then, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence but now much more in my absence, continue to work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; ¹³ for it is God who is at work in you, both to will and to act in order to fulfil his good purpose. ¹⁴ Do everything without complaining or grumbling, ¹⁵ so that you may become blameless and pure, as God's children without fault in a distorted and perverse generation. Then you will shine among them like stars in the sky, ¹⁶ as you hold firmly to the word of life. And then I will be able to take pride on the day of Christ that I did not run or labour in vain. ¹⁷ But even if I am being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you. ¹⁸ In the same way, you too should be glad and rejoice with me. ¹⁹ But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I also may be encouraged when I learn of your condition. ²⁰ For I have no one else of kindred spirit who will genuinely care for your welfare. ²¹ For they all pursue their own interests, rather than those of Christ Jesus. ²² But you know of his proven character, that he served with me in the work of the gospel like a son with his father. ²³ Therefore I hope to send him promptly, as soon as I see how things go with me; ²⁴ and I am confident in the Lord that I myself will also come soon. ²⁵ But I thought it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, co-worker and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger and minister to my needs, ²⁶ because he longs for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill. ²⁷ For indeed he was ill, and almost died. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸ Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may rejoice and I may have less anxiety. ²⁹ Welcome him then in the Lord with all joy, and hold people like him in high regard, ³⁰ because he came close to death for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up for the help you could not give me.

Philippians

3 Finally, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord! Writing the same things to you again is no trouble for me, and it is a safeguard for you. ²

Beware of those dogs, those evildoers, those who mutilate the flesh. ³ For we are the true circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God, who boast in Christ Jesus, and who put no confidence in the flesh— ⁴ though I myself have reasons for confidence in the flesh. If anyone else thinks they have reasons to be confident in the flesh, I have more: ⁵ circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; regarding the law, a Pharisee; ⁶ regarding zeal, persecuting the church; regarding righteousness based on the law, faultless. ⁷ Yet, whatever advantages I had, I now regard as loss for the sake of Christ. ⁸ Indeed, I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ ⁹ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own derived from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God based on faith. ¹⁰ I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, ¹¹ and so, in some way, attaining to the resurrection from the dead. ¹² Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. ¹³ Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and striving towards what is ahead, ¹⁴ I press on towards the goal to win the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵ All of us, then, who are mature should take such a view of things. And if you think differently about anything, that too God will make clear to you. ¹⁶ Let us continue to live up to what we have already attained. ¹⁷ Join together in following my example, brothers and sisters, and observe those who live according to the pattern you have in us. ¹⁸ For, as I have often told you before and now tell you even with tears, many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. ¹⁹ Their end is destruction, their god is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. Their mind is set on earthly things. ²⁰ However, our true home is in heaven, and we eagerly anticipate the coming of a Saviour from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹ who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies to be like his glorious body.

4 Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this manner, my beloved friends. ² I encourage Euodia and Syntyche to find harmony in the Lord. ³ Yes, I ask you, my true companion, to help these women who have struggled alongside me in the cause of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. ⁴ Always find joy in the Lord. I will repeat: Be joyful! ⁵ Let your gentle spirit be evident to everyone. The Lord is near. ⁶ Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which is beyond all understanding, will protect your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. ⁸ Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable—if anything is excellent or worthy of praise—think about these things. ⁹ Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me, put these into practice. And the God of peace will be with you. ¹⁰ I greatly rejoiced in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you were concerned, but you lacked the opportunity to show it. ¹¹ I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I find myself. ¹² I know what it is to live in humble means, and I know what it is to live in abundance. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well-fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. ¹³ I can do all things through Him who gives me strength. ¹⁴ Yet it was kind of you to share in my troubles. ¹⁵ Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you alone. ¹⁶ For even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid more than once for my needs. ¹⁷ Not that I seek the gift itself, but I seek the profit that increases to your account. ¹⁸ I have received full payment and have more than enough. I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. ¹⁹ And my God will give you all you need out of His glorious riches in Christ Jesus. ²⁰ Glory be to our God and Father for ever and ever. Amen. ²¹ Greet all the saints in Christ Jesus. The brothers and sisters who are with me send their greetings. ²² All the saints send you greetings, especially those from Caesar's household. ²³ May the gracious favour of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Philippians

Colossians

1 Paul, a messenger of Christ Jesus through God's will, along with Timothy our brother, ² To the holy and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ at Colossae: Grace and peace to you from God our Father. ³ We continually express our gratitude to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, whenever we pray for you, ⁴ since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love you have for all the saints— ⁵ because of the hope reserved for you in heaven, which you have already heard about in the true message of the gospel ⁶ that has come to you. In the same way, the gospel is bearing fruit and growing throughout the whole world, just as it has been doing among you since the day you heard it and truly understood God's grace. ⁷ You received it from Epaphras, our dear fellow servant, who faithfully serves Christ on our behalf, ⁸ and who also informed us of your love in the Spirit. ⁹ For this reason, since the day we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you and asking God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding, ¹⁰ so that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God; ¹¹ being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that you may have great endurance and patience, joyously ¹² giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the kingdom of light. ¹³ For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, ¹⁴ in whom we have redemption and forgiveness. ¹⁵ The Son reflects the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶ For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷ He existed before all things, and by him all things are held together. ¹⁸ And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from the dead, so that he might have supremacy in everything. ¹⁹ For it was the Father's good pleasure for all his fullness to dwell in him, ²⁰ and through him to bring all things into harmony with himself, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by establishing peace through his blood, shed on the cross. ²¹ Once you were alienated from God and hostile in your minds, engaged in evil deeds, ²² but now he has reconciled you through Christ's physical body by his death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation— ²³ if you continue in your faith, established and firm, and do not shift from the hope offered by the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant. ²⁴ Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions, for the sake of his body, which is the church. ²⁵ I have become its servant by the task God assigned to me to present to you the word of God in its fullness— ²⁶ the mystery that has been hidden for ages and generations, but is now revealed to the Lord's people. ²⁷ To them, God has chosen to reveal among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ within you, the hope of glory. ²⁸ He is the one we proclaim, warning and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone fully mature in Christ. ²⁹ To this end I labour, striving with all the energy Christ so powerfully works in me.

2 I want you to understand how great a struggle I have for you and for those at Laodicea, and for all who have not seen me face to face. ² My aim is that their hearts may be encouraged, being united in love, and that they may reach all the wealth that comes from the full assurance of understanding, leading to a true knowledge of God's mystery, which is Christ Himself, ³ in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are concealed. ⁴ I say this so that no one may deceive you with persuasive arguments. ⁵ For although I am absent in body, I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your orderly conduct and the firmness of your faith in Christ. ⁶ Therefore, as you have received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to walk in Him, ⁷ being rooted and built up in Him, and established in the faith as you were taught, overflowing with gratitude. ⁸ See to it that no one takes you captive through empty and deceptive philosophy, which is based on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces of the world, rather than on Christ. ⁹ For in Him all the fullness of the divine nature lives in bodily form, ¹⁰ and in Him you have been made complete. He is the head over every ruler and authority. ¹¹ In Him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not performed by human hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, ¹² having been buried with Him in baptism, in which you were also raised with Him through faith in the powerful work of God, who raised Him from the dead. ¹³ And when you were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with Him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, ¹⁴ having cancelled the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This He set aside, nailing it to the cross. ¹⁵ He disarmed the rulers and authorities and made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross. ¹⁶ Therefore, let no one judge you in matters of food and drink, or with respect to a festival, a new moon, or a Sabbath day. ¹⁷ These are a shadow of future things, but the reality is found in Christ. ¹⁸ Let no one disqualify you, insisting on false humility and the worship of angels, dwelling on visions, puffed up without reason by their unspiritual mind, ¹⁹ and not holding fast to the head, from whom the whole body, nourished and held together by its joints and ligaments, grows with a growth that is from God. ²⁰ If you have died with Christ to the things of this world, why act as if you were still living in the world by submitting to its regulations? ²¹ "You must not handle, you must not taste, you must not touch!"? ²² These are concerning things destined to perish, and are based on human commands and teachings. ²³ These indeed have an appearance of wisdom in self-imposed religion, false humility, and severe treatment of the body, but they are of no value in curbing sensual indulgence.

Colossians

3 If, then, you have been raised with Christ, seek the things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. ² Set your minds on the things above, not on earthly matters. ³ For you have died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. ⁴ When Christ, who is your life, appears, you too will appear with him in glory. ⁵ Therefore, consider the parts of your earthly nature as dead to sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desires, and greed, which is idolatry. ⁶ Because of these, the wrath of God is approaching those who are disobedient. ⁷ You once walked in these ways, in the life you used to live. ⁸ But now you must also rid yourselves of all such things: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene language from your lips. ⁹ Do not lie to one another, since you have taken off the old self with its practices ¹⁰ and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its Creator. ¹¹ Here there is no distinction between Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and in all. ¹² As God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. ¹³ Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a complaint against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. ¹⁴ And above all these virtues, embrace love, which unites them all in perfect harmony. ¹⁵ Let the peace of Christ govern your hearts, for as members of one body you were called to peace. And cultivate thankfulness. ¹⁶ Let the word of Christ dwell among you richly, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with gratitude in your hearts to God. ¹⁷ Whatever you do, in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. ¹⁸ Wives, align with your husbands, as is appropriate in the Lord. ¹⁹ Husbands, love your wives and do not be mean to them. ²⁰ Children, listen to your parents in everything, as this is pleasing to the Lord. ²¹ Fathers, do not provoke your children, or they may become discouraged. ²² Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything, not only when their eye is on you and to curry their favour, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. ²³ In whatever you do, apply yourself wholeheartedly, as if working for the Lord, not merely for human supervisors, ²⁴ knowing that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving. ²⁵ Anyone who does wrong will be repaid for their wrongs, and there is no partiality.

4 Masters, provide your slaves with justice and fairness, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven. ² Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful with an attitude of thankfulness. ³ And pray for us too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may declare the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in chains. ⁴ Pray that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak. ⁵ Be wise in your conduct toward outsiders, making the most of every opportunity. ⁶ Let your conversation always be full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to respond to each person. ⁷ Tychicus, our dear brother and faithful minister and fellow servant in the Lord, will inform you about all my affairs. ⁸ I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that you may know about our circumstances and that he may encourage your hearts. ⁹ With him is Onesimus, our faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will inform you about everything happening here. ¹⁰ Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, sends you his greetings, as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. (You have received instructions about him; if he comes to you, welcome him.) ¹¹ Jesus, who is called Justus, also sends greetings. These are the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God from the circumcision, and they have been a comfort to me. ¹² Epaphras, who is one of you and a servant of Christ Jesus, sends greetings. He is always wrestling in prayer for you, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God. ¹³ I testify for him that he has a deep concern for you and for those in Laodicea and Hierapolis. ¹⁴ Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas send greetings. ¹⁵ Extend my greetings to the brothers and sisters at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church that meets in her house. ¹⁶ After this letter has been read among you, ensure it is also read in the church of the Laodiceans and that you in turn read the letter from Laodicea. ¹⁷ Encourage Archippus to fulfill the ministry he has received in the Lord. ¹⁸ I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand. Remember my imprisonment. Grace be with you.

Colossians

1 Thessalonians

1 From Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians who are in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be yours. ² We continually express our gratitude to God for all of you, remembering you in our prayers; ³ constantly keeping in mind your work of faith, labour of love, and perseverance of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the presence of our God and Father, ⁴ being aware, dear brothers and sisters loved by God, of His selection of you; ⁵ for our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction—just as you know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake. ⁶ You became followers of us and of the Lord, having embraced the word amidst great affliction with the joy of the Holy Spirit, ⁷ so that you served as a model to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. ⁸ For the word of the Lord has echoed from you, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to say anything. ⁹ For they themselves recount to us the kind of welcome we received from you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, ¹⁰ and to await His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead—Jesus, who delivers us from the impending wrath.

2 For you yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our reception among you was not without result. ² But after we had already faced suffering and mistreatment in Philippi, as you know, we found courage in our God to share with you the gospel of God despite much opposition. ³ For our exhortation does not arise from error or impurity or through deceit; ⁴ but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not aiming to please people, but to please God, who examines our hearts. ⁵ For we never came with flattering speech, as you know, nor with a motive for greed—God is our witness— ⁶ nor did we seek honour from people, either from you or from others, though we could have asserted our authority as apostles of Christ. ⁷ But we showed ourselves to be gentle among you. As a nursing mother tenderly cares for her own children, ⁸ in the same way we had a deep affection for you and were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God, but also our own lives, because you had become very dear to us. ⁹ For you recall, brothers and sisters, our labour and hardship: it was by working night and day so as not to be a burden to any of you, that we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. ¹⁰ You are witnesses, and so is God, of how devoutly and rightly and blamelessly we conducted ourselves toward you believers; ¹¹ as you are aware, we encouraged, comforted, and urged each of you, like a father with his own children, ¹² so that you would live in a manner worthy of the God who calls you into His own kingdom and glory. ¹³ For this reason we also constantly thank God that when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of mere men, but as what it truly is, the word of God, which also is at work in you who believe. ¹⁴ For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, for you also endured the same sufferings at the hands of your own countrymen, just as they did from the Jews, ¹⁵ who both killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out. They are not pleasing to God, but are hostile to all people, ¹⁶ hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved; with the result that they always reach the limit of their sins. The wrath has come upon them fully. ¹⁷ But we, brothers and sisters, having been separated from you for a short while—in person, not in spirit—were all the more eager with great desire to see your face. ¹⁸ For we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, more than once—and yet Satan obstructed us. ¹⁹ For who is our hope, or joy, or crown of pride? Is it not indeed you, in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His coming? ²⁰ For you are indeed our pride and joy.

3 Therefore, when we could no longer endure it, we decided to be left behind alone in Athens, ² and we sent Timothy, our brother and co-worker in spreading the gospel of Christ, to support and uplift you in your faith, ³ so that no one would be unsettled by these troubles; for you yourselves know that we were meant for this. ⁴ For even when we were with you, we kept forewarning you that we were going to face hardship; and it came to pass, as you know. ⁵ For this reason, when I could no longer endure it, I also sent to find out about your faith, for fear that the tempter might have tempted you, and our labour would be in vain. ⁶ But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has brought us good news of your faith and love, and that you always think kindly of us, desiring to see us just as we also long to see you, ⁷ for that reason, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and affliction we were comforted about you through your faith; ⁸ for now we truly live, if you remain steadfast in the Lord. ⁹ For what thanks can we give to God for you in return for all the joy with which we rejoice before our God because of you, ¹⁰ as we keep praying most earnestly night and day, that we may see you face to face and may supply what is lacking in your faith? ¹¹ Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus, guide our way to you; ¹² and may the Lord cause you to grow and abound in love for one another, and for all people, just as we also do for you; ¹³ so that He may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His holy ones.

1 Thessalonians

4 Finally then, brothers and sisters, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received instruction from us as to how you ought to walk and please God (just as you actually do walk), that you excel even more. ² For you are aware of the instruction we provided you through the authority of the Lord Jesus. ³ For this is God's desire for you, your sanctification: that you refrain from sexual immorality; ⁴ that each of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honour, ⁵ not in passionate desires, like those who do not know God; ⁶ and that no one wrong or exploit their brother or sister in this matter, because the Lord is the one who brings justice in all these things, just as we also told you previously and solemnly warned you. ⁷ For God has not called us to impurity, but to live a holy life. ⁸ Therefore, the one who rejects this is not rejecting man, but God, who gives His Holy Spirit to you. ⁹ Now concerning the love for one another, you have no need for anyone to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love each other; ¹⁰ for you indeed show this love to all the brothers and sisters throughout Macedonia. Yet we encourage you, brothers and sisters, to excel even more, ¹¹ and to aspire to lead a quiet life, mind your own affairs, and work with your hands, just as we instructed you, ¹² so that you will conduct yourselves properly toward outsiders and not be dependent on anyone. ¹³ But we do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have passed away, so that you will not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so also God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. ¹⁵ For we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will not precede those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ After that, we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and thus we will always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ So therefore, encourage one another with these words.

5 Now concerning the times and seasons, dear friends, you have no need for anything to be written to you. ² For you are well aware that the day of the Lord will arrive unexpectedly, like a thief in the night. ³ While they are saying, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction will come upon them like labour pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. ⁴ But you, dear friends, are not in darkness, so that the day would surprise you like a thief; ⁵ for you are all children of light and children of the day. We do not belong to the night or to darkness; ⁶ Therefore, let us not be like others, who are asleep, but let us remain alert and clear-minded. ⁷ For those who sleep, do so at night, and those who become drunk, do so at night. ⁸ But as we belong to the day, let us remain clear-minded, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. ⁹ For God has not appointed us to suffer wrath, but to receive salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰ who died for us, so that whether we are alert or at rest, we may live together with Him. ¹¹ Therefore, encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing. ¹² But we ask you, dear friends, to acknowledge those who work hard among you, who care for you in the Lord, and who instruct you, ¹³ and to hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other. ¹⁴ We urge you, dear friends, warn those who are idle and disruptive, encourage the disheartened, help the weak, be patient with everyone. ¹⁵ Ensure that nobody repays wrong for wrong, but always strive to do what is good for each other and for everyone else. ¹⁶ Rejoice continually, ¹⁷ continually stay in prayer, ¹⁸ express gratitude in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. ¹⁹ Do not attempt to extinguish the Spirit, ²⁰ do not contemptuously disregard prophecies. ²¹ Instead, examine them all; hold on to what is good, ²² reject every form of evil.

1 Thessalonians

²³ Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely; and may your whole spirit, soul, and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴ The One who calls you is faithful, and He will surely do it. ²⁵ Dear friends, pray for us. ²⁶

Extend a warm greeting to all the brothers and sisters. ²⁷ I urge you before the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers and sisters. ²⁸ Let the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

2 Thessalonians

1 From Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians, of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: ² May you receive grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³ We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is fitting, because your faith is increasing abundantly, and the love of each and every one of you toward one another grows ever greater. ⁴ Thus, we speak highly of you among the churches of God for your perseverance and faith during all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure. ⁵ This clearly shows God's righteous judgment, so that you may be deemed worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering. ⁶ For it is just for God to bring affliction upon those who trouble you, ⁷ and to give relief to you who are afflicted, along with us, when the Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire, ⁸ bringing justice to those who do not know God and to those who do not follow the gospel of our Lord Jesus. ⁹ These individuals will face the consequence of eternal destruction, separated from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, ¹⁰ when He comes to be glorified among His saints on that day, and to be marvelled at among all who have believed—because our testimony to you was believed. ¹¹ To this end we also pray for you always, that our God will consider you worthy of your calling, and fulfil every desire for goodness and the work of faith with power, ¹² so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in Him, through the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We appeal to you, dear brothers and sisters, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering to Him, ² that you should not be easily unsettled or alarmed by a spirit, a message, or a letter claiming to be from us, suggesting that the day of the Lord has already arrived. ³ Let no one mislead you in any manner! For that day will not arrive unless the rebellion occurs first, and the man of lawlessness is unveiled, the son of destruction, ⁴ who stands against and elevates himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his place in the temple of God, presenting himself as God. ⁵ Do you not recall that while I was still with you, I used to tell you these things? ⁶ And you are aware of what currently restrains him, so that he will be revealed at the proper time. ⁷ For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; only He who now holds it back will continue to do so until He is taken out of the way. ⁸ Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will eliminate with the breath of His mouth and bring to an end by the splendour of His coming; ⁹ that is, the one whose arrival is in line with the workings of Satan, accompanied by all power and deceptive signs and wonders, ¹⁰ and with all the deceit of wickedness for those who are perishing, because they did not welcome the love of the truth that would save them. ¹¹ Because of this, God will allow them to be influenced by a strong delusion, so that they will believe what is false, ¹² so that all will be judged who did not believe the truth but delighted in wickedness. ¹³ Yet we ought always to give thanks to God for you, dear brothers and sisters loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning for salvation through the sanctifying work of the Spirit and through belief in the truth. ¹⁴ It was for this purpose He called you through our gospel, so that you might share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵ Therefore, dear brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the teachings we passed on to you, whether by word of mouth or by letter. ¹⁶ Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God our Father, who loved us and by His grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope, ¹⁷ encourage and strengthen your hearts in every good deed and word.

3 Finally, dear friends, pray for us that the word of the Lord may spread swiftly and be honoured, just as it was with you; ² and that we will be rescued from perverse and evil people; for not all have faith. ³ Yet the Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen and guard you from the evil one. ⁴ We have confidence in the Lord regarding you, that you are doing and will continue to do what we instruct. ⁵ May the Lord guide your hearts towards the love of God and the endurance of Christ. ⁶ Now we instruct you, dear friends, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from every believer who leads a disorderly life and not one in accordance with the tradition you received from us. ⁷ For you yourselves know how you ought to follow our example, because we did not behave in an undisciplined manner among you, ⁸ nor did we eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but with labour and hardship we worked night and day so that we would not be a burden to any of you; ⁹ not because we lack the right to such support, but in order to present ourselves as an example for you to imitate. ¹⁰ For even when we were with you, we gave you this instruction: if anyone is unwilling to work, they should not eat. ¹¹ For we hear that some among you are living in a disorderly manner, doing no work at all, but being busybodies. ¹² Now we command and urge such individuals in the Lord Jesus Christ to work quietly and eat their own bread. ¹³ But as for you, dear friends, do not become weary in doing good. ¹⁴ If anyone does not comply with our instructions in this letter, take special note of that person and do not associate with them, so that they may feel ashamed. ¹⁵ Yet do not consider them as an enemy, but warn them as a sibling. ¹⁶ Now may the Lord of peace Himself continually grant you peace in every situation. The Lord be with you all! ¹⁷ I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand, and this is a distinguishing mark in every letter; this is how I write. ¹⁸ Let the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

2 Thessalonians

1 Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Saviour, and of Christ Jesus, who is our hope, ² To Timothy, my true son in the faith: May grace, mercy, and peace come to you from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. ³ Just as I urged you upon my departure for Macedonia, remain on at Ephesus so that you may instruct certain people not to teach strange doctrines, ⁴ nor to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which give rise to useless speculation rather than advancing God's plan, which is by faith. ⁵ The aim of our instruction is love that comes from a pure heart, a good conscience, and a sincere faith. ⁶ Some individuals have deviated from these principles and have turned to meaningless discussions, ⁷ desiring to be teachers of the Law, though they do not comprehend what they are saying or the subjects about which they make confident claims. ⁸ Yet we understand that the Law is beneficial, provided it is used properly, ⁹ realising the fact that law is not made for a righteous person, but for those who are lawless and rebellious, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰ for those who engage in immoral acts, those who exploit others, liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound teaching, ¹¹ in line with the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which has been entrusted to me. ¹² I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, because He considered me faithful, appointing me to His service, ¹³ even though I was previously a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a violent aggressor. Yet I was shown mercy because I acted ignorantly in unbelief; ¹⁴ and the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant, with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵ It is a trustworthy statement, deserving full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the foremost. ¹⁶ Yet for this reason I was shown mercy, so that in me, the foremost sinner, Jesus Christ might display His perfect patience as an example for those who would believe in Him for eternal life. ¹⁷ Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory forever and ever. Amen. ¹⁸ This command I entrust to you, Timothy, my son, in accordance with the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you may fight the good fight, ¹⁹ maintaining faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and thus have suffered shipwreck in regard to their faith. ²⁰ Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan, so that they may learn not to blaspheme.

2 To begin with, I encourage that requests, prayers, intercession, and thanksgiving be offered for everyone, ² including kings and all those in positions of authority, so that we may live a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. ³ This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, ⁴ who wishes for all people to be saved and to come to understand the truth. ⁵ For there is one God, and one mediator between God and humanity, the man Christ Jesus, ⁶ who offered Himself as a ransom for all, the testimony given at the appropriate time. ⁷ For this purpose, I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth, I am not lying), as a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. ⁸ Therefore, I desire that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger and argument. ⁹ Similarly, I want women to dress themselves in suitable clothing, modestly and discreetly, not with braided hair, gold, pearls, or costly attire, ¹⁰ but rather through good deeds, as is fitting for women who profess godliness. ¹¹ A woman should learn quietly and with full respect. ¹² But I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man; she must be quiet. ¹³ For Adam was formed first, and then Eve. ¹⁴ And it was not Adam who was deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor. ¹⁵ Yet women will be kept safe through childbearing—if they continue in faith, love, and holiness, with self-control.

3 This saying is trustworthy: if anyone aspires to the role of overseer, he desires a noble task. ²

An overseer, then, must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, ³ not given to excessive drinking, not violent but gentle, not argumentative, free from the love of money. ⁴ He must be one who manages his own household well, keeping his children respectful with all dignity ⁵ (but if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of the church of God?); ⁶ and not a recent convert, so that he will not become conceited and fall into the judgment brought by the devil. ⁷ Moreover, he must have a good reputation with those outside the church, so that he will not fall into disgrace and the trap of the devil.⁸ Deacons likewise must be dignified, not insincere, not given to much wine, not greedy for dishonest gain,⁹ but adhering to the mystery of the faith with a sincere conscience.¹⁰ These individuals must also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons if they are found beyond reproach.¹¹ Women must likewise be dignified, not slanderers, but temperate, faithful in all things.¹² Deacons should be faithful to one wife, and effective managers of their children and their own households.¹³ For those who have served well as deacons gain for themselves a high standing and great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.¹⁴ I am writing these things to you, hoping to visit you soon;¹⁵ but in case I am delayed, I write so that you will know how one should conduct himself in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and support of the truth.¹⁶ Without question, the mystery of godliness is profound:

1 Timothy

He who was revealed in the flesh, Was justified in the Spirit, Seen by angels, Proclaimed among the nations, And believed in throughout the world, Taken up in glory.

4 Yet the Spirit clearly indicates that in later times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to misleading spirits and doctrines of evil,² through the insincerity of those who speak falsehoods, their consciences being as if branded with a hot iron,³ who prohibit marriage and advocate abstaining from foods which God has created to be received with gratitude by those who believe and know the truth.⁴ For everything God has created is good, and nothing is to be refused if it is received with thankfulness;⁵ for it is sanctified by God's word and prayer.⁶ By reminding the brothers and sisters of these things, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, continually nourished by the words of faith and the sound teaching which you have been following.⁷ But avoid pointless tales typical of old women, and train yourself for the purpose of godliness;⁸ for physical training has some value, but godliness is valuable in every way, as it holds promise for both the present life and the life to come.⁹ This is a statement worthy of full acceptance.¹⁰ For it is for this we labour and strive, because we have set our hope on the living God, who is the Saviour of all people, especially of those who believe.¹¹ Instruct and teach others in these things.¹² Let no one look down on your youth, but be an example for those who believe, in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity.¹³ Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading, to exhortation, and to teaching.¹⁴ Do not neglect the spiritual gift within you, which was given to you through prophecy with the laying on of hands by the council of elders.¹⁵ Be diligent in these matters; immerse yourself in them, so that your progress may be evident to all.¹⁶ Watch your life and doctrine closely; persevere in them, for by doing so you will ensure salvation both for yourself and for those who listen to you.

5 Do not harshly correct an older man, but rather encourage him as you would a father, and the younger men as brothers,² the older women as mothers, and the younger women as sisters, with complete purity.³ Show respect to widows who are truly in need;⁴ but if any widow has children or grandchildren, they must learn to show proper respect for their own household and to make some return to their parents; for this is acceptable in the sight of God.⁵ Now she who is truly a widow and has been left alone has set her hope on God, and she continues in requests and prayers night and day.⁶ But the one who lives in self-indulgence is as good as dead, even while she lives.⁷ Provide these instructions as well, so that they may be above reproach.⁸ However, if anyone fails to care for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than one without belief.⁹ A widow should be put on the list only if she is at least sixty years old and has been the wife of one man,¹⁰ having a reputation for good works: if she has brought up children, if she has shown hospitality to strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has assisted those in distress, and if she has devoted herself to every good work.¹¹ But refuse to enrol younger widows, for when they feel physical desires alienating them from Christ, they want to get married,¹² incurring condemnation, because they have set aside their previous pledge.¹³ At the same time they also learn to be idle, going around from house to house; and not merely idle, but also gossips and busybodies, talking about things not proper to mention.¹⁴ Therefore, I desire younger widows to marry, have children, manage their households, and give the enemy no opportunity for reproach;¹⁵ for some have already strayed and now follow Satan. ¹⁶ If any woman who is a believer has dependent widows, she must assist them and the church must not be burdened, so that it may assist those who are truly widows. ¹⁷ The elders who lead well are to be considered worthy of double honour, especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching. ¹⁸ For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox while it is threshing," and "The labourer is worthy of his wages." ¹⁹ Do not entertain an accusation against an elder unless it is confirmed by two or three witnesses. ²⁰ Those who continue in sin, rebuke in the presence of all, so that the rest also will be fearful. ²¹ I earnestly urge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of His chosen angels, to uphold these principles without bias, doing nothing in a spirit of partiality. ²² Do not hastily lay hands upon anyone and thereby share in the sins of others; keep yourself free from sin. ²³ Do not limit yourself to drinking only water, but use a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent ailments. ²⁴ The sins of some people are quite evident, preceding them to judgment; for others, their sins follow after. ²⁵ In the same way, deeds that are good are quite evident, and those which are otherwise cannot be concealed.

1 Timothy

6 All who are under the yoke as slaves are to regard their own masters as worthy of all honour so that the name of God and our teaching will not be spoken against. ² Those who have believers as their masters should not be disrespectful to them because they are brothers or sisters. Instead, they should serve them even better, since those who benefit from their service are believers and beloved. Teach and preach these principles. ³ If anyone promotes a different doctrine and does not agree with sound words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and with the doctrine that aligns with godliness, ⁴ he is conceited and understands nothing; but he has an unhealthy craving for controversial questions and disputes about words, from which come envy, strife, abusive language, evil suspensions, ⁵ and constant friction between people of corrupt mind and deprived of the truth, who think that godliness is a means to gain. ⁶ But godliness indeed is a source of great gain when accompanied by contentment. ⁷ For we have brought nothing into the world, so we cannot take anything out of it. ⁸ If we have food and clothing, with these we shall be content. ⁹ But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and many foolish and harmful desires which plunge people into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰ For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and some by longing for it have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows. ¹¹ But avoid these things, you man of God, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness. ¹² Engage in the noble struggle of faith; embrace the eternal life to which you were called, and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. ¹³ I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who made the good confession before Pontius Pilate, ¹⁴ that you keep the commandment without blemish or blame until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵ which He will reveal at the appointed time—He who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, ¹⁶ who alone possesses immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has seen or can see. To Him be honour and eternal dominion! Amen. ¹⁷ Instruct those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant or to set their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with all things to enjoy. ¹⁸ Guide them to perform good deeds, to be abundant in good works, to be generous and willing to share, ¹⁹ storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of what is truly life. ²⁰ Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you, avoiding worldly, empty chatter and the opposing arguments of what is falsely called "knowledge"— ²¹ which some have professed and as a result have drifted away from the faith. May grace be with you.

2 Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, in line with the promise of life found in Christ Jesus, ² To Timothy, my dear child: May you receive grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. ³ I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience, just as my forefathers did, as I constantly remember you in my prayers both night and day, ⁴ longing to see you, as I recall your tears, so that I may be filled with joy. ⁵ For I am mindful of the sincere faith within you, which first dwelled in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am sure is in you as well. ⁶ For this reason, I remind you to rekindle the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. ⁷ For God has not given us a spirit of fearfulness, but one of power, love, and self-discipline. ⁸ Therefore, do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me, His prisoner; but join with me in enduring hardships for the gospel by the power of God, ⁹ who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace, which was granted to us in Christ Jesus from all eternity, ¹⁰ but now has been revealed by the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, ¹¹ for which I was appointed as a herald, an apostle, and a teacher. ¹² For this reason, I also endure these things; yet I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that He is able to guard what I have entrusted to Him until that day. ¹³ Hold on to the pattern of sound teaching which you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴ Guard, through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us, the treasure that has been entrusted to you. ¹⁵ You are aware that all who are in Asia turned away from me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes. ¹⁶ May the Lord show kindness to the household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and did not shy away from my imprisonment; ¹⁷ but when he was in Rome, he diligently searched for me and found me— ¹⁸ may the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that day—and you know very well what services he rendered at Ephesus.

2 Therefore, my son, draw strength from the grace that is in Christ Jesus. ² What you have heard from me in the company of many witnesses, entrust to reliable individuals who will be able to teach others as well. ³ Endure difficulties with me, like a dedicated soldier of Christ Jesus. ⁴ No soldier actively serving gets entangled in the concerns of daily life, so that he may satisfy the one who enlisted him. ⁵ And if someone competes as an athlete, he is not crowned as victor unless he competes according to the rules. ⁶ The diligent farmer should be the first to partake of the harvest. ⁷ Reflect on what I say, and the Lord will grant you insight into all things. ⁸ Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David, as proclaimed in my gospel, ⁹ for which I endure suffering even to the point of imprisonment as a criminal; yet the word of God is not bound. ¹⁰ For this reason I persevere in all things for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, along with eternal glory. ¹¹ This saying is trustworthy:

For, if we have died with Him, we shall also live with Him; ¹² If we persevere, we shall also reign with Him; If we disown Him, He will disown us as well; ¹³ If we are unfaithful, He remains faithful, for He cannot disown Himself.

¹⁴ Remind them of these things, and earnestly urge them before God not to argue about words, which is pointless and leads to the downfall of the listeners. ¹⁵ Make every effort to present yourself approved to God as a worker who does not need to be ashamed, correctly handling the word of truth. ¹⁶ But avoid irreverent and empty talk, for it will lead to further ungodliness, ¹⁷ and their talk will spread like a harmful infection. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus, ¹⁸ who have strayed from the truth, asserting that the resurrection has already occurred, and they are undermining the faith of some. ¹⁹ Yet, the solid foundation of God stands firm, bearing this seal: "The Lord knows those who are His;" and, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord must turn away from wickedness." ²⁰ Now in a large house there are not only gold and silver vessels, but also vessels of wood and clay, and some are for honour, while others are for dishonour. ²¹ Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from these things, he will be a vessel for honour, sanctified, useful to the Master, prepared for every good work. ²² Now flee from youthful desires and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. ²³ But reject foolish and uninformed debates, knowing that they breed quarrels. ²⁴ The Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome, but be kind to everyone, skilled in teaching, patient when wronged, ²⁵ gently correcting those who oppose, if perhaps God may grant them repentance leading to the knowledge of the truth, ²⁶ and they may come to their senses and escape from the trap of the devil, having been held captive by him to do his will.

2 Timothy

3 But realise this, that in the last days difficult times will come. ² For people will be self-centred, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, slanderers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, ³ unloving, irreconcilable, malicious gossips, lacking self-control, brutal, haters of good, ⁴ traitorous, rash, full of themselves, preferring pleasure over devotion to God, ⁵ maintaining an appearance of godliness but denying its power; avoid such people. ⁶ For among them are those who infiltrate households and captivate vulnerable women burdened with sins, led on by various impulses, ⁷ always learning and never able to reach the knowledge of the truth. ⁸ Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men also resist the truth, men of corrupt mind, worthless concerning the faith. ⁹ But they will not make further progress, for their foolishness will be evident to all, just as that of Jannes and Jambres also was. ¹⁰ Now you have followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, perseverance, ¹¹ persecutions, and sufferings, such as happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra—what persecutions I endured, and out of them all the Lord rescued me! ¹² Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will face persecution. ¹³ But wicked people and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. ¹⁴ You, however, continue in the things you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you have learned them, ¹⁵ and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings which are able to impart the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶ All Scripture is God-breathed and useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; ¹⁷ so that the servant of God may be fully capable, equipped for every good work.

4 I earnestly urge you before God and Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by His appearing and His kingdom: ² Proclaim the word; be prepared whether the time is favourable or not; correct, rebuke, and encourage, with great patience and careful teaching. ³ For the time will come when they will not accept sound doctrine; but desiring to have their ears pleased, they will gather for themselves teachers to suit their own preferences, ⁴ and they will turn away from listening to the truth and will wander off into myths. ⁵ But as for you, exercise self-control in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, complete your ministry. ⁶ For I am already being offered, and the time for my departure is near. ⁷ I have striven to fight the good fight, I have completed the race, I have maintained the faith; ⁸ In the future, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will bestow on me on that day; and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for His appearing. ⁹ Do your utmost to visit me soon; ¹⁰ for Demas, having loved this present world, has left me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹ Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with you, for he is helpful to me in my work. ¹² As I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³ When you come, bring the cloak I left at Troas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments. ¹⁴ Alexander the coppersmith caused me much harm; the Lord will repay him according to his actions. ¹⁵ Be cautious of him yourself too, for he strongly opposed our message. ¹⁶ At my first defence no one supported me, but all deserted me; may it not be held against them. ¹⁷ But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered from the lion's mouth. ¹⁸ The Lord will deliver me from every evil deed, and will bring me safely to His heavenly kingdom; to Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen. ¹⁹ Extend greetings to Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. ²⁰ Erastus stayed at Corinth, but I left Trophimus ill at Miletus. ²¹ Do your best to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers and sisters. ²² May the Lord be with your spirit. May grace be with you.

Titus

1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the faith of God's chosen and the knowledge of the truth that leads to godliness—² in the hope of eternal life, which God, who does not lie, promised long ages ago, ³ and now, at the appointed time, has revealed through the proclamation entrusted to me by the command of God our Saviour, ⁴ To Titus, my true son in our shared faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour. ⁵ The reason I left you in Crete was so that you might set right what was left unfinished and appoint elders in every town, as I directed you. ⁶ An elder must be blameless, the husband of one wife, with children who believe and are not accused of being wild or disobedient. ⁷ Since an overseer is God's steward, he must be blameless—not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not given to excess in wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain. ⁸ Instead, he must be hospitable, a lover of what is good, self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined. ⁹ He must hold firmly to the faithful message as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others with sound doctrine and refute those who oppose it. ¹⁰ For there are many rebellious people, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision group. ¹¹ They must be silenced, because they are upsetting whole households by teaching things they ought not to teach—for the sake of dishonest gain. ¹² One of their own prophets has said, "Cretans are always liars, evil brutes, lazy gluttons." ¹³ This testimony is true. Therefore, rebuke them sharply, so that they may be sound in the faith ¹⁴ and not pay attention to Jewish myths or the commands of men who turn away from the truth. ¹⁵ To the pure, all things are pure, but to those who are corrupted and unbelieving, nothing is pure. Indeed, both their minds and consciences are corrupted. ¹⁶ They profess to know God, but by their actions they deny Him. They are detestable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

2 As for you, communicate what aligns with sound doctrine. ² Older men should be temperate, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, and in perseverance. ³ Similarly, older women should conduct themselves with reverence, avoiding slander and excessive wine, and should teach what is good. ⁴ This way, they can encourage the younger women to love their husbands and children, ⁵ to be sensible, pure, diligent at home, kind, and submissive to their own husbands, so that the word of God is not discredited. ⁶ In the same way, urge the young men to be sensible. ⁷ In all respects, show yourself as an example of good deeds, with integrity in teaching, dignified, ⁸ sound in speech that is beyond reproach, so that any opponent may be ashamed, having nothing negative to say about us. ⁹ Encourage slaves to be obedient to their masters in everything, to be pleasing, not argumentative, ¹⁰ and not to pilfer, but to demonstrate complete trustworthiness, so that they may enhance the teaching of God our Saviour in every way. ¹¹ For the grace of God has appeared, offering salvation to all people, ¹² teaching us to renounce ungodliness and worldly desires, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in this present age, ¹³ as we await the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ, ¹⁴ who gave Himself for us to redeem us from all iniquity and to purify for Himself a people of His own, eager to do good deeds. ¹⁵ These are the things you should speak, encourage, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

3 Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, ready for every good work, ² to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarrelling, to be gentle, showing perfect courtesy towards all people. ³ For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, enslaved by various passions and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, detesting one another. ⁴ Yet, when the kindness and love of God our Saviour was revealed, ⁵ He saved us, not because of deeds done by us in righteousness, but according to His mercy, through the washing of regeneration and renewal by the Holy Spirit, ⁶ whom He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour, ⁷ so that, being justified by His grace, we might become heirs of the hope of eternal life. ⁸ This saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and beneficial for everyone. ⁹ But avoid foolish controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and disputes about the law, for they are unprofitable and futile. ¹⁰ Warn a divisive person once, and then warn them a second time. After that, have nothing more to do with them, ¹¹ knowing that such a person is perverted and sinful, being self-condemned. ¹² When

Titus

I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your utmost to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there. ¹³ Diligently assist Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey, ensuring they lack nothing. ¹⁴ Our people must learn to devote themselves to good works to meet urgent needs, so that they will not be unproductive. ¹⁵ All who are with me send you greetings. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our beloved friend and fellow worker—² to Apphia our sister, and Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church that meets in your house: ³ May you receive grace and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴ I always thank my God, making mention of you in my prayers, ⁵ because I hear of your love and faith which you have towards the Lord Jesus and all the saints. ⁶ I pray that the fellowship of your faith may become effective through the understanding of every good thing we share for the sake of Christ. ⁷ Your love has brought me great joy and comfort, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the saints. ⁸ Therefore, although I have enough confidence in Christ to command you to do what is proper, ⁹ yet for love's sake I prefer to appeal to you—being such a one as Paul, an old man and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus—¹⁰ I appeal to you for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my imprisonment. ¹¹ He was formerly useless to you, but now he is useful both to you and to me. ¹² I am sending him back to you, sending a part of my own heart. ¹³ I would have liked to keep him with me, so that he might serve me on your behalf during my imprisonment for the gospel. ¹⁴ But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that your goodness would not be by compulsion but of your own free will. ¹⁵ Perhaps for this reason he was separated from you for a while, that you might have him back forever—¹⁶ no longer merely as a servant, but more than that, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. ¹⁷ If you consider me a partner, accept him as you would accept me. ¹⁸ If he has caused you any harm or owes you anything, consider it my responsibility. ¹⁹ I, Paul, write this with my own hand—I will repay it—not to mention that you owe me even your own self. ²⁰ Yes, brother, let me have some benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ. ²¹ Trusting in your willingness to comply, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I ask. ²² At the same time, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope to be restored to you through your prayers. ²³ Epaphras, who is in prison with me for Christ Jesus, sends you greetings. ²⁴ As do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, who are my fellow workers. ²⁵ Let the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Hebrews

1 In times past, God spoke to our forefathers through the prophets at various times and in many different ways,² but in these last days, He has spoken to us through His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things and through whom He also created the universe.³ The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact likeness of His essence, sustaining all things by His powerful word. After He had provided purification for sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.⁴ Thus, He became as much superior to the angels as the name He has inherited is more excellent than theirs.⁵ For to which of the angels did God ever declare,

"You are My Son; today I have become Your Father?"

Or again,

"I will be His Father, and He will be My Son?"

⁶ And once more, when God introduces His firstborn into the world, He proclaims,

"Let all God's angels worship Him."

⁷ In speaking of the angels, He says,

"He makes His angels winds, and His servants flames of fire."

⁸ But about the Son, He says,

"Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; a sceptre of righteousness will be the sceptre of Your kingdom. ⁹ You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of joy above Your companions."

¹⁰ He also declares,

"In the beginning, Lord, You established the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands. ¹¹ They will pass away, but You remain; they will all age like clothing. ¹² You will fold them up like a cloak; like clothing, they will be altered. But You remain unchanged, and Your years will never end."

¹³ To which of the angels did God ever declare,

"Sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet?"

¹⁴ Are not all angels ministering spirits sent out to serve those who will inherit salvation?

2 For this reason, we must pay the utmost attention to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away from it.² For if the message spoken through angels was unchangeable, and every transgression and disobedience received a just penalty,³ how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? This salvation, which was initially spoken by the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard him.⁴ God also bore witness to it with signs, wonders, and various miracles, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to His will.⁵ For it is not to angels that He has subjected the world to come, about which we are speaking.⁶ But someone has testified somewhere, saying,

"What is man, that You are mindful of him, or the son of man, that You care for him?" ⁷ You made him a little lower than the angels; You crowned him with glory and honour ⁸ and placed everything under his feet."

In subjecting all things to him, He left nothing that is not subject to him. Yet at present, we do not see everything subjected to him.⁹ But we do see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for a short time, now crowned with glory and honour because of His suffering and death, so that by the grace of God, He might taste death for everyone.¹⁰ For it was fitting for Him, for whom and through whom everything exists, in bringing many sons and daughters to glory, to make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings.¹¹ For both the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one Father. For this reason, He is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters,¹² saying,

"I will declare Your name to My brothers and sisters; in the midst of the assembly, I will sing Your praises."

¹³ And further,

"I will place My trust in Him."

And also,

"Here I am, along with the children God has given Me."

¹⁴ Since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise partook of the same, so that through death He might destroy the one who holds the power of death, that is, the devil, ¹⁵ and free those who through fear of death were held in slavery all their lives. ¹⁶ For surely He does not assist angels, but He helps the descendants of Abraham. ¹⁷ Therefore, He had to be made like His brothers in every respect, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in matters relating to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people. ¹⁸ For since He Himself was tempted in what He suffered, He is able to help those who are being tempted.

Hebrews

3 Therefore, holy brothers and sisters, participants in the heavenly calling, focus your thoughts on Jesus, the Apostle and High Priest of our confession. ² He was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses was faithful in all his house. ³ For Jesus has been deemed worthy of greater glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house has more honour than the house itself. ⁴ For every house is built by someone, but God is the creator of all things. ⁵ Moses was faithful as a servant in all God's house, bearing witness to what would be spoken later. ⁶ But Christ is faithful as a Son over God's house. And we are his house, if indeed we hold firmly to our confidence and the hope in which we boast. ⁷ Therefore, as the Holy Spirit expresses:

"Today, if you hear his voice, ⁸ do not harden your hearts as during the rebellion, in the time of testing in the wilderness,

⁹ where your ancestors tested and tried me, and saw my works for forty years.

¹⁰ Therefore I was angry with that generation, and said, 'Their hearts always go astray, and they have not known my ways.' ¹¹ So I swore in my anger, 'They shall never enter my rest.'"

¹² See to it, brothers and sisters, that none of you has an evil, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God. ¹³ But encourage one another daily, as long as it is called "Today," so that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. ¹⁴ For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold our original conviction firmly to the end. ¹⁵ As it has been said:

"Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as during the rebellion."

¹⁶ Who were they who heard and rebelled? Were they not all those led out of Egypt by Moses? ¹⁷ And with whom was God displeased for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? ¹⁸ And to whom did he declare that they would not enter his rest, if not to those who were disobedient? ¹⁹ So we understand that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

4 Therefore, let us be cautious that, while the promise of entering His rest still stands, none of you may seem to have fallen short of it. ² For indeed, we have had the good news preached to us, just as they did; but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united with those who listened with faith. ³ For we who have believed are entering that rest, just as He has said,

"As I swore in My anger, 'They shall certainly not enter My rest,'" although His works have been finished since the foundation of the world.

⁴ For He has somewhere spoken about the seventh day in these words: "And God rested on the seventh day from all His works." ⁵ And again in this passage, "They shall certainly not enter My rest." ⁶ Therefore, since it remains for some to enter it, and those who previously had the good news proclaimed to them did not enter because of disobedience, ⁷ He again designates a certain day, calling it "Today," speaking through David after such a long time, as has been quoted before:

"Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts."

⁸ For if Joshua had provided them with rest, God would not have mentioned another day later on. ⁹ As a result, a Sabbath rest is still available for the people of God. ¹⁰ For anyone who enters His rest also rests from their works, just as God did from His.

¹¹ Let us therefore make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall by following their example of disobedience. ¹² For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³ And there is nothing in all creation hidden from His sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of Him to whom we must give account. ¹⁴ Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens,

Hebrews

Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. ¹⁵ For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathise with our weaknesses, but one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶ Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

5 Every high priest is chosen from among men and is appointed to act on behalf of people in matters relating to God, to offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. ² He can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, since he himself is also subject to weakness. ³ Because of this, he is required to offer sacrifices for his own sins, as well as for the sins of the people. ⁴ And no one assumes this honour for himself, but he receives it when called by God, just as Aaron was. ⁵ Similarly, Christ did not glorify Himself by becoming a high priest, but it was God who said to Him,

"You are My Son; today I have begotten You."

⁶ He also declares elsewhere,

"You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek."

⁷ During the days of His earthly life, He offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to the One who could save Him from death, and He was heard because of His reverent submission. ⁸ Even though He was the Son, He learned obedience through the experiences He endured. ⁹ And having reached perfection, He became the source of eternal salvation for those who obey Him, ¹⁰ being designated by God as a high priest in the order of Melchizedek. ¹¹ We have much to say about this, but it is hard to explain, since you have become slow to understand. ¹² For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the basic principles of God's word. You need milk, not solid food! ¹³ For anyone who lives on milk is unacquainted with the teaching about righteousness, for he is still an infant. ¹⁴ But solid food is for the mature, who through constant practice have trained themselves to discern good from evil.

6 Therefore, leaving behind the elementary teachings about Christ, let us advance towards maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from deeds that lead to death, and of faith towards God, ² instruction about ceremonial washings, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgement. ³ And this we will do, if God allows. ⁴ For it is impossible for those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit, ⁵ and have experienced the richness of God's word and the powers of the age to come, ⁶ and then have fallen away, to be restored again to repentance, since they are crucifying the Son of God all over again and subjecting Him to public disgrace. ⁷ For land that drinks in the rain often falling on it and produces vegetation useful to those for whom it is cultivated receives a blessing from God; ⁸ but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed, and in the end it is burned. ⁹ But, beloved, we are convinced of better things concerning you, things that accompany salvation, even though we speak in this manner. ¹⁰ For God is not unjust; He will not forget your work and the love you have shown towards His name, having served and continuing to serve the saints. ¹¹ And we desire that each of you show the same diligence to realise the full assurance of hope until the end, ¹² so that you will not become sluggish, but imitate those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. ¹³ When God made His promise to Abraham, since He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, ¹⁴ saying, "Surely I will bless you and multiply you greatly." ¹⁵ Thus, after Abraham had patiently endured, he received what was promised. ¹⁶ People swear by someone greater than themselves, and the oath serves as confirmation to end all disputes. ¹⁷ In the same way, God, wanting to make the unchanging nature of His purpose very clear to the heirs of the promise, confirmed it with an oath, ¹⁸ so that by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to hold firmly to the hope set before us. ¹⁹ We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure, and it enters the inner sanctuary behind the veil, ²⁰ where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a high priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.

7 This Melchizedek, king of Salem and priest of the Most High God, met Abraham as he returned from the defeat of the kings and blessed him. ² Abraham gave him a tenth of everything. First, by the translation of his name, he is king of righteousness; and then also king of Salem, which means king of peace.³ Without father or mother, without genealogy, without beginning of days or end of life, but made like the Son of God, he remains a priest perpetually.⁴ Consider how great he was: Even the patriarch Abraham gave him a tenth of the choicest spoils.⁵ The descendants of Levi who receive the priesthood have a commandment in the Law to collect a tenth from the people, that is, from their fellow Israelites, even though they too are descended from Abraham.⁶ Yet this man, whose genealogy is not traced from them, collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises.⁷ Without any dispute, the lesser is blessed by the greater.⁸ In this instance, mortal men receive tithes, but in that instance, one receives them, of whom it is testified that he continues to live.⁹ So to speak, through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes,¹⁰ for he was not yet born, not yet produced of his ancestors when Melchizedek met him.¹¹ If perfection could have been achieved through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people received the Law), why was there still need for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be designated according to the order of Aaron?¹² For when the priesthood is changed, there must also be a change of the law.¹³ For the one about whom these things are said belonged to a different tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar.¹⁴ It is evident that our Lord descended from Judah, a tribe with reference to which Moses said nothing concerning priests.¹⁵ And this becomes even more evident if another priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek,¹⁶ who has become a priest not on the basis of a regulation as to his ancestry, but according to the power of an indestructible life.¹⁷ For it is declared about Him:

Hebrews

"You are a priest forever, of the order of Melchizedek."

¹⁸ The previous regulation is set aside because it was weak and ineffective.¹⁹ (for the Law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God.²⁰ And it was indeed accompanied by an oath!²¹ For others became priests without any oath, but He became a priest with an oath when God said to Him:

"The Lord has sworn and will not change His mind: 'You are a priest forever.'"

²² Because of this oath, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant.²³ There have been many of those priests, since death prevented them from continuing in office;²⁴ but because Jesus lives forever, He holds His priesthood permanently.²⁵ Therefore, He is able to save fully those who come to God through Him, because He always lives to intercede for them.²⁶ For it was fitting for us to have such a high priest, holy, innocent, undefiled, set apart from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.²⁷ Unlike the other high priests, He does not need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for His own sins, and then for the sins of the people. He offered the sacrifice for their sins once for all when He gave Himself.²⁸ For the Law appoints as high priests men who are weak; but the word of the oath, which came after the Law, appoints the Son, who has been made perfect forever.

8 The main point of what we are discussing is this: We have a high priest who has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,² a minister in the sanctuary and in the true tabernacle, which the Lord established, not by human hands.³ Every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices; thus it is necessary for this high priest also to have something to offer.⁴ If he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law.⁵ They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses was warned when he was about to construct the tabernacle: "See that you make everything according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain."⁶ But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, to the extent that he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which is established on better promises.⁷ For if the first covenant had been without fault, there would have been no need for a second.⁸ For finding fault with the people, he says:

"Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.⁹ It will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors on the day I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in my covenant, and I turned away from them, declares the Lord. ¹⁰ This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws into their minds and write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ¹¹ And they will not teach, each one his neighbour, and each one his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' because they will all know me, from the least to the greatest of them. ¹² For I will be merciful towards their wrongdoings, and their sins I will remember no more."

Hebrews

¹³ By calling this covenant "new," he has made the first obsolete; and what is obsolete and ageing will soon disappear.

9 Now the first covenant included regulations for divine worship and an earthly sanctuary. ² A tabernacle was established, the outer room of which contained the lampstand, the table, and the sacred bread; this area is referred to as the Holy Place. ³ Behind the second curtain was a chamber known as the Most Holy Place, ⁴ which contained a golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant, covered entirely with gold. Inside this ark were a golden jar of manna, Aaron's staff that budded, and the stone tablets of the covenant. ⁵ Above the ark were the cherubim of glory, overshadowing the atonement cover. However, we cannot discuss these matters in detail at this time. ⁶ When everything was arranged in this manner, the priests regularly entered the outer room to perform their duties. ⁷ Yet, it was only the high priest who went into the inner room, and he did so just once a year, always bringing blood, which he offered for himself and for the sins the people had unknowingly committed. ⁸ The Holy Spirit was indicating that the way into the Most Holy Place had not yet been revealed while the first tabernacle was still standing. ⁹ This serves as a symbol for the present time, showing that the gifts and sacrifices being offered were unable to perfect the conscience of the worshipper. ¹⁰ These are merely regulations concerning food, drink, and various ceremonial washings—external ordinances imposed until the time of reformation. ¹¹ But when Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come, he passed through the greater and more perfect tabernacle that is not made by human hands, that is, not of this creation. ¹² He did not enter by means of the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered the Most Holy Place once for all, securing eternal redemption. ¹³ For if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on those who are ceremonially unclean sanctify them so that they are outwardly clean, ¹⁴ how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from acts that lead to death, so that we may serve the living God! ¹⁵ For this reason, Christ is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, now that he has died as a ransom to set them free from the sins committed under the first covenant. ¹⁶ In the case of a will, it is necessary to establish the death of the one who made it, ¹⁷ because a will is only in effect when someone has died; it is never valid while the one who made it is alive. ¹⁸ This is why even the first covenant was not inaugurated without blood. ¹⁹ When Moses had proclaimed every commandment of the law to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled the scroll and all the people. ²⁰ He declared, "This represents the blood of the covenant, which God has commanded you to uphold." ²¹ In the same way, he sprinkled with the blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels used in its ceremonies. ²² Indeed, according to the law, almost everything is cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness. ²³ Thus, it was necessary for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴ For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one; he entered heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. ²⁵ Nor did he enter heaven to offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood that is not his own. ²⁶ Otherwise, Christ would have had to suffer many times since the foundation of the world. But now, at the culmination of the ages, he has appeared once for all to do away with sin by the sacrifice of himself. ²⁷ Just as people are destined to die once, and after that to face judgement, ²⁸ so Christ was sacrificed once to bear the sins of many; and he will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to bring salvation to those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Hebrews

10 For the law, having only a shadow of the good things to come and not the actual form of those things, can never, by the same sacrifices offered continually year after year, make perfect those who approach to worship. ² Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered? For the worshippers, having been cleansed once for all, would no longer have a consciousness of sins. ³ But in those sacrifices there is a yearly reminder of sins. ⁴ For the blood of bulls and goats cannot remove sins. ⁵ Thus, when Christ entered the world, he declared:

"Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but a body you prepared for me;

⁶ with burnt offerings and sin offerings you found no delight.

⁷ Then I said, 'Behold, I have come — it is written about me in the scroll of the book — to do your will, O God.'"

⁸ After saying above, "Sacrifices and offerings, burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not desire, nor were you pleased with them"—though they were offered according to the law— ⁹ then he said, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He takes away the first to establish the second. ¹⁰ And by that will, we have been made holy through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all time. ¹¹ Day after day every priest stands and performs his religious duties; repeatedly he offers the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹² But this priest, having offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, sat down at the right hand of God, ¹³ awaiting the time when his enemies are made a footstool for his feet. ¹⁴ For with one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. ¹⁵ The Holy Spirit also bears witness to us regarding this. First he says:

¹⁶ "This is the covenant I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord. I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds."

¹⁷ He then continues:

"Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more."

¹⁸ Now where there is forgiveness of these, an offering for sin is no longer necessary. ¹⁹ Therefore, dear friends, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰ by a new and living way opened for us through the veil, that is, his flesh, ²¹ and we have a great high priest over the house of God, ²² let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. ²³ Let us hold firmly to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. ²⁴ And let us consider how to spur one another on towards love and good deeds, ²⁵ not neglecting to meet together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching. ²⁶ For if we deliberately continue sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, ²⁷ but only a fearful expectation of judgment and of a raging fire that will consume the adversaries. ²⁸ Anyone who disregarded the law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. ²⁹ How much more severely do you think someone deserves to be punished who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, regarded as unholy the blood of the covenant that sanctified them, and insulted the Spirit of grace? ³⁰ For we are aware of the one who said, "Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay," and also, "The Lord will judge his people." ³¹ It is a dreadful and terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God. ³² But remember those earlier days after you had been enlightened, when you endured a great conflict full of sufferings. ³³ Sometimes you were made a public spectacle through insults and persecution; at other times you stood side by side with those who were so treated. ³⁴ You sympathised with those in prison and joyfully accepted the confiscation of your property, knowing that you have for yourselves a better and lasting possession. ³⁵ Therefore, do not throw away your confidence, which will be richly rewarded. ³⁶ For you need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you may receive what he has promised. ³⁷ For in a very short time, the one who is coming will arrive and will not delay. ³⁸ But my righteous one will live by faith. And I take no pleasure in the one who shrinks back. ³⁹ But we are not among those who shrink back and are destroyed, but among those who have faith and preserve their souls.

Hebrews

11 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. ² For by it the people of old were commended. ³ By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of visible things. ⁴ By faith Abel offered a more excellent sacrifice to God than Cain, through which he was recognised as righteous, God testifying of his gifts. Through faith, though he is dead, he still speaks. ⁵ By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, and he was not found because God took him away. For before he was taken, he was commended as one who pleased God. ⁶ And without faith, it is impossible to please God, for whoever comes to Him must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who earnestly seek Him. ⁷ By faith Noah, being warned by God about things not yet seen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this, he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. ⁸ By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go to a place he would later receive as an inheritance. He set out, not knowing his destination. ⁹ By faith he lived as a foreigner in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰ For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose designer and builder is God. ¹¹ By faith, even Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered Him faithful who had promised. ¹² Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore. ¹³ These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, acknowledging that they were strangers and exiles on the earth. ¹⁴ For those who express such things make it evident that they are seeking a homeland. ¹⁵ If they had been thinking of the land they had left, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶ But as it is, they long for a better country, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them. ¹⁷ By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering his only son.

¹⁸ It was he to whom it was said, "Through Isaac shall your offspring be named." ¹⁹ He reasoned that God could raise the dead, and figuratively speaking, he did receive him back. ²⁰ Through faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning future events. ²¹ By faith Jacob, as he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, bowing in worship over the head of his staff. ²² By faith Joseph, nearing the end of his life, spoke of the exodus of the Israelites and gave instructions about his bones. ²³ By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw he was a special child, and they were not afraid of the king's decree. ²⁴ Through faith, when Moses had grown up, he refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. ²⁵ Choosing instead to endure mistreatment with the people of God rather than enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. ²⁶ He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking ahead to his reward. ²⁷ By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger, for he persevered as seeing Him who is invisible. ²⁸ By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn might not touch them. ²⁹ By faith they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land, but when the Egyptians attempted to do so, they were drowned. ³⁰ By faith the walls of Jericho fell after the people had marched around them for seven days. ³¹ By faith the prostitute Rahab did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given a friendly welcome to the spies. ³² And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets, ³³ who through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, ³⁴ extinguished the fury of flames, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. ³⁵ Women received back their dead through resurrection. Some were tortured, choosing not to accept release, so that they might attain a better resurrection. ³⁶ Others endured ridicule and beatings, and even chains and imprisonment. ³⁷ They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were killed with the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, afflicted, mistreated— ³⁸ of whom the world was not worthy—wandering in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground.³⁹ And all these, though they were praised for their faith, did not receive what was promised,⁴⁰ since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us they would not be made perfect.

Hebrews

12 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every hindrance and the sin that so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race set before us,² fixing our eyes on Jesus, the originator and perfecter of our faith. For the joy set before him, he endured the cross, despising its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.³ Consider him who endured such hostility from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.⁴ In your struggle against sin, you have not yet resisted to the extent of shedding your blood.⁵ And have you forgotten the exhortation which addresses you as sons?

It says, "My son, do not take lightly the Lord's discipline, and do not lose heart when he rebukes you,"⁶ because the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and he chastens every son he accepts."

⁷ Endure hardship as discipline; God is dealing with you as with children. For what child is there whom a father does not discipline?⁸ If you are without discipline, of which everyone partakes, then you are illegitimate and not true sons and daughters.⁹ Moreover, we have all had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. How much more should we submit to the Father of spirits and live!¹⁰ They disciplined us for a short time as they thought best; but God disciplines us for our good, that we may share in his holiness.¹¹ No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Yet later on, it yields a harvest of righteousness and peace for those who have been trained by it.¹² Therefore, strengthen your weary hands and weak knees.¹³ Make straight paths for your feet, so that the lame may not be disabled, but rather healed.¹⁴ Pursue peace with all people, and seek the holiness without which no one will see the Lord.¹⁵ See to it that no one falls short of the grace of God, and that no root of bitterness springs up to cause trouble and defile many.¹⁶ See that no one is sexually immoral or godless like Esau, who for a single meal sold his inheritance rights as the eldest son.¹⁷ Afterwards, as you know, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected. He found no place for repentance, though he sought it with tears.¹⁸ For you have not come to a mountain that can be touched, and to a blazing fire, and to darkness, gloom, and storm;¹⁹ to a trumpet blast or to a voice speaking words that those who heard it begged that no further word be spoken to them,²⁰ because they could not bear the command: "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned."²¹ The appearance was so frightening that Moses said, "I am trembling with fear."²² But you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels in joyful assembly,²³ to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect,²⁴ to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks more graciously than the blood of Abel.²⁵ See to it that you do not refuse him who speaks. For if they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we turn away from him who warns us from heaven?²⁶ At that time his voice caused the earth to tremble, but now he has promised, "Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens."²⁷ The phrase "once more" indicates the removal of what can be shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain.²⁸ Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be grateful, and thus worship God acceptably with reverence and awe,²⁹ for our God is an all consuming fire.

13 Let the love for fellow believers continue.² Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing so some have entertained angels without realising it.³ Remember those in prison as if you were imprisoned with them, and those who are mistreated, as you also are in the body.⁴ Marriage should be honoured by everyone, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and the sexually immoral.⁵ Ensure that your character is free from the love of money, being content with what you have; for He has said,

"I will never leave you, nor will I ever forsake you."

⁶ Thus we can say with confidence,

Hebrews

"The Lord is my helper; I will not fear. What can mere humans do to me?"

⁷ Remember your leaders who spoke the word of God to you. Reflect on the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith. ⁸ Jesus Christ is always the same; yesterday, today and for all time. ⁹ Do not be led astray by diverse and strange teachings; it is beneficial for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited those who are preoccupied with them. ¹⁰ We have a sacred place from which those who serve the tabernacle are not permitted to partake. ¹¹ The high priest carries the blood of animals into the Holy Place as a sin offering, but the bodies are burned outside the camp. ¹² Therefore, Jesus also suffered outside the city gate to sanctify the people through His own blood. ¹³ Let us, therefore, approach Him outside the camp, sharing in the reproach He endured. ¹⁴ For here we do not have a lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come. ¹⁵ Through Him, therefore, let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, which is the fruit of lips that acknowledge His name. ¹⁶ Remember to do good and to share with others, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God. ¹⁷ Have confidence in your leaders and submit to their authority, for they keep watch over your souls as those who must give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with groaning, for that would be of no advantage to you. ¹⁸ Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a clear conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves honourably in all things. ¹⁹ I urge you all the more to pray, so that I may be restored to you more quickly. ²⁰ Now may the God of peace, who brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the eternal covenant, ²¹ equip you with every good thing to do His will, working in us that which is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. ²² Brothers and sisters, I urge you to patiently listen to this word of exhortation, for I have written to you briefly. ²³ Know that our brother Timothy has been released. If he arrives soon, I will come with him to see you. ²⁴ Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy send you their greetings. ²⁵ May grace be with each of you.

James

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes dispersed among the nations: Greetings. ² Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you encounter various trials, ³ for you understand that the testing of your faith creates perseverance. ⁴ Let endurance have its perfect work, so that you may be mature and complete, lacking in nothing. ⁵ If any of you lacks wisdom, let them ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given to them. ⁶ But you must ask in faith, without doubting, because the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷ Such individuals should not anticipate receiving anything from the Lord. ⁸ They are double-minded and unstable in all their ways. ⁹ Believers in humble circumstances should take pride in their high position; ¹⁰ but the rich should take pride in their humiliation, since they will pass away like a wild flower. ¹¹ For the sun rises with scorching heat and withers the grass; its flower falls and its beauty is destroyed. In the same way, the rich will fade away even while they go about their business. ¹² Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial; for having stood the test, they will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love Him. ¹³ When tempted, no one should say, "I am being tempted by God." For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He tempt anyone; ¹⁴ but each person is tempted when they are carried away and enticed by their own evil desire. ¹⁵ Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, brings forth death. ¹⁶ Do not be led astray, my dear brothers and sisters. ¹⁷ Every good and perfect gift is from above, descending from the Father of the heavenly lights, who remains constant and unchanging. ¹⁸ By His own will, He brought us forth through the word of truth, so that we might be a kind of firstfruits of all He created. ¹⁹ My beloved brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to become angry; ²⁰ because human anger does not achieve the righteousness that God desires. ²¹ Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent, and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save your souls. ²² Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Be doers of the word. ²³ Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at their face in a mirror ²⁴ and, after looking at themselves, goes away and immediately forgets what they look like. ²⁵ But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—will find blessing in their actions. ²⁶ Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues deceive themselves, and their religion is without value. ²⁷ Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself unpolluted by the world.

2 My brothers and sisters, believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ should not hold their faith with an attitude of personal favouritism. ² Suppose a man enters your assembly wearing a gold ring and fine clothes, and a poor man in shabby clothes also comes in. ³ If you pay special attention to the man wearing the fine clothes and say, "Here's a good seat for you," but tell the poor man, "You stand over there" or "Sit by my footstool," ⁴ have you not discriminated among yourselves and become judges with evil motives? ⁵ Listen, my dear brothers and sisters: Has God not chosen those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom He promised to those who love Him? ⁶ But you have dishonoured the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you and drag you into court? ⁷ Do they not blaspheme the noble name by which you have been called? ⁸ If you truly keep the royal law found in Scripture, "Love your neighbour as yourself," you are doing well. ⁹ But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as lawbreakers. ¹⁰ For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles at one point is guilty of breaking all of it. ¹¹ For He who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." If you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a violator of the law. ¹² So speak and act as those who are to be judged by the law that gives freedom. ¹³ For judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful. Mercy triumphs over judgment. ¹⁴ What benefit is there, my brothers and sisters, if someone professes to have faith but lacks deeds? Can that kind of faith save them? ¹⁵ If a brother or sister lacks clothing and daily food, ¹⁶ and one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it? ¹⁷ In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by works, is dead. ¹⁸

James

But someone might say, “You have faith and I have works.” Show me your faith without works, and I will show you my faith by my works. ¹⁹ You acknowledge that there is one God. Well done! Even the demons acknowledge that—and tremble. ²⁰ You foolish person, do you want evidence that faith without works is useless? ²¹ Was not our father Abraham justified by works when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? ²² You see that his faith and his actions were in harmony, and his faith was brought to completion by what he did. ²³ And the scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,” and he was called a friend of God. ²⁴ You see that a person is justified by what they do and not by faith alone. ²⁵ In the same way, was not Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them off by a different route? ²⁶ Just as the body without the spirit is lifeless, so faith without works is lifeless.

3 Not many of you should aspire to be teachers, my brothers and sisters, because you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. ² We all stumble in various ways. If anyone does not stumble in what they say, they are perfect, capable of controlling the whole body as well. ³ When we place bits in the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we can guide their entire bodies. ⁴ Consider ships as well: despite their size and being driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot desires. ⁵ Similarly, the tongue is a small part of the body, yet it boasts of great things. See how a large forest can be set ablaze by a small spark! ⁶ The tongue is also a fire, a world of iniquity among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole body, sets the course of one's life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell. ⁷ All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and sea creatures are tamed and have been tamed by humanity, ⁸ but no human can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹ With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse people, who are made in God's likeness. ¹⁰ Out of the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. ¹¹ Can a spring produce both fresh and bitter water from the same opening? ¹² My brothers and sisters, can a fig tree produce olives, or a grapevine produce figs? Neither can a salt spring yield fresh water. ¹³ Who among you is wise and understanding? Let them demonstrate it by their good conduct, through deeds done in the humility that wisdom brings. ¹⁴ But if you nurture bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth. ¹⁵ Such wisdom does not come from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, and demonic. ¹⁶ For where envy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil practice. ¹⁷ But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peace-loving, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere. ¹⁸ Those who promote peace sow seeds of peace and reap a harvest of righteousness.

4 What is the cause of fights and disputes among you? Do they not arise from your desires that wage war within your members? ² You desire and do not possess, so you commit murder. You covet and cannot obtain, so you quarrel and fight. You do not have because you do not ask God. ³ When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with improper motives, so that you may spend it on your pleasures. ⁴ You adulterous people, do you not realise that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore, anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God. ⁵ Or do you think that the Scripture speaks without reason when it says that He jealously desires the spirit He has made to dwell in us? ⁶ But He gives us greater grace. This is why the Scripture says:

“God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.”

⁷ So, place yourselves under God's authority. Stand against the devil, and he will flee from you. ⁸ Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. ⁹ Be afflicted, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. ¹⁰ Humble yourselves in the presence of the Lord, and He will lift you up. ¹¹ Brothers and sisters, do not speak against one another. Anyone who speaks against a brother or sister or judges them speaks against the law and judges it. If you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge of it. ¹² There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the One who is able to save and destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbour? ¹³ Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, do business and make a profit.” ¹⁴ Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. ¹⁵ Rather, you should say, "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that." ¹⁶ But as it stands, you boast in your arrogant schemes. All such boasting is evil. ¹⁷ Therefore, if anyone knows the good they ought to do and does not do it, it is sin for them.

James

5 Now, you wealthy individuals, listen and lament for the miseries that are about to befall you. ²

Your riches have decayed, and your garments have become moth-eaten. ³ Your gold and silver have rusted, and their rust will serve as evidence against you and will consume your flesh like fire. You have amassed wealth in the last days. ⁴ Behold, the wages you have withheld from the labourers who mowed your fields cry out against you; the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of Hosts. ⁵ You have indulged in luxury and pleasure on the earth; you have fattened your hearts for the day of slaughter. ⁶ You have condemned and killed the righteous person; he does not resist you. ⁷ Therefore, be patient, brothers and sisters, until the Lord's coming. Consider how the farmer waits for the precious yield of the soil, patiently waiting for the early and late rains. ⁸ You too must be patient and strengthen your hearts, for the Lord's coming is near. ⁹ Do not grumble against one another, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be judged. Behold, the Judge is standing at the door. ¹⁰ Take, as an example of suffering and patience, brothers and sisters, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹ Indeed, we consider those blessed who have endured. You have heard of Job's endurance and have seen the outcome of the Lord's dealings, that the Lord is full of compassion and mercy. ¹² Above all, my brothers and sisters, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath. Let your "Yes" be yes, and your "No" be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation. ¹³ Is anyone among you suffering? Let them pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let them sing praises. ¹⁴ Is anyone among you ill? Let them call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵ And the prayer of faith will restore the one who is ill, and the Lord will raise them up; if they have committed sins, they will be forgiven. ¹⁶ Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective. ¹⁷ Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. ¹⁸ Then he prayed again, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops. ¹⁹ My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone brings them back, ²⁰ remember this: whoever turns a sinner from the error of their way will save their soul from death and cover over a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

1 From Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To those living as strangers, dispersed throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, who have been chosen ² in accordance with the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to obey Jesus Christ and be cleansed by His blood: May grace and peace be abundantly yours. ³ Praised be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in His great mercy has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴ to receive an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, ⁵ who, through faith, are safeguarded by the power of God for a salvation that is ready to be revealed at the last time. ⁶ In this you greatly rejoice, even though now for a short time, if necessary, you have been troubled by various trials, ⁷ so that the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold which perishes though tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honour at the revelation of Jesus Christ; ⁸ and though you have not seen Him, you love Him, and though you do not see Him now, but believe in Him, you greatly rejoice with joy beyond words and full of glory, ⁹ obtaining the salvation of your souls as the result of your faith. ¹⁰ Concerning this salvation, the prophets who foretold the grace that was to come to you made careful searches and inquiries, ¹¹ seeking to know what time or what kind of time the Spirit of Christ within them was indicating as He predicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories to follow. ¹² It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves, but you, in these matters which now have been announced to you through those who preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things into which angels long to look. ¹³ Therefore, prepare your minds for action, remain sober in spirit, set your hope fully on the grace to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. ¹⁴ As obedient children, do not conform to the former desires that were yours in your ignorance, ¹⁵ but like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in all your behaviour; ¹⁶ for it is stated: “You shall be holy, for I am holy.” ¹⁷ If you call upon as Father the One who impartially judges according to each one’s work, conduct yourselves in reverence during the time of your stay on earth; ¹⁸ realising that you were not redeemed with perishable things like silver or gold from your futile way of life inherited from your ancestors, ¹⁹ but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish and spotless, the blood of Christ. ²⁰ For He was known before the foundation of the world, but has appeared in these last times for your sake ²¹ Through Him you have come to believe in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. ²² Since you have purified your souls by obedience to the truth for a sincere love of the brothers and sisters, love one another earnestly from the heart, ²³ for you have been born again not of perishable seed, but imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God. ²⁴ For,

“All humanity is like grass, And all its splendour is like the flower of grass. The grass withers, And the flower falls away, ²⁵ But the word of the Lord remains forever.”

And this is the word that was proclaimed to you.

2 So, put away all malice, deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and every kind of slander, ² and like newborn infants, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation, ³ if you have experienced the goodness of the Lord. ⁴ And as you come to Him, a living stone rejected by people but chosen and precious in God’s sight, ⁵ you also, like living stones, are being constructed into a spiritual house to become a holy priesthood, presenting spiritual sacrifices that are acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. ⁶ For it is stated in Scripture:

“See, I am placing in Zion a chosen stone, a precious cornerstone, And whoever believes in Him will not be put to shame.”

⁷ This precious value, then, is for you who believe; but for those who do not believe,

“A stone which the builders rejected, This became the chief cornerstone,”

⁸ and,

“A stone of stumbling and a rock of offence”; for they stumble because they are disobedient to the word, and to this they were also appointed.

⁹ But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God’s own possession, so that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvellous light; ¹⁰ for you were once not a people, but now you are the people of God; you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy. ¹¹ Beloved, I urge you, as strangers and pilgrims, to refrain from sinful desires, which wage war against your soul. ¹² Keep your behaviour excellent among the Gentiles, so that in the thing in which they slander you as evildoers, they may because of your good deeds, as they observe them, glorify God on the day of visitation. ¹³ Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every human authority, whether to the king as the supreme authority, ¹⁴ or to governors, who are sent by him to bring justice to those who do wrong and to praise those who do right. ¹⁵ For it is God's will that by doing good you should silence the unwise talk of uninformed people. ¹⁶ Live as free people, but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as servants of God. ¹⁷ Honour all people, love the brotherhood, fear God, honour the king. ¹⁸ Servants, submit yourselves to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and gentle, but also to those who are harsh. ¹⁹ For it is praiseworthy if someone endures the pain of unjust suffering because they are mindful of God. ²⁰ For what credit is there if, when you sin and are harshly treated, you endure it with patience? But if when you do what is right and suffer for it you patiently endure it, this finds favour with God. ²¹ For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in His steps,

1 Peter

²² He who did no wrong, nor was any falsehood found in His mouth;

²³ and while being insulted, He did not retaliate; while suffering, He made no threats, but entrusted Himself to Him who judges justly; ²⁴ and He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by His wounds you have been healed. ²⁵ For you were like sheep that had gone astray, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

3 In the same way, you wives, be subject to your own husbands so that even if any of them are disobedient to the word, they may be won over without a word by the behaviour of their wives, ² as they observe your pure and respectful behaviour. ³ Your adornment must not be the external—braiding the hair, wearing gold jewellery, or putting on apparel; ⁴ but let it be the inner self, with the enduring beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is valuable in God's eyes. ⁵ For in this manner, the holy women of the past, who placed their hope in God, used to adorn themselves, being supportive to their own husbands, ⁶ just as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord; and you have become her children if you do what is right without giving way to fear. ⁷ You husbands in the same way, live with your wives in an understanding way, as with someone weaker, since she is a woman; and show her honour as a fellow heir of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered. ⁸ Finally, all of you be harmonious, sympathetic, loving, compassionate, and humble; ⁹ not returning evil for evil or insult for insult, but offering a blessing instead; for you were called for this very purpose, that you might inherit a blessing. ¹⁰ For,

"He who would love life and see good days, Must keep their tongue from evil and their lips from speaking deceit. ¹¹ They should turn away from evil and do good; They should seek peace and pursue it. ¹² For the Lord's eyes are upon the righteous, And His ears are attentive to their prayer, But the Lord's face is against those who do evil."

¹³ And who is there to harm you if you are eager to do good? ¹⁴ But even if you should suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear their threats, nor be troubled, ¹⁵ but sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defence to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, but with gentleness and respect; ¹⁶ and keep a good conscience so that in the thing in which you are slandered, those who disparage your good behaviour in Christ will be put to shame. ¹⁷ For it is better, if it is God's will, that you suffer for doing good rather than for doing evil. ¹⁸ For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive in the spirit; ¹⁹ in which He went and made proclamation to the spirits in confinement, ²⁰ who were disobedient long ago, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built. In it only a few people, eight in all, were saved through water. ²¹ And this water symbolises baptism that now saves you also—not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a clear conscience toward God. It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ,²² who has ascended into heaven and is at the right hand of God—with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to Him.

1 Peter

4 Since Christ endured suffering in the flesh, equip yourselves with the same mindset, because whoever has suffered in the flesh has turned away from sin,² so as to live the remaining time in the flesh not for human desires, but for the will of God.³ For the time already past is sufficient for you to have carried out the desire of the Gentiles, having pursued a course of indecent behaviour, lusts, drunkenness, carousing, drinking parties, and wanton idolatries.⁴ In all this, they are surprised that you do not join them in the same excesses of debauchery, and they slander you;⁵ but they will have to account to Him who is prepared to judge both the living and the dead.⁶ For the gospel has for this purpose been preached even to those who are dead, so that though they are judged in the flesh as people, they may live in the spirit according to the will of God.⁷ The culmination of all things is near; therefore, be clear-minded and self-controlled for the sake of prayer.⁸ Above all, maintain a fervent love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins.⁹ Extend hospitality to one another willingly and without complaint.¹⁰ As each one has received a special gift, use it in serving one another as good stewards of the varied grace of God.¹¹ Whoever speaks should do so as one speaking the very words of God; whoever serves should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.¹² Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial among you, which comes upon you for your testing, as though something unusual were happening to you;¹³ but to the extent that you share in the sufferings of Christ, continue to rejoice, so that at the revelation of His glory you may also rejoice and be filled with joy.¹⁴ If you are reproached for bearing the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you.¹⁵ Ensure that none of you suffers as a murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or a troublesome meddler;¹⁶ but if anyone suffers as a Christian, they should not feel ashamed, but should glorify God in this name.¹⁷ For it is time for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it starts with us first, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God?¹⁸ And if it is with difficulty that the righteous is saved, what will become of the godless person and the sinner?

¹⁹ Therefore, those who suffer according to the will of God should entrust their souls to a faithful Creator by doing what is right.

5 So, I appeal to the elders among you, as a fellow elder and a witness to the sufferings of Christ, and also as one who shares in the glory that is to be revealed:² tend to the flock of God in your care, providing oversight willingly, in accordance with God's will; and not for dishonest gain, but with enthusiasm;³ not by lording it over those entrusted to you, but by being examples to the flock.⁴ And when the Chief Shepherd is revealed, you will be awarded the unfading crown of glory.⁵ You younger men, likewise, be subject to your elders; and all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because

"God is opposed to the proud, But gives grace to the humble."

⁶ So humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may lift you up at the right time,⁷ casting all your worries on Him, because He cares for you.⁸ Be alert and vigilant. Your adversary, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.⁹ Resist him, standing firm in your faith, knowing that your brothers and sisters throughout the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering.¹⁰ After you have suffered for a short time, the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ, will Himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you.¹¹ To Him be all power, for all eternity. Amen.¹² Through Silvanus, our faithful brother (as I consider him), I have written to you briefly, to encourage you and to testify that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it!¹³ The church in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings, and so does my son, Mark.¹⁴ Extend warm greetings to one another with a gesture of love. May peace be with all of you who are in Christ.

2 Peter

1 Simon Peter, a bond-servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who have received a faith of the same kind as ours, by the righteousness of our God and Saviour, Jesus Christ: ² May grace and peace abound to you through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, ³ for His divine power has provided us with everything necessary for life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence. ⁴ Through these, He has given us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become sharers in the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world because of desire. ⁵ Now for this very reason also, applying all diligence, in your faith add moral excellence, and in your moral excellence, knowledge, ⁶ and in your knowledge, develop self-control, and in your self-control, cultivate perseverance, and in your perseverance, nurture godliness, ⁷ and in your godliness, brotherly affection, and in your brotherly affection, love. ⁸ For if these qualities are yours and are growing, they will keep you from being ineffective or unproductive in the true knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ For the one who lacks these qualities is blind or short-sighted, having forgotten the cleansing of their past sins. ¹⁰ Therefore, brothers and sisters, be all the more diligent to confirm His calling and choice of you; for as long as you practice these things, you will never stumble; ¹¹ for in this way the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ will be richly provided to you. ¹² Therefore, I will always be ready to remind you of these things, even though you already know them, and have been established in the truth that is present with you. ¹³ I consider it right, as long as I am in this earthly body, to stir you up by way of reminder, ¹⁴ knowing that the removal of my earthly body is imminent, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me. ¹⁵ And I will also be diligent that at any time after my departure you will be able to recall these things. ¹⁶ For we did not follow cleverly devised stories when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty. ¹⁷ For when He received honour and glory from God the Father, such a declaration as this was made to Him by the Majestic Glory: "This is My beloved Son with whom I am well pleased"— ¹⁸ and we ourselves heard this voice from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹ And so we have the prophetic word confirmed, to which you do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. ²⁰ But know this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone's own interpretation, ²¹ for no prophecy was ever made by human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

2 Yet false prophets emerged among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will covertly bring in harmful teachings, even denying the Master who redeemed them, leading to their swift ruin. ² Many will follow their indecent behaviour, and because of them the way of the truth will be maligned; ³ and in their greed they will exploit you with false words; their judgement from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep. ⁴ For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to pits of darkness, held for judgement; ⁵ and did not spare the ancient world, but safeguarded Noah, a preacher of righteousness, along with seven others, when He brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; ⁶ and if He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ruin by reducing them to ashes, making them an example of what is destined for the ungodly; ⁷ and if He rescued righteous Lot, who was distressed by the immoral conduct of unscrupulous people ⁸ (for by what he observed and heard, that righteous man, while living among them, felt his righteous soul tormented day after day by their lawless deeds), ⁹ then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from a trial, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgement, ¹⁰ and especially those who indulge the flesh in its corrupt passion, and despise authority. Reckless, self-centred, they speak abusively of angelic majesties without trembling, ¹¹ whereas angels who are greater in might and power do not bring a reviling judgement against them before the Lord. ¹² But these, like unreasoning animals, born as creatures of instinct to be captured and killed, speaking abusively in matters of which they are ignorant, will in the destruction of those creatures also be destroyed, ¹³ suffering harm as the wages of doing wrong. They count it a pleasure to revel in the daytime. They are stains and blemishes, delighting in their deceptions as they feast with you, ¹⁴ having eyes full of adultery that never cease from sinning, enticing unstable souls, with hearts trained in greed, accursed children; ¹⁵ forsaking the right way, they have wandered off, having followed the path of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved the reward of unrighteousness; ¹⁶ but he received a rebuke for his own offence, for a mute donkey, speaking with a human voice, restrained the madness of the prophet. ¹⁷ These are springs without water and mists driven by a storm, for whom the deepest darkness has been reserved. ¹⁸ For, while speaking out arrogant words of no value they entice by fleshly desires, by indecent behaviour, those who barely escape from the ones who live in error, ¹⁹ promising them freedom while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by whatever overcomes a person, by this they are enslaved. ²⁰ For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world by the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and are overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. ²¹ For it would be preferable for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn away from the holy commandment handed on to them. ²² This is shown by the true proverb:

2 Peter

"A dog returns to its own vomit,"

and,

"A sow, after washing, returns to wallowing in the mire."

3 Beloved, this is now the second letter I am writing to you in which I am stirring up your sincere mind by way of reminder, ² to remember the words spoken beforehand by the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Saviour spoken by your apostles. ³ Understand this first, that in the last days, scoffers will appear, following their own desires, ⁴ and questioning, "Where is the promise of His coming? Since the ancestors passed away, all things remain as they have been since the beginning of creation." ⁵ For when they assert this, they overlook that by the word of God the heavens existed long ago and the earth was shaped out of water and by water, ⁶ through which the world of that time was destroyed when it was flooded with water. ⁷ But by His word the present heavens and earth are being reserved for fire, kept for the day of judgement and destruction of ungodly people. ⁸ However, do not forget this one truth, beloved: with the Lord, a single day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a single day. ⁹ The Lord is not delaying His promise, as some consider delay, but is patient with you, not wanting any to perish, but for all to come to repentance. ¹⁰ But the day of the Lord will arrive like a thief, when the heavens will vanish with a roar and the elements will be consumed by intense heat, and the earth and its works will be laid bare. ¹¹ Since all these things are to be dissolved in this manner, what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, ¹² anticipating and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set ablaze and the elements will melt with intense heat! ¹³ But according to His promise, we are awaiting new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness resides. ¹⁴ Therefore, beloved, as you anticipate these things, be diligent to be found by Him spotless and blameless, at peace, ¹⁵ and consider the patience of our Lord as salvation; just as our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you, ¹⁶ as he does in all his letters, speaking in them of these matters, in which there are some things difficult to comprehend, which the unlearned and unstable twist, as they do the rest of the Scriptures, to their own ruin. ¹⁷ You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, be on your guard so that you are not led astray by the error of unscrupulous people and fall from your own firm commitment, ¹⁸ but continue to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and forevermore. Amen.

1 John

1 What existed from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have observed and touched with our hands, concerning the Word of Life— ² and the life was made known, and we have seen and testify and declare to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was made known to us— ³ what we have seen and heard we declare to you also, so that you too may share in fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ. ⁴ We write these things, so that our joy may be complete. ⁵ This is the message we have received from Him and declare to you, that God is Light, and in Him there is no darkness at all. ⁶ If we claim to have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness, we are not truthful and do not practice the truth; ⁷ but if we walk in the Light as He Himself is in the Light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son purifies us from all sin. ⁸ If we claim to be without sin, we are deceiving ourselves and the truth is not in us. ⁹ If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just, so that He will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰ If we claim we have not sinned, we make Him a liar and His word is not in us.

2 My dear children, I am writing these things to you to help you avoid sin. Yet if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; ² and He Himself is the atoning sacrifice for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. ³ By this we understand that we have come to know Him, if we keep His commandments. ⁴ Anyone who claims, "I have come to know Him," yet does not keep His commandments, is deceiving themselves, and the truth is not in them; ⁵ but whoever follows His word, in him the love of God has truly been perfected. By this we understand that we are in Him: ⁶ the one who says that he remains in Him ought, himself also, walk just as He walked. ⁷ Dear friends, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard. ⁸ Yet, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is fading away and the true Light is already shining. ⁹ The one who claims to be in the Light and yet hates his brother or sister is in the darkness until now. ¹⁰ The one who loves his brother and sister remains in the Light, and there is nothing in him that causes stumbling. ¹¹ But the one who hates his brother or sister is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, for the darkness has blinded his eyes.

¹² I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven through His name. ¹³ I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I have written to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. ¹⁴ I have written to you, children, because you know the Father. I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

¹⁵ Do not love the world or the things in it. If anyone is in love with the world, the love of the Father is not in them. ¹⁶ For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world. ¹⁷ The world is fading away and also its desires; but the one who does the will of God continues to live forever. ¹⁸ Children, it is the final hour; and just as you heard that antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have appeared. From this we understand that it is the final hour. ¹⁹ They went out from us, but they were not truly of us; for if they had been of us, they would have stayed with us; but they went out, so that it would be evident that they all are not of us. ²⁰ Yet you have received an anointing from the Holy One, and you are all aware. ²¹ I have not written to you because you are unaware of the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie comes from the truth. ²² Who is the liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one who denies both the Father and the Son. ²³ Everyone who denies the Son does not have the Father; the one who acknowledges the Son has the Father also. ²⁴ As for you, ensure that what you heard from the beginning remains in you. If what you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵ This is the promise He made to us: eternal life. ²⁶ These things I have written to you concerning those who are trying to mislead you. ²⁷ As for you, the anointing which you received from Him remains in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you; but as His anointing teaches you about all things, and is true and not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you remain in Him. ²⁸ Now, dear children, remain in Him, so that when He appears, we may have confidence and not shrink back from Him in shame at His coming. ²⁹ If you know that He is righteous, you recognise that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of Him.

1 John

3 Observe the wonderful love the Father has bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God; and indeed we are. This is why the world does not recognise us: because it did not recognise Him. ² Dear friends, now we are children of God, and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be. We know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He truly is. ³ And everyone who holds this hope in Him strives for purity, just as He is pure. ⁴ Everyone who commits sin also commits lawlessness; and sin is lawlessness. ⁵ You are aware that He appeared to take away sins; and in Him there is no sin. ⁶ No one who abides in Him continues to sin; no one who continues to sin has seen Him or knows Him. ⁷ Little children, let no one lead you astray; the one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous; ⁸ the one who commits sin is of the devil; for the devil has been sinning from the start. The Son of God appeared for this reason, to undo the works of the devil. ⁹ No one who is born of God continues to sin, because His seed abides in him; and he cannot continue to sin, because he is born of God. ¹⁰ By this the children of God and the children of the devil are evident: anyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother or sister. ¹¹ For this is the message you have heard right from the start: that we should love one another; ¹² not like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and killed his brother. And why did he kill him? Because his own actions were evil, while his brother's were righteous. ¹³ Do not be astonished, brothers and sisters, if the world hates you. ¹⁴ We know that we have transitioned from death to life, because we love our brothers and sisters. Whoever does not love remains in death. ¹⁵ Everyone who hates his brother or sister is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. ¹⁶ We understand love by this, that He laid down

His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. ¹⁷ But whoever has material possessions and sees his brother or sister in need, and closes his heart against them, how can the love of God abide in him? ¹⁸ Little children, let us not love with words or speech, but with actions and in truth. ¹⁹ By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and shall reassure our hearts before Him, ²⁰ that if our hearts condemn us, God is greater than our hearts, and He knows all things. ²¹ Dear friends, if our hearts are at peace, we have confidence before God; ²² and whatever we ask, we receive from Him, because we follow His commandments and do what is pleasing to Him. ²³ This is His commandment, that we believe in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as He instructed us. ²⁴ The one who observes His commandments remains in Him, and He in him. We know by this that He remains in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.

4 Dear friends, do not trust every spirit, but examine the spirits to determine if they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. ² This is how you can recognise the Spirit of God: every spirit that acknowledges Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God; ³ and every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God; this is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming, and now it is already in the world. ⁴ You belong to God, dear children, and have overcome them; because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world. ⁵ They originate from the world; therefore they speak from the world's perspective, and the world listens to them. ⁶ We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we recognise the spirit of truth and the spirit of error. ⁷ Dear friends, let us love each other, for love is from God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. ⁸ Anyone who does not love has not come to know God, because God is love. ⁹ This is how the love of God was revealed among us: God sent His only Son into the world so that we might live through Him. ¹⁰ This is love: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. ¹¹ Dear beloved, since God has loved us in such a way, we should also love one another. ¹² No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and His love is made complete in us. ¹³ By this we know that we live in

1 John

Him and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit. ¹⁴ We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. ¹⁵ Whoever acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in him, and he in God. ¹⁶ We have come to know and believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. ¹⁷ By this, love is made complete among us, so that we may have confidence on the day of judgement, because as He is, so are we in this world. ¹⁸ There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves punishment, and the one who fears is not made perfect in love. ¹⁹ We love Him only because He first loved us. ²⁰ If someone says, "I love God," and yet hates his brother or sister, he is a liar; for the one who does not love his brother or sister whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. ²¹ And this is the commandment we have from Him: that the one who loves God must also love his brother and sister.

5 Anyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and whoever loves the Father loves the child born of Him. ² This is how we know that we love the children of God: when we love God and obey His commandments. ³ For this is how we demonstrate our love of God: by keeping His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome. ⁴ For anyone born of God triumphs over the world; and our faith is the victory that has conquered the world. ⁵ Who is it that triumphs over the world, but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? ⁶ This is the One who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷ For there are these three that bear witness: ⁸ the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three are in harmony. ⁹ If we accept the testimony of people, the testimony of God is greater; for the testimony of God is this, that He has testified concerning His Son. ¹⁰ The believer in the Son of God has the testimony within; the one who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has provided concerning His Son. ¹¹ And this is the testimony: God has granted us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. ¹² Those who have the Son possess life; those who do not have the Son of God do not possess life. ¹³ I have written these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you possess eternal life. ¹⁴ This is the assurance we have before Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He listens to us. ¹⁵ And if we know that He listens to us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests we have made of Him. ¹⁶ If anyone sees his brother or sister committing a sin not leading to death, he shall ask and God will, for him, grant life to those who commit sin not leading to death. There is sin leading to death; I am not saying that he should make request for that. ¹⁷ All wrongdoing is sin, and there is sin not leading to death. ¹⁸ We know that no one born of God continues to sin; but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him. ¹⁹ We know that we belong to God, and that the whole world is under the sway of the evil one. ²⁰ And we are aware that the Son of God has come and has provided us with understanding, so that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. ²¹ So, dear children, keep yourselves from idols.

2 John

1 From the elder, To the chosen lady and her children, whom I truly love; and not only I, but also all who have come to know the truth, ² because of the truth that abides in us and will remain with us always: ³ Grace, mercy, and peace are ours from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. ⁴ I was delighted to discover that some of your children are living in truth, just as we have been commanded by the Father. ⁵ Now I ask you, lady, not as though I were writing a new commandment to you, but one which we have had from the beginning, that we love one another. ⁶ And this is love, that we live according to His commandments. This is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. ⁷ For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not acknowledge Jesus Christ as having come in the flesh. Such a person is the deceiver and the antichrist. ⁸ Watch yourselves, so that you do not lose what we have accomplished, but that you may receive a full reward. ⁹ Anyone who goes beyond and does not remain in the teaching of Christ does not have God; the one who remains in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰ If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not welcome them into your house, and do not offer them a greeting; ¹¹ for the one who offers them a greeting shares in their evil deeds. ¹² Though I have many things to write to you, I prefer not to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to visit you and speak face to face, so that your joy may be complete. ¹³ The children of your chosen sister send their greetings.

3 John

1 From the elder, To the dear Gaius, whom I love in the truth. ² Dear friend, I pray that you may prosper in every way and enjoy good health, just as your soul is thriving. ³ For I was filled with joy when brothers came and testified about your truth, specifically how you are living in the truth. ⁴ There is no greater joy for me than to hear that my children are living in the truth. ⁵ Dear friend, you are faithful in what you do for the brothers and sisters, even though they are strangers to you; ⁶ and they have spoken of your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner that honours God. ⁷ For they went out for the sake of the Name, accepting no assistance from the Gentiles. ⁸ Therefore, we ought to support such people, so that we may be fellow workers for the truth. ⁹ I wrote a letter to the church; but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, does not acknowledge our authority. ¹⁰ For this reason, if I come, I will bring up what he is doing, spreading malicious nonsense about us; and not content with that, he refuses to welcome the brothers, and he also stops those who want to do so and puts them out of the church. ¹¹ Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. ¹² Demetrius is well spoken of by everyone, and by the truth itself; we also speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is reliable. ¹³ I have many things to write to you, but I prefer not to do so with pen and ink; ¹⁴ I hope to visit you soon, and we will converse face to face. ¹⁵ Peace be with you. The friends here send their greetings. Greet the friends there by name.

Jude

1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, to those who are called, cherished by God the Father, and preserved for Jesus Christ:

² May you be richly blessed with mercy, peace, and love. ³ Beloved, while I was eager to write to you about our shared salvation, I felt it necessary to urge you to earnestly contend for the faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints. ⁴ For certain individuals have crept in unnoticed, those who were long ago marked for this condemnation, ungodly persons who pervert the grace of our God into indecent behaviour and deny our only Sovereign and Lord, Jesus Christ. ⁵ Now I wish to remind you, though you know all things once for all, that the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, later destroyed those who did not believe. ⁶ And the angels who did not keep their own domain but abandoned their proper dwelling, He has kept in eternal chains under darkness for the judgement of the great day. ⁷ Just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding towns indulged in sexual immorality and pursued strange flesh, they serve as an example by undergoing the punishment of eternal fire. ⁸ In the same way, these people also, relying on their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority, and speak abusively against celestial beings. ⁹ But even Michael the archangel, when he disputed with the devil about the body of Moses, did not dare to pronounce a slanderous judgement against him, but said, "The Lord rebuke you!" ¹⁰ Yet these people slander whatever they do not understand, and the things they do understand by instinct, like unreasoning animals, will destroy them. ¹¹ Woe to them! They have gone the way of Cain, and for profit have rushed into Balaam's error, and perished in Korah's rebellion. ¹² These are blemishes at your love feasts, feasting with you without fear, like shepherds who care only for themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, uprooted. ¹³ Wild waves of the sea, foaming up their shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackest darkness has been reserved forever. ¹⁴ It was about these people that Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord comes with thousands upon thousands of His holy ones, ¹⁵ to execute judgement on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their ungodly deeds done in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh words ungodly sinners have spoken against Him." ¹⁶ These are grumblers, faultfinders, following their own evil desires; they boast about themselves and flatter others for their own advantage. ¹⁷ But you, beloved, remember the words spoken beforehand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁸ that they told you, "In the last times there will be scoffers following their own ungodly desires." ¹⁹ These are the ones who create divisions, focused on worldly matters, lacking the Spirit. ²⁰ But you, beloved, by building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, ²¹ keep yourselves in the love of God as you wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you to eternal life. ²² And show compassion to those who are uncertain; ²³ save others by snatching them from the fire; to others show mercy, mixed with fear, hating even the clothing stained by corrupted flesh. ²⁴ Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before His glorious presence with great joy— ²⁵ to the only God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time, now and forevermore! Amen.

Revelation

1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God granted Him to show to His servants the things that must soon occur. He made it known by sending His angel to His servant John, ² who bore witness to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, to everything he saw. ³ Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear and keep what is written in it, for the time is near. ⁴ John, to the seven churches in the province of Asia: Grace and peace to you from Him who is, who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits before His throne, ⁵ and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and has released us from our sins by His blood— ⁶ and has made us a kingdom, priests to His God and Father—to Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

⁷ Behold, He is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him; and all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. So shall it be! Amen.

⁸ “I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.” ⁹ I, John, your brother and companion in the tribulation and kingdom and patient endurance in Jesus, was on the island of Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. ¹⁰ I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s Day, and I heard a loud voice behind me, resonant like a trumpet, ¹¹ instructing me to write what I see on a scroll and send it to the seven churches: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea. ¹² Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me. And having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands, ¹³ and in the midst of the lampstands was one like a son of man, clothed in a robe reaching to His feet, and with a golden sash around His chest. ¹⁴ His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes were like a flame of fire. ¹⁵ His feet were like bronze glowing in a furnace, and His voice was like the sound of many waters. ¹⁶ In His right hand He held seven stars, and out of His mouth came a sharp, double-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining in its full strength. ¹⁷ Upon seeing Him, I fell at His feet as if lifeless. Then He placed His right hand on me and said: “Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last, ¹⁸ and the Living One; I was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore, and I hold the keys of death and Hades. ¹⁹ Write, therefore, what you have seen, what is now, and what will take place after these things. ²⁰ Regarding the seven stars you saw in My right hand and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

2 “To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: These are the words of the One who holds the seven stars in His right hand and walks among the seven golden lampstands. ² I know your deeds, your labour, and your perseverance, and that you cannot tolerate evil people. You have tested those who claim to be apostles but are not, and have found them false. ³ You have endured and persevered for my name, and have not grown weary. ⁴ Yet I have this against you: You have abandoned the love you had at first. ⁵ Remember from where you have fallen! Repent and do the deeds you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place. ⁶ But you have this in your favour: you reject the practices of the Nicolaitans, which I also detest. ⁷ Let those who have ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes, I will grant the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of God. ⁸ “To the angel of the church in Smyrna write: These are the words of the First and the Last, who was dead and has come to life. ⁹ I know your tribulation and your poverty—yet you are rich! I know about the slander of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. ¹⁰ Do not fear what you are about to suffer. The devil is about to throw some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful even unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. ¹¹ Let those who have ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who overcomes will not be harmed by the second death. ¹² “To the angel of the church in Pergamum write: These are the words of Him who possesses the sharp, double-edged sword. ¹³ I know where you live—where Satan’s throne is. Yet you hold firmly to my name and did not deny your faith in me, even in the days of Antipas, my faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. ¹⁴ But I have a few things against you: There are some among you who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the Israelites, to eat food sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality.

Revelation

¹⁵ Similarly, you also have those who adhere to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. ¹⁶ Repent therefore! Otherwise, I will come to you quickly and fight against them with the sword of my mouth. ¹⁷ Let those who have ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also provide that person with a white stone with a new name written on it, known only to the one who receives it. ¹⁸ "To the angel of the church in Thyatira write: These are the words of the Son of God, whose eyes are like blazing fire and whose feet are like polished bronze.

¹⁹ I know your deeds, your love and faith, your service and perseverance, and that your deeds of late are greater than at first. ²⁰ Nevertheless, I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. By her teaching she misleads my servants into sexual immorality and the eating of food sacrificed to idols. ²¹ I have given her time to turn away from her immorality, but she is unwilling. ²² Behold, I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and those who commit adultery with her will suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways.

²³ I will bring judgment upon her children. Then all the churches will know that I am He who searches hearts and minds, and I will repay each of you according to your deeds. ²⁴ Now I say to the rest of you in Thyatira, to you who do not hold to her teaching and have not learned what some call Satan's deep secrets, I will not impose any other burden on you, ²⁵ but continue to hold on to what you have until I come. ²⁶ To the one who overcomes and does my will to the end, I will give authority over the nations— ²⁷ that one 'will rule them with a rod of iron and will dash them to pieces like pottery'—just as I have received authority from my Father. ²⁸ I will also bestow upon that person the morning star. ²⁹ Let those who have ears listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

3 "To the angel of the church in Sardis write: These are the words of the one who possesses the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. I am aware of your deeds; you have a reputation for being alive, yet you are dead. ² Be vigilant and strengthen what remains, which is on the verge of dying, for I have found your deeds incomplete in the sight of my God. ³ So remember what you have received and heard; hold it firmly, and repent. If you do not remain alert, I will come like a thief, and you will not know the hour I will come to you. ⁴ However, you have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their garments. They will walk with me, dressed in white, for they are worthy. ⁵ The one who is victorious will be clothed in white garments like them, and I will not erase their name from the book of life, but will acknowledge their name before my Father and his angels. ⁶ Whoever has an ear, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches. ⁷ "To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: These are the words of the one who is holy and true, who holds the key of David. What he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open. ⁸ I know your deeds. Look, I have set before you an open door that no one can shut. You have a little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name. ⁹ I will make those who belong to the synagogue of Satan, who claim to be Jews but are not, and are liars—I will make them come and bow down at your feet and acknowledge that I have loved you. ¹⁰ Because you have kept my command to persevere, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is about to come upon the whole world to test the inhabitants of the earth. ¹¹ I am coming soon. Hold fast to what you have, so that no one will take your crown. ¹² The one who is victorious I will make a pillar in the temple of my God, and they will never leave it. I will write on them the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on them my new name. ¹³ Whoever has an ear, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches. ¹⁴ "To the angel of the church in Laodicea write: These are the words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the origin of God's creation. ¹⁵ I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either cold or hot! ¹⁶ Therefore, since you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to reject you. ¹⁷ You say, 'I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need anything.' But you do not realise that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked. ¹⁸ I advise you to buy from me gold refined in the fire, so you can become rich; and white garments to wear, so you can cover your shameful nakedness; and salve to put on your eyes, so you can see. ¹⁹ Those whom I love, I rebuke and discipline. Therefore, be earnest and repent. ²⁰ Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and dine with that person, and they with me. ²¹ To the one who is victorious, I will grant the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I was victorious and sat down with my Father on his throne. ²² Whoever has an ear, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

Revelation

4 After these events I looked, and there was a door standing open in heaven. The first voice I heard, which sounded like a trumpet, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after these things." ² Immediately I was in the Spirit, and there was a throne set in heaven, with someone seated on it. ³ The one who sat there had an appearance like jasper and sardius, and a rainbow resembling an emerald encircled the throne. ⁴ Surrounding the throne were twenty-four thrones, and upon these thrones sat twenty-four elders, dressed in white garments, with golden crowns on their heads. ⁵ From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings, and peals of thunder. In front of the throne, seven lamps were burning, which are the seven spirits of God. ⁶ Before the throne there was something like a sea of glass, clear as crystal; and in the centre, around the throne, were four living creatures covered with eyes, in front and behind. ⁷ The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like a calf, the third had a face like a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle. ⁸ Each of the four living creatures had six wings and were full of eyes all around and within; and day and night they never cease to say,

"Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come."

⁹ Whenever the living creatures give glory, honour, and thanks to the one who sits on the throne, who lives forever and ever, ¹⁰ the twenty-four elders fall down before the one who sits on the throne and worship him who lives forever and ever. They lay their crowns before the throne and say:

"You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory, honour, and power, for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created."

5 I observed in the right hand of the one seated on the throne a scroll inscribed on both sides and sealed with seven seals. ² Then I witnessed a powerful angel calling out with a strong voice,

"Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?" ³ But no one in heaven, on earth, or under the earth was able to open the scroll or even look inside it. ⁴ I wept greatly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look inside it. ⁵ Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals." ⁶ And I saw a Lamb standing between the throne and the four living creatures and the elders, looking as if it had been slain. It had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. ⁷ He approached and took the scroll from the right hand of the one seated on the throne. ⁸ When He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each held a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of God's people. ⁹ And they sang a new song, saying:

"You are worthy to take the scroll and open its seals, for You were slain, and with Your blood, You purchased for God people from every tribe, language, people, and nation. ¹⁰ You have made them a kingdom and priests to serve our God, and they will reign on the earth."

¹¹ Then I looked and heard the voices of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; their number was thousands upon thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand. ¹² In a loud voice, they were saying:

"Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power, wealth, wisdom, might, honour, glory, and blessing!"

¹³ And I heard every creature in heaven, on earth, under the earth, and on the sea, and all that is in them, saying:

"To Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing, honour, glory, and dominion for ever and ever!"

¹⁴ The four living creatures affirmed with "Amen," and the elders bowed down and worshipped.

6 I observed as the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, "Come!"

² I looked, and there was a white horse! Its rider held a bow, and a crown was given to him, and he set out conquering and to conquer. ³ As the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come!" ⁴ Then another horse appeared, a fiery red one. Its rider was granted the power to take peace from the earth, so that people would kill each other; and a large sword was given to him. ⁵ When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come!" I looked, and there was a black horse! Its rider held a pair of scales in his hand. ⁶ Then I heard what seemed to be a voice among the four living creatures, saying, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not harm the oil and the wine." ⁷ As the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature's voice say, "Come!" ⁸ I looked, and there was a pale horse! Its rider was named Death, and Hades followed closely behind him. They were given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword, famine, plague, and by the wild beasts of the earth. ⁹ When the Lamb opened the fifth seal, I saw beneath the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony they had maintained. ¹⁰ They cried out in a loud voice, "How long, Sovereign Lord, holy and true, until you judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge our blood?" ¹¹ Then each of them was given a white robe, and they were told to rest a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brothers and sisters, who were to be killed as they had been, was completed. ¹² I watched as he opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake; the sun became black like sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon turned blood red, ¹³ and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, as a fig tree sheds its unripe figs when shaken by a strong wind. ¹⁴ The sky vanished like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was displaced. ¹⁵ Then the kings of the earth, the nobles, the commanders, the rich, the powerful, and everyone else, both slave and free, hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁶ They called to the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us and conceal us from the presence of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!" ¹⁷ For the great day of Their anger has arrived, and who can withstand it?"

Revelation

7 After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, restraining the four winds of the earth so that no wind might blow on the land, the sea, or any tree. ² And I saw another angel ascending from the east, carrying the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who were granted the power to harm the earth and the sea, ³ saying, "Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees until we have placed a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." ⁴ And I heard the number of those who were sealed: 144,000, sealed from all the tribes of the sons of Israel:

⁵ Sealed from the tribe of Judah, 12,000, from the tribe of Reuben, 12,000, from the tribe of Gad, 12,000, ⁶ sealed from the tribe of Asher, 12,000, from the tribe of Naphtali, 12,000, from the tribe of Manasseh, 12,000, ⁷ sealed from the tribe of Simeon, 12,000, from the tribe of Levi, 12,000, from the tribe of Issachar, 12,000, ⁸ from the tribe of Zebulun, 12,000, from the tribe of Joseph, 12,000, and from the tribe of Benjamin, 12,000 were sealed.

⁹ After these events, I looked, and there was a vast multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people, and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰ And they proclaimed with a loud voice,

"Salvation is belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

¹¹ All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, ¹² saying,

"Amen! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honour, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

¹³ Then one of the elders addressed me, asking, "These who are dressed in white robes, who are they, and where have they come from?" ¹⁴ I replied, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones who have come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

¹⁵ For this reason, they are before the throne of God and serve Him day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will shelter them with His presence. ¹⁶ They will no longer hunger or thirst, nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any scorching heat; ¹⁷ for the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and He will lead them to springs of the water of life; and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Revelation

8 When the Lamb broke open the seventh seal, silence fell in heaven for about half an hour. ²

Then, I observed the seven angels who stand in the presence of God, and they were given seven trumpets. ³ Another angel, holding a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense to offer, along with the prayers of all the saints, on the golden altar before the throne. ⁴ The smoke of the incense, together with the prayers of the saints, rose up before God from the angel's hand. ⁵ Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and hurled it onto the earth; and there were peals of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake. ⁶ And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to sound them. ⁷ The first angel sounded his trumpet, and there was hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was thrown to the earth; a third of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up. ⁸ The second angel sounded his trumpet, and something like a great mountain, burning with fire, was cast into the sea; and a third of the sea turned into blood, ⁹ and a third of the sea creatures perished, and a third of the ships were destroyed. ¹⁰ The third angel sounded his trumpet, and a great star, burning like a torch, fell from heaven onto a third of the rivers and on the springs of water— ¹¹ the star is called Wormwood. A third of the waters became bitter, and many people died from the waters because they had become bitter. ¹² The fourth angel sounded his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day did not shine, and likewise the night. ¹³ Then I looked, and I heard an eagle flying in mid-heaven, proclaiming with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the trumpet blasts about to be sounded by the remaining three angels!"

9 The fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to the shaft of the Abyss.

² He opened the shaft of the Abyss, and smoke rose from it like the smoke of a vast furnace. The sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the shaft. ³ Out of the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and they were given power like that of scorpions of the earth. ⁴ They were instructed not to harm the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads. ⁵ They were permitted only to torment them for five months without causing death. The torment they inflicted was similar to a scorpion's sting. ⁶ In those days, people will seek death but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will evade them. ⁷ The locusts appeared like horses prepared for battle. On their heads were something like crowns of gold, and their faces resembled human faces. ⁸ Their hair was like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions. ⁹ They had breastplates like iron breastplates, and the sound of their wings was like the noise of many horses and chariots rushing into battle. ¹⁰ They had tails with stingers like scorpions, and in their tails they possessed the power to torment people for five months. ¹¹ They had as king over them the angel of the Abyss, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek, Apollyon. ¹² The first woe is past; behold, two more woes are yet to come. ¹³ The sixth angel sounded his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God, ¹⁴ the voice instructed the sixth angel with the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates." ¹⁵ The four angels, who had been prepared for the hour, day, month, and year, were released to kill a third of mankind. ¹⁶ The number of the mounted troops was two hundred million; I heard their number. ¹⁷ This is how I saw the horses and riders in my vision: the riders had breastplates of fiery red, dark blue, and sulphurous yellow. The heads of the horses were like the heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and sulphur. ¹⁸ A third of mankind was killed by these three plagues of fire, smoke, and sulphur coming out of their mouths. ¹⁹ The power of the horses was in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails were like serpents, having heads with which they inflicted harm. ²⁰ The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, still did not repent of the works of their hands; they did not cease worshipping demons, and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood, which cannot see, hear, or walk. ²¹ Nor did they repent of their murders, their sorceries, their sexual immorality, or their thefts.

Revelation

10 I saw another mighty angel descending from heaven, clothed in a cloud, with a rainbow over his head. His face shone like the sun, and his legs were like pillars of fire. ² In his hand was a small scroll, lying open. He set his right foot on the sea and his left on the land. ³ He cried out with a loud voice, as a lion roars, and when he cried out, the voices of the seven thunders spoke. ⁴ When the seven thunders had spoken, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Seal up what the seven thunders have spoken and do not write it down." ⁵ Then the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted his right hand to heaven, ⁶ and swore by Him who lives for ever and ever, who created the heavens and everything in them, the earth and everything in it, and the sea and everything in it, that there would be no more delay, ⁷ but in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery of God will be completed, as He announced to His servants the prophets. ⁸ Then the voice I had heard from heaven spoke to me again, saying, "Go, take the scroll that is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land." ⁹ So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the small scroll. He said to me, "Take it and eat it; it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey." ¹⁰ I took the small scroll from the angel's hand and ate it. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach turned bitter. ¹¹ Then I was told, "You must prophesy again concerning many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

11 I was given a measuring rod like a staff and was instructed, "Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar, and those who worship there. ² But leave out the outer courtyard; do not measure it, for it has been handed over to the nations. They will trample the holy city for forty-two months. ³ And I will give authority to my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy for 1,260 days, dressed in sackcloth." ⁴ These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands positioned before the Lord of the earth. ⁵ If anyone attempts to harm them, fire proceeds from their mouths and consumes their enemies. Thus, anyone wishing to harm them must be killed in this manner. ⁶ They possess the power to shut the sky so that no rain falls during their prophesying; and they have authority over the waters to turn them into blood and to strike the earth with every plague as often as they choose. ⁷ When they have completed their testimony, the beast that ascends from the abyss will wage war against them, overpower them, and kill them. ⁸ Their corpses will lie in the street of the great city, which is spiritually called Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord was also crucified. ⁹ For three and a half days, people from every tribe, language, and nation will gaze upon their bodies and refuse them burial. ¹⁰ The inhabitants of the earth will rejoice over them and make merry, sending gifts to one another, because these two prophets had tormented those dwelling on the earth. ¹¹ After the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell upon those who saw them. ¹² Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." And they ascended to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies watched. ¹³ At that moment, there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city collapsed. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the survivors were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven. ¹⁴ The second woe is past; behold, the third woe is coming swiftly. ¹⁵ The seventh angel sounded his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, declaring,

"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Messiah, and He shall reign forever and ever."

¹⁶ And the twenty-four elders, seated on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshipped God, ¹⁷ They proclaimed,

"We give thanks to You, Lord God Almighty, the One who is and who was, because You have taken Your great power and have begun to reign. ¹⁸ The nations were enraged, and Your wrath has come. The time has arrived for judging the dead, and for rewarding Your servants the prophets and the saints, and those who fear Your name, both small and great, and for destroying those who destroy the earth."

¹⁹ Then the temple of God in heaven was opened, and the ark of His covenant was seen within His temple. There were flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake, and a great hailstorm.

Revelation

12 A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon beneath her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars. ² She was with child and cried out, being in labour and in pain to give birth. ³ Then another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, and on its heads were seven crowns. ⁴ Its tail swept away a third of the stars of heaven and cast them to the earth. The dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that it might devour her child as soon as it was born. ⁵ She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. Her child was caught up to God and to his throne. ⁶ The woman fled into the wilderness to a place prepared for her by God, where she would be nourished for 1,260 days. ⁷ And war broke out in heaven, Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back. ⁸ Yet they were not victorious, and their place in heaven was no more. ⁹ The great dragon was hurled down, that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who deceives the whole world. He was cast down to the earth, and his angels with him. ¹⁰ Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say:

"Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ, for the accuser of our brothers and sisters, who accuses them before our God day and night, has been cast down. ¹¹ They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives even unto death. ¹² Therefore rejoice, you heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has come down to you with great wrath, knowing that he has only a short time."

¹³ When the dragon saw that he had been cast down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. ¹⁴ The woman was given the two wings of a great eagle, so that she might fly to the place prepared for her in the wilderness, where she would be nourished for a time, times, and half a time, away from the serpent's presence. ¹⁵ Then the serpent spewed water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be swept away with the flood. ¹⁶ But the earth helped the woman by opening its mouth and swallowing the river which the dragon had spewed out of his mouth. ¹⁷ Then the dragon was enraged with the woman and went off to make war with the rest of her offspring, those who keep the commandments of God and hold fast their testimony about Jesus.

13 The dragon stood on the sands of the seashore. And I saw a beast rising out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, with ten crowns on its horns, and on its heads were blasphemous names. ² The beast I saw was like a leopard, with feet like those of a bear, and a mouth like that of a lion. The dragon bestowed upon it his power, his throne, and great authority. ³ One of its heads appeared as though it had been mortally wounded, yet its fatal wound was healed. The entire earth was filled with awe and followed the beast. ⁴ They worshipped the dragon for giving authority to the beast; and they also worshipped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast, and who can wage war against it?" ⁵ It was granted a mouth to speak arrogant words and blasphemies, and it was given authority to act for forty-two months. ⁶ It opened its mouth to blaspheme against God, to slander His name and His dwelling place, and those who dwell in heaven. ⁷ It was permitted to wage war against the saints and to overcome them, and it was given authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation. ⁸ All who dwell on the earth will worship it, all whose names have not been written in the Lamb's book of life, the Lamb who was slain from the foundation of the world. ⁹ If anyone has an ear, let them hear.

¹⁰ "If anyone is destined for captivity, into captivity they will go; if anyone kills with the sword, with the sword they must be killed."

This calls for the perseverance and faith of the saints. ¹¹ Then I saw another beast coming up from the earth; it had two horns like a lamb, but it spoke like a dragon. ¹² It exercised all the authority of the first beast on its behalf, and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. ¹³ It performed great signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to the earth in full view of the people. ¹⁴ Because of the signs it was given power to perform on behalf of the first beast, it deceived those who dwell on the earth. It instructed them to set up an image in honour of the beast who had the wound of the sword and yet lived.¹⁵ It was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed.¹⁶ It compelled all people, small and great, rich and poor, free and enslaved, to receive a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads,¹⁷ so that no one could buy or sell unless they had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of its name.¹⁸ Here is wisdom. Let the one who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. That number is 666.

Revelation

14 Then I looked, and behold, the Lamb was standing on Mount Zion, and with Him were 144,000 having His name and His Father's name inscribed on their foreheads.² And I heard a sound from heaven, like the roar of many waters and like the peal of loud thunder. The sound I heard was like harpists playing their harps.³ And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth.⁴ These are the ones who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are celibate. They follow the Lamb wherever He goes. They have been purchased from among mankind as firstfruits to God and to the Lamb.⁵ No falsehood was found in their mouths; they are without fault.⁶ Then I saw another angel flying in midheaven, having an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation, tribe, language, and people.⁷ And he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgement has come. Worship Him who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the springs of water."⁸ And another angel, a second one, followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the Great, she who made all the nations drink of the wine of the passion of her immorality."⁹ Then another angel, a third one, followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and its image, and receives a mark on their forehead or on their hand,¹⁰ they too will drink of the wine of God's wrath, which is poured full strength into the cup of His anger. They will be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb.¹¹ And the smoke of their torment ascends for ever and ever; they have no rest day or night, those who worship the beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark of its name."¹² Here is the endurance of the saints who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.¹³ And I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write: 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.'" "Yes," says the Spirit, "so that they may rest from their labours, for their deeds follow with them."¹⁴ Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was someone resembling a son of man, with a golden crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand.¹⁵ And another angel came out of the temple, calling with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, "Put in Your sickle and reap, for the time to reap has come, because the harvest of the earth is ripe."¹⁶ So He who sat on the cloud swung His sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped.¹⁷ And another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle.¹⁸ Then another angel, the one with authority over fire, emerged from the altar, and he called with a loud voice to the one who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Put in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters from the vine of the earth, because her grapes are ripe."¹⁹ So the angel swung his sickle to the earth and gathered the clusters from the vine of the earth, and threw them into the great winepress of God's wrath.²⁰ And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood flowed out from the winepress, up to the horses' bridles, for a distance of 1,600 stadia.

15 I saw another great and marvellous sign in heaven: seven angels with the seven last plagues, for with them God's wrath is completed.² And I saw something resembling a sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who had triumphed over the beast, its image, and the number of its name, standing on the sea of glass, holding harps given by God.³ And they sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

"Great and marvellous are your deeds, Lord God Almighty; just and true are your ways, King of the nations.⁴ Who will not fear you, Lord, and glorify your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship before you, for your righteous acts have been revealed."

⁵ After this I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of testimony in heaven was opened.⁶ The seven angels with the seven plagues came out of the temple, clothed in clean, bright linen, with golden sashes around their chests. ⁷ One of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls filled with the wrath of God, who lives for ever and ever. ⁸ The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

Revelation

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple, instructing the seven angels, "Go, pour out the seven bowls of God's wrath upon the earth." ² The first angel went and poured out his bowl upon the earth, and harmful, painful sores afflicted those who bore the mark of the beast and worshipped its image. ³ The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it turned into blood like that of a dead person, causing every living creature in the sea to perish. ⁴ The third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. ⁵ Then I heard the angel of the waters declare,

"Righteous are you, O Holy One, who is and who was, for you have passed these judgements; ⁶ because they shed the blood of saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink, as they deserve."

⁷ And I heard the altar affirm,

"Yes, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are your judgements."

⁸ The fourth angel poured out his bowl upon the sun, and it was granted the power to scorch people with fire. ⁹ They were scorched by the fierce heat, and they blasphemed the name of God, who holds power over these plagues, yet they did not repent to give him glory. ¹⁰ The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom was cast into darkness; people gnawed their tongues in agony ¹¹ and blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and sores, yet they did not repent of their deeds. ¹² The sixth angel poured out his bowl upon the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up to make ready the path for the kings from the east. ¹³ Then I saw three unclean spirits, resembling frogs, coming out of the mouth of the dragon, the beast, and the false prophet. ¹⁴ These are demonic spirits performing signs, going out to the kings of the whole world, to gather them for the battle on the great day of God Almighty. ¹⁵ "Behold, I come like a thief. Blessed is the one who stays awake and keeps his garments, so that he will not walk about naked and be shamefully exposed." ¹⁶ Then they assembled the kings at the place that in Hebrew is called Armageddon. ¹⁷ The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came from the temple, from the throne, declaring, "It is done!" ¹⁸ There came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, and a severe earthquake. No earthquake like it has ever occurred since mankind has been on earth, such was its magnitude. ¹⁹ The great city split into three parts, and the cities of the nations collapsed. Babylon the Great was remembered by God, who gave her the cup filled with the wine of his fierce wrath. ²⁰ Every island fled away, and no mountains were found. ²¹ Huge hailstones, each weighing about a talent, fell from the sky upon people. They blasphemed God because of the plague of hail, for it was exceedingly severe.

17 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke to me, saying, "Come, I will show you the judgement of the great prostitute who sits upon many waters, ² with whom the kings of the earth committed acts of immorality, and the inhabitants of the earth became intoxicated with the wine of her immorality." ³ Then he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness, and there I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast full of blasphemous names, with seven heads and ten horns. ⁴ The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls. She held a golden cup in her hand, filled with abominations and the filth of her immorality. ⁵ On her forehead a name was written, a mystery: "BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." ⁶ I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus. When I saw her, I was greatly amazed. ⁷ Then the angel said to me, "Why are you amazed? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. ⁸ The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to ascend from the abyss and go to destruction. The inhabitants of the earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will be amazed when they see the beast, because it was,

Revelation

and is not, and will come.⁹ This calls for a mind with wisdom. The seven heads are seven hills upon which the woman sits.¹⁰ They are also seven kings; five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; but when he does come, he must remain for a short time.¹¹ The beast which was, and is not, is also an eighth king, and belongs to the seven, and he goes to destruction.¹² The ten horns you saw represent ten kings who have not yet received their kingdoms, but they will be granted authority as kings alongside the beast for a brief period.¹³ These have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast.¹⁴ They will wage war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings; and with him will be his called, chosen, and faithful followers.”¹⁵ And he said to me, “The waters you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages.”¹⁶ The ten horns you saw, and the beast, will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.¹⁷ For God has put it into their hearts to carry out his purpose by having a common purpose and by giving their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled.¹⁸ The woman you saw is the great city that reigns over the kings of the earth.”

18 After this I saw another angel descending from heaven, possessing great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his glory.² He cried out with a powerful voice, saying,

“Fallen, fallen is Babylon the Great! She has become a dwelling for demons and a prison for every impure spirit, a prison for every unclean and detestable bird.”³ For all the nations have drunk the wine of the passion of her immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich from the excess of her luxury.”

⁴ Then I heard another voice from heaven, saying,

“Come out of her, my people, so that you will not partake in her sins and receive any of her plagues;⁵ for her sins have piled up to the heavens, and God has remembered her iniquity.⁶ Render to her as she has rendered; repay her double according to her deeds. In the cup she has mixed, mix for her a double portion.⁷ To the degree that she glorified herself and lived in luxury, give her torment and mourning in equal measure. For she says in her heart, ‘I sit as a queen, I am not a widow, and I will never see mourning.’⁸ Therefore, in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine. She will be consumed by fire, for mighty is the Lord God who judges her.

⁹ “And the kings of the earth, who committed acts of immorality and lived in luxury with her, will weep and mourn over her when they see the smoke of her burning,¹⁰ standing at a distance due to the fear of her torment, saying,

‘Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For in one hour your judgment has come.’

¹¹ “And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargo any more—¹² cargo of gold, silver, precious stones, and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet; every kind of citron wood, every article of ivory, and every article made from costly wood, bronze, iron, and marble;¹³ aromatic spices, perfumes, and incense; wine, olive oil, fine flour, and wheat; livestock and carriages, and people traded as slaves.¹⁴ They will say, ‘The fruit you longed for has departed from you. All your luxury and splendour have vanished, never to be found again.’¹⁵ The merchants who became rich from her will stand at a distance due to the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning,¹⁶ and saying,

‘Woe, woe, the great city, dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls;

¹⁷ for in one hour such great wealth has been laid waste!’ Every shipmaster, every passenger, sailor, and all who make their living by the sea will stand at a distance,¹⁸ and will cry out as they see the smoke of her burning, saying, ‘What city is like the great city?’¹⁹ They will throw dust on their heads and cry out, weeping and mourning, saying,

‘Woe, woe, the great city, where all who had ships at sea became rich from her wealth! For in one hour she has been laid waste!’²⁰ “Rejoice over her, O heavens, and you saints, apostles, and prophets, for God has pronounced judgment for you against her.”

²¹ Then a mighty angel picked up a stone like a large millstone and threw it into the sea, saying,

Revelation

"With such violence Babylon, the great city, will be thrown down, never to be found again. ²² The sound of harpists, musicians, flute players, and trumpeters will never be heard in you again. No craftsman of any trade will ever be found in you again. The sound of a millstone will never be heard in you again. ²³ The light of a lamp will never shine in you again. The voice of the bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again. Your merchants were the world's powerful people. By your sorcery all the nations were led astray. ²⁴ For within her was the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth."

19 After these events, I heard a voice like the roar of a vast multitude in heaven, proclaiming:

"Hallelujah! Salvation, glory, and power belong to our God, ² for His judgments are true and just. He has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality, and He has avenged the blood of His servants upon her."

³ And once more they said:

"Hallelujah! Her smoke rises for ever and ever."

⁴ The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God who sits on the throne, saying,

"Amen, Hallelujah!"

⁵ Then a voice came from the throne, saying:

"Praise our God, all you His servants, you who fear Him, both small and great!"

⁶ And I heard what seemed like the voice of a great multitude, like the sound of many waters and like mighty peals of thunder, saying:

"Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns. ⁷ Let us rejoice and be glad and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His bride has prepared herself." ⁸ She was given fine linen to wear, bright and clean. (For the fine linen represents the righteous acts of the saints.)

⁹ Then he said to me, "Write this: 'Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" And he added, "These are the true words of God." ¹⁰ Then I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Do not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers and sisters who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." ¹¹ I saw heaven opened, and there was a white horse. Its rider is called Faithful and True, and with righteousness He judges and makes war. ¹² His eyes are like flames of fire, and on His head are many crowns. He has a name written that no one knows but Himself. ¹³ He is clothed in a robe dipped in blood, and His name is the Word of God. ¹⁴ The heavenly armies, arrayed in fine linen, pure and bright, were following Him on white horses. ¹⁵ From His mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron. He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty. ¹⁶ On His robe and on His thigh is inscribed this title: King of Kings and Lord of Lords. ¹⁷ Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried out with a loud voice to all the birds flying in midair, "Come, gather together for the great feast of God, ¹⁸ so that you may eat the flesh of kings, commanders, and mighty men, the flesh of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, small and great." ¹⁹ And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies gathered to wage war against the rider on the horse and His army. ²⁰ But the beast was captured, and with it the false prophet who had performed the signs in its presence. By these signs, he had deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and worshipped its image. The two of them were thrown alive into the lake of fire burning with sulphur. ²¹ The rest were killed with the sword that came from the mouth of the rider on the horse, and all the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

20 I saw an angel descending from heaven, holding the key to the Abyss and a great chain in his hand. ² He captured the dragon, that ancient serpent, known as the devil and Satan, and restrained him for a thousand years. ³ He cast him into the Abyss, shut it, and sealed it over him, to prevent him from deceiving the nations any longer until the thousand years were fulfilled. After this, he must be released for a short period. ⁴ I saw thrones, and those seated on them were given authority to judge. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony of Jesus and the word of God, and those who had not worshipped the beast or its image nor received its mark on their foreheads or hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. ⁵ The remainder of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were fulfilled. This marks the first resurrection. ⁶ Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection. The second death has no authority over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with Him for a thousand years. ⁷ Once the thousand years have concluded, Satan will be released from his prison, ⁸ and will go out to deceive the nations in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle. Their number is like the sand on the seashore. ⁹ They marched across the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of God's people and the beloved city. But fire descended from heaven and consumed them. ¹⁰ The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet were also, and they will be tormented day and night for ever and ever. ¹¹ Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat upon it. From His presence, earth and heaven fled away, and no place was found for them. ¹² I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what was written in the books, according to their deeds. ¹³ The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and each person was judged according to their deeds. ¹⁴ Then Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This lake of fire represents the second death. ¹⁵ Anyone whose name was not found in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

Revelation

21 I observed a renewed heaven and a renewed earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. ² I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling place of God is now among the people, and He will dwell with them. They will be His people, and God Himself will be with them and be their God. ⁴ He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the former things have passed away." ⁵ He who was seated on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new!" Then He said, "Write this down, for these words are faithful and true." ⁶ He said to me, "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the one who is thirsty, I will give freely from the spring of the water of life. ⁷ The one who is victorious will inherit these things, and I will be their God and they will be My children. ⁸ But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the abominable, murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulphur. This is the second death." ⁹ Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." ¹⁰ And he took me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, where he showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, descending from heaven from God. ¹¹ It shone with the glory of God, and its radiance was like a very precious stone, like a jasper, clear as crystal. ¹² It had a great and high wall with twelve gates, and at the gates were twelve angels. On the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel. ¹³ There were three gates on each side: east, north, south, and west. ¹⁴ The city's wall had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. ¹⁵ The angel who spoke with me had a golden measuring rod to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. ¹⁶ The city was laid out as a square, its length equal to its width. He measured the city with the rod and found it to be twelve thousand stadia in length, and its length, width, and height were equal. ¹⁷ He measured its wall, and it was 144 cubits thick by human measurement, which is also angelic measurement. ¹⁸ The wall was made of jasper, and the city was of pure gold, like clear glass. ¹⁹ The foundations of the city walls were adorned with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, ²⁰ the fifth was made of onyx, the sixth of carnelian, the seventh of chrysolite, the eighth of beryl, the ninth of topaz, the tenth of chrysoprase, the eleventh of jacinth, and the twelfth of amethyst. ²¹ The twelve gates were twelve pearls, each gate made of a single pearl. The main street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass. ²² I did not find a temple in the city, because the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. ²³ The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God illuminates it, and the Lamb is its lamp. ²⁴ The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth shall bring their splendour into it. ²⁵ Its gates will always remain open during the day, for there will be no night there. ²⁶ The honour and splendour of the nations will be brought into it. ²⁷ Nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Revelation

22 The angel showed me the river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb, ² down the middle of the city's street. On either side of the river was the tree of life, bearing twelve varieties of fruit, yielding its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. ³ There will no longer be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and His servants will serve Him. ⁴ They will behold His face, and His name will be inscribed on their foreheads. ⁵ There will no longer be any night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will illuminate them. And they will reign for ever and ever. ⁶ The angel said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true. The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent His angel to show His servants the things that must soon take place." ⁷ "Behold, I am coming soon! Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book." ⁸ I, John, am the one who witnessed these things. And upon hearing and seeing them, I bowed down to worship at the feet of the angel who revealed them to me. ⁹ But he said to me, "Do not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!" ¹⁰ Then he said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, because the time is near. ¹¹ Let the one who does wrong continue to do wrong; let the vile person continue to be vile; let the one who is righteous continue to do right; and let the holy person continue to be holy." ¹² "Behold, I am coming soon, and My reward is with Me, to give to each person according to what they have done. ¹³ For I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End." ¹⁴ Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city through the gates. ¹⁵ Outside are those who engage in sorcery, immorality, murder, idolatry, and all who love and practice deceit. ¹⁶ "I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you of these things for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the bright Morning Star." ¹⁷ The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." And let the one who hears say, "Come." Let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who desires take the water of life freely. ¹⁸ I caution everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to that person the plagues described in this book. ¹⁹ And if anyone removes from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will remove that person's share in the tree of life and in the Holy City, which are described in this book. ²⁰ The one who bears witness to these things says, "Yes, I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus. ²¹ May the grace of the Lord Jesus be with all. Amen.